MASTER AGREEMENT

MASTER AGREEMENT, dated May , 2004 (this “Agreement”), among General Electric Company, a New York corporation (“GE”), General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“GECC”), GEI, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEI”), GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEFAHI”), and collectively with GE, GEI and GECC, the “GE Parties”), and Genworth Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Genworth”). Certain terms used in this Agreement are defined in Section 1.1.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the boards of directors of GE and GECC have determined that it is in the best interests of GE, GECC and their respective stockholders to divest the Genworth Group into a separate business, and the board of directors of GECC has adopted the Plan of Divestiture for the purpose of divesting a controlling interest in the stock of Genworth;

WHEREAS, Genworth has been incorporated solely for these purposes and has not engaged in activities except in preparation for its corporate reorganization and the sale of its stock;

WHEREAS, in furtherance of the foregoing, the boards of directors of GE, GECC and GEFAHI and the board of directors of Genworth have determined that it is appropriate and desirable to transfer the Genworth Assets to Genworth and its Subsidiaries and to cause Genworth and certain of its Subsidiaries designated by Genworth to assume the Genworth Liabilities, all as more fully described in this Agreement and the Transaction Documents;

WHEREAS, the boards of directors of GE and GEFAHI have further determined that it is appropriate and desirable to divest (i) a portion of GEFAHI’s interest in the Genworth Common Stock through the Initial Public Offering registered under the Securities Act, (ii) all of GEFAHI’s interest in the Genworth Equity Units and (iii) all of GEFAHI’s interest in the Series A Preferred Stock, concurrently with the closing of the Separation and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the board of directors of Genworth has further determined that it is appropriate and desirable to facilitate the Initial Public Offering and the Concurrent Offerings;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Plan of Divestiture, GECC plans to dispose of additional stock of Genworth so that within two years following the Initial Public Offering GECC will own in the aggregate less than 50% of the outstanding stock of Genworth and as soon or reasonably practicable thereafter will own in the aggregate less than 20% of the outstanding stock of Genworth; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate and desirable to set forth the principal corporate transactions required to effect the Separation and certain other agreements that will, following the consummation of the Initial Public Offering and the Concurrent Offerings, govern certain matters relating to the Separation and the Initial Public Offering and the relationship of GE, Genworth and their respective Subsidiaries.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

ARTICLE II

THE SEPARATION

2.1 Transfer of Assets ; Assumption of Liabilities; Consideration .

(a) Subject to Section 3.8, immediately following the execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreements by each of the parties thereto, in accordance with the plan and structure set forth on Schedule 2.1(a):

(i) GE shall, and shall cause its applicable Subsidiaries to, contribute, assign, transfer, convey and deliver to Genworth or certain of its Subsidiaries designated by Genworth, and Genworth or such Subsidiaries shall accept from GE and its applicable Subsidiaries, all of GE's and such Subsidiaries' respective rights, titles and interests in and to all Genworth Assets, other than the Delayed Transfer Assets;

(ii) Genworth and certain of its Subsidiaries designated by Genworth, shall accept, assume and agree faithfully to perform, discharge and fulfill all the Genworth Liabilities, other than the Delayed Transfer Liabilities, in accordance with their respective terms. Genworth and such Subsidiaries shall be responsible for all Genworth Liabilities, regardless of when or where such Genworth Liabilities arose or arise, or whether the facts on which they are based occurred prior to or subsequent to the Closing Date, regardless of where or against whom such Genworth Liabilities are asserted or determined (including any Genworth Liabilities arising out of claims made by GE's or Genworth's respective directors, officers, employees, agents, Subsidiaries or Affiliates against any member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group) or whether asserted or determined prior to the date hereof, and, except as set forth in Section 2.3(b)(v), regardless of whether arising from or alleged to arise from negligence, recklessness, violation of Law, fraud or misrepresentation by any member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, Subsidiaries or Affiliates; and

(iii) Genworth shall issue to GEFAHI (A) 485,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, (B) 2,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock, (C) the Genworth Promissory Note, (D) the Genworth Contingent Note and (E) the Genworth Equity Units.

(b) Each of the parties hereto agrees that the Delayed Transfer Assets will be contributed, assigned, transferred, conveyed and delivered, and the Delayed Transfer Liabilities will be accepted and assumed, in accordance with the terms of the applicable Transaction Documents or as otherwise set forth on Schedule 2.1(b). Following such contribution, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery of any Delayed Transfer Asset, or the acceptance and assumption of any Delayed Transfer Liability, the applicable Delayed Transfer Asset or Delayed Transfer Liability shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement and the Transaction Documents as a Genworth Asset or a Genworth Liability, as the case may be.

(c) If at any time or from time to time (whether prior to or after the Closing Date), any party hereto (or any member of such party's respective Group), shall receive or otherwise possess any Asset that is allocated to any other Person pursuant to this Agreement or any Transaction Document, such party shall promptly transfer, or cause to be transferred, such Asset to the Person so entitled thereto. Prior to any such transfer, the Person receiving or possessing such Asset shall hold such Asset in trust for any such other Person.

(d) Genworth hereby waives compliance by each member of the GE Group with the requirements and provisions of the "bulk-sale" or "bulk-transfer" Laws of any jurisdiction that may otherwise be applicable with respect to the transfer or sale of any or all of the Genworth Assets to any member of the Genworth Group.

2.2 Genworth Assets .

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, "Genworth Assets" shall mean (without duplication):

(i) the Assets listed or described on Schedule 2.2(a)(i) and all other Assets that are expressly provided by this Agreement or any Transaction Document as Assets to be transferred to Genworth or any other member of the Genworth Group;

(ii) (A) all Genworth Contracts, (B) all issued and outstanding capital stock of the Subsidiaries of GE listed on Schedule 2.2(a)(ii) (B), and (C) the shares of capital stock of certain entities held by GE as listed on Schedule 2.2(a)(ii) (C);

(iii) subject to Section 6.3, any rights of any member of the Genworth Group under any of the Insurance Policies, including any rights thereunder arising after the Closing Date in respect of any Insurance Policies;

(iv) all Assets reflected as Assets of Genworth and its Subsidiaries in the Genworth Balance Sheet, subject to any dispositions of such Assets subsequent to the date of the Genworth Balance Sheet; and

(v) any and all Assets owned or held immediately prior to the Closing Date by GE or any of its Subsidiaries that are used primarily in the Genworth Business. The intention of this clause (v) is only to rectify any inadvertent omission of transfer or conveyance of any Assets that, had the parties given specific consideration to such Asset as of the date hereof, would have otherwise been classified as a Genworth Asset. No Asset shall be deemed to be a Genworth Asset solely as a result of this clause (v) if such Asset is within the category or type of Asset expressly covered by the terms of a Transaction Document unless the party claiming entitlement to such Asset can establish that the omission of the transfer or conveyance of such Asset was inadvertent. In addition, no Asset shall be deemed a Genworth Asset solely as a result of this clause (v)

unless a claim with respect thereto is made by Genworth on or prior to the later of (A) the Trigger Date and (B) the first anniversary of the Closing Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Genworth Assets shall not in any event include the Excluded Assets referred to in Section 2.2(b).

(b) For the purposes of this Agreement, “ Excluded Assets ” shall mean:

(i) the Assets listed or described on Schedule 2.2(b)(i) ;

(ii) the contracts and agreements listed or described on Schedule 2.2(b)(ii) ; and

(iii) any and all Assets that are expressly contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document as Assets to be retained by a GE Party or any other member of the GE Group.

2.3 Genworth Liabilities .

(a) For the purposes of this Agreement, “ Genworth Liabilities ” shall mean (without duplication):

(i) the Liabilities listed or described on Schedule 2.3(a)(i) and all other Liabilities that are expressly provided by this Agreement or any Transaction Document as Liabilities to be assumed by Genworth or any other member of the Genworth Group, and all agreements, obligations and Liabilities of Genworth or any other member of the Genworth Group under this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents;

(ii) all Liabilities, including any employee-related Liabilities (other than Excluded Employee Liabilities) relating to, arising out of or resulting from:

(A) the operation of the Genworth Business, as conducted at any time before, on or after the Closing Date (including any Liability relating to, arising out of or resulting from any act or failure to act by any director, officer, employee, agent or representative (whether or not such act or failure to act is or was within such Person’s authority));

(B) the operation of any business conducted by any member of the Genworth Group at any time after the Closing Date (including any Liability relating to, arising out of or resulting from any act or failure to act by any director, officer, employee, agent or representative (whether or not such act or failure to act is or was within such Person’s authority)); or in any such case whether arising before, on or after the Closing Date;

(C) any Genworth Assets (including any Genworth Contracts and any real property and leasehold interests);

(iii) all Liabilities reflected as liabilities or obligations of Genworth or its Subsidiaries in the Genworth Balance Sheet, subject to any discharge of such Liabilities subsequent to the date of the Genworth Balance Sheet; and

(iv) all Liabilities arising out of claims made by GE's or Genworth's respective directors, officers, employees, agents, Subsidiaries or Affiliates against any member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group with respect to the Genworth Business.

(b) For the purposes of this Agreement, "Excluded Liabilities" shall mean (without duplication):

(i) any and all Liabilities that are expressly contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document as Liabilities to be retained or assumed by GE or any other member of the GE Group (in each case other than Delayed Transfer Liabilities), and all agreements and obligations of any member of the GE Group under this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents;

(ii) any and all Liabilities of a member of the GE Group relating to, arising out of or resulting from any Excluded Assets;

(iii) the Excluded Employee Liabilities;

(iv) the Liabilities listed on Schedule 2.3(b)(iv); and

(v) any and all liabilities arising from a knowing violation of Law, fraud or misrepresentation by any member of the GE Group (other than, for periods prior to the Closing Date, GEFAHI or any Delayed Transfer Legal Entity) or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents (other than any individual who at the time of such act was acting in his or her capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of any member of the Genworth Group).

(c) Any Liabilities of any member of the GE Group not expressly referenced in Section 2.3(a) above are Excluded Liabilities and all Excluded Liabilities shall not be Genworth Liabilities.

2.4 Termination of Agreements .

(a) Except as set forth in Section 2.4(b), Genworth and each member of the Genworth Group, on the one hand, and GE and each member of the GE Group, on the other hand, hereby terminate any and all agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings, whether or not in writing, between or among Genworth or any member of the Genworth Group, on the one hand, and GE or any member of the GE Group, on the other hand, effective as of the Closing Date. No such terminated agreement, arrangement, commitment or understanding (including any provision thereof which purports to survive termination) shall be of any further force or effect after the Closing Date. Each party shall, at the reasonable request of any other party, take, or cause to be taken, such other actions as may be necessary to effect the foregoing.

(b) The provisions of Section 2.4(a) shall not apply to any of the following agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings (or to any of the provisions thereof):

(i) this Agreement and the Transaction Documents (and each other agreement or instrument expressly contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document to be entered into or continued by any of the parties hereto or any of the members of their respective Groups);

(ii) except to the extent redundant with any provision of or service provided under this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents (including any exhibits or schedules thereto), the agreements, arrangements, commitments and understandings listed or described on Schedule 2.4(b)(ii);

(iii) the guarantees, indemnification obligations, surety bonds and other credit support agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings listed or described on Schedule 2.4(b)(iii) (the “GE Guarantees”);

(iv) any agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings to which any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective Affiliates is a party (it being understood that to the extent that the rights and obligations of the parties and the members of their respective Groups under any such agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings constitute Genworth Assets or Genworth Liabilities, they shall be assigned pursuant to Section 2.1);

(v) any accounts payable or accounts receivable between a member of the GE Group, on the one hand, and a member of the Genworth Group, on the other hand, accrued as of the Closing Date and reflected in the books and records of the parties or otherwise documented in writing in accordance with past practices; provided, however, that all such amounts must be settled within 90 days after the Closing Date except as otherwise provided for in the Transaction Documents;

(vi) any agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings to which any non-wholly owned Subsidiary of GE or Genworth, as the case may be, is a party (it being understood that directors’ qualifying shares or similar interests will be disregarded for purposes of determining whether a Subsidiary is wholly owned); and

(vii) any other agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings that this Agreement or any Transaction Document expressly contemplates will survive the Closing Date.

2.5 DISCLAIMER OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. EACH OF GE (ON BEHALF OF ITSELF AND EACH MEMBER OF THE GE GROUP) AND GENWORTH (ON BEHALF OF ITSELF AND EACH MEMBER OF THE GENWORTH GROUP) UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN ANY TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, NO PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT OR DOCUMENT CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, ANY TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR OTHERWISE, IS REPRESENTING OR WARRANTING IN ANY WAY AS TO THE ASSETS, BUSINESSES OR LIABILITIES TRANSFERRED OR ASSUMED AS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY, AS TO ANY CONSENTS OR APPROVALS REQUIRED IN CONNECTION HERewith OR THEREWITH, AS TO THE VALUE OR FREEDOM FROM ANY SECURITY INTERESTS OF, OR ANY OTHER MATTER CONCERNING, ANY ASSETS OF SUCH PARTY, OR AS TO THE ABSENCE OF ANY DEFENSES OR RIGHT OF SETOFF OR FREEDOM FROM COUNTERCLAIM WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM OR OTHER ASSET, INCLUDING ANY ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE, OF ANY PARTY, OR AS TO THE LEGAL SUFFICIENCY OF ANY ASSIGNMENT, DOCUMENT OR INSTRUMENT DELIVERED HEREUNDER TO CONVEY TITLE TO ANY ASSET OR THING OF VALUE UPON THE EXECUTION, DELIVERY AND FILING HEREOF OR THEREOF. EXCEPT AS MAY EXPRESSLY BE SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN ANY TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, ALL SUCH ASSETS ARE BEING TRANSFERRED ON AN "AS IS," "WHERE IS" BASIS (AND, IN THE CASE OF ANY REAL PROPERTY, BY MEANS OF A QUITCLAIM OR SIMILAR FORM DEED OR CONVEYANCE) AND THE RESPECTIVE TRANSFEREES SHALL BEAR THE ECONOMIC AND LEGAL RISKS THAT (I) ANY CONVEYANCE SHALL PROVE TO BE INSUFFICIENT TO VEST IN THE TRANSFEREE GOOD TITLE, FREE AND CLEAR OF ANY SECURITY INTEREST, AND (II) ANY NECESSARY CONSENTS OR GOVERNMENTAL APPROVALS ARE NOT OBTAINED OR THAT ANY REQUIREMENTS OF LAWS OR JUDGMENTS ARE NOT COMPLIED WITH.

2.6 Governmental Approvals and Consents; Delayed Transfer Assets and Liabilities .

(a) To the extent that the Separation requires any Governmental Approvals or Consents, the parties will use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such Governmental Approvals and Consents; provided, however, that neither GE nor Genworth shall be obligated to contribute capital in any form to any entity in order to obtain such Governmental Approvals and Consents.

(b) If and to the extent that the valid, complete and perfected transfer or assignment to the Genworth Group of any Genworth Assets or the assumption by the Genworth Group of any Genworth Liabilities would be a violation of applicable Law or require any Consent or Governmental Approval in connection with the Separation, or the Initial Public Offering, then, unless the parties hereto mutually shall otherwise determine, the transfer or assignment to the Genworth Group of such Genworth Assets or the assumption by the Genworth Group of such Genworth Liabilities shall be automatically deemed deferred and any such purported transfer, assignment or assumption shall be null and void until such time as all legal impediments are removed or such Consents or Governmental Approvals have been obtained. Any such Liability shall be deemed a Delayed Transfer Liability. Any such Asset shall be deemed (i) a Delayed Transfer Asset and, (ii) notwithstanding the foregoing, a Genworth Asset for purposes of determining whether any Liability is a Genworth Liability.

