SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, including the documents we have incorporated by reference, contains certain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). These statements, which are not statements of historical fact, may contain estimates, assumptions, projections and/or expectations regarding future events. These statements are indicated by words such as "anticipate," "assume," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan," "potential," "project," "should," "target," "will," and other expressions, which refer to future events and trends, and identify forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We caution that forward-looking statements are not guarantees because there are inherent and obvious difficulties in attempting to predict the outcome of future events. Therefore, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events and they are accordingly subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. Our ability to attain management's goals and objectives are materially dependent on numerous factors, including, among other things, factors discussed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the following:

- consumer spending and debt levels;
- interest rates;
- competitive pressures on sales;
- pricing and gross profit margins;
- the level of cable and satellite distribution for our programming and the fees associated therewith;
- the success of the our e-commerce and branding initiatives;
- the success of our strategic alliances and relationships;
- our ability to manage our operating expenses successfully;
- risks associated with acquisitions;
- changes in governmental or regulatory requirements;
- litigation or governmental proceedings affecting our operations; and
- our ability to obtain and retain key executives and employees.

All forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty and we are under no obligation (and expressly disclaim any such obligation to) update or alter our forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Additional information on these and other risk factors that could potentially affect our financial results may be found in documents filed by us with the SEC, including our Current Reports on Form 8-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Accordingly, this prospectus relates to the resale of shares of our common stock that were the subject of the Purchasers' stock purchase and registration agreements and the Delta Entities' stock purchase agreement.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to the other information contained in, or incorporated by reference in, this prospectus before making a decision to invest. Any of the following risks could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations. In such case, you may lose all or part of your original investment.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS

WE HAVE A HISTORY OF LOSSES AND MAY NOT BE ABLE TO ACHIEVE OR MAINTAIN PROFITABLE OPERATIONS IN THE FUTURE.

We experienced operating losses of approximately $59.1 million, $10.9 million and $10.5 million in fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. We reported a net loss per diluted share of $1.57, $0.32 and $1.06 in fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Net losses included pre-tax investment write downs of approximately $1.7 million and $37.3 million in fiscal 2003 and 2002, respectively. We experienced an operating loss of approximately $11.6 million and reported a net loss per diluted share of $0.29 for the quarter ended April 30, 2005. There is no assurance that we will be able to achieve or maintain profitable operations in future fiscal years.

WE LICENSE THE "SHOPNBC" NAME AND CERTAIN LOGOS FROM NBCU PURSUANT TO AN AGREEMENT THAT IF TERMINATED WOULD CAUSE US TO PURSUE A NEW BRANDING STRATEGY AT SIGNIFICANT EXPENSE.

In November 2000, we entered into a Trademark License Agreement with NBC Universal, Inc. (formerly known as National Broadcasting Company, Inc.), or "NBCU," pursuant to which NBCU granted us an exclusive, worldwide license for a term of 10 years to use certain NBCU trademarks, service marks and domain names to effectively rebrand our business and corporate name and companion Internet website. Under the terms of the agreement, our television home shopping network, previously called ValueVision, and companion Internet website were rebranded to ShopNBC and ShopNBC.com, respectively. In addition, the License Agreement contains significant restrictions on our ability to use the rights granted to us in connection with businesses other than certain specified "permitted businesses." This restricts our ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities. NBCU has the right to terminate the License Agreement at any time upon certain changes of control of us, the failure by NBCU to own, directly or indirectly, a certain minimum percentage of our outstanding capital stock on a fully diluted basis and certain other related matters. In addition, the use of the NBCU trademarks, service marks and domain names are limited to the ten-year license term without automatic renewal. The non-renewal or termination of the License Agreement would require us to pursue a new branding strategy, which would entail significant expense and time to create and could have a negative impact on our presence in the marketplace. This may result in a material adverse effect on our sales and results of operations.

NBCU, GE EQUITY AND THEIR AFFILIATES, WHOSE INTERESTS MAY DIFFER FROM THOSE OF OTHER SHAREHOLDERS, HAVE SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE/CONTROL OVER US.

As a result of their significant equity ownership of us, NBCU and GE Equity can exert substantial influence over our election of directors and the management of our affairs. In February 2005, GE Equity sold 2,000,000 shares of our common stock to the Delta Entities. Upon the consummation of the Stock Purchase Transactions, GE Equity will sell 2,604,932 shares of our common stock to the Purchasers. Following GE Equity's sales of such common stock, GE Equity and NBCU will have a combined ownership interest in us of approximately 30%, calculated by dividing the number of outstanding shares of our common stock and dilutive in-the-money securities owned by GE Equity and NBCU as of July 27, 2005, by the total number of outstanding shares of our common stock and dilutive in-the-money securities as of July 27, 2005. Accordingly, NBCU and GE Equity have sufficient voting power to determine the outcome of various matters submitted to our shareholders for approval, including mergers, consolidations and the sale of all or substantially all of our assets. In addition, pursuant to our shareholder agreement, GE Equity has consent rights over certain of our actions, including specified issuances of capital stock, declarations or payments of dividends, investments, disposals of assets, incurrence of indebtedness and other actions. Such control may result in shareholder decisions that are not in our best interests or the best interests of our other shareholders. In addition, because NBCU has the exclusive right to negotiate for the distribution of our television home shopping programming, a termination of the strategic alliance with NBCU could adversely affect our ability to increase the number of households receiving our television programming.

MANDATORY REDEMPTION OF OUR CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK COULD HAVE A MATERIAL IMPACT ON OUR LIQUIDITY AND CASH RESOURCES.

We experienced negative cash flow from operations of approximately of $18.1 million in fiscal 2004. Our Class A Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock, or "Preferred Stock," issued to NBCU and GE Equity may be redeemed upon certain "changes of control" of us and in any event, any outstanding Preferred Stock must be redeemed upon the ten-year anniversary of its issuance. If we are unable to generate positive cash flow or obtain additional capital prior to any such redemption, the requirement that we pay cash in connection with such redemption may have a material impact on our liquidity and cash resources. The Preferred Stock has a redemption price of $8.29 per share and is convertible on a one-for-one basis with our common stock, and accordingly, if the market value of our common stock is higher than the redemption price immediately prior to the redemption date, NBCU and GE Equity may choose to convert their shares of Preferred Stock rather than exercise their right of redemption.

GOVERNMENT REGULATION OF THE INTERNET AND E-COMMERCE IS EVOLVING; UNFAVORABLE CHANGES COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT OUR BUSINESS.

We have made material investments in anticipation of the growing use of the Internet as an effective medium of commerce by merchants and shoppers. Our sales over the Internet accounted for approximately 20%, 18% and 17% of net sales during fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Additional laws and regulations may be adopted with respect to the Internet or other online services, covering such issues as user privacy, advertising, pricing, content, copyrights and trademarks, access by persons with disabilities, distribution, taxation and characteristics and quality of products and services. Such laws or regulations, if enacted, could make it more difficult for us to conduct business online, which could, in turn, decrease the demand for our products and services and increase our cost of doing business through the Internet. Inherent with the Internet and e-commerce is the risk of unauthorized access to confidential data including consumer credit card information, the risk of computer virus infection or other unauthorized acts of electronic intrusion with the malicious intent to do damage. Although we have taken precautionary steps to secure and protect our data network from intrusion and acts of hostility, there can be no assurance that unauthorized access to our electronic systems will be prevented entirely.

INTENSE COMPETITION IN THE GENERAL MERCHANDISE RETAILING INDUSTRY AND PARTICULARLY LIVE HOME SHOPPING COULD LIMIT OUR GROWTH AND REDUCE OUR PROFITABILITY.

As a general merchandise retailer, we compete for consumer expenditures with other forms of retail businesses, including department, discount, warehouse and specialty stores, television home shopping, mail order and catalog companies and other direct sellers. The catalog and direct mail industry includes a wide variety of specialty and general merchandise retailers and is both highly fragmented and competitive. We also compete with retailers who sell and market their products through the highly competitive Internet. In addition, as the use of the Internet increases, larger, well-established and well-financed entities may continue to acquire, invest in or form joint ventures with providers of e-commerce and direct marketing solutions, and existing providers of e-commerce and direct marketing solutions may continue to consolidate. Any of these trends would increase the competition with respect to us. We also compete with a wide variety of department, discount and specialty stores that have greater financial, distribution and marketing resources than we do. The home shopping industry is also highly competitive and is dominated by two companies, HSN, Inc. (formerly known as Home Shopping Network, Inc.), or "HSN", and QVC Network, Inc., or "QVC." Our television home shopping programming also competes directly with HSN, QVC, Shop at Home, Inc., or "SATH," and Jewelry Television (a live home shopping network operated by American Collectibles Network, Inc.) for cable distribution in virtually all of our markets. We are at a competitive disadvantage in attracting viewers because our programming is not carried full-time in all of our markets, and we may have less desirable cable channels in many markets. QVC and HSN are well-established and reach a significantly larger percentage of United States television households than our broadcast, while offering home shopping programming similar to ours through cable systems, owned or affiliated full and low power television stations and directly to satellite dish owners. The television home shopping industry is also experiencing vertical integration. QVC, HSN and SATH are all affiliated with cable operators or cable networks serving significant numbers of subscribers nationwide. While the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992 includes provisions designed to prohibit coercion and discrimination in favor of such affiliated programmers, the Federal Communication Commission, or "FCC," has decided that it will rule on the scope and effect of these provisions on a case-by-case basis. In 2004, SATH and E.W. Scripps Company, or "Scripps," announced the completion of a transaction that resulted in Scripps obtaining a 100% ownership interest in the SATH television-retailing network. Scripps is a media company with interests in newspaper publishing, broadcast television, national cable television networks and interactive media. QVC is owned by Liberty Media Corp. HSN is a wholly owned subsidiary of InterActiveCorp. Liberty Media, Scripps and InterActiveCorp are larger and more diversified than we are and have greater financial, marketing and distribution resources than we do.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF CABLE AND SATELLITE TELEVISION SERVICE PROVIDERS COULD LIMIT OUR PROGRAM DISTRIBUTION ALTERNATIVES AND RESTRICT OUR ABILITY TO EXECUTE FAVORABLE CABLE AFFILIATION CONTRACTS IN THE FUTURE.

