Item 1. Description of Business

History

Big Flash Corporation was incorporated on July 27, 1999 under the laws of the State of Delaware, for the purpose of actively seeking potential operating businesses and/or business opportunities, with the intent to acquire or merge with such businesses. Following its organization, Big Flash issued a total of 1.5 million shares of its common stock.

On November 16, 1999, we filed a registration statement with the SEC on Form SB-2 under the Securities Act of 1933, for the purpose of registering for resale the 1.5 million shares of our common stock then outstanding. The registration statement was subsequently withdrawn and, on July 28, 2000, we filed a registration statement on Form 10-SB under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The registration statement became effective automatically 60 days after filing with the SEC.

Current Business Activities

Since our inception, we have engaged in only sporadic business operations and are deemed a development stage company. Presently, our only business is to seek out and investigate potential operating businesses and business opportunities with the goal of potentially acquiring or merging with one or more of these businesses. No representation is made, nor is any intended, that we will be able to carry on future business activities successfully. Further, there can be no assurance that we will have the ability to acquire or merge with an operating business, business opportunity or property that will be of material value to us.

Management plans to investigate, research and, if justified, potentially acquire or merge with one or more businesses or business opportunities. We currently have no commitment or arrangement, written or oral, to participate in any business opportunity and management cannot predict the nature of any potential business opportunity it may ultimately consider. Management will have broad discretion in its search for and negotiations with any potential business or business opportunity.

Our principal executive offices are located at 19 East 200 South, Suite 1080, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, and our telephone number is (801) 322-3401.

Sources of Business Opportunities

Management intends to use various resources in its search for potential business opportunities including, but not limited to, our officers and directors, consultants, special advisors, securities broker-dealers, venture capitalists, members of the financial community and others who may present management with unsolicited proposals. Because of our lack of capital, we may not be able to retain, on a fee basis, professional firms specializing in business acquisitions and reorganizations. Rather, we will most likely have to rely on outside sources, not otherwise associated with us, that will accept their compensation only after we have finalized a successful acquisition or merger. To date, we have not engaged or entered into any discussion, agreement or understanding with a particular consultant regarding our search for business opportunities. Presently, no final decision has been made nor is management in a position to identify any future prospective consultants.

If we elect to engage an independent consultant, we will look only to consultants that have experience in working with small companies in search of an appropriate business opportunity. Also, the consultant must have experience in locating viable merger and/or acquisition candidates and have a proven track record of finalizing such business consolidations. Further, we would prefer to engage a consultant that will provide services for only nominal up-front consideration and is willing to be fully compensated only at the close of a business consolidation.

We do not intend to limit our search to any specific kind of industry, business or geographical location. We may investigate and ultimately acquire a venture that is in its preliminary or development stage, is already in operation, or in various stages of its corporate existence and development. Management cannot predict at this time the status or nature of any venture in which we may participate. A potential venture might need additional capital or merely desire to have its shares publicly traded. The most likely scenario for a possible business arrangement would involve the acquisition of or merger with an operating business that does not need additional capital, but which merely desires to establish a public trading market for its shares. Management believes that we could provide a potential public vehicle for a private entity interested in becoming a publicly held corporation without the time and expense typically associated with an initial public offering.

Evaluation

Once we identify a particular entity as a potential acquisition or merger candidate, management will seek to determine whether acquisition or merger is warranted, or whether further investigation is necessary. Such determination will generally be based on management's knowledge and experience, or with the assistance of outside advisors and consultants evaluating the preliminary information available to them. Management may elect to engage outside independent consultants to perform preliminary analysis of potential business opportunities. However, because of our lack of capital we may not have the necessary funds for a complete and exhaustive investigation of any particular opportunity.

In evaluating such potential business opportunities, we will consider, to the extent relevant to the specific opportunity, several factors including:

- * potential benefits to us and our stockholders;
- * working capital;
- * financial requirements and availability of additional financing;
- * history of operation, if any;
- * nature of present and expected competition;
- * quality and experience of management;
- * need for further research, development or exploration;
- * potential for growth and expansion;
- * potential for profits; and
- * other factors deemed relevant to the specific opportunity.

Because we are a reporting company subject to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we are required to file certain annual, periodic and other reports with the SEC. These requirements include the affirmative duty to file independent audited financial statements annually as part of our Form 10-KSB. Further, any business or entity that we acquire or merge with must also have independent audited financial statements for at least the two most recent fiscal years, or from the date of their inception, if less than two years. Upon consummation of a merger or acquisition, we are required to file with the SEC on Form 8-K or other report, audited financial statements of the business or entity acquired. If such audited financial statements are not available at the closing of the acquisition or merger, or within time parameters set forth by various regulations of the SEC, or if the audited financial statements provided do not conform to the representations made by the business to be acquired, we may not be able to finalize the transaction. Accordingly, we intend to consider as potential acquisitions or mergers only those businesses or entities that can provide the requisite financial statements.

