NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The Offer is being made for the securities of a Canadian issuer. The Offer and Circular, the Initial Extensions and this Notice of Extension are subject to and have been prepared in accordance with applicable disclosure requirements in Canada. Shareholders should be aware that such requirements are different from those in the United States.

Shareholders in the United States should be aware that the disposition of Common Shares by them as described herein and in the Offer and Circular may have tax consequences both in the United States and in Canada. Such consequences may not be fully described herein and in the Offer and Circular and such holders are urged to consult their tax advisors. See Section 18 of the Circular, “Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations”, and Section 19 of the Circular, “Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations”.

The enforcement by Shareholders of civil liabilities under United States federal securities laws may be affected adversely by the fact that the Offeror and Miramar are incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia, that Miramar’s officers and directors reside outside the United States, that the Canadian Dealer Manager and some of the experts named in the Offer and Circular may reside outside the United States, and that all or a substantial portion of the assets of the Offeror and Miramar and the other above-mentioned persons are located outside the United States.

Shareholders in the United States should be aware that the Offeror or its affiliates, directly or indirectly, may bid for or may make purchases of Common Shares or of Miramar’s related securities during the period of the Offer, as permitted by applicable United States securities laws, including any exemptions granted to the Offeror therefrom, and by applicable Canadian laws or provincial laws or regulations.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF OPTIONS

The Offer is made only for the Common Shares and is not made for any Options. Any holder of such Options who wishes to accept the Offer must exercise the Options in accordance with their terms in order to obtain certificates representing Common Shares and deposit such Common Shares in accordance with the terms of the Offer.

Any such exercise must be completed sufficiently in advance of the Expiry Time to ensure that the holder of such Options will have certificate(s) representing the Common Shares received on such exercise available for deposit prior to the Expiry Time, or sufficient time to comply with the procedures referred to in Section 3 of the Offer, “Manner of Acceptance — Procedure for Guaranteed Delivery”.

Miramar has agreed in the Support Agreement to: (i) permit all persons holding Options, which by their terms are otherwise currently exercisable or not, to exercise or surrender such Options, including, if permitted by the Exchanges, by causing the vesting thereof to be accelerated, by way of cashless exercise, which exercise may be conditional upon the Offeror taking up and paying for Common Shares under the Offer; and (ii) cause each outstanding Option that has not been exercised (including any conditional exercise as contemplated in (i) above) to be terminated, upon the take up and payment by the Offeror pursuant to the Offer of such number of Common Shares that satisfies the Minimum Tender Condition.

The Canadian and United States tax consequences to holders of Options of exercising their Options are not described in Section 18 of the Circular, “Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations”, nor in Section 19 of the Circular, “Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations”. Holders of Options should consult their tax advisors for advice with respect to potential income tax consequences to them in connection with the decision to exercise or not exercise their Options.

CURRENCY

All dollar references in the Initial Extensions, this Notice of Extension and in the Offer and Circular are in Canadian dollars, except where otherwise indicated. On January 4, 2008, the Bank of Canada noon rate of exchange for the Canadian dollar, expressed in United States dollars was Canadian $1.00 = United States $0.99.

STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain statements contained herein, in the Initial Extensions and the Offer and Circular, including statements made under Section 8 of the Circular, “Purpose of the Offer and Plans for Miramar”, Section 10 of the Circular, “Source of Funds” and Section 16 of the Circular, “Acquisition of Common Shares not Deposited”, in addition to certain statements contained elsewhere herein and in the Offer and Circular, are “forward-looking statements” and are prospective in nature. Forward-looking statements are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “plans”, “expects” or “intends”, “anticipates”, or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “should”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, occur or be achieved. Such statements are qualified in their entirety by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Offeror and Newmont to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations of the Offeror and/or Newmont include, among other things, general business and economic conditions globally, commodity price volatility, industry trends, competition, changes in government and other regulation, including in relation to the environment, health and safety and taxation, labour relations and work stoppages, changes in political and economic stability, the inability to successfully integrate Miramar’s operations and programs with those of Newmont, incurring and/or experiencing unanticipated costs and/or delays or difficulties relating to the integration of Miramar into Newmont, disruptions in business operations due to reorganization activities and interest rate and foreign currency fluctuations. Neither the Offeror nor Newmont, nor any of its associates or respective directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in the Initial Extensions, this Notice of Extension or the Offer and Circular will actually occur. Such forward-looking statements therefore should be construed in light of such factors and you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

Other than in accordance with its legal or regulatory obligations, neither the Offeror nor Newmont is under any obligation, and each of them expressly disclaims any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

On December 21, 2007, the Offeror provided notice to the Depositary confirming that all of the conditions of the Offer had been satisfied or waived and to take up Common Shares validly deposited and not withdrawn under the Offer. As of January 4, 2008, the Offeror has taken up 189,393,986 Common Shares validly deposited and not withdrawn under the Offer that, together with Common Shares held by the Offeror and its affiliates, constitute approximately 93% of the Common Shares outstanding.

