INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 30, 2009, in connection with the proposed relocation of the headquarters of ENSCO International Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to the United Kingdom, the Executive Compensation Subcommittee of the Nominating, Governance and Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company, after consulting with Pearl Meyer & Partners, a leading executive compensation consulting firm, approved relocation benefits for those executive officers who will relocate to the new corporate headquarters in the United Kingdom, including Messrs. Daniel W. Rabun, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), James W. Swent III, Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer, and H. E. Malone, Jr., Vice President - ENSCO Offshore International Company. In the case of Mr. Rabun, the CEO, such benefits were approved by the Executive Compensation Subcommittee, following the consultation with, and concurrence by, the Company's independent directors in accordance with the provisions of the Committee Charter. The relocation packages include the following:

- a foreign service premium equal to 15% of the executive's base salary;
- a cost of living allowance equal to a percentage of the executive's base salary: (a) 15.25% for the CEO, (b) 15.65% for senior vice presidents and (c) 16.45% for vice presidents and senior managers;
- a lump sum relocation allowance equal to one month's base salary plus $10,000 (not to exceed $80,000 in the aggregate) and standard outbound services, including "house hunting" trips, tax preparation services, home sales assistance, shipment of personal effects and other relocation costs;
- a monthly housing allowance of up to (a) $27,917 for the CEO, (b) $20,833 for senior vice presidents and (c) $14,333 for vice presidents and senior managers;
- a monthly transportation allowance of up to $2,500;
- an annual home leave allowance including air fare for the employee, spouse and eligible dependents;
- eligible dependents' schooling assistance; and
- an additional benefit designed to equalize the home country income tax paid by the expatriate so that his or her total home country income tax costs will be no more or less than an amount that would have been incurred had the expatriate not accepted the expatriate assignment and remained in the home country in the same capacity.

Relocation benefits are customary for expatriate assignments in the Company's industry. The relocation packages approved on November 30, 2009 are intended to approximate the relocation benefits received by industry counterparts and will be subject to periodic review by the Committee.