(c) If any transfer or assignment of any Genworth Asset intended to be transferred or assigned hereunder or any assumption of any Genworth Liability intended to be assumed by Genworth hereunder (including without limitation all Assets and Liabilities of FACL intended to be transferred to or assumed by FINCL pursuant to the UK Transfer Plan and all Assets and Liabilities of Vie Plus SA intended to be transferred to or assumed by members of the Genworth Group pursuant to the French Transfer Agreement or French Transfer Plan) is not consummated on the Closing Date, whether as a result of the provisions of Section 2.6(b) or for any other reason, then, insofar as reasonably possible, (i) the Person retaining such Genworth Asset shall thereafter hold such Genworth Asset for the use and benefit of the Person entitled thereto (at the expense of the Person entitled thereto) and (ii) Genworth shall, or shall cause its applicable Subsidiary to, pay or reimburse the Person retaining such Genworth Liability for all amounts paid or incurred in connection with such Genworth Liability. In addition, the Person retaining such Genworth Asset shall, insofar as reasonably possible and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, treat such Asset in the ordinary course of business in accordance with past practice and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Person to whom such Genworth Asset is to be transferred in order to place such Person in the same position as if such Genworth Asset had been transferred as contemplated hereby and so that all the benefits and burdens relating to such Genworth Asset, including possession, use, risk of loss, potential for gain, and dominion, control and command over such Genworth Asset, is to inure from and after the Closing Date to the Genworth Group.

(d) If and when the Consents and Governmental Approvals, the absence of which caused the deferral of transfer of any Genworth Asset or the deferral of assumption of any Genworth Liability pursuant to Section 2.6(b), are obtained, the transfer of the applicable Genworth Asset or Genworth Liability shall be effected in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and/or the applicable Transaction Document.

(e) The Person retaining an Asset or Liability due to the deferral of the transfer of such Asset or the deferral of the assumption of such Liability shall not be obligated, in connection with the foregoing, to expend any money unless the necessary funds are advanced (or otherwise made available) by the Person entitled to the Asset or the Person intended to be subject to the Liability, other than reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, attorneys' fees and recording or similar fees, all of which shall be promptly reimbursed by the Person entitled to such Asset or the Person intended to be subject to the Liability.

2.7 Novation of Assumed Genworth Liabilities .

(a) Each of GE and Genworth, at the request of the other, shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain, or to cause to be obtained, any consent, substitution, approval or amendment required to novate or assign all obligations under agreements, leases, licenses and other obligations or Liabilities of any nature whatsoever that constitute Genworth Liabilities, or to obtain in writing the unconditional release of all parties to such arrangements other than any member of the Genworth Group, so that, in any such case, Genworth and its Subsidiaries will be solely responsible for such Liabilities; provided, however, that neither GE nor Genworth shall be obligated to pay any consideration therefor to any third party from whom any such consent, approval, substitution or amendment is requested.

(b) If GE or Genworth is unable to obtain, or to cause to be obtained, any such required consent, approval, release, substitution or amendment, the applicable member of the GE Group shall continue to be bound by such agreement, lease, license or other obligation and, unless not permitted by Law or the terms thereof, Genworth shall, as agent or subcontractor for GE or such other Person, as the case may be, pay, perform and discharge fully all the obligations or other Liabilities of GE or such other Person that constitute Genworth Liabilities, as the case may be, thereunder from and after the Closing Date. Genworth shall indemnify each GE Indemnified Party, and hold each of them harmless against any Liabilities arising in connection therewith; provided that pursuant hereto Genworth shall have no obligation to indemnify any GE Indemnified Party that has engaged in any knowing violation of Law, fraud or misrepresentation in connection therewith. GE shall, without further consideration, pay and remit, or cause to be paid or remitted, to Genworth, promptly all money, rights and other consideration received by it or any member of its Group in respect of such performance (unless any such consideration is an Excluded Asset). If and when any such consent, approval, release, substitution or amendment shall be obtained or such agreement, lease, license or other rights or obligations shall otherwise become assignable or able to be novated, GE shall thereafter assign, or cause to be assigned, all its rights, obligations and other Liabilities thereunder or any rights or obligations of any member of its Group to Genworth without payment of further consideration and Genworth shall, without the payment of any further consideration, assume such rights and obligations.

2.8 Novation of Liabilities other than Genworth Liabilities .

(a) Each of GE and Genworth, at the request of the other, shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain, or to cause to be obtained, any consent, substitution, approval or amendment required to novate or assign all obligations under agreements, leases, licenses and other obligations or Liabilities for which a member of the GE Group and a member of the Genworth Group are jointly or severally liable and that do not constitute Genworth Liabilities, or to obtain in writing the unconditional release of all parties to such arrangements other than any member of the GE Group, so that, in any such case, the members of the GE Group will be solely responsible for such Liabilities; provided, however, that neither GE nor Genworth shall be obligated to pay any consideration therefor to any third party from whom any such consent, approval, substitution or amendment is requested.

(b) If GE or Genworth is unable to obtain, or to cause to be obtained, any such required consent, approval, release, substitution or amendment, the applicable member of the Genworth Group shall continue to be bound by such agreement, lease, license or other obligation and, unless not permitted by Law or the terms thereof, GE shall cause a member of the GE Group, as agent or subcontractor for such member of the Genworth Group, to pay, perform and discharge fully all the obligations or other Liabilities of such member of the Genworth Group thereunder from and after the Closing Date. GE shall indemnify each Genworth Indemnified Party and hold each of them harmless against any Liabilities (other than Genworth Liabilities) arising in connection therewith; provided that pursuant hereto GE shall have no obligation to indemnify any Genworth Indemnified Party that has engaged in any knowing violation of Law, fraud or misrepresentation in connection therewith. Genworth shall cause each member of the Genworth Group without further consideration, to pay and remit, or cause to be paid or remitted, to GE or to another member of the GE Group specified by GE, promptly all money, rights and other consideration received by it or any member of the Genworth Group in respect of such performance (unless any such consideration is a Genworth Asset). If and when any such consent, approval, release, substitution or amendment shall be obtained or such agreement, lease, license or other rights or obligations shall otherwise become assignable or able to be novated, Genworth shall promptly assign, or cause to be assigned, all its rights, obligations and other Liabilities thereunder or any rights or obligations of any member of the Genworth Group to GE or to another member of the GE Group specified by GE without payment of further consideration and GE, without the payment of any further consideration shall, or shall cause such other member of the GE Group to, assume such rights and obligations.

2.9 European Creditor Business.

In furtherance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and without limiting any other provision hereof, the parties intend that the transfer of the European Creditor Business into the Genworth Group shall be effected by means of the documentation and procedures relating to:

(a) the UK Transfer Plan under which it is proposed that the Assets and Liabilities of FACL be transferred subsequent to the Closing Date to FINCL upon the effectiveness of such plan in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and Section 2.1(b) of this Agreement;

(b) the French Transfer Plan and the French Transfer Agreement under which it is proposed that the Assets and Liabilities of the payment protection business of Vie Plus S.A. be transferred subsequent to the Closing Date to a member of the Genworth Group upon the effectiveness of the French Transfer Plan in accordance with the terms of the French Transfer Plan, the French Transfer Agreement and Section 2.1(b) of this Agreement;

(c) the FACL Reinsurance Agreement, FICL Reinsurance Agreement and French Reinsurance Agreement; and

(d) the transfer of the stock of the entities forming a part of the European Creditor Business listed in Part A of Schedule 2.9 of this Agreement.

2.10 FACL Bonds .

(a) In respect of the FACL Bond Portfolio which forms part of the Assets and Liabilities of FACL to be transferred to FINCL pursuant to the UK Transfer Plan (as referred to in Section 2.9(a)), the parties agree to use their commercially reasonable efforts to implement indemnity reinsurance arrangements as soon as is reasonably practicable following Closing under which all of the Liabilities relating to the FACL Bond Portfolio which remain unsatisfied or outstanding as at the inception date of such arrangements (whether such Liabilities are current or future, certain or contingent) are fully assumed by GE Life Limited (or another appropriate member of the GE Group) (the “ FACL Bond Portfolio Reinsurance ”). The parties further agree that the FACL Bond Portfolio Reinsurance will continue in force until the earlier of:

(i) the completion of the transfer of the FACL Bonds to GE Life Limited (or another appropriate member of the GE Group) pursuant to Section 2.10(b); and

(ii) the date upon which Genworth ceases to have any interest in or Liabilities in respect of the FACL Bond Portfolio.

(b) In respect of the FACL Bonds which form part of the Assets and Liabilities of FACL to be transferred to FINCL pursuant to the UK Transfer Plan (as referred to in Section 2.9(a)), the parties agree to procure that the FACL Bonds are transferred from FINCL (or from FACL itself if the UK Transfer Plan has not become effective by December 31, 2004 and FACL is transferred into Genworth under the FACL Fall-back Stock Transfer Agreement) to an appropriate member of the GE Group by way of an insurance business transfer pursuant to Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. Each of the parties agree to procure that its relevant Subsidiaries shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to effect the transfer of the FACL Bonds pursuant to this Section 2.10(b) as soon as is reasonably practicable following the UK Transfer Date and in any event within nine months of the UK Transfer Date (or such longer period as the parties may agree).

(c) GE will procure the provision of administration services relating to the FACL Bond Portfolio from Closing upon the terms set out in the European Transition Services Agreement until the earlier of:

(i) the completion of the transfer of the FACL Bonds pursuant to Section 2.10(b); and

(ii) the date upon which Genworth ceases to have any interest in or Liabilities in respect of the FACL Bond Portfolio.

ARTICLE III

INTERCOMPANY TRANSACTIONS AS OF THE CLOSING DATE

3.1 Time and Place of Closing . Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, all transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be consummated at a closing (the “Closing”) to be held at the offices of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153, at 10:00 A.M. EST, on the date on which (and after) the Underwriting Agreements are executed and delivered by each of the parties thereto or at such other place or at such other time or on such other date as GE and Genworth may mutually agree upon in writing (the day on which the Closing takes place being the “Closing Date”).

3.2 Pre-Closing Transactions . Prior to the Closing Date, the appropriate parties hereto entered into or effected, as the case may be, and (as necessary) caused their respective Subsidiaries to enter into or effect, the agreements and transactions set forth below, in each case in the order set forth below:

(a) All of the capital stock of GE Mortgage Insurance Limited, GE Mortgage Insurance (Guernsey) Limited and the entities listed in Part A of Schedule 2.9 has been transferred to GEFAHI or a wholly owned subsidiary of GEFAHI.

(b) The appropriate parties hereto entered into, and (as necessary) caused their respective Subsidiaries to enter into, the agreements set forth below (items (ii) through (vii) below being referred to as the “Reinsurance-Related Documents”):

- (i) the Pre-Closing Documents;
- (ii) the JLIC Recapture Agreement;
- (iii) the UFLIC Agreements;
- (iv) the Reinsurance Agreements;
- (v) the Trust Agreements;
- (vi) the Capital Maintenance Agreement; and
- (vii) the Derivatives Management Services Agreement.

(c) FHL transferred by dividend all shares of capital stock of UFLIC held by FHL to its shareholders GECA and GEFAHI, GECA transferred by dividend all shares of capital stock of UFLIC then held by GECA to GNA, GNA transferred by dividend all such shares of UFLIC capital stock to GEFAHI, GEFAHI transferred by dividend all such shares of UFLIC capital stock received from GNA and FHL to GEI and General Electric Capital Services Inc. purchased all shares of capital stock of UFLIC from GEI.

(d) JLIC paid accrued interest and principal amounts under the JLIC Surplus Notes in the amounts and to the entities outlined in Schedule 3.2(d).

(e) GEFAHI purchased all shares of capital stock of Viking from GELCO Corporation pursuant to the Viking Stock Purchase Agreement.

(f) The dividends outlined in Schedule 3.2(f) were paid by the entities and in the amounts set forth therein.

(g) GEFAHI contributed approximately $2.16 billion in cash and/or securities to the capital of UFLIC.

(h) GEFAHI contributed cash and/or securities to the capital of GNA in an amount equal to the tax benefit realized by GECA and other members of the Genworth Group (such other members agreed upon by GE and Genworth immediately prior to such contribution) as a result of losses incurred in the transfer of securities to members of the GE Group pursuant to the Reinsurance Agreements, which tax benefit will be recognized by GEFAHI as a result of the Separation and the Section 338(h)(10) elections to be made in respect of such members of the Genworth Group.

(i) FHL redeemed its $250 million series A preferred stock, par value $1,000 per share, held by GEFAHI, along with accrued dividends through date of payment.

(j) All amounts received by GEFAHI from its Subsidiaries in payment of intercompany receivables related to accounts payable owed by GEFAHI to its upstream Affiliates were used to pay such accounts payable.

3.3 Closing Transactions. In each case subject to Section 3.8, after execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreements by all parties thereto, at the Closing:

(a) The Separation contemplated by Article II shall be effected.

(b) The appropriate parties hereto shall enter into, and (as necessary) shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to enter into, the agreements set forth below (collectively with the Reinsurance-Related Documents, the UK Transfer Plan, the French Transfer Plan, the French Transfer Agreement and the Pre-Closing Documents, the “Transaction Documents”):

- (i) the Transition Services Agreement;
- (ii) the Registration Rights Agreement;
- (iii) the Tax Matters Agreement;
- (iv) the Employee Matters Agreement;

- (v) the Transitional Trademark Agreement;
- (vi) the Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement;
- (vii) the Outsourcing Services Separation Agreement;
- (viii) the European Transition Services Agreement;

3.4 Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws. At or prior to the Closing, GE and Genworth shall each take all necessary action that may be required to provide for the adoption by Genworth of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Genworth in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit LL, and the Amended and Restated Bylaws of Genworth in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit MM.

3.5 Transfers of Assets and Assumption of Liabilities. In furtherance of the assignment, transfer and conveyance of Genworth Assets and the assumption of Genworth Liabilities set forth in Section 2.1(a)(i) and Section 2.1(a)(ii), on the Closing Date (i) GE shall execute and deliver, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to execute and deliver, such bills of sale, stock powers, certificates of title, assignments of contracts and other instruments of transfer, conveyance and assignment as and to the extent necessary to evidence the transfer, conveyance and assignment of all of GE's and its Subsidiaries' (other than Genworth and its Subsidiaries) right, title and interest in and to the Genworth Assets to Genworth and its Subsidiaries, and (ii) Genworth shall execute and deliver such assumptions of contracts and other instruments of assumption as and to the extent necessary to evidence the valid and effective assumption of the Genworth Liabilities by Genworth. All of the foregoing documents contemplated by this Section 3.5 shall be referred to collectively herein as the “GE Transfer Documents.”

3.6 Transfer of Excluded Assets; Assumption of Excluded Liabilities.

(a) To the extent any Excluded Asset or Excluded Liability is transferred to a member of the Genworth Group at the Closing or is owned or held by a member of the Genworth Group after the Closing, from and after the Closing:

(i) Genworth shall, and shall cause its applicable Subsidiaries to, promptly contribute, assign, transfer, convey and deliver to GE or certain of its Subsidiaries designated by GE, and GE or such Subsidiaries shall accept from Genworth and its applicable Subsidiaries, all of Genworth’s and such Subsidiaries’ respective rights, titles and interests in and to such Excluded Assets;

(ii) GE and certain of its Subsidiaries designated by GE, shall promptly accept, assume and agree faithfully to perform, discharge and fulfill all such Excluded Liabilities in accordance with their respective terms; and

(iii) In furtherance of the assignment, transfer and conveyance of Excluded Assets and the assumption of Excluded Liabilities set forth in Section 3.6(a)(i) and Section 3.6(a)(ii): (x) Genworth shall execute and deliver, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to execute and deliver, such bills of sale, certificates of title, assignments of contracts and other instruments of transfer, conveyance and assignment as and to the extent necessary to evidence the transfer, conveyance and assignment of all of Genworth’s and its Subsidiaries’ right, title and interest in and to the Excluded Assets to GE and its Subsidiaries, and (y) GE shall execute and deliver such assumptions of contracts and other instruments of assumption as and to the extent necessary to evidence the valid and effective assumption of the Excluded Liabilities by GE. All of the foregoing documents contemplated by this Section 3.6(a)(iii) shall be referred to collectively herein as the “Genworth Transfer Documents” and, together with the GE Transfer Documents, the “Transfer Documents.”