The television home shopping and cable television industries are undergoing consolidation, with large, well-established enterprises acquiring less well-established, less well-financed entities in the industry. The competitive pressures arising as a result of this industry consolidation include greater importance on increasing programming distributions and customer penetration. On December 19, 2001, AT&T Corp. and Comcast Corporation announced the execution of a definitive agreement to combine AT&T Broadband with Comcast Corporation. The new company, called Comcast Corporation, or "Comcast," has approximately 22 million subscribers. Comcast's assets consist of both companies' cable TV systems, as well as interests in cable television joint ventures and substantial interests in Time Warner Cable Inc., E! Entertainment, The Golf Channel, and other entertainment properties. As further evidence of industry consolidation, on April 21, 2005, Time Warner Inc. and Comcast, two of the largest cable carriers, announced that they were jointly acquiring and dividing between them (subject to bankruptcy court and regulatory approval) the cable assets of Adelphia Communications Corporation out of bankruptcy. The continued consolidation of the television home shopping, cable television and broadcasting industries may result in fewer alternatives for our programming distribution and may also restrict our opportunity to execute economically favorable cable affiliation contracts in the future.

A NUMBER OF OUR CABLE DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENTS MAY BE TERMINATED UPON SHORT NOTICE OR NOT RENEWED UPON EXPIRATION, WHICH COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT SALES GROWTH IN OUR TELEVISION HOME SHOPPING BUSINESS.

A number of our cable television distribution agreements are terminable by either party upon 30 days' or less notice. Our television home shopping business could be materially adversely affected in the event that a significant number of our cable television distribution agreements are terminated or not renewed on acceptable terms.

WE MAY NOT BE ABLE TO MAINTAIN OUR SATELLITE SERVICES IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS BEYOND OUR CONTROL, WHICH MAY CAUSE OUR PROGRAMMING TO GO OFF THE AIR FOR A PERIOD OF TIME AND WE MAY INCUR SUBSTANTIAL ADDITIONAL COSTS.

Our programming is presently distributed to cable systems, full power television stations and satellite dish owners via a leased communications satellite transponder. In the future, satellite service may be interrupted due to a variety of circumstances beyond our control, such as satellite transponder failure, satellite fuel depletion, governmental action, preemption by the satellite service provider and service failure.

On January 31, 2005, we entered into a new long-term agreement with our present provider of satellite services. Pursuant to the terms of the new agreement, we will distribute our programming on a satellite to be launched in autumn 2005. Until that time, our programming will continue to be carried on our present satellite transponder. The new agreement provides us with preemptable back-up service if satellite transmission is interrupted. However, there can be no assurance that if satellite transmission is so interrupted, we will be able to utilize existing back-up transponder or satellite capacity. In the event of any transmission interruption, we may incur substantial additional costs to enter into new arrangements and be unable to broadcast our signal for some period of time.

WE MAY BE SUBJECT TO PRODUCT LIABILITY CLAIMS FOR ON-AIR MISREPRESENTATIONS OR IF PEOPLE OR PROPERTIES ARE HARMED BY PRODUCTS SOLD BY US.

Products sold by us and representations related to such products may expose us to potential liability from claims by purchasers of such products, subject to our rights, in certain instances, to seek indemnification against such liability from the manufacturers of such products. In addition to potential claims of personal injury, wrongful death or damage to personal property, the live unscripted nature of our television broadcasting may subject us to claims of misrepresentation by our customers, the Federal Trade Commission and state attorneys general. We have generally required the manufacturers and vendors of these products to carry product liability and errors and omissions insurance, although in certain instances the vendor may not be formally required to carry product liability insurance. There can be no assurance that these parties will continue to maintain this insurance or that this coverage will be adequate or even available with respect to any particular claims. There can be no assurance that we will be able to maintain such coverage or obtain additional coverage on acceptable terms, or that such insurance will provide adequate coverage against all potential claims or even be available with respect to any particular claim. Product liability claims could result in a material adverse impact on our financial performance.

OUR VALUEPAY INSTALLMENT PAYMENT PROGRAM COULD LEAD TO SIGNIFICANT UNPLANNED CREDIT LOSSES IF OUR CREDIT LOSS RATE WERE TO DETERIORATE.

We utilize an installment payment program called ValuePay that entitles customers to purchase merchandise and generally pay for the merchandise in two to six equal monthly installments. As of January 31, 2005 and 2004, we had approximately $61,894,000 and $56,339,000, respectively, due from customers under the ValuePay installment program. We maintain allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of our customers to make required payments. While credit losses have historically been within our estimates for such losses, there is no guarantee that we will continue to experience the same credit loss rate that we have in the past. A significant increase in our credit losses could result in a material adverse impact on our financial performance.

WE PLACE A SIGNIFICANT RELIANCE ON TECHNOLOGY AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT TOOLS TO RUN OUR EXISTING BUSINESSES, THE FAILURE OF WHICH COULD ADVERSELY IMPACT OUR OPERATIONS.

Our businesses are dependent, in part, on the use of sophisticated technology, some of which is provided to us by third parties. Such technologies include, but are not necessarily limited to, satellite based transmission of our programming, use of the Internet in relation to our on-line business, new digital technology used to manage and supplement our television broadcast operations and a network of complex computer hardware and software to manage an ever increasing need for information and information management tools. The failure of any of these technologies, or our inability to have this technology supported, updated, expanded or integrated into other technologies, could adversely impact our operations. Although we have, when possible, developed alternative sources of technology and built redundancy into our computer networks and tools, there can be no assurance that our effort to date would protect us against all potential issues or disaster occurrences related to the loss of any such technologies or their use.

THE EXPANSION OF DIGITAL CABLE COMPRESSION TECHNOLOGY MAY ADVERSELY IMPACT OUR ABILITY TO COMPETE FOR TELEVISION VIEWERS.

A significant number of cable operators have started to offer cable programming on a digital basis. The use of digital compression technology provides cable companies with greater channel capacity. While greater channel capacity increases the opportunity for us to be more widely distributed, it also may adversely impact our ability to compete for television viewers to the extent it results in (i) higher channel position; (ii) placement of our programming in separate programming tiers, or (iii) an expanding universe of programming choices all competing for the same audience viewership.

THE INCREASED USE OF DIGITAL VIDEO RECORDERS AND VIDEO ON DEMAND COULD LIMIT OUR VIEWERSHIP, WHICH WOULD HARM OUR PROFITABILITY.

The advent of digital video recorders or "DVRs," such as TiVo, and the ever increasing availability of programming on an on-demand basis from cable and satellite television system operators (often referred to as video on demand, or "VOD"), could change the way that viewers watch television based programming. Instead of watching programming on the schedule mandated by the content provider or "channel surfing," DVRs and VOD allow viewers to watch television programming on their schedule. While the impact of DVRs and VOD on television viewing habits and television home shopping is not yet known, the further adoption of DVRs and the ever greater variety and amount of VOD programming could create different television viewing habits and/or offer additional content that competes with the programming offered by television home shopping channels. This could decrease the number of viewers of our television programming, which would have a material adverse effect on our ability to achieve and maintain growth and profitability.

THE UNANTICIPATED LOSS OF ONE OF OUR LARGER VENDORS COULD IMPACT OUR SALES ON A TEMPORARY BASIS.

We obtain products from domestic and foreign manufacturers and suppliers and are often able to make purchases on favorable terms based on the volume of our transactions. Many of our purchasing arrangements with our vendors include inventory terms that allow for return privileges of a portion of the order or stock balancing. We have not historically entered into long term supply arrangements that would require vendors to provide products on an ongoing basis. In fiscal 2004, products purchased from one vendor accounted for approximately 15% of our consolidated net sales. We believe that we could find alternative sources for this vendor's products if this vendor ceased supplying merchandise; however, the unanticipated loss of any large supplier could impact our sales on a temporary basis. In addition, certain general economic conditions, such as those experienced in fiscal 2003 and the first half of fiscal 2004, may have a material adverse effect on the financial strength of our vendors and suppliers, some of whom are focused on a limited range of product categories or who are dependent on home shopping as a primary outlet for their merchandise sales. We are also dependant, in part, on vendors outside of the United States and distributors that source merchandise from outside the United States. In light of our continued use of these overseas vendors and merchandise sourced from these distributors, changes in the business, logistical, financial or regulatory conditions in countries outside the United States could directly or indirectly affect our ability to procure merchandise on a timely or cost effective basis.

OUR INABILITY TO RECRUIT AND RETAIN KEY EMPLOYEES MAY ADVERSELY IMPACT OUR ABILITY TO SUSTAIN GROWTH.

Our continued growth is contingent, in part, on our ability to retain and recruit employees that have the unique skills necessary for a business that demands knowledge of the general retail industry, television production, direct-to-consumer marketing and fulfillment and the Internet. The marketplace for such employees is very competitive and limited, particularly for on-air hosts. Our growth may be adversely impacted if we are unable to attract and retain these key employees. During fiscal 2004, we experienced the loss of a number of experienced television hosts to our competitors.

OUR GROWTH AND PROFITABILITY COULD BE ADVERSELY AFFECTED IF OUR SALES VOLUME DOES NOT MEET EXPECTATIONS TO COVER OUR HIGH FIXED COST INFRASTRUCTURE.

Our television home shopping business operates with a high fixed cost base, which is primarily driven by fixed contractual fees paid to cable and satellite operators to carry our programming. In addition, in fiscal 2004 we embarked on a series of new investment initiatives that required significant up-front investment. These new initiatives included increased marketing support, improved customer experience, enhanced on-air quality and improved business intelligence. In order to attain profitability, we must achieve sufficient sales volume by acquiring new customers and retaining existing customers to cover these high fixed costs and new spending initiatives. Our growth and profitability could be adversely impacted if sales volume does not meet expectations, as we will have limited immediate capability to reduce our fixed operating expenses to mitigate any potential sales shortfall.

