ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On June 7, 1995, the shareholders of Devon Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Devon Delaware"), approved a Plan and Agreement of Merger and Reorganization (the "Reincorporation") having the effect of changing Devon Delaware's state of incorporation from Delaware to Oklahoma. The Reincorporation was accomplished by merging Devon Delaware into its newly-formed Oklahoma subsidiary, Devon Oklahoma Corporation ("Devon Oklahoma"). Devon Oklahoma was then renamed Devon Energy Corporation (the "Company") and continued conducting business as the successor to Devon Delaware.

The Board of Directors believes that the best interests of the Company's shareholders were served by changing the state of incorporation to Oklahoma. The major factor in determining to reincorporate in Oklahoma was the elimination of $150,000 in Delaware franchise tax. Devon Delaware already paid franchise taxes in Oklahoma because of the business it conducted in the state. No additional franchise or other taxes are due to the State of Oklahoma as a result of the Reincorporation. Since the Oklahoma corporation laws are similar to Delaware's, the Reincorporation did not represent a material change to the laws governing the Company's shareholders.

The Reincorporation did not result in any change in the number of shares issued or outstanding, in the trading of the shares on the American Stock Exchange or in the Company's Board of Directors. In addition, the Company's bylaws, preferred stock designations and stock option plans are the same as its predecessor's.

The Company's certificate of incorporation and share rights plan have changed somewhat. The certificate of incorporation was changed to correct provisions which were in conflict with portions of the Oklahoma law (which are the same as the Delaware law) changed after the Company was originally incorporated. The changes to the share rights plan were made primarily to modernize the structure and to avoid unintended results arising from unclear language or from circumstances not foreseen when the plan was adopted. Also, the plan was simplified and the term of the plan was extended from the original expiration date of June 29, 1998 to April 16, 2005, ten years from the date of the formation of the new corporation.

A detailed discussion of the Reincorporation was included in the proxy statement covering the June 7, 1995 annual meeting of shareholders.
