(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own long term care insurance business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; provided, further, that such subcontracting is permitted under the Travelers Servicing Agreement; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. (a) With respect to Reinsured Policies that are not Novated Policies, the Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to litigate a claim with respect to such Reinsured Policy, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such litigation.

(b) With respect to Novated Policies, the Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Novated Policy, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims with respect to Novated Policies. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim with respect to a Novated Policy which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Re-rating of Novated Policies. The Company (i) agrees to promptly seek to increase or decrease the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Inception Date as requested by the Reinsurer and approved by the Company and (ii) shall be entitled to increase premium rates without the consent of the Reinsurer. In approving or disapproving premium rate increases requested by the Reinsurer, the Company agrees to not unreasonably withhold or delay its approval. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the Novated Policies, neither the Reinsurer nor the Company may request or implement, as applicable, a premium rate increase unless such premium rate increase would have been permitted under the terms of Section 4.2(i) of the Travelers Servicing Agreement assuming such Novated Policies continued to be "New York Reinsured Contracts" as defined under the Travelers Servicing Agreement. In addition, neither the Reinsurer nor the Company may request or implement, as applicable, more than one (1) premium rate increase with respect to the Novated Policies in any state in any period of three (3) calendar years.

Except as required by Section 3.3(i) or by Applicable Law, the Company shall refrain from seeking any decrease in the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Inception Date.

The Reinsurer shall bear, and shall indemnify the Company for, all costs and liabilities incurred in or arising out of seeking or effecting any premium rate changes at the direction of the Reinsurer, which, for the avoidance of doubt, are not included in the Expense Allowance.

3.4. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Policies and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Policies and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.5. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.6. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.7. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.8. Salvage and Subrogation. The Company shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to fully obtain the benefit of any and all potential recoveries, salvage and subrogations that would reasonably be expected to reduce the amount of Ultimate Net Loss.

3.9. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Novated Policies, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.9.

- (b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.9(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Novated Policies upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
 - (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XV regarding an alleged material breach); or
 - (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.9(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.
- (c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to Section 3.9(b).
- (d) In the event of the Reinsurer's assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article IV and Article VI shall become inoperative with respect to the Novated Policies.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Reinsured Risks and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of claims in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of claims in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $2.5 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Reinsured Risks during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company’s insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Reinsured Risks from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company’s cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article IX, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article IX. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Additional Reinsurance Premium. As additional consideration for the Reinsurer entering into this Agreement, Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all premiums and other considerations (including all reinsurance premium and Stop-Loss Payments from Travelers to the Company under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) to the extent received on or after the Inception Date by the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to the Reinsured Policies, including premium receivables that were due and unpaid as of the Inception Date that were taken into account in the calculation of the Initial Reinsurance Premium.

5.3. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the "Ceding Commission") in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C. On the date of amendment of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement as described in Section 2.7, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an additional ceding commission equal to the ceding commission payable by the Company to Travelers at such time pursuant to such agreement.

5.4. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.7. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.3 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the "Assets") set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the "Monthly Settlement") shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Monthly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar quarter ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

ARTICLE VI

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in providing services with respect to the Reinsured Policies and Travelers Agreements, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth in Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the “Initial Report”).

7.2. Monthly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the “Monthly Settlement Report”).

7.3. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such quarter required in Schedule F - Part III (the “Quarterly Settlement Report”). The Company and the Reinsurer agree that the financial data set forth on the Monthly Settlement Reports used for purposes of the Monthly Settlements, shall be trued-up to actual amounts in the next Quarterly Settlement Report and the net amount, if any, subsequently due to the Company or the Reinsurer, as the case may be, as a result of such adjustments shall be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Settlement Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Policies occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.4. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Policies as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.5. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part IV (the "Annual Report").

7.6. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.7. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

EXPERIENCE REFUND

8.1. Experience Refund. (a) The Reinsurer shall establish, and maintain through December 31, 2018, a notional account known as the "Experience Account" in connection with this Agreement, and record therein certain cumulative experience on the Reinsured Policies as described below. As of the Inception Date, the balance of the Experience Account will equal zero. Within the first forty five (45) days of each calendar year beginning January 1, 2005, through calendar year beginning January 1, 2019, the Company shall make the following calculation regarding certain experience on the Reinsured Policies during the preceding calendar year (which result may be a positive or a negative number), and shall promptly thereafter deliver to the Reinsurer the result of such calculation:

[X] x [Y], where

X equals the excess of (i) over (ii) (the result of which may be a positive number or a negative number), where (i) is the actual statutory basis pre-tax income earned on the Reinsured Policies for the calendar year for which the calculation is being made, calculated consistent with projected statutory basis pre-tax income earned on the Reinsured Policies (the "Experience Refund Baseline") as calculated on Schedule I hereto, but utilizing actual experience (e.g., actual premiums and expenses will be used in place of the projected amounts shown on Schedule I), except for investment income during the first three years (see below) and (ii) is the Experience Refund Baseline for the calendar year for which the calculation is being made as set forth on Schedule I hereto; and

Y equals 90% for calculations made with respect to calendar years 2004 through 2006 and 50% for calculations made with respect to calendar years thereafter; provided, however that if the cumulative amount of X during the calendar years 2004-2006 exceeds $15 million, then Y shall be reduced to 50% for any amounts of X over $15 million.

The calculation of investment income and the IMR income components of the actual pre-tax income for 2004-2006 shall be based on an assumed net annual yield of 5.95%, 5.89% and 5.83% respectively. To derive investment income, the prior stated rates should be applied to a 2 point average of the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and statutory IMR liability. The two points should be December 31st for the applicable settlement year and December 31st for the immediately prior year. Surplus assets and investment income thereon are excluded from the Experience Refund Baseline calculation, and therefore should also be excluded from the Total Annual Contribution calculation. Thereafter the investment income and IMR income shall be similarly calculated using the actual net yield (net of investment expenses and default costs) and allocated IMR from the Reinsurer's LTC asset portfolio backing the Total SAP Ceded Reserves.

(b) The result of the calculation in Section 8.1(a) for each calendar year shall be referred to in this Agreement as the "Total Annual Contribution." Following each calculation of Total Annual Contribution, the balance of the Experience Account will be adjusted as of the end of the preceding calendar year as follows:

- (i) The balance of the Experience Account will be increased by: (A) the amount of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year, but only if such Total Annual Contribution is a positive number and (B) interest credited in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(d) below on any positive balance of the Experience Account.
- (ii) The balance of the Experience Account will be decreased by: (A) the amount of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year, but only if such Total Annual Contribution is a negative number, (B) interest credited in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(d) below on any negative balance of the Experience Account, and (C) the amount, if any, paid by the Reinsurer to the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(c) below.

(c) Subject to Section 8.1(e), each calendar year that the balance of the Experience Account is a positive number following the adjustments contemplated in Section 8.1(b) above (other than the adjustment contemplated in Section 8.1(b)(ii)(C)), the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an "Experience Refund" as follows: (i) For calendar years ending prior to December 31, 2018, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company the lesser of (A) the balance of the Experience Account and (B) an amount equal to the sum of (x) 20% of each positive Total Annual Contribution made with respect to the previous five (5) calendar years (or shorter period in the event that this Agreement has not been in effect for five (5) years) plus (y) interest credited to the balance of the Experience Account during the previous calendar year in accordance with Section 8.1(d) below if the balance of the Experience Account was positive during such year; and (ii) For calendar year ending December 31, 2018, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company the balance of the Experience Account as of December 31, 2018 (if a positive number). Any amounts due pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) shall be paid by the Reinsurer to the Company not later than thirty (30) days following the Company's delivery to the Reinsurer of the Company's calculation of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year. In no event shall the Company be required to make any Experience Refund payments to the Reinsurer or return any Experience Refund payments to the Reinsurer, including if the balance of the Experience Account was, is or becomes a negative number.

(d) Interest shall accrue on the balance of the Experience Account (positive or negative) at an annual rate equal to the one (1) year U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate in effect on the close of business on July 1 or, if July 1 is not a Business Day, on the next Business Day of the current calendar year plus 100 basis points. Interest shall be credited to the balance of the Experience Account as of the end of each calendar year immediately before making any adjustments for the Total Annual Contribution with respect to such calendar year.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 8.1 to the contrary, no Experience Refund payments shall be made to the Company on any Reinsured Policies with respect to any period following the Reinsurer's assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to Section 3.9.

ARTICLE IX

DURATION AND TERMINATION

9.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

9.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

9.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 9.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

ARTICLE X

INSOLVENCY

10.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, all reinsurance made, ceded, renewed or otherwise becoming effective under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the policies reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

10.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 10.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

ARTICLE XI

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

11.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

ARTICLE XII

REINSURANCE SECURITY

12.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto ("Eligible Securities").

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the "Funding Requirement") equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 12.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 12.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

ARTICLE XIII

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

13.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company and alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNIFICATION

14.1. Indemnification. (a) The Reinsurer agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any and all Losses (as defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) paid by the Company to any Cedent Indemnities (as defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement.

(b) The Company shall provide to the Reinsurer the benefits of any of the Company's indemnification rights under Section 16.2 of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement and under Section 9.2 of the Travelers Acquisition Agreement. Except as contemplated by Section 2.7, without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, the Company shall not amend, modify, waive or fail to enforce any term or provision of any of the Travelers Agreements, if such amendment, modification, waiver or failure to enforce could reasonably be expected to increase the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder.

(c) The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, fully at the Reinsurer's expense, all actions necessary to maintain in full force and effect the Company's rights of indemnification under the Travelers Agreements. The Company shall refrain from taking any action that would reasonably be expected to limit or diminish Travelers' obligations thereunder; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not prohibit a Change of Control of the Reinsurer (as defined in the Travelers Acquisition Agreement).

ARTICLE XV

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XV, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 15.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 15.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XV are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

15.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

15.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 15.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

15.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 15.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 15.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XV.

ARTICLE XVI

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

16.1. Privacy Requirements. In providing the administrative services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Policies, the Company shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted subcontractor to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Company shall entitle the Reinsurer and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Company's compliance herewith. The Company shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Company about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Company shall promptly report to the Reinsurer any violation of this provision of which the Company becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Company shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Company in administering the Reinsured Policies is gathered, without the Reinsurer's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties hereto agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto.

ARTICLE XVII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

17.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

17.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

If to the Company:

GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York
6610 West Broad Street

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044
Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

17.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 17.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 17.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

17.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

17.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

17.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

17.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

17.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void, unenforceable or in violation of any provision of the Travelers Agreements, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

17.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

17.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

17.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

17.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

17.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

17.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

17.15. Survival. Article XV and Article XVII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

SCHEDULE B

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GE CAPITAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Retrocession Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Retrocession Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Retrocession Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company and unpaid as of the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Retrocession Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Novated Policies as set forth herein, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

As between the Company and the Administrator, the Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Novated Policies including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. In providing the policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Novated Policies, the Administrator shall handle all such matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all claims arising under the Novated Policies, as more fully described below. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the final right to direct the Administrator in the performance of the Administrative Services in accordance with the standards for services set forth in Section 2.1, including the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Novated Policies or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law. All services hereunder shall be performed by the Administrator in the name of and on behalf of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain a toll-free number for use by policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries. Any and all correspondence with policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries and check stock utilized by the Administrator for payments under the Reinsured Policies shall be in the name of the Company or in the name of the Administrator and disclosing that the Administrator is acting as the administrative agent of the Company.

ARTICLE II

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING; POLICYHOLDER SERVICING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Novated Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering long term care insurance business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Novated Policies (i) in accordance with the terms of the Novated Policies, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards, (v) in accordance with standards of service as agreed to by the Administrator and the Company and, subject to the foregoing, (vi) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Novated Policies to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

2.4. Policyholder Servicing. The Administrator shall provide policyholder servicing with regards to the Novated Policies, including changes of address, responding to policyholder inquiries and similar services.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrative Services with respect to claims for benefits including claims outstanding on the Effective Date, shall include the following:

3.1. Claim Administration Services. The Administrator shall acknowledge, consider, review, investigate, deny, settle, pay or otherwise dispose of each claim for benefits reported under each Novated Policy (each, a “Claim” and collectively the “Claims”) in accordance with procedures and guidelines established by the Company, such procedures and guidelines to be in accordance with the standards of service set forth in Section 2.1.

3.2. Description of Claim Administration Services. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall:

- (i) provide claimants under the Novated Policy and their authorized representatives (collectively, “Claimants”) with Claim forms and provide reasonable explanatory guidance to Claimants in connection therewith;
- (ii) establish, maintain and organize Claim files and maintain and organize other Claims-related records;
- (iii) review all Claims and determine whether the Claimant is eligible for benefits and if so, the nature and extent of such benefits;
- (iv) prepare and distribute to the appropriate recipients any reports required by Applicable Law;
- (v) respond to all written or oral Claims-related communications that the Administrator reasonably believes to require a response; and
- (vi) maintain a complaint log with respect to the Novated Policies in accordance with applicable requirements of Governmental Authorities and provide a copy of such log, continuously updated through the last day of each calendar quarter during the term of this Agreement, to the Company on or before the tenth Business Day of each calendar quarter covering changes during the preceding calendar quarter.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority’s requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company; b

- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall retain final authority for the resolution of inquiries by Governmental Authorities and consumer complaints; provided, however, the Company agrees to act reasonably in the exercise of such authority.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Novated Policies ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Novated Policies to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Novated Policies in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XVI hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Novated Policies a written notice prepared by the Administrator, reasonably acceptable to the Company and approved by the New York Insurance Department to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies under Section 3.9 of the Retrocession Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.9(a) or 3.9(c) of the Retrocession Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

BILLINGS AND COLLECTIONS; RE-RATING OF NOVATED POLICIES

6.1. Billing and Collection Services . The Administrator shall assume all responsibility for billing and collecting premiums and other amounts payable with respect to the Novated Policies from and after the Effective Date. The Company shall promptly remit to the Administrator any such amounts received by it with respect to the Novated Policies.

6.2. Re-rating of Novated Policies . Subject to compliance with Applicable Law and this Section 6.2, the Administrator shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Company, to increase or decrease the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Effective Date without the consent of the Company. The Administrator may not seek or implement, as applicable, a premium rate increase unless such premium rate increase would have been permitted under the terms of Section 3.2(i) of the Travelers Servicing Agreement assuming such Novated Policies continued to be “Reinsured Contracts” as defined under the Travelers Servicing Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrator may not seek or implement, as applicable, more than one (1) premium rate increase with respect to the Novated Policies in any state in any period of three (3) calendar years. The Administrator shall bear, and shall indemnify the Company for, all costs and liabilities incurred in or arising out of seeking or effecting any premium rate changes at the direction of the Administrator.

ARTICLE VII

QUARTERLY PREMIUM TAX AND INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

7.1. Quarterly Accountings . Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). Within thirty (30) days after the last day of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall submit to the Company a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, a “Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting”, and together with the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the “Quarterly Accountings”) setting forth the estimated premium taxes due with respect to the Novated Policies as a result of premiums collected during such quarter. Concurrent with the delivery of each Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting, the Administrator shall remit to the Company the amount set forth on such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting with respect to such estimated premium taxes due and the amount set forth in such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting with respect to the Post-Effective Date Assessments, and any other amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that any Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Administrator’s delivery of such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting will be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting. Each of the parties agrees to supply to the other a copy of all supporting data used in preparing the Quarterly Accountings prepared by such party.

7.2. Adjustments Regarding Quarterly Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VIII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

8.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Novated Policies, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Novated Policies that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

8.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company's premium tax liability ("Premium Tax Credits"). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount (the "Annual Adjustment") of (i) premium taxes due with respect to premiums collected during the prior calendar year (to the extent that such premium taxes constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies), less (ii) estimated premium taxes paid by the Administrator to the Company with respect to such premiums under the provisions of Article VII, less (iii) Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year. By March 30 of each year the Administrator shall pay to the Company the Annual Adjustment, if a positive amount, and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator the Annual Adjustment, if a negative amount.

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

9.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Novated Policies as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Novated Policies. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Novated Policies (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Novated Policies.

9.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days after the end of each Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Monthly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Annual Reports. In addition, as soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agree by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company such other reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Novated Policies as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premium written and earned and all Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses reserved, paid, and outstanding. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) The Administrator shall provide to the Company such reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting

- records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Novated Policies as agreed by the parties.
- (iii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies as of the quarter end.
 - (iv) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Novated Policies.
 - (v) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Novated Policies, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

9.3. Additional Reports and Updates . For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall assume the obligations set forth below:

- (i) The Administrator shall timely pay to the policyholders, including any certificateholder thereunder, any refunds of any kind due under the Novated Policies.
- (ii) The Administrator shall process all policy changes, lapses, cancellations, and reinstatements in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the express terms of the Novated Policies and shall assume responsibility for providing all other policyholder servicing in connection with the Novated Policies.
- (iii) The Administrator shall pay commissions due under the Novated Policies.

- (iv) The Administrator shall provide such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE XI

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Novated Policies and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law, including New York Regulation 152, and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. All such records pertaining to the Novated Policies shall be the property of the Company, provided that the Administrator shall at all times have the right to retain a copy of such books and records. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Novated Policies, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XIII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Novated Policies, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Novated Policies is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Retrocession Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVII

DURATION; TERMINATION

17.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Novated Policy until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Novated Policy is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 17.2.

17.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVIII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 17.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 17.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 17.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVIII

18.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 18.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 18.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

18.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

18.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 18.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 18.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 18.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVIII.

ARTICLE XIX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

19.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

19.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

19.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and without the prior written consent of the New York Insurance Department and the Illinois Insurance Department. Any assignment in violation of this Section 19.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

19.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

19.5. Safeguarding Customer Information. The Administrator shall implement and maintain appropriate measures designed to meet the objectives of New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 173, with respect to safeguarding the Company's customer information and customer information systems. The Administrator shall adjust its information security program at the reasonable request of the Company for any relevant changes indicated by the Company's assessment of risk around its customer information and customer information systems. Confirming evidence that the Administrator has satisfied its obligations under this Agreement shall be made available, during normal business hours, for inspection by the Company, representatives of the Company, and any governmental agency that has regulatory authority over the Company's business activities.

19.6. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

19.7. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

19.8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

19.9. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void, unenforceable or in violation of any provision of the Travelers Agreements, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

19.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

19.11. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

19.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

19.13. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

19.14. Survival. Article XVIII and Article XIX shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

19.15. Licensing. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Administrator shall maintain in full force and effect all licenses required to be maintained by it under Applicable Law with respect to this Agreement, including, if applicable, an independent claims adjuster license.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors" used to calculate the Expense Allowance are as follows:

|--|-------------------------------------|
| Policy Maintenance Factor | $7.12 per Policy |
| Claims Factor | $876.00 per Open and Pending Claim |
| Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor | $45.24 per Policy |

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs (excluding costs identified as "Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses") directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results, including, without limitation, for Business Overhead Services set forth on Schedule E-1 hereto) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor, the Claims Factor and the Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Policies and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor, Claims Factor and Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment of the monthly amount billed will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents . Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors.

(e) Notice of Disagreement . In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution . If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations . Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of “treatment”, “payment” or “health care operations”, as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate’s operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. “Standard Transaction(s)” shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked “not used” in the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient’s or the relevant Subsidiary’s prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient’s or its Subsidiary’s request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient’s or such Subsidiary’s direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

In recognition of the limited amount of time available to the Reinsurer to verify the accuracy of the calculation of the Experience Refund Baseline and the recent availability of 2003 experience on the Reinsured Policies, the parties to this Agreement agree to update the values set forth in the Experience Refund Baseline on this Schedule I, at any time on or before June 30, 2004, (a) to correct material errors or omissions in the models and workbooks used to derive the Experience Refund Baseline and (b) to reflect adjustments to projected rate increase filings resulting from further analysis of 2003 experience on the Reinsured Policies.

REINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Reinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between GE Life and Annuity Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance and modified coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, Contractholder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Annual Report" shall have the meaning specified in Section 6.6.

"Applicable Law" means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person's subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person's officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

"Assets" shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.4(a).

“ Assignment Letter Agreement ” means the letter agreement dated the date hereof among General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, the Reinsurer, the Company and certain affiliates of the Company relating to the assignment by General Electric Capital Corporation of the Capital Maintenance Agreement.

“ Business Day ” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which the New York Stock Exchange is closed for trading.

“ Capital Maintenance Agreement ” means the Capital Maintenance Agreement between General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and the Reinsurer.

“ Ceded Reinsurance ” means all reinsurance ceded by the Company pursuant to contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence of reinsurance relating to the Reinsured Risks in effect on or prior to the Inception Date, except the reinsurance provided pursuant to this Agreement.

“ Ceded Reinsurance Agreements ” means all of the contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence for Ceded Reinsurance.

“ Ceding Commission ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.2.

“ Closing Date ” means April 15, 2004.

“ Code ” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

“ Commutation ” means, with respect to any portion of the Ceded Reinsurance, a commutation or other similar transaction that results in the termination of such Ceded Reinsurance with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

“ Company Account ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10.1(e).

“ Contractholder ” shall mean the holder of any Reinsured Contract.

“ CPR ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.3.

“ CPR Arbitration Rules ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.4(a).

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company (i) on a coinsurance basis, for one hundred percent (100%) of the General Account Liabilities and (ii) on a modified coinsurance basis, for 100% of the Separate Account Liabilities, in each case, payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Reinsurer shall assume the risk for all uncollectible or uncollected reinsurance recoverables under the Ceded Reinsurance.

(b) Upon the annuitization of a Reinsured Contract, such Reinsured Contract will be considered surrendered and the Reinsurer will pay to the Company an amount equal to the general account value applied to the annuitization. In such event, no further obligation or liability will exist for the Reinsurer with respect to such annuitized Reinsured Contract.

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth or contemplated herein, including in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover Reinsured Risks incurred by the Company under such Reinsured Contract as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

(c) The Company will not change fund options for the Separate Accounts from and after the Inception Date unless such changes are made: (a) with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion, (b) in fulfillment of the fiduciary obligations of the Company after consultation with the Reinsurer or (c) by the Board of Trustees of an unaffiliated fund (trust) to liquidate, merge or remove a fund pursuant to the terms of the then existing fund participation agreements or through a regulatory process.

2.3. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.4. Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance. (a) The Company shall not, without the Reinsurer's prior written approval in its sole discretion, take any action to amend, waive or terminate, in whole or in part, any Ceded Reinsurance under any Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or enter into any Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance.

(b) Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ADMINISTRATION: GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.10, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts in accordance with the terms hereof including, but not limited to, the collection of premiums and other amounts due from Contractholders, the payment of all General Account Liabilities and Separate Account Liabilities and the administration of claims and disbursements, which disbursements shall be made (i) directly by the Company with respect to such disbursements relating to the General Account Liabilities and (ii) from the Separate Accounts with respect to such disbursements relating to the Separate Account Liabilities. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering variable annuity business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts or any services the Company is to provide in the administration of the Separate Accounts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own variable annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. The Company shall manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements, including providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the reinsurers within the time required by the applicable reinsurance agreement and doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall timely pay all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and diligently collect from such reinsurers all reinsurance recoverables due thereunder.

3.3. Non-Guaranteed Elements. The Company shall set all rider charges, interest rates to be credited on the Reinsured Contracts and other non-guaranteed elements of the Reinsured Contracts (“Non-Guaranteed Elements”) from and after the Inception Date. The Company shall allow the Reinsurer to participate in all decisions made by the Company with respect to setting Non-Guaranteed Elements.

3.4. Policy Exchanges. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Company will not make any targeted exchange offers with regards to the Reinsured Contracts or otherwise target the Reinsured Contracts for replacement.

3.5. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company’s prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.6. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Company's administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.7. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.8. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.9. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.10. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.10.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.10(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company, to assume from the Company, the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.10 (b)(iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.10(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer's assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule C and the provisions of Section 2.1(b), Article V and Article VI shall become inoperative.

(e) In the event that the Reinsurer is not properly licensed to administer the Reinsured Contracts at the time of a proposed transfer of administration under this Section 3.10, the Reinsurer may designate a properly licensed entity that has appropriately trained and licensed personnel reasonably acceptable to the Company to administer the Reinsured Contracts in its stead, and the administrative services agreement referred to in paragraph (d) above shall be executed by such properly licensed entity in lieu of the Reinsurer. The designation and assumption of administration by such entity shall not relieve the Reinsurer from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder (except as set forth in paragraph (d) above), and the Reinsurer shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such entity with regards to the providing of such administration as if provided by the Reinsurer. The parties shall take all actions reasonably necessary to effect the prompt transfer of administration provided in this Section 3.10.

(f) In the event of the assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under this Section 3.10, the Reinsurer and the Company shall take all actions necessary or appropriate to transfer administration of the Separate Account Liabilities to the Reinsurer or its permitted designee. Such actions shall include, without limitation, the establishment and maintenance of a new separate account of the Company solely for the Reinsured Contracts and the transfer of the assets of the Separate Account allocable to the Reinsured Contracts to such new separate account.

GENERAL ACCOUNT ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION; INITIAL MODCO RESERVE ADJUSTMENT

4.1. Asset Transfer. (a) As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the General Account Liabilities under this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the General Account Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

(b) As additional consideration for the Reinsurer entering into this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all premiums and other considerations to the extent received on or after the Inception Date by the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to the General Account Liabilities, less an amount equal to the reinsurance premium due under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the extent such premium relates to coverage on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, with respect to the Separate Account Liabilities, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all (i) mortality and expense risk charges and administrative expense charges (collectively, "asset charges"), any rider charges (to the extent the riders are reinsured hereunder), and contract maintenance charges, back-end sales loads and other considerations billed separately for the Reinsured Contracts collected by the Company on or after the Inception Date, and (ii) any other charges, fees and similar amounts received by the Company from the Separate Accounts on or after the Inception Date (collectively, the "Separate Account Charges"). The Company hereby assigns to the Reinsurer all of its rights to such premiums and other considerations payable to the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, the Separate Account Charges shall not include any distribution fees received from underlying mutual funds pursuant to a plan adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

4.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule D.

4.3. Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment. As additional consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Separate Account Liabilities under this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Company shall transfer to the Reinsurer an amount equal to the net of (a) minus (b) where (a) is an amount equal to the Separate Account Liabilities as of the Inception Date and (b) is the Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment. The “Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment” shall be an amount equal to the Separate Account Liabilities as of the Inception Date.

4.4. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.9. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 4.1(a) and Section 4.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule E, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date as reflected on a Monthly Settlement Report (the “Monthly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Monthly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date as reflected on a Quarterly Settlement Report (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

5.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and claims servicing services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an "Expense Allowance") in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule F, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule F; provided that if the amount calculated in accordance with Schedule F with respect to any Monthly Accounting Period should be negative, such negative amount shall be credited to the Reinsurer on the Monthly Settlement Report for such period.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT; MODCO ADJUSTMENT

6.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule G - Part I (the "Initial Report").

6.2. Daily Settlement Amounts. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the "Daily Settlement Account") in its own name for the payment of Daily Settlement Amounts and shall authorize at least two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer to make deposits to, and withdrawals from, the Daily Settlement Account.

(b) By 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time each Business Day following the Closing Date during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall calculate the Daily Settlement Amount for the prior Business Day. Promptly following such calculation, the Company shall forward to the Reinsurer a report in the form of Schedule G - Part II that shall provide the details of such calculation (the "Daily Settlement Report"). Prior to 6:00 p.m. of such Business Day, the Company or the Reinsurer, as appropriate, shall deposit into the Daily Settlement Account an amount equal to such Daily Settlement Amount owed by such party to the other. The party to whom such Daily Settlement Amount is owed shall have a right to withdraw such deposited amount at any time following such deposit.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Daily Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards , and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.2.

(e) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VII, the Reinsurer shall close the Daily Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer.

6.3. Monthly Settlement Reports . As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days following the end of each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Monthly Accounting Period required in Schedule G - Part III (the "Monthly Settlement Report").

6.4. Quarterly Settlement Reports . As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Quarterly Accounting Period required in Schedule G - Part IV (the "Quarterly Settlement Report"). The Company and the Reinsurer agree that the financial data set forth on the Monthly Settlement Reports used for purposes of the Monthly Settlements, shall be true-up to actual amounts in the next Quarterly Settlement Report and the net amount, if any, subsequently due to the Company or the Reinsurer, as the case may be, as a result of such adjustments shall be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Settlement Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

6.5. Quarterly Financial Reports . As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

6.6. Annual Reports . Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule G - Part V (the "Annual Report").

6.7. Accounting Period MODCO Reserve Adjustment . At the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period, the Company shall compute an amount equal to the absolute value of the increase or decrease in the Separate Account Reserves due to subaccount investment performance for the Quarterly Accounting Period just ended (the "Quarterly Accounting Period MODCO Adjustment”). The Quarterly Accounting Period MODCO Adjustment for each Quarterly Accounting Period shall be reflected in the Quarterly Settlement Report for such Quarterly Accounting Period.

6.8. Additional Reports and Updates . For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

6.9. Delayed Payments . In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VII

7.1. Duration . Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

7.2. Reinsurer’s Liability . The Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

7.3. Notice of Termination . Upon the termination of the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 7.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

ARTICLE VIII

INSOLVENCY

8.1. Payments . In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

8.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 8.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

9.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, any trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

10.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule H (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule I attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of General Account Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer; and
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 10.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 10.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the General Account Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

11.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XII

12.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 12.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 12.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

12.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

12.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 12.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

12.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 12.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 12.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under Applicable Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XII.

ARTICLE XIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

13.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

13.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

13.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 13.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 13.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

13.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

13.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

13.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

13.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

13.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

13.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

13.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

13.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

13.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

13.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

13.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

13.15. Survival. Article XII and Article XIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

GE LIFE AND ANNUITY ASSURANCE COMPANY

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GE LIFE AND ANNUITY ASSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Reinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Reinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Reinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, (i) on a coinsurance basis, 100% of the General Account Liabilities and (ii) on a modified coinsurance basis, 100% of the Separate Account Liabilities, in each case, payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Reinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide contractholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the contractholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts, including those set forth in this Agreement and on Schedule A hereto (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. In providing the contractholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall handle all such matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all contractholder claims arising under the Reinsured Contracts, as more fully described below. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the contractholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide the contractholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering variable annuity business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide contractholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any contractholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts or any services the Administrator is to provide in the administration of the Separate Accounts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrative Services with respect to claims for benefits including claims outstanding on the Effective Date, shall include the following:

3.1. Claim Administration Services. The Administrator shall acknowledge, consider, review, investigate, deny, settle, pay or otherwise dispose of each claim for benefits and disbursements reported under each Reinsured Contract (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

3.2. Description of Claim Administration Services. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall:

- (i) provide claimants under the Reinsured Contract and their authorized representatives (collectively, "Claimants") with Claim forms and provide reasonable explanatory guidance to Claimants in connection therewith;

- (ii) establish, maintain and organize Claim files and maintain and organize other Claims-related records;
- (iii) review all Claims and determine whether the Claimant is eligible for benefits and if so, the nature and extent of such benefits;
- (iv) prepare and distribute to the appropriate recipients any reports required by Applicable Law;
- (v) respond to all written or oral Claims-related communications that the Administrator reasonably believes to require a response; and
- (vi) maintain a complaint log with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with applicable requirements of Governmental Authorities and provide a copy of such log, continuously updated through the last day of each calendar quarter during the term of this Agreement, to the Company on or before the tenth Business Day of each calendar quarter covering changes during the preceding calendar quarter.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;
- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities, at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and

- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of such Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to any Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities to the extent required by Applicable Law. In addition, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to otherwise participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party, without the Company waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XVII hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO CONTRACTHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to contractholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to contractholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.10 of the Reinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.10(a) or 3.10(c) of the Reinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

BILLINGS AND COLLECTIONS

6.1. Billing and Collection Services. The Administrator shall assume all responsibility for billing and collecting premiums and other amounts payable with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, including Separate Account Charges, from and after the Effective Date. The Company shall promptly remit to the Administrator any such amounts received by it with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

ARTICLE VII

QUARTERLY PREMIUM TAX AND INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

7.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an "Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting") setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). Within thirty (30) days after the last day of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall submit to the Company a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, a “Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting”, and together with the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the “Quarterly Accountings”) setting forth the estimated premium taxes due with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as a result of premiums collected during such quarter. Concurrent with the delivery of each Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting, the Administrator shall remit to the Company the amount set forth on such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting with respect to such estimated premium taxes due and the amount set forth in such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting with respect to the Post-Effective Date Assessments, and any other amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that any Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Administrator’s delivery of such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting will be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting. Each of the parties agrees to supply to the other a copy of all supporting data used in preparing the Quarterly Accountings prepared by such party.

7.2. Adjustments Regarding Quarterly Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VIII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

8.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns. In order to enable the Administrator to perform the requirements as set forth in Item 6(c) of Schedule A hereto attached, the Company shall make available to the Administrator drafts of such documents sufficiently in advance of the proposed filings thereof.

8.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount (the “Annual Adjustment”) of (i) premium taxes due with respect to premiums collected during the prior calendar year (to the extent that such premium taxes constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts), less (ii) estimated premium taxes paid by the Administrator to the Company with respect to such premiums under the provisions of Article VII, less (iii) Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year. By March 30 of each year the Administrator shall pay to the Company the Annual Adjustment, if a positive amount, and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator the Annual Adjustment, if a negative amount.

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

9.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries and certifications, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

9.2. Reporting and Accountings. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premiums received and all benefits paid. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.

- (ii) The Administrator shall provide to the Company such reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Reinsured Contracts as agreed by the parties.
- (iii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iv) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (v) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

9.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall assume the obligations set forth below:

- (i) The Administrator shall timely pay to the contractholders, including any certificateholder thereunder, any refunds of any kind due under the Reinsured Contracts.

- (ii) The Administrator shall have the exclusive authority to manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements, including providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the reinsurers within the time required by the applicable reinsurance agreement and doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall timely pay all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such reinsurers all reinsurance recoverables due thereunder. The Administrator shall forward to the Company upon receipt any such reinsurance recoverables collected by the Administrator that are not the property of Administrator under the terms of the Reinsurance Agreement.
- (iii) The Administrator shall process all policy changes, lapses, cancellations, and reinstatements in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the express terms of the Reinsured Contracts and shall assume responsibility for providing all other contractholder servicing in connection with the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) The Administrator shall pay commissions due under the Reinsured Contracts.
- (v) The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

SEPARATE ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Without limiting the generality of any of the foregoing, in addition to the Administrative Services described in any Article of this Agreement, the contractholder and claim services with respect to, or as a result of, the Separate Accounts shall include those services set forth on Schedule A hereto.

ARTICLE XII

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the contractholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual contractholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Reinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XVI.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVIII

DURATION; TERMINATION

18.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 18.2.

18.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIX regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this 18.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of 18.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this 18.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending contractholder notices as provided in Article V.

19.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIX, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by 19.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in 19.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIX are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

19.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

19.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 19.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

19.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in 19.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this 19.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by 19.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIX.

ARTICLE XX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

20.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

20.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

20.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this 20.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

20.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

20.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

20.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

20.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

20.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

20.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

20.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

20.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

20.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

20.13. Survival. Article XIX and Article XX shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

SEPARATE ACCOUNT SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide the following additional services to the Company relating to the Separate Accounts:

1. Premium Collection . The Administrator shall promptly invest in the Separate Accounts deposits collected which relate to the Separate Account portions of Reinsured Contracts (including transfers from fixed options under the Reinsured Contracts), and promptly forward funds and required information to the underlying investment management companies, in each case in accordance with the Reinsured Contracts and any applicable agreements provided by the Company to the Administrator.
2. Records Maintenance . The Administrator shall maintain and preserve records with respect to the Separate Accounts as required by Rules 31a-1 and 31a-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers (the “NASD”). Upon request of the Company or any state or federal regulatory authorities, the Administrator shall forward a complete copy of any record promptly to the requesting party and in a format appropriate to the request. The Administrator shall file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) the undertaking required by Rule 17a-4(i) under the Exchange Act with respect to any records that it maintains and that are required to be maintained under the provisions of the Exchange Act by any broker-dealers that are authorized to sell the Reinsured Contracts.
3. Performance of Obligations . The Administrator shall perform, in the name and on behalf of the Company, all of the Company’s obligations under (i) the participation agreements between the Company and the mutual fund organizations in which assets of the Separate Accounts are invested (the “Participation Agreements”), (ii) the underwriting agreements between the Company and the principal underwriters for the Separate Account portions of the Reinsured Contracts, and (iii) any other agreements related to the distribution of the Separate Account portions of the Reinsured Contracts; provided in each case that the Company has provided complete copies of such agreements (including any amendments thereto) to the Administrator .
4. Contractholder Services . The Administrator shall provide the Company with the following additional contractholder services:
 - (a) Issuing timely reports, statements, and confirmations as required by the Reinsured Contracts or the Company’s practices in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date and communicated by the Company to the Administrator in writing;
 - (b) Issuing tax reporting forms and other information as required by applicable regulatory rules, including without limitation 1099-R, W-4P, and 5498 for contractholders and beneficiaries as required and distributing the same to contractholders and beneficiaries and appropriate authorities;

- (c) Responding to any requests from plan administrators or trustees for policy information affecting the plan or participants for qualified plans;
- (d) Responding to contractholder requests for calculations applicable to annuity payments under the Reinsured Contracts as may be necessary for tax withholding calculations;
- (e) Processing and recording transfer requests (i.e., from one subaccount to another) in all cases within time intervals necessary to meet SEC, NASD and other legal and regulatory requirements;
- (f) Calculating (on a daily basis) the net asset value and the accumulation unit value of each subaccount of the Separate Accounts that are funding options for the Reinsured Contracts, in accordance with the provisions of the Reinsured Contracts, as well as with the prospectus and statement of additional information disclosure on any day when such calculation is required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder;
- (g) Calculating (on a daily basis) the mortality and expense charges, and any administrative charges in accordance with the provisions of the Reinsured Contracts, as well as with the applicable prospectus and statement of additional information disclosure; and
- (h) Transmitting orders pursuant to the Participation Agreements for the purchase or redemption of shares in the investment companies in which the assets of the Separate Account are invested to such investment companies or their authorized agents and paying and receiving funds in connection with such purchases or redemptions as required by any applicable agreement.

5. Actuarial Services . The Administrator shall provide the formal actuarial opinions and related reports required by the SEC and the NASD.

6. Compliance Services . The Administrator shall provide the Company with the following additional compliance services:

- (a) Preparation and submission of (and provision of financial data required for) all reports required by the SEC (including without limitation forms N-SAR, 485(b) registration statement updates, fund and separate account annual reports and 24f-2 Notices), the NASD (including, without limitation, compilation of information, if any, related to the Reinsured Policies that would be reflected in any quarterly FOCUS II/IIA reports, annual FOCUS schedule 1 or Customer Complaints Rule 3070 Report), and the states (in each case only after review and approval thereof by the

- Company), with all of the foregoing to be accomplished within such time periods as are necessary to comply with Applicable Law after giving allowance, in the cases of information relevant to reports of filings of the Company that are not specific to the Reinsured Policies, for time periods reasonably specified by the Company to permit integration of the subject information related to the Reinsured Policies;
- (b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, all complaints and other grievances shall be handled by the Administrator in accordance with NASD requirements (including any response time requirements applicable thereto);
 - (c) Review and comment on registration statements and other SEC related documents prepared by the Company, and assist the Company in meeting SEC requirements with respect to any of the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator shall distribute at its expense to contractholders all required information provided by the Company to the Administrator (which the Company hereby agrees to provide on a timely basis), including prospectuses, post-effective amendments or supplements to the registration statements of the Separate Account or of any underlying funds as well as annual and semi-annual reports;
 - (d) Make all filings and obtain all regulatory approvals required with regard to advertising of the Reinsured Contracts, including without limitation all filings and approvals required by Applicable Laws and NASD requirements (except to the extent that such services are performed by other entities pursuant to written agreements with the Company);
 - (e) Ensure SEC and NASD compliance for variable contracts, prospectuses, and registration statements including the submission of any required information, conducting annual compliance audits, quarterly complaint reporting, registering and terminating representatives and monitoring continuing education requirements;
 - (f) Monitor the federal securities statutes and the rules, regulations, orders, and interpretations thereunder and the securities statutes and rules, regulations, orders, and interpretations thereunder of the various states in which contractholders or Reinsured Contracts are located to ensure compliance therewith and to ensure that any actions or communications required thereby are properly made;
 - (g) Process information relating to proxy voting, including receiving record date information and proxy solicitation from underlying investment vehicle(s); preparing proxy ballots; mailing solicitation and resolicitations, if necessary; and maintaining all proxy registers and other required proxy material;

- (h) Provide the Company with all information reasonably requested and necessary for the Company to meet any requirements arising out of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended; and
- (i) Ensure compliance with the Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) of the US Department of the Treasury and money “laundering” restrictions, including but not limited to those adopted under the Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT) Act of 2001.

7. General . The Administrator agrees to comply with all applicable federal securities laws and requirements of applicable self regulatory organization, including the NASD, as they apply to the Separate Account portions of Reinsured Contracts in connection with the performance of the Administrator’s obligations under this Agreement. The Administrator hereby agrees to provide all necessary information to the Company in order to meet all regulatory requirements as may be necessary for the Company to fulfill its obligations under federal and state law as is deemed reasonably necessary by the Company under applicable federal and state laws as they relate to the Reinsured Contracts.

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The disclosure is required by law; or

(2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and

b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and/or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE D

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of (i) the General Account Reserves as of the Inception Date over (ii) the net reserves of the Company with respect to the General Account Liabilities (net after deduction for Ceded Reinsurance) as of the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP (which amount may be negative);
2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
4. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

SCHEDULE F

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor” used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

Policy Maintenance Factor $59.73 per Policy less $64.69 per Policy of fund company administrative expense service shares.

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Triennial Study”) and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report”).

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the “Triennial Study Documents”).

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents”).

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The credit for Fund Company Administrative Expense Service Shares will be redetermined annually to reflect historical amounts of reimbursement relating to Reinsured Contracts, current period number of units, and changes in contractual arrangements with Fund Companies.

The combined prospective unit cost, additional adjustment and Fund Company Administrative Expense Service Shares credit is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense

Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

REINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Reinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance and modified coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, Contractholder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Annual Report" shall have the meaning specified in Section 6.6.

"Applicable Law" means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person's subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person's officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

"Assets" shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.4(a).

“ Assignment Letter Agreement ” means the letter agreement dated the date hereof among General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, the Reinsurer, the Company and certain affiliates of the Company relating to the assignment by General Electric Capital Corporation of the Capital Maintenance Agreement.

“ Business Day ” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which the New York Stock Exchange is closed for trading.

“ Capital Maintenance Agreement ” means the Capital Maintenance Agreement between General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and the Reinsurer.

“ Ceded Reinsurance ” means all reinsurance ceded by the Company pursuant to contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence of reinsurance relating to the Reinsured Risks in effect on or prior to the Inception Date, except the reinsurance provided pursuant to this Agreement.

“ Ceded Reinsurance Agreements ” means all of the contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence for Ceded Reinsurance.

“ Closing Date ” means April 15, 2004.

“ Code ” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

“ Commutation ” means, with respect to any portion of the Ceded Reinsurance, a commutation or other similar transaction that results in the termination of such Ceded Reinsurance with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

“ Company Account ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10.1(e).

“ CPR ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.3.

“Trustee” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10.1(a).

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company (i) on a coinsurance basis, for one hundred percent (100%) of the General Account Liabilities and (ii) on a modified coinsurance basis, for 100% of the Separate Account Liabilities, in each case, payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Reinsurer shall assume the risk for all uncollectible or uncollected reinsurance recoverables under the Ceded Reinsurance.

(b) Upon the annuitization of a Reinsured Contract, such Reinsured Contract will be considered surrendered and the Reinsurer will pay to the Company an amount equal to the general account value applied to the annuitization. In such event, no further obligation or liability will exist for the Reinsurer with respect to such annuitized Reinsured Contract.

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth or contemplated herein, including in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover Reinsured Risks incurred by the Company under such Reinsured Contract as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

(c) The Company will not change fund options for the Separate Accounts from and after the Inception Date unless such changes are made: (a) with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion, (b) in fulfillment of the fiduciary obligations of the Company after consultation with the Reinsurer or (c) by the Board of Trustees of an unaffiliated fund (trust) to liquidate, merge or remove a fund pursuant to the terms of the then existing fund participation agreements or through a regulatory process.

2.3. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.4. Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance. (a) The Company shall not, without the Reinsurer's prior written approval in its sole discretion, take any action to amend, waive or terminate, in whole or in part, any Ceded Reinsurance under any Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or enter into any Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance.

(b) Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.10, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts in accordance with the terms hereof including, but not limited to, the collection of premiums and other amounts due from Contractholders, the payment of all General Account Liabilities and Separate Account Liabilities and the administration of claims and disbursements, which disbursements shall be made (i) directly by the Company with respect to such disbursements relating to the General Account Liabilities and (ii) from the Separate Accounts with respect to such disbursements relating to the Separate Account Liabilities. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering variable annuity business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and administer the Separate Accounts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts or any services the Company is to provide in the administration of the Separate Accounts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own variable annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. The Company shall manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements, including providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the reinsurers within the time required by the applicable reinsurance agreement and doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall timely pay all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and diligently collect from such reinsurers all reinsurance recoverables due thereunder.

3.3. Non-Guaranteed Elements. The Company shall set all rider charges, interest rates to be credited on the Reinsured Contracts and other non-guaranteed elements of the Reinsured Contracts (“Non-Guaranteed Elements”) from and after the Inception Date. The Company shall allow the Reinsurer to participate in all decisions made by the Company with respect to setting Non-Guaranteed Elements.

3.4. Policy Exchanges. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Company will not make any targeted exchange offers with regards to the Reinsured Contracts or otherwise target the Reinsured Contracts for replacement.

3.5. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company’s prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.6. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Company's administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.7. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.8. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.9. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.10. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.10.

- (b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.10(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company, to assume from the Company, the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
 - (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XII regarding an alleged material breach); or
 - (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.10 (b)(iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.
- (c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.10(b).
- (d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule C and the provisions of Section 2.1(b) and Article V shall become inoperative.
- (e) In the event that the Reinsurer is not properly licensed to administer the Reinsured Contracts at the time of a proposed transfer of administration under this Section 3.10, the Reinsurer may designate a properly licensed entity that has appropriately trained and licensed personnel reasonably acceptable to the Company to administer the Reinsured Contracts in its stead, and the administrative services agreement referred to in paragraph (d) above shall be executed by such properly licensed entity in lieu of the Reinsurer. The designation and assumption of administration by such entity shall not relieve the Reinsurer from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder (except as set forth in paragraph (d) above), and the Reinsurer shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such entity with regards to the providing of such administration as if provided by the Reinsurer. The parties shall take all actions reasonably necessary to effect the prompt transfer of administration provided in this Section 3.10.

(f) In the event of the assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under this Section 3.10, the Reinsurer and the Company shall take all actions necessary or appropriate to transfer administration of the Separate Account Liabilities to the Reinsurer or its permitted designee. Such actions shall include, without limitation, the establishment and maintenance of a new separate account of the Company solely for the Reinsured Contracts and the transfer of the assets of the Separate Account allocable to the Reinsured Contracts to such new separate account.

GENERAL ACCOUNT ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION; INITIAL MODCO RESERVE ADJUSTMENT

4.1. Asset Transfer. (a) As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the General Account Liabilities under this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the General Account Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

(b) As additional consideration for the Reinsurer entering into this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all premiums and other considerations to the extent received on or after the Inception Date by the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to the General Account Liabilities, less an amount equal to the reinsurance premium due under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the extent such premium relates to coverage on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, with respect to the Separate Account Liabilities, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all (i) mortality and expense risk charges and administrative expense charges (collectively, "asset charges"), any rider charges (to the extent the riders are reinsured hereunder), and contract maintenance charges, back-end sales loads and other considerations billed separately for the Reinsured Contracts collected by the Company on or after the Inception Date, and (ii) any other charges, fees and similar amounts received by the Company from the Separate Accounts on or after the Inception Date (collectively, the "Separate Account Charges"). The Company hereby assigns to the Reinsurer all of its rights to such premiums and other considerations payable to the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, the Separate Account Charges shall not include any distribution fees received from underlying mutual funds pursuant to a plan adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

4.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule D.

4.3. Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment. As additional consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Separate Account Liabilities under this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Company shall transfer to the Reinsurer an amount equal to the net of (a) minus (b) where (a) is an amount equal to the Separate Account Liabilities as of the Inception Date and (b) is the Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment. The “Initial MODCO Reserve Adjustment” shall be an amount equal to the Separate Account Liabilities as of the Inception Date.

4.4. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.9. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 4.1(a) and Section 4.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule E, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date as reflected on a Monthly Settlement Report (the “Monthly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Monthly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date as reflected on a Quarterly Settlement Report (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the owing party no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

ARTICLE V

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

5.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and claims servicing services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an "Expense Allowance") in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule F, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule F; provided that if the amount calculated in accordance with Schedule F with respect to any Monthly Accounting Period should be negative, such negative amount shall be credited to the Reinsurer on the Monthly Settlement Report for such period.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT; MODCO ADJUSTMENT

6.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule G - Part I (the "Initial Report").

6.2. Daily Settlement Amounts. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the "Daily Settlement Account") in its own name for the payment of Daily Settlement Amounts and shall authorize at least two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer to make deposits to, and withdrawals from, the Daily Settlement Account.

(b) By 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time each Business Day following the Closing Date during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall calculate the Daily Settlement Amount for the prior Business Day. Promptly following such calculation, the Company shall forward to the Reinsurer a report in the form of Schedule G - Part II that shall provide the details of such calculation (the "Daily Settlement Report"). Prior to 6:00 p.m. of such Business Day, the Company or the Reinsurer, as appropriate, shall deposit into the Daily Settlement Account an amount equal to such Daily Settlement Amount owed by such party to the other. The party to whom such Daily Settlement Amount is owed shall have a right to withdraw such deposited amount at any time following such deposit.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Daily Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.2.

(e) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VII, the Reinsurer shall close the Daily Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer.

6.3. Monthly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days following the end of each Monthly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Monthly Accounting Period required in Schedule G - Part III (the "Monthly Settlement Report").

6.4. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Quarterly Accounting Period required in Schedule G - Part IV (the "Quarterly Settlement Report"). The Company and the Reinsurer agree that the financial data set forth on the Monthly Settlement Reports used for purposes of the Monthly Settlements, shall be true-up to actual amounts in the next Quarterly Settlement Report and the net amount, if any, subsequently due to the Company or the Reinsurer, as the case may be, as a result of such adjustments shall be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Settlement Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

6.5. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

6.6. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule G - Part V (the "Annual Report").

6.7. Accounting Period MODCO Reserve Adjustment. At the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period, the Company shall compute an amount equal to the absolute value of the increase or decrease in the Separate Account Reserves due to subaccount investment performance for the Quarterly Accounting Period just ended (the "Quarterly Accounting Period MODCO Adjustment"). The Quarterly Accounting Period MODCO Adjustment for each Quarterly Accounting Period shall be reflected in the Quarterly Settlement Report for such Quarterly Accounting Period.

6.8. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

6.9. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VII

7.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

7.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

7.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 7.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

ARTICLE VIII

INSOLVENCY

8.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, all reinsurance made, ceded, renewed or otherwise becoming effective under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

8.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 8.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

9.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, any trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

10.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule H (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule I attached hereto ("Eligible Securities").

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the "Funding Requirement") equal to the sum of General Account Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer; and
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the "Company Account") in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company's liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 10.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 10.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the General Account Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

11.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XII

12.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 12.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 12.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

12.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

12.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 12.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

12.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 12.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 12.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under Applicable Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XII.

ARTICLE XIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

13.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

13.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

13.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 13.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 13.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

13.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

13.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

13.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

13.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

13.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

13.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

13.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

13.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

13.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

13.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

13.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

13.15. Survival. Article XII and Article XIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GE CAPITAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Reinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Reinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Reinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, (i) on a coinsurance basis, 100% of the General Account Liabilities and (ii) on a modified coinsurance basis, 100% of the Separate Account Liabilities, in each case, payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Reinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide contractholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as set forth herein, and the Separate Accounts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

As between the Company and the Administrator, the Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the contractholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts, including those set forth in this Agreement and on Schedule A hereto (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. In providing the contractholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall handle all such matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all contractholder claims arising under the Reinsured Contracts, as more fully described below. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the final right to direct the Administrator in the performance of the Administrative Services in accordance with the standards for services set forth in Section 2.1, including the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the contractholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law. All services hereunder shall be performed by the Administrator in the name of and on behalf of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain a toll-free number for use by policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries. Any and all correspondence with policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries and check stock utilized by the Administrator for payments under the Reinsured Contracts shall be in the name of the Company or in the name of the Administrator and disclosing that the Administrator is acting as the administrative agent of the Company.

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide the contractholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering variable annuity business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide contractholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the Separate Accounts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards, (v) in accordance with standards of service as agreed to by the Administrator and the Company and, subject to the foregoing, (vi) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any contractholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts or any services the Administrator is to provide in the administration of the Separate Accounts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

2.4. Policyholder Servicing. The Administrator shall provide policyholder servicing with regards to the Reinsured Contracts, including changes of address, responding to policyholder inquiries and similar services.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrative Services with respect to claims for benefits including claims outstanding on the Effective Date, shall include the following:

3.1. Claim Administration Services. The Administrator shall acknowledge, consider, review, investigate, deny, settle, pay or otherwise dispose of each claim for benefits and disbursements reported under each Reinsured Contract (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims") in accordance with procedures and guidelines established by the Company, such procedures and guidelines to be in accordance with the standards of service set forth in Section 2.1.

- 3.2. Description of Claim Administration Services. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall:
- (i) provide claimants under the Reinsured Contract and their authorized representatives (collectively, "Claimants") with Claim forms and provide reasonable explanatory guidance to Claimants in connection therewith;
 - (ii) establish, maintain and organize Claim files and maintain and organize other Claims-related records;
 - (iii) review all Claims and determine whether the Claimant is eligible for benefits and if so, the nature and extent of such benefits;
 - (iv) prepare and distribute to the appropriate recipients any reports required by Applicable Law;
 - (v) respond to all written or oral Claims-related communications that the Administrator reasonably believes to require a response; and
 - (vi) maintain a complaint log with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with applicable requirements of Governmental Authorities and provide a copy of such log, continuously updated through the last day of each calendar quarter during the term of this Agreement, to the Company on or before the tenth Business Day of each calendar quarter covering changes during the preceding calendar quarter.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

- 4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;
- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities, at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall retain final authority for the resolution of inquiries by Governmental Authorities and consumer complaints; provided, however, the Company agrees to act reasonably in the exercise of such authority.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and

- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of such Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to any Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator . The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings . Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities to the extent required by Applicable Law. In addition, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to otherwise participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party, without the Company waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XVII hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO CONTRACTHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to contractholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator, reasonably acceptable to the Company and approved by the New York Insurance Department to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to contractholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.10 of the Reinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.10(a) or 3.10(c) of the Reinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

BILLINGS AND COLLECTIONS

6.1. Billing and Collection Services. The Administrator shall assume all responsibility for billing and collecting premiums and other amounts payable with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, including Separate Account Charges, from and after the Effective Date. The Company shall promptly remit to the Administrator any such amounts received by it with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

ARTICLE VII

QUARTERLY PREMIUM TAX AND INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

7.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an "Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting") setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the "Post-Effective Date Assessments"). Within thirty (30) days after the last day of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall submit to the Company a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, a "Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting", and together with the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the "Quarterly Accountings") setting forth the estimated premium taxes due with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as a result of premiums collected during such quarter. Concurrent with the delivery of each Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting, the Administrator shall remit to the Company the amount set forth on such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting with respect to such estimated premium taxes due and the amount set forth in such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting with respect to the Post-Effective Date Assessments, and any other amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that any Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Administrator's delivery of such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting will be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund

Quarterly Accounting. Each of the parties agrees to supply to the other a copy of all supporting data used in preparing the Quarterly Accountings prepared by such party.

7.2. Adjustments Regarding Quarterly Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VIII

8.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns. In order to enable the Administrator to perform the requirements as set forth in Item 6(c) of Schedule A hereto attached, the Company shall make available to the Administrator drafts of such documents sufficiently in advance of the proposed filings thereof.

8.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company's premium tax liability ("Premium Tax Credits"). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount (the "Annual Adjustment") of (i) premium taxes due with respect to premiums collected during the prior calendar year (to the extent that such premium taxes constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts), less (ii) estimated premium taxes paid by the Administrator to the Company with respect to such premiums under the provisions of Article VII, less (iii) Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year. By March 30 of each year the Administrator shall pay to the Company the Annual Adjustment, if a positive amount, and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator the Annual Adjustment, if a negative amount.

9.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries and certifications, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

9.2. Reporting and Accountings. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days after the end of each Monthly Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Monthly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each Quarterly Accounting Period that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Annual Reports. In addition, as soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company such other reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premiums received and all benefits paid. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) The Administrator shall provide to the Company such reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting

- records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Reinsured Contracts as agreed by the parties.
- (iii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
 - (iv) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
 - (v) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

9.3. Additional Reports and Updates . For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall assume the obligations set forth below:

- (i) The Administrator shall timely pay to the contractholders, including any certificateholder thereunder, any refunds of any kind due under the Reinsured Contracts.
- (ii) The Administrator shall have the exclusive authority to manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements, including providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements to the reinsurers within the time required by the applicable reinsurance agreement and doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall timely pay all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such reinsurers all reinsurance recoverables due thereunder. The Administrator shall forward to the Company upon receipt any such reinsurance recoverables collected by the Administrator that are not the property of Administrator under the terms of the Reinsurance Agreement.

- (iii) The Administrator shall process all policy changes, lapses, cancellations, and reinstatements in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the express terms of the Reinsured Contracts and shall assume responsibility for providing all other contractholder servicing in connection with the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) The Administrator shall pay commissions due under the Reinsured Contracts.
- (v) The Administrator shall provide such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE XI

SEPARATE ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Without limiting the generality of any of the foregoing, in addition to the Administrative Services described in any Article of this Agreement, the contractholder and claim services with respect to, or as a result of, the Separate Accounts shall include those services set forth on Schedule A hereto.

ARTICLE XII

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law, including New York Regulation 152, and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. All such records pertaining to the Reinsured Contracts shall be the property of the Company, provided that the Administrator shall at all times have the right to retain a copy of such books and records. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the contractholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual contractholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Reinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XVI.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVIII

DURATION; TERMINATION

18.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 18.2.

18.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIX regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this 18.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of 18.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this 18.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending contractholder notices as provided in Article V.

19.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIX, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by 19.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in 19.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIX are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

19.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

19.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 19.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

19.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in 19.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this 19.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by 19.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIX.

ARTICLE XX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

20.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

20.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and without the prior written consent of the New York Insurance Department and the Illinois Insurance Department. Any assignment in violation of this 20.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

20.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

20.5. Safeguarding Customer Information. The Administrator shall implement and maintain appropriate measures designed to meet the objectives of New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 173, with respect to safeguarding the Company's customer information and customer information systems. The Administrator shall adjust its information security program at the reasonable request of the Company for any relevant changes indicated by the Company's assessment of risk around its customer information and customer information systems. Confirming evidence that the Administrator has satisfied its obligations under this Agreement shall be made available, during normal business hours, for inspection by the Company, representatives of the Company, and any governmental agency that has regulatory authority over the Company's business activities.

20.6. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

20.7. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

20.8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

20.9. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

20.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

20.11. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

20.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

20.13. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

20.14. Survival. Article XIX and Article XX shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

20.15. Licensing. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Administrator shall maintain in full force and effect all licenses required to be maintained by it under Applicable Law with respect to this Agreement, including, if applicable, an independent claims adjuster license.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

SEPARATE ACCOUNT SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide the following additional services to the Company relating to the Separate Accounts:

1. Premium Collection . The Administrator shall promptly invest in the Separate Accounts deposits collected which relate to the Separate Account portions of Reinsured Contracts (including transfers from fixed options under the Reinsured Contracts), and promptly forward funds and required information to the underlying investment management companies, in each case in accordance with the Reinsured Contracts and any applicable agreements provided by the Company to the Administrator.
2. Records Maintenance . The Administrator shall maintain and preserve records with respect to the Separate Accounts as required by Rules 31a-1 and 31a-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers (the “NASD”). Upon request of the Company or any state or federal regulatory authorities, the Administrator shall forward a complete copy of any record promptly to the requesting party and in a format appropriate to the request. The Administrator shall file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) the undertaking required by Rule 17a-4(i) under the Exchange Act with respect to any records that it maintains and that are required to be maintained under the provisions of the Exchange Act by any broker-dealers that are authorized to sell the Reinsured Contracts.
3. Performance of Obligations . The Administrator shall perform, in the name and on behalf of the Company, all of the Company’s obligations under (i) the participation agreements between the Company and the mutual fund organizations in which assets of the Separate Accounts are invested (the “Participation Agreements”), (ii) the underwriting agreements between the Company and the principal underwriters for the Separate Account portions of the Reinsured Contracts, and (iii) any other agreements related to the distribution of the Separate Account portions of the Reinsured Contracts; provided in each case that the Company has provided complete copies of such agreements (including any amendments thereto) to the Administrator .
4. Contractholder Services . The Administrator shall provide the Company with the following additional contractholder services:
 - (a) Issuing timely reports, statements, and confirmations as required by the Reinsured Contracts or the Company’s practices in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date and communicated by the Company to the Administrator in writing;
 - (b) Issuing tax reporting forms and other information as required by applicable regulatory rules, including without limitation 1099-R, W-4P, and 5498 for contractholders and beneficiaries as required and distributing the same to contractholders and beneficiaries and appropriate authorities;

- (c) Responding to any requests from plan administrators or trustees for policy information affecting the plan or participants for qualified plans;
- (d) Responding to contractholder requests for calculations applicable to annuity payments under the Reinsured Contracts as may be necessary for tax withholding calculations;
- (e) Processing and recording transfer requests (i.e., from one subaccount to another) in all cases within time intervals necessary to meet SEC, NASD and other legal and regulatory requirements;
- (f) Calculating (on a daily basis) the net asset value and the accumulation unit value of each subaccount of the Separate Accounts that are funding options for the Reinsured Contracts, in accordance with the provisions of the Reinsured Contracts, as well as with the prospectus and statement of additional information disclosure on any day when such calculation is required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder;
- (g) Calculating (on a daily basis) the mortality and expense charges, and any administrative charges in accordance with the provisions of the Reinsured Contracts, as well as with the applicable prospectus and statement of additional information disclosure; and
- (h) Transmitting orders pursuant to the Participation Agreements for the purchase or redemption of shares in the investment companies in which the assets of the Separate Account are invested to such investment companies or their authorized agents and paying and receiving funds in connection with such purchases or redemptions as required by any applicable agreement.

5. Actuarial Services . The Administrator shall provide the formal actuarial opinions and related reports required by the SEC and the NASD.

6. Compliance Services . The Administrator shall provide the Company with the following additional compliance services:

- (a) Preparation and submission of (and provision of financial data required for) all reports required by the SEC (including without limitation forms N-SAR, 485(b) registration statement updates, fund and separate account annual reports and 24f-2 Notices), the NASD (including, without limitation, compilation of information, if any, related to the Reinsured Policies that would be reflected in any quarterly FOCUS II/IIA reports, annual FOCUS schedule 1 or Customer Complaints Rule 3070 Report), and the states (in each case only after review and approval thereof by the

- Company), with all of the foregoing to be accomplished within such time periods as are necessary to comply with Applicable Law after giving allowance, in the cases of information relevant to reports of filings of the Company that are not specific to the Reinsured Policies, for time periods reasonably specified by the Company to permit integration of the subject information related to the Reinsured Policies;
- (b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, all complaints and other grievances shall be handled by the Administrator in accordance with NASD requirements (including any response time requirements applicable thereto);
 - (c) Review and comment on registration statements and other SEC related documents prepared by the Company, and assist the Company in meeting SEC requirements with respect to any of the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator shall distribute at its expense to contractholders all required information provided by the Company to the Administrator (which the Company hereby agrees to provide on a timely basis), including prospectuses, post-effective amendments or supplements to the registration statements of the Separate Account or of any underlying funds as well as annual and semi-annual reports;
 - (d) Make all filings and obtain all regulatory approvals required with regard to advertising of the Reinsured Contracts, including without limitation all filings and approvals required by Applicable Laws and NASD requirements (except to the extent that such services are performed by other entities pursuant to written agreements with the Company);
 - (e) Ensure SEC and NASD compliance for variable contracts, prospectuses, and registration statements including the submission of any required information, conducting annual compliance audits, quarterly complaint reporting, registering and terminating representatives and monitoring continuing education requirements;
 - (f) Monitor the federal securities statutes and the rules, regulations, orders, and interpretations thereunder and the securities statutes and rules, regulations, orders, and interpretations thereunder of the various states in which contractholders or Reinsured Contracts are located to ensure compliance therewith and to ensure that any actions or communications required thereby are properly made;
 - (g) Process information relating to proxy voting, including receiving record date information and proxy solicitation from underlying investment vehicle(s); preparing proxy ballots; mailing solicitation and resolicitations, if necessary; and maintaining all proxy registers and other required proxy material;

- (h) Provide the Company with all information reasonably requested and necessary for the Company to meet any requirements arising out of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended; and
- (i) Ensure compliance with the Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) of the US Department of the Treasury and money “laundering” restrictions, including but not limited to those adopted under the Uniting and Strengthening America By Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT) Act of 2001.

7. General . The Administrator agrees to comply with all applicable federal securities laws and requirements of applicable self regulatory organization, including the NASD, as they apply to the Separate Account portions of Reinsured Contracts in connection with the performance of the Administrator’s obligations under this Agreement. The Administrator hereby agrees to provide all necessary information to the Company in order to meet all regulatory requirements as may be necessary for the Company to fulfill its obligations under federal and state law as is deemed reasonably necessary by the Company under applicable federal and state laws as they relate to the Reinsured Contracts.

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE D

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of (i) the General Account Reserves as of the Inception Date over (ii) the net reserves of the Company with respect to the General Account Liabilities (net after deduction for Ceded Reinsurance) as of the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP (which amount may be negative);
 2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
 4. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

SCHEDULE F

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor" used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

|---------------------------|---|
| Policy Maintenance Factor | $59.73 per Policy less $64.69 per Policy of fund company administrative expense service shares. |

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The credit for Fund Company Administrative Expense Service Shares will be redetermined annually to reflect historical amounts of reimbursement relating to Reinsured Contracts, current period number of units, and changes in contractual arrangements with Fund Companies.

The combined prospective unit cost, additional adjustment and Fund Company Administrative Expense Service Shares credit is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Company"), and Federal Home Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses" means all costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Company or its Affiliates in the investigation, adjustment, settlement or defense of all claims or the monitoring, preservation or enforcement of rights, interests or benefits arising out of or relating to the Reinsured Policies (excluding office expenses and salaries of officials of the Company or its Affiliates or any other administrative or overhead expenses of the Company or of its Affiliates), and court costs, and interest on any judgment or award. Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses shall also include expenses associated with an action by any entity for declaratory judgment filed in connection with the Reinsured Policies.

“ Applicable Law ” means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person’s subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person’s officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“ Assets ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.4(a).

“ Business Day ” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in the States of Illinois or Virginia are required or authorized by law to be closed.

“ Ceding Commission ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.3.

“ Closing Date ” means April 15, 2004.

“ Code ” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

“ CPR ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.3.

“ Eligible Securities ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10.2(c).

“ Extra Contractual Liabilities ” means all liabilities for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of the Reinsured Policies, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual acts, errors or omissions by the Company, the Reinsurer or any of their agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of the Reinsured Policies, including (A) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under the Reinsured Policies, or (B) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of any of the Reinsured Policies.

“ Funding Requirement ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 10.2(j).

“ GAAP ” means U.S. generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

“ Governmental Authority ” means any foreign or national government, any state or other political subdivision thereof, and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

“Inception Date” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.1.

“Initial Reinsurance Premium” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.1.

“Insolvency Fund” means any guarantee fund, insolvency fund, plan, pool, association, fund or other arrangement, however denominated, established or governed, which provides for any assessment of or payment or assumption by the Company of part or all of any claim, debt, charge, fee or other obligation of an insurer or reinsurer, or its successors or assigns, which has been declared by any competent authority to be insolvent, or which is otherwise deemed unable to meet any claim, debt, charge, fee or other obligation in whole or in part.

“Loss” or “Losses” means the amount of liability paid or payable by the Company with respect to claims, losses, liabilities, damages, deficiencies, costs or expenses, including without limitation, any settlements or compromises or disputed claims, arising under the Reinsured Policies.

“Manager” means Wakely and Associates, Incorporated.

“Market Value” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.2(j).

“Person” means any natural person, firm, limited liability company, general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, trust, Governmental Authority or other entity.

“Post-Effective Date Assessments” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Quarterly Accountings” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Reinsured Policies” means the medicare supplement insurance policies issued by the Company prior to January 1, 2004 and written on the policy forms described in Schedule A or reinsured by the Company under reinsurance agreements in effect prior to January 1, 2004 (excluding reinsurance agreements with Affiliates), including renewals of any such policies.

“Response” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.2.

“SAP” means statutory accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Insurance Department of the State of Illinois.

“Subcontractor” shall have the meaning specified in Section 3.1(a).

“Tax DAC” means specified policy acquisition expenses capitalized and amortized under section 848 of the Code.

“Termination Date” means the effective date of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Article VIII.

“Termination Letter Agreement” means the letter agreement among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain affiliates of the Reinsurer relating to the rescission of this Agreement upon the failure of certain events to occur after the date hereof.

“Total SAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with SAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks, which shall consist of the sum of (A) (i) active life reserves, (ii) claim reserves (both case and incurred but not reported), (iii) unearned premium reserves, and (iv) advance premiums, less (B) due and unpaid premium receivable balances.

“Total GAAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with GAAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks, which shall consist of the sum of (A) (i) active life reserves (including related maintenance and loss expense reserves), (ii) claim reserves (both case and incurred but not reported), (iii) unearned premium reserves, and (iv) advance premiums, less (B) due and unpaid premium receivable balances.

“Trust Account” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.2(a).

“Trust Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.2(a).

“Trustee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.2(a).

“Ultimate Net Loss” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.3(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company and unpaid as of the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made by the Company on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made by the Company in any Reinsured Policy without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Ultimate Net Loss. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2 and 2.3(b) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Ultimate Net Loss" shall mean (i) the actual Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses payable by the Company after making deductions for all recoveries, salvage and subrogations actually recovered, (ii) premium taxes due in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Policies, (iii) Insolvency Fund assessments, net of any premium tax credits of the Company arising out of any such assessments, in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Policies, (iv) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Reinsured Policies, (v) all liability for commission payments and other fees or compensation payable with respect to the Reinsured Policies in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date, (vi) unclaimed property liabilities and obligations arising under or related to the Reinsured Policies, and (vii) all liability for Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company, the Reinsurer or any of their agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Policies, in each case only to the extent reinsurance of such liabilities is permitted by state law.

(b) All recoveries or payments received by the Company subsequent to a loss settlement under this Agreement shall be applied as if recovered or received prior to the aforesaid settlement and all necessary adjustments shall be made by the parties hereto; provided, that nothing in this Section 2.3(b) shall be construed to mean that the Reinsurer's share of the Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses under this Agreement are not recoverable until the Company's Ultimate Net Loss has been ascertained.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Policies.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Policies without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) The Reinsurer shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies in accordance with the terms hereof. At its option, the Reinsurer may delegate such administrative duties and obligations to (i) the Manager, (ii) any other third party administrator utilized by the Company on the Closing Date, (iii) an Affiliate, or (iv) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, except with respect to third party administrators utilized by the Company on the Closing Date, the Reinsurer also subcontracts for such service or services for its own medicare supplement business not subject to this Agreement to the Subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Reinsurer from any obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Reinsurer shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Reinsurer. In providing policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies, the Reinsurer (or the Subcontractor) shall handle all matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all claims arising under the Reinsured Policies.

(b) The Reinsurer shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering medicare supplement business. The Reinsurer shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Policies, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Reinsurer's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Company than the Reinsurer's standards in effect on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Policies.

(c) The Company shall give prompt notice to the Reinsurer of any claims, lawsuits or actions made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Policies to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Reinsurer or the Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and shall promptly furnish to the Reinsurer copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Reinsurer shall assume the defense of the Company. The Reinsurer shall keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all litigation handled by the Reinsurer in which the Company is named a party. The Reinsurer shall indemnify the Company against, and hold it harmless from, all costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with such defense and all damages, settlements, judgments, or awards of any kind whatsoever agreed to or assessed against the Company in connection therewith, including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages, arising out of the Reinsurer's (and not the Company's) handling of claims under the Reinsured Policies or the acts, errors, or omissions of the Reinsurer or the Subcontractor, as the case may be.

(d) In the event that, during the period of the Reinsurer's administration of the Reinsured Policies, the Reinsurer designates a new Person to administer the Reinsured Policies, the Reinsurer agrees to send to all policyholders of the Reinsured Policies a written notice prepared by the Reinsurer and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that such Person has been appointed by the Company to provide administrative services. The Reinsurer shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer.

3.2. Re-rating of Reinsured Policies. Subject to compliance with Applicable Law, the Reinsurer shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Company, to seek to increase or decrease the premium rates under the Reinsured Policies from and after the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear, and shall indemnify the Company for, all costs and liabilities incurred in or arising out of seeking or effecting any premium rate changes.

3.3. Inspection. The Reinsurer shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Policies and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Reinsurer's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Reinsurer or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Reinsurer or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Policies, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Reinsurer or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) The Company shall have the right, upon written notice to the Reinsurer, to assume from the Reinsurer the administration of the Reinsured Policies upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Reinsurer for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Reinsurer;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Reinsurer of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Reinsurer within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Reinsurer is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Reinsurer is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7 shall relieve the Reinsurer from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Reinsurer's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7(a), including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Section 3.10.

(c) In the event of the Company's assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Policies, Sections 3.8, 3.9, 3.10, 3.11 and 3.12 shall apply to the administration of the Reinsured Policies by the Company and the provisions of Article V, Article VII, Section 3.1 and the second sentence of Section 6.1 shall become inoperative.

3.8. Contract Administration. (a) In the event that the Company assumes the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies in accordance with the terms hereof including, but not limited to, the collection of premiums and other amounts due from policyholders, the payment of all Reinsured Risks and the administration of claims and disbursements, which disbursements shall be made directly by the Company. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering medicare supplement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Policies (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Policies, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Policies.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Policies to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own medicare supplement business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.9. Claims Settlements. In the event that the Company assumes the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7, the Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Policy, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.10. Notice to Policyholder. To the extent that the administration of the Reinsured Policies is assumed by the Company pursuant to Section 3.7 and the Person then administering the Reinsured Policies does not continue to administer the Reinsured Policies, the Company agrees to send to all policyholders of the Reinsured Policies a written notice to the effect that the Company will provide administrative services. The Company shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer.

3.11. Expense Allowance. In the event the Company assumes the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7, as reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and claims servicing services with respect to the Reinsured Policies, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Company's assumption of such administration, an expense allowance equal to the Company's actual cost of providing such administrative services plus reasonable provision for overhead expenses associated therewith.

3.12. Accounting and Settlement. (a) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each calendar quarter ending after the Company's assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7 (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide financial data for such calendar quarter in the form as agreed between the parties.

(b) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Company's assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7 (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Policies as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

(c) Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year ending after the Company's assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7 (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide financial data for such year in the form as agreed between the parties.

(d) Following any assumption by the Company of administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7, and for so long thereafter as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

(e) Following any assumption by the Company of administration of the Reinsured Policies pursuant to Section 3.7, in the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE IV

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

4.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the “Initial Reinsurance Premium”).

4.2. Additional Reinsurance Premium. As additional consideration for the Reinsurer entering into this Agreement, Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all premiums and other considerations to the extent received on or after the Inception Date by the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to the Reinsured Policies, including premium receivables that were due and unpaid as of the Inception Date that were taken into account in the calculation of the Initial Reinsurance Premium.

4.3. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule B.

4.4. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 4.1 and Section 4.3 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule C, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount due on the Closing Date concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

(c) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of the first calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date, the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report setting forth a calculation of the amount of premium and other consideration received on or after the Inception Date but prior to the Closing Date by the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies, minus the amount of Reinsured Risks (other than Insolvency Fund assessments and premium taxes) paid by the Company on or after the Inception Date but prior to the Closing Date. If the result of such calculation is positive, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer, concurrent with the delivery of such report, an amount in cash equal to such positive amount. If the result of such calculation is negative, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company, no later than thirty (30) days after receipt of the Company's report, an amount in cash equal to such negative amount.

4.5. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule D (the "Initial Report").

ARTICLE V

QUARTERLY INSOLVENCY FUND AND PREMIUM TAX ACCOUNTING

5.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Reinsurer a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an "Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting") setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks (collectively, the "Post-Effective Date Assessments"). Within thirty (30) days after the last day of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Reinsurer shall submit to the Company a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, a "Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting", and together with the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the "Quarterly Accountings") setting forth the estimated premium taxes due with respect to the Reinsured Policies as a result of premiums collected during such quarter. Concurrent with the delivery of each Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting, the Reinsurer shall remit to the Company the amount set forth on such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting with respect to such estimated premium taxes due and the amount set forth in such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting with respect to the Post-Effective Date Assessments, and any other amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that any Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Reinsurer less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Reinsurer's delivery of such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting will be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Reinsurer of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting. Each of the parties agrees to supply to the other a copy of all supporting data used in preparing the Quarterly Accountings prepared by such party. For the avoidance of doubt, the first Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting and Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting shall cover the period from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

5.2. Adjustments Regarding Quarterly Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY THE COMPANY

6.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Policies, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Reinsurer shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Reinsurer with respect to the Reinsured Policies that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

6.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Reinsurer the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company's premium tax liability ("Premium Tax Credits"). The Company shall provide to the Reinsurer by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount (the "Annual Adjustment") of (i) premium taxes due with respect to premiums collected during the prior calendar year (to the extent that such premium taxes constitute Reinsured Risks), less (ii) estimated premium taxes paid by the Reinsurer to the Company with respect to such premiums under the provisions of Article V, less (iii) Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year. By March 30 of each year the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company the Annual Adjustment, if a positive amount, and the Company will pay to or credit the Reinsurer the Annual Adjustment, if a negative amount.

ARTICLE VII

REGULATORY MATTERS AND REPORTING

7.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Reinsurer shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Policies as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Reinsurer shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or useful to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies. In addition, the Reinsurer, upon the reasonable request of the Company shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Policies (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Reinsurer at the Reinsurer's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Reinsurer in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (a) The Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.

- (b) The Reinsurer shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Policies.
- 7.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Reinsurer shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:
- (a) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Reinsurer shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Policies as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premium written and earned and all Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses reserved, paid, and outstanding. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (b) The Reinsurer shall timely provide to the Company reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Reinsured Policies.
- (c) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Reinsurer shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks as of the quarter end.
- (d) The Reinsurer shall timely provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Reinsurer in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Policies.
- (e) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this agreement is in effect, beginning with year end 2004, the Reinsurer shall cause its appointed actuary to provide to the Company (a) an opinion as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Policies, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

7.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE VIII

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

ARTICLE X

SECURITY AND REINSURANCE CREDIT

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

10.2. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule E (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") acceptable to the Director of Insurance of the State of Illinois, the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York and the Company.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited shall be valued according to their current fair market value and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other admitted assets of a character, maturity, and value to fulfill the intent of this Agreement; provided that such investments are issued by an institution that is not the parent, subsidiary or affiliate of either the Company or the Reinsurer; and provided, further that such assets are of the type specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (8) and (10) of Section 1404(a) of the New York Insurance Law ("Eligible Securities").

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity.

(e) All settlements of account under the Trust Agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer shall be made in cash or its equivalent.

(f) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account may be withdrawn by the Company at any time, notwithstanding any other provisions in this Agreement, and shall be applied and utilized by the Company (or any successor of the Company by operation of law, including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator of the Company), on the basis of the liability of the Company under the Reinsured Policies, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company or the Reinsurer, only for the following purposes:

- (i) to reimburse the Company for the Reinsurer's share of premiums returned to owners of Reinsured Policies because of cancellation of the Reinsured Policies;
- (ii) to reimburse the Company for the Reinsurer's share of policy benefits or losses paid by the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Reinsured Policies;
- (iii) to fund an account with the Company in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company's liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums; and
- (iv) to pay any other amounts which the Company claims are due under this Agreement.

(g) The Reinsurer shall have the right to seek the Company's approval to withdraw all or any part of the assets from the Trust Account and transfer such assets to the Reinsurer, provided that:

- (i) the Reinsurer shall, at the time of withdrawal, replace the withdrawn assets with other assets of a type permitted hereunder having a market value equal to the market value of the assets withdrawn, so as to maintain the Trust Account in the required amount, or
- (ii) after such withdrawal and transfer, the market value of the Trust Account is no less than 102% of the required amount.

In the event that the Reinsurer seeks the Company's approval hereunder, the Company shall not unreasonably or arbitrarily withhold its approval.

(h) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 10.2(f)(i), (ii) or (iii) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company, or in excess of amounts determined pursuant to a final accounting between the Company and the Reinsurer to be due under Section 10.2(f)(iv) above, the Company will return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at the average prime rate of interest applicable to the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 10.2(f)(iii) above.

(i) The initial deposit to the Trust Account shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of the Assets plus an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the Inception Date over the Market Value of the Assets as of the Inception Date.

(j) The aggregate fair market value of the assets held in the Trust Account (the “Market Value”) shall at all times be at least equal to an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer. The amount of the Trust Account shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare a specific statement of the Funding Requirement, together with a statement of the Market Value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter, and deliver such report to the Company. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current fair market value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the balance of the Trust Account as of the statement date exceeds an amount equal to 102% of the Funding Requirement as of such date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such statement from the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current fair market value equal to such excess amount.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

11.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company and alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company’s schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XII

12.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a “Dispute”), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 12.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator’s evaluation referred to in Section 12.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

12.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the “Initial Notice”). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the “Response”). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party’s position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

12.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 12.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

12.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 12.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Illinois, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 12.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XII.

ARTICLE XIII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

13.1. Privacy Requirements. In providing the administrative services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Policies, the Reinsurer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractor to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Reinsurer shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Reinsurer's compliance herewith. The Reinsurer shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Reinsurer about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Reinsurer shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Reinsurer becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Reinsurer shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Reinsurer in administering the Reinsured Policies is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties hereto agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

If to the Company:

Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company

Facsimile: (434) 948-5819
Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.10. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.11. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.13. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.14. Survival. Article XII and XIV shall survive termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF TRUST AGREEMENT

TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of _____, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Federal Home Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Grantor"), Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Grantor and the Beneficiary desire to create a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Beneficiary; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold assets in the Trust Account for the sole and exclusive use and benefit of the Beneficiary in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the promises and the mutual agreements hereinafter set forth, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, covenant and agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets into the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit into the Trust Account, the assets listed on Exhibit A hereto, and may transfer to the Trustee, for deposit into the Trust Account, such other assets as it may from time to time desire to transfer or be required to transfer (all such assets actually received in the Trust Account are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and shall be continuously kept in a safe place at the Trustee's office within the United States of America. The Assets shall be valued according to their current fair market value and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender) and Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 17 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a current fair market value equal to the current fair market value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of cash and Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that the Beneficiary, whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. Any Assets received by the Trustee which are not in such proper negotiable form shall not be accepted by the Trustee and shall be returned to the Grantor as unacceptable. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case, without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account.

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, subject only to written notice from the Beneficiary to the Trustee (the "Withdrawal Notice"), such Assets as are specified in such Withdrawal Notice. The Withdrawal Notice may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee") to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Withdrawal Notice in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee; nor is said right of withdrawal or any other provision of this Trust Agreement subject to any conditions or qualifications not contained in this Trust Agreement.

(b) Upon receipt of a Withdrawal Notice, the Trustee shall immediately take any and all steps necessary to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Withdrawal Notice and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Withdrawal Notice. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within ten (10) days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 3, in the absence of a Withdrawal Notice, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

Section 3. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets.

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal current fair market value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 3(b) and 3(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 10 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 6.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 3 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

Section 4. The Income Account.

All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee, subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 7 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. Any interest, dividend or other income automatically posted and credited on the payment date to the Income Account which is not subsequently received by the Trustee shall be reimbursed by the Grantor to the Trustee and the Trustee may debit the Income Account for this purpose. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 5. Right to Vote Assets .

The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any shares of stock in the Trust Account.

Section 6. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee shall be a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System of the United States of America or a New York State chartered bank or trust company and shall not be a parent, subsidiary or affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall not be liable except for its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with this Trust Agreement.

(c) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and the Beneficiary in writing within ten (10) days following each deposit into, or withdrawal from, the Trust Account and shall notify the Grantor promptly of the receipt by the Trustee of any Withdrawal Notice.

(e) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(f) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(g) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(h) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each quarter thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and the then current market value of the Assets and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such quarter.

(i) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(j) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(k) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(l) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(m) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(n) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency (which shall be confirmed in writing by the Trustee within two (2) business days thereof).

(o) The Trustee shall be liable for (i) the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be responsible for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control, including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee, Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

Section 7. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 4 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

Section 8. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by the Grantor's delivery to the Trustee and the Beneficiary of a written notice of removal, effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt by the Trustee and the Beneficiary of such notice. The Trustee may also be removed by prior written notice executed by the Grantor and the Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 8.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee's notice of resignation or the Grantor's or the Grantor's and the Beneficiary's notice of removal, as applicable, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System of the United States of America or a New York State chartered bank or trust company and must not be a parent, a subsidiary or an affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 9. Termination of the Trust Account .

The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement shall be effective until terminated by sixty (60) days' advance written notice sent to the Trustee by the Grantor. Written notice of termination shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Beneficiary at least thirty (30) but not more than forty-five (45) days prior to termination. Upon the termination of the Trust Account, the Trustee shall, with the Beneficiary's prior written consent, transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets of the Trust Account and Income Account not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 10. Definitions .

Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term "Beneficiary" shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law, including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term "Eligible Securities" shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and investments of the types specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (8) and (10) of Section 1404(a) of the New York Insurance

Law; provided, however, that such investments are issued by an institution that is not the parent, a subsidiary or an affiliate of either the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

The terms "Person" shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

Section 11. Governing Law.

This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 12. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 13. Successors and Assigns.

This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 13 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 14. Severability.

If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 15. Entire Agreement.

This Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement.

Section 16. Amendments .

This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 17. Notices .

All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (ii) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (iii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iv) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (v) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (vi) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
and
- (vii) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures . Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE E

TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of _____, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Federal Home Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Grantor"), Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Grantor and the Beneficiary desire to create a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Beneficiary; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold assets in the Trust Account for the sole and exclusive use and benefit of the Beneficiary in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the promises and the mutual agreements hereinafter set forth, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, covenant and agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets into the Trust Account .

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit into the Trust Account, the assets listed on Exhibit A hereto, and may transfer to the Trustee, for deposit into the Trust Account, such other assets as it may from time to time desire to transfer or be required to transfer (all such assets actually received in the Trust Account are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and shall be continuously kept in a safe place at the Trustee's office within the United States of America. The Assets shall be valued according to their current fair market value and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender) and Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 17 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a current fair market value equal to the current fair market value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of cash and Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that the Beneficiary, whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. Any Assets received by the Trustee which are not in such proper negotiable form shall not be accepted by the Trustee and shall be returned to the Grantor as unacceptable. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case, without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account.

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, subject only to written notice from the Beneficiary to the Trustee (the "Withdrawal Notice"), such Assets as are specified in such Withdrawal Notice. The Withdrawal Notice may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee") to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Withdrawal Notice in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee; nor is said right of withdrawal or any other provision of this Trust Agreement subject to any conditions or qualifications not contained in this Trust Agreement.

(b) Upon receipt of a Withdrawal Notice, the Trustee shall immediately take any and all steps necessary to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Withdrawal Notice and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Withdrawal Notice. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within ten (10) days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 3, in the absence of a Withdrawal Notice, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

Section 3. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets .

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal current fair market value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 3(b) and 3(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 10 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 6.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 3 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

Section 4. The Income Account .

All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee, subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 7 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. Any interest, dividend or other income automatically posted and credited on the payment date to the Income Account which is not subsequently received by the Trustee shall be reimbursed by the Grantor to the Trustee and the Trustee may debit the Income Account for this purpose. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 5. Right to Vote Assets.

The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any shares of stock in the Trust Account.

Section 6. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee shall be a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System of the United States of America or a New York State chartered bank or trust company and shall not be a parent, subsidiary or affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall not be liable except for its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with this Trust Agreement.

(c) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and the Beneficiary in writing within ten (10) days following each deposit into, or withdrawal from, the Trust Account and shall notify the Grantor promptly of the receipt by the Trustee of any Withdrawal Notice.

(e) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(f) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(g) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(h) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each quarter thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and the then current market value of the Assets and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such quarter.

(i) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(j) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(k) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(l) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(m) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(n) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency (which shall be confirmed in writing by the Trustee within two (2) business days thereof).

(o) The Trustee shall be liable for (i) the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be responsible for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control, including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee, Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

Section 7. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses .

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 4 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

Section 8. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by the Grantor's delivery to the Trustee and the Beneficiary of a written notice of removal, effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt by the Trustee and the Beneficiary of such notice. The Trustee may also be removed by prior written notice executed by the Grantor and the Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 8.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee's notice of resignation or the Grantor's or the Grantor's and the Beneficiary's notice of removal, as applicable, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System of the United States of America or a New York State chartered bank or trust company and must not be a parent, a subsidiary or an affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 9. Termination of the Trust Account .

The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement shall be effective until terminated by sixty (60) days' advance written notice sent to the Trustee by the Grantor. Written notice of termination shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Beneficiary at least thirty (30) but not more than forty-five (45) days prior to termination. Upon the termination of the Trust Account, the Trustee shall, with the Beneficiary's prior written consent, transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets of the Trust Account and Income Account not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 10. Definitions .

Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term "Beneficiary" shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law, including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term "Eligible Securities" shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and investments of the types specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (8) and (10) of Section 1404(a) of the New York Insurance

Law; provided, however, that such investments are issued by an institution that is not the parent, a subsidiary or an affiliate of either the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

The terms "Person" shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

Section 11. Governing Law.

This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 12. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 13. Successors and Assigns.

This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 13 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 14. Severability.

If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 15. Entire Agreement.

This Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement.

Section 16. Amendments.

This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 17. Notices.

All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose .

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“ Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501 , as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations . Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (ii) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (iii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iv) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (v) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (vi) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vii) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

Exhibit 10.21

CAPITAL MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT

Capital Maintenance Agreement (this "AGREEMENT") dated as of January 1, 2004 (the "Effective Date") between General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("GECC"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an Illinois-domiciled stock life insurance company ("UFLIC").

WHEREAS, GECC is an indirect intermediate parent company of UFLIC;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the reinsurance agreements set forth on Exhibit A hereto (as such agreements may be amended from time to time hereafter, the "Reinsurance Agreements"), UFLIC has reinsured certain books of insurance and reinsurance written by American Mayflower Life Insurance Company of New York, a New York-domiciled stock life insurance company ("AML"), Federal Home Life Insurance Company, a Virginia-domiciled stock life insurance company ("FHL"), First Colony Life Insurance Company, a Virginia-domiciled stock life insurance company ("FCL"), GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York, a New York-domiciled stock life insurance company ("GECLANY"), GE Life and Annuity Assurance Company, a Virginia-domiciled stock life insurance company ("GELAAC"), and General Electric Capital Assurance Company, a Delaware-domiciled stock life insurance company ("GECA") (AML, FHL, FCL, GECLANY, GELAAC and GECA are referred to collectively as the "Ceding Companies"); and

WHEREAS, GECC has determined that its corporate interests will be furthered by its entering into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the material covenants and undertakings set forth in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto agree as follows.

1. Maintenance of Capital. (a) During the term of this Agreement, GECC agrees to maintain sufficient capital in UFLIC to ensure that UFLIC is able to maintain a minimum capital level at the end of each calendar quarter in the amount of 150% of the Company Action Level risk based capital requirements as defined from time to time by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (together with any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties, the "NAIC") (as may be modified by the last sentence of this paragraph, the "Capital Threshold"). In the event that, at the end of any calendar quarter during the term of this Agreement, UFLIC's capital level is below the Capital Threshold, GECC shall restore UFLIC's capital level to the Capital Threshold within 65 days of the end of such calendar quarter. In the event that, at any time during the term of this Agreement, GECC or UFLIC has reason to believe that UFLIC's capital level has fallen below the Capital Threshold, GECC shall take actions reasonably designed to restore UFLIC's capital level to the Capital Threshold, it being understood that a precise determination of the amount of capital required by UFLIC to meet the Capital Threshold as of a date other than a quarter end is not practicable and that GECC's obligations under this sentence shall be on the basis of estimates thereof prepared in good faith by UFLIC. For purposes of this Agreement: (i) if the NAIC ceases to use the term "Company Action Level” in its risk based capital requirements, then “Company Action Level” as used in this Section 1 shall mean the comparable term then used by the NAIC; (ii) if the NAIC modifies the method of calculating risk based capital, then GECC shall maintain UFLIC’s capital at 150% of the Company Action Level determined in accordance with the risk based capital requirements as so modified and (iii) if the NAIC ceases to establish risk based capital requirements, then GECC shall maintain UFLIC’s capital at 150% of the Company Action Level risk based capital requirements as such requirements were last established by the NAIC.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, UFLIC’s risk based capital levels will be calculated as follows: quarterly risk-based capital will be calculated consistent with procedures applied for the NAIC risk-based capital calculation for UFLIC’s Annual Statement filing. For calculations as of a date other than the end of the year, the C3 component of the risk based capital calculation will be adjusted by the ratio from stochastic testing at the end of the prior year. In 2004, this stochastic adjustment will be set at the maximum possible level. Also in 2004, the income statement amounts (including, but not limited to, premiums and expenses) required for the calculation will be annualized as follows in the quarterly calculation: 1st quarter/three months multiplied by 4, 2nd quarter/six months multiplied by 2, 3rd quarter/nine months multiplied by 1.333. In 2005 and thereafter, income statement amounts (including, but not limited to, premiums and expenses) required for the calculation will utilize the prior 12 months result.

2. Nature of Obligation. GECC expressly agrees that its undertaking provided herein shall be an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing obligation during the term of this Agreement.

3. Representations and Warranties. GECC represents and warrants that: (i) it is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware; (ii) it has all requisite corporate or other power and authority and has taken all corporate or other action necessary in order to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder; (iii) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by it and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of GECC enforceable in accordance with the terms hereof; and (iv) the execution, delivery and performance by GECC of this Agreement do not and will not conflict with, or result in any breach or violation of, its articles of incorporation or by-laws, any order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to it, or any agreement to which it is a party or by which it or any of its assets is bound.

4. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate (i) on the date as of which all of the obligations of UFLIC under the Reinsurance Agreements are fully and finally discharged or (ii) by agreement of the parties hereto with prior written consent of the Ceding Companies and the insurance regulatory authorities of Delaware, Illinois, New York and Virginia (collectively, together with any successor regulatory agencies having similar powers, the “Domestic Regulators”).

5. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except for the rights of the Ceding Companies set forth in Sections 4, 11, 12 and 13 or as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the obligations of GECC herein are intended for the sole benefit of UFLIC and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create rights or interests in any third party, including without limitation any payee, contract holder, third party or beneficiary under any insurance policy issued by UFLIC.

6. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, irrespective of the choice of law principles of the State of Illinois. Any proceeding to resolve a dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement may be brought in any Federal or state court in Delaware, Illinois, New York or Virginia. The parties consent to service and jurisdiction of such courts.

7. Remedies. Without limiting the rights of UFLIC to pursue any and all other legal and equitable rights available to UFLIC for GECC's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, GECC acknowledges and agrees that remedies at law for any failure to perform its obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that UFLIC shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

8. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 8):

9. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible. Any such modification shall be subject to the provisions of Section 12.

10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supercedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

11. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and each and all of their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement may not be assigned by the parties hereto except that GECC shall be permitted to assign this Agreement, and upon such assignment shall be released from all obligations hereunder, if each of UFLIC, the Domestic Regulators and the Ceding Companies provide prior consent to such assignment in writing; provided, however, that the Ceding Companies shall not unreasonably withhold such consent.

12. Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto; provided, however, that no such amendment or modification shall be effective unless the Domestic Regulators and the Ceding Companies provide prior consent to such amendment or modification in writing; and provided, further, that the Ceding Companies shall not unreasonably withhold such consent.

13. Enforcement. UFLIC, any of the Domestic Regulators and any of the Ceding Companies (including any conservator, liquidator, receiver or statutory successor of UFLIC or any of the Ceding Companies) may enforce UFLIC's rights hereunder notwithstanding any waiver by UFLIC; provided, however, that GECC shall reimburse the Domestic Regulators for their reasonable costs (including reasonable fees and disbursement of legal counsel) incurred in enforcing UFLIC's rights under this Agreement in the event that UFLIC fails to enforce such rights reasonably promptly hereunder and such Domestic Regulators have provided GECC with prior notice of their intent to proceed at GECC's cost. Failure on the part of any party to act or declare any other party in default shall not constitute a waiver by such party of any of its rights hereunder where such default has occurred and is continuing.

14. Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (i) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires; (ii) references to the terms Section and Exhibit are references to the Sections and Exhibits to this Agreement unless otherwise specified; (iii) the word “including” and words of similar import shall mean “including, without limitation;” (iv) the headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement; and (v) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first written above by their respective duly authorized officers.

REINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, dated as of _____, 2004 (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Financial Insurance Company Limited, an insurance company organised under the laws of England (the "Company"), and Viking Insurance Company, Limited, an insurance company organised under the laws of Bermuda (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance, except as set forth in Article VII of this Agreement, shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party that is liable to any insured, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

DEFINITIONS

1.1 Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means each period of a calendar month the first such period commencing at 00.01 Bermuda local time (Atlantic Standard Time) on 1 January 2004 and the last such period commencing on the first day of the calendar month in which the Termination Date falls and ending on the Termination Date.

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Applicable Law" means any law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person's subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person's officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in London are closed for trading.

“Ceded Reinsurance” means all reinsurance ceded by the Company pursuant to contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence of reinsurance relating to the Relevant Risks in effect on or prior to the Inception Date, or, in accordance with Section 2.5, following the Inception Date, except the reinsurance provided pursuant to this Agreement.

“Ceded Reinsurance Agreements” means all of the contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence for Ceded Reinsurance.

“Ceding Commissions” shall have the meaning specified in Schedule A – Part I.

“Commutation” means, with respect to any portion of the Ceded Reinsurance, a commutation or other similar transaction that results in the termination of such Ceded Reinsurance with respect to the Relevant Risks.

“Distributor Agreements” means all distributor, agency or profit sharing agreements or arrangements with third parties (each, a “Distributor”) relating to the Relevant Risks whether entered into before, on or after the Inception Date.

“Extra Contractual Liabilities” means all liabilities of the Company for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of contracts under which the Company assumes Relevant Risks, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual act, error or omission by the Company or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of such contracts, including (A) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under such contracts, or (B) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of any of such contracts.

“FSA” means the Financial Services Authority of the United Kingdom.

“Governmental Authority” means any national government, any state or other political subdivision thereof or any self-regulatory authority, and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

“Insolvency Fund” means any guarantee fund, insolvency fund, plan, pool, association, or other arrangement, however denominated, established or governed, which provides for the payment by the Company of any levy, amount or charge in respect of, or assumption by the Company of part or all of any claims, debts, charges, fees or other obligations of an insurer or reinsurer, or its successors or assigns, as a result of its having been declared by any competent authority to be insolvent, or as a result of its having otherwise been deemed unable to meet any such claims, debts, charges, fees or other obligations in whole or in part.

“ Monthly Report ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“ Negative Settlement Amount ” means, with respect to each Accounting Period, the amount of any net deficit set forth in Line 11 of the Monthly Report for such Accounting Period as calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(a).

“ Person ” means any natural person, firm, limited liability company, general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, trust, Governmental Authority or other entity.

“ Positive Settlement Amount ” means, with respect to each Accounting Period, the amount of any net surplus set forth in Line 11 of the Monthly Report for such Accounting Period as calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(a).

“ Relevant Liabilities ” means all insurance liabilities and obligations arising under the Relevant Risks including, without limitation (i) benefits, surrender amounts and other amounts payable to policyholders under the terms of the Relevant Risks, (ii) other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Relevant Risks, (iii) Insolvency Fund or premium based assessments based on premiums and other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Relevant Risks, (iv) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Relevant Risks, (v) all liability for commission or profit sharing payments and other fees or compensation payable, including under Distributor Agreements, with respect to the Relevant Risks in respect of premiums and other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date, (vi) all Extra Contractual Liabilities and (vii) compensation paid in respect of, or in relation to changes to, Distributor Agreements on or after the Inception Date, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Reinsurer.

“ Relevant Risks ” means the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risks as are assumed or borne by the Company under or in connection with any and all insurance and reinsurance policies and contracts to which it is a party and which are in force at any time on or prior to the Termination Date. Where the Company is a co-insurer with any other company or companies under any such insurance or reinsurance policy or contract, the insurance or reinsurance risks which are to be treated as assumed or borne by the Company for these purposes are:-

- (i) those risks which the Company has agreed with its co-insurer or co-insurers are to be assumed or borne by the Company;
and
- (ii) those other risks (if any) which the Company has agreed with its co-insurer or co-insurers are to be assumed or borne by such co-insurer or co-insurers, but only to the extent that such co-insurer or co-insurers shall have defaulted in meeting its or their obligations in respect of those risks and the Company incurs a liability in respect of those risks as a result.

“RIR” means the investment return in respect of an Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(c).

“Statutory Format” means the profit and loss account format set out in Chapter I of Part I of Schedule 9A of the Companies Act 1985.

“Technical Provisions” means, as of any given date, the technical provisions of the Company calculated in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles.

“Termination Date” means the effective date of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Article VI.

“Valuation and Accounting Principles” means the valuation rules for determining the amount of the assets and liabilities of the Company in accordance with the Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers issued by the FSA (as amended or replaced from time to time) under the powers conferred on the FSA pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as such rules are required to be applied by the Company in the preparation of its annual returns to the FSA (taking into account any waivers or modifications of such valuation rules as are approved by the FSA from time to time in respect of the Company) and, to the extent not inconsistent therewith, the accounting principles and practices hitherto adopted by the Company in preparing its annual audited accounts.