Because we have not yet located or identified any specific business opportunity, there are certain unidentified risks that cannot be adequately expressed prior to the identification of a specific business opportunity. There can be no assurance following consummation of any acquisition or merger that the business venture will develop into a going concern or, if the business is already operating, that it will continue to operate successfully. Many potential business opportunities available to us may involve new and untested products, processes or market strategies which may not ultimately prove successful.

Form of Potential Acquisition or Merger

We cannot predict the manner in which we might participate in a prospective business opportunity. Each separate potential opportunity will be reviewed and, upon the basis of that review, a suitable legal structure or method of participation will be chosen. The particular manner in which we participate in a specific business opportunity will depend upon the nature of that opportunity, the respective needs and desires of our management and management of the opportunity, and the relative negotiating strength of the parties involved. Actual participation in a business venture may take the form of an asset purchase, lease, joint venture, license, partnership, stock purchase, reorganization, acquisition, merger or consolidation. We may act directly or indirectly through an interest in a partnership, corporation, or other form of organization, however, we do not intend to participate in an opportunity through the purchase of a minority stock position.

Because we have no assets and a limited operating history, in the event we successfully acquire or merge with an operating business opportunity, it is likely that our present stockholders will experience substantial dilution. It is also probable that there will be a change in control of our company. The owners of any business opportunity which we acquire or merge with will most likely acquire control following such transaction. Management has not established any guidelines as to the amount of control it will offer to prospective business opportunities, but rather management will attempt to negotiate the best possible agreement for the benefit of our stockholders.

Presently, management does not intend to borrow funds to compensate any person, consultant, promoter or affiliate in relation to the consummation of a potential merger or acquisition. However, if we engage any outside advisor or consultant in our search for business opportunities, it may be necessary for us to attempt to raise additional funds. As of the date hereof, we have not made any arrangements or definitive agreements to use outside advisors or consultants or to raise any capital. In the event we do need to raise capital, most likely the only method available to us would be the private sale of our securities. These possible private sales would most likely have to be to persons known by our directors or to venture capitalists that would be willing to accept the risks associated with investing in a company with no current operation. Because of our nature as a development stage company, it is unlikely that we could make a public sale of securities or be able to borrow any significant sum from either a commercial or private lender. Management will attempt to acquire funds on the best available terms. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain additional funding when and if needed, or that such funding, if available, can be obtained on reasonable or acceptable terms. Although not presently anticipated, there is a remote possibility that we could sell securities to our management or affiliates.

There exists a possibility that the terms of any future acquisition or merger transaction might include the sale of shares presently held by our officers and/or directors to parties affiliated with or designated by the potential business opportunity. Presently, management has no plans to seek or actively negotiate such terms. However, if this situation does arise, management is obligated to follow our Articles of Incorporation and all applicable corporate laws in negotiating such an arrangement. Under this scenario of a possible sale by officers and directors, it is unlikely that similar terms and conditions would be offered to all other stockholders or that stockholders would be given the opportunity to approve such a transaction.

In the event of a successful acquisition or merger, a finder's fee, in the form of cash or securities, may be paid to a person or persons instrumental in facilitating the transaction. No criteria or limits have been established for the determination of an appropriate finder's fee, although it is likely that any fee will be based upon negotiations by us, the business opportunity and the finder. Management cannot at this time make an estimate as to the type or amount of a potential finder's fee that might be paid. It is unlikely that a finder's fee will be paid to an affiliate because of the potential conflict of interest that might result. If such a fee was paid to an affiliate, it would have to be in such a manner so as not to compromise an affiliate's possible fiduciary duty to us or to violate the doctrine of corporate opportunity. Further, in the unlikely event a finder's fee was to be paid to an affiliate, we would most likely have such an arrangement ratified by the stockholders in an appropriate manner.

The board of directors believes that it is highly unlikely that we will acquire or merge with a business opportunity in which our management, affiliates or promoters have an ownership interest. Any possible related party transaction of this type would have to be ratified by a disinterested board of directors and by the stockholders. Management does not anticipate that we will acquire or merge with any related entity. Further, as of the date hereof, none of our officers, directors, or affiliates or associates have had any preliminary contact or discussions with any specific business opportunity, nor are there any present plans, proposals, arrangements or understandings regarding the possibility of an acquisition or merger with any specific business opportunity.

Rights of Stockholders

Management anticipates that prior to consummating any acquisition or merger, if required by relevant state laws and regulations, we will seek to have the transaction ratified by stockholders in the appropriate manner. However, under Delaware law, certain actions that would routinely be taken at a meeting of stockholders, may be taken by written consent of stockholders having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting of stockholders. Thus, if stockholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares decide by written consent to consummate an acquisition or a merger, minority stockholders would not be given the opportunity to vote on the issue. The board of directors will have the discretion to consummate an acquisition or merger by written consent if it is determined to be in our best interest to do so. Regardless of whether an action to acquire or merge is ratified by written consent or by holding a stockholders' meeting, we will provide to stockholders complete disclosure documentation concerning a potential target business opportunity including the appropriate audited financial statements of the target. This information will be disseminated by proxy statement in the event a stockholders' meeting is held, or by an information statement pursuant to Regulation 14C of the Exchange Act if the action is taken by written consent.

