NASDAQ Board Grants Kopin Additional Time to Regain Compliance

TAUNTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 13, 2007--Kopin Corporation (NASDAQ: KOPN) announced today that The Board of Directors of the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC has granted the Company additional time to regain compliance with Nasdaq rules regarding the timely filing of periodic reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Board instructed the Nasdaq staff to give Kopin until February 11, 2008 to file all delayed periodic reports necessary to regain compliance with the filing requirement outlined in Rule 4310(c)(14).

As announced by the Company in May 2007, a Special Investigative Committee issued preliminary findings and recommendations based on its review of Kopin's historical stock option granting practices. As part of its preliminary findings, the Special Investigative Committee recommended, and the Company's Board of Directors agreed, that the Company's financial statements for the period 1995 through 2006 and the related interim periods should not be relied upon, and that the Company's financial statements should be restated. The Company is now working to complete any necessary restatements of its financial statements. As a result of the ongoing review, Kopin has not filed its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2006 and the first, second and third quarters of 2007. The Company also is delayed in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 12 months ended December 31, 2006.

If Kopin has not regained compliance by February 4, 2008, the Board instructed the Nasdaq staff to discuss the reason for the Company's inability to regain compliance and update the Board on whether the staff believes Kopin's Common Stock should remain listed.

About Kopin

Kopin Corporation produces lightweight, power-efficient, ultra-small liquid crystal displays and heterojunction bipolar transistors (HBTs) that are revolutionizing the way people around the world see, hear and communicate. Safe Harbor Statement

Statements in this news release may be considered "forward-looking" statements under the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These include statements relating to the decision by the Board of Directors of The Nasdaq Stock Market to stay the possible suspension from trading of Kopin's securities. These statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to: the potential that Kopin may be unsuccessful in obtaining a continued stay of delisting; the potential that Kopin may not become current in its delayed periodic reports or file any required restatements by any requisite time periods; and the potential that the Nasdaq staff will recommend that the Company's shares be delisted. Factors that might affect the actual results, performance or achievements include, among other things, the matters discussed in this report, the restatement of the Company's financial statements, legal, accounting and regulatory developments relating to our stock option grants and accounting for those grants, potential claims or liability that may arise as a result of these; and other risk factors and cautionary statements listed in the Company's periodic reports and registration statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. The Company undertakes no responsibility to update any of these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date of this report.
