No Directors' fees are paid to Directors who are full-time employees of the Company or its subsidiary companies. Directors who are not employees of the Company receive $20,000 per year plus $1,500 for each Board or committee meeting that they attend. Committee chairs also receive an additional $1,000 per year. Directors may defer all or a portion of their fees pursuant to a deferred compensation plan.

During 1996, a Directors' Stock Option Plan was adopted which provides for the granting of stock options to directors who are not employees of the Company. The aggregate number of shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock which options may be granted shall not exceed 100,000 shares. Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons owning more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission's regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, the Company believes that during 1998 all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders were complied with by such persons, except that Bruce J. Miller, who became an officer of the Company in 1998, did not timely file a Form 3 for stock options granted under the Company's Incentive Stock Option Plan.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Robert C. Macauley, Naomi C. Dempsey, Daniel J. Gunsett and J Maurice Struchen served as members of the Company's Compensation Committee for the 1998 fiscal year. During fiscal year 1998, the Company retained the law firm of Baker & Hostetler LLP to perform legal services on its behalf, and it anticipates retaining such firm in 1999. Mr. Gunsett is a partner of Baker & Hostetler LLP.

No executive officer of the Company served during the 1998 fiscal year as a member of a Compensation Committee or as a director of any entity of which any of the Company's directors served as an executive officer.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation.

The following is the report of the Company's Compensation Committee, whose members are identified below, with respect to compensation reported for 1998 as reflected in the Summary Compensation Table set forth above.

Compensation Policy; Committee Responsibilities

The Company's compensation policy is to align compensation with business objectives and performance to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward individuals who contribute to the long-term success of the Company. The Company believes in a consistent policy for all individuals.

The Company realizes that to accomplish its objectives it needs to pay competitive compensation. The Compensation Committee reviews competitive positions in the market to periodically confirm the competitive nature of the compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's five highest paid individuals.

The Compensation Committee believes that a varying portion of compensation must be linked to the Company's performance. In that regard, the Company has implemented a discretionary bonus plan which links the payment of cash bonuses to the achievement of certain predetermined pretax income thresholds.

The Company believes that an alignment of shareholder value with employees' compensation is of utmost importance. The Company has addressed this concern by implementing an incentive stock option plan which is administered by the members of the Stock Option Committee.

The Compensation Committee's responsibilities include the following:

- Review the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's five highest paid individuals to ensure that their compensation is consistent with the above policy.
- Review the operation of the discretionary bonus plan.
- Review the grant of stock options.
- Recommend the action to resolve compensation, discretionary bonus and stock option issues to the full Board of Directors.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In December 1998, the Compensation Committee met to review the 1998 performance of Michael J. Gasser, the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. Consistent with the Company's compensation policies, Mr. Gasser's compensation package consists of three components, salary, cash bonus and stock options. In establishing the level of Mr. Gasser's 1999 salary, the Compensation Committee reviewed executive compensation survey materials and other available information on compensation of other similarly situated executives in order to establish an appropriate salary level. The Compensation Committee believes that a portion of Mr. Gasser's compensation package should be at-risk, and that this is accomplished through the grant of incentive stock options and the award of a cash bonus pursuant to the Company's incentive bonus plan. The Compensation Committee also attempts to establish a compensation package that appropriately balances risk and reward. Finally, the Compensation Committee attempts to establish a compensation package that is comprised of both a subjective component, such as the grant of incentive stock options, and an objective component, such as an award under the incentive bonus plan which is based upon the pretax income performance of the Company with threshold levels.

In evaluating the performance of Mr. Gasser with respect to each of the categories of his compensation, the Compensation Committee specifically discussed and recognized the following factors: his leadership, professionalism, integrity and competence; the Company enjoying its fourth highest net income in its history in fiscal year 1998 (second highest year for net income if the restructuring charge is added back); his guidance of the Company through two major business transactions favorable to the Company: acquisition of Sonoco Product Company's Industrial Container Division and establishment of a joint venture named CorrChoice Inc. with Ohio Packaging Corporation in the containerboard business, which are expected to contribute significantly to the profitability of the Company; and his demonstrated dedication and high performance in leadership, guidance and strategic planning for the Company, its Board of Directors and its executives. None of the factors were given specific relative weight.

Based upon its evaluation of the foregoing factors, and its review of executive compensation surveys and other relevant information, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Gasser's base salary to $490,000 for calendar year 1999 from $470,000 for calendar year 1998. In addition, the Compensation Committee determined that the Company had met the threshold for incentive bonuses for fiscal year 1998, and that Mr. Gasser qualified for an incentive bonus of 77.7% of the 100% level bonus of $235,000 for his position and recommended that he receive a bonus of $182,595.

In September 1998, incentive stock options were granted to Mr. Gasser and other employees at the then market price for Class A Common Stock. Mr. Gasser was granted options to purchase 25,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, which options were granted primarily as incentive for future performance. The basis for granting stock options to Mr. Gasser and other employees included leadership, vision for the future of the Company, guidance in unification of Company goals and assimilation and reorganization of Company acquisitions.
