Esther Lee Appointed to Clorox Board

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 19, 2013 – The Clorox Company (NYSE: CLX) today announced the election of Esther Lee to its board of directors.

“Throughout her career, Esther has championed brand innovation and creative excellence as key drivers of shareholder value,” said Bob Matschullat, lead director. “As one of the top leaders in brand marketing and advertising, she brings tremendous expertise in global brand management and creative strategy to the Clorox board. Esther is an outstanding addition to our board.”

Esther Lee (54) serves as senior vice president – brand marketing, advertising and sponsorships for AT&T. Ms. Lee oversees all brand marketing, advertising creative and media strategy for AT&T, the world’s largest telecommunications company, as well as the integration of brand leadership into the company’s business strategies. Before joining AT&T in 2009, she served as chief executive officer – North America and president – global Brands for Euro RSCG Worldwide. In that position, she was responsible for managing the network’s 23 North American marketing and advertising services companies and 42 global brands. Previously, she served five years as global chief creative officer for The Coca-Cola Company where she drove creative strategy and development of fully-integrated campaigns for the company’s global brands.
