Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 3, 2007, Maxwell Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the promotion of George Kreigler III to the position of Senior Vice President, operations, with global responsibility for production of BOOSTCAP[®] ultracapacitor products. A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.

Mr. Kreigler, 53, joined Maxwell as vice president, operations, in May 2006. He has more than 30 years of high technology operations management experience, including supervising multiple large-scale offshore manufacturing facilities. Before joining Maxwell, he spent eight years with Quantum Corporation, most recently as corporate senior vice president and general manager of Quantum Storage Systems.

On April 2, 2007, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Kreigler (the “Employment Agreement”). The Employment Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Kreigler shall be paid a base salary at an initial annual rate of $255,000 and a bonus determined by the Board of Directors (the “Board”). The Board will set specific financial performance targets and the amount of Mr. Kreigler’s bonus will range from zero dollars ($0) to a maximum amount equal to 50% of his annual base salary as in effect for such fiscal year (with a target bonus of 50% of the then effective base salary).

Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, should the Company terminate Mr. Kreigler without “Cause” (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he will be entitled to a cash payment, to be paid in equal monthly installments, equal to one-half of Mr. Kreigler’s base salary in effect on the date of such termination, and will be provided with an additional six (6) months of vesting with respect to any stock options and restricted stock grants then held by him.

Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, if a “Triggering Event” (as defined in the Employment Agreement) occurs any time prior to the third (3rd) anniversary of a “Change of Control” (as defined in the Employment Agreement), and Mr. Kreigler terminates his employment within thirty (30) days of such Triggering Event, then Mr. Kreigler shall be entitled to the following:

- two (2) cash payments, each to be equal to one-half (1/2) of Mr. Kreigler’s annual base salary in effect on the date of the Triggering Event, with the first of such payments to be paid within thirty (30) days of such Triggering Event, and the second payment to be made on the six (6) month anniversary of the Triggering Event, subject to applicable withholding.
- full vesting of all stock options and restricted stock then held by Mr. Kreigler.
- benefits, substantially identical to those which Mr. Kreigler was entitled immediately prior to the Triggering Event, for the six (6) months following the Triggering Event.

The foregoing summary of the Employment Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual Employment Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. Any information disclosed in this Current Report on Form 8-K or the exhibits hereto shall not be construed as an admission that such information is material.

EXHIBIT INDEX

Exhibit No.	Description
10.1	Employment Agreement dated April 2, 2007.
99.1	Press Release issued by Maxwell Technologies, Inc. on April 3, 2007.

MAXWELL TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is made as of this 2nd day of April 2007, by and between MAXWELL TECHNOLOGIES, INC. a Delaware corporation, ("Company") and George Kreigler, SVP, Maxwell Technologies, Inc. ("Executive"). The parties agree with each other as follows:

1. Term of Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees to employ Executive, and Executive agrees to be employed by the Company, for the period commencing on the date of this Agreement and ending on the first to occur of (i) the date on which Executive first qualifies for or elects to receive retirement benefits in accordance with the Company's normal retirement policies and (ii) the date on which this Agreement is terminated by either the Company or Executive pursuant to any subsection of Section 4 hereof.

2. Duties of Executive.

(a) Executive shall serve as the Senior Vice President, Maxwell Technologies, Inc. with the responsibility for World Wide Boostcap Operations of the Company. In such capacities, Executive shall report to the CEO of the Company and Executive shall perform the duties and render the services for and on behalf of the Company associated with the positions he shall hold and as may be set forth from time to time in resolutions of, or other directives issued by, the CEO

(b) Executive agrees to perform such duties and render such services to the best of his ability, devoting thereto his entire professional time, attention and energy exclusively to the business and affairs of the Company and its affiliates, as its business and affairs now exist and as they hereafter may be changed, and shall not during the term of his employment hereunder be engaged in any other business activity, whether or not such business activity is pursued for gain or profit; provided, however, that Executive may serve (i) on civic or charitable boards or committees and (ii) with the prior written approval of the Board, boards of corporations or business enterprises, in each case so long as such activities do not interfere with the performance of Executive's obligations under this Agreement.