Under Delaware corporate laws, stockholders may be entitled to assert appraisal or dissenters' rights if we acquire or merge with a business opportunity. Stockholders will be entitled to dissent from and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares in the event of consummation of a plan of merger to which we are a party, if approval by the stockholders is required under applicable Delaware law. Also, stockholders will be entitled to appraisal rights if we enter into a share exchange whereby our shares are to be acquired. A stockholder who is entitled to assert appraisal rights and obtain the fair value for their shares, may not challenge the corporate action creating this entitlement, unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the stockholder or the company. A dissenting stockholder shall refrain from voting their shares in approval of the corporate action. If the proposed action is approved by the required vote of stockholders, we must give notice to all stockholders who delivered to us their written notice of dissent.

Competition

Because no potential acquisition or merger candidate has been identified, we are unable to evaluate the type and extent of our likely competition. We are aware that there are several other public companies with only nominal assets that are also searching for operating businesses and other business opportunities as potential acquisition or merger candidates. In addition to competing with these other public companies, we are also in direct competition with many established venture capital and financial concerns that have significantly greater financial and personnel resources and technical expertise than us. In view of our limited financial resources and limited experience, we will be at a significant competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors.

Employees

As of the date hereof, we do not have any employees and have no plans for retaining employees until such time as our business warrants the expense, or until we successfully acquire or merge with an operating business. We may find it necessary to periodically hire part-time clerical help on an as-needed basis.

Facilities

We currently use as our principal place of business the offices of one of our directors, Geoff Williams, located in Salt Lake City, Utah. The facilities are shared with other businesses.

Although we have no written agreement and currently pay no rent for the use of these facilities, it is contemplated that at such future time as we acquire or merge with an operating business, we will secure commercial office space from which we will conduct our business. However, until such time as we complete an acquisition or merger, the type of business in which we will be engaged and the type of office and other facilities that will be required, is unknown. We have no current plans to secure such commercial office space.

Industry Segments

No information is presented regarding industry segments. We are presently a development stage company seeking a potential acquisition or merger with a yet to be identified business opportunity. Reference is made to the statements of income included herein in response to Part F/S of this Form 10-KSB for a report of our operating history for the past two fiscal years.

Risk Factors Related to Our Business

We are and may be subject to substantial risks specific to a particular business or business opportunity, which specific risks cannot be ascertained until a potential acquisition or merger candidate has been identified. However, at a minimum, our present and proposed business operations will be highly speculative and be subject to the same types of risks inherent in any new or unproven venture, and will include the types of risk factors outlined below.

We have no assets and no source of revenue

We currently have no assets and have had no revenues for several years. It is unlikely that we will receive any revenues until we complete an acquisition or merger. There can be no assurance that any acquired business will produce any material revenues for us or our stockholders or that any such business will operate on a profitable basis.

Our auditors have expressed a going concern opinion

Our independent auditors discuss in their report significant doubt regarding our ability to continue as a going concern. They include a statement in the notes to our financial statements as follows:

"The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating losses until it becomes profitable. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations."

If we are not able to secure necessary funding or to consummate a successful acquisition or merger, we may be forced to cease operations. You are encouraged to read note 2 to financial statements included herewith.

Discretionary use of proceeds

We are not currently engaged in any substantive business activities other than looking for and investigating business opportunities. Accordingly, management has broad discretion with respect to the potential acquisition of any business, assets, property. Although management intends to apply any proceeds it may receive through the future issuance of stock or debt to a suitable acquired business, we will have broad discretion in applying these funds. There can be no assurance that our use or allocation of such proceeds will allow it to achieve its business objectives.

No substantive disclosure relating to prospective acquisitions

Because we have not yet identified any specific industry, assets or business that we may seek, potential investors in our securities will have no substantive information upon which to base a decision whether to invest in our securities until such a transaction is completed. Prospective investors currently have no basis to evaluate the comparative risks and merits of investing in the industry or business in which we may acquire. Potential investors would have access to significantly more information if we had already identified a potential acquisition or if the acquisition target had made an offering of its securities directly to the public.

Future acquisition or merger may result in substantial dilution

We are currently authorized to issued 20 million shares of common stock, of which 1.5 million shares are outstanding as of the date hereof. The issuance of additional shares in connection with any acquisition or merger transaction or the raising of capital may result in substantial dilution of the holdings of current stockholders.

Management will devote only minimal time to our business

Presently, our directors have other full time obligations and will devote only such time to our business as necessary to maintain our viability. Thus, because of management's other time commitments, together with the fact that we have no business operations, management anticipates that it will devote only a minimal amount of time to our activities, at least until such time as we have identified a suitable acquisition candidate.