OUR TELEVISION HOME SHOPPING AND INTERNET BUSINESSES ARE SENSITIVE TO GENERAL ECONOMIC CONDITIONS AND MAJOR NEWS EVENTS, WHICH COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT CONSUMER CONFIDENCE AND ULTIMATELY NET SALES.

Our businesses are sensitive to general economic conditions and business conditions affecting consumer spending. Our two major categories of sales merchandise are jewelry and computers, which due to their nature and relatively higher price points are more economically sensitive to consumer demand than other product categories. The general deterioration in economic conditions in the United States in fiscal 2003 and the first half of fiscal 2004 and uncertainties associated with global events has led to reduced consumer confidence, reduced disposable income and increased competitive activity, as well as the business failure of companies in the retail and direct marketing industries. Such economic conditions may lead to a reduction in consumer spending generally and in home shopping specifically, and may lead to a reduction in consumer spending on the types of merchandise we currently offer on our television programming and over the Internet. Although our current plan and effort is to further diversify our product mix away from primarily jewelry and computers, future revenue growth could be adversely affected if overall consumer spending or the demand for jewelry and computers decline. Additionally, our television audience and sales revenue can be significantly impacted by major world or domestic events, which divert audience attention away from our programming. Economic conditions may also have a material adverse impact on the financial strength of our vendors and suppliers, some of whom are focused on a limited range of product categories or who are dependent on home shopping as a primary outlet for their sales.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR COMMON STOCK

THE PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK HAS BEEN VOLATILE AND COULD CONTINUE TO FLUCTUATE IN THE FUTURE.

During fiscal 2004, the closing price of our common stock on the Nasdaq National Market ranged from $10.03 to $17.84 per share. Our closing sale price on July 27, 2005 was $11.88 per share. Our stock price may fluctuate in response to a number of events and factors, including but not limited to variations in operating results, litigation or governmental proceedings, market perceptions of our financial reporting, changes in financial estimates and recommendations by securities analysts, the operating and stock price performance of other companies that investors may deem comparable to us, and news reports relating to trends in our markets or general economic conditions.

WE HAVE THE ABILITY TO ISSUE ADDITIONAL EQUITY SECURITIES, WHICH WOULD LEAD TO DILUTION OF OUR ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING COMMON STOCK.

The issuance of additional equity securities or securities convertible into equity securities would result in dilution of then-existing shareholders' equity interests in us. Our Board of Directors, or the "Board," has the authority to issue, without vote or action of shareholders, other than approval by GE Equity, as set forth in our shareholder agreement, up to 100,000,000 shares of undesignated capital stock, of which 37,002,065 shares of common stock and 5,339,500 shares of preferred stock were outstanding as of July 27, 2005. The Board may issue preferred stock in one or more series, and has the ability to fix the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of any such series. Any such series of preferred stock could contain dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption prices, liquidation preferences or other rights superior to the rights of holders of our common stock. If we issue convertible preferred stock, a subsequent conversion may dilute the current common shareholders' interest. In addition, GE Equity and NBCU have the right to convert their 5,339,500 shares of Preferred Stock into an equal number of shares of our common stock and NBCU holds warrants to acquire up to an aggregate of 7,505,583 shares of our common stock at exercise prices ranging from $8.29 to $23.07, any of which, if converted or exercised, as the case may be, would also result in dilution of our current common shareholders' interest.

SEVERAL PROVISIONS OF MINNESOTA CORPORATE LAW, OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, OUR BYLAWS AND OUR SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT COULD DISCOURAGE, DELAY OR PREVENT A MERGER OR ACQUISITION, EVEN IN SITUATIONS THAT MAY BE VIEWED AS DESIRABLE BY OUR SHAREHOLDERS.

The Minnesota Business Corporation Act, our amended and restated articles of incorporation, our bylaws and our shareholder agreement contain provisions that may delay or prevent an attempt by a third party to acquire control of our company. These provisions include (i) authorizing the Board to issue "blank check" preferred stock having superior rights without shareholder approval, (ii) prohibiting us from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested shareholder" for a period of four years after the date of the transaction in which the person became an interested shareholder unless certain requirements are met, (iii) requiring disinterested shareholder approval for certain "control share acquisitions," and (iv) prohibiting GE Equity and NBCU from entering into specified merger or acquisition transactions with us pursuant to certain standstill provisions. These provisions could also discourage or impede a tender offer, proxy contest or other similar transaction involving control of us, even if viewed favorably by shareholders.

WE HAVE NOT PAID CASH DIVIDENDS ON OUR COMMON STOCK AND DO NOT EXPECT TO DO SO.

We have never declared or paid a cash dividend on our common stock. We do not anticipate paying any cash dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the sale of the common stock covered by this prospectus will be received by the selling shareholders. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale by any selling shareholder of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

We are registering 4,604,932 shares of our common stock for resale by the selling shareholders identified below. The shares are being registered to permit public secondary trading of the shares, and the selling shareholders may offer the shares for resale from time to time.

The common stock offered by this prospectus represents (i) shares sold by GE Equity to the Delta Entities and (ii) shares to be acquired by the Purchasers from GE Equity pursuant to the Stock Purchase Transactions, which will close on the earlier of (1) the second business day after the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC and (2) September 15, 2005. Following GE Equity's sale of our common stock to the Purchasers, GE Equity and NBCU will own approximately 30% of our voting securities, calculated by dividing the number of outstanding shares of our common stock and dilutive in-the-money securities owned by GE Equity and NBCU as of July 27, 2005, by the total number of outstanding shares of our common stock and dilutive in-the-money securities as of July 27, 2005, and have the right to elect three directors to our board of directors. We are a party to certain strategic agreements with GE Equity and its affiliates. See "Certain Transactions -- Strategic Alliance with GE Commercial Finance -- Equity and NBCU" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The table below lists the selling shareholders and the other information regarding the ownership of the common stock by each of the selling shareholders after giving effect to the consummation of the Stock Purchase Transactions (such information has been provided by the selling shareholders). Each of the persons named in the table has the sole voting and investment power with respect to the common stock listed in the table opposite its name, except as otherwise noted. Beneficial ownership percentage is based upon 37,002,065 shares of common stock outstanding, as of July 27, 2005.

(1) Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. To our knowledge the persons named in the table above have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them, except as otherwise noted.

(2) Assumes the sale of all shares offered hereby. The selling shareholders may elect to sell none, some or all of the shares offered hereby.

(3) Ramius Capital Group, LLC ("Ramius Capital") is (i) the investment adviser of RCG Ambrose Master Fund, Ltd. and RCG Halifax Fund, Ltd., (ii) the managing member of Ramius Advisors, LLC, the investment adviser of Ramius Master Fund, Ltd., (iii) the sole member of Admiral Advisors, LLC, the managing member of Starboard Value and Opportunity Fund, LLC and Parche, LLC, and (iv) the managing member of Ramius Securities, LLC, an NASD member. Consequently, Ramius Capital has voting control and investment discretion over securities held by those entities. Ramius Capital disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares held by those entities. Peter A. Cohen, Morgan B. Stark, Thomas W. Strauss and Jeffrey M. Solomon are the sole managing members of C4S & Co., LLC, the sole managing member of Ramius Capital. As a result, Messrs. Cohen, Stark, Strauss and Solomon may be considered beneficial owners of any shares deemed to be beneficially owned by Ramius Capital. Messrs. Cohen, Stark, Strauss and Solomon disclaim beneficial ownership of these shares.

Each of the Delta Entities has the right, pursuant to a registration rights agreement entered into with us, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to require us to register under the Securities Act the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. Each of the Delta Entities has exercised its rights under this registration rights agreement and requested that we register the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. The registration rights agreement requires us to prepare and file the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part with the SEC, and all amendments and supplements necessary to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of six months after the date that this registration statement is declared effective by the SEC and the date on which the Delta Entities have sold all the shares covered by the registration statement.

We are required to register the shares of common stock held by the Purchasers by August 8, 2005, pursuant to stock purchase and registration agreements entered into among us, the Purchasers and GE Equity. These agreements require us to prepare and file the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part with the SEC, and all amendments and supplements necessary to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of (i) two years after the date that the registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, (ii) the date on which the Purchasers have sold all the shares covered by the registration statement, and (iii) the date on which the Purchasers may resell all the shares covered by the registration statement under Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act.

Each of the registration rights and stock purchase and registration agreements provides, among other things, that we will pay all expenses in connection with any such registration, other than underwriting discounts and selling commissions.

Except as noted above, the selling shareholders have not had, within the past three years, any position, office, or other material relationship with us or any of our affiliates. The selling shareholders may have sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of a portion of their common stock since the date on which they provided information regarding their common stock to us.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders and their permitted successors and assigns may sell our common stock directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, or through a combination of any of the foregoing, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or the purchasers. The name of any such underwriter, broker-dealer or agent involved in the offer and sale of securities, the amounts underwritten and the nature of its obligations to take the securities will be named, in the event a prospectus supplement is required, in the applicable prospectus supplement. These discounts, concessions or commissions as to any particular underwriter, broker-dealer or agent may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

Sales of common stock may involve:

- sales to underwriters who will acquire shares of common stock for their own account and resell them in one or more transactions at fixed prices or at varying prices determined at time of sale;
- block transactions in which the broker or dealer so engaged may sell shares as agent or principal;
- purchases by a broker or dealer as principal who resells the shares for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of any such exchange;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers; and
- privately negotiated sales, which may include sales directly to institutions.

The common stock may be sold in one or more transactions at:

- fixed prices;
- prevailing market prices at the time of sale;
- prices related to the prevailing market prices;
- varying prices determined at the time of sale; or
- negotiated prices.

These sales may be effected in transactions:

- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which our common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including the Nasdaq National Market;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- otherwise than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market;
- through the writing of options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise; or
- through the settlement of short sales.

These transactions may include block transactions or crosses. Crosses are transactions in which the same broker acts as agent on both sides of the trade.