3. Compensation of Executive. As compensation for the services to be performed under this Agreement:

(a) Base Salary. Effective as of the date of this Agreement, Executive shall be paid a base salary at the initial annual rate of $255,000, payable in installments consistent with the Company's payroll practices, and subject to normal withholding. Executive's base salary shall be reviewed annually prior to each anniversary of this Agreement by the Board or its Compensation Committee and if the Board or Committee determines, in its discretion, that Executive's base salary is to be increased, such increase shall be effective as of such anniversary date.

(b) Annual Bonus. Executive shall be entitled to an annual bonus which shall be determined as provided in this subsection (b):

(i) The Board will set specific financial performance targets and the amount of Executive's bonus will range $0 to a maximum amount equal to 50% of Executive's annual base salary as in effect for such fiscal year (with a target bonus of 50% of the then effective base salary) depending on the CEO's determination of Executive's success in achieving the specified targets. The financial performance targets for fiscal year 2007 will be established as part of the Company's annual financial plan.

(ii) The bonus payable to Executive for each fiscal year, if any is due, shall be paid to Executive, subject to normal withholding, promptly after the completion of the audit of the Company's financial statements for such fiscal year.

(c) Options and Restricted Stock. Executive is eligible for, and has received, the grant of restricted stock under the Company's equity incentive plans. The Board or its Compensation Committee will from time to time consider making additional grants to Executive, but the Company shall not be obligated to make any particular grant or grants thereof.

(d) Benefits. Executive shall be entitled to participate in the Company's insurance, health, life insurance, long term disability, dental and medical, and automobile programs as the same may exist from time to time on the terms and conditions applicable to other senior officers of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the Company from terminating or amending any employee benefit plan or program from time to time. The Company will reimburse Executive for the reasonable cost of an annual physical examination, if Executive elects to have the same. If the Executive waives his benefits due to coverage through other means, the Company will pay the Executive an additional sum roughly equal to the cost savings to the Company.

(e) Vacation. Executive shall be entitled to vacation according to the prevailing rules in effect during this employment contract. Such vacation shall be taken at such times as the Company and Executive shall mutually agree, acting reasonably, having regard to the performance of Executive's essential duties to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Executive may accumulate unused vacation time from year to year to the extent permitted under the Company's vacation policy for executives as in effect from time to time.

(f) Expenses. Executive shall be reimbursed for all travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred by him in connection with the performance of his duties hereunder, subject the Company's expense reimbursement policies as in effect from time to time and to the receipt by the Company of receipts and statements in a form reasonably satisfactory to it.

4. Termination.

(a) Termination by the Company for Cause. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the Company may terminate immediately the employment of Executive without notice and without pay in lieu of notice:

(i) if Executive commits an act of theft, fraud or material dishonesty or misconduct involving the property or affairs of the Company or the carrying out of Executive's duties; or

(ii) if Executive commits a material breach or material non-observance of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement provided that Executive is given written notice of any such breach or non-observance and fails to remedy the same within 15 days of receipt of such notice; or

(iii) if Executive is convicted of a felony; or

(iv) if Executive refuses or fails to implement any reasonable directive issued by the Company's Board of Directors and Executive fails to remedy the refusal or failure within 15 days of receipt of written notice thereof; or

(v) if Executive or any member of his family makes any personal profit arising out of or in connection with a transaction to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or with which it is associated without making disclosure to and obtaining prior written consent of the Company.

Upon the termination of Executive's employment pursuant to this Subsection (a), this Agreement and the employment of Executive hereunder shall be wholly terminated. Upon any such termination, Executive shall have no claim against the Company in respect of his employment for damages or otherwise except in respect of payment of base salary earned, due and owing and unused vacation time to the date of termination.