Effective voting control held by directors

Our directors own in the aggregate approximately 59.2% of our outstanding voting securities. Only one stockholder owns in excess of 5%. Accordingly, our current directors will have the ability to elect all of our directors, who in turn elect all executive officers, without regard to the votes of other stockholders.

No public market for our common stock

Management currently anticipates that within 12 months from the filing of this report, we will apply for listing of our common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board. However, there is currently no market for our shares and there can be no assurance that any such market will ever develop or be maintained. Any trading market that may develop in the future will most likely be very volatile, and numerous factors beyond our control may have a significant effect on the market. Only companies that report their current financial information to the SEC may have their securities included on the OTC Bulletin Board. Therefore, we must keep current in our filing obligations with the SEC, including our periodic and annual reports and the financial statements required thereby. In the event that we become delinquent in our filings or otherwise lose our status as a "reporting issuer," any future quotation of our shares on the OTC Bulletin Board may be jeopardized.

Item 2. Description of Property

We do not presently own any property.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

There are no material pending legal proceedings to which our company, or any subsidiary thereof, is a party or to which any of our property is subject and, to the best of our knowledge, no such actions against us are contemplated or threatened.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters were submitted to a vote of our securities holders during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

PART II

Item 5. Market for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

There is not currently, nor has there ever been, a public trading market for our common stock. We have made an initial application to the NASD to have our shares quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board. Our application consists of current corporate information, financial statements and other documents as required by Rule 15c2-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Inclusion on the OTC Bulletin Board permits price quotations for our shares to be published by that service. Although we have submitted an application to the OTC Bulletin Board, we do not anticipate a public trading market in our shares in the immediate future. Any future secondary trading of our shares may be subject to certain state imposed restrictions. Except for the application to the OTC Bulletin Board, there are no plans, proposals, arrangements or understandings with any person concerning the development of a trading market in any of our securities. There can be no assurance that our shares will be accepted for trading on the OTC Bulletin Board or any other recognized trading market. Also, there can be no assurance that a public trading market will develop following acceptance by the OTC Bulletin Board or at any other time in the future or, that if such a market does develop, that it can be sustained.

The ability of individual stockholders to trade their shares in a particular state may be subject to various rules and regulations of that state. A number of states require that an issuer's securities be registered in their state or appropriately exempted from registration before the securities are permitted to trade in that state. Presently, we have no plans to register our securities in any particular state.

It is most unlikely that our securities will be listed on any national or regional exchange or on The Nasdaq Stock Market. Therefore our shares most likely will be subject to the provisions of Section 15(g) and Rule 15g-9 of the Exchange Act, commonly referred to as the "penny stock" rule. Section 15(g) sets forth certain requirements for broker-dealer transactions in penny stocks and Rule 15g-9(d)(1) incorporates the definition of penny stock as that used in Rule 3a51-1 of the Exchange Act.

The SEC generally defines penny stock to be any equity security that has a market price less than $5.00 per share, subject to certain exceptions. Rule 3a51-1 provides that any equity security is considered to be a penny stock unless that security is:

- * registered and traded on a national securities exchange meeting specified criteria set by the SEC;
- * authorized for quotation on The NASDAQ Stock Market;
- * issued by a registered investment company;
- * excluded from the definition on the basis of price (at least $5.00 per share) or the issuer's net tangible assets; or
- * exempted from the definition by the SEC.

Broker-dealers who sell penny stocks to persons other than established customers and accredited investors (generally persons with assets in excess of $1,000,000 or annual income exceeding $200,000, or $300,000 together with their spouse), are subject to additional sales practice requirements. Broker-dealers must also make a special suitability determination for the purchase of such securities and must have received the purchaser's written consent to the transaction prior to the purchase. Additionally, for any transaction involving a penny stock, unless exempt, the rules require the delivery, prior to the first transaction, of a risk disclosure document relating to the penny stock market. A broker-dealer also must disclose the commissions payable to both the broker-dealer and the registered representative, and current quotations for the securities. Finally, monthly statements must be sent to clients disclosing recent price information for the penny stocks held in the account and information on the limited market in penny stocks.

Consequently, these rules may restrict the ability of broker-dealers to trade and/or maintain a market in our common stock and may affect the ability of stockholders to sell their shares. These requirements may be considered cumbersome by broker-dealers and could impact the willingness of a particular broker-dealer to make a market in our shares, or they could affect the value at which our shares trade. Classification of the shares as penny stocks increases the risk of an investment in our shares.

As of December 31, 2004, there were approximately 35 holders of record of our common stock. Because all of our outstanding shares of common stock were issued pursuant to exemptions under the 1933 Act, we have considered all outstanding shares as restricted securities. Corporate records indicate that all of the issued and outstanding shares were issued in 1999 in private transactions. We have relied upon the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the 1933 Act in the private issuance of shares. To the best of our knowledge, no private placement memorandum was used in relation to the issuance of shares.