In connection with the sale of the common stock or otherwise, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. These broker-dealers or financial institutions may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume with selling shareholders. The selling shareholders may also sell the common stock short and deliver these securities to close out such short positions, or loan or pledge the common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling shareholders from the sale of the common stock offered by them hereby will be the purchase price of the common stock less discounts and commissions, if any. Each of the selling shareholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of common stock to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering.

Our outstanding common stock is listed for trading on the Nasdaq National Market. In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the common stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.

Broker-dealers or agents who participate in the sale of our common stock are "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Selling shareholders who participate in the sale of the common stock may also be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Profits on the sale of the common stock by selling shareholders and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any broker-dealers or agents might be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. The NASD has informed us that the maximum compensation a selling shareholder may pay to any member of the National Association of Securities Dealers in connection with any underwritten public offering cannot exceed 8% of the gross proceeds of the offering. Selling shareholders who are deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. To the extent the selling shareholders are deemed to be "underwriters," they may be subject to statutory liabilities, including, but not limited to, Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act.

The selling shareholders and any other person participating in a distribution are subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Regulation M of the Exchange Act may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the common stock by the selling shareholders and any other person. In addition, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the securities to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular securities being distributed for a period of up to five business days before the distribution. The selling shareholders have acknowledged that they understand their obligations to comply with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder relating to stock manipulation, particularly Regulation M, and have agreed that they will not engage in any transaction in violation of such provisions.

A selling shareholder may decide not to sell any of the common stock described in this prospectus. We cannot assure holders that any selling shareholder will use this prospectus to sell any or all of the common stock. Any securities covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A of the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 or Rule 144A rather than pursuant to this prospectus. In addition, a selling shareholder may transfer, devise or gift the underlying common stock by other means not described in this prospectus.

With respect to a particular offering of the common stock, to the extent required, an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part will be prepared and will set forth the following information:

- the common stock to be offered and sold;
- the names of the selling shareholders;
- the respective purchase prices and public offering prices and other material terms of the offering;
- the names of any participating agents, broker-dealers or underwriters; and
- any applicable commissions, discounts, concessions and other items constituting compensation from the selling shareholders.

We entered into the registration rights and stock purchase and registration agreements for the benefit of holders of the common stock under applicable federal and state securities laws under certain circumstances and at certain times. These agreements provide that we and the selling shareholders will indemnify each other and each other's respective directors, officers, agents, employees and controlling persons and the directors, officers, agents and employees of such controlling persons against specific liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the common stock, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or will be entitled to contribution in connection with those liabilities. We will pay all of our expenses and specified expenses incurred by the selling shareholders incidental to the registration, offering and sale of the common stock to the public, but each selling shareholder will be responsible for payment of underwriting discounts and selling commissions with regard to the sale of common stock.

VALIDITY OF THE SECURITIES

The validity of shares of common stock will be passed upon for us by Faegre & Benson LLP, 2200 Wells Fargo Center, 90 South Seventh Street, Minneapolis, MN 55402-3901.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The registrant is subject to Minnesota Statutes Chapter 302A, the Minnesota Business Corporation Act (the "Corporation Act"). Section 302A.521 of the Corporation Act provides in substance that, unless prohibited by its articles of incorporation or bylaws, a corporation must indemnify an officer or director who is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of his official capacity against judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by such person in connection with the proceeding, if certain criteria are met. These criteria, all of which must be met by the person complained of in the proceeding, are: (a) that such person has not been indemnified by another organization for the same judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and expenses; (b) that such person must have acted in good faith;

(c) that no improper personal benefit was obtained by such person and such person satisfied certain statutory conflicts of interest provisions, if applicable; (d) that in the case of a criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful; and (e) that such person must have acted in a manner he reasonably believed was in the best interests of the corporation or, in certain limited circumstances, not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. The determination as to eligibility for indemnification is made by the members of the corporation's board of directors or a committee of the board who are at the time not parties to the proceedings under consideration, by special legal counsel, by the shareholders who are not parties to the proceedings or by a court.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is therefore unenforceable.

The registrant also maintains a director and officer insurance policy to cover the registrant, its directors and its officers against certain liabilities.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high and of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes, that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Eden Prairie, State of Minnesota on July 28, 2005.

STOCK PURCHASE AND REGISTRATION AGREEMENT

THIS STOCK PURCHASE AND REGISTRATION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of July 8, 2005, between GE Capital Equity Investments, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Seller"), and Janus Investment Fund, a Massachusetts business trust, on behalf of its series Janus Venture Fund ("Purchaser").

WHEREAS, Seller is the beneficial owner of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of ValueVision Media, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (the "Company"); and

WHEREAS, Seller wishes to sell to Purchaser, and Purchaser wishes to purchase from Seller, 1,704,932 shares of Common Stock (as may be adjusted equitably to reflect any stock dividends, recapitalizations, stock splits or similar transactions, the "Shares") on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I SALE AND PURCHASE OF SHARES

1.1 Sale and Purchase of Shares. At Closing (as defined below) and on the terms set forth herein, Seller shall sell and deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase and accept from Seller, all right, title, and interest of Seller in and to the Shares, free and clear of all mortgages, liens, pledges, security interests, charges, restrictions, and other encumbrances ("Liens"). The closing of the purchase and sale of the Shares shall take place on the earlier of (i) the second business day following the day on which the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 below) is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and (ii) September 15, 2005 (each such date referred to as the "Closing Date") at the offices of the Seller in New York City ("Closing").

1.2 Purchase Price. At Closing, Purchaser shall pay to Seller an aggregate amount equal to $18,754,252 for the Shares (the "Purchase Price") by wire transfer of immediately available funds to a bank account designated in writing by Seller.

1.3 Deliveries. At Closing, (i) Seller shall deliver to Purchaser the certificate or certificates evidencing the Shares, together with a stock power or stock powers in the form of EXHIBIT A duly executed by Seller; and (ii) Purchaser shall deliver to Seller, the Purchase Price in accordance with Section 1.2.

ARTICLE II
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

Seller hereby represents and warrants to Purchaser as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as follows:

2.1 Organization. Seller is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

2.2 Authorization. Seller has the requisite corporate power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by Seller of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Seller. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the duly authorized officer of Seller and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

2.3 Consents and Approvals. Except as set forth in Article IV, and filings that may be required under Section 13(d) or Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), no consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any federal, state, or foreign court or governmental agency, authority, or body or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof ("Governmental Entity") or any other person or entity is required to be obtained or made by Seller in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

2.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Seller, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which Seller is a party, (iii) violate any order, judgment, decree, writ, or injunction ("Order") of any Governmental Entity applicable to Seller, or (iv) violate any domestic or foreign law, statute, rule, or regulation ("Law") applicable to Seller.

2.5 Title to Shares. Seller has good and valid title to the Shares. Seller is the record and beneficial owner of the Shares, free and clear of all Liens except as set forth in a Shareholder Agreement, dated April 15, 1999, among NBC Universal, Inc. the Seller and the Company (the "Shareholders Agreement") (which agreement will not bind Purchaser). The delivery by Seller to Purchaser of the certificate or certificates representing the Shares in accordance with this Agreement will vest Purchaser with good and valid title to the Shares, free and clear of all Liens.

2.6 Exempt from Registration. Based in part on the representations of Purchaser contained in Section 3.5 and 3.6 of this Agreement, the sale of the Shares hereunder is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

2.7 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby, Seller has not conveyed to Purchaser any material non-public information in respect of the Company and/or the Company's business, operations, pending transactions, financial condition, results of operations, or prospects (collectively, "Non-Public Information").

ARTICLE III REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PURCHASER

Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to Seller as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as follows:

3.1 Organization. Purchaser is an organization of the type referred to in the first paragraph of this Agreement and is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the applicable laws of the jurisdictions specified.

3.2 Authorization. Purchaser has the requisite power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Purchaser. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of Purchaser and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Purchaser, enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

3.3 Consents and Approvals. No consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Entity is required to be obtained or made by Purchaser in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser, the performance by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for any filings that may be required under Section 13 of the Exchange Act.

3.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the organizational documents of Purchaser, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which Purchaser is a party, or (iii) violate any Order of any Governmental Entity or any Law applicable to Purchaser.

3.5 Securities Law Matters. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that as of the date hereof the Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, and, unless so registered, may not be offered, sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction. Purchaser acknowledges that appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares as aforesaid shall be placed on the stock certificates representing such Shares. Purchaser is an "accredited investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act). Purchaser (i) has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters such that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of purchasing the Shares, and (ii) is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Shares for an indefinite period, including the risk of a complete loss of any such investment. The Shares were not offered to Purchaser in any form of general solicitation or general advertisement and Purchaser (i) is acquiring the Shares for investment for its own account, and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, (ii) does not have any agreement or understanding, whether or not legally binding, with any other person or entity, to sell, pledge, engage in short sales or other hedging transactions, transfer, or otherwise distribute or dispose of the Shares or any interest therein; provided, however, that by making the representations herein, Purchaser does not agree to hold any of the shares for any minimum or specific term and reserves the right to offer and dispose of the Shares at any time in accordance with, or pursuant to, an effective registration statement or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that Seller may be deemed an "affiliate" of the Company (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act).

3.6 Investigation. Purchaser believes that it has received all the information it considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to purchase the Shares. Purchaser further represents that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from officers and other personnel of the Company regarding the Company, its business and financial condition. Purchaser acknowledges that (i) it is a sophisticated financial institution engaged in the business of assessing and assuming investment risks in respect of securities, including securities such as the Shares and is hereby voluntarily assuming the risks relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) it is fully satisfied with the Purchase Price it is paying hereunder to Seller for the Shares, (iii) Seller may in the future enter into discussions with holders of the Company's Common Stock regarding the sale of all or a portion of its other shares of the Company's Common Stock for consideration greater or lesser than or different from the Purchase Price, and/or on terms and conditions different from the terms and conditions set forth herein, (iv) Seller is consummating this transaction with Purchaser in reliance on Purchaser's acknowledgements and representations contained in this Agreement and with Purchaser's understanding and agreement that Seller is privy to Non-Public Information that may be material to a reasonable investor, such as Purchaser, and has not been provided to Purchaser by Seller or the Company, (v) Seller is under no duty or other obligation to disclose any Non-Public Information to Purchaser, and (vi) as of the date hereof, the Company has neither publicly announced its financial results for any period after April 30, 2005 nor filed any report for such period. Purchaser hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law any claim or potential claim it has or may have against Seller, the Company or their respective officers, directors, stockholders, partners, affiliates, successors, and assigns, relating to any such person's possession of Non-Public Information.