(b) Termination by the Company Without Cause. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may terminate Executive's employment hereunder at any time, for any reason or no reason, on not less than 30 days' prior written notice. In the event of termination pursuant to this Subsection (b), Executive will be paid an amount equal to one half of Executive's annual base salary in effect on the date of such termination of employment. Such amount will be paid in equal monthly installments following the date of termination of employment.

In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the applicable stock option agreements or restricted stock grants, all of the stock options and restricted stock grants then held by Executive shall continue to vest in accordance with their terms until the six month anniversary of the date the Company terminates Executive's employment under this subsection (b) and shall be exercisable to the extent so vested by Executive on or prior to the 60th day following such anniversary date of termination.

(c) Termination by Executive. Executive may terminate his employment hereunder at any time, for any reason, upon the giving of not less than 15 days' prior written notice to the CEO. In the event of termination by Executive under this clause (c), Executive shall be entitled to receive only his base salary and unused vacation time due him through the effective date of termination. Upon the termination of Executive's employment pursuant to this Subsection (c), this Agreement and the employment of Executive hereunder shall be wholly terminated. Upon any such termination, Executive shall have no claim against the Company in respect of his employment for damages or otherwise except in respect of payment of base salary earned, due and owing and unused vacation time to the date of termination.

(d) Termination by the Company Due to Death or Disability. The employment of Executive shall, at the option of the Company, terminate immediately in the event of his death or permanent disability, in which case notice in writing from the Company shall be sent to Executive or his legal representative. In the event of termination under this clause (d), in addition to any disability benefit coverage to which he may be entitled under any disability insurance programs maintained by the Company in which he is a participant, Executive will be paid an amount equal to six months salary at Executive's annual base salary rate as in effect on the date of the termination under this clause (d). Except as provided in the preceding sentence, Executive shall be entitled to no additional compensation under this Agreement following the date of termination under this clause (d), other than base salary earned but not paid, and unused vacation time accrued, through the date of termination. For purposes of this Agreement "permanent disability" shall mean an illness, disease, mental or physical disability or other causes beyond Executive's control which makes Executive incapable of discharging his duties or obligations hereunder, or causes Executive to fail in the performance of his duties hereunder, for six consecutive months, as determined in good faith by the Board based on a report of a physician selected in good faith by the CEO.

(e) Termination by Executive Upon a Change of Control. In the event that (x) a Change of Control (as hereinafter defined) occurs and (y) at any time prior to the third anniversary of such Change of Control a Triggering Event (as hereinafter defined) shall occur, then unless the Executive shall have given his express written consent to the contrary, Executive may, upon 30 days written notice to the Company, terminate his employment hereunder. In such event Executive shall be entitled to the following:

(i) Following the date of the Triggering Event, Executive shall be paid two cash payments, each to be equal to one half of the Executive's annual base salary in effect on the date of the Triggering Event, with the first of such payment to be paid within 30 days of the Triggering Event and the second of such payments to be paid on the six month anniversary of the date of the Triggering Event, in each case subject to normal withholding.

(ii) As of the date of the Triggering Event, notwithstanding the vesting schedule of any stock options or restricted stock grants then held by Executive, all stock options and restricted stock grants then held by Executive shall thereupon become fully vested; and

(iii) For a six months period following the date of the Triggering Event, Executive shall be provided with employee benefits substantially identical to those to which Executive was entitled immediately prior to the Triggering Event, subject to any changes or modifications (including reductions or terminations) to the Company's employee benefit and welfare plans that are made generally for all of the Company's senior executives.

