FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The statements in this report that are not based on historical facts are called "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements appear in a number of different places in this report and can be identified by words such as "estimates", "projects", "expects", "intends", "believes", "plans", or their negatives or other comparable words. Also look for discussions of strategy that involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding the outlook for our future operations, forecasts of future costs and expenditures, evaluation of market conditions, the outcome of legal proceedings, the adequacy of reserves, or other business plans. You are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees and may involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements due to risks facing us or due to actual facts differing from the assumptions underlying our predictions. Some of these risks and assumptions include:

- general economic and business conditions, including changes in interest rates;
- prices and other economic conditions;
- natural phenomena;
- actions by government authorities, including changes in government regulation;
- uncertainties associated with legal proceedings;
- technological development;
- future decisions by management in response to changing conditions;
- our ability to execute prospective business plans; and
- misjudgments in the course of preparing forward-looking statements.

We advise you that these cautionary remarks expressly qualify in their entirety all forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf.

We have restated our earnings per share data for the three months ended June 30, 2000 as a result of a change in the computation of earnings per share under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. See Note 3 to our consolidated financial statements for additional information with respect to the computation of earnings per share.

MFC is a financial services company that focuses on merchant banking. We provide specialized banking and corporate finance services internationally. We advise clients on corporate strategy and structure, including mergers and acquisitions and capital raising. These activities are principally conducted through our wholly-owned subsidiary, MFC Merchant Bank S.A., which is a licensed full-service Swiss bank based in Geneva, Switzerland. We also commit our own capital to promising enterprises and invest and trade to capture investment opportunities for our own account. We seek to invest in businesses or assets whose intrinsic value is not properly reflected in their share price or value. Our proprietary investing is generally not passive and we seek investments where our financial expertise and management can either add or unlock value. Our operations are primarily conducted in Europe and North America.

Our banking operations require substantially less regulatory capital than traditional North American banks as the majority of its customer deposits are placed in the European fiduciary market. Such placements are off-balance sheet items which allow us to generate fee income without tying up significant amounts of capital. This is in contrast to most North American banks, which generate revenue from the spread between the cost of funds and the credit received.

In May 2001, we opened a new office in Berlin, Germany.

We have established a foundation for our financial services business and look forward to continued growth during the remainder of 2001.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ M.J. Smith

MFC BANCORP LTD.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE SIX MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2001
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated financial statements contained herein include the accounts of MFC Bancorp Ltd. and its subsidiaries (the "Company").

The interim period consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of financial data is based on accounting principles and practices consistent with those used in the preparation of the most recent annual financial statements, except for the computation of earnings per share (see Note 3 below). Certain information and footnote disclosure normally included in consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted. These interim period statements should be read together with the audited consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes included in the Company's latest annual report on Form 20-F. In the opinion of the Company, its unaudited interim consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary in order to present a fair statement of the results of the interim periods presented.

Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior period financial statements to conform to the current period presentation.

NOTE 2. NATURE OF BUSINESS

The Company is in the financial services business and its principal activities focus on merchant banking.

NOTE 3. EARNINGS PER SHARE

The Company adopts the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants' Accounting Handbook Section 3500, "Earnings Per Share", which is applied for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2001. All prior earnings per share information presented is restated to conform with Accounting Handbook Section 3500.

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. The computation of diluted earnings per share assumes the conversion, exercise or contingent issuance of securities only when such conversion, exercise or issuance would have a dilutive effect on earnings per share. The dilutive effect of convertible securities is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the "if-converted" method. The dilutive effect of outstanding call options and warrants and their equivalents is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the treasury stock method.

Accordingly, as a result of the adoption of Accounting Handbook Section 3500, effective January 1, 2001 the computation of earnings per share under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles conforms in all material respects with the computation under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Prior to the adoption of Accounting Handbook Section 3500, the computation of fully diluted earnings per share considered the dilutive effect of outstanding call options and warrants and convertible securities as if they were either exercised or converted at the beginning of the period.

NOTE 4. REPORTING CURRENCY

The Company reports its results in Canadian dollars. Certain amounts herein have also been reported in U.S. dollars for reference purposes. Amounts reported in U.S. dollars have been translated from Canadian dollars at a rate of U.S. $1.00 = Canadian $1.5177 as at June 30, 2001, being the period-end exchange rate as required by Regulation S-X (the accounting regulation of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission).

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

IN THIS DOCUMENT, PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

- REFERENCES TO "WE", "OUR", "US" OR "MFC" MEAN MFC BANCORP LTD. AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES UNLESS THE CONTEXT OF THE SENTENCE CLEARLY SUGGESTS OTHERWISE;
- ALL REFERENCES TO MONETARY AMOUNTS ARE IN CANADIAN DOLLARS UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED; AND

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The following table is a summary of selected financial information concerning MFC for the periods indicated:

	U. S. DOLLARS		CANADIAN DOLLARS
	JUNE 30, 2001	DECEMBER 31, 2000	JUNE 30, 2001	DECEMBER 31, 2000

Shareholders' equity	151,180	142,070	229,446	213,134

We maintain a high level of liquidity, with a substantial amount of assets held in cash and cash equivalents, highly liquid marketable securities and customer loans collateralized by marketable securities. The highly liquid nature of these assets provides us with flexibility in managing our business and financing. This liquidity is used by us in client related services where we act as a financial intermediary for third parties and in our own proprietary investing activities.