ARTICLE IV COVENANTS OF THE COMPANY

4.1 Stock Certificate Legend. Promptly following the Closing, the Company agrees to provide Purchaser with stock certificates representing the Shares such that the appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares shall not reference the Shareholders Agreement. The Company shall take all reasonable action necessary (including providing appropriate opinions of counsel to its transfer agent, if necessary) to remove such legends with respect to Shares being sold by Purchaser pursuant to the Registration Statement.

4.2 Registration Statement. The Company hereby agrees that it shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as practicable but in no event more than 21 business days following the date hereof, a registration statement on Form S-3 (or such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares if the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3) (the "Registration Statement"), listing Purchaser as a selling stockholder therein, to enable the resale of the Shares by Purchaser from time to time and use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing and to remain continuously effective until the earlier of (1) the second anniversary of the effective date of the Registration Statement, (2) the date on which all Shares purchased by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement have been sold thereunder or (3) the date on which the Shares can be sold by holders thereof pursuant to Rule 144(k) promulgated under the Securities Act (the "Registration Period"). Before filing the Registration Statement, or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to Purchaser copies of all such documents proposed to be filed, which documents will be subject to review of Purchaser, and the Company will not file any such documents to which Purchaser shall reasonably object in writing within three (3) business days of receipt of such document. The Registration Statement shall register, pursuant to Rule 416(a) under the Securities Act, the Shares and any additional shares of Common Stock of the Company resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, or similar transactions with respect to the Shares. If the Company receives notification from the SEC that the Registration Statement will be subject to no action or review from the SEC, then the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective within five (5) business days after such SEC notification. In the event that, following the date hereof and prior to the end of the Registration Period, the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3, the Company shall use such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares and shall convert such other form into Form S-3, or file a replacement registration statement on Form S-3, promptly after the first date on which it meets such requirements. The covenants of the Company pursuant to this Section 4 shall survive the Closing.

4.3 Registration Procedures and Indemnification. The Company and Purchaser hereby agree that (i) the registration procedures relating and applicable to the Registration Statement shall be governed by Sections 5(b) through Section 5(q), the last two paragraphs of Section 5, and Section 6 of the Registration Rights Agreement, dated April 15, 1999 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), by and among the Company, NBC Universal, Inc. and Seller, which sections are hereby incorporated herein by reference, provided that: (A) to the extent of any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, this Agreement shall control and (B) the aggregate number of days to which Purchaser shall be subject to Black-Out (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall not exceed ninety (90) days during any period of 12 consecutive months, and (ii) the Company will indemnify Purchaser and Purchaser will indemnify the Company for matters relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement as set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement and that the mutual indemnification obligations of the Company and Purchaser relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement shall be governed by Section 7 of the Registration Rights Agreement, which section is hereby incorporated herein by reference, except with regard to the limitation on the Company's liability included in Section 7(a) based on a Holder's failure to deliver a prospectus, which shall be incorporated by reference herein, only to the extent such Holder is subject to prospectus delivery requirement under applicable securities laws. For purposes of this Section 4.3, the term "Holder" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to Purchaser, the term "Registrable Securities" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to the Shares and the term "Registration Statement" shall be deemed to refer to the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 hereof) to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

4.4 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, the Company has not conveyed and will not convey to Purchaser any Non-Public Information.

4.5 Reports Under the Exchange Act. With a view to making available to Purchaser the benefits of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and any other rule or regulation of the SEC that may at any time permit Purchaser to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to:

(a) make available and keep current public information, within the meaning of Rule 144, at all times at which it is subject to the reporting requirement of the Exchange Act.

(b) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE V SECURITIES LAWS COMPLIANCE

Purchaser shall not, directly or indirectly, offer, sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of) any Common Stock of the Company, nor will Purchaser engage in, or permit any party on behalf of Purchaser or for the benefit of Purchaser to engage in, any short sale or other hedging transaction that results, or may result, in a disposition of any of the Shares by Purchaser, except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws.

ARTICLE VI MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

6.2 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

6.3 Entire Agreement: Survival; Indemnity. This Agreement (including the Exhibits attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements or understandings between the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof. The representations and warranties of the parties will survive the Closing. Seller and Purchaser will each indemnify the other against any loss, liability or expense arising out of any material breach of any of its representations and warranties in this Agreement, provided that total liability under this indemnity will not exceed the Purchase Price. A party intending to make a claim under this indemnity will provide the other party with prompt notice of its claim and, to the extent possible, the opportunity to defend and dispose of the claim.

6.4 Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each of Seller and Purchaser shall bear all of the expenses (including fees and disbursements of its counsel) incurred by or on behalf of it in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Further Assurances. Each party hereto shall execute and deliver all such further and additional instruments and agreements and shall take such further and additional actions, as may be reasonably requested by the other party in order to evidence or carry out the provisions of this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be enforced, governed, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State.

6.7 Jurisdiction; Venue. Any action, suit, or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or relating to, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby can be brought exclusively in federal court sitting in the Southern District of New York or, if such court does not have jurisdiction, any district court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, the County of New York, New York, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action, suit, or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such action, suit, or proceeding in any such court or that any such action, suit, or proceeding that is brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

6.8 Notices. Any notice, request, demand, or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by hand delivery, mail (first class, certified mail, postage prepaid), facsimile, or overnight courier if to any party hereto, at the address or facsimile number set forth below such party's name on the signature pages hereto or to such other address or facsimile number as such party shall have last designated by notice to the other parties hereto in accordance with this Section. Notices sent by hand delivery shall be deemed to have been given when received or delivery is refused; notices mailed in accordance with this Section shall be deemed to have been given three days after the date so mailed; notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when electronically confirmed; and notices sent by overnight courier shall be deemed to have been given on the next business day after the date so sent.

6.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under the applicable law of any jurisdiction, (i) the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances or in other jurisdictions shall not be affected thereby, and (ii) such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

6.10 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing express or implied in this Agreement, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any right, benefit, or remedy under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.11 WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY HERETO, HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT, OR PROCEEDING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, AT ANY TIME ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

6.12 Independent Nature of Obligations. The obligations of Purchaser under this Agreement or any document ancillary hereto (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") are several and not joint with the obligations of any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock, and Purchaser shall not be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other purchaser under any Transaction Document. Nothing contained herein or in any other Transaction Document, and no action taken by Purchaser or any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock pursuant hereto or thereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Purchaser and such other purchasers as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that Purchaser and such other purchasers are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents. Purchaser confirms that it has independently participated in the negotiation of the transaction contemplated hereby with the advice of its own counsel and advisors. Purchaser shall be entitled to independently protect and enforce its rights, including, without limitation, the rights arising out of this Agreement or out of any other Transaction Documents, and it shall not be necessary for any other purchaser to be joined as an additional party in any proceeding for such purpose.

2.2 Authorization. Seller has the requisite corporate power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by Seller of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Seller. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the duly authorized officer of Seller and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

2.3 Consents and Approvals. Except as set forth in Article IV, and filings that may be required under Section 13(d) or Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), no consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any federal, state, or foreign court or governmental agency, authority, or body or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof ("Governmental Entity") or any other person or entity is required to be obtained or made by Seller in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

2.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Seller, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which Seller is a party, (iii) violate any order, judgment, decree, writ, or injunction ("Order") of any Governmental Entity applicable to Seller, or (iv) violate any domestic or foreign law, statute, rule, or regulation ("Law") applicable to Seller.

2.5 Title to Shares. Seller has good and valid title to the Shares. Seller is the record and beneficial owner of the Shares, free and clear of all Liens except as set forth in a Shareholder Agreement, dated April 15, 1999, among NBC Universal, Inc. the Seller and the Company (the "Shareholders Agreement") (which agreement will not bind Purchaser). The delivery by Seller to Purchaser of the certificate or certificates representing the Shares in accordance with this Agreement will vest Purchaser with good and valid title to the Shares, free and clear of all Liens.

2.6 Exempt from Registration. Based in part on the representations of Purchaser contained in Section 3.5 and 3.6 of this Agreement, the sale of the Shares hereunder is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

2.7 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby, Seller has not conveyed to Purchaser any material non-public information in respect of the Company and/or the Company's business, operations, pending transactions, financial condition, results of operations, or prospects (collectively, "Non-Public Information").

ARTICLE III REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PURCHASER

Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to Seller as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as follows:

3.1 Organization. Purchaser is an organization of the type referred to in the first paragraph of this Agreement and is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the applicable laws of the jurisdictions specified.

3.2 Authorization. Purchaser has the requisite power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Purchaser. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of Purchaser and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Purchaser, enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

3.3 Consents and Approvals. No consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Entity is required to be obtained or made by Purchaser in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser, the performance by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for any filings that may be required under Section 13 of the Exchange Act.

3.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the organizational documents of Purchaser, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which Purchaser is a party, or (iii) violate any Order of any Governmental Entity or any Law applicable to Purchaser.