In the event that the benefits provided for in this Subsection 4(e) to be paid Executive constitute "parachute payments" within the meaning of section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and will be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then Executive shall receive (a) a payment from the Company sufficient to pay such excise tax and (b) an additional payment from the Company sufficient to pay the Federal and California income tax arising from the payment made under clause (a) of this sentence. Unless the Company and Executive otherwise agree, the determination of Executive's excise tax liability and the Federal and California income tax resulting from the payment under clause (a) above shall be made by the Company's independent accountants (the "Accountants"), whose determination shall be conclusive and binding upon the Company and Executive for all purposes. For purposes of making the calculations required by this Subsection 4(e), the Accountants may make reasonable assumptions and approximations concerning applicable taxes and may rely on interpretations of the Code for which there is a "substantial authority" tax reporting position. The Company and Executive shall furnish to the Accountants such information and documents as the Accountants may reasonably request in order to make the determinations required by this Subsection 4(e). The Company shall bear the expenses of the Accountants under this Subsection 4(e).

For purposes of this Subsection 4(e):

(a) "Change of Control" means the occurrence of any one of the following: (i) any transaction or series of transactions (as a result of a tender offer, merger, consolidation or otherwise) that results in any person, entity or group acting in concert, acquiring "beneficial ownership" (as defined in rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), directly or indirectly, of such percentage of the aggregate voting power of all classes of common equity stock of the Company as shall exceed 50% of such aggregate voting power; or (ii) a merger or consolidation of the Company, other than a merger or consolidation which would result in the voting securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior thereto continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) at least 50% of the voting power represented by the voting securities of the Company or such entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation; or (iii) the shareholders approve a plan of complete liquidation of the Company or an agreement for the sale or disposition by the Company of all, or substantially all, of the Company's assets (other than in connection with a sale or disposition to subsidiaries of the Company or in connection with a reorganization or restructuring of the Company); or (iv) there occurs a change in the composition of the Board as a result of which fewer than a majority of the directors are Incumbent Directors (as hereinafter defined). "Incumbent Directors" shall mean directors who either (A) are directors of the Company as of the Commencement

Date or (B) are elected, or nominated for election, to the Board with the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the Incumbent Directors casting votes at the time of such election or nomination.

(b) “Triggering Event” means any of the following: (i) the termination by the Company without Cause of Executive’s employment pursuant to Subsection 4(b) hereof; (2) the reduction of Executive’s annual base salary or annual incentive bonus formula from that in effect on the date of the Change of Control; (3) the removal of Executive as the Company’s Senior Vice President or a reduction in his duties and responsibilities; or (4) the relocation of Executive’s principal place of employment to a location outside San Diego County, California.

(f) Payments. Any amounts payable to Executive under this Section 4 shall be paid, unless otherwise specified hereunder, within 30 days of the date the payment obligation accrues and shall be subject to normal withholding.

(g) Exclusive Rights. In connection with any termination under Subsection 4(b) or 4(e), Executive shall have no claim against the Company in respect of his employment for damages or otherwise except in respect of the payments and other provisions specified in such Subsections.

(h) Cooperation. Upon any termination of employment by the Company or by Executive hereunder, Executive shall cooperate with the Company, as reasonably requested by the Company, to effect a transition of Executive’s responsibilities and to ensure that the Company is aware of all matters being handled by Executive.

5. Resolution of Disputes. The parties recognize that claims, controversies and disputes may arise out of this Agreement with respect to Executive’s employment, termination of employment, or other terms of this Agreement or based on common law or statute, either during the existence of the employment relationship or afterwards. The parties agree that should any such claim, controversy or dispute arise, the parties will use their best efforts to resolve such dispute informally, between them. In the event that any such claim, controversy or dispute between Company and Executive cannot be resolved within thirty (30) days after either party first gives notice in writing that any such claim, controversy or dispute exists, either party may then refer the matter to arbitration before JAMS/ENDISPUTE pursuant to its rules for resolution of employment disputes.

