Enesco plc (“Enesco” or the “Company”) held an Annual General Meeting of Shareholders in London, England on 24 May 2011 (the “2011 Annual General Meeting”). As previously described in the definitive proxy statement for the 2011 Annual General Meeting, upon shareholder approval of proposals 7, 8 and 9 as described therein, the Company prepared and entered into a deed of release in favor of all shareholders of record on the relevant record dates for the historic dividends (as defined therein) and the holders of Enesco American depositary shares representing such Class A ordinary shares on the record dates for such historic dividends and also prepared and entered into a deed of release in favor of all directors present at one or more of the board meetings at which it was resolved to declare and pay the historic dividends to waive and absolutely release any and all claims, actions, rights, demands or causes of action, and any other actual or potential liability and obligation, whether under the U.K. Companies Act 2006 or otherwise, whether or not presently known to Enesco or to the law, whether in England or any other jurisdiction, and whether in law or in equity, arising out of or in any way in connection with the declaration and/or payment by the Company of the historic dividends.

The foregoing descriptions of the deeds of release do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the deeds of release, copies of which were filed as Annex A and B, respectively, to the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on 5 April 2011 (SEC File No. 001-08097), and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

In connection with the proposed merger (the “Merger”) under which Pride International, Inc. (“Pride”) will become an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Enesco pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of 6 February 2011 (as amended, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Enesco, Pride and certain subsidiaries of Enesco, and in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors of Enesco (the “Board”) has appointed two directors of Pride, David A.B. Brown and Francis S. Kalman, as members of the Board, effective and contingent upon the completion of the Merger, which is expected to occur on 31 May 2011.

The Board appointed Mr. Kalman as a Class II director to serve until the date of the Enesco 2013 annual general meeting and Mr. Brown as a Class III director to serve until the date of the Enesco 2014 annual general meeting, subject to re-election for the remaining portions of their terms at the Enesco 2012 annual general meeting, or until their earlier resignation or removal.

In connection the appointment of new directors, the total number of directors on the Board was increased to ten directors from eight pursuant to the terms of the Articles of Association of Enesco effective and contingent upon the completion of the Merger.

Following is a brief biography of each director appointed to the Board in connection with the Merger:

David A. B. Brown has served as a Chairman of the Board of Directors of Pride since May 2005. He became a director of Pride in September 2001 in connection with Pride’s acquisition of Marine Drilling Companies, Inc. Mr. Brown was a director of Marine from June 1995 until September 2001. Mr. Brown is currently Chairman of the Board of Layne Christensen Company. Mr. Brown served as President of The Windsor Group, Inc., a strategy consulting firm, from 1984 until 2005. Mr. Brown was Chairman of the Board of the Comstock Group, Inc. from 1988 to 1990. Mr. Brown is also a director of EMCOR Group, Inc. Mr. Brown served as a director of NS Group, Inc. from 2001 to 2006 and of Petrohawk Energy Corporation from 2006 to 2007.

Francis S. Kalman became a director of Pride in October 2005. Mr. Kalman served as Executive Vice President of McDermott International, Inc. from February 2002 until his retirement in February 2008 and as Chief Financial Officer from February 2002 until April 2007. From March 2000 to February 2002, he was Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Vector ESP, Inc. From April 1999 to March 2000, he was a principal of Pinnacle Equity Partners, LLC. From February 1998 to April 1999, he was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Chemical Logistics Corporation. From May 1996 to September 1997, he was Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Keystone International, Inc. Mr. Kalman currently serves as a senior advisor to a private investment subsidiary of Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co., LLC, which specializes in direct investments in upstream, oilfield service and midstream companies. Mr. Kalman is a principal of Ancora Partners, LLC, a private equity group.

The appointed directors will be compensated for their services on the Board in the same manner as the other non-employee directors. On 24 May 2011, the Board revised the director compensation policy as follows. Each non-employee director will receive an annual retainer of $90,000. Additionally, a supplemental annual retainer of $20,000 will be paid to the non-employee Lead Director and a $15,000 per year retainer will be paid to each non-employee director that serves as chair of any duly established Board committee.

Following each annual general meeting of shareholders, each non-employee director will receive an annual equity award composed of $230,000 worth of restricted share units (based on the closing price of the Company's shares on the date of grant and rounded to the nearest number of shares divisible by three). The restricted share units will vest ratably at the rate of one-third per year over a three year period. Restricted share unit awards will fully vest in the event a non-employee director retires "with the consent of the Board." The Board has previously determined that a non-employee director will be deemed to have retired from the Board for purposes of restricted share unit award vesting after having served at least five years on the Board as a non-employee director. Non-employee directors are eligible to participate in U.S. group health and welfare insurance plans on the same basis and cost as full-time U.S. employees. A non-employee director's contribution to group health and welfare insurance premium costs is paid in cash or withheld from the quarterly payments of the director's annual retainer. Directors who are also employees do not receive any additional compensation for their services as directors.

In connection with the Merger, EnSCO will assume outstanding options to acquire shares of Pride common stock that are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, including those held by non-employee directors of Pride, which options following the Merger will be converted into the right to acquire EnSCO American Depositary Shares (ADS), each whole ADS representing one Class A Ordinary Share, $0.10 par value, at the equity compensation exchange ratio to be determined pursuant to the Merger Agreement. EnSCO will assume the Pride International, Inc. 2007 Long-Term Incentive Plan, the Pride International, Inc. 1998 Long-Term Incentive Plan, the Pride International, Inc. 2004 Directors' Stock Incentive Plan and the Pride International, Inc. 1993 Directors' Stock Option Plan (collectively, as amended, the "Pride Stock Plans"). All of the Pride Stock Plans were previously filed by Pride with the SEC and are incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference. In connection with the closing of the Merger, each of the Pride Stock Plans will be amended to provide for the delivery of EnSCO ADSs upon exercise of the outstanding stock options with adjustments made to the number of EnSCO ADSs deliverable and the exercise price based on the equity compensation exchange ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement.

EnSCO will also enter into its standard Deed of Indemnity for directors with each of Messrs. Brown and Kalman. The form of a Deed of Indemnity to be entered into with each director was previously filed with the SEC as Exhibit 10.13 to EnSCO's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 23, 2009 (File No. 1-8097) and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