3.5 Securities Law Matters. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that as of the date hereof the Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, and, unless so registered, may not be offered, sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction. Purchaser acknowledges that appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares as aforesaid shall be placed on the stock certificates representing such Shares. Purchaser is an "accredited investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act). Purchaser (i) has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters such that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of purchasing the Shares, and (ii) is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Shares for an indefinite period, including the risk of a complete loss of any such investment. The Shares were not offered to Purchaser in any form of general solicitation or general advertisement and Purchaser (i) is acquiring the Shares for investment for its own account, and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, (ii) does not have any agreement or understanding, whether or not legally binding, with any other person or entity, to sell, pledge, engage in short sales or other hedging transactions, transfer, or otherwise distribute or dispose of the Shares or any interest therein; provided, however, that by making the representations herein, Purchaser does not agree to hold any of the shares for any minimum or specific term and reserves the right to offer and dispose of the Shares at any time in accordance with, or pursuant to, an effective registration statement or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that Seller may be deemed an "affiliate" of the Company (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act).

3.6 Investigation. Purchaser believes that it has received all the information it considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to purchase the Shares. Purchaser further represents that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from officers and other personnel of the Company regarding the Company, its business and financial condition. Purchaser acknowledges that (i) it is a sophisticated financial institution engaged in the business of assessing and assuming investment risks in respect of securities, including securities such as the Shares and is hereby voluntarily assuming the risks relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) it is fully satisfied with the Purchase Price it is paying hereunder to Seller for the Shares, (iii) Seller may in the future enter into discussions with holders of the Company's Common Stock regarding the sale of all or a portion of its other shares of the Company's Common Stock for consideration greater or lesser than or different from the Purchase Price, and/or on terms and conditions different from the terms and conditions set forth herein, (iv) Seller is consummating this transaction with Purchaser in reliance on Purchaser's acknowledgements and representations contained in this Agreement and with Purchaser's understanding and agreement that Seller is privy to Non-Public Information that may be material to a reasonable investor, such as Purchaser, and has not been provided to Purchaser by Seller or the Company, (v) Seller is under no duty or other obligation to disclose any Non-Public Information to Purchaser, and (vi) as of the date hereof, the Company has neither publicly announced its financial results for any period after April 30, 2005 nor filed any report for such period. Purchaser hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law any claim or potential claim it has or may have against Seller, the Company or their respective officers, directors, stockholders, partners, affiliates, successors, and assigns, relating to any such person's possession of Non-Public Information.

ARTICLE IV COVENANTS OF THE COMPANY

4.1 Stock Certificate Legend. Promptly following the Closing, the Company agrees to provide Purchaser with stock certificates representing the Shares such that the appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares shall not reference the Shareholders Agreement. The Company shall take all reasonable action necessary (including providing appropriate opinions of counsel to its transfer agent, if necessary) to remove such legends with respect to Shares being sold by Purchaser pursuant to the Registration Statement.

4.2 Registration Statement. The Company hereby agrees that it shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as practicable but in no event more than 21 business days following the date hereof, a registration statement on Form S-3 (or such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares if the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3) (the "Registration Statement"), listing Purchaser as a selling stockholder therein, to enable the resale of the Shares by Purchaser from time to time and use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing and to remain continuously effective until the earlier of (1) the second anniversary of the effective date of the Registration Statement, (2) the date on which all Shares purchased by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement have been sold thereunder or (3) the date on which the Shares can be sold by holders thereof pursuant to Rule 144(k) promulgated under the Securities Act (the "Registration Period"). Before filing the Registration Statement, or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to Purchaser copies of all such documents proposed to be filed, which documents will be subject to review of Purchaser, and the Company will not file any such documents to which Purchaser shall reasonably object in writing within three (3) business days of receipt of such document. The Registration Statement shall register, pursuant to Rule 416(a) under the Securities Act, the Shares and any additional shares of Common Stock of the Company resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, or similar transactions with respect to the Shares. If the Company receives notification from the SEC that the Registration Statement will be subject to no action or review from the SEC, then the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective within five (5) business days after such SEC notification. In the event that, following the date hereof and prior to the end of the Registration Period, the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3, the Company shall use such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares and shall convert such other form into Form S-3, or file a replacement registration statement on Form S-3, promptly after the first date on which it meets such requirements. The covenants of the Company pursuant to this Section 4 shall survive the Closing.

4.3 Registration Procedures and Indemnification. The Company and Purchaser hereby agree that (i) the registration procedures relating and applicable to the Registration Statement shall be governed by Sections 5(b) through Section 5(q), the last two paragraphs of Section 5, and Section 6 of the Registration Rights Agreement, dated April 15, 1999 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), by and among the Company, NBC Universal, Inc. and Seller, which sections are hereby incorporated herein by reference, provided that: (A) to the extent of any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, this Agreement shall control and (B) the aggregate number of days to which Purchaser shall be subject to Black-Out (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall not exceed ninety (90) days during any period of 12 consecutive months, and (ii) the Company will indemnify Purchaser and Purchaser will indemnify the Company for matters relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement as set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement and that the mutual indemnification obligations of the Company and Purchaser relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement shall be governed by Section 7 of the Registration Rights Agreement, which section is hereby incorporated herein by reference, except with regard to the limitation on the Company's liability included in Section 7(a) based on a Holder's failure to deliver a prospectus, which shall be incorporated by reference herein, only to the extent such Holder is subject to prospectus delivery requirement under applicable securities laws. For purposes of this Section 4.3, the term "Holder" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to Purchaser, the term "Registrable Securities" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to the Shares and the term "Registration Statement" shall be deemed to refer to the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 hereof) to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

4.4 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, the Company has not conveyed and will not convey to Purchaser any Non-Public Information.

4.5 Reports Under the Exchange Act. With a view to making available to Purchaser the benefits of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and any other rule or regulation of the SEC that may at any time permit Purchaser to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to:

(a) make available and keep current public information, within the meaning of Rule 144, at all times at which it is subject to the reporting requirement of the Exchange Act.

(b) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE V SECURITIES LAWS COMPLIANCE

Purchaser shall not, directly or indirectly, offer, sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of) any Common Stock of the Company, nor will Purchaser engage in, or permit any party on behalf of Purchaser or for the benefit of Purchaser to engage in, any short sale or other hedging transaction that results, or may result, in a disposition of any of the Shares by Purchaser, except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws.

ARTICLE VI MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

6.2 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

6.3 Entire Agreement: Survival; Indemnity. This Agreement (including the Exhibits attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements or understandings between the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof. The representations and warranties of the parties will survive the Closing. Seller and Purchaser will each indemnify the other against any loss, liability or expense arising out of any material breach of any of its representations and warranties in this Agreement, provided that total liability under this indemnity will not exceed the Purchase Price. A party intending to make a claim under this indemnity will provide the other party with prompt notice of its claim and, to the extent possible, the opportunity to defend and dispose of the claim.

6.4 Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each of Seller and Purchaser shall bear all of the expenses (including fees and disbursements of its counsel) incurred by or on behalf of it in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Further Assurances. Each party hereto shall execute and deliver all such further and additional instruments and agreements and shall take such further and additional actions, as may be reasonably requested by the other party in order to evidence or carry out the provisions of this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be enforced, governed, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State.

6.7 Jurisdiction; Venue. Any action, suit, or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or relating to, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby can be brought exclusively in federal court sitting in the Southern District of New York or, if such court does not have jurisdiction, any district court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, the County of New York, New York, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action, suit, or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such action, suit, or proceeding in any such court or that any such action, suit, or proceeding that is brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

6.8 Notices. Any notice, request, demand, or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by hand delivery, mail (first class, certified mail, postage prepaid), facsimile, or overnight courier if to any party hereto, at the address or facsimile number set forth below such party's name on the signature pages hereto or to such other address or facsimile number as such party shall have last designated by notice to the other parties hereto in accordance with this Section. Notices sent by hand delivery shall be deemed to have been given when received or delivery is refused; notices mailed in accordance with this Section shall be deemed to have been given three days after the date so mailed; notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when electronically confirmed; and notices sent by overnight courier shall be deemed to have been given on the next business day after the date so sent.

6.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under the applicable law of any jurisdiction, (i) the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances or in other jurisdictions shall not be affected thereby, and (ii) such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

6.10 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing express or implied in this Agreement, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any right, benefit, or remedy under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.11 WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY HERETO, HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT, OR PROCEEDING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, AT ANY TIME ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

6.12 Independent Nature of Obligations. The obligations of Purchaser under this Agreement or any document ancillary hereto (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") are several and not joint with the obligations of any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock, and Purchaser shall not be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other purchaser under any Transaction Document. Nothing contained herein or in any other Transaction Document, and no action taken by Purchaser or any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock pursuant hereto or thereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Purchaser and such other purchasers as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that Purchaser and such other purchasers are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents. Purchaser confirms that it has independently participated in the negotiation of the transaction contemplated hereby with the advice of its own counsel and advisors. Purchaser shall be entitled to independently protect and enforce its rights, including, without limitation, the rights arising out of this Agreement or out of any other Transaction Documents, and it shall not be necessary for any other purchaser to be joined as an additional party in any proceeding for such purpose.

ARTICLE IV COVENANTS OF THE COMPANY

4.1 Stock Certificate Legend. Promptly following the Closing, the Company agrees to provide Purchaser with stock certificates representing the Shares such that the appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares shall not reference the Shareholders Agreement. The Company shall take all reasonable action necessary (including providing appropriate opinions of counsel to its transfer agent, if necessary) to remove such legends with respect to Shares being sold by Purchaser pursuant to the Registration Statement.

4.2 Registration Statement. The Company hereby agrees that it shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as practicable but in no event more than 21 business days following the date hereof, a registration statement on Form S-3 (or such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares if the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3) (the "Registration Statement"), listing Purchaser as a selling stockholder therein, to enable the resale of the Shares by Purchaser from time to time and use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing and to remain continuously effective until the earlier of (1) the second anniversary of the effective date of the Registration Statement, (2) the date on which all Shares purchased by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement have been sold thereunder or (3) the date on which the Shares can be sold by holders thereof pursuant to Rule 144(k) promulgated under the Securities Act (the "Registration Period"). Before filing the Registration Statement, or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to Purchaser copies of all such documents proposed to be filed, which documents will be subject to review of Purchaser, and the Company will not file any such documents to which Purchaser shall reasonably object in writing within three (3) business days of receipt of such document. The Registration Statement shall register, pursuant to Rule 416(a) under the Securities

Act, the Shares and any additional shares of Common Stock of the Company resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, or similar transactions with respect to the Shares. If the Company receives notification from the SEC that the Registration Statement will be subject to no action or review from the SEC, then the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective within five (5) business days after such SEC notification. In the event that, following the date hereof and prior to the end of the Registration Period, the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3, the Company shall use such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares and shall convert such other form into Form S-3, or file a replacement registration statement on Form S-3, promptly after the first date on which it meets such requirements. The covenants of the Company pursuant to this Section 4 shall survive the Closing.