The parties hereby agree that referral to arbitration shall be the sole recourse of either party under this Agreement with respect to any such claim, controversy or dispute and that the decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the parties in accordance with applicable law; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5 shall be construed as precluding either party from bringing an action for injunctive relief or other equitable relief. The parties shall keep confidential the existence of each such the claim, controversy or dispute from third parties (other than arbitrator), and the determination thereof, unless otherwise required by law. Except as provided in the following sentence, such decision rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof as a basis of judgment and of the issuance of execution for its collection. In rendering his or her decision, the arbitrator shall be bound to follow California or Federal law, as applicable, in the same manner as would a court of law. Any claim that the arbitrator made a mistake or error in determining or applying the appropriate law shall be subject to judicial review.

The parties further agree that the party prevailing in the arbitration shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and that the arbitration itself shall take place within the County of San Diego, California, and that the internal laws of the State of California shall apply.

6. General Obligations of Executive.

(a) Executive agrees and acknowledges that he owes a duty of loyalty, fidelity and allegiance to act at all times in the best interests of the Company, to not knowingly become involved in a conflict of interest and to not knowingly do any act or knowingly make any statement, oral or written, which would injure the Company's business, its interest or its reputation unless required to do so in any legal proceeding by a competent court with proper jurisdiction.

(b) Executive agrees to comply at all times with all applicable policies, rules and regulations of the Company, including, without limitation, the Company's policy regarding trading in the Common Stock, as is in effect from time to time.

7. No Solicitation. Executive agrees that in the event he is no longer employed by the Company, for any reason, he shall not hire, solicit or otherwise cause to be solicited for employment elsewhere, either directly or indirectly, for a period of one year from his termination of employment, any employee, officer or director of the Company or any individual who chooses not to join the Company, provided that Executive participated actively in the recruiting of such individual.

8. Non-competition. Executive agrees that for a period of one year following termination of his employment with the Company for any reason, he will not, nor will he permit any entity or other person under his control to, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate or control, or participate in the ownership, management, operation or control of, or be connected with or have any interest in, as a shareholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant, partner, creditor or otherwise, any business or activity which is competitive with any business or activity engaged in by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates anywhere within (i) the State of California, or (ii) any other state of the United States and the District of Columbia in which the Company engages in or has engaged in business during the past five years.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties and contains all agreements between them with the exception of the 2005 Omnibus Plan (and any stock option agreements and restricted stock grants issued thereunder) the other employee benefit and welfare programs maintained by the Company, and the Invention and Secrecy Agreement dated the date of this Agreement signed by Executive, which are supplementary to this Agreement and are each deemed to be incorporated herein by reference. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that no representations, inducements, promises or agreements, orally or otherwise, have been made by any party, or anyone acting on behalf of any party, which are not embodied in this Agreement, and that no agreement, statement or promise not contained in this Agreement shall be valid or binding. Except for the other agreements, plans and programs referred to in this Section 9, this Agreement also supersedes any and all other agreements and contracts whether verbal or in writing relating to the subject matter hereof.

10. Amendment . Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement may be amended at any time by mutual agreement of the parties; provided that before any amendment shall be valid or effective, it shall have been reduced to writing and signed by the CEO on behalf of the Company and by Executive.

11. Invalidity . The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect its other provisions, and this contract shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provision has been omitted.

12. Binding Nature . Executive's rights and obligations under this Agreement shall not be assignable, transferable or delegable by assignment or otherwise, and any purported assignment, transfer or delegation thereof shall be void. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, any purchaser of substantially all of the Company's assets, any corporate successor to the Company or any assignee thereof.

13. Assistance in Litigation . Executive shall, during and after termination of employment, upon reasonable notice, furnish such information and proper assistance to the Company as may reasonably be required by the Company in connection with any litigation in which it or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates is, or may become a party. Except where Executive is a named defendant, Executive shall be paid a reasonable hourly fee to be mutually agreed upon.

14. Indemnification . The Company shall indemnify Executive in accordance with its standard indemnification policy for officers and directors of the Company and as required by applicable law.

15. No Duty to Mitigate . Executive shall not be required to mitigate the amount of any payment contemplated by this Agreement (whether by seeking new employment or in any other manner), nor shall any such payment be reduced by any earnings that Executive may receive from any other source not paid for by the Company.