“3 Month LIBOR” means the British Bankers Association Interest Settlement Rate for sterling quoted for a three month period as displayed on the appropriate Telerate screen page at 11.00 a.m. (London time) on the day on which such Interest Settlement Rate is required to be computed pursuant to this Agreement.

COVERAGE

- 2.1 Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 00.01. Bermuda local time (Atlantic Standard Time) on 1 January 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Reinsurer agrees to reinsure the Relevant Liabilities by way of the Reinsurer indemnifying the Company in respect of each Negative Settlement Amount. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer under this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer each Positive Settlement Amount. The parties shall also pay Ceding Commission and Estimated Ceding Commission in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Conditions. Except as otherwise set forth or contemplated herein, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Relevant Risks in-force as of the Inception Date which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any such Relevant Risk without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Relevant Risks as if the unapproved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

- 2.3 Territory. The territorial limits of the Agreement shall be identical to those of the Relevant Liabilities.
- 2.4 Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance. The Company shall not, without the Reinsurer's prior written approval, in its sole discretion, take any action to amend or terminate any Ceded Reinsurance under any Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or enter into any Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance.
- 2.5 New Reinsurance Covers. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company shall not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Relevant Liabilities without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion. For these purposes, the Reinsurer consents to the Company having entered into the reinsurance arrangements specified in Schedule C.

ADMINISTRATION: GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 Contract Administration. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in accordance with their terms and the terms of any applicable Distributor Agreement, including, but not limited to, the collection of premiums and other amounts due from policyholders, the payment of all Relevant Liabilities and the administration of claims and disbursements. All benefits under the contracts and policies constituting the Relevant Risks paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer, provided, however, that such payments are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the contracts and policies constituting the Relevant Risks. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence of a person experienced in administering payment protection insurance business, personal accident insurance business and travel insurance business. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in compliance with Applicable Law and the current service provider's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favourable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for the administration of the Relevant Risks.
- 3.2 Sub-contracting of Contract Administration. The Company may subcontract the performance of any service or services which the Company is required to procure in connection with the administration of the Relevant Risks to (i) an Affiliate, (ii) a service provider utilised by the Company with respect to the Relevant Risks or its other business as of the date hereof, (iii) any Person to whom such subcontracting is required to be effected under the terms of any Distributor Agreement or (iv) with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, any other Person, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regard to the provision of such advice or services as if provided by the Company.

3.3 Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and Distributor Agreements. The Company shall manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements, including:-

- (i) providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements to the reinsurers or other third parties, as applicable, within the time required by the applicable Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or Distributor Agreements; and
- (ii) doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall:-

- (i) promptly pay when due all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such reinsurers all amounts due under Ceded Reinsurance; and
- (ii) promptly pay when due all profit sharing, commissions or other compensation due to third parties under the Distributor Agreement and use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such third parties all amounts due thereunder. Notwithstanding the obligation of the Company under this Section 3.3 to use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect such reinsurance recoverables, the risk of the Company not collecting or being unable to collect (for whatever reason) any amount due under Ceded Reinsurance shall be borne by the Reinsurer in accordance with Line 2 of Schedule B of this Agreement.

3.4 Reinsured Policy Terms. The Company shall set all insurance rates and underwriting criteria in respect of the Relevant Risks from and after the Inception Date consistently with the manner in which it has done so in the past, consulting with the Reinsurer on any issue which is expected to have a material adverse impact on any amounts which the Reinsurer reasonably expects to become payable to it under the terms of this Agreement.

3.5 Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that if so requested by the Reinsurer it will provide notice to the Reinsurer as soon as is reasonably practicable of its intention to commence litigation proceedings in respect of a claim in excess of £100,000 with respect to a Reinsured Policy along with (if requested by the Reinsurer) copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect to that claim. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defence of such claims.

- 3.6 Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Relevant Risks in accordance with its record management practices in effect from time to time. The Reinsurer or its designated representative (or Person appointed or charged with the duty to examine or investigate the Reinsurer under Applicable Law) may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy (and take away such copies), at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to the Relevant Risks and the administration thereof (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. Where any papers, books or documents relating to the Relevant Risks and the administration thereof are those of any sub-contractor of the Company, the Company shall procure at the Reinsurer's expense, to the extent that the Company is entitled and able to do so, that the Reinsurer may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy such papers, books or documents (and take away such copies) at the office of the sub-contractor where such papers, books or documents are located. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to reinsurance under this agreement and as permitted under Section 3.7.
- 3.7 Co-operation. Each party hereto shall co-operate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interview and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by either party from time to time. Each party is permitted to furnish such documents and information concerning this Agreement, the reinsurance under this Agreement and the objectives of this Agreement (i) to its advisors, insurance managers and auditors as may be desirable in connection with servicing the business of the party concerned or such party complying with Applicable Law and (ii) as required under Applicable Law.
- 3.8 Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

- 3.9 Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. The liability of the Reinsurer shall follow that of the Company including in circumstances where the Company's liability under any of the Relevant Risks is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due to each other under this Agreement in such circumstances.
- 3.10 Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, regardless of when they arose or were incurred, in favour of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

CEDING COMMISSION

- 4.1 Ceding Commission. On and subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company (or, as the case may be, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer), an estimate of the Ceding Commission (the "Estimated Ceding Commission") payable in respect of that Accounting Period in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule A Part II. The amount of the Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of each Accounting Period shall, subject to Section 4.2 below, be calculated by the Reinsurer in good faith on the basis of information provided by the Company and shall be paid, by the Reinsurer or the Company as the case may be, at the same time as any Negative or Positive Settlement Amount required to be paid in respect of the previous Accounting Period becomes due in accordance with the arrangements set out in Section 5.4 below. The Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of any Accounting Period is, for the avoidance of doubt, an estimate of the actual Ceding Commission due in respect of that Accounting Period and the adjustment to such estimate shall be effected through the Ceding Commission Adjustments referred to in Schedule B and Section 5.5.
- 4.2 Estimated Ceding Commission initially due. Notwithstanding Section 4.1, the amounts of the Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of each of the first 12 Accounting Periods shall be in the respective amounts set out in Schedule A Part III. The Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an amount equal to the Estimated Ceding Commission amounts in respect of all Accounting Periods commencing prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement as set out in Schedule A Part III and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall take account of such amount payable when producing the First Monthly Report in accordance with section 5.4(b) below. Subsequent amounts due as Estimated Ceding Commission under Schedule A Part III shall be paid in accordance with Section 5.4 below.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT: RESERVE ADJUSTMENT

- 5.1 Monthly Reports. Subject as set out in Section 5.4(b), no later than 3 Business Days before the end of each Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties) the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide an estimate of the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule B together with details of the Ceding Commission estimated to be payable in respect of the following Accounting Period (the “Monthly Report”).
- 5.2 Computations. At the end of each Accounting Period the Company shall compute:
- (i) the amount (being “X” in the formula set out in Section 5.3 below) shown in Line 3 in the table contained in Schedule B; and
 - (ii) the amount (being “Y” in the formula set out in Section 5.3 below) shown in Line 7 in the table contained in Schedule B,
- in each case in accordance with the notes set out in Schedule B and insofar as not inconsistent with such notes otherwise in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles.
- 5.3 Positive and Negative Settlement Amounts.
- (a) In respect of each Accounting Period, if the formula:
$$(X - Y + RIR - A + B)$$
shall produce a positive amount, that shall be the Positive Settlement Amount for that Accounting Period, and if it shall produce a negative amount, that shall be the Negative Settlement Amount for that Accounting Period, and that Positive Settlement Amount or Negative Settlement Amount, as the case may be, shall be the amount set out in Line 11 of Schedule B.
 - (b) For the purposes of the formula set out in Section 5.3(a):
 - (i) “A” shall be the Reinsurer’s Ceding Commission Adjustment shown in Line 9 in the table contained in Schedule B; and
 - (ii) “B” shall be the Company’s Ceding Commission Adjustment shown in Line 10 in the table contained in Schedule B.
 - (c) The amount of RIR in respect of any Accounting Period shall be determined by multiplying an amount equal to:
 - (i) the Technical Provisions as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period; less
 - (ii) the amount of the Company’s provision for deferred acquisition costs as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period,

by a rate equal to:

where:

- (A) “C” is the amount of investment income receivable by the Company in respect of the Accounting Period; and
- (B) “D” is the total market value of the Company’s investments (other than any investment of the Company in its subsidiary undertakings) as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period.

For the purposes of this Section 5.3(c), “investment income” shall mean all amounts derived from the holding of investments (other than any investment of the Company in its subsidiary undertakings) which are treated, in accordance with the Company’s normal accounting policies, as being of an income nature, including any gains on the realisation of those investments and having taken account of any losses on the realisation of those investments. For the avoidance of doubt, “investment income” shall not include any unrealised gains or unrealised losses attributable to such investments.

5.4 Payments.

- (a) Subject as provided in Section 5.4(b) below:-
 - (i) For each Accounting Period in respect of which there is a Negative Settlement Amount, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the Monthly Report by the Company an amount equal to the absolute value of such Negative Settlement Amount together with the Estimated Ceding Commission (if any) payable by the Reinsurer to the Company in respect of the following Accounting Period.
 - (ii) For each Accounting Period in respect of which there is a Positive Settlement Amount the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the Monthly Report by the Company an amount equal to the absolute value of such Positive Settlement Amount together with the Estimated Ceding Commission (if any) payable by the Company to the Reinsurer in respect of the following Accounting Period.
 - (iii) If there is a Negative Settlement Amount for any Accounting Period and the Company is required to pay the Estimated Ceding Commission to the Reinsurer in respect of the following Accounting Period, a net payment shall be made by the Company or the Reinsurer as appropriate.

(iv) If there is a Positive Settlement Amount for any Accounting Period and the Reinsurer is required to pay the Estimated Ceding Commission to the Company in respect of the following Accounting Period, a net payment shall be made by the Company or the Reinsurer as appropriate.

(b) In relation to all Accounting Periods commencing prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Company shall calculate and deliver a report (“the First Monthly Report”) to the Reinsurer as to the total aggregate net amount payable by the Company (or as the case may be the Reinsurer) to place the Company and the Reinsurer in the respective financial positions in which they would have been under this Agreement on the date of such payment, disregarding for this purpose the time cost of money, had this Agreement been executed and delivered at the commencement of the first Accounting Period. Such payment shall be made by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the First Monthly Report.

5.5 Actual Data. In preparing all reports required under this Agreement, the Company shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to supply the actual data. If the actual data cannot be supplied with the appropriate report, the Company shall produce best estimates and shall provide amended reports based on actual data no more than ten (10) Business Days after the actual data becomes available and the parties will settle any additional amounts due within five (5) Business Days thereafter, together with interest as provided in Section 5.7 hereof.

5.6 Additional Reports and Information. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect and for a period of 7 years after its termination, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as is reasonably available to it and as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes.

5.7 Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due to either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to 3 Month LIBOR on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points per annum, for the period that the amount is overdue.

5.8 Certificate of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The certificate of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company as to any matter arising in respect of the amount of any payment falling to be made under this Agreement shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on the parties.

5.10 Breach of Required Minimum Margin of Solvency. No payment required to be made by the Company to the Reinsurer at a relevant time under the terms of this Agreement shall be required to be made at that time if that payment would cause the Company to breach the “Required Minimum Margin” required to be maintained by the Company in accordance with the FSA’s Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers (as amended or replaced from time to time). Any payment not made by the Company to the Reinsurer for this reason shall be paid by the Company to the Reinsurer as soon as the making of the payment would not cause that “Required Minimum Margin” to be breached.

ARTICLE VI

DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 6.1 Duration . Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.
- 6.2 Reinsurer’s Liability . The Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Relevant Liabilities will terminate on the date that termination takes effect as a result of any notice given at the option of the Reinsurer or the Company in accordance with Section 6.3 or Section 6.4 and otherwise on the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.
- 6.3 Termination on Insolvency . In the event of the insolvency of the Reinsurer, the Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and the reinsurance hereunder, such termination to be effective as soon as notice of the termination is given by the Company to the Reinsurer. With effect from the date that the notice of termination is given under this Section 6.3, any amounts which are or become owing by the Company to the Reinsurer under this Agreement, whether prior to, on or after the date of that notice of termination, shall cease to be payable by the Company to the Reinsurer.
- 6.4 Optional Termination . Either the Reinsurer or the Company may terminate this Agreement and the reinsurance hereunder upon prior written notice given at any time to expire on the last day of the Accounting Period in which such notice is given, at any time after the Reinsurer and the Company have both become wholly owned subsidiaries of Genworth Financial, Inc.

For the purposes of this Section, a company shall be a wholly owned subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc. if all of its ordinary shares are owned:-

- (i) by Genworth Financial, Inc., or
- (ii) by any other company the ordinary shares of which are owned directly by Genworth Financial, Inc. or by another wholly owned subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc.

6.5 Consequence of Termination

- (a) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 6.4, this Agreement shall terminate as of the end of the applicable Accounting Period in which the notice of termination pursuant to Section 6.4 is received by the non-terminating party and a net accounting and settlement as to any balance due under this Agreement shall be undertaken by the parties for such Accounting Period and in respect of adjustments required for any earlier Accounting Period (the "Final Settlement").
- (b) In the event that, subsequent to the Final Settlement, the Company receives any amount, or is required to pay any amount, or actual data becomes available to the Company, which in any such case was not taken into account in calculating any Positive or Negative Settlement Amount but which would have been so taken into account had it been received or paid or become available prior to the Termination Date or the Final Settlement, the Company or (as the case may be) the Reinsurer shall make such payment or payments to the other as is required to reflect as nearly as possible the position that would have prevailed had such amount or data been so taken into account, provided, however, that the obligations under this Section 6.5 (b) to make any such payment shall terminate 18 months after the date on which any notice is served under Section 6.4.

INSOLVENCY

- 7.1 Payments . In the event of the insolvency of the Company, payment due to the Company under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Company shall give to the Reinsurer written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defences which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.
- 7.2 Expenses . It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 7.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defence undertaken by the Reinsurer.

8.1 General Provisions .

- (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article VIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for the resolution of any such Dispute.
- (b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 8.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 8.3, shall be deemed to be without prejudice communications and to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from inspection, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise).
- (c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.
- (d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.
- (e) The running of time shall be suspended in respect of any Dispute for the purposes of any defences based upon the passage of time (whether under the Limitation Act 1980 (in its present form or as subsequently amended or replaced) or otherwise) while the procedures specified in this Article VIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate this suspension.

- 8.2 Consideration by Senior Executives . If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve any Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, in respect of each of the business entities involved in the Dispute, at a minimum, the office of President, Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by written notice to the other. Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response. The notice and response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within 30 days of the initial notice to seek a resolution.

- 8.3 Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 8.2 within forty-five (45) days from the initial notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the Center for Public Resources (“CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.
- 8.4 Arbitration. If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 8.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect. The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.
- (a) The neutral organisation for purposes of the CPR rules will be the CPR. the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the dispute in accordance with English law, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.
 - (b) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
 - (c) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 8.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under Applicable Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For the purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.

- (d) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law may not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.
- (e) Each of the parties will bear its own legal costs in relation to any arbitration proceedings considered under this Section.
- 8.5 Agreement to an alternative procedure. If the parties to this Agreement mutually agree that the alternate procedure set out in Section 8.6 and 8.7 below shall apply to a particular Dispute, then the parties shall resolve that Dispute in accordance with Sections 8.6 and 8.7 below rather than in accordance with Sections 8.3 and 8.4 above.
- 8.6 Alternative Mediation procedure. If the parties have mutually agreed under Section 8.5 that this section shall apply to a Dispute and such Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 8.2 within 45 days from the initial notice (or such longer period as the parties may agree) then the parties will attempt to settle that Dispute by mediation in accordance with the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR Solve) Model Mediation Procedure (the "Model Procedure"). To initiate a mediation, either party shall give notice in writing ("ADR Notice") to the other party in accordance with the provisions of Section 9, requesting mediation in accordance with the provisions of the Model Procedure. A copy of the ADR Notice should also be sent to CEDR Solve.
- 8.7 Alternative Arbitration procedure. If the parties have mutually agreed under Section 8.5 that this section shall apply to a Dispute and such Dispute is not resolved within 42 days (or such longer period as the parties may agree) of the giving of the ADR Notice, or if one of the parties refuses to participate in mediation, the Dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (the "Rules") by 3 arbitrators appointed in accordance with the Rules, and so that:
- (a) The Tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators to be appointed in accordance with the Rules.
- (b) The place of arbitration shall be London.
- (c) The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9.1 Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

9.2 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail with a return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, four Business Days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

If to the Company:

Vantage West,
Great West Road,
Brentford,
Middlesex TW8 9AG

Facsimile: +44 (0) 20 8380 3065
Attention: Company Secretary

If to the Reinsurer:

Craig Appin House,
8 Wesley Street,
Hamilton,
Bermuda,

Facsimile: +441 292 4910
Attention: Iain Lever (Aon Insurance Managers (Bermuda) Limited),

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

9.3 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 9.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 9.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

- 9.4 Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.
- 9.5 Currency. Whenever the acronym “GBP” or the “£” sign appears in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean British Pounds Sterling and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in British Pounds Sterling.
- 9.6 Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.
- 9.7 Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of England without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.
- 9.8 Entire Agreement: Severability. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, undertakings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.
- 9.9 Enforceability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.
- 9.10 No Waiver: Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.
- 9.11 Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

- 9.12 Interpretation. Whenever the words “include”, “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation”.
- 9.13 Survival. Articles VIII and IX shall survive the termination of this Agreement and Section 6.5(b) shall remain in force for a period of 18 months after the date on which any notice is served under Section 6.4.
- 9.14 Negotiated Agreement. This Agreement has been negotiated by the parties and the fact that the initial and final draft will have been prepared by either party or an intermediary will not give rise to any presumption for or against any party to this Agreement or be used in any respect or forum in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorised representatives.

SCHEDULE A – Part I

CEDING COMMISSION

The Company shall calculate in respect of each Accounting Period the amount by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company shall have increased or decreased over such Accounting Period (the “Ceding Commission”). The Ceding Commission in respect of such Accounting Period for the purposes of Article IV of this Agreement:-

- (i) shall be payable by the Reinsurer to the Company in an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company shall have decreased over that Accounting Period; and
- (ii) shall be payable by the Company to the Reinsurer in an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company shall have increased over that Accounting Period.

For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of deferred acquisition costs at any relevant time shall be calculated in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles.

In calculating the Ceding Commission for the first Accounting Period, the deferred acquisition costs of the Company shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £152,210,000.

SCHEDULE A – Part II

ESTIMATED CEDING COMMISSION

Subject as provided in Schedule A - Part III below, the Reinsurer shall produce at the end of each Accounting Period on the basis of information provided by the Company a best estimate of the Ceding Commission for the next following Accounting Period.

SCHEDULE A - PART III

ESTIMATED CEDING COMMISSION FOR FIRST 12 ACCOUNTING PERIODS

For the first 12 Accounting Periods the Estimated Ceding Commission shall, in the case of each amount, be payable by the Reinsurer and shall be as follows, provided that the parties acknowledge that such amounts are estimates only and shall be the subject of the Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment and the Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment, as appropriate, in accordance with Lines 9 and 10 of Schedule B of this Agreement and Section 5.5:-

| Accounting Period ending on:- | | Amount of Ceding Commission:- |
|--------------------------------------|---|--------------------------------------|
| 31st January 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 29th February 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st March 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 30th April 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st May 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 30th June 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st July 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st August 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 30th September 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st October 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 30th November 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |
| 31st December 2004 | £ | 3,167,000 |

ACCOUNTING PERIOD REPORTS

Note: All amounts paid or payable by the Company in respect of insurance premium tax or any other tax assessed by reference to the premium payable under any policy are to be netted off all amounts paid or payable to the Company in respect of such insurance premium tax or other tax in calculating any of the items listed below. No account shall be taken in any of the items listed below of any amount payable or receivable under this Agreement or of any change in the Company's provision for deferred acquisition costs provided that this shall not affect the requirement to include the Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment or the Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment as the case may be.

| Line no. | Item | £ |
|----------|--|---|
| 1. | Earned Premiums | £ |
| 2. | Other Income | £ |
| 3. | Total Income (Lines 1 to 2) | £ |
| 4. | Claims Incurred | £ |
| 5. | Expenses Payable | £ |
| 6. | Other Changes In Technical Provisions | £ |
| 7. | Total Expenditure (Lines 4 to 6) | £ |
| 8. | RIR | £ |
| 9. | Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment | £ |
| 10. | Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment | £ |
| 11. | Positive / (Negative) Settlement Amount (Line 3 – Line 7 + Line 8 – Line 9 + Line 10) | £ |

where, in respect of each Accounting Period:

Line 1: "Earned Premiums" shall mean gross premiums written in such Accounting Period plus any decrease or minus any increase in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period, as described in item I.1 of the Statutory Format and the notes thereto. In calculating the gross premiums written in any Accounting Period there shall be deducted the outward reinsurance premiums paid in such Accounting Period. To the amount of any increase in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period there shall be added any decrease or there shall be subtracted any increase, over such Accounting Period, in the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums paid by the Company. To the amount of any decrease in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period, there shall be added any increase, or there shall be subtracted any decrease, over such Accounting Period, in the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums paid by the Company. In calculating the gross premiums written, full account shall be taken of the effect of cancellations notified in such Accounting Period and of any other arrangement under which a policy is terminated in such Accounting Period;

Line 2: “Other Income” shall mean all other income becoming due to the Company in the relevant Accounting Period, excluding any income from investments and any realised or unrealised gains on investments and excluding any amount received or becoming due under Ceded Reinsurance;

Line 3: “Total Income” shall mean the sum of Earned Premiums and Other Income;

Line 4: “Claims Incurred” shall mean claims paid in respect of the Relevant Liabilities less reinsurance recoveries received in respect of the Relevant Liabilities in the relevant Accounting Period plus any increase (or minus any decrease) over such Accounting Period in the provision for claims. For these purposes, such provision for claims shall be calculated, at the beginning and end of each Accounting Period, net of any available credit for reinsurance, not being a credit in respect of any reinsurance claim which is due but unpaid, and otherwise in accordance with the manner in which such provision for claims would be calculated for the purposes of item I.4(b) of the Statutory Format;

Line 5: “Expenses Payable” shall mean operating expenses incurred in the relevant Accounting Period including without limitation:-

- (a) bonuses and rebates, net of reinsurance, as described in item I.6 of the Statutory Format;
- (b) acquisition costs, administrative expenses, reinsurance commissions and profit participation, as described in item I.7 of the Statutory Format and the notes thereto; and
- (c) the charges described in items I.8 and III.8 of the Statutory Format,

but, for the avoidance of doubt, shall exclude investment expenses and charges, realised or unrealised losses on investments, and income and corporation tax;

Line 6: “Other Changes in Technical Provisions” shall mean the increase in technical provisions (or the decrease in technical provisions in which event such decrease shall be expressed as a negative amount) not accounted for in any other line of this Schedule B, as described in item I.5 and I.9 of the Statutory Format and any other increases in reserves (or decreases in reserves, in which event such decreases shall be expressed as negative amounts) required to be taken into account for the purposes of the returns made to the FSA but not required to be so taken into account under Schedule 9A of the Companies Act 1985 in respect of the Company including any change required as a result of the Company not having received any amount due in respect of Ceded Reinsurance;

- Line 7: “Total Expenditure” shall mean the sum of Claims Incurred, Expenses Payable and Other Changes in Technical Provisions;
- Line 8: “RIR” shall mean the amount calculated pursuant to Section 5.3(c) of this Agreement; and
- Line 9: “Reinsurer’s Ceding Commission Adjustment” shall mean the amount (if any) due from the Reinsurer as a result of the actual Ceding Commission for such Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Schedule A - Part I being different from the Estimated Ceding Commission for that Accounting Period;
- Line 10: “Company’s Ceding Commission Adjustment” shall mean any amount due from the Company as a result of the actual Ceding Commission for such Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Schedule A - Part I being different from the Estimated Ceding Commission for that Accounting Period;
- Line 11: the “Positive Settlement Amount” and the “Negative Settlement Amount” shall mean the amounts calculated pursuant to Section 5.3(a) of this Agreement.

Any amounts included in any of the items listed above shall be included in the calculation set out in this Schedule B only to the extent that such amounts have not been accounted for in any Monthly Report relating to any previous Accounting Period. Any amount specifically excluded from any line item shall be treated as though it were excluded from all other line items unless the context shall expressly require otherwise. No amount shall be included in more than one line item. In the event of any conflict between the application of any express provision in these notes or this Agreement, and the application of any statutory or regulatory rule under this Schedule, in each case for the purposes of determining the amount of any line item in this Schedule, the express provisions in these notes and this Agreement shall prevail.

In calculating the Positive or Negative Settlement Amount (as the case may be) for the first Accounting Period:-

- (i) the provision for unearned premiums shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £316,410,000;
- (ii) the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £16,059,000;
- (iii) the claims provision net of any available credit for reinsurance, not being a credit in respect of any reinsurance claim which is due but unpaid at the commencement of such Accounting Period shall at such commencement be taken as £73,222,000; and
- (iv) the technical provisions and reserves referred to in Line 6 above shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £0.

SCHEDULE C

REINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, dated as of _____, 2004 (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Financial Assurance Company Limited, an insurance company organised under the laws of England (the "Company"), and Viking Insurance Company, Limited, an insurance company organised under the laws of Bermuda (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance, except as set forth in Article VII of this Agreement, shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party that is liable to any insured, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

DEFINITIONS

1.1 Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means each period of a calendar month the first such period commencing at 00.01 Bermuda local time (Atlantic Standard Time) on 1 January 2004 and the last such period commencing on the first day of the calendar month in which the Termination Date falls and ending on the Termination Date.

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Applicable Law" means any law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person's subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person's officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“Bonds” means the categories of products written by the Company, whether before, on or after the Inception Date, which are listed in Schedule C.

“Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in London are closed for trading.

“Ceded Reinsurance” means all reinsurance ceded by the Company pursuant to contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence of reinsurance relating to the Relevant Risks in effect on or prior to the Inception Date, or, in accordance with Section 2.5, following the Inception Date, except the reinsurance provided pursuant to this Agreement.

“Ceded Reinsurance Agreements” means all of the contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence for Ceded Reinsurance.

“Ceding Commissions” shall have the meaning specified in Schedule A Part I.

“Commutation” means, with respect to any portion of the Ceded Reinsurance, a commutation or other similar transaction that results in the termination of such Ceded Reinsurance with respect to the Relevant Risks.

“Distributor Agreements” means all distributor, agency or profit sharing agreements or arrangements with third parties (each, a “Distributor”) relating to the Relevant Risks whether entered into before, on or after the Inception Date.

“Extra Contractual Liabilities” means all liabilities of the Company for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of contracts under which the Company assumes Relevant Risks, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual act, error or omission by the Company or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of such contracts, including (A) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under such contracts, or (B) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of any of such contracts.

“FINCL” shall mean Financial New Life Company Limited, a company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 4873014 and whose registered office is at Vantage West Great West Road, Brentford, Middlesex TW8 9AG.

“FSA” means the Financial Services Authority of the United Kingdom.

“Governmental Authority” means any national government, any state or other political subdivision thereof or any self-regulatory authority, and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

“Insolvency Fund” means any guarantee fund, insolvency fund, plan, pool, association, or other arrangement, however denominated, established or governed, which provides for the payment by the Company of any levy, amount or charge in respect of, or assumption by the Company of part or all of any claims, debts, charges, fees or other obligations of an insurer or reinsurer, or its successors or assigns, as a result of its having been declared by any competent authority to be insolvent, or as a result of its having otherwise been deemed unable to meet any such claims, debts, charges, fees or other obligations in whole or in part.

“Mathematical Reserves” means, as of any given date, the mathematical reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles but excluding any mathematical reserves attributable to the Bonds.

“Monthly Report” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Negative Settlement Amount” means, with respect to each Accounting Period, the amount of any net deficit set forth in Line 11 of the Monthly Report for such Accounting Period as calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(a).

“Person” means any natural person, firm, limited liability company, general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, trust, Governmental Authority or other entity.

“Positive Settlement Amount” means, with respect to each Accounting Period, the amount of any net surplus set forth in Line 11 of the Monthly Report for such Accounting Period as calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(a).

“Relevant Liabilities” means all insurance liabilities and obligations arising under the Relevant Risks including, without limitation (i) benefits, surrender amounts and other amounts payable to policyholders under the terms of the Relevant Risks, (ii) other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Relevant Risks, (iii) Insolvency Fund or premium based assessments based on premiums and other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Relevant Risks, (iv) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Relevant Risks, (v) all liability for commission or profit sharing payments and other fees or compensation payable, including under Distributor Agreements, with respect to the Relevant Risks in respect of premiums and other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date, (vi) all Extra Contractual Liabilities and (vii) compensation paid in respect of, or in relation to changes to, Distributor Agreements on or after the Inception Date, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Reinsurer.

“Relevant Risks” means the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risks as are assumed or borne by the Company under or in connection with any and all insurance and reinsurance policies and contracts to which it is a party and which are in force at any time on or prior to the Termination Date (with the exception of the Bonds). Where the Company is a co-insurer with any other company or companies under any such insurance or reinsurance policy or contract, the insurance or reinsurance risks which are to be treated as assumed or borne by the Company for these purposes are:-

- (i) those risks which the Company has agreed with its co-insurer or co-insurers are to be assumed or borne by the Company; and
- (ii) those other risks (if any) which the Company has agreed with its co-insurer or co-insurers are to be assumed or borne by such co-insurer or co-insurers, but only to the extent that such co-insurer or co-insurers shall have defaulted in meeting its or their obligations in respect of those risks and the Company incurs a liability in respect of those risks as a result.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the rights and obligations of the Company under this Agreement are transferred to FINCL under the Scheme, the “Relevant Risks” hereunder shall include any reinsurance risks assumed by FINCL under the Scheme in respect of any Retained Insurances (as defined in the Scheme).

“RIR” means the investment return in respect of an Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Section 5.3(c).

“Scheme” means the scheme for the transfer of the business of the Company to FINCL pursuant to section 105 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

“Statutory Format” means the profit and loss account format set out in Chapter I of Part I of Schedule 9A of the Companies Act 1985.

“Termination Date” means the effective date of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Article VI.

“Valuation and Accounting Principles” means the valuation rules for determining the amount of the assets and liabilities of the Company in accordance with the Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers issued by the FSA (as amended or replaced from time to time) under the powers conferred on the FSA pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as such rules are required to be applied by the Company in the preparation of its annual returns to the FSA (taking into account any waivers or modifications of such valuation rules as are approved by the FSA from time to time in respect of the Company) and, to the extent not inconsistent therewith, the accounting principles and practices hitherto adopted by the Company in preparing its annual audited accounts.

“3 Month LIBOR” means the British Bankers Association Interest Settlement Rate for sterling quoted for a three month period as displayed on the appropriate Telerate screen page at 11.00 a.m. (London time) on the day on which such Interest Settlement Rate is required to be computed pursuant to this Agreement.

COVERAGE

- 2.1 Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 00.01. Bermuda local time (Atlantic Standard Time) on 1 January 2004 (the "Inception Date"), the Reinsurer agrees to reinsure the Relevant Liabilities by way of the Reinsurer indemnifying the Company in respect of each Negative Settlement Amount. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer under this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer each Positive Settlement Amount. The parties shall also pay Ceding Commission and Estimated Ceding Commission in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Conditions. Except as otherwise set forth or contemplated herein, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Relevant Risks in-force as of the Inception Date which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any such Relevant Risk without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Relevant Risks as if the unapproved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.
- 2.3 Territory. The territorial limits of the Agreement shall be identical to those of the Relevant Liabilities.
- 2.4 Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance. The Company shall not, without the Reinsurer's prior written approval, in its sole discretion, take any action to amend or terminate any Ceded Reinsurance under any Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or enter into any Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance.
- 2.5 New Reinsurance Covers. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company shall not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Relevant Liabilities without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion. For these purposes, the Reinsurer consents to the Company having entered into the reinsurance arrangements specified in Schedule D.

ADMINISTRATION: GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 Contract Administration. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in accordance with their terms and the terms of any applicable Distributor Agreement, including, but not limited to, the collection of premiums and other amounts due from policyholders, the payment of all Relevant Liabilities and the administration of claims and disbursements. All benefits under the contracts and policies constituting the Relevant Risks paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer, provided, however, that such payments are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the contracts and policies constituting the Relevant Risks. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence of a person experienced in administering payment protection insurance business. The Company shall procure that the Relevant Risks are administered in compliance with Applicable Law and the current service provider's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favourable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for the administration of the Relevant Risks.

3.2 Sub-contracting of Contract Administration. The Company may subcontract the performance of any service or services which the Company is required to procure in connection with the administration of the Relevant Risks to (i) an Affiliate, (ii) a service provider utilised by the Company with respect to the Relevant Risks or its other business as of the date hereof, (iii) any Person to whom such subcontracting is required to be effected under the terms of any Distributor Agreement or (iv) with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, any other Person, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regard to the provision of such advice or services as if provided by the Company.

3.3 Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and Distributor Agreements. The Company shall manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements, including:-

- (i) providing all reports and notices required with regard to the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements to the reinsurers or other third parties, as applicable, within the time required by the applicable Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or Distributor Agreements; and
- (ii) doing all other things necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and the Distributor Agreements.

- (i) promptly pay when due all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such reinsurers all amounts due under Ceded Reinsurance; and
- (ii) promptly pay when due all profit sharing, commissions or other compensation due to third parties under the Distributor Agreement and use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such third parties all amounts due thereunder. Notwithstanding the obligation of the Company under this Section 3.3 to use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect such reinsurance recoverables, the risk of the Company not collecting or being unable to collect (for whatever reason) any amount due under Ceded Reinsurance shall be borne by the Reinsurer in accordance with Line 2 of Schedule B of this Agreement.

- 3.4 Reinsured Policy Terms. The Company shall set all insurance rates and underwriting criteria in respect of the Relevant Risks from and after the Inception Date consistently with the manner in which it has done so in the past, consulting with the Reinsurer on any issue which is expected to have a material adverse impact on any amounts which the Reinsurer reasonably expects to become payable to it under the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.5 Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that if so requested by the Reinsurer it will provide notice to the Reinsurer as soon as is reasonably practicable of its intention to commence litigation proceedings in respect of a claim in excess of £100,000 with respect to a Reinsured Policy along with (if requested by the Reinsurer) copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect to that claim. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defence of such claims.
- 3.6 Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Relevant Risks in accordance with its record management practices in effect from time to time. The Reinsurer or its designated representative (or Person appointed or charged with the duty to examine or investigate the Reinsurer under Applicable Law) may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy (and take away such copies), at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to the Relevant Risks and the administration thereof (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. Where any papers, books or documents relating to the Relevant Risks and the administration thereof are those of any sub-contractor of the Company, the Company shall procure at the Reinsurer's expense, to the extent that the Company is entitled and able to do so, that the Reinsurer may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy such papers, books or documents (and take away such copies) at the office of the sub-contractor where such papers, books or documents are located. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to reinsurance under this agreement and as permitted under Section 3.7.
- 3.7 Co-operation. Each party hereto shall co-operate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interview and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by either party from time to time. Each party is permitted to furnish such documents and information concerning this Agreement, the reinsurance under this Agreement and the objectives of this Agreement

(i) to its advisors, insurance managers and auditors as may be desirable in connection with servicing the business of the party concerned or such party complying with Applicable Law and (ii) as required under Applicable Law.

- 3.8 Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.9 Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. The liability of the Reinsurer shall follow that of the Company including in circumstances where the Company's liability under any of the Relevant Risks is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due to each other under this Agreement in such circumstances.
- 3.10 Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, regardless of when they arose or were incurred, in favour of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

CEDING COMMISSION

- 4.1 Ceding Commission. On and subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company (or, as the case may be, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer), an estimate of the Ceding Commission (the "Estimated Ceding Commission") payable in respect of that Accounting Period in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule A Part II. The amount of the Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of each Accounting Period shall, subject to Section 4.2 below, be calculated by the Reinsurer in good faith on the basis of information provided by the Company and shall be paid, by the Reinsurer or the Company as the case may be, at the same time as any Negative or Positive Settlement Amount required to be paid in respect of the previous Accounting Period becomes due in accordance with the arrangements set out in Section 5.4 below. The Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of any Accounting Period is, for the avoidance of doubt, an estimate of the actual Ceding Commission due in respect of that Accounting Period and the adjustment to such estimate shall be effected through the Ceding Commission Adjustments referred to in Schedule B and Section 5.5.

4.2 Estimated Ceding Commission initially due. Notwithstanding Section 4.1, the amounts of the Estimated Ceding Commission in respect of each of the first 12 Accounting Periods shall be in the respective amounts set out in Schedule A Part III. The Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an amount equal to the Estimated Ceding Commission amounts in respect of all Accounting Periods commencing prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement as set out in Schedule A Part III and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall take account of such amount payable when producing the First Monthly Report in accordance with section 5.4(b) below. Subsequent amounts due as Estimated Ceding Commission under Schedule A Part III shall be paid in accordance with Section 5.4 below.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT: RESERVE ADJUSTMENT

5.1 Monthly Reports. Subject as set out in Section 5.4(b), no later than 3 Business Days before the end of each Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties) the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide an estimate of the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule B together with details of the Ceding Commission estimated to be payable in respect of the following Accounting Period (the "Monthly Report").

5.2 Computations. At the end of each Accounting Period the Company shall compute:

- (i) the amount (being "X" in the formula set out in Section 5.3 below) shown in Line 3 in the table contained in Schedule B; and
- (ii) the amount (being "Y" in the formula set out in Section 5.3 below) shown in Line 7 in the table contained in Schedule B, in each case in accordance with the notes set out in Schedule B and insofar as not inconsistent with such notes otherwise in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles.

5.3 Positive and Negative Settlement Amounts.

- (a) In respect of each Accounting Period, if the formula:

$$(X - Y + RIR - A + B)$$

shall produce a positive amount, that shall be the Positive Settlement Amount for that Accounting Period, and if it shall produce a negative amount, that shall be the Negative Settlement Amount for that Accounting Period, and that Positive Settlement Amount or Negative Settlement Amount, as the case may be, shall be the amount set out in Line 11 of Schedule B.

- (b) For the purposes of the formula set out in Section 5.3(a):

- (i) "A" shall be the Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment shown in Line 9 in the table contained in Schedule B; and
 - (ii) "B" shall be the Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment shown in Line 10 in the table contained in Schedule B.
- (c) The amount of RIR in respect of any Accounting Period shall be determined by multiplying an amount equal to:
- (i) the Mathematical Reserves as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period; less
 - (ii) the amount of the Company's provision for deferred acquisition costs (excluding any provision for deferred acquisition costs attributable to the Bonds) as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period,
- by a rate equal to:

where:

- (A) "C" is the amount of investment income receivable by the Company in respect of the Accounting Period; and
- (B) "D" is the total market value of the Company's investments (other than any investments acquired in connection with the Bonds or to which the Bonds are linked in any way and other than any investment of the Company in its subsidiary undertakings) as at the opening of business on the first day of the Accounting Period.

For the purposes of this Section 5.3(c), "investment income" shall mean all amounts derived from the holding of investments (other than any investments acquired in connection with the Bonds or to which the Bonds are linked in any way and other than any investment of the Company in its subsidiary undertakings) which are treated, in accordance with the Company's normal accounting policies, as being of an income nature, including any gains on the realisation of those investments and having taken account of any losses on the realisation of those investments. For the avoidance of doubt, "investment income" shall not include any unrealised gains or unrealised losses attributable to such investments.

5.4 Payments.

- (a) Subject as provided in Section 5.4(b) below:

- (i) For each Accounting Period in respect of which there is a Negative Settlement Amount, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the Monthly Report by the Company an amount equal to the absolute value of such Negative Settlement Amount together with the Estimated Ceding Commission (if any) payable by the Reinsurer to the Company in respect of the following Accounting Period.
 - (ii) For each Accounting Period in respect of which there is a Positive Settlement Amount, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the Monthly Report by the Company an amount equal to the absolute value of such Positive Settlement Amount together with the Estimated Ceding Commission (if any) payable by the Company to the Reinsurer in respect of the following Accounting Period.
 - (iii) If there is a Negative Settlement Amount for any Accounting Period and the Company is required to pay the Estimated Ceding Commission to the Reinsurer in respect of the following Accounting Period, a net payment shall be made by the Company or the Reinsurer as appropriate.
 - (iv) If there is a Positive Settlement Amount for any Accounting Period and the Reinsurer is required to pay the Estimated Ceding Commission to the Company in respect of the following Accounting Period, a net payment shall be made by the Company or the Reinsurer as appropriate.
- (b) In relation to all Accounting Periods commencing prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Company shall calculate and deliver a report (“the First Monthly Report”) to the Reinsurer as to the total aggregate net amount payable by the Company (or as the case may be the Reinsurer) to place the Company and the Reinsurer in the respective financial positions in which they would have been under this Agreement on the date of such payment, disregarding for this purpose the time cost of money, had this Agreement been executed and delivered at the commencement of the first Accounting Period. Such payment shall be made by telegraphic transfer within 5 Business Days of the delivery of the First Monthly Report.

5.5 Actual Data. In preparing all reports required under this Agreement, the Company shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to supply the actual data. If the actual data cannot be supplied with the appropriate report, the Company shall produce best estimates and shall provide amended reports based on actual data no more than ten (10) Business Days after the actual data becomes available and the parties will settle any additional amounts due within five (5) Business Days thereafter, together with interest as provided in Section 5.7 hereof.

- 5.6 Additional Reports and Information. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect and for a period of 7 years after its termination, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as is reasonably available to it and as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the Company from being entitled to apply to the Court for its dissolution at any time during such 7 year period but it shall first make arrangements for all data in its possession which may be requested by the Reinsurer to be handed over to a successor company which shall have undertaken, mutatis mutandis, to the Reinsurer in the terms of this Section 5.6.
- 5.7 Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due to either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to 3 Month LIBOR on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points per annum, for the period that the amount is overdue.
- 5.8 Certificate of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The certificate of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company as to any matter arising in respect of the amount of any payment falling to be made under this Agreement shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on the parties.
- 5.10 Breach of Required Minimum Margin of Solvency. No payment required to be made by the Company to the Reinsurer at a relevant time under the terms of this Agreement shall be required to be made at that time if that payment would cause the Company to breach the "Required Minimum Margin" required to be maintained by the Company in accordance with the FSA's Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers (as amended or replaced from time to time). Any payment not made by the Company to the Reinsurer for this reason shall be paid by the Company to the Reinsurer as soon as the making of the payment would not cause that "Required Minimum Margin" to be breached.

DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 6.1 Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.
- 6.2 Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Relevant Liabilities will terminate on the date that termination takes effect as a result of any notice given at the option of the Reinsurer or the Company in accordance with Section 6.3 or Section 6.4 and otherwise on the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.
- 6.3 Termination on Insolvency. In the event of the insolvency of the Reinsurer, the Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and the reinsurance hereunder, such termination to be effective as soon as notice of the termination is given by the Company to the Reinsurer. With effect from the date that the notice of termination is given under this Section 6.3, any amounts which are or become owing by the Company to the Reinsurer under this Agreement, whether prior to, on or after the date of that notice of termination, shall cease to be payable by the Company to the Reinsurer.

- 6.4 Optional Termination. Either the Reinsurer or the Company may terminate this Agreement and the reinsurance hereunder upon prior written notice given at any time to expire on the last day of the Accounting Period in which such notice is given, (i) at any time after the Reinsurer and the Company have both become wholly owned subsidiaries of Genworth Financial, Inc. or (ii) at any time after the Scheme becomes effective (with such amendments, deletions or additions to the Scheme as the parties to it may approve).

For the purposes of this Section, a company shall be a wholly owned subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc. if all of its ordinary shares are owned:-

- (i) by Genworth Financial, Inc., or
- (ii) by any other company the ordinary shares of which are owned directly by Genworth Financial, Inc. or by another wholly owned subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc.

6.5 Consequence of Termination

- (a) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 6.4, this Agreement shall terminate as of the end of the applicable Accounting Period in which the notice of termination pursuant to Section 6.4 is received by the non-terminating party and a net accounting and settlement as to any balance due under this Agreement shall be undertaken by the parties for such Accounting Period and in respect of adjustments required for any earlier Accounting Period (the "Final Settlement").
- (b) In the event that, subsequent to the Final Settlement, the Company receives any amount, or is required to pay any amount, or actual data becomes available to the Company, which in any such case was not taken into account in calculating any Positive or Negative Settlement Amount but which would have been so taken into account had it been received or paid or become available prior to the Termination Date or the Final Settlement, the Company or (as the case may be) the Reinsurer shall make such payment or payments to the other as is required to reflect as nearly as possible the position that would have prevailed had such amount or data been so taken into account, provided, however, that the obligations under this Section 6.5(b) to make any such payment shall terminate 18 months after the date on which any notice is served under Section 6.4.

INSOLVENCY

- 7.1 Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, payment due to the Company under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Company shall give to the Reinsurer written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defences which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.
- 7.2 Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 7.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defence undertaken by the Reinsurer.

- 8.1 General Provisions.
- (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article VIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for the resolution of any such Dispute.
 - (b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 8.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 8.3, shall be deemed to be without prejudice communications and to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from inspection, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise).
 - (c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

- (d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.
- (e) The running of time shall be suspended in respect of any Dispute for the purposes of any defences based upon the passage of time (whether under the Limitation Act 1980 (in its present form or as subsequently amended or replaced) or otherwise) while the procedures specified in this Article VIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate this suspension.

8.4 Arbitration. If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 8.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect. The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

- (a) The neutral organisation for purposes of the CPR rules will be the CPR. the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the dispute in accordance with English law, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

- (b) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
- (c) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 8.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under Applicable Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For the purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
- (d) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law may not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.
- (e) Each of the parties will bear its own legal costs in relation to any arbitration proceedings considered under this Section.

8.5 Agreement to an alternative procedure . If the parties to this Agreement mutually agree that the alternate procedure set out in Section 8.6 and 8.7 below shall apply to a particular Dispute, then the parties shall resolve that Dispute in accordance with Sections 8.6 and 8.7 below rather than in accordance with Sections 8.3 and 8.4 above.

8.6 Alternative Mediation procedure . If the parties have mutually agreed under Section 8.5 that this section shall apply to a Dispute and such Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 8.2 within 45 days from the initial notice (or such longer period as the parties may agree) then the parties will attempt to settle that Dispute by mediation in accordance with the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR Solve) Model Mediation Procedure (the “Model Procedure”). To initiate a mediation, either party shall give notice in writing (“ADR Notice”) to the other party in accordance with the provisions of Section 9, requesting mediation in accordance with the provisions of the Model Procedure. A copy of the ADR Notice should also be sent to CEDR Solve.

8.7 Alternative Arbitration procedure. If the parties have mutually agreed under Section 8.5 that this section shall apply to a Dispute and such Dispute is not resolved within 42 days (or such longer period as the parties may agree) of the giving of the ADR Notice, or if one of the parties refuses to participate in mediation, the Dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (the “Rules”) by 3 arbitrators appointed in accordance with the Rules, and so that:

- (a) The Tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators to be appointed in accordance with the Rules.
- (b) The place of arbitration shall be London.
- (c) The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9.1 Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

9.2 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail with a return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, four Business Days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows.

If to the Company:

Vantage West,
Great West Road,
Brentford,
Middlesex TW8 9AG

Facsimile: +44 (0) 20 8380 3065
Attention: Company Secretary

If to the Reinsurer:

Craig Appin House,
8 Wesley Street,
Hamilton,
Bermuda,

Facsimile: +441 292 4910
Attention: Iain Lever (Aon Insurance Managers (Bermuda) Limited),

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

- 9.3 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto save that all of the rights and obligations of the Company under this Agreement shall automatically transfer to FINCL upon the Scheme becoming effective (with such amendments, deletions or additions to the Scheme as the parties to it may approve). Any assignment in violation of this Section 9.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 9.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.
- 9.4 Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.
- 9.5 Currency. Whenever the acronym “GBP” or the “£” sign appears in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean British Pounds Sterling and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in British Pounds Sterling.
- 9.6 Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.
- 9.7 Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of England without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.
- 9.8 Entire Agreement: Severability. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, undertakings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

- 9.9 Enforceability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.
- 9.10 No Waiver: Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.
- 9.11 Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.
- 9.12 Interpretation. Whenever the words “include”, “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation”.
- 9.13 Survival. Articles VIII and IX shall survive the termination of this Agreement and Section 6.5(b) shall remain in force for a period of 18 months after the date on which any notice is served under Section 6.4.
- 9.14 Negotiated Agreement. This Agreement has been negotiated by the parties and the fact that the initial and final draft will have been prepared by either party or an intermediary will not give rise to any presumption for or against any party to this Agreement or be used in any respect or forum in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorised representatives.

SCHEDULE A – Part I

CEDING COMMISSION

The Company shall calculate in respect of each Accounting Period the amount by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding the deferred acquisition costs attributable to the Bonds) shall have increased or decreased over such Accounting Period (the “Ceding Commission”). The Ceding Commission in respect of such Accounting Period for the purposes of Article IV of this Agreement:

- (i) shall be payable by the Reinsurer to the Company in an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding the deferred acquisition costs attributable to the Bonds) shall have decreased over that Accounting Period; and
- (ii) shall be payable by the Company to the Reinsurer in an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding the deferred acquisition costs attributable to the Bonds) shall have increased over that Accounting Period.

For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of deferred acquisition costs at any relevant time shall be calculated in accordance with the Valuation and Accounting Principles.

In calculating the Ceding Commission for the first Accounting Period, the deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding the deferred acquisition costs attributable to the Bonds) shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £423,938,000.

SCHEDULE A – Part II

ESTIMATED CEDING COMMISSION

Subject as provided in Schedule A Part III below, the Reinsurer shall produce at the end of each Accounting Period on the basis of information provided by the Company a best estimate of the Ceding Commission for the next following Accounting Period.

ESTIMATED CEDING COMMISSION FOR FIRST 12 ACCOUNTING PERIODS

For the first 12 Accounting Periods the Estimated Ceding Commission shall, in the case of each amount, be payable by the Reinsurer and shall be as follows, provided that the parties acknowledge that such amounts are estimates only and shall be the subject of the Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment and the Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment, as appropriate, in accordance with Lines 9 and 10 of Schedule B of this Agreement and Section 5.5:

| Accounting Period ending on: | Amount of Ceding Commission: |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 31st January 2004 | £ 26,007,000 |
| 29th February 2004 | £ 24,848,000 |
| 31st March 2004 | £ 23,028,000 |
| 30th April 2004 | £ 19,476,000 |
| 31st May 2004 | £ 19,532,000 |
| 30th June 2004 | £ 17,194,000 |
| 31st July 2004 | £ 16,968,000 |
| 31st August 2004 | £ 15,205,000 |
| 30th September 2004 | £ 14,074,000 |
| 31st October 2004 | £ 13,715,000 |
| 30th November 2004 | £ 12,007,000 |
| 31st December 2004 | £ 11,850,000 |

ACCOUNTING PERIOD REPORTS

Note: All amounts paid or payable or received or receivable by the Company in respect of the Bonds are to be excluded in any of the items listed below. No account shall be taken in any of the items listed below of any amount payable or receivable under this Agreement or of any change in the Company's provision for deferred acquisition costs provided that this shall not affect the requirement to include the Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment or the Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment as the case may be.

| Line no. | Item | |
|-----------------|--|---|
| 1. | Earned Premiums | £ |
| 2. | Other Income | £ |
| 3. | Total Income (Lines 1 to 2) | £ |
| 4. | Claims Incurred | £ |
| 5. | Expenses Payable | £ |
| 6. | Other Changes In Technical Provisions | £ |
| 7. | Total Expenditure (Lines 4 to 6) | £ |
| 8. | RIR | £ |
| 9. | Reinsurer's Ceding Commission Adjustment | £ |
| 10. | Company's Ceding Commission Adjustment | £ |
| 11. | Positive / (Negative) Settlement Amount (Line 3 - Line 7 + Line 8 - Line 9 + Line 10) | £ |

where, in respect of each Accounting Period:

Line 1: "Earned Premiums" shall mean gross premiums written in such Accounting Period plus any decrease or minus any increase in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period, as described in item II.1 of the Statutory Format and the notes thereto. In calculating the gross premiums written in any Accounting Period there shall be deducted the outward reinsurance premiums paid in such Accounting Period. To the amount of any increase in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period there shall be added any decrease or there shall be subtracted any increase, over such Accounting Period, in the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums paid by the Company. To the amount of any decrease in the provision for unearned premiums over such Accounting Period, there shall be added any increase, or there shall be subtracted any decrease, over such Accounting Period, in the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums paid by the Company. In calculating the gross premiums written, full account shall be taken of the effect of cancellations notified in such Accounting Period and of any other arrangement under which a policy is terminated in such Accounting Period;

Line 2: “Other Income” shall mean all other income becoming due to the Company in the relevant Accounting Period, excluding any income from investments and any realised or unrealised gains on investments and excluding any amount received or becoming due under Ceded Reinsurance;

Line 3: “Total Income” shall mean the sum of Earned Premiums and Other Income;

Line 4: “Claims Incurred” shall mean claims paid in respect of the Relevant Liabilities less reinsurance recoveries received in respect of the Relevant Liabilities in the relevant Accounting Period plus any increase (or minus any decrease) over such Accounting Period in the provision for claims. For these purposes, such provision for claims shall be calculated, at the beginning and end of each Accounting Period, net of any available credit for reinsurance, not being a credit in respect of any reinsurance claim which is due but unpaid, and otherwise in accordance with the manner in which such provision for claims would be calculated for the purposes of item II.5(b) of the Statutory Format;

Line 5: “Expenses Payable” shall mean operating expenses incurred in the relevant Accounting Period including without limitation:-

- (a) bonuses and rebates, net of reinsurance, as described in item II.7 of the Statutory Format;
- (b) acquisition costs, administrative expenses, reinsurance commissions and profit participation, as described in item II.8 of the Statutory Format and the notes thereto; and
- (c) the charges described in items II.11 and III.8 of the Statutory Format,

but, for the avoidance of doubt, shall exclude investment expenses and charges, realised or unrealised losses on investments, and income and corporation tax;

Line 6: “Other Changes in Technical Provisions” shall mean the increase in technical provisions (or the decrease in technical provisions in which event such decrease shall be expressed as a negative amount) not accounted for in any other line of this Schedule B, as described in item II.6 of the Statutory Format and any other increases in reserves (or decreases in reserves, in which event such decreases shall be expressed as negative amounts) required to be taken into account for the purposes of the returns made to the FSA but not required to be so taken into account under Schedule 9A of the Companies Act 1985 in respect of the Company including any change required as a result of the Company not having received any amount due in respect of Ceded Reinsurance;

- Line 7: “Total Expenditure” shall mean the sum of Claims Incurred, Expenses Payable and Other Changes in Technical Provisions;
- Line 8: “RIR” shall mean the amount calculated pursuant to Section 5.3(c) of this Agreement; and
- Line 9: “Reinsurer’s Ceding Commission Adjustment” shall mean the amount (if any) due from the Reinsurer as a result of the actual Ceding Commission for such Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Schedule A Part I being different from the Estimated Ceding Commission for that Accounting Period;
- Line 10: “Company’s Ceding Commission Adjustment” shall mean any amount due from the Company as a result of the actual Ceding Commission for such Accounting Period calculated in accordance with Schedule A Part I being different from the Estimated Ceding Commission for that Accounting Period;
- Line 11: the “Positive Settlement Amount” and the “Negative Settlement Amount” shall mean the amounts calculated pursuant to Section 5.3(a) of this Agreement.

Any amounts included in any of the items listed above shall be included in the calculation set out in this Schedule B only to the extent that such amounts have not been accounted for in any Monthly Report relating to any previous Accounting Period. Any amount specifically excluded from any line item shall be treated as though it were excluded from all other line items unless the context shall expressly require otherwise. No amount shall be included in more than one line item. In the event of any conflict between the application of any express provision in these notes or this Agreement, and the application of any statutory or regulatory rule under this Schedule, in each case for the purposes of determining the amount of any line item in this Schedule, the express provisions in these notes and this Agreement shall prevail.

In calculating the Positive or Negative Settlement Amount (as the case may be) for the first Accounting Period:-

- (i) the provision for unearned premiums shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £785,731,000;
- (ii) the amount of the unearned reinsurance premiums shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £16,897,000;
- (iii) the claims provision net of any available credit for reinsurance, not being a credit in respect of any reinsurance claim which is due but unpaid at the commencement of such Accounting Period shall at such commencement be taken as £89,517,000; and
- (iv) the technical provisions and reserves referred to in Line 6 above shall at the commencement of such Accounting Period be taken as £3,000,000.

SCHEDULE C

Exhibit 10.24

REINSURANCE AGREEMENT

between

and

R.D PLUS

Dated as of [] 2004

This Agreement, dated as of _____ 2004 (the "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between VIE PLUS, an insurance company organised under French law (the "Company"), and R.D PLUS, an insurance company organised under French law (the "Reinsurer").

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party that is liable to any insured, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

ARTICLE 1 - DEFINITIONS

As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

“Accounting Period” means each period of a quarter the first such period commencing at 00.01 Paris time on 1 January 2004 and the last such period commencing on the first day of the quarter in which the Termination Date falls and ending on the Termination Date.

“Affiliate” means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. “Control” (including the terms, “controlled by” and “under common control with”) means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

“Ceded Reinsurance” means all reinsurance ceded by the Company pursuant to contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence of reinsurance relating to the Reinsured Risks in effect on or prior to the Inception Date, except the reinsurance provided pursuant to this Agreement.

“Ceded Reinsurance Agreements” means all of the contracts, binders, certificates, treaties or other evidence for Ceded Reinsurance.

“Commutation” means, with respect to any portion of the Ceded Reinsurance, a commutation or other similar transaction that results in the termination of such Ceded Reinsurance with respect to the Reinsured Risks.

“Direct Commission” means all commissions and other consideration now or hereafter accrued or payable to the brokers and other intermediaries for the Reinsured Risks, which are composed of a fixed commission based on the net earned premiums and a variable commission based on a profit sharing mechanism. For the avoidance of doubt, it is intended that the Agreement have no impact on the calculation of the profit sharing in any arrangement with a broker or an intermediary.

“EURIBOR” means the European InterBank Offered Rate.

“Extra Contractual Liabilities” means all liabilities of the Company for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of contracts under which the Company assumes Reinsured Risks, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual act, error or omission by the Company or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of such contracts, including (A) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under Reinsured Risks, or (B) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of any of such contracts.

“Negative Settlement Amount” means with respect to each Accounting Period the amount of any net deficit set forth in the Quarterly Settlement for such Accounting Period as provided in Article 7.

“Person” means any natural person, firm, limited liability company, general partnership; limited partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, trust, Governmental Authority or other entity.

“Portfolio Transfer” means the transfer by the Company to FINCL of the Reinsured Risks in application of the provisions of article L.324-1 of the French Insurance Code.

“Positive Settlement Amount” means with respect to each Accounting Period the amount of any net surplus set forth in the Quarterly Settlement for such Accounting Period as provided in Article 7.

“Reinsured Liabilities” means all insurance liabilities and obligations arising under the Reinsured Risks including, without limitation (i) benefits, surrender amounts and other amounts payable to policyholders under the terms of the Reinsured Risks, (ii) other consideration paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Risks, (iii) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Reinsured Risks and (iv) all Extra Contractual Liabilities.

“Reinsured Risks” means the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance risks related to payment protection insurance business as are assumed or borne by the Company under or in connection with any and all insurance policies and contracts to which it is a party and which are in force at any time on or prior to the Termination Date.

“Reinsurance Recoverables” means the amount of reinsurance recoverables that is actually collected under Ceded Reinsurance.

“Reserves” means the sum of all reserves and liabilities required to be maintained by the Company for the Reinsured Liabilities including any reserve for any Extra Contractual Liability, calculated consistent with the reserve requirements, statutory accounting rules and actuarial principles under the French laws.

“Termination Date” means the effective date of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Article 8.

ARTICLE 2 - COVERAGE

Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer agrees to reinsure the Reinsured Liabilities by way of the Reinsurer indemnifying the Company in respect of each Negative Settlement Amount. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer under this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer each Positive Settlement Amount.

Conditions. Except as otherwise set forth or contemplated herein, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date to the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Risks in-force as of the Inception Date which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any such Reinsured Risk without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Reinsured Risks as if the unapproved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

Territory. The territorial limits of the Agreement shall be identical to those of the Reinsured Risks.

Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance. The Company shall not, without the Reinsurer's prior written approval, in its sole discretion, take any action to amend or terminate any Ceded Reinsurance under any Ceded Reinsurance Agreement or enter into any Commutation of Ceded Reinsurance.

New reinsurance covers. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Risks without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE 3 - ADMINISTRATION - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Contract Administration. The Company shall procure that the Reinsured Risks are administered in accordance with their terms, in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence of a person experienced in administering insurance business.

Sub-contracting of Contract Administration. The Company may subcontract the performance of any service or services which the Company is required to procure in connection with the administration of the Reinsured Risks to (i) an Affiliate, (ii) a service provider utilized by the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks or its other business as of the date hereof, (iii) any Person to whom such subcontracting is required to be effected under the terms of any distribution agreement or (iv) with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, any other Person, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regard to the provision of such advice or services as if provided by the Company.

Ceded Reinsurance Agreements: The Company shall manage and administer the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements. Without limiting the forgoing, the Company shall promptly pay when due all reinsurance premiums due to reinsurers under the Ceded Reinsurance Agreements and use all commercially reasonable efforts to collect from such reinsurers all Reinsurance Recoverables due thereunder, it being understood that the Reinsurer will bear the risk of collectability of any Reinsurance Recoverable.

Reinsured Policy Terms. The Company shall set all insurance rates and underwriting criteria in respect of the Reinsured Risks from and after the Inception Date consistently with the manner in which it has done so in the past, consulting with the Reinsurer on any issue which is expected to have a material adverse impact on any amounts which the Reinsurer reasonably expects to become payable to it under the terms of this Agreement.

Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that if so requested by the Reinsurer it will provide notice to the Reinsurer as soon as is reasonably practicable of its intention to commence litigation proceedings in respect of a claim in excess of €100,000 with respect to a Reinsured Policy along with (if requested by the Reinsurer) copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect to that claim. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defence of such claims.

Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Risks in accordance with its record management practices in effect from time to time. The Reinsurer or its designated representative may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to the Reinsured Risks and the administration thereof, during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to reinsurance under this agreement.

Co-operation. Each party hereto shall co-operate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interview and meetings with governmental authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by either party from time to time.

Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) business days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. The liability of the Reinsurer shall follow that of the Company including in circumstances where the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Risks is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due to each other under this Agreement in such circumstances.

Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, regardless of when they arose or were incurred, in favour of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be set off from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

ARTICLE 4 - REINSURANCE PREMIUM

The reinsurance premium due as of the day the parties enter into this Agreement by the Company to the Reinsurer shall be equal to the Reserves as of December 31, 2003 (the "Reinsurance Premium").

The amount of the Reinsurance Premium and the amount of the Deposit referred to in article 5 hereafter being equal as of the day the parties enter into this Agreement, the Company shall not make any payment in cash of the Reinsurance Premium and shall retain such Reinsurance Premium to constitute the Reinsurer's Deposit as of the day the parties enter into this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - DEPOSIT

In order to allow the Company to take credit in its balance sheet of this quota share reinsurance, the Reinsurer will deposit in the Company's accounts as of the day the parties enter into this Agreement an amount equal to the Reserves as of December 31, 2003 in accordance with article R332.17 of the French Insurance Code (the "Deposit").

The amount of the Deposit will be increased or decreased every quarter, in the framework of the Quarterly Settlements until the Termination of this Agreement, such adjustment(s) being equal to the increase or decrease in the Reserves referred to in Article 7.

The Deposit will bear an interest equal to five point two per cent (5.2%) per annum that will be computed every quarter through the Quarterly Settlements.

ARTICLE 6 - CEDING COMMISSION

The Reinsurer shall pay a ceding commission (the "Ceding Commission") to the Company for each Accounting Period in an amount equal to four point four per cent (4.4%) of the earned premiums that will be paid through the Quarterly Settlements.

ARTICLE 7 - ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

(a) Quarterly Settlement

As soon as feasible but no more than fifteen (15)] days after the end of each Accounting Period, the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall compute the following financial data for such Accounting Period:

- The earned premiums plus other income excluding any investment income and realized and/or unrealised capital gains, related to the Reinsured Risks net of any insurance taxes and of any guarantee fund contribution related to these premiums and net of any reinsurance cost related to the Ceded Reinsurance;
- Minus the claims paid on the Reinsured Liabilities, net of any reinsurance received under the Ceded Reinsurance;
- Minus the Direct Commission net of any portion thereof actually paid under Ceded Reinsurance;
- Minus any increase in the Reserves;
- Plus any decrease of the Reserves;
- Plus interest on the Deposit calculated in reference to Article 5 hereof;
- Minus the Ceding Commission.

Payments

For each Accounting Period as to which there is a Negative Settlement Amount, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an amount equal to such Negative Settlement Amount within ten (10) days of the delivery of the Quarterly Report by the Company.

For each Accounting Period as to which there is a Positive Settlement Amount the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer an amount equal to such Positive Settlement Amount within ten (10) days of the delivery of the Quarterly Report by the Company.

Delayed Payments . In the event that all or any portion of any payment due to either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to 3 Month EURIBOR on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points per annum, for the period that the amount is overdue.

(b) Other Report

Annual Reports . Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data specified in the previous section for such calendar year.

Additional Reports and Updates . For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as is reasonably available to it and as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes.

(c) Actual Data

In preparing all reports required under this Agreement, the Company shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to supply the actual data. If the actual data cannot be supplied with the appropriate report, the Company shall produce best estimates and shall provide amended reports based on actual data no more than ten (10) days after the actual data becomes available and the parties will settle any additional amounts due within five (5) days thereafter, together with interest as provided in the last paragraph of Article 7 (a) hereof.

ARTICLE 8 - DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 8.1 Duration . Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.
- 8.2 Reinsurer's Liability . The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement will terminate on the earlier of: (i) the date that all amounts due under this Agreement have been paid ; (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated at the option of the Reinsurer or the Company in accordance with Article 8.3 hereof; and (iii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.
- 8.3 Optional Termination: Final Payment Obligations . Either the Reinsurer or the Company may terminate this Agreement and the reinsurance hereunder upon at least 3 business days prior written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement upon the execution of the Portfolio Transfer by the Company of the Reinsured Risks .
- 8.4 Consequence of Termination
- a) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to section 8.3, this Agreement shall terminate as of the end of the quarter in which the notice of termination pursuant to the previous section is received by the non-terminating party and a net accounting and settlement as to any balance due under this Agreement shall be undertaken by the parties for such Accounting Period (the "Final Settlement").
- b) In the event that, subsequent to the Final Settlement but not later than eighteen (18) months after the Termination Date, the Company receives any amount, or is required to pay any amount, which was not taken into account in calculating any Positive or Negative Settlement Amount but which would have been so taken into account had it been received or paid prior to the Termination Date or the Final Settlement, the Company or (as the case may be) the Reinsurer shall make such payment or payments to the other as is required to reflect as nearly as possible the position that would have prevailed had such amount been so taken into account.

ARTICLE 9 - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 9.1 General Provisions .
- (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article 9, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for the resolution of any such Dispute.

- (b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 9.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 9.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.
- (c) The present arbitration clause does not exclude the right of recourse to the courts in respect of any measure which the Code of Civil Procedure permits to be taken by court order ("ordonnance"), including, without limitation, any measure ordered in proceedings "en référé", where such order does not preclude the legal determination of the substance of any issue submitted to arbitration.
- (d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.
- (e) The parties agree and accept that the commencement of arbitration proceedings hereunder will interrupt any prescription which may at the relevant time be running in respect of any right which is the object of, or is otherwise affected by, such proceedings.

9.3 Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 9.2 within forty-five (45) days from the initial notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the Center for Public Resources ("CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

9.4 Arbitration. If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 9.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect. The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

- (a) The neutral organisation for purposes of the CPR rules will be the CPR. the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior French reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in Paris. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the dispute in accordance with French law, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms.
- (b) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
- (c) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 9.4(b) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under French Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For the purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the French courts.
- (d) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs.

ARTICLE 10 - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in France with return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, four business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows.

If to the Company:

To the Reinsurer:

or to such other address or to such other person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this section shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the French laws without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

Entire Agreement: Severability. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, undertakings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

Survival. Section 8.4(b) and Articles 9 and 10 shall survive the termination of this Agreement but shall, in the case of Section 8.4(b), terminate no later than eighteen (18) months after the Termination Date.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

SERVICES AND TERMS

SECTION 2.01. GEMH Services; Scope

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the relevant Service Termination Date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, GEMH shall provide or cause to be provided to Mortgage Entities all services provided to any and all Mortgage Entities by GEMH and/or its Affiliates prior to the date hereof, including the services listed in Schedule A hereto (the “GEMH Service(s)”). The “GEMH Services” also shall include (1) any services to be provided or cause to be provided by GEMH to Mortgage Entities as agreed pursuant to Sections 2.02, 2.04, 3.02 and 12.05(a) and (2) any GEMH Substitute Service; provided, however, that (i) except as set forth in Section 2.04(b), the scope of each GEMH Service shall be substantially the same as the scope of such service provided by GEMH and its Affiliates to Mortgage Services, the predecessor of Mortgage Services or any other Mortgage Entity, as applicable, on the last day prior to the date hereof and that such service was provided by GEMH and its Affiliates to Mortgage Services, the predecessor of Mortgage Services or any other Mortgage Entity, as applicable, in the ordinary course, (ii) the use of each GEMH Service by Mortgage Entities shall include use of such GEMH Service contractors by Mortgage Services and/or of any other Mortgage Entity in substantially the same manner as used by the contractors of Mortgage Services, predecessor of Mortgage Services and other Mortgage Entities, as applicable, prior to the date hereof (including use by Wells Fargo pursuant to the Wells Fargo Agreement). The preceding sentence shall not be deemed to restrict or otherwise limit the volume or quantity of the GEMH Services. If, for any reason, GEMH is unable to provide, or cause to be provided, any GEMH Service to any Mortgage Entity pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, GEMH shall provide or cause to be provided to Mortgage Entities a substantially equivalent service (a “ GEMH Substitute Service ”) at or below the cost for the substituted GEMH Service and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including, the Standard for Services.

(b) The GEMH Services shall include such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements normally and customarily provided by GEMH to its Subsidiaries that receive such services. If Mortgage Services requests that GEMH provide a custom modification in connection with any GEMH Service, Mortgage Services shall be responsible for the cost of such custom modification, and to the extent such custom modification constitutes Software, and such Software and all Intellectual Property therein is owned by Mortgage Services, GEMH hereby assigns such Software and all Intellectual Property therein to Mortgage Services and Mortgage Services hereby grants GEMH a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid up, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, non-exclusive license, with the right to sublicense, to use and modify such Software. The GEMH Services shall include all functions, responsibilities, activities and tasks, and the materials, documentation, resources, rights and licenses to be used, granted or provided by GEMH that are not specifically described in this Agreement as a part of the GEMH Services, but are incidental to, and would normally be considered an inherent part of, or necessary subpart included within, the GEMH Services or are otherwise necessary for GEMH to provide, or Mortgage Entities to receive, the GEMH Services.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, GEMH shall have no liability for any variance between the actual results of operations of Mortgage Services and the estimated results of operations set forth in the Operating Plan, unless and to the extent such variance is due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of GEMH.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, GEMH shall not be obligated to provide any of the GE Services.

(e) During the Term, GEMH and Mortgage Services shall cooperate with one another and use their good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to effect the efficient, timely and seamless provision and receipt of GEMH Services.

SECTION 2.02 . Transition Employees Services . GEMH agrees that during the Term it shall provide, or cause to be provided, to Mortgage Entities the services of (a) employees of Affiliates of GEMH set forth on Schedule C-1, or any employees with equivalent or greater skills who replace such employees in the positions set forth on Schedule C-1, in each case on a full-time basis (each such employee who performs GEMH Services on a full-time basis, a “ Fully Dedicated Transition Employee ”) and (b) employees of Affiliates of GEMH set forth on Schedule C-2, or any employees with equivalent or greater skills who replace such employees in the positions set forth on Schedule C-2, in each case on a part-time basis as set forth on Schedule C-2 (each such employee who performs GEMH Services on a part-time basis as set forth on Schedule C-2, a “ Partially Allocated Employee ”).

SECTION 2.03. Management of Held Loans .

(a) During the Term, Mortgage Services shall manage and service the Held Loans in accordance with the MS Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, such management and servicing shall include restructuring, modification and disposition of the Held Loans and the related Loan Assets as well as other loss mitigation activities, such as foreclosure on the Mortgaged Property that secures the Held Loans, in each case in accordance with the MS Standard. In managing and servicing the Held Loans, Mortgage Services shall utilize the Wells Fargo Agreement, to the extent permitted by the terms thereof, or a substantially similar subservicing agreement.

(b) Mortgage Services shall maintain all licenses and other authorizations, in each case issued by a Governmental Authority, necessary to manage the Held Loans (including its status as an approved Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac seller/servicer).

SECTION 2.04. Reporting; Transition; MSR Sale .

(a) During the Term, GEMH shall provide, or cause to be provided, the following support, which support shall be in addition to the GEMH Services described in Schedule A :

(i) GEMH shall provide, or cause to be provided, current and reasonably available historical data related to the GEMH Services and predecessor services thereto as reasonably required by Mortgage Services in a manner and within a time period as mutually agreed upon by the parties; and

(ii) GEMH shall make reasonably available to Mortgage Entities the employees and contractors of GEMH and its Affiliates whose assistance, expertise or presence is necessary to (A) assist the transition team of Mortgage Services in establishing a fully functioning stand-alone environment and the timely assumption by Mortgage Services, or by a supplier to Mortgage Services, of the GEMH Services and (B) facilitate the implementation of the Operating Plan.

(b) During the Term, upon request by Mortgage Services, GEMH shall provide, or cause to be provided, assistance, expertise or presence necessary to assist Mortgage Services in the sale of Mortgage Servicing Rights, which assistance, expertise or presence shall be in addition to GEMH Services described in Schedule A; provided, however, that such services shall be provided to the extent that provision of such services shall not impose undue burden on the operations of GEMH and its Affiliates. Mortgage Services shall pay for all incremental direct costs and expenses incurred by GEMH and its Affiliates in connection with the provision of such services, which costs and expenses would not have been otherwise incurred as a result of the provision by GEMH and its Affiliates of other GEMH Services; provided that such costs and expenses have been authorized in writing in advance by the Mortgage Services Manager (or another authorized representative of Mortgage Services or its Affiliates). Notwithstanding the foregoing, GEMH shall have no obligation to provide the above mentioned services to the extent that Mortgage Services fails to authorize costs and expenses necessary for GEMH and its Affiliates to incur in order to provide such services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 2.04(b) shall not be applicable to the sale of any servicing rights pursuant to Section 6.07.

SECTION 2.05. Performance and Receipt of Services.

(a) Security. Each of Mortgage Services and GEMH shall at all times comply with its own then in-force security guidelines and policies applicable to the performance, access and/or use of the GEMH Services and Information Systems.

(b) No Viruses. Each of Mortgage Services and GEMH shall take commercially reasonable measures to ensure that no Viruses or similar items are coded or introduced into the GEMH Services or the Information Systems of Mortgage Services, GEMH or any of their respective Affiliates. If a Virus is found to have been introduced into the GEMH Services or any Information Systems of any Party or its Affiliates, Mortgage Services and GEMH shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate and to diligently work together to eliminate the effects of such Virus.

(c) Reasonable Care. Each of Mortgage Services and GEMH shall exercise reasonable care in providing and receiving the GEMH Services and the MS Services to (i) prevent access to the Information Systems by unauthorized Persons and (ii) not damage, disrupt or interrupt the GEMH Services, the MS Services or Information Systems of any Party.

ARTICLE III

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

SECTION 3.01. Computer-Based Resources.

(a) Prior to the Trigger Date, Mortgage Entities shall continue to have access to the Information Systems of GEMH and its Subsidiaries. On and after the Trigger Date, Mortgage Entities shall not have any right to access all or any part of the Information Systems of GEMH or any of its Subsidiaries, except to the extent necessary for any Mortgage Entity to receive the GEMH Services or implement the Operating Plan (in addition and not in limitation of Section 2.05, subject to Mortgage Services complying with all reasonable security measures implemented by GEMH as deemed necessary by GEMH to protect its Information Systems and the Information Systems of its Subsidiaries, provided, that Mortgage Entities have had a commercially reasonable period of time to comply with such security measures).

(b) Prior to the Trigger Date, GEMH and its Subsidiaries shall continue to have access to the Information Systems of the Mortgage Entities. On and after the Trigger Date neither GEMH nor its Subsidiaries shall have any right to access all or any part of the Information Systems of Mortgage Entities, except to the extent necessary for GEMH and its Subsidiaries to perform the GEMH Services (in addition and not in limitation of Section 2.05, subject to GEMH and its Subsidiaries complying with all reasonable security measures implemented by the applicable Mortgage Entity as deemed necessary by Mortgage Entities to protect their respective Information Systems; provided, that GEMH and its Subsidiaries have had a commercially reasonable period of time to comply with such security measures).

(c) In addition but not in limitation of Section 12.06, notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgage Services and GEMH acknowledge and agree that any information received by Mortgage Services, GEMH or any of their respective Subsidiaries through the access by such Party or by any of its Subsidiaries shall not be used by such Party and such Party shall cause its Subsidiaries not to use such information, for purposes other than provisions of GEMH Services hereunder, in case of GEMH and its Subsidiaries, and receipt of the GEMH Services and provision of MS Services, in case of Mortgage Entities.

SECTION 3.02. Access; Leased Premises.

(a) Mortgage Services will allow GEMH and its Representatives reasonable access to the facilities of Mortgage Services necessary for the performance by GEMH and its Representatives of the GEMH Services and for GEMH to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) GEMH will allow Mortgage Services and its Representatives reasonable access to the facilities of GEMH necessary for Mortgage Services to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, to implement the Operating Plan and to transition GEMH Services to Mortgage Entities or to a supplier designated by Mortgage Services.

(c) During the Term, GEMH shall allow, and shall cause to allow, Mortgage Entities and its Representatives to access and use the Leased Premises or equivalent premises, reasonably acceptable to Mortgage Services, in the same manner as such Leased Premises were used by Representatives of Mortgage Entities prior to the date hereof.

ARTICLE IV

COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS; PERSONNEL COSTS; PAYMENTS

SECTION 4.01. Costs and Disbursements.

(a) Subject to Section 4.02, all ordinary costs and expenses incurred by Mortgage Services in connection with performance of its obligations under this Agreement (including personnel costs and expenses with respect to Mortgage Services' employees, any amounts payable directly or indirectly by Mortgage Services to General Electric or its Affiliates with respect to GE Services and the MS Servicing Costs) shall be payable by Mortgage Services and GEMH shall have no Liability to Mortgage Services with respect to such costs and expenses.

(b) Mortgage Services shall reimburse GEMH for:

(i) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by GEMH in connection with GEMH Services actually provided pursuant to this Agreement and that can be identified as incurred for the sole benefit of Mortgage Entities or allocated by GEMH to Mortgage Entities consistent with the basis on which such costs were allocated by GEMH and its Affiliates immediately prior to the date hereof as reflected on Schedule D ("Identified Costs"); provided, however, that (A) any out-of-pocket costs and expenses in the aggregate in excess of $10,000 per any calendar month or in excess of $5,000 per provider per any calendar month shall only be payable by Mortgage Services, if such Identified Costs have been authorized in writing by the Mortgage Services Manager (or another authorized representative of Mortgage Services or its Affiliates) prior to having been incurred by GEMH, (B) Mortgage Services receives from GEMH reasonably detailed data and other documentation sufficient to support the calculation of amounts due to GEMH as a result of Identified Costs and (C) Identified Costs shall not include (x) any costs or expenses described in Section 4.02, which shall be payable pursuant to Section 4.02, (y) any costs or expenses incurred by GEMH or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with providing Mortgage Entities access and use of facilities described in Section 3.02 and (z) any costs or expenses incurred by GEMH or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with providing GEMH Services set forth in paragraph (j) of Schedule A; and

(ii) $10,000 per annum (payable in quarterly installments as set forth in Section 4.04) with respect to access and use by Mortgage Entities and their respective Representatives of facilities described in Section 3.02 and provision by GEMH and its Subsidiaries of GEMH Services set forth in paragraph (j) of Schedule A (“Facilities Fee”, and together with Identified Costs, the “Service Charges”).

SECTION 4.02. Personnel Costs; Right to Hire; Severance.

(a) Mortgage Services shall pay all actual personnel costs and expenses incurred by Mortgage Services with respect to its employees providing services under this Agreement. All severance and employee costs, if any, related to the termination of any Mortgage Services employees (including any amounts payable pursuant to the WARN Act) will be paid entirely by Mortgage Services. Mortgage Services will be responsible for any and all costs and expenses associated with the transfer of Mortgage Services employees to any Mortgage Services’ Affiliates, including for any wind down/shut down costs and expenses associated with a wind down or shut down of one or more of Mortgage Services’ facilities.

(b) Subject to Article IX of the Employee Matters Agreement:

(i) During the Term, Mortgage Services will reimburse GEMH for all compensation and benefit costs and expenses incurred by GEMH and its Affiliates for all Fully Dedicated Transition Employees who are providing GEMH Services on full time basis. For the avoidance of doubt, at any one time, Mortgage Services shall not be liable for such costs and expenses for more than six (6) persons who hold positions set forth on Schedule C-1.

(ii) Mortgage Services will have the right to hire Fully Dedicated Transition Employees at the Trigger Date, provided that such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees continue to provide GEMH Services to the extent necessary through the expiration of this Agreement consistent with GEMH Services provided prior to the Trigger Date.

(iii) To the extent that Mortgage Services does not offer employment to such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees effective as of the Trigger Date, then GEMH and its Affiliates will retain such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees to continue to provide GEMH Services to Mortgage Services to the extent necessary through the earlier of the expiration or termination of this Agreement. GEMH will make a decision on or prior to the earlier of the expiration or termination of this Agreement as to whether GEMH or any of its Affiliates wants to offer such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees continued employment with GEMH or any of its Affiliates.

(iv) If neither GEMH, Mortgage Services nor any of their respective Affiliates offers employment to such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees which is comparable to the terms of their employment immediately prior to the end of the Term, Mortgage Services will reimburse GEMH for all severance and employee costs, if any, related to the termination of such Fully Dedicated Transition Employees. For the avoidance of doubt, Mortgage Services shall not be liable for such costs and expenses for more than six (6) persons who hold positions set forth on Schedule C-1. If such comparable employment is offered by either GEMH, Mortgage Services or any of their respective Affiliates and is declined by such employees, the employee would not be entitled to any severance benefits. For purposes of this Section 4.02(b), "comparable" shall be as defined in the applicable employee benefit plan of GEMH with respect to severance benefits.

(c) Neither GEMH nor any of its Affiliates shall terminate employment of any Transition Employee who is 60% or more allocated to Mortgage Entities or provision of GEMH Services without prior written consent of Mortgage Services.

(d) (i) During the Term, Mortgage Services will reimburse GEMH for (A) the pro-rata portion of compensation and benefit costs and expenses incurred by GEMH and its Affiliates for the Partially Allocated Transition Employees who are less than 100% allocated to Mortgage Services based on actual hours worked by such Partially Allocated Transition Employees providing GEMH Services and (B) an amount of $500,000 per annum with respect to management oversight of employees of GEMH's Affiliates providing GEMH Services hereunder, allocated on pro-rata basis based on the number of calendar days GEMH Services were actually provided.

(ii) At the earlier of the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Mortgage Services will pay to GEMH an amount of $641,700 and Mortgage Services shall not be responsible for any severance costs with respect to any Partially Allocated Transition Employee.

(e) During the Term, Mortgage Services shall be responsible for all costs and expenses incurred by GEMH, Mortgage Services and their respective Affiliates in connection with any retention program instituted with respect to any Transition Employee; provided that any such retention program has been authorized in writing by the Mortgage Services Manager (or another authorized representative of Mortgage Services or its Affiliates).

SECTION 4.03 . Loan Acquisition and Disposition Costs . Subject to receipt by Contract Services of reasonably detailed data and other documentation sufficient to support the calculation of amounts due to Mortgage Services, Contract Services shall promptly upon receipt of an invoice from Mortgage Services (but in no event later than within seventy-five (75) days of the date of such invoice) reimburse Mortgage Services for all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Mortgage Services in connection with an acquisition of any Loan and/or a disposition of any Loan by Mortgage Services. For the avoidance of doubt, such out-of-pocket costs and expenses (i) shall not include the Loan Purchase Price, any purchase price paid by Mortgage Services with respect to any Scheduled Loan, any interest expense incurred by Mortgage Services in connection with the funding of Loans or any MS Servicing Costs but (ii) shall include loan boarding fees payable by Mortgage Services pursuant to the Wells Fargo Agreement or any other subservicing agreement pursuant to which such Loan is serviced, attorneys' fees and expenses, custodian fees, recording and filing fees and other fees and expenses customarily incurred in connection with an acquisition or disposition of residential mortgage loans. If Contract Services fails to pay any amount payable pursuant to this Section 4.03 (excluding any amount contested in good faith) by the date specified above, Contract Services shall be obligated to pay to Mortgage Services, in addition to the amount due, interest on such amount at the lesser of (i) the three (3) month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 100 basis points or (ii) the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable Law, from the date the payment was due through the date of payment. Any and all disputes with respect to this Section 4.03 shall be resolved pursuant to Section 9.02.

SECTION 4.04. Payments of Service Charges and Employment Costs.

(a) Subject to Section 4.04(iii):

(i) all Service Charges and Employment Costs shall be invoiced by GEMH on a quarterly basis in arrears.

(ii) Together with each invoice submitted to Mortgage Services for payment pursuant to this Section 4.04(a), GEMH shall provide Mortgage Services with reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to support the calculation of any amount due to GEMH under this Agreement for the purposes of verifying the accuracy of such calculations.

(iii) The parties acknowledge and agree that in the event GEMH does not provide, or cause to be provided, GEMH Services specified in Section 3.02 and paragraph (j) of Schedule A during the entire calendar quarter, the amount of the Facilities Fee payable with respect to such quarterly period shall be pro-rated such that Mortgage Services shall pay the portion of a quarterly payment that is allocable to the number of days in such calendar quarter during which such GEMH Services were actually provided.

(b) (i) Prior to the Trigger Date, Mortgage Services and GEMH shall arrange for the payment of all Service Charges and Employment Costs through the GE Internal Billing System ("IBS"). Mortgage Services shall have the right to dispute any Service Charges and Employment Costs settled through the IBS during any calendar quarter by delivering written notice of such dispute, setting forth in reasonable detail the basis therefor, to GEMH within, and no later than, 60 days after the end of such quarter. If the Parties do not promptly resolve such dispute, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 9.02.

(ii) From and after Trigger Date, Mortgage Services shall pay the amount of any invoice submitted to Mortgage Services by GEMH pursuant to Section 4.04(a) in U.S. dollars within seventy-five (75) days of the date of such invoice. If Mortgage Services fails to pay such amount (excluding any amount contested in good faith) by such date, Mortgage Services shall be obligated to pay to GEMH, in addition to the amount due, interest on such amount at the lesser of (i) the three (3) month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 100 basis points or (ii) the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable Law, from the date the payment was due through the date of payment. If Mortgage Services disputes GEMH's calculation of any amount due to GEMH, then the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 9.02.

ARTICLE V

STANDARDS; COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

SECTION 5.01. Standards.

(a) GEMH agrees to perform, and cause to perform, the GEMH Services such that the nature, quality, standard of care and the service levels at which such GEMH Services are performed are no less than the nature, quality, standard of care and service levels at which the substantially same services were performed by or on behalf of GEMH during the most recent service period prior to the date hereof in which such services were performed by or on behalf of GEMH in the ordinary course (the "Standard for Services").

(b) Mortgage Services agrees to manage and service and, to cause to manage and service the Held Loans, such that the nature, quality, standard of care and service levels at which Mortgage Services manages and services such Held Loans are no less than the nature, quality, standard of care and service levels at which Mortgage Services manages and services other loans of similar type held by Mortgage Services for its own account (the "MS Standard").

SECTION 5.02. Compliance with Laws. Each of GEMH and Mortgage Services shall comply, and shall cause to comply, with all applicable Laws (including all Finance Laws) when providing or receiving the GEMH Services, managing or servicing the Loans (in case of Mortgage Services) and when performing other obligations under this Agreement.

PURCHASE OF NEW LOANS AND SALE OF LOANS AND LOAN ASSETS

SECTION 6.01. Loan Schedule. Contract Services shall, from time to time during the Term, provide to Mortgage Services a Loan Schedule setting forth all of the New Loans that Contract Services desires for Mortgage Services to purchase.

SECTION 6.02. Loan Purchase Agreement.

(a) On or prior to the date Contract Services delivers a Loan Schedule to Mortgage Services, Contract Services shall designate, or cause to be designated, Mortgage Services as a designee for the purchase of New Loans and related Loan Assets under the applicable Underwriting/Insurance Agreement.

(b) Mortgage Services shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to enter into a Loan Purchase Agreement. Contract Services shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to assist Mortgage Services in the negotiations of such Loan Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which the Lender agrees to sell, transfer and assign to Mortgage Services the applicable New Loans and the related Loan Assets and Mortgage Services agrees to purchase and accept such Loans and the related Loan Assets on the terms and conditions set forth therein. The Loan Purchase Agreement shall include (i) representations and warranties, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Mortgage Services, to the effect that the applicable New Loan and related Loan Assets comply with and do not violate applicable Laws (including Finance Laws) and (ii) an obligation on the part of the applicable Lender to repurchase the applicable New Loan from Mortgage Services in the event that the Lender, inter alia, has breached the representation and warranty described in clause (i) above with respect to such New Loan and the related Loan Assets.

SECTION 6.03. Agreement to Sell and Purchase the New Loans; Assignment of Claims .

(a) (i) Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, Mortgage Services agrees to purchase and accept on a Loan Closing Date from a Lender, the New Loans and the related Loan Assets set forth on the applicable Loan Schedule and with respect to which the conditions set forth in Section 6.05 have been satisfied or waived by Mortgage Services in accordance therewith; provided that the applicable Lender sells, transfers and assigns to Mortgage Services such Loans and the related Loan Assets free and clear of all Liens.

(ii) Mortgage Services agrees that upon request of Contract Services on or prior to the applicable Loan Closing Date, Mortgage Services shall assign, on the Loan Closing Date, its rights and claims pursuant to the applicable Loan Agreement (the “Claims”), if any, against any Person other than any Mortgage Entity, Contract Services or any of their respective Affiliates, solely with respect to any event, occurrence or circumstance that gave rise to the exercise by Contract Services of its option to purchase the applicable Loan from the applicable Lender; provided, however, (A) for the avoidance of doubt, the Claims shall not include any rights, title or interest of any Person in any document, agreement, instrument or property that secures the obligations of the borrower or any guarantor with respect to the Loan or evidences such security; and (B) Mortgage Services shall not be required to assign any Claims, the assignment of which to Contract Services, in the reasonable judgment of Mortgage Services, would violate any applicable Law (including any Finance Law); (C) during the period that any such Loan is a Held Loan, (1) Contract Services shall comply with all applicable Laws (including Finance Laws) in enforcing or pursuing any of its Claims against the applicable Person, (2) in the event Mortgage Services determines that Contract Services actions or omissions, with respect to any Claim including enforcement and exercise thereof do not comply with or violate any applicable Law (including any Finance Law), upon notice from Mortgage Services, Contract Services shall cease and desist, or cause to cease and desist, such action or undertake such action as necessary to comply with applicable Law, (3) Contract Services shall not undertake any foreclosure action with respect to any borrower or guarantor under such Loan or Loan Assets; (4) Contract Services shall not enforce or pursue any of its Claims to any detriment of any Mortgage Entity or any of its Affiliates, and (5) such Claims shall not be transferred or assigned by Contract Services to any Person; and (D) in addition but not in limitation of Section 8.04, Contract Services shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from the assignment of the Claims to Contract Services and any action or omission of Contract Services or any of its Representatives, including in connection with enforcement and/or exercise of any such assigned Claims.

(iii) Contract Services acknowledges that Mortgage Services would be irreparably harmed by any breach of Section 6.03(a)(ii) and that there would be no adequate remedy at law or in damages to compensate Mortgage Services for any such breach. Contract Services agrees that Mortgage Services shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief requiring specific performance by Contract Services of its obligations under Section 6.03(a)(ii).

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 6.03(a) to the contrary, Mortgage Services shall have no obligation pursuant to this Agreement to purchase:

(i) at a Loan Closing, any New Loan or any Loan Assets other than the New Loans set forth on the applicable Loan Schedule and the Loan Assets related to such New Loans, in all cases with respect to which the conditions set forth in Section 6.05 have been satisfied or waived by Mortgage Services in accordance therewith.

(ii) any New Loan or any related Loan Asset, which New Loan or Loan Asset in the reasonable judgment of Mortgage Services does not comply with or violates applicable Law (including any Finance Law);

(iii) any New Loan or any related Loan Asset if, after giving effect to such purchase, Mortgage Services would hold Held Loans and REOs with respect to which the Net Amount exceeds $100,000,000;

(iv) any loan other than the New Loans; and

(v) any New Loan or any related Loan Assets in the event Mortgage Services and the applicable Lender are unable to enter into the Loan Purchase Agreement within 90 Business Days of receipt by Mortgage Services of the applicable Loan Schedule (or such other period as the parties thereto may mutually agree).

(c) Contract Services hereby acknowledges and agrees that any and all amounts payable by any Person (other than Mortgage Services) with respect to, in connection with or pursuant to the New Loans and the related Loan Assets acquired by Mortgage Services pursuant to this Agreement (other than amounts payable with respect to the Claims assigned to Contract Services pursuant to Section 6.03(a)(ii)) with respect to any period after the applicable Loan Closing and any and all disposition proceeds with respect to such New Loans and the related Loan Assets shall be the property of Mortgage Services.

(d) All amounts which are received by Contract Services or any of its Affiliates in respect of the New Loans and the related Loan Assets (other than with respect to any amounts received with respect to the Claims assigned to Contract Services pursuant to Section 6.03(a)(ii)) acquired pursuant to this Agreement from and after the applicable Loan Closing which are properly allocable to periods after the applicable Loan Closing shall be received by such Person as agent, in trust for and on behalf of Mortgage Services, and following the applicable Loan Closing, on a weekly basis, Contract Services shall transfer, or cause to be transferred, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, and remit (or cause to be remitted) to Mortgage Services all such amounts received by or paid to Contract Services or any of its Affiliates as of such date and shall provide Mortgage Services information as to the nature and source of such payments, including any invoice related thereto.

SECTION 6.04. Loan Purchase Price. On the Loan Closing Date, Mortgage Services shall pay to the Lender the aggregate amount of the Loan Purchase Price set forth in the Loan Purchase Agreement with respect to the New Loans being purchased at such Loan Closing.

SECTION 6.05. Conditions Precedent. With respect to any Loan Closing, the obligations of Mortgage Services under Sections 6.03 and 6.04 shall be subject to the satisfaction or waiver in writing by Mortgage Services, on or prior to such Loan Closing of the following conditions:

(a) The obligations of Contract Services required to be performed by it at or prior to a Loan Closing pursuant to the terms of this Article VI shall have been duly performed and complied with and all representations and warranties of Contract Services under this Agreement and all representations and warranties of the Lender under the Loan Purchase Agreement shall be true and correct as of the applicable Loan Closing Date with the same force and effect as though such representations and warranties had been made as of such date.

(b) Mortgage Services shall have received, all of the following documents and instruments (the “Loan Closing Documents”), duly executed by all signatories other than Mortgage Services as required pursuant to the respective terms thereof:

- (i) Loan Schedule;
- (ii) Loan Purchase Agreement; and
- (iii) Loan File.

SECTION 6.06. Right of First Refusal. If at any time during the Term, Mortgage Services presents to Contract Services a Bona Fide Offer with respect to any Loan or Loan REO, Contract Services may, by written notice to Mortgage Services within five (5) Business Days of receipt of such Bona-Fide Offer, elect to purchase such Loan or Loan REO, as the case may be at the purchase price offered by the offeror of such Bona Fide Offer (“Bona Fide Purchase Price”) and (a) upon receipt of the amount equal to the Bona Fide Purchase Price, Mortgage Services shall sell, transfer and assign to Contract Services or its designee (i) such Loan and the related Loan Assets or Loan REO, as the case may be, on “AS-IS, WHERE IS” basis without any representations or warranties (except for a representation and warranty that such Loans and the related Loan Assets or Loan REO, as applicable, are being sold, transferred and assigned free and clear of Liens that have been created by Mortgage Entities (other than the Permitted Liens)) and (ii) any and all rights of Mortgage Services under the applicable Loan Purchase Agreement to the extent such rights are assignable and (b) Contract Services or its designee shall (i) purchase and accept such Loans and the related Loan Assets or Loan REOs, as the case may be, and (ii) assume all Liabilities with respect to such Loans and related Loan Assets or Loan REOs, as the case may be arising from and after such sale, transfer and assignment.

SECTION 6.07 . Repurchase of Loans . Upon expiration or early termination of this Agreement or of Article VI pursuant to Section 10.01, (a) subject to receipt of the payment set forth in clause (b)(iii) below, Mortgage Services shall sell, transfer and assign, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to sell, transfer and assign to Contract Services or its designee, (i) any and all Held Loans and the related Loan Assets and Loan REOs, on “AS-IS, WHERE IS” basis without any representations or warranties (except for a representation and warranty that such Loans, related Loan Assets and Loan REOs are being sold, transferred and assigned free and clear of Liens that have been created by Mortgage Entities other than the Permitted Liens)) and (ii) any and all rights of Mortgage Services under the applicable Loan Purchase Agreement to the extent such rights are assignable and (b) Contract Services or such designee shall (i) purchase and accept such Loans, related Loan Assets and Loan REOs, (ii) assume all Liabilities with respect to such Loans, the related Loan Assets and Loan REOs arising from and after such sale, transfer and assignment and (iii) pay Mortgage Services an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of such Held Loans and Loan REOs in immediately available funds to the account designated in writing by Mortgage Services at least two Business Days prior to such sale, transfer and assignment. For the avoidance of doubt, in connection with any sale, transfer or assignment of any Loan or Loan REOs, pursuant to this Section 6.07, Mortgage Services shall sell, transfer and assign any and all rights of Mortgage Services to service such Loans and Loan REOs.

SECTION 6.08 . Transition Assistance . Upon request of Contract Services, Mortgage Services shall provide, or cause to be provided, reasonable assistance to Contract Services to transition the management and servicing of the Loans, the related Loan Assets and Loan REOs that are being purchased by Contract Services from Mortgage Services pursuant to Sections 6.06 and 6.07; provided, however, that the provision of such assistance shall not impose undue burden on the operations of Mortgage Entities. Contract Services shall pay for all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Mortgage Entities and its Affiliates as a result of the provision by Mortgage Entities and its Affiliates of such assistance; provided that such costs and expenses have been authorized in writing in advance by the GEMH Manager (or an authorized representative of Contract Services). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgage Services shall have no obligation to provide, or cause to be provided, the above mentioned assistance to the extent that GEMH or an authorized representative of Contract Services fails to authorize such costs and expenses necessary for Mortgage Entities and its Affiliates to incur in order to provide such assistance.

SECTION 6.09 . Further Assurances . In addition to the foregoing, Contract Services shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and designees to, whenever and as often as reasonably requested to do so by Mortgage Services, do, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all such other and further acts, assignments, transfers and any instruments of further assurance, approvals and consents as are necessary or proper in order to complete, ensure and perfect the sale, transfer and assignment to Mortgage Services contemplated hereby of the applicable Loans and the related Loan Assets and the consummation of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

SECTION 7.01 . Representations and Warranties of Mortgage Services . Mortgage Services represents and warrants to GEMH Parties that (a) Mortgage Services has the full corporate power and authority required to enter into, execute, deliver, and fully perform under, this Agreement and that to do so will not violate or conflict with any material term or provisions of any agreement, instrument, order or decree to which it is a party or by which it is bound and (b) Mortgage Services has obtained all Governmental Approvals and consents from other Persons, if any, necessary for Mortgage Services to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 7.02 . Representation and Warranties of GEMH Parties . Each GEMH Party represents and warrants to Mortgage Services that (a) such GEMH Party has the full corporate power and authority required to enter into, execute, deliver, and fully perform under, this Agreement and that to do so will not violate or conflict with any material term or provisions of any agreement, instrument, order or decree to which it is a party or by which it is bound and (b) such GEMH Party and its Affiliates (as applicable) have obtained all Governmental Approvals and consents from other Persons, if any, necessary or required for such GEMH Party or its Affiliates to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03 . Survival . The representations and warranties set forth in this Article VII shall survive for a period of eighteen (18) months after the date hereof.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION; LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

SECTION 8.01. Limited Liability .

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5.01, neither GEMH nor any of its Affiliates, any of their respective directors, officers or employees, nor any of the heirs, executors, successors nor assigns of any of the foregoing (each, a “GEMH Indemnified Party”) shall have any liability in contract, tort or otherwise to any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party or its Representatives for or in connection with (i) any GEMH Services rendered or to be rendered by any GEMH Indemnified Party pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (iii) any GEMH Indemnified Party’s actions or inactions in connection with any such GEMH Services or such transactions; provided, however, that such limitation on liability shall not extend to or otherwise limit any Liabilities that have resulted directly from such GEMH Indemnified Party’s (A) gross negligence or willful misconduct, (B) improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party (defined below) or (C) violation of applicable Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 8.01(a) shall not be applicable to any indemnification obligation of GEMH and Contract Services pursuant to Section 6.03(a)(ii) and Section 8.04 and any payment obligations of any GEMH Parties pursuant to this Agreement, including pursuant to Sections 4.03, 6.03(a)(ii), 6.06, 6.07, 6.08 and Article XI.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5.01, neither Mortgage Services nor any of its Affiliates, any of their respective directors, officers or employees, nor any of the heirs, executors, successors nor assigns of any of the foregoing (each, a “ Mortgage Services Indemnified Party ”) shall have any liability in contract, tort or otherwise to any GEMH Indemnified Party or its Representatives for or in connection with (i) the MS Services, (ii) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (iii) any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party’s actions or inactions in connection with any such MS Services or such transactions; provided, however, that such limitation on liability shall not extend to or otherwise limit any Liabilities that have resulted directly from such Mortgage Services Indemnified Party’s (A) gross negligence or willful misconduct, (B) improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a GEMH Indemnified Party or (C) violation of applicable Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 8.01(b) shall not be applicable to any payment obligations of Mortgage Services pursuant to this Agreement, including pursuant to Article IV.