Under Rule 144(k) of the 1933 Act, the requirements of paragraphs (c), (e), (f), and (h) of Rule 144 do not apply to restricted securities sold for the account of a person who is not an affiliate of an issuer at the time of the sale and has not been an affiliate during the preceding three months, provided the securities have been beneficially owned by the seller for a period of at least two years prior to their sale. Thus, in reliance on Rule 144(k), we consider 15,800 shares to be free of restriction, unless held by an affiliate or controlling stockholder. For purposes of this report only, a controlling stockholder is considered to be a person owning ten percent (10%) or more of our total outstanding shares, or is otherwise deemed an affiliate. No individual person owning a portion of the 15,800 shares owns more than five percent (5%) of the total outstanding shares.

The remaining 1,484,200 shares are considered restricted securities and presently held by four stockholders. Of these restricted shares, 888,200 shares are presently eligible for sale pursuant to the provisions of Rule 144, subject to the volume and other limitations set forth under Rule 144. The balance of 596,000 restricted shares have been held by the current stockholder for less than one year and are not eligible for Rule 144.

Under the provisions of Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, restricted securities may be sold into the public market, subject to holding period, volume and other limitations set forth under the Rule. In general, under Rule 144 as currently in effect, a person (or persons whose shares are aggregated) who has beneficially owned restricted shares for at least one year, including any person who may be deemed to be an "affiliate" (as the term "affiliate" is defined under the Securities Act), is entitled to sell, within any three-month period, an amount of shares that does not exceed the greater of

- * the average weekly trading volume in the common stock, as reported through the automated quotation system of a registered securities association, during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale, or
- * 1% of the shares then outstanding.

In order for a stockholder to rely on Rule 144, we must have available adequate current public information with respect to our business and financial status. A person who is not deemed to be an "affiliate" and has not been an affiliate for the most recent three months, and who has held restricted shares for at least two years would be entitled to sell such shares under Rule 144(k) without regard to the various resale limitations of Rule 144.

The SEC has informed us that, based on a letter dated January 21, 2000 to Mr. Ken Worm, Assistant Director of the OTC Compliance Unit at the NASD, the SEC's view is that securities issued by a blank check company cannot be resold under Rule 144 but must be registered under the Securities Act of 1933. The SEC's view may be applicable to the shares of our outstanding common stock.

Dividend Policy

We have not declared or paid cash dividends or made distributions in the past on our common stock, and we do not anticipate that we will pay cash dividends or make distributions in the foreseeable future. We currently intend to retain and invest future earnings to finance operations.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

The following information should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-KSB.

We are considered a development stage company with no assets or capital and with no material operations or income. The costs and expenses associated with the preparation and filing of this report and other reports and our registration statement in 2000, have been paid for by advances from stockholders. It is anticipated that we will require only nominal capital to maintain our corporate viability and necessary funds will most likely be provided by our officers and directors in the immediate future. However, unless we are able to facilitate an acquisition of or merger with an operating business or are able to obtain significant outside financing, there is substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

In the opinion of management, inflation has not and will not have a material effect on our operations until such time as we successfully complete an acquisition or merger. At that time, management will evaluate the possible effects of inflation related to our business and operations.

Plan of Operation

During the next 12 months, we will actively seek out and investigate possible business opportunities with the intent to acquire or merge with one or more business ventures. In our search for business opportunities, management will follow the procedures outlined in Item 1 above. Because we lack funds, it may be necessary for our officers and directors to either advance funds to us or to accrue expenses until such time as a successful business consolidation can be made. Management intends to hold expenses to a minimum and to obtain services on a contingency basis when possible. Further, our directors will defer any compensation until such time as an acquisition or merger can be accomplished and will strive to have the business opportunity provide their remuneration. However, if we engage outside advisors or consultants in our search for business opportunities, it may be necessary for us to attempt to raise additional funds. As of the date hereof, we have not made any arrangements or definitive agreements to use outside advisors or consultants or to raise any capital. In the event we do need to raise capital, most likely the only method available to us would be the private sale of our securities. Because of our nature as a development stage company, it is unlikely that we could make a public sale of securities or be able to borrow any significant sum from either a commercial or private lender. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain additional funding when and if needed, or that such funding, if available, can be obtained on acceptable terms.

We do not intend to use any employees, with the possible exception of part-time clerical assistance on an as-needed basis. Outside advisors or consultants will be used only if they can be obtained for minimal cost or on a deferred payment basis. Management is confident that it will be able to operate in this manner and to continue its search for business opportunities during the next twelve months.

Net Operating Loss

We have accumulated approximately $12,000 of net operating loss carryforwards as of December 31, 2004. This loss carryforward may be offset against taxable income and income taxes in future years and expires in the year 2024. The use of these losses to reduce future income taxes will depend on the generation of sufficient taxable income prior to the expiration of the net operating loss carryforwards. In the event of certain changes in control, there will be an annual limitation on the amount of net operating loss carryforwards which can be used. No tax benefit has been reported in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 because it has been fully offset by a valuation reserve. The use of future tax benefit is undeterminable because we presently have no operations.