4.3 Registration Procedures and Indemnification. The Company and Purchaser hereby agree that (i) the registration procedures relating and applicable to the Registration Statement shall be governed by Sections 5(b) through Section 5(q), the last two paragraphs of Section 5, and Section 6 of the Registration Rights Agreement, dated April 15, 1999 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), by and among the Company, NBC Universal, Inc. and Seller, which sections are hereby incorporated herein by reference, provided that: (A) to the extent of any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, this Agreement shall control and (B) the aggregate number of days to which Purchaser shall be subject to Black-Out (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall not exceed ninety (90) days during any period of 12 consecutive months, and (ii) the Company will indemnify Purchaser and Purchaser will indemnify the Company for matters relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement as set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement and that the mutual indemnification obligations of the Company and Purchaser relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement shall be governed by Section 7 of the Registration Rights Agreement, which section is hereby incorporated herein by reference, except with regard to the limitation on the Company's liability included in Section 7(a) based on a Holder's failure to deliver a prospectus, which shall be incorporated by reference herein, only to the extent such Holder is subject to prospectus delivery requirement under applicable securities laws. For purposes of this Section 4.3, the term "Holder" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to Purchaser, the term "Registrable Securities" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to the Shares and the term "Registration Statement" shall be deemed to refer to the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 hereof) to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

4.4 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, the Company has not conveyed and will not convey to Purchaser any Non-Public Information.

4.5 Reports Under the Exchange Act. With a view to making available to Purchaser the benefits of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and any other rule or regulation of the SEC that may at any time permit Purchaser to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to:

(a) make available and keep current public information, within the meaning of Rule 144, at all times at which it is subject to the reporting requirement of the Exchange Act.

(b) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE V SECURITIES LAWS COMPLIANCE

Purchaser shall not, directly or indirectly, offer, sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of) any Common Stock of the Company, nor will Purchaser engage in, or permit any party on behalf of Purchaser or for the benefit of Purchaser to engage in, any short sale or other hedging transaction that results, or may result, in a disposition of any of the Shares by Purchaser, except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws.

ARTICLE VI MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

6.2 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

6.3 Entire Agreement: Survival; Indemnity. This Agreement (including the Exhibits attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements or understandings between the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof. The representations and warranties of the parties will survive the Closing. Seller and Purchaser will each indemnify the other against any loss, liability or expense arising out of any material breach of any of its representations and warranties in this Agreement, provided that total liability under this indemnity will not exceed the Purchase Price. A party intending to make a claim under this indemnity will provide the other party with prompt notice of its claim and, to the extent possible, the opportunity to defend and dispose of the claim.

6.4 Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each of Seller and Purchaser shall bear all of the expenses (including fees and disbursements of its counsel) incurred by or on behalf of it in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Further Assurances. Each party hereto shall execute and deliver all such further and additional instruments and agreements and shall take such further and additional actions, as may be reasonably requested by the other party in order to evidence or carry out the provisions of this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be enforced, governed, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State.

6.7 Jurisdiction; Venue. Any action, suit, or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or relating to, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby can be brought exclusively in federal court sitting in the Southern District of New York or, if such court does not have jurisdiction, any district court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, the County of New York, New York, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action, suit, or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such action, suit, or proceeding in any such court or that any such action, suit, or proceeding that is brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

6.8 Notices. Any notice, request, demand, or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by hand delivery, mail (first class, certified mail, postage prepaid), facsimile, or overnight courier if to any party hereto, at the address or facsimile number set forth below such party's name on the signature pages hereto or to such other address or facsimile number as such party shall have last designated by notice to the other parties hereto in accordance with this Section. Notices sent by hand delivery shall be deemed to have been given when received or delivery is refused; notices mailed in accordance with this Section shall be deemed to have been given three days after the date so mailed; notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when electronically confirmed; and notices sent by overnight courier shall be deemed to have been given on the next business day after the date so sent.

6.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under the applicable law of any jurisdiction, (i) the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances or in other jurisdictions shall not be affected thereby, and (ii) such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

6.10 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing express or implied in this Agreement, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any right, benefit, or remedy under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.11 WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY HERETO, HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT, OR PROCEEDING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, AT ANY TIME ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

6.12 Independent Nature of Obligations. The obligations of Purchaser under this Agreement or any document ancillary hereto (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") are several and not joint with the obligations of any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock, and Purchaser shall not be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other purchaser under any Transaction Document. Nothing contained herein or in any other Transaction Document, and no action taken by Purchaser or any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock pursuant hereto or thereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Purchaser and such other purchasers as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that Purchaser and such other purchasers are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents. Purchaser confirms that it has independently participated in the negotiation of the transaction contemplated hereby with the advice of its own counsel and advisors. Purchaser shall be entitled to independently protect and enforce its rights, including, without limitation, the rights arising out of this Agreement or out of any other Transaction Documents, and it shall not be necessary for any other purchaser to be joined as an additional party in any proceeding for such purpose.

THIS STOCK PURCHASE AND REGISTRATION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of July 8, 2005, between GE Capital Equity Investments, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Seller"), and the purchasers listed on Schedule 1 hereto (each, a "Purchaser" and collectively, the "Purchasers").

WHEREAS, Seller is the beneficial owner of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of ValueVision Media, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (the "Company"); and

WHEREAS, Seller wishes to sell to each Purchaser, and each Purchaser wishes to purchase from Seller, the number of shares of Common Stock set forth opposite the name of such Purchaser on Schedule 1 hereto (as may be adjusted equitably to reflect any stock dividends, recapitalizations, stock splits or similar transactions, the "Shares") on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I SALE AND PURCHASE OF SHARES

1.1 Sale and Purchase of Shares. At Closing (as defined below) and on the terms set forth herein, Seller shall sell and deliver to each Purchaser, and each Purchaser shall purchase and accept from Seller, all right, title, and interest of Seller in and to the Shares, free and clear of all mortgages, liens, pledges, security interests, charges, restrictions, and other encumbrances ("Liens"). The closing of the purchase and sale of the Shares shall take place on the earlier of (i) the second business day following the day on which the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 below) is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and (ii) September 15, 2005 (each such date referred to as the "Closing Date") at the offices of the Seller in New York City ("Closing").

1.2 Purchase Price. At Closing, each Purchaser shall pay to Seller for the Shares the aggregate amount set forth opposite the name of such Purchaser on Schedule 1 hereto (the "Purchase Price") by wire transfer of immediately available funds to a bank account designated in writing by Seller.

1.3 Deliveries. At Closing, (i) Seller shall deliver to each Purchaser the certificate or certificates evidencing the Shares, together with a stock power or stock powers in the form of EXHIBIT A duly executed by Seller; and (ii) each Purchaser shall deliver to Seller, the Purchase Price in accordance with Section 1.2.

ARTICLE II
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

Seller hereby represents and warrants to the Purchasers as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as follows:

2.1 Organization. Seller is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

2.2 Authorization. Seller has the requisite corporate power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by Seller of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Seller. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the duly authorized officer of Seller and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by each Purchaser, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

2.3 Consents and Approvals. Except as set forth in Article IV, and filings that may be required under Section 13(d) or Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), no consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any federal, state, or foreign court or governmental agency, authority, or body or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof ("Governmental Entity") or any other person or entity is required to be obtained or made by Seller in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

2.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Seller, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which Seller is a party, (iii) violate any order, judgment, decree, writ, or injunction ("Order") of any Governmental Entity applicable to Seller, or (iv) violate any domestic or foreign law, statute, rule, or regulation ("Law") applicable to Seller.

2.5 Title to Shares. Seller has good and valid title to the Shares. Seller is the record and beneficial owner of the Shares, free and clear of all Liens except as set forth in a Shareholder Agreement, dated April 15, 1999, among NBC Universal, Inc. the Seller and the Company (the "Shareholders Agreement") (which agreement will not bind the Purchasers). The delivery by Seller to the Purchasers of the certificate or certificates representing the Shares in accordance with this Agreement will vest each Purchaser with good and valid title to the Shares, free and clear of all Liens.

2.6 Exempt from Registration. Based in part on the representations of the Purchasers contained in Section 3.5 and 3.6 of this Agreement, the sale of the Shares hereunder is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

2.7 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby, Seller has not conveyed to the Purchasers any material non-public information in respect of the Company and/or the Company's business, operations, pending transactions, financial condition, results of operations, or prospects (collectively, "Non-Public Information").

ARTICLE III REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE PURCHASERS

Each Purchaser hereby severally represents and warrants to Seller as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as follows:

3.1 Organization. Such Purchaser is an organization of the type referred to in Schedule 1 of this Agreement and is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the applicable laws of the jurisdictions specified.

3.2 Authorization. Such Purchaser has the requisite power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it. The execution and delivery by such Purchaser of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such Purchaser. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of such Purchaser and, assuming the due execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of such Purchaser, enforceable against such Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

3.3 Consents and Approvals. No consent, approval, waiver, order, or authorization of, or registration, declaration, or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Entity is required to be obtained or made by such Purchaser in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Purchaser, the performance by such Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for any filings that may be required under Section 13 of the Exchange Act.

3.4 No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not, and neither the performance by such Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby to be performed by it, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will, (i) conflict with the organizational documents of such Purchaser, (ii) conflict with, result in any violation of, or constitute a default under any agreement to which such Purchaser is a party, or (iii) violate any Order of any Governmental Entity or any Law applicable to such Purchaser.