SECTION 8.02. Indemnification by GEMH. In addition and not in limitation of Section 8.04:

(a) GEMH shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Mortgage Services Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of a GEMH Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such GEMH Indemnified Party’s provision of the GEMH Services, (ii) the improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such GEMH Indemnified Party’s provision of the GEMH Services, or (iii) any violation of applicable Law by a GEMH Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such GEMH Indemnified Party’s provision of the GEMH Services.

(b) GEMH shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Mortgage Services Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from the provision of the MS Services by Mortgage Services or any of its Subsidiaries, except for (A) any Liabilities that result from a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party’s negligence in connection with the provision of the MS Services, (B) any Liabilities that result from a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party’s breach of this Agreement or (C) any Liabilities for which Mortgage Services is required to indemnify a GEMH Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 8.03.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate liability of GEMH pursuant to this Section 8.02 shall in no event exceed the aggregate amount of $10,000,000.

SECTION 8.03. Indemnification by Mortgage Services.

(a) Mortgage Services shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each GEMH Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any GEMH Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party or any of its Representatives in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Mortgage Indemnified Party's provision of the MS Services, (ii) the improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a GEMH Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Mortgage Services Indemnified Party's provision of the MS Services, or (iii) any violation of applicable Law by a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Mortgage Services Indemnified Party's provision of the MS Services.

(b) Mortgage Services shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each GEMH Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any GEMH Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from the provision of the GEMH Services by GEMH or any of its Subsidiaries, except for (A) any Liabilities that result from a GEMH Indemnified Party's negligence in connection with the provision of the GEMH Services, (B) any Liabilities that result from a GEMH Indemnified Party's breach of this Agreement or (C) any Liabilities for which GEMH is required to indemnify a Mortgage Services Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 8.02.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate liability of Mortgage Services pursuant to this Section 8.03 shall in no event exceed the aggregate amount of $10,000,000.

SECTION 8.04. Loans and Loan Assets Indemnification .

(a) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement (including Section 8.01), Contract Services shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Mortgage Services Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities incurred or suffered by any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party relating to, arising out of, or resulting from or in connection with the Loans, the Loan Assets or any Mortgaged Property (including arising out of or resulting from any noncompliance or violation of Environmental Laws of any applicable Mortgaged Property) or any matters set forth in Section 4.03 and Article VI; provided, however, that GEMH shall not have any liability under this Section 8.04 with respect to Liabilities that have resulted directly from Mortgage Services Indemnified Party's (A) gross negligence or willful misconduct, (B) improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of Mortgage Services Indemnified Party or (C) violation of applicable Law. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) Liabilities for which Contract Services shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless pursuant to this Section 8.04 shall include (x) any and all Liabilities resulting from the failure of Mortgage Services to receive any amounts (including interest and late fees) payable with respect to any Loan and/or Loan Asset pursuant to the applicable documents, agreements and instruments that constitute Loan Assets, including failure resulting from any breach of representation or warranty or covenant made by Contract Services in this Agreement and/or by the applicable Lender in the applicable Loan Purchase Agreement, (y) the Deficiency Amount and (z) any and all Liabilities that would have been payable to Mortgage Services pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement had such Indemnification not been terminated, except to the extent Mortgage Services has previously been indemnified for such Liabilities pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement and (ii) shall exclude any and all MS Servicing Costs, the Loan Purchase Price, the amounts paid as purchase price with respect to any Scheduled Loan and any and all interest expense incurred by Mortgage Services in connection with the funding of any of the Loans.

SECTION 8.05. Indemnification Procedures .

(a) The matters set forth in Sections 5.6 through 5.9 of the Master Agreement shall be deemed incorporated into, and a made a part of, this Agreement.

(b)(i) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement or in the Master Agreement, any Liability subject to indemnification or contribution pursuant to this Article VIII will be net of Wells Fargo Proceeds that actually reduce the amount of such Liability. Accordingly, the amount which any Indemnifying Party is required to pay to any Indemnified Party will be reduced by any Wells Fargo Proceeds theretofore actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party in respect of the related Liability. If an Indemnified Party receives an Indemnity Payment required by this Agreement from an Indemnifying Party in respect of any Liability and subsequently receives Wells Fargo Proceeds with respect to such Liability, then the Indemnified Party will pay to the Indemnifying Party an amount equal to the excess of the Indemnity Payment received over the amount of the Indemnity Payment that would have been due if such Wells Fargo Proceeds had been received, realized or recovered before the Indemnity Payment was made.

(ii) The Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek to collect or recover from Wells Fargo the amounts due to such Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 7.2 of the Wells Fargo Agreement to which the Indemnified Party is entitled in connection with any Liability for which the Indemnified Party seeks indemnification pursuant to this Article VIII; provided that the Indemnified Party's inability to collect or recover any such amounts shall not limit the Indemnifying Party's obligations hereunder.

SECTION 8.06. Limitation on Liability . Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, neither GEMH Parties, on the one hand, nor Mortgage Services, on the other hand, shall be liable to the other for any special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential losses, damages or expenses of the other, including loss of profits, arising from any claim relating to breach of this Agreement or otherwise relating to any of the GEMH Services or MS Services provided hereunder. For clarification purposes only, the Parties agree that the limitation on liability contained in this Section 8.06 shall not apply to (a) damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which GEMH is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party under Section 8.02, (b) damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which Mortgage Services is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any GEMH Indemnified Party under Section 8.03, (c) damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which Contract Services is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Mortgage Services Indemnified Party under Section 8.04 or that are payable by Genworth pursuant to Article XI, (d) any and all Liabilities resulting from the failure of Mortgage Services to receive any amounts (including interest and late fees) payable with respect to any Loan and/or Loan Asset pursuant to any document, agreement or instrument that constitutes a Loan Asset, including the failure resulting from any breach of representation or warranty or covenant made by GEMH Party in this Agreement and/or by the applicable Lender in the applicable Loan Purchase Agreement and (e) any Deficiency Amount.

SECTION 8.07. Liability for Payment Obligations. Nothing in this Article VIII shall be deemed to eliminate or limit, in any respect, any Party's payment obligations as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

SECTION 9.01. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of Laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

SECTION 9.02. Dispute Resolution. To the extent not resolved through discussions between the GEMH Manager and the Mortgage Services Manager, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of this Agreement, or the calculation or allocation of the costs of any GEMH Service, shall be resolved in accordance with Article VII of the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE X

TERMINATION

SECTION 10.01. Termination.

(a) The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof and, unless earlier terminated pursuant to this Section 10.01(a), expire on December 31, 2005 (the "Term"). This Agreement shall terminate with respect to each GEMH Service on the applicable Service Termination Date or other termination date specified in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto. In addition, (i) Mortgage Services may from time to time terminate any GEMH Service, in whole or in part, upon giving at least sixty (60) days' (or such shorter period of time as is mutually agreed upon in writing by the parties) prior written notice to GEMH specifying which GEMH Service is being so terminated (such termination will not in any way affect the obligations of the party terminating this Agreement with respect to such GEMH Service to continue to receive all other GEMH Services not so terminated and to continue to provide such other GEMH Services as required by this Agreement); (ii) either party (the "Non-Breaching Party") may terminate this Agreement with respect to any GEMH Service, in whole or in part, at any time upon prior written notice by the Non-Breaching Party to the other party (the "Breaching Party") if the Breaching Party has failed to perform any of its material obligations under this Agreement relating to such GEMH Service, and such failure shall have continued without cure for a period of sixty (60) days after receipt by the Breaching Party of a written notice of such failure from the Non-Breaching Party seeking to terminate such GEMH Service and (iii) Mortgage Services may terminate this Agreement with respect to its obligations pursuant to Section 2.03 and Article VI, in whole but not in part, at any time upon prior written notice to Contract Services if Contract Services has failed to perform any of its material obligations pursuant to Article VI or Section 8.04 or any of its other material obligations pursuant to this Agreement, in each case relating to the Loans and the related Loan Assets purchased by Mortgage Services pursuant to this Agreement and Loan REOs, and such failure shall have continued without cure for a period of sixty (60) days after receipt by Contract Services of a written notice of such failure from Mortgage Services seeking to terminate its obligations pursuant to Section 2.03 and Article VI; provided, however, that (x) no GEMH Service may be terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(a)(ii) and (y) no obligations of Mortgage Services pursuant to Section 2.03 and Article VI may be terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(a)(iii), until the parties have completed the dispute resolution process set forth in Section 7.2 of the Master Agreement.

(b) In addition to and not in limitation of the rights and obligations set forth in Section 2.01(e), upon the request of Mortgage Services, (i) GEMH will, during the Term cooperate with Mortgage Services and use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to assist the transition of such GEMH Service to Mortgage Services (or Affiliate of Mortgage Services or such third-party vendor designated by the Mortgage Services) by the Service Termination Date for such GEMH Service and (ii) GEMH will, for a reasonable period of time after the effective date of any termination (which shall not exceed six months after the effective date of termination) of any such GEMH Service pursuant to Section 10.01(a)(ii) above, (A) at the written request of Mortgage Services, continue to provide the terminated GEMH Service (subject to the timely payment, when due and payable, by Mortgage Services of all Service Charges and Employment Costs related to such terminated GEMH Service) and (B) cooperate with Mortgage Services and use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to assist the transition of such GEMH Service to Mortgage Services (or Affiliate of Mortgage Services or such third-party vendor designated by Mortgage Services) as soon as reasonably practicable. The Service Charges and Employment Costs for a terminated GEMH Service that is continuing to be provided pursuant to clause (ii)(A) of the preceding sentence shall be calculated consistent with the basis on which such Service Charges and Employment Costs were calculated prior to the termination of such GEMH Service.

SECTION 10.02. Effect of Termination.

(a) Except with respect to any GEMH Service that is continuing to be provided pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(ii)(A) above after the termination of such GEMH Service, upon termination or expiration of any GEMH Service pursuant to this Agreement, GEMH will have no further obligation to provide the terminated GEMH Service, and Mortgage Services will have no obligation to pay any future Service Charges and Employment Costs relating to any such GEMH Service (other than for GEMH Services provided in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and received by Mortgage Services prior to such termination).

(b) Upon termination of this Agreement with respect to the obligations of Mortgage Services pursuant to Section 2.03 and Article VI, Mortgage Services shall have no further obligation to undertake the undertaking set forth in Section 2.03 and Article VI, except for the sale, transfer and assignment of the Loans and Loan REOs as set forth in Section 6.07. Upon payment of the amounts set forth in Section 6.07, Contract Services shall have no further obligation under Article VI (other than the obligation pursuant Section 6.03(a)(ii)).

SECTION 10.03 . Survival. Section 3.01 (Computer-Based Resources), Article IV (Costs and Disbursements), Section 6.03(a)(ii) (Claims), Section 6.07 (Repurchase of Loans), Article VIII (Indemnification; Limitation on Liability), Article IX (Dispute Resolution), Section 10.01(b) (Termination), Section 10.02 (Effect of Termination), this Section 10.03 (Survival), Article XI (Guaranty), and Article XII (General Provisions) shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 10.04. Business Continuity; Force Majeure .

(a) GEMH shall maintain and comply with reasonable disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures designed to help ensure that it can continue to provide the GEMH Services in accordance with this Agreement in the event of a disaster or other significant event that might otherwise impact its operations. Upon the written request of Mortgage Services, GEMH shall (i) disclose to Mortgage Services GEMH's disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures applicable to a GEMH Service and (ii) permit Mortgage Services to participate in testing of such disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures, in each case so that Mortgage Services may assess such plans and procedures and develop or modify its own such plans and procedures in connection with the GEMH Service as Mortgage Services reasonably deems necessary.

(b) No Party (or any Person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfill any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of Force Majeure; provided that such party shall have exhausted the procedures described in its disaster recovery, crisis management, and business continuity plan. A party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event: (i) notify the other party of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible.

GUARANTY

SECTION 11.01 . Guaranty. Genworth hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the full and prompt satisfaction, payment and performance of all liabilities and obligations of Contract Services pursuant to this Agreement, including Section 8.04, to any and all of the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties, in each case whether such liabilities or obligations are now or hereafter existing, and any and all reasonable costs and expenses (including fees and expenses of counsel) incurred by the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties in enforcing any of their respective rights under this Agreement with respect to obligations of Contract Services and Genworth (including in enforcing any rights under this Article XI) (the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The guaranty set forth in this Article XI (the "Guaranty") is an absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance and not a guaranty of collection only and is in no way conditional or contingent upon any attempt to collect from Contract Services or any other guarantor in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations.

SECTION 11.02 . Guaranty Absolute . Genworth guaranties that the Guaranteed Obligations will be satisfied strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, regardless of any law, regulation or order now or hereafter in effect in any jurisdiction affecting any of such terms or the rights of the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties with respect thereto. Genworth's undertakings and obligations hereunder are a derivative of, and not in excess of the Guaranteed Obligations. The liability of Genworth under this Guaranty shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:

- (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement, any other agreement or instrument relating to this Agreement, or avoidance or subordination of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;
- (b) any change in or any other amendment or waiver of any term of, or any consent to departure from any requirement of, this Agreement (other than this Article XI);
- (c) any release or amendment or waiver of any term of any other guaranty of, or any consent to departure from any requirement of any other guaranty of, all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations;
- (d) the absence of any attempt to collect any of the Guaranteed Obligations from Contract Services or from any other guarantor or any other action to enforce the same or the election of any remedy by any of Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties;
- (e) any waiver, consent, extension, forbearance or granting of any indulgence by any of Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties with respect to any provision of this Agreement (other than this Article XI);
- (f) the election by any of Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties in any proceeding under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (together with any successor thereto, the "Bankruptcy Code") of the application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;
- (g) the disallowance, under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of the claims of any of the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties for payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations; or
- (h) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

SECTION 11.03. Waiver.

(a) Genworth hereby (i) waives (A) promptness, diligence, notice of acceptance and any and all other notices with respect to any of the Guaranteed Obligations or this Article XI, (B) any requirement that any of the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties exhaust any right or take any action against Contract Services or any other Person, (C) the filing of any claim with a court in the event of receivership or bankruptcy of Contract Services, (D) protest or notice of protest with respect to nonpayment or non-performance of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and (E) all demands whatsoever (and any requirement that same be made on any Person as a condition precedent to Genworth's obligations hereunder); and (ii) covenants and agrees that, this Guaranty will not be discharged except by complete performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and any other obligations of Genworth contained herein.

(b) If, in the exercise of any of its rights and remedies, any of the Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties shall forfeit any of its rights or remedies, including its right to enter a deficiency judgment against Contract Seller or any other Person, whether because of any applicable law pertaining to "election of remedies" or similar doctrine, Genworth hereby consents to such action by such Mortgage Services Indemnified Party and waives any claim based upon such action. Any election of remedies which results in the denial or impairment of the right of such Mortgage Services Indemnified Party to seek a deficiency judgment against Contract Services shall not impair the obligation of Genworth to pay the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations or any other obligation of Genworth contained herein.

(c) Genworth consents and agrees that the Guaranteed Parties shall be under no obligation to marshal any assets in favor of the Guarantor or otherwise in connection with obtaining payment of any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations from any Person or source.

Until the indefeasible payment in full in cash and the full performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations, Genworth waives and relinquishes any and all rights which it may acquire against Contract Services by way of subrogation, contribution or reimbursement by reason of this Guaranty or by any payment made hereunder.

ARTICLE XII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 12.01 . GEMH Manager. Promptly after the date hereof, GEMH will designate a dedicated services account manager (the "GEMH Manager") who will be directly responsible for coordinating and managing the delivery of the GEMH Services and will have authority to act on GEMH Party's behalf with respect to the GEMH Services and other obligations of GEMH under this Agreement. The GEMH Manager will work with Mortgage Services Manager to address the Mortgage Services' issues and the Parties' relationship under this Agreement.

SECTION 12.02. Mortgage Services Manager; Functional Leaders.

(a) Promptly after the date hereof, Mortgage Services will identify an employee of Mortgage Services or of its Affiliates (the "Mortgage Services Manager") who will be the transition leader and have authority to act on Mortgage Services behalf with respect to the GEMH Services and obligations of Mortgage Services under this Agreement. The Mortgage Services Manager will work with the GEMH Manager to address GEMH's issues and the Parties' relationship under this Agreement.

(b) On or prior to June 30, 2005, Mortgage Services shall identify functional leaders who will commence the transition of GEMH Services from GEMH to Mortgage Services or a supplier designated by Mortgage Services.

SECTION 12.03 . Independent Contractors . Each Party shall act solely as independent contractor and nothing in this Agreement shall constitute or be construed to be or create a partnership, joint venture, or principal/agent relationship between GEMH Parties, on the one hand, and Mortgage Services, on the other. Except as set forth in Section 4.02, all Persons employed by GEMH or any of its Affiliates in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement shall be the sole responsibility of GEMH and all Persons employed by Mortgage Services in performance of its obligations under this Agreement shall be the sole responsibility of Mortgage Services.

SECTION 12.04 . Subcontractors . Any Party may hire or engage one or more subcontractors to perform any or all of its obligations under this Agreement; provided that (a) GEMH shall in all cases remain liable for all its obligations under this Agreement, including with respect to the scope of the GEMH Services, the Standard for Services and the content of the GEMH Services provided to Mortgage Services and (b) Mortgage Services shall in all cases remain liable for all its obligations under this Agreement, including with respect to the scope and content of its management and servicing of the Loans and the MS Standard. Under no circumstances shall Mortgage Services be responsible for making any payments directly to any subcontractor engaged by any GEMH Party or any GEMH Party be responsible for making any payments directly to any subcontractor engaged by Mortgage Services.

SECTION 12.05. Additional Services; Books and Records; Mortgage Services Property .

(a) If, during the Term, Mortgage Services identifies a need for additional or other services to be provided by or on behalf of GEMH, the Parties agree to negotiate in good faith to provide such requested services (provided that such services are of a type generally provided by GEMH or any of its Affiliates at such time) and the applicable service fees, payment procedures, and other rights and obligations with respect thereto. To the extent practicable, such additional or other services shall be provided on terms substantially similar to those applicable to GEMH Services of similar types and otherwise on terms consistent with those contained in this Agreement.

(b) All books, records and data maintained by GEMH for Mortgage Services with respect to the provision of a GEMH Service to Mortgage Services shall be the exclusive property of Mortgage Services. Mortgage Services, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to inspect, and make copies of, any such books, records and data during regular business hours upon reasonable advance notice to GEMH. At the sole cost and expense of GEMH, upon termination of the provision of any GEMH Service, the relevant books, records and data relating to such terminated Service shall be delivered by GEMH to Mortgage Services in a mutually agreed upon format to the address of Mortgage Services set forth in Section 12.07 or any other mutually agreed upon location; provided, however, that GEMH shall be entitled to retain one copy of all such books, records and data relating to such terminated GEMH Service for archival purposes and for purposes of responding to any dispute that may arise with respect thereto.

Upon the termination of this Agreement, at the sole cost and expense of GEMH, GEMH shall deliver to Mortgage Services any and all other property of Mortgage Services or any other Mortgage Entity in GEMH's possession to Mortgage Services.

SECTION 12.06 . Confidential Information . Each Party agrees that Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement is hereby incorporated by reference into, and a made a part of, this Agreement; provided, however, that for the purposes of this Agreement (i) references in Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement to "GE Parties" shall be deemed to refer to "Mortgage Entities", (ii) references in Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement to "Genworth" shall be deemed to refer to "GEMH Parties", and (iii) references in Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement to "Genworth Business" shall be deemed to refer to "the business of GEMH Parties".

SECTION 12.07 . Notices . SECTION 12.08. Taxes.

(a) Each Party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.

(b) Each of the parties agrees that if reasonably requested by the other party, it will cooperate with such other party to enable the accurate determination of such other party's tax liability and assist such other party in minimizing its tax liability to the extent legally permissible. GEMH invoices shall separately state the amounts of any taxes the GEMH is proposing to collect from Mortgage Services.

SECTION 12.09 . Regulatory Approval and Compliance . Each of Mortgage Services and each GEMH Party shall be responsible for its own compliance with any and all Laws applicable to its performance under this Agreement; provided, however, that each of Mortgage Services and GEMH shall, subject to reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses by the requesting party, cooperate and provide one another with all reasonably requested assistance (including, the execution of documents and the provision of relevant information) required by the requesting party to ensure compliance with all applicable Laws in connection with any regulatory action, requirement, inquiry or examination related to this Agreement, the GEMH Services or the MS Services.

SECTION 12.10 . Severability . If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 12.11 . Entire Agreement . Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

SECTION 12.12 . Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries . This Agreement shall not be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other party. Except as provided in Article VIII with respect to GEMH Indemnified Parties and Mortgage Services Indemnified Parties, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

SECTION 12.13 . Amendment . No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by either Party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

SECTION 12.14 . Rules of Construction . Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, Exhibit, paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, Exhibits, paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified, (c) the word “including” and words of similar import shall mean “including, without limitation,” (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and (f) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted. Unless specifically stated in the Master Agreement that a particular provision of the Master Agreement should be given effect in lieu of a conflicting provision in this Agreement, to the extent that any provision contained in this Agreement conflicts with, or cannot logically be read in accordance with, any provision of the Master Agreement, the provision contained in this Agreement shall prevail.

SECTION 12.15 . Counterparts . This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

SECTION 12.16 . No Right to Set-Off . No Party shall set-off, counterclaim or otherwise withhold any amount owed by such Party to another Party on account of any obligation owed to such Party by another Party.

SECTION 12.17. Existing Agreements .

(a) The Parties acknowledge and agree that from and after the date hereof the Existing Servicing Agreement and the Existing Shared Services Agreement shall be deemed terminated and shall be of no further force and effect.

(b) The Lease Agreement is hereby terminated and shall be of no further force and effect; provided, however, that the indemnification provisions set forth in Sections 6 and 7 of the Indemnification Agreement shall survive such termination.

(c) The Indemnification Agreement is hereby terminated and shall be of no further force and effect.

SECTION 12.18. Further Assurances . Each Party agrees that upon request of another Party, at any time after the date hereof such first Party will forthwith execute and deliver to the requesting Party or its designee such further instruments of assignment, transfer, conveyance, endorsement, direction or authorization and other documents as the requesting Party or its counsel may reasonably request in order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

“Supplemental Sales Commission” shall have the meaning given to it in clause 5.3 and shall be calculated in accordance with Schedule 7;

“Tax/levy” means any tax, levy or stamp duty or any charge payable in respect of insurance premiums levied by any tax authority in any jurisdiction covered by this agreement to be charged to Insured Customers at the applicable rate from time to time including any similar, equivalent, additional or replacement tax, levy or charge which may be imposed on or in relation to insurers or insurance transactions from time to time;

“Term” means the period of 5 (five) years following the Commencement Date;

“Territories” means the countries comprising the Existing Territories and the New Territories, and the term “Territory” shall mean any one of these;

“Ultimate Claims Cost” means claims payments plus Claims Reserves for future claims payments under the relevant Policies as at the date the Claims Performance Statement described in Schedule 4 is calculated; and “Underwriting Profits” shall have the meaning given to it in Schedule 3, paragraph 3(c).

1.2 Interpretation

The following rules apply unless the context requires otherwise:

1.2.1 “holding company” and “subsidiary” shall be construed in accordance with section 736 of the Companies Act 1985, “subsidiary undertaking” shall be construed in accordance with section 258 of the Companies Act 1985 and “associated company” shall be construed in accordance with section 416 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988;

1.2.2 the Interpretation Act 1978 shall apply to this agreement in the same way as it applies to an enactment;

- 1.2.3 the words “including”, “include” and “includes” shall mean “including without limitation”, “include without limitation” and “includes without limitation”, as the case may be;
- 1.2.4 a “person” includes any person, individual, company, firm, corporation, government, state or agency of a state or any undertaking or organisation (whether or not having separate legal personality and irrespective of the jurisdiction in or under the law of which it was incorporated or exists);
- 1.2.5 any reference to a party to this agreement includes its successors in title and permitted assignees;
- 1.2.6 words denoting the singular shall include the plural and vice versa and words denoting any gender shall include all genders;
- 1.2.7 references to any statute or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the same as it may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, modified or re-enacted;
- 1.2.8 references to recitals, clauses, paragraphs or schedules are to recitals, clauses and paragraphs of and schedules to this agreement. The schedules form part of the operative provisions of this agreement and references to this agreement shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include references to the recitals and the schedules;
- 1.2.9 references to any agreement shall be construed as a reference to that agreement as amended, varied, supplemented or assigned from time to time;
- 1.2.10 if there is any inconsistency between the schedules or any Addendum and the main body of this agreement, then to the extent necessary to resolve such inconsistency the main body of this agreement shall prevail;
- 1.2.11 the index to and the headings in this agreement are for information only and are to be ignored for the purposes of construing the same;
- 1.2.12 references to a statutory provision include any subordinate legislation made from time to time under that provision; and
- 1.2.13 if a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning.

General Procurement Obligation

- 1.2.14 GECC shall procure that the GECF Group Companies fulfil their obligations under this agreement and comply with its terms.

2 Local Agreements

2.1 Local Addendums

The GECF Group Companies party to an Existing Local Agreement shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies party to an Existing Local Agreement shall, promptly enter into a Local Addendum to amend their Existing Local Agreement to give effect to the provisions of this agreement mutatis mutandis (subject only to including amendments or further provisions necessary to ensure compliance with Applicable Laws), including:

- 2.1.1 clause 2.3;
- 2.1.2 clause 3.1 and 3.2 (in respect of Existing Business, Substitute Business and Potential Substitute Business);
- 2.1.3 clause 4;
- 2.1.4 clause 6.1.1;
- 2.1.5 clause 8;
- 2.1.6 clause 9.1, 9.2, 9.4 and Schedule 2;
- 2.1.7 clause 10.2;
- 2.1.8 clause 11;
- 2.1.9 clause 12.1;
- 2.1.10 clause 13;
- 2.1.11 clause 15;
- 2.1.12 clause 16.2 and Schedule 6 Part B;
- 2.1.13 clause 17;
- 2.1.14 clause 18;
- 2.1.15 clause 20.4;
- 2.1.16 clause 21.3;
- 2.1.17 clause 22;
- 2.1.18 clause 23; and
- 2.1.19 clause 24.

2.1.20 In respect of each Local Addendum, the assignment and subcontracting provisions incorporated by virtue of clause 2.1.14 above shall be supplemented by the addition of the following sub-clause:

“Notwithstanding anything in this Clause [Assignment Clause], all of the rights and obligations of the Financial Assurance Company Limited under this Agreement shall automatically transfer to Financial New Life Company Limited upon the transfer scheme for the transfer of all or substantially all of Financial Assurance Company Limited’s business to Financial New Life Company Limited pursuant to section 105 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 becoming effective (with such amendments, deletions or additions to the scheme as the parties to the scheme may approve).”

2.1.21 GECC and GEFA shall procure that each Existing Local Agreement shall be amended to delete any provision which confers on any GECF Group Company which is a party to such Local Agreement any right to terminate such Local Agreement on a sale or disposal affecting the whole of or any part of any party to that Local Agreement (in either case, whether such sale or disposal is effected by way of an asset or business sale or a share sale or otherwise (including by the sale of a portfolio or by a change of the identity of the financing provider)).

2.2 Inconsistency between this Agreement and Local Agreements

Without prejudice to Clause 2.1, where there is a conflict or inconsistency between this agreement and a Local Agreement, the terms of this agreement shall prevail, except in relation to:

- (a) provisions in Local Agreements that are necessary to ensure compliance with Applicable Laws; and
- (b) provisions in Existing Local Agreements relating to sales commission, Retention Rates and the calculation of Profit Share, and accordingly, GEFA will procure that each GEFA Company shall, to the extent relevant, comply with the provisions of this agreement and GECF will procure that each GECF Group Company shall, to the extent relevant, comply with the provisions of this agreement.

2.3 Term of Local Agreements

The Parties hereby agree and shall procure that notwithstanding the expiry dates specified in the Local Agreements, the term of each Local Agreement will be extended until close of business on the day preceding the fifth anniversary of the Commencement Date and shall not be varied during the Term unless both Parties agree otherwise.

3 Exclusive Appointment

3.1 Exclusive Appointment in respect of Existing Business

With effect from no later than the Commencement Date the GECF Group Companies shall appoint GEFA or the relevant GEFA Companies as their exclusive provider of Existing Payment Protection Products in the Existing Territories.

3.2 Exclusive Appointment in respect of Identified New Business and New Business and Substitute Business

3.2.1 Potential New Business shall consist of a GECF Group Company's requirements for, in the case of an Existing Territory or New Territory:

- (a) New Payment Protection Products;
- (b) Payment Protection Products to be provided to an Acquired GECF Business; or
- (c) Identified New Business, and any related services.

3.2.2 Potential New Business shall become New Business in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Clauses 9.4 and Schedule 5. Potential Substitute Business shall become Substitute Business in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Clauses 9.4 and Schedule 16.

3.2.3 Subject to clause 3.2.6, 20.4.1 and Schedule 5 and Schedule 15 (Potential Substitute Business), the relevant GECF Group Company shall appoint GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company as its exclusive provider of Payment Protection Products in the Territories in respect of New Business and Substitute Business.

3.2.4 During the Term and in respect of Territories covered by a Local Agreement, GECC will ensure that no GECF Group Company other than in accordance with this agreement will offer to any third party or GECF Group Company customer any Payment Protection Product in any Territory which is in competition with, or interferes with or restricts the sale or provision of any Payment Protection Product provided by GEFA or any GEFA Company pursuant to the relevant Local Agreement; provided that nothing in this Clause 3.2.4 shall prevent:

- (i) the GECF Captive from providing Payment Protection Products in the Territory provided that it does so in accordance with the terms of clause 5.2 of this agreement;

- (ii) any New Captive from providing on an ongoing basis Payment Protection Products in the relevant Territory to third parties and customers of the Acquired GECF Business of which it forms part. Save as provided in this agreement, the New Captive shall not supply Payment Protection Products to GECF Group Companies other than the Acquired GECF Business of which it forms part; and
- (iii) GECF Group Companies from concluding arrangements pursuant to Clause 9.4.6.

3.2.5 Schedule 1C sets out in respect of all Identified New Business production estimates and whether premiums are single or monthly **.

- (i) In respect of Potential New Business (where an addendum to a Local Agreement or a New Local Agreement in respect of such Potential New Business has been agreed pursuant to Schedule 5):
 - (a) The GECF Group Companies shall not  relating to the provision of Payment Protection Products (where such  would be in breach of an addendum to a Local Agreement or a New Local Agreement as agreed pursuant to Schedule 5); and
 - (b) The GECF Group Companies shall not unless GEFA requests be required to  any  the  of their . If GEFA requests a relevant GECF Group Company to  relating to the provision of Payment Protection Products other than upon , such relevant GECF Group Company shall do so in accordance with the terms of the relevant arrangement and on condition that:
 - (I) if such  relates to Identified New Business, GEFA  the relevant GECF Group Company for  of which GEFA was aware at the Commencement Date  by the relevant GECF Group Company specifically in relation to such ; or
 - (II) if such  relates to New Business (not being Identified New Business), GEFA  the relevant GECF Group Company for  incurred by the relevant GECF Group Company as a consequence of  and any  pursuant to the relevant agreement.
- (ii) In respect of Potential New Business (where an addendum to a Local Agreement or a New Local Agreement in respect of such Potential New Business has been agreed pursuant to Schedule 5), the relevant GECF Group Company agrees that subject to Clause 3.2.5(i)(b), where expressly permitted in the relevant arrangement, it shall use all reasonable endeavours to , and the GECF Group Companies shall use all reasonable endeavours to , any and all  relating to the provision of Payment Protection Products.

3.2.6 Where GECC or a GECF Group Company acquires a business or establishes any joint venture or partnership or any other business relationship in a Territory (an “Acquired GECF Business”) GECC shall, and GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company shall, use its reasonable efforts to ensure that the terms of the acquisition or establishment of the Acquired GECF Business neither **:

- (a) GECC from  that the Acquired GECF Business appoint a  as its ; and
- (b) the Acquired GECF Business from  as its **.

In the event that GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company is, notwithstanding their reasonable efforts, unable to negotiate the terms of the acquisition or establishment of the Acquired GECF Business without the inclusion of  which fall within paragraphs (a) and/or (b) above, GECC shall, and shall procure that the relevant GECF Group Company shall, use its reasonable efforts to procure that the terms of the acquisition or establishment  as closely as reasonably possible  as set out in this agreement that  shall be appointed  to the . Such efforts shall include  to the maximum extent reasonably possible the terms of the acquisition or establishment which relate to:

- (i) the  to which such arrangements apply;
- (ii) the  of such arrangements; and
- (iii) the  of such arrangements.

3.2.7 GECC undertakes that it shall not acquire an interest in or establish, or take any steps to acquire an interest in or establish, any joint venture or partnership or any other business relationship (or permit any GECF Group Company to do any such thing) with the intention of avoiding any of its obligations under this agreement.

3.2.8 GECC represents and warrants to GEFA that all Identified New Business is owned as to 100 per cent. by GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company.

3.2.9 In the event of a termination of a Local Agreement, the relevant GECF Group Company which was party to such Local Agreement shall no longer be required to appoint, a GEFA Company as its exclusive provider of Payment Protection Products provided under that Local Agreement in a Territory. Where as a result of such termination there are no Local Agreements in the Territory then the requirements of this Clause 3 on GECC and the GECF Group Companies shall no longer apply in respect of that Territory.

4 Regulatory Requirements

- 4.1 GEFA shall, and shall procure that each GEFA Company shall, and each GECF Group Company shall, have in place appropriate policies and procedures to ensure observation of and compliance with all Applicable Laws (including, all current and any future regulatory requirements, all applicable accounting rules and all codes of practice applicable to its Business activities in each relevant Territory) in the performance of their respective obligations, or the exercise of its rights, under or in connection with this agreement or Local Agreement, as the case may be, from time to time.
- 4.2 In the event that there are any changes to an applicable regulatory regime within a Territory which will impact on the sale or distribution of Payment Protection Products under this agreement or the ability of GEFA or a GEFA Company to meet its Service Level obligations, GEFA shall inform GECC, as soon as reasonably practicable after such change, and the Parties shall work together to agree a plan to enable the Parties to continue to perform their obligations under this agreement (the “Remediation Plan”). If the parties cannot agree a Remediation Plan within 10 Business Days of notice by GEFA, then the matter will be referred to the dispute resolution procedure in Clause 15.
- 4.3 The Parties agree that if as a result of any changes in applicable law, regulation or regulatory requirements or GECC re-organisation:
- (a) the Tax/ levy in a Territory increases, any such increase shall be absorbed by the relevant GECF Group Company in that Territory; and/or
 - (b) any GEFA Company is required to vary the level of regulatory capital maintained by it in respect of any Payment Protection Products underwritten and/or provided by GEFA pursuant to this agreement or any Local Agreement then GECC shall send to GEFA a written proposal setting out the steps to be taken so as to ensure that the relevant GEFA Company’s regulatory capital requirement is the same as it was before any such changes. Within 5 Business Days of the date of issue of such proposal, the Parties shall commence working together with each using its best efforts to implement the proposal unless, before the expiry of such period of 5 Business Days, GEFA informs GECC in writing that, in its reasonable opinion, GEFA considers that the proposal will not have the effect of ensuring that the relevant GEFA Company’s regulatory capital requirement is the same as it was before such changes, in which case the Parties shall negotiate in good faith such amendments to the proposal as are necessary to achieve this effect. If the Parties fail to agree the necessary amendments to the proposal within 30 Business Days of the date of commencement of the negotiations, the changes to pricing shall be effected by the application of the provisions of Schedule 4.

4.4 Benefits of Changes

If the parties jointly devise a method (whether under clause 4.3 above or otherwise) which improves GEFA's and/or a GEFA Company's regulatory capital requirement as regards Payment Production Products provided pursuant to this agreement, GECC shall be entitled to the financial benefit of such improvement in regulatory capital requirement.

5 Financial Terms

5.1 Existing Direct Business and Substitute Business

Subject to clause 2, the Parties agree that all Existing Direct Business and Substitute Business shall continue to be underwritten on the terms set out in the Existing Local Agreements, as detailed in Part A of Schedule 1.

5.2 Existing Reinsured Business

5.2.1 Subject to clauses 2 and 5.2.2 the Parties agree that the Existing Reinsured Business shall continue on the terms set out in Part B of Schedule 1.

5.2.2 When GECC has established the GECF Captive and the necessary arrangements are in place to allow the primary reinsurer to cede to GEFI Guernsey, the Existing Reinsured Business shall be migrated to become New Reinsurance Business (in accordance with Clause 5.6). Each Scheme to be migrated, and the timetable for such migration, shall take effect according to the terms of proposals which shall be issued in writing from GECC to GEFA promptly upon the necessary arrangements being put in place, unless GEFA within 10 Business Days of the issue of any such proposal sends notice in writing to GECC that it, in its reasonable opinion, considers the terms or timetable for the relevant migration to be impractical, in which case the Parties shall negotiate in good faith such amendments to the relevant proposal as are necessary to allow the relevant Existing Reinsured Business to be migrated to the New Reinsurance Business to the satisfaction of the Parties, such Schemes continuing on the terms of Existing Business until the Parties reach agreement. Those Schemes that are not migrated will continue on the terms of Existing Reinsured Business in Schedule 1. For the avoidance of doubt, once any Existing Reinsured Business has been migrated it will still form part of the volume incentive calculations referred to in clause 5.3 below.

5.2.3 The Parties agree and acknowledge that, in some of the Existing Business, GEFA or a GEFA Company acts as either the direct insurer or as a reinsurer to a primary insurer selected by GECC (the "Existing Reinsurance Arrangements"). GECC agrees that following termination of the Existing Reinsurance Arrangements with the primary insurer in accordance with clause 5.2.1, it will ensure that GEFA's or a GEFA Company's quota share is the same as that which existed under the previous primary insurer arrangements.

5.3 Volume Incentive

If the aggregate of the Gross Written Premium attributable to the Existing Direct Business, the Gross Written Premium for the Existing Reinsured Business and the Gross Written Premium attributable to any Substitute Business is in excess of Euro  million (the “ Incentive Threshold ”) per calendar year as calculated in accordance with Schedule 7, then GEFA shall pay, or procure payment by the relevant GEFA Company, to GECC or its nominee as notified by GECC to GEFA from time to time a supplemental sales commission calculated on the amount of Gross Written Premium attributable to the Existing Direct Business in excess of the Incentive Threshold in accordance with Schedule 7 (the “ Supplemental Sales Commission ”). Any Supplemental Sales Commission due to GECC under this clause shall be paid annually in arrears within 100 days of the calendar year-end, with the first such payment being due to GECC within 100 days of 31st December 2004. For the avoidance of doubt, no Supplemental Sales Commission shall be payable in respect of Gross Written Premium for the calendar year ending 31st December 2003.

5.4 New Business

5.4.1 New Business may be New Direct Business or New Reinsurance Business as determined in accordance with Schedule 5.

5.4.2 Any New Local Agreement entered into relating to New Business in a Territory where there is no Local Agreement shall be in the form set out in Schedule 12 and shall give effect to the following provisions of this agreement, subject to the Applicable Laws:

- (a) the term of the New Local Agreement shall be from the date of the New Local Agreement and expire on 31 December 2008;
- (b) clause 3.2;
- (c) clause 4;
- (d) clause 5.5 or 5.6 (as applicable);
- (e) clause 6.1.2 and Schedule 3;
- (f) clause 8;
- (g) clause 9.1, 9.2, 9.4 and Schedule 2;
- (h) clause 10.2;
- (i) clause 11;
- (j) clause 12.2;

- (k) clause 13;
- (l) clause 15;
- (m) clause 16.2 and Schedule 6 Part B;
- (n) clause 17;
- (o) clause 18;
- (p) clause 20.4;
- (q) clause 21.3;
- (r) clause 22;
- (s) clause 23; and
- (t) clause 24.
- (u) In respect of each New Local Agreement, the assignment and subcontracting provisions incorporated by virtue of clause 5.4.2(q) above shall be supplemented by the addition of the following sub-clause:

“Notwithstanding anything in this Clause [Assignment Clause], all of the rights and obligations of the Financial Assurance Company Limited under this Agreement shall automatically transfer to Financial New Life Company Limited upon the transfer scheme for the transfer of all or substantially all of Financial Assurance Company Limited’s business to Financial New Life Company Limited pursuant to section 105 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 becoming effective (with such amendments, deletions or additions to the scheme as the parties to the scheme may approve).”
- (v) For the avoidance of doubt, no New Local Agreement shall contain any provision which confers on the GEFCF Group Company which is a party to such Local Agreement any right to terminate such Local Agreement on a sale or disposal affecting the whole of or any part of any party to that Local Agreement (in either case, whether such sale or disposal is effected by way of an asset or business sale or a share sale or otherwise (including by the sale of a portfolio or by a change of the identity of the financing provider)).

Once executed, this shall become a “ New Local Agreement ”.

5.4.3 The Parties agree that in respect of Identified New Business and New Business in Territories subject to a Local Agreement, the relevant GEFCF Group Company shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall, either:

- (i) enter into an addendum or variation to the Local Agreement and that, subject to Clauses 5.5 and 5.6 below, such Identified New Business or New Business shall be subject to the terms of that Local Agreement; or
- (ii) enter into a New Local Agreement.

5.5 New Direct Business

Subject to Paragraph 5.2.2 of Part A of Schedule 5, New Direct Business will be subject to a GEFA Retention Rate of  per cent. of Gross Written Premium and a  GECC: GEFA Profit Share split.

5.6 New Reinsurance Business

- (a) Subject to Paragraph 5.2.2 of Part A of Schedule 5, when all necessary arrangements are in place with the primary reinsurer GECC will ensure that all Net Premium is duly ceded to GEFI Guernsey and that GEFI Guernsey receives a Retention Rate of % of Gross Written Premium.
- (b) In respect of all New Reinsurance Business, GEFA will pay the primary reinsurer % Profit Share. It is GECC's responsibility to ensure that all necessary arrangements are in place with the primary reinsurer to ensure GECC receives any monies owing to GECC from the primary reinsurer under any arrangement or agreement between the primary reinsurer and GECC. Neither GEFA or any GEFA Company shall have any liability or responsibility in respect of any monies owing between the primary reinsurer and GECC or to ensure any payments are made to GECC.
- (c) In the event that the New Reinsurance Business arrangements are not capable of being established in accordance with this clause 5.6 or cease to be effective for any reason during the Term, including for legal or regulatory prohibitions, then all New Reinsurance Business shall revert to either the Existing Business terms or New Direct Business terms, at the discretion of GECC which shall be communicated in writing to GEFA promptly following any such failure and which decision shall be binding upon GEFA unless, within 20 Business Days of the notice from GECC, GEFA (acting reasonably) objects in writing to the decision of GECC, in which case the matter shall be referred to the next Quarterly Performance Meeting for good faith negotiations between the Parties. Where, in the process of any good faith negotiations, the Parties agree a structure substantially similar to the current structure whereby the relevant GEFA Company acts as a reinsurer (whether primary, secondary or other), the Retention Rate will be that referred to in Clause 5.6.1(a). If any other structure is proposed then the Parties will enter into good faith negotiations to agree the pricing structure, taking into account all relevant factors including any capital adequacy requirements of the relevant GEFA Company and GECF Group Company.

6 Pricing - Profit Share and Financial Performance

6.1 Profit Share - calculation and payment

6.1.1 The Parties agree that in respect of Existing Business, the calculation, payment and treatment of Profit Share during the term of and after termination or expiry of the Local Agreement shall continue in accordance with the terms of the relevant Local Agreement.

6.1.2 The Parties agree that in respect of New Business, the relevant GECF Group Companies shall and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies shall incorporate terms for the calculation, payment and treatment of Profit Share in respect of the New Business in the relevant New Local Agreements in accordance with Schedule 3.

6.2 Financial Performance

The Parties agree to monitor the performance of the Payment Protection Products provided under this agreement in each Territory in accordance with the procedures set out in Schedule 4.

7 Marketing

Any marketing expenditure shall be determined between the Parties at a Territory level based on a cost / benefit analysis.

8 Non Solicit

During the Term, GEFA will ensure that no GEFA Company or member of Genworth Financial Inc.'s Group (with the exception of any GECF Group Companies) will directly canvass or solicit the custom of any customer of a GECF Group Company in any Territory in respect of any Payment Protection Product without the express written consent of GECC. GECC accepts that GEFA and any GEFA Company may notwithstanding this Clause 8 or any other provision of this agreement indirectly provide Payment Protection Products to a customer of a GECF Group Company via GEFA or a GEFA Company client or customer.

9 Service Levels, Service Credits, Product Development and Good Industry Practice

9.1 Service Levels and Service Credits

9.1.1 The Parties hereby agree that GEFA shall procure that the GEFA Companies comply with the Service Levels in accordance with Schedule 2.

9.1.2 Without prejudice to GECC's or any GECF Group Company's other rights or remedies under this agreement, GEFA shall procure that if a GEFA Company fails to meet the Key Service Levels, Service Credits shall be applied in accordance with Schedule 2.

9.1.3 The provisions of clause 9.1.2 shall not apply in respect of breaches of Key Service Levels that occur within the first 6 months of the Term.

9.2 Good Industry Practice

9.2.1 GEFA shall, and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall, carry out their respective obligations under this agreement and the Local Agreements in accordance with Good Industry Practice.

9.2.2 GEFA shall, and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall, ensure that in the performance of their obligations they remain Best in Class throughout the Term. Any productivity gains or costs associated with remaining Best In Class shall be for the account of GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company.

9.3 Service Level Review

9.3.1 Without limiting any other obligations under this agreement, on or before 90 days prior to each anniversary of the Commencement Date, the Parties shall review the Service Levels and shall amend them to ensure the Service Levels are and remain Best in Class. Where such amendments are required, they shall be implemented by GEFA with effect from the anniversary of the Commencement Date.

9.3.2 GECC may engage a third party for the purposes of conducting a review of the kind described in Clause 9.3.1. GECC shall procure that the third party (the "Independent Consultant") executes a confidentiality agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to GEFA.

9.3.3 GEFA must make available a suitably qualified and experienced employee for up to ten days per annum to provide all necessary data and other information to GECC and any Independent Consultant engaged by GECC for the purposes of completing the review under Clause 9.3.1.

9.3.4 If the Parties are not able to reach agreement on amendments required to the Service Levels in accordance with Clause 9.3.1, then that issue may be referred by either party to the Dispute procedure set out in Clause 15 for resolution.

9.4 Product Development and Marketing

9.4.1 GEFA shall, or shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall, offer to the GECF Group Companies all:

- (a) Payment Protection Products;

(b) features of such Payment Protection Products; and

(c) related marketing services, that are offered to consumers in the relevant Territory.

9.4.2 GEFA shall, or shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall, produce a quarterly report advising the GECF Group Companies on the latest market developments in respect of Payment Protection Products and advising the GECF Group Companies on new products, new product features and new marketing channels and methods that GECF Group Companies should consider adopting in order to be a market leading provider of Payment Protection Products.

9.4.3 Any GECF Group Company may at any time request that GEFA or a GEFA Company provide any Payment Protection Products, features of Payment Protection Products (provided that such features are not mutually exclusive) and/or related marketing services whether or not contained in the reports prepared by any GEFA Company pursuant to Clause 9.4.2 (together “Offering(s)”) that any GECF Group Companies wish GEFA or any GEFA Company to provide.

9.4.4 In respect of each Offering(s) requested by any GECF Group Company, GEFA will as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not later than 20 Business Days after receiving the request either:

- (a) provide the relevant GECF Group Company with a product development plan (“Product Development Plan”) for the creation and delivery of the relevant Offering(s). The Product Development Plan will:
- (i) identify (with an explanation and reference to Schedule 15) whether the Offering will be considered as Potential New Business or Potential Substitute Business for the purpose of this agreement;
 - (ii) include a detailed specification of the Payment Protection Product, the features of the Payment Protection Product and/or related marketing services (as the case may be) that the relevant GECF Group Company wants included in the Offering and/or GEFA would be prepared to develop (the “GEFA Proposal”);
 - (iii) provide a reasonable timeframe for the creation and delivery of the Offering and/or the GEFA Proposal as the case may be, taking into consideration the complexity of the products and services, the regulatory environment in the relevant Territory, and the need for the GECF Group Companies to maintain their position as a market leading provider of Payment Protection Products. The relevant GECF Group Company shall not unreasonably withhold or delay its agreement to such timeframe; or

- (b) decline to develop the Offering in which case they will also provide detailed written reasons for declining to develop the Offering.

The relevant GECF Group Company shall provide such information as the relevant GEFA Group Company shall reasonably request in order for the relevant GEFA Company to formulate its response pursuant to this Clause 9.4.4. Such information shall be deemed to form part of the Offering.

- 9.4.5 If GEFA provides the relevant GECF Group Company with a Product Development Plan which includes a GEFA Proposal pursuant to Clause 9.4.4(a)(ii) then:
- (i) the relevant GECF Group Company may accept the GEFA Proposal in which case it shall then notify GEFA that it intends to substitute the GEFA Proposal for the relevant Offering(s) and proceed in accordance with Clause 9.4.9; or
 - (ii) the relevant GECF Group Company may reject the GEFA Proposal and then proceed in accordance with Clause 9.4.6.
- 9.4.6 Where the relevant GECF Group Company rejects the GEFA Proposal or GEFA declines to develop any Offering(s), subject to 9.4.14, GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall have no obligation to appoint GEFA or any GEFA Company as its exclusive provider in respect of the relevant Local Agreement in respect of the Offering(s) and GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other GECF Group Companies in respect of the relevant Offering(s). The relevant GECF Group Company shall invite GEFA to take part in any subsequent tender process conducted by the relevant GECF Group Company in respect of the Offering(s) provided that GEFA agrees and shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company agrees that the provisions for determining the Retention Rate and the Risk Rate for the Offering as set out in Part II or Part III (as the case may be) of Schedule 16 (Business Proposal Pricing Process) shall apply to their submission save that, if an Actuary were to determine the Risk Rate pursuant to Paragraphs 5 or 9.2 of Schedule 16 (as the case may be), then the relevant GECF Group Company or the relevant GEFA Company would be entitled to reject the proposed Risk Rate. In either case, the relevant GECF Group Company would be entitled to award the tender to any third party.
- 9.4.7 GEFA's submission in accordance with Clause 9.4.4 shall be considered to be the creation of a "Product Development Plan" for the purpose of GEFA's compliance with Paragraph 6.3 of Part A of Schedule 5;
- 9.4.8 If the Parties cannot agree whether the Offering constitutes Potential New Business or Potential Substitute Business then the Parties shall refer the matter to the dispute resolution procedure set out in Clause 15.

- 9.4.9 The relevant GECF Group Company will then review the Product Development Plan and where the Offering constitutes:
- (a) Potential New Business the Parties will initiate the process set out in Schedule 5 (for New Business); or
 - (b) Potential Substitute Business, the Parties will initiate the process set out in Schedule 16 (for Substitute Business).
- 9.4.10 Where Potential Substitute Business is determined through the Schedule 16 process to be Substitute Business or Potential New Business is determined pursuant to the process in Schedule 5 to be New Business (as the case may be) GEFA shall, or shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall, make the Offering (including any amendments thereto agreed between the Parties) available to the relevant GECF Group Company in accordance with the terms of the Local Addendum or New Local Agreement agreed between the Parties.
- 9.4.11 Where the relevant GEFA Company and GECF Group Company are unable to agree on whether the timetable set out in the Product Development Plan is reasonable, having regard to the factors set out in Clause 9.4.4(a)(iii), either Party may refer the matter to the dispute resolution procedure set out in Clause 15.
- 9.4.12 Where the Offering is (i) Potential Substitute Business and is determined not to be Substitute Business pursuant to Schedule 16; or (ii) Potential New Business and is determined not to be New Business pursuant to the process set out in Schedule 5 then (subject to Clause 9.4.13 and 9.4.14) GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall have no obligation to appoint GEFA or any GEFA Company as its provider, whether exclusive or otherwise, in respect of the relevant Local Agreement in respect of the Offering and GECC shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other companies in the GECF Group in respect of the relevant Offering.
- 9.4.13 If GEFA or a GEFA Company make a GEFA Proposal in accordance with Clause 9.4.4 and the relevant GECF Group Company at any time during the Term of the relevant Local Agreement pursuant to which the GEFA Proposal was made decides to implement the GEFA Proposal with a third party, then the relevant GECF Group Company shall be required to make a request pursuant to Clause 9.4.3 of the agreement.
- 9.4.14 Where a tender process results pursuant to Clause 9.4.6 or 9.4.12, if:
- (i) a change is proposed to the Offering(s) during the tender process; and
 - (ii) the result of such change is that the reason GEFA declined to develop the Offering no longer applies,
- then the relevant GECF Group Company shall notify the relevant GEFA Company and both Parties shall be obliged to follow the procedure in Clause 9.4.3, save that Clause 9.4.4(b) shall not apply and the GEFA Company shall not have the option of providing a GEFA Proposal pursuant to Clause 9.4.4(a)(ii). For the avoidance of doubt, the tender process shall not be reactivated until such time as the GECF Group Company would be entitled to proceed to tender pursuant to Schedule 5 or Schedule 16.

9.4.15 The Parties shall from time to time throughout the term of this agreement conduct a benchmarking exercise in respect of the Payment Protection Products and related marketing services provided pursuant to this agreement and GEFA's obligations pursuant to Clauses 9.4.1 and 9.4.2.

9.4.16 Any benchmarking exercise must be initiated and conducted in accordance with Schedule 14.

9.4.17 The first benchmarking exercise shall be completed by 30 September 2004 and subsequent benchmarking exercises shall be carried out at six month intervals thereafter.

9.5 In the event that GECC or a GECF Group Company considers that GEFA or a GEFA Company is failing to comply with its obligations under clauses 9.2, 9.4.1 and 9.4.2, the Parties shall discuss the issue at the next following monthly meeting held in the relevant Territory pursuant to paragraph 2 of part B of Schedule 6. If the relevant representatives attending such meeting are unable to agree the action to be taken to resolve the issue, the matter shall, within 10 Business Days of such failure to agree, be referred to the Relationship Managers of GECC and GEFA who shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the matter.

10 Intellectual Property , Data and Data Protection

10.1 Licence of Intellectual Property

10.1.1 GECC licenses the GECF Marks to GEFA and the GEFA Companies for the Term and during the Run-Off Period for the purposes of this agreement in the Territories. All use of GECF Marks pursuant to this clause shall be subject to and in accordance with any trade mark use guidelines notified to GEFA by GECC in writing from time to time.

10.1.2 GEFA licenses the GEFA Marks to GECC and the GECF Group Companies for the Term and during the Run-Off Period for the purposes of this agreement in the Territories. All use of the GEFA Marks pursuant to this clause shall be subject to and in accordance with any trade mark use guidelines notified to GECF by GEFA from time to time in writing. For the avoidance of doubt, GECC has no obligation to use the GEFA Marks.

10.1.3 GECC shall indemnify GEFA and each member of the GEFA Group (each an "Indemnified Person ") in respect of any loss, cost, damage, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees) suffered or incurred by an Indemnified Person in connection with any claim or action brought against that Indemnified Person to the effect that the use of the GECF Marks infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party, provided that (i) notice is given of any such claim or action so as to permit the person who owns the GECF Marks to assume and control the defence thereof and (ii) the person seeking to be indemnified under this clause does not enter into any settlement with respect to or compromise any such claim or action without the indemnifying party's prior written consent.

- 10.1.4 GEFA shall indemnify GECC and each member of the GECF Group (each an “ Indemnified Person ”) in respect of any loss, cost, damage, liability or expense (including reasonable legal fees) suffered or incurred by an Indemnified Person in connection with any claim or action brought against that Indemnified Person to the effect that the use of the GEFA Marks infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party, provided that (i) notice is given of any such claim or action so as to permit the person who owns the GEFA Marks to assume and control the defence thereof and (ii) the person seeking to be indemnified under this clause does not enter into any settlement with respect to or compromise any such claim or action without the indemnifying party's prior written consent.
- 10.1.5 Each Party (each individually a “ Using Party ”) acknowledges that all goodwill associated with the use by it of each of the GECF Marks or the GEFA Marks (as applicable) vests and shall vest in the owner of such mark and that the Using Party has no, and shall not by virtue of this agreement obtain any, rights in any of the GECF Marks or the GEFA Marks (as applicable) other than (to the extent owned by or licensed to the Using Party) as is necessary to fulfil its obligations hereunder. The Using Party undertakes that it shall make no claim to such goodwill and shall make no use of any of the GECF Marks or the GEFA Marks (as applicable) save as necessary to fulfil its obligations hereunder.
- 10.1.6 Without prejudice to clause 10.1.5, if any goodwill or proprietary right in relation to any of the GECF Marks or the GEFA Marks (as applicable) vests in the Using Party, the Using Party shall, immediately upon becoming aware of the vesting of such goodwill or right, assign, or procure the assignment of, such goodwill or right to the owner of such mark.
- 10.1.7 The Using Party shall within a reasonable time notify the other party (such notification to be accompanied by all relevant information which is in its possession) if at any time during the term of this agreement the Using Party is aware that any passing-off, infringement or act of unfair competition in relation to, or challenge to the validity of or proceedings for rectification in respect of, any of the GECF Marks or GEFA Marks (as applicable) is occurring, threatened or likely. The Using Party shall not have any right to take proceedings in respect of any infringement of the GECF Marks or GEFA Marks (as applicable) and neither shall the owner of any of the relevant marks be obliged to bring such proceedings.

10.2 Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights

- 10.2.1 GEFA acknowledges and shall procure that the GEFA Companies acknowledge that intellectual property rights arising in materials created by a GEFA Company specifically for a GECF Group Company in connection with the provision of the Payment Protection Products pursuant to this agreement shall vest in the relevant GECF Group Company. GEFA shall assign and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall assign all rights in and to such intellectual property rights to the relevant GECF Group Company.
- 10.2.2 On the relevant GECF Group Company's request, GEFA shall and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall execute any formal assignment or document required to give effect to Clause 10.2.1 and shall provide all reasonable assistance required by the relevant GECF Group Company to perfect, protect, defend or assert its interests in such intellectual property rights.

10.3 Ownership of Data

- 10.3.1 Save where expressly agreed otherwise in this agreement, all intellectual property rights (including database rights) and any other rights of whatever nature in the personal data and proprietary information of GEFA or any member of the GEFA Group (whether or not personal data as defined in the applicable data protection legislation in each Territory) disclosed by GEFA or any member of the GEFA Group to GECC or any member of the GECF Group under or in relation to this agreement shall remain at all times the property of GEFA or the relevant member of the GEFA Group.
- 10.3.2 Save where expressly otherwise agreed, all intellectual property rights (including database rights) and any other rights of whatever nature in the personal data and proprietary information of GECC or any member of the GECF Group (whether or not personal data as defined in the applicable data protection legislation in each Territory) disclosed by GECC or any member of the GECC Group to GEFA or any member of the GEFA Group under or in relation to this agreement shall remain at all times the property of GECC or the relevant member of the GECF Group.
- 10.3.3 During the Term and following termination or expiry of this agreement, GEFA undertakes and shall procure that the GEFA Companies undertake not to use data or information supplied by a GECF Group Company or received under the terms of this agreement or a Local Agreement other than for the purposes of performing their obligations under this agreement or the relevant Local Agreement (as the case may be) and for risk modelling and profiling purposes. GEFA shall not, and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall not, use any data or information supplied by a GECF Group Company or received under the terms of this agreement or a Local Agreement:

- (a) for marketing purposes including, without limitation, producing marketing information containing information concerning GECF Group Company clients (even if anonymised); or
- (b) for the purposes of directly or indirectly canvassing or soliciting the custom of any customer of the GECF Group.

11 Data Protection

- 11.1 For the purposes of this clause 11, where terms and expressions used are not defined in this agreement they shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Data Protection Act 1998.
- 11.2 GEFA shall, and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall and GECC and the GECF Group Companies shall, in performing their obligations under this agreement, comply in all respects with the Data Protection Legislation and otherwise in accordance with this clause 11.
- 11.3 Where either a GEFA Company or a GECF Group Company Processes Personal Data under this agreement GEFA or GECF, as appropriate, shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company or GECF Group Company shall:
- (i) take appropriate technical and organisational measures against the unauthorised or unlawful processing of the Personal Data and against actual loss or destruction of, or damage to, the Personal Data, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures, the measures must ensure a level of security appropriate to the harm that might result from unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the Personal Data;
 - (ii) process the Personal Data only in accordance with this agreement, the relevant GECF Group Company's or GEFA Company's instructions and having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Legislation, or as is required by law or any relevant regulatory body in each Territory;
 - (iii) notify the relevant GECF Group Company or GEFA Company if it breaches its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation in connection with this agreement or a Local Agreement and such breach is investigated by the data protection regulator in the relevant Territory; and
 - (iv) refrain from disclosing the Personal Data in respect of individuals with the EEA to any third party or transferring the Personal Data obtained or processed within the EEA, outside the EEA (other than to such jurisdiction as GECF or GEFA may agree, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, or as otherwise required by Applicable Law) except in accordance with the written instructions of the relevant GECF Group Company or GEFA Company.

11.4 The relevant GEFA Company or GECF Group Company may disclose the Personal Data to those of its employees and others (including contractors) as it reasonably considers necessary for the performance of its obligations under this agreement. The relevant GEFA Company or GECF Group Company shall take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of employees who have access to the Personal Data and ensure that such employees and contractors are aware of the relevant GEFA Company's or GECF Group Company's obligations under this agreement and the Data Protection Legislation.

12 Gross Written Premiums and Collection

12.1 Existing Business

The Parties agree that the determination of and collection of Gross Written Premiums in respect of the Policies sold in the Existing Business shall continue in accordance with the terms of the relevant Existing Local Agreement.

12.2 New Business

The Parties agree that, in respect of Identified New Business and New Business, the relevant GECF Group Companies shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies shall, agree and incorporate terms in the relevant New Local Agreement for the determination and collection of Gross Written Premiums in respect of the Policies sold in the New Business. Such terms shall include a provision to the effect that, where the GECF Group Company collects Gross Written Premiums, it shall collect from the Insured Customers the Tax/levy element thereof.

13 Cancellations and Cancellation Fees

13.1 The Party responsible for calculating and making refunds to Insured Customers in respect of each sales channel shall be specified in the Local Agreements.

13.2 The relevant GECF Group Companies shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies shall, have good faith discussions to agree a cancellation fee (other than any cancellation fees due in the event of re-financing) to be charged to Insured Customers in the event of a cancellation of their Policy by the Insured Customer (provided cancellation fees are not prohibited by the Applicable Laws of the relevant Territory) in order to reflect the increased administration charges incurred by both the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company and the cancellation terms on which they will share such cancellation fee (subject to local Applicable Laws).

14 Default Interest

If any Party fails to pay any amount payable by it under this agreement, the other shall be entitled to interest on the overdue amount, payable forthwith upon demand from the due date until the date of actual payment, both before and after judgment, at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum above the base rate from time to time of Barclays Bank plc. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis and shall be compounded quarterly. All sums payable under this agreement shall be paid in Euros.

15 Relationship Managers , and Informal Dispute Resolution and Arbitration

- 15.1 GEFA on the one hand and GECC on the other shall each appoint a representative (the “ Relationship Managers ”) who shall be primarily responsible for the day to day co-ordination and management of this agreement and the Business relationship between the Parties. Each Party shall notify the other in writing of the identity of its Relationship Manager. The Relationship Managers may delegate any and all of their responsibilities to appropriate representatives. Each Party shall procure that its Relationship Manager and/or representative shall devote sufficient time and attention to his or her duties and responsibilities and shall be available to the other at all reasonable times.
- 15.2 It is the intention of the Parties that any Dispute (as defined below), shall be settled amicably between the Parties as quickly as possible and accordingly:
- 15.2.1 where a Dispute arises in relation to a Local Agreement, the relevant GECC Group Company shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall, first refer such Dispute to the respective representatives of the relevant GECC Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company. If such Dispute cannot be settled amicably within 5 Business Days, it shall be referred to the Relationship Managers of GECC and GEFA; and
- 15.2.2 where a Dispute arises in relation to this agreement which cannot be settled amicably within 3 Business Days, such Dispute shall first be referred to the respective Relationship Managers of the Parties or such other appropriate persons as the Relationships Managers shall nominate.
- If the Relationship Managers (or their nominees) are unable to resolve a Dispute within 5 Business Days after such referral, the Dispute shall be referred (upon the application of either Party or its Relationship Manager) for resolution to the respective Managing Director or Chief Executive Officer (or the person of equivalent seniority) of each of the Parties.
- 15.3 For the purposes of this clause 15, “Dispute” means a difference or dispute of whatever nature between the Parties (or the parties to a Local Agreement) arising under, out of or in connection with this agreement or a Local Agreement (including any question of interpretation of this agreement or a Local Agreement).
- 15.4 Save as otherwise provided in this agreement, any Dispute which is not resolved pursuant to Clause 15.2 within 5 Business Days of referral to the Parties’ respective Managing Directors or Chief Executives (or such other period as is specified in this agreement) shall be resolved by arbitration in London conducted in the English language by a single arbitrator pursuant to the rules of the London Court of International Arbitration (“LCIA”). The appointing authority shall be the LCIA. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms of the Arbitration Act 1996 shall apply to such arbitration and neither Party shall be prevented from exercising any rights available to the Parties under the Arbitration Act 1996 including, without limitation, the right to apply for injunctive relief.

16 Performance Meetings And Report Outs

16.1 Framework Agreement Performance Meetings

The Parties shall hold performance meetings in accordance with the terms of Part A of Schedule 6 and each Party shall ensure that the meetings are attended by its appropriate relevant personnel, to include the Relationship Managers and/or their representatives, and appropriate members of their respective finance, risk and operations teams.

16.2 Local performance meetings

The relevant GECF Group Companies shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies shall, hold performance meetings in accordance with Part B of Schedule 6.

17 Accounts, Records and Access to Information

17.1 The Parties will keep, and shall procure that the GECF Group Companies and the GEFA Companies (as the case may be) will keep, true and accurate accounts and records in connection with this agreement, such accounts and records to comply with all Applicable Laws including any applicable requirements of the relevant Financial Services Regulator or any other applicable regulator.

17.2 Subject to Applicable Laws and the confidentiality provisions of Clause 23, the Parties shall and shall procure that the GEFA Companies, in the case of GEFA, and the GECF Group Companies, in the case of GECF, shall permit (but not more often than twice in any Contract Year in a Territory unless required by the relevant Governmental Authority) authorised representatives, officers or employees of the other (at the cost of the requesting party) at all reasonable times on ten Business Days notice to carry out an audit of the GECF Group Company's obligations in relation to Profit Share [or any regulatory requirements or dependencies on the relevant GECF Group Company] under any Local Agreements, or any provision of services by GEFA or a GEFA Company, or GEFA's or a GEFA Company's pricing methodology for Schemes and claims reserving policy, including when relevant those accounts and records and any papers which can legally be disclosed relating in whole or in part to the subject matter of this agreement or any Local Agreement.

17.3 Without prejudice to any other right of either Party under this agreement and subject to Applicable Laws and the confidentiality provisions of clause 23, if any material complaint, claim or allegation is made (whether to or by any regulatory authority or by any Insured Customer or to any ombudsman or otherwise) or any proceedings (whether civil, criminal, investigative or administrative) shall be instituted against a Party or, any GEFA Company or any GECF Group Company (the "Affected Party") or any of their agents or sub-contractors which in any way relates to any Payment Protection Product comprising the Business or the marketing, sale, administration and fulfilment thereof or to any Insured Customer or prospective Insured Customer (or if a Party reasonably believes that any such claim or allegation may be made or such proceedings instituted), the other Party shall promptly make available (on the written request of the Affected Party or its legal advisers), and procure that any relevant GEFA Company or GECF Group Company (as the case may be) shall promptly make available, such documentation, information, files and papers and copies thereof as shall be in the possession of the other Party, GEFA Company or GECF Group Company (as the case may be) or any of its agents or sub-contractors which may relate in any way to the subject matter of such complaint, claim, allegation or proceedings and which it is not prevented from disclosing by virtue of any Applicable Law or any obligation of confidentiality.

18 Assignmen t, Agents and Sub-Contracting

- 18.1 GECC shall not be entitled to and shall not, in each case without the prior written consent of GEFA (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), assign, novate or otherwise transfer this agreement in whole or in part.
- 18.2 GEFA may at any time assign all or any part of the benefit of, or its rights or benefits under, this agreement to a purchaser of all or a substantial part of the business of the GEFA Group but shall otherwise not be entitled to and shall not, in each case without the prior written consent of GECC (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), assign, novate or otherwise transfer this agreement in whole or in part.
- 18.3 Notwithstanding clauses 18.1 and 18.2 above, both Parties shall be entitled to assign, novate or otherwise transfer this agreement in whole or in part without the consent of the other Party to another Group company in the context of a solvent restructuring.
- 18.4 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Clause 18, GEFA shall not assign all or any part of the benefit of, or its rights or benefits under, this agreement without the written consent of GECC to all or any of Citibank, HSBC, Cetelem or any other entity engaged in a multinational consumer lending business which is a competitor of the GECF Group.
- 18.5 In respect of Existing Business, Substitute Business, Identified New Business and New Business in an Existing Territory:
- (i) GEFA and the GEFA Companies shall have the right to sub-contract any of their rights or obligations under this agreement or the relevant Local Agreement to an Approved Subcontractor; and
 - (ii) if GEFA or any of the GEFA Companies wishes to sub-contract any of its rights or obligations under this agreement or the relevant Local Agreement to a third party which does not fall within paragraph (i) above, GEFA shall seek the prior written consent of GECC (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).
- 18.6 In respect of New Business in a New Territory GEFA and the GEFA Companies shall not, without GECC's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), sub-contract any of their rights or obligations under this agreement other than to an Approved Subcontractor.

18.7 For the purposes of this agreement, any act or omission or failure to carry out any obligation under this agreement of any third party or GECC Group Company or GEFA Company (as the case may be) to whom a Party to this agreement has sub-contracted or otherwise delegated its obligations shall be deemed to be an act or omission or failure of the Party which appointed that third party or delegated to such Group company. The appointing Party shall not be relieved from its liability for any failure by that Party or any of its appointees to perform any obligation which it sub-contracts or otherwise delegates to any third party or Group company and shall remain liable for such failures, acts or omissions.

18.8 Without prejudice to clause 18.5, each Party shall act prudently in relation to the outsourcing of any functions under or relating to this agreement and shall comply with any Financial Services Regulator's provisions or any Territory-specific provisions relating to the outsourcing of any functions, duties or responsibilities under or in connection with this agreement.

19 Warranty of Authority

Each Party warrants to the other that it has full authority and power to execute this agreement and to perform all of its duties and obligations under this agreement and any document to be executed pursuant hereto. Each Party shall provide evidence of such authority if and when required by the other.

20 Commencement, Term and Termination

20.1 Commencement and Term

20.1.1 This agreement shall commence on the Commencement Date and, subject to clauses 20.2 and 20.3, shall continue in force until 31 December 2008.

20.1.2 Any terms for extension of this agreement shall be agreed on or by 30 June 2008 failing which this agreement shall expire on 31 December 2008.

20.2 Termination Rights of GECC

20.2.1 GECC may terminate this agreement at any time by written notice to GEFA if:

- (a) GEFA becomes Insolvent;
- (b) GEFA commits an irremediable material breach of this agreement;
- (c) GEFA commits a material breach of this agreement and fails to remedy such breach within 30 days of being required to do so by written notice given by GECC;
- (d) subject to Clause 20.2.2, GEFA commits a series of persistent breaches which when taken together constitute a material breach of this agreement;

- (e) the number of Local Agreements which have been terminated pursuant to clause 20.4 or its equivalent in the Local Agreement represents 50 per cent. or more of the total number of Local Agreements in existence from time to time;
- (f) Genworth Financial, Inc. ceases to have a financial strength rating of BBB or better according to Standard & Poor's;
- (g) a Material Change has occurred and paragraph 12 of the procedure set out in Part C of Schedule 5 applies (such procedure having been initiated pursuant to Clause 20.2.3);
- (h) 50 per cent. or more of the maximum available Service Credits in a month have been accumulated for each of nine months or more in any Relevant Period;
- (i) any one of Citibank, HSBC, Cetelem or any other entity engaged in a multi-national consumer lending business which is a competitor of the GECC Group has acquired Control of GEFA or any holding company of GEFA, such notice shall set out the length of any required Exit Phase and the date the termination takes effect.

20.2.2 GECC shall not provide a notice to terminate pursuant to Clause 20.2.1(d) without first referring the matter to the dispute resolution procedure referred to in Clause 15. If the dispute resolution procedure: (i) does not lead to the parties agreeing a remediation plan in respect of the breaches then GECC may terminate this agreement in accordance with Clause 20.2.1(d) or (ii) produces an agreed resolution plan but GEFA fails to comply with such plan, then the persistent breaches shall be deemed to be a material breach and GECC may terminate this agreement in accordance with Clause 20.2.1(c).

20.2.3 If in any Relevant Period Eligible GWP is in excess of 20 per cent. lower than Comparable GWP in two or more Territories (a "Material Change"), GECC shall, have the right, by notice in writing to GEFA, within 10 Business Days of the occurrence of such Material Change, to initiate the procedure set out in Part C of Schedule 5. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Material Change results or may be reasonably said to result from a general reduction in the amount of financing or other activity or a reduction due to any specific management decision of GECC or a GECC Group Company which results in a reduction in production in the relevant Territories, then the procedure in Part C of Schedule 5 shall not be initiated and a Material Change shall be deemed not to have occurred.

20.3 Termination Rights of GEFA

GEFA may terminate this agreement at any time by written notice to GECC if GECC becomes Insolvent.

20.4 Termination Rights under Local Agreements

20.4.1 The Parties agree that the relevant GECF Group Companies shall, and GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Companies shall, in respect of Existing Business, amend the terms of their Existing Local Agreements, or in respect of Identified New Business and New Business, enter into New Local Agreements, which grant the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company as applicable the right to terminate such Local Agreement by written notice to the relevant counterparty if (and only if):

- (i) the relevant GECF Group Company or GEFA Company is Insolvent;
- (ii) the relevant GEFA Company commits an irremediable material breach of the Local Agreement;
- (iii) the relevant GEFA Company commits a material breach of the Local Agreement and fails to remedy such breach within 30 days of being required to do so by written notice given by GECC;
- (iv) subject to Clause 20.4.3, the relevant GEFA Company commits a series of persistent breaches which when taken together constitute a material breach of the Local Agreement;
- (v) a Local Material Change has occurred and paragraph 12 of the procedure set out in part C of Schedule 5 applies (such procedure having been initiated pursuant to Clause 20.4.4);
- (vi) subject to 20.4.2 if, in respect of the relevant Local Agreement, GEFA accumulates at least 27.5 per cent. of the maximum available Service Credits in any four consecutive months or for any nine months in a Relevant Period provided that if such period ends after 31 December 2005 the reference to 27.5 per cent. above shall be replaced by a reference to 25 per cent. ; or
- (vii) a Regulatory Event has occurred and sub-paragraph (ix) of the procedure set out in clause 20.4.5 applies, such notice shall set out the length of any required Exit Phase and the date the termination takes effect.

20.4.2 GECC shall not exercise its right to terminate any Local Agreement pursuant to Clause 20.4.1(vi) at any time (i) within 12 calendar months from the Commencement Date and (ii) in respect of a New Local Agreement within 6 calendar months from the commencement date of the relevant Local Agreement.

20.4.3 GECC shall not provide a notice to terminate pursuant to Clause 20.4.1(iv) without first referring the matter to the dispute resolution procedure referred to in Clause 15. If the dispute resolution procedure: (i) does not lead to the Parties agreeing a remediation plan in respect of the breaches then GECC may terminate this agreement pursuant to Clause 20.4.1 (iv) or (ii) produces an agreed resolution plan but GEFA fails to comply with such plan, then the breach(es) shall be deemed to be material and GECC may terminate the Local Agreement in accordance with Clause 20.4.1(iii).

20.4.4 If in any Relevant Period, Local Eligible GWP is in excess of 50 per cent. lower than Local Comparable GWP (a “Local Material Change”) GECC shall within 10 Business Days of the occurrence of such Local Material Change have the right, by notice in writing to GEFA, to initiate the procedure set out in Part C of Schedule 5 with respect to the Local Agreement in question, provided that in respect of each Local Agreement in a Key Territory the figure of 50 per cent. above shall be replaced with 20 per cent. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Local Material Change results or may be reasonably said to result from a general reduction in the amount of financing activity or a reduction due to any specific management decision of GECC Group Companies which results in a reduction in production in the relevant Territory, then the procedure in Part C of Schedule 5 shall not be initiated and a Local Material Change shall be deemed not to have occurred.

20.4.5 The Parties agree that following the occurrence of a Regulatory Event, the following shall apply.

- (i) Within 5 Business Days of the occurrence of a Regulatory Event, the Affected GEFA Company shall give notice in writing of the Regulatory Event to each counterparty of each Local Agreement to which it is a party. Such notice shall include:
 - (a) details of the matter which gave rise to the Regulatory Event;
 - (b) details of any remedial action stipulated by the Financial Services Regulator which may be taken in order to avoid the threatened revocation or suspension of authorisation; and
 - (c) details of any deadlines by which such action must be taken.
- (ii) Upon receipt of the notice referred to in clause (i) above the relevant GECC Group Company may begin contingency planning to change to a Replacement Supplier in respect of those Payment Protection Products which the Affected GEFA Company will be unable to provide in the event that its authorisation is revoked or suspended. Such contingency planning may include contacting potential replacement suppliers for the purposes of agreeing terms of supply but, for the avoidance of doubt, any such agreement shall be conditional on the revocation or suspension of the Affected GEFA Company’s authorisation.
- (iii) Within 15 Business Days of the occurrence of the Regulatory Event, the Affected GEFA Company shall produce and provide to the relevant GECC Group Company a proposal updated from time to time as appropriate setting out the action which the Affected GEFA Company intends to take in order to comply with the terms of the notice from the Financial Services Regulator and the timetable within which such action shall be taken.

- (iv) Promptly after the provision of the proposal pursuant to clause (iii) above, the Affected GEFA Company and the relevant GECF Group Company shall discuss the adequacy of the proposed action and timetable.
- (v) If the Affected GEFA Company and the relevant GECF Group Company, each acting reasonably, agree that the steps set out in the proposal will be sufficient to resolve the problem, the Affected Company shall implement the proposal in accordance with the agreed timetable. The Affected GEFA Company shall keep the relevant GECF Group Company regularly informed as to progress and shall promptly inform the relevant GECF Group Company of any further relevant communications from the Financial Services Regulator.
- (vi) If the relevant GECF Group Company, acting reasonably, considers that the proposal will not adequately address the problem identified by the Financial Services Regulator, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to make such amendments as they agree are necessary to resolve the problem.
- (vii) If at any time the Affected GEFA Company, in its reasonable opinion, considers that it will be unable to take the necessary action to avoid the revocation or suspension of its authorisation, it shall immediately inform the relevant GECF Group Company and the provisions of clause (ix) shall apply.
- (viii) If at any time the Financial Services Regulator notifies the Affected GEFA Company that its authorisation has been revoked or suspended, the provisions of clause (ix) shall apply.
- (ix) In the event that this clause (ix) applies, the relevant GECF Group Company shall have the right to terminate the relevant Local Agreement to the extent that it relates to Payment Protection Products in respect of which the Affected GEFA Company is or shall be unable to meet its obligations and shall have the right to enter arrangements for the supply of such Payment Protection Products with a Replacement Supplier.

21 Consequences of Termination

21.1 Termination of this Agreement

- 21.1.1 Upon the termination or expiration of this agreement pursuant to clauses 20.1, 20.2 or 20.3 the Local Agreements shall automatically terminate.

21.1.2 GECC and each GECF Group Company shall not during the Term or during the Run-Off Period, by way of any act or omission, encourage, induce or persuade any Insured Customer to terminate any Payment Protection Product which such Insured Customer has entered into with GEFA or a GEFA Company.

21.2 Surviving Clauses

21.2.1 Termination or expiry of this agreement for whatever reason shall be without prejudice to the rights, obligations and liabilities of either Party then accrued due and shall not affect the coming into force or the continuation in force of this clause 21.2.1 or of any provision of this agreement which is expressly stated to continue in force at or after termination or expiry including , 10.3, 11, 15, 17, 21.3, 23, 30 and 31.

21.2.2 During the Run-Off Period the following additional clauses shall remain in force: 5.3, 6, 9.1, 9.2, 12, 13, 14, 16, 18.

21.3 Exit Plan and Termination Assistance

21.3.1 If GECC so requests promptly following the commencement of an Exit Phase, GEFA shall and shall procure that the GEFA Companies shall as soon as reasonably practicable submit to GECC and the relevant GECF Companies a plan (the “ Exit Plan ”) which shall describe the activities and tasks to be performed by the Parties in order to facilitate the smooth transfer of the responsibility for the provision of Payment Protection Products to a Replacement Supplier.

21.3.2 During the Exit Phase, the Parties shall perform their respective obligations as stated in the Exit Plan.

21.3.3 Subject to the provisions of the Exit Plan, each Party shall and shall procure that the GEFA Companies or the GECF Group Companies (as applicable) shall during the Exit Phase provide to the other Party any assistance reasonably requested to allow the provision of Payment Protection Products to continue without material interruption or material adverse effect and to facilitate the transfer of, responsibility for and conduct of the provision of Payment Protection Products to a Replacement Supplier in accordance with the provisions of the Exit Plan. GEFA shall be responsible for any reasonable additional costs incurred by GEFA as a result of the provision of termination assistance services to GECC or GECF Group Companies.

21.3.4 Except as otherwise stated in the Exit Plan, the obligations stated in Clauses 21.3.2 and 21.3.3 above shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the provision of the Payment Protection Products during the Exit Phase on the terms and conditions of this agreement.

22 Force Majeure

- 22.1 “Event of Force Majeure” means, in relation to any Party or a GECF Group Company or a GEFA Company (as the case may be), an event or circumstance beyond the reasonable control of that person (the “Claiming Party”) including, without limitation, strikes, lock-outs and other industrial disputes (in each case, whether or not relating to the Claiming Party’s workforce) but excluding any event under clause 4.
- 22.2 The Claiming Party shall not be deemed to be in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to any other party (the “Non-claiming Party”) for any delay in performance or any non-performance of any obligations under or pursuant to this agreement (and the time for performance shall be extended accordingly) if and to the extent that the delay or non-performance is due to an Event of Force Majeure provided that:
- (i) the Claiming Party could not have avoided the effect of the Event of Force Majeure by taking precautions, including disaster recovery arrangements, which, having regard to all matters known to it before the occurrence of the Event of Force Majeure and all relevant factors, it ought reasonably to have taken but did not take; and
 - (ii) the Claiming Party has used reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Event of Force Majeure and to carry out its obligations under this agreement in any other way that is reasonably practicable.
- 22.3 The Claiming Party shall promptly notify the Non-claiming Party of the nature and extent of the circumstances giving rise to the Event of Force Majeure.
- 22.4 If the Event of Force Majeure in question prevails for a continuous period in excess of two months after the date on which it began, the Non-claiming Party may require that the issue be included on the agenda of the next local performance meeting held pursuant to clause 16.2. At such meeting the Parties shall discuss in good faith the continued provision of the affected service or obligation and any necessary amendments to this agreement or the relevant Local Agreement.

23 Confidential Information

- 23.1 Each Party undertakes to each other and each member of the other party’s Group that it will not, and will ensure that its directors, officers, employees and agents do not, without the prior written consent of the other Party:
- 23.1.1 make available or disclose any Confidential Information of the other party which is provided to it by that other Party pursuant to this agreement to any person other than those of its directors, officers or employees or other persons (including subcontractors) who are necessarily required in the course of their duties to receive and consider the same for the purposes of performing its obligations or exercising its rights under this agreement and for risk modelling and profiling purposes, but not for marketing purposes or for the purposes of directly or indirectly canvassing or soliciting the custom of any customer of the GECF Group (including for the avoidance of doubt using anonymised information on clients of GECF Group Companies) (the “Permitted Purposes”); or 23.1.2 use any Confidential Information of that other Party which is provided to it by the other Party pursuant to this agreement other than for the Permitted Purposes.

23.2 The provisions of clause 23.1 shall not apply to the extent that any Confidential Information:

23.2.1 is at the date of this agreement or any time thereafter becomes publicly known, other than as a result of any breach of this agreement or any other duty of confidence;

23.2.2 can be shown by the receiving Party to the disclosing Party’s reasonable satisfaction to have been known by the receiving Party before disclosure by the disclosing Party, other than as a result of any breach of this agreement or any other duty of confidence;

23.2.3 is required to be disclosed by any court or governmental, administrative or regulatory authority competent to require such disclosure; or 23.2.4 is required to be disclosed by any Applicable Law.

23.3 Notwithstanding clause 23.1:

23.3.1 a Party may disclose Confidential Information relating to another to its professional advisers for the purposes of obtaining professional advice provided that the disclosing Party shall advise any such person to whom such information is disclosed of the confidentiality obligations contained in this agreement and shall procure that such person complies with such obligations as if it were a party to this agreement; and

23.3.2 no Party shall be prevented from using or disclosing any information which is independently developed without reference to or which does not refer to any Confidential Information of the other Party.

23.4 Each Party shall, forthwith upon termination or expiry of this agreement for any reason or upon the receipt by it of written demand from the other, return all written Confidential Information provided to it by the other Party.

24 Waiver

24.1 A waiver of any term, provision or condition of this agreement shall be effective only if given in writing and signed by the waiving Party and then only in the instance and for the purpose for which it is given.

24.2 No failure or delay on the part of any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

24.3 No breach of any provision of this agreement shall be waived or discharged except with the express written consent of the Parties.

25 Entire Agreement

25.1 This agreement constitutes the entire and only agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this agreement and (to the extent permissible by law) supersedes and extinguishes any and all prior drafts, agreements, writings, negotiations, understandings, undertakings, representations, warranties and arrangements of any nature whatsoever, whether or not in writing, relating to or in connection with the subject matter of this agreement provided that neither Party is attempting to exclude any liability for fraudulent statements (including fraudulent pre-contractual misrepresentations) on which the other Party can be shown to have relied. All terms, conditions and warranties not stated expressly in this agreement, and which would in the absence of this provision be implied into this agreement by statute, common law, equity, trade, custom or usage or otherwise, are excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law.

25.2 Each Party acknowledges that it has not been induced to enter into this agreement in reliance upon, nor has it been given, any warranty, representation, statement, assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, indemnity or commitment of any nature whatsoever other than as expressly set out in this agreement and, to the extent it has been, it unconditionally and irrevocably waives any claims, rights and remedies which it might otherwise have had in relation thereto.

25.3 The provisions of this clause shall not exclude any liability which a Party would otherwise have to the other or any right which either of them may have to rescind this agreement in respect of any statements made fraudulently by the other prior to the execution of this agreement or any rights which either of them may have in respect of fraudulent concealment by the other.

25.4 This agreement may be varied only by a document signed by both Parties.

25.5 Any claim brought by either Party in respect of a breach by the other Party of the terms of this agreement may include a claim for actual or potential loss of profits.

26 Costs and Expenses

26.1 Except as expressly provided in this agreement each of the Parties shall bear its own legal, accountancy and other costs, charges and expenses connected with the negotiation, preparation and implementation of this agreement and any other agreement incidental to or referred to in this agreement.

26.2 Except as expressly provided in this agreement, GECC shall not be entitled to any other remuneration or to be reimbursed for any cost, charge or expense incurred by it in each case in connection with this agreement or the performance of its obligations hereunder.

For the avoidance of doubt, this clause shall not operate to exclude or limit any liability of GEFA for breach of contract or its negligence.

27 No Partnersh ip

Nothing in this agreement and no action taken by the Parties pursuant to this agreement shall constitute, or be deemed to constitute, a partnership, association, joint venture or other co-operative entity.

28 Notices

28.1 Any notice, demand or other communication given or made under or in connection with the matters contemplated by this agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or sent by fax or prepaid first class post (air mail if posted to or from a place outside the United Kingdom):

28.2 A Party may notify the other party to this agreement of a change to its name, relevant addressee and address for the purposes of clause 28.1 provided that such notification shall only be effective on:

- (i) the date specified in the notification as the date on which the change is to take place; or
- (ii) if no date is specified or the date specified is less than five Business Days after the date on which notice is given, the date falling five Business Days after notice of any such change has been given.

29 Invalidity and Severability

29.1 If any provision of this agreement is or becomes (whether or not pursuant to any judgement or otherwise) invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under the law of any jurisdiction:

29.1.1 the validity, legality and enforceability under the law of that jurisdiction of any other provision; and

29.1.2 the validity, legality and enforceability under the law of any other jurisdiction of that or any other provision, shall not be affected or impaired in any way thereby.

29.2 If any provision of this agreement shall be held to be void or declared illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, such provision shall be divisible from this agreement and shall be deemed to be deleted from this agreement and the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected. In the event that any such deletion materially affects the interpretation of this agreement then the Parties shall negotiate in good faith with a view to agreeing a substitute provision which as closely as possible reflects the commercial intention of the Parties.

30 Governing Law and Jurisdiction and Appointment of Process Agent

30.1 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This agreement (and any dispute, controversy, proceedings or claim of whatever nature arising out of or in any way relating to this agreement or its formation) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

30.2 Appointment of Process Agent

30.2.1 GEFA hereby irrevocably appoints (Marked for the attention of Company Secretary) Financial Insurance Company Limited, [Vantage West, Great West Road, Brentford, Middlesex TW8 9AG], as its agent to accept service of process in England in any legal action or proceedings arising out of this agreement, service upon whom shall be deemed completed whether or not forwarded to or received by GEFA.

- 30.2.2 GEFA agrees to inform GECC in writing of any change of address of such process agent within 28 days of such change.
- 30.2.3 If such process agent ceases to be able to act as such or to have an address in England, GEFA irrevocably agrees to appoint a new process agent in England acceptable to GECC and to deliver to GECC within 14 days a copy of a written acceptance of appointment by the process agent.
- 30.2.4 GECC hereby irrevocably appoints (Marked for the attention of General Counsel, Europe) GE Capital Bank, [GE Consumer Finance, Malvern House, Croxley Green Business Park, Watford, Herts WD18 8YF], as its agent to accept service of process in England in any legal action or proceedings arising out of this agreement, service upon whom shall be deemed completed whether or not forwarded to or received by GECC.
- 30.2.5 GECC agrees to inform GEFA in writing of any change of address of such process agent within 28 days of such change.
- 30.2.6 If such process agent ceases to be able to act as such or to have an address in England, GECC irrevocably agrees to appoint a new process agent in England acceptable to GEFA and to deliver to GEFA within 14 days a copy of a written acceptance of appointment by the process agent.
- 30.2.7 Nothing in this agreement shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or the right to bring proceedings in any other jurisdiction for the purposes of the enforcement or execution of any judgment or other settlement in any other courts.

31 Exclusion of Third Party Rights

The Parties to this agreement do not intend that any term of this agreement should be enforceable, by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, by any person who is not a Party to this agreement.

IN WITNESS whereof this agreement has been executed on the date first above written.

Schedule 2
GE Financial Insurance Service Level Standards

1 Glossary

Business Day – means, for the purposes of this Schedule 2 only, a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which banks are open for business in the relevant Territory;

Confirmed/Confirmation – New business and cancellation records accepted and made live on to the GEFA administration system.

Decision Accuracy – Accuracy of the decision to pay/reject a claim based on the terms and conditions of the policy against the detail put forth in the claim. The measure of the accuracy is Yes or No.

Notification of Insurance Processing – Electronic files, or other medium agreed between the Parties, in agreed format containing new business, cancellations, mid-term adjustments, premium payments and customer details for bulk premium, periodic premium, single premium and reinsurance products. Notification of Insurance Processing also includes correction of errors passed back to GECC for resolution.

Processing Month End – The period within the GEFA Group for which Insurance Processing is Confirmed. This follows a predefined accounting schedule of month ends, normally occurring on the last or second to last Friday in the calendar month, which GEFA will notify to GECC annually at the beginning of the year for the whole year.

Pending – Unconfirmed new business and cancellation records, which suffer validation errors and warning messages.

Pending List – A list of Notification of Insurance Processing that was not confirmed and put live on the GEFA administration system as at the Processing Month End.

Processed – The Notification of Insurance Processing has been Confirmed or Rejected or is Pending and Pending and Rejected data have been passed to GECC for correction.

Processing Month – The month GEFA has received the Notification of Insurance Processing from GECC to process.

Reconciled/Reconciliation – Notification of Insurance Processing which is allocated to one of the following categories (and communicated back to the client within agreed Service Levels) – Confirmed, Pending and Rejected –and reconciled with cash received.

Rejected – New business and cancellation records which result in a severe error as part of the interface validation process.

Selling Month – The month in which GECC sells the insurance to the customer.

2 Hours Of Service

Hours of service availability will be no less than 8 hours per day Monday to Friday excluding public holidays. Hours of service will vary in line with local working practices.

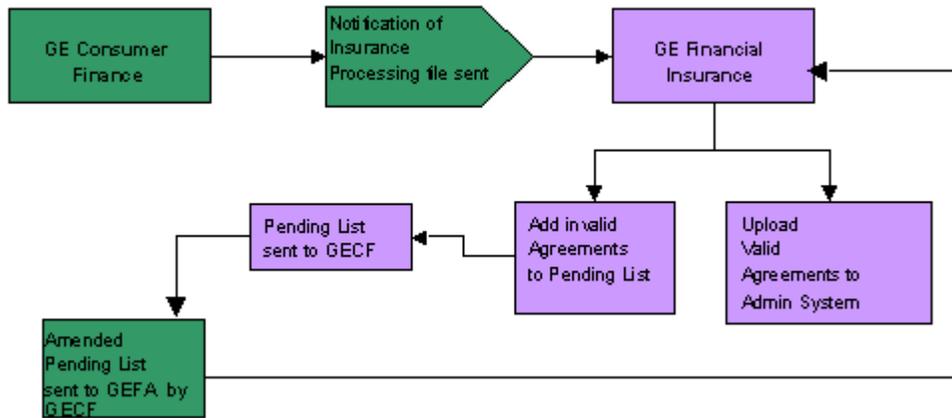

3 Notification and Reconciliation of Insurance Processing

GEFA will process bulk premium, periodic premium, single premium and reinsurance premium in respect of which collection is effected either by GECC or by GEFA.

The Service Levels in paragraph 3 are dependent on paragraph 12 and the dependencies set out in Table A in paragraph 17 below.

3.1 Chart 1 (Operating Reconciliation Process) outlines the process flow for processing the insurance records notified. The process includes the processing of all new business records, cancellation records and the Pending and Rejected records that arise from the process.

Operating Reconciliation Process (Chart 1)

The Service Levels that apply are:

- (i) 100% of Notifications of Insurance Processing notified to GEFA shall be Processed by GEFA within 5 Business Days of file receipt;
- (ii) Notifications of Insurance Processing notified by GECC to GEFA at least 5 Business Days prior to the end of the Processing Month will be Processed by GEFA in the month in which the notification occurred unless the terms of an Existing Local Agreement provide otherwise;

- (iii) subject to paragraph 3.1(ii), reasonable efforts will be made to Process Notifications of Insurance Processing received fewer than 5 Business Days before Processing Month End, but for the avoidance of doubt this is not guaranteed within the terms of the Service Levels;
- (iv) reconciliation between the number of Notifications of Insurance Processing received by GEFA and the number of Notifications of Insurance Processing Processed will be completed by the tenth Business Day following the Processing Month End; and
- (v) provided that GECC has complied with its obligations to respond within five Business Days to all Pending Notifications of Insurance Processing,
 - (a) at the end of a Processing Month, Notifications of Insurance Processing classified as Pending shall not exceed 1% of total Notifications of Insurance Processing notified to GEFA in that Processing Month (excluding Notifications of Insurance Processing notified to GEFA fewer than 5 Business Days from the end of the relevant Processing Month); and
 - (b) by the end of the next Processing Month there shall be no Pending Notifications of Insurance Processing which were notified to GEFA in the preceding Processing Month (excluding Notifications of Insurance Processing notified to GEFA fewer than 5 Business Days from the end of the previous Processing Month).

3.2 Financial Control Reconciliation Process

- (i) The financial control reconciliation process begins when the operating reconciliation process set out in paragraph 3.1 ends. The Reconciliation can only happen once all the policies have been Processed. The procedure for invoicing and settlement shall be as follows:
 - (a) Premium Invoiced - GEFA shall supply to GECC invoice and Pending List 10 Business Days after Processing Month End.
 - (b) Premium & Cash - GEFA shall supply to GECC statement, commission settlement (where applicable) and Pending List 10 Business Days after Processing Month End.
 - (c) Cancellations - GEFA shall supply to GECC credit note or cheque 10 Business Days after Processing Month End (if cancellation amount owed exceeds premium in the relevant Processing Month).
 - (d) Payment of Invoices/Statements - Each party shall make payment within 7 Business Days of the issue of an invoice in respect of premium by the other Party unless the terms of an Existing Local Agreement provide otherwise.

- (ii) The Service Level for Financial Control Reconciliation is: 100% of all Notifications of Insurance Processing to be Reconciled by GEFA each month by the 10th Business Day following the Processing Month End. For the avoidance of doubt, the cash reconciliation shall occur by the tenth Business Day following the end of the subsequent Processing Month.

4 Management Information associated with Processing

- (i) Dashboards by Local Agreement will be created monthly by GEFA and reviewed at the monthly joint management meetings that will show clearly the percentage of data Confirmed, Pending and Rejected for a given month.
- (ii) Dashboards by Local Agreement will be created monthly by GEFA reflecting the age of Notifications of Processing which are classified as Pending or Rejected.
- (iii) Dashboards by Local Agreement will be created monthly by GEFA in respect of cancellation data including number of policies cancelled, value of refunds, average expired term and average remaining term, in each case by policy year.
- (iv) Dashboards will be delivered by GEFA within 10 Business Days of the Processing Month End.

5 New Policy Fulfilment

Where GEFA is responsible for new policy fulfilment, policy certificates and/or policy documentation as applicable will be issued by GEFA within 3 Business Days of the date of Confirmation unless an Existing Local Agreement or Applicable Law provides otherwise.

6 Telephony

6.1 In-Bound

- (i) A dedicated GECC line will be in place in respect of each Local Agreement.
- (ii) All calls shall be answered in the locally agreed format.
- (iii) 80% of calls will be answered within 20 seconds in any Processing Month. Where the required technology is not in place to provide metrics, an audit will be carried out by GEFA in respect of an appropriate number of calls relative to the volume normally received in respect of the relevant Local Agreement.
- (iv) In respect of calls to a GECC dedicated line and where the required telephony systems are in place for the purposes of measurement, the abandonment rate will not exceed 5% during any Processing Month.
- (v) Dashboards will be created monthly by GEFA and reviewed at the Monthly Performance Meetings. Such dashboards will show clearly the volume of calls, the percentage answered within the Service Level, the average response time and the abandon rate where applicable.

- (vi) GECC will monitor the average response time and, if it trends towards 20 seconds, the Parties will discuss at the next Monthly Performance Meeting the implementation of an improvement plan.

6.2 Out-Bound

- (i) In the event of an out-bound call being required and where the initial attempt fails, two further attempts will be scheduled prior to falling back on written communication. The second attempt will be within 24 hours. The third attempt will be the next Business Day.
- (ii) Addressing the customer - the manner and format of the customer interaction (including greeting & company name) will be agreed at a local level.

7 General Queries & Correspondence

- (i) GEFA shall date stamp 100% of incoming correspondence on the day of receipt or, if such day is not a Business Day (or if received after the end of the hours of service on a Business Day), on the next Business Day. In the event of uncertainty as to the date of receipt, the date of receipt shall be deemed to be the fourth Business Day after the mean date on which the envelopes containing such correspondence (including claims) were franked.
- (ii) GEFA will respond to 100% of correspondence within 5 Business Days of receipt by GEFA.
- (iii) Unless otherwise stated in this agreement, GEFA will answer 100% of requests from GECC received by telephone, e-mail or post by the end of the next Business Day.

7.2 Claims Queries and Notification

7.2.1 Telephone Requests

- (i) GEFA will respond to requests received by telephone for information regarding individual policies or claims during the call or by the end of the next Business Day if further investigation is required.
- (ii) If the attempt to contact the customer is unsuccessful, 2 further attempts will be made. If these are unsuccessful, the response will be sent by post.
- (iii) Claim forms requested by telephone will be dispatched by the end of the next Business Day unless printing of name and address is required, in which case the claim form shall be dispatched within 3 Business Days of the request.

7.3 Claim Notification by Mail

- (i) GEFA shall respond within 3 Business Days to 100% of all incoming new claim form requests received by mail.
- (ii) GEFA shall respond within 3 Business Days to 100% of all incoming continuing claim form requests received by mail.

7.4 Claim Handling

- (i) 95% of all claims registration forms and continuing claims forms received will be assessed and the proper response issued by GEFA within 5 Business Days of receipt. 100% of all claims registration forms and continuing claims forms received will be assessed and the proper response issued by GEFA within 10 Business Days of receipt.
- (ii) The average elapsed time for assessing and responding to claims registration forms and continuing claims forms will be not more than 3 Business Days from receipt.
- (iii) At the end of a Processing Month, no more than 5% of claims which have not been assessed shall be claims which were received by GEFA more than 10 Business Days prior to the end of that Processing Month.
- (iv) GEFA will respond to 100% of all incoming claims correspondence within 5 Business Days of receipt.
- (v) Claims assessment shall result in one of the following:
 - (a) decision to decline;
 - (b) decision to accept/pay; or
 - (c) decision to request further information from a customer/third party,and, where appropriate, GEFA shall generate any documentation associated with the assessment.
- (vi) Decline process:

A system generated letter is issued explaining the decision as part of the assessment process.
- (vii) Decision to accept/pay process:
 - (a) A letter will be sent to the customer confirming the acceptance of the claim and the payment to be made, clarifying any continuing duty on the customer (e.g. monthly provision of evidence) and including a continuing claim form.

(b) A payment run will be executed at least weekly, unless otherwise stated in an Existing Local Agreement.

(viii) Further information required:

(a) Where further information is required from a third party it will be notified to that third party by mail with a pre-paid business reply envelope. A letter informing the customer of this action will be issued at the same time.

(b) Where further information is required from a customer he/she will be notified by mail with a pre-paid business reply envelope.

(c) 21-day follow up will occur if there is no response received back from the third party.

8. Management Information associated with managing claims

8.1 The monthly dashboard for claims will show as a minimum:

(i) the claims activity for the month comprising new claims registered, continuing claims, claims accepted, claims declined and pending duration (comprising number of claims pending and maximum, median and mean number of days pending);

(ii) number and percentage of claims processed within the Service Level criteria for the period and average claim resolution time;

(iii) number of outstanding claims to be assessed and outlook for following month;

(vi) percentage of correspondence responded to within the Service Level; and

(v) report on the results of the Claims Accuracy Audit.