(iv) To the extent that the transfer of such Excluded Assets and the assumption of such Excluded Liabilities requires any Governmental Approvals or Consents, the parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such Governmental Approvals and Consents; provided however that neither GE nor Genworth shall be obligated to contribute capital in any form to any entity in order to obtain such Governmental Approvals and Consents.

(v) If and to the extent that the valid, complete and perfected transfer or assignment to the GE Group of any Excluded Assets or the assumption by the GE Group of any Excluded Liabilities would be a violation of applicable Law or require any Consent or Governmental Approval, then, unless the parties hereto mutually shall otherwise determine, the transfer or assignment to the GE Group of such Excluded Assets or the assumption by the GE Group of such Excluded Liabilities shall be automatically deemed deferred and any such purported transfer, assignment or assumption shall be null and void until such time as all legal impediments are removed or such Consents or Governmental Approvals have been obtained.

(b) If any transfer or assignment of any Excluded Asset intended to be transferred or assigned hereunder or any assumption of any Excluded Liability intended to be assumed by GE hereunder is not consummated on the Closing Date, whether as a result of the failure to obtain any required Governmental Approvals or Consents under Section 3.6(a)(iv) or for any other reason, then, insofar as reasonably possible, (i) the member of the Genworth Group retaining such Excluded Asset shall thereafter hold such Excluded Asset for the use and benefit of GE (at GE's expense) and (ii) GE shall, or shall cause its applicable Subsidiary to, pay or reimburse the member of the Genworth Group retaining such Excluded Liability for all amounts paid or incurred in connection with such Excluded Liability. In addition, the member of the Genworth Group retaining such Excluded Asset shall, insofar as reasonably possible and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, treat such Excluded Asset in the ordinary course of business in accordance with past practice and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by GE in order to place GE in the same position as if such Excluded Asset had been transferred as contemplated hereby and so that all the benefits and burdens relating to such Excluded Asset, including possession, use, risk of loss, potential for gain, and dominion, control and command over such Excluded Asset, is to inure from and after the Closing Date to the GE Group.

(c) If and when the Consents and Governmental Approvals, the absence of which caused the deferral of transfer of any Excluded Asset or the deferral of assumption of any Excluded Liability, are obtained, the transfer of the applicable Excluded Asset or Excluded Liability shall be effected in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and/or the applicable Transaction Document.

(d) Any member of the Genworth Group retaining an Excluded Asset or Excluded Liability due to the deferral of the transfer of such Excluded Asset or the deferral of the assumption of such Excluded Liability shall not be obligated, in connection with the foregoing, to expend any money unless the necessary funds are advanced (or otherwise made available) by GE or the member of the GE Group intended to be subject to the Excluded Liability, other than reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, attorneys' fees and recording or similar fees, all of which shall be promptly reimbursed by GE or the member of the GE Group entitled to such Excluded Asset or intended to be subject to such Excluded Liability.

(e) Pursuant to and in accordance with this Section 3.6, the Excluded Assets, Excluded Contracts, and Excluded Liabilities of Financial Insurance Group Services Limited relating to the businesses or the support of the businesses of the members of the GEIH Group (as defined in the European Transition Services Agreement but for the purposes of this Section excluding any European Creditor Business Entity) (the "GEIH Business") listed on Schedules 2.2(b)(i), 2.2(b)(ii) and 2.3(b)(iv) respectively are to be transferred to GE or its designated Subsidiaries on the Closing Date.

3.7 The Initial Public Offering and the Concurrent Offerings. Genworth shall (i) consult with, and cooperate in all respects with, the GE Parties in connection with the pricing of the (x) Class A Common Stock to be offered in the Initial Public Offering and (y) Equity Units and Series A Preferred Stock to be offered in the Concurrent Offerings, (ii) at the direction of any GE Party, execute and deliver the Underwriting Agreements in such form and substance as is reasonably satisfactory to the GE Parties and (iii) at the direction of any GE Party, promptly take any and all actions necessary or desirable to consummate the Initial Public Offering and the Concurrent Offerings as contemplated by the IPO Registration Statement, the Equity Units Registration Statement, the Series A Preferred Stock Registration Statement and the Underwriting Agreements.

3.8 Rescission. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, if delivery of the Firm Public Offering Shares to the Underwriters against payment therefor is not complete within four (4) Business Days after the Closing Date, all transactions theretofore completed under this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents (excluding the transactions set forth in Section 3.2(a) and any dividends described in Section 3.2) shall immediately be rescinded in all respects and this Agreement and all of the Transaction Documents shall terminate and all assets transferred pursuant to the Transaction Documents shall be returned to the entities that transferred such assets, and all assumptions of liabilities hereunder and thereunder shall be rescinded and nullified.

3.9 European Transfers.

(a) GE and Genworth shall cause their relevant respective Subsidiaries to use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause the UK Transfer Plan and the French Transfer Plan to become effective (and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby and by the French Transfer Agreement) as promptly as practicable. The consideration for the transfers to be effected pursuant to the UK Transfer Plan is set forth in the Debt Release Agreement. The consideration for the transfers to be effected pursuant to the French Transfer Agreement is set forth in Schedule 3.9(a).

(b) If the UK Transfer Plan has not taken effect by December 31, 2004, GE and Genworth shall cause their relevant respective Subsidiaries to enter into the FACL Fall-back Stock Transfer Agreement promptly thereafter in order to transfer to Genworth all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of FACL and the other entities listed in Part B of Schedule 2.9. The consideration for the transfers to be effected pursuant to the FACL Fall-back Stock Transfer Agreement shall be the same as the consideration set forth in the Debt Release Agreement.

(c) If the French Transfer Plan and the French Transfer Agreement have not taken effect by December 31, 2004, the consideration for the transfers contemplated by that Plan and that Agreement shall be adjusted as provided in Schedule 3.9(c).

3.10 Tax Matters.

(a) GE and Genworth have entered into the Tax Matters Agreement contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement. To the extent that any representations, warranties, covenants and agreements between the parties with respect to Tax matters are set forth in the Tax Matters Agreement, the tax sharing agreements and arrangements specifically identified therein, the International Tax Matters Agreements and the tax matters agreements described in Section 3.10(b) (collectively, for purposes of this Section, the “Tax Agreements”), such Tax matters shall be governed exclusively by the Tax Agreements and not by this Agreement.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after a determination has been made as to the members of the Genworth Group for which elections will be made under Section 338(h)(10) of the Code, (a) Genworth shall cause GECA and each GECA Subsidiary for which a Section 338(h)(10) election has been made to enter into a tax matters agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit OO, and (b) Genworth shall enter into, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries (other than life insurance Subsidiaries) for which a Section 338(h)(10) election has been made to enter into, a tax matters agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit PP.

ARTICLE IV

FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

4.1 Annual Financial Information. Genworth agrees that, if members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) on any date during a fiscal year at least five percent (5%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, Genworth shall deliver to GE the Corporate Reporting Data set forth on Schedule 4.1 for such year in respect of the Applicable Accounting Method in effect as of the first day of such fiscal year. Genworth shall deliver the financial data and schedules comprising such Corporate Reporting Data within the time periods specified by GE, which time periods shall be specified by GE in writing by no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the end of each fiscal year. All annual consolidated financial statements of Genworth and its Subsidiaries delivered to GE shall set forth in each case in comparative form the consolidated figures for the previous fiscal year prepared in accordance with Article 10 of Regulation S-X and consistent with the level of detail provided in comparable financial statements furnished by GEFA to GE prior to the Closing Date. The Corporate Reporting Data shall include all statistical information necessary for inclusion in any GE Group member’s annual earnings press release, along with appropriate supporting documentation. The Corporate Reporting Data shall include (i) a discussion and analysis by management of Genworth’s and its Subsidiaries’ consolidated financial condition and results of operations for the requisite years, including, without limitation, an explanation of any material adverse change, all in reasonable detail and prepared in accordance with Item 303(a) of Regulation S-K and (ii) a discussion and analysis of Genworth's and its Subsidiaries' consolidated financial condition and results of operations for the requisite years, including, without limitation, an explanation of any material adverse change, all in reasonable detail and prepared in accordance with Item 303(a) of Regulation S-K, prepared for inclusion in the annual report to stockholders of any member of the GE Group. No later than the day prior to the day Genworth publicly files its Annual Report on Form 10-K with the SEC or otherwise, Genworth shall deliver to GE the final form of its Annual Report on Form 10-K, together with all certifications required by applicable Law by each of the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Genworth and an opinion thereon by Genworth's independent certified public accountants. Genworth shall, if requested by GE, also deliver to GE all of the information required to be delivered in Schedule 4.1 with respect to each Subsidiary of Genworth (other than GELAAC or any other Subsidiary of Genworth required to file financial statements with the SEC solely as a result of insurance products offered by such Subsidiary) which is itself required to file financial statements with the SEC or otherwise make financial statements publicly available (other than statutory financial statements filed with state insurance regulatory authorities, which are addressed in Section 4.5(c)), with such financial statements to be provided in the same manner and detail and on the same time schedule as those financial statements of Genworth required to be delivered to GE pursuant to Schedule 4.1.

4.2 Quarterly Financial Information. Genworth agrees that, if members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) on any date during a fiscal quarter at least five percent (5%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, Genworth shall deliver to GE the Corporate Reporting Data set forth on (i) Schedule 4.2(a) for the first and second quarter of each year and (ii) Schedule 4.2(b) for the third quarter of each year, in each case, in respect of the Applicable Accounting Method in effect as of the first day of such fiscal quarter. Genworth shall deliver the financial data and schedules comprising such Corporate Reporting Data within the time periods specified by GE, which time periods shall be specified by GE in writing by no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the end of each fiscal quarter. All quarterly consolidated financial statements of Genworth and its Subsidiaries delivered to GE shall include financial statements for such quarterly periods and for the period from the beginning of the current fiscal year to the end of such quarter, setting forth in each case in comparative form for each such fiscal quarter of Genworth the consolidated figures for the corresponding quarter and periods of the previous fiscal year prepared in accordance with Article 10 of Regulation S-X and consistent with the level of detail provided in comparable financial statements furnished by GEFA to GE prior to the Closing Date. The Corporate Reporting Data shall include all statistical information necessary for inclusion in any GE Group member's quarterly earnings press release, along with appropriate supporting documentation. The Corporate Reporting Data shall include a discussion and analysis by management of Genworth's and its Subsidiaries' consolidated financial condition and results of operations for the requisite quarters, including, without limitation, an explanation of any material adverse change, all in reasonable detail and prepared in accordance with Item 303(b) of Regulation S-K. No later than the day prior to the day Genworth publicly files a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q with the SEC or otherwise, Genworth shall deliver to GE the final form of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, together with all certifications required by applicable Law by each of the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Genworth. Genworth shall, if requested by GE, also deliver to GE all of the information required to be delivered in Schedules 4.2(a) and (b) with respect to each Subsidiary of Genworth (other than GELAAC or any other Subsidiary of Genworth required to file financial statements with the SEC solely as a result of insurance products offered by such Subsidiary) which is itself required to file financial statements with the SEC or otherwise make financial statements publicly available (other than statutory financial statements filed with state insurance regulatory authorities, which are addressed in Section 4.5(c)), with such financial statements to be provided in the same manner and detail and on the same time schedule as those financial statements of Genworth required to be delivered to GE pursuant to Schedules 4.2(a) and (b).

4.3 GE's Operating Reviews. Genworth agrees that, if members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) on any date during a fiscal quarterly or annual period at least five percent (5%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, Genworth shall deliver to GE the FP&A Reports set forth on Schedule 4.3 for such quarterly or annual period in respect of the Applicable Accounting Method in effect as of the first day of such period. Genworth shall deliver the financial data and schedules comprising such FP&A Reports during each fiscal year within the time periods specified by GE in writing by no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the end of the preceding fiscal year, or within any other time periods specified by GE in writing thereafter, but in any event prior to fifteen (15) days before the date such FP&A Report is required to be delivered to GE. Genworth shall provide GE an opportunity to meet with management of Genworth to discuss such FP&A Reports upon reasonable notice during normal business hours.

4.4 General Financial Statement Requirements. All information provided by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries to GE pursuant to this Article IV shall be consistent in terms of format and detail and otherwise with the procedures and practices in effect prior to the Closing Date with respect to the provision of such financial and other information by GEFA to GE (and where appropriate, as presently presented in financial and other reports delivered to the board of directors of GE), with such changes therein as may be reasonably requested by GE from time to time, and any changes in such procedures or practices that are required in order to comply with the rules and regulations of the SEC, as applicable.

4.5 Twenty Percent Threshold. Genworth agrees that, if members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) on any date during a fiscal year more than twenty percent (20%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, or, notwithstanding such percentage, if any member of the GE Group is required during any fiscal year, in accordance with GAAP, to account for its investment in Genworth on a consolidated basis or under the equity method of accounting, then in respect of such fiscal year:

(a) Maintenance of Books and Records. Genworth shall, and shall cause each of its consolidated Subsidiaries to, (i) make and keep books, records and accounts, which, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of Genworth and such Subsidiaries and (ii) devise and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that: (x) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization, (y) transactions are recorded as necessary (1) to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP or any other criteria applicable to such statements and (2) to maintain accountability for assets and (z) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization.

(b) Fiscal Year. Genworth shall, and shall cause each of its consolidated subsidiaries to, maintain a fiscal year which commences on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each calendar year; provided that, if on the Closing Date any consolidated Subsidiary of Genworth has a fiscal year which ends on a date other than December 31, Genworth shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Subsidiary to change its fiscal year to one which ends on December 31 if such change is reasonably practicable.

(c) Quarterly and Annual Reports Furnished to State Insurance Regulatory Authorities. Promptly following the filing by Genworth or any Subsidiary of Genworth of quarterly or annual reports with any and all state insurance regulatory authorities in each jurisdiction in which such reports are required to be filed, Genworth shall deliver the final forms of such reports to GE.

(d) Other Financial Information. Genworth shall provide to GE upon request such other financial information and analyses of Genworth and its Subsidiaries that may be necessary for any member of the GE Group to (1) comply with applicable financial reporting requirements or its customary financial reporting practices or (2) respond in a timely manner to any reasonable requests for information regarding Genworth and its Subsidiaries received by GE from investors or financial analysts; provided, however, that neither GE nor any member of the GE Group shall disclose any material, non-public information of Genworth except pursuant to policies and procedures mutually agreed upon by GE and Genworth for the disclosure of such information and except as required by applicable Law. In connection therewith, Genworth shall also permit GE, the GE Auditors and other Representatives of GE to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of any member of the Genworth Group with the officers of Genworth and the Genworth Auditors, all at such times and as often as GE may reasonably request upon reasonable notice during normal business hours.