4. Acquisition of Common Shares not Deposited

It is Offeror's intention to enter into one or more transactions to enable the Offeror to acquire all Common Shares not acquired pursuant to the Offer. This will be achieved through either: (i) a Compulsory Acquisition under Section 300 of the BCBCA, which permits the Offeror to acquire the Common Shares not tendered to the Offer if, within four months after the date of the Offer, the Offer has been accepted by holders of not less than 90% of the outstanding Common Shares, other than Common Shares already held at the date of the Offer by the Offeror or its affiliates, or (ii) one or more Subsequent Acquisition Transactions whereby the Offeror will complete an amalgamation, plan of arrangement, amendment to articles, capital reorganization, share consolidated or other transaction involving Miramar and the Offeror or the affiliates of the Offeror to enable it to acquire Common Shares not acquired pursuant to the Offer. See Section 16 of the Circular, "Acquisition of Common Shares Not Deposited".

5. Time for Acceptance

The Offer is now open for acceptance until 8:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on Friday, January 18, 2008.

6. Manner of Acceptance

The Offer may be accepted in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Offer, "Manner of Acceptance".

7. Take Up and Payment for Deposited Common Shares

As of the date hereof, the Offeror has taken up 189,393,986 Common Shares. The Offeror intends to continue to take up Common Shares validly deposited under the Offer and not properly withdrawn promptly and will pay for such Common Shares as soon as possible, and in any event not later than three business days, after they are taken up. Any Common Shares deposited pursuant to the Offer after the date hereof will in any event be taken up and paid for not later than ten days after such deposit. Shareholders are referred to Section 6 of the Offer, "Take Up of and Payment for Deposited Common Shares", for details as to the take up of and payment for Common Shares under the Offer.

8. Withdrawal of Deposited Common Shares

Except as otherwise stated herein or in Section 8 of the Offer, "Withdrawal of Deposited Common Shares", all deposits of Common Shares pursuant to the Offer are irrevocable. Unless otherwise required or permitted by Laws, any Common Shares deposited in acceptance of the Offer may be withdrawn by or on behalf of the depositing Shareholder:

- (a) at any time before the Common Shares have been taken up by the Offeror pursuant to the Offer;
- (b) if the Common Shares have not been paid for by the Offeror within three business days after having been taken up; or
- (c) at any time before the expiration of ten days from the date upon which either:
 - (i) a notice of change relating to a change which has occurred in the information contained in the Offer or the Circular, as amended from time to time, that would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of a Shareholder to accept or reject the Offer (other than a change that is not within the control of the Offeror or of an affiliate of the Offeror), in the event that such change occurs before the Expiry Time or after the Expiry Time but before the expiry of all rights of withdrawal in respect of the Offer; or

- (ii) a notice of variation concerning a variation in the terms of the Offer (other than a variation consisting solely of an increase in the consideration offered for the Common Shares where the Expiry Time is not extended for more than ten days, or a variation consisting solely of a waiver of a condition of the Offer), is mailed, delivered or otherwise properly communicated (subject to abridgement of that period pursuant to such order or orders as may be granted by applicable courts or Securities Authorities) and only if such deposited Common Shares have not been taken up by the Offeror at the date of the notice.

Withdrawals may not be rescinded and any Common Shares withdrawn will be deemed not validly deposited for the purposes of the Offer, but may be re-deposited at any subsequent time prior to the Expiry Time by following any of the procedures described in Section 3 of the Offer, "Manner of Acceptance". Shareholders are referred to Section 8 of the Offer, "Withdrawal of Deposited Common Shares", for a description of the procedures for exercising the right to withdraw Common Shares deposited under the Offer.

9. Offerees' Statutory Rights

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides Shareholders with, in addition to any other rights they may have at law, rights of rescission or rights to damages, or both, if there is a misrepresentation in a circular or a notice that is required to be delivered to Shareholders. However, such rights must be exercised within prescribed time limits. Shareholders should refer to the applicable provisions of the securities legislation of their province or territory for particulars of those rights or consult with a lawyer.

10. Variations to the Offer

Except as otherwise set forth in the Initial Extensions and this Notice of Extension, the Offer remains in effect in accordance with its original terms and conditions.