The monthly dashboard will be delivered to GECC within 10 Business Days of Processing Month End.

9 Claims Accuracy Audit

9.1 Claims accuracy will be measured through an audit mechanism operated by GEFA and on an ad-hoc basis by GECC. Claims Decision Accuracy is based on the decision to pay/reject the claim based on the terms and conditions of the policy against the criteria set out in the claim form.

9.2 The Service Levels for Claims Decision Accuracy shall be:

(i) GEFA shall allocate 100% of claims with a classification code (Redundancy/Disability/Critical illness etc).

(ii) Accuracy of classification code allocated by GEFA shall exceed 99%.

- (iii) Decision Accuracy shall be:
 - (a) 97% or greater in calendar year 2004;
 - (b) 98% or greater in calendar year 2005; and
 - (c) 99% or greater in calendar year 2006, on all GECC claims audited within the monthly audit period, provided that, in respect of New Territories, Decision Accuracy shall be 97% or greater on all GECC claims audited within each monthly audit period in the 12 months following launch and thereafter shall be 99% or greater on all GECC claims audited within the monthly audit period.

10 Customer Satisfaction Surveys

- 10.1 Twice in every 12 months GECC will have the right to commission or carry out customer surveys in order to gauge the overall customer satisfaction level of the customer base. The aspirational target will be 80% satisfaction. GECC and GEFA shall run base line surveys in respect of all Local Agreements in the first 12 months after the Commencement Date. The costs of such surveys shall be shared equally by the Parties. A mutually agreed action plan will be implemented and shall include a target for surveys conducted in the next period on the basis of the results of the base line surveys.
- 10.2 Each Party, at the request of the other, shall on an ad hoc basis (but, save as otherwise provided below, in any event no more frequently than once in any 12 month period) conduct a satisfaction survey on the basis of a mutually agreed set of questions which shall seek to establish the degree to which the requesting party is satisfied with the performance by the other party of its obligations under this schedule. On the basis of such survey the Parties shall implement a mutually agreed action plan which shall include a target for the next survey. If the requesting Party is unhappy with the results of any survey, a further survey shall be conducted within six months of the results of the previous survey or such other period of time as the Parties shall agree.

11 Complaints Handling Process

- 11.1 The definition of a complaint is “any expression of dissatisfaction whether justified or not”. Complaints shall, for the avoidance of doubt, include disputes in relation to claims decisions.
- 11.2 A complaint must be dealt with to the customer’s satisfaction upon receipt of the phone call or the letter. If this is not possible, GEFA shall endeavour to provide the customer with a solution by close of business on next Business Day following receipt. Within 5 Business Days of receipt by GEFA of the complaint, the customer must be sent an acknowledgement letter advising them of a specific timeframe in which GEFA expects to resolve the problem. This should be recorded on a complaints log.

- 11.3 If the complaint remains unresolved by the end of the 10th Business Day following receipt by GEFA of the claim, GEFA must escalate the complaint to Level 2, escalate to the Claims Manager or equivalent and reflect this on the log. If the complaint is still not resolved by Business Day 19, the complaint must be passed to Level 3.
- 11.4 In Level 3 the complaint shall be escalated to the Operations Manager or equivalent. GEFA will endeavour to resolve the complaint within 8 weeks following initial receipt. If this is not achieved, the team will issue a holding response. If a solution is still not reached, the complaint handler will issue a final response. This will confirm to the customer that GEFA's complaints procedure has been exhausted, and advise the complainant that he or she may refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service within 6 months of the date of the issue of this response.
- 11.5 Where the Financial Ombudsman Service (or its equivalent in a Territory outside the UK) adheres to different guidelines than those outlined above at a local level then the local guidelines will be the service standard.
- 11.6 GEFA shall notify to GECC all complaints on reaching Level 3 and in the case of complaints which are sensitive or controversial GEFA shall notify GECC immediately.
- 11.7 Dashboard of Complaints showing volume, status and escalation level by type of complaint to be discussed at Monthly Performance Meetings with focus on root cause analysis.
- 12 IT Services
- 12.1 New scheme launches in Existing Territories, re-pricing, rate changes and interface programme amendments shall be in place in time for GECC deadline. Such deadline will always be at least 5 Business Days after GECC has notified GEFA.
- 12.2 Performance of the obligation at paragraph 12.1 above shall be dependent on the following:
- (i) final product specifications including rates shall be provided as part of notification and at least 45 Business Days before implementation deadline;
 - (ii) mutually agreed file format for new Scheme launches in all Territories shall be agreed and finalised at least 45 Business Days before implementation deadline; and
 - (iii) representative and accurate test data which reflects the 'to be' file, in the previously agreed file format and with a sufficient level of detail to enable testing shall be provided by GECC 20 Business Days prior to commencement.
- 12.3 Ad hoc requests for IT work will be assessed on their merits.

13 Pricing Requests

- 13.1 GEFA will deliver a response to pricing requests within 7 Business Days of receipt of a full product specification.
- 13.2 The full product specification supplied by GECC shall comprise the information set out at paragraph 4 of Part A of Schedule 5, to the extent applicable and, in addition, clarification of any change in the customer base characteristics and miscellaneous detail when compared with other products in the appropriate Territory, if available.

14 Finance Requests

- 14.1 GEFA shall achieve 100% accuracy on profit share statements. Accuracy shall be measured by reference to the data used in GEFA's US GAAP accounts and subsequently entered into the GECC profit share accounts and the structure of such profit share accounts.
- 14.2 GEFA shall deliver profit share statements within 90 days of the end of each quarter.
- 14.3 In the event of a financial query arising, GEFA will communicate to GECC a proposed course of action (including proposed timescales for resolution) by the end of the following Business Day

15 Legal Requests

- 15.1 Representatives of the Parties' legal and compliance teams shall meet at appropriate intervals to discuss the prioritisation and targets for delivery of the work to be performed by the Parties' legal and compliance teams pursuant to this agreement.
- 15.2 GEFA shall, subject to paragraphs 15.1, 15.3, 15.4 and 15.5, deliver:
 - (i) initial comments on new policy documents or proposed changes to existing policy documents (in each case relating to Payment Protection Products provided pursuant to Existing Direct Business) by the later of:
 - (a) 10 Business Days after receipt by the GEFA legal and compliance team of the request to provide such comments and all of the relevant draft documents and information requested in relation thereto (including documents and/or information requested from GECC or any GECF Group Company); and

- (b) the date by which the relevant GEFCF Group Company requests such comments to be provided;
- (ii) initial comments on new fulfilment and marketing documents or proposed changes to existing fulfilment and marketing documents (in each case relating to Payment Protection Products provided pursuant to Existing Direct Business) by the later of:
 - (a) 10 Business Days after receipt by the GEFA legal and compliance team of the request to provide such comments and all of the relevant draft documents and information requested in relation thereto (including documents and/or information requested from GECC or any GEFCF Group Company); and
 - (b) the date by which the relevant GEFCF Group Company requests such comments to be provided;
- (iii) subject to acceptance by GECC or the relevant GEFCF Group Company of a New Business Proposal (or Amended New Business Proposal) pursuant to paragraph 10 of Part A of Schedule 5 (if applicable), a first draft of a Local Addendum by the later of:
 - (a) 15 Business Days after receipt by the GEFA legal and compliance team of the request to provide such first draft and all of the relevant information requested in relation thereto (including information requested from GECC or any GEFCF Group Company); and
 - (b) the date by which the relevant GEFCF Group Company requests such draft to be provided, subject in each case, to such Local Addendum being substantially in the form set out in Schedule 11; and

- (iv) subject to acceptance by GECC or the relevant GEFCF Group Company of a New Business Proposal (or Amended New Business Proposal) pursuant to paragraph 10 of Part A of Schedule 5, a first draft of a New Local Agreement by the later of:
 - (a) 20 Business Days after receipt by the GEFA legal and compliance team of the request to provide such first draft and all of the relevant information requested in relation thereto (including information requested from GECC or any GEFCF Group Company); and
 - (b) the date by which the relevant GEFCF Group Company requests such draft to be provided, subject in each case, to such New Local Agreement being substantially in the form set out in Schedule 12.

15.3 GECC agrees and acknowledges that if any of the documents requested or provided from or to the GEFA legal and compliance team pursuant to paragraph 15.2 are not, or not required to be in English, the timescales set out in paragraph 15.2 for delivery of comments or draft documents (as the case may be) will, in each such case, be increased by 10 Business Days or such longer period as is reasonably required to obtain an English translation of all relevant documents.

15.4 If changes are required to any Local Agreement or any documents relating to the Payment Protection Products provided by GEFA pursuant to this Agreement as a result of any proposed changes to any Applicable Law, GEFA will provide GECC with details of the proposed changes to the relevant documents at least 90 days before the implementation date of the proposed change to the relevant Applicable Law unless otherwise agreed by the parties (each acting in good faith), subject to receipt by the GEFA legal and compliance team of all of the relevant information requested in relation thereto (including information requested from GECC or any GECF Group Company).

15.5 The period for the production or review of documents by the GEFA legal and compliance team for a GECF Group Company in all other circumstances not contemplated in sub-paragraphs 15.2-15.4 above will be agreed by the parties at the time (each acting in good faith).

16 Business Continuity

16.1 GEFA shall maintain a business recovery plan to make provision for the prompt and efficient handling of any incident which impairs GEFA's ability to perform the obligations required of it by this schedule.

- (i) GECC shall be made aware of the details of the business recovery plan and be kept advised of any significant changes to those details.
- (ii) The business recovery plan shall be subject to testing and review for effectiveness once a year.

16.2 A major disruption in service that impairs GEFA's ability to achieve a Service Level shall be notified to the agreed GECC escalation point if reasonably practicable on the Business Day on which the event occurs and otherwise within one Business Day of such event.

17 Dependencies

GEFA shall not be liable for, and Service Credits shall not accrue in respect of, any failure by GEFA to meet its obligations in relation to Service Levels, where such failure results in whole or in part from:

- (i) any failure by GECC to perform its obligations under this schedule, including those obligations set out in the third column of Table A below; or
- (ii) any other act or omission of GECC.

Table AGECF Dependencies

20 Service Credit regime

- 20.1 If GEFA fails to deliver the service as indicated by any of the above Key Service Level metrics in respect of a Local Agreement then GEFA shall reimburse GECC for the Service Credits.
- 20.2 Service Credits are applied to the specific Local Agreement that is in breach of Key Service Level.
- 20.3 One Service Credit equals % of the Retention Fee in respect of the relevant Local Agreement in that month:
- 20.4 Service Credits start accumulating in the same Processing Month in which a Key Service Level miss occurs.
- 20.5 Service Credits shall be paid in respect of a Key Service Level until such Key Service Level returns to agreed Service Levels.
- 20.6 No Service Credits shall accrue or be payable in respect of failures to meet Key Service Levels in the first six months of the Term.
- 20.7 Service Credits relate to new business going forward and not retrospectively to feeds received prior to the expiry of the period referred to in paragraph 19.6 above.
- 20.8 For the avoidance of doubt, clause 15 of the agreement shall apply to this schedule.

Schedule 3
New Local Agreement Profit Share Provisions

- 1 GEFA shall draw up a profit and loss account in accordance with this Schedule and GEFA's standard US GAAP accounting policies and practices from time to time (the "Profit Share Account") including all Schemes grouped as agreed by the Parties in each Local Agreement separately (or, if only one Scheme has been in operation since the Commencement Date, for that Scheme only):
- as at the last day of each quarter of the term of the Local Agreement and annually during the Run-Off Period; or
 - as at the end of the Run-Off Period,
- (each a "Relevant Date").
- 2 GEFA shall deliver a copy of the Profit Share Account to GECC within 90 days (or as otherwise agreed between the Parties pursuant to Schedule 2) of the last day of each quarter of the term of this agreement and annually during the Run-Off Period and within 90 days of the last day of the Run-Off Period (as the case may be).
- 3 The Profit Share Account will be prepared to include all Business written since inception to date in each Scheme in each Territory as follows:
1. For each individual Scheme, GEFA shall calculate the Gross Earned Premiums
 2. From the total calculated under paragraph (a) above, the following shall be deducted:
 1. the Sales Commission incurred;
 2. Earned Retention;
 3. all claims payments made under the relevant Policies and related expenses incurred;
 4. Claims Reserves as held on the GEFA balance sheet for future claims payments under the relevant Policies as at the date to which Profit Share is being calculated;
 5. all applicable Tax/levies;
 6. all statutory, governmental or regulatory fees arising from or relating to a complaint made by an Insured Customer; and
 7. agreed extraordinary expenses incurred.

3. The resultant figure shall be the underwriting profits (the "Underwriting Profits") for the individual Scheme concerned. The Underwriting Profits for any individual Scheme may be positive or negative.
4. Subject to this Schedule 3, the Profit Share for the individual Scheme concerned shall be calculated by multiplying the Underwriting Profits for that Scheme by the relevant GECC Profit Share Percentage pursuant to Clause 5. The Profit Share for any individual Scheme may also be positive or negative.
5. If more than one Scheme qualifying for Profit Share calculation purposes has been in operation, GEFA shall calculate the consolidated profit or loss for all such Schemes within each Local Agreement by aggregating together all and any positive and negative Profit Shares for all relevant individual Schemes calculated under paragraphs (a) to (d) above.
6. The Profit Share calculated as at the relevant date (which may be positive or negative) shall be the amount calculated under paragraphs (a) to (d) above (or, if more than one Scheme has been in operation, paragraphs (a) to (e) above):
 1. less an amount equal to any payments made by GEFA to GECC under paragraph 4 below in respect of previous Profit Share calculations;
 2. plus an amount equal to any payments made by GECC to GEFA under paragraph 5 below in respect of previous Profit Share calculations;
 3. less an amount equal to any previous Profit Share payments made by GEFA to GECC which GECC has repaid or is due to repay to GEFA for any reason.
4. If the Profit Share calculation is  then GEFA shall  thereof to GECC within 30 Business Days of delivery of the Profit Share Account (which for the avoidance of doubt shall include the Profit Share Account at the end of the Run-Off Period).
5. If the Profit Share calculation in respect of any Local Agreement in any calendar year is  then the  amount shall be  years. If at the termination of this agreement the Profit Share Calculation is , then  shall be made and the  amount shall be  the end of the Run-Off Period. If at the end of the Run-Off Period the Profit Share calculation is still  then GECC shall  amount thereof to GEFA within 30 Business Days of delivery of the Profit Share Account. In no event will this sum  Profit Share payment has been made.
6. For the avoidance of doubt,  shall be  to GECC or to GEFA in respect of any period ending after the end of the last day of the Run-Off Period.

Schedule 4
Product Performance Monitoring

1. The Claims Performance Statement

GEFA will provide to GECC a Claims Performance Statement on a quarterly basis to show the following information for each Scheme, product and cover type in respect of each Local Agreement. The following information will be shown for each quarter for the last two years (the most recent quarter to be included will be that which ended six months prior to the date of the quarterly Profit Share Account):

- Earned Exposure in the quarter;
- Gross Earned Premium;
- Earned Claims Fund;
- Number of claims (including an estimate for claims which have occurred in that quarter but have not yet been reported);
- Claims paid;
- Claims reserved by type;
- Claims Frequency;
- Average duration of claims where relevant (e.g. for Accident and Sickness and Involuntary Unemployment claims);
- Gross Loss Ratio; and
- Risk Loss Ratio.

GEFA will include the data from the two quarters immediately preceding the end of the quarterly Profit Share Account, but the Parties acknowledge that the performance reflected by such data will not be mature because the development of reported claims takes two quarters and the detailed analysis will not yet be available.

Each claim will be allocated to a quarter in accordance with the date in which the claim occurred.

GEFA shall provide the first Claims Performance Statement to GECC based on data as at 31st December 2003 on or by 31st March 2004.

GECC and GEFA hereby agree that discussions relating to individual Schemes shall be restricted to those Schemes which are agreed to be of a size where the claims performance has stabilised but in determining whether or not such stabilisation has occurred the Parties shall have regard to the performance of the relevant Schemes before they become subject to a Local Agreement as well as after.

In respect of Existing Business, GECC hereby agrees that if a Local Agreement, product or individual Scheme is identified at the Quarterly Performance Meeting as running at Loss Ratio greater than  per cent., the Parties shall as soon as reasonably practicable hold good faith discussions to attempt to agree a plan and timetable for actions to bring any such Scheme or product to a Loss Ratio of  per cent. Such plan shall include one or more of the following:

- Make changes to the amount of premium allocated to a particular cover;
- Increase the Claims Fund as a percentage of the Gross Written Premium;
- Make a change to the terms and conditions of the Policies in a particular scheme; or
- Such other mechanism as agreed between the Parties.

In respect of New Business, GEFA hereby agrees that if a Local Agreement or individual Scheme is identified at the Quarterly Performance Meeting as running at a Loss Ratio less than  per cent or more than  per cent, the Parties shall as soon as reasonably practicable hold good faith discussions to attempt to agree a plan and timetable for actions to bring any such Scheme or product or cover to a Loss Ratio of  per cent. Such plan shall include one or more of the following:

- Make changes to the amount of premium allocated to a particular cover;
- Decrease the Claims Fund as a percentage of the Gross Written Premium;
- Make a change to the terms and conditions of the Policies in a particular scheme; or
- Such other mechanism as agreed between the Parties.

Any losses not previously notified by the date of this agreement or in the relevant quarter will not be carried forward and shall be borne  per cent. by the relevant GEFA Company.

If a Loss Ratio in respect of a Local Agreement is greater than % and Parties agree such plan and if GECC fails to implement the plan in accordance with the timetable agreed at the Quarterly Performance Meeting, the current profit share split and arrangements shall continue to apply in accordance with the relevant Local Agreement but GECC will carry forward GEFA's % share of such underwriting loss.

Schedule 5
Potential New Business and Payment Protection Products Set-up Process

The processes for determining whether Potential New Business shall be New Business and the set-up of New Business in a Territory are set out below in Parts A and B. The processes for addressing Material Change and Local Material Change referred to in Clauses 20.2.3 and 20.4.4 are set out in Part C below.

PART A Potential New Business in New Territories where there is no Local Agreement

In relation to Potential New Business in New Territories where a Local Agreement is not in place (the following shall also apply to Potential New Business in Existing Territories or in Territories in which a Local Agreement is in place, subject to the provisions of Part B of this Schedule 5):

1 Notification

- (i) GECC shall, or shall procure that the relevant GECF Group Company shall, notify in writing the relevant Country Manager, relevant Regional Manager and GECC Relationship Manager, as soon as reasonably practicable of any Potential New Business required, with details of the Payment Protection Product or package of Payment Protection Products required and related services together with details of the proposed implementation timetable (which is to be reasonable and have regard to all circumstances). Notification shall be deemed to be given upon receipt of the notice by GEFA.
- (ii) If GEFA or a GEFA Company shall advise GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company in writing of its intention to submit a New Business Proposal to GECC in respect of Potential New Business, this will initiate the process described from paragraph 4 below onwards.

2 GEFA will then undertake basic fact finding on the insurance market, legal and regulatory systems in the prospective New Territory.

3 Within 7 Business Days of notification pursuant to paragraph 1 by GECC, or the relevant GECF Group Company, to GEFA, or the relevant GEFA Company, the relevant GEFA Company may provide in writing to the relevant GECF Group Company an expression of interest in providing the Potential New Business.

4 If the relevant GEFA Company has provided the expression of interest within 7 Business Days in accordance with paragraph 3 above, the relevant GECF Group Company will provide the relevant GEFA Company as soon as reasonably practicable with the following information in its or any GECF Group Company's possession or control on the Payment Protection Products and related services as set out in the notification given pursuant to paragraph 1, subject to Applicable Laws and any confidentiality obligations on it:

Upon providing the above information to the relevant GEFA Company, the relevant GECF Group Company shall certify that, subject to confidentiality obligations and Applicable Laws, it has provided all such information.

- 5 Within 20 Business Days of the date of certification provided by the relevant GECF Group Company pursuant to paragraph 4 above, GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall prepare and submit to the relevant GECF Group Company a written proposal (the “New Business Proposal”) setting out its proposed terms and conditions for the provision of Payment Protection Products and related services for the Potential New Business, which shall include the following:

- 5.1 confirmation that the New Business Proposal is for the provision of the totality of the required Payment Protection Products and related services required for the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business as notified by GECC pursuant to paragraph 1;
- 5.2 the commercial terms for the provision of the Potential New Business which shall be:
- 5.2.1 in accordance with clause 5 of this agreement (for the avoidance of doubt, if the Potential New Business involves a New Channel, the Retention Rate may be altered pursuant to Paragraphs 7.1-7.3 of Part III of Schedule 16); and
- 5.2.2 in relation to Potential New Business required for an  (provided that the terms disclosed to GEFA pursuant to paragraph 4 above are the bona fide terms);
- 5.3 confirmation that, where the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business has existing arrangements or agreements with a third party or another company in its Group, the relevant GEFA Company will  the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business in accordance with the terms of clause 3.2.5(i)(b) for  (which have been disclosed pursuant to paragraph 4 by GECC or a GECF Group Company and which would be incurred in **;
- 5.4 the proposed implementation timetable for providing the Payment Protection Products and related services;
- 5.5 confirmation that the relevant GEFA Company has obtained the required regulatory or other licences to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in the Territory to the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business or, if the relevant GEFA Company does not hold the required regulatory or other licences, the proposed steps and timetable for obtaining such licences;
- 5.6 details of:
- 5.6.1 a plan setting out the various steps, tasks and resources required to implement the Potential New Business with a timetable and responsibilities;
- 5.6.2 any (i) branch set up with GEFA office & administration in the Territory; or (ii) office & administration set up in a neighbouring Territory; or (iii) partnership with local companies to provide administration and related services;
- 5.6.3 GEFA IT & Operations support;

- 6.5 the relevant GEFA Company will be able to commence provision of the Payment Protection Products and related services within the timetable set out in the notification made pursuant to paragraph 1 above;
- 6.6 the relevant GEFA Company has obtained or will have obtained the required regulatory or other licensing to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in the Territory in accordance with paragraph 5.5;
- 6.7 in relation to an Existing Territory or a Territory where a Local Agreement is in place, the relevant GEFA Company has a system and infrastructure in place which will be able to administer and support the Potential New Business;
- 6.8 in relation to a New Territory where there is no Local Agreement in place:
- 6.8.1 the relevant GEFA Company will have a system and infrastructure in place which will be able to administer and support the Potential New Business within the timetable set out in the notification made pursuant to paragraph 1 above; and
- 6.8.2 in at least one of the previous two months from the date of GEFA's proposal the relevant GEFA Companies shall either:
- (i) not have accrued Service Credits; or
- (ii) (in the first six months of the Term) are and have been complying with the Key Service Levels, in at least 75 per cent. of the Territories where a Local Agreement is in place including all of the Key Territories; and
- 6.9 in relation to an Existing Territory, in at least one of the previous two months, the relevant GEFA Company shall either (i) not have accrued Service Credits or (ii) (in the first six months of the Term) is and has been complying with all the Key Service Levels; and
- 6.10 the New Business Proposal has been priced in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 3 of Part II of Schedule 16 (if the New Business Proposal does not involve a New Channel) and Paragraphs 7.1-7.3 of Part III of Schedule 16 (if the New Business Proposal does involve a New Channel).

- 7.1 If the New Business Proposal satisfies the criteria set out in paragraph 6 above, the relevant GECF Group Company shall within 10 Business Days of receipt of such New Business Proposal, give written notice to the relevant GEFA Company of its acceptance of the New Business Proposal, subject to the relevant GEFA Company obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals.

- 7.2 If the relevant GECF Group Company rejects the New Business Proposal, it shall provide detailed written reasons for such rejection setting out the criteria that have not been satisfied. Where the relevant GECF Group Company rejects the New Business Proposal, the relevant GEFA Company shall have the right within 5 Business Days of receipt of notification of such rejection to:
- (i) propose amendments to the New Business Proposal, in which case paragraph 8.2 shall apply; and/or
 - (ii) refer the matter to the dispute resolution procedure set out in clause 15.2, in which case the Parties shall resolve the Dispute within 5 Business Days of the date of receipt by the relevant GEFA Company of the notice rejecting the New Business Proposal (or such longer period as the Parties may agree).
- 7.3 If the requirements of paragraph 6 have not been satisfied the relevant GECF Group Company may propose to accept the New Business Proposal, subject to such amendments as it sees fit, in which case it shall inform the relevant GEFA Company in writing of such amendments together with the reasons for such amendments, and paragraph 8 shall apply.
- 8 If the relevant GECF Group Company proposes amendments to the New Business Proposal:
- 8.1 the relevant GEFA Company may, within 5 Business Days of the date of the notice of such proposed amendments, resubmit an amended proposal in writing (the “Amended New Business Proposal”); and
 - 8.2 upon receipt of the Amended New Business Proposal, the relevant GECF Group Company shall assess such Amended New Business Proposal according to the criteria set out in paragraph 6 above and shall provide detailed written notice to the relevant GEFA Company of its decision to accept or reject the Amended New Business Proposal (in the case of rejection, with detailed written reasons) within 5 Business Days .
- 9.1 Where the relevant GECF Group Company rejects a New Business Proposal or Amended New Business Proposal according to the criteria set out in paragraphs 6 above (other than on the basis of the Risk Rate), GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall have no obligation to appoint GEFA or any GEFA Company as its provider, whether exclusive or otherwise, in the relevant Territory in respect of the New Business Proposal and GECC shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other GECF Group Companies in respect of the relevant New Business Proposal. The relevant GECF Group Company shall invite GEFA to take part in any subsequent tender process conducted by the relevant GECF Group Company in respect of the New Business Proposal provided that the relevant GEFA

Company agrees that the provisions for determining the Retention Rate and the Risk Rate for the New Business Proposal as set out in Parts II and Part III (as the case may be) of Schedule 16 (Business Proposal Pricing Process) shall apply to their submission save that, if an Actuary were to determine the Risk Rate pursuant to Paragraphs 5 or 9.2 of Schedule 16 (as the case may be), then the relevant GECF Group Company or the relevant GEFA Company would be entitled to reject the proposed Risk Rate. In either case, the relevant GECF Group Company would be entitled to award the tender to any third party.

9.2 Where the relevant GECF Group Company rejects a New Business Proposal or Amended New Business Proposal on the basis of the proposed Risk Rate, then the procedure commencing in Paragraph 5 of Part II of Schedule 16 (if the Business Proposal does not involve a New Channel) or the procedure commencing in paragraph 9.2 of Part III of Schedule 16 (if the Business Proposal does involve a New Channel) shall be implemented.

10 If pursuant to paragraph 7 or 8 or 9.2 above the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company agree the terms of the New Business Proposal (or the Amended New Business Proposal), the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company shall finalise the terms of the addendum to the Local Agreement or, where relevant, the terms of a New Local Agreement, provided that:

- (i) in relation to single premium Potential New Business, whether such Potential New Business shall be  shall be determined by the relevant GECF Group Company in its absolute discretion provided that Identified New Business shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 1C; and
- (ii) in relation to monthly premium Potential New Business, such Potential New Business shall be  unless the relevant GEFA Company, in its absolute discretion, consents to it being New **.

The parties shall make available suitably senior representatives to finalise such terms.

11 Once the Local Addendum or New Local Agreement (as the case may be) has been finalised pursuant to paragraph 10 above then, subject to the relevant GEFA Company having obtained and providing written evidence to the relevant GECF Group Company that it has obtained the required regulatory or other licences to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in the relevant Territory, the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company shall promptly enter into the addendum to the Local Agreement or New Local Agreement (as the case may be) at which point the Potential New Business shall be New Business for the purposes of this agreement.

12 If:

12.1 the relevant GEFA Company has not provided written notification of its expression of interest to the relevant GECF Group Company within the 7 Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 3 above;

- 12.2 the relevant GEFA Company has not provided the New Business Proposal to the relevant GECF Group Company within the 20 Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 5 above;
- 12.3 where applicable, the relevant GEFA Company has not provided the Amended New Business Proposal to the relevant GECF Group Company within the 5 Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 8.1 above; or
- 12.4 where applicable, the relevant GECF Group Company has rejected the Amended New Business Proposal in accordance with paragraph 8.2 above,
- 12.5 and provided GECC or the relevant GECF Group Companies have properly rejected the New Business Proposal or Amended New Business Proposal (as the case may be), for the remainder of the Term of this agreement, the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business shall have no obligation to appoint, GEFA or any GEFA Company as its provider, whether exclusive or otherwise, in the relevant Territory in respect of the relevant Potential New Business the subject of the notification pursuant to paragraph 1 and the relevant GECF Group Company or Acquired GECF Business shall have no obligation to terminate or give notice of termination in relation to any existing arrangements or agreements relating to the relevant Potential New Business and shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other companies in its Group in respect of the relevant Potential New Business.

Part B Potential New Business in Existing Territories or Territories where a Local Agreement is in place

In relation to Potential New Business in Existing Territories or Territories where a Local Agreement is in place, the following paragraphs of Part A shall apply as amended below:

- 13 paragraph 1;
- 14 paragraph 3;
- 15 paragraph 4;
- 16 paragraph 5 provided that references to “20 Business Days” shall be read as references to “10 Business Days”
- 17 paragraph 6;
- 18 paragraph 7;
- 19 paragraph 8;
- 20 paragraph 9;

- 21 paragraph 10 ;
- 22 paragraph 11; and
- 23 paragraph 12 provided that references to “20 Business Days” in paragraph 12.2 shall be read as references to “10 Business Days”;

Part C: Material Change Process

If, pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or 20.4.4, GECC has issued a written notice to GEFA, the procedure to be followed shall be as follows:

- 24 GECC shall, or shall procure that the relevant GEFC Group Company shall, and GEFA shall, or shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall, enter into good faith discussions for a period of 30 Business Days commencing on the date of the notice issued pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or clause 20.4.4 (the “Consultation Period”) to seek to agree an appropriate solution to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be).
- 25 On or by the date falling 20 Business Days after the end of the Consultation Period, GEFA shall, or GEFA shall procure that the relevant GEFA Company shall, prepare and submit to GECC or the relevant GEFC Group Company a written proposal (the “Material Change Proposal”) setting out its proposed or amended terms and conditions for the provision of Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be) (the “Material Change Business”), which shall include the following:
 - 25.1 confirmation that the Material Change Proposal is for the provision of all of the required Payment Protection Products and related services required by GECC or the relevant GEFC Group Company as notified by GECC pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or clause 20.4.4;
 - 25.2 the commercial terms for the provision of the Material Change Business which shall be in accordance with clause 5 of this agreement;
 - 25.3 the proposed timetable for providing the Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be);
 - 25.4 in relation to each relevant Territory, confirmation that the relevant GEFA Company holds the required regulatory or other licences to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be) to the relevant GEFC Group Company or Acquired GEFC Business or, if the relevant GEFA Company does not hold the required regulatory or other licences, the proposed steps and timetable for obtaining such licences;

- 25.5 details of its infrastructure in the Territory which shall be able to administer and support the Material Change Business;
- 26 Upon receipt of the Material Change Proposal, GECC or the relevant GECF Company shall assess the Material Change Proposal according to whether in its reasonable opinion the Material Change Proposal provides a solution to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be) and whether, in its reasonable opinion, the Material Change Proposal satisfies in all material respects in each relevant Territory the following criteria:
- 26.1 the Material Change Proposal covers all of the Payment Protection Products and related services as notified by GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or clause 20.4.4;
 - 26.2 the relevant GEFA Company will be in a position to provide the Payment Protection Products and related services as notified by GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or clause 20.4.4 in compliance with applicable Service Levels;
 - 26.3 the relevant GEFA Company will be able to commence provision of the Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be) within the timetable as notified by GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or clause 20.4.4;
 - 26.4 the relevant GEFA Company has obtained or is in the process of obtaining the required regulatory or other licences to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be) pursuant to paragraph 2.4;
- 27 Within 10 Business Days of receipt of the Material Change Proposal, the relevant GECF Group Company shall give written notice of its decision to GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company to accept or reject the Material Change Proposal. If GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company rejects the Material Change Proposal, it shall provide detailed written reasons for such rejection. GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company may propose to accept the Material Change Proposal subject to such amendments as it sees fit in which case it shall inform GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company in writing of such amendments together with the reasons for such amendments.
- 28 If GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company rejects the Material Change Proposal or proposes amendments to the Material Change Proposal:
- 28.1 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company may, within 5 Business Days of the date of the notice of such rejection or proposed amendments, resubmit an amended proposal in writing (the “ Amended Material Change Proposal ”); and
 - 28.2 upon receipt of the Amended Material Change Proposal, GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company shall assess such Amended Material Change Proposal and shall provide written notice to GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company of its decision to accept or reject the Amended Material Change Proposal (in the case of rejection, with detailed written reasons) within 5 Business Days.

- 29 If pursuant to paragraph 4 or 5 above, GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company and GEFA or the relevant GEFA Group Company agree the terms of the Material Change Proposal (or the Amended Material Change Proposal), GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company and GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company shall finalise the terms of the addendum to the relevant Local Agreement, and the parties shall make available representatives to finalise such terms.
- 30 Once the Local Addendum has been finalised pursuant to paragraph 6 above, then subject in each relevant Territory to the relevant GEFA Company having obtained and providing written evidence to the relevant GECF Group Company that it has obtained the required regulatory or other licences to provide the required Payment Protection Products and related services in response to the Material Change or Local Material Change (as the case may be), the relevant GECF Group Company and the relevant GEFA Company shall enter into the addendum to the Local Agreement.
- 31 If:
- 31.1 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company has not provided the Material Change Proposal to GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company within the 20 Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 2 above;
 - 31.2 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company has not provided the Amended Material Change Proposal to GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company within the 5 Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 5.1 above; or
 - 31.3 GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company has rejected the Amended Material Change Proposal in accordance with paragraph 5.2 above;
 - 31.4 then paragraph 9 shall apply.
- 27 Where this paragraph 9 applies GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company shall have the right to contact, potential Replacement Suppliers in each relevant Territory, to agree terms for the provision of the Payment Protection Products provided by the relevant GEFA Company as at the date of the notice pursuant to clause 20.2.3 or 21.4.4 (as the case may be), any such agreements being conditional on the termination of the relevant Local Agreement.
- 28 If GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company is able to agree such terms with a potential Replacement Supplier in a Territory it shall  by the potential Replacement Supplier in all material respects.
- 29 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company shall within 20 Business Days of the date of the offer in paragraph 10 accept or reject the terms of the offer. In the event that the offer is accepted, the relevant parties shall promptly agree an addendum to the relevant Local Agreement which reflects the terms of the offer and the relevant GEFA Company shall continue to be the exclusive supplier to the relevant GECF Group Company of Payment Protection Products in the relevant Territory. If:

29.1 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company rejects the offer; or

29.2 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company does not respond within the timescale set out above, paragraph 12 shall apply.

30 Where this paragraph 12 applies, GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company shall have the right to terminate this agreement (in the case of a Material Change) or the relevant Local Agreement (in the case of a Local Material Change).

Schedule 6
Part A: Framework Agreement Performance Meetings

1 Quarterly Performance Meetings

On a quarterly basis, or as otherwise agreed between the parties, a formal review of the overall relationship between GECC and GEFA will take place. This will be attended by the Relationship Managers of GECC and GEFA, GEFA Regional Managers, GECC Regional Insurance Managers, and further representatives of GEFA and GECC as appropriate. Key agenda items for the quarterly meeting will include:

- (a) Profit Share Account - to be provided by GEFA to GECC in accordance with Schedule 3 and timeframe;
- (b) Scheme performance including the Claims Performance Statement to be provided by GEFA to GECC in accordance with Schedule 4 at least 10 Business days prior to the quarterly meeting;
- (c) Loss Ratio and action plans to ensure that the Loss Ratio is maintained at an adequate level in accordance with Schedule 4;
- (d) New Payment Protection Product development and penetration/growth initiatives;
- (e) Service Credits; and
- (f) Claims Reserve methodology and calculation.

2 Monthly Performance Meetings

On a monthly basis, or as otherwise agreed between the Parties, a formal review of the overall relationship between GECC and GEFA will take place. This will be attended by the Relationship Managers of GECC and GEFA, GEFA Regional Managers, GECC Regional Insurance Managers, and further representatives of GEFA and GECC (including finance, risk and operations) as appropriate. Key agenda items for the monthly meeting will include:

- (a) Service Levels (to include premium reconciliation, issues/risk log and escalated items);
- (b) Service Credits; and
- (c) Potential New Business opportunities.

Part B: Local Agreement Performance Meetings

3 Weekly Meetings

On a weekly basis, or as otherwise agreed between the Parties, a formal review will be held in each Territory. This may take place either by telephone or on a 'face-to-face' basis. As a minimum the attendees will include the GEFA Account Manager for the Territory and the local GECC Insurance Leader.

The results of the meeting will be recorded in a 'Meeting Log'. All issues/tasks relevant to the country concerned will be entered into this log and on a weekly basis the position will be updated. Specific reference will be made to parties responsible for actions and applicable deadlines.

At the end of each week, a joint communication is to be distributed to appropriate individuals within GECC and GEFA. This will update progress on key projects.

4 Monthly Meetings

On a monthly basis, or as otherwise agreed between the Parties, a formal review will take place for each country on a regional basis. This will be attended by the GEFA Regional Manager and GECC Regional Insurance Manager, and will be held in one of the Territories within the region on a rotation basis. The local GEFA Account Managers and GECC Insurance Leaders will attend either by telephone or in person depending on the location of the meeting.

Key Agenda Items for this meeting will include: Service Levels, Scheme Performance by way of Management Information Reports, New Product Development and Penetration/Growth Initiatives.

Supplemental Sales Commission

- 1 From 1st January, 2004, if in accordance with clause 5.3, the total Gross Written Premium for Existing Direct Business and Existing Reinsured Business exceeds the Incentive Threshold in a calendar year then GECC will receive a supplemental sales commission (the “Supplemental Sales Commission”). The Supplemental Sales Commission applies to the element of Existing Direct Business Gross Written Premium in excess of the Incentive Threshold and comprises:
 - (a) Additional Sales Commission; and
 - (b) Additional Profit Share.
- 2 GEFA shall calculate the Incentive Threshold in accordance with the following procedure:
 - 2.1 At the end of each calendar month the Gross Written Premium for Existing Business in each Territory will, subject to paragraph 2.2 below, be converted to Euro using the exchange rates set out at Schedule 10.
 - 2.2 The sum total of the 12 months will be the calendar year total for each Territory, and then the overall total Gross Written Premium for Existing Business is calculated as:
 - (a) Gross Written Premiums on Existing Reinsured Business in the calendar year (including GWP in respect of any Existing Reinsured Business which has been migrated to New Reinsurance Business); plus
 - (b) Gross Written Premiums on Existing Direct Business in the calendar year for single premium up-front policies; plus
 - (c) Gross Written Premiums on Existing Direct Business in the calendar year for monthly premium policies.
- 3 If the total Gross Written Premium for Existing Business is  than the Incentive Threshold then the Supplemental Sales Commission is payable on the Existing Direct Business Gross Written Premium  of the Incentive Threshold (“Excess”).
- 4 The Supplemental Sales Commission payable to GECC is then determined as:
 - (a) Additional Sales Commission at the rate of % of the Excess and shall be reviewed annually by the Parties on the basis of any change to the mix of Retention Rates in respect of Existing Business ; and
 - (b) Additional Profit Share at the rate of % of the Underwriting Profits relating to the Excess calculated as:

Underwriting Profits in the calendar year for all Existing Business  by the total Gross Earned Premium for all Existing Business  by the Gross Earned Premium on the Excess.

Schedule 14
Benchmarking

- 1 The first benchmarking exercise shall be undertaken by an organisation recognised as having benchmarking capability (the “Benchmarking Adviser”). The following provisions shall apply in respect of the selection of the Benchmarking Adviser:
 - 1.1 GECC shall identify three potential candidates to act as the Benchmarking Adviser. GEFA shall then eliminate one of the three choices and GECC shall choose which of the remaining candidates shall become the Benchmarking Adviser.
- 2 The Parties shall bear the costs of the first benchmarking exercise in equal shares and GEFA shall bear the costs of all subsequent benchmarking exercises.
- 3 The Benchmarking Adviser shall be required to submit to the parties the name(s) and curriculum vitae of its personnel proposed to be deployed on this matter and the estimated costs (which shall be reasonable). Each Party shall have the right to object to the deployment of proposed personnel and to require the Benchmarking Adviser to propose (and submit particulars of) alternative personnel, provided that the reasons for its objections are reasonable, and are supplied to the other Party and the Benchmarking Adviser in writing within five Business Days of the parties receiving the particulars of the personnel. GEFA shall have the right to object to the estimated costs and to negotiate such costs. The Benchmarking Adviser shall be required to enter into a confidentiality agreements with GECF and GEFA on no less onerous terms than those which apply to the Parties under this agreement.
- 4 In order that there are no ambiguities in relation to each Party’s understanding of how the benchmarking activity is to be undertaken, its findings interpreted and any resulting actions taken, the Benchmarking Adviser will be instructed to conduct the benchmarking activity in accordance with a set of instructions (the “ Benchmarking Terms of Reference ”). GECC will prepare the first draft of the Benchmarking Terms of Reference and deliver it to GEFA. GECC and GEFA shall endeavour to agree the Benchmarking Terms of Reference (acting reasonably and in good faith). If GECC and GEFA are unable to agree the Benchmarking Terms of Reference within 10 Business Days of the date on which the first draft was delivered to GEFA, either party may request the Benchmarking Adviser to prepare a draft Terms of Reference. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold or delay its approval of the draft Benchmarking Terms of Reference prepared by the Benchmarking Adviser. Following agreement of the Benchmarking Terms of Reference, a representative of each Party shall sign the Benchmarking Terms of Reference, which shall then be delivered to the Benchmarking Adviser.
- 5 As a minimum, the Benchmarking Terms of Reference will instruct the Benchmarking Adviser to gather in each Territory, using generally accepted benchmarking processes, the following information in respect of at least five members of the Benchmarking Pool (or where there are not five members of the Benchmarking Pool, then as many as is reasonably practicable) in the relevant Territory at that time:

- 5.1 types of Payment Protection Products offered to consumers;
- 5.2 features of Payment Protection Products offered to consumers including:
- (a) marketing channels (including direct mail, inbound and outbound telemarketing, email and internet campaigns);
 - (b) details of types of cover;
 - (c) details of benefit;
 - (d) consumer price and mechanism for charging consumer;
 - (e) length of time on the market; and
 - (f) such other information as agreed between the Parties.
- 5.3 The Benchmarking shall set out the information gathered in a report (the “ Benchmarking Report ”).
- 6 In respect of each six-monthly benchmarking exercise carried out after the first benchmarking exercise, GEFA shall gather the information set out in paragraphs 5.1 and 5.2 above. For the avoidance of doubt, the Benchmarking Adviser shall not be involved in any Benchmarking Exercise subsequent to the first Benchmarking Exercise. If the Parties agree to involve the Benchmarking Adviser in a Subsequent Benchmarking Exercise, the Parties shall bear the costs equally.
- 7 The Parties shall, within a reasonable time, assess, in the light of the information provided in accordance with paragraph 5 or paragraph 6 as appropriate, whether there are any Payment Protection Products or features of Payment Protection Products that are offered by GECF Group Companies’ Competitors to consumers in the relevant Territory but that the relevant GEFA Company does not offer to the relevant GECF Group Company.
- 8 For the avoidance of doubt the information specific to GECC in any and all Benchmarking Reports and Product Development Plans produced under this agreement shall be treated in the same way as if it were Confidential Information disclosed by a party under the agreement.
- 9 If:
- 9.1 GECC considers that the information provided by GEFA in accordance with paragraph 6 does not provide an accurate view of the market for Payment Protection Products in the relevant Territory; or
- 9.2 the Parties are not able to agree on the assessment carried out under paragraph 7; or

9.3 the Parties are not able to agree a Product Development Plan in accordance with Clause 9.4.4, then Clause 15 of this agreement shall apply

Schedule 15
Potential Substitute Business

Criteria for determining when Potential Substitute Business becomes Substitute Business

The Parties agree that any substitute Payment Protection Products which directly replace the Existing Business will be Substitute Business and will be subject to the existing terms, both the Retention Rate and Profit Share as set out in Schedule 1 and the Local Agreements.

The Parties agree that the following scenarios shall fall within or outside the definition of Substitute Business, as set out below. This is not an exhaustive list and any additional scenarios that may arise from time to time will be agreed between the senior management of GEFA and GECC centrally.

Furthermore, if the senior management of GEFA and GECC centrally agree a Payment Protection Product is partly Substitute Business and partly New Business, they will agree terms based on a weighted average of the Existing Business and New Business terms.

| Scenario | Type of Business | Exceptions |
| Any modification to Existing Business its terms, conditions or exclusions whether a minor change is made or a change in benefits to meet GECC finance agreements by modification to cover or an addition or removal of a cover section or sections. | Is Substitute Business | |
| Resolicitation activity GEFA currently does not offer on the back of Existing Business. “Resolicitation” means resolicitation activity in the marketing of a Payment Protection Product by mail or phone to uninsured GECC finance customers who have not opted to purchase the GEFA Payment Protection Product at the point of sale of the finance agreement. | Is New Business | If GECC intends to replace the Existing Business provided at initial point of sale of the finance agreement with a Resolicitation Payment Protection Product it will be Substitute Business and GECC will advise GEFA of its intent. If GECC stops actively promoting the Existing Business provided at the initial point of sale of the finance agreement by means of training or account management or |

| | | incentives or other method which adversely impacts on the Existing Business performance, measured by insurance penetration of the Existing Business, then any Resolicitation Scheme will be restructured as Substitute Business with the appropriate Retention Rate and Profit Share terms applied. |
| A joint borrower cover Payment Protection Product where GEFA currently only offers a single cover Payment Protection Product. | Is Substitute Business for the first named principal borrower. Is New Business for the second named borrower. | As GEFA cannot split terms within one Payment Protection Product, aggregate terms will be provided combining the proportion of the Risk Rate allocated to the first named principal borrower and the second named borrower. |
| New GECC business partnership. This shall include new partnerships with retailers, dealers or broker groups. | Is New Business | It is not intended to include individual additions of a retailer, dealer or broker which will be provided with terms as Substitute Business, unless a separate Scheme is required. |
| A Payment Protection Product offered to an age range excluded from Existing Business or other Payment Protection Product targeting another specific group of customers not currently provided under Existing Business. | Is New Business | |
| Committed Payments Products designed to protect in whole or in part GECC finance commitments if they are in replacement of Existing Business. | Is Substitute Business | |

|---|------------------|---|
| Committed Payments Products not designed to protect GECC finance commitments. | Is New Business | |
| A Payment Protection Product provided for a new and distinct GECC finance activity including any new and distinct loan product, which does not replace an existing loan product, offered by GECC. | Is New Business | Any Payment Protection Product provided to a new or distinct loan product, which replaces an existing loan product, will be Substitute Business. If the new loan product increases the volume of Existing Business's Gross Written Premium then blended terms will be agreed. |
| Acquired GECF Business. | Is New Business | If Existing Business is transferred to the Acquired GECF Business, the terms for the Existing Business will remain unchanged. |

Schedule 16
Business Proposal Pricing Process

Part I

- 1 Where:
- 1.1 GECC or any GECF Group Company request an Offering pursuant to Clause 9.4.4 and such an Offering described in the relevant Product Development Plan constitutes Potential Substitute Business; or
- 1.2 paragraph 9.2 of Part A of Schedule 5 applies and the Parties need to determine the pricing of a New Business Proposal or Amended New Business Proposal,
- the procedure set out in this Schedule shall apply.
- 2 Where the Offering, New Business Proposal or Amended Business Proposal as appropriate (in any case the “Business Proposal”):
- 2.1 does not include the establishment of a new form of distribution channel for the relevant Payment Protection Product (a “New Channel”), the process set out in Part II of this Schedule shall apply; or
- 2.2 does involve a New Channel for the relevant Payment Protection Product then the process set out in Part III of this Schedule shall apply.

PART II

- 3 Where the Business Proposal does not include a New Channel, GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company will provide GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company with a pricing proposal for the Business Proposal. The pricing proposal shall comprise two elements (i) the Retention Rate as has already been agreed by the Parties for the relevant Payment Protection Product as set out in Schedule 1 of this agreement (for Potential Substitute Business) or Clause 5 of this agreement (for Potential New Business) as the case may be; and (ii) the Risk Rate.
- 4 Where GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company agrees to the pricing proposal, then the Parties shall proceed to implement the Product Development Plan.
- 5 Where GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company does not agree to the pricing proposal, then the dispute shall be referred to the dispute resolution process set out in Clauses 15.2 of the agreement. If the Parties are not able to resolve the dispute within 10 Business Days of the matter being referred to the dispute resolution process then either Party may refer the pricing proposal to Watson Wyatt or other independent actuary as agreed by the Parties (the “Actuary”). The Actuary shall determine the price by calculating the Risk Rate. The Actuary shall act as an Expert and not as an arbitrator and the Actuary’s decision shall be final and binding on the parties. The Actuary shall then determine his own pricing proposal for the Business Proposal. Either Party shall be entitled to receive a copy of the assumptions upon which the Actuary determined the Risk Rate.

- 6 Where the Parties refer the matter to the Actuary, the price shall be calculated by adding the Risk Rate as determined by the Actuary to the Retention Rate. Where:
- 6.1 the Parties agree to the price, then the Parties will proceed to implement the Business Proposal and (where the New Business Proposal is a New Business Proposal or Amended Business Proposal) the terms of Paragraphs 10 and 11 of Part A of Schedule 5 shall apply; or
- 6.2 GECC or the relevant GEFC Company does not accept the price, then the Product Development Plan will be abandoned; or
- 6.3 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company does not accept the price, then (i) GECC and the relevant GEFC Group Company shall have no obligation to appoint GEFA or any GEFA Company as its provider, whether exclusive or otherwise, for the relevant Local Agreement in respect of the Business Proposal and (ii) GECC shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other companies in the GEFC Group in respect of the Business Proposal and (iii) the relevant GEFC Group Company shall not be obliged to invite the relevant GEFA Company to participate in the tender process but shall provide the relevant GEFA Company with a copy of the tender documentation.

Part III

- 7 Where:
- 7.1 The Business Proposal does include a New Channel and **.
- 7.2 Any increase in the Retention Rate set out in the relevant Local Agreement must . GEFA shall provide substantiation for the revised Retention Rate based on a proposed pricing unit for each premium sold via the New Channel.
- 7.3 GEFA shall also provide:
- 7.3.1 (if the New Channel is to be provided by GEFA or a GEFA Company directly) the benchmarked costings of the New Channel; or
- 7.3.2 (if the New Channel is to be provided by an outsourced supplier) the relevant tender documentation for such outsourcing.
- The pricing and capabilities offered by GEFA must be competitive with the benchmarked or tender costings identified.
- 7.4 If the pricing and capabilities offered by GEFA pursuant to paragraph 7.3 are competitive and the Risk Rate is accepted by GECC, then the Parties shall finalise the terms of the addendum to the Local Agreement or, where relevant, the terms of a New Local Agreement.

8 Where GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company does not agree to the proposed revised Retention Rate then the matter will be referred to the dispute resolution process set out in Clause 15.

9 Where:

9.1 GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company agrees to the revised Retention Rate and the Risk Rate proposed by GEFA, then the Parties shall proceed to implement the Product Development Plan, or 9.2 GECC or the relevant GECF Group Company does not agree to the Risk Rate, then the dispute shall be referred to the dispute resolution process set out in Clause 15.2 of the agreement. If the Parties are not able to resolve the dispute within 10 Business Days of the matter being referred to the dispute resolution process then either Party may refer the dispute to the Actuary. The Actuary shall determine the price by calculating the Risk Rate. The Actuary shall act as an Expert and not as an arbitrator and the Actuary's decision shall be final and binding on the parties. The Actuary shall then determine his own pricing proposal for the Business Proposal. Either Party shall be entitled to receive a copy of the assumptions upon which the Actuary determined the Risk Rate.

10 Where the Parties refer the matter to the Actuary, the price shall be calculated by adding the Risk Rate as determined by the Actuary to the revised Retention Rate.

Where:

10.1 the Parties agree to the price, then the Parties will proceed to implement the Business Proposal and (where the Business Proposal is a New Business Proposal or Amended Business Proposal) the terms of Paragraphs 10 and 11 of Part A of Schedule 5 shall apply; or

10.2 GECC or the relevant GECF Company does not accept the price, then the Product Development Plan will be abandoned; or

10.3 GEFA or the relevant GEFA Company does not accept the price, then (i) GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall have no obligation to appoint GEFA or any GEFA Company as its provider, whether exclusive or otherwise, for the relevant Local Agreement in respect of the Business Proposal and (ii) GECC and the relevant GECF Group Company shall be free to enter into discussions, tenders, negotiations, arrangements and agreements with third parties and/or other companies in the GECF Group in respect of the Business Proposal and (iii) the relevant GECF Group Company shall not be obliged to invite the relevant GEFA Company to participate in the tender process but shall provide the relevant GEFA Company with a copy of the tender documentation.

SERVICES AND TERMS

SECTION 2.01. Services; Scope

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the Termination Date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, GNA shall perform, or cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to perform, with respect to the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business the services listed in Schedule A hereto (the “Service(s)”).

(b) The Services shall include, and the Service Charges reflect charges for, such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements normally and customarily performed by GNA or its applicable Subsidiaries and Affiliates in connection with providing such services.

(c) The Services shall not include any services GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates performs or causes to be performed pursuant to (i) that certain Transition Services Agreement, dated as of _____, 2004, by and among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GEFAHI, GE Asset Management Incorporated, Genworth Financial, Inc., and GNA, (ii) the Reinsurance Agreements or (iii) that certain Administrative Services Agreement by and between the Company and First Colony Life Insurance Company relating to the Recaptured Business.

ARTICLE III

COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

SECTION 3.01. Costs and Disbursements.

(a) As reimbursement for expenses incurred by GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates in performing the Services with respect to the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business, the Company shall pay to GNA with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date of each reinsurance agreement listed on Schedule B hereto, a service charge (the “Service Charges”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule C hereto, as subsequently adjusted, in part, in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth in Schedule C.

(b) GNA shall deliver an invoice to the Company on a monthly basis in arrears for the Service Charges due to GNA under this Agreement. The Company shall pay the amount of such invoice to GNA in U.S. dollars within seventy-five (75) days of the date of such invoice. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due GNA pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue. As soon as practicable after receipt by GNA of any reasonable written request by the Company, GNA shall provide the Company with reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to support the calculation of any amount due to GNA under this Agreement for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of such calculation. If, after reviewing such data and documentation, the Company disputes GNA's calculation of any amount due to GNA, then the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Article V.

ARTICLE IV

STANDARD FOR SERVICE; COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAW; LIMITED LIABILITY

SECTION 4.01. Standard for Service. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement (including in Schedule A hereto), GNA shall perform, or cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to perform, the Services (a) in the same manner as they conduct their own businesses not subject to this Agreement and (b) in accordance with the administrative performance standards of GNA and its applicable Subsidiaries and Affiliates in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are made in the ordinary course (the "Standard for Services").

SECTION 4.02. Compliance with Applicable Law. GNA shall comply, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to comply, with all Applicable Law when providing the Services or when performing obligations under this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall require GNA or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to act or refuse to act other than in compliance with Applicable Law.

SECTION 4.03. Limited Liability. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4.01, GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and their respective directors, officers or employees (or any of the heirs, executors, successors or assigns of any of the foregoing) (each, a "Service Provider") shall have no liability to the Company or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates in excess of $10,000,000 in the aggregate for any and all claims in contract, tort or otherwise for or in connection with any breach of its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that such limitation on liability shall not extend to or otherwise limit any liabilities that result directly from such Service Provider's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

ARTICLE V

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

SECTION 5.01. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof or otherwise relating to any of the Services performed hereunder (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article V, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 5.02, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 5.03, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential, lost profits, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages, losses or expenses (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages) and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article V are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

SECTION 5.02. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

SECTION 5.03. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 5.02 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of GNA, or the Company, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

SECTION 5.04. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 5.03 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of GNA or the Company or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Illinois, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 5.04 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 5.04(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article V.

ARTICLE VI
TERMINATION

SECTION 6.01. Termination of the Agreement .

(a) This Agreement will terminate in its entirety on the earliest of:

(i) the date the Company's liability under all of the Reinsurance Agreements and the Recaptured Business is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof;

(ii) the date that all of the Reinsurance Agreements are terminated in accordance with the terms thereof and the Company's liability under the Recaptured Business is terminated; or

(iii) the date that this Agreement has been terminated with respect to all of the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business under Section 6.02(e).

(b) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to GNA, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against GNA or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates performing Services pursuant to this Agreement for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating GNA or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates, but only if the Services performed by the subject of such proceeding are not assumed or performed by GNA or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates that are not the subject of such proceeding; or

(ii) GNA or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates are unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure.

(c) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

SECTION 6.02. Termination with Respect to Any Reinsured Business or Recaptured Business . The term of this Agreement will terminate with respect to the portion of any Reinsured Business under any given Reinsurance Agreement or any Recaptured Business on the earliest of:

(a) the date the Company's liability under such Reinsurance Agreement is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof;

(b) the date that such Reinsurance Agreement is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof;

(c) with respect to any Recaptured Business, the date on which the Company's liability under such Recaptured Business is terminated;

(d) the date that the Company or its assignee becomes entitled to assume administration of the portion of the Reinsured Business reinsured under such Reinsurance Agreement or the administration of the Recaptured Business;

(e) seventy-five (75) days following written notice by the Company of GNA's willful, material breach of its obligations under Articles II and IV of this Agreement with respect to such Reinsured Business or Recaptured Business (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates are making good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article V regarding an alleged material breach); or

(f) such other date as agreed by the Company and GNA.

SECTION 6.03. Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, GNA will have no further obligation to perform any Service, and the Company will have no obligation to pay any Service Charges relating to any Service or make any other payments under this Agreement (other than for Services performed prior to such termination). Upon termination of this Agreement with respect to a Reinsured Business or a Recaptured Business in accordance with this Agreement's terms, GNA will have no further obligation to perform, or cause its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to perform any Service with respect to such Reinsured Business or such Recaptured Business, and the Company will have no obligation to pay any Service Charges relating to any Service with respect to such Reinsured Business or such Recaptured Business or make any other payments under this Agreement with respect to such Reinsured Business or Recaptured Business (other than for Services performed prior to such termination).

SECTION 6.04. Survival. Article III (Costs and Disbursements) (but only in connection with Service Charges incurred and accrued as of the date of termination of this Agreement and the terms of Section 3.01(b) as applied to such Service Charges), Section 4.03 (Limitation of Liability), Article V (Dispute Resolution), Section 6.03 (Effect of Termination), Section 6.04 (Survival), and Article VII (General Provisions) shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.05. Force Majeure. GNA (and any Person acting on its behalf including its Subsidiaries and Affiliates) shall not have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of Force Majeure. As soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event GNA shall: (a) notify the Company of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition and (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 7.01. Subcontractors. GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates may hire or engage one or more subcontractors to perform any or all of its obligations under this Agreement; provided that if such subcontractors are used solely in connection with the Reinsured Business or the Recaptured Business, then the prior written consent of the Company to the use of any such subcontractors shall be required, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld; provided further that GNA shall in all cases remain liable for all its obligations under this Agreement, including, without limitation, with respect to the scope of the Services, the Standard for Services and the content of the Services performed in respect of the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business. Under no circumstances shall the Company be responsible for making any payments directly to any subcontractor engaged by GNA or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates.

SECTION 7.02. Additional Services; Books and Records.

(a) If, during the term of this Agreement, either party identifies any additional or other service that GNA or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates are performing or that is necessary for GNA to start performing in respect of the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business, the parties hereto agree to negotiate in good faith with respect to the Service Charge for such service (provided that such services are of a type generally performed in respect of business like the Reinsured Businesses and the Recaptured Business) and the applicable service fees, payment procedures, and other rights and obligations with respect thereto. To the extent practicable, such additional or other services shall be performed on terms substantially similar to those applicable to Services of similar types and otherwise on terms consistent with those contained in this Agreement.

(b) All books, records and data maintained by GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates with respect to the performance of a Service with respect to the Reinsured Businesses shall be the exclusive property of GNA and its applicable Subsidiaries and Affiliates. The Company, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to inspect, and make copies of, any such books, records and data during regular business hours upon reasonable advance notice to GNA.

(c) All books, records and data maintained by GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates with respect to the performance of a Service with respect to the Recaptured Business shall be the exclusive property of the Company. The Company, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to inspect, and make copies of, any such books, records and data during regular business hours upon reasonable advance notice to GNA.

SECTION 7.03. Taxes.

(a) Each party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.

(b) The Company may report and (as appropriate) pay any sales, use, excise, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties (“Taxes”) with respect to the Reinsured Business directly if the Company provides GNA with a direct pay or exemption certificate.

(c) The parties agree to cooperate with each other to enable each to more accurately determine its own tax liability and to minimize such liability to the extent legally permissible. GNA’s invoices shall separately state the amount of any Taxes GNA is proposing to collect from the Company.

(d) GNA shall promptly notify the Company of any claim for Taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities with respect to the Reinsured Business for which the Company is alleged to be financially responsible hereunder. GNA shall coordinate with the Company the response to and settlement of, any such claim. Notwithstanding the above, the Company’s liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon GNA providing the Company notification within twenty (20) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by GNA.

(e) The Company shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid to GNA pursuant to this Agreement. In the event GNA shall be entitled to receive a refund of any Taxes paid by the Company to GNA, GNA shall promptly pay, or cause the payment of, such refund to the Company.

SECTION 7.04. Confidential Information. GNA agrees to maintain and safeguard, and cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to maintain and safeguard, all GE Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement and the Company agrees to maintain and safeguard, and cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to maintain and safeguard, all Genworth Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement and each party hereto agrees that Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement is hereby incorporated by reference into, and made a part of, this Agreement. The parties hereto agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached as Schedule D.

SECTION 7.05. Non-disclosure; Privilege; Conflicts of Interest. Neither GNA, the Company nor any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall be required to disclose any of their respective trade secret information or other information that provides GNA and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, or the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, as applicable, a significant competitive advantage. Further, neither GNA, the Company, nor any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates will be required to provide any information in connection with this Agreement if the provision of such information would serve as a waiver of any attorney-client privilege or other applicable privilege afforded such information. In no event will GNA or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates be required to perform any Services if doing so would constitute a conflict of interest or a breach of any applicable ethical rules governing the conduct of attorneys; provided that GNA shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any such conflict of interest or prevent any breach of any such ethical rules.

SECTION 7.08. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 7.08 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

SECTION 7.09. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

SECTION 7.10. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

SECTION 7.11. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by GNA and the Company.

SECTION 7.12. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

SECTION 7.13. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

SECTION 7.14. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

SECTION 7.15. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

SECTION 7.16. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

SECTION 7.17. Negotiated Agreement. This Agreement has been negotiated by the parties and the fact that the initial and final draft will have been prepared by either party or an intermediary will not give rise to any presumption for or against any party to this Agreement or be used in any respect or forum in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of its provisions.

SECTION 7.18. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” In addition, interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified, (c) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, and (d) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.

SECTION 7.19. No Right to Set-Off. The Company shall pay the full amount of costs and disbursements incurred under this Agreement, and shall not set-off, counterclaim or otherwise withhold any other amount owed to GNA on account of any obligation owed by GNA to the Company.

SCHEDULE C

SERVICE CHARGES

The “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors” used to calculate the Service Charges for each respective line of business are as follows:

Structured Settlement Annuity Reinsured Business and Recaptured Business :

|---------------------------|----------------|
| Corporate Overhead Factor | $ per Annum |
|---------------------------|----------------|

|--------------------------|-----------------|
| Business Overhead Factor | $ per Policy |
|--------------------------|-----------------|

Variable Annuity Reinsured Business

|---------------------------|----------------|
| Corporate Overhead Factor | $ per Annum |
|---------------------------|----------------|

|--------------------------|-----------------|
| Business Overhead Factor | $ per Policy |
|--------------------------|-----------------|

Long-Term Care Retroceded Business

|---------------------------|----------------|
| Corporate Overhead Factor | $ per Annum |
|---------------------------|----------------|

The Service Charges will be determined quarterly and billed to the Company in three equal installments at the end of the month during the quarter. Each monthly installment billed for a particular line of business will be determined by (a) multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Business Overhead Factor (divided by twelve), if applicable, and (b) adding the applicable Corporate Overhead Factor (divided by twelve).

The Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for each respective line of business will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Triennial Study”) and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report”).

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, GNA shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Company the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the “Triennial Study Documents”).

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, GNA shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Company the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report, the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents”).

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs for those services identified as Business Overhead Services and Corporate Overhead Services in Schedule A and any changes thereto pursuant to Schedule A) will be determined for the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors identified above. For a given Business Overhead Factor (identified above in this Schedule C) the identified or allocated costs, as applicable, will be divided by the total number of remaining Reinsured Policies, Reinsured Contracts (as such terms are defined in the applicable Reinsurance Agreement) or Insurance Contracts (as such term is defined in the Administrative Services Agreement by and between Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company and First Colony Life Insurance Company effective as of [], 2004), as applicable, and the Company’s current in-force business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year. For the purposes of allocating costs of providing Business Overhead Services, actual identified costs allocable to each of the lines of business specified above (Structured Settlement Annuity Reinsured Business, Recaptured Business and Variable Annuity Reinsured Business) shall be allocated to such lines of business. For the purpose of allocating costs of providing the Corporate Overhead Services, the historical costs of such services shall be allocated equally to each of the lines of business specified above.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by GNA and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth above). The costs for Business Overhead Services will then be divided by the total number of remaining Reinsured Policies, Reinsured Contracts (as such terms are defined in the applicable Reinsurance Agreement) or Insurance Contracts (as such term is defined in the Administrative Services Agreement by and between Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company and First Colony Life Insurance Company effective as of [], 2004) for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year. The costs for Corporate Overhead Services shall be allocated equally to each of the lines of business specified above.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit for Business Overhead Services or per annum for Corporate Overhead Services determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation that was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost, per annum cost and additional adjustment for a respective line of business is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for that line of business.

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, GNA shall (i) provide to the Company or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Company or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Company and the Company's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Company or the Company's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Company has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to GNA within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Company. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors as proposed by GNA as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Company does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year. If the Company delivers a Notice of Disagreement to GNA within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and GNA within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and GNA. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and GNA a definitive calculation of the Business Overhead Factors, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Business Overhead Factors. The Company and GNA shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Service Charges Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and GNA agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

SCHEDULE D

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose .

In order to disclose certain information to GNA (for purposes of this Addendum, the “Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the Company (for purposes of this Addendum, the “Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply (and Provider shall cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates performing Services to comply) with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to the extent that any or Provider or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider or such Subsidiary or Affiliate. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate's Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

1. The disclosure is required by law; or

2. The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

- a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
- b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a “Limited Data Set” as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ activities for purposes of “treatment”, “payment” or “health care operations”, as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate’s operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. “Standard Transaction(s)” shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked “not used” in the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction’s implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's or Affiliate's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's or Affiliate's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, its Affiliate, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's or Affiliate's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's or Affiliate's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary or Affiliate in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary or Affiliate for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary or Affiliate promptly after Business Associate learns of such non-permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary or Affiliate may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

DERIVATIVES MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

AMONG

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

AND

GE ASSET MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED

AND

GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION

DATED AS OF APRIL 15, 2004

THIS DERIVATIVES MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 15th day of April, 2004 (the "Effective Date"), by and among UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company domiciled in the State of Illinois ("UFLIC"), GE ASSET MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED, a Delaware corporation ("GEAM") and GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("GECC").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, UFLIC, GEAM and GECC are all subsidiaries of General Electric Company; and

WHEREAS, the UFLIC, from time to time, desires to hedge certain risks, including but not limited to interest rate risk, associated with its assets through the use of instruments commonly referred to as derivatives; and

WHEREAS, resolutions adopted by the GECC Board and related policy statements require that GECC's Treasury Operation ("GECC Treasury") executes, manages and administers all derivative transactions on behalf of GECC and its subsidiaries; and

WHEREAS, effective May 1, 2002, UFLIC entered into an Investment Management and Services Agreement with GEAM; and

WHEREAS, GECC Treasury may from time to time, at the request of GEAM, appoint certain individuals at GEAM as representatives of GECC Treasury with limited authority to execute, manage and administer certain derivative transactions on behalf of UFLIC; and

WHEREAS, UFLIC will enter into ISDA Master Agreements together with related schedules and confirmations (the "Contracts") with various unaffiliated counterparties (individually, a "Counterparty" and collectively, the "Counterparties"); and

WHEREAS, UFLIC, GECC and GEAM desire to enter into this Agreement to set forth the services that each of GECC and GEAM will provide to UFLIC in connection with the Contracts;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants contained herein, UFLIC, GECC and GEAM hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND USAGE

1.1 Definitions. The following capitalized terms, as used in this Agreement, have the following meanings:

“Affiliate” of a Person means a Person who, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such Person.

“Applicable Law” or “Applicable Laws” means any domestic or foreign federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance or code, including the Illinois insurance code, or any rules, regulations, administrative interpretations or orders issued by any Governmental Authority, including any Insurance Authority, pursuant to any of the foregoing, and any order, writ, injunction, directive, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction applicable to the parties hereto.

“Board” means the Board of Directors of UFLIC as the same may be elected from time to time by the shareholders of UFLIC.

“Contracts” shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals to this Agreement.

“Effective Date” shall have the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph.

“GAAP” means generally accepted accounting principles in effect, from time to time, in the United States.

“Governmental Authority” means any Insurance Authority or any court, tribunal, arbitrator, authority, agency, commission, official or other instrumentality of the United States or any federal, national, state, municipal, county, city or other political subdivision.

“Insurance Authority” means the department, bureau, commission or other agency responsible for overseeing insurance matters within any state that UFLIC is authorized to do business (as applicable to UFLIC).

“Investment Committee” means a committee designated by UFLIC’s Board to oversee UFLIC’s investment activities, including the execution and management of derivative transactions.

“Investment Guidelines” shall mean the resolutions pertaining to derivatives transactions adopted by the Board of UFLIC.

“Person” means an individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association, trust or any other entity or organization, including governmental or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

“Records” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.5.

“Representatives” means, as applicable, UFLIC’s directors, officers, employees, accountants and legal and financial advisors.

“Representer” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.2.

“SAP” means statutory accounting procedures and principles prescribed or permitted by Applicable Law.

- 1.2 Headings; Rules of Construction. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the following rules of interpretation apply to this Agreement: (i) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; (ii) “or” and “any” are not exclusive and “include” and “including” are not limiting; (iii) a reference to any agreement or other contract includes permitted supplements and amendments; (iv) a reference to a law includes any amendment or modification to such law and any rules or regulations issued thereunder; (v) a reference to a person includes its successors and permitted assigns; and (vi) a reference in this Agreement to an article, section, annex, exhibit or schedule is to the article, section, annex, exhibit or schedule of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II SERVICES

- 2.1 Execution and Management. Subject to the provisions of this Section 2.1, GECC Treasury will establish and confirm the terms of derivative transactions from time to time in the name of UFLIC and shall execute and deliver or otherwise enter into from time to time one or more derivatives confirmations or agreements evidencing such derivative transactions on behalf of and in the name of UFLIC as requested by UFLIC. In its performance of the foregoing obligations, GECC Treasury may appoint, from time to time at the request of GEAM, certain employees of GEAM as representatives of GECC Treasury with authority to execute, manage and administer certain derivative transactions on behalf of UFLIC in accordance with the terms of such appointment; provided, however, that such appointment shall be in writing and any action taken by any such GEAM employee shall be in accordance with GECC’s policies with respect to derivatives transactions as in effect from time to time.
- 2.2 Credit Support. With respect to each Contract, GECC or one of its affiliates may provide a guaranty in favor of the Counterparty to such Contract.
- 2.3 Administrative Services. With respect to the Contracts, GECC will provide certain administrative services, including without limitation certain legal services and paying agent services, on behalf of UFLIC, as set forth in the Administrative Services Agreement

(in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto), dated as of the date hereof, between GECC and UFLIC. In its performance of the foregoing obligations, GECC may appoint, from time to time, certain employees of GEAM as representatives of GECC Treasury with authority to execute, manage and administer certain derivative transactions on behalf of UFLIC in accordance with the terms of such appointment; provided, however, that any such appointment shall be in writing and any action taken by any such GEAM employee shall be in accordance with GECC's policies with respect to derivatives transactions as in effect from time to time.

2.4 Covenants of GECC and GEAM.

- (a) Each of GECC and GEAM shall discharge its duties with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person, acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters should use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. Further, each of GECC and GEAM shall use the same skill and care in the management of UFLIC's derivative transactions and in its other duties hereunder as it uses in the administration of other similar matters for which it has comparable responsibility.
- (b) In the performance of its duties and obligations to UFLIC under this Agreement, each of GECC and GEAM shall act in conformity with (i) the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of UFLIC, (ii) UFLIC's Investment Guidelines or other written instructions of UFLIC's Board, (iii) UFLIC's Investment Committee or Representatives of UFLIC, as applicable, (iv) GECC's policies, including with respect to derivatives transactions, as in effect from time to time, and (v) all Applicable Laws.

2.5 Recordkeeping and Reports; Review and Inspection.

- (a) GECC and GEAM shall, unless otherwise agreed with UFLIC, maintain all records, memoranda, instructions or authorizations (collectively, "Records") relating to the execution, management and administration of derivative transactions on behalf of UFLIC as required by Applicable Laws, GAAP or SAP. Such Records will be the property of UFLIC. On a timely basis, GECC and GEAM shall make available to UFLIC, at its administrative offices or such other location as may be designated by UFLIC, copies or originals of such Records upon reasonable request and, as necessary, to comply with Applicable Laws.
- (b) All Records, both internal and external with third parties, to the extent within the control of GECC and GEAM, will clearly specify the ownership interest of UFLIC with respect to the relevant derivative transactions.
- (c) Records concerning derivative transactions executed or managed on behalf of UFLIC that are not maintained physically on UFLIC's premises or UFLIC's care, custody and control shall be subject to review and audit at any time by UFLIC, its Representatives, any Insurance Authority and any other Governmental Authority, or any other entity designated by UFLIC, and GECC and GEAM shall cooperate with and provide reasonable assistance to any such person, including any auditor appointed by UFLIC to conduct an audit of or for UFLIC. Such Records shall be maintained for the time periods and in a format required by Applicable Law. GECC and GEAM shall notify UFLIC prior to destruction of UFLIC's Records (in order that UFLIC may request transfer of such Records to UFLIC as an alternative to destruction); provided that GECC and GEAM may not, in any event, destroy such Records prior to expiration of all applicable statutes of limitation.

- (d) GECC and GEAM shall provide to UFLIC such other documents and information pertaining to this Agreement and the derivative transactions executed or managed on behalf of UFLIC at such times as UFLIC may reasonably request including, but not limited to, information required to prepare reports to any Insurance Authority or any other entity designated by UFLIC or as may be required to comply with GAAP, SAP or Applicable Law.
- (e) GECC and GEAM will fully cooperate with UFLIC with respect to unsettled or unreconciled transactions and daily transmission of trading activity.

2.6 Information Furnished to GECC or GEAM. UFLIC shall furnish to GECC or GEAM in a timely manner any information that GECC or GEAM may reasonably request with respect to the services performed under this Agreement for UFLIC. In determining the requirements of Applicable Laws with respect to UFLIC, GECC and GEAM may rely on an interpretation of law by legal counsel to UFLIC. In determining the requirements of applicable accounting rules with respect to UFLIC, GECC and GEAM may rely on an interpretation of such rules by accountants for UFLIC.

ARTICLE III TERM AND TERMINATION

3.1 This Agreement shall continue in effect for an initial term beginning on the Effective Date and ending December 31, 2004. Unless earlier terminated, this Agreement shall automatically renew on January 1, 2005 and on each January 1 thereafter for successive periods of one (1) year. This Agreement may be terminated (i) at any time during the initial term or any renewal term by GECC or UFLIC without payment of any penalty upon sixty (60) days prior written notice to the other parties (which notice shall specify the effective date of termination), and (ii) immediately for cause by UFLIC (cause being understood as any material breach, action or omission by GECC or GEAM that, in the reasonable belief of UFLIC, is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement). This Agreement also shall automatically terminate in the event of its unauthorized assignment by any party or if any party ceases to be a majority-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of General Electric Company. Termination in any manner shall not affect the rights of any party, including the status of any guarantees issued pursuant to Section 2.2 of this Agreement that accrued prior to termination.

- 3.2 Within sixty (60) days of the termination of this Agreement, GECC and GEAM shall transfer all Records of UFLIC to UFLIC or its designee. All reasonable costs to transfer UFLIC's Records shall be paid by UFLIC.

ARTICLE IV COMPENSATION

Each of GEAM and GECC agree that if services are performed under this agreement, the parties will determine appropriate compensation at the time the services are rendered, provided, that such compensation shall be fair and reasonable. Such agreement, however, shall not extend to reimbursement of losses, damages and other expenses contemplated under Section 7.2 and for reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred on behalf of UFLIC.

ARTICLE V CONFIDENTIALITY

Subject to the duty of GECC, GEAM or UFLIC to comply with Applicable Laws, each party hereto shall treat as confidential all information with respect to any other party received pursuant to this Agreement. No party shall use or disclose another party's confidential information except as contemplated by this Agreement or except as required by Applicable Law.

ARTICLE VI REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

6.1 By UFLIC. UFLIC represents and warrants that:

- (a) It is an insurance company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its state of incorporation and has the power and authority (including approval from the relevant Insurance Authority, if required) to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement; and
- (b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of UFLIC enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally or by the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies.

6.2 By GECC and GEAM. Each of GECC and GEAM (each a "Representer") represents and warrants with respect only to itself that:

- (a) It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware, has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement;

- (b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of the Representer enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally or by the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies; and
- (c) Neither the execution and delivery nor the performance of this Agreement by the Representer will violate any law, statute, order, rule or regulation or judgment, order or decree by any federal, state, local or foreign court or governmental authority, domestic or foreign, to which the Representer is subject nor will the same constitute a breach of, or default under, provisions of any agreement or contract to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

ARTICLE VII
MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Limitation of Liability. In furnishing UFLIC with services as provided herein, none of GECC or GEAM nor any officer, director or agent thereof shall be held liable to UFLIC, its creditors or the holders of its securities for good faith errors of judgment or for anything except willful misfeasance, bad faith or negligence in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the terms of this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed that GECC and GEAM may rely upon information furnished to it by UFLIC that GECC or GEAM (as applicable) reasonably believes to be accurate and reliable. Certain federal laws, including federal securities laws, impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and therefore nothing contained herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights that UFLIC may have under any such federal laws.

7.2 Indemnification.

- (a) Notwithstanding any limitation of liability contained in Section 7.1, GECC and GEAM shall indemnify and hold UFLIC harmless from and against any losses, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, penalties, demands and claims of any nature whatsoever with respect to or arising out of the breach or violation by GECC or GEAM of any agreement, covenant, representation or warranty made by GECC or GEAM herein.
- (b) UFLIC shall indemnify and hold GECC or GEAM harmless from and against any losses, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, penalties, demands and claims of any nature whatsoever with respect to or arising out of UFLIC's breach or violation of any agreement, covenant, representation or warranty made by UFLIC herein.

7.3 Assignment. No assignment (by operation of law or otherwise) of this Agreement, in whole or in part, nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement by any party shall be effective without the prior written consent of the other parties and any necessary approvals from the relevant Insurance Authority. Subject to the provisions of this Section 7.3, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

- 7.4 Independent Contractor . GEAM and GECC shall be deemed to be independent contractors and, except as expressly provided or authorized in this Agreement, shall have no authority to act for or represent UFLIC. UFLIC shall always retain the ultimate authority to make decisions regarding the execution or management of derivative transactions on its own behalf.
- 7.5 Right to Contract with Third Parties . Nothing herein shall be deemed to grant to GEAM or GECC an exclusive right to provide the services described herein to UFLIC, and UFLIC retains the right to contract with any third party, affiliated or unaffiliated, for the performance of services or for the use of facilities as are available to or have been requested by UFLIC pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, GECC Treasury shall execute all derivatives transactions of any subsidiary with respect to which GECC has direct or indirect voting control in accordance with the GECC Derivatives Policy.
- 7.6 Governing Law . This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois, without giving effect to its conflict of laws principles.
- 7.7 Notices . Any notice under this Agreement shall be given in writing, addressed, and delivered by hand or facsimile, or mailed postpaid by U.S. Mail or overnight courier service, to the party to this Agreement entitled to receive such notice, at such party's principal place of business as set out here:

Unless otherwise permitted by the terms hereof, whenever any notice is required to be given hereunder, such notice shall be deemed given and such requirement satisfied only when such notice is delivered by hand, or, if delivered by facsimile, overnight courier or mail, when received.

- 7.8 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.
- 7.9 Amendments. No term or provision of this Agreement may be modified, amended, waived, discharged or terminated except by an agreement in writing, executed by each of the parties hereto; provided that any material amendment shall be subject to the approval, if required, of the relevant Insurance Authority.
- 7.10 Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes any and all oral or written agreements or understandings heretofore made, and contains the entire agreement of the parties, with respect to the subject matter hereof.
- 7.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

THIS AGREEMENT is made on [] 2004 between the following parties:

- (1) FINANCIAL INSURANCE GROUP SERVICES LIMITED, a company incorporated in England and Wales (registered number 1670707) whose registered office is at Vantage West, Great West Road, Brentford, Middlesex, TW8 9AG (“FIGSL”); and
- (2) GE LIFE SERVICES LIMITED, a company incorporated in England and Wales (registered number 4330120) whose registered office is at The Priory, Hitchin, Hertfordshire, SG5 2DW (“GELS”).

WHEREAS:

- (A) General Electric Company (“GE”), General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. (“GEFAHI”) and Genworth Financial, Inc. (“Genworth”) have entered into a Master Agreement of even date (the “Master Agreement”).
- (B) In connection with the Master Agreement, GE, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GEFAHI, GNA Corporation, GE Asset Management Incorporated, General Electric Mortgage Holdings LLC and Genworth have entered into a Transition Services Agreement of even date (the “Global Transition Services Agreement”) pursuant to which (i) GE and its subsidiaries will provide or cause to be provided certain administrative and support services and other assistance to Genworth together with its subsidiaries, including GNA Corporation, on a transitional basis and (ii) Genworth and its subsidiaries will provide or cause to be provided certain administrative and support services and other assistance to GE together with its subsidiaries, including General Electric Capital Corporation, GEFAHI and GE Asset Management Incorporated, on a transitional basis.
- (C) Further to and in connection with the Global Transition Services Agreement the parties hereto are to provide transitional administrative and support services to each other and its group companies on a reciprocal basis on the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- (D) Certain FIGSL Group Companies and GEIH Group Companies (both as defined below) which are incorporated in France are parties to a Contrat de Groupement de Fait dated 20 November 1998 (the “Contrat de Groupement de Fait”) pursuant to which they enjoy certain tax benefits. The parties to the Contrat de Groupement de Fait desire that, so far as is possible, such tax benefits shall continue to apply and that equivalent tax benefits be obtained in respect of the Services to be provided as between the parties to the Contrat Groupement de Fait pursuant to this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

IT IS AGREED as follows:

1 INTERPRETATION

- 1.1 As used herein, the following terms shall have the following meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

- 1.2 As used herein unless the context otherwise requires the singular includes the plural and vice versa and words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine.
- 1.3 References in this Agreement to any enactment, order, regulation or other similar instrument shall be construed as a reference to the enactment, order, regulation or instrument as amended by any subsequent enactment, order, regulation or instrument or as contained in any subsequent re-enactment thereof.
- 1.4 References in this Agreement to a party shall be construed as a reference to that party, its successors and permitted assigns.
- 1.5 The Schedules form part of this Agreement.
- 1.6 The headings in this Agreement are for the convenience of the parties only and are in no way intended to affect, describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent, intent or interpretation of this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement.
- 1.7 References in this Agreement to Clauses and the Schedule are to the clauses and schedule of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between any provision of the Clauses and any provision of the Schedule, the former shall prevail, but only to the extent of the conflict or inconsistency. These terms and conditions shall prevail over any terms and conditions of the Providers now or in the future.

2 THE SERVICES

- 2.1 From the Commencement Date until the relevant Service Termination Date:
- 2.1.1 GELS shall provide, or cause to be provided, the services listed in Schedule 1, Part A to the FIGSL Group (together with any additional services to be provided to the FIGSL Group pursuant to Clause 2.8 and any GEIH Substitute Services, the “ GEIH Services ”); and
- 2.1.2 FIGSL shall provide, or cause to be provided, the services listed in Schedule 1, Part B to the GEIH Group (together with any additional services to be provided to the GEIH Group pursuant to Clause 2.8 and any FIGSL Substitute Services, the “ FIGSL Services ”).
- 2.2 The scope of each Service shall be substantially the same as the scope of such service provided by the Provider, or, if applicable, its predecessor, prior to the date hereof. The use of each Service by a Recipient Group Company shall include use by the Recipient Group Company’s contractors in substantially the same manner as used by the contractors of that Recipient Group Company or its predecessor, if applicable, prior to the Closing Date. Save as provided in Clause 15 (Assignment and Sub-contracting), nothing in this Agreement shall require that any Service be provided other than for use in, or in connection with, the Recipient's business and the Recipient Group Companies' businesses. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Clause 2.2 or in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict or otherwise limit the volume or quantity of any Service, provided that certain changes in a Recipient's requirements for the volume or quantity of a Service may require the parties to negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a price adjustment to the Service Charges for such Service pursuant to Clause 15.3.

- 2.3 If for any reason FIGSL is unable to provide any FIGSL Service to the GEIH Group pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, FIGSL shall provide to the GEIH Group a substantially equivalent service (a “FIGSL Substitute Service”) for not more than the Service Charge for the substituted FIGSL Service set forth in Schedule 1, Part B and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Standard for Services.
- 2.4 If for any reason GELS is unable to provide any GEIH Service to the FIGSL Group pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, GELS shall provide to the FIGSL Group a substantially equivalent service (a “GEIH Substitute Service”) for not more than the Service Charge for the substituted GEIH Service set forth in Schedule 1, Part A and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Standard for Services.
- 2.5 The Services shall include:
- 2.5.1 such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements normally and customarily provided by the Provider to its Group Companies that receive such services; and
 - 2.5.2 all functions, responsibilities, activities and tasks, and the materials, documentation, resources, rights and licenses to be used, granted or provided by the Provider that are not specifically described in this Agreement as a part of the Services, but are incidental to, and would normally be considered an inherent part of, or necessary subpart included within, the Services or are otherwise necessary for the Provider to provide, or the Recipient or the Recipient Group Companies to receive, the Services.
- 2.6 In addition, a Recipient may request that the Provider provides a custom modification to any Service. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent any custom modification constitutes Software and such Software and all the Intellectual Property therein is owned by the Provider, the Provider hereby assigns or agrees to cause the assignment of such Software and all Intellectual Property therein to the relevant Recipient Group Company and the Recipient hereby grants the Provider or agrees to cause the grant to the Provider of a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid up, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, non-exclusive licence, with the right to sub-licence, to use and modify such Software.
- 2.7 This Agreement shall not assign any rights to Technology or Intellectual Property between the parties other than as specifically set forth herein.

- 2.8 If from time to time during the Term any party identifies a need for additional services to be provided by or on behalf of a Provider, the parties hereto agree to negotiate in good faith to provide such requested services (provided that such services are of a type generally provided by the relevant Provider at such time) and the applicable Service Charges, Service Termination Date and other rights and obligations with respect thereto. To the extent practicable, such additional services shall be provided on terms substantially similar to those applicable to Services of similar types and in all other respects be provided on terms consistent with those contained in this Agreement.
- 2.9 Each party will, promptly following the date of this Agreement, designate a services account manager (the “ Services Manager ”) who will be directly responsible for coordinating and managing the delivery of the Services and will have authority to act on that party’s behalf with respect to matters relating to this Agreement. The Services Managers will work with each other to address any problems arising in connection with the Services and manage the parties’ relationship under this Agreement.
- 2.10 The following provisions shall apply to the Services:
- 2.10.1 the Provider and Recipient shall comply and where appropriate shall cause their Group Companies to comply with their own security guidelines as in force from time to time which are applicable to the performance, access and/or use of the Services and the Information Systems;
- 2.10.2 the parties hereto shall take commercially reasonable measures to ensure that no Viruses or similar items are coded or introduced into the Services or Information Systems. If a Virus is found to have been introduced into such Services or Information Systems, the parties hereto shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate and to diligently work together to eliminate the effects of the Virus; and
- 2.10.3 the Provider and Recipient shall exercise and where appropriate shall cause their Group Companies to exercise reasonable care in providing, accessing and using the Services to (i) prevent access to the Services by unauthorised persons and (ii) not damage, disrupt or interrupt the Services.
- 2.11 Any Software delivered by a Provider hereunder shall be delivered at the election of the Provider either (i) with the assistance of the Provider, through electronic transmission or downloaded by the Recipient from the GE intranet or (ii) by installation by Provider on the relevant equipment with retention by Provider of all tangible media on which such Software resides. Provider and Recipient acknowledge and agree that no tangible medium containing such Software (including any enhancements, upgrades or updates) will be transferred to Recipient at any time for any reason under the terms of this Agreement, and that Provider will, at all times, retain possession and control of any such tangible medium used or consumed by Provider in the performance of this Agreement. Each party shall comply with all reasonable security measures implemented by the other party in connection with the delivery of Software.

3 CONVERSION SERVICES

- 3.1 During the Term, FIGSL shall provide or cause to be provided, in addition to the FIGSL Services, the following support for no extra charge except for actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses approved in advance in writing by the GEIH Services Manager:
- 3.1.1 FIGSL shall provide, or cause to be provided, current and reasonably available historical data related to the FIGSL Services and predecessor services thereto as reasonably required by GELS, in a manner and within a time period as mutually agreed by the parties;
 - 3.1.2 FIGSL shall make reasonably available or cause to be made reasonably available to GELS the services of those employees, contractors and consultants of the FIGSL Group whose assistance, expertise or presence is necessary to assist GELS' transition team in establishing a fully functioning stand-alone environment in respect of the GEIH Group Companies' businesses and the timely assumption by GELS, or by a supplier of GELS, of the FIGSL Services; and
 - 3.1.3 with respect to any Software or other electronic content (“ Electronic Materials ”) licensed to Genworth and its Affiliates under the Cross License and used to provide a GEIH Service, GELS shall make available or deliver to FIGSL a copy of such Software or Electronic Materials that are in existence and current as of the Service Termination Date for such GEIH Service, including any upgrades, updates and other modifications made to such Software and Electronic Materials since the Closing Date. Any upgrades, updates or other modifications to Software and Electronic Materials made available or delivered to the FIGSL Group pursuant to this Clause shall be deemed to be GE Intellectual Property under the Cross License and licensed to Genworth and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of the Cross License, notwithstanding that such upgrades, updates or other modifications (x) were not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by Genworth and its Affiliates as of the Closing Date, (y) were not Controlled by GE and its Affiliates as of the Closing Date or (z) may constitute Improvements made after the Closing Date.
- 3.2 During the Term, GELS shall provide or cause to be provided, in addition to the GEIH Services, the following support for no extra charge except for actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses approved in advance in writing by the FIGSL Services Manager:
- 3.2.1 GELS shall provide, or cause to be provided current and reasonably available historical data related to GEIH Services and predecessor services thereto as reasonably required by FIGSL, in a manner and within a time period as mutually agreed by the parties;
 - 3.2.2 GELS shall make reasonably available or cause to be made reasonably available to FIGSL the services of those employees, contractors and consultants of the GEIH Group whose assistance, expertise or presence is necessary to assist FIGSL's transition team in establishing a fully functioning stand-alone environment in respect of the FIGSL Group Companies' businesses and the timely assumption by FIGSL, or by a supplier of FIGSL, of the GEIH Services and

3.2.3 with respect to any Software or other Electronic Materials licensed to GE and its Affiliates under the Cross License and used to provide a FIGSL Service, FIGSL shall make available or deliver to GELS a copy of such Software or Electronic Materials that are in existence and current as of the Service Termination Date for such FIGSL Service, including any upgrades, updates and other modifications made to such Software and Electronic Materials since the Closing Date. Any upgrades, updates or other modifications to Software and Electronic Materials made available or delivered to the GEIH Group pursuant to this Clause shall be deemed to be Genworth Intellectual Property under the Cross License and licensed to GE and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of the Cross License, notwithstanding that such upgrades, updates or other modifications (x) were not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by GE and its Affiliates as of the Closing Date, (y) were not Controlled by Genworth and its Affiliates as of the Closing Date or (z) may constitute Improvements made after the Closing Date.

3.3 The parties acknowledge and agree that in connection with the implementation, provision, receipt and transition of the Services, the parties will incur certain non-recurring out-of-pocket conversion costs and expenses (“ Conversion Costs ”):

3.3.1 GEIH Services Conversion Costs

Following the termination of a GEIH Service, the GEIH Group shall either reimburse FIGSL for all actual Conversion Costs incurred by FIGSL in respect of such GEIH Service or, after consultation with FIGSL, pay such Conversion Costs directly on an as incurred basis, in either case regardless of whether FIGSL replaces the GEIH Service with the same application, system, vendor or other means of effecting the GEIH Service provided however that the GEIH Group's payment and reimbursement obligations under this Clause 3.3.1 and GE's payment and reimbursement obligations under Section 2.01(f) of the Global Transition Services Agreement shall not in the aggregate exceed the Total Conversion Cost Amount. For the purposes of this Clause, the “ Total Conversion Cost Amount ” means US$29.6 million, which amount represents the parties' agreed-upon good faith estimate of (i) the anticipated Conversion Costs with respect to the transition of the GEIH Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the anticipated, non-recurring, out-of-pocket conversion costs with respect to the transition of the GE Services (as such term is defined in the Global Transition Services Agreement) pursuant to the terms of the Global Transition Services Agreement.

3.3.2 FIGSL Services Conversion Costs

The GEIH Group shall be solely responsible without limitation for paying any Conversion Costs in respect of the FIGSL Services and any such Conversion Costs or related costs shall not be included in the Total Conversion Cost Amount.

- 3.4 Prior to GELS' payment of or reimbursement for Conversion Costs pursuant to Clause 3.3 above, FIGSL shall provide GELS with an invoice accompanied by reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to evidence the Conversion Costs for which FIGSL is seeking payment or reimbursement. Upon receipt of such invoice and data and documentation, GELS shall, except as otherwise provided in Clause 3.3, either pay the amount of such invoice directly in accordance with the vendors' or suppliers' payment terms relating to that invoice, where such terms have been previously agreed by GELS or reimburse FIGSL for its payment of the invoice within 30 days of the date of GELS' receipt of such invoice and request for reimbursement from FIGSL. If GELS in good faith disputes the invoiced amount, then the parties shall work together to resolve such dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute within 30 days, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Clause 25 (Applicable Law and Dispute Resolution). The parties acknowledge and agree that no prior approval shall be required from the GEIH Group or GELS in order for FIGSL to seek any reimbursement pursuant to Clause 3.3 and this Clause..

4 OTHER ARRANGEMENTS/ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS/CONSENTS

- 4.1 During the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the Trigger Date, the FIGSL Group is or may become a party to certain corporate purchasing contracts, master services agreements, vendor contracts, software and other Intellectual Property licenses or similar agreements unrelated to the FIGSL Services (the “ FIGSL Vendor Agreements ”) under which (or under open work orders thereunder) the GEIH Group purchases goods or services, licenses rights to use Intellectual Property and realises certain other benefits and rights. The parties hereby agree that the GEIH Group shall continue to retain the right to purchase goods or services and continue to realise such other benefits and rights under each FIGSL Vendor Agreement to the extent allowed by such FIGSL Vendor Agreement until the expiration or termination of such FIGSL Vendor Agreement for any reason. Additionally, for so long as the purchasing or other rights remain in full force and effect under a FIGSL Vendor Agreement and the GEIH Group continues to exercise its purchasing or other rights and benefits under such FIGSL Vendor Agreement and for a period of six months thereafter, FIGSL shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, upon the written request of GELS, to assist the GEIH Group in obtaining a purchasing contract, master services agreement, vendor contract or similar agreement directly with the third party provider that is a party to the FIGSL Vendor Agreement.
- 4.2 During the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the Trigger Date, the GEIH Group is or may become a party to certain corporate purchasing contracts, master services agreements, vendor contracts, software and other Intellectual Property licenses or similar agreements unrelated to the GEIH Services (the “ GEIH Vendor Agreements ”) under which (or under open work orders thereunder) the FIGSL Group purchases goods or services, licenses rights to use Intellectual Property and realises certain other benefits and rights. The parties hereby agree that the FIGSL Group shall continue to retain the right to purchase goods or services and continue to realise such other benefits and rights under each GEIH Vendor Agreement to the extent allowed by such GEIH Vendor Agreement until the expiration or termination of such GEIH Vendor Agreement for any reason. Additionally, for so long as the purchasing or other rights remain in full force and effect under a GEIH Vendor Agreement and the FIGSL Group continues to exercise its purchasing or other rights and benefits under such GEIH Vendor Agreement and for a period of six months thereafter, GELS shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, upon the written request of FIGSL, to assist the FIGSL Group in obtaining a purchasing contract, master services agreement, vendor contract or similar agreement directly with the third party provider that is a party to the GEIH Vendor Agreement.

- 4.3 Prior to the Trigger Date, each party shall continue to have access to the other party's Information Systems. On and after the Trigger Date, a party shall not have access to all or any part of the other party's Information Systems, except to the extent necessary for that party to provide and receive Services (subject to that party complying with all reasonable security measures implemented by the other party as deemed necessary by that other party to protect its Information Systems, provided that the first party shall have had a commercially reasonable period of time in which to comply with such security measures).
- 4.4 Each party will allow the other party and its Representatives reasonable access to its facilities as necessary for the performance of the Services.
- 4.5 The parties acknowledge and agree that certain software and other licences, consents, approvals, notices, registrations, recordings, filings and other actions need to be obtained in order to allow the Services to be provided (collectively, "Consents"). The GEIH Group shall, after consultation with FIGSL, either directly pay the out-of-pocket costs of obtaining, performing or satisfying such Consents (the "Consents Costs") or, after any Consent is obtained, satisfied or performed, reimburse FIGSL for all actual Consents Costs incurred by FIGSL in connection with obtaining, performing or satisfying such Consents, provided however that the GEIH Group's payment and reimbursement obligations in respect of the Consents Costs under this Clause and Clause 4.7.4 and GE's payment and reimbursement obligations under Section 4.04(a) of the Global Transition Services Agreement shall not in the aggregate exceed the Total Consents Cost Amount. For the purposes of this Clause, the "Total Consents Cost Amount" means US$11 million which amount represents the parties' agreed-upon good faith estimate of the anticipated out-of-pocket costs with respect to obtaining, performing or otherwise satisfying (i) the Consents pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the Consents (as such term is defined in the Global Transition Services Agreement) pursuant to the terms of the Global Transition Services Agreement. The GEIH Group shall be solely responsible for paying any costs or fees in connection with any Consents with respect to the FIGSL Services and any such costs or fees shall not be included in the Total Consents Cost Amount.
- 4.6 Prior to receiving any reimbursement pursuant to Clause 4.5 above, FIGSL shall provide GELS with an invoice accompanied by reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to evidence the Consents Costs for which FIGSL is seeking reimbursement. Upon receipt of such invoice and data and documentation, GELS shall, except as otherwise provided in Clause 4.5, pay the amount of such invoice to FIGSL within 30 days of the date of receipt of such invoice. If GELS in good faith disputes the invoiced amount, then the parties shall work together to resolve such dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute within 30 days, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Clause 25 (Applicable Law and Dispute Resolution). The parties acknowledge and agree that no prior approval shall be required from the GEIH Group or GELS in order for FIGSL to seek any reimbursement pursuant to Clause 4.5 and this Clause.

- 4.7 The parties agree that the leases and sub-leases listed in Part C of Schedule 1 shall have been assigned to or granted by the appropriate party by the Commencement Date, subject to obtaining any necessary third party consents or approvals. A party to whom a lease or sub-lease is to be assigned or granted agrees to accept such assignment or grant. To the extent that any such leases or sub-leases shall not have been granted or assigned by the Commencement Date:
- 4.7.1 notwithstanding Section 2.4.(a) of the Master Agreement, the leases in respect of (a) Radcliffe House, Keynes House and Pease House Old Charlton Road Priory Park Hitchin; (b) 25 Car Parking Spaces at Priory Park Hitchin; and (c) 88 Car Parking Spaces in the Woodlands Car Park at Hitchin Conference & Banqueting Centre Hitchin each dated 8 April 2002 and made between (1) GE Pensions Limited (2) GE Insurance Holdings Limited (3) FIGSL shall not terminate with effect from the Closing Date but shall continue in full force and effect and shall be assigned to GELS in accordance with this Clause 4.7;
 - 4.7.2 the parties agree to work together in good faith to effect the assignment or grant (as appropriate) of any such leases or subleases;
 - 4.7.3 to the extent that any assignment or grant of such leases and sub-leases is subject to or conditional upon any third party consents or approvals, the parties shall use their commercially reasonable endeavours to obtain such consents and approvals;
 - 4.7.4 subject to Clause 4.5, GELS agrees that it shall pay or reimburse FIGSL for any third party costs payable by FIGSL in relation to the assignment or grant of the leases and sub-leases listed in Part C of Schedule 1;
 - 4.7.5 FIGSL agrees to hold the leases or sub-leases which are to be assigned to GELS for the use and benefit of GELS and GELS shall pay or reimburse FIGSL for all amounts paid or incurred in connection with such leases and sub-leases. In addition, FIGSL shall, insofar as reasonably possible and to the extent permitted by applicable law, treat such leases and sub-leases in the ordinary course of business in accordance with past practice and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by GELS in order to place GELS in the same position as if the relevant leases and sub-leases had been assigned as at the Commencement Date and so that all the benefits and burdens relating to such leases and sub-leases, including possession, use, risk of loss, potential for gain, and dominion, control and command over such leases and sub-leases, is to inure to GELS from and after the Commencement Date.
 - 4.7.6 FIGSL shall not be obligated to expend any money in connection with any leases or sub-leases listed on Part C to Schedule 1 which are to be retained by it pending their assignment to GELS unless the necessary funds are advanced (or otherwise made available) by GELS, other than reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, attorneys' fees and recording or similar fees, all of which shall be promptly reimbursed by GELS.