(e) Public Information and SEC Reports. Genworth and each of its Subsidiaries that files information with the SEC shall cooperate with GE in preparing reports, notices and proxy and information statements to be sent or made available by Genworth or such Subsidiaries to their security holders, all regular, periodic and other reports filed under Sections 13, 14 and 15 of the Exchange Act by Genworth or such Subsidiaries and all registration statements and prospectuses to be filed by Genworth or such Subsidiaries with the SEC or any securities exchange pursuant to the listed company manual (or similar requirements) of such exchange (collectively, “Genworth Public Documents”) and deliver to GE (to the attention of its Senior Securities Counsel), no later than the date the same are printed for distribution to its shareholders, sent to its shareholders or filed with the SEC, whichever is earliest, final copies of all Genworth Public Documents. Genworth shall file its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and its Annual Reports on Form 10-K with the SEC immediately (and in no event later than one hour) following GE’s filing of its quarterly and annual reports with the SEC for the corresponding period. Genworth shall cooperate with GE in preparing all press releases and other statements to be made available by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries to the public, including, without limitation, information concerning material developments in the business, properties, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries. GE shall have the right to review, reasonably in advance of public release or release to financial analysts or investors and in a manner consistent with the procedures and practices in effect prior to the Closing Date with respect to press releases issued by GEFA (1) all press releases and other statements to be made available by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries to the public and (2) all reports and other information prepared by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries for release to financial analysts or investors; provided, however, that neither GE nor any member of the GE Group shall disclose any material, non-public information of Genworth except pursuant to policies and procedures mutually agreed upon by GE and Genworth for the disclosure of such information and except as required by applicable Law; provided, further, that at any time when members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) fifty percent (50%) or less of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, GE shall only have the right to review such press releases, public statements, reports and other information in advance if necessary for any member of the GE Group to (1) comply with applicable financial reporting requirements or its customary financial reporting practices or (2) respond to any reasonable requests for information regarding Genworth and its Subsidiaries received by GE from investors or financial analysts. No press release, report, registration, information or proxy statement, prospectus or other document which refers, or contains information with respect, to any member of the GE Group shall be filed with the SEC or otherwise made public or released to any financial analyst or investor by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries without the prior written consent of GE with respect to those portions of such document that contain information with respect to any member of the GE Group except as may be required by Law (in such cases Genworth shall use its reasonable best efforts to notify the relevant member of the GE Group and to obtain such member's consent before making such a filing with the SEC or otherwise making any such information public).

(f) Meetings with Financial Analysts. Genworth shall notify GE reasonably in advance of the date of all scheduled meetings and conference calls to be held between Genworth and members of the investment community (including any financial analysts), and of any conferences to be attended by management of Genworth with members of the investment community, and shall consult with GE as to the appropriate timing for all such meetings, calls and conferences. With respect to any such meeting, call or conference to be held at a time when members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) more than fifty percent (50%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, Genworth shall not schedule such meeting or call or attend such conference on any date to which GE objects. The foregoing shall not require Genworth to notify GE of one-on-one discussions between management of Genworth and members of the investment community (including any financial analysts).

(g) Earnings Releases. GE agrees that, unless required by Law or unless Genworth shall have consented thereto, no member of the GE Group will publicly release any quarterly, annual or other financial information of Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries ("Genworth Information") delivered to GE pursuant to this Article IV prior to the time that GE publicly releases financial information of GE for the relevant period. GE will consult with Genworth on the timing of their annual and quarterly earnings releases and GE and Genworth will give each other an opportunity to review the information therein relating to Genworth and its Subsidiaries and to comment thereon; provided that GE shall have the sole right to determine the timing of all such releases if GE and Genworth disagree. Genworth shall publicly release its financial results for each annual and quarterly period immediately (and in no event later than one hour) following GE's release of its financial results for the corresponding period. If any member of the GE Group is required by Law to publicly release such Genworth Information prior to the public release of GE's financial information, GE will give Genworth notice of such release of Genworth Information as soon as practicable but no later than two days prior to such release of Genworth Information.

4.6 GE Public Filings. Genworth shall cooperate fully, and cause its accountants to cooperate fully, with GE to the extent reasonably requested by GE in the preparation of GE's press releases, public earnings releases, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Annual Reports to Shareholders, Annual Reports on Form 10-K, any Current Reports on Form 8-K and any amendments thereto and any other proxy, information and registration statements, reports, notices, prospectuses and any other filings made by GE or any of its Subsidiaries with the SEC, any national securities exchange or otherwise made publicly available (collectively, “GE Public Filings”). Genworth agrees to provide to GE all information that GE reasonably requests in connection with any such GE Public Filings or that, in the judgment of GE’s legal department, is required to be disclosed therein under any Law. Genworth agrees to use reasonable best efforts to provide such information in a timely manner to enable GE to prepare, print and release such GE Public Filings on such date as GE shall determine. If and to the extent reasonably requested by GE, Genworth shall diligently and promptly review all drafts of such GE Public Filings and prepare in a diligent and timely fashion any portion of such GE Public Filing pertaining to Genworth or its Subsidiaries. Prior to any printing or public release of any GE Public Filing, an appropriate executive officer of Genworth, shall, if requested by GE, continue the existing practice of certifying and representing that the information provided by Genworth relating to Genworth, in such GE Public Filing is accurate, true and correct in all material respects. Unless required by Law, without the prior consent of GE, Genworth shall not publicly release any financial or other information which conflicts with the information with respect to Genworth, any Affiliate of Genworth or the Genworth Group that is provided by Genworth for any GE Public Filing.

4.7 GE Annual Statements. In connection with any GE Group member’s preparation of its audited annual financial statements and its Annual Reports to Shareholders (collectively the “GE Annual Statements”), during any fiscal year in which the members of the GE Group own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) more than twenty percent (20%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, (or such lesser percentage during any fiscal year that any member of the GE Group is required, in accordance with GAAP, to account for its investment in Genworth on a consolidated basis or under the equity method of accounting), Genworth agrees as follows:

(a) Coordination of Auditors’ Opinions. Genworth will use its commercially reasonable efforts to enable its independent certified public accountants (the “Genworth Auditors”) to complete their audit such that they will date their opinion on Genworth’s audited annual financial statements on the same date that GE independent certified public accountants (the “GE Auditors”) date their opinion on the GE Annual Statements, and to enable GE to meet its timetable for the printing, filing and public dissemination of the GE Annual Statements.

(b) Cooperation. Genworth will provide to GE on a timely basis all information that GE or any of its Subsidiaries reasonably requires to meet its schedule for the preparation, printing, filing, and public dissemination of any GE Public Filing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Genworth will provide all required financial information with respect to it and its consolidated Subsidiaries to the GE Auditors and management in a sufficient and reasonable time and in sufficient detail to permit such auditors to take all steps and perform all review necessary to provide sufficient assistance to such auditors with respect to information to be included or contained in the GE Public Filings.

(c) Access to Personnel and Working Papers. Genworth will request the Genworth Auditors to make available to the GE Auditors both the personnel who performed or are performing the annual audit of Genworth and, consistent with customary professional practice and courtesy of such auditors with respect to the furnishing of work papers, work papers related to the annual audit of Genworth, in all cases within a reasonable time after the Genworth Auditors' opinion date, so that the GE Auditors are able to perform the procedures they consider necessary to take responsibility for the work of the Genworth Auditors as it relates to the GE Auditors' report on the GE Annual Statements, all within sufficient time to enable GE to meet its timetable for the printing, filing and public dissemination of the GE Annual Statements.

4.8 Fifty Percent Threshold. Genworth agrees that if members of the GE Group beneficially own, in the aggregate (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) on any date during a fiscal year more than fifty percent (50%) of the then outstanding Genworth Common Stock, or, notwithstanding such percentage, if any member of the GE Group is required during any fiscal year, in accordance with GAAP, to consolidate Genworth's financial statements with its financial statements, then in respect of such fiscal year:

(a) Internal Auditors. Genworth shall provide GE, the GE Auditors or other Representatives of GE reasonable access upon reasonable notice during normal business hours to Genworth's and its Subsidiaries' books and records so that GE may conduct reasonable audits relating to the financial statements provided by Genworth pursuant to this Article IV, as well as to the internal accounting controls and operations of Genworth and its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that any such audits will be conducted in the same manner and using the same procedures as conducted on the date hereof for audits of GEFA including, but not limited to, reporting audit findings to management of the business or unit subject to the audit.

(b) Accounting Estimates and Principles. Genworth will give GE reasonable notice of any proposed material change in accounting estimates or material changes in accounting principles from those in effect with respect to GEFA, its Subsidiaries and the GE Affiliates that comprise the Genworth Group immediately prior to the Closing Date, and will give GE notice immediately following adoption of any such changes that are mandated or required by the SEC, the Financial Accounting Standards Board or the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. In connection therewith, Genworth will consult with GE and, if requested by GE, Genworth will consult with the GE Auditors with respect thereto. As to material changes in accounting principles that could affect GE, Genworth will not make any such changes without GE's prior written consent, excluding changes that are mandated or required by the SEC, the Financial Accounting Standards Board or the Public Company Accounting Oversight

Board, if such a change would be sufficiently material to be required to be disclosed in Genworth's financial statements as filed with the SEC or otherwise publicly disclosed therein. If GE so requests, Genworth will be required to obtain the concurrence of the Genworth Auditors as to such material change prior to its implementation. GE will use its reasonable best efforts to promptly respond to any request by Genworth to make a change in accounting principles and, in any event, in sufficient time to enable Genworth to comply with its obligations under Section 4.1.

(c) Management Certification. Genworth's chief executive officer and Genworth's chief financial or accounting officer shall submit quarterly representations substantially in the form furnished to GE by GEI prior to the Closing Date (with such changes thereto prescribed by GE consistent with representations furnished to GE by other Subsidiaries of GE or as otherwise required by changes to applicable Law or stock exchange requirements) attesting to the accuracy and completeness of the financial and accounting records referred to therein in all material respects.

(d) Monthly and Other Financial Information. Genworth shall furnish to GE the intercompany information in the form and detail, and within the time periods, set forth in Schedule 4.8 and furnished by GEFA to GE prior to the Closing Date. With reasonable promptness, Genworth shall deliver to GE such additional financial and other information and data with respect to Genworth and its Subsidiaries and their business, properties, financial position, results of operations and prospects as from time to time may be reasonably requested by GE.

(e) Operating Review Process. Genworth shall conduct its own strategic and operational review process on the same schedule on which GE conducts its strategic and operational review process. GE acknowledges that, as a supplement to the information furnished by Genworth to GE pursuant to Section 4.3, GE shall conduct its strategic and operational reviews of Genworth through participation in meetings or other activities of the Genworth board of directors by the members of Genworth's board of directors that are elected by GE. To facilitate GE's participation in the process in this manner, Genworth shall hold all of its regularly scheduled board meetings at which its strategic and operational reviews are discussed within a time frame consistent with GE's strategic and operational review process. GE shall make a good faith attempt to conduct all other reviews of Genworth's operations, affairs, finances or results (other than those required to comply with applicable financial reporting requirements or its customary financial reporting practices) through participation in meetings or other activities of the Genworth board of directors by the members of Genworth's board of directors that are elected by GE. In connection with strategic, operational or other reviews, relevant GE personnel other than the members of Genworth's board of directors elected by GE may participate at GE's invitation. GE will notify Genworth in advance of any such additional attendees.

4.9 Accountants' Reports. Promptly, but in no event later than five Business Days following the receipt thereof, Genworth shall deliver to GE copies of all reports submitted to Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries by their independent certified public accountants, including, without limitation, each report submitted to Genworth or any of its subsidiaries concerning its accounting practices and systems and any comment letter submitted to management in connection with their annual audit and all responses by management to such reports and letters.

4.10 Agreement for Exchange of Information; Archives .

(a) Each of GE and Genworth, on behalf of its respective Group, agrees to provide, or cause to be provided, to the other Group, at any time before or after the Closing Date, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor, any Information in the possession or under the control of such respective Group which the requesting party reasonably needs (i) to comply with reporting, disclosure, filing or other requirements imposed on the requesting party (including under applicable securities or tax Laws) by a Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the requesting party, (ii) for use in any other judicial, regulatory, administrative, tax or other proceeding or in order to satisfy audit, accounting, claims, regulatory, litigation, tax or other similar requirements, in each case other than claims or allegations that one party to this Agreement has against the other, or (iii) subject to the foregoing clause (ii), to comply with its obligations under this Agreement or any Transaction Document; provided, however, that in the event that any party determines that any such provision of Information could be commercially detrimental, violate any Law or agreement, or waive any attorney-client privilege, the parties shall take all reasonable measures to permit the compliance with such obligations in a manner that avoids any such harm or consequence.

(b) After the Closing Date, Genworth shall have access during regular business hours (as in effect from time to time) to the documents and objects of historic significance that relate to the Genworth Business that are located in archives retained or maintained by any member of the GE Group. Genworth may obtain copies (but not originals unless it is a Genworth Asset) of documents for bona fide business purposes and may obtain objects for exhibition purposes for commercially reasonable periods of time if required for bona fide business purposes, provided that Genworth shall cause any such objects to be returned promptly in the same condition in which they were delivered to Genworth and Genworth shall comply with any rules, procedures or other requirements, and shall be subject to any restrictions (including prohibitions on removal of specified objects), that are then applicable to GE. Genworth shall pay the applicable fee or rate per hour for archives research services (subject to increase from time to time to reflect rates then in effect for GE generally). Nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict the access of any member of the GE Group to any such documents or objects or to impose any liability on any member of the GE Group if any such documents or objects are not maintained or preserved by GE.

(c) After the Closing Date, GE shall have access during regular business hours (as in effect from time to time) to the documents and objects of historic significance that relate to the businesses of any member of the GE Group that are located in archives retained or maintained by any member of the Genworth Group. GE may obtain copies (but not originals unless it is not a Genworth Asset) of documents for bona fide business purposes and may obtain objects for exhibition purposes for commercially reasonable periods of time if required for bona fide business purposes, provided that GE shall cause any such objects to be returned promptly in the same condition in which they were delivered to GE and GE shall comply with any rules, procedures or other requirements, and shall be subject to any restrictions (including prohibitions on removal of specified objects), that are then applicable to Genworth. GE shall pay the applicable fee or rate per hour for archives research services (subject to increase from time to time to reflect rates then in effect for Genworth generally). Nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict the access of any member of the Genworth Group to any such documents or objects or to impose any liability on any member of the Genworth Group if any such documents or objects are not maintained or preserved by Genworth.

4.11 Ownership of Information. Any Information owned by one Group that is provided to a requesting party pursuant to Section 4.10 shall be deemed to remain the property of the providing party. Unless specifically set forth herein, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting or conferring rights of license or otherwise in any such Information.

4.12 Compensation for Providing Information. The party requesting Information agrees to reimburse the other party for the reasonable out-of-pocket costs, if any, of creating, gathering and copying such Information, to the extent that such costs are incurred for the benefit of the requesting party. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided elsewhere in this Agreement or in any other agreement between the parties, such costs shall be computed in accordance with the providing party's standard methodology and procedures.

4.13 Record Retention. To facilitate the possible exchange of Information pursuant to this Article IV and other provisions of this Agreement after the Closing Date, the parties agree to use their commercially reasonable efforts to retain all Information in their respective possession or control in accordance with the policies of GE as in effect on the Closing Date or such other policies as may be reasonably adopted by the appropriate party after the Closing Date. No party will destroy, or permit any of its Subsidiaries to destroy, any Information which the other party may have the right to obtain pursuant to this Agreement prior to the fifth anniversary of the date hereof without first using its reasonable efforts to notify the other party of the proposed destruction and giving the other party the opportunity to take possession of such Information prior to such destruction; provided, however, that in the case of any Information relating to Taxes or employee benefits, such period shall be extended to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (giving effect to any extensions thereof); provided further, however, no party will destroy, or permit any of its Subsidiaries to destroy, any Information required to be retained by applicable Law.

4.14 Liability. No party shall have any liability to any other party in the event that any Information exchanged or provided pursuant to this Agreement which is an estimate or forecast, or which is based on an estimate or forecast, is found to be inaccurate in the absence of willful misconduct by the party providing such Information.

No party shall have any liability to any other party if any Information is destroyed after commercially reasonable efforts by such party to comply with the provisions of Section 4.13.