3.5 Securities Law Matters. Such Purchaser understands and acknowledges that as of the date hereof the Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, and, unless so registered, may not be offered, sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction. Such Purchaser acknowledges that appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares as aforesaid shall be placed on the stock certificates representing such Shares. Such Purchaser is an "accredited investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act). Such Purchaser (i) has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters such that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of purchasing the Shares, and (ii) is able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Shares for an indefinite period, including the risk of a complete loss of any such investment. The Shares were not offered to such Purchaser in any form of general solicitation or general advertisement and such Purchaser (i) is acquiring the Shares for investment for its own account, and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, (ii) does not have any agreement or understanding, whether or not legally binding, with any other person or entity, to sell, pledge, engage in short sales or other hedging transactions, transfer, or otherwise distribute or dispose of the Shares or any interest therein; provided, however, that by making the representations herein, such Purchaser does not agree to hold any of the Shares for any minimum or specific term and reserves the right to offer and dispose of the Shares at any time in accordance with, or pursuant to, an effective registration statement or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws. Such Purchaser understands and acknowledges that Seller may be deemed an "affiliate" of the Company (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act).

3.6 Investigation. Such Purchaser believes that it has received all the information it considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to purchase the Shares. Such Purchaser further represents that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from officers and other personnel of the Company regarding the Company, its business and financial condition. Such Purchaser acknowledges that (i) it is a sophisticated financial institution engaged in the business of assessing and assuming investment risks in respect of securities, including securities such as the Shares and is hereby voluntarily assuming the risks relating to the transactions contemplated hereby,

(ii) it is fully satisfied with the Purchase Price it is paying hereunder to Seller for the Shares, (iii) Seller may in the future enter into discussions with holders of the Company's Common Stock regarding the sale of all or a portion of its other shares of the Company's Common Stock for consideration greater or lesser than or different from the Purchase Price, and/or on terms and conditions different from the terms and conditions set forth herein, (iv) Seller is consummating this transaction with such Purchaser in reliance on such Purchaser's acknowledgements and representations contained in this Agreement and with such Purchaser's understanding and agreement that Seller is privy to Non-Public Information that may be material to a reasonable investor, such as such Purchaser, and has not been provided to such Purchaser by Seller or the Company, (v) Seller is under no duty or other obligation to disclose any Non-Public Information to such Purchaser, and (vi) as of the date hereof, the Company has neither publicly announced its financial results for any period after April 30, 2005 nor filed any report for such period. Each Purchaser hereby waives and releases to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law any claim or potential claim it has or may have against Seller, the Company or their respective officers, directors, stockholders, partners, affiliates, successors, and assigns, relating to any such person's possession of Non-Public Information.

ARTICLE IV COVENANTS OF THE COMPANY

4.1 Stock Certificate Legend. Promptly following the Closing, the Company agrees to provide each Purchaser with stock certificates representing the Shares such that the appropriate legends restricting the transfer of the Shares shall not reference the Shareholders Agreement. The Company shall take all reasonable action necessary (including providing appropriate opinions of counsel to its transfer agent, if necessary) to remove such legends with respect to Shares being sold by the Purchasers pursuant to the Registration Statement.

4.2 Registration Statement. The Company hereby agrees that it shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as practicable but in no event more than 21 business days following the date hereof, a registration statement on Form S-3 (or such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares if the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3) (the "Registration Statement"), listing each Purchaser as a selling stockholder therein, to enable the resale of the Shares by such Purchaser from time to time and use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective as promptly as possible after filing and to remain continuously effective until the earlier of (1) the second anniversary of the effective date of the Registration Statement, (2) the date on which all Shares purchased by the Purchasers pursuant to this Agreement have been sold thereunder or (3) the date on which the Shares can be sold by holders thereof pursuant to Rule 144(k) promulgated under the Securities Act (the "Registration Period"). Before filing the Registration Statement, or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to the Purchasers copies of all such documents proposed to be filed, which documents will be subject to review of the Purchasers, and the Company will not file any such documents to which the Purchasers shall reasonably object in writing within three (3) business days of receipt of such document. The Registration Statement shall register, pursuant to Rule

416(a) under the Securities Act, the Shares and any additional shares of Common Stock of the Company resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, or similar transactions with respect to the Shares. If the Company receives notification from the SEC that the Registration Statement will be subject to no action or review from the SEC, then the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective within five (5) business days after such SEC notification. In the event that, following the date hereof and prior to the end of the Registration Period, the Company does not meet the requirements for the use of Form S-3, the Company shall use such other form as is available for the registration of the Shares and shall convert such other form into Form S-3, or file a replacement registration statement on Form S-3, promptly after the first date on which it meets such requirements. The covenants of the Company pursuant to this Section 4 shall survive the Closing.

4.3 Registration Procedures and Indemnification. The Company and the Purchasers hereby agree that (i) the registration procedures relating and applicable to the Registration Statement shall be governed by Sections 5(b) through Section 5(q), the last two paragraphs of Section 5, and Section 6 of the Registration Rights Agreement, dated April 15, 1999 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), by and among the Company, NBC Universal, Inc. and Seller, which sections are hereby incorporated herein by reference, provided that: (A) to the extent of any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, this Agreement shall control and (B) the aggregate number of days to which the Purchasers shall be subject to Black-Out (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall not exceed ninety (90) days during any period of 12 consecutive months, and (ii) the Company will indemnify the Purchasers and the Purchasers will severally indemnify the Company for matters relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement as set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement and that the mutual indemnification obligations of the Company and the Purchasers relating to, or arising out of, the Registration Statement shall be governed by Section 7 of the Registration Rights Agreement, which section is hereby incorporated herein by reference, except with regard to the limitation on the Company's liability included in Section 7(a) based on a Holder's failure to deliver a prospectus, which shall be incorporated by reference herein, only to the extent such Holder is subject to prospectus delivery requirement under applicable securities laws. For purposes of this Section 4.3, the term "Holder" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to any Purchaser, the term "Registrable Securities" (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) shall be deemed to refer to the Shares and the term "Registration Statement" shall be deemed to refer to the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.2 hereof) to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

4.4 Information. In the course of discussions relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, the Company has not conveyed and will not convey to the Purchasers any Non-Public Information.

4.5 Reports Under the Exchange Act. With a view to making available to the Purchasers the benefits of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and any other rule or regulation of the SEC that may at any time permit the Purchasers to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to:

(a) make available and keep current public information, within the meaning of Rule 144, at all times at which it is subject to the reporting requirement of the Exchange Act.

(b) file with the SEC in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE V SECURITIES LAWS COMPLIANCE

No Purchaser shall, directly or indirectly, offer, sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of) any Common Stock of the Company, nor shall any Purchaser engage in, or permit any party on behalf of such Purchaser or for the benefit of such Purchaser to engage in, any short sale or other hedging transaction that results, or may result, in a disposition of any of the Shares by such Purchaser, except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction or otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws.

ARTICLE VI MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

6.3 Entire Agreement: Survival; Indemnity. This Agreement (including the Exhibits attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements or understandings between the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter hereof. The representations and warranties of the parties will survive the Closing. Seller and each Purchaser severally will each indemnify the other against any loss, liability or expense arising out of any material breach of any of its representations and warranties in this Agreement, provided that total liability under this indemnity will not exceed the Purchase Price. A party intending to make a claim under this indemnity will provide the other party with prompt notice of its claim and, to the extent possible, the opportunity to defend and dispose of the claim.

6.4 Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Seller and each Purchaser shall bear all of the expenses (including fees and disbursements of its counsel) incurred by or on its behalf in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Further Assurances. Each party hereto shall execute and deliver all such further and additional instruments and agreements and shall take such further and additional actions, as may be reasonably requested by the other party in order to evidence or carry out the provisions of this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be enforced, governed, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State.

6.7 Jurisdiction; Venue. Any action, suit, or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or relating to, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby can be brought exclusively in federal court sitting in the Southern District of New York or, if such court does not have jurisdiction, any district court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, the County of New York, New York, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action, suit, or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such action, suit, or proceeding in any such court or that any such action, suit, or proceeding that is brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

6.8 Notices. Any notice, request, demand, or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by hand delivery, mail (first class, certified mail, postage prepaid), facsimile, or overnight courier if to any party hereto, at the address or facsimile number set forth below such party's name on the signature pages hereto or to such other address or facsimile number as such party shall have last designated by notice to the other parties hereto in accordance with this Section. Notices sent by hand delivery shall be deemed to have been given when received or delivery is refused; notices mailed in accordance with this Section shall be deemed to have been given three days after the date so mailed; notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when electronically confirmed; and notices sent by overnight courier shall be deemed to have been given on the next business day after the date so sent.

6.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under the applicable law of any jurisdiction, (i) the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances or in other jurisdictions shall not be affected thereby, and (ii) such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

6.10 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing express or implied in this Agreement, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any right, benefit, or remedy under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.11 WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY HERETO, HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT, OR PROCEEDING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, AT ANY TIME ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

6.12 Independent Nature of Obligations. The obligations of the Purchasers under this Agreement or any document ancillary hereto (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") are several and not joint with the obligations of any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock, and the Purchasers shall not be responsible in any way for the performance of the obligations of any other purchaser under any Transaction Document. Nothing contained herein or in any other Transaction Document, and no action taken by the Purchasers or any other purchaser of Seller's Common Stock pursuant hereto or thereto, shall be deemed to constitute the Purchasers and such other purchasers as a partnership, an association, a joint venture or any other kind of entity, or create a presumption that the Purchasers and such other purchasers are in any way acting in concert or as a group with respect to such obligations or the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents. The Purchasers confirm that they have independently participated in the negotiation of the transaction contemplated hereby with the advice of their own counsel and advisors. The Purchasers shall be entitled to independently protect and enforce their rights, including, without limitation, the rights arising out of this Agreement or out of any other Transaction Documents, and it shall not be necessary for any other purchaser to be joined as an additional party in any proceeding for such purpose.
