Section 1—Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 9, 2006, Libbey Glass Inc. (“Libbey Glass”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Libbey Inc. (“Libbey”), and Libbey entered into a purchase agreement (the “Senior Secured Note Purchase Agreement”) pursuant to which it agreed to sell $306 million aggregate principal amount of floating rate senior secured notes due 2011 (the “Senior Secured Notes”) to the initial purchasers named therein (the “Initial Purchasers”) in a private placement. The net proceeds from the offering, after deducting the Initial Purchasers’ discount and the estimated offering expenses payable by Libbey Glass, are expected to be $290.3 million. The Senior Secured Notes will bear interest semiannually at a rate equal to six-month LIBOR plus 7.0% and were offered at a discount of 2% of face value.

On June 9, 2006, Libbey Glass and Libbey entered into a purchase agreement (the “Unit Purchase Agreement”) pursuant to which they agreed to sell units consisting of $102 million aggregate principal amount 16% senior subordinated secured pay-in-kind notes due 2011 of Libbey Glass (the “PIK Notes”) and detachable warrants to purchase a number of shares equal to an aggregate of three percent of Libbey’s currently outstanding common stock, on a fully diluted basis (the “Warrants”) to a purchaser named therein (the “Unit Purchaser”) in a private placement. The net proceeds from the offering, after deducting a placement agent’s discount and the estimated offering expenses payable by Libbey Glass, are expected to be $96.8 million. The PIK Notes will bear interest semiannually at a rate of 16%, with interest payable in kind through the first three years, and were offered at a discount of 2% of face value. Each Warrant will be exercisable at a 10% premium over the average market price of Libbey common stock as determined during a specified number of consecutive trading days prior to issuance of the Warrants.

The Senior Secured Notes and the PIK Notes will be guaranteed by Libbey and all of Libbey Glass’ existing and future subsidiaries that guarantee any of Libbey Glass’ debt or debt of any subsidiary guarantor. The Senior Secured Notes and related guarantees will have the benefit of a second-priority lien, subject to permitted liens, on collateral consisting of substantially all the tangible and intangible assets of Libbey Glass and its subsidiary guarantors (the “Collateral”) that secure all of the indebtedness under Libbey Glass’ new senior secured credit facility to be entered into concurrently with the closing of the offering of the Senior Secured Notes (the “ABL Facility”). The Collateral will not include the assets of non-guarantor subsidiaries that will secure the ABL Facility. The PIK Notes and related guarantees will be senior subordinated obligations of Libbey Glass and the guarantors of the PIK Notes, and will have the benefit of a third-priority lien, subject to permitted liens, on the Collateral.

The closing of the sale of the Senior Secured Notes, the PIK Notes and the Warrants and is expected to occur on June 16, 2006, subject to customary closing conditions. The Senior Secured Notes, the PIK Notes, the related guarantees, the Warrants and the shares of Libbey common stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or any state securities laws, and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. persons absent registration or an applicable exemption from