4.15 Other Agreements Providing for Exchange of Information.

(a) The rights and obligations granted under this Article IV are subject to any specific limitations, qualifications or additional provisions on the sharing, exchange, retention or confidential treatment of Information set forth in any Transaction Document.

(b) When any Information provided by one Group to the other (other than Information provided pursuant to Section 4.13) is no longer needed for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or is no longer required to be retained by applicable Law, the receiving party will promptly after request of the other party either return to the other party all Information in a tangible form (including all copies thereof and all notes, extracts or summaries based thereon) or certify to the other party that it has destroyed such Information (and such copies thereof and such notes, extracts or summaries based thereon).

4.16 Production of Witnesses; Records; Cooperation.

(a) After the Closing Date, except in the case of an adversarial Action by one party against another party, each party hereto shall use its reasonable efforts to make available to each other party, upon written request, the former, current and future directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents of the members of its respective Group as witnesses and any books, records or other documents within its control or which it otherwise has the ability to make available, to the extent that any such person (giving consideration to business demands of such directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents) or books, records or other documents may reasonably be required in connection with any Action or IP Application in which the requesting party may from time to time be involved, regardless of whether such Action or IP Application is a matter with respect to which indemnification may be sought hereunder. The requesting party shall bear all costs and expenses in connection therewith.

(b) If an Indemnifying Party chooses to defend or to seek to compromise or settle any Third Party Claim, the other parties shall make available to such Indemnifying Party, upon written request, the former, current and future directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents of the members of its respective Group as witnesses and any books, records or other documents within its control or which it otherwise has the ability to make available, to the extent that any such person (giving consideration to business demands of such directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents) or books, records or other documents may reasonably be required in connection with such defense, settlement or compromise, or the prosecution, evaluation or pursuit thereof, as the case may be, and shall otherwise cooperate in such defense, settlement or compromise, or such prosecution, evaluation or pursuit, as the case may be.

(c) Without limiting the foregoing, the parties shall cooperate and consult to the extent reasonably necessary with respect to any Actions.

(d) Without limiting any provision of this Section, each of the parties agrees to cooperate, and to cause each member of its respective Group to cooperate, with each other in the defense of any infringement or similar claim with respect to any intellectual property and shall not claim to acknowledge, or permit any member of its respective Group to claim to acknowledge, the validity or infringing use of any intellectual property of a third Person in a manner that would hamper or undermine the defense of such infringement or similar claim except as required by Law.

(e) The obligation of the parties to provide witnesses pursuant to this Section 4.16 is intended to be interpreted in a manner so as to facilitate cooperation and shall include the obligation to provide as witnesses inventors and other officers without regard to whether the witness or the employer of the witness could assert a possible business conflict (subject to the exception set forth in the first sentence of Section 4.16(a)).

(f) In connection with any matter contemplated by this Section 4.16, the parties will enter into a mutually acceptable joint defense agreement so as to maintain to the extent practicable any applicable attorney-client privilege, work product immunity or other applicable privileges or immunities of any member of any Group.

4.17 Privilege. The provision of any information pursuant to this Article IV shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege, including privileges arising under or related to the attorney-client privilege or any other applicable privileges (a "Privilege"). Following the Closing Date, neither Genworth or its Subsidiaries nor GE or its Subsidiaries will be required to provide any information pursuant to this Article IV if the provision of such information would serve as a waiver of any Privilege afforded such information.

ARTICLE V

RELEASE; INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 Release of Pre-Closing Claims.

(a) Except as provided in (i) Section 5.1(c), (ii) any exceptions to the indemnification provisions of Sections 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4, and (iii) any Transaction Document, effective as of the Closing Date, Genworth does hereby, for itself and each other member of the Genworth Group, their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns, and all Persons who at any time prior to the Closing Date have been directors, officers, agents or employees of any member of the Genworth Group (in each case, in their respective capacities as such), remise, release and forever discharge GE and the other members of the GE Group, their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns, and all Persons who at any time prior to the Closing Date have been stockholders, directors, officers, agents or employees of any member of the GE Group (in each case, in their respective capacities as such), and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, from any and all Liabilities whatsoever, whether at Law or in equity (including any right of contribution), whether arising under any contract or agreement, by operation of Law or otherwise, existing or arising from any acts or events occurring or failing to occur or alleged to have occurred or to have failed to occur or any conditions existing or alleged to have existed on or before the Closing Date, including in connection with the transactions and all other activities to implement the Separation, the Initial Public Offering and any of the other transactions contemplated hereunder and under the Transaction Documents.

(b) Except as provided in (i) Section 5.1(c), (ii) any exceptions to the indemnification provisions of Sections 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4, and (iii) any Transaction Document, effective as of the Closing Date, GE does hereby, for itself and each other member of the GE Group, their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns, and all Persons who at any time prior to the Closing Date have been stockholders, directors, officers, agents or employees of any member of the GE Group (in each case, in their respective capacities as such), remise, release and forever discharge Genworth, the respective members of the Genworth Group, their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns, and all Persons who at any time prior to the Closing Date have been stockholders, directors, officers, agents or employees of any member of the Genworth Group (in each case, in their respective capacities as such), and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, from any and all Liabilities whatsoever, whether at Law or in equity (including any right of contribution), whether arising under any contract or agreement, by operation of Law or otherwise, existing or arising from any acts or events occurring or failing to occur or alleged to have occurred or to have failed to occur or any conditions existing or alleged to have existed on or before the Closing Date, including in connection with the transactions and all other activities to implement the Separation, the Initial Public Offering and any of the other transactions contemplated hereunder and under the Transaction Documents.

(c) Nothing contained in Section 5.1(a) or Section 5.1(b) shall impair any right of any Person to enforce this Agreement, any Transaction Document or any agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings that are specified in Section 2.4(b) or the applicable Schedules thereto not to terminate as of the Closing Date, in each case in accordance with its terms. Nothing contained in Section 5.1(a) or Section 5.1(b) shall release any Person from:

(i) any Liability provided in or resulting from any agreement among any members of the GE Group or the Genworth Group that is specified in Section 2.4(b) or the applicable Schedules thereto not to terminate as of the Closing Date, or any other Liability specified in such Section 2.4(b) not to terminate as of the Closing Date;

(ii) any Liability, contingent or otherwise, assumed, transferred, assigned or allocated to the Group of which such Person is a member in accordance with, or any other Liability of any member of any Group under, this Agreement or any Transaction Document;

(iii) any Liability for the sale, lease, construction or receipt of goods, property or services purchased, obtained or used in the ordinary course of business by a member of one Group from a member of the other Group prior to the Closing Date;

(iv) any Liability for unpaid amounts for products or services or refunds owing on products or services due on a value-received basis for work done by a member of one Group at the request or on behalf of a member of the other Group; or

(v) any Liability that the parties may have with respect to indemnification or contribution pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise for claims brought against the parties by third Persons, which Liability shall be governed by the provisions of this Article V and, if applicable, the appropriate provisions of the Transaction Documents.

In addition, nothing contained in Section 5.1(a) shall release GE from indemnifying any director, officer or employee of Genworth who was a director, officer or employee of GE or any of its Affiliates on or prior to the Closing Date, to the extent such director, officer or employee is or becomes a named defendant in any Action with respect to which he or she was entitled to such indemnification pursuant to then existing obligations.

(d) Genworth shall not make, and shall not permit any member of the Genworth Group to make, any claim or demand, or commence any Action asserting any claim or demand, including any claim of contribution or any indemnification, against GE or any member of the GE Group, or any other Person released pursuant to Section 5.1(a), with respect to any Liabilities released pursuant to Section 5.1(a). GE shall not, and shall not permit any member of the GE Group, to make any claim or demand, or commence any Action asserting any claim or demand, including any claim of contribution or any indemnification against Genworth or any member of the Genworth Group, or any other Person released pursuant to Section 5.1(b), with respect to any Liabilities released pursuant to Section 5.1(b).

(e) It is the intent of each of GE and Genworth, by virtue of the provisions of this Section 5.1, to provide for a full and complete release and discharge of all Liabilities existing or arising from all acts and events occurring or failing to occur or alleged to have occurred or to have failed to occur and all conditions existing or alleged to have existed on or before the Closing Date, between or among Genworth or any member of the Genworth Group, on the one hand, and GE or any member of the GE Group, on the other hand (including any contractual agreements or arrangements existing or alleged to exist between or among any such members on or before the Closing Date), except as expressly set forth in Section 5.1(c). At any time, at the request of any other party, each party shall cause each member of its respective Group to execute and deliver releases reflecting the provisions hereof.

5.2 General Indemnification by Genworth. Except as provided in Section 5.5, Genworth shall, and shall cause the other members of the Genworth Group to, indemnify defend and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis each member of the GE Group and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (collectively, the “GE Indemnified Parties”), from and against any and all Liabilities of the GE Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of or resulting from any of the following items (without duplication):

(a) the failure of Genworth or any other member of the Genworth Group or any other Person to pay, perform or otherwise promptly discharge any Genworth Liabilities or Genworth Contract in accordance with its respective terms, whether prior to or after the Closing Date;

(b) any Genworth Liability or any Genworth Contract;

(c) the GE Guarantees and, except to the extent it relates to an Excluded Liability, any other guarantee, indemnification obligation, surety bond or other credit support agreement, arrangement, commitment or understanding by any member of the GE Group for the benefit of any member of the Genworth Group that survives the Closing;

(d) any breach by any member of the Genworth Group of this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents (other than the Transaction Documents set forth on Schedule 5.2(d)) or any action by Genworth in contravention of its Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated Bylaws; and

(e) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any GE Public Filing or any other document filed with the SEC by any member of the GE Group pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that those Liabilities are caused by any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission based upon information that is either furnished to any of the GE Indemnified Parties by any member of the Genworth Group or incorporated by reference by any GE Indemnified Party from any filings made by any member of the Genworth Group with the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and then only if that statement or omission was made or occurred after the Closing Date.

5.3 General Indemnification by GE. Except as provided in Section 5.5, GE shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis each member of the Genworth Group and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (collectively, the “Genworth Indemnified Parties”), from and against any and all Liabilities of the Genworth Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of or resulting from any of the following items (without duplication):

- (a) the failure of any member of the GE Group or any other Person to pay, perform or otherwise promptly discharge any Liabilities of the GE Group other than the Genworth Liabilities, whether prior to or after the Closing Date or the date hereof;
- (b) any Excluded Liability or any Liability of a member of the GE Group other than the Genworth Liabilities;
- (c) any breach by any member of the GE Group of this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents (other than the Transaction Documents set forth on Schedule 5.3(c)); and
- (d) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any document filed with the SEC by any member of the Genworth Group pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act other than the Registration Statements, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that those Liabilities are caused by any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission based upon information that is either furnished to any member of the Genworth Indemnified Parties by any member of the GE Group or incorporated by reference by any Genworth Indemnified Party from any GE Public Filings or any other document filed with the SEC by any member of the GE Group pursuant to the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

5.4 Registration Statement Indemnification.

- (a) Genworth agrees to indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis the GE Indemnified Parties and each Person, if any, who controls any member of the GE Group within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act (collectively, the “Registration Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all Liabilities arising out of or based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement or Prospectus, or arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as such Liabilities arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission which has been made therein or omitted therefrom in reliance upon and in conformity with (i) the information set forth in the IPO Registration Statement, the Equity Units Registration Statement, and the Series A Preferred Stock Registration Statement that is described on Schedule 5.4 and (ii) information relating to any underwriter furnished in writing to Genworth by or on behalf of such underwriter expressly for use in the Registration Statement or Prospectus.

(b) Each Registration Indemnified Party agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis Genworth and its Subsidiaries and any of their respective directors or officers who sign any Registration Statement, and any person who controls Genworth within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act, to the same extent as the foregoing indemnity from Genworth to each Registration Indemnified Party, but only with respect to the information set forth in the IPO Registration Statement, the Equity Units Registration Statement, and the Series A Preferred Stock Registration Statement that is described on Schedule 5.4. For purposes of this Section 5.4(b), any information relating to any underwriter that is contained in a Registration Statement or Prospectus shall not be deemed to be information relating to a Registration Indemnified Party. If any Action shall be brought against Genworth or its Subsidiaries, any of their respective directors or officers, or any such controlling person based on any Registration Statement or Prospectus and in respect of which indemnity may be sought against a Registration Indemnified Party pursuant to this paragraph (b), such Registration Indemnified Party shall have the rights and duties given to Genworth by Section 5.5 hereof (except that if Genworth shall have assumed the defense thereof, such Registration Indemnified Party shall not be required to, but may, employ separate counsel therein and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at such Registration Indemnified Party's expense), and Genworth, its directors or officers, and any such controlling person shall have the rights and duties given to such Registration Indemnified Party by Section 5.5 hereof.

5.5 Contribution.

(a) If the indemnification provided for in this Article V is unavailable to, or insufficient to hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis, an indemnified party under Section 5.2(e), Section 5.3(d) or Section 5.4 hereof in respect of any Liabilities referred to therein, then each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such Liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party and the indemnified party in connection with the actions which resulted in Liabilities as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of such indemnifying party and indemnified party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by such indemnifying party or indemnified party, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. For the purposes of this Section 5.5(a), the information set forth in the IPO Registration Statement, the Equity Units Registration Statement, and the Series A Preferred Stock Registration Statement that is described on Schedule 5.4 shall be the only "information supplied by" such Registration Indemnified Parties.

(b) The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 5.5 were determined by a pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in paragraph (a) above. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the Liabilities referred to in paragraph (a) above, shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating any claim or defending any Action. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 5.5, a Registration Indemnified Party shall not be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the proceeds to such Registration Indemnified Party exceeds the amount of any damages which such Registration Indemnified Party has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

5.6 Indemnification Obligations Net of Insurance Proceeds and Other Amounts, On an After-Tax Basis.

(a) Any Liability subject to indemnification or contribution pursuant to this Article V will be net of Insurance Proceeds that actually reduce the amount of the Liability and will be determined on an After-Tax Basis. Accordingly, the amount which any party (an “Indemnifying Party”) is required to pay to any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder (an “Indemnified Party”) will be reduced by any Insurance Proceeds theretofore actually recovered by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party in respect of the related Liability. If an Indemnified Party receives a payment (an “Indemnity Payment”) required by this Agreement from an Indemnifying Party in respect of any Liability and subsequently receives Insurance Proceeds, then the Indemnified Party will pay to the Indemnifying Party an amount equal to the excess of the Indemnity Payment received over the amount of the Indemnity Payment that would have been due if the Insurance Proceeds had been received, realized or recovered before the Indemnity Payment was made.

(b) An insurer who would otherwise be obligated to pay any claim shall not be relieved of the responsibility with respect thereto or, solely by virtue of the indemnification provisions hereof, have any subrogation rights with respect thereto. The Indemnified Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to seek to collect or recover any third-party (which shall not include any captive insurance subsidiary) Insurance Proceeds (other than Insurance Proceeds under an arrangement where future premiums are adjusted to reflect prior claims in excess of prior premiums) to which the Indemnified Party is entitled in connection with any Liability for which the Indemnified Party seeks indemnification pursuant to this Article V; provided that the Indemnified Party’s inability to collect or recover any such Insurance Proceeds shall not limit the Indemnifying Party’s obligations hereunder.

(c) The term “After-Tax Basis” as used in this Article V means that, in determining the amount of the payment necessary to indemnify any party against, or reimburse any party for, Liabilities, the amount of such Liabilities will be determined net of any reduction in Tax derived by the indemnified party as the result of sustaining or paying such Liabilities, and the amount of such indemnification payment will be increased (i.e., “grossed up”) by the amount necessary to satisfy any income or franchise

Tax liabilities incurred by the indemnified party as a result of its receipt of, or right to receive, such indemnification payment (as so increased), so that the indemnified party is put in the same net after-Tax economic position as if it had not incurred such Liabilities, in each case without taking into account any impact on the tax basis that an indemnified party has in its assets.