4.8 The parties acknowledge that it is anticipated that the Transfer Regulations will operate to transfer the contracts of employment of all employees of FIGSL who work primarily for or primarily in support of the members of the GEIH Group (other than Financial Insurance Company Limited, FACL, Consolidated Insurance Group Limited, GE Financial Assurance, Compania de Seguros y Reaseguros de Vida S.A. and GE Financial Insurance, Compania de Seguros y Reaseguros S.A.), other than those employees who provide support to such members of the GEIH Group solely by virtue of FIGSL's obligations hereunder, to GELS on the Closing Date. In the event any such employees shall not have been transferred to GELS on the Closing Date:

- 4.8.1 the parties agree to work together in good faith to effect the transfers of any such employees to GELS;
- 4.8.2 GELS agrees that it shall reimburse FIGSL for all costs incurred in continuing to employ such employees for the period between the Closing Date and the transfer of such employees to GELS taking effect (the "Interim Period"), having reference to such employees' existing contracts of employment and FIGSL's past practice;
- 4.8.3 GELS agrees that it shall reimburse FIGSL in respect of all liabilities incurred during the Interim Period as a result of continuing to employ such employees for the Interim Period, including any liabilities arising out of any unfair or constructive dismissal claims brought by such employees against FIGSL; and
- 4.8.4 GELS agrees to reimburse FIGSL for any costs and liabilities FIGSL incurs if FIGSL makes such employees redundant during the Interim Period, subject to FIGSL having consulted GELS prior to making any such redundancies.

FIGSL agrees that it shall at all times act reasonably and in good faith in relation to the transfer of the relevant employees to GELS and the recovery of costs and liabilities in respect of employees who shall not have been transferred to GELS on the Closing Date, including without limitation the costs and liabilities of making such employees redundant, from GELS.

4.9 The parties intend that any supplier contracts which need to be transferred from the GEIH Group to FIGSL or from the FIGSL Group to GELS to allow the Services to be provided or to enable the provision by GELS and FIGSL of services to their respective Group Companies shall have been transferred by the Commencement Date. To the extent that any such contracts shall not have been transferred by the Commencement Date, the parties agree to work together in good faith to effect the transfers of any such contracts.

4.10 The parties intend that any Intellectual Property which needs to be transferred from the GEIH Group to FIGSL or from the FIGSL Group to GELS to allow the Services to be provided or to enable the provision of GELS and FIGSL of services to their respective Group Companies shall have been transferred by the Commencement Date.

To the extent that any such Intellectual Property shall not have been transferred by the Commencement Date, the parties agree to work together in good faith to effect the transfers of any such Intellectual Property.

4.11 With effect from the date on which the UK Scheme is approved in respect of substantially the whole of the business of FACL (as calculated by reference to the number of jurisdictions in which approval of the UK Scheme is obtained) (the “UK Scheme Effective Date”), GELS shall procure that FACL shall grant to Financial New Life Company Limited a sole licence to use the name “Financial Assurance Company Limited” and all and any derivatives thereof as a trading or business name in those jurisdictions in which approval of the UK Scheme has been obtained (the “FACL Name Licence”). Each party agrees and acknowledges that the FACL Name Licence is to be granted on an “as is” basis, with all faults and without warranty of any kind, and that the GEIH Group does not make and specifically disclaims any representations, warranties, express or implied in respect of the FACL Name Licence. FIGSL assumes for itself and on behalf of the FIGSL Group all risk and liability resulting from Financial New Life Company Limited’s use of the FACL Name Licence. FACL shall continue to be registered with the name “Financial Assurance Company Limited” and shall be entitled to use such name and its derivatives only:

4.11.1 in those jurisdictions in which approval of the UK Scheme is not obtained on the UK Scheme Effective Date; or 4.11.2 as required by law.

4.12 Following the UK Scheme Effective Date, in the event the UK Scheme is approved in any other jurisdiction GELS shall promptly at FIGSL’s request procure that FACL extends the FACL Name Licence to such jurisdiction. Following the extension of the FACL Name Licence to any other jurisdiction FACL shall cease to use the name “Financial Assurance Company Limited” and all and any derivatives thereof in such jurisdiction, save as required by law.

4.13 Upon the UK Scheme being approved in all relevant jurisdictions, GELS shall procure that:

4.13.1 FACL shall immediately transfer to Financial New Life Company Limited all rights it owns in the name “Financial Assurance Company Limited” and all and any of the derivatives thereof;

4.13.2 FACL is reregistered under a different name; and,

4.13.3 save as required by law, FACL shall cease to use the name and all and any derivatives thereof in all jurisdictions.

5 THE PROVIDER’S RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 The Provider shall act on behalf of the Recipient Group Companies but in respect of each Recipient Group Company, only to the extent of the authority given from time to time by such Recipient Group Company. A Recipient Group Company may vary its instructions to the Provider at any time.

- 5.2 The Provider shall comply with all reasonable security requirements of the Recipient Group Companies and shall procure that all of its employees, agents and sub-contractors shall likewise comply with such requirements.
- 5.3 The Provider shall notify the Recipient Group Companies of any special health and safety hazards of which it is aware (after making all reasonable enquiries) and which may be involved in performing the Services. The Provider shall further notify the Recipient Group Companies in advance of the Commencement Date of any information or requirements affecting the Recipient Group Companies under any legislation concerning health and safety at work.

6 CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of the Provider providing the Services to the Recipient and its Group Companies, the Recipient shall pay to the Provider the Service Charges.
- 6.2 In addition, in connection with the performance of the Services, the Provider may incur certain out-of-pocket costs (“ Other Costs ”), which shall, without duplication, either be paid directly by the Recipient or reimbursed to the Provider by the Recipient; provided that any Other Costs shall only be payable by the Recipient if such Other Costs have been authorised by the relevant Services Manager prior to having been incurred by the Provider and subject to receipt by the Recipient of data and other documentation reasonably required to support the calculation of amounts due to the Provider as a result of such Other Costs.
- 6.3 The parties acknowledge that the Service Charges reflect charges for such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements as shall be provided by the Provider pursuant to Clause 2.5.
- 6.4 If the Recipient requests that the Provider provide a custom modification in connection with any Service pursuant to Clause 2.6, the Recipient shall be responsible for the cost of such custom modification.

7 TERMS OF PAYMENT

- 7.1 The Provider shall deliver an invoice to the Recipient on a quarterly basis (or at such other frequency as is consistent with the basis on which the Service Charges are determined and, if applicable, charged to Affiliates of the Provider) in arrears for the Service Charges and any Other Costs in respect of all Services provided to and Other Costs incurred in respect of the Recipient and its Group during that quarter.
- 7.2 The Recipient shall pay such invoice in full to the Provider in UK sterling or in Euros, as appropriate, according to the terms of the invoice, within seventy-five (75) days of the date of such invoice in cleared funds to the bank nominated by the Provider.
- 7.3 If the Recipient fails to pay any amount due to the Provider under this Agreement (excluding any amount contested in good faith) by the due date for payment, the Recipient shall pay to the Provider, in addition to the amount due, interest on such amount at the rate of 2% per annum over Barclays Bank plc’s base rate from time to time from the date the payment was due until the payment is made in full, both before and after any judgment.

7.4 As soon as practicable after receipt by the Provider of any reasonable written request from the Recipient, the Provider shall provide the Recipient with data and documentation supporting the calculation of any amount due to the Provider under this Agreement the subject of the request for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of such calculation. If after reviewing such data and documentation the Recipient disputes the calculation of any amount due to the Provider then the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Clause 25 (Applicable Law and Dispute Resolution).

7.5 All sums due under this Agreement are exclusive of VAT which shall where applicable be paid by the appropriate Recipient.

7.6 The Provider shall be responsible for the payment of all invoices due to third party suppliers in respect of Goods, equipment or services supplied in connection with the Services.

7.7 The Recipient shall pay the full amount of costs and disbursements including Other Costs incurred under this Agreement, and shall not set-off, counterclaim or otherwise withhold any other amount owed to the Provider on account of any obligation owed by the Provider to the Recipient.

8 COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND STANDARD FOR SERVICES

8.1 Each Provider will perform the Services in compliance with all applicable laws, enactments, orders, regulations, standards and other similar instruments and all other applicable provisions hereof and will obtain and maintain in force for the Term all licences, permissions, authorisations, consents and permits required to comply with all laws, enactments, orders, standards and regulations relevant to the performance of the Services under this Clause including for the avoidance of doubt the rules of any regulatory authority (whether the FSA or any other regulator) to the extent they apply to the provision of the Services hereunder.

8.2 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement (including the Schedule hereto), the Provider agrees to perform the Services such that the nature, quality, standard of care and the service levels at which such Services are performed are no less than the nature, quality, standard of care and service levels at which the substantially same services were previously performed by or on behalf of the Provider or its predecessors, if applicable, prior to the Commencement Date (the “Standard for Services”).

8.3 The parties shall co-operate with each other and use their good faith commercially reasonable efforts to effect the efficient, timely and seamless provision and receipt of the Services.

9 WARRANTIES

9.1 All of the warranties specified in this Clause 9 are without prejudice to any other warranties expressed in this Agreement. Each such warranty shall be construed as a separate warranty and shall not be limited or restricted by reference, or inference from, the terms of any other warranty or any other term.

9.2 Each Provider hereby acknowledges and agrees that compliance by it with each such warranty shall not relieve it of any of its other obligations under this Agreement.

9.3 Each Provider warrants that, in the event that it delivers any Goods, as at the date of delivery of any Goods:

9.3.1 subject to any valid retention of title to the Goods by a third party, it has good title to the Goods and such title is free of all liens, charges and encumbrances; and

9.3.2 the Goods are of satisfactory quality, conform with the manufacturer's specifications and are free from defects in design, manufacture, use of or materials for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of delivery; and in the event this is discovered not to be the case during such twelve (12) month period, without prejudice to any other right or remedy which the Recipient may have, the Provider shall, at the Recipient's option, replace or repair the Goods free of charge. For the avoidance of doubt, the costs to the Provider of replacing or repairing the Goods shall be subject to and count towards the overall cap on that Provider's liability under this Agreement contained in Clause 13.2.

9.4 Each Provider further warrants that:

9.4.1 it has taken all requisite corporate and other action to approve the execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement, and agrees to produce to the Recipient evidence of such action upon reasonable request; and

9.4.2 it will not breach any rights (including but not limited to rights relating to Intellectual Property) or commit, or involve the Recipient in the commission of, any tort by entering into this Agreement and that this Agreement will constitute valid and legally binding obligations on the Provider in accordance with its terms when executed by such Provider.

10 CONTRAT DE GROUPEMENT DE FAIT

In view of the tax benefits enjoyed by RD Plus S.A., Vie Plus S.A. and Assocred S.A. (all such companies being either a FIGSL Group Company or a GEIH Group Company, and being together the "Groupe ment de Fait Parties") pursuant to the Contrat de Groupe ment de Fait and their wish to preserve such tax benefits and for equivalent tax benefits to be obtained in respect of the Services to be provided as between the Groupe ment de Fait Parties pursuant to this Agreement, the parties hereto agree that the provisions of the Contrat de Groupe ment de Fait shall continue to apply so far as is possible as between the Groupe ment de Fait Parties to the extent necessary to preserve the tax benefits currently enjoyed by the Groupe ment de Fait Parties and to obtain equivalent tax benefits in respect of Services provided as between the Groupe ment de Fait Parties pursuant to this Agreement, provided however that in the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Contrat de Groupe ment de Fait, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail as between the parties and the Groupe ment de Fait parties in respect of the matters dealt with hereunder.

11 RECORDS AND AUDIT

- 11.1 The Provider shall maintain proper records (“Records”) in connection with all Services provided by it under this Agreement. The Provider shall allow the Recipient, its employees, independent consultants, duly authorised agents, regulators and any other third parties notified by the Recipient to the Provider (to which notified parties the Provider does not reasonably object) to inspect and take copies of or extracts from such Records at all reasonable times (i) in connection with audits carried out pursuant to this Clause 11 to the extent reasonably necessary for the purpose of verifying the proper performance by the Provider of its obligations hereunder and the amounts due to the Provider hereunder or (ii) in connection with any agreements entered into by the Recipient pursuant to which the Recipient has agreed to provide information to the third party. The Provider shall afford the Recipient’s employees, independent consultants, authorised agents, regulators and the third parties notified by the Recipient to the Provider (to which notified parties the Provider does not reasonably object) reasonable access to all other relevant information, reports, documents, records, payments to suppliers, wage slips (whether in human or machine readable form) and data. All confidential information of the Provider made available to the Recipient’s employees, independent consultants, authorised agents and regulators under this Clause 11 shall be treated in accordance with Clause 16 (Confidentiality).
- 11.2 The Recipient reserves the right to conduct periodic audits to verify the Provider’s proper performance of the Services and the cost effectiveness and efficiency thereof. Such audits may be carried out by the Recipient’s employees, independent consultants, duly authorised agents and regulators and shall be carried out at the Recipient’s expense. The Provider hereby grants the Recipient, its employees, independent consultants, duly authorised agents and regulators a right of access to such of its records, employees and premises as the Recipient may reasonably request for the purposes of conducting such audits. The Provider shall make available such facilities and give such assistance as the Recipient may reasonably request in connection with the carrying out of any such audit.
- 11.3 Where an audit is to be carried out pursuant to this Clause 11, the audit shall be conducted with reasonable notice and shall be subject to the consent of the relevant Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 11.4 If as a result of an audit carried out pursuant to this Clause 11 a Recipient is unable to verify Service Charges previously demanded by its Provider and paid by that Recipient, the Recipient shall have the right to receive a refund of or proportionate reduction in the Service Charges for any such amount that cannot be verified. In the event that a Recipient is entitled to such a refund or reduction following an audit carried out pursuant to this Clause 11, that Recipient may request, and the Provider shall be obliged to pay, a reasonable proportion of the cost of carrying out the audit, bearing in mind the amount of refund or reduction to which the Recipient is entitled.

12 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 12.1 The Recipient shall be the owner of and has title to all property and Intellectual Property in any data, procedures, documentation or materials provided to the Provider hereunder by the Recipient or prepared or maintained by the Provider on behalf of the Recipient in connection with the provision of the Services. The Provider hereby agrees from time to time to execute such documents and do such further acts or things as may be necessary to vest title to such Intellectual Property in the Recipient. The Recipient shall be entitled, at its sole cost and expense, to inspect and make copies of any such data, documentation and materials during normal office hours upon reasonable advance notice to the Provider. All such materials or documentation must be returned in good order and condition at the sole cost and expense of the Provider on request or on termination of this Agreement in a mutually agreed upon format and shall not be copied or used for any other purpose other than for carrying out the Services pursuant to this Agreement provided that the Provider shall be entitled, at its sole cost and expense, to retain one copy of all such data, documentation and materials for archiving purposes and for the purposes of responding to any dispute which may arise in connection with the Services.

12.2 Each Provider represents and warrants that:

12.2.1 save for the Consents, it has all necessary rights, authorisations and licences to provide the Services;

12.2.2 it has the authority to grant the rights to be granted to the Recipient hereunder;

12.2.3 neither the supply to the Recipient of the Services (or any Goods where relevant) or any part thereof nor the use by the Recipient of the Services (or any Goods) or any part thereof shall in any way constitute an infringement or other violation of any Intellectual Property of any third party; and 12.2.4 it owns or has obtained valid licences for all Intellectual Property which are necessary to the performance of any of its obligations hereunder.

13 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNITIES

13.1 Save as provided in Clauses 13.2 and 13.4, and subject to Clause 13.6, no Provider or its Affiliates or any of their respective directors, officers or employees or any of the heirs, executors, successors and or assigns of any of the foregoing (each, a “Provider Indemnified Party”) shall have any liability in contract, tort or otherwise to the Recipient or its Affiliates or Representatives for or in connection with any Services rendered or to be rendered by any Provider Indemnified Party pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (iii) any Provider Indemnified Party’s actions or inactions in connection with any such Services or transactions. For the avoidance of doubt this Clause shall not preclude a Recipient from exercising any remedies expressly provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

13.2 Each Provider shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each relevant Recipient and each of its subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (each a “Recipient Indemnified Party”), from and against any and all liabilities of the Recipient Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of, or resulting from:

(i) the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of a Provider Indemnified Party in connection with the Provider Indemnified Party’s provision of the Services;

- (ii) the improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a Recipient Indemnified Party in connection with the Provider Indemnified Party's provision of the Services; or
- (iii) any violation of applicable law or regulation by a Provider Indemnified Party in connection with the Provider Indemnified Party's provision of the Services including without limitation any breach of the FSA's rules or any other regulator's rules, save where the Provider Indemnified Party was acting in compliance with the Recipient Indemnified Party's express instructions, provided that, subject to Clause 13.6, (a) the aggregate liability of FIGSL as a Provider pursuant to this Clause shall in no event exceed £5 million and (b) the aggregate liability of GELS as a Provider pursuant to this Clause shall not exceed £5 million.

- 13.3 Each Recipient shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each relevant Provider Indemnified Party from and against any and all liabilities of the Provider Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of, or resulting from the provision of the Services by any Provider or any of its subsidiaries (including without limitation any liabilities arising out of any violation of applicable law or regulation or any breach of the FSA's rules or any other regulator's rules by a Recipient Indemnified Party in connection with the Services) except for (A) any liabilities that result from a Provider Indemnified Party's negligence in connection with the provision of the Services, (B) any liabilities that result from a Provider Indemnified Party's breach of this Agreement or (C) any liabilities for which the Provider is required to indemnify a Recipient Indemnified Party pursuant to Clause 13.2. For the avoidance of doubt, a Recipient's liability under this Clause 13.3 shall be unlimited save as provided in Clause 13.5.
- 13.4 In addition, save as provided in Clause 4.8, the parties agree they shall share equally any liability incurred by a party or any of its Group Companies in connection with any claim brought against a party or any of its Group Companies pursuant to the Transfer Regulations by any employee of either party or any of the parties' Group Companies in connection with the termination of any Service under this Agreement or of the Agreement as a whole (an "Employee Claim"). Each party shall indemnify the other party and each of the other party's Group Companies against fifty per cent. (50%) of all expenses, damages, compensation, fines and other liabilities including reasonable legal costs arising out of or in connection with any Employee Claim.
- 13.5 Subject to Clause 13.6 but notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, neither party shall be liable to the other for any special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential losses, damages or expenses of the other, including, without limitation, loss of profits, arising from any claim relating to breach of this Agreement or otherwise relating to any of the Services provided hereunder save that the limitations contained in this Clause 13.5 shall not apply to:
- 13.5.1 damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which a Provider is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Recipient Indemnified Party under Clause 13.2; or 13.5.2 damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which a Recipient is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Provider Indemnified Party under Clause 13.3.

13.6 Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude or limit the liability of a party in respect of:

13.6.1 death or personal injury caused by the negligent or malicious acts or omissions of such party;

13.6.2 fraud;

13.6.3 the indemnities in respect of Employee Claims contained in Clause 13.4; or 13.6.4 GELS' payment obligations in respect of employees under Clause 4.8.

13.7 Nothing in this Clause 13 shall be deemed to eliminate or limit in any respect GELS or FIGSL's express payment and reimbursement obligations under this Agreement.

14 CONDUCT OF CLAIMS

14.1 If a party entitled to indemnification under Clause 13 (the "Indemnified Party") becomes aware of a matter which may give rise to a claim by a third party in respect of which the other party (the "Indemnifying Party") may be required to indemnify the Indemnified Party (a "Relevant Claim") or any proceedings shall be instituted against the Indemnified Party which may give rise to a Relevant Claim, the Indemnified Party shall give notice thereof in writing to the Indemnifying Party within 20 days of becoming aware of such Relevant Claim or such proceedings, stating in reasonable detail the nature of the matter on a without prejudice basis, if practicable and the amount claimed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice pursuant to this Clause 14.1 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under Clause 13.

14.2 The Indemnifying Party shall have the option, at its own expense and subject to the Indemnified Party being indemnified by the Indemnifying Party against all costs and liabilities incurred by the Indemnified Party in relation thereto, to assume the defence of a Relevant Claim, including the instruction of legal advisers reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party to represent the Indemnified Party and any others which the Indemnifying Party may designate in such proceedings and the Indemnifying Party shall pay the fees and disbursements of such legal advisers related to such proceedings. Within 30 days of the receipt of notice from the Indemnified Party pursuant to Clause 14.1 (or sooner, if the nature of the Relevant Claim requires), the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party whether it chooses to assume the defence of the Relevant Claim, which notice shall specify any reservations or exceptions.

14.3 If the Indemnifying Party exercises the option referred to in Clause 14.2:

14.3.1 the Indemnified Party shall provide to the Indemnifying Party and its advisers reasonable access to its personnel and to its premises, assets and documents and records in its possession or under its control, and give the Indemnifying Party any information and assistance as it shall reasonably request, and the Indemnifying Party may, at its cost, take copies of such documents and records as it reasonably requires;

14.3.2 the Indemnified Party shall take any action and institute any proceedings, to enable the Indemnifying Party to dispute, resist, appeal, compromise, defend, remedy or mitigate the Relevant Claim or enforce against another person the Indemnified Party's rights in relation to the Relevant Claim;

14.3.3 the Indemnifying Party shall, if so required by the Indemnified Party, maintain consultation with the Indemnified Party on all aspects of such proceedings and shall provide the Indemnified Party with all information reasonably requested by it in relation to such proceedings; and

14.3.4 the Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain its own legal advisers, but the fees and expenses of such legal advisers shall be at the expense of the Indemnified Party unless:

(a) the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall have mutually agreed to the retention of such legal advisers;
or

(b) the named parties to any such proceedings (including any added parties) include both the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party and representation of both parties by the same legal advisers would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them.

14.4 If the Indemnifying Party does not exercise its option contained in Clause 14.2, or fails to notify the indemnified Party that it chooses to exercise such option within the relevant timetable set out in that Clause, in the event of a Relevant Claim the Indemnified Party shall, subject to being indemnified by the Indemnifying Party against all costs and liabilities incurred in so doing:

14.4.1 take or procure such action to be taken as the Indemnifying Party shall reasonably request to deal with a Relevant Claim;

14.4.2 if so required by the Indemnifying Party, maintain consultation with the Indemnifying Party on all aspects of any proceedings in defence of a Relevant Claim; and 14.4.3 provide the Indemnifying Party with all information reasonably requested by it in relation to such proceedings.

14.5 Unless the Indemnifying Party has failed to assume the defence of a Relevant Claim, the Indemnified Party shall not admit liability in respect of a Relevant Claim, nor compromise, nor settle any proceedings in defence of a Relevant Claim, without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or settle any proceedings in defence of a Relevant Claim without the consent of the Indemnified Party if the effect thereof is to permit any injunction, declaratory judgment, other order or other non-monetary relief to be entered directly or indirectly against the Indemnified Party.

- 14.6 No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened Relevant Claim in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such Relevant Claim.
- 14.7 Any liabilities for which an Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification or contribution under Clause 13 shall be paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party as such liabilities are incurred. The indemnity and contribution agreements contained in Clause 13 shall remain operative and in full force and effect, regardless of (i) any investigation made by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party and (ii) any termination of this Agreement.
- 14.8 Any claim on account of a liability which does not result from a Relevant Claim shall be asserted by written notice given by the Indemnified Party to the applicable Indemnifying Party. Such Indemnifying Party shall have a period of 30 days after the receipt of such notice within which to respond thereto. If such Indemnifying Party does not respond within such 30-day period, such Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to have refused to accept responsibility to make payment. If such Indemnifying Party does not respond within such 30-day period or rejects such claim in whole or in part, such Indemnified Party shall be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to such party as contemplated by this Agreement.
- 14.9 If payment is made by or on behalf of any Indemnifying Party to any Indemnified Party in connection with any Relevant Claim, such Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to and shall stand in the place of such Indemnified Party as to any events or circumstances in respect of which such Indemnified Party may have any right, defence or claim relating to such Relevant Claim against any claimant or plaintiff asserting such Relevant Claim or against any other Person. Such Indemnified Party shall cooperate with such Indemnifying Party in a reasonable manner, and at the cost and expense of such Indemnifying Party, in prosecuting any subrogated right, defence or claim.
- 14.10 In an action in which the Indemnifying Party is not a named defendant, if either the Indemnified Party or Indemnifying Party shall so request, the parties shall endeavour to substitute the Indemnifying Party for the named defendant if they conclude that substitution is desirable and practical. If such substitution or addition cannot be achieved for any reason or is not requested, the named defendant shall allow the Indemnifying Party to manage the action as set forth in this Clause, and the Indemnifying Party shall fully indemnify the named defendant against all costs of defending the action (including court costs, sanctions imposed by a court, legal fees, experts' fees and all other external expenses), the costs of any judgment or settlement, and the cost of any interest or penalties relating to any judgment or settlement.
- 14.11 The Indemnified Party shall have no right to an indemnity under Clause 13 in respect of any liability to the extent that it actually recovers any monies in respect of such liability under any insurances it maintains. If an Indemnified Party receives a payment in respect of a liability pursuant to the indemnities contained in Clause 13 from the Indemnifying Party and subsequently recovers monies under its insurances in respect of such liability, the Indemnified Party shall reimburse the Indemnifying Party an amount equal to the monies received under its insurances.

14.12 The Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek or collect or recover any insurance monies (save from any captive insurance subsidiary) to which the Indemnified Party is entitled in connection with any liability for which it is indemnified under Clause 13.

14.13 The Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable endeavours to mitigate any loss in respect of which it is indemnified under Clause 13.

15 ASSIGNMENT AND SUB-CONTRACTING

15.1 This Agreement shall not be assigned or transferred by a party hereto without the prior written consent of the other party save as provided in Clause 15.2.

15.2 In the event a Recipient sells the whole or part of any Recipient Group Company (a “Recipient Divested Company”) or the whole or part of the business of any Recipient Group Company (a “Recipient Divested Business”) to a third party, the Provider shall remain obliged to continue to provide Services to such Recipient Divested Company or the purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business (but not otherwise to such purchaser) to the extent it was providing such Services immediately prior to such divestiture, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto, provided however that the Provider’s obligation to provide Services to a Recipient Divested Company or the purchaser of a Recipient Divested Business shall be subject to:

- (i) the implementation of new Service Charges as between the Provider and such Recipient Divested Company or the third party purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business for such Services, which new Service Charges shall be proposed by the Provider at its sole discretion save that such new Service Charges shall be consistent with applicable market rates for such Services;
- (ii) the Recipient or the Recipient Divested Company or the third party purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business agreeing to pay or cause to be paid any incremental fees or expenses incurred by the Provider in connection with establishing or transferring the provision of such Services to the third party;
- (iii) obtaining any consents that are necessary to enable the Provider to provide the Services to the Recipient Divested Company or the third party purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business, provided that FIGSL and GELS shall each use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any such consents;
- (iv) the Recipient Divested Company or the third party purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business agreeing to any reasonable security measures implemented by the Provider in providing the Services as deemed necessary by the Provider to protect its Information Systems; and
- (v) the Recipient Divested Company or the third party purchaser of such Recipient Divested Business agreeing in writing to be bound by all applicable provisions of this Agreement.

- 15.3 In the event a Recipient Group Company acquires a business or portion thereof by merger, stock purchase, asset purchase, reinsurance or other means that engages in the same type of business as the relevant Recipient Group, (a “ Recipient Acquired Company ”), then the Provider shall be obliged to provide the Services to such Recipient Acquired Company, to the extent applicable, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto provided however that in the event the acquisition of a Recipient Acquired Company results in a change to the volume or quantity of any Service which causes a material increase in the Provider’s costs of providing such Service, the parties shall negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a price increase to the Service Charges for such Service to compensate the Provider for the increase in the cost of providing such Service.
- 15.4 Nothing in this Clause shall be deemed to waive any party’s rights to relieve or otherwise satisfy any party’s non-compete obligations between GE and Genworth provided for under the Master Agreement.
- 15.5 The parties may sub-contract any of their obligations under this Agreement but a sub-contracting party must ensure that its subcontractor complies with all of that party’s obligations under this Agreement and the sub-contracting party shall remain responsible at all times for the performance of such obligations.

- 16.1 GELS shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any person other than its Representatives or its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing services to any member of the FIGSL Group or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any FIGSL Confidential Information. For purposes of this Clause, “ FIGSL Confidential Information ” means any information, material or documents relating to the businesses currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by any member of the FIGSL Group furnished to or in possession of the GEIH Group, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by the GEIH Group or their respective officers, directors and Affiliates, that contain or otherwise reflect such information, material or documents. FIGSL Confidential Information does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by any member of the GEIH Group in breach of this Clause, or (ii) GELS can demonstrate was or became available to the GEIH Group from a source other than the FIGSL Group or their Affiliates provided however that the source of such information was not known by the GEIH Group to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, FIGSL or any member of the FIGSL Group with respect to such information.
- 16.2 FIGSL shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and Representatives, not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any person other than its Representatives or its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing services to any member of the GEIH Group or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any GEIH Confidential

Information. For purposes of this Clause, “ GEIH Confidential Information ” means any information, material or documents relating to the businesses currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by any member of the GEIH Group furnished to or in possession of the FIGSL Group, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by the FIGSL Group or their respective officers, directors and Affiliates, that contain or otherwise reflect such information, material or documents. GEIH Confidential Information does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by any member of the FIGSL Group in breach of this Clause, or (ii) FIGSL can demonstrate was or became available to the FIGSL Group from a source other than the GEIH Group or their Affiliates; provided however that the source of such information was not known by the FIGSL Group to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the GEIH Group or any member of the GEIH Group with respect to such information.

16.3 If either party is requested or required (by oral question, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) by any governmental authority or pursuant to applicable law or regulation to disclose or provide any FIGSL Confidential Information or GEIH Confidential Information, as applicable, the entity or person receiving such request or demand shall (where permitted by law) use all reasonable efforts to provide the other party with written notice of such request or demand as promptly as practicable under the circumstances so that such other party shall have an opportunity to seek an appropriate protective order. The party receiving such request or demand agrees to take, and cause its representatives to take, at the requesting party’s expense, all other reasonable steps necessary to obtain confidential treatment by the recipient. Subject to the foregoing, the party that received such request or demand may thereafter disclose or provide any FIGSL Confidential Information or GEIH Confidential Information, as the case may be, to the extent required by such law (as so advised by counsel) or regulation or by lawful process or such governmental authority.

16.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, the obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement, shall not apply to the tax structure or tax treatment of such transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, Representative, or agent of any party thereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind (including opinions or other tax analysis) that are provided to such party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure; provided, however, that such disclosure shall not include the name (or other identifying information not relevant to the tax structure or tax treatment) of any person and shall not include information for which nondisclosure is reasonably necessary in order to comply with applicable securities laws.

17.1 Automatic Termination

17.1.1 This Agreement shall terminate automatically in relation to an individual Service on the applicable Service Termination Date unless the Provider and Recipient agree to extend the Service Termination Date in which case this Agreement shall terminate in relation to that Service on the extended Service Termination Date.

17.1.2 This Agreement shall terminate automatically on the date on which the last remaining Service being provided under this Agreement shall terminate.

17.2 Failure to Perform

If at any time during the Term a party commits a breach of its material obligations hereunder and in the case of a breach capable of remedy, fails to remedy such breach within sixty (60) working days after receipt of notice from the other party to remedy the same, the other party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by written notice in respect of any or all of the Services provided or received by the party in breach provided however that no Service may be terminated pursuant to this Clause 17.2 until the parties have completed the dispute resolution process set out in Clause 25.2.2 with respect to such Service and the Chief Executive Officers of the parties have failed to resolve matters.

17.3 By Mutual Agreement

The parties may from time to time agree in writing to terminate any Service in whole but not in part, provided that any such agreement to terminate a Service shall set out any terms and conditions of termination.

17.4 Insolvency

If at any time during the Term a party:

17.4.1 passes a resolution for voluntary winding up or a court of competent jurisdiction makes an order that such party be wound up except for the purposes of bona fide reconstruction while solvent; or

17.4.2 makes a composition or arrangement with its creditors; or

17.4.3 has a receiver or manager or provisional liquidator or administrator appointed over the whole or a substantial part of its business or undertaking or circumstances arise which would entitle a court of competent jurisdiction or a creditor to appoint the same; or

17.4.4 is unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986, then the other party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by written notice.

17.5 On Notice

17.5.1 Subject to Clause 17.5.2, a Recipient shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement in respect of any or all of the Services provided to it at its absolute discretion at any time by giving not less than sixty (60) days' notice of its intention to do so to the Provider (or such shorter period of time as is agreed in writing by the parties). Subject to payment of the Service Charges payable under the Agreement which are due to the Provider for the period up to the effective date of termination, a Recipient shall have the right to require the relevant Provider to cease provision of the Services during the sixty (60) day notice period and to instruct its sub-contractors, if any, to do similarly.

17.5.2 Until the transfer of the FACL Bonds (as defined in the Master Agreement) to an appropriate GE Affiliate in accordance with Section 2.10(b) of the Master Agreement, FIGSL shall not be entitled to terminate the bond administration service to be provided to FACL (Schedule 1, Part A, Service No. 4) on notice. For the avoidance of doubt, following such transfer, FACL will be entitled to terminate such service pursuant to Clause 17.5.1 above.

17.6 Force Majeure Event of Longstanding Duration

If any Force Majeure Event (as defined in Clause 20) prevents a party from performing all of its obligations hereunder for a period in excess of one (1) month, the other party may terminate this Agreement in respect of the Services provided to or by the party so prevented with immediate effect on written notice.

17.7 Accrued Rights

Termination in accordance with this Clause 17 shall not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which shall have accrued or shall thereafter accrue to either party.

18 THE PROVIDER'S OBLIGATIONS ON TERMINATION

18.1 In the event that a Recipient requires a different organisation to take on the provision of any or all of the Services provided to it by its Provider on the termination of this Agreement in respect of such Services, the Provider shall co-operate in the transfer, under any arrangements to be notified to it by the Recipient, to effect a full and orderly transition of such Services to the succeeding contractor by the Service Termination Date or thereafter and will furnish any succeeding contractor with any information or documentation required to perform such Services.

18.2 The Provider shall comply with all reasonable instructions from the Recipient with regard to termination of the Services and take reasonable steps to mitigate any costs which the Recipient will incur as a result of the termination.

18.3 Upon the written request of the Recipient, the Provider will, for a reasonable period of time after the effective date of any termination of a Service pursuant to Clause 17.2 above (which period shall not exceed the earlier of (i) the applicable Service Termination Date as set out in Parts A and B of Schedule 1 or (ii) six months after the effective date of termination), continue to provide the terminated Service on the terms of this Agreement (subject to the timely payment, when due and payable, by the Recipient of all Service Charges related to such terminated Service). The Service

Charges for a Service provided pursuant to this Clause 18.3 shall be the same as were in effect prior to the termination of such Service.

18.4 In the event that the Agreement is terminated as provided for herein:

18.4.1 each party shall return to the other party all property belonging to the other party then in its possession in good working order; and

18.4.2 in the event the Recipient has paid Service Charges in advance for Services not received as at the date of termination, the Provider shall refund the Recipient such Service Charges.

18.5 In the event that the Agreement is terminated for fundamental breach the Recipient shall have the following rights (but not obligations) to require the Provider to:

18.5.1 provide a schedule of all equipment, labour, resources and subcontracts used exclusively or primarily to provide the Services;

18.5.2 transfer any or all assets which are exclusively or primarily used for the performance of the Services to the Recipient at a fair market value which may be verified by an independent valuer who is acceptable to both parties; and

18.5.3 assign any or all software licences or other licences or agreements that are used exclusively or primarily in the provision of the Services for the benefit of the Recipient, where this is permitted by the terms of the licence.

18.6 On termination of this Agreement the Provider shall comply with its obligations to return documentation and materials provided by the Recipient under Clause 12.1.

19 SURVIVAL OF OBLIGATIONS ON TERMINATION

Following the termination of this Agreement as provided for herein, no party shall have any further right or obligation with respect to any other party except as set forth in the following Clauses:

| | | |
|-------------------|---|--|
| Clause 1 | — | Interpretation |
| Clause 4.7 | | Leases |
| Clause 8 | — | Warranties |

| Clause 29 | — | Notices |

20 FORCE MAJEURE/BUSINESS CONTINUITY

- 20.1 Each party shall maintain and comply with a reasonable disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plan designed to help ensure that it can continue to provide the Services in accordance with this Agreement in the event of a disaster or other significant event that might otherwise impact its operations. Each party shall ensure that any disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plan shall comply with any relevant regulatory requirements, whether of the FSA or any other regulator. Upon the written request of a Recipient, a Provider shall (i) disclose to the Recipient the Provider's disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures applicable to a Service and (ii) permit the Recipient to participate in testing of such disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures, in each case so that the Recipient may assess such plans and procedures and develop or modify its own such plans and procedures in connection with the Services as the Recipient reasonably deems necessary.
- 20.2 Neither party hereto (or any person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfil any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement so long as and to the extent to which the fulfilment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of a Force Majeure Event, provided that such party shall have first exhausted, to the extent commercially reasonably to do so, the procedures described in its disaster recovery, crisis management, and business continuity plan.
- 20.3 A party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event: (i) notify the other party of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure Event and (ii) use all reasonable endeavours to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible.
- 20.4 For the purposes of this Clause, a “Force Majeure Event” means, with respect to a party, an event beyond the control of such party (or any person acting on its behalf), which by its nature could not have been foreseen by such party (or such person), or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, and includes, without limitation, acts of God, storms, floods, riots, fires, sabotage, civil commotion or civil unrest, interference by civil or military authorities, acts of war (declared or undeclared) or armed hostilities or other national or international calamity or one or more acts of terrorism or failure of energy sources.

21 INCONSISTENCY/PREVAILING AGREEMENT

In the event of an inconsistency between any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Global Transition Services Agreement, the Master Agreement or any Continuing Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail as between the parties in respect of the matters dealt with hereunder.

22 MASTER AGREEMENT

The parties hereby agree that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.4(a) of the Master Agreement, any intercompany accounts payable or accounts receivable outstanding between the parties' Groups as at the Closing Date shall continue to be outstanding following that date provided however that, subject to the provisions of the European Tax Matters Agreement, the parties shall settle all such intercompany accounts payable or accounts receivable within 60 days following the Closing Date.

23 REGULATORY APPROVAL AND COMPLIANCE

Each party shall be responsible for its own compliance with any and all laws and requirements of any regulator (whether in the UK or elsewhere) applicable to its performance under this Agreement; provided, however, that each party shall at the request of the other party and subject to reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses by the requesting party, cooperate and provide one another with all reasonably requested assistance (including, without limitation, the execution of documents and the provision of relevant information) required by the requesting party to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations or in connection with any regulatory action, inquiry or examination.

24 SEVERABILITY

If any provision of the Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect as if the Agreement had been executed with the invalid provision eliminated. In the event a provision hereof is severed, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement in order to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible and enable the transactions contemplated by the parties to be consummated as originally contemplated as far as is possible.

25 APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

25.1 The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

25.2 In the event of any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination or validity hereof or thereof (a “Dispute”), the parties shall follow the dispute resolution procedure set out in this Clause:

25.2.1 upon a party serving written notice requesting that the parties attempt to resolve a Dispute (“Notice”) the Service Managers of the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute;

25.2.2 if the Service Managers are for any reason unable to resolve a Dispute within 30 days of delivery of a Notice, the Dispute shall be referred to the Chief Executive Officers of FIGSL and GELS who shall attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute; and

25.2.3 if the Chief Executive Officers of FIGSL and GELS are for any reason unable to resolve a Dispute within 45 days of such Dispute being referred to them for resolution then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the procedures of the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution as then in effect. The mediation shall be heard by a mediator appointed by the parties but if they cannot agree upon a mediator within 14 days of either of them submitting the Dispute to mediation, such mediator shall be appointed by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution. Either party may at the commencement of mediation ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions;

25.2.4 If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation within 30 days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), then either party may refer the Dispute to be settled and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules as in force at the time of the election (the “ Rules ”) by a panel of three arbitrators (or a sole arbitrator as the parties may agree) appointed in accordance with the Rules.

25.3 The seat of any reference to arbitration shall be London, England, the procedural law of any reference to arbitration shall be English law and the language of any arbitration proceedings shall be English.

25.4 The appointing authority for the purposes set forth in Article 7(2) of the Rules shall be the London Court of International Arbitration.

25.5 Any right of appeal or reference of points of law to the courts is hereby waived, to the extent that such waiver can be validly made.

25.6 The arbitral tribunal shall have the power to order on a provisional basis any relief which it would have power to grant in a final award.

26 DATA PROTECTION

Each Provider agrees that it is registered in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 so far as is necessary to provide the Services and agrees to maintain such registrations in full force and effect. Each Provider undertakes that it will comply and agrees to ensure that its sub-contractors will comply with its appropriate obligations under all data protection legislation in force from time to time.

27 FURTHER ASSURANCE

Each party agrees at its own expense to execute such documents and generally do everything further that may be necessary to fulfil its obligations under and achieve the objectives of this Agreement.

28 WAIVER OF REMEDIES

No waiver of any rights arising under this Agreement shall be effective unless agreed (where possible in writing and signed by a duly authorised signatory) by the party against whom the waiver is to be enforced. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right, power or remedy under this Agreement (except as expressly provided herein) shall operate as a waiver of any such right, power or remedy.

29 NOTICES

29.1 Any notice, invoice or other communication which a party is required by the Agreement to be served on the other party shall be sufficiently served if addressed to the Company Secretary of the other party and sent to the other party at its specified address as follows:

29.1.1 by hand;

29.1.2 by registered or first class post or recorded delivery; or 29.1.3 by facsimile transmission confirmed by registered or first class post or recorded delivery.

Notices sent by registered post or first class post or recorded delivery shall be deemed to be served three (3) working days following the day of posting. Notices sent by facsimile transmission shall be deemed to be served on the day of transmission if transmitted before 4:00 p.m. on a working day, but otherwise on the next following working day. In all other cases, notices are deemed to be served on the day when they are actually received. All notices, invoices and other communications served hereunder shall expressly refer to the Clause or sub-Clause pursuant to which they are served.

29.2 For the purposes of this Clause 29 the authorised address of each party shall be the address set out at the head of this Agreement or such other address (and details) as that party may notify to the other party from time to time in accordance with the requirements of this Clause 29.

30 NO PARTNERSHIP

Nothing in the Agreement is intended or shall be construed to create a partnership between the parties or unless expressly stated, a relationship of agency. Unless otherwise authorised, neither party shall have any authority to act or make representations on behalf of the other party, and nothing herein shall impose any liability on either party in respect of any liability incurred by the other party to a third party.

31 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement together with the Schedule hereto contains the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any previous understandings, commitments, contracts or representations whatsoever whether oral or written, except in respect of any fraudulent representation made by any party. This Agreement shall not be varied except by an instrument in writing of date even herewith or subsequent hereto executed by all parties by their duly authorised representatives.

32 RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

With the exception of any Recipient Group Company which is entitled to receive Services hereunder and any person expressly indemnified hereunder by a party to this Agreement, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and nothing in this Agreement, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. A person who is not a party to this Agreement has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise to enforce any term of this Agreement but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

33 COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall constitute an original of this Agreement, but all the counterparts shall together constitute one and the same agreement. No counterpart shall be effective until each party has executed at least one part or counterpart.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Agreement was executed by the parties hereto on the date set out on Page 1.

AMENDED AND RESTATED INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AND SERVICES AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL ASSURANCE COMPANY

AND

GE ASSET MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED

DATED AS OF 2004

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AND SERVICES AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the day of , 2004 (the “Effective Date”), by and between GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL ASSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company domiciled in the State of Delaware (“Client”), and GE ASSET MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED, a Delaware corporation (“Manager”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Client and Manager previously entered into an investment management and services agreement (the “Original Agreement”) dated as of May 1, 2002 pursuant to which Client retained Manager to provide investment management and other services for Client’s investment portfolio and Manager agreed to provide those services on the terms and conditions contained in the Original Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Client and Manager now desire to amend and restate the Original Agreement in its entirety as more specifically provided below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants contained herein, Client and Manager agree as follows:

ARTICLE I DEFINITIONS AND USAGE

1.1 Definitions. The following capitalized terms, as used in this Agreement, have the following meanings:

“Account” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.1.

“Account Assets” means the assets and any unrealized income, profit or gain (or loss) from, those assets in the Account from time to time. Unless specifically described otherwise, Account Assets shall be valued at market.

“Actual Costs” shall have the meaning set forth in Article IV(b).

“Affiliate” of a Person means a Person who, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, Controls or is Controlled by, or is under common Control with, such Person.

“Applicable Law” means, as applicable to each of the parties hereto, any domestic or foreign federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance or code (including, with respect to Client, the Delaware insurance code and, with respect to Manager, the Investment Advisers Act), any rules, regulations, administrative interpretations or orders issued by any Governmental Authority (including with respect to Client, the Insurance Authority and, with respect to Manager, the SEC) pursuant to any of the foregoing, and any order, writ, injunction, directive, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction applicable to the parties hereto.

“Board” means the Board of Directors of Client as the same may be elected from time to time by the shareholders of Client.

“Budgeted Costs” shall have the meaning set forth in Article IV(a).

“Control” means, as to any Person, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. The terms “Controlled”, “under common Control with” and “Controlling” shall have correlative meanings.

“Control Event” means, with respect to either party, the occurrence of: (a) any event which results in the Control of the party transferring from a Person that was an Affiliate immediately prior to the occurrence of such event to a Person that is not an Affiliate; (b) the sale or transfer of substantially all of a party’s assets to a Person that is not an Affiliate; or (c) the merger or consolidation of a party with or into another Person and the surviving Person is not an Affiliate.

“CPR” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.3.

“CPR Arbitration Rules” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.4(a).

“Custodian” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.6.

“Directed Brokers” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.7(b)

“Directed Trades” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.7(b).

“Dispute” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.1(a).

“Effective Date” shall have the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph.

“Initial Notice” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.2.

“Initial Termination Date” shall have the meaning set forth in Article III(a).

“Insurance Authority” means the Delaware Department of Insurance.

“Investment Advisers Act” means the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

“Investment Committee” means a committee directed by the Board to oversee Client’s investment activities.

“Investment Guidelines” shall mean certain guidelines and procedures concerning the investment and management of the Account Assets (and which may be specific as to any particular Account) as may be adopted from time to time by the Board or the Investment Committee all of which shall be compliant in all respects and at all times with all Applicable Law, and as may from time to time be modified or amended by the Board or the Investment Committee; provided that any such modification or amendment shall be provided by Client to Manager in writing in advance.

“Investment Objectives” shall mean any investment objectives set forth in the Investment Guidelines or otherwise communicated in writing from time to time by Client to Manager.

“Investment Reports” means statements, reports, analyses, data, summaries, calculations, formulas and the like concerning Account Assets, investment strategy, security selection and performance results, whether in written, oral or electronic form.

“Management Percentage” shall have the meaning set forth in Article IV(a).

“Original Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in the Recitals.

“Person” means an individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association, trust or any other entity or organization, including governmental or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

“Proposal” shall have the meaning set forth in Article IV(c).

“Records” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.9.

“Regulatory Change” shall have the meaning set forth in Article III(a).

“Remaining Term” shall have the meaning set forth in Article III(a).

“Representatives” means, as applicable, Client’s or Manager’s directors, officers, employees, accountants and legal and financial advisors.

“Response” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.2.

“SAP” means statutory accounting procedures and principles prescribed or permitted by Applicable Law.

“Second Extension” shall have the meaning set forth in Article III(a).

“SEC” means the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

“SEC Termination” shall have the meaning set forth in Article III(a).

“Taxes” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7.18(b).

“True-up” shall have the meaning set forth in Article IV(b).

1.2 Headings . The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II SERVICES

2.1 Investment Management . With respect to accounts and/or investment portfolios designated by Client from time to time in writing and which may include, without limitation, an account established to hold assets of Client placed into a trust or other special purpose vehicle utilized to secure performance of Client’s obligations (collectively, the “Account”), Manager will provide continuous, discretionary investment management services to Client, which services may include (but not be limited to) the following:

- (a) Research and identify investment opportunities;
- (b) Open (or direct the Custodian to open) and maintain brokerage accounts for securities and other property for and in the name of Client and execute for Client, as its agent and attorney-in-fact, standard customer agreements;
- (c) Invest Account Assets in income earning investments, such as bonds and cash equivalents, and such other investments as are permitted by Applicable Law, subject to any restrictions or limitations imposed by the Investment Guidelines, the Board or the Investment Committee, in each case, as communicated to Manager in writing;

- (d) Exercise, on behalf of Client or direct the exercise by the Custodian where appropriate, all rights and remedies conferred by any investment including, without limitation, voting rights (as discussed more fully in Section 2.8 below) with respect to the Account Assets;
- (e) Sell or dispose of investments as appropriate, subject to any restrictions or limitations imposed by the Investment Guidelines, the Board or the Investment Committee; provided, however, that the proceeds from any such sales will be deposited in the relevant Account on the date of receipt;
- (f) Assist in developing an overall investment strategy for the Account Assets; provided that in all cases Client shall have sole responsibility for approving and adopting any such strategy;
- (g) Conduct inspections, valuations, projections or other due diligence activities with respect to investments;
- (h) Negotiate the terms and conditions of investments and review and participate in the preparation of any documentation relating to such investments and execute for Client, as its agent and attorney-in-fact, such documentation;
- (i) Keep the Account under review and confer at regular intervals with Client regarding the investment and management of the Account;
- (j) Prepare a summary of all purchases and sales of investments with respect to the Account for approval and ratification by the Board or the Investment Committee not less than quarterly and more frequently if the Board or the Investment Committee so requests;
- (k) Assist with cash management and cash flow forecasting;
- (l) Participate in meetings of the Board, the Investment Committee and such other meetings with Client Representatives as Client may request from time to time;
- (m) Provide Client, in a timely manner, with such reports, documentation and information as Client may reasonably request in connection with monthly, quarterly and annual closing activities;
- (n) Provide Client with such additional investment management services relating to the Account as Client may reasonably request from time to time; and
- (o) Provide other support and analysis concerning investments, which, by way of example, may include due diligence in connection with potential business acquisitions or dispositions by Client and its Affiliates, reinsurance transactions and capital markets structures; provided, however, such support and analysis shall be similar in scope to that which Manager has previously provided to Client and shall be consistent with the range of services provided in the normal course by Manager under this Agreement.

2.2 [Reserved]

2.3 Appointment of Manager . Client appoints Manager and Manager accepts appointment by Client as investment adviser for the Account with full discretion subject to the terms of this Agreement; provided that, and without limitation to any right or remedy of Client under this Agreement, the ultimate control of Client's accounts and/or investment portfolios shall remain with the Board, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to transfer or delegate such control to Manager.

2.4 Non-Exclusivity . Manager shall perform its services described in this Agreement on a nonexclusive basis. Client shall be free to retain at any time one or more additional investment advisers to perform similar services in connection with any of its assets. Manager may give advice and take action with respect to other clients that differs from advice given or action taken with respect to the Account, so long as Manager attempts in good faith to allocate investment opportunities to Client and the Account over a period of time on a fair and equitable basis compared to investment opportunities extended to other clients. Manager is not obligated to initiate the purchase or sale of any security for Client or the Account that Manager, or its Affiliates or the respective Representatives of either of them, may purchase or sell for its or their own accounts or for the account of any other client if, in the reasonable opinion of Manager, such transaction or investment appears unsuitable or undesirable for Client or the Account.

2.5 Covenants of Manager .

- (a) Manager shall discharge its duties with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person, acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters should use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. Further, Manager shall use the same skill and care in the management of the Account and other duties hereunder as it uses in the administration of other similar accounts for which it has investment responsibility.
- (b) Manager shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to achieve the Investment Objectives. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client understands that Manager makes no representation regarding its ability to achieve any Investment Objective and Manager shall have no liability hereunder for such failure provided it has otherwise complied with the terms of this Agreement.
- (c) Manager shall notify Client in writing within seven (7) business days of: (i) Manager's failure or inability to comply with any material term or provision of this Agreement; (ii) any change in Manager's senior officers who exercise investment discretion in respect of the Account; (iii) any change in Manager's condition, financial or otherwise, or in its business or any other change which is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to Manager, the Account or the Account Assets; (iv) the occurrence of any happening or event which is reasonably likely to cause or has caused any breach of any representation or warranty made by Manager below and the nature and scope of the breach; (v) any threatened or actual material adverse change in the Account or nature of the Account Assets of which it is aware; (vi) if it is unable to comply with the Investment Guidelines including any change resulting from an amendment to such Investment Guidelines or any instruction or direction given by Client pursuant to this Agreement; or (vii) if an instruction, direction or guideline given by Client is: (A) in Manager's opinion, inconsistent with the Investment Guidelines; or (B) in Manager's opinion, ambiguous or unclear in any respect, and the instruction, direction or guideline must be clarified by Client.

- (d) In the performance of its duties and obligations under this Agreement, Manager shall act in conformity with the Investment Guidelines or other written instructions of the Board, the Investment Committee or Representatives of Client, in each case as supplied to Manager by Client, and all Applicable Law. At Client's request, Manager shall provide to Client certificates or other evidence of compliance relating to any Applicable Law or other legal requirements, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to Client.
- (e) Manager shall at all times maintain sufficient and knowledgeable personnel to perform the services under this Agreement.
- (f) Manager shall inform Client of, and comply with, Manager's policy regarding the receipt by Manager of all services received in connection with soft dollar commissions in relation to the investment or management of the Account.
- (g) Manager shall account to Client for any monetary benefits, fees or commissions received by Manager or any Affiliate of Manager in relation to the investment of the Account other than benefits or amounts permitted to be received in accordance with Section 2.7 and Article IV.
- (h) Manager shall exercise due care in selecting, appointing and reviewing the performance of any agent of Manager in connection with the Account or any broker engaged by Manager.
- (i) Except as otherwise disclosed in this Agreement, Manager does not have and will not have any interest, direct or indirect, which would conflict in any manner with its obligations under this Agreement.

2.6 Custodial Matters. All transactions authorized by this Agreement with respect to the Account will be consummated through a custodian designated in writing by Client (the “Custodian”). Manager (who shall not act as Custodian) may issue such instructions to the Custodian as may be appropriate in connection with the settlement of transactions initiated by Manager under this Agreement, either in writing or sent electronically or orally and confirmed in writing or electronically as soon as practical thereafter. Manager shall instruct all brokers, dealers or other persons executing orders on behalf of the Account to forward to the Custodian copies of all brokerage or dealer confirmations promptly after execution of all transactions. Manager shall not be authorized to take custody or possession of any Account Assets. Manager shall not be responsible for the fees of the Custodian or for any loss incurred by reason of any act or omission of the Custodian. Client may, at any time in its sole discretion, appoint one or more additional or substitute custodians to hold the Account Assets. Manager will be advised of the appointment of any substitute custodians in writing by Client.

2.7 Brokerage Matters.

- (a) Manager may place orders directly with brokers or dealers for executing transactions for the Account. In selecting brokers or dealers, Manager is authorized to use its discretion and may take into account such relevant factors as (i) total transaction price (including commissions, as a component of price); (ii) the broker’s facilities, reliability and financial responsibility; (iii) the ability of the broker to effect the securities transaction, particularly with regard to such aspects as timing, size and execution of orders; and (iv) the research services provided by such broker to Manager (either directly or by arrangement with third parties) which may enhance Manager’s general investment decision-making process, notwithstanding that the Account may not be the direct or exclusive beneficiary of such services. Specifically, Manager may pay a broker a commission in excess of the amount another broker would have charged for effecting such transaction, so long as, in the good faith judgment of Manager, the amount of the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided by such broker, viewed in terms of that particular transaction or Manager’s overall investment management business. Client shall be responsible for the total transaction costs, including all reasonable broker’s commissions with respect to transactions of the Account and all taxes or government fees, domestic or foreign, attributable to such transactions. Manager may enter into arrangements with brokers to open “average price” accounts wherein orders during a trading day are placed on behalf of Client and other clients and are allocated (along with an equivalent portion of the expenses related thereto) among the Account and the accounts of the other clients using an average price. Manager may execute any and all transactions for the Account with or through brokers or dealers that are Affiliates of Manager so long as such transactions are executed on terms no less favorable than those available from an unaffiliated broker or dealer.
- (b) Client may direct Manager to effect securities transactions for the Account (“Directed Trades”) through broker-dealer(s) identified by Client in writing (“Directed Brokers”) in a separate agreement acceptable to Manager. Client acknowledges that: (i) Directed Trades may not enable Client to obtain the cost and execution benefits, if any, of participating in aggregated trades with other clients; and (ii) Directed Trades may be executed before or after Manager effects the execution of transactions for other accounts with the result that Client may pay or receive, as the case may be, a different price for securities which were also the subject of trades by Manager for its other clients. Client represents that Directed Trades are not prohibited by Applicable Law or Client's governing documents.

2.8 Exercise of Rights. Subject to the Investment Guidelines and any other written instructions of the Board, the Investment Committee or Representatives of the Client provided to Manager, Manager shall use its best judgment to exercise or instruct the Custodian to exercise, in a manner that Manager deems to be in the best interests of Client, all voting rights, consent rights, subscription rights, conversion rights or any other rights arising in connection with any investment in the Account. Manager shall determine whether to consent to modifications of any documents governing securities held in the Account. Unless provided herein or requested in writing by Client, Manager need not forward any proxy material, consent solicitations or similar material to Client.

2.9 Recordkeeping and Reports; Review and Inspection .

- (a) Manager shall maintain all records, memoranda, instructions or authorizations (collectively, "Records") relating to the acquisition or disposition of securities or other investments in the Account as required by the Investment Advisers Act. Such Records will be the property of Client. On a timely basis, Manager shall make available to Client, at its administrative offices or such other location as may be designated by Client, copies or originals of such Records upon reasonable request.
- (b) All Records, both internal and external with third parties, to the extent within the control of Manager, will clearly specify the ownership interest of Client in the Account Assets.
- (c) Records relating solely to the Account and/or the Account Assets that are not maintained physically on Client's premises or in Client's care, custody and control shall be subject to review and audit at any time by Client, its Representatives, the Insurance Authority and any other Governmental Authority, or any other entity designated by Client, and Manager shall cooperate with and provide reasonable assistance to any such Person, including any auditor appointed by Client to conduct an audit of the Account. Such Records shall be maintained for the time periods and in a format required by the Investment Advisers Act. Manager shall notify Client prior to destruction of such Records (in order that Client may request transfer of such Records to Client as an alternative to destruction).
- (d) Manager shall provide to Client such other documents and information pertaining to this Agreement, the Account and/or Account Assets at such times as Client may reasonably request including, but not limited to, information required to prepare reports to the Insurance Authority or any other entity designated by Client or as may be required in order for Client to comply with GAAP, SAP or Applicable Law.

- (e) Manager will cooperate fully with Client with respect to unsettled or unreconciled transactions and daily transmission of trading activity.

2.10 Information Furnished to Manager. Client shall furnish to Manager in a timely manner any information that Manager may reasonably request with respect to the services performed under this Agreement. In determining the requirements of Applicable Law, Manager may rely on an interpretation of law by legal counsel to Client.

ARTICLE III TERM AND TERMINATION

- (a) This Agreement shall continue in effect for a term beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Termination Date”). Not less than one (1) year prior to the Initial Termination Date, Client shall notify Manager in writing of its intent to terminate this Agreement on the Initial Termination Date or to extend this Agreement for an additional one (1) year term (the “First Extension”). If Client exercises the First Extension, Client shall, no later than the Initial Termination Date, notify Manager in writing of its intent to terminate this Agreement at the end of the First Extension or to further extend this Agreement for an additional one (1) year term (the “Second Extension”). This Agreement may only be terminated by Client (i) for any reason with one (1) year prior written notice (which notice shall specify the effective date of termination) to the Manager or (ii) immediately (A) for cause (“cause” being understood as any fraud or willful misconduct by Manager in managing the Account, Manager’s material breach of this Agreement, materially deficient investment performance with respect to the Account or Manager’s material or repeated non-compliance in managing the Account in accordance with the Investment Guidelines or Investment Objectives; provided that, except with respect to Manager’s fraud or willful misconduct, Manager shall have thirty (30) days from notice of such material breach or non-compliance to cure the material breach or non-compliance to the reasonable satisfaction of Client in which case “cause” shall not be deemed to have occurred) or (B) upon a Control Event with respect to Client. If Client terminates this Agreement with less than one (1) year prior notice and if such termination is not for cause or due to a Control Event with respect to Client, Client will then continue to pay to Manager the lesser of (1) the unpaid balance of the Budgeted Costs (as defined in Article IV(a)) for the remaining portion of the calendar year plus the pro-rata portion of the Budgeted Costs for the following calendar year but only for the number of days which when added to the time elapsed since the giving of such notice would equal one (1) year (such remaining period, the “Remaining Term”) or (2) the Actual Costs incurred by Manager for providing services under this Agreement for the Remaining Term

(in each case as adjusted to reflect the pro-rata portion of the True-up (as defined below) from the prior year and entire True-up for the following year, or portion thereof, if applicable). Manager shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate the incurrence of such costs and expenses. This Agreement may be terminated by Manager if the SEC suspends or withdraws Manager's investment adviser registration ("SEC Termination") or a change in Applicable Law occurs that would materially and adversely affect Manager's ability to provide services hereunder ("Regulatory Change"). Manager shall provide prompt written notice of a SEC Termination or Regulatory Change to Client and Manager shall use best efforts to extend the termination date for this Agreement to the maximum date consistent with the requirements of the SEC or the date of implementation of the Regulatory Change, as applicable, and in a manner consistent with subsection (d) of this Article III. This Agreement may be terminated by Manager (i) upon a Control Event with respect to Manager; (ii) if GE decides to dissolve Manager and commences dissolution proceedings; or (iii) if GE decides to engage other investment managers to provide substantially all advisory services to the fixed income allocation of the General Electric Pension Trust (each event a "GE Change"); provided that Manager shall give prompt written notice of a GE Change to Client and the date of termination shall occur on the later of the Initial Termination Date or one (1) year from the giving of notice of the GE Change to Client. This Agreement also shall automatically terminate in the event of its unauthorized assignment by either party. Termination in any manner shall not affect the rights of either party that accrued prior to termination.

- (b) Client acknowledges that Manager has and will continue to expend substantial fixed costs in providing services to Client and such costs would not have been incurred but for Manager providing services to Client. Furthermore, Client acknowledges that Manager has agreed to provide services hereunder for the fees noted in Article IV in part because Client has expressed a good faith intention to engage Manager for not less than three (3) years following the Effective Date. Therefore, Client acknowledges that the management fees still to be paid to Manager following a termination by Client of this Agreement for reasons other than cause or upon a Control Event with respect to Client and with less than one (1) year prior notice should not be construed as a penalty but as a reasonable approximation of the additional costs incurred by Manager due to the failure of Client to meet the parties' expectations.
- (c) Within sixty (60) days of the termination of this Agreement, Manager shall transfer all Records to Client or its designee provided that Manager shall be entitled to maintain a copy of such Records. All reasonable costs to transfer such Records shall be paid by Client.
- (d) In the event of any termination of this Agreement, Client may request that Manager continue to serve as a manager hereunder (at the then-existing compensation level) in order to assist Client in effecting a smooth and orderly transfer of services and all Records to any successor manager (which may be Client); provided that such transition period shall not exceed 3 months unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Manager shall consent to such request provided termination is not the result of a SEC Termination or Regulatory Change.

ARTICLE IV COMPENSATION

- (a) Subject to the provisions of this Article IV, Client agrees to pay Manager a management fee on a quarterly basis in arrears for services provided by Manager to Client pursuant to this Agreement. The management fee shall be equal to $$ basis points ($\%$) (the "Management Percentage") multiplied by the value of the Account Assets as of the end of the relevant calendar quarter, as determined by the Custodian's records, divided by four (4). The parties acknowledge that the initial Management Percentage has been, and the Management Percentage applicable for each calendar year thereafter will be, equal to the percentage resulting from dividing Manager's budgeted direct and indirect costs and expenses for such period (the "Budgeted Costs") as adjusted by any True-up (as defined below) for the prior year by Client's estimated aggregate Account Assets for the next calendar year, all as determined in good faith.
- (b) The parties will reestablish the Management Percentage for each calendar year in accordance with the following process; provided, however, that if the Management Percentage for such period exceeds by more than ten percent (10%) the Management Percentage applicable during the prior calendar year or portion thereof, such increase shall be submitted to the Insurance Authority for prior approval. By each September 15, Client shall provide Manager with a provisional forecast of Client's Account Assets for the following calendar year together with an outline of any significant changes that Client proposes to implement to its investment strategy during the following calendar year. By each October 1, Manager shall provide Client with a detailed budget setting forth the expected Budgeted Costs to be incurred by Manager in order to provide services to Client for the following calendar year along with reasonable documentation in support of such budget (collectively, the "Proposal"). Client shall promptly review the Proposal and shall accept or reject the Proposal, in Client's reasonable discretion, by no later than November 1; provided, however, if Client rejects the Proposal it shall provide Manager with a written explanation for such rejection. If Client rejects the Proposal, Client and Manager will work in good faith to resolve all issues so that the Proposal is acceptable to both parties no later than December 1. As promptly as possible, but in no event later than January 15 of each year, Client shall provide Manager its final forecast of Account Assets for the calendar year and any significant changes to Client's investment strategy that Client proposes to implement during the calendar year. Within five (5) business days following receipt of such information, Manager shall calculate the difference between the management fees paid or payable by Client to Manager for the prior year under this Agreement (and under the Original Agreement for the portion of 2004 that such agreement remained in effect) and Manager's actual direct and indirect costs and expenses of providing services ("Actual Costs") during such period (such difference is referred to as the "True-up") and shall provide the True-up and proposed Management Percentage to Client. The calculation of any True-up shall not give effect to fees received by Manager or reductions in fees otherwise owed to Manager as a result of a prior True-up. The True-up shall be added to or subtracted from, as applicable, the Budgeted Costs set forth in the approved Proposal and shall be reflected in the Management Percentage established for the following calendar year. If Manager is entitled to the benefit of the True-up because Actual Costs exceeded Budgeted Costs, the True-up added to Budgeted Costs for the following calendar year shall be the lesser of the actual True-up or an amount equal to 10% of Budgeted Costs for the prior calendar year; provided however, that any Actual Costs that were not included in the approved Proposal for the year but were previously approved in writing by Client in consultation with Manager during such year shall not be included when applying the 10% cap. The Manager shall provide Client with reasonable back-up documentation supporting Manager's calculation of the True-up. Client shall approve or reject the True-Up and the Management Percentage not later than five (5) business days after receipt thereof from Manager. The Management Percentage shall be implemented as if it were effective as of the prior January 1. If the parties are unable to agree on a revised Proposal, the True-up or the Management Percentage, the then existing Management Percentage shall remain in effect until the parties agree on a revised Proposal and True-up. If the parties are unable to agree on the Proposal, the Management Percentage and the True-up by February 15, the Budgeted Costs and Management Percentage (which shall reflect the True-up) shall be established pursuant to the Arbitration process described in Article VIII of this Agreement. Both parties understand that time is of the essence with respect to this subsection. For purposes of all dates set forth in this subsection, if such date is not a business day, then such date shall be deemed to be the next calendar day that is a business day.

- (c) Manager shall submit to Client within thirty (30) days following each calendar quarter, a written statement of the amount owed by Client for the previous quarter. Client shall pay Manager undisputed amounts within thirty (30) days following receipt of such statement.

ARTICLE V CONFIDENTIALITY

Subject to the duty of Manager or Client to comply with Applicable Law, each party hereto shall treat as confidential all information with respect to the other party received pursuant to this Agreement. No party shall use or disclose the other party's confidential information except as contemplated by this Agreement.

Manager shall establish and maintain reasonable procedures to keep Investment Reports, the information supplied by Client to Manager for the Investment Reports and other non-public information provided hereunder confidential and to prevent disclosure or distribution to any Person other than to Client's Representatives or to Manager's Representatives or Manager's service providers who have a reasonable need to know or have access to such information in connection with providing services hereunder; provided that Manager may include information from such Investment Reports when presenting Manager's performance as long as Client is not identified as the source of such information. Manager will be responsible for compliance with the terms of this Article V by its Representatives.

Investment Reports provided by Manager to Client are privileged and may include proprietary information. Investment Reports will be used solely for the purpose of monitoring and evaluating the performance of the Account and for use by Client in testing the Account Assets for regulatory compliance and similar purposes. Client shall establish and maintain reasonable procedures to keep Investment Reports confidential and to prevent disclosure or distribution to any Person other than to Client's Representatives who have a reasonable need to know or have access to such Investment Reports in connection with the receipt of services hereunder. Client will be responsible for compliance with the terms of this Article V by its Representatives.

Each party hereto will obtain the other party's approval before sending or making available any Investment Report to third parties. If a party is required by Applicable Law or requested (by legal process, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any confidential information of the other party, the party being required or requested to make such disclosure will promptly notify the other party so that the other party may seek an appropriate protective order or waive compliance with this confidentiality covenant.

ARTICLE VI REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

6.1 By Client. Client represents and warrants that:

- (a) It is an insurance company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware and has the power and authority (including approval from the Insurance Authority, if required) to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement;
- (b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of the Client enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally or by the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies; and
- (c) Except as set forth on Schedule 6.1 attached hereto, none of the Account Assets are "plan assets" within the meaning of ERISA and if any Account Assets ever become "plan assets" within the meaning of ERISA, Client will immediately so notify Manager.

6.2 By Manager. Manager represents and warrants that:

- (a) It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware, has the power and authority to carry on the business of an investment adviser, and has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement;
- (b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of Manager enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally or by the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies;
- (c) Other than approval from the Insurance Authority, if any, it has made, obtained and performed all other registrations, filings, approvals, authorizations, consents, licenses or examinations required by any government or governmental or quasi-governmental authority, domestic or foreign, or required by any other person, corporation or other entity in order to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to be an investment adviser;
- (d) Neither the execution and delivery nor the performance of this Agreement by Manager will violate any law, statute, order, rule or regulation or judgment, order or decree by any federal, state, local or foreign court or governmental authority, domestic or foreign, to which Manager is subject nor will the same constitute a breach of, or default under, provisions of any agreement or contract to which it is a party or by which it is bound;
- (e) It is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act and has at least 48 hours prior to entering into this Agreement furnished to Client a true and complete copy of Part II of its most recent Form ADV; and since the date of such Form ADV, there has not been, occurred or arisen any material adverse change in the financial condition or in the business of Manager or any event, condition, or state of facts which materially and adversely affects, or to its knowledge threatens to materially affect, the business or financial condition of Manager; and
- (f) In terms of intellectual property, it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in and to the intellectual property used by it to perform its obligations hereunder or, to its knowledge, possesses all appropriate rights to use the intellectual property; has not sold, granted, conveyed, licensed or assigned to any third party, or in any way encumbered, the intellectual property in a manner that interferes with Manager's obligations under this Agreement; and the intellectual property used by Manager does not to Manager's knowledge infringe the rights of any third party.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 7.1 Limitation of Liability . In furnishing Client with services as provided herein, neither Manager nor any officer, director or agent thereof shall be held liable to Client, its creditors or the holders of its securities for good faith errors of judgment or for anything except willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the terms of this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed that Manager may rely upon information furnished to it by Client that Manager reasonably believes to be accurate and reliable. Certain federal laws, including federal securities laws, impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and therefore nothing contained herein shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights that Client may have under any such federal laws.
- 7.2 Indemnification .
- (a) Notwithstanding any limitation of liability contained in Section 7.1, Manager shall indemnify and hold Client harmless from and against any losses, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, penalties, demands and claims of any nature whatsoever with respect to or arising out of Manager's breach or violation of any agreement, covenant, representation or warranty made by Manager herein.
 - (b) Client shall indemnify and hold Manager harmless from and against any losses, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, penalties, demands and claims of any nature whatsoever with respect to or arising out Client's breach or violation of any agreement, covenant, representation or warranty made by Client herein.
- 7.3 Assignment . No assignment (by operation of law or otherwise) of this Agreement, in whole or in part, nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement by either party shall be effective without the prior written consent of the other party and the Insurance Authority. For purposes of this section, the term "assignment" with respect to Manager as assignor shall have the same meaning as defined in Section 202 of the Investment Advisers Act. Subject to the provisions of this Section 7.3, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.
- 7.4 Independent Contractor . Manager shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and, except as expressly provided or authorized in this Agreement, shall have no authority to act for or represent Client. Client shall always retain the ultimate authority to make investment decisions on its own behalf.
- 7.5 [Reserved]
- 7.6 Specimen Signatures . From time to time, Client shall provide Manager with a certificate setting forth the names and specimen signatures of the Representatives who are authorized to act on behalf of Client (including, but not limited to, the Investment Committee). From time to time, Manager will provide Client with a certificate setting forth the names and specimen signatures of the Representatives who are authorized to act on behalf of Manager. The parties hereto shall be fully protected in relying upon any written notice, instruction, direction or other communication (based upon the most recent certificate that has been received by the party) which is reasonably believed to have been executed by an individual who is authorized to act on behalf of the other party.

7.7 [Reserved]

7.8 [Reserved]

7.9 Advertising and Promotion. A party shall not engage in any advertising or promotional activity that refers to the other party without receiving the written consent of the other party prior to publication or announcement. Manager shall however be entitled to disclose Client's name and the size of the Account Assets in client listings and other similar material.

7.10 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to its conflict of laws principles.

7.11 Notices. Any notice under this Agreement shall be given in writing, addressed, and delivered, or mailed postpaid, to the party to this Agreement entitled to receive such, at such party's principal place of business as set out here:

Manager:

General Counsel
GE Asset Management Incorporated
3003 Summer Street
Stamford, CT 06905

Client:

General Counsel
General Electric Capital Assurance Company
6620 W. Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23230

or to such other address as either party may designate in writing mailed to the other. Whenever any notice is required to be given hereunder, such notice shall be deemed given and such requirement satisfied only when such notice is delivered, or, if mailed, when received unless otherwise permitted by the terms hereof.

- 7.12 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.
- 7.13 Amendments. No term or provision of this Agreement may be amended, waived, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an instrument in writing signed by both parties.
- 7.14 Electronic Notices, Waivers and Amendments. For purposes of providing notices required or permitted by this Agreement, waiving any right under this Agreement, or amending any term of this Agreement and notwithstanding any law recognizing electronic signatures or records, "a writing signed," "in writing" and words of similar meaning, shall mean only a writing in a tangible form bearing an actual "wet" signature in ink manually applied by the person authorized by the respective party, unless both parties agree otherwise by making a specific reference to this section.
- 7.15 Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes any and all oral or written agreements or understandings heretofore made, and contains the entire agreement of the parties, with respect to the subject matter hereof.
- 7.16 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same agreement.
- 7.17 Additional Parties. Insurance company Affiliates of Genworth Financial, Inc. may become party to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement subject only to executing the Adoption Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals. Each such additional insurance company becoming a party to this Agreement shall be deemed a "Client" hereunder. If and when the Agreement involves two or more Clients, any one Client may terminate this Agreement, but only with respect to such Client's participation in the Agreement, in accordance with Article III.

7.18 Taxes.

- (a) Each party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.
- (b) Client may report and (as appropriate) pay any sales, use, excise, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties ("Taxes") directly if Client provides Manager with a direct pay or exemption certificate.
- (c) The parties agree to cooperate with each other to enable each to more accurately determine its own tax liability and to minimize such liability to the extent legally permissible. Manager's invoices shall separately state the amounts of any Taxes Manager is proposing to collect from Client.
- (d) Manager shall promptly notify Client of any claim for Taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which Client is alleged to be financially responsible hereunder. Manager shall coordinate with Client the response to and settlement of, any such claim. Notwithstanding the above, Client's liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon Manager providing Client notification within twenty (20) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by Manager.
- (e) Client shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid to Manager pursuant to this Agreement. In the event Manager shall be entitled to receive a refund of any Taxes paid by Client to Manager, Manager shall promptly pay, or cause the payment of, such refund to Client.

ARTICLE VIII
DISPUTE RESOLUTION

8.1 General Provisions.

- (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article VIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

- (b) Commencing with a request contemplated by Section 8.2 set forth below, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 8.3 set forth below, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.
- (c) Except as provided in Section 8.1(f) in connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.
- (d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.
- (e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article VIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.
- (f) The parties hereto hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court located within the State of Delaware over any such Dispute and each party hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of any such Dispute or any suit, action proceeding related thereto may be heard and determined in such courts. The parties hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such Dispute brought in such court or any defense of inconvenient forum for the maintenance of such dispute. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a judgment in any such Dispute may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Applicable Law.

8.2 Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

8.3 Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 8.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

8.4 Arbitration

- (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 8.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.
- (b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of State of Delaware, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § § 1 et seq.
- (c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this Section 8.4 and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 8.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
- (d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 8.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under Applicable Law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of State of Delaware.
- (e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding Section 8.4(d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of Article V, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

- (f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article VIII.

ARTICLE II SERVICES

2.1 Appointment as Investment Manager

The Customer appoints the Investment Manager and the Investment Manager accepts appointment by the Customer as investment adviser for the Account with full discretion subject to the terms of this Agreement; provided that, and without limitation to any right or remedy of the Customer under this Agreement, the ultimate control of the Customer’s accounts shall remain with the Board, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to transfer or delegate such control to the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager, acting in good faith and with due diligence will provide continuous discretionary investment management services (“Services”) to the Customer, which services may include (but not limited to) the following:

- (a) Research and identify investment opportunities;
- (b) Open (or direct the Custodian to open) and maintain brokerage accounts for securities and other property for and in the name of the Customer and execute for the Customer, as its agent and attorney-in-fact, standard customer agreements;
- (c) Invest Account Assets in income earning investments, such as bonds and cash equivalents, and such other investments as are permitted by Applicable Requirements, subject to any restrictions or limitations imposed by the Investment Guidelines, the Board or the Investment Committee, in each case, as communicated to the Investment Manager in writing;
- (d) Exercise, on behalf of the Customer or direct the exercise by the Custodian where appropriate, all rights and remedies conferred by any investment including, without limitation, voting rights (as set out in clause 2.6 below) with respect to the Account Assets;
- (e) Sell or dispose of investments as appropriate, subject to any restrictions or limitations imposed by the Investment Guidelines, the Board or the Investment Committee; provided, however, that the proceeds from any such sales will be deposited in the relevant Account on the date of receipt;
- (f) Assist in developing an overall investment strategy for the Account Assets; provided that in all cases the Customer shall have sole responsibility for approving and adopting any such strategy;
- (g) As requested by the Customer, conduct inspections, valuations, projections or other due diligence activities with respect to investments;
- (h) Negotiate the terms and conditions of investments and review and participate in the preparation of any documentation relating to such investments and execute for the Customer, as its agent and attorney-in-fact, such documentation;

- (i) Keep the Account under review and confer at regular intervals with the Customer regarding the investment and management of the Account;
- (j) Prepare a summary of all purchases and sales of investments with respect to the Account for approval and ratification by the Board or the Investment Committee not less than quarterly and more frequently if the Board or the Investment Committee so requests;
- (k) Assist with cash management and cash flow forecasting;
- (l) Participate in meetings of the Board, the Investment Committee and such other meetings with Customer Representatives as the Customer may request from time to time;
- (m) Provide the Customer, in a timely manner, with such reports, documentation and information as the Customer may reasonably request in connection with monthly, quarterly and annual closing activities;
- (n) Provide the Customer with such additional investment management services relating to the Account as the Customer may reasonably request from time to time; and
- (o) Provide other support and analysis concerning investments, which, by way of example, may include due diligence in connection with potential business acquisitions or dispositions by the Customer and its Associates, reinsurance transactions and capital markets structures; provided, however, such support and analysis shall be similar in scope to that which Financial Insurance Group Services Limited had previously provided to the Customer and shall be consistent with the range of Services provided in the normal course by the Investment Manager under this Agreement.

2.2 Non-Exclusivity. The Investment Manager shall perform the Services on a nonexclusive basis. The Customer shall be free to retain at any time one or more additional investment advisers to perform similar services in connection with any of its assets. The Investment Manager may give advice and take action with respect to other customers that differs from advice given or action taken with respect to the Account, so long as the Investment Manager attempts in good faith to allocate investment opportunities to the Customer and the Account over a period of time on a fair and equitable basis compared to investment opportunities extended to other customers. The Investment Manager is not obligated to initiate the purchase or sale of any security for the Customer or the Account that the Investment Manager, its Associates or the respective Representatives of either of them may purchase or sell for its or their own accounts or for the account of any other the customer if, in the reasonable opinion of the Investment Manager, such transaction or investment appears unsuitable or undesirable for the Customer or the Account.

2.3 Covenants of the Investment Manager .

During the term of this Agreement:

- (a) The Investment Manager shall discharge its duties with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person, acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters should use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. Further, the Investment Manager shall use the same skill and care in the management of the Account and other duties hereunder as it uses in the administration of other similar accounts for which it has investment responsibility. The Investment Manager shall at all times comply with its applicable duties under the FSA Rules.

- (b) The Investment Manager shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to achieve the Investment Objectives. Notwithstanding the foregoing the, Customer understands that the Investment Manager makes no representation regarding its ability to achieve any Investment Objective and the Investment Manager shall have no liability hereunder for such failure provided it has otherwise complied with the terms of this Agreement.
- (c) The Investment Manager shall notify the Customer in writing within seven (7) business days of the Investment Manager becoming aware of: (i) the Investment Manager's failure or inability to comply with any material term or provision of this Agreement; (ii) any change in the Investment Manager's senior officers who exercise investment discretion in respect of the Account; (iii) any change in the Investment Manager's condition, financial or otherwise or in its business or any other change which is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to the Investment Manager, the Account or the Account Assets; (iv) the occurrence of any happening or event which is reasonably likely to cause or has caused any breach of any representation or warranty made by the Investment Manager in Article VI and the nature and scope of the breach; (v) any threatened or actual material adverse change in the Account or nature of the Account Assets of which it is aware; (vi) its inability to comply with any part of the Investment Guidelines including any change resulting from an amendment to such Investment Guidelines or any instruction or direction given by the Customer pursuant to this Agreement; (vii) an instruction, direction or guideline given by the Customer that is: (A) in the Investment Manager's opinion, inconsistent with the Investment Guidelines; or (B) in the Investment Manager's opinion, ambiguous or unclear in any respect, and the instruction, direction or guideline must be clarified by the Customer; (viii) a breach of any FSA Rule, which breach will or is expected to have a material adverse effect on the Investment Manager's ability to provide the Services; or (ix) actual or potential non-routine investigation by the FSA or any other regulator into the Investment Manager's condition, financial or otherwise or in its business or any actual or threatened withdrawal or suspension of any of the Investment Manager's authorisations, permission or licences necessary to provide the Services.
- (d) In the performance of its duties and obligations under this Agreement, the Investment Manager shall act in conformity with the Investment Guidelines or other written instructions of the Board, the Investment Committee or Representatives of the Customer, in each case as supplied to the Investment Manager by the Customer, and all Applicable Requirements. At the Customer's request, the Investment Manager shall provide to the Customer certificates or other evidence of compliance relating to any Applicable Requirements or other legal requirements, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to the Customer.
- (e) The Investment Manager shall at all times maintain sufficient and knowledgeable personnel to perform the Services.
- (f) The Investment Manager shall inform the Customer of, and comply with, the Investment Manager's policy regarding the receipt by the Investment Manager of all services received in connection with soft dollar commissions in relation to the investment or management of the Account.
- (g) The Investment Manager shall account to the Customer for any monetary benefits, fees or commissions received by the Investment Manager or any Associate of the Investment Manager in relation to the investment of the Account other than such monetary benefits or amounts permitted to be received in accordance with Article IV.

- (h) The Investment Manager shall exercise due diligence in selecting, appointing and reviewing the performance of any agent of the Investment Manager in connection with the Account or any Brokers engaged by the Investment Manager.
- (i) Except as otherwise disclosed in this Agreement, the Investment Manager does not have and will not have any interest, direct or indirect, which would conflict in any manner with its obligations under this Agreement.

2.4 Transactions Involving Brokers.

- (a) In performing the Services, the Investment Manager shall have full power, right, and authority to issue orders for the purchase or sale of securities for the Account, directly to Brokers, as well as to exercise or abstain from exercising any option, privilege or right held in the Account. In selecting a Broker with respect to effecting any securities transaction on behalf of the Customer, the Investment Manager may take into account such relevant factors as (i) total transaction price (including commissions, as a component of price), (ii) the Broker's facilities, reliability and financial responsibility, (iii) the ability of the Broker to effect securities transactions, particularly with regard to such aspects as timing, size and execution of orders, and (iv) the research services provided by such Broker to the Investment Manager (either directly or by arrangement with third parties) which may enhance the Investment Manager's general investment decision-making process, notwithstanding that the Customer may not be the direct or exclusive beneficiary of such services. Specifically, the Investment Manager may pay a Broker a commission in excess of the amount another broker would have charged for effecting such transaction, so long as, subject to the overriding principles of suitability and in the good faith judgment of the Investment Manager, the amount of the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided by such Broker, viewed in terms of that particular transaction or the Investment Manager's overall investment management business. The Investment Manager will make periodic disclosure to the Customer regarding transactions subject to soft dollar arrangements as required.
- (b) Subject to FSA Rules, the Investment Manager may enter into arrangements with Brokers to open "average price" accounts wherein orders during a trading day are placed on behalf of the Customer and other customers of the Investment Manager and its Associates and of its employees without prior reference to the Customer and will allocate such transactions (along with an equivalent portion of the expense related thereto) on a fair and reasonable basis using an average price.
- (c) The Customer may direct the Investment Manager to effect securities transactions for the Account ("Directed Trades") through broker-dealer(s) identified by the Customer in writing ("Directed Brokers") in a separate agreement acceptable to the Investment Manager. The Customer acknowledges that: (i) Directed Trades may not enable the Customer to obtain the cost and execution benefits, if any, of participating in aggregated trades with other customers; and (ii) Directed Trades may be executed before or after the Investment Manager effects the execution of transactions for other accounts with the result that the Customer may pay or receive, as the case may be, a different price for securities which were also the subject of trades by the Investment Manager for its other customers. The Customer represents that Directed Trades are not prohibited by Applicable Requirements or the Customer's governing documents.

- (d) The Investment Manager may provide typical investment representations and warranties on behalf of the Customer, including but not limited to those representations and warranties contained in clause 6.2 hereof, in connection with the purchase or sale of securities by the Customer.

2.5 Custody Arrangements. The Customer has established an agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank (the "Custodian" and such agreement, the "Custody Agreement"). The Custodian shall be responsible for arranging custody and safekeeping of the Account Assets, the collection of income and other entitlements, the carrying out of any foreign exchange transaction and all other administrative functions in relation to such Account Assets. All Account Assets will be held by the Custodian in accordance with the provisions of the Custody Agreement. The Customer, during the term of this Agreement, shall promptly provide to the Investment Manager copies of any amendments to the Custody Agreement that may affect the Investment Manager in providing the Service and shall give to the Investment Manager notice of any termination of the Custody Agreement. The Customer shall be responsible for the payment of all custodial fees to the Custodian. The Investment Manager shall have no responsibility including supervisory responsibility or liability with respect to the acts, omissions or other conduct of the Custodian.

2.6 Exercise of Rights. Subject to the Investment Guidelines and any other written instructions of the Board, the Investment Committee or Representatives of the Customer provided to the Investment Manager, the Investment Manager shall use its best judgment to exercise or instruct the Custodian to exercise, in a manner that the Investment Manager deems to be in the best interests of the Customer, all voting rights, consent rights, subscription rights, conversion rights or any other rights arising in connection with any investment in the Account. The Investment Manager shall determine whether to consent to modifications of any documents governing securities held in the Account. Unless provided herein or requested in writing by the Customer, the Investment Manager need not forward any proxy material, consent solicitations or similar material to the Customer.

2.7 Record Keeping and Inspection.

- (a) The Investment Manager shall maintain all books, accounts, vouchers, records, memoranda, instructions or authorizations (collectively, "Records") relating to the acquisition or disposition of securities or other investments in the Account in accordance with FSA Rules. Such Records will at all times be the property of the Customer. On a timely basis, the Investment Manager shall make available to the Customer, at its administrative offices or such other location as may be designated by the Customer, copies or originals of such Records upon reasonable request.
- (b) All Records, both internal and external with third parties, to the extent within the control of the Investment Manager, will clearly specify the ownership interest of the Customer in the Account Assets.
- (c) Records relating solely to the Account and/or the Account Assets that are not maintained physically on the Customer's premises or in the Customer's care, custody and control shall be subject to review and audit at any time by the Customer, its Representatives, the FSA and any other governmental or regulatory authority, or any other entity designated by the Customer, and the Investment Manager shall cooperate with and provide reasonable assistance to any such Person, including any Representative appointed by the Customer to conduct an audit of the Account. The Investment Manager shall notify the Customer prior to destruction of such Records (in order that the Customer may request transfer of such Records to the Customer as an alternative to destruction).

- (d) The Investment Manager shall provide to the Customer such other documents and information pertaining to this Agreement, the Account and/or Account Assets at such times as the Customer may reasonably request including, but not limited to, information required to prepare reports to the FSA or any other entity designated by the Customer or as may be required in order for the Customer to comply with GAAP, SAP or Applicable Requirements.
- (e) The Investment Manager will cooperate fully with the Customer with respect to unsettled or unreconciled transactions and daily transmission of trading activity.
- (f) The Investment Manager shall permit representatives of the FSA to have access, with or without notice, during reasonable business hours to:
 - (i) any of the Investment Manager's business premises;
 - (ii) any records, files, tapes, computer systems, computer data or other material within the Investment Manager's possession or control related to the provision of the Services; and
 - (iii) any facilities which the FSA representatives may reasonably request, and at the Investment Manager's reasonable expense to make and remove copies of any such Records are referred to in (ii) above.
- (g) The Investment Manager shall make itself readily available for meetings with FSA representatives as reasonably requested and shall answer truthfully, fully and promptly all questions that are reasonably put to them by FSA representatives.
- (h) The Investment Manager shall give the Customer's duly appointed auditors entitlement to such information and explanations from its officers as they reasonably consider necessary for the performance of their duties.

2.8 Information Furnished to the Investment Manager .

- (a) The Customer shall furnish to the Investment Manager in a timely manner any information that the Investment Manager may reasonably request with respect to the Services. In determining the requirements of Applicable Requirements, the Investment Manager may rely on an interpretation of law by legal counsel to the Customer.
- (b) The Customer shall furnish to the Investment Manager in a timely manner details of inflows of cash to the Account in the first instance by e-mail followed by post in accordance with clause 8.3.
- (c) The Investment Guidelines may be modified or amended by the Board or the Investment Committee from time to time, provided that any such modification or amendment shall be provided by the Customer to the Investment Manager in writing in advance. The Investment Manager shall have a reasonable amount of time to bring the Account into compliance with any modification and amendment.

2.9 Reporting and valuation

- (a) The Investment Manager shall meet the Customer at such frequency as the Customer may reasonably require to review the performance of the Account and to discuss the Investment Guidelines. The Investment Manager shall (provided it receives no less than two weeks' notice of the meeting) provide the Customer not less than one week before each such meeting a written submission reviewing developments since the last meeting and outlining the major topics on which it proposes to comment at the forthcoming meeting.

- (b) The Investment Manager shall promptly deliver to the Chief Financial Officer of the Customer monthly statements showing all investments in each Account as of the close of business on the last business day of each month (the "Securities Valuation Date"). Said statements shall be sent to the Customer promptly following the end of each month and shall include:
 - (i) a statement summarizing the transactions subsequent to the immediately prior Securities Valuation Date; and
 - (ii) a report, if any, assessing the negative performance of the Custodian with respect to the custody of the Account Assets, to the extent known by the Investment Manager.
- (c) The Investment Manager shall agree with the Customer on any other statements to be provided and in the absence of such agreement, shall have no obligation to provide any statements other than as expressly provided herein.
- (d) For the purposes of these statements and any other statements or reports requested by the Customer, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the Customer and the Investment Manager, the basis for valuing Account Assets shall be determined in good faith by the Investment Manager.
- (e) The Customer shall provide the Investment Manager with a certificate (substantially in the form set out in Exhibit A) setting forth the names and specimen signatures of the individuals who are authorized to act on behalf of the Customer. The Customer may from time to time amend or vary such certificate by written notice to the Investment Manager.

ARTICLE III TERM AND TERMINATION

3. Term and Termination .

- (a) This Agreement shall continue in effect for a term beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Initial Termination Date"). Not less than one (1) year prior to the Initial Termination Date, the Customer shall notify the Investment Manager in writing of its intent to terminate this Agreement on the Initial Termination Date or to extend this Agreement for an additional one (1) year term (the "First Extension").
- (b) If the Customer exercises the First Extension, the Customer shall, no later than the Initial Termination Date, notify the Investment Manager in writing of its intent to terminate this Agreement at the end of the First Extension or to further extend this Agreement for an additional one (1) year term (the "Second Extension").
- (c) This Agreement may only be terminated by the Customer:
 - (i) for any reason (including, without any limitation, if the GE Life Group decides to engage other investment managers to provide substantially all advisory services to its fixed income assets) with six (6) months prior notice (which notice shall specify the effective date of termination) to the Investment Manager, provided, that the Customer may provide less than six (6) months notice subject to clause 3(d) below; or

- (ii) immediately (A) for cause (“cause” being understood as any fraud or wilful misconduct by the Investment Manager in managing the Account, the Investment Manager’s material breach of this Agreement, materially deficient investment performance with respect to the Account or the Investment Manager’s material or repeated non-compliance in managing the Account in accordance with the Investment Guidelines or Investment Objectives; provided that, except with respect to Manager’s fraud or wilful misconduct, the Investment Manager shall have thirty (30) days from notice of such non-compliance or material breach to cure such non-compliance or material breach to the reasonable satisfaction of the Customer in which case cause shall not be deemed to have arisen); (B) upon a Control Event with respect to the Customer or the Investment Manager; or (C) following the occurrence of a FSA Termination or Regulatory Change (each as defined in clause 3(e) below) or the occurrence of an event described in clause 3(e)(iii)(A) below.
- (d) If the Customer terminates this Agreement with less than six (6) months prior notice and if such termination is not due to the occurrence of any event set forth in clause 3(c)(ii) above, the Customer will pay to the Investment Manager, in addition to all fees applicable for the period from notice to termination, the lesser of (1) the unpaid balance of the Budgeted Costs that have been applicable for providing the Services during the period from the termination date through the date that is six (6) months from the date that notice was received (the “Remaining Term”) or (2) the Actual Costs incurred by the Investment Manager for providing the Services for the Remaining Term (in each case as adjusted to reflect the pro-rata portion of the True-up for the following year, or portion thereof, if applicable). The Investment Manager shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate the incurrence of such costs and expenses.
- (e) This Agreement may be terminated by the Investment Manager:
 - (i) if the FSA suspends or withdraws the Investment Manager’s investment adviser registration or permission to carry on investment management activities (“FSA Termination”);
 - (ii) if a change in Applicable Requirements occurs that would materially and adversely affect the Investment Manager’s ability to provide the Services (“Regulatory Change”); or
 - (iii) if (A) GE or an Associate thereof, as the case may be, decides to dissolve the Investment Manager and commences dissolution or other winding up proceedings; (B) a Control Event with respect to the Investment Manager occurs; or (C) the GE Life Group decides to engage other investment managers to provide substantially all advisory services to its fixed income assets (each such event in (A), (B) or (C), a “GE Change”); provided that the Investment Manager shall give prompt written notice of a GE Change to the Customer and the date of termination shall occur on the later of the Initial Termination Date or six (6) months from the giving of notice of the GE Change to the Customer.
- (f) The Investment Manager shall provide prompt written notice of a FSA Termination or Regulatory Change to the Customer and the Investment Manager shall use best efforts to extend the termination date of this Agreement to the maximum date consistent with the requirements of the FSA or the date of implementation of the Regulatory Change, as applicable, and in a manner consistent with regard to clause 3(k).

- (g) This Agreement also shall automatically terminate in the event of its unauthorized assignment by either party.
- (h) Termination in any manner shall not affect the rights of either party that accrued prior to termination.
- (i) The Customer acknowledges that the Investment Manager has and will continue to expend substantial fixed costs in providing the Services to the Customer and such costs would not have been incurred but for the Investment Manager providing the Services. Furthermore, the Customer acknowledges that the Investment Manager has agreed to provide the Services for the fees payable pursuant to Article IV in part because the Customer has expressed a good faith intention to engage the Investment Manager for not less than three (3) years following the Effective Date. Therefore, the Customer acknowledges that the management fees still to be paid to the Investment Manager following a termination by the Customer of this Agreement for reasons other than pursuant to clause 3(c)(ii) above and with less than six (6) months prior notice should not be construed as a penalty but as a reasonable approximation of the additional costs incurred by the Investment Manager due to the failure of the Customer to meet the parties' expectations.
- (j) Within sixty (60) days of the termination of this Agreement, the Investment Manager shall transfer all Records to the Customer or its designee provided that Investment Manager shall be entitled to maintain a copy of such Records. All reasonable costs (but not any copying costs) to transfer such Records shall be paid by the Customer.
- (k) In the event of any termination of this Agreement, the Customer may request that the Investment Manager continue to serve as an investment manager hereunder (at the then-existing compensation level) in order to assist the Customer in effecting a smooth and orderly transfer of services and all Records to any successor Investment Manager (which may be Customer); provided that such transition period shall not exceed 3 months unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. The Investment Manager shall consent to such request provided termination is not the result of a FSA Termination or Regulatory Change.

ARTICLE IV COMPENSATION

4. Compensation.

- (a) Subject to the provisions of this Article IV, the Customer agrees to pay the Investment Manager a management fee on a quarterly basis in arrears for the Services. The management fee shall be equal to  basis points (%) (the "Management Percentage") multiplied by the value of the Account Assets as of the end of the relevant calendar quarter, as determined by the Custodian's records, divided by four (4). The Customer agrees to pay an estimate (determined in good faith by the Investment Manager) of this amount in monthly installments in advance with any difference between the amount paid and the amount due being set against the actual quarterly fee. The parties acknowledge that the initial Management Percentage has been, and the Management Percentage applicable for each calendar year thereafter, will be equal to 105% of the percentage resulting from dividing the Investment Manager's budgeted direct and indirect costs and expenses for providing the Services for such period (the "Budgeted Costs") as adjusted by any True-up for the prior year by the Customer's estimated average Account Assets for the next calendar year.

- (b) The parties will reestablish the Management Percentage for each calendar year in accordance with the following process. By each September 15, the Customer shall provide the Investment Manager with a provisional forecast of the Customer's Account Assets for the following calendar year together with an outline of any significant changes that the Customer proposes to implement to its investment strategy during the following calendar year. By each October 1, the Investment Manager shall provide the Customer with a detailed budget setting forth the expected Budgeted Costs to be incurred by the Investment Manager in order to provide the Services for the following calendar year along with reasonable documentation in support of such budget (collectively, the "Proposal"). The Customer shall promptly review the Proposal and shall accept or reject the Proposal, in the Customer's reasonable discretion, by no later than November 1; provided, however, if the Customer rejects the Proposal it shall provide the Investment Manager with a written explanation for such rejection. If the Customer rejects the Proposal, the Customer and the Investment Manager will work in good faith to resolve all issues so that the Proposal is acceptable to both parties no later than December 1. As promptly as possible, but in no event later than January 15 of each year, the Customer shall provide the Investment Manager its final forecast of Account Assets for the calendar year and any significant changes to the Customer's investment strategy that the Customer proposes to implement during such calendar year. Within five (5) business days following receipt of such information, the Investment Manager shall calculate the difference between the management fees paid or payable by the Customer to the Investment Manager for the prior year under this Agreement and the Investment Manager's actual direct and indirect costs and expenses of providing services ("Actual Costs") during such period (such difference is referred to as the "True-up") and shall provide the True-up and proposed Management Percentage to the Customer. The calculation of any True-up shall not give effect to fees received by the Investment Manager or reductions in fees otherwise owed to the Investment Manager as a result of a prior True-up. The True-up shall be added to or subtracted from, as applicable, the Budgeted Costs set forth in the approved Proposal and shall be reflected in the Management Percentage established for the following calendar year. If the Investment Manager is entitled to the benefit of the True-up because Actual Costs exceeded Budgeted Costs, the True-up added to Budgeted Costs for the following calendar year shall be the lesser of the actual True-up or an amount equal to 10% of Budgeted Costs for the prior calendar year; provided however, that any Actual Costs that were not included in the approved Proposal for the year but were previously approved in writing by the Customer in consultation with the Investment Manager during such year shall not be included when applying the 10% cap. The Investment Manager shall provide the Customer with reasonable back-up documentation supporting the Investment Manager's calculation of the True-up. The Customer shall approve or reject the True-Up and the Management Percentage not later than five (5) business days after receipt thereof from the Investment Manager. The Management Percentage shall be implemented as if it were effective as of the prior January 1. If the parties are unable to agree on a revised Proposal, the True-up or the Management Percentage, the then existing Management Percentage shall remain in effect until the parties agree on a revised Proposal and True-up. If the parties are unable to agree on the Proposal, the Management Percentage and the True-up by February 15, the Budgeted Costs and Management Percentage (which shall reflect the True-up) shall be established pursuant to the Arbitration process described in Article IX of this Agreement. In accordance with the foregoing procedure, if the GE Life Group decides to engage other investment managers to provide substantially all advisory services to its fixed income assets, the Manager agrees that Budgeted Costs (without giving effect to any True-up) for the calendar year immediately following such change shall not increase by more than 5% unless mutually agreed by the parties. Both parties understand that time is of the essence with respect to this clause 4(b). For purposes of all dates set forth in this clause, if such date is not a business day, then such date shall be deemed to be the next calendar day that is a business day.

- (c) The Customer agrees to pay an estimate (determined in good faith by the Investment Manager) of the quarterly charge contemplated in clause 4(a) above in monthly installments in advance with any difference between the amount paid and the amount due being set against the actual quarterly fee. The Investment Manager shall submit to the Customer at the beginning of each month, a written statement of the amount owed by the Customer for that month. The Customer shall pay the Investment Manager undisputed amounts within twenty eight (28) days following receipt of such statement. Fees to be paid in GBP. VAT will be added and paid, where applicable, by the Customer. The Customer will inform the Investment Manager as soon as possible when it is no longer within the GE Capital Bank Limited VAT Group.

ARTICLE V CONFIDENTIALITY

Subject to the duty of the Investment Manager or the Customer to comply with Applicable Requirements, each party hereto shall treat as confidential all information with respect to the other party received pursuant to this Agreement. No party shall use or disclose the other party's confidential information except as contemplated by this Agreement.

