MFC INDUSTRIAL COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF WESTERN EUROPEAN BANK AND
ANNOUNCES NAME CHANGE TO "MFC BANCORP LTD."

NEW YORK (February 1, 2016) . . . MFC Industrial Ltd. ("MFC" or the "Company") (NYSE: MIL) announces that it has completed the acquisition of BAWAG Malta Bank Ltd. (the "Bank"). The Company also announces that its board of directors has approved changing the Company's name to "MFC Bancorp Ltd." effective February 16, 2016.

Bank Acquisition

MFC acquired BAWAG Malta Bank Ltd., a Western European bank, from BA WAG P.S.K. Bank für Arbeit und Wirtschaft und Österreichische Postsparkasse Aktiengesellschaft for consideration of EUR 90.8 million, approximately equal to the net realizable value of the Bank upon completion. The Bank will be renamed "MFC Merchant Bank Ltd." to more accurately reflect its future operations. This acquisition will not have a material impact on MFC's liquidity.

MFC's corporate goal is to become a premier regulated trade finance institution, utilizing its supply chain platform as the foundation to offer banking, trade and structured finance and other complimentary services, and this acquisition is an important step toward that goal.

As part of the MFC Group, the Bank will not engage in retail banking, commercial banking or universal banking, but instead will provide specialty banking services, focused on structured and trade finance, to MFC's customers, suppliers, and group members, among others. These products will include:

- Bank guarantees, letters of credit, documentary bank guarantees/stand-by letters of credit, bills of exchange, bills of lading, promissory notes and forwarders' certificate of receipt facilities;
- With and without recourse factoring;
- Forfaiting;
- Discounting of bills of exchange and promissory notes.
- Purchase financing collateralized by the product;
- Inventory financing collateralized by inventory;
- Structured trade finance, including advisory services, in conjunction with export credit agencies; and
- Merchant banking products and services.

MFC Merchant Bank Ltd.'s customer deposits will mainly be comprised of small and medium sized corporate clients, who may also be trade and structured finance customers, as well as MFC Group companies and other related entities. In addition, we will integrate MFC's existing long-standing banking relationships with the Bank to support our corporate vision.

The back office is a significant burden to a bank because it is the major driver of operating expenditures. However, in order to maintain a variable cost structure, the Bank will outsource major back office services as well as internal functions such as technology, internal audit and payment services to third parties.

Name Change

The Company also announces that, in order to better reflect its focus on trade and structured finance, merchant banking and supply chain activities, its board of directors has approved the change of the Company's name back to "MFC Bancorp Ltd.", which will become effective on February 16, 2016.

The Company's common shares will commence trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the new symbol "MFCB" as of the open of trading on February 16, 2016.

Upon completion of the name change, the Company's new website address will be: www.mfcbancorpltd.com.

Gerardo Cortina, President and Chief Executive Officer of MFC, commented: "This acquisition is an important step toward executing our long-term strategy to leverage our trade finance and supply chain platform by offering additional complementary trade and structured finance products. The addition of an 'in-house' bank to our group enables us to provide our business partners regulated services and solutions which we believe will enhance our margin and revenue profile."

He concluded, "We are excited to welcome our new colleagues at the Bank to our group and look forward to working with them to enhance value for shareholders."

Disclaimer for Forward - Looking Information

This news release contains statements which are, or may be deemed to be, "forward - looking statements" which are prospective in nature, including, without limitation, statements regarding anticipated benefits of the Company's Bank acquisition, future business prospects and any statements regarding beliefs, plans, expectations or intentions regarding the future. Forward - looking statements are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward - looking statements. Often, but not always, forward - looking statements can be identified by the use of forward - looking words such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "projects", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "should", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. Such statements are qualified in their entirety by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations. Such forward - looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause our actual results, revenues, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward - looking statements. Important factors that could cause our actual results, revenues, performance or achievements to differ materially from our expectations include, among other things: (i) periodic fluctuations in financial results as a result of the nature of our business; (ii) economic and market conditions; (iii) competition in our business segments; (iv) our ability to integrate and realize the anticipated benefits of our acquisitions, including the acquisition of the Bank; (v) counterparty risks; and (vi) other factors beyond our control. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in light of such factors. Other than in accordance with its legal or regulatory obligations, the Company is not under any obligation and the Company expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward - looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Additional information about these and other assumptions, risks and uncertainties are set out in our Annual Report on Form 20 - F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and our Management's Discussion and Analysis for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, filed with the Canadian securities regulators.