5.7 Procedures for Indemnification of Third Party Claims.

(a) If an Indemnified Party shall receive notice or otherwise learn of the assertion by a Person (including any Governmental Authority) who is not a member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group of any claim or of the commencement by any such Person of any Action (collectively, a “Third Party Claim”) with respect to which an Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification to such Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 5.2, Section 5.3 or Section 5.4, or any other Section of this Agreement or any Transaction Document, such Indemnified Party shall give such Indemnifying Party written notice thereof within 20 days after becoming aware of such Third Party Claim. Any such notice shall describe the Third Party Claim in reasonable detail. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of any Indemnified Party or other Person to give notice as provided in this Section 5.7(a) shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Article V, except to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice.

(b) An Indemnifying Party may elect to defend (and to seek to settle or compromise), at such Indemnifying Party’s own expense and by such Indemnifying Party’s own counsel, any Third Party Claim. Within 30 days after the receipt of notice from an Indemnified Party in accordance with Section 5.7(a) (or sooner, if the nature of such Third Party Claim so requires), the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party of its election whether the Indemnifying Party will assume responsibility for defending such Third Party Claim, which election shall specify any reservations or exceptions. After notice from an Indemnifying Party to an Indemnified Party of its election to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel and to participate in (but not control) the defense, compromise, or settlement thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be the expense of such Indemnified Party except as set forth in the next sentence. If the Indemnifying Party has elected to assume the defense of the Third Party Claim but has specified, and continues to assert, any reservations or exceptions in such notice, then, in any such case, the reasonable fees and expenses of one separate counsel for all Indemnified Parties shall be borne by the Indemnifying Party, but the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to reimbursement by the Indemnified Party for payment of any such fees and expenses to the extent that it establishes that such reservations and exceptions were proper.

(c) If an Indemnifying Party elects not to assume responsibility for defending a Third Party Claim, or fails to notify an Indemnified Party of its election as provided in Section 5.7(b), such Indemnified Party may defend such Third Party Claim at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party.

(d) Unless the Indemnifying Party has failed to assume the defense of the Third Party Claim in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, no Indemnified Party may settle or compromise any Third Party Claim without the consent of the Indemnifying Party. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement of any pending or threatened Third Party Claim in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party without the consent of the Indemnified Party if (i) the effect thereof is to permit any injunction, declaratory judgment, other order or other nonmonetary relief to be entered, directly or indirectly against such Indemnified Party and (ii) such settlement does not include an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such Third Party Claim.

(e) The provisions of this Section 5.7 shall not apply to Taxes (which are covered by the Tax Matters Agreement).

5.8 Additional Matters.

(a) Indemnification or contribution payments in respect of any Liabilities for which an Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification or contribution under this Article V shall be paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party as such Liabilities are incurred upon demand by the Indemnified Party, including reasonably satisfactory documentation setting forth the basis for the amount of such indemnification or contribution payment, including documentation with respect to calculations made on an After-Tax Basis and consideration of any Insurance Proceeds that actually reduce the amount of such Liabilities. The indemnity and contribution agreements contained in this Article V shall remain operative and in full force and effect, regardless of (i) any investigation made by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party; (ii) the knowledge by the Indemnified Party of Liabilities for which it might be entitled to indemnification or contribution hereunder; and (iii) any termination of this Agreement.

(b) Any claim on account of a Liability which does not result from a Third Party Claim shall be asserted by written notice given by the Indemnified Party to the applicable Indemnifying Party. Such Indemnifying Party shall have a period of 30 days after the receipt of such notice within which to respond thereto. If such Indemnifying Party does not respond within such 30-day period, such Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to have refused to accept responsibility to make payment. If such Indemnifying Party does not respond within such 30-day period or rejects such claim in whole or in part, such Indemnified Party shall be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to such party as contemplated by this Agreement and the Transaction Documents without prejudice to its continuing rights to pursue indemnification or contribution hereunder.

(c) If payment is made by or on behalf of any Indemnifying Party to any Indemnified Party in connection with any Third Party Claim, such Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to and shall stand in the place of such Indemnified Party as to any events or circumstances in respect of which such Indemnified Party may have any right, defense or claim relating to such Third Party Claim against any claimant or plaintiff asserting such Third Party Claim or against any other Person. Such Indemnified Party shall cooperate with such Indemnifying Party in a reasonable manner, and at the cost and expense of such Indemnifying Party, in prosecuting any subrogated right, defense or claim.

(d) In an Action in which the Indemnifying Party is not a named defendant, if either the Indemnified Party or Indemnifying Party shall so request, the parties shall endeavor to substitute the Indemnifying Party for the named defendant if they conclude that substitution is desirable and practical. If such substitution or addition cannot be achieved for any reason or is not requested, the named defendant shall allow the Indemnifying Party to manage the Action as set forth in this section, and the Indemnifying Party shall fully indemnify the named defendant against all costs of defending the Action (including court costs, sanctions imposed by a court, attorneys' fees, experts fees and all other external expenses), the costs of any judgment or settlement, and the cost of any interest or penalties relating to any judgment or settlement.

(e) The provisions of this Section 5.8 shall not apply to Taxes and related matters covered under Section 16 of the Tax Matters Agreement.

5.9 Remedies Cumulative; Limitations of Liability. The rights provided in this Article V shall be cumulative and, subject to the provisions of Article VII, shall not preclude assertion by any Indemnified Party of any other rights or the seeking of any and all other remedies against any Indemnifying Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Genworth or its Affiliates, on the one hand, nor any GE Party, on the other hand, shall be liable to the other for any special, indirect, incidental, punitive, consequential, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim shall be considered direct damages) of the other arising in connection with the Transactions.

5.10 Survival of Indemnities. The rights and obligations of each of GE and Genworth and their respective Indemnified Parties under this Article V shall survive the sale or other transfer by any party of any Assets or businesses or the assignment by it of any Liabilities.

ARTICLE VI

OTHER AGREEMENTS

6.1 Further Assurances.

(a) In addition to the actions specifically provided for elsewhere in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto will cooperate with each other and use (and will cause their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates to use) commercially reasonable efforts, prior to, on and after the Closing Date, to take, or to cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or to cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary on its part under applicable Law or contractual obligations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Transaction Documents.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, prior to, on and after the Closing Date, each party hereto shall cooperate with the other parties, and without any further consideration, but at the expense of the requesting party from and after the Closing Date, to execute and deliver, or use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be executed and delivered, all instruments, including instruments of conveyance, assignment and transfer, and to make all filings with, and to obtain all consents, approvals or authorizations of, any Governmental Authority or any other Person under any permit, license, agreement, indenture or other instrument (including any Consents or Governmental Approvals), and to take all such other actions as such party may reasonably be requested to take by any other party hereto from time to time, consistent with the terms of this Agreement and the Transaction Documents, in order to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Agreement and the Transaction Documents and the transfers of the Genworth Assets and the assignment and assumption of the Genworth Liabilities and the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. Without limiting the foregoing, each party will, at the reasonable request, cost and expense of any other party, take such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to vest in such other party good and marketable title to the Assets allocated to such party under this Agreement or any of the Transaction Documents, free and clear of any Security Interest, if and to the extent it is practicable to do so.

(c) On or prior to the Closing Date, GE and Genworth in their respective capacities as direct and indirect stockholders of their respective Subsidiaries, shall each ratify any actions that are reasonably necessary or desirable to be taken by GE, Genworth or any other Subsidiary of GE or Genworth, as the case may be, to effectuate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. On or prior to the Closing Date, GEFAHI and Genworth shall take all actions as may be necessary to approve the stock-based employee benefit plans of Genworth in order to satisfy the requirements of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act and the applicable rules and regulations of The New York Stock Exchange.

6.2 Confidentiality.

(a) From and after the Closing, subject to Section 6.2(c) and except as contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document, the GE Parties shall not, and shall cause their respective Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, and other agents and representatives, including attorneys, agents, customers, suppliers, contractors, consultants and other representatives of any Person providing financing (collectively, “Representatives”), not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any Person other than Representatives of such party or of its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing services to any member of the GE Group or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any Genworth Confidential Information. If any disclosures are made in connection with providing services to any member of the GE Group under this Agreement or any Transaction Document, then the Genworth Confidential Information so disclosed shall be used only as required to perform the services. The GE Parties shall use the same degree of care to prevent and restrain the unauthorized use or disclosure of the Genworth Confidential Information by any of their Representatives as they currently use for their own confidential information of a like nature, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care. For purposes of this Section 6.2, any Information, material or documents relating to the Genworth Business currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by any member of the Genworth Group furnished to or in possession of the GE Parties, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by the GE Parties or their respective officers, directors and Affiliates, that contain or otherwise reflect such information, material or documents is hereinafter referred to as “Genworth Confidential Information.” “Genworth Confidential Information” does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by any of the GE Parties not otherwise permissible hereunder, (ii) such GE Party can demonstrate was or became available to such GE Party from a source other than Genworth or its Affiliates or (iii) is developed independently by such GE Party without reference to the Genworth Confidential Information; provided, however, that, in the case of clause (ii), the source of such information was not known by the GE Parties to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, Genworth or any member of the Genworth Group with respect to such information.

(b) From and after the Closing, subject to Section 6.2(c) and except as contemplated by this Agreement or any Transaction Document, Genworth shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and their respective Representatives, not to, directly or indirectly, disclose, reveal, divulge or communicate to any Person other than Representatives of such party or of its Affiliates who reasonably need to know such information in providing services to Genworth or any member of the Genworth Group or use or otherwise exploit for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, any GE Confidential Information. If any disclosures are made in connection with providing services to any member of the Genworth Group under this Agreement or any Transaction Document, then the GE Confidential Information so disclosed shall be used only as required to perform the services. The Genworth Group shall use the same degree of care to prevent and restrain the unauthorized use or disclosure of the GE Confidential Information by any of their Representatives as they currently use for their own confidential information of a like nature, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care. For purposes of this Section 6.2, any Information, material or documents relating to the businesses currently or formerly conducted, or proposed to be conducted, by GE or any of its Affiliates (other than any member of the Genworth Group) furnished to or in possession of any member of the Genworth Group, irrespective of the form of communication, and all notes, analyses, compilations, forecasts, data, translations, studies, memoranda or other documents prepared by Genworth, any member of the Genworth Group or their respective officers, directors and Affiliates, that contain or otherwise reflect such information, material or documents is hereinafter referred to as “GE Confidential Information.” “GE Confidential Information” does not include, and there shall be no obligation hereunder with respect to, information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by any member of the Genworth Group not otherwise permissible hereunder, (ii) Genworth can demonstrate was or became available to Genworth from a source other than the GE Parties and their respective Affiliates or (iii) is developed independently by such member of the Genworth Group without reference to the GE Confidential Information; provided, however, that, in the case of clause (ii), the source of such information was not known by Genworth to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, any of the GE Parties or their respective Affiliates with respect to such information.

(c) If any of the GE Parties or their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, or Genworth or its Affiliates, on the other hand, are requested or required (by oral question, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) by any Governmental Authority or pursuant to applicable Law to disclose or provide any Genworth Confidential Information or GE Confidential Information (other than with respect to any such information furnished pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of this Agreement), as applicable, the entity or person receiving such request or demand shall use all reasonable efforts to provide the other party with written notice of such request or demand as promptly as practicable under the circumstances so that such other party shall have an opportunity to seek an appropriate protective order. The party receiving such request or demand agrees to take, and cause its representatives to take, at the requesting party’s expense, all other reasonable steps necessary to obtain confidential treatment by the recipient. Subject to the foregoing, the party that received such request or demand may thereafter disclose or provide any Genworth Confidential Information or GE Confidential Information, as the case may be, to the extent required by such Law (as so advised by counsel) or by lawful process or such Governmental Authority.

6.3 Insurance Matters .

(a) Schedule 6.3 sets forth the Insurance Policies under which members of the Genworth Group will continue to have coverage until the Trigger Date, and the amounts payable by Genworth to GE under each such Insurance Policy from and after the Closing Date. Members of the Genworth Group will pay retrospective premium adjustments under each such Insurance Policy based on their loss experience under the Insurance Policy and in accordance with the pricing methodologies set forth on Schedule 6.3. Except as otherwise set forth on Schedule 6.3, the members of the Genworth Group will have coverage under all Insurance Policies with respect to periods prior to the Trigger Date in accordance with the terms of each such Insurance Policy. GE and Genworth agree to cooperate in good faith to provide for an orderly transition of insurance coverage from the Closing Date through the Trigger Date, and for the treatment of any Insurance Policies that will remain in effect following the Trigger Date on a mutually agreeable basis. Genworth may cancel coverage under any Insurance Policy by written notice to GE at least sixty (60) days prior to such cancellation. In no event shall GE, any other member of the GE Group or any GE Indemnified Party have liability or obligation whatsoever to any member of the Genworth Group if any Insurance Policy or other contract or policy of insurance shall be terminated or otherwise cease to be in effect or for any reason shall be unavailable or inadequate to cover any Liability of any member of the Genworth Group for any reason whatsoever or shall not be renewed or extended beyond the current expiration date. GE shall provide notice to Genworth promptly upon its becoming aware that any Insurance Policy has been terminated or is otherwise no longer in effect or is reasonably likely to be terminated or otherwise cease to be in effect.

(b) (i) Except as otherwise provided in any Transaction Document, the parties intend by this Agreement that Genworth and each other member of the Genworth Group be successors-in-interest to all rights that any member of the Genworth Group may have as of the Closing Date as a subsidiary, affiliate, division or department of GE prior to the Closing Date under any policy of insurance issued to GE by any insurance carrier or under any agreements related to such policies executed and delivered prior to the Closing Date, including any rights such member of the Genworth Group may have, as an insured or additional named insured, subsidiary, affiliate, division or department, to avail itself of any such policy of insurance or any such agreements related to such policies as in effect prior to the Closing Date. At the request of Genworth, GE shall take all reasonable steps, including the execution and delivery of any instruments, to effect the foregoing; provided, however that GE shall not be required to pay any amounts, waive any rights or incur any Liabilities in connection therewith.

(ii) Except as otherwise contemplated by any Transaction Document, after the Closing Date, none of GE or Genworth or any member of their respective Groups shall, without the consent of the other, provide any such insurance carrier with a release, or amend, modify or waive any rights under any such policy or agreement, if such release, amendment, modification or waiver would adversely affect any rights or potential rights of any member of the other Group thereunder; provided, however that the foregoing shall not (A) preclude any member of any Group from presenting any claim or from exhausting any policy limit, (B) require any member of any Group to pay any premium or other amount or to incur any Liability, or (C) require any member of any Group to renew, extend or continue any policy in force. Each of Genworth and GE will share such information as is reasonably necessary in order to permit the other to manage and conduct its insurance matters in an orderly fashion.

(c) This Agreement shall not be considered as an attempted assignment of any policy of insurance or as a contract of insurance and shall not be construed to waive any right or remedy of any member of the GE Group in respect of any Insurance Policy or any other contract or policy of insurance.

(d) Genworth does hereby, for itself and each other member of the Genworth Group, agree that no member of the GE Group or any GE Indemnified Party shall have any Liability whatsoever to Genworth or any other member of the Genworth Group as a result of the insurance policies and practices of GE and its Affiliates as in effect at any time prior to the Closing Date, including as a result of the level or scope of any such insurance, the creditworthiness of any insurance carrier, the terms and conditions of any policy, the adequacy or timeliness of any notice to any insurance carrier with respect to any claim or potential claim or otherwise.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict any member of the Genworth Group from acquiring at its own expense any other insurance policy in respect of any Liabilities or covering any period; provided that Genworth shall give GE prompt written notice of any such insurance policy acquired prior to the Trigger Date.