Forward-Looking and Cautionary Statements

This report on Form 10-KSB includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements may relate to such matters as anticipated financial performance, future revenues or earnings, business prospects, projected ventures, new products and services, anticipated market performance and similar matters. When used in this report, the words "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "continue," "estimate," "project," "intend," and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 regarding events, conditions, and financial trends that may affect our future plans of operations, business strategy, operating results, and financial position. We caution readers that a variety of factors could cause our actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other matters expressed in forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, include:

- * the sufficiency of existing capital resources and our ability to raise additional capital to fund cash requirements for future operations;
- * uncertainties following any successful acquisition or merger related to the future rate of growth of our business and acceptance of our products and/or services;
- * volatility of the stock market, particularly within the technology sector; and * general economic conditions.

Although we believe the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, such expectations cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or FASB, issued Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, which addresses the consolidation of business enterprises (variable interest entities), to which the usual condition of consolidation, a controlling financial interest, does not apply. FIN 46 requires an entity to assess its business relationships to determine if they are variable interest entities. As defined in FIN 46, variable interests are contractual, ownership or other interests in an entity that change with changes in the entity's net asset value. Variable interests in an entity may arise from financial instruments, service contracts, guarantees, leases or other arrangements with the variable interest entity. An entity that will absorb a majority of the variable interest entity's expected losses or expected residual returns, as defined in FIN 46, is considered the primary beneficiary of the variable interest entity. The primary beneficiary must include the variable interest entity's assets, liabilities and results of operations in its consolidated financial statements. FIN 46 is immediately effective for all variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. For variable interest entities created prior to this date, the provisions of FIN 46 were originally required to be applied no later than our first quarter of Fiscal 2004. On October 8, 2003, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) FIN 46-6, Effective Date of FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. The FSP provides a limited deferral (until the end of our second quarter of 2004) of the effective date of FIN 46 for certain interests of a public entity in a variable interest entity or a potential variable interest entity. We will continue to evaluate FIN 46, but due to the complex nature of the analysis required by FIN 46, we have not determined the impact on our consolidated results of operations or financial position.

In April 2003, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) SFAS No. 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 149 amends and clarifies accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133. In particular, this Statement clarifies under what circumstances a contract with an initial net investment meets the characteristic of a derivative and when a derivative contains a financing component that warrants special reporting in the statement of cash flows. We adopted this standard for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003. The adoption of SFAS No. 149 did not have a material impact on our consolidated results of operations or financial position.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This Statement requires certain financial instruments that embody obligations of the issuer and have characteristics of both liabilities and equity to be classified as liabilities. We adopted this standard for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003. The adoption of SFAS No. 150 did not have a material impact on our consolidated results of operations or financial position.

On December 16, 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, which is an amendment to SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. This new standard eliminates the ability to account for share-based compensation transactions using Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and generally requires such transactions to be accounted for using a fair-value-based method and the resulting cost recognized in our financial statements. This new standard is effective for awards that are granted, modified or settled in cash in interim and annual periods beginning after June 15, 2005. In addition, this new standard will apply to unvested options granted prior to the effective date. We will adopt this new standard effective for the fourth fiscal quarter of 2005, and have not yet determined what impact this standard will have on our financial position or results of operations.

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, Inventory Costs - an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4. This Statement amends the guidance in ARB No. 43, Chapter 4, "Inventory Pricing," to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage). Paragraph 5 of ARB 43, Chapter 4, previously stated that ". . . under some circumstances, items such as idle facility expense, excessive spoilage, double freight, and rehandling costs may be so abnormal as to require treatment as current period charges. . . ." This Statement requires that those items be recognized as current-period charges regardless of whether they meet the criterion of "so abnormal." In addition, this Statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. This statement is effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management does not believe the adoption of this Statement will have any immediate material impact on the company.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 152, Accounting for Real Estate Time-sharing Transactions, which amends FASB statement No. 66, Accounting for Sales of Real Estate, to reference the financial accounting and reporting guidance for real estate time-sharing transactions that is provided in AICPA Statement of Position (SOP) 04-2, Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions. This statement also amends FASB Statement No. 67, Accounting for Costs and Initial Rental Operations of Real Estate Projects, to state that the guidance for (a) incidental operations and (b) costs incurred to sell real estate projects does not apply to real estate time-sharing transactions. The accounting for those operations and costs is subject to the guidance in SOP 04-2. This Statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes the adoption of this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the company.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No.153, Exchange of Nonmonetary Assets. This Statement addresses the measurement of exchanges of nonmonetary assets. The guidance in APB Opinion No. 29, Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions, is based on the principle that exchanges of nonmonetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. The guidance in that Opinion, however, included certain exceptions to that principle. This Statement amends Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This Statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges incurred during fiscal years beginning after the date of this statement is issued. Management believes the adoption of this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the company.