16. Choice of Law . The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California except for Sections 7 and 8 hereof which shall be governed by, and interpreted and construed in accordance with, the internal laws (without giving effect to choice of law principles) of the jurisdiction in which either of said Sections is being sought to be enforced.

17. Notices . All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder or necessary or convenient in connection herewith shall be in writing and, if given by telegram, telecopy or telex, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered when sent, if given by personal delivery, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered upon actual delivery and, if mailed, shall be deemed to have been validly served, given or delivered three business days after deposit in the United States mail, as registered or certified mail, with proper postage prepaid and addressed to the party or parties to be notified, at the following addresses:

18. Injunctive Relief. The Company and Executive agree that a breach of any term of this Agreement by Executive would cause irreparable damage to the Company and that, in the event of such breach, the Company shall have, in addition to any and all remedies of law, the right to any injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent or to redress the violation of Executive's duties or responsibilities hereunder.

19. Release. If Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate under Subsection 4 (b) or 4(e), Executive agrees, as a condition to his entitlement to receive the amounts specified in such Subsections to be due to him, to execute and deliver to the Company a release in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Such release shall be delivered by Executive at the time of termination, but shall become effective only after Executive has received all payments specified in this Agreement to be due to him from the Company in respect of his termination.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument and either of the parties to this Agreement may execute this Agreement by signing any such counterpart.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the 2nd day of April, 2007.

MAXWELL TECHNOLOGIES PROMOTES GEORGE KREIGLER TO SENIOR VP

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Maxwell Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: MXWL) announced today that George Kreigler III has been promoted to the position of senior vice president, operations, with global responsibility for production of BOOSTCAP[®] ultracapacitor products.

Kreigler, 53, joined Maxwell as vice president, operations, in May 2006. He has more than 30 years of high technology operations management experience, including supervising multiple large-scale offshore manufacturing facilities. Dr. Richard Balanson, Maxwell's president and chief executive officer, said that the promotion reflects Kreigler's increased responsibilities for overseeing the company's offshore manufacturing relationships in China.

"George and his team have done a tremendous job of refining and documenting our manufacturing processes and working with our licensee and our contract manufacturing partner in China to design and outfit two new, highly efficient, ultracapacitor assembly plants and train their engineering and production personnel, all in less than a year," Balanson said. "Maxwell is now well-positioned to ramp production to meet the rapidly growing demand for ultracapacitor products that we anticipate over the next few years."

Maxwell Technologies is a leading developer and manufacturer of innovative, cost-effective energy storage and power delivery solutions. Our BOOSTCAP[®] ultracapacitor cells and multi-cell modules provide safe and reliable power solutions for applications in consumer and industrial electronics, transportation and telecommunications. Our CONDIS[®] high-voltage grading and coupling capacitors help to ensure the safety and reliability of electric utility infrastructure and other applications involving transport, distribution and measurement of high-voltage electrical energy. Our radiation-mitigated microelectronic products include power modules, memory modules and single board computers that incorporate powerful commercial silicon for superior performance and high reliability in aerospace applications. Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this news release that are "forward-looking statements" are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially because of factors such as:

- development and acceptance of products based on new technologies;
- demand for original equipment manufacturers' products reaching anticipated levels;
- general economic conditions in the markets served by the company's products;
- cost-effective manufacturing of new products;
- risks and uncertainties involved in foreign operations, including the impact of currency fluctuations.

For further information regarding risks and uncertainties associated with Maxwell's business, please refer to the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Risk Factors" sections of our SEC filings, including, but not limited to, our annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Copies of these documents may be obtained at our investor relations website: http://www.maxwell.com/company/investors/sec_filings.html, or by contacting Maxwell's investor relations department at +1 (858) 503-3434.

All information in this release is as of April 3, 2006. The company undertakes no duty to update any forward-looking statement to conform the statement to actual results or changes in the company's expectations.