6.4 Allocation of Costs and Expenses. GE shall pay (or, to the extent incurred by and paid for by any member of the Genworth Group, will promptly reimburse such party for any and all amounts so paid) for all out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses incurred by Genworth or any member of the GE Group prior to and simultaneously with the consummation of the Initial Public Offering in connection with the Transactions, including (a) the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement, each Transaction Document (unless otherwise expressly provided therein), the Genworth Bridge Loan, the Genworth Credit Facilities, the Genworth Senior Notes and the $1.0 billion Genworth commercial paper facility and all other documentation related to the Transactions and all related transactions, (b) the preparation and execution or filing of any and all other documents, agreements, forms, applications, contracts or consents associated with the Transactions and all related transactions, (c) the preparation and filing of Genworth's and its Subsidiaries' organizational documents, (d) the preparation, printing and filing of any Registration Statement, including all fees and expenses of complying with applicable federal, state or foreign securities Laws and domestic or foreign securities exchange rules and regulations, together with fees and expenses of counsel retained to effect such compliance, (e) the preparation, printing and distribution of each Prospectus, (f) the private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service sought in connection with the Transactions, (g) the initial listing of the Genworth Common Stock, the Series A Preferred Stock and the Genworth Equity Units on The New York Stock Exchange and (h) the preparation (including, but not limited to, the printing of documents) and implementation of Genworth's or its Subsidiaries' employee benefit plans, retirement plans and equity-based plans. In addition, GE shall pay (or, to the extent incurred by and paid for by any member of the Genworth Group, will promptly reimburse such party for any and all amounts so paid) for all out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses incurred by Genworth or any member of the GE Group or Genworth Group following the consummation of the Initial Public Offering in connection with (1) the preparation, printing and filing of the Debt Registration Statement, including all fees and expenses of complying with applicable federal, state or foreign securities Laws and domestic or foreign securities exchange rules and regulations, together with fees and expenses of counsel retained to effect such compliance, (2) the preparation, printing and distribution of the Prospectus included in the Debt Registration Statement, (3) the consummation of the Genworth Credit Facilities, the Genworth Senior Notes and the $1.0 billion Genworth commercial paper facility, (4) the consummation of the transfer of the Delayed Transfer Assets and the assumption of the Delayed Transfer Liabilities; (5) the exercise of any Over-Allotment Option and (6) the FACL Bond Portfolio Reinsurance pursuant to Section 2.10(a) and the transfer of the FACL Bonds to an appropriate member of the GE

Group pursuant to Section 2.10(b); provided, that prior to the Closing Date Genworth shall deliver to GE a good faith estimate of the out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses expected to be incurred in connection with the foregoing clauses (1) through (4) and clause (6).

6.5 Covenants Against Taking Certain Actions Affecting GE.

(a) Genworth hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, without the prior written consent of GE (which it may withhold in its sole and absolute discretion) take, or cause to be taken, directly or indirectly, any action, including making or failing to make any election under the Law of any state, which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of restricting or limiting the ability of GE or any of its Affiliates to freely sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of Genworth Common Stock. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Genworth shall not, without the prior written consent of GE (which it may withhold in its sole and absolute discretion), take any action, or recommend to its stockholders any action, which would among other things, limit the legal rights of, or deny any benefit to, GE as a Genworth stockholder in a manner not applicable to Genworth stockholders generally.

(b) Prior to the Trigger Date, to the extent that any member of the GE Group is a party to any contract or agreement with a third party (i) that provides that certain actions of GE's Subsidiaries may result in GE being in breach of or in default under such agreement and GE has advised Genworth, or Genworth is otherwise aware, of the existence of, such contract or agreement (or the relevant portions thereof), (ii) to which any member of the Genworth Group is a party or (iii) under which any member of the Genworth Group has performed any obligations on or before the date hereof, Genworth shall not take, and shall cause each other member of the Genworth Group not to take, any actions that reasonably could result in any member of the GE Group being in breach of or in default under any such contract or agreement; provided, that, except as set forth in any Transaction Document or otherwise agreed to in writing by any member of the Genworth Group, the foregoing shall not obligate any member of the Genworth Group to satisfy any volume assumptions or targets in any such contracts or agreements that are not specifically applicable to such member of the Genworth Group in such contracts or agreements. As of the date hereof, the contracts and agreements described in clause (i) above are set forth or generally described on Schedule 6.5(b). Genworth hereby acknowledges and agrees that GE has made available to Genworth copies of each contract or agreement (or the relevant portion thereof) described on Schedule 6.5(b). The parties acknowledge and agree that, after the date hereof, GE may in good faith (and not solely with the intention of imposing restrictions on Genworth pursuant to this covenant) amend the referenced agreements or enter into additional contracts or agreements that provide that certain actions of any member of the Genworth Group may result in GE being in breach of or in default under such agreements; provided that GE shall use reasonable efforts to notify and consult with Genworth prior to entering into any such amendments or additional contracts or agreements to the extent that compliance therewith (i) could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on any member of the Genworth Group or (ii) would discriminate in an adverse way in the treatment of members of the Genworth Group as compared with GE and its other Affiliates, and shall make available to Genworth copies of such amendments or additional contracts or agreements. In such event, Schedule 6.5(b) shall be deemed to be automatically amended to reflect the addition of any other contracts or agreements (or relevant portions thereof) of which GE advises Genworth after the date hereof in accordance with this Section 6.5(b).

(c) Genworth shall not, without GE's prior written consent, enter into any agreement or arrangement that, directly or indirectly, binds or purports to bind any member of the GE Group.

6.6 No Violations.

(a) Genworth covenants and agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, take any action or enter into any commitment or agreement that may reasonably be anticipated to result, with or without notice and with or without lapse of time or otherwise, in a contravention or event of default by any member of the GE Group of: (i) any provisions of applicable Law; (ii) any provision of the organizational documents of any member of the GE Group; (iii) any credit agreement or other material instrument binding upon any member of the GE Group in effect as of the Closing Date; or (iv) any judgment, order or decree of any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over any member of the GE Group or any of its respective assets.

(b) GE covenants and agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to take any action or enter into any commitment or agreement that may reasonably be anticipated to result, with or without notice and with or without lapse of time or otherwise, in a contravention or event of default by any member of the Genworth Group of: (i) any provisions of applicable Law; (ii) any provision of the organizational documents of Genworth; (iii) any credit agreement or other material instrument binding upon Genworth in effect as of the Closing Date; (iv) the Genworth Bridge Loan and the Genworth Senior Notes; or (v) any judgment, order or decree of any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over Genworth or any of its Assets.

(c) Genworth and GE agree to provide to the other any information and documentation reasonably requested by the other for the purpose of evaluating and ensuring compliance with Sections 6.6(a) and Section 6.6(b) hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 6.6(b), nothing in this Agreement is intended to limit or restrict in any way GE's or its Affiliates' rights as shareholders of Genworth.

6.7 Registration Statements. To the extent necessary to enable the unrestricted transfer of the applicable shares of Genworth Common Stock, upon consummation of the Initial Public Offering, Genworth shall file and cause to remain effective a registration statement with the SEC to register Genworth Common Stock that may be acquired by employees of any member of the Genworth Group as contemplated by GE's or its Subsidiaries' employee stock or option plans.

6.8 Charter Provision. Genworth shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, take any and all actions necessary to ensure continued compliance by Genworth and its Subsidiaries with the provisions of its certificate or articles of incorporation and by-laws. Genworth shall notify GE in writing promptly after becoming aware of any act or activity taken or proposed to be taken by Genworth or any of its Subsidiaries which resulted or would result in non-compliance with any such charter provisions and so long as GE owns any shares of Class B Common Stock Genworth shall take or refrain from taking all such actions as GE shall in its sole discretion determine necessary or desirable to prevent or remedy any such non-compliance.

6.9 Litigation and Settlement Cooperation. Prior to the Trigger Date, GE will use its commercially reasonable efforts to include Genworth and its Subsidiaries in the settlement of any Third Party Claim which jointly involves a member of the GE Group and a member of the Genworth Group; provided, however, that Genworth shall be responsible for its share of any such settlement obligation and any incremental cost (as reasonably determined by GE) to GE of including Genworth in such settlement; provided, further, that Genworth shall be permitted in good faith to opt out of any settlement if Genworth agrees to be responsible for defending its share of such Third Party Claim. The parties agree to cooperate in the defense and settlement of any such Third Party Claim which primarily relates to matters, actions, events or occurrences taking place prior to the Trigger Date. In addition, both Genworth and GE will use their commercially reasonable efforts to make the necessary filings to permit each party to defend its own interests in any such Third Party Claim as of the Trigger Date, or as soon as practicable thereafter.

6.10 Continuation of Certain Arrangements. GE and Genworth will each use commercially reasonable efforts to continue or cause to be continued the arrangements described in Schedule 6.10.

6.11 Future Intercompany Transactions. All proposed intercompany transactions between Genworth and GE after the Closing Date, including any material amendments to the Transaction Documents, and any consent or approval proposed to be granted by Genworth for GE's benefit, in each case that would ordinarily be submitted for approval by the board of directors of Genworth will be subject to the approval of a majority of the independent directors (as defined under the applicable rules of any securities exchange on which shares of Genworth Common Stock are listed) of the board of directors of Genworth.

6.12 Use of Restricted Marks; Certain Commercial Arrangements.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth below, during the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the first to occur of (x) the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, (y) the termination of the right to use the Licensed Marks with respect to products and services under the Transitional Trademark Agreement, and (z) solely with respect to a specific type of product or service in a particular jurisdiction (including the use of the Licensed Marks in connection with products and services offered and jurisdictions entered after the Closing Date in accordance with the Transitional Trademark Agreement), the first date that Genworth ceases to use the Licensed Marks for a period of at least 180 days with respect to such type of product or service in such jurisdiction, GE will not, and will cause its Affiliates not to, use the Restricted Marks in connection with (i) the underwriting, marketing, endorsing, issuing, or administering (other than in connection with a reinsurance relationship) on a primary basis of life insurance, long-term care insurance, annuities (other than in conjunction with the offering of a GE or GE Affiliate-managed mutual fund investment offering underlying such annuities), and work site benefits insurance (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding employer stop loss, workers compensation, and excess workers compensation insurance underwritten or issued by any GE Affiliate on a direct basis as of the date hereof, provided that in connection therewith, the Restricted Marks are used in a substantially similar manner as used as of the date hereof) in the United States or of auto insurance products in the Republic of Mexico or (ii) the underwriting or issuing of mortgage insurance products or similar products providing credit default protection on residential mortgages anywhere in the world. In connection with clause (z) above, Genworth shall notify GE as promptly as practicable in connection with any cessation of use of the Restricted Marks as set forth above.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, and without implicitly agreeing that any of the following activities would be prohibited by the restrictions set forth in paragraph (a) above, GE and its Affiliates shall not be prohibited from (i) using the Restricted Marks in any way in connection with (A) any business in which GE or any of its Affiliates (which, for purposes of this clause, shall not include Genworth and its Subsidiaries) is engaged as of the Closing or (B) the activities set forth on Schedule 6.12(b)(i)(B); (ii) using the Restricted Marks in the underwriting, marketing, endorsing, issuing, renewing, amending, and administering of any and all types of reinsurance and retrocession whether or not so used by GE or any of its Affiliates as of the Closing, including without limitation, reinsurance and retrocession of the types of business that, if underwritten or marketed on a primary basis by GE or its Affiliates using the Restricted Marks would violate the restrictions set forth in paragraph (a) above, provided that in connection with such reinsurance or retrocession, GE and its Affiliates will not use the Restricted Marks in marketing activities primarily directed to consumers; or (iii) making references to any Affiliate of GE as an Affiliate of GE or any of GE's Affiliates (including, without limitation, for the purposes of evidencing credit rating or other support); or (iv) making such disclosures as may be required by applicable Law.

(c) GE and Genworth agree that the underwriting, marketing, or issuing of payment protection products (as defined in the Framework Agreement) by GE's Consumer Finance Division in Europe shall be governed by the Framework Agreement. GE agrees that to the extent GE or any other controlled Affiliate of GE desires to offer payment protection products in the jurisdictions covered by the Framework Agreement in conjunction with a consumer financing arrangement where GE or a GE Affiliate acts as the provider of finance, GE shall, or shall cause such controlled Affiliate, to enter into an arrangement substantially similar to, and for the period covered by, the Framework Agreement.

(d) GE agrees that if it or any of its controlled Affiliates decides to purchase mortgage insurance or any similar products in respect of any residential first mortgage loans or any such loans as it may purchase from third parties, it will so advise Genworth and, if the contemplated transactions would be in a market where Genworth is authorized to conduct such business, or can become so authorized within a three month period, seek a proposal for such coverage from Genworth no later than when it seeks such proposals or offers from any other sources. This obligation shall not apply in a market where GE or such controlled Affiliate has an existing relationship with a third party provider where it decides to purchase additional cover in respect of residential first mortgage loans from that provider in that market. GE and its controlled Affiliates will retain the right, in their sole discretion, to accept or reject Genworth's proposals or terms.

(e) The parties agree that it is not their intention to violate any law. The parties intend that the provisions of this Section 6.12 be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applicable in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. If any provision of this Section 6.12 is found by a court or arbitrator to be unenforceable, the parties authorize the court or arbitrator to amend or modify the provision to make it enforceable in the most restrictive fashion permitted by law. For the avoidance of doubt, any Disputes relating to this Section 6.12 shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article VII of this Agreement except, with respect to paragraph (c), as otherwise provided in the Framework Agreement. GE acknowledges that any violation of the restrictions set forth above could result in irreparable injury to Genworth and that, in the event of a violation by GE or its Affiliates, Genworth shall be entitled to obtain injunctive relief in accordance with Article VII.

6.13 Committees.

(a) Compensation Committee. Prior to the Trigger Date, the compensation committee of the board of directors of Genworth shall be comprised of three directors, one of whom shall be designated by GE and two of whom shall be independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of any securities exchange on which shares of Genworth Common Stock are listed. From and after the Trigger Date, the compensation committee shall be comprised of three directors each of whom shall be independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of any securities exchange on which shares of Genworth Common Stock are listed.

(b) Nominating Committee. Prior to the Trigger Date the nominating committee shall be comprised of five directors, one of whom shall be the chief executive officer of Genworth, one of whom shall be designated by GE and three of whom shall be independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of any securities exchange on which shares of Genworth Common Stock are listed. From and after the Trigger Date, the nominating committee shall be comprised of three directors each of whom shall be independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of any securities exchange on which shares of Genworth Common Stock are listed.

6.14 Genworth Bridge Loan. Genworth shall enter into the Genworth Bridge Loan prior to the consummation of the Initial Public Offering.

6.15 GE Policies. If a provision of Genworth's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated Bylaws or of any Transaction Document contradicts a policy of the GE Parties (the "GE Policies") that applies to Subsidiaries of GE, such provision in Genworth's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated Bylaws or Transaction Document shall control. In any other case, and except as otherwise agreed or unless superseded by any policies adopted by the board of directors of Genworth, the GE Policies that apply to Subsidiaries of GE shall apply to Genworth and its Subsidiaries until the Trigger Date. The key GE Policies applicable to Genworth and its Subsidiaries as of the Closing Date are listed on Schedule 6.15.

6.16 HomeBuyer Now Program; GE Relocation Program.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the parties agree to use their commercially reasonable efforts to continue discussions relating to a proposed agreement between the parties relating to (i) the provision of the same or similar goods and services currently provided by members of the GE Group in support of the HomeBuyer Privileges and HomeBuilder Privileges programs and other marketing arrangements between the parties relating thereto and (ii) the terms and conditions of the proposed HomeBuyer Now platforms, including Emerging Markets, Telemundo and Builder programs. The parties acknowledge that an agreement, if any, between the parties relating to the foregoing shall be set forth in definitive documentation executed by the appropriate members of the GE Group and the Genworth Group.