At June 30, 2001, our cash and cash equivalents were $73.0 million, compared to $68.5 million at December 31, 2000. At June 30, 2001, we had securities of $86.7 million, compared to $80.4 million at December 31, 2000.

OPERATING ACTIVITIES

Operating activities provided cash of $37.1 million in the six months ended June 30, 2001, compared to $4.8 million in the comparable period of 2000. In the six months ended June 30, 2001, an increase in receivables used cash of $0.4 million, compared to $6.6 million in the comparable period of 2000. A decrease in amounts due from investment dealers as a result of the outsourcing of our private banking facilities provided cash of $13.0 million in the six months ended June 30, 2001, compared to $1.7 million in the comparable period of 2000. An increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses provided cash of $9.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2001, compared to a decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses using cash of $6.1 million in the comparable period of 2000. A net increase in securities used cash of $3.8 million in the current period, compared to a net decrease in securities providing cash of $1.6 million in the comparable period of 2000. We expect to generate sufficient cash flow from operations to meet our working capital requirements.

INVESTING ACTIVITIES

Investing activities in the six months ended June 30, 2001 provided cash of $31.8 million, compared to using cash of $10.0 million in the comparable period of 2000, primarily as a result of a net decrease of approximately $32.0 million in loans during the current period.

FINANCING ACTIVITIES

Financing activities used cash of $60.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2001, compared to providing cash of $6.2 million in the comparable period of 2000, primarily as a result of a net decrease of approximately $60.2 million in deposits for our customers' accounts during the current period primarily resulting from the outsourcing of our private banking operations. During the current period, net debt repayments used cash of approximately $6.6 million.

The devaluation of the Swiss franc relative to the Canadian dollar by approximately 8.8% over the current six-month period resulted in an unrealized foreign exchange translation loss of $3.9 million on cash and cash equivalents, which is included as shareholder's equity in our balance sheet and does not affect our net earnings.

We continue to explore potential acquisition opportunities as a means of expanding our business. Such opportunities may involve acquisitions which are material in size and may require the raising of additional capital.

FOREIGN CURRENCY

Substantially all of our operations are conducted in international markets and our consolidated financial results are subject to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, in particular, those in Switzerland.

We translate foreign assets and liabilities into Canadian dollars at the rate of exchange on the balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the period. Unrealized gains or losses from these translations are recorded as shareholders' equity on the balance sheet and do not affect our net earnings.

As a substantial amount of our revenues are received in Swiss francs, our financial position for any given period, when reported in Canadian dollars, can be significantly affected by the exchange rate for Swiss francs prevailing during that period. In addition, certain assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses are denominated in U.S. dollars. In the six months ended June 30, 2001, we reported approximately a net $7.6 million foreign exchange translation loss and, as a result, our cumulative foreign exchange translation loss at June 30, 2001 was $8.4 million, compared to $0.8 million at December 31, 2000.

Since both principal sources of revenues and expenses of our banking subsidiary are in Swiss francs, we use derivatives to manage our foreign exchange exposure with respect to Swiss francs only.

Based upon the period average exchange rate in the second quarter of 2001, the Canadian dollar increased by approximately 0.4% in value against the Swiss franc and decreased by approximately 4.0% in value against the U.S. dollar, compared to the second quarter of 2000.

The Company reports its results in Canadian dollars. Certain amounts herein have also been reported in U.S. dollars for reference purposes. Amounts reported in U.S. dollars have been translated from Canadian dollars at a rate of U.S.$1.00 = Canadian $1.5177 as at June 30, 2001, being the period-end exchange rate as required by Regulation S-X (the accounting regulation of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission).

CERTAIN FACTORS

Our results of operations may be materially affected by market fluctuations and economic factors. In addition, our results of operations have been and may continue to be affected by many factors of a global nature, including economic and market conditions, the availability of capital, the level and volatility of equity prices and interest rates, currency values and other market indices, technological changes, the availability of credit, inflation and legislative and regulatory developments. Our results of operations may also be materially affected by competitive factors. Competition includes firms traditionally engaged in financial services such as banks, broker-dealers and investment dealers, along with other sources such as insurance companies, mutual fund groups, on-line service providers and other companies offering financial services in Europe and globally.

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

Derivatives are financial instruments, the payments of which are linked to the prices, or relationships between prices, of securities or commodities, interest rates, currency exchange rates or other financial measures. Derivatives are designed to enable parties to manage their exposure to interest rates and currency exchange rates, and security and other price risks. We use derivatives to provide products and services to clients and to manage our foreign exchange exposure for our own account.

INFLATION

We do not believe that inflation has had a material impact on revenues or income during the second quarter of 2001. Because our assets to a large extent are liquid in nature, they are not significantly affected by inflation. However, increases in inflation could result in increases in our expenses, which may not be readily recoverable in the price of services provided to our clients. To the extent inflation results in rising interest rates and has other adverse effects on capital markets, it could adversely affect our financial position and profitability.