The Investment Manager shall establish and maintain reasonable procedures to keep Investment Reports, the information supplied by the Customer to the Investment Manager for the Investment Reports and other non-public information provided hereunder confidential and to prevent disclosure or distribution to any Person other than to the Customer's Representatives or the Investment Manager's Representatives or their service providers who have a reasonable need to know or have access to such information in connection with providing the Services; provided that the Investment Manager may include information from such Investment Reports when presenting the Investment Manager's performance as long as the Customer is not identified as the source of such information. The Investment Manager will be responsible for compliance with the terms of this clause by its Representatives.

Investment Reports provided by the Investment Manager to the Customer are privileged and may include proprietary information. Investment Reports will be used solely for the purpose of monitoring and evaluating the performance of the Account and for use by the Customer in testing the Account Assets for regulatory compliance and similar purposes. The Customer shall establish and maintain reasonable procedures to keep Investment Reports confidential and to prevent disclosure or distribution to any Person other than to the Customer's Representatives who have a reasonable need to know or have access to such Investment Reports in connection with the receipt of the Services. The Customer will be responsible for compliance with the terms of this clause by its Representatives.

Each party hereto will, to the extent legally possible, obtain the other party's approval before sending or making available any Investment Report to third parties. If a party is required by Applicable Requirements or requested (by legal process, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any confidential information of the other party, the party being required or requested to make such disclosure will to the extent legally possible promptly notify the other party so that the other party may to the extent legally and practically possible seek an appropriate protective order or waive compliance with this confidentiality covenant.

ARTICLE VI
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

6.1. Representations and Warranties of the Investment Manager.

The Investment Manager represents, warrants and covenants that:

- (a) It is duly incorporated under the laws of England and Wales.
- (b) It has and will maintain throughout the term of this Agreement, all of the powers, rights and authorities to carry on the business of an investment manager under Applicable Requirements (including, without limitation, the appropriate permissions from the FSA, but excluding solely for this purpose any registrations with the SEC).
- (c) Neither the execution and delivery nor the performance of this Agreement will violate any Applicable Requirements or applicable court order, nor will the same constitute a breach of, or default under, provisions of any agreement or contract to which it is a party or by which it is bound and assuming the accuracy of sub-clause 6.2(b) below, all required regulatory filings and notices, if any, have been made and, if necessary, approvals received (or applicable waiting or notice periods lapsed) in connection with this Agreement.
- (d) It has the power, right and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and any transaction contemplated by the terms of this Agreement.
- (e) It has, at least 48 hours prior to entering into this Agreement furnished to the Customer a true and complete copy of Part II of its most recent Form ADV; and since the date of such Form ADV, there has not been, occurred or arisen any material adverse change in the financial condition or in the business of the Investment Manager or any event, condition, or state of facts which materially and adversely affects, or to its knowledge threatens to materially affect, the business or financial condition of the Investment Manager.
- (f) In terms of intellectual property, it is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in and to the intellectual property used by it to perform its obligations hereunder or, to its knowledge, possesses all appropriate licenses to use the intellectual property; has not sold, granted, conveyed, licensed or assigned to any third party, or in any way encumbered, the intellectual property in a manner that interferes with the Investment Manager's obligations under this Agreement; and the intellectual property used by the Investment Manager does not to the Investment Manager's knowledge infringe the rights of any third party.

6.2 Representations and Warranties of the Customer.

The Customer hereby represents and warrants that:

- (a) It has the power to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and has duly executed this Agreement so as to constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Customer.
- (b) Neither the execution and delivery nor the performance of this Agreement (including the payment of fees to the Investment Manager) will violate any Applicable Requirements or applicable court order, nor will the same constitute a breach of, or default under, provisions of any agreement or contract to which it is a party or by which it is bound and, assuming the accuracy of sub-clause 6.1(c) above, all required regulatory filings and notices, if any, have been made, and if necessary, approvals received (or applicable waiting or notice periods lapsed) in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP

7. Nature of Relationship; Conflicts of Interest.

- (a) The Investment Manager acts as the agent of the Customer, who will therefore be bound by the Investment Manager's acts under this Agreement providing the Investment Manager acts within the authority granted to it by the Customer. Nevertheless, none of the Services nor any other matter shall give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties which would prevent or hinder the Investment Manager from providing similar services to other customers or otherwise from acting as provided in this Agreement.
- (b) The Investment Manager may effect transactions in which the Investment Manager or an Associate has or may have, directly or indirectly, a material interest or relationship of any description with another party which may involve a potential conflict with the Investment Manager's duty to the Customer, without reference to the Customer, provided that such transactions are at arm's length. Neither the Investment Manager nor any Associate shall be liable to account to the Customer for any profit, commission or remuneration made or received from or by reason of such transactions or any connected transactions and the Investment Manager's fees shall not, unless otherwise provided, be abated thereby.
- (c) The Investment Manager will ensure that such transactions are effected on terms that are no less favourable to the Customer than if the potential conflict had not existed.
- (d) The Investment Manager shall (subject to receiving instructions from the Customer to the contrary) take all necessary steps (acting always in the best interests of the Account) to ensure that the Investment Guidelines are fully complied with, and to rectify any breach of such Investment Guidelines which may occur through movements in the market as soon as reasonably practicable after such breach occurs.
- (e) In accordance with the FSA Rules, the Investment Manager notifies the Customer that the potential conflicting interest or duties referred to in clause (b) above may arise because:
 - (i) any of the Investment Manager's directors or employees (or those of an Associate) is a director of, holds or deals in securities of, or is otherwise interested in any company whose securities are held or dealt in on behalf of the Customer;
 - (ii) the transaction is in relation to an investment in respect of which the Investment Manager or an Associate benefits from a commission, fee, mark-up or mark-down payable otherwise than by the Customer, and/or the Investment Manager or an Associate is also remunerated by the counterparty to any such transaction;
 - (iii) the Investment Manager acts as agent for the Customer in relation to a transaction in which it is also acting as an agent for the account of other Customers and/or Associate;

- (iv) the Investment Manager or an Associate deals in investments as principal with the Customer, or acting as principal, sells to or purchases from the Customer currency other than sterling;
- (v) a transaction is effected in securities issued by an Associate or the Customer of an Associate;
- (vi) the Investment Manager deals on behalf of the Customer with or in securities of an Associate;
- (vii) the transaction is in units or shares of a collective investment scheme (e.g. a unit trust) or of any company of which in either case the Investment Manager or an Associate is the investment manager, operator, banker, adviser or trustee;
- (viii) the transaction is in the securities of a company for which the Investment Manager or an Associate has underwritten, managed or arranged an issue within the period of 12 months before the date of the transaction;
- (ix) the Investment Manager may effect transactions involving placings and or new issues with an Associate who may be acting as principal or receiving agents commission;
- (x) the Investment Manager or an Associate receives remuneration or other benefits by reason of acting in corporate finance or similar transactions involving companies whose securities are held by the Customer; and
- (xi) the transaction is in securities in respect of which the Investment Manager or an Associate or a director or employee of either is contemporaneously trading or has traded on its own account has either a long or short position.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Other Charges.

The Investment Manager shall direct the Custodian to pay out of the relevant Account Assets the total transaction costs including all reasonable Broker's commissions with respect to transactions of the Account and all taxes or governmental fees, domestic or foreign, attributable to such transactions.

8.2 Investment Manager's Conduct.

- (a) In furnishing the Customer with the Services, neither the Investment Manager nor any officer, director or agent thereof shall be held liable to the Customer, its creditors or the holders of its securities for good faith errors of judgment or for anything except wilful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the terms of this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed that the Investment Manager may rely upon information furnished to it by the Customer that the Investment Manager reasonably believes to be accurate and reliable.
- (b) No warranty is given by the Investment Manager as to the performance or profitability of the Account any part thereof and there is no guarantee that the Investment Objectives will be achieved, including without limitation any risk control, risk management or return objectives. The Account may suffer loss of principal, and income, if any, may fluctuate. The value of investments may be affected by a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, economic and political developments, interest rates and issuer-specific events, market conditions, sector positioning, or other reasons.

- (c) Notwithstanding any limitation of liability contained in sub-clause (a) above, the Investment Manager shall indemnify and hold the Customer harmless from and against any losses, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, penalties, demands and claims of any nature whatsoever (collectively, "Losses") with respect to or arising out of the Investment Manager's breach or violation of this Agreement or any Applicable Requirement or the wilful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence by the Investment Manager in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the terms of this Agreement.
- (d) The Customer shall indemnify and hold the Investment Manager harmless from and against all Losses with respect to or arising out of the Customer's breach or violation of this Agreement or any Applicable Requirement or with respect to or arising out of the Investment Manager's actions or inactions in providing the Services as long as such Losses did not result from the Investment Manager's breach of this Agreement or any Applicable Requirements, wilful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the terms of this Agreement.
- (e) The Investment Manager shall be entitled to rely upon any notice, designation, instruction, direction, request or other communication given it hereunder (whether given in writing by letter, fax, email teletype, order or other document, or orally by telephone or in person) by or on behalf of any person notified by the Customer from time to time as being authorised to instruct the Investment Manager in respect of the Account Assets without being required to determine the authenticity or correctness thereof, provided the Investment Manager believes such notice, designation, instruction, direction, request or other communication to be genuine or given by a person duly authorized and unless the Investment Manager shall have received written notice to the contrary that the authority of any such person shall have been terminated. The Investment Manger shall be entitled to rely upon advice of counsel selected by it concerning all matters pertaining to this Agreement and the Investment Manager's duties hereunder.

8.3 Notices.

Notices hereunder shall be by confirmed fax, teletype or other written form of electronic communication (including e-mail) or by letter which shall be mailed by certified mail, postage paid, addressed (except as the same may by like notice be changed) as follows:

8.4 Assignment; Governing Law and Jurisdiction.

This Agreement shall not be assignable in whole or in part by either party without the prior consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), provided that this Agreement shall automatically be assigned to any Person to which the business of the Customer is transferred by virtue of any order made by the Court under Part VII of FSMA . For purposes of this clause, the term “assignment” with respect to the Investment Manager as assignor shall have the same meaning as defined in Section 202 of the Investment Advisors Act. Any successor or permitted assignee of the Customer to whom the rights and/or the obligations of the Customer under this Agreement are in any way transferred may require that the Investment Manager (and if it does so require, the Investment Manager shall) provide all or certain of the Services to the Customer after that transfer, for such period as that successor or permitted assignee may require, and in addition to the Services which the Investment Manager shall provide to that successor or permitted assignee pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of England..

8.5 Force Majeure.

The Investment Manager shall not be liable to the Customer for any failure to carry out or delay in carrying out any of its obligations hereunder attributable to any cause of whatever nature outside its reasonable control provided that the Investment Manager shall (1) use its best efforts to remedy any such failure or delay or malfunction, event or circumstance as soon as practicable and (2) maintain throughout the term of this Agreement effective disaster recovery systems, details of which will be provided to the Customer upon reasonable request.

8.6 Independent Contractor.

The Investment Manager shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and, except as expressly provided or authorized in this Agreement, shall have no authority to act for or represent the Customer. The Customer shall always retain the ultimate authority to make investment decisions on its own behalf.

8.7 Advertising and Promotion.

A party shall not engage in any advertising or promotional activity that refers to the other party without receiving the written consent of the other party prior to publication or announcement. The Investment Manager shall however be entitled to disclose the Customer’s name and the size of the Account Assets in the client listings and other similar material.

8.8 Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.9 Amendments.

No term or provision of this Agreement may be amended, waived, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an instrument in writing signed by both parties.

8.10 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same agreement

8.11 Complaints.

If the Customer has any complaint about the Investment Manager, it should be directed to the Compliance Officer at the Investment Manager's address at the head of this Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that it is not an eligible complainant as defined by the FSA Rules and as such does not have a right to refer a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

8.12 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act of 1999.

Other than as specifically provided for, the parties to this Agreement do not intend that any term of this Agreement should be enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Right of Third Parties) Act of 1999, by any person who is not a party to this Agreement.

8.13 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement (including the Exhibits to this Agreement which shall be regarded as incorporated into, and forming part of, this Agreement) embodies the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to its subject matter, supersedes any prior or contemporaneous agreements or understandings between the parties with respect to such subject matter and cannot be altered, waived, amended, supplemented or abridged except by the written agreement of the parties.

8.14 Exclusion or Termination of Liability.

Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude any liability of the Investment Manager to the Customer arising under Applicable Requirements (including, without limitation, the FSMA or the FSA Rules).

ARTICLE IX
DISPUTE RESOLUTION

9.1 General Provisions.

- (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IX, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.
- (b) Commencing with a request contemplated by Section 9.2 set forth below, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 9.3 set forth below, shall be deemed to be without prejudice communications and to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from inspection, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

- (c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.
- (d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.
- (e) The running of time shall be suspended in respect of any Dispute for the purposes of any defences based upon the passage of time (whether under the Limitation Act 1980 (in its present form or as subsequently amended or replaced or otherwise) while the procedures specified in this Article IX are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate this suspension.

9.2 Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the “Initial Notice”). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the “Response”). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party’s position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

9.3 Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 9.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

9.4 Arbitration

- (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 9.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.
- (b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in London, England. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of England, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms.

- (c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this Section 9.4 and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 9.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
- (d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 9.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
- (e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding Section 9.4(d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of Article V, the damages would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.
- (f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article IX

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

ASSET MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS ASSET MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT, made this day of January, 2004, effective the 1st day of January, 2004 (this "Agreement") by and among Genworth Financial, Inc. ("Genworth"), a Delaware corporation, General Electric Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. ("GEFAHI"), a Delaware corporation, and GE Asset Management Incorporated ("GEAM"), a Delaware corporation.

WHEREAS, Genworth desires to make an initial public offering of shares of its common stock;

WHEREAS, GEFAHI owns preferred stock of GEAM, an affiliated company of GEFAHI, and relies on fees generated by GEAM's institutional asset management clients to receive dividends in respect of such preferred stock;

WHEREAS, Genworth and subsidiaries or predecessors were previously responsible for overseeing the growth and development of GEAM's institutional asset management business and have distributed certain mutual fund assets which are being managed for a fee by GEAM, and will continue to distribute certain mutual funds managed by GEAM under a separate agreement;

WHEREAS, Genworth has developed expertise in consulting and analytical services related to the retention of assets under management which it is and has been providing to GEFAHI and GEAM;

WHEREAS, Genworth has developed expertise in broker-dealer regulatory compliance matters which it is and has been providing to GEAM and certain affiliated entities;

WHEREAS, Genworth may have regular contacts with corporate and other institutions that may have an interest in obtaining asset management services provided by GEAM;

WHEREAS, GEFAHI and GEAM desire to engage Genworth to continue providing certain services, subject to Genworth entering into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Asset Under Management and Retention Services. Genworth will assist in the retention of GEAM assets under management. Part of this assistance will include providing to GEAM services such as statistical and data mining for the purpose of identifying customer trends, identifying industry best practices regarding client retention, and providing training on client retention strategies to GEAM personnel involved in sales and client-relationship management, all of which help identify at-risk clients and achieve customer satisfaction that results in the retention of asset management customers. Genworth will provide such reasonably requested services within thirty days of receiving a written request from GEAM.

2. Broker-Dealer Regulatory Compliance. Genworth will provide to GEAM and certain affiliated entities assistance in meeting broker-dealer regulatory compliance requirements, including with respect to required filings, and will make reasonably available to GEAM and such affiliated entities broker-dealer compliance experts for consultation. These services will include:

(a) Preparation of monthly or quarterly FOCUS filings for GE Investment Distributors, Inc. (“GEID”) as required by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”);

(b) Preparation of Annual Financial Statements for GEID to be filed with the NASD;

(c) Maintenance of the financial records necessary to support the annual independent audit requirements for GEID and the periodic examination by the NASD and/or the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”); and

(d) Provision of broker-dealer compliance consultation which shall consist of up to twenty hours per week of consultation by an experienced compliance professional with respect to broker-dealer operations and mutual fund compliance requirements in relationship to the distribution of products for which GEID serves as distributor.

3. Introduction Services. Genworth will use commercially reasonable efforts to identify corporate and other institutional investors that it believes are appropriate for, and may be interested in the institutional asset management services offered by, GEAM. Upon identifying any such potential clients, Genworth will notify GEAM promptly in writing of the name and address of any such potential clients. Genworth also will use commercially reasonable efforts to assist GEAM in establishing relationships with potential clients identified by Genworth.

4. Representations , Warranties and Covenants of Genworth.

(a) Genworth is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware and has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of Genworth enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditor’s rights generally or the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) Genworth shall perform its introduction services as described in Section 3 in accordance with this Agreement; GEAM’s instructions; applicable federal, state and local law; and any additional agreement(s) as may be required if, at any time that this Agreement remains in effect, Genworth is no longer under common control (as that term is defined in the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act")) with GEAM. Genworth shall notify GEFAHI and GEAM when it is no longer under common control with GEAM and will suspend all introduction services as described in Section 3 until such time as the additional agreement(s) is in place.

(d) Genworth (and its officers, directors and employees, including those of its subsidiaries) are not authorized to enter into any agreement or undertaking on behalf of GEAM; and will make clear their affiliation with GEAM whenever making initial contact with potential GEAM clients in conjunction with any introduction services they may provide as described in Section 3.

(e) No officer, director or employee of Genworth or of its respective subsidiaries who engages in introduction services as described in Section 3 is or will be a person who is or has been: (a) subject to an SEC order issued under Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act; (b) convicted within the past 10 years of any felony or misdemeanor involving conduct described in Section 203(e)(2)(A)-(D) of the Advisers Act; (c) found by the SEC to have engaged, or been convicted of engaging, in any of the conduct specified in paragraphs (1), (5) or (6) of Section 203(e) of the Advisers Act; or (d) subject to an order, judgment or decree described in Section 203(e) of the Advisers Act.

(f) Due to the reliance that GEAM intends to place on Genworth's asset retention and introductory services, as well as the confidential information that Genworth possesses, and may in the future obtain, about GEAM's business processes and procedures, the parties agree that Genworth will exclusively provide introductory services to GEAM with respect to large domestic or foreign defined benefit or defined contribution plans, as described in Section 7(c)(i) of this Agreement, and that Genworth is required to exert commercially reasonable efforts in connection with the introduction services on behalf of GEAM, unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

5. Representation, Warranties and Covenants of GEFAHI and GEAM.

(a) GEFAHI is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware and has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of GEFAHI enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditor's rights generally or the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) GEAM is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware and has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement.

(d) This Agreement is the valid and binding obligation of GEAM enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditor's rights generally or the principles governing the availability of equitable remedies.

(e) GEAM represents, warrants and covenants that it is registered, and will maintain its registration, as an investment adviser with the SEC and that GEAM has made, and will make, all notice filings as required by any state in which GEAM is required to do so.

(f) Except with respect to any contractual or other restrictions prohibiting the disclosure or sharing of certain information, GEAM will make all data related to the services to be provided herein available for the performance of those services, including but not limited to transactional and financial data required for the preparation of regulatory filings and customer and other relevant data required for the performance of retention services.

(g) GEAM will make customer and assets under management data available for verification of the fee payment under the fee schedule.

6. Compensation. In consideration for its agreements set forth herein, GEFAHI shall compensate Genworth according to the schedule attached herein at Exhibit A. The compensation will be calculated based upon the ending asset balance as of the last business day of March, June, September and December on which the New York Stock Exchange is open for business. The quarterly payments shall be made no later than the last business day of each of April, July, October and January on which banks in both New York, New York and Richmond, Virginia are generally open for business. All payments will be made by wire transfer to an account designated by Genworth. Except in those instances where GEFAHI specifically agrees in writing to reimburse Genworth for reasonable travel, entertainment or other expenses, Genworth shall bear all expenses incurred by Genworth in providing services identified in Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this Agreement, including any compensation to be paid to its officers, directors and employees with respect to any introduction services performed hereunder as described in Section 3 of this Agreement. In no case shall the amount of compensation payable to Genworth exceed $10 million on an annual basis, except to the extent GEFAHI has specifically agreed in advance in writing to make certain reimbursements of expenses as provided above.

7. Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall terminate on the fourth anniversary of the effective date of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 7(a):

(i) GEFAHI and GEAM jointly may terminate this Agreement at any time on sixty days written notice to Genworth if they reasonably determine that Genworth has failed to provide the services described in Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this Agreement and Genworth has not cured its failure in a reasonably acceptable manner by the end of the sixty day period;

(ii) GEFAHI and GEAM jointly may terminate this Agreement immediately without any further obligation if, during the term of this Agreement, Genworth or any affiliated entity engages in the institutional asset management business;

(iii) Genworth may terminate this Agreement for any reason on sixty days written notice to GEFAHI, in which case GEFAHI shall pay Genworth within thirty days following the termination date (i.e., the last day of such sixty-day notice period) a pro rata portion of the quarterly fee referred to in Section 6 of this Agreement based on the number of days elapsed during the year and the ending asset balance on the termination date; and

(iv) Genworth may terminate this Agreement if GEFAHI or GEAM is in breach of any representation, warranty or covenant in Section 5 of this Agreement and GEFAHI and GEAM jointly may terminate this agreement if Genworth is in breach of any representation, warranty or covenant in Section 4 of this Agreement, provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate the Agreement has provided to the other party a written notification at least sixty days in advance specifying the representation, warranty or covenant that the other party has breached and the other party has failed to cure the breach by the end of the sixty day period.

(c) For purposes of Section 7(b)(ii):

(i) The term “institutional asset management services” means (A) serving as an investment adviser or sub-adviser to any large domestic or foreign defined benefit or defined contribution plans (meaning those over $10 million in assets), including, but not limited to, employer-sponsored pension and profit sharing plans and plans that meet the requirements for qualification under Section 401 (a), 403(b) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code, or to any mutual funds or other commingled accounts offered principally to such investors, or (B) providing solicitation or introduction services (as described in Section 3) with respect to any large plans as described above for itself, any affiliated entity that is an investment adviser or any other investment adviser. Notwithstanding the foregoing and the limitation set forth in Section 4(f) hereof, the term “institutional asset management services” shall not include serving as investment adviser for, or providing solicitation or introduction services (as described in Section 3) with respect to, any domestic or foreign defined benefit or defined contribution plan, provided that (X) the advice is given to, or services relate to, no more than $50 million of the plan’s total investment portfolio and (Y) the advice exclusively consists of, or the services exclusively relate to, recommendations provided on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis through an investment advisory program (including a mutual fund asset allocation program) that substantially meets the conditions of Rule 3a-4 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and is commonly referred to as a “wrap” or “mini” account program. Notwithstanding Section 7(c)(i)(X) above, the total value of large defined benefit or defined contribution plan assets with respect to which the investment advice is provided constitutes no more than 15% of the aggregate value of all assets under management by Genworth and its affiliated entities, and no more than 15% of the gross revenue received by Genworth or its affiliated entities from solicitation or introduction services is derived from providing such services to unaffiliated entities (excluding GEAM) with respect to investment advice that is provided to any large plans, as described above. This definition is not intended to limit the ability of Genworth to provide advice in connection with the offering of its annuity or insurance products or managing the underlying assets supporting such products.

(ii) The term “affiliated entity” means (A) any entity controlled by Genworth for so long as Genworth and GEAM are under common control with each other and, (B) any entity that controls, is controlled by and is under common control with Genworth if Genworth and GEAM are no longer under common control with each other. The term “control” shall have the same meaning as used in the Advisers Act.

(iii) The terms “Genworth” and “affiliated entity” do not include any person engaged by Genworth or an affiliated entity as an independent contractor to the extent such person is (A) acting outside the scope of such engagement and (B) receiving no compensation from Genworth or an affiliated entity for such outside activities.

8. Notices. Any written notices pursuant to this Agreement shall be sent by hand, facsimile transmission, or certified mail, return receipt requested, as follows:

9. Indemnification. Each party (as such, an “indemnifying party” hereunder) agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, reimburse and defend the other party, and such other party’s officers, directors and employees (in such capacity collectively, “indemnified parties” and, individually, an “indemnified party”), from and against any and all claims (whether asserted against an indemnified party or otherwise), losses, damages, liabilities, obligations and expenses, including, without limitation, settlement costs and any reasonable legal, accounting and other expenses for defending any actions brought or threatened in writing, (collectively, “Losses”) reasonably incurred by such indemnified parties arising out of or in connection with the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation in this Agreement by the indemnifying party, except to the extent arising out of or based on a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation in this Agreement by the indemnified parties or any grossly negligent act or omission of the indemnified parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

Whenever any claim for indemnification arises under this Section 9, the indemnified party will promptly notify the indemnifying party of the claim and, when known, the facts constituting the basis for such claim and the amount or an estimate of the amount of the liability arising therefrom. At its option, the indemnified party may defend itself against any claim subject to indemnification under this Section 9, in which case the indemnifying party will pay all reasonable attorney's fees and costs thus incurred but will no longer be obligated to defend the indemnified party against such claim. In each case in which the indemnified party does not exercise the foregoing option, the indemnified party may require the indemnifying party to defend the former against the claim(s) and to bear all costs and fees incurred in doing so. In such event, the indemnified party may participate in defense of the claim(s) by retaining its own counsel, whose fees and costs it then will pay, and whether or not the indemnified party elects to participate in the defense, the indemnifying party may not settle or compromise such claim(s) in a manner which adversely affects the indemnified party without the latter's written consent beforehand, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

10. Arbitration. Any controversy or claim between the parties hereto arising out of this Agreement or its breach, shall be settled by arbitration to be held in New York, New York. Each party will choose one arbitrator, and the arbitrators shall then appoint a third arbitrator. The arbitrators shall hold a hearing and render an award in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Judgment upon the award rendered by a majority of the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrators shall base their decision upon the custom and usage of the business in the spirit of equity, and are relieved from judicial formalities and from following strict rules of evidence. The expenses of the arbitrator chosen by each of the parties shall be borne by the respective party, and the expenses of the third arbitrator shall be borne equally by the opposing sides to the controversy or claim.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement is made and shall be construed under the laws of the State of New York.

12. Confidentiality. Each party agrees to hold all information it receives from another party relating to this Agreement in strict confidence. Any information provided by one party to another party under this Agreement shall be used solely for the purposes of this Agreement. Each party may disclose such information only (i) as may be required by law, or (ii) to its affiliates and their respective personnel who have a need to know and agree to such duty to keep it confidential and to use it solely for the purposes of this Agreement. Each party agrees to take all reasonable steps to safeguard the information provided to it by another party under this Agreement, including without limitation, those steps it takes to protect its own confidential or proprietary information. Upon written request by a party that provides information to another party under this agreement, such other party shall either return such information or destroy it (and provide a certification of such action taken). In addition, in the case of a request to return or destroy written information provided under this Agreement, the recipient party shall retain no copies of such information, except as may be required by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no party to this Agreement shall be under any obligation to restrict the use or disclosure of, or to refrain from retaining copies of, any information that (i) is already available to, or in the possession of the party prior to its receipt of such information under this Agreement, and not otherwise subject to an obligation of confidentiality, (ii) is independently developed by the party, (iii) is or becomes available in the public domain on or after the date it is received by the party (other than as a result of a disclosure by the party or any of its employees in breach of this Agreement), or (iv) is acquired from a person who is not known by the party to be in breach of an obligation of confidentiality to the party that provides such information.

13. Assignability. No party may assign this Agreement without the written consent of the other parties.

14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire agreement by and among the parties (except as referred to in Section 4(a)) and may not be modified or amended except by a writing signed by the parties.

15. Severability. If for any reason any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby.

16. Nature of Relationship. In performing obligations under this Agreement, each party will be an independent contractor (rather than an employee, agent or representative) of the other parties (except that certain persons who are financial and operations principals may be deemed to be employees or officers of both Genworth and GEFAHI and/or their affiliates) and shall have no power to bind the other except as provided in this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be construed as creating a joint venture, partnership, franchise, or agency relationship between the parties.

17. Third Party Beneficiary. This Agreement is between the parties hereto and is not intended to confer any benefits on third parties, except that the parties acknowledge that GEID is an intended beneficiary with respect to certain services described in this Agreement.

18. Miscellaneous.

(a) As used in this Agreement, any references to the singular shall, as and if appropriate, include the plural.

(b) All paragraph headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, do not form part of this Agreement, and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original.

(d) The provisions of Sections 9 and 12 will survive the termination of this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A

COMPENSATION SCHEDULE

Compensation / Fee. In consideration for its agreements set forth herein, GEFAHI shall compensate Genworth according to the following schedule:

| Current AUM Balance Expressed As A % Of Initial AUM Balance | 1. Compensation / Fee Paid Quarterly Over Term Of This Agreement | |
|--|---|-----------|
| 100+ - 81 % | $ | 2,500,000 |

AMENDED AND RESTATED
MASTER OUTSOURCING AGREEMENT

AMENDED AND RESTATED MASTER OUTSOURCING AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) entered into as of the Execution Date, by and between General Electric Capital Assurance Company, a Delaware insurance company, with offices at 6604 West Broad Street, Richmond, Virginia 23230 (“CUSTOMER”) and GE Capital International Services, a corporation duly formed and existing under the laws of India with a place of business at AIFGECIS Building, 1 Rafi Marg, Delhi-110001 and Corporate office at 90A Sector 18, Gurgaon, Haryana (“PROVIDER”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, PROVIDER and CUSTOMER are parties to a Master Outsourcing Services Agreement and one or more related Project Specific Agreements which incorporate the terms of such Master Outsourcing Services Agreement, as well as certain other services agreements (“PSAs”);

WHEREAS, CUSTOMER is a Subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Genworth”);

WHEREAS, General Electric Company and General Electric Capital Corporation have determined to consolidate the Genworth business, including Genworth and certain of its Affiliates, into a separate corporate structure with Genworth acting as the parent entity for the Genworth business, and have further determined to divest a controlling interest in the stock of Genworth (the “Separation”) and, as part of such divestiture, to conduct an initial public offering of the common stock of Genworth (the “IPO”);

WHEREAS, in anticipation of the proposed Separation, PROVIDER and CUSTOMER have determined that it is appropriate to amend and restate such Master Outsourcing Services Agreement in the form of this Amended and Restated Master Outsourcing Services Agreement;

WHEREAS, PROVIDER supplies business and financial and related support services;

WHEREAS, CUSTOMER requires the performance of Services, as defined in the related PSA(s);

WHEREAS, the parties contemplate that PROVIDER will handle a variety of outsourcing projects and services for CUSTOMER and the parties seek to define the basic terms applicable to outsourcing projects between the parties; the parties intend to incorporate these provisions by reference into the outstanding PSAs and PSAs that they enter into for specific outsourcing projects hereafter;

WHEREAS, this Agreement is being executed on, and shall take effect as of, the closing date of the IPO or, if regulatory approval occurs on a later date, on and as of such later date (the “Execution Date”); and

WHEREAS, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings given such terms in Exhibit A hereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

W I T N E S S E T H

1.0 Services.

1.1 Structure of the Agreement.

(a) The Services are governed by the terms of this Agreement as amended and/or supplemented as set forth in Exhibit B, and the PSAs. Each PSA executed after the Execution Date shall be in the form attached as Exhibit C, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

(b) PROVIDER agrees to provide the Services under the terms and conditions of this Agreement and as more specifically described in the PSAs.

1.2 Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery Services. PROVIDER shall provide the services set forth in the business continuity and disaster recovery plans referred to in Exhibit D (collectively, the “BCP/DRP Plans”). The BCP/DRP Plans shall address all operations identified by CUSTOMER as “Mission Critical;” shall meet the substantive requirements specified by CUSTOMER and shall be agreed upon by CUSTOMER and PROVIDER. Further, at no additional charge to CUSTOMER other than as provided in Section 2 and the Pricing Template set forth in Exhibit F, PROVIDER will (a) actively review and update the BCP/DRP Plans, (b) test the BCP/DRP Plans at least annually, (c) permit CUSTOMER the opportunity to participate in such testing, (d) give CUSTOMER access to the results and analysis of such testing, and (e) correct deficiencies in the BCP/DRP Plans revealed by such testing. Failure to provide the services described in such BCP/DRP Plans will constitute a material breach of this Agreement, subject to cure as set forth in Section 8.1(f).

1.3 PROVIDER Responsibilities. Except as otherwise noted in this Agreement, PROVIDER shall provide, at its expense, all materials, labor, equipment, facilities and other items necessary to deliver the Services. Subject to Section 6.3 herein, all employees performing the Services shall be skilled in their trades and licensed, if required, by all proper authorities.

1.4 Service Locations; Security. Except as provided in the BCP/DRP Plans, without the prior written consent of CUSTOMER, PROVIDER shall not change or move the original location for the performance by PROVIDER of the Services required under this Agreement. In performing the Services, operating the Facilities used by it to provide the Services and protecting CUSTOMER’s data, information and other property, PROVIDER will comply with the security procedures set forth in Exhibit E of this Agreement.

1.5 Support of CUSTOMER Divestitures. If CUSTOMER divests any business operation (other than pursuant to a transaction that would constitute a Change of Control), PROVIDER will provide the Services to such operation if such operation (i) used the Services prior to being divested, (ii) after being divested uses either essentially the same services as before being divested, or CUSTOMER or the acquiring entity compensates PROVIDER to modify its systems or processes used to perform and provide the Services as necessary to accommodate the use of the Services as reasonably requested by the acquiring entity, (iii) the acquiror of such operation agrees to be subject to the provisions of this Agreement and the PSAs, and (iv) CUSTOMER is not in payment default at the time of the request, but, in that case, PROVIDER must provide the Services if paid in advance. At CUSTOMER's option, PROVIDER and such acquiror shall enter into a separate agreement and PSA(s) providing for the provision of the Services, which agreements shall be on substantially the same terms and conditions as are set forth in this Agreement and the PSA(s), with such changes therein as the parties may agree upon. PROVIDER shall charge for the continuing performance and delivery of such Services based on the then-existing charging methodologies and may charge CUSTOMER or the acquiring entity for the reasonable implementation and set-up fees relating to the extension of the Services to such entity approved in writing in advance. PROVIDER and the acquiring entity will negotiate in good faith for up to one hundred twenty (120) days following the divestiture to agree upon alternative terms and conditions that will apply to the provision of the Services to such entity by PROVIDER. If they are unable to so agree, at the request of the acquiring entity, PROVIDER shall be required to provide the Services to such acquiring entity until the earlier of (i) the last day of the twelfth (12th) month following such 120-day negotiation period and (ii) the termination date of this Agreement and related PSAs, provided, that if such termination date is to occur later than twelve (12) months following the end of such 120-day period and PROVIDER is requested to provide such Services for less than twelve (12) months following the end of such period, such acquiring entity or CUSTOMER shall bear all costs actually incurred by PROVIDER as a result of such reduction in volume, provided, further, that PROVIDER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate such costs. Such Services shall be provided by PROVIDER regardless of whether the acquiring entity is a competitor of the GE Group. PROVIDER shall provide Services Transfer Assistance as reasonably requested by the acquiror, solely at the acquiror's cost, for the period during which PROVIDER is required to provide Services to such acquiror.

1.6 PROVIDER Divestitures. If PROVIDER executes a definitive agreement to divest any or part of any business operation relating to the Services provided to CUSTOMER other than the CUSTOMER India operations operating on a stand-alone basis (specifically, the operations responsible for providing core services exclusively relating to long term care, life insurance, group insurance, annuities, retirement plans and mortgage insurance to CUSTOMER, but excluding, inter alia, accounting, help desk, software solutions, e-learning and other knowledge-based operations, collectively, the "Genworth Stand-Alone Operations") (a "PROVIDER Divestiture"), PROVIDER will provide no less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the expected closing date of the PROVIDER Divestiture to CUSTOMER, which notice will include the identity of the acquiror and any Affiliate which would provide Services to CUSTOMER and a description of the material terms of the transaction applicable to the Services being transferred to the acquiror. PROVIDER will provide CUSTOMER with such further information regarding the divestiture and the acquiror as CUSTOMER may reasonably request. CUSTOMER may take no action with respect to the proposed PROVIDER Divestiture (in which case the PROVIDER Divestiture may proceed without CUSTOMER's consent) or, within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice from PROVIDER, CUSTOMER may at its option (i) exercise the Carve-Out Option (as more fully described in Section 9.2 hereof) only with respect to the Carve-Out Resources relating to such Services which are being or have been divested to the acquiring entity at a purchase price equal to the lesser of book value or the value of the divested operations relating to CUSTOMER implied by the consideration to be paid by the acquiror and/or (ii) terminate the PSAs affected by the PROVIDER Divestiture and require PROVIDER and/or the acquiror to provide Services Transfer Assistance for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) months from the date of receipt of notice by PROVIDER from CUSTOMER. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, PROVIDER shall be responsible for all transition costs incurred by CUSTOMER relating to its exercise of the Carve-Out Option or its termination of the PSAs and transition of the Services in-house or to a new PROVIDER. Any transfer of the PSAs pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to the receipt by CUSTOMER of all necessary regulatory approvals. For the avoidance of doubt, any transfer by PROVIDER of the Genworth Stand-Alone Operations shall be subject to the limitations described under Section 10.0 hereof.

1.7 New Services. From time to time, CUSTOMER may request that PROVIDER furnish additional services to CUSTOMER that are not within the scope of the Services ("New Services"). PROVIDER will discuss with CUSTOMER such request and the ramifications of such additional services on the existing Services, but will not be obligated to provide such additional services. Such requests shall be addressed through the Change Control Procedure described in Section 19.0 hereof. CUSTOMER shall bear all costs agreed in advance between the parties and incurred by PROVIDER on account of transition or migration of New Services from CUSTOMER to PROVIDER.

1.8 Services Not to be Withheld; PROVIDER Relief. Except as provided in Section 8.2 and 21.1 hereof (it being understood that Force Majeure will not relieve PROVIDER of its responsibility to provide the Services set forth in the BCP/DRP Plans), PROVIDER shall not voluntarily refuse to provide all or any portion of the Services in violation or breach of the terms of the Agreement or any related PSA. PROVIDER shall be relieved from its obligation to perform any Services and its obligations to pay any service credit under a PSA to the extent it is unable to perform any Services or to perform in accordance with any applicable Performance Standard as a result of CUSTOMER's failure to perform its obligations under such PSA. Notwithstanding the dispute resolution provisions set forth in Section 21.12, if PROVIDER breaches this covenant, CUSTOMER shall be entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for specific performance by PROVIDER of its obligations under this Agreement and the related PSAs without the necessity of posting any bond.

2.0 Charges.

2.1 Generally. Notwithstanding any provision related to fees and charges in a PSA to the contrary, as consideration for the provision of the Services, CUSTOMER will pay to PROVIDER the charges calculated as set forth in this Section 2.0 (the "Charges"). The Charges in effect immediately prior to the Execution Date shall be referred to as the “Baseline Charges”. For existing PSAs, the Baseline Charges and the Charges for the initial Contract Year (or part thereof) shall be as set forth on Exhibit L. For PSAs executed after the Execution Date, the Baseline Charges shall be set forth in each such PSA. The Charges shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in PROVIDER’s Base Costs and to reflect scheduled discounts from the Baseline Charges pursuant to the following formula:

2.2 Discount Factor. For the periods indicated, the “Discount Factor” shall mean and be as follows:

| Period | Discount Factor |
|---|------------------------|
| from the Execution Date through the first anniversary of the Trigger Date (as defined below) | ** |
| from the first anniversary of the Trigger Date through the second anniversary of the Trigger Date | ** |
| from the second anniversary of the Trigger Date through the third anniversary of the Trigger Date | ** |

“Cost Factor” means and shall be calculated as follows:

$$Y(n) \text{ Base Cost} / Y(0) \text{ Base Cost}$$

where Y(n) Base Cost is determined pursuant to Section 2.3 for each Contract Year, Y(n-1) Base Cost is the Base Cost for the preceding Contract Year and Y(0) Base Cost is the Base Cost for the initial Contract Year, as set forth in Exhibit L.

2.3 Adjustment of Charges. Prior to the commencement of each Contract Year, the parties will negotiate in good faith to agree upon the elements of Base Cost and the rates to be charged to CUSTOMER for such elements during such year (excluding the cost of hedging foreign currency exchange risks, which shall be charged to CUSTOMER on a pass-through basis as described in Section 2.8). The parties will reflect their agreement on such matters in a written document to be executed by each of them and the Charges for the Services in such year shall not exceed the agreed amounts. Any amendment or addition to such elements or rates must be approved by CUSTOMER in advance in writing. If the parties are unable to agree upon such matters, the Cost Factor for the applicable year shall be calculated using Base Cost as determined by PROVIDER in accordance with the definition of Base Cost, provided, that Base Cost for any Contract Year shall not exceed one hundred five percent (105%) of Base Cost for the immediately preceding Contract Year. If Base Cost relating to any PSA for any Contract Year during the Initial Term exceeds one hundred five percent (105%) of Base Cost for the immediately preceding Contract Year, CUSTOMER may terminate that PSA upon at least six (6) months’ written notice to PROVIDER and shall not be liable for any costs incurred by PROVIDER as a result of such termination.

2.4 Renewal Pricing. As described in Section 7.2, at least eighteen (18) months prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, PROVIDER will propose in writing to CUSTOMER revised methods for calculating Base Cost and Charges to CUSTOMER under the Base Cost and Baseline Charges methodology described in this Section 2.0. The applicable charges proposed by PROVIDER for the first and second years of the renewal term shall be determined as provided in this Section 2.4 and Exhibit F, but shall reflect Discount Factors of  and , respectively, provided, that such charges shall be at least as favorable to CUSTOMER as PROVIDER's charges for similar services provided to any other CUSTOMER of PROVIDER. If the parties are unable to agree on revised costs, CUSTOMER may elect to exercise the Carve-Out Option upon expiration of this Agreement and the related PSAs, as described in Section 9.2.

2.5 Reduction in Work. CUSTOMER shall provide PROVIDER with no less than nine (9) months' written notice in advance if the amount of Services consumed by the Genworth Group under all of the outstanding MOAs will change in a manner that will result in a reduction in the Dedicated FTEs necessary to provide the Services to seventy-five percent (75%) or less of the Dedicated FTEs agreed upon by the parties for the most recent Contract Year pursuant to Section 2.3, as adjusted pursuant to any notices previously given pursuant to this Section 2.5. In such an event, PROVIDER shall bear all costs relating to such reduction in volume to the extent stated in such nine-(9) month notice. If CUSTOMER does not provide nine (9) months' advance written notice of such a reduction, CUSTOMER shall bear any facilities occupancy, technology and telecommunications costs incurred by PROVIDER resulting from such reduction, provided, that PROVIDER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate such costs.

2.6 Currency. All currency references in this Agreement are in the currency of the United States of America and all payments shall be made in such currency.

2.7 Taxes. The Charges for the Services shall be inclusive of any sales, use, gross receipts or value added, withholding, ad valorem and other taxes based on or measured by PROVIDER's cost in acquiring equipment, materials, supplies or services used by PROVIDER in providing the Services. Further, each party shall bear sole responsibility for any real or personal property taxes on any property it owns or leases, for franchises or similar taxes on its business, for employment taxes on its employees, for intangible taxes on property it owns or licenses and for taxes on its net income. If a sales, use, privilege, value added, excise, services and/or similar tax ("Tax") is assessed with respect to PROVIDER'S Charges to CUSTOMER for the provision of the Services, CUSTOMER shall be responsible for and pay the amount of any such Tax to PROVIDER or as applicable Law otherwise requires, in addition to the Charges. CUSTOMER may report and (as appropriate) pay any Taxes directly if CUSTOMER provides PROVIDER with a direct pay or exemption certificate. PROVIDER's invoices shall separately state the amounts of any Taxes PROVIDER is proposing to collect from CUSTOMER. PROVIDER shall promptly notify CUSTOMER of any claim for Taxes asserted by any applicable taxing authorities. Notwithstanding the above, CUSTOMER's liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon PROVIDER providing CUSTOMER notification within twenty (20) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by PROVIDER. PROVIDER shall coordinate with CUSTOMER the response to and settlement of, any such assessment. CUSTOMER shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid to PROVIDER pursuant to this Agreement.

2.8 Foreign Currency Hedging. PROVIDER shall bear all costs associated with the purchase, exchange or translation of currencies as necessary in connection with the performance of the Services. If PROVIDER elects to enter into hedging transactions with third parties relating to such risks, CUSTOMER will reimburse PROVIDER for the reasonable costs (without mark-up by PROVIDER) of such hedging transactions, provided, however, that CUSTOMER approves of the hedging strategy and the hedging contracts related to such transactions in writing as part of the annual budget process, as further described in Section 20.4.

2.9 Continuous Improvement; Planning. PROVIDER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to increase productivity and efficiency in performing the Services and shall endeavor to reduce Base Cost annually, depending on the overall reduction in its cost of operations. The parties will participate in an annual budgeting process as part of determining Base Cost that will address improvements in PROVIDER productivity and efficiency in performing the Services and dedicate appropriate resources to execute the budgeted improvements. To support PROVIDER's demand planning, each quarter, CUSTOMER shall provide PROVIDER a good faith estimate of its requirements for the Services for the following twelve (12) months.

3.0 Billing and Payment.

3.1 Invoices. PROVIDER shall submit an invoice each month for the Charges relating to the Services provided during the prior month period. For the partial month period prior to the Execution Date, PROVIDER shall submit an invoice for Charges calculated as provided in the original Master Outsourcing Agreement and PSAs. For periods beginning on and after the Execution Date, Charges shall be calculated as set forth in this Agreement. Each invoice shall detail all information relevant to calculation of the Charges and the total amount due. PROVIDER agrees to include the information and prepare the invoice in the form as reasonably requested by CUSTOMER.

3.2 Payments. All payments, due and payable by CUSTOMER to PROVIDER, will be made within sixty (60) days of CUSTOMER's receipt of invoice ("Payment Date"). CUSTOMER shall use its good faith efforts to provide PROVIDER as promptly as practicable with the details of any objection it may have to any invoice, but any failure to provide such details shall not foreclose CUSTOMER's right to dispute such invoice. CUSTOMER shall pay the part of any invoiced amount that is not in dispute by the Payment Date.

3.3 Reimbursements. Payment of all reimbursable expenses approved by CUSTOMER in writing in advance will be made within sixty (60) days after CUSTOMER's receipt of invoice together with copies of receipts and other verification.

3.4 Method of Payment. The method of payment shall be by electronic fund transfer to PROVIDER's designated bank account or such other manner as agreed upon by the parties.

3.5 Notice of Default. If CUSTOMER does not pay any invoice by the Payment Date, PROVIDER shall serve CUSTOMER a notice pursuant to Section 16.0 (a "Payment Default Notice”) and simultaneously initiate the procedures for consideration of Disputes by senior executives of the parties by giving notice as described under Section 1.2 of Exhibit G.

3.6 PROVIDER Termination for Non-Payment.

(a) PROVIDER shall have the right to terminate any PSA, without prejudice to any other legal rights to which it may be entitled, if CUSTOMER fails to pay to PROVIDER any material amount (i) that is undisputed or determined by the senior executives under Section 1.2 of Exhibit G to be due to PROVIDER, within five (5) business days following CUSTOMER’s agreement that such amount is not in dispute or the conclusion of the senior executives’ negotiations, whichever is earlier, or (ii) that remains in dispute and is not paid following the conclusion of the senior executives’ negotiations contemplated by Section 3.6(b) hereof.

(b) PROVIDER shall have no right to terminate if CUSTOMER pays any disputed amount within five (5) business days following the conclusion of the senior executives’ negotiations under Exhibit G, without prejudice, and invokes the remainder of the dispute resolution process set forth in Exhibit G.

(c) If pursuant to the dispute resolution process, PROVIDER is found to have charged improperly, PROVIDER shall promptly refund such excess amount along with interest at an annual rate equal to the lesser of (i) the three (3) month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 100 basis points or (ii) the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable law, from the date the payment was made through the date of the refund.

3.7 Past Due Amounts. Past due amounts (including Charges, reimbursable expenses and credits) will bear interest at an annual rate equal to the lesser of (i) the three (3) month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 100 basis points or (ii) the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable law, from the date the payment was due through the date of payment.

4.0 Performance Standards.

4.1 Generally. All work relating to the Services shall be completed in a professional, timely manner and shall conform to such additional Performance Standards, if any, as may be set forth in each PSA. Such Performance Standards may be revised from time to time upon the mutual agreement of the parties.

4.2 Measurement and Reporting. Unless otherwise specified, each Performance Standard shall be measured on a monthly basis. PROVIDER shall create, implement, support and maintain reports for monitoring the metrics associated with the Performance Standards and such other metrics as are mutually agreed upon by the parties on a schedule agreed upon in each PSA or within ninety (90) days after the execution of each PSA.

4.3 Compliance. PROVIDER shall perform the Services in compliance with all applicable Laws, stock exchange rules or generally accepted, statutory or regulatory accounting or actuarial principle specified in any PSA or otherwise by CUSTOMER, in each case as applicable to the business processes of CUSTOMER performed by PROVIDER as part of the Services, just as if CUSTOMER performed the Services itself. PROVIDER shall notify CUSTOMER whenever changes in the Services or Performance Standards are necessary to comply with applicable Indian Laws. It is understood that any reference in the PSAs to standards, policies and procedures established by General Electric Company or its Affiliates, is deemed to include any replacement standards, policies and procedures established by CUSTOMER or any member of the Genworth Group, and communicated to PROVIDER, provided, that GECIS shall be entitled to recover its cost of complying with such standards, policies and procedures as part of the Charges for the Services established pursuant to Section 2 and Schedule F.

4.4 Additional Remedies. In addition to all other remedies available under this Agreement, any PSA or at law, CUSTOMER may take one or more of the following actions in the event of PROVIDER's failure to comply with the Performance Standards, provided, that CUSTOMER may not exercise any of these remedies if the failure in performance is caused by inaccurate or incomplete data or information provided by CUSTOMER:

- (a) require training of all PROVIDER employees involved in performing the affected Services, the length and nature of such training to be mutually agreed upon by PROVIDER and CUSTOMER;
- (b) cause the PROVIDER to correct any deficient Services at no charge or fee to CUSTOMER; or
- (c) direct PROVIDER to assign additional employees to perform the Services, which instruction PROVIDER agrees to follow.

5.0 Record Keeping and Audits.

5.1 General ly. PROVIDER will keep appropriate records of time and costs related to the Services, as required by Law or as reasonably requested by CUSTOMER. PROVIDER shall maintain a complete audit trail for all financial and non-financial transactions resulting from or arising in connection with this Agreement and the PSAs in such manner as is required under the Genworth Records Management Policies and Indian and United States GAAP. PROVIDER will maintain such audit trail for such periods of time as may be specified in the Genworth Records Management Policies or, if no such period is specified, for such period as the parties may agree upon. PROVIDER shall provide to CUSTOMER, its auditors (including internal audit staff and external auditors), inspectors, regulators, customers and other representatives as CUSTOMER may from time to time designate in writing, access at all reasonable times to any facility or part of a facility at which either PROVIDER or any of its permitted subcontractors is providing the Services, to PROVIDER personnel, to PROVIDER's systems, policies and procedures relating to the Services, and to data and records relating to the Services for the purpose of performing audits and inspections of either PROVIDER or any of its subcontractors with respect to (i) any aspect of PROVIDER's or such subcontractor's performance of the Services, (ii) compliance with the security procedures or (iii) any other matter relevant to this Agreement, including, without limitation, the determination and calculation of all elements of Base Cost and all other elements of the pricing mechanism described in Section 2.0 hereof and in Exhibit F. PROVIDER shall reasonably cooperate with CUSTOMER in the performance of these audits, including installing and operating audit software. If CUSTOMER requires PROVIDER to conduct any special audit other than as provided in this Section 5.1 and if the same results in any increased cost to PROVIDER, PROVIDER shall be entitled to pass on such extra costs to CUSTOMER through a special invoice, but only to the extent approved by CUSTOMER in advance.

5.2 Reports and Certifications. PROVIDER shall provide CUSTOMER such other reports and certifications relating to the Services as CUSTOMER may reasonably request, including all reports and sub-certifications necessary for officers of CUSTOMER to make the certifications required under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and all related rules and regulations and all related applicable stock exchange listing requirements.

6.0 CUSTOMER Commitments.

6.1 System Access. CUSTOMER agrees to provide to PROVIDER, at CUSTOMER'S expense, necessary access to the mainframe computer and related information technology systems (the "System") on which CUSTOMER data is processed during the times (the "Service Hours") specified in the PSAs, subject to reasonable downtime for utility outages, maintenance, performance difficulties and the like. In the event of a change in the Service Hours, CUSTOMER will provide PROVIDER with at least fifteen (15) calendar days written notice of such change.

6.2 Data Integrity. CUSTOMER will ensure that all data and information submitted by it to PROVIDER for performing the Services shall be accurate and complete and furnished in a timely manner.

6.3 Training. CUSTOMER shall provide all PROVIDER employees who are dedicated to CUSTOMER operations with training or training materials relating to business processes and regulatory matters uniquely related to the CUSTOMER business and reasonably required by such employees to meet the Performance Standards.

To the extent any non-performance or failure to meet Performance Standards by PROVIDER is due to CUSTOMER's failure to comply with this Section 6.0, such non-performance or failure shall not be considered a breach in Performance Standards and/or a breach of this Agreement by PROVIDER.

7.0 Term.

7.1 Initial Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Execution Date and terminate on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Trigger Date (the "Common Termination Date"). The period from the Execution Date to the Common Termination Date is referred to as the "Initial Term".

7.2 Limitation on Termination of MOAs; Renewal. CUSTOMER may terminate individual PSAs prior to the Common Termination Date either for cause or for convenience as described therein or in this Agreement. CUSTOMER, however, may not terminate this Agreement, other than for cause as described in Section 8.0, prior to the Common Termination Date, unless all of the members of the Genworth Group then party to an MOA terminate all of the existing MOAs at one time. At least eighteen (18) months prior to the Common Termination Date, PROVIDER shall propose revised terms and conditions on which the Agreement may be renewed for an additional two (2) year period (the "Renewal Period"). CUSTOMER and all of the Genworth Affiliates then party to an MOA may at their sole option renew all, but not less than all, of the MOAs for the Renewal Period, provided, that CUSTOMER, such Genworth Affiliates and PROVIDER agree upon revised charges and other terms and conditions to be applicable to the Services during the Renewal Period prior to the date that is fourteen (14) months prior to the Common Termination Date (the "Notification Date"). If the parties are unable to so agree, CUSTOMER shall inform PROVIDER within fifteen (15) days following the Notification Date as to whether it will exercise the Carve-Out Option (which may only be exercised with respect to all of the then-outstanding MOAs), as described in Section 1.0 of Exhibit H and/or require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance. If CUSTOMER, such Genworth Affiliates and PROVIDER fail to agree upon the terms for renewal of the MOAs, or if CUSTOMER fails to provide PROVIDER the notice described above, all of the MOAs will automatically terminate on the Common Termination Date and CUSTOMER shall not be entitled to exercise its Carve-Out Option or require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance.

8.0 Termination.

8.1 Termination for Cause by CUSTOMER. CUSTOMER shall have the right at any time to terminate any PSA in whole or in part with respect to the affected Services, effective immediately and without prejudice to any other legal rights to which CUSTOMER may be entitled, upon the occurrence of the following events:

- (a) PROVIDER becomes subject to any voluntary or involuntary order of any governmental agency prohibiting or materially impairing the performance of any of the Services;
- (b) if such Services are inadequate, unsatisfactory or substantially not in conformance with the Performance Standards or if PROVIDER's representations and warranties are materially inaccurate and, upon receipt of notice thereof from CUSTOMER, PROVIDER (i) does not immediately undertake action in good faith to cure such default, and (ii) does not provide to CUSTOMER a preliminary analysis of the root cause of such default and an initial plan to cure such default within ten (10) days of such notice, and (iii) has not agreed with CUSTOMER on a definitive plan to cure such default acceptable to CUSTOMER within thirty (30) days of such notice, and (iv) has not fully cured such default within ninety (90) days of such notice or such longer period as may have been approved by CUSTOMER as part of PROVIDER's plan to cure such default;
- (c) if PROVIDER or CUSTOMER, due to the actions of PROVIDER, is administratively cited by any governmental agency for materially violating, or is judicially found to have materially violated, any Law governing the performance of the Services;

(d) if a trustee or receiver or similar officer of any court is appointed for PROVIDER or for a substantial part of the property of PROVIDER, whether with or without consent;

(e) if bankruptcy, composition, reorganization, insolvency or liquidation proceedings are instituted by or against PROVIDER without such proceedings being dismissed within ninety (90) days from the date of the institution thereof; or

(f) a material breach of this Agreement or a PSA by PROVIDER (which shall include a series of non-material or persistent breaches by PROVIDER, that in the aggregate constitute a material breach or have a material and significant adverse impact (i) on the administrative, management, planning, financial reporting or operations functions of CUSTOMER or (ii) on the management of the Services), and, upon receipt of notice thereof from CUSTOMER, PROVIDER (i) does not immediately undertake action in good faith to cure such breach, and (ii) does not provide to CUSTOMER a preliminary analysis of the root cause of such breach and an initial plan to cure such breach within ten (10) days of such notice, and (iii) has not agreed with CUSTOMER on a definitive plan to cure such breach acceptable to CUSTOMER within thirty (30) days of such notice, and (iv) has not fully cured such default within ninety (90) days of such notice or such longer period as may have been approved by CUSTOMER as part of PROVIDER's plan to cure such breach, provided, that any breach referred to in Section 1.2 shall be fully cured within thirty (30) days of such notice.

Within fifteen (15) days of its notice to PROVIDER of its intent to terminate any PSA, in whole or in part, under this Section 8.1, CUSTOMER shall inform PROVIDER as to whether it will exercise its Carve-Out Option (which may only be exercised with respect to all of the outstanding MOAs, as described in Section 1.0 of Exhibit H) and/or whether it will require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance for a period not exceeding twenty-four (24) months from the date of such notice. If CUSTOMER fails to do so, CUSTOMER shall not be entitled to exercise its Carve-Out Option and/or require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance.

8.2 Termination by PROVIDER .

(a) PROVIDER may not terminate this Agreement or any PSA for any reason other than (i) non-payment in accordance with Section 3.6, (ii) as described below under Section 8.4 (Termination Relating to Damages Cap) hereof and (iii) as described below under Section 8.5 (Change of Control), it being understood that PROVIDER will be relieved from its obligations to perform in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or a PSA to the extent that it is prevented from doing so as a result of the failure by CUSTOMER to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or such PSA.

(b) Within fifteen (15) days of PROVIDER's notice to CUSTOMER of PROVIDER's intent to terminate any PSA in accordance with Sections 8.2(a)(i) or 8.2(a)(ii), CUSTOMER shall inform PROVIDER as to whether it will require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) months from the date of such notice, provided, in the case of a termination described in clause (i), that CUSTOMER has made all outstanding payments under any invoice in accordance with Section 3.2 hereof. If CUSTOMER fails to give such notice, CUSTOMER shall not be entitled to require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance. At PROVIDER's option, CUSTOMER shall be required to pay for Services Transfer Assistance provided under this paragraph in advance.

(c) With respect to any other breach of this Agreement or a PSA by CUSTOMER, PROVIDER will be entitled to invoke the applicable dispute resolution process under Section 21.12 hereof and pursue all remedies permitted by that process, but shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement or any related PSA or voluntarily withhold any Services except as authorized pursuant to such process.

8.3 Termination for Convenience.

(a) CUSTOMER may terminate any PSA in whole or in part at any time upon at least one (1) year's prior written notice to PROVIDER. Such notice shall include a commercially reasonable plan for the reduction of Services to be purchased from PROVIDER that will enable PROVIDER to mitigate all costs of such termination. PROVIDER shall be responsible for all costs that PROVIDER incurs as a result of such termination.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, CUSTOMER may terminate any PSA in whole or in part at any time upon at least ninety (90) days' prior written notice to PROVIDER. In such event, CUSTOMER shall be responsible for all costs that PROVIDER incurs as a result of such termination; provided, that PROVIDER has taken all commercially reasonable steps to mitigate such costs. Such costs shall not include any element of lost profits or lost opportunity costs.

(c) Within fifteen (15) days of its notice to PROVIDER of its intent to terminate any PSA, in whole or in part, under this Section 8.3, CUSTOMER shall inform PROVIDER as to whether it will require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) months from the date of such notice. If CUSTOMER fails to do so, CUSTOMER shall not be entitled to require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance.

8.4 Termination Right Related to Damages Cap.

(a) If either the GE Group members or the Genworth Group members incur liability to the others under one or more MOAs in excess of the applicable Simple Breach Cap or Excluded Matters Cap and do not agree to reset to zero the amounts counted toward such cap, the members of the group that has not incurred such excess liability shall have the right to terminate all, but not less than all, of the then-outstanding MOAs for material breach. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, CUSTOMER may only exercise the Carve-Out Option if all of the Genworth Group members party to an MOA also exercise the Carve-Out Option under their respective MOAs at the same time.

(b) Within fifteen (15) days of the notice to PROVIDER of termination of the MOAs under this Section 8.4, CUSTOMER shall inform PROVIDER as to whether it will exercise its Carve-Out Option and/or whether it will require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance for a period not exceeding twenty-four (24) months from the date of such notice. If CUSTOMER fails to do so, CUSTOMER shall not be entitled to exercise its Carve-Out Option and/or require PROVIDER to provide Services Transfer Assistance.

8.5 Termination Right Relating to Change of Control of CUSTOMER. If a Change of Control of Genworth occurs, PROVIDER shall, unless the parties otherwise agree during a one hundred twenty (120) day negotiation period following the Change of Control, have the right to terminate all, but not less than all, of the then-outstanding MOAs upon the later of (A) the last day of the eighteenth (18th) month following the effective date of the Change of Control or (B) the expiration of the Initial Term, provided that such termination right is exercised within fifteen (15) days following the end of the one hundred twenty (120) day negotiation period.

8.6 Continued Performance. Termination of this Agreement for any reason provided herein shall not relieve either party from its obligation to perform its obligations hereunder up to the effective date of such termination or to perform such obligations as may survive termination.

9.0 Obligations on Expiration and Termination.

9.1 Services Transfer Assistance.

(a) PROVIDER shall cooperate with CUSTOMER to assist in the orderly transfer of the Services to CUSTOMER itself or its designee (including another services provider) in connection with the expiration, non-renewal or earlier termination of the Agreement and/or each PSA for any reason, however described, or exercise of the Carve-Out Option. The Services include "Services Transfer Assistance," which includes providing CUSTOMER and its designees and their agents, contractors and consultants, as necessary, with (i) such cooperation and other services incidental to the transfer of the Services as they may reasonably request, (ii) all or such portions of the Services as CUSTOMER may request, and (iii) such other transition services as may be provided for in any PSA. Neither the term of the Agreement nor the term of any PSA shall be deemed to have expired or terminated until the Services Transfer Assistance thereunder is completed.

(b) Upon CUSTOMER's request, PROVIDER shall provide Services Transfer Assistance commencing up to one (1) year prior to expiration or termination of the Agreement or any PSA and continuing for the periods described in this Agreement. PROVIDER shall provide the Services Transfer Assistance even in the event of CUSTOMER's material breach (other than an uncured payment default) of this Agreement or any PSA.

(c) If any Services Transfer Assistance provided by PROVIDER requires the utilization of additional resources that PROVIDER would not otherwise use in the performance of the Services, but for which there is a charging methodology provided for in the Agreement or such PSAs, CUSTOMER will pay PROVIDER for such usage at the then-current applicable Charges and in the manner set forth in the Agreement and/or applicable PSAs. If the Services Transfer Assistance requires PROVIDER to incur costs that PROVIDER would not otherwise incur in the performance of the Services under the Agreement and applicable PSAs, then PROVIDER shall notify CUSTOMER of the identity and scope of the activities requiring that PROVIDER incur such costs and the projected amount of the charges that will be payable by CUSTOMER for the performance of such assistance. Upon CUSTOMER's prior authorization, PROVIDER shall perform the assistance and invoice CUSTOMER for such charges. CUSTOMER shall bear all costs agreed in advance between the parties and incurred by PROVIDER on account of transition/migration of services/processes from PROVIDER to CUSTOMER or its designee.

9.2 Carve-Out Option. At any time during the term of this Agreement and prior to the Volume Reduction Date, PROVIDER agrees that CUSTOMER or its designee shall have the right, upon the occurrence of any one of the Carve-Out Conditions and to the extent permissible under (i) applicable law or (ii) any existing contractual obligation of PROVIDER, to require PROVIDER to transfer to CUSTOMER the Carve-Out Resources used by PROVIDER to provide or support the provision of the Services as described in Exhibit H hereof (the "Carve-Out Option").

10.0 Assignment and Subcontracting.

10.1 PROVIDER Assignment. Without the prior written consent of CUSTOMER, PROVIDER shall not voluntarily, involuntarily or by operation of law, assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, any related PSA or any of PROVIDER's rights hereunder or thereunder, except as permitted under Section 1.6 hereof. Any assignment or transfer without CUSTOMER's written consent, except as permitted under Section 1.6 hereof, shall be null and void and at the option of CUSTOMER shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, PROVIDER shall have the right to assign this Agreement or any PSA, in whole or in part, to any Affiliate of PROVIDER upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to CUSTOMER and subject to receipt by CUSTOMER of all regulatory approvals. Following any such assignment to an Affiliate of PROVIDER, PROVIDER shall remain liable for the performance of all of PROVIDER's obligations under this Agreement and each PSA. This Agreement and all of the terms and provisions hereof will be binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of PROVIDER's successors and permitted assigns.

10.2 Subcontracting. PROVIDER shall not enter into subcontracts for the performance of the Services without the prior written consent of CUSTOMER. In the event a subcontract is proposed by PROVIDER, PROVIDER shall furnish such information as reasonably requested by CUSTOMER to enable CUSTOMER to ascertain to its satisfaction that such proposed subcontractor of PROVIDER is able to meet CUSTOMER's quality standards and comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding CUSTOMER's consent to any subcontract, PROVIDER shall remain liable for the performance of all of PROVIDER's obligations under this Agreement and each PSA. CUSTOMER shall not be obligated to pay any person other than PROVIDER for Services rendered by any subcontractor.

10.3 CUSTOMER Assignment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.0, CUSTOMER shall have the right to assign this Agreement or any PSA, in whole or in part, to any Affiliate of CUSTOMER upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to PROVIDER and subject to receipt by CUSTOMER of all regulatory approvals. Following any such assignment to an Affiliate of CUSTOMER, CUSTOMER shall remain liable for the performance of all of CUSTOMER's obligations under this Agreement and each PSA. This Agreement and all of the terms and provisions hereof will be binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of CUSTOMER's successors and permitted assigns.

11.0 Confidentiality.

11.1 Obligations of PROVIDER. From and after the Execution Date, subject to Section 11.3 and the rights of PROVIDER with respect to the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology pursuant to Exhibit I, and except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or any PSA, the PROVIDER shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, and other agents and representatives, including attorneys, agents, customers, suppliers, contractors, consultants and other representatives of any Person providing financing (collectively, "Representatives"), not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any Person other than Representatives of such party or of its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing Services to CUSTOMER or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any CUSTOMER Confidential Information. If any disclosures are made in connection with providing Services to CUSTOMER, its Affiliates or Representatives under this Agreement, then the CUSTOMER Confidential Information so disclosed shall be used only as required to perform the Services. PROVIDER shall use the same degree of care to prevent and restrain the unauthorized use or disclosure of the CUSTOMER Confidential Information by any of its Representatives as it currently uses for its own confidential information of a like nature, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care. For purposes of this Section 11.1, any Information, material or documents relating to the Genworth Business currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by any member of the Genworth Group furnished to or in possession of the PROVIDER and its Affiliates and Representatives, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by PROVIDER, its Affiliates and their respective Representatives, that contain or otherwise reflect such Information, material or documents is hereinafter referred to as "CUSTOMER Confidential Information." "CUSTOMER Confidential Information" does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, Information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by PROVIDER, its Affiliates or Representatives not otherwise permissible hereunder, (ii) PROVIDER or such Affiliate or Representative can demonstrate was or became available to such person from a source other than CUSTOMER or its Affiliates, or (iii) is developed independently by PROVIDER or such Affiliate or Representative without reference to the CUSTOMER Confidential Information; provided, however, that, in the case of clause (ii), the source of such information was not known by such persons to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, CUSTOMER or any of its Affiliates with respect to such information.

11.2 Obligations of CUSTOMER. From and after the Execution Date, subject to Section 11.3 and the rights of CUSTOMER with respect to the PROVIDER Licensed Technology pursuant to Exhibit I, and except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement, CUSTOMER shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and their respective Representatives, not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any Person other than Representatives of such party or of its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing Services to CUSTOMER or any Affiliate of CUSTOMER or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any PROVIDER Confidential Information. If any disclosures are made in connection with providing Services to CUSTOMER or any of its Affiliates under this Agreement, then the PROVIDER Confidential Information so disclosed shall be used only as required to perform the Services. CUSTOMER and its Affiliates shall use the same degree of care to prevent and restrain the unauthorized use or disclosure of the PROVIDER Confidential Information by any of their Representatives as they currently use for their own confidential information of a like nature, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care. For purposes of this Section 11.2, any Information, material or documents relating to the businesses currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by GE or any of its Affiliates (other than any member of the Genworth Group) furnished to or in possession of CUSTOMER or any of its Affiliates, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by CUSTOMER or its officers, directors and Affiliates, that contain or otherwise reflect such information, material or documents is hereinafter referred to as “ PROVIDER Confidential Information .” “ PROVIDER Confidential Information ” does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by CUSTOMER or its Representatives not otherwise permissible hereunder, (ii) CUSTOMER or such Representative can demonstrate was or became available to it from a source other than PROVIDER and its Affiliates, or (iii) is developed independently by CUSTOMER or its Representatives without reference to the PROVIDER Confidential Information; provided , however , that, in the case of clause (ii), the source of such information was not known by CUSTOMER to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, PROVIDER or its Affiliates with respect to such information.

11.3 Required Disclosures . If PROVIDER or its Affiliates, on the one hand, or CUSTOMER or its Affiliates, on the other hand, are requested or required (by oral question, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) by any Governmental Authority or pursuant to applicable Law to disclose or provide any CUSTOMER Confidential Information or PROVIDER Confidential Information as applicable, the entity or person receiving such request or demand shall use all reasonable efforts to provide the other party with written notice of such request or demand as promptly as practicable under the circumstances so that such other party shall have an opportunity to seek an appropriate protective order. The party receiving such request or demand agrees to take, and cause its representatives to take, at the requesting party’s expense, all other reasonable steps necessary to obtain confidential treatment by the recipient. Subject to the foregoing, the party that received such request or demand may thereafter disclose or provide any CUSTOMER Confidential Information or PROVIDER Confidential Information, as the case may be, to the extent required by such Law (as so advised by counsel) or by lawful process or such Governmental Authority.

11.4 HIPAA Addendum. If PROVIDER in connection with the provision of a Service, constitutes a Business Associate (as defined in HIPAA and/or the HIPAA Privacy Rule) and uses Protected Health Information (as defined in HIPAA and/or the HIPAA Privacy Rule) generated by or entrusted to Customer, then the terms of Exhibit J shall apply with respect to such Service. CUSTOMER shall provide notice to PROVIDER of changes in HIPAA and/or the HIPAA Privacy Rule relevant to the performance of the Services and appropriate training to PROVIDER regarding compliance with HIPAA and the HIPAA Privacy Rule in accordance with Section 6.3

11.5 Data Ownership. All data, records, and reports relating to the Genworth Business and the customers of the Genworth Group (collectively, "Records"), whether in existence at the Execution Date hereof or compiled thereafter in the course of performing the Services, shall be treated by PROVIDER and its subcontractors as the exclusive property of CUSTOMER or other member of the Genworth Group and the furnishing of such Records, or access to such items by, PROVIDER and/or its subcontractors, shall not grant any express or implied interest in or license to PROVIDER and/or its subcontractors relating to such Records other than as is necessary to perform and provide the Services to the Genworth Group. Upon request by CUSTOMER at any time and from time to time and without regard to the default status of the parties under the Agreement, PROVIDER and/or its subcontractors shall promptly deliver to CUSTOMER the Records in electronic format and in such hard copy as exists on the date of the request by Customer.

12.0 Indemnities.

12.1 Indemnity by PROVIDER. PROVIDER agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and defend the members of the Genworth Group and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, from and against any and all actions, liabilities, losses, damages, injuries, judgments and external expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, court costs, sanctions imposed by a court, experts' fees, interest or penalties relating to any judgment or settlement, and other legal expenses (including all incidental expenses in connection with such liabilities, obligations, claims or Actions based upon or arising out of damage, illness or injury (including death) to person or property caused by or sustained in connection with the performance of this Agreement) ("Liabilities"), brought, alleged or incurred by or awarded to any person who is not a member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group (a "Third Party Claim") arising out of or based upon:

- (a) any alleged or actual violation of any Law by PROVIDER or any of its Affiliates or Representatives (excluding the Genworth Group and excluding any such violation to the extent caused by a breach of this Agreement or any PSA by any Member of the Genworth Group);
- (b) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PROVIDER or any of its Affiliates (excluding the Genworth Group);
- (c) PROVIDER's provision of any services to any third party from the same facilities from which the Services are provided to the CUSTOMER;

(d) the improper or illegal use or disclosure of consumer information (including personal, credit or medical information) regarding any customer or potential customer of CUSTOMER in contravention of PROVIDER's obligations under this Agreement or any PSA; and

(e) PROVIDER's tax liabilities arising from PROVIDER's provision of Services, as set forth in Section 2.7 hereof.

12.2 Indemnity by CUSTOMER. CUSTOMER agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and defend PROVIDER, each other member of the GE Group, and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, from and against any and all Liabilities relating to any Third Party Claim arising out of or based upon the provision of Services by PROVIDER to CUSTOMER, except for Liabilities arising out of or based upon:

(a) negligence of PROVIDER, its Affiliates or Representatives;

(b) any of the Excluded Matters related to an act or omission of PROVIDER, its Affiliates or Representatives;

(c) any matter with respect to which PROVIDER is required to indemnify CUSTOMER under Section 12.1 hereof; or

(d) any Third Party Claim that any resources provided by the CUSTOMER or used by PROVIDER in connection with the Services infringe, violate or misappropriate any Intellectual Property or Trademarks of any third party, excluding any such infringement, violation or misappropriation caused by:

(i) any such resources first provided to PROVIDER after the Execution Date, but excluding any infringement, violation or misappropriation resulting from modifications by or on behalf of the PROVIDER to any such resources, combinations of such resources with other items, or use of such resources, except as specified by CUSTOMER in each case (it being understood that the use of all Software included in any such resources in combination with computers or other hardware with which such Software is intended to be used shall be deemed to be so specified);

(ii) any such resources first specified by CUSTOMER after the Execution Date for use by PROVIDER in connection with the Services, but excluding any infringement, violation or misappropriation resulting from (A) modifications by or on behalf of the PROVIDER to any such resources, combinations of such resources with other items, or use of such resources, except as specified by CUSTOMER in each case (it being understood that the use of all Software included in any such resources in combination with computers or other hardware with which such Software is intended to be used shall be deemed to be so specified) and (B) any failure by PROVIDER to fulfill its express obligation under any PSA or other applicable written agreement between the parties to obtain any rights or consents necessary for the use by PROVIDER of any Intellectual Property of a third party; and

(iii) modifications by or on behalf of the CUSTOMER after the Execution Date to any such resources provided by PROVIDER and/or its Affiliates and Representatives to the CUSTOMER in the course of performing the Services, combinations of such resources with other items, or use of such resources, except as specified by PROVIDER in each case (it being understood that the use of any and all Software in any such resources in combination with computers or other hardware with which such Software is intended to be used shall be deemed to be so specified).

12.3 Indemnification Obligations Net of Insurance Proceeds and Other Amounts, On an After-Tax Basis .

(a) Any Liability subject to indemnification pursuant to this Section 12.0 will be net of Insurance Proceeds that actually reduce the amount of the Liability and will be determined on an After-Tax Basis. Accordingly, the amount which any party (an “Indemnifying Party”) is required to pay to any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder (an “Indemnified Party”) will be reduced by any Insurance Proceeds theretofore actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party in respect of the related Liability. If an Indemnified Party receives a payment (an “Indemnity Payment”) required by this Agreement from an Indemnifying Party in respect of any Liability and subsequently receives Insurance Proceeds, then the Indemnified Party will pay to the Indemnifying Party an amount equal to the excess of the Indemnity Payment received over the amount of the Indemnity Payment that would have been due if the Insurance Proceeds had been received, realized or recovered before the Indemnity Payment was made.

(b) An insurer who would otherwise be obligated to pay any claim shall not be relieved of the responsibility with respect thereto or, solely by virtue of the indemnification provisions hereof, have any subrogation rights with respect thereto. The Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek to collect or recover any third-party (which shall not include any captive insurance subsidiary) Insurance Proceeds (other than Insurance Proceeds under an arrangement where future premiums are adjusted to reflect prior claims in excess of prior premiums) to which the Indemnified Party is entitled in connection with any Liability for which the Indemnified Party seeks indemnification pursuant to this Section 12.0; provided that the Indemnified Party’s inability to collect or recover any such Insurance Proceeds shall not limit the Indemnifying Party’s obligations hereunder.

(c) The term “After-Tax Basis” as used in this Section 12.0 means that, in determining the amount of the payment necessary to indemnify any party against, or reimburse any party for, Liabilities, the amount of such Liabilities will be determined net of any reduction in tax derived by the Indemnified Party as the result of sustaining or paying such Liabilities, and the amount of such indemnification payment will be increased (i.e., “grossed up”) by the amount necessary to satisfy any income or franchise tax liabilities incurred by the Indemnified Party as a result of its receipt of, or right to receive, such Indemnity Payment (as so increased), so that the Indemnified Party is put in the same net after-tax economic position as if it had not incurred such Liabilities, in each case without taking into account any impact on the tax basis that an Indemnified Party has in its assets.

12.4 Procedures for Indemnification of Third Party Claims.

(a) If an Indemnified Party shall receive notice or otherwise learn of the assertion of any Third Party Claim or of the commencement by any such Person of any Action with respect to which an Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification to such Indemnified Party pursuant to this Section 12.4, such Indemnified Party shall give such Indemnifying Party written notice thereof within 20 days after becoming aware of such Third Party Claim. Any such notice shall describe the Third Party Claim in reasonable detail. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of any Indemnified Party or other Person to give notice as provided in this Section 12.4 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Section 12.4, except to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice.

(b) An Indemnifying Party may elect to defend (and to seek to settle or compromise), at such Indemnifying Party’s own expense and by such Indemnifying Party’s own counsel, any Third Party Claim. Within 30 days after the receipt of notice from an Indemnified Party in accordance with Section 12.4(a) (or sooner, if the nature of such Third Party Claim so requires), the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party of its election whether the Indemnifying Party will assume responsibility for defending such Third Party Claim, which election shall specify any reservations or exceptions. After notice from an Indemnifying Party to an Indemnified Party of its election to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel and to participate in (but not control) the defense, compromise, or settlement thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be the expense of such Indemnified Party except as set forth in the next sentence. If the Indemnifying Party has elected to assume the defense of the Third Party Claim but has specified, and continues to assert, any reservations or exceptions in such notice, then, in any such case, the reasonable fees and expenses of one separate counsel for all Indemnified parties shall be borne by the Indemnifying Party, but the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to reimbursement by the Indemnified Party for payment of any such fees and expenses to the extent that it establishes that such reservations and exceptions were proper.

(c) If an Indemnifying Party elects not to assume responsibility for defending a Third Party Claim, or fails to notify an Indemnified Party of its election as provided in Section 12.4(b) such Indemnified Party may defend such Third Party Claim at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party.

(d) Unless the Indemnifying Party has failed to assume the defense of the Third Party Claim in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, no Indemnified Party may settle or compromise any Third Party Claim without the consent of the Indemnifying Party. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement of any pending or threatened Third Party Claim in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party without the consent of the Indemnified Party if (i) the effect thereof is to permit any injunction, declaratory judgment, other order or other nonmonetary relief to be entered, directly or indirectly against such Indemnified Party and (ii) such settlement does not include an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such Third Party Claim.

12.5 Additional Matters.

Indemnification payments in respect of any Liabilities for which an Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under this Section 12.5 shall be paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party as such Liabilities are incurred upon demand by the Indemnified Party, including reasonably satisfactory documentation setting forth the basis for the amount of such indemnification payment, including documentation with respect to calculations made on an After-Tax Basis and consideration of any Insurance Proceeds that actually reduce the amount of such Liabilities. The indemnities contained in this Section 12.5 shall remain operative and in full force and effect, regardless of (i) any investigation made by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party; (ii) the knowledge by the Indemnified Party of Liabilities for which it might be entitled to indemnification hereunder; (iii) any termination of this Agreement or any PSA; and (iv) the sale or other transfer by any party of any assets or businesses or the assignment by it of any liabilities.

If payment is made by or on behalf of any Indemnifying Party to any Indemnified Party in connection with any Third Party Claim, such Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to and shall stand in the place of such Indemnified Party as to any events or circumstances in respect of which such Indemnified Party may have any right, defense or claim relating to such Third Party Claim against any claimant or plaintiff asserting such Third Party Claim or against any other Person. Such Indemnified Party shall cooperate with such Indemnifying Party in a reasonable manner, and at the cost and expense of such Indemnifying Party, in prosecuting any subrogated right, defense or claim.

In an Action in which the Indemnifying Party is not a named defendant, if either the Indemnified Party or Indemnifying Party shall so request, the parties shall endeavor to substitute the Indemnifying Party for the named defendant if they conclude that substitution is desirable and practical. If such substitution or addition cannot be achieved for any reason or is not requested, the named defendant shall allow the Indemnifying Party to manage the Action as set forth in this section, and the Indemnifying Party shall fully indemnify the named defendant against all costs of defending the Action (including court costs, sanctions imposed by a court, attorneys' fees, experts fees and all other external expenses), the costs of any judgment or settlement, and the cost of any interest or penalties relating to any judgment or settlement.

12.6 Remedies Cumulative; Limitations.

(a) The rights provided in this Section 12.6 shall be cumulative and, subject to the provisions of Section 12.0 and Section 21.12, shall not preclude assertion by any Indemnified Party of any other rights or the seeking of any and all other remedies against any Indemnifying Party.

(b) PROVIDER's indemnity hereunder shall not extend to any Liabilities incurred or suffered by CUSTOMER as a result of inaccurate or incomplete data or information submitted to PROVIDER by CUSTOMER.

(c) The liability of each party (and their respective Affiliates) to each other with respect to the indemnified matters shall be included in the calculation of, and limited by, the Excluded Matters Cap.

13.0 Limitation of Liability.

13.1 No System Liability. PROVIDER shall have no liability to CUSTOMER for any delay of performance or breach of this Agreement to the extent caused by or related to any errors in the System or the lack of availability to PROVIDER of the System provided by CUSTOMER under Section 6.1.

13.2 Liability for Simple Breach. The parties shall be liable to one another for fifty percent (50%) of all Direct Damages resulting from their respective breaches of this Agreement or PSA or negligence in the performance of the Services during the Initial Term, provided, that (i) neither party shall have any liability to the other with respect to an individual breach or negligent act or omission until the losses resulting from such matter exceed $25,000, and then only to the extent that such losses exceed $25,000, and (ii) the parties and their Affiliates' liability to each other for Direct Damages for such matters arising out of all of the MOAs during the Initial Term shall not exceed $5,000,000 in the aggregate (the "Simple Breach Cap").

13.3 Liability for Excluded Matters. Subject to the Excluded Matters Cap described in the following sentence, the parties shall be liable to one another for one hundred percent (100%) of all Direct Damages resulting from (i) a party's gross negligence or willful misconduct, (ii) PROVIDER's improper or illegal use or disclosure of consumer information (including, but not limited to, personal, credit or medical information) regarding any customer or potential customer of the CUSTOMER Group, (iii) PROVIDER's breach of its agreement not to voluntarily withhold Services, (iv) a breach of Section 15.1(f), or (v) a party's violation of Law (collectively, the "Excluded Matters"). The parties and their Affiliates' liability to each other for Direct Damages arising out of or relating to the Excluded Matters and their respective indemnification obligations under ARTICLE XII arising under all of the MOAs during the Initial Term shall not exceed $25,000,000 in the aggregate (the "Excluded Matters Cap").

13.4 No Liability for Acts in Accordance with Instructions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Agreement or any related PSA, neither party shall be liable to the other party or any of its Affiliates with respect to any act or omission taken or not taken pursuant to the specific instruction, direction or request, in writing of such other party made through its authorized representative.

14.0 PROVIDER Employees .

14.1 Responsibility for PROVIDER Employees . PROVIDER shall be responsible for all payments to its employees including any insurance coverage and benefit programs required by applicable law and regulation. Nothing in this agreement shall constitute an employer-employee relationship between the employees of PROVIDER and the CUSTOMER.

15.0 Representations, Warranties and Covenants .

15.1 PROVIDER Representations . PROVIDER represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) PROVIDER has the facilities, equipment, staff, experience and expertise to perform and provide the Services required hereunder;

(b) PROVIDER is solvent and able to meet all financial obligations as they mature, and agrees to notify CUSTOMER promptly of any change in this status;

(c) PROVIDER has the necessary power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and this Agreement has been or will be duly executed and delivered by PROVIDER and constitutes or will constitute the valid and binding agreement of PROVIDER, enforceable in accordance with its terms;

(d) Subject to Section 6.3, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by PROVIDER and the consummation by PROVIDER of the transactions herein contemplated will not contravene any provision of applicable Law, and will not constitute a breach of or default under any agreement or other instrument or any decree, judgment or order to which PROVIDER is currently a party or by which PROVIDER is bound;

(e) PROVIDER has provided to CUSTOMER a list referring to this paragraph which, to the knowledge of PROVIDER, sets forth all Software used by PROVIDER (other than such Software provided to PROVIDER by CUSTOMER) in the performance of the Services as of the Execution Date;

(f) After the Execution Date, PROVIDER will not use any New Provider Materials in performing the Services without the prior written consent of CUSTOMER; and

(g) After the Execution Date, PROVIDER will not enter into any material agreement for the purchase of Hardware or Third Party Software or enter into any material Third Party Agreements without the prior written consent of CUSTOMER.

15.2 CUSTOMER Representations . CUSTOMER represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) CUSTOMER has the necessary power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and this Agreement has been or will be duly executed and delivered by CUSTOMER and constitutes the valid and binding agreement of CUSTOMER, enforceable in accordance with its terms; and

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by CUSTOMER and the consummation by CUSTOMER of the transactions herein contemplated will not contravene any provision of applicable law, and will not constitute a breach of or default under any agreement or other instrument or any decree, judgment or order to which CUSTOMER is currently a party or by which CUSTOMER is bound.

15.3 Approvals and Consents. Each party shall be responsible for obtaining all approvals, permissions, consents or grants required or which may be required for such party to undertake its duties and responsibilities regarding any Services under this Agreement and any related PSA. Additionally, each party shall provide such cooperation and support as may be necessary for the other party to secure such approvals, permissions, consents or grants.

15.4 Cooperation.

(a) The parties shall timely, diligently and on a commercially reasonable basis cooperate, facilitate the performance of their respective duties and obligations under this Agreement and each related PSA and reach agreement with respect to matters left for future review, consideration and/or negotiation and agreement by the parties, as specifically set forth in this Agreement and PSA. Further, the parties shall deal and negotiate with each other and their respective Affiliates in good faith in the execution and implementation of their duties and obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Not in limitation of Sections 12.2(d)(i) and (ii), the parties shall make good faith efforts to share (i) versions, patches, fixes and other modifications recommended or required by third party providers of Software provided hereunder by either party to the other prior to or after the Execution Date and (ii) information regarding the foregoing (i).

(c) PROVIDER agrees, at CUSTOMER'S request and expense, to provide documentary information and any further assistance required in order to respond for CUSTOMER to state department of insurance or third party or administrative demands in regulatory or legal proceedings or in conjunction with formal department of insurance inquiries related to the Services performed by PROVIDER. The assistance rendered by PROVIDER under this Section 15.4(c) shall include causing PROVIDER's employees to travel to the United States to participate in or testify at regulatory or legal proceedings relating to the Services as required by Law or request of any Governmental Authority or as otherwise reasonably requested by CUSTOMER, provided, that CUSTOMER shall reimburse PROVIDER for the reasonable travel and living expenses incurred by such employees in accordance with CUSTOMER's reimbursement policies generally applicable to CUSTOMER's employees.

16.0 Notices.

All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made if the sender has reasonable means of showing receipt thereof) by delivery in person, by reputable international courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via reputable international courier service) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 16.0):

The parties may agree to additional notice requirements related to specific outsourcing projects from time to time.

17.0 Intellectual Property .

Exhibit I of this Agreement sets forth certain additional rights and obligations of the parties with respect to intellectual property.

18.0 Non-Compete .

18.1 Limitations on Provision of Services . From the Execution Date until the Volume Reduction Date, to the extent that PROVIDER provides such Services to CUSTOMER, PROVIDER shall not market, sell or provide the Services (including granting licenses to use or assigning any interest in any PROVIDER Licensed Technology, but excluding any such assignment in connection with a PROVIDER divestiture permitted pursuant to Section 1.6 of this Agreement) to any third party in the business of underwriting, marketing, issuing or administering any (i) life insurance, long-term care insurance, or annuities, (ii) mortgage insurance, or (iii) credit life, credit health, credit unemployment or credit casualty insurance products either directly or through a re-insurer; provided, however, that PROVIDER shall have a right to provide the Services to GE and its Affiliates or any party that was an Affiliate of GE on the Execution Date.

18.2 Volume Reduction Date . PROVIDER shall notify CUSTOMER of the potential occurrence of the Volume Reduction Date. If, within ten (10) days of its receipt of such notice, CUSTOMER notifies PROVIDER of its intent to increase the volume of Services consumed by CUSTOMER such that the level of Dedicated FTEs or Customer-Controllable Revenues, as applicable, increases above the fifty percent (50%) threshold, and does so increase such volume within sixty (60) days of receipt of such notice, then the Volume Reduction Date shall not be deemed to have occurred.

18.3 Equitable Relief . PROVIDER acknowledges that any violation of the restrictions contained in the foregoing paragraph would result in irreparable injury to CUSTOMER, and PROVIDER further acknowledges that, in the event of its violation of any of these restrictions, CUSTOMER shall be entitled to obtain from any court of competent jurisdiction (in any jurisdiction) preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, regardless of the dispute resolution provisions set forth in Exhibit G, as well as damages to which it may be entitled under such provisions.

19.0 Change Control Procedure.

If either party requests a modification of the Agreement or any PSA, including (i) a change to the scope of the Services, Dedicated FTEs, Performance Standards, or Charges under any PSA, (ii) a change to the Exhibits or Schedules to the Agreement, (iii) the addition of New Services, (iv) a change to the features, functionality, scalability or performance of the Services, or (v) any other change to the terms of the Agreement or any PSA, the requesting party's Account Executive or his or her designee shall submit a written proposal in the form attached as Exhibit K (a "Change Order Request") to the other party's Account Executive describing such desired change. Such party's Account Executive shall review the proposal and reject or accept the proposal in writing within a reasonable period of time, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after receipt of the proposal. If the proposal is rejected, the writing shall include the reasons for rejection. If the proposal is accepted, the parties shall mutually agree on the changes to be made, if necessary, to the Agreement, the applicable PSA, or any applicable Exhibits. All such changes shall be made only in a written Change Order signed by the Account Executive of each of the parties or his designee (authorized in writing by the applicable party), and thereafter embodied in the applicable documents by appropriate written addenda thereto executed by PROVIDER and CUSTOMER.

20.0 Governance.

20.1 PROVIDER Account Executive.

(a) Designation and Authority. Immediately after execution of this Agreement, PROVIDER shall designate a PROVIDER Account Executive for the PROVIDER engagement under this Agreement. The PROVIDER Account Executive, and his/her designee(s), shall have the authority to act for and bind PROVIDER and its subcontractors in connection with all aspects of this Agreement. All of CUSTOMER's communications shall be sent to the PROVIDER Account Executive or his/her designee(s).

(b) Selection. Before assigning an individual to the position of Account Executive, whether the person is initially assigned or subsequently assigned, PROVIDER shall:

- (i) notify CUSTOMER of the proposed assignment for CUSTOMER's approval;
- (ii) introduce the individual to appropriate CUSTOMER representatives; and
- (iii) consistent with law and PROVIDER's reasonable personnel practices, provide CUSTOMER with any other information about the individual that is reasonably requested.

(c) PROVIDER shall cause the person assigned to the position of Account Executive to maintain his or her principal office at a location designated by CUSTOMER and to devote all time and effort that is reasonably necessary to the provision of the Services under this Agreement. PROVIDER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the initial PROVIDER Account Executive at CUSTOMER for the minimum term of eighteen (18) months following the Execution Date, provided that any term that such Account Executive has already spent in his or her current position prior to the Execution Date shall be considered as a part of the 18-month period referred to herein, and each of the subsequent PROVIDER Account Executives for a minimum term of eighteen (18) months, unless such Account Executive (i) voluntarily resigns from PROVIDER, (ii) is dismissed by PROVIDER for (A) misconduct or (B) unsatisfactory performance in respect of his or her duties and responsibilities to CUSTOMER or PROVIDER, (iii) is unable to work due to his or her death, injury or disability, or (iv) is removed from the CUSTOMER assignment at the request of CUSTOMER. Whenever possible, PROVIDER shall give CUSTOMER at least ninety (90) days advance notice of a change of the Account Executive or if such ninety (90) days notice is not possible, the longest notice otherwise possible.

(d) Removal. If CUSTOMER determines that it is not in the best interests of CUSTOMER for the PROVIDER Account Executive to continue in his or her capacity, then CUSTOMER shall give PROVIDER written notice requesting that the Account Executive be replaced. PROVIDER shall replace the Account Executive as promptly as practicable, but, in any case, within thirty (30) days, in accordance with this Section 20.1.

20.2 CUSTOMER Account Executive.

(a) Designation and Authority. Immediately after execution of this Agreement, CUSTOMER shall designate a CUSTOMER Account Executive for the PROVIDER engagement under this Agreement. The CUSTOMER Account Executive and his/her designee(s) shall have the authority to act for and bind CUSTOMER and its contractors in connection with all aspects of this Agreement. All of PROVIDER's communications shall be sent to the CUSTOMER Account Executive or his/her designee(s).

(b) Term. CUSTOMER shall cause the person assigned to the position of Account Executive to devote substantial time and effort to the management of CUSTOMER's responsibilities under this Agreement. Whenever possible, CUSTOMER shall give PROVIDER at least ninety (90) days advance notice of a change of the Account Executive or if such ninety (90) days notice is not possible, the longest notice otherwise possible.

20.3 Key Employees of PROVIDER. For this Agreement and each PSA executed pursuant hereto, PROVIDER shall notify CUSTOMER in writing of the names of all of the PROVIDER employees providing Services under each such agreement who are at the senior professional band and above (each a "Key Employee"). Such notice shall be provided within thirty (30) days of the execution of this Agreement and each PSA. PROVIDER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the initial Key Employees at CUSTOMER for the minimum term of eighteen (18) months following the Execution Date, provided that any term that such Key Employee has already spent in his or her current position prior to the Execution Date shall be considered as a part of the 18-month period referred to herein, and each of the subsequent Key Employees for a minimum term of eighteen (18) months, unless any such Key Employee (i) voluntarily resigns from PROVIDER, (ii) is dismissed by PROVIDER for

(A) misconduct or (B) unsatisfactory performance in respect of his or her duties and responsibilities to CUSTOMER or PROVIDER, (iii) is unable to work due to his or her death, injury or disability, or (iv) is removed from the CUSTOMER assignment at the request of CUSTOMER. Whenever possible, PROVIDER shall give CUSTOMER at least ninety (90) days advance notice of a change of a Key Employee or if such ninety (90) days notice is not possible, the longest notice otherwise possible. If CUSTOMER determines that it is not in the best interests of CUSTOMER for any Key Employee to continue in his or her capacity, then CUSTOMER shall give PROVIDER written notice requesting that such Key Employee be replaced. PROVIDER shall replace the Key Employee as promptly as practicable, but, in any case, within thirty (30) days, in accordance with this Section 20.3.

20.4 Meetings.

(a) The parties will participate in an (i) annual budgeting and pricing process and a quarterly demand planning process as described in Section 2.9 and (ii) an annual business strategy and productivity enhancement process as directed by CUSTOMER.

(b) CUSTOMER may call meetings from time to time with reasonable notice to be held by telephone or video conference to generally review matters relating to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and any PSA, the compliance of each of the parties herewith, and to consider policies, planning and performance relating to quality controls, production, efficiency and productivity, costs and any other special matter or matters of concern. In addition, either party shall have the right to call meetings by telephone or video conference, as necessary, with reasonable notice to the other party, to discuss and resolve specific matters of concern as they occur. All meetings shall be attended by the representatives of the parties who are responsible for performances as to those matters to be discussed. Either party may also request an in-person meeting with reasonable notice to the other party. The expenses for such meeting, including travel and lodging shall be borne by the party calling the meeting; however, such expenses will be agreed upon by the parties prior to such meeting.

20.5 Operational Dispute Resolution. As contemplated by Section 1.2 of Exhibit G, the parties may attempt to resolve Disputes in the normal course of business at the operational level as described in this Section 20.5. The line managers of the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute through negotiation. If the line managers cannot resolve the Dispute within a reasonable period of time, the Dispute shall be escalated by CUSTOMER to the applicable operations leader and by PROVIDER to the applicable service leader. If such persons can not resolve the Dispute within a reasonable period of time, the Dispute shall be escalated to the Account Executives of both parties. If the Dispute is not resolved by the Account Executives within a reasonable period of time or, in any case, if such Dispute is not resolved within ten (10) days after commencement of negotiations pursuant to this Section 20.5, the Dispute shall be handled in accordance with Exhibit G.

21.0 Miscellaneous.

21.1 Force Majeure. No party hereto (or any Person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfill any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement or any related PSA, so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of Force Majeure. A party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event: (i) notify the other parties of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition and (ii) use due diligence to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible. The preceding sentence shall not relieve PROVIDER of its obligation to provide the Services described in the BCP/DRP Plans described in Section 1.2 hereof. If PROVIDER's performance is affected by Force Majeure for a period of more than ten (10) calendar days, then CUSTOMER may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to PROVIDER before performance has resumed without payment of any amount other than accrued Charges.

21.2 Independent Contractors. The parties shall be and act as independent contractors, and under no circumstances shall this Agreement be construed as one of agency, partnership, joint venture or employment between the parties. Each party agrees and acknowledges that it neither has nor will give the appearance or impression of having any legal authority to bind or commit the other party in any way.

21.3 Failure to Object Not a Waiver. The failure of either party to object to or to take affirmative action with respect to any conduct of the other party which is in violation of the terms hereof shall not be construed as a waiver thereof, nor of any future breach or subsequent wrongful conduct.

21.4 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Delaware of the United States of America, which is applicable to contracts wholly made and performed therein. PROVIDER hereby submits to the jurisdiction of all courts where CUSTOMER is authorized to do business and all courts of the United States. Any action in regard to the contract or arising out of its terms and conditions shall be instituted and litigated in the United States.

21.5 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Section 12.0 with respect to Indemnified parties, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and members of their respective Group and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

21.6 Public Announcements. The parties shall consult with each other before issuing, and give each other the opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the PSAs, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange or national securities quotation system.

21.7 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement (including the PSAs and the attachments hereto and thereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter, provided, that, unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties, matters arising prior to the Execution Date shall be governed by the provisions of the Master Outsourcing Agreement (including the PSAs and attachments thereto) as in effect prior to such date.

21.8 Amendment. No provision of this Agreement or any PSA may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement or any PSA shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

21.9 Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement and the PSAs shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, paragraph, Schedule and Exhibit are references to the Articles, Sections, paragraphs, Schedules and Exhibits to this Agreement and the PSAs unless otherwise specified, (c) the word “including” and words of similar import shall mean “including, without limitation,” (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the table of contents and headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and the PSAs, and (f) this Agreement and the PSAs shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted. In the event of any apparent conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, any Exhibit to this Agreement or any PSA, such provisions shall be construed so as to make them consistent to the extent possible, and if such is not possible, then the parties will negotiate in good faith to resolve such conflicts in a commercially reasonable manner. If the parties are unable to resolve such conflicts, then the provisions of this Agreement shall control, provided, that the provisions of Exhibit B shall control over the provisions of the Agreement and any other Exhibits. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any PSA, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

21.10 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

21.11 Remedies Not Exclusive. No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to a party is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy available at law or in equity, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity, by statute or otherwise.

21.12 Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any related PSA, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of this or PSA shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution process set forth in Exhibit G hereof.

21.13 Language. All PSAs, documents, exhibits, schedules, deliverable items, notices and communications of any kind relating to this Agreement and the PSAs shall be made in the English language.

21.14 Survival. The following sections of this Agreement shall survive termination of this Agreement and any PSA:

EXHIBIT A

Definitions

“Action” means any demand, action, claim, dispute, suit, countersuit, arbitration, inquiry, proceeding or investigation by or before any federal, state, local, foreign or international Government Authority or any arbitration or mediation tribunal.

“Addendum” means the terms which are supplemental to and/or deviate from this Agreement as set forth in Exhibit B.

“Agreement” means this Agreement, as amended and/or supplemented as set forth in Exhibit A, together with the other Exhibits and Schedules hereto.

“Affiliate” means (and, with a correlative meaning, “affiliated”) means, with respect to any Person, any direct or indirect subsidiary of such Person, and any other Person that directly, or through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with such first Person; provided, however, that from and after the Execution Date, no member of the Genworth Group shall be deemed an Affiliate of any member of the GE Group for purposes of this Agreement and no member of the GE Group shall be deemed an Affiliate of any member of the Genworth Group for purposes of this Agreement. As used in this definition, “control” (including with correlative meanings, “controlled by” and “under common control with”) means possession, directly or indirectly, of power to direct or cause the direction of management or policies or the power to appoint and remove a majority of directors (whether through ownership of securities or partnership or other ownership interests, by contract or otherwise).

“After Tax Basis” shall have the meaning given in Section (c) hereof.

“Appraiser” shall have the meaning given in Exhibit A

“Bankruptcy Code” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.04 of Exhibit I.

“Base Cost” shall be PROVIDER’s actual direct cost of providing the Services reasonably and equitably determined to be attributable to CUSTOMER by PROVIDER for each year. The elements of PROVIDER’s direct cost are described in the attached Exhibit L, and shall take into account productivity gains or losses.

“Baseline Charges” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.1.

“Baseline FTEs” means the number of Dedicated FTEs employed by PROVIDER and its Affiliates to perform the Services under all of the MOAs as of the Execution Date, as agreed upon by the parties. Upon the occurrence of any event that reduces the number of Dedicated FTEs employed by PROVIDER to perform Services under the MOAs (including any transfer by PROVIDER of operations, but excluding the effects of productivity improvements), other than at the direction of any member of the Genworth Group, the Baseline FTEs shall be reduced to reflect the reduction in the numbers and classes of Dedicated Employees affected by such change.