Item 7. Financial Statements

Financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 have been examined to the extent indicated in their reports by Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC, independent certified public accountants and have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and pursuant to Regulation S-B as promulgated by the SEC. The aforementioned financial statements are included herein starting with page F-1.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

We have not had any disagreements with our certified public accountants with respect to accounting practices or procedures of financial disclosures.

Item 8A. Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based upon that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to cause the material information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act to be recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. There have been no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors which could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date we carried out our evaluation.

Item 8B. Other Information

Not applicable.

PART III

Item 9. Directors, Executive Officers, Promoters and Control Persons; Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

The following table sets forth the names, ages, and offices held by our directors and executive officers:

Name	Age	Position
----	---	-----
J. Rockwell Smith	64	Chairman of the Board and Director
Edward F. Cowle	48	President, C.E.O. and Director
Geoff Williams	34	Secretary and Director

All directors hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. There are no agreements with respect to the election of directors. We have not compensated our directors for service on the board of directors or any committee thereof, but directors are entitled to be reimbursed for expenses incurred for attendance at meetings of the board and any committee of the board. However, due to our lack of funds, directors will defer their expenses and any compensation until such time as we can consummate a successful acquisition or merger. As of the date hereof, no director has accrued any expenses or compensation. Officers are appointed annually by the board and each executive officer serves at the discretion of the board. We do not have any standing committees.

None of our directors are currently, nor for the past three years have been, a director of a "shell" or "blank check" company or other corporation that is actively pursuing acquisitions or mergers, except as set forth below in their respective resumes.

No director, officer, affiliate or promoter has, within the past five years, filed any bankruptcy petition, been convicted in or been the subject of any pending criminal proceedings, or is any such person the subject of any order, judgment, or decree involving the violation of any state or federal securities laws.

Our present directors have other full-time employment or sources of income and will routinely devote only such time to our business necessary to maintain our viability. It is estimated that each director will devote less than ten hours per month to our activities. The directors will, when the situation requires, review potential business opportunities or actively participate in negotiations for a potential merger or acquisition on an as-needed-basis.

Currently, there is no arrangement, agreement or understanding between management and non-management stockholders under which non-management stockholders may directly or indirectly participate in or influence the management of our affairs. Present management openly accepts and appreciates any input or suggestions from stockholders. However, the board of directors is elected by the stockholders and the stockholders have the ultimate say in who represents them on the board. There are no agreements or understandings for any officer or director to resign at the request of another person and none of the current officers or directors are acting on behalf of, or will act at the direction of any other person.

The business experience of each of the persons listed above during the past five years is as follows:

J. Rockwell Smith. Mr. Smith has been a director and Chairman since our inception in July 1999. From 1977 to 1989, he owned and operated Rocky Smith Construction, a construction company in Park City, Utah that supervised construction projects in the resort community. Compliance With Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock and other equity securities. None of these persons have filed initial reports of ownership and we will endeavor to have these reports prepared and submitted to the SEC.

Item 10. Executive Compensation

We have not had a bonus, profit sharing, or deferred compensation plan for the benefit of employees, officers or directors. We have not paid any salaries or other compensation to officers, directors or employees for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. Further, we have not entered into an employment agreement with any of our officers, directors or any other persons and no such agreements are anticipated in the immediate future. It is intended that our directors will defer any compensation until such time as an acquisition or merger can be accomplished and will strive to have the business opportunity provide their remuneration. As of the date hereof, no person has accrued any compensation.

Item 11. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table sets forth information, to the best of our knowledge, as of July 31, 2004, with respect to each person known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding common stock, each director and all directors and officers as a group.

Name and Address of Beneficial Owner -----	Amount and Nature of Beneficial Ownership -----	Percent of Class(1) -----
J. Rockwell Smith * 54 West 400 South, Suite 220 Salt Lake City, UT 84101	4,400	.3 %
Geoff Williams * 54 West 400 South, Suite 220 Salt Lake City, UT 84101	284,200	18.9 %
Edward F. Cowle * 300 Park Avenue, Suite 1712 New York, NY 10022	600,000	40.0 %
H. Deworth Williams 54 West 400 South, Suite 220 Salt Lake City, UT 84101	596,000	39.7 %
All directors and officers a group (3 persons) -----	888,600	59.2 %
* Director and/or executive officer

Note: Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes below, we have been advised that each person above has sole voting power over the shares indicated above.

(1) Based upon 1.5 million shares of common stock outstanding on December 31, 2004.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

During the past two fiscal years, there have been no material transactions between us and any officer, director, nominee for election as director, or any stockholder owning greater than 5% of our outstanding shares, nor any member of the above referenced individuals' immediate family.

Our officers and directors are subject to the doctrine of corporate opportunities only insofar as it applies to business opportunities in which we have indicated an interest, either through a proposed business plan or by way of an express statement of interest contained in our minutes. If directors are presented with business opportunities that may conflict with business interests identified by us, such opportunities must be promptly disclosed to the board of directors and made available to us. In the event the board shall reject an opportunity so presented and only in that event, any of our officers or directors may avail themselves of such an opportunity. Every effort will be made to resolve any conflicts that may arise in favor of us. There can be no assurance, however, that these efforts will be successful.