“Baseline Customer-Controllable Revenues” means the budgeted aggregate Compensation and Benefits expense (as defined in Exhibit F) of the Baseline FTEs for the first twelve months of the Initial Term, as agreed upon by the parties. Upon the occurrence of any event that reduces the number of Dedicated FTEs employed by PROVIDER to perform Services under the MOAs (including any transfer by PROVIDER of operations, but excluding the effects of productivity improvements), other than at the direction of any member of the Genworth Group, the Baseline Customer-Controllable Revenues shall be reduced to reflect the reduction in the numbers and classes of Dedicated Employees affected by such change.

“BCP/DRP Plans” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 1.2 hereof.

“Carve-Out” means the process set forth in Exhibit H commencing upon the election by CUSTOMER of the Carve-Out Option.

“Carve-Out Conditions” shall have the meaning given such term in Exhibit H hereof.

“Carve-Out Option” shall have the meaning given in Section 9.2 hereof.

“Carve-Out Resources” shall have the meaning given such term in Exhibit H hereof.

“Change Control Procedure” means the procedure set forth in Section 19.0 and Exhibit H for amending the Agreement including (i) a change to the scope of the Services, Dedicated FTEs, Performance Standards, or Charges under any Transaction Document, (ii) a change to the Exhibits or Schedules to this Agreement, (iii) the addition of New Services, (iv) a change to the features, functionality, scalability or performance of the Services, and (v) any other change to the terms of this Agreement or PSA.

“Change of Control” (of CUSTOMER) means any (i) consolidation or merger of GENWORTH with or into another entity or entities (whether or not GENWORTH is the surviving entity), excluding any such consolidation or merger with or into an Affiliate of GENWORTH or GE or an Affiliate of GE, (ii) any sale or transfer by GENWORTH of fifty percent (50%) or more of its assets, excluding any such sale to an Affiliate of GENWORTH or to GE or an Affiliate of GE, (iii) any sale, transfer or issuance or series of sales, transfers or issuances of shares or other voting securities of GENWORTH by GENWORTH or the holders thereof, as a result of which one holder, or a group of holders acting in concert (other than GE or an Affiliate of GE), acquires the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the directors of GENWORTH. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no transaction of the type described in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of this Section shall constitute a Change of Control if, as of immediately following such transaction, persons that possess the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the directors of GENWORTH as of immediately prior to such transaction continue to hold (directly or indirectly) such voting power.

“Change of Control” (of PROVIDER) shall have the meaning given such term in Exhibit H hereof.

“Change Order” means a document that amends the Agreement, including the changes described in (i) through (v) of the definition of “Change Control Procedure,” executed pursuant to the Change Control Procedure, in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit H.

“Change Order Request” has the meaning given in Section 19.0 hereof.

“Charges” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 2.1

“Common Termination Date” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 7.1 hereof.

“Contract Year” means the calendar year or any portion thereof (e.g. the initial Contract Year shall be the period from the Execution Date through December 31, 2004).

“Cost Factor” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 2.2 hereof.

“CPR” shall have the meaning given such term in Exhibit G hereof.

“CPR Arbitration Rules” shall have the meaning given such term in Exhibit G hereof.

“CUSTOMER Confidential Information” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 11.1 hereof.

“Customer-Controllable Revenue” means the aggregate salaries of the Dedicated FTEs.

“CUSTOMER Licensed Technology” means all Technology and Intellectual Property owned by CUSTOMER or its Affiliates and provided to PROVIDER (or its authorized subcontractors in accordance with Section 10) by CUSTOMER or its Affiliates for use or necessary for use in the provision of the Services (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any Technology or Intellectual Property owned by a third party). CUSTOMER Licensed Technology shall include Technology or Intellectual Property developed by PROVIDER (or its authorized subcontractors in accordance with Section 10) and owned by CUSTOMER, except as otherwise provided in the Agreement or any PSA relating to such developed Technology or Intellectual Property.

“Dedicated FTEs” shall mean the full-time equivalent employees, including supervisors, direct support personnel (e.g. trainers) and other members of the PROVIDER management identified and agreed to by CUSTOMER, dedicated to the performance of the Services from time to time.

Form of PSA

PROJECT SPECIFIC AGREEMENT

This Project Specific Agreement (“PSA”) is entered into on _____, 200__ by [NAME] (hereafter “CUSTOMER”) and [GE Capital International Services] (hereafter “PROVIDER”).

WHEREAS, CUSTOMER and PROVIDER are parties to that certain Amended and Restated Master Outsourcing Agreement between CUSTOMER and PROVIDER dated _____, 200__ (“ARMOA”);

WHEREAS, CUSTOMER now desires that PROVIDER provide certain services to CUSTOMER and PROVIDER desires to provide such services pursuant to the terms of the ARMOA;

WHEREAS, this PSA defines certain rights and liabilities of the parties with respect to [Insert general Project Name or Type of Service]; and

WHEREAS, capitalized terms used herein and not defined shall have the meaning given such terms in the ARMOA.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

(1) Incorporation of ARMOA by Reference . The provisions of the ARMOA are hereby incorporated in their entirety into this PSA by reference.

The ARMOA provides substantive terms that the parties agree will govern and define their rights and liabilities in this PSA. The ARMOA defines many fundamental provisions including, but not limited to, a description of the conditions under which the parties may terminate this PSA, confidentiality requirements, contractual remedies, limitations on assignment and subcontracting, indemnification rights, intellectual property rules, limitation of liability, particular representations and warranties made by the parties, and jurisdictional issues. The PSA shall be governed by the terms and conditions stated in the ARMOA.

The provisions of this PSA set forth below describe the term of this PSA, the Services to be performed, performance standards, if any, fees that may be charged, regulatory rules applicable to the Services, and other particulars not otherwise described in the ARMOA.

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of the ARMOA and this PSA, the ARMOA shall control. The parties to this PSA may deviate from any terms and conditions of the ARMOA, only to the extent that the ARMOA permits such deviation. Otherwise, such deviations are not permissible.

(2) Term. This PSA shall commence on the execution date of this PSA and shall continue for so long as the ARMOA is effective. [The PSA should run concurrently with the ARMOA unless the parties agree otherwise.]

(3) Description of Services.

(a) The services to be performed by PROVIDER are described below and in Exhibit A to this PSA (the "Services"). The Services will be performed with the oversight of and in conjunction with the offices of CUSTOMER located in the United States of America.

(b) Services generally shall be performed by PROVIDER at certain times of the day to provide for reasonable overlap of common working hours between PROVIDER and CUSTOMER.

(c) [To the extent CUSTOMER requires specific back-up requirements for records constituting CUSTOMER's books of account, such requirements should be inserted in this Section 3, or if such requirements are regulatory in nature, in Section 6 below. The inclusion of specific back-up requirements may increase the Baseline Charges for the Services.]

(4) Performance Standards.

(a) PROVIDER shall perform the Services in conformance with CUSTOMER's guidelines and procedures for the Services as agreed to by the parties and attached as Schedule .

(b) [Section 4.1 of the ARMOA contemplates the insertion of Performance Standards, if any, for the Services. Insert any additional Performance Standards applicable to this PSA as new subsections of this Section 4 or as a new Schedule to this PSA.]

(c) [Section 4.2 of the ARMOA contemplates measuring the Performance Standards monthly, but allows for deviations. If different measurement periods are desired, such should be inserted in this Section 4.]

(5) Fees.

(a) CUSTOMER agrees to pay the following Baseline Charges to PROVIDER for performance of the Services: [Insert FTE rate]. [Please note that Exhibit A to the ARMOA requires Baseline Charges for new PSAs to be defined in each PSA. The Baseline Charges must be an FTE rate to avoid problems with the pricing adjustment, volume reduction and non-compete provisions of the ARMOA.]

At the time of execution of the PSA, the parties expect that no. of FTEs will be required to complete the Services. The volume of services required under this PSA may increase during the term of the PSA. In case the volume increases during the term, the parties may agree to increase the number of FTEs providing the Services under the PSA, provided that such number will not exceed . [Insert the maximum cap of FTE here. The number of FTEs may be changed outside this range in accordance with the Change Control Procedure in Section 19.0 of the ARMOA.]

(b) [To the extent the fee structure is subject to regulation and the applicable requirements are not addressed in the ARMOA, include such requirements here. For instance, certain existing PSAs require PROVIDER to satisfy certain expense and cost allocation requirements, such as New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 33].

(6) Regulatory Matters.

(a) PROVIDER shall (i) assist and cooperate with CUSTOMER with respect to any regulatory examination or investigation of CUSTOMER or legal proceeding involving CUSTOMER, (ii) make available personnel with detailed knowledge of the Services to meet with CUSTOMER or any regulatory agency with jurisdiction over CUSTOMER at such place as may be requested by CUSTOMER or such regulatory agency, and (iii) employ a compliance officer to monitor the performance of the Services.

(b) [Section 4.3 of the ARMOA requires PROVIDER to perform the Services in compliance with all applicable Laws, stock exchange rules or generally accepted, statutory or regulatory accounting or actuarial principles specified in a PSA. Therefore, any specific rules that CUSTOMER must require PROVIDER to comply with in performing the Services should be set forth in this Section 6. For instance, an existing PSA requires that: “CUSTOMER records must be maintained by PROVIDER and CUSTOMER in accordance with applicable laws and regulations including, but not limited to, New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 152 (11 NYCRR Part 243).” However, please review Exhibit B to the ARMOA to ensure the specific rules have not already been included there.] Customer shall have the responsibility to inform the Provider about specific compliance and/ or regulatory requirements that the Provider needs to comply with and provide regular updates and training regarding the same.

(7) Remedies. [Insert additional remedies, if any, agreed to by the parties. See Section 4.4 of the ARMOA.]

(8) Intellectual Property

(a) [Under Section 1.02 of Exhibit I to the ARMOA, all Technology and Intellectual Property developed jointly by the parties will be owned by PROVIDER. However, the parties may agree otherwise in a PSA. Therefore, any deviations from this rule should be specified in this Section 8.]

(b) [Schedule I-1 of Exhibit I to the ARMOA contains a list of Technology and Intellectual Property which may not be sublicensed, assigned or otherwise provided to a third party by CUSTOMER without the written consent of General Electric Company. Section 2.01(e) of Exhibit I to the ARMOA allows the parties to add additional intellectual property to this list for a particular PSA.]

(c) [Section 2.02(e) of Exhibit I to the ARMOA states that PROVIDER will have no license to any CUSTOMER Licensed Technology following the termination of the ARMOA or any related PSA, unless the ARMOA or PSA provides otherwise. Therefore, to the extent the parties desire that PROVIDER continue to license certain CUSTOMER Licensed Technology after termination, this should be inserted in this Section 8.]

(d) [Section 5.03(a) of Exhibit I to the ARMOA states that CUSTOMER, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, assumes all risk and liability with their use of the PROVIDER Licensed Technology, subject to any exclusions set forth in the ARMOA or PSA. Therefore, any exclusions to this rule should be inserted in this Section 8.]

(e) [Section 5.03(b) of Exhibit I to the ARMOA states that PROVIDER, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, assumes all risk and liability with their use of the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology, subject to any exclusions set forth in the ARMOA or PSA. Therefore, any exclusions to this rule should be inserted in this Section 8.]

(f) [Section 5.04 of Exhibit I to the ARMOA states that the parties may agree in any PSA to amend the terms and conditions of licenses granted under Exhibit I to the ARMOA. Therefore, any additional or different licensing terms should be included in this Section 8.]

(9) Other Matters.

(a) Provider will have access to the System during the following time periods: [Insert time periods] (“Service Hours”). [Please refer to Section 6.1 of the ARMOA which contemplates that each PSA will define the “Service Hours” applicable to such PSA. CUSTOMER may also desire to define the parameters or scope of “access” in this Section 9 of the PSA.]

(b) [Section 16.0 of the ARMOA contains notice information for the parties. If representatives at the PSA level are different than the ARMOA level representatives, the parties should consider inserting additional notice information under this Section 9.]

(c) If known, the process owners for each party should be inserted into this Section 9.

(d) PROVIDER represents and warrants to CUSTOMER that

(i) PROVIDER has the necessary power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this PSA and this PSA has been or will be duly executed and delivered by PROVIDER and constitutes or will constitute the valid and binding agreement of PROVIDER, enforceable in accordance with its terms; and

(ii) The execution and delivery of this PSA by PROVIDER and the consummation by PROVIDER of the transactions herein contemplated will not contravene any provision of applicable Law, and will not constitute a breach of or default under any agreement or other instrument or any decree, judgment or order to which PROVIDER is currently a party or by which PROVIDER is bound.

(e) CUSTOMER represents and warrants to PROVIDER that

(i) CUSTOMER has the necessary power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this PSA and this PSA has been or will be duly executed and delivered by CUSTOMER and constitutes or will constitute the valid and binding agreement of CUSTOMER, enforceable in accordance with its terms; and

(ii) The execution and delivery of this PSA by CUSTOMER and the consummation by CUSTOMER of the transactions herein contemplated will not contravene any provision of applicable Law, and will not constitute a breach of or default under any agreement or other instrument or any decree, judgment or order to which CUSTOMER is currently a party or by which CUSTOMER is bound.

(10) FURTHER, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THE COMPLETE AND EXCLUSIVE STATEMENT OF THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES RELATING TO THIS SUBJECT SHALL CONSIST OF 1) THIS PSA AND 2) THE ARMOA, INCLUDING AMENDMENTS TO THOSE DOCUMENTS FROM TIME TO TIME EXECUTED BY THE PARTIES. THIS STATEMENT OF THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES SUPERSEDES ALL PROPOSALS OR OTHER PRIOR AGREEMENTS, ORAL OR WRITTEN, AND ALL OTHER COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN THE PARTIES RELATING TO THE SUBJECT DESCRIBED HEREIN.

EXHIBIT G

Dispute Resolution

The following provisions shall govern any Dispute arising under the Agreement or the PSAs:

1.1 General Provisions.

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any PSA, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Exhibit G, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with a request contemplated by Section 1.2 set forth below, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 1.3 set forth below, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) The parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Exhibit G are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

1.2 Consideration by Senior Executives.

If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

1.3 Mediation .

If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 1.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

1.4 Arbitration .

(a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 1.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement, or the applicable MOA or PSA, according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this Section 1.4 and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 1.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 1.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Exhibit G.

1.5 Continued Performance .

The parties agree to continue to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement and any related PSA during a Dispute.

Carve-Out Option

1.0 Affected Carve-Out Resources. (a) If the Carve-Out Option is exercised in connection with any Carve-Out Condition other than a PROVIDER Divestiture, the Carve-Out Option shall be exercisable for all, but not less than all, of the Carve-Out Resources used by PROVIDER in connection with all of the then-outstanding MOAs and related PSAs.

(b) If the Carve-Out Option is exercised in connection with a PROVIDER Divestiture, the Carve-Out Option shall be exercisable for all, but not less than all, of the Carve-Out Resources used by PROVIDER in connection with Services transferred to the acquiror as part of the PROVIDER Divestiture.

2.0 Warranty. As of the date hereof, PROVIDER represents and warrants that to its knowledge there is no law or existing contractual obligation of PROVIDER that would materially impair the exercise of the Carve-Out Option by CUSTOMER with relation to any material Hardware, Third-Party Software or PROVIDER Licensed Technology, or to any PROVIDER Employees, except to the extent expressly disclosed to and approved in writing by CUSTOMER.

3.0 Notice. CUSTOMER shall notify PROVIDER of its exercise of the Carve-Out Option (i) at the expiration of the Initial Term, within fifteen (15) days following the Notification Date; (ii) within fifteen (15) days of notice to PROVIDER of its intent to terminate the affected PSAs in the case of a Material Breach, (iii) within one hundred twenty (120) days following a Change of Control of PROVIDER, and (iv) within thirty (30) days of PROVIDER's notice to CUSTOMER of a PROVIDER Divestiture.

4.0 Consents. CUSTOMER and PROVIDER shall cooperate with each other and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any approvals, permissions, consents or grants required for CUSTOMER to exercise the Carve-Out Option with relation to all Carve-Out Resources, including Third Party Software and Third Party Agreements.

5.0 No Carve-Out Option for Acquiror. No acquiror of a business operation divested by CUSTOMER shall be entitled to exercise the Carve-Out Option.

6.0 Definitions. As used in this Exhibit H, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meaning:

(a) "PROVIDER" refers to PROVIDER and each Affiliate of PROVIDER providing Services under any MOA or PSA, as applicable.

(b) "Carve-Out Resources" refers to the Hardware, Third Party Software, PROVIDER Licensed Technology, PROVIDER Employees, Third Party Agreements, and the Facility, to the extent that they are severable and identifiable, as described below.

(c) “Carve-Out Conditions” means (a) any Change in Control of PROVIDER, (b) a Material Breach, (c) CUSTOMER’s becoming entitled to terminate the Agreement under Section 8.4 of the Agreement, (d) the expiration of the Initial Term, or (e) the occurrence of a PROVIDER Divestiture.

For the purposes of this provision only, a “Material Breach” shall refer to any breach or a series of breaches resulting in the termination of one or more PSAs where: (i) such breach or breaches are material and relate to Excluded Matters (other than matters involving the gross negligence of PROVIDER), (ii) CUSTOMER is entitled to recover damages from PROVIDER in excess of $2,000,000 relating to such breach or breaches, or (iii) such PSAs accounted for ten percent (10%) or more of the aggregate billings by PROVIDER to CUSTOMER and its Affiliates under all of the MOAs during the immediately preceding twelve (12) months, provided, that any dispute as to whether a matter constitutes a Material Breach shall be resolved pursuant to the dispute resolution provisions set forth in Exhibit G and any exercise of the Carve-Out Option by CUSTOMER based on any such matter shall be deferred until such dispute is resolved.

(d) A “Change of Control” of PROVIDER means any (i) consolidation or merger of PROVIDER with or into another entity or entities (whether or not PROVIDER is the surviving entity), excluding any such consolidation or merger with or into GE or an Affiliate of GE, (ii) any sale or transfer by PROVIDER of fifty percent (50%) or more of its assets, excluding any such sale to GE or an Affiliate of GE, (iii) any sale, transfer or issuance or series of sales, transfers or issuances of shares or other voting securities of PROVIDER by PROVIDER or the holders thereof, as a result of which one holder, or a group of holders acting in concert (other than GE or an Affiliate of GE), acquires the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors (or similar managing group) of PROVIDER. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no transaction of the type described in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) shall constitute a Change of Control of PROVIDER if, as of immediately following such transaction, persons that possess the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors (or similar managing group) of PROVIDER as of immediately prior to such transaction continue to hold (directly or indirectly) such voting power.

(e) “Fair Market Value” shall mean the fair market value of the Carve-Out Resources as proposed by CUSTOMER in its Carve-Out Option notice, served prior to the Notification Date, and agreed by PROVIDER. In the event of disagreement between the parties as to the fair market value of the Carve-Out Resources as specified in the Carve-Out Option notice, the parties shall appoint one (1) appraiser each and such two (2) appraisers will jointly appoint a third (3rd) appraiser within thirty (30) days of such disagreement. Within sixty (60) days of their appointment, the three (3) appraisers will each determine and certify in writing the Fair Market Value of the Carve-Out Resources consistent with the methodology described below. The Fair Market Value shall be the average of the three (3) appraised values, which value shall be final and binding on the parties. For the purposes of this provision, an appraiser shall be an investment banker of international repute. Fair Market Value shall be determined by the appraisers pursuant to the methodology set forth in Schedule H-1 to this Exhibit H.

7.0 Terms and Conditions of Option. If the Carve-Out Option is exercised, the parties agree to consider in good faith and agree upon commercially reasonable terms and conditions for the exercise of such option proposed by either party, including, without limitation, the terms and conditions (A) to optimize the consequences for both parties on their respective tax and regulatory positions (B) to optimize the fulfillment of the obligations of PROVIDER to its employees, or (C) to optimize the execution of the transition of the Carve-Out Resources from PROVIDER to CUSTOMER or its designee, or (D) to optimize the transaction structure, or combination of transaction structures, to minimize any adverse financial impact to either party, including, but not limited to, the consideration of joint ventures or equity ownership or asset sales or some combination thereof provided, that such optimization does not materially expand or reduce the rights of CUSTOMER relating to the Carve-Out Option.

8.0 Services Transfer Assistance. PROVIDER shall be obligated to provide Services Transfer Assistance to CUSTOMER until the Carve-Out is completed, but shall not be required to provide any portion of the Services provided to CUSTOMER under the MOAs after CUSTOMER has acquired from PROVIDER the Carve-Out Resources used by PROVIDER to provide such Services or to provide Services Transfer Assistance for (i) in the case of an exercise of the Carve-Out Option relating to the expiration of the Initial Term or a PROVIDER Divestiture, more than fourteen (14) months, and (ii) eighteen (18) months, in the case of an exercise of the Carve-Out Option relating to a Change of Control of PROVIDER; AND (iii) in any other case, twenty-four (24) months .

9.0 Payment Obligations. Upon completion of the Carve-Out, all outstanding MOAs and PSAs shall automatically terminate. The monetary consideration to be paid by CUSTOMER for the Carve-Out Resources upon the exercise of the Carve-Out Option shall be equal to (i) the Fair Market Value of the Carve-Out Resources if CUSTOMER exercises the Carve-out Option upon the expiration of the Initial Term, (ii) the book value and all related transition costs of the Carve-Out Resources at the time of transfer if CUSTOMER exercises the Carve-out Option following (a) a Material Breach of any MOA or PSA by PROVIDER, and (b) a Change of Control of PROVIDER or (iii) if CUSTOMER exercises the Carve-Out Option in connection with a PROVIDER Divestiture, the lesser of (y) the book value of the assets to be purchased by CUSTOMER or (z) the value of the divested operations relating to CUSTOMER implied by the consideration to be paid by the acquiror in the PROVIDER Divestiture. The methodology for calculating book value for purposes of this paragraph is set forth in Schedule H-2 to this Exhibit H .

10. Transfer of Carve-Out Resources. The Carve-Out Resources shall be transferred to CUSTOMER as set forth below (subject to any limitations on such transfer referred to in Section 2.0, above):

(a) Hardware. “Hardware” means the hardware and other furniture, fixtures and equipment owned or leased and then currently being used by PROVIDER exclusively to perform the Services under any MOA or PSA or to support such performance. To the extent any such items are not used by PROVIDER exclusively to perform the Services, PROVIDER shall assist CUSTOMER or its designee in purchasing, leasing or otherwise obtaining the use of comparable items.

(b) Third-Party Software. If PROVIDER has licensed or purchased and is using any Software licensed from a third-party exclusively to provide or support the provision of the Services under any MOA or PSA (“Third-Party Software”), CUSTOMER may elect to take, or elect to direct to its designee, a transfer or an assignment of any and all of the licenses for such software and any attendant maintenance agreements, provided that such licenses are by their terms transferable or assignable. To the extent any such licenses and the attendant current maintenance agreements are not used exclusively to provide Services to CUSTOMER or are not transferable or assignable by PROVIDER to CUSTOMER or its designee, PROVIDER shall assist CUSTOMER or its designee, in obtaining in the name of CUSTOMER or its designee and at the expense of CUSTOMER, a license for such software and a maintenance agreement for such software.

(c) PROVIDER Employees. CUSTOMER or its designee shall have the right to make offers of employment to any or all PROVIDER employees exclusively performing or supporting the performance of the Services (“PROVIDER Employees”). To the extent any PROVIDER Employees perform or support the performance of the Services on other than an exclusive basis (including all employees indirectly supporting the performance of the Services by providing administrative services, including legal, human resources, compliance and other services, (“Non-exclusive Employees”), PROVIDER and CUSTOMER shall use commercially reasonable efforts to allocate such Non-exclusive Employees in an equitable manner between the parties.

(d) Third-Party Agreements. “Third Party Agreements” means any third party agreements not otherwise treated in this Exhibit H, and used by PROVIDER exclusively in connection with Services being provided under any MOA or PSA, including, third party agreements for maintenance, business continuity and disaster recovery services and other necessary third party services then being used by PROVIDER to perform the Services. To the extent any such agreements are not used by PROVIDER exclusively to provide such Services or are not transferable by PROVIDER to CUSTOMER, PROVIDER shall assist CUSTOMER in obtaining in CUSTOMER’s name, an agreement for comparable services.

(e) Facilities. PROVIDER will use commercially reasonable efforts to assist CUSTOMER in obtaining a facility comparable to the facility used by PROVIDER to provide the Services (the “Facility”).

Schedule H-1

Fair Market Value Calculation

General methods for calculation shall be: (1) a Discounted Cash Flow (DCF) analysis based on the contractual cash flows represented by the aggregate Genworth MOAs and adjusted for carve-out costs; (2) multiples of Revenue, Earnings before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization (EBITDA) and EBIT for comparable transactions at the time of carve out. Projected net cash flow will be discounted on the basis outlined below. The final valuation will consider market factors, making appropriate adjustments to the variables below.

1. DCF Methodology

Cash Flows In.

Cash flows in (revenue) will be calculated using Genworth Group payments as of the valuation date and projected forward over the Initial Term and Renewal Period, taking into account any future contractual margin reductions, historical volume trends, and any known events as documented in the most recent quarterly capacity management processes.

Cash Flows Out.

Expenses will be calculated as of the valuation date using actual expenses and projected forward taking into account the following categories and trends:

- (a) C&B up 12%
- (b) FX up 6%
- (c) Facility down 4%
- (d) Technology & Telecom down 8% and 15% respectively
- (e) Direct support down 13%
- (f) Other variable down 6%
- (g) Overhead down 3%

NOTE: Expense trends will change over time and will be re-calculated based on the prevailing trends supported by the most recent annual pricing process.

Carve Out Costs Subtracted From DCF Valuation

Carve-out costs will include one-time costs including, without limitation, legal entity set-up, transaction costs, capital investments, and the costs to replace assets and personnel required for the Genworth Group to continue the operations of its Insurance business on a stand-alone basis in substantially the same manner as immediately prior to the exercise of the Carve-Out Option, but which are not to be transferred from GECIS to Genworth at the time of the carve-out.

Term

The term shall be the initial term of the contract and the renewal term.

Discount Rates

The discount rate applied to the cash flows shall be determined to take into account the following factors:

- (1) private company with a single customer.
- (1) Cost of Capital of Comparable companies
- (2) sufficient to generate an after tax equity return
- (3) growth rate.

Final DCF Valuation .

The final DCF valuation shall take into consideration NPV of future cash flows over the Initial Term and Renewal Period and may be adjusted for any market conditions that apply to companies of similar characteristics with respect to market space, company maturity, cash flow profile and general market conditions.

2. Multiples Valuation Methodology

The multiples valuations will be based upon the stated revenue and pre-tax earnings for the PROVIDER insurance segment servicing the Genworth Group under the MOAs in the most recent year. Multiples will be applied from comparable transactions to the calculated EBITDA and EBIT amounts, and to the stated revenue.

Final Valuation

In case of disagreement, the final valuation shall be developed by the appraisers appointed in accordance with Section 6.0(e) of Exhibit H, taking into account the factors outlined above.

Schedule H-2

Book Value Calculation

General method for calculating book value shall be aggregation of transferable assets and transferable liabilities. An illustrative asset category list is included below for the purposes of describing the form analysis to be completed as of the valuation date.

| Un-audited Initial Asset Value | Total |
|--|---------------|
| $ K | |
| Account Head | |
| Assets | |
| Cash & Bank Balance | |
| Receivables | 236 |
| Accrued Revenues | 2,529 |
| Loans to Employees | 241 |
| Travel Advances | 265 |
| Security Deposit / Adv. Rent | 504 |
| Project Advances | — |
| Fixed Assets (Net) | 6,973 |
| Inter Company Deposits/Loans | — |
| Investment in Countrywide by Mauritius | — |
| Inter Co Balances(cost sharing) | — |
| Other Assets | 706 |
| Total Assets | 11,455 |

Assets

At the time the Carve-Out Option is exercised under circumstances requiring payment of the book value of the Carve-Out Resources (a “book value carve out”), the parties will analyze each asset and evaluate its transferability to the Genworth Group in accordance with Exhibit H (i.e. those that are indentifiable and severable). Only such Carve-Out Resources as are actually transferred shall be included in the calculation of Book Value.

Liabilities

The above calculation assumes that no liabilities (other than Carve-Out Resources) are transferred to Genworth in a book value carve out situation. At the time of a book value carve out, Genworth and PROVIDER will evaluate the transferability of liabilities pertaining directly to the Genworth Group and may agree that such liabilities will be transferred to the Genworth Group All such transferred liabilities will be deducted from the asset values to arrive at book value to be paid to PROVIDER.

EXHIBIT I

Intellectual Property

ARTICLE I Ownership

Section 1.01. Ownership of Pre-Closing IP and Solely Developed IP.

As between CUSTOMER and PROVIDER (i) all Technology and Intellectual Property owned or licensed by CUSTOMER or its Affiliates or PROVIDER or its Affiliates prior to the Execution Date shall continue to be so owned or licensed after the Execution Date, (ii) all Technology and Intellectual Property acquired, developed or licensed solely by or on behalf of CUSTOMER or its Affiliates or solely by or on behalf of PROVIDER or its Affiliates after the Execution Date and used in connection with the Services provided under the Agreement and PSAs shall continue to be owned or licensed by the applicable acquiror, developer or licensee.

Section 1.02. Ownership of Post-Closing IP Jointly-Developed - Default Rule and Modification of Default Rule.

After the Execution Date, as between CUSTOMER and PROVIDER, all Technology and Intellectual Property developed jointly by or on behalf of PROVIDER and CUSTOMER pursuant to, or in connection with, the Agreement and PSAs shall be owned by PROVIDER. PROVIDER and CUSTOMER may agree in any PSA executed after the Execution Date that certain Technology or Intellectual Property that would otherwise be owned by PROVIDER shall be owned, as between the parties, by CUSTOMER. This Agreement and the PSAs shall not assign any rights to Technology or Intellectual Property between the parties other than as specifically set forth herein or in a PSA.

Section 1.03. Residual Knowledge.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any PSA, PROVIDER and CUSTOMER may further develop their generalized knowledge, skills and experience, and the mere subsequent use by the parties of such knowledge, skills and experience shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement, subject to their obligations respecting CUSTOMER's Confidential Information or PROVIDER Confidential Information, as the case may be, pursuant to the Agreement.

ARTICLE II License Grant

Section 2.01. Grant from PROVIDER to CUSTOMER and its Affiliates.

(a) PROVIDER hereby grants, and will cause its Affiliates to grant, to CUSTOMER and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid up, worldwide, perpetual right and license, with no right to sublicense except as provided herein, under the PROVIDER Licensed Technology: (i) to allow employees, directors and officers of CUSTOMER and its Affiliates to use and practice the PROVIDER Licensed Technology for internal purposes, (ii) to make, have made, use, sell, have sold, import, and otherwise commercialize Licensed Products and Services and (iii) to create Improvements in accordance with Section 2.03 of this Exhibit I.

(b) Subject to paragraph (e), below, CUSTOMER and its Affiliates may grant sublicenses of the right and license granted under this Section 2.01 of this Exhibit I to an acquiror of any of the businesses, operations or assets of CUSTOMER or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, which acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of CUSTOMER and its Affiliates under this Exhibit I relating to such right and license (a copy of which agreement is provided to PROVIDER). CUSTOMER and its Affiliates may assign the right and license granted under this Section 2.01 of this Exhibit I in accordance with Section 5.01 of this Exhibit I.

(c) Subject to Section 11.0 (Confidentiality) of the Agreement, CUSTOMER and its Affiliates may permit their suppliers, contractors and consultants to exercise the right and license granted to CUSTOMER and its Affiliates under this Section 2.01 of this Exhibit I on behalf of and at the direction of CUSTOMER and its Affiliates (and not solely for the benefit of such suppliers, contractors and consultants).

(d) Subject to Section 11.0 (Confidentiality), CUSTOMER and its Affiliates may permit employees, directors and officers of their customers and suppliers in the ordinary course of CUSTOMER's business (and not Persons who are customers or suppliers merely to access and use the PROVIDER Licensed Technology) to use training and productivity-enhancing Software and documentation that is subject to the right and license granted under this Section 2.01 of this Exhibit I and is for general use by customers and suppliers, provided that CUSTOMER's or its Affiliates' purpose in permitting such use is to benefit the business of CUSTOMER or its Affiliates, provided further that such customers and suppliers may not use any such Software and documentation in advertising, publicity or marketing activities without PROVIDER'S prior written approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any PSA to the contrary, CUSTOMER and its Affiliates shall not sublicense, assign or otherwise provide to any third party (including any acquiring entity, contractor, consultant, customer or supplier of CUSTOMER or its Affiliates) any of the Technology or Intellectual Property set forth on Schedule I-1, without the prior written consent of General Electric Company, which will not be unreasonably withheld. For the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be unreasonable to withhold such consent if any such acquiring entity, contractor, consultant, customer or supplier is a competitor of PROVIDER or its Affiliates. The parties may mutually agree in a PSA executed after the Execution Date to amend Schedule I-1 to include additional Technology or Intellectual Property.

Section 2.02. Grant from CUSTOMER to PROVIDER and its Affiliates .

(a) (i) CUSTOMER hereby grants, and will cause its Affiliates to grant, to PROVIDER and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable subject to paragraph (e) below, fully paid up, worldwide right and license, with no right to sublicense except as provided herein, under the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology: (A) to allow employees, directors and officers of PROVIDER and its Affiliates to use and practice the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology for internal purposes, (B) to make, have made, use, sell, have sold, import, and otherwise commercialize Licensed Products and Services and (C) to create Improvements in accordance with Section 2.03 of this Exhibit I.

(ii) In addition to the foregoing right and license, CUSTOMER hereby grants, and shall cause its Affiliates to grant, to PROVIDER a non-exclusive, royalty-free, fully paid up, worldwide right and license, irrevocable during the term of this Agreement and with no right to sublicense, to use all CUSTOMER Licensed Technology, trademarks, service marks, trade dress, logos and other identifiers of source owned by CUSTOMER or its Affiliates and provided to PROVIDER for the sole purpose of providing Services to CUSTOMER and its Affiliates under the Agreement and PSAs. PROVIDER shall comply with all reasonable quality control standards and guidelines provided by CUSTOMER to PROVIDER in writing that are intended to protect the goodwill associated with such trademarks, service marks, trade dress, logos and other identifiers of source. PROVIDER may permit its suppliers, contractors and consultants to exercise such right and license on behalf of and at the direction of PROVIDER (and not for the benefit of such suppliers, contractors and consultants), subject to the prior written consent of CUSTOMER (which shall not be required in the case of temporary employees of PROVIDER and which, otherwise, shall not be unreasonably withheld) and the receipt of any necessary regulatory approval.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 10.0 (Assignment and Subcontracting) of the Agreement, PROVIDER and its Affiliates may grant sublicenses of the right and license granted under this Section 2.02 of this Exhibit I to an acquiror of any of the businesses, operations or assets of PROVIDER or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, which acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of PROVIDER and its Affiliates under this Exhibit I relating to such right and license (a copy of which agreement is provided to CUSTOMER). PROVIDER and its Affiliates may assign the right and license granted under this Section 2.02 of this Exhibit I in accordance with Section 5.01 of this Exhibit I.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 11.0 (“Confidentiality”) and Section 10 (“Assignment and Subcontracting”) of the Agreement, PROVIDER and its Affiliates may permit their suppliers, contractors and consultants to exercise the right and license granted to PROVIDER and its Affiliates under this Section 2.02 of this Exhibit I on behalf of and at the direction of PROVIDER and its Affiliates (and not solely for the benefit of such suppliers, contractors and consultants).

(d) Subject to the provisions of Section 11.0 (“Confidentiality”) of the Agreement, PROVIDER and its Affiliates may permit employees, directors and officers of their customers and suppliers in the ordinary course of PROVIDER’ business (and not Persons who are customers or suppliers merely to access and use the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology) to use training and productivity-enhancing Software and documentation that is subject to the right and license granted under this Section 2.02 of this Exhibit I and is for general use by customers and suppliers, provided that PROVIDER' or its Affiliates' purpose in permitting such use is to benefit the business of PROVIDER or its Affiliates, provided further that such customers and suppliers may not use any such Software and documentation in advertising, publicity or marketing activities without CUSTOMER's prior written approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) PROVIDER, its Affiliates and their respective sub-licensees shall have no license to any CUSTOMER Licensed Technology following the expiration or termination of the Agreement or all PSAs to which such CUSTOMER Licensed Technology relates (including any termination in connection with the exercise by CUSTOMER of the Carve-Out Option), unless otherwise specifically agreed in the Agreement or any PSA. For the avoidance of doubt, the licenses under this Section 2.02 of this Exhibit I shall continue during the provision of any Services Transfer Assistance.

Section 2.03. Improvements. Improvements and all Intellectual Property rights therein made solely by or on behalf of the Licensee shall be owned by the Licensee. Improvements jointly developed by Licensee and Licensor shall be owned by PROVIDER. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) Licensee shall not own any Intellectual Property rights or Technology licensed to Licensee hereunder and (ii) each party may freely assign or license Improvements owned by it but shall not have the right to assign any Intellectual Property or Technology of the other party and shall only have the right to sublicense Intellectual Property or Technology of the other party as expressly set forth herein. No rights are granted to the other party to any Improvements owned by each party, unless such Improvements are otherwise subject to the provisions of Sections 2.01 or 2.02 of this Exhibit I.

Section 2.04. Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. All rights and licenses granted under this Exhibit I are, and shall otherwise be deemed to be, for purposes of Section 365(n) of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), licenses of rights to "intellectual property" as defined under Section 101(35A) of the Bankruptcy Code. The parties shall retain and may fully exercise all of their respective rights and elections under the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 2.05. Customers. Each party agrees that it will use reasonable efforts to not knowingly bring any legal action or proceeding against, or otherwise communicate with, any customer of the other party with respect to any alleged infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property of such party licensed hereunder based on such customer's use of the other party's products or services without first providing the other party written notice of such alleged infringement, misappropriation or violation.

Section 2.06. Reservation of Rights. All rights not expressly granted by a party hereunder are reserved by such party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the parties expressly acknowledge that nothing contained herein shall be construed or interpreted as a grant, by implication or otherwise, of any licenses other than the licenses expressly set forth in this Article II. The licenses granted in Sections 2.01 and 2.02 of this Exhibit I are subject to, and limited by, any and all licenses, rights, limitations and restrictions with respect to, as applicable, the PROVIDER Licensed Technology and the CUSTOMER Licensed Technology previously granted to or otherwise obtained by any third party that are in effect as of the Execution Date.

Section 2.07. Delivery of Software.

(a) Either party may request one (1) copy of Software or other electronic or written documentation (“Electronic Materials”) that (i) is subject to the license granted to such requesting party under this Article II and (ii) has not already been provided to the requesting party since the Execution Date. The delivering party shall make available or deliver to the requesting party a copy of any such Software or Electronic Materials that are in existence at the time of such request.

(b) All Software and Electronic Materials required to be made available to or delivered to a Licensee pursuant to Section 2.07(a) of this Exhibit I will be delivered by the Licensor to the Licensee electronically, or with the assistance of the Licensor, downloaded by the Licensee from the Internet, provided that the Licensee complies with all reasonable security measures implemented by the Licensor.

Section 2.08. Liability for Acts of Permitted Users and Sublicensees.

Each Licensee shall be liable to the Licensor for the acts and omissions of the Licensee’s sublicensees and other persons permitted to use any Intellectual Property or Technology of the Licensor in accordance with this Article II as though such persons were licensees thereunder.

ARTICLE III
Covenants

Section 3.01. Ownership. No party shall represent that it has any ownership interest in any Intellectual Property or Technology of the other party licensed hereunder.

Section 3.02. Prosecution and Maintenance. Each party retains the sole right to protect at its sole discretion the Intellectual Property and Technology owned by such party, including, without limitation, deciding whether to file and prosecute applications to register patents, copyrights and mask work rights included in such Intellectual Property, whether to abandon prosecution of such applications, and whether to discontinue payment of any maintenance or renewal fees with respect to any patents included in such Intellectual Property.

Section 3.03. Third Party Infringements, Misappropriations, Violations.

(a) Subject to any confidentiality restrictions that would prevent such disclosure, each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing of any actual or possible infringements, misappropriations or other violations of the Technology or Intellectual Property of the other party being licensed hereunder by a third party that come to such party’s attention, as well as the identity of such third party or alleged third party and any evidence of such infringement, misappropriation or other violation within such party's custody or control. The other party shall have the sole right to determine at its sole discretion whether any action shall be taken in response to such infringements, misappropriations or other violations.

(b) Subject to any confidentiality restrictions that would prevent such disclosure, each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing upon learning of the existence or possible existence of rights held by any third party that may be infringed, misappropriated or otherwise violated by the use or practice of the Technology or Intellectual Property of the other party (or any element or portion thereof) licensed hereunder, as well as the identity of such third party and any evidence relating to such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation within such party's custody or control. Such party shall cooperate fully with the other party to avoid infringing, misappropriating or violating any third party intellectual property rights, and shall discontinue all use and practice of such Technology or Intellectual Property that is the subject of such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation upon the reasonable request of the other party.

(c) Subject to any confidentiality restrictions that would prevent such disclosure, each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing upon learning of the existence or possible existence of rights held by any third party that may be infringed, misappropriated or otherwise violated by the use or practice of the Technology or Intellectual Property (or any element or portion thereof) licensed to the other party hereunder, as well as the identity of such third party. The other party shall cooperate fully with such party to avoid infringing, misappropriating or violating any third party intellectual property rights, and shall discontinue all use and practice of such Technology or Intellectual Property that is the subject of such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation upon the reasonable request of such party, and shall provide such party any evidence relating to such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation within the other party's custody or control.

Section 3.04 . Patent Marking . Each party acknowledges and agrees that it will comply with all reasonable requests of the other party relative to patent markings required to comply with or obtain the benefit of statutory notice or other provisions.

ARTICLE IV No Termination

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the Agreement, but subject to Section 2.02(e) of this Exhibit I, the terms and conditions of this Exhibit I may only be terminated upon the mutual written agreement of the parties. In the event of a breach of the terms or conditions of this Exhibit I, the sole and exclusive remedy of the non-breaching party shall be to recover monetary damages and/or to obtain injunctive or equitable relief as otherwise provided in the Agreement.

ARTICLE V
General Provisions

Section 5.01. Assignment .

(a) The rights and duties under this Exhibit I shall not be assignable or delegable, in whole or in part, by any party hereto to any third party, including, without limitation, Affiliates of any party, without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and any necessary regulatory approval, and any attempted assignment or delegation without such consent shall be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights and duties under this Exhibit I may be assigned by any party as follows without obtaining the prior written consent of the other party hereto:

(i) PROVIDER, in its sole discretion, may assign any or all of its rights under this Exhibit I, and may delegate any or all of its duties under this Exhibit I to any Affiliate of PROVIDER at any time, which expressly accepts such assignment in writing and assumes, as applicable, any such obligations, provided that PROVIDER shall continue to remain liable for the performance by such assignee;

(ii) CUSTOMER, in its sole discretion, may assign any or all of its rights under this Exhibit I, and may delegate any or all of its duties under this Exhibit I to any Affiliate of CUSTOMER at any time, which expressly accepts such assignment in writing and assumes, as applicable, any such obligations, provided that CUSTOMER shall continue to remain liable for the performance by such assignee; and

(iii) Subject to Section 2.01(e) of this Exhibit I, each party may assign any or all of its rights, or delegate any or all of its duties, under this Exhibit I to (i) an acquiror of all or substantially all of the equity or assets of the business of such party to which this Agreement relates or (ii) the surviving entity in any merger, consolidation, equity exchange or reorganization involving such party, provided that such acquiror or surviving entity, as the case may be, executes an agreement to be bound by all the obligations of such party under this Exhibit I (a copy of which agreement is provided to the other party).

(b) If a party requests the written consent of the other party to any assignment of this Agreement, the other party agrees to negotiate in good faith with such party regarding such consent. The terms and conditions of this Exhibit I shall also be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns of each party hereto. All license rights and covenants contained herein shall run with all Intellectual Property of any party licensed hereunder and shall be binding on any successors in interest or assigns thereof.

Section 5.02. Warranty and Disclaimer . EXHIBIT J

Business Associate Addendum

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to PROVIDER under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (“PHI”) (defined below), CUSTOMER and PROVIDER mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to PROVIDER to the extent that PROVIDER is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to PROVIDER. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from CUSTOMER or any other member of the Genworth Group only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 C.F.R. Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, health benefit plans of the Genworth Group. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from the Genworth Group only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from members of the Genworth Group for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the applicable members of the Genworth Group.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from the Genworth Group: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from the Genworth Group for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The disclosure is required by law; or

(2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and

b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify the members of the Genworth Group for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on behalf of the Genworth Group pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from the Genworth Group, or from another business associate of the Genworth Group, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from members of the Genworth Group for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from the Genworth Group or from another business associate of the Genworth Group, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to the Genworth Group's activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for the Genworth Group, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of the Genworth Group, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to the Genworth Group's activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from the Genworth Group. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for the Genworth Group, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Genworth Group, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Genworth Group that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given by the applicable member of the Genworth Group's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from the Genworth Group, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

IV Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon the request of a member of the Genworth Group make available to such member, or, such members, or, at the direction of the applicable member of the Genworth Group, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from the Genworth Group and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that the Genworth Group may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon the request of a member of the Genworth Group, Business Associate will promptly amend or permit such member access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from such member of the Genworth Group, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that the members of the Genworth Group may meet their amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that the members of the Genworth Group may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to the Genworth Group of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from the Genworth Group, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including the Genworth Group) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to the Genworth Group promptly upon the Genworth Group's request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or the applicable member of the Genworth Group in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of treatment activities of the Genworth Group's payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for the Genworth Group the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding their request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions.

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to the members of the Genworth Group for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by the applicable member of the Genworth Group promptly after Business Associate learns of such non-permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as the applicable member of the Genworth Group may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by any member of the Genworth Group to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon request by any member of the Genworth Group, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon such request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of the Genworth Group, for purposes of their review of such internal practices, books, and records.

EXHIBIT K

Change Control Procedure

PURPOSE : Establish an efficient and effective means to control updates, modifications and other changes to the Agreement, including, without limitation, the scope of the Services, Dedicated FTEs, Performance Standards, Charges, Exhibits, Schedules and PSAs.

PROCESS : Consistent with the Agreement, the following process shall be followed to originate, process and maintain control over Change Order Requests and Change Orders under the Agreement.

A. Either PROVIDER or CUSTOMER may identify and submit for consideration a proposed change to the Agreement.

B. All requests for changes shall be submitted in writing to the Account Executives designated by PROVIDER and CUSTOMER. The following areas should be clearly addressed in each Change Order Request:

1. Origination;
2. Clear statement of requested change;
3. Rationale for change;
4. Impact of requested change in terms of operations, cost, schedule and compliance with the matters referred to in Section 19.0 of this Agreement;
5. Effect of change if accepted;
6. Effect of rejection of change;
7. Recommended level of priority;
8. Date final action is required; and
9. Areas for signature by the approval authorities of each party.

C. The Account Executives shall review all Change Order Requests, determine whether to recommend the Change Order Request be accepted or rejected by the parties and forward the Change Order Request, their individual recommendations and the basis for their recommendations to PROVIDER and CUSTOMER for a final decision.

D. The Account Executives will be responsible for the final approval of all Change Order Requests.

E. The Account Executives will be responsible for the implementation of all Change Orders approved pursuant to Change Order Requests, including the coordination of the preparation and execution by the parties of addendums to the Agreement and/or its associated Exhibits to incorporate each requested and agreed change into the Agreement, as applicable.

F. No Change Order or change shall be effective or binding upon the parties to the Agreement until an addendum to the Agreement and/or its associated Exhibits, as applicable, incorporating such change into the Agreement and/or its associated Exhibits has been executed by PROVIDER and CUSTOMER.

G. Requests for changes shall use the format provided below:

means, in respect of every contract of insurance or reinsurance under which the whole or any part of the insurance or reinsurance risk in respect of that contract is written by FACL and which is in force at the Transfer Date or under which any liability in respect of the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk written by FACL (whether current or future, certain or contingent) remains unsatisfied or outstanding at the Transfer Date, the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk under that contract of insurance or reinsurance which is assumed by FACL, together with all liabilities for which FACL is responsible under or by virtue of such contract, and includes (without limitation):

- (a) the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk which FACL would have assumed, together with all liabilities for which FACL would have been liable as a result, under all proposals for insurance or reinsurance received or issued by or on behalf of FACL before the Transfer Date and which have not at the Transfer Date been accepted but which FINCL, on FACL’s behalf, subsequently accepts and which, but for the provisions of the Scheme, FACL would have been able to accept or, as applicable, that FACL would have been bound by the provisions thereof;
- (b) all obligations of FACL in respect of any third party rights to reinstatement of any contract of insurance or reinsurance under which the whole or, as the case may be, the relevant part of the insurance or reinsurance risk in respect of that contract is written by FACL; and

(c) all liability of FACL for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of such contract of insurance or reinsurance, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual act, error or omission by FACL or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of such contracts, including (a) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under such contract, or (b) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of such contract, each such contract, proposal, right (including all amendments and other modifications thereto) and liability being an “ Insurance ”;

“ IPRU (INS) ” means the Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers issued by the FSA;

“ liabilities ”

means all liabilities, obligations and duties whatsoever (whether present or future, actual or contingent), including, without limitation, any cost, expenses, liability, damage or loss of any kind;

“ Mathematical Reserves ” has the meaning given to that phrase in IPRU (INS);

“ Minimum Guarantee Fund ” has the meaning given to that phrase in rule 2.9 of IPRU (INS);

“ Order ” means the order of the Court sanctioning the Scheme pursuant to Section 111(1) of the Act and any order of the Court making provision under Section 112 of the Act;

“ property ” means (without limitation) property assets, rights and powers of every description (whether present or future, actual or contingent) and includes property held on trust and any interest in any of the foregoing and, for the avoidance of doubt, real and heritable property, moveable and personal property and any interest proprietor, landlord, tenant, mortgagee, chargee or heritable creditor;

“ Reinsurance Contracts ”

means all of FACL’s rights, obligations and liabilities under all reinsurance contracts or treaties subsisting at the Transfer Date entered into by FACL pursuant to which FACL reinsures any of its risk or liabilities to another party, to the extent such rights, obligations and liabilities relate to the reinsurance of FACL’s risk or liabilities arising under or in respect of the Transferring Business, and includes, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Viking Reinsurance;

“ Residual Assets ”

means:

- (a) any property of FACL in respect of which an impediment exists such that the Court cannot, or declines to, sanction the transfer of that property by way of the Order;
- (b) any other interest of FACL in any property which FACL and FINCL determine prior to the Transfer Date is more conveniently to be transferred pursuant to this Scheme at a date other than the Transfer Date;
- (c) any rights, proceeds of sale, income or other accrual or return, whether or not in any case in the form of cash, from time to time after the Transfer Date received by FACL in respect of, or earned on, any such property as is referred to in (a), (b) or (d) of this definition; and
- (d) any sum which FACL’s Actuary may determine be transferred to FINCL by way of a reduction in the FACL Capital Amount after the Transfer Date;

“ Residual Liability ” means any liability whatsoever (whether present or future, actual or contingent) of FACL (other than under a Retained Insurance):

- (a) which is attributable to, or connected with, a Residual Asset and arises at any time before the Subsequent Transfer Date applicable to that Residual Asset; or
- (b) which is not, or is not capable of being, transferred by this Scheme or by the Order;

“ Retained Insurances ”

means any Insurance in respect of which:

- (a) (i) the establishment of FACL which has written that Insurance is in an EEA State other than the United Kingdom; and
- (ii) the FSA has not prior to the making of the Order provided the certificate referred to in paragraph 3 of Part 1 of Schedule 12 to the Act; or
- (b) (i) an EEA State other than the United Kingdom is the State of the commitment; and
- (ii) the FSA has not prior to the making of the Order provided the certificate referred to in paragraph 4 of Part 1 of Schedule 12 to the Act; or
- (c) the transfer of such Insurance would contravene the legal or regulatory requirements to which FACL is subject in any state which is not an EEA State, and for these purposes “ State of the commitment ” shall have the meaning given in paragraph 6(1) of Part 1 of Schedule 12 of the Act;

“ Scheme ”

means this Scheme, including any schedules to it, in its original form or with, or subject to, any modification, addition or condition which may be approved pursuant to paragraph 21 or imposed by the Court;

“ Subsequent Transfer Date ”

means, in relation to any Residual Asset or Residual Liability, the date (after the Transfer Date) on which that Residual Asset or Residual Liability is or is to be transferred to FINCL, namely:

- (a) in respect of any Residual Asset falling within paragraph (a) of the definition thereof and of any Residual Liability which is attributable to, or connected with, that Residual Asset, the date on which the relevant impediment to the transfer of such Residual Asset or Residual Liability no longer exists;

- (b) in respect of any Residual Asset falling within (b) of the definition thereof and of any Residual Liability which is attributable to, or connected with, that Residual Asset, the Subsequent Transfer Date shall be the date on which FACL and FINCL mutually agree that the interest is to be transferred;
- (c) in the case of any Residual Asset falling within paragraph (c) of the definition thereof, the date on which such Residual Asset is received or earned by FACL, provided that where such Residual Asset is subject to an impediment on transfer which falls within paragraph (a) of the definition of Residual Asset, the Subsequent Transfer Date shall then be the date on which the relevant impediment no longer exists;
- (d) in the case of any Residual Asset falling within paragraph (d) of the definition thereof, the Subsequent Transfer Date shall be the date on which the determination is made by FACL's Actuary to release the relevant sum from the FACL Capital Amount; and
- (e) in the case of a Residual Liability falling within paragraph (a) of the definition thereof, provided that it can be so transferred on that date, the Subsequent Transfer Date for the relevant Residual Asset or, if it cannot be transferred on that date, as promptly as practicable thereafter;

“ Taxes Act ” means the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988;

“ Transfer Date ”

means the date and time as determined in accordance with paragraph 20.1 ;

“ Transferring Assets ”

means all of the property of FACL as at the Transfer Date (other than the Residual Assets, the FACL Capital Amount and the rights of FACL under the Retained Insurances), including, without limitation:

- (a) the rights of FACL under or by virtue of the Transferring Insurances;
- (b) all rights of FACL to all client lists in relation to the Transferring Business;

- (c) all rights of FACL under the Reinsurance Contracts and the Transferring Contracts;
- (d) all rights that FACL has in any investments entered into in connection with the Bond Portfolio or to which any of the products comprising the Bond Portfolio are linked in any way; and
- (e) all rights and claims (present or future, actual or contingent) against any third party in relation to the Transferring Business or arising as a result of FACL having carried on the Transferring Business, and, for the avoidance of doubt, any rights of FACL which comprise such property shall include any rights of FACL which relate to, and arose during, any period prior to the Transfer Date;

“ Transferring Business ”

means the whole of the business of FACL carried on as at the Transfer Date (including effecting or carrying out the Transferring Insurances, all activities carried on in connection with or for the purposes of FACL’s business, and any proposals for insurance not yet accepted) save to the extent that such business relates to the Retained Insurances or to the carrying on of insurance business in any jurisdiction to the extent that, if carried on prior to the Transfer Date, it would have resulted in the issue of further Retained Insurances;

“ Transferring Contracts ”

means all rights, obligations and liabilities of FACL under all contracts entered into by FACL to the extent that such rights, obligations and liabilities arise in connection with or in relation to the carrying on of the Transferring Business other than any rights, obligations and liabilities under the Reinsurance Contracts;

“ Transferring Insurances

” means, in respect of every contract of insurance or reinsurance under which the whole or any part of the insurance or reinsurance risk in respect of that contract is written or assumed by FACL and which is in force at the Transfer Date or under which any liability in respect of the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk written or assumed by FACL (whether current or future, certain or contingent) remains unsatisfied or outstanding at the Transfer Date, the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk under that contract of insurance which is assumed by FACL, together with all liabilities whatsoever (whether present or future, certain or contingent) for which FACL is responsible as at the Transfer Date under or by virtue of such contract, and includes (without limitation):

- (a) the whole or, as the case may be, such part of the insurance or reinsurance risk which FACL would have assumed, together with all liabilities for which FACL would have been liable as a result, under all proposals for insurance or reinsurance received or issued by or on behalf of FACL before the Transfer Date which have not at the Transfer Date been accepted but which FINCL, on FACL’s behalf, subsequently accepts and which, but for the provisions of the Scheme, FACL would have been able to accept or, as applicable, FACL would have been bound by the provisions thereof;
- (b) all obligations of FACL in respect of any third party rights to reinstatement of any contract of insurance or reinsurance under which the whole or, as the case may be, the relevant part of the insurance or reinsurance risk in respect of that contract is written by FACL; and

- (c) all liability of FACL for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of such contract of insurance or reinsurance, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual act, error or omission by FACL or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of such contracts, including (a) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under such contract, or (b) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of such contract, each such contract, proposal, right (including all amendments and other modifications thereto) and liability being a “ Transferring Insurance ”.

For the avoidance of doubt, the expression “Transferring Insurances” shall exclude all of the Retained Insurances;

“ Transferring Liabilities ”

means all liabilities whatsoever (whether present or future, actual or contingent) of FACL (other than to the extent discharged prior to the Transfer Date) arising in connection with or in relation to the carrying on of the Transferring Business including (for the avoidance of doubt) all obligations and liabilities of FACL under the Transferring Contracts and the Reinsurance Contracts and any liabilities or obligations of FACL which remain outstanding at the Transfer Date or may thereafter arise and relate to, or arose during, any period prior to the Transfer Date, but excluding the Residual Liabilities and liabilities under, or relating to, the Retained Insurances; and means the reinsurance agreement effective as of 1st January, 2004 entered into between FACL and Viking Insurance Company, Limited., of Craig Appin House, 8 Wesley Street, Hamilton, Bermuda.

1.2 In this Scheme, any reference, express or implied, to an enactment includes references to:

- (A) that enactment as re-enacted, amended, extended or applied by or under any other enactment (before or after the Transfer Date);
- (B) any enactment which that enactment re-enacts (with or without modification); and

(C) any subordinate legislation made (before or after the court order issued in respect of this Scheme) under that enactment, as re-enacted, amended, extended or applied as described in paragraph (A) above, or under any enactment referred to in paragraph (B) above, except for any such amendment, extension, application or re-enactment made after the date on which the application is made to Court by FACL and FINCL for an Order in respect of this Scheme, if and to the extent that it would (but for this provision) create or increase any liability of any party hereto, and “enactment” includes any legislation (whether primary or subordinate) in any jurisdiction.

- 1.3 Where any obligation is expressed to be undertaken or assumed by any person, that obligation shall be interpreted as including a requirement on that person to exercise all rights and powers of control over the affairs of any other person which that person is properly able to exercise (whether directly or indirectly) in order to secure performance of those obligations.
- 1.4 Words denoting persons shall include any body corporate, unincorporated association of persons, government, state or agency of a state (whether or not having separate legal personality).
- 1.5 The words “include”, “includes” and “including” shall be construed, as if they were followed by words “without limitation”.
- 1.6 In this Scheme, a reference to:
- (A) an agreement or document is to the same as amended from time to time;
 - (B) a paragraph is to a paragraph of this Scheme;
 - (C) a party to this Scheme includes references to the successors or assignors (immediate or otherwise) of that party;
 - (D) “this Scheme” includes the schedules to this scheme;
 - (E) the singular includes the plural and vice versa; and
 - (F) any one gender includes the other.
- 1.7 Except as the context otherwise requires, words and expressions used in the Act or in any regulations or rules made under it shall have the same meanings in this Scheme.
- 1.8 Headings in this Scheme are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect its construction.
- 1.9 Paragraphs 1.2 to 1.8 above apply unless the context otherwise requires.

2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 Each of FACL and FINCL is (or, in respect of FINCL, will be by the Transfer Date) an insurance company authorised for the purposes of the Act with permission to (amongst other things) effect or carry out contracts of insurance comprising long term insurance business of the same classes as the Transferring Insurances.
- 2.2 It is proposed that the Transferring Insurances shall be transferred to FINCL on the Transfer Date by Order of the Court in accordance with Part VII of the Act and be dealt with in accordance with this Scheme.
- 2.3 FACL and FINCL shall execute all such documents and to do all such acts and things as may be necessary or expedient to be executed or done by it for the purposes of giving effect to this Scheme.

3. TRANSFER OF TRANSFERRING INSURANCES

- 3.1 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, each Transferring Insurance and all the interest of FACL in it shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL and dealt with in accordance with this Scheme.
- 3.2 The Retained Insurances shall be reinsured, administered and dealt with in accordance with this Scheme.
- 3.3 FINCL shall accept without investigation such title as FACL shall have at the Transfer Date to each Transferring Insurance.
- 3.4 Without prejudice to any other provision in this Scheme, FACL and FINCL shall each take all such steps and do all such things (including the execution and delivery of any document) as may be required to effect or perfect the transfer to and vesting in FINCL of each Transferring Insurance in accordance with the terms of this Scheme.

4. TRANSFER OF TRANSFERRING BUSINESS

- 4.1 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, the Transferring Business and all of the interest of FACL in it shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL and dealt with in accordance with this Scheme.
- 4.2 On and with effect from the Transfer Date, FACL shall cease effecting contracts of insurance or reinsurance in any jurisdiction (including any jurisdiction in which it shall have effected any Retained Insurances) and on and with effect from such date FINCL will be entitled to commence doing so in succession to FACL, subject to its having received the requisite regulatory licences and consents for it to be able to do so in such jurisdiction. To the extent that FACL incurs any cost or liability as a result of such discontinuation, such cost or liability shall be borne or promptly reimbursed by FINCL.

5. TRANSFER OF TRANSFERRING ASSETS , TRANSFERRING CONTRACTS, REINSURANCE CONTRACTS AND RESIDUAL ASSETS

- 5.1 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, the Transferring Assets shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL subject to all Encumbrances (if any) affecting those assets.
- 5.2 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, the Transferring Contracts and the Reinsurance Contracts shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL subject to all Encumbrances (if any) affecting them.
- 5.3 Subject to paragraph 16.1, on and with effect from each Subsequent Transfer Date, each Residual Asset to which such Subsequent Transfer Date applies shall (subject to the terms of this Scheme), by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL subject to all Encumbrances (if any) affecting that asset.
- 5.4 FINCL shall accept without investigation such title as FACL shall have:
- (A) to the Transferring Assets at the Transfer Date; and
 - (B) to the Residual Assets then transferred on each relevant Subsequent Transfer Date.
- 5.5 FACL and FINCL shall promptly execute such documents and perform such other acts as may be required to effect or perfect the transfer to and vesting in FINCL of all Transferring Assets, Transferring Contracts, Reinsurance Contracts and Residual Assets in accordance with this Scheme.

6. TRANSFER OF TRANSFERRING LIABILITIES AND RESIDUAL LIABILITIES

- 6.1 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, the Transferring Liabilities shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to, and become the liabilities of, FINCL, and FACL shall then be released from those liabilities.
- 6.2 On and with effect from each Subsequent Transfer Date, each Residual Liability to which such Subsequent Transfer Date applies shall (subject to the terms of this Scheme), by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to, and become a liability of, FINCL, and FACL shall then be released from that liability.
- 6.3 FACL and FINCL shall promptly execute such documents and perform such acts as may be required promptly to effect the transfer to and assumption by FINCL of all Transferring Liabilities, Residual Liabilities and Retained Insurances, once such Transferring Liabilities, Residual Liabilities and Retained Insurances become capable of being transferred.

7. AVAILABILITY OF ASSETS

Any allocation of property or attribution of liabilities, and any re-allocation or re-attribution of the same, which is made under the terms of this Scheme is for the purpose of establishing or recognising respective policyholder and shareholder entitlements from time to time and shall not be taken to limit the availability of all the property from time to time of FINCL to meet the liabilities which it is obliged by law to meet.

8. ALLOCATION OF TRANSFERRING INSURANCES

On and with effect from the Transfer Date, all of the Transferring Insurances shall be allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund.

9. ALLOCATION OF TRANSFERRING ASSETS , CIGL SHAREHOLDING AND GOODWILL

9.1 Subject to paragraph 9.3, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, all of the Transferring Assets allocated to the FACL Long-Term Insurance Fund immediately prior to the Transfer Date shall be allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund.

9.2 Subject to paragraph 9.3, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, all of the Transferring Assets allocated to the FACL Shareholder Fund (including the Goodwill) immediately prior to the Transfer Date shall be allocated to the FINCL Shareholder Fund.

9.3 On and with effect from the Transfer Date, and notwithstanding paragraph 9.1, the CIGL Shareholding shall be allocated to the FINCL Shareholder Fund.

9.4 Where any Transferring Assets are linked to any Transferring Insurances immediately prior to the Transfer Date, those Transferring Assets shall continue to be so linked immediately after the Transfer Date.

9.5 On and with effect from the relevant Subsequent Transfer Date, all of the Residual Assets to which that Subsequent Transfer Date relates shall be allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund if they were allocated to the FACL Long-Term Insurance Fund immediately prior to such date and shall be allocated to the FINCL Shareholder Fund if they were allocated to the FACL Shareholder Fund immediately prior to that date.

10. ALLOCATION OF TRANSFERRING LIABILITIES

10.1 Subject to paragraph 10.3, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, all of the Transferring Liabilities shall be allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund.

10.2 Subject to paragraph 10.3, on and with effect from the relevant Subsequent Transfer Date, all of the Residual Liabilities to which that Subsequent Transfer Date relates shall be allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund.

10.3 Any Transferring Liabilities or Residual Liabilities which are, immediately prior to the Transfer Date or the relevant Subsequent Transfer Date (as the case may be), allocated to the FACL Shareholder Fund shall be allocated to the FINCL Shareholder Fund on and with effect from that Transfer Date or Subsequent Transfer Date.

11. TRANSFERRING INSURANCES , TRANSFERRING CONTRACTS AND REINSURANCE CONTRACTS

11.1 On and with effect from the Transfer Date, FINCL shall:

- (A) assume, succeed and become entitled to all the rights, discretions, authorities, benefits and powers of FACL whatsoever subsisting on the Transfer Date under or by virtue of each Transferring Insurance;
- (B) assume, succeed and become subject to all liabilities and obligations of FACL whatsoever subsisting on the Transfer Date under or by virtue of each Transferring Insurance, in each case as if FINCL had originally issued each such Transferring Insurance directly; and
- (C) be entitled to any and all defences, claims, counterclaims and rights of set-off under or in respect of each Transferring Insurance which would have been available to FACL.

11.2 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, every person who is a holder of a Transferring Insurance shall, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, continue to be entitled, to the exclusion of any rights which he may have had against FACL under the Transferring Insurance concerned, to the same rights against FINCL as were available to him against FACL under that Transferring Insurance and (as regards any Transferring Insurance under which premiums or other sums attributable or referable thereto continue to be payable by him) FINCL shall, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, be entitled to any such premiums or other sums and any further or additional premiums or other sums attributable or referable thereto as and when the same became due and payable.

11.3 If any person entitled to do so with respect to a Transferring Insurance exercises any option granted under the terms of that Transferring Insurance and the option provides for a new, additional or replacement policy to be issued or amendments to be made to an existing Transferring Insurance, the obligation thereby arising shall be satisfied by the issue by FINCL of a policy that complies with the terms of such option but if FINCL is not at the time of the exercise of such option writing policies complying exactly with the policy to which the option refers, FINCL shall be entitled to offer in lieu thereof a policy offered by FINCL at such time that FINCL considers to be the nearest equivalent policy.

11.4 The transfer of any rights, benefits, liabilities and obligations under or in connection with any Reinsurance Contract, Transferring Contract, Transferring Insurance, Transferring Asset or Transferring Liability pursuant to this Scheme shall take effect and shall be valid and binding on all parties having any interest in the same notwithstanding any restriction on assigning or otherwise dealing with the same and such transfer shall be deemed to take effect on the basis that it does not contravene any such restriction and does not give rise to any right of termination or other right which might otherwise arise in respect of such transfer.

12. RETAINED INSURANCES

- 12.1 The Retained Insurances shall not be transferred to FINCL and shall remain liabilities of FACL but shall at all times after the Transfer Date be reinsured in their entirety into FINCL in accordance with this paragraph 12.
- 12.2 On and with effect from the Transfer Date, all the liabilities of FACL arising under or otherwise attributable to the Retained Insurances and all other amounts paid or payable by FACL in respect of or as a result of the Retained Insurances, including (without limitation) insolvency fund and similar assessments, commission payments and amounts paid or payable in relation to the surrender or termination of any Retained Insurance, shall be reinsured in their entirety into FINCL for no further consideration and in accordance with the terms of this paragraph 12. FINCL shall pay when due all such liabilities and other amounts on behalf of FACL.
- 12.3 The premiums payable under the reinsurance arrangements described in this paragraph 12 shall be:
- (A) an initial premium comprising assets with an Admissible Value equal to the Mathematical Reserves attributable to the Retained Insurances as at the Transfer Date, which premium shall pass from FACL to FINCL under the terms of this Scheme; and
 - (B) all premium payments and all other amounts received by FACL (if any) in respect of Retained Insurances at any time after the Transfer Date, which amounts shall be paid by FACL to FINCL as soon as practicable after they are received by FACL.
- 12.4 The liability of FINCL in respect of the reinsurance arrangements described in this paragraph 12 shall be calculated so as to ensure that benefits are provided to policyholders holding Retained Insurances which are no less favourable than the benefits that would have been provided to those policyholders if those Retained Insurances had been Transferring Insurances.
- 12.5 On and with effect from the Transfer Date, FINCL shall be responsible for all aspects of the management and the administration of the Retained Insurances. FINCL shall procure that the Retained Insurances are administered in compliance with the applicable law or regulations, in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence of a person experienced in administering payment protection insurance business. FINCL shall not settle any dispute or litigation involving any Retained Insurance without the prior consent of FACL, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. For these purposes, FINCL shall be entitled to represent itself as managing and administering the Retained Insurances as agent for FACL, and shall be entitled to represent itself in that capacity directly to the holders of Retained Insurances following the Transfer Date.

- 12.6 If FINCL, with the consent of FACL, procures the novation of any Retained Insurance to FINCL, the assets and liabilities relating to that Retained Insurance shall, to the extent not previously transferred, be transferred to FINCL and such Retained Insurance shall thereafter be dealt with by FINCL under the provisions of the Scheme in all respects as if that Retained Insurance were a Transferring Insurance, and the reinsurance arrangements set out in this paragraph 12 shall, on and with effect from that transfer, cease to apply to that Retained Insurance (provided however that FINCL shall continue to indemnify FACL against any liability of FACL arising under or otherwise attributable to such Retained Insurances).
- 12.7 FACL shall retain an amount equal to the FACL Capital Amount for such time as there are any Retained Insurances. Any amount by which the FACL Capital Amount is reduced from time to time shall be promptly transferred to FINCL and allocated to the FINCL Long-Term Insurance Fund or the FINCL Shareholder Fund (as the case may be) in accordance with the principles set out in paragraphs 9.1 and 9.2 as if the reference to “Transfer Date” in those paragraphs was a reference to the date on which such amount is to be transferred under this paragraph 12.7.
- 12.8 FINCL shall procure that accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Retained Insurances continue to be kept in accordance with the arrangements in force immediately prior to the Transfer Date with such changes as may be required from time to time by applicable law. FACL or its designated representative (or any person or entity appointed or charged with the duty to examine or investigate FACL under the applicable law or regulations) may upon reasonable notice inspect and copy (and take away such copies), at the offices where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents reasonably relating to the Retained Insurances and the administration thereof during normal business hours for such period as FACL reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. FINCL shall procure that relevant personnel are made available for interview and meetings with any person or entity appointed or charged with the duty to examine or investigate FACL under the applicable law or regulations and furnish any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by FACL from time to time.
- 12.9 FACL may upon written notice to FINCL terminate the reinsurance contemplated under this paragraph 12 and recapture the Retained Insurances from FINCL (together with all related assets and liabilities) in the event of (i) the commencement of insolvency or similar proceedings with respect to FINCL or (ii) material breach by FINCL of its obligations under this paragraph 12, where such breach has not been remedied within 45 days after written notice of such breach has been received by FINCL.

13. VIKING REINSURANCE

For the avoidance of doubt, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, all of the rights and obligations of FACL under the Viking Reinsurance shall, by the Order and without any further act or instrument, be transferred to and vested in FINCL and FINCL shall be able to exercise any of its rights under the terms of the Viking Reinsurance.

14. CONTINUITY OF PROCEEDINGS

On and with effect from the Transfer Date, any judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings in any country which are pending by or against FACL by virtue of the Transferring Insurances, Transferring Contracts or Reinsurance Contracts or any of them shall be continued in lieu thereof by or against FINCL and FINCL shall be entitled to all defences, claims, counterclaims and rights of set-off that would have been available to FACL in relation to such proceedings. FINCL shall succeed to and assume any liability under such proceedings to which FACL would have been exposed.

15. MANDATES AND OTHER INSTRUCTIONS

Any mandate or other instruction in force on the Transfer Date (including, without limitation, any instruction given to a bank by its customer in the form of a direct debit or standing order) and providing for the payment by a banker or other intermediary of premiums payable under or in respect of any Transferring Insurance to FACL shall, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, take effect as if it had provided for and authorised such payment to FINCL.

16. DECLARATION OF TRUST BY FACL

16.1 If:

- (A) any property of FACL attributable to the Transferring Business is not, or is not capable of being, immediately transferred to, and vested in, FINCL on the Transfer Date by the Order by reason of:
 - (i) that property being a Residual Asset;
 - (ii) that property being outside the jurisdiction of the Court; or
 - (iii) for any other reason; or
- (B) any Residual Asset is not, or is not capable of being, transferred to, and vested in, FINCL by the Order on the Subsequent Transfer Date applicable thereto; or
- (C) the transfer of any property of FACL attributable to any of the Transferring Business outside the jurisdiction of the Court is not recognised by the laws of the jurisdiction in which that property is situated; or
- (D) in any circumstances FINCL and FACL shall mutually decide before the Transfer Date (or, in the case of any Residual Asset, before the Subsequent Transfer Date applicable thereto) that it is not expedient to effect a transfer of any property of FACL to FINCL pursuant to this Scheme,

FACL shall, from the Transfer Date or from the relevant Subsequent Transfer Date, as the case may be, hold that property as trustee for FINCL absolutely and shall be subject to FINCL's directions in respect thereof until the relevant property is transferred to, or otherwise vested in, FINCL or is disposed of (whereupon FACL shall account to FINCL for the net proceeds of the disposal thereof received by FACL) and FINCL shall have irrevocable authority to act as the attorney of FACL in respect of such property for all such purposes.

- 16.2 In the event of any payment being made to, property being received by or right being conferred upon FACL after the Transfer Date in respect of the Transferring Business or any of the Transferring Assets, or after the relevant Subsequent Transfer Date in respect of any of the Residual Assets, FACL shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after its receipt, pay the full amount of that payment or (to the extent that it is able to do so) transfer such property or right to, or in accordance with the directions of, FINCL. FINCL shall indemnify FACL on demand against any costs or liability incurred by FACL in making any such payment or transfer.

17. INDEMNITIES IN FAVOUR OF FACL

- 17.1 On and from the Transfer Date, FINCL shall discharge on behalf of FACL, or failing that shall indemnify FACL against, all Transferring Liabilities and Residual Liabilities and all liabilities and obligations arising under or relating to the Transferred Business or any Transferring Contracts, Transferring Insurances, Reinsurance Contracts, Retained Insurances, Residual Assets or Transferred Assets. FINCL shall also bear and indemnify FACL against all costs and expenses of performing any obligation hereunder.

- 17.2 If FACL becomes aware of any matter which might give rise to FACL's right of indemnity in paragraph 17.1, FACL and FINCL agree that the following provisions shall apply:

- (A) FACL shall promptly give written notice to FINCL of the matter (stating in reasonable detail the nature of the matter and, so far as practicable, the amount claimed) and shall consult with FINCL with respect to the matter;
- (B) Subject to paragraph 17.2(C), FACL will not make any admission as to liability in relation to, or agree to any settlement of or compromise in respect of the matter giving rise to FACL's right of indemnity in paragraph 17.1 without the prior written consent of FINCL which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed;
- (C) FINCL shall be entitled to conduct negotiations and litigation or settle all litigation arising from any matter that gives rise to FACL's right of indemnity in paragraph 17.1 and, in such case, FACL will, at the request and expense of FINCL, give FINCL reasonable assistance in connection with those negotiations and litigation. FACL shall provide FINCL and its professional advisers reasonable access to its premises and personnel and to any relevant assets, documents and records within its possession or control for the purposes of investigating the matter and enabling FINCL to take such action as is referred to in this paragraph 17. FINCL shall not settle any matter calling for an admission of wrongdoing or similar imposition on FACL without the prior consent of FACL, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and

- (D) FINCL shall be entitled to take copies of any of the documents or records and photograph any premises or assets, referred to in paragraph 17.2(C) above.

17.3 Where FACL is entitled to receive an amount pursuant to the indemnity contained in paragraph 17.1 it shall be entitled to receive such amount as, after payment of any liability to taxation in respect of the amount receivable, will result in the receipt of an amount equal to the liability indemnified against.

18. CONSTRUCTION OF TRANSFERRING INSURANCES

18.1 All references in any Transferring Insurance to FACL (in its capacity as issuer of such Transferring Insurance), its directors, its board of directors, FACL's Actuary or any of its other officers or employees shall be read as references to FINCL, its directors, its board of directors, FINCL's Actuary or other officers or employees of FINCL (as the case may be) from and after the Transfer Date.

18.2 All rights and/or duties exercisable or expressed to be exercisable or responsibilities to be performed by FACL, its directors or board of directors, FACL's Actuary or any other officers or employees of FACL in relation to any of the Transferring Insurances shall be exercisable or required to be performed by, respectively, FINCL, its directors, its board of directors, FINCL's Actuary or other officers or employees of FINCL (as the case may be) from and after the Transfer Date.

18.3 All references in any Transferring Insurance to FACL shall be read and construed, from and after the Transfer Date, as references to FINCL. All references in any Transferring Insurance to the group of companies of which FACL is or has been a member shall be read and construed, from and after the Transfer Date, as references to the group of companies of which FINCL is from time to time a member. All references in any Transferring Insurance to associated companies of FACL shall be read and construed from and after the Transfer Date as references to associated companies of FINCL.

18.4 Where the benefits of any Transferring Insurance are held under the terms of a trust, such terms shall operate and be construed on and from the relevant Transfer Date on a basis which is consistent with the transfer of such Transferring Insurance in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme. For the avoidance of doubt:

- (A) where the consent of FACL is required under any such terms, the consent of FINCL shall, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, instead be treated as required; and
- (B) where a power to appoint trustees under such terms is conferred on FACL, that power shall, on and with effect from the Transfer Date, instead be treated as conferred on FINCL.

19. ADMINISTRATION

On and with effect from the Transfer Date, FINCL shall, as principal, take over from FACL the administration and negotiation of proposals for insurance which would not have been Transferring Insurances had FACL determined to accept them (but whether or not FINCL does so determine) and FINCL shall bear all expenses and liabilities in relation thereto but nothing contained herein shall oblige FINCL to accept any proposal for insurance received by or on behalf of FACL before the Transfer Date but not accepted by FACL by that date.

20. TRANSFER DATE

20.1 Subject to paragraphs 20.2, 20.3 and 20.4 below, the Scheme shall become effective in relation to the Transferring Business and each Transferring Insurance, Transferring Asset and Transferring Liability at the time and on the date which the respective boards of FACL and FINCL shall have agreed in advance with the Independent Expert and appointed in writing for the Scheme to become effective. Such date shall be as soon as is reasonably practicable following the making of the Order and, in any event, no later than [31 December] 2004.

20.2 The Scheme shall not become effective unless:

- (A) the Order shall have been made;
- (B) the tax confirmations or clearances listed in Schedule 1 to this Scheme have been received in each case in the form and in the substance satisfactory to FACL and FINCL, both parties acting reasonably in deciding whether or not the form and substance of such tax confirmation or clearance is satisfactory;
- (C) FINCL is authorised by the FSA for the purposes of the Act with permission to (amongst other things) effect or carry out contracts of insurance comprising long term insurance business of the same classes as the Transferring Insurances;
- (D) the conditions set out in paragraph 19 of Schedule 3 of the Act are satisfied in respect of each of the branches listed in Schedule 2 to this Scheme which FINCL seeks to establish in any EEA State (other than the United Kingdom) once FINCL is authorised by the FSA for the purposes of the Act, provided that this paragraph (D) shall not apply in respect of any proposed branch of FINCL for which FINCL withdraws its notice of intention given to the FSA under paragraph 19(2) of Schedule 3 of the Act; and
- (E) the FSA has directed (in response to the relevant application from FINCL) that all relevant rules for which FACL had been granted a waiver or a modification under section 148 of the Act that was in force immediately prior to the Transfer Date shall be waived or modified in respect of FINCL in the same way as for FACL.

- 20.3 In circumstances where any tax confirmation or clearance is received in a form and/or substance not satisfactory to either FACL or FINCL or is not received at all, then FACL and FINCL may jointly agree that such tax confirmation or clearance be deemed to have been received in a form and in substance satisfactory for the purposes of paragraph 20.2(B) above.
- 20.4 Unless the Scheme shall have become effective on or before 23.59 GMT on 31 December 2004 or such later date and/or time, if any, as FACL and FINCL may approve and the Court may allow, this Scheme shall lapse.

21. MODIFICATION

FINCL and FACL may at any time agree on behalf of themselves and all other persons concerned to any modification of or addition to this Scheme or to any further condition or provision affecting the same that the Court may approve or impose.

22. COSTS AND EXPENSES

To the extent not already borne or discharged by FACL, FINCL shall bear all professional fees, costs of advertising and any required mailing and any other expenses incurred in the preparation and carrying into effect of this Scheme and those fees, costs and expenses shall be attributed to the FINCL Shareholder Fund (but so that this provision shall be without prejudice to any obligation of any person to reimburse such costs).

23. GOVERNING LAW

This Scheme shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

Schedule 1

TAX CONFIRMATIONS

FACL and FINCL will seek tax clearances and confirmations in respect of the transfer of FACL's business to FINCL that:

1. the transfers effected pursuant to the Scheme, including those of any residual assets, will not by virtue of sections 139 and 211 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 and to the extent provided by those sections give rise to chargeable gains;
 2. unrelieved management expenses (including acquisition expenses unrelieved by virtue of section 86(6) of the Finance Act 1989) and Schedule Case VI losses carried or spread forward in FACL at the Transfer Date may be carried or spread forward and set against the appropriate taxable income of FINCL under Section 444A of the Taxes Act;
 3. relevant unused losses in FACL at the Transfer Date are treated as BLAGAB allowable losses accruing to FINCL in the accounting period of FINCL in which the Transfer takes place, under Section 211ZA of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992;
 4. the UK taxation consequences of the exercise after the Transfer Date of any option to vary a policy or contract or to effect an additional or substituted policy on favourable terms conferred by policies or contracts issued or granted by FACL will not by virtue of the Scheme be different from the UK taxation consequences which would have ensued from such an exercise before the Transfer Date;
 5. the Scheme will not constitute a breach of a qualifying policy or a variation in any of the terms of any qualifying policy for the purposes of Chapter II of Part XIII of the Taxes Act;
 6. the transactions contemplated under the Scheme are such that no notice under section 703(3) of the Taxes Act ought to be given in respect of any of them or that the Inland Revenue are of the view that section 703 does not apply to such transactions; and
 7. the transfer of the Goodwill does not result in any change in categorisation within section 440 of the Taxes Act.

BUSINESS TRANSFER AGREEMENT

BETWEEN:

VIE PLUS S.A., a French société anonyme with a capital of 11,500,000 Euros, with its registered office at Tour Franklin, Terrasse Boieldieu, Puteaux (92800), registered under no. 334 502 788 with the Nanterre Registry of Commerce and Companies, represented by [], duly authorized for the purposes of this agreement, (hereinafter referred to as the “Seller”),

ON THE ONE HAND,

AND

FINANCIAL NEW LIFE COMPANY LIMITED, incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 4873014 having its registered office at Vantage West, Great West Road, Brentford, Middlesex TW8 9AG, acting through its French Branch, registered in the Commercial and Companies Register of [] under number [], having its registered office at [], duly represented for the purposes hereof by [], (hereinafter referred to as the “Buyer”),

ON THE OTHER HAND,

(hereinafter referred to individually as a “Party” and together as the “Parties”).

WHEREAS :

The Seller is a subsidiary of GE Capital S.A.S. . The Buyer is a subsidiary of Genworth Financial, Inc.

The Seller is engaged in the business of insurance, including specifically the business of payment protection insurance.

The Buyer is engaged in the business of insurance.

Pursuant to the terms of the Master Agreement of [] among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc. GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc. (the “Master Agreement”), the portion of the Seller’s business consisting of its payment protection insurance activity, including all assets and liabilities related to such activity, is to be transferred to an entity controlled by Genworth Financial, Inc.

Consequently, within the scope of this business transfer agreement (hereinafter the “Agreement”), the Seller wishes to sell to the Buyer, and the Buyer has accepted to acquire from the Seller, according to the terms and conditions defined herein, the payment protection insurance business of the Seller described below, including certain tangible and intangible assets related to such activity (the “Business”).

That portion of the Business consisting of the insurance contracts and underlying reserves more specifically identified in Schedule 1 is being transferred by the Seller to the Buyer, within the framework of this Agreement, by means of a portfolio transfer regulated by article L 324-1 of the Insurance Code as approved by the Minister of Finance and the Economy on [] and published in the Journal Officiel on [] (the “Portfolio Transfer”).

THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS :

ARTICLE 1

Contract Purpose

By this Agreement, and pursuant to the provisions of French law applicable to business transfers, the Seller sells, assigns and transfers to the Buyer who purchases, takes and acquires, the Business assets described in Article II herein.

ARTICLE 2

Business Description

2.1 Tangible and Intangible Assets

The Business includes, in particular, the following:

- (a) The rights attached to the Business clientele.
- (b) All insurance contracts and associated assets and liabilities included in the Portfolio Transfer.
- (c) The tangible assets listed in Schedule 2
- (d) All rights and obligations pursuant to commercial contracts relating to the Business (the “Commercial Contracts”) shown in Schedule 3 to this Agreement.

(e) Any technical, commercial or financial documentation relative to the Business.

(f) Accounts receivable generated after [].

2.2 Exclusions

The following assets related to the Business are specifically excluded from the transfer of the Business hereunder:

2.3 Employment Agreements

Pursuant to the provisions of article L. 122-12 para. 2 and Article L. 122-12-1 of the French Labor Code, current employment agreements for the salaried employees shown in the list in Schedule 4 to this Agreement (the “Employees”) shall be transferred to the Buyer to be effective as from the Closing as defined in Clause 3.4 below.

ARTICLE 3

Sale Price and Payment

3.1 Determining the Price

At the Closing, the Buyer shall pay the amount of € [•] (the “Sale Price”). The Sale Price is broken down in the following manner:

[] - Assets transferred as part of the Portfolio Transfer, other than Clientele

[] - Clientele (transferred as part of the Portfolio Transfer)

[] - Tangible assets

[] - Intangible assets not included as part of the Portfolio Transfer.

3.2 Declaration of Truthfulness

The Parties declare, under pain of the penalties decreed in Article 1837 of the French General Tax Code, that the Sale Price constitutes the entire price agreed and payable at the Closing. Each Party hereto acknowledges having been informed of the penalties to which it is subject in the event of a shortfall or concealment in the price.

3.3 Payment

The entire Sale Price is paid by the Buyer to the Seller on the date hereof.

3.4 Closing

The date of closing of the transfer of the Business (“Closing”) is, for all purposes hereof, the signature date of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4

Representations and Warranties

4.1 Mandatory representations of the Seller pursuant to Article L.141-1 of the Commercial Code

(a) Property Origin The Seller represents and warrants that it is the owner of the Business, which was created by the Seller.

(b) Turnover The Seller represents that its total turnover (before taxes) for the past three years amounted to:

Jan. 1, 2001 to Dec. 31, 2001: []

Jan. 1, 2002 to Dec. 31, 2002: []

Jan. 1, 2002 to Dec. 31, 2003: [].

The total turnover (before taxes) for the period from January 1, 2004 to [], 2004 is estimated at € [].

The Seller declares that the total turnover indicated above includes not only turnover corresponding to the Business but also includes its other activities. As a consequence, the turnover (before taxes) for the Business set forth below is only an estimate. The Buyer acknowledges that the figures set forth below are an estimate, acknowledges the receipt of this information from the Seller, and waives any claim in this regard.

Estimate of the turnover (before taxes) for the Business for the last three years:

Jan. 1, 2001 to Dec. 31, 2001: []

Jan. 1, 2002 to Dec. 31, 2002: []

Jan. 1, 2003 to Dec. 31, 2003: [].

The turnover (before taxes) for the Business for the period from January 1, 2004 to [], 2004 is estimated at € [].

(c) Earnings The Seller represents that its net earnings for the three previous years amount to:

Jan. 1, 2001 to Dec. 31, 2001: []

Jan. 1, 2002 to Dec. 31, 2002: []

Jan. 1, 2003 to Dec. 31, 2003: [].

Net earnings for the period January 1, 2004 to [], 2004 are estimated at € [].

The Seller declares that the earnings set forth above include not only the Business but also include its other activities. As a consequence, the net earnings relating to the Business and set forth below are only a rough estimate. The Buyer acknowledges that the figures set forth below are only an estimate, acknowledges the receipt of this information from the Seller, and waives any claim in this regard.

Estimates for net earnings for the Business for the three previous years:

Jan. 1, 2001 to Dec. 31, 2001: []

Jan. 1, 2002 to Dec. 31, 2002: []

Jan. 1, 2003 to Dec. 31, 2003: [].

Net earnings for the Business for the period January 1, 2004 to [], 2004 are estimated at € []..

(d) Lease The Business does not include a tenant's right to a lease.

4.2 No Representations and Warranties

Other than the obligatory representations contained in Article 4.1, the Seller makes no representations or warranties whatsoever concerning the Business or any assets being transferred pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5

Buyer Undertakings

5.1 Acquiring the Business "As Is"

The Buyer shall acquire the Business in the state in which it finds the Business on the date of this Agreement

5.2 Taxes

Without prejudice to any applicable provisions of the Master Agreement, the Buyer is obliged to pay, or to reimburse the Seller, as from the Closing, the taxes and contributions including, prorata temporis, the professional tax for the year underway, all taxes, fees and other charges of any nature, to which the operation of the Business may and could give rise, even where such taxes or charges are invoiced to the Seller; to pay any city or police fees relative to the operation of the Business, and all in a manner so that the Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever in this regard.

5.3 Perfection of the Sale

The Seller will, whenever reasonably requested to do so by the Buyer, cooperate with the Buyer in order to obtain all necessary consents and carry out any additional steps, notifications or procedures with any authority or third party, including any other entity of the Seller's group, that would be necessary in order to perfect the sale of the Business and the transfer of all of its elements.

5.4 Indemnity in respect of Liabilities

The Buyer will fully indemnify the Seller and all shareholders, directors, officers, agents or employees of the Seller (hereinafter, the "Indemnified Persons") and hold them harmless, on first demand of the Seller, in respect of any and all liability, whether contractual or extra-contractual, which any of such Indemnified Persons bear or may incur at any time in respect of, or arising out of, the Business (including, but not limited to, the contracts and other assets and liabilities included in the Portfolio Transfer), whether or not the act, omission, event or circumstance giving rise to such liability occurred prior to or after Closing and this indemnity obligation of the Buyer is accepted by both parties as being an integral part of this Agreement and as being an essential condition of the Seller's obligations and undertakings hereunder.

ARTICLE 6

Value-Added Tax

The Sale Price is exclusive of any value added taxes.

ARTICLE II

AUTHORITY

Section 2.1. Appointment. The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the administrative services with respect to the Insurance Contracts that the Administrator is providing to the Company as of the Effective Date, including those set forth in this Agreement (the “Administrative Services”), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. In providing the Administrative Services, the Administrator (or the Subcontractor) shall handle all matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and reinsurance premiums, the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all claims arising under the Insurance Contracts, as more fully described below, and any other required business support services provided to the Company as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary relating to the Insurance Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

Section 2.2. Denial of Claims and Litigation. (a) The Administrator agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Company of its intention to deny a claim or terminate benefits with respect to any Insurance Contract in the form and manner specified in writing by the Company (which writing by the Company shall be in accordance with Section 16.2), along with copies of all reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Administrator shall thereafter not deny such claim or terminate such benefits without the approval of the Company, provided that the Administrator may deny such claim or terminate such benefits without the approval of the Company if the Company fails to respond or fails to respond within a reasonable time period such as to allow the Administrator to act as required by any Applicable Law.

(b) The Administrator agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Company of any litigation arising with respect to an Insurance Contract of which it becomes aware, along with copies of all pleadings with respect thereto. The Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Administrator in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such litigation and may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Company. If the Company assumes such defense, the Administrator shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the defense thereof.

Section 2.3. Service Managers. The Administrator and the Company will each designate a services account manager (respectively, the “Administrator Services Manager” and the “Company Services Manager” and collectively, the “Services Managers”) who will be directly responsible for coordinating and managing the Administrative Services and other obligations of the parties hereunder. The Administrator Services Manager will have authority to act on the Administrator’s behalf with respect to the Administrative Services and the Administrator’s obligations hereunder. The Company Services Manager shall have the authority to act on the Company’s behalf with respect to the Administrative Services and the Company’s obligations hereunder. The Services Managers shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner and timing for providing such information. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16.2, any requests for consent, consent or approval or other notice may be made in writing as between the Services Managers if the Service Managers agree in advance that the provisions of Section 16.2 do not apply to such request, consent or approval or other notice. Either party, from time to time, may designate a replacement Service Manager for the existing Service Manager, giving notice in accordance with Section 16.2.

ARTICLE III

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

Section 3.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide the Administrative Services in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in providing such services. The Administrator shall provide the Administrative Services (i) in accordance with the terms of the Insurance Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Administrator's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Company than the Administrator's standards in effect on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such Administrative Services with respect to the Insurance Contracts.

Section 3.2. Facilities and Personnel. The Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

Section 3.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any Administrative Service or Services to (i) any properly licensed affiliated or unaffiliated third party administrator or (ii) any properly licensed Affiliate insurance company or (iii) any other Person (in connection with activities not requiring a license) with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.3, the Administrator may continue to use any subcontractor utilized by the Administrator in connection with the Insurance Contracts on the Effective Date; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such Administrative Service or Services as if provided by the Administrator.

Section 3.4. Consultation and Direction. From time to time, as is commercially reasonable, the Administrator may seek direction from the Company, including the Company Service Manager, in connection with the Administrative Services. The Company, including the Company Services Manager, may provide such direction, at the Company's sole discretion.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrative Services with respect to claims and claims for benefits including claims outstanding on the Effective Date, shall include the following:

Section 4.1. Claim Administration Services. The Administrator shall acknowledge, consider, review, investigate, deny, settle, pay or otherwise dispose of each claim and claim for benefits reported under each Insurance Contract (each, a “Claim” and collectively the “Claims”).

Section 4.2. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Effective Date, the Company shall establish a separate fiduciary bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Claims and shall authorize two signatories who shall be employed by the Administrator and approved by the Company in writing to issue checks in the name of the Company. The Company shall fund such account for payment of Claims in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.2(b). The Claims Settlement Account shall be the property of the Company and any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Company. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Administrator in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Administrator to make payments of Claims in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Company shall fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Administrator from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Administrator for the payment of Claims during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Company shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times.

(c) The Administrator shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator’s insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Claims from the Claim Settlement Account. The Administrator will make available to the Company or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Company or its designated representative, upon request of the Company or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator’s cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall render a complete accounting to the Company detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards , and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.2.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article XIV, the Company shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Company. The Administrator's claims payment authority under this Agreement shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article XIV. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

BILLINGS AND COLLECTIONS

Section 5.1. Billing and Collection Services. (a) The Administrator shall assume all responsibility for billing and collecting premiums and reinsurance premiums and other amounts payable with respect to the Insurance Contracts. The risk of loss, theft or destruction of premiums and such other amounts with respect to the Insurance Contracts shall be borne solely by the Company. The Administrator shall hold any premiums, deposits or other amounts collected with respect to the Insurance Contracts in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of the Company.

(b) The Administrator shall promptly, but in no event later than three (3) Business Days after receipt, deposit such premiums, reinsurance premiums, or other amounts in the Claims Settlement Account. The Administrator may not commingle, and shall not permit any commingling of, any funds deposited in the Claims Settlement Account with any other funds.

ARTICLE VI

UNDERWRITING

Section 6.1. Underwriting Services. Subject to Section 6.2, the Administrator shall perform all necessary underwriting with respect to the renewal of the Insurance Contracts, if any.

Section 6.2. Underwriting Guidelines. All insurance underwriting services provided by the Administrator pursuant to this Agreement with respect to the Insurance Contracts shall be in accordance with any written underwriting guidelines and criteria provided to the Administrator by the Company.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

Section 7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Insurance Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Insurance Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner and timing for providing such information.

ARTICLE VIII

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

Section 8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Insurance Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or useful to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Insurance Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Insurance Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Insurance Contracts.

Section 8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Insurance Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premium written and earned and all Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses reserved, paid, and outstanding. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.

- (ii) The Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Insurance Contracts.
- (iii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Insurance Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iv) The Administrator shall timely provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Insurance Contracts.

Section 8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE IX

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall maintain accurate and complete books, records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Insurance Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with (i) Applicable Law, and (ii) its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The books and records must be maintained for the term of this Agreement or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The Administrator shall maintain the confidentiality of such books and records, including compliance with Article XI. All such books and records pertaining to an Insurance Contract shall be the property of the Company and shall be made available to the Company, its auditors or other designees, and regulatory agencies, during normal business hours and at any other time on reasonable notice, for review, audit, inspection, examination and reproduction.

The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Insurance Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XI

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Insurance Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them, in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Insurance Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties hereto agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached as Schedule B hereto .

ARTICLE XII

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Administrator in the providing the Administrative Services with respect to the Insurance Contracts, the Company shall pay to the Administrator with respect to each calendar month ending after the Effective Date, an expense allowance (the "Expense Allowance"). The Expense Allowance shall be: (i) the actual incurred cost of providing the Administrative Services based on the allocated portion of compensation and benefits of the associates providing such services calculated annually in advance (and pro rated) in accordance with Schedule C (the "Service Costs"); (ii) a proportionate share of overhead related to such Administrative Services (the "Overhead Expenses"); and (iii) all third party expenses incurred in connection with the provision of such Administrative Services, including without limitation all categories of services contracted with third parties as of the Effective Date, such as legal and claim investigation, but excluding services for which Service Costs and Overhead Expenses are charged (the "Direct Expenses"). Such Expense Allowance shall be determined as set forth in Schedule C. The procedures for the billing and payment of the Expense Allowance are set forth in Schedule C. Additionally, the Administrator shall be reimbursed for any unforeseen costs arising from a change in Applicable Law, with the parties mutually agreeing to the payment of such costs in advance of their being incurred by the Administrator. The Administrator shall also be reimbursed for any incurred Direct Expenses for any category of services not contracted with third parties as of the Effective Date but contracted for thereafter, provided that the Company consents to the Administrator entering into third party contracts for such category of services.

ARTICLE XIII

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 13.1. Indemnification. (a) For any indemnification under this Article XIII, a party with the obligation to indemnify shall have the right to cure any underlying cause of Damage and/or to mitigate such Damage. As used in this Article XIII, "Damage" and/or "Damages" shall mean losses, liabilities, costs, claims, causes of action, demands, settlements, damages including compensatory, extra contractual and punitive damages, fines, penalties and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses).

(b) The Administrator agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives and affiliates (and the directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives of such affiliates) from any and all Damages arising out of or caused by any actual or alleged: (i) fraud, theft or embezzlement by directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors, successors or assigns of the Administrator during the term of this Agreement; (ii) failure, either intentional or unintentional, of the Administrator to properly perform the services or take the actions required by this Agreement, including the failure to properly process, evaluate and pay claims or to comply with disbursement requests in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; (iii) acts of gross negligence or willful misconduct committed by directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors, successors or assigns of the Administrator during the term of this Agreement; or

(iv) failure of the Administrator to comply with Applicable Laws, rules and regulations during the term of this Agreement.

(c) The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Administrator and any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives and affiliates (and the directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives of such affiliates) from any and all Damages arising out of or caused by any actual or alleged: (i) fraud, theft or embezzlement by directors, officers, employees, agents, successors or assigns of the Company during the term of this Agreement; (ii) acts of negligence or willful misconduct committed by directors, officers, employees, agents, successors or assigns of the Company during the term of this Agreement; or (iii) failure of the Company to comply with Applicable Laws, rules and regulations during the term of this Agreement other than any failure on the part of the Company caused by the action or inaction of the Administrator, including when acting in the name or on behalf of the Company, whether or not in compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 13.2. Indemnification Procedures. (a) In order for a party (the "Indemnified Party") to be entitled to any indemnification provided for under this Agreement in respect of, arising out of or involving a claim or demand made by, or an action, proceeding or investigation instituted by, any Person not a party to this Agreement (a "Third Party Claim"), such Indemnified Party must notify the other party (the "Indemnifying Party") in writing, and in reasonable detail, of the Third Party Claim within ten (10) Business Days after such Indemnified Party learns of the Third Party Claim; provided, however, that failure to give such notification shall not affect the indemnification provided hereunder except to the extent the Indemnifying Party shall have been actually prejudiced as a result of such failure (except that the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any expenses incurred during the period in which the Indemnified Party failed to give such notice). Thereafter, the Indemnified Party shall deliver to the Indemnifying Party, within five (5) Business Days after the Indemnified Party's receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the Indemnified Party relating to the Third Party Claim.

(b) If a Third Party Claim is made against an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to participate in the defense thereof and, if it so chooses, to assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party assumes such defense, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in the defense thereof and to employ counsel, at its own expense, separate from the counsel employed by the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party chooses to defend or prosecute any Third Party Claim, all of the parties hereto shall cooperate in the defense or prosecution thereof. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon the Indemnifying Party's request) the provision to the Indemnifying Party of records and information which are reasonably relevant to such Third Party Claim, and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. Whether or not the Indemnifying Party shall have assumed the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have no liability with respect to any compromise or settlement of such claims effected without its written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld); the Indemnifying Party shall not admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim without the Indemnified Party's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (A) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person and no effect on any other claims that may be made against the Indemnified Party, or (B) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Indemnifying Party and a full and complete release is provided to the Indemnified Party.

(c) The provisions of this Article XIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement. The indemnity provided in Sections 13.1(b) and 13.1(c) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Indemnified Party against the Indemnifying Party at law or equity for any matter covered by such Sections.