In the event of a successful acquisition or merger, a finder's fee, in the form of cash or securities, may be paid to persons instrumental in facilitating the transaction. We have not established any criteria or limits for the determination of a finder's fee, although it is likely that an appropriate fee will be based upon negotiations by us and the appropriate business opportunity and the finder. Such fees are estimated to be customarily between 1% and 5% of the size of the transaction, based upon a sliding scale of the amount involved. Management cannot at this time make an estimate as to the type or amount of a potential finder's fee that might be paid, but is expected to be comparable to consideration normally paid in like transactions. It is unlikely that a finder's fee will be paid to an affiliate because of the potential conflict of interest that might result. Any such fee would have to be approved by the stockholders or a disinterested board of directors.

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

We do not have an audit committee and as a result our entire board of directors performs the duties of an audit committee. Our board of directors will approve in advance the scope and cost of the engagement of an auditor before the auditor renders audit and non-audit services. As a result, we do not rely on pre-approval policies and procedures.

Our board of directors will approve in advance the scope and cost of the engagement of an auditor before the auditor renders audit and non-audit services. As a result, we do not rely on pre-approval policies and procedures.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by our independent auditors, Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements included in our Annual Reports on Form 10-KSB for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, and for the review of quarterly financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB for the quarters ended March 31, June 30 and September 30, 2004, were $3,500.

Audit Related Fees

For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, there were no fees billed for assurance and related services by Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson relating to the performance of the audit of our financial statements which are not reported under the caption "Audit Fees" above.

Tax Fees

For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, no fees were billed by Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

We do not use Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson for financial information system design and implementation. These services, which include designing or implementing a system that aggregates source data underlying the financial statements or generates information that is significant to our financial statements, are provided internally or by other service providers. We do not engage Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson to provide compliance outsourcing services.

The board of directors has considered the nature and amount of fees billed by Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson and believes that the provision of services for activities unrelated to the audit is compatible with maintaining Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson's independence.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors
Big Flash Corporation
(A Development Stage Company)
Salt Lake City, Utah

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Big Flash Corporation (a development stage company), as of December 31, 2004, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and from inception of the development stage on July 27, 1999 through December 31, 2004. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company has determined that it is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Big Flash Corporation (a development stage company) as of December 31, 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and from inception of the development stage on July 27, 1999 through December 31, 2004 in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company has sustained recent losses from operations, has a deficit in working capital and a stockholders' deficit. This raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Notes to the Financial Statements

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Business and Organization

Big Flash Corporation (The Company) was organized on July 27, 1999, under the laws of the State of Delaware. Pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 7, "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises," the Company is classified as a development stage company.

The Company's financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting. The Company has elected a December 31 year-end.

b. Revenue Recognition

The Company currently has no source of revenues. Revenue recognition policies will be determined when principal operations begin.

c. Basic Loss Per Share

The computation of basic loss per share of common stock is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period.

	For the Years Ended December 31,
	2004	2003
Loss (numerator)	$ (7,842)	$ (108)
Shares (denominator)	1,500,000	1,500,000
Per share amount	$ (0.01)	$ (0.00)

d. Income Taxes

Deferred taxes are provided on a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will to be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

d. Income Taxes (Continued)

Net deferred tax assets consist of the following components as of December 31, 2004 and 2003:

	2004	2003
	-----	-----
Deferred tax assets:
NOL carryover	$ 4,000	$ 1,578
Valuation allowance	(4,000)	(1,578)
	-----	-----
Net deferred tax asset	$ --	$ --
	=====	=====

The income tax provision differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying the U.S. federal and state income tax rates of 34% to pretax income from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 due to the following:

	2004	2003
	-----	-----
Book Income	$ (2,556)	$ (108)
Valuation allowance	2,556	108
	-----	-----

At December 31, 2004, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $12,000 that may be offset against future taxable income through 2024. No tax benefit has been reported in the December 31, 2004 financial statements since the potential tax benefit is offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount.

Due to the change in ownership provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, net operating loss carry forwards for Federal income tax reporting purposes are subject to annual limitations. Should a change in ownership occur, net operating loss carryforwards may be limited as to use in future years.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America applicable to a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has not yet established an ongoing source of revenues sufficient to cover its operating costs and allow it to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating losses until it becomes profitable. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations.

In order to continue as a going concern, the Company will need, among other things, additional capital resources. Management's plans to obtain such resources for the Company include (1) obtaining capital from management and significant shareholders sufficient to meet its minimal operating expenses, and (2) seeking out and completing a merger with an existing operating company. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described in the preceding paragraph and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 3 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, the Company incurred various general and administrative expenses. As the Company has not had the wherewithal to pay these expenses, the Company has relied on a shareholder to satisfy its debts. As of December 31, 2004 and 2003 the Company had an obligation to the related party totaling $9,165 and $3,547, respectively.