(d) The amount of any Damages or other liability for which indemnification is provided under this Agreement shall be (i) increased to take account of any Tax cost incurred (grossed up for such increase) by the Indemnified Party arising from the receipt of indemnity payments hereunder and (ii) reduced to take account of any Tax benefit realized by the Indemnified Party arising from the incurrence or payment of any such damages or other liability. Such Tax cost or Tax benefit, as the case may be, shall be computed for any year using the maximum current U.S. federal corporate income tax rate as provided in Section 11 of the Code or a successor section of the Code.

Section 13.3. Procedures for Direct Claims. In the event any Indemnified Party shall have a claim for indemnity against any Indemnifying Party that does not involve a Third Party Claim (a "Direct Claim"), the Indemnified Party shall promptly deliver notice of such claim to the Indemnifying Party. Such notice referred to in the preceding sentence shall state the relevant facts and include therewith relevant documents and a statement in reasonable detail as to the basis for the indemnification sought. The failure by any Indemnified Party so to notify the Indemnifying Party in a timely manner shall not be deemed a waiver of the Indemnified Party's right to indemnification with respect to any claim made pursuant to this Section 13.3, other than to the extent that such failure actually prejudices the Indemnifying Party.

Section 13.4. Limited Liability. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article XIII, the Administrator and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and their respective directors, officers or employees (or any of the heirs, executors, successors or assigns of any of the foregoing) (each, a "Service Provider") shall have no liability to the Company or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates in excess of $900,000 in the aggregate annually (as measured from the Effective Date or the most recent anniversary of the Effective Date, whichever is later), for any and all claims in contract, tort or otherwise for or in connection with any breach of its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that such limitation on liability shall not extend to or otherwise limit any liabilities that result directly from such Service Provider's gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided further that the Company shall be entitled to indemnification only to the extent that the aggregate amount of such claims annually (as measured from the Effective Date or the most recent anniversary of the Effective Date, whichever is later) exceeds $25,000 (other than to the extent that such claims arise from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Administrator); provided further if the Company, including the Service Manager, provides direction to the Administrator pursuant to Section 3.4, the Company shall not be entitled to indemnification (and the Administrator shall have no liability) to the extent the Damage arises from the Administrator following such direction.

ARTICLE XIV

DURATION; TERMINATION

Section 14.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for two (2) years (the “Term”), unless terminated earlier pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement shall automatically renew for one year terms (each a “Renewal Term”). The Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at the end of the Term or a Renewal Term, upon providing the Administrator with written notice of such termination not less than ninety (90) days prior to the end of the Term or the applicable Renewal Term. The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with the expiration of this Agreement and an assumption of the administration of the Insurance Contracts by the Company at the end of the term of this Agreement.

Section 14.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement will terminate in its entirety on the earlier of:

- (i) the date the Company’s liability under all of the Insurance Contracts is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof; or
- (ii) a termination pursuant to Sections 14.2(b), (c), (d) or (e).

(b) The Company shall have the right, upon written notice to the Administrator, to terminate this Agreement and assume from the Administrator, the administration of the Insurance Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XV regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 14.2(b)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement.

(c) The Administrator shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company, to terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company; or
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Administrator of such breach or act (provided that the Administrator shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XV regarding an alleged material breach).
- (d) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.
- (e) This Agreement may be terminated if the Company elects not to seek a Renewal Term in accordance with Section 14.1.
- (f) The Administrator shall bear all transition costs associated with the assumption of the administration of the Insurance Contracts pursuant to Section 14.2(b). The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with the assumption of the administration of the Insurance Contracts pursuant to Section 14.2(c).

Section 14.3. Transfer of Books and Records. In the event that this Agreement is terminated, the Administrator shall cooperate fully in the transfer of services and the books and records maintained by the Administrator pursuant to this Agreement (or, where appropriate, copies thereof) to the third-party administrator or to the Company, so that such third-party administrator or the Company, as the case may be, will be able to perform the services required under this Agreement without interruption following termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XV

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- Section 15.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XV, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.
- (b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 15.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 15.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XV are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

Section 15.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

Section 15.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 15.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

Section 15.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 15.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Illinois, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 15.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 15.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XV.

ARTICLE XVI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 16.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

Section 16.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

Section 16.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 16.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 16.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

Section 16.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, the effectiveness of any amendment to this Agreement is conditioned upon approval of the Connecticut Department of Insurance and the Illinois Department of Insurance, if required, and any such other Governmental Authority whose prior approval is required by Applicable Law.

Section 16.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

Section 16.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 16.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

Section 16.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

Section 16.11. Negotiated Agreement. This Agreement has been negotiated by the parties and the fact that the initial and final draft will have been prepared by either party or an intermediary will not give rise to any presumption for or against any party to this Agreement or be used in any respect or forum in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of its provisions.

Section 16.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

Section 16.13. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Administrator will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

Section 16.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation."

Section 16.15. Survival. Articles XI, XIII, XV and XVI shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

SCHEDULE B

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to Administrator (for purpose of this Addendum, the “Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the Company (for purposes of this Addendum, the “Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The disclosure is required by law; or

(2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and

b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards . Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions . In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives . Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited

Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions.

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and/or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

EXPENSE ALLOWANCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

1. Calculation for 2004. The Service Costs and Overhead Expenses combined for calendar year 2004 are projected to be $66,667 per month, and will be paid by Company at that rate, subject to paragraph 1(d) below of this Schedule C. Direct Expenses for 2004 are expected to be $200,000.

(a) Service Costs. Service Costs for 2004 were projected based on time studies during the fourth Quarter of 2003 for functions that directly support the ongoing servicing of the business. Examples of these functions include but are not limited to Claims Management, Actuarial Valuation, Finance, Legal and all other functions necessary and appropriate for the administration of the Insurance Contracts.

(b) Overhead Expenses. Overhead Expenses, including all overhead related to relevant business and corporate functions, are and will be allocated to all product lines. Corporate functions that are not associated with those product lines, such as business development, marketing, and sales are excluded. Expenses for the remaining business and corporate support functions are totaled and then allocated to the product lines based on reserves.

(c) Direct Expenses. Direct Expenses will be billed directly to Company at cost.

(d) True-up Procedure. At the time of the preparation of the Annual Study for 2005 (as set forth below in paragraph 2(a) of this Schedule C), a similar study shall be prepared for 2004 (the "2004 Study") and submitted to the Company in accordance with paragraph 2(a) of this Schedule C. The Company shall pay or be credited for, as the case may be, any differential between (i) the combined Service Costs and Overhead Expenses from $66,667 per month for the period from the Effective Date of this Agreement until December 31, 2004 and (ii) the combined Service Costs and Overhead Expenses identified in the 2004 Study for the period from the Effective Date of this Agreement until December 31, 2004.

2. Methodology For Subsequent Years.

(a) Service Costs and Annual Expenses. Service Costs and Overhead Expenses will be adjusted for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and every year thereafter during the term of the Agreement based on an annual cost/time study (the "Annual Study"). The first Annual Study will be provided within sixty (60) days prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement. The Administrator shall prepare and deliver to the Company the Annual Study setting forth the projected Service Costs and Overhead Expenses for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such projected Service Costs and Overhead Expenses for the next calendar year. Following the delivery of the Annual Study, the Administrator shall (a) provide to the Company copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Study as the Company or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices; and (b) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Company and the Company's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Company or the Company's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Study documents and the calculation of the projected Service Costs and Overhead Expenses. The Company shall pay the projected Service Costs and Overhead Expenses set forth in the Annual Study for the applicable calendar year (on a monthly basis as set forth herein), provided that in the event that the Company disputes the amount of the projected Service Costs and Overhead Expenses set forth in the Annual Study, then the dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Article XV of this Agreement.

(b) Direct Expenses. Direct Expenses will continue to be billed directly to the Company at cost.

3. Invoicing and Payments :

(a) Invoices. The Administrator shall submit an invoice to the Company on a monthly basis for the Services Costs and Overhead Expenses relating to the Administrative Services provided during the prior month. The Administrator shall include the information and prepare the invoice in the form as reasonably requested by the Company and agreed to by the Administrator. The Administrator shall submit to the Company, whether on a monthly basis or otherwise, an invoice for the Direct Expenses relating to the Administrative Services, together with copies of receipts and other verification agreed to by the parties, as the Administrator receives invoices for those Direct Expenses.

(b) Payments. All payments, due and payable by the Company to the Administrator, will be made within seventy-five (75) days of the Company's receipt of an invoice applicable to such payments ("Payment Date"). The Company shall use its good faith efforts to provide the Administrator as promptly as practicable with the details of any objection it may have to any invoice, but any failure to provide such details shall not foreclose the Company's right to dispute such invoice. The Company shall pay the part of any invoiced amount that is not in dispute by the Payment Date.

(c) Method of Payment. The method of payment shall be by electronic fund transfer to the Administrator's designated bank account or such other manner as agreed upon by the parties.

SUBORDINATED CONTINGENT PROMISSORY NOTE

$550,000,000

Dated: , 2004

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, GENWORTH FINANCIAL, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) hereby promises, subject to Section 2, to pay to the order of GE FINANCIAL ASSURANCE HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (“GEFAHI”), or to any other permitted holders of this Note (GEFAHI or such other holders being the “Holders”), the principal amount of FIVE HUNDRED FIFTY MILLION UNITED STATES DOLLARS (U.S. $550,000,000) on the Maturity Date or, if applicable, the Extended Maturity Date. Principal hereunder is payable in lawful money of the United States of America to GEFAHI at its principal place of business at , or to any other Holder at such other place as such Holder may designate from time to time in writing (such principal place of business or other place being the “Payment Place”), in cash or other immediately available funds. Unless otherwise defined in the text of this Note, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in Section 12.

SECTION 1. Interest. The principal amount of this Note shall not bear interest.

SECTION 2. Payment of Principal.

(a) Scheduled Payment on the Maturity Date. Subject to Section 2(e), on the Maturity Date, the Company shall pay to the Holders, in cash or other immediately available funds, the lowest of (i) the entire unpaid principal amount of this Note, (ii) if any Regulatory Approval or Rating Agency Affirmation obtained prior to the Maturity Date specifies a withdrawal or a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) in an amount less than $700,000,000, the excess of the lowest amount so specified over $150,000,000, (iii) if any Rating Agency Affirmation obtained prior to the Maturity Date specifies the payment of the principal amount of this Note in an amount less than $550,000,000, the amount so specified and (iv) if one or more of the Rating Agency Affirmations are not obtained prior to the Maturity Date, zero (such lesser amount, the “Payment Amount”).

(b) Scheduled Payment on the Extended Maturity Date. On the Extended Maturity Date, the Company shall pay to the Holders, in cash or other immediately available funds, the lowest of (i) the Extended Payment Amount, (ii) if any Rating Agency Affirmation obtained after the Maturity Date specifies a withdrawal or a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) in an amount less than the excess, if any, of (w) the amount specified in any Regulatory Approval for a withdrawal or dividend over (x) the amount specified in any Interim Rating Agency Affirmation for a withdrawal or a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) (or zero, if one or more of the Rating Agency Affirmations are not obtained prior to the Maturity Date), the amount so specified less the excess of (y) $150,000,000 over (z) the amount specified in any Interim

Rating Agency Affirmation (or zero, if one or more of the Rating Agency Affirmations are not obtained prior to the Maturity Date), (iii) if any Rating Agency Affirmation obtained after the Maturity Date specifies the payment of the principal amount of this Note in an amount less than the Extended Payment Amount, the amount so specified and (iv) if one or more of the Rating Agency Affirmations are not obtained prior to the Extended Maturity Date, zero.

(c) Mandatory Prepayment. If both the Regulatory Approvals and the Rating Agency Affirmations are obtained: (i) on or prior to October 31, 2004, any Holder may in its sole discretion, by written notice to the Company delivered on or prior to October 31, 2004, demand prepayment of the Payment Amount on December 31, 2004; or (ii) after October 31, 2004, but at least 60 days prior to the Maturity Date, any Holder may in its sole discretion, by written notice to the Company, demand prepayment of the Payment Amount on the date that is 60 days after the date of such notice so long as, on the date of such notice, such Holder believes in good faith that GEFAHI and its affiliates will beneficially own 50% or less of the Common Stock of the Company on such payment date.

(d) Optional Prepayment. The Company may, at any time and from time to time, without premium or penalty, prepay all or a portion of the unpaid principal amount of this Note in cash or other immediately available funds.

(e) Termination. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Note, if one or more of the Regulatory Approvals are not obtained on or prior to _____, 2005 (the "Termination Date") [one day prior to the Maturity Date] this Note shall thereupon terminate in all respects and no amount shall be payable by the Company to the Holders hereunder.

SECTION 3. Events of Default.

(a) For purposes of this Note, an "Event of Default" shall be deemed to have occurred upon:

(i) any failure by the Company to pay all or any portion of principal under this Note when the same shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof, whether on the Maturity Date, by acceleration or otherwise, which failure continues unremedied for a period of 30 Business Days; or

(ii) (A) the filing by the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries of a voluntary petition seeking liquidation, reorganization, arrangement or readjustment, in any form, of its debts under Title 11 of the United States Code (or corresponding provisions of future laws) or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, or the filing by the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries of an answer consenting to or acquiescing in any such petition, (B) the making by the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries of any assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or the admission by the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries in writing of its inability to pay its debts as they become due, (C) the filing of (x) an involuntary petition against the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries under Title 11 of the United States Code, or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law (or corresponding provisions of future laws), (y) an application for the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other similar official for the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries for all or a substantial part of the assets of the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries or (z) an involuntary petition against the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries seeking liquidation, winding up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief or composition of the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries or any of the Company's or any such Significant Subsidiary's debts under any other federal or state insolvency law, provided that any such filing shall not have been vacated, set aside or stayed within a 45 day period from the date thereof, or (D) the entry against the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries of a final and nonappealable order for relief under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law now or hereafter in effect.

(b) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default described in Section 3(a)(i), the Holder may, by written notice to the Company, declare all or any portion of the unpaid principal amount of this Note to be immediately due and payable. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default described in Section 3(a)(ii), the unpaid principal amount of this Note shall automatically become due and payable, without any action or notice by the Holder. Demand, presentment, protest and notice of non-payment are hereby waived by the Company.

SECTION 4. Subordination.

(a) Note Subordinated to Senior Debt. The Company covenants and agrees, and GEFAHI and each other Holder of this Note by its acceptance hereof likewise covenants and agrees, that all payments of the principal of this Note (collectively, the “Subordinated Debt”) shall be subordinated in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4 to the prior payment in full of all Senior Debt of the Company.

(b) Priority and Payment Over of Proceeds in Certain Events.

(i) Subordination on Dissolution, Liquidation or Reorganization of the Company. Upon payment or distribution of assets or securities of the Company of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities, upon any dissolution or winding up or total or partial liquidation or reorganization of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or in bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other proceedings or upon an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of the Company (each such event, if any, herein referred to as a “Proceeding”), all Senior Debt shall first be paid in full in cash, or payment provided for in cash or cash equivalents in a manner satisfactory to the holders of Senior Debt, before any direct or indirect payments or distributions, including, without limitation, by exercise of set-off, of any cash, property or securities on account of this Note and to that end the holders of Senior Debt shall be entitled to receive (pro rata on the basis of the respective amounts of Senior Debt held by them) directly, for application to the payment thereof (to the extent necessary to pay all Senior Debt in full in cash after giving effect to any substantially concurrent payment or distribution to or provision for payment to the holders of such Senior Debt), any payment or distribution of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities, in respect of the Subordinated Debt, except that the Holders may receive and retain equity securities of the Company or debt securities of the Company that are subordinated to Senior Debt (and any debt securities issued in exchange for Senior Debt) to substantially the same extent as, or to a greater extent than, this Note is subordinated to the Senior Debt pursuant to this Section 4. The holders of Senior Debt are hereby authorized to file an appropriate claim for and on behalf of any Holder if such Holder does not file, and there is not otherwise filed on behalf of such Holder, a proper claim or proof of claim in the form required in any Proceeding prior to 30 days before the expiration of the time to file such claim or claims.

(ii) Subordination on Default in Senior Debt. No direct or indirect payment by or on behalf of the Company with respect to the Subordinated Debt, whether pursuant to the terms of this Note, upon acceleration or otherwise, shall be made if at the time of such payment there exists (i) a default in the payment of all or any portion of principal of (premium, if any), interest on, fees or other amounts owing in connection with any Senior Debt, or (ii) any other default under any document or instrument governing or evidencing any Senior Debt, and the maturity of such Senior Debt is accelerated in accordance with its terms unless, in either case, (A) the default has been cured or waived in writing and any such acceleration has been rescinded or (B) such Senior Debt has been paid in full in cash. During the continuance of any default (other than a default described in clause (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence) with respect to any Designated Senior Debt pursuant to which the maturity thereof may be accelerated immediately without further notice (except any notice required to affect the acceleration) or the expiration of any applicable grace period, the Company may not make any payment with respect to the Subordinated Debt for a period commencing upon receipt by the Company of a written notice (a “Payment Blockage Notice”) (which shall specify all defaults existing under such Designated Senior Debt on the date of such notice and of which the holder thereof or representative giving such notice had actual knowledge at such time) of the commencement of such period from such holder or representative, and ending upon the earlier of (i) waiver or cure of all defaults under such Designated Senior Debt, (ii) termination of such period by written notice from the holders of such Designated Senior Debt and (iii) completion of the 179th day after the beginning of such period. Not more than one Payment Blockage Notice with respect to all issues of Designated Senior Debt may be given in any consecutive 360-day period, irrespective of the number of defaults with respect to one or more issues of Designated Senior Debt during such period. No default under such Designated Senior Debt that existed at the time any Payment Blockage Notice is given may be the basis for any subsequent Payment Blockage Notice. Upon termination of any such period, the Company shall resume payments on account of the Subordinated Debt, subject to the provisions of Sections 4(a) and 4(b) hereof.

(iii) Rights and Obligations of Holders.

(1) If, notwithstanding Section 4(b)(i) and (ii) prohibiting such payment or distribution, any Holder shall have received any payment or distribution on account of the Subordinated Debt at a time when such payment is prohibited by such provision before the Senior Debt is paid in full in cash, then and in such event, such payment or distribution shall be received and held in trust by such Holder apart from their other assets and paid over or delivered to the holders of the Senior Debt remaining unpaid to the extent necessary to pay in full in cash the principal of (premium, if any), and interest on, such Senior Debt in accordance with its terms and after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution to the holders of such Senior Debt.

(2) Nothing contained in this Section 4 will limit the right of the Holders of Subordinated Debt to take any action to accelerate the maturity of the Subordinated Debt pursuant to Section 3(b) hereof; provided, however, that all Senior Debt then due or thereafter declared to be due shall first be paid in full in cash before the Holders are entitled to receive any payment from the Company of this Note.

(3) Upon any payment or distribution of assets or securities referred to in this Section 4, the Holders shall be entitled to rely upon any order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction in which such Proceeding is pending, and upon a certificate of the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, liquidating trustee, agent or other person making any such payment or distribution, delivered to the Holders for the purpose of ascertaining the persons entitled to participate in such distribution, the holders of Senior Debt and other Indebtedness of the Company, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto or to this Section 4.

(c) Rights of Holders of Senior Debt Not To Be Impaired. No right of any present or future holder of any Senior Debt to enforce subordination as herein provided shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act by any such holder, or by any noncompliance by the Company with the terms and provisions and covenants herein regardless of any knowledge thereof such holder may have or otherwise be charged with.

The provisions of this Section 4 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable directly by, the holders of the Senior Debt. The Company and each Holder of this Note, by its acceptance hereof, acknowledges that the holders of the Senior Debt are relying upon the provisions of this Section 4 in extending such Senior Debt.

(d) Subrogation. Upon the payment in full of all Senior Debt in cash, the Holders shall be subrogated to the extent of the payments or distributions made to the holders of, or otherwise applied to payment of, the Senior Debt pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4 and to the rights of the holders of Senior Debt to receive payments or distributions of assets of the Company made on the Senior Debt until this Note shall be paid in full. For purposes of such subrogation, no payments or distributions to holders of Senior Debt of any cash, property or securities to which Holders of this Note would be entitled except for the provisions of this Section 4, and no payment over pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4 to holders of Senior Debt by the Holders, shall, as between the Company and the Holders, be deemed to be payment by the Company to or on account of Senior Debt, it being understood that the provisions of this Section 4 are solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the holders of Senior Debt, on the one hand, and the Holders, on the other hand.

If any payment or distribution to which the Holders would otherwise have been entitled but for the provisions of this Section 4 shall have been applied, pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4, to the payment of Senior Debt, the Holders shall be entitled to receive from the holders of Senior Debt at the time outstanding any payments or distributions received by such holders of Senior Debt in excess of the amount sufficient to pay all Senior Debt in full in cash.

(e) Obligations of the Company Unconditional. Subject to Section 2, nothing contained in this Section 4 or elsewhere in this Note is intended to or shall impair, as between the Company and the Holders, the obligations of the Company, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay to the Holders the principal of this Note as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with its terms, or is intended to or shall affect the relative rights of the Holders and creditors of the Company other than the holders of the Senior Debt, nor shall anything herein or therein prevent any Holder from exercising all remedies otherwise permitted by applicable law upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Note, subject to the rights, if any, under this Section 4 of the holders of Senior Debt in respect of cash, property or securities of the Company received upon the exercise of any such remedy.

The failure to make a payment on account of this Note by reason of any provision of this Section 4 shall not be construed as preventing the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder.

(f) Notice to Holders. The Company shall give prompt written notice to each Holder of any fact known to the Company which would prohibit the making of any payment on or in respect of this Note, but failure to give such notice shall not affect the subordination of the Subordinated Debt to the Senior Debt provided in this Section 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 4 or any other provision of this Note, no Holder shall be charged with knowledge of the existence of any facts which would prohibit the making of any payment to or in respect of this Note, unless and until the Holders shall have received written notice thereof from the Company or a representative of or holder of Senior Debt, and, prior to the receipt of any such written notice, subject to the provisions of this Section 4, the Holders shall be entitled in all respects to assume no such facts exist. Nothing contained in this Section 4(f) shall limit the right of the holders of Senior Debt to recover payments as contemplated by Sections 4(a) and 4(b).

(g) Right of Any Holder as Holder of Senior Debt. Any Holder in its individual capacity shall be entitled to all the rights set forth in this Section 4 with respect to any Senior Debt which may at any time be held by it, to the same extent as any other holder of Senior Debt, and nothing in this Note shall deprive such Holder of any of its rights as such holder.

(h) Reinstatement. The provisions of this Section 4 shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, and the Senior Debt shall not be deemed to be paid in full, as the case may be, if at any time any payment of any of the Senior Debt is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the holder thereof upon the commencement or during the pendency of a Proceeding or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

SECTION 5.

(a) Agreement to Obtain Regulatory Approvals and Rating Agency Affirmations. The Company shall, and shall cause GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain, prior to the Termination Date, all Regulatory Approvals and Rating Agency Affirmations in respect of the early withdrawal from GEMIC's contingency reserve of, and the payment by GEMIC of a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) in the amount of, $700,000,000 and the payment of the principal amount of this Note in the amount of $550,000,000. If the Company is unable to obtain any Regulatory Approval or Rating Agency Affirmation in the amount of $700,000,000 in respect of the early withdrawal from GEMIC's contingency reserve or the payment of a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) or any Rating Agency Affirmation in the amount of $550,000,000 in respect of the payment of the principal amount of this Note, the Company shall, and shall cause GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain, prior to the Termination Date, all Regulatory Approvals and Rating Agency Affirmations in respect of the maximum amount that the applicable Governmental Authority or Rating Agency will approve. If any Rating Agency Affirmation obtained prior to the Maturity Date is an Interim Rating Agency Affirmation or if any of the Rating Agency Affirmations are not obtained prior to the Maturity Date, the Company shall, and shall cause GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable and, in any event, prior to the Extended Maturity Date, all Rating Agency Affirmations required to permit the Company to pay the Extended Payment Amount in full or, if any Rating Agency will not permit the payment of the Extended Payment Amount in full, the maximum amount that such Rating Agency will approve. If any Regulatory Approval obtained prior to the Termination Date lapses, the Company shall, and shall cause GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable any reaffirmation or reissuance of such Regulatory Approval that is required to permit the Company to pay the Extended Payment Amount in full. The Company shall, and shall cause GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to, afford one or more individuals designated in writing by GEFAHI (or any affiliate of GEFAHI) the opportunity to fully participate in, and consult with respect to, the process of obtaining the Regulatory Approvals and the Rating Agency Affirmations, and shall make available to such individuals all correspondence and other documents relating to such process.

(b) Reasonable Best Efforts. The obligations of the Company, GEMIC and the other Subsidiaries of the Company to use "reasonable best efforts" pursuant to Section 5(a) shall in no event require the Company, GEMIC or any such Subsidiary to (1) incur any additional Indebtedness, repay or refinance any outstanding Indebtedness, enter into any reinsurance transaction, or issue any new stock in order to obtain any Regulatory Approval or Rating Agency Affirmation or (2) take any action that would (A) result in any material restriction on GEMIC's status as a licensed insurer in any state other than New York, or (B) result in any arrangement or requirement under which GEMIC ceases to write business in New York other than pursuant to an agreement between GEMIC and the New York Superintendent of Insurance, the terms and outcomes of which are acceptable to GEMIC in the sole but reasonable exercise of its discretion (the "Alternative Licensing Option"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing clause 5(b)(2)(B), such agreement must (i) permit an affiliate of GEMIC to write mortgage guaranty business in New York on substantially the same terms and conditions as GEMIC currently writes such business, and (ii) not involve the formal suspension or revocation of GEMIC's license in, or require GEMIC to voluntarily withdraw from, the State of New York.

(c) In the event GEMIC's efforts to obtain Regulatory Approvals and Rating Agency Affirmations involve the Alternative Licensing Option, the following shall also be deemed to be elements of such Regulatory Approvals or Rating Agency Affirmations, as the case may be: The affiliate of GEMIC referred to in the last sentence of Section 5(b) hereof must be (1) approved by each of Fannie Mae and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation as a Type I (or, in the case of Fannie Mae, equivalent) insurer, and (2) acknowledged by the Rating Agencies as having financial strength ratings equivalent to AA, in each case to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company's and GEMIC's management and without requiring GEMIC to take any actions that would reasonably be expected to have an adverse impact on GEMIC's financial condition or results of operations.

SECTION 6. Remedies Cumulative. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law. Time is of the essence in respect of the performance of all payment obligations under this Note.

SECTION 7. Notices. Any notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and personally delivered with receipt acknowledged or mailed, postage prepaid, via registered mail, return receipt requested, if to GEFAHI, at its address first set forth above or any other address notified in writing by any Holder to the Company, and if to the Company, at its address at _____, with a copy to _____, or any other address notified in writing by the Company to the Holders. Any notice given in conformity with the foregoing shall be deemed given when personally delivered or upon the date of delivery specified in the registered mail receipt.

SECTION 8. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

SECTION 9. Severability. If any provision of this Note is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the other provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect in such jurisdiction and the remaining provisions hereof shall be liberally construed in favor of the Holder hereof in order to effectuate the provisions hereof and the invalidity of any provision hereof in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision in any other jurisdiction, including the State of New York.

SECTION 10. Transferability; Successors and Assigns. This Note shall not be assignable by GEFAHI or any Holder without the prior written consent of the Company other than to any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the General Electric Company. This Note shall not be assignable by the Company without the prior written consent of all of the Holders. Subject to the foregoing, this Note shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Holders and the Company and their respective transferees, successors and assigns.

SECTION 11. Replacement of Note. Upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Note, and the Company's receipt of an indemnity agreement of the Holders reasonably satisfactory to the Company, the Company will, at the expense of the Holders, execute and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new Note of like terms.

SECTION 12. Definitions.

(a) For purposes of this Note, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Business Day" shall mean a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York are authorized or required by law to close.

[two-year anniversary of the date of the Note]

“Extended Payment Amount” means the excess of (i) the lowest amount specified in any Regulatory Approval obtained prior to the Maturity Date for a withdrawal or a dividend (not to exceed $700,000,000) over (ii) the sum of (x) $150,000,000 and (y) the Payment Amount.

“GEMIC” means General Electric Mortgage Insurance Corporation, a North Carolina corporation.

“Governmental Authority” means any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government, including any governmental authority, agency, department, board, commission or instrumentality whether federal, state, local or foreign (or any political subdivision thereof), any tribunal, court or arbitrator(s) of competent jurisdiction, and Fannie Mae and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

“Holders” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the first paragraph of this Note.

“Indebtedness” shall mean any indebtedness, whether or not contingent, for or in respect of borrowed money or evidenced by bonds, notes, debentures or similar instruments or letters of credit (or reimbursement agreements in respect thereof) or representing the balance deferred and unpaid of the purchase price of any property, including pursuant to capital leases (except any such balance that constitutes an accrued expense or a trade payable), if and to the extent any of the foregoing indebtedness would appear as a liability upon a balance sheet of such person or entity prepared on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and including, to the extent not otherwise included, the guaranty (other than by endorsement of negotiable instruments for collection in the ordinary course of business), direct or indirect, in any manner (including, without limitation, letters of credit and reimbursement agreements in respect thereof), of all or any part of the foregoing indebtedness.

“Interim Rating Agency Affirmation” means any Rating Agency Affirmation obtained prior to the Maturity Date that specifies (i) a withdrawal or dividend in an amount less than the lowest amount specified in any Regulatory Approval obtained prior to the Maturity Date or (ii) the payment of the principal amount of this Note in an amount less than the excess of the lowest amount specified in any Regulatory Approval obtained prior to the Maturity Date over $150,000,000.

“Maturity Date” means _____, 2005 [one-year anniversary of the date of the Note].

“Payment Amount” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 2(a).

“Payment Blockage Notice” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 4(b)(ii).

“Payment Place” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the first paragraph of this Note.

“Person” means an individual, a partnership, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

“Post-Commencement Interest” means all interest accrued or accruing after the commencement of any Proceeding (and interest that would accrue but for the commencement of any Proceeding) in accordance with and at the contract rate (including, without limitation, any rate applicable upon default) specified in the agreement or instrument creating, evidencing or governing any Senior Debt, whether or not, pursuant to applicable law or otherwise, the claim for such interest is allowed as a claim in such Proceeding.

“Proceeding” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 4(b).

“Rating Agencies” means Standard & Poor’s Ratings Group, Moody’s Investors Service, Inc. and Fitch Ratings Ltd., and any successor to any such rating agency.

“Rating Agency Affirmations” means affirmations (i) from each of the Rating Agencies that the financial strength rating of GEMIC will not decrease or be placed on credit watch and (ii) from Standard & Poor’s Ratings Group and Moody’s Investors Service, Inc. that the senior unsecured debt rating of the Company will not decrease or be placed on credit watch, in each case as a result of (A) the withdrawal of up to $700,000,000, or a lesser amount as specified by any of the Rating Agencies or Regulatory Approvals, from GEMIC’s contingency reserve, (B) the payment by GEMIC of a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) of up to $700,000,000, or a lesser amount as specified by any of the Rating Agencies or Regulatory Approvals and (C) the payment of the principal amount of this Note in an amount of up to $550,000,000, or a lesser amount as specified by any of the Rating Agencies or Regulatory Approvals.

“Regulatory Approvals” means all approvals or consents from any Governmental Authority that are required to permit the Company and GEMIC to effect the early withdrawal from GEMIC’s contingency reserve of, and the payment by GEMIC of a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary) in the amount of, $700,000,000, or such lesser amount as may be specified by any such Governmental Authority.

“Senior Debt” means the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on (including Post-Commencement Interest) and other amounts due on or in connection with any Indebtedness of the Company (other than the Subordinated Debt), whether outstanding on the date of this Note or hereafter created, incurred or assumed, unless, in the case of any particular Indebtedness, the instrument creating or evidencing the same or pursuant to which the same is outstanding expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall not be senior in right of payment to the Subordinated Debt.

“Significant Subsidiary” shall mean a “significant subsidiary” of the Company as defined in Rule 1-02(v) of Regulation S-X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as said Regulation may be amended from time to time, or any other Subsidiary of the Company that has guaranteed or assumed any obligations of the Company under this Note.

“Subordinated Debt” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 4(a).

“Subsidiary” shall mean any person or entity of which at least a majority of the capital stock or other equity interests (including partnership interests) having ordinary voting power for the election of directors or other governing body of such person or entity is owned or controlled by the Company, directly or indirectly through one or more subsidiaries.

“Termination Date” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 2(e).

(b) Unless otherwise provided herein, (i) the word “from” shall mean from and including and (ii) the words “to” or “until” shall mean to and until but excluding.

(c) All references to “Sections” in this Note shall be to Sections of this Note unless otherwise specifically provided.

SECTION 13. Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of this Note are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Note.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Company and the Holder has caused this Note to be executed by its duly authorized officer as of the day and year first written above.

CANADIAN TAX MATTERS AGREEMENT

- AMONG GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, a company incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, (hereinafter referred to as “ GE ”)
- AND GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION, a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, (hereinafter referred to as “ GECC ”)
- AND GECMIC HOLDINGS INC. , a company incorporated under the laws of Canada, (hereinafter referred to as “ GECMIC Holdings ”)
- AND GE CAPITAL MORTGAGE INSURANCE COMPANY (CANADA) , a company duly incorporated under the laws of Canada, (hereinafter referred to as the “ Company ”)
- AND GENWORTH FINANCIAL, INC. , a company incorporated under the laws of Delaware, (hereinafter referred to as “ Genworth ”).

RECITALS:

- A. Pursuant to the Master Agreement (“Master Agreement”) dated ___, 2004 among GE, GECC, GEI, Inc., a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware (“GEI”), GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware (“GEFAHI”), and Genworth, Genworth has agreed, inter alia , to acquire the outstanding shares of stock of certain subsidiaries of GE.
 - B. Pursuant to the US Tax Matters Agreement dated ___, 2004 between GE, GECC, GEI, GEFAHI, and Genworth, GE and Genworth have entered into an arrangement governing the US tax affairs of the subsidiaries and businesses acquired pursuant to the Master Agreement.

- C. GECMIC Holdings has agreed to sell, and Genworth has agreed to acquire (through a Canadian subsidiary) all of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company, for fair market value consideration (the "Share Transfer"), such Share Transfer to occur immediately before a proposed initial public offering of Genworth shares.
- D. In connection with the Share Transfer, the parties wish to set out their agreement with respect to certain tax matters relating to the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE SHARE TRANSFER, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Definitions

- 1.1 "Taxes" means all federal, provincial, municipal, territorial, foreign or other taxes, imposts, levies, rates, assessments and government fees, charges or dues lawfully assessed, levied, or imposed against the Company, including all income, capital gains, excise, sales, use, property, capital, goods and services, business transfer, value added, compensation, social security, payroll, employment, privilege, franchise, licence and school taxes and custom and import duties, and includes all interest, fines, and penalties with respect thereto.
- 1.2 "Tax Returns" means all reports, returns, and other documents filed or required to be filed by the Company in respect of Taxes or in respect of or pursuant to any domestic or foreign federal, provincial, state, municipal, territorial or other taxing statute.

2. Tax Return Filing

- 2.1 The Company shall be responsible for preparing and filing of the Company's Tax Return for the taxation year of the Company ended December 31, 2004 (the "2004 Return"). The 2004 Return will be subject to review, adjustment and approval by GE, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld. The Company shall prepare a draft 2004 Return in sufficient time to enable GE to review the draft 2004 Return and resolve any outstanding issues, so that the final 2004 Return may be filed on or before its due date.
- 2.2 Subject to section 2.3, GE has the right to cause the Company to claim less than the maximum allowable deduction in respect of reserves (the "Under-Reserve") in its 2004 Canadian Tax Returns. The Under-Reserve shall not exceed the amount that will generate an excess of CAD $72,000,000 of Canadian federal and provincial income tax over the Canadian federal and provincial income tax the Company would pay absent the Under-Reserve.

GE shall notify the Company and Genworth of its decision to exercise its right sufficiently in advance of the time the Company is required to deliver the draft Tax Return.

- a) In order for GE to be able to assert its right under section 2.2 the Company must reasonably determine that after having paid the Taxes resulting from the Under-Reserve, the Company will be able to comply with the Insurance Companies Act and have adequate regulatory capital to carry on its business in a manner consistent with applicable regulatory guidelines, overall prudence based on the in force business, the Company's reasonable growth expectations, volatility in the investment portfolio, and capital efficiency.
- b) If the Company reasonably determines that it cannot pay the Taxes resulting from the Under-Reserve and meet the obligations in a), then before GE can exercise its rights in section 2.2, the Company and Genworth shall consult and agree on a method for Genworth to supply the required additional regulatory capital to the Company or for the Company to otherwise satisfy the obligations in a) in sufficient time to facilitate timely payment of such Taxes and filing of Tax Returns.
- c) If Genworth reasonably determines that it does not have sufficient liquidity to supply the additional regulatory capital required in b), then GE shall lend or otherwise provide to Genworth an amount up to the required additional regulatory capital without interest or other cost to Genworth, but no more than is required for Genworth to maintain sufficient liquidity after supplying the required additional regulatory capital.
- d) To the extent Genworth uses funds not lent or provided to it by GE to supply additional regulatory capital to enable the Company to pay any or all of the Taxes resulting from the Under-Reserve, GE shall reimburse Genworth for Genworth's opportunity cost of foregone investment. To the extent the Company pays any or all of the Taxes resulting from the Under-Reserve without additional regulatory capital from Genworth, GE shall reimburse the Company for the Company's opportunity cost of foregone investment. In determining the amount of these reimbursements from time to time the foregone investment shall be reduced as the Company recovers Taxes as a result of reinstating maximum reserve claims for taxation years after 2004, which the Company undertakes to do as soon as practicable.

- e) If GE disagrees with the determinations in b) or c), any party can send the matter to arbitration for a decision. Section VII of the Master Agreement shall govern these arbitrations.
- 2.4 The Company agrees that it shall take no actions outside of the ordinary course of business that would result in a reduction in the Company's regulatory capital, unless GE is notified of and approves such action.
- 2.5 Unless otherwise agreed by GE, until any loan or other funding made by GE to Genworth pursuant to Section 2.3c) hereof has been repaid to GE, the Company shall claim the maximum allowable deduction in respect of its reserves in its Canadian Tax Returns for taxation years ending after 2004, to the extent of its taxable income before reserve deductions. Genworth shall repay any loan or other funding received from GE pursuant to Section 2.3c) hereof as soon as is reasonably possible. In all events, Genworth shall repay such loan or other funding no later than the date by which the Company recovers the excess Canadian tax described in Section 2.2 hereof (as a result of reinstating maximum reserve claims for taxable years after 2004).
- 2.6 The Company shall not amend or re-file any Tax Return in respect of any taxation period ending on or before December 31, 2004 without the prior written consent of GE, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

3. Further Assurances

The parties agree that they shall, from time to time and at all reasonable times hereafter, do and execute or cause to be done and executed, all such further acts as may reasonably be required to give effect to this Agreement.

4. The preamble to this Agreement shall form an integral part of this Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF , the parties hereto have signed this Agreement on •, 2004.

TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), General Electric Capital Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreements (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities, and pursuant to a Retrocession Agreement also of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under certain long term care policies (collectively the “Coinsurance Agreements”); and

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the “Trust Account”) certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreements; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreements (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account .

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets . The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets .

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account. All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets. The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee (s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(1), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account .

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term “Affiliate” means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term “Beneficiary” shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term “Control” (including the related terms “controlled by” and “under common control with”) shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term “Eligible Securities” shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms “Person” shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term “Qualified United States Financial Institution” shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreements, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), American Mayflower Life Insurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities (the "Coinsurance Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the "Trust Account") certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account .

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets . The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets .

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account. All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets. The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee (s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(1), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account .

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term “Affiliate” means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term “Beneficiary” shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term “Control” (including the related terms “controlled by” and “under common control with”) shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term “Eligible Securities” shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms “Person” shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term “Qualified United States Financial Institution” shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreement, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), GE Life and Annuity Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreements (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities, and pursuant to a Reinsurance Agreement, also of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a modified coinsurance basis (with respect to separate account liabilities) and on a coinsurance basis (with respect to general account liabilities), certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under variable annuities (collectively, the "Coinsurance Agreements"); and

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the "Trust Account") certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreements; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account .

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreements (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account .

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets . The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets .

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account. All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets. The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee (s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(1), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account .

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term “Affiliate” means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term “Beneficiary” shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term “Control” (including the related terms “controlled by” and “under common control with”) shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term “Eligible Securities” shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms “Person” shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term “Qualified United States Financial Institution” shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreements, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Exhibit 10.51TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), Federal Home Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities (the "Coinsurance Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the "Trust Account") certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account .

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets . The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets .

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account. All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets. The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(1), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account .

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term “Affiliate” means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term “Beneficiary” shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term “Control” (including the related terms “controlled by” and “under common control with”) shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term “Eligible Securities” shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms “Person” shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term “Qualified United States Financial Institution” shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreement, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Exhibit 10.52TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities, pursuant to a Reinsurance Agreement, also of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a modified coinsurance basis (with respect to separate account liabilities), and on a coinsurance basis (with respect to general account liabilities), certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under variable annuities, and pursuant to a Retrocession Agreement, also of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under certain long term care policies (collectively, the "Coinsurance Agreements").

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the "Trust Account") certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreements; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreements (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account.

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets. The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets.

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account . All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets . The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee .

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee (s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(l), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account.

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term "Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term "Beneficiary" shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term "Control" (including the related terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term "Eligible Securities" shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms "Person" shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term "Qualified United States Financial Institution" shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreements, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreements.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Exhibit 10.53TRUST AGREEMENT

This TRUST AGREEMENT, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Trust Agreement"), among Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the Laws of the State of Illinois (the "Grantor"), First Colony Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Beneficiary"), and The Bank of New York, a New York corporation (the "Trustee") (the Grantor, the Beneficiary and the Trustee are hereinafter each sometimes referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties"). All terms not defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement (as hereinafter defined).

WITNESSETH :

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Coinsurance Agreement of even date herewith between the Beneficiary and the Grantor, the Beneficiary is ceding to the Grantor, and the Grantor is reinsuring on a coinsurance basis, certain of the Beneficiary's liabilities arising under structured settlement annuities (the "Coinsurance Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to transfer to the Trustee for deposit to a trust account (the "Trust Account") certain assets as security for the payment and performance by the Grantor of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has agreed to act as Trustee hereunder, and to hold such assets in trust in the Trust Account for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary for such purposes in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Trust Agreement is made for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary and for the purpose of setting forth the duties and powers of the Trustee with respect to the Trust Account;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Deposit of Assets to the Trust Account.

(a) The Grantor hereby establishes the Trust Account with the Trustee for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary, under the terms set forth herein. The Trustee shall administer the Trust Account in its name as Trustee for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The Trust Account shall be subject to withdrawal by the Beneficiary solely as provided herein. The Trustee hereby accepts the Trust Account upon the terms set forth in this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Grantor shall transfer to the Trustee, for deposit to the Trust Account, such assets as may be required from time to time pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement (all such assets are herein referred to individually as an "Asset" and collectively as the "Assets"). The Trustee is authorized and shall have power to receive the Assets from the Grantor and to hold, invest, reinvest and dispose of the same for the uses and purposes of and according to the provisions herein set forth. All Assets shall be maintained by the Trustee in the Trust Account separate and distinct from all other assets on the books of the Trustee and in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Assets shall consist only of Eligible Securities (as hereinafter defined). In the event of any payment default as to any Asset in the Trust Account or in the event that any Asset no longer is an Eligible Security, the Grantor shall, within five (5) business days after receiving notice from the Trustee pursuant to Section 19 or the Grantor having knowledge of such default or ineligibility, substitute other Assets which meet the requirements of an Eligible Security and having a statutory book value equal to the statutory book value of such Asset, which has a payment default or no longer meets the requirements for an Eligible Security, on the last statement provided by the Trustee.

(c) The Grantor hereby represents and warrants (i) that, to the extent practicable, any Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit to the Trust Account will be in such form that the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement, (ii) that all Assets transferred by the Grantor to the Trustee for deposit into the Trust Account consist only of Eligible Securities, and (iii) that Grantor has at the time of transfer into this Trust Account good and marketable title to the Assets to be so transferred and each such Asset shall be at the time of transfer free and clear of all claims, liens, interests and encumbrances (other than those arising under this Trust Agreement).

(d) Prior to depositing the Assets into the Trust Account, and from time to time thereafter as required, the Grantor shall execute assignments, endorsement in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or other Assets requiring assignments, so that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, and the Trustee upon the direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate any such Assets without the consent or signature from the Grantor or any other person or entity. The Grantor shall give all notices and take all actions as the Trustee deems appropriate in order to cause payments due or that become due on any Asset within the Trust Account to be paid to the Trustee. The Grantor shall not make or consent to any waiver, amendment or restriction on transfer with respect to any Asset in the Trust Account, in each case without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. In connection with the deposit of Assets into the Trust Account, the Grantor shall furnish to the Trustee all original documentation evidencing the Grantor's ownership thereto.

(e) The parties recognize that certain Assets will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Beneficiary to obtain good and marketable title to such Assets.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Assets from the Trust Account.

(a) Without notice to the Grantor, the Beneficiary shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to withdraw from the Trust Account, upon notice to the Trustee in the form of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (the "Beneficiary Certificate"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, accompanied by a request for withdrawal substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 hereto (the "Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal"), signed by a duly authorized officer of the Beneficiary, such Assets as are specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal may designate a third party (the "Beneficiary Designee"), including the Grantor, to whom Assets specified therein shall be delivered. The Beneficiary shall not be required to present any other statement or document in addition to a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal in order to withdraw any Assets, except that the Beneficiary shall acknowledge receipt of any such Assets withdrawn upon request by the Trustee.

(b) Upon receipt of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, subject to the provision by the Beneficiary of any required notices, opinions of counsel and representations, the Trustee and the Grantor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the Assets specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal and shall deliver physical custody (or such other form as is necessary to complete the transfer) of such Assets to or for the account of the Beneficiary or such Beneficiary Designee, as specified in such Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal. The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary within three (3) business days following each withdrawal from the Trust Account.

(c) Subject to Section 4, in the absence of a Beneficiary Certificate and a Beneficiary Request for Withdrawal, the Trustee shall allow no substitution or withdrawal of any Asset from the Trust Account.

(d) The Trustee shall notify the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled within three (3) business days after all the assets in the Trust Account are withdrawn. At the Trustee's request, the Beneficiary shall provide to the Trustee the address of the insurance regulator in the state where the Beneficiary is domiciled.

Section 3. Application of Assets. The Beneficiary shall be permitted to withdraw Assets from the Trust Account only for the purposes set forth in the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 4. Redemption, Investment and Substitution of Assets.

(a) The Trustee shall surrender for payment all maturing Assets and all Assets called for redemption, and deposit the principal amount of the proceeds of any such payment to the Trust Account.

(b) The Grantor, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, may retain (and pay the service fees of) a professional asset manager (the "Asset Manager") to manage and make investment decisions with regard to the Assets held by the Trustee in the Trust Account. From time to time, at the written order and direction of the Grantor or the Asset Manager, the Trustee shall invest Assets in the Trust Account in Eligible Securities.

(c) From time to time, subject to the prior written approval of the Beneficiary, the Grantor or the Asset Manager may direct the Trustee to substitute Assets of equal statutory book value for other Assets presently held in the Trust Account. The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine the value of such substituted Assets or that such substituted Assets constitute Eligible Securities.

(d) All investments and substitutions of securities referred to in Sections 4(b) and 4(c) above shall be in compliance with the definition of "Eligible Securities" in Section 12 of this Trust Agreement. Any instruction or order concerning such investments or substitutions of securities shall be referred to herein as an "Investment Order". The Trustee shall execute Investment Orders and settle securities transactions by itself or by means of an agent or broker. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission, or for the solvency, of any such agent or broker, except as set forth in Section 7.

(e) From time to time, upon notice to the Beneficiary, the Trustee may withdraw any Asset in the Trust Account upon the call or maturity of such Asset provided that the proceeds from such call or maturity are deposited into the Trust Account.

(f) When the Trustee is directed to deliver Assets against payment, delivery will be made in accordance with generally accepted market practice.

(g) Any loss incurred from any investment pursuant to the terms of this Section 4 shall be borne exclusively by the Trust Account.

(h) The Trustee shall not foreclose on, or direct or consent to the foreclosure of, any real property securing a commercial loan constituting an Asset or take title to such property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or other means without the prior written consent of the Grantor and the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not provide any consent or direction with respect to any such commercial loan except at the written direction of the Grantor.

Section 5. The Income Account. All payments of interest, dividends and other income in respect to Assets in the Trust Account shall be the property of the Grantor and shall be deposited by the Trustee subject to deduction of the Trustee's compensation and expenses as provided in Section 9 of this Agreement, in a separate account (the "Income Account") established and maintained by the Grantor at an office of the Trustee. The Grantor may withdraw amounts from the Income Account at any time and from time to time.

Section 6. Right to Vote Assets. The Trustee shall forward all annual and interim stockholder reports and all proxies and proxy materials relating to the Assets in the Trust Account to the Grantor within a reasonable period of time following the Trustee's receipt thereof. The Grantor shall have the full and unqualified right to vote any Asset in the Trust Account.

Section 7. Additional Rights and Duties of the Trustee.

(a) Before accepting any Asset for deposit to the Trust Account, the Trustee shall determine that such Asset is in such form that, to the extent practicable, the Beneficiary whenever necessary may, or the Trustee upon direction by the Beneficiary will, negotiate such Asset without consent or signature from the Grantor or any person or entity other than the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement.

(b) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to determine whether or not any instructions given by the Grantor and Beneficiary are contrary to any provision of law. It is understood and agreed that the Trustee's duties are solely those set forth herein and that the Trustee shall have no duty to take any other action unless specifically agreed to by the Trustee in writing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall not have any duty to advise, manage, supervise or make recommendations with respect to the purchase, retention or sale of Assets with respect to any Assets in the Trust Account as to which a default in the payment of principal or interest has occurred or to be responsible for the consequences of insolvency or the legal inability of any broker, dealer, bank or other agent employed by the Grantor or Trustee with respect to the Assets except to the extent that the Trustee was negligent, engaged in misconduct or acted in bad faith in the selection of any such person or entity.

(c) The Trustee shall accept and open all mail directed to the Grantor or the Beneficiary in care of the Trustee.

(d) The Trustee shall have no responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Assets in the Trust Account are or continue to be Eligible Securities.

(e) The Trustee shall furnish to the Grantor and the Beneficiary a statement of all Assets in the Trust Account upon the inception of the Trust Account and at the end of each calendar month thereafter. The statement shall include a description of the Assets in the Trust Account and shall be delivered within five (5) business days following the end of such calendar month.

(f) The Trustee shall keep full and complete records of the administration of the Trust Account in accordance with all applicable law. Upon the request of the Grantor or the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall promptly permit the Grantor or the Beneficiary, their respective agents, employees, independent auditors and regulatory authorities to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, during the Trustee's normal business hours, any books, documents, papers and records relating to the Trust Account or the Assets.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, the Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all instructions given by officers of the Grantor or the Beneficiary and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Trustee by the Grantor or the Beneficiary, including, without limitation, instructions given by letter, facsimile transmission or electronic media, if the Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties. In the absence of negligence, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Trustee in reliance in good faith on such instructions. The Trustee shall not incur any liability in executing instructions (i) from any attorney-in-fact prior to receipt by it of notice of the revocation of the written authority of the attorney-in-fact or (ii) from any officer of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

(h) The duties and obligations of the Trustee shall only be such as are specifically set forth in this Trust Agreement, as it may from time to time be amended, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Trust Agreement against the Trustee.

(i) No provision of this Trust Agreement shall require the Trustee to take any action which, in the Trustee's reasonable judgment, would result in any violation of this Trust Agreement or any provision of law.

(j) The Trustee may confer with counsel of its own choice in relation to matters arising under this Trust Agreement and shall have full and complete authorization from the other Parties for any action taken or suffered by it under this Trust Agreement or in respect of any transaction contemplated hereby in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(k) The Trustee shall notify the Grantor and Beneficiary in writing of any payment default occurring as to any Asset within three (3) business days after Trustee receives notice of such default. In the event of a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the Assets, the Trustee shall inform the Grantor and the Beneficiary immediately upon Trustee's receipt of notice of such delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall be liable for (i) subject to Section 7(n), the safekeeping of the Assets and administering the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement and (ii) its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith in performing its duties under this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall exercise the standard of care with respect to the Assets that a professional trustee, engaged in the banking or trust company industry, having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in such affairs. The Trustee shall be strictly liable for physical loss of or damage to Assets under its care, custody, possession or control or the care, custody, possession or control of its subcustodians, other agents or nominee(s), including but not limited to loss due to fire, burglary, robbery, theft or mysterious disappearance. In the event of loss or damage to the Assets under the care, custody, possession or control of Trustee or its subcustodians, other agents or nominee (s), Trustee shall, upon demand of the Grantor or Beneficiary, promptly replace such Assets with like kind and quality together with, all rights and privileges pertaining to the Assets (by among other methods, posting appropriate security or bond with the issuer of the Assets to obtain reissue of such Assets, or, if acceptable to the Grantor, deliver cash equivalent to the market value of the Assets as of the date of the discovery of the loss or damage). Nothing contained in any contract between Trustee and any entity authorized to hold Assets, as defined herein, shall diminish or otherwise alter the liability of Trustee to the Grantor or Beneficiary. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertions of liability in any claim, action or dispute alleging any breach of or failure to observe such standard of care.

(m) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Assets, for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the liens in or with respect to any of the Assets, for the validity of title to the Assets, for insuring the Assets, for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon or with respect to the Assets, for any obligations under any agreements or other documents evidencing or related to any of the Assets (other than this Trust Agreement), or for the compliance of the Assets with any laws, including any Environmental Law (as hereinafter defined). The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the recording, filing or registration (or for the rerecording, refiling or reregistration) of any instrument or notice, including any financing or continuation statement or any tax or securities form, at any time in any public office or elsewhere for the purpose of perfecting, maintaining the perfection of or otherwise making effective any lien upon or with respect to any of the Assets.

(n) The Parties acknowledge and agree that certain of the Assets are and will continue to be subject to servicing and custodial agreements in effect on the date hereof (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, including any replacements thereof, the "Servicing/Custodial Agreements"). The Grantor and the Beneficiary acknowledge and agree that (i) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement for any action or omission of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements, including with respect to any of the Assets at any time during which such Assets are under the care, custody, possession or control of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or any of their respective depositories, subcustodians, other agents or nominees (and, solely for the purposes of limiting the liability and determining the duties of the Trustee under Section 7(l), none of such Persons shall be considered to be the depositories, subcustodians, agents or nominees of the Trustee), (ii) the performance by the Trustee of any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement may be delayed, limited or otherwise affected by the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements and (iii) the Trustee shall have no liability under this Trust Agreement as a result of the Trustee's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Trust Agreement as a result of the actions or omissions of any of the parties to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements or as a result of the Assets being subject to the Servicing/Custodial Agreements.

Section 8. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trustee. The Trustee represents, warrants and covenants to the Grantor and Beneficiary that:

- (a) The Trustee is a Qualified United States Financial Institution;
- (b) In the ordinary course of its business, the Trustee maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity in this Trust Agreement;
- (c) The Trust Account is and at all times shall be maintained at an office of the Trustee in the United States of America;
- (d) The Trustee is not an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary.

Section 9. The Trustee's Compensation; Expenses.

(a) The Grantor shall pay the Trustee, as compensation for its services under this Trust Agreement, a fee computed at rates determined by the Trustee from time to time and communicated in writing to the Grantor. The Grantor shall pay or reimburse the Trustee for all of the Trustee's expenses and disbursements in connection with its duties under this Trust Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct, lack of good faith or failure to administer the Trust Account in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be entitled to deduct its compensation and expenses from payments of dividends, interest and other income in respect of the Assets held in the Trust Account prior to the deposit thereof to the Income Account as provided in Section 5 of this Agreement. The Grantor also hereby indemnifies the Trustee for, and holds it harmless against, any loss, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred or made without negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement (which shall be the sole obligation of the Trustee), including any loss, liability, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the status of the Trustee and its nominee as the holder of record of the Assets. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder.

(b) No Assets shall be withdrawn from the Trust Account or used in any manner for paying compensation to, or reimbursement or indemnification of, the Trustee.

(c) In addition to, and without limiting, the Grantor's indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9(a), to the extent resulting from or in connection with the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Trustee and its employees, officers, directors and agents from and against any claims, demands, penalties, fines, liabilities, settlements, damages, costs, or expenses of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, contingent or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, (i) the presence, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials which are on, from, or affecting soil, water, vegetation, buildings, personal property, persons, animals, or otherwise; (ii) any personal injury (including wrongful death), property damage (real or personal) or natural resource damage arising out of or related to such Hazardous Materials; (iii) any third party claim brought or threatened, settlement reached, or government order, or any policies or requirements of the Trustee, which are based upon or in any way related to such Hazardous Materials, including, without limitation, attorney and consultant fees and expenses, investigation and laboratory fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, and (iv) any violations of Environmental Law, except, in each instance, to the extent arising from the negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith of the Trustee. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation of the Trustee or the termination of this Trust Agreement and hereby grants the Trustee a lien, right of set-off and security interest in the funds in the Income Account for the payment of any claim for compensation, reimbursement or indemnity hereunder. For purposes hereof:

"Hazardous Materials" means, without limit, any pollutant, contaminant or hazardous, toxic, medical, biohazardous, or dangerous waste, substance, constituent or material, defined or regulated as such in, or for the purpose of, any applicable Environmental Law, including, without limitation, any asbestos, any petroleum, oil (including crude oil or any fraction thereof), any radioactive substance, any polychlorinated biphenyls, any toxin, chemical, disease-causing agent or pathogen, and any other substance that gives rise to liability under any applicable Environmental Law; and

“Environmental Law” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, and any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign statute, rule, regulation, order, judgment, directive, decree, permit, license or common law as in effect now, previously, or at any time during the term of this Trust Agreement, and regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning air emissions, water discharges, noise emissions, the release or threatened release or discharge of any Hazardous Material into the environment, the use, manufacture, production, refinement, generation, handling, treatment, storage, transport or disposal of any Hazardous Material or otherwise concerning pollution or the protection of the outdoor or indoor environment, or human health or safety in relation to exposure to Hazardous Materials.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal of the Trustee .

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time upon delivery of a written notice thereof to the Beneficiary and to the Grantor effective not less than 90 days after receipt by the Beneficiary and the Grantor of such notice. The Trustee may be removed by prior written notice executed by Grantor and Beneficiary. No such resignation or removal shall become effective until a successor Trustee has been appointed and approved by the Beneficiary and the Grantor and all Assets in the Trust Account have been duly transferred to the successor Trustee in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Section 10.

(b) Upon receipt by the proper Parties of the Trustee’s notice of resignation or the Grantor’s and Beneficiary’s notice of removal, the Grantor and the Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be a bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a Qualified United States Financial Institution, and shall not be an Affiliate of the Grantor or the Beneficiary. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Trustee hereunder by a successor Trustee and the transfer to such successor Trustee of all Assets in the Trust Account, the resignation or removal of the Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Trustee, and the resigning or removed Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement, but the resigning or removed Trustee shall continue after such resignation or removal to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities provided herein for the Trustee.

Section 11. Termination of the Trust Account .

(a) The Trust Account and this Trust Agreement, except for the indemnities provided herein, may be terminated only after the Grantor and Beneficiary mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account (the “Notice of Intention”). The Notice of Intention shall specify the date on which the Parties intend the Trust Account to terminate (the “Termination Date”).

(b) On the Termination Date, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantor all of the Assets not previously withdrawn by the Beneficiary.

Section 12. Definitions. Except as the context shall otherwise require, the following terms shall have the following meanings for purposes of this Trust Agreement (the definitions to be applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined if both forms of such term are used in this Trust Agreement):

The term "Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person.

The term "Beneficiary" shall include any successor of the Beneficiary by operation of law including, without limitation, any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator.

The term "Control" (including the related terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") shall mean the ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting securities of a corporation.

The term "Eligible Securities" shall mean and include certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender) and other assets of the types specified on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The terms "Person" shall mean and include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization or a government or political subdivision thereof.

The term "Qualified United States Financial Institution" shall mean a bank designated as such by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties).

Section 13. Governing Law. This Trust Agreement shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provision and the Trust Account created hereunder shall be administered in accordance with the laws of said state.

Section 14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Trust Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 15 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

Section 16. Severability. If any provision of this Trust Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Trust Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the Parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

Section 17. Entire Agreement. Except for the Coinsurance Agreement, this Trust Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no understandings or agreements, conditions or qualifications relative to this Trust Agreement which are not fully expressed in this Trust Agreement or the Coinsurance Agreement.

Section 18. Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be modified or otherwise amended, and the observance of any term of this Trust Agreement may be waived, only if such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by the Parties.

Section 19. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Trust Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two (2) business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between First Colony Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means calendar quarter, except that the last Accounting Period shall be the period commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter in which the Termination Date falls and ending with the Termination Date.

“Total GAAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross policy reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with GAAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks.

“Trust Account” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trust Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trustee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, “Benefits” shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company’s participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company’s administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI and Article VII shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $47 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

ARTICLE VI

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the "Initial Report").

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Quarterly Report"). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Annual Report").

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

ARTICLE IX

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

ARTICLE X

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto ("Eligible Securities").

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the "Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and

- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

ARTICLE XII

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

FIRST COLONY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between FIRST COLONY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

ARTICLE II

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;

- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception

Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

ARTICLE V

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

ARTICLE VIII

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

ARTICLE XIII

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVI

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules . Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices . All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.13. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor" used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

|---------------------------|--------------------|
| Policy Maintenance Factor | $23.84 per Policy |
|---------------------------|--------------------|

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents . Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement . In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution . If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

WHEREAS, FGIC MRCA Corp. (“MRCA Corp.”) and the Company entered into that certain Investment Administration Agreement, dated as of June 23, 1997 (as subsequently amended, the “Investment Administration Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Manager is an investment adviser registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission that will be engaged by the Company to provide the services described herein; and

WHEREAS, MRCA Corp. has provided the Company a written notice of resignation pursuant to Section 3.05 of the Investment Administration Agreement and the Company, by executing this Agreement, accepts such resignation and waives the requirement for sixty (60) days’ notice thereof; and

WHEREAS, the Investment Administration Agreement will be terminated and replaced by this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Manager and the Company wish to establish and define certain obligations set forth in Exhibit C and Exhibit D (the “Listed Obligations”) that the Manager is required to undertake in connection with the services it will provide to the Company under this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises made herein and upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Definitions

SECTION 1.01. Terms Defined in the Security Agreement. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement that are not defined herein shall have the respective meanings specified in the Collateral Trust and Security Agreement, dated as of June 23, 1997, among the Company, General Electric Capital Corporation (“GE Capital”), as LOC Agent, and Bankers Trust Company (predecessor-in-interest to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas), as Security Trustee (as amended, the “Security Agreement”).

SECTION 1.02. Terms Defined in this Agreement. As used in this Agreement, the following capitalized terms have the following meanings:

“Accounts” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.01.

SECTION 1.03. Other Definitional Provisions. Section 1.02 of the Security Agreement is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE II

Engagement; Powers and Duties

SECTION 2.01. Engagement of Manager.

(a) The Company hereby retains the Manager:

(i) to advise the Company as to the investment of its Assets, including recommending specific Permitted Investments, Permitted Collateral Investments and Hedge Contracts to the Company;

(ii) to administer the Company's Assets maintained in the Facility Account, the Collateral Accounts, and the LOC Reimbursement Account and such other accounts as the Company may maintain from time to time (the "Accounts"), which are identified (to the extent established by the effective date hereof) by account number in Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, with such deposits thereto and withdrawals therefrom as are from time to time permitted under the Security Agreement;

(iii) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities relating to the Accounts;

(iv) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale and otherwise to effect transactions in Hedge Contracts relating to the Accounts;

(v) to advise the Company in the issuance of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) Investment Orders and Disposition Orders, as may be required from time to time pursuant to the terms of Sections 2.04 and 2.05 of the Security Agreement;

(vi) to prepare reports and to perform valuation tests as specified in Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement;

(vii) to take such action as is necessary and proper on behalf of the Company for the preservation of Company Collateral pursuant to Section 2.07 of the Security Agreement;

(viii) to assist the Company in the preparation and filing of financing statements or amendments of financing statements, as may be required in connection with any change in the Company's name or location as contemplated by Section 2.08 of the Security Agreement;

(ix) to advise the Company in the granting or effecting of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any consents, waivers, extensions, or modifications in respect of any item of Company Collateral or Contract Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.10 of the Security Agreement;

(x) to advise the Company in the delivery of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of Company Collateral or Contract Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.11 of the Security Agreement;

(xi) to notify the Security Trustee and other specified parties as may be required from time to time, pursuant to the terms of the Security Agreement, of a Credit Event or a Program Event of Default;

(xii) to advise the Company as to the allocation of Company Collateral to particular Contracts pursuant to Article V of the Security Agreement and the terms of the relevant Contract;

(xiii) to notify the Security Trustee as may be required from time to time, pursuant to the terms of the Security Agreement, of an LOC Draw Event;

(xiv) to designate persons who are registered representatives of a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to execute and deliver Contracts on behalf of the Company in their capacity as such pursuant to a power of attorney granted by the Company from time to time to registered representatives designated and notified to the Company by the Manager from time to time;

(xv) to engage a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to assist the Company in connection with the offering, issuance and sale of Contracts and, in connection therewith, to make such other arrangements with such broker-dealer as may be necessary or advisable to ensure that such broker-dealer supervises its registered representatives who will effect such transactions and takes responsibility for such offering, issuance and sale; and

(xvi) to take any other action deemed necessary or advisable to write Contracts on behalf of the Company, subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Agreement.

The Manager shall administer all of the Company's Assets in the Accounts (all of such Assets together, the "Portfolio") in accordance with the terms and conditions and shall otherwise observe in all material respects the requirements of the Security Agreement and other Program Documents, the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, this Agreement and all other documents, policies, laws and regulations applicable to the Company from time to time. The Company shall provide copies of the Security Agreement, the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0 to the Manager no later than the time that this Agreement is entered into and shall provide copies of all amendments, supplements and revisions to such documents as soon as they are available to the Company.

(b) Performance. The Parties hereby agree that the Manager shall perform the specific Listed Obligations set forth in Exhibit C and Exhibit D during the term of this Agreement and, subject to Section 2.10, such other functions as are set forth in this Agreement or as are generally required to operate the business of the Company in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and Company policy. The Manager acknowledges that it will take all reasonable steps to continue to conduct the business of the Company in a manner substantially similar to that in which it had been conducted prior to the Parties' entry into this Agreement and in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Company. The Manager shall perform its duties pursuant to this Agreement (i) exercising the same diligence and care applied to manage its own property; (ii) consistent with the practices used by it (and its Affiliates) to manage portfolios of similar assets for other customers and (iii) consistent with the diligence and care applied by other professional managers of similar stature. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company does not consent, affirmatively or otherwise, to any proposed action by the Manager pursuant to this Section 2.01 (b), the Manager's failure to take such proposed action shall not be deemed a breach of its standard of care hereunder.

SECTION 2.02. Power of Attorney. The Company hereby provides the Manager with a revocable power of attorney with full power and authority:

- (i) to evaluate and appraise the Portfolio;
- (ii) to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities in connection with making Investments for the Portfolio;
- (iii) to arrange the purchase and sale and otherwise to effect transactions in Hedge Contracts in connection with making Investments for the Portfolio through registered broker-dealers;
- (iv) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any Investment Orders and Disposition Orders, as may be required from time to time pursuant to the terms of Section 2.04 and 2.05 of the Security Agreement;
- (v) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any consents, waivers, extensions, or modifications in respect of any item of Company Collateral or Contract Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.10 of the Security Agreement;
- (vi) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of Company Collateral or Contract Collateral;
- (vii) to engage a broker-dealer acceptable to the Company to assist the Company in the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations; and (viii) subject to the limitations set forth in the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, to take any other action, including executing agreements and any other documents on behalf of the Company that the Manager deems necessary or advisable to purchase, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions relating to the Portfolio.

All Investments made, and transactions entered into, by the Manager on behalf of the Company shall be entered into in the name of the Company. All actions contemplated above shall be performed in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and applicable Company policy. The Manager shall not be under an obligation to keep the Portfolio fully invested if, in its sole discretion, it shall determine that market and/or economic conditions make it imprudent or disadvantageous to do so at any time or funds should be made available for distributions and other payments pursuant to the Security Agreement. The Company represents that it has the authority to make the appointment set forth in this paragraph. In the event the Manager fails to perform a Listed Obligation and this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 4.05(a) or (b), or if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 4.05(c) or (d), this power of attorney may be revoked by the Company by written notice to the Manager.

SECTION 2.03. Valuation. The Manager shall value the Portfolio from time to time as required by Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement in order to prepare the reports required thereunder, using the portfolio valuation methods set forth in the Market Valuation Addendum attached as Schedule 1.01 to the Security Agreement, in order to determine whether a Coverage Shortfall, a Program Shortfall or a Net Worth Deficit has occurred and is continuing and whether the Market Sensitivity Limit has been exceeded. The Manager shall also value Permitted Collateral Investments on deposit in Collateral Accounts as required under the terms of each Collateralized Contract.

SECTION 2.04. Reports. As more particularly specified in the applicable Program Documents and in Exhibit C and Exhibit D, the Manager shall:

(a) prepare the Company's annual financial statements and, unless otherwise specified by the Company, arrange to have such statements audited by a firm of independent accountants acceptable to the Company and GE Capital;

(b) timely prepare and provide to the Security Trustee, the Company and the Rating Agencies such reports as are required to be provided to each of such Persons pursuant to Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement and in accordance with Exhibit 2.06 of the Security Agreement;

(c) give prompt written notice to the Company, the Security Trustee, the Broker-Dealers and the Rating Agencies of (i) the existence of a Coverage Shortfall, Program Shortfall, or Net Worth Deficit or (ii) the exceeding of a Market Sensitivity Limit; and

(d) notify the Company and GE Capital immediately upon learning of any Credit Event, Program Event of Default or other material default or breach of the Listed Obligations set forth in Exhibit C.

SECTION 2.05. Confidential Relationships. All information and recommendations furnished by the Manager to the Company shall be treated by the Company as confidential. The Manager shall, in turn, treat as confidential all information concerning the affairs of the Company. Nothing in this Section 2.05 shall be deemed to preclude any such information or recommendations from being disclosed by either Party to such Party's Affiliates or to the directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, or advisers of such Affiliates, or pursuant to applicable law, regulation or court order; provided, that any such recipients are advised of the confidential nature of such information or recommendations.

SECTION 2.06. Fees. The Company hereby agrees to pay to the Manager a fee (the "Management Fee") at an annual rate of sixteen and one-half (16.5) basis points (0.165%) of the Maximum Permitted Program Size of the Company as of the date hereof, payable quarterly in arrears; provided, however, that the Management Fee shall be pro rated to the date of termination in the event the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article IV. For the purposes hereof, "Maximum Permitted Program Size" means nine billion dollars ($9,000,000,000) or such larger amount as shall be approved in writing by GE Capital. In no event shall the Management Fee that is payable to the Manager be an amount less than fourteen million, eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($14,850,000) per annum, pro rated to reflect the period of time during which this Agreement was in effect during each year.

SECTION 2.07. Expenses Reimbursed.

(a) The Company shall reimburse the Manager for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred and approved pursuant to Section 2.09(e) in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder, except for any expenses arising out of the Manager's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder.

(b) The Company shall reimburse the Manager for all appropriate Operating Costs of the Company. Such reimbursement shall be made, upon receipt by the Company from the Manager of a schedule detailing Operating Costs (substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereof), within thirty (30) days following the end of each quarter. For the purposes hereof, "Operating Costs" means all costs incurred by the Manager in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement that have been submitted and approved in writing as part of the annual budget approval process described in Section 2.09(e). For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby agreed that certain expenses will not be paid by the Manager and do not constitute reimbursable Operating Costs. Such expenses, which are directly attributable to the Company, include fees payable to: (i) each rating agency that assigns a rating to the Company, (ii) external auditors of the Company, (iii) external legal counsel engaged by the Company for services rendered thereto and not in connection with duties of the Manager which are unrelated to the management services it renders to the Company, (iv) certain third-party providers of accounting services to the Company, (v) providers of credit research services required by the Company and (vi) any provider of goods or services for costs incurred in connection with requirements imposed by regulatory authorities, the applicable rating agencies, or any applicable law, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, ordinance, code issued by a Governmental Authority or regulatory body, or any order, writ, injunction, directive, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction; each such expense shall be paid by the Company.

SECTION 2.08. Execution of Securities Transactions.

(a) In connection with the offering and sale of Contracts, the Manager shall engage a registered broker-dealer approved by the Company that provides services with respect to the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts that the Manager believes to be of value. The Company shall pay all costs associated with the retention of such broker-dealer.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically directed by the Company, the Manager shall have complete discretion to select any registered broker-dealer in all securities transactions affecting the Portfolio not described in Section 2.08(a). The Manager is expressly authorized to select such brokers-dealers who provide brokerage and research services that the Manager believes to be of value. The Manager is expressly authorized to pay from the Assets in the Portfolio commissions on such transactions in amounts that the Manager determines in good faith to be reasonable in relation to the value of such brokerage and research services, viewed in terms either of the particular transaction or the overall responsibilities of the Manager with respect to the Portfolio.

SECTION 2.09. Administrative Responsibilities. The Manager shall have the following administrative responsibilities:

(a) The Manager shall submit the budget for reimbursable Operating Costs to the Company and GE Capital by no later than January 31 of each year and such budget shall be approved by the Manager of Finance of Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operations (or such other representative as shall be designated from time to time in a notice to the Manager executed by the Company and GE Capital) by February 15 of such year. Operating Costs incurred in excess of the aggregate amounts approved in the annual budget must be separately approved by the Company and GE Capital in order to be considered for reimbursement.

(b) Custody of the Assets comprising the Portfolio will be maintained by the Security Trustee or the applicable Collateral Agent as specified in Article II of the Security Agreement. The Manager shall not have custody of any of the Assets in the Portfolio.

(c) The Manager shall keep such books and records relating to all transactions that it effects pursuant to this Agreement, including without limitation all books and records necessary (in addition to books and records available from the Security Trustee pursuant to Section 2.09(c) or otherwise) for preparing the reports required by Section 2.04.

(d) The Manager on behalf of the Company shall instruct the Security Trustee and each Collateral Agent: (i) to send copies of all statements relating to the Accounts to the Manager; (ii) to permit the Manager, on behalf of the Company, to inspect the Company Collateral or Contract Collateral, as the case may be, in the possession or otherwise under the control of the Security Trustee and the books and records maintained by the Security Trustee or such Collateral Agent, as the case may be, relating thereto (and to allow the Manager to make extracts and copies thereof) as the Manager may reasonably request pursuant to Section 2.03(b) of the Security Agreement; and (iii) to report to the Manager, concurrently with reporting to the Company pursuant to Section 2.03(a) of the Security Agreement, any failure on the part of the Security Trustee or such Collateral Agent, as the case may be, to hold the Company Collateral as provided in Section 2.03(a) of the Security Agreement.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, the Manager shall provide no services to the Company in respect of tax planning or tax compliance of any kind.

(f) The Manager shall submit presentations relating to the offering of Contracts to the Company and GE Capital for approval prior to external use.

(g) The Manager shall maintain its status as an “investment adviser” under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and shall follow all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such and to its performance hereunder, including all applicable laws and regulations relating to bidding for Contracts.

SECTION 2.10. Other Duties as Reasonably Requested. The Manager shall also perform such other duties or shall modify existing duties as the Company may reasonably request or that the Manager shall recommend to the Company from time to time relating to the management of a business involved in the issuance of guaranteed investment contracts and similar debt obligations issued by providers rated “AAA”/”Aaa” and the management of the proceeds of the issuance of such contracts and obligations. If any additional or modified duties are required of Manager under this Agreement, Manager shall have the reasonable time and opportunity to procure such additional resources as may, in Manager’s good faith judgment, be required to perform such duties. Manager also agrees that it will cease to perform the requirements of certain obligations specified hereunder if the Company so directs in writing. Any such changes or additions shall be deemed for all purposes to be amendments or supplements to this Agreement. The Company shall pay such costs as have been mutually agreed to by the Parties and as may from time to time be required to enable the Manager to perform any additional or changed Listed Obligations contemplated herein and other obligations not listed in this Agreement for which additional resources are required or additional costs are reasonably incurred by the Manager.

SECTION 2.11. Limitation of Liability. Neither the Manager nor any of its Affiliates nor any of their respective directors, officers, or employees shall be liable to the Company for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss arising out of any Investment, Hedge Contract, or any other commitment of funds on behalf of the Company or for any act or omission in the administration of the Portfolio except for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder, other than as may be provided under applicable law.

SECTION 2.12. Indemnification. (a) The Company shall (i) indemnify and hold harmless the Manager and any Affiliate of the Manager and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an “Indemnified Party”) from and against all losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to which such Indemnified Party may become subject (except in respect of the broker-dealer engaged by the Manager in respect of the placement of Contracts, which shall be the sole liability of the Manager), insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions, suits or proceedings including any inquiry or investigation or claims in respect thereof) arise out of, in any way relate to, or result from the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement, and (ii) reimburse each of the Indemnified Parties upon its demand for any reasonable legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, preparing to defend or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability, action or claim, in each case only to the extent that funds are available therefor in accordance with the Security Agreement; provided, however, that none of the Indemnified Parties shall have the right to be so indemnified hereunder for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to the extent resulting from its own negligence or willful misconduct or for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities that it is required to pay to any broker-dealer that it has engaged in connection with the Contracts or other liabilities. If any action is brought against an Indemnified Party indemnified or intended to be indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.12, the Company shall, if requested by such Indemnified Party, resist and defend such action, suit or proceeding or cause the same to be resisted and defended by counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, but shall not be empowered to compromise or settle such action, suit or proceeding unless such Indemnified Party has been fully indemnified for any loss, claim, damage, expense or liability it thereby suffers. Each Indemnified Party shall, unless the Indemnified Party has made the request described in the preceding sentence and such request has been complied with, have the right to employ its own counsel to investigate and control the defense of any matter covered by such indemnity and the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. Any obligations of the Company pursuant to this Section 2.12 are Deferred Expenses and the Manager shall have recourse solely to the LOC Reimbursement Account for such obligations of the Company (and not to any other assets of the Company) and shall be paid in the priority specified in the applicable sections of Article VII of the Security Agreement. The Manager hereby expressly consents to such limited recourse to the LOC Reimbursement Account and to such priorities of distributions set forth in Article VII of the Security Agreement.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

SECTION 3.01. Valid Existence; Authorization; Enforceability . Each of the Parties represents and warrant to the other as follows:

(a) such Party is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has all requisite power, legal right and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and all other documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder; and

(b) this Agreement and all the documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and therewith has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of such Party.

ARTICLE IV

Miscellaneous Provisions

SECTION 4.01. No Assignment Without Consent . This Agreement, and the obligations and rights arising under this Agreement, may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by either Party (including any assignment or transfer in connection with any Person succeeding to any part of the business of either Party) without the prior written consent of the other Party and without obtaining Rating Agency Confirmation.

SECTION 4.02. Counterparts . This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and, as so executed, shall constitute one agreement binding upon the Parties.

SECTION 4.03. No Third Party Beneficiaries . Nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the Parties and their permitted assigns), any right, remedy or claim by reason of this Agreement or any term hereof, and all terms contained herein shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns.

SECTION 4.04. Interpretation . The headings of the Articles and Sections hereof are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

SECTION 4.05. Term; Termination .

(a) The Manager's appointment hereunder shall continue in effect for an initial term commencing on the date hereof and ending on December 31, 2006, with extensions for additional one (1) year periods commencing automatically upon each anniversary thereof, unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing at least ninety (90) days before such anniversary that such extension shall not be effective.

(b) If the Manager fails to perform any of its obligations set forth in this Agreement, Exhibit C or Exhibit D, the Manager (or if the failure is first discovered by the Company, then the Company) shall give prompt written notice (such notice, a “Notice of Failure”) to the persons identified in Exhibit E (the “Failure Notice Recipients”) specifying the nature of the failure; provided that in the event the Manager fails to perform any of its obligations set forth in Exhibit C, the Company shall give prompt written notice of such failure to the Rating Agencies in addition to the Failure Notice Recipients. In the event such Notice of Failure is given, then either the Manager or the Company may elect to submit the matter for review (a “Submission”) and resolution (“Dispute Resolution”), which may include the establishment of a plan of remediation (a “Remediation Plan”), to (i) with respect to the Manager, the Business Leader of the Retirement Income and Investment Segment of Genworth Financial Inc. (or such person or persons as such Business Leader may designate) and (ii) with respect to the Company, the Senior Vice President – Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operation of GE Capital (or such person or persons as such Senior Vice President may designate) ((i) and (ii) together, “Senior Management”). The Manager and the Company agree (x) to cooperate in good faith and in a reasonable manner to reach an agreement with respect to any Remediation Plan; (y) to be bound by the results of any such Dispute Resolution agreed to by Senior Management including any Remediation Plan (the timing and content of which shall be at the sole discretion of Senior Management) and (z) that the Manager will implement any such Remediation Plan within the period mandated by Senior Management (the “Final Cure Period”). The result of any such Dispute Resolution shall be in writing signed by Senior Management, shall be deemed part of this Agreement and, with respect to the failure involved, shall supersede any conflicting or different terms of this Agreement. The Chief Operating Officer of Manager’s Capital Markets Group responsible for management of the Company or a person designated by such officer (a “Designee”) shall provide to the Rating Agencies notice and a copy of any Remediation Plan resulting from a Dispute Resolution that is deemed by such officer or Designee to have a potential adverse effect on the ratings of the Company. The Manager shall identify such officer or Designee in the appropriate periodic risk reports submitted to the Rating Agencies.

If Senior Management fails to reach an agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has not expired, the matter in dispute shall be resolved solely and exclusively in accordance with the arbitration procedures set forth in Exhibit F.

If (i) Senior Management or an arbitral tribunal described in Exhibit F fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has expired or (ii) the Manager fails to correct the failure by the end of the applicable Final Cure Period, then this Agreement may, subject to Section 4.05(e), be terminated by the Company upon two (2) Business Days’ prior written notice to the Manager and each Failure Notice Recipient specifying the basis for and the effective date of the termination.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment obligations of the Company during the initial term of this Agreement shall not be terminated if any such failure and the continuation thereof are caused by Impossibility. For the purposes hereof “Impossibility” means loss or malfunction of electric power, transportation or communication services; general inability to obtain or retain labor, material, equipment or transportation, or a delay in mails or services; the Company’s, GE Capital’s or their Affiliates’ (i) failure to take an action on which the Manager’s performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation depends or (ii) taking an action which renders the Manager’s performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation impossible; governmental or exchange action, statute, ordinance, ruling, regulation, administrative interpretation or directive; acts of terror, vandalism, explosions, tornados, acts of God or public enemy, acts of any civil or military authority, revolutions, insurrections, strike, emergency, riots or civil commotions, freezes, fires, floods, embargoes, wars, sabotage, explosions or other unforeseen or unexpected occurrences, which unforeseen or unexpected occurrences render the performance of any obligations by the Manager impossible. In the event of any such occurrence, the Manager shall use all reasonable efforts to remediate the disruption and resume its performance of the obligations.

(c) The Company shall have the right, by giving the Manager thirty (30) Business Days’ prior written notice, to terminate this Agreement at an earlier time than that specified in Section 4.05(a) in the event of continuing non-performance by the Manager due to Impossibility of any obligation hereunder beyond the applicable Cure Period or Final Cure Period, or if the Company liquidates all or substantially all of the Assets of the Company held in the Facility Account (except Contract Collateral) and substitutes therefor the debt of GE Capital pursuant to the terms of the Permitted Investments Amendment. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 4.05(c), the Manager shall be paid a termination fee by the Company equal to the product of (i) sixteen and one-half (16.5) basis points (0.165%), multiplied by (ii) the Maximum Permitted Program Size, multiplied by (iii) the percentage derived by dividing the number of days remaining in the initial term by 365. In addition, the termination fee shall include any actual cost incurred and agreed upon and reasonably associated with terminating the operations set forth in this Agreement, including but not limited to employment severance costs as determined by the standard practices of the Manager.

(d) The Manager may resign upon not less than ninety (90) days’ prior written notice to the Company.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, including the expiration of any term of this Agreement, so long as the Portfolio is still outstanding, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and no termination or resignation of the Manager shall be effective until the Company has entered into an agreement with a successor manager. Upon receiving a notice of resignation from the Manager, the Company shall use its best efforts to enter into such an agreement unless it elects to terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 4.05(c) above. Except as set forth in Exhibit F, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any Party’s rights to pursue remedies at law or in equity, which shall be available in accordance with applicable law in addition to any remedies provided for in this Agreement.

SECTION 4.06. Independent Contractor. The Manager is being engaged pursuant to this Agreement as an independent contractor and the Parties expressly disclaim any intention to enter into a joint venture, partnership, or any other form of association pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 4.07. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE RULES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

SECTION 4.08. Notices. All notices, instructions, and advice with respect to any transactions or other matters contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed duly given only when actually received at such Party's principal place of business as set forth below. Return receipt or courier record of delivery shall be deemed conclusive evidence of receipt. Notices may be made by fax or other electronic means shall be deemed given upon electronic evidence of receipt at applicable recipient's fax or computer station. A copy of all notices given shall be provided to GE Capital.

SECTION 4.09. Entire Agreement; All Amendments in Writing. (a) This Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all other previous agreements, written or oral, concerning the same subject matter.

(b) The Parties may at any time and from time to time, agree to any amendment or modification of, any provision of this Agreement to cure any mistake, ambiguity, defect or inconsistency or to correct any manifest error or to correct any error of formal, minor or technical nature. The Rating Agencies shall be given written notice of any amendment under this Section 4.09(b) not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date thereof.

(c) The Parties may at any time and from time to time, agree to any amendment or modification of, any provision of this Agreement other than any amendment or modification provided for in Section 4.09(b); provided that, in each case, a Rating Agency Confirmation shall be obtained prior to the effectiveness of such amendment or modification.

(d) Any amendment to any provision of the Security Agreement that is incorporated by reference in this Agreement (including, without limitation, any amendment to any of the capitalized terms incorporated by reference herein), so long as such amendment is made as permitted under the terms of the Security Agreement, shall constitute an amendment to this Agreement unless the Parties agree in writing that such amendment shall not be effective under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.10. Waiver. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Party from whom such waiver or consent is sought, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. The Party seeking such waiver or consent shall promptly deliver a copy thereof to the Rating Agencies.

SECTION 4.11. Further Assurances. Each Party hereby agrees to execute and deliver such additional documents, instruments or agreements as may be reasonably necessary and appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.12. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 4.13. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

SECTION 4.14. Limited Recourse. The obligations of the Company under this Agreement are solely the obligations of the Company. No recourse shall be had for any obligation or claim arising out of or based upon this Agreement against any Member, manager, officer organizer, agent or employee of the Company or any shareholder, officer, director, employee, agent or incorporator of any Member. Any accrued obligations owing by the Company shall be payable by the Company solely to the extent that funds are available therefor from time to time in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of the Security Agreement (and such accrued obligations shall not be extinguished until paid in full.)

SECTION 4.15. Termination of the Investment Administration Agreement; Release. Effective as of the date hereof, the Company does hereby, for itself and its successors and assigns, waive the sixty (60) days' notice requirement of Section 3.05 of the Investment Administration Agreement and accepts the resignation of MRCA Corp. as the Portfolio Adviser thereunder and fully and unconditionally release and forever discharge MRCA Corp. (and any officer, director, employee or agent of MRCA Corp.) from any and all present and future (i) obligations and liabilities under the Investment Administration Agreement and (ii) causes of action, suits, claims, demands, liabilities and obligations whatsoever, whether at law or in equity, arising from or related to the Investment Administration Agreement, arising from and after the date hereof.

Priority Manager Functions

| Listed Obligation | Cure Period |
|--|---|
| Payments | |
| Manager shall cause payments to be made as required under any Contracts, Hedge Contracts or other agreement to which the Company is a party. | Five (5) Business Days from the date a notice of nonpayment received by Manager under the applicable Contract, Hedge Contract or agreement (or such shorter period as exists prior to such nonpayment being an actionable default thereunder); provided, however, that if the Manager or the Company gives notice to the other party requesting Dispute Resolution within one (1) Business Day of notice, the cure period hereunder shall be extended by three (3) Business Days from the date the notice of nonpayment is received (it being understood that in no event shall this section supersede the contractual payment obligations in the respective Contracts or Hedge Contracts). |
| Risk Matters | |
| Manager shall comply with all requirements of GE Capital’s Policy 5.0 and 6.0 relating to the Company and related “strike zones,” as such policies and strike zones are amended from time to time, and all requirements relating to Permitted Investments and the portfolio in the Security Agreement; provided, that in the event that a trigger has been tripped under Policy 6.0 by virtue of a change in the market or pursuant to the action of a rating agency, GE Capital shall provide direction on remediation on a case-by-case basis if not otherwise provided for in Policy 6.0 and, if the Manager takes the appropriate corrective action (whether as prescribed by the Policy or as directed by GE Capital), no failure to perform an obligation under this Agreement shall be deemed to have occurred. | Five (5) Business Days. |
| Rating Agency Requirements | |
| Manager shall prepare all reports on the dates specified by each rating agency currently rating obligations of the Company and shall meet all requirements specified by any such agency for continuation or reinstatement of their highest long-term and short-term ratings. | Thirty (30) days or such shorter or longer period as is specified for compliance by the rating agencies. |

Financial Reporting

Manager shall comply with Section 2.04 hereof and the Listed Obligations and shall prepare all reports relating to the Company as are necessary or desirable for compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and any other financial reporting requirements of the Company under applicable law and external regulation.

Thirty (30) days or such shorter or longer period as is specified by the applicable accounting firm or regulatory body to allow for compliance with the applicable regulatory or disclosure requirement.

Legal Compliance

Manager shall prepare disclosure documentation annually or more frequently as is necessary or desirable in connection with its offering of Contracts and Preferred Securities and shall otherwise comply with the requirements of contracts to which it is a party, and all applicable laws and regulations.

Thirty (30) days or such other period as is specified in the applicable agreement or regulation or as is directed by the applicable regulatory body.

Listed ObligationsBusiness

- Manager will use its best efforts to maintain an Average Program Size of thirteen billion dollars ($13,000,000,000) or such other amount reasonably specified by the Company from time to time for the combined portfolios of the Company and Trinity Funding Company, LLC. For the purposes hereof, the term “Average” means a rolling 3-month average of end-of-day balances, computed daily.
- Manager will review the Portfolio Quality Review with GE Capital on a monthly basis on such dates as Manager and GE Capital shall agree to in advance.

Compliance/Legal

- Manager will maintain the corporate and limited liability company minutebooks and records of the Company and its non-controlling common members and any successors thereto, and take all actions required to maintain their valid existence and good standing in the jurisdictions in which they are organized or qualified.
- Manager will comply with applicable law in respect of the Company’s issuance of Contracts and Preferred Securities, including with respect to rules promulgated under federal securities laws that restrict certain forms of advertising and solicitation.
- Manager will prepare updated versions of the Confidential Information Memorandum of the Company (i) on an annual basis to reflect then-current audited financial information of the Company or (ii) at such other times as may be required by the Company.
- Manager will, as required from time to time, prepare updated versions of the Private Placement Memorandum of the Company relating to the Company’s issuance of Preferred Securities.
- Manager will use its best efforts to take all actions required in connection with obtaining the appropriate authority with respect to the extension of the Liquidity Commitment and/or the Letter of Credit commitment and any required increase of the Liquidity Commitment and/or the Letter of Credit commitment (it being understood that no failure to perform a Listed Obligation shall be deemed to have occurred if either such commitment is not extended or increased after a request has been submitted).
- Manager will consult with and obtain approval from the Company in connection with proposed material modifications to the terms or the form of Contracts.

- Manager will maintain its status as an “investment adviser” under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and will take all reasonable steps to comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such.
- Manager will cause its legal staff to draft and prepare all Contracts, Hedge Contracts and other contracts entered into by the Company. The in-house counsel of Manager may, to the extent required, engage outside counsel in connection with the preparation of such contracts if such engagement is approved verbally or in writing by the General Counsel – Treasury Operation of GE Capital and otherwise approved under Section 2.09. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude Manager from engaging its own outside counsel for any purpose it deems necessary or advisable, and Manager need not obtain any separate approval therefor.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws and all applicable policies and procedures as the same may be provided to Manager by the Company, including but not limited to the USA Patriot Act and Anti-Money Laundering policies and laws.
- Manager will take all reasonable actions required to assist the Company or GE Capital in connection with changes to the corporate structure of the Company and its common members.
- Manager will take all reasonable steps to provide prompt responses to GE Capital in connection with requests from regulatory or other governmental authorities for documentation or data relating to the operation of the Company.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, policies, management procedures and other requirements of the Company, GE Capital and Genworth, including but not limited to the GE Capital Information Security Procedure and, to the extent applicable, the policies contained in “Integrity: The Spirit and the Letter of Our Commitment.”

Liability/Contract Bidding Process

- Manager shall ensure that transactions in Contracts are effected in accordance with the following general procedure: (i) a registered representative of a broker-dealer (each, a “GIC Salesperson”) shall receive bid specifications (“Bid Specs”) provided by prospective Contract customers or their agents (“Customers”); (ii) the GIC Salesperson shall analyze the Bid Specs and respond to Customers, indicating to such Customers, where appropriate, the requirements to maintain the Company’s exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; (iii) the GIC Salesperson shall submit all Bid Specs for review and comment to the designated member of the Manager’s legal staff and will note on any bid acceptance form that is delivered to the Customer all appropriate comments received from the legal staff; (iv) the GIC Salesperson shall price transactions in which the Company has an interest in bidding and communicate such pricing to the applicable Customer; and (v) the Manager's legal staff shall provide counsel to the GIC Salesperson in connection with the preparation, negotiation and closing of all Contracts for transactions that the Company wins.

Financial Controls

- Manager will perform its accounting responsibilities in compliance with GE Capital's internal accounting policies and U.S. GAAP.
- Manager will maintain accounting policies currently in place and all changes to accounting policies must be approved in advance by GE Capital. For new accounting standards, GE Capital will provide Manager with the accounting policy to be adopted by the Company.
- Manager will perform accounting in accordance with FAS 133 and obtain approval from GE Capital for the following FAS 133 activities:
 - Changes to existing hedge documentation
 - Changes in existing methodology used to assess and measure hedge effectiveness
 - Application of "fair value" hedging as defined in FAS 133
 - Economic hedges that do not qualify for FAS 133 hedge treatment
- Manager will provide a monthly variance analysis of:
 - Changes in the fair market value of derivatives
 - Hedge ineffectiveness
 - Amounts excluded from the measure of effectiveness
- Manager will reconcile all general ledger accounts in accordance with GE Capital's account reconciliation criteria. Manager will provide a quarterly dashboard of account reconciliations and open items (in an agreed upon format) on dates to be provided to Manager.
- Manager is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal controls adequate to ensure that Assets are appropriately safeguarded and that the financial statements and related disclosures and schedules fairly present the financial condition of the Company.
- Manager and GE Capital will agree upon and execute a plan to minimize profit and loss volatility associated with FAS 133.

- Manager will deliver monthly unaudited financial results including any adjustments to the monthly financials to be included in the next month's accounting period. These financials should include an explanation of significant items of variance to the Operating Plan. Such financial statements will be delivered within fifteen 15 days of the close as defined by GE Capital.
- Manager will deliver quarterly unaudited financial reports and schedules in accordance with GE Capital's closing instructions. Such financials statement will include variance and profitability analysis suitable for the closing of the books. Closing instruction to be provided by the 15th of the month of the quarterly close.
- Manager will provide the Company with financial projections in accordance with GE Capital's SI, SII and OP process. GE Capital will provide the Manager with SI, SII and OP timing and assumptions where needed to make such forecasts.
- Manager will deliver annual audited financial statements (balance sheet and income statement) upon completion of the annual audit by GE Capital's external auditors.
- Manager will conduct annual reviews in compliance with applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, in a manner acceptable to GE Capital.
- Manager will report detailed profit and loss results and details of expenses within fifteen (15) days following the end of each quarterly period, including comparisons of actual versus plan, in a format reasonably agreeable to both parties. Profit and loss reports will be included in the monthly Portfolio Quality Review, substantially in the format attached as Schedule I to this Exhibit D.

Risk

- Manager will comply with the Permitted Investments guidelines provided in Schedule 4.01(h) of the Security Agreement.
- Manager will value the Portfolio from time to time, as required by Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement in order to prepare the reports required by such Section of the Security Agreement, using the portfolio valuation methods set forth in the Market Valuation Addendum attached as Schedule 1.01 to the Security Agreement, in order to determine whether a Coverage Shortfall, a Program Shortfall or a Net Worth Deficit has occurred and is continuing and whether the Market Sensitivity Limit has been exceeded. The Manager shall also value Permitted Collateral investments on deposit in Collateral Accounts as required under the terms of each Collateralized Contract.
- Manager will comply with all applicable terms set forth in Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0 and all "strike zones" defined by GE Capital with respect to assets, liabilities and derivatives (as each may be amended from time to time by GE Capital). Manager will deliver the following reports on a monthly basis for monitoring such compliance:

- Portfolio Quality Review
 - Credit Limit Watch
 - Credit Risk Rating
 - Stop Loss
 - Month End Credit
 - Counterparty Exposure
- Except as otherwise specified in this Exhibit D, Manager will deliver risk reports to GE Capital on a monthly basis and will include, at a minimum, the following:
- Portfolio Quality Review
 - Supplemental Program Shortfall
 - Liquidity Report (provided on a daily basis)
 - Summary Hedge Analysis Report (provided on a daily basis)
 - REM (electronic submission)
- Manager will provide other available reports required from time to time by GE Capital as they are requested.
- Manager will participate, on a monthly and quarterly basis, in in-force reviews with Genworth senior management and GE Capital senior management.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with data feeds relating to the Portfolio, the content, format and timing of the delivery of which feeds will be agreed upon by Manager and GE Capital.
- Manager will (i) comply with applicable requirements as to hedge counterparty ratings, as set forth in the Security Agreement and as provided in the applicable policies of GE Capital, (ii) comply with the applicable requirements to provide information to GE Capital with respect to hedge counterparty exposure, (iii) deliver a Counterparty Exposure report for monitoring such compliance and (iv) comply with such restrictions as to hedge counterparty that may from time to time be imposed by GE Capital.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with such available additional risk analyses as GE Capital may request, including but not limited to, stress tests and value at risk analyses. In each case, the content, format and timing of the delivery of such analyses will be agreed upon, prior to delivery, by GE Capital and Manager.

- Manager will comply with all applicable requirements relating to the Company's maintenance of the "AAA"/"Aaa" ratings assigned thereto by the applicable rating agencies.

Customer

- Manager will ensure delivery by mail or e-mail, or will make available on the Company's website, to the Company's customers in accordance with such customers' respective Contracts, Customer Statements in respect of customers' investments with the Company.
- Manager will ensure the timely remittance of payments required under each Contract or other agreement of the Company.
- When requested by the Company and GE Capital, Manager will deliver to the Company and GE Capital customer service metrics (e.g., call volume by customer complaint type by date) and deal closing customer survey results (if and to the extent the same is provided by customers).

Information Technology

- Manager will maintain the current systems environment to fully support the business requirements and the services to be performed under this Agreement for the Company.

Continuous Service (Disaster Recovery)

A disaster recovery site shall be maintained as follows:

- Backup copies of critical servers shall be maintained at an off-premises Disaster Recovery Site (locations to be determined from time to time by the Parties hereto). The critical servers are as follows: Principia PAS server, Oracle Data Warehouse Server, File Server, Oracle GL Server, and FileNET CM Server. In the event of a major disaster where access to production servers and 335 Madison Avenue's assets (or those of a successor location from which the Company's business is operated) is lost, service will be restored on the following schedule: PAS and Oracle Data warehouse systems will be within twenty-four (24) hours. GL and FileNET server will be available within forty-eight (48) hours. The Parties will work with GE Capital Treasury on a best effort basis to establish and implement an adequate Disaster Recovery plan.

- Software refreshes to synchronize the DR systems with the production systems shall be done within twenty-four (24) hours of the update of the production system to coincide with production system updates.
- Backups of the production PAS database shall be copied to the DR PAS server nightly.

Data Management (Backups and Retention)

- Full data backups are performed daily on all production and Quality Assurance systems.
- Full data backups of all Network files are performed daily.
- Backup tapes shall be stored offsite at Iron Mountain. Tapes are picked up by 10:30 a.m. daily.
- An authorized list of personnel may recall tapes from Iron Mountain (an agreement exists to deliver backup tapes to any location, including the home of IT personnel).
- Tapes shall be cycled on a rolling eight (8) week rotation. All Financial close and Month End tapes shall be marked permanent and retained indefinitely.

Change Management: Notification and Approval Process on Changes to IT Infrastructure and Application Software

- GE Capital Treasury shall have the right to approve the Company's Change Management Process.
- All change requests shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury on a weekly basis.
- Emergency changes to the IT Environment shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury as they occur.
- In the event of a major System Failure GE Capital Treasury shall be notified and required to approve required changes.

Performance and Capacity Planning Reporting and Reviews

- In general, monthly business reports shall be available by 9:00 a.m. the last Business Day of the month. The IT team will communicate all exceptions by 8:30 a.m. on the day such exceptions occur. The communication will include the anticipated delivery time. The following performance tracking processes exist:

- Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of exceptions and violations of the 9:00 a.m. report delivery times and cures employed.
 - Monthly report on system loading and projected performance bottlenecks and issues and resolutions.
 - Monthly report of license denials.
- GE Capital Treasury shall perform a quarterly review of systems and access rights to those systems. IT shall prepare the report to be reviewed, deliver a copy to GE Capital Treasury and will remediate issues discovered. An updated access matrix will be added to the “CMS Operational Procedures and Controls” document quarterly.

Personnel

- Manager will maintain a staff of qualified employees sufficient to support the business requirements of the Company and to perform the services required under this Agreement.

Other Obligations

- Manager will comply in all material respects with all other obligations provided under this Agreement.

Arbitration Procedures

If Senior Management fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution within forty-five (45) days of a Submission and the Cure Period has not expired, either Party may submit the matter to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The Parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known matters under dispute existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each Party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each Party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other Party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the Parties. The arbitrators shall determine the matter in dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

The Parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this provision and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this provision may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no Party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a matter in dispute, except (i) for enforcement, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable.

Each Party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any matter in dispute in accordance with this provision.