(b) From and after the Closing Date, the parties agree that Genworth shall have the right to recommend one or more mortgage lender customers as a preferred mortgage lender provider for the GE Group's employee relocation programs and the parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to continue discussions for potential inclusion of such recommended lenders.

6.17 Joint Management Committee. Genworth and GE shall use their commercially reasonable efforts (i) to promptly negotiate in good faith the terms of a letter agreement addressing the matters described in Exhibit KK hereto, (ii) following negotiation of such letter agreement, to seek and obtain all regulatory approvals necessary to allow the parties to the Reinsurance Agreements to enter into such letter agreement and (iii) to cause such subsidiaries to enter into such letter agreement following receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

ARTICLE VII
DISPUTE RESOLUTION

7.1 General Provisions.

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Transaction Documents (other than the Transaction Documents set forth on Schedule 7.1), or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a “Dispute”), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article VII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with a request contemplated by Section 7.1(f) set forth below, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator’s evaluation referred to in Section 7.3 set forth below, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) Except as provided in Section 7.1(f) in connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) special, indirect, incidental, punitive, consequential, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that liability for any such damages with respect to a Third Party Claim shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article VII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article VII, any Dispute relating to GE’s rights as a stockholder of Genworth pursuant to applicable Law, Genworth’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Genworth’s Amended and Restated Bylaws, including GE’s rights as the holder of the Class B Common Stock, will not be governed by or subject to the procedures set forth in this Article VII. The parties hereto hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state court located within the State of Delaware over any such Dispute and each party hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of any such Dispute or any suit, action proceeding related thereto may be heard and determined in such courts. The parties hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such Dispute brought in such court or any defense of inconvenient forum for the maintenance of such dispute. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a judgment in any such Dispute may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Law.

7.2 Consideration by Senior Executives . If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the “ Initial Notice ”). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the “ Response ”). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party’s position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

7.3 Mediation . If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 7.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “ CPR ”) Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties’ relative positions.

7.4 Arbitration .

(a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 7.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement and the Transaction Documents according to their respective terms; provided, however, that any Dispute in respect of a Transaction Document which by its terms is governed by the law of a jurisdiction other than the State of New York shall be determined by the law of such other jurisdiction and; provided, further, however, that the provisions of this Agreement relating to arbitration shall in any event be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this Section 7.4 and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 7.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 7.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding Section 7.4(d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of the provisions of (i) Section 6.2, Section 6.12 or Section 6.13, (ii) the Employee Matters Agreement, (iii) the Cross License Agreement, (iv) the Transitional Trademark License Agreement or (v) the Registration Rights Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article VII.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Corporate Power; Fiduciary Duty .

(a) Each of the GE Parties represents on behalf of itself, and Genworth represents on behalf of itself, as follows:

(i) each such Person has the requisite corporate or other power and authority and has taken all corporate or other action necessary in order to execute, deliver and perform each of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; and

(ii) this Agreement and each Transaction Document to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by it and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of it enforceable in accordance with the terms thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Transaction Document, none of the GE Parties nor Genworth shall be required to take or omit to take any act that would violate its fiduciary duties to any minority stockholders of Genworth or any non-wholly owned Subsidiary of GE or Genworth, as the case may be (it being understood that directors' qualifying shares or similar interests will be disregarded for purposes of determining whether a Subsidiary is wholly owned).

8.2 Governing Law. This Agreement and, unless expressly provided therein, each other Transaction Document, shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of Laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

8.3 Survival of Covenants. Except as expressly set forth in any Transaction Document, the covenants and other agreements contained in this Agreement and each Transaction Document, and liability for the breach of any obligations contained herein or therein, shall survive each of the Separation and the Initial Public Offering and shall remain in full force and effect; provided, however, that Genworth's obligations under Sections 4.6 and 4.9 shall terminate on the first date on which GE ceases to beneficially own, in the aggregate (excluding for such purposes shares of Genworth Common Stock beneficially owned by GE but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership which arises by virtue of some entity that is an Affiliate of GE being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of Genworth Common Stock) at least one percent (1%) of the outstanding Genworth Common Stock.

8.4 Force Majeure. No party hereto (or any Person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfill any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement or, unless otherwise expressly provided therein, any Transaction Document, so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of Force Majeure. A party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event: (i) notify the other parties of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition and (ii) use due diligence to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible.

8.5 Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement and, to the extent applicable and unless otherwise provided therein, under each of the Transaction Documents shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 8.5):

If to the GE Parties, to:

[to be completed]

If to Genworth, to:

8.6 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

8.7 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

8.8 Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. Except as provided in Article V with respect to Indemnified Parties, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and members of their respective Group and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

8.9 Public Announcements. GE and Genworth shall consult with each other before issuing, and give each other the opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Transaction Documents, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange or national securities quotation system.

8.10 Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

8.11 Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified, (c) the word “including” and words of similar import shall mean “including, without limitation,” (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the table of contents and headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and (f) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.

8.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the date first written above by their respective duly authorized officers.

Due to various accounting and financial reporting methods, a single agreement may be listed more than once to reflect separate blocks of business. The agreement effective date in some cases, may reflect an amendment date.

Note: eff. 8/1/99 ERC Life and ERC acquired reinsurance business of American Phoenix Home Life and Reassurance Company and certain affiliates.

An "X" in the first column indicate agreements entered into during 2003.

An "XX" in the first column indicate agreements terminated into during 2003.

An "XXX" * Agreements were not terminated, but GE P&C, GEC, GEI, GEAH, and Bayside were sold. The reinsurance with MWIC is still outstanding, but is now third party.

(A) If Blue Ridge is similar to Penske I.e it's own BSLA rolling up to the segment (Penske rolls to EM), then the “ 4 ” for equity and cost would be required.

(B) If Blue Ridge is similar to SES i.e. an entry booked each month/ quarter by an operating unit (SES entry made by SFG in their own BSLA) then the “ 4 ” for equity and cost columns would NOT be required, however, the necessary financial information to continue to account for the equity/ cost investment would be required.

(C) After prior consultation with Genworth, not less than 60 days prior to the date on which the investment in Genworth is first reported using the equity method, GE will advise Genworth whether to follow the Penske Model or the SES Model. Thereafter and so long as the investment in Genworth is reported using the equity method, at the request of either party to be made by such party no more frequently than once every 6 months, Genworth and GE will work together in good faith to address requested modifications of the reporting under the equity method.

(A) If Blue Ridge is similar to Penske i.e. it's own BSLA rolling up to the segment (Penske rolls to EM), then the "4" for equity and cost would be required.

(B) If Blue Ridge is similar to SES i.e. an entry booked each month/ quarter by an operating unit (SES entry made by SFG in their own BSLA) then the "4" for equity and cost columns would NOT be required, however, the necessary financial information to continue to account for the equity/ cost investment would be required.

(C) After prior consultation with Genworth, not less than 60 days prior to the date on which the investment in Genworth is first reported using the equity method, GE will advise Genworth whether to follow the Penske Model or the SES Model. Thereafter and so long as the investment in Genworth is reported using the equity method, at the request of either party to be made by such party no more frequently than once every 6 months, Genworth and GE will work together in good faith to address requested modifications of the reporting under the equity method.

This Transition Services Agreement, dated _____, 2004 (this “ Agreement ”), is made by and among GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, a New York corporation (“ General Electric ”), GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (“ GE Capital ”), GEI, INC., a Delaware corporation (“ GEI ”), GE FINANCIAL ASSURANCE HOLDINGS, INC., a Delaware corporation (“ GEFAHI ”), GNA CORPORATION, a Washington corporation (“ GNA ”), GE ASSET MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED, a Delaware corporation (“ GEAM ”), GENERAL ELECTRIC MORTGAGE HOLDINGS LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company (“ GEMH ”), and GENWORTH FINANCIAL, INC., a Delaware corporation (“ Genworth ”).

RECITALS

- A. General Electric, GE Capital, GEI, GEFAHI and Genworth entered into a Master Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the “ Master Agreement ”).
- B. It is contemplated by the Master Agreement that after the date hereof (i) General Electric will continue to provide, or cause to continue to be provided, certain administrative and support services and other assistance to Genworth (together with its Subsidiaries, including GNA and GEMH, collectively hereinafter referred to as the “ Company ”) on a transitional basis and in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, and (ii) the Company will continue to provide, or cause to continue be provided, certain administrative and support services and other assistance to General Electric (together with its Subsidiaries, including GE Capital, GEFAHI, and GEAM (but excluding Genworth and its Subsidiaries), collectively hereinafter referred to as “ GE ”) on a transitional basis and in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual agreements contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1.01 . Certain Defined Terms . Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meaning as in the Master Agreement.

The following capitalized terms used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth below:

“ Cross License ” means the Intellectual Property Cross License, dated as of the date hereof, by and between General Electric and Genworth.

“ European Transition Services Agreement ” means the Transitional Services Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, between Financial Insurance Group Services Limited and GE Life Services Limited.

“ GEFAHI Divested Companies ” means the following companies and their associated business divested by GEFAHI on or about August 29, 2003: (i) GE Property and Casualty Insurance Company; (ii) GE Casualty Insurance Company; (iii) GE Indemnity Insurance Company; (iv) GE Auto & Home Insurance Company, (v) Bayside Casualty Insurance Company; (vi) GE Financial Assurance Japan Ltd.; (vii) GE Edison Life Insurance Company; (viii) Toho Shinyo Hosho Company; and (ix) GE Edison Services Company.

“ Information Systems ” means computing, telecommunications or other digital operating or processing systems or environments, including, without limitation, computer programs, data, databases, computers, computer libraries, communications equipment, networks and systems. When referenced in connection with Services, Information Systems shall mean the Information Systems accessed and/or used in connection with the Services.

“ Intellectual Property ” means all of the following, whether protected, created or arising under the laws of the United States or any other foreign jurisdiction: (i) patents, patent applications (along with all patents issuing thereon), statutory invention registrations, divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, substitute application of the foregoing and any extensions, reissues, restorations and reexaminations thereof, and all rights therein provided by international treaties or conventions, (ii) copyrights, mask work rights, database rights and design rights, whether or not registered, published or unpublished, and registrations and applications for registration thereof, and all rights therein whether provided by international treaties or conventions or otherwise, (iii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, logos and other identifiers of source, including all goodwill associated therewith and all common law rights, registrations and applications for registration thereof, and all rights therein provided by international treaties or conventions, and all reissues, extensions and renewals of any of the foregoing, (iv) intellectual property rights arising from or in respect of domain names, domain name registrations and reservations, (v) trade secrets, (vi) intellectual property rights arising from or in respect of Technology, and (vii) all other applications and registrations related to any of the intellectual property rights set forth in the foregoing clauses (i) – (vi) above.

“ Investment Management Agreements ” means each of the Amended and Restated Investment Management and Services Agreements dated as of the date hereof between GEAM and one or more Subsidiaries of Genworth.

“ Provider ” means the party providing a Service under this Agreement.

“ Recipient ” means the party to whom a Service under this Agreement is being provided.

“ Representative(s) ” of a Person means any director, officer, employee, agent, consultant, accountant, auditor, financing source, attorney, investment banker or other representative of such Person.

“ Retained Businesses ” means the insurance businesses owned or managed, directly or indirectly, by General Electric or one of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing and any other businesses owned or managed, directly or indirectly, by General Electric or one of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing that received any service or support substantially the same as the Company Services described in Schedule B hereto from GEFAHI or the Company at any time prior to the Closing, in each case to the extent such businesses are not transferred or contributed to the Company at the Closing.

“Software” means the object and source code versions of computer programs and any associated documentation therefore.

“Service(s)” means, individually and collectively, the GE Services, Company Services and Undertakings (but specifically excludes the Management Consulting Services).

“Service Termination Date” shall have the meaning specified in Schedule A, Schedule A-1 or Schedule B, as applicable, in respect of any Service, or such earlier date as provided hereunder.

“Technology” means, collectively, all designs, formulas, algorithms, procedures, techniques, ideas, know-how, software, programs, models, routines, confidential and proprietary information, databases, tools, inventions, invention disclosures, creations, improvements, works of authorship, and all recordings, graphs, drawings, reports, analyses, other writings, and any other embodiment of the above, in any form, whether or not specifically listed herein.

“Total Consent Cost Amount” means $11 million, which amount represents the parties’ agreed-upon good faith estimate of the anticipated out-of-pocket costs with respect to obtaining, performing or otherwise satisfying (i) the Consents pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the Consents (as such term is defined in the European Transition Services Agreement) pursuant to the terms of the European Transition Services Agreement.

“Total Conversion Cost Amount” means $29.6 million, which amount represents the parties’ agreed-upon good faith estimate of the anticipated nonrecurring, out-of-pocket conversion costs with respect to the transition of (i) the GE Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the GEIH Services (as such term is defined in the European Transition Services Agreement) pursuant to the terms of the European Transition Services Agreement.

“Undertakings” means, collectively, the obligations of General Electric and its Subsidiaries and Genworth and its Subsidiaries set forth in Article III.

“Virus” shall mean any computer instructions (i) that adversely affect the operation, security or integrity of a computing, telecommunications or other digital operating or processing system or environment, including without limitation, other programs, data, databases, computer libraries and computer and communications equipment, by altering, destroying, disrupting or inhibiting such operation, security or integrity; (ii) that without functional purpose, self-replicate without manual intervention; and/or (iii) that purport to perform a useful function but which actually perform either a destructive or harmful function, or perform no useful function and utilize substantial computer, telecommunications or memory resources.

SERVICES AND TERMS

SECTION 2.01 . Services: Scope

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the relevant Service Termination Date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, General Electric shall provide or cause to be provided to the Company the services listed in Schedule A (the “GE Service(s)”). The “GE Services” also shall include (1) any Services to be provided by GE to the Company as agreed pursuant to Section 10.03(a), (2) the investment-related information technology services set forth on Schedule A-1 (the “Investment IT Services”), and (3) any GE Substitute Service; provided, however, that (i) the scope of each GE Service shall be substantially the same as the scope of such service provided by GE to the Company or the Company’s predecessor, as applicable, on the last day prior to the date hereof that such service was provided by GE to the Company or the Company’s predecessor, as applicable, in the ordinary course, (ii) the use of each GE Service by the Company shall include use by the Company’s contractors in substantially the same manner as used by the contractors of the Company or the Company’s predecessor, as applicable, prior to the Closing and (iii) except as provided in Section 10.10, nothing in this Agreement shall require that any GE Service be provided other than for use in, or in connection with the Genworth Business. Nothing in the preceding sentence or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict or otherwise limit the volume or quantity of any GE Service, provided that certain volume or quantity changes with respect to a GE Service may require the parties to negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a price change with respect to such GE Service pursuant to Section 10.10. If, for any reason, GE is unable to provide any GE Service (other than an Investment IT Service) to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, GE shall provide to the Company a substantially equivalent service (a “GE Basic Substitute Service”) at or below the cost for the substituted GE Service as set forth in Schedule A and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Standard for Services. If, for any reason, GE is unable to provide any Investment IT Service to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or GE elects to provide a substitute service in lieu of such Investment IT Service, GE shall provide to the Company a substantially equivalent service (a “GE Substitute Investment IT Service”) at or below the cost for the substituted Investment IT Service as set forth in Schedule A-1 (subject to any increase in such costs provided for in the Investment Management Agreements) and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Standard for Services; provided, however, (i) GE shall provide the Recipient of such GE Substitute Investment IT Service with reasonable advance notice of the proposed commencement date of such GE Substitute Investment IT Service and (ii) upon such Recipient’s request, GE shall provide such Recipient with information regarding GE’s plans to substitute the existing Investment IT Service with the GE Substitute Investment IT Service and permit such Recipient to (A) consult with applicable GE personnel regarding the proposed GE Substitute Investment IT Service and the third party provider thereof and (B) participate in negotiations with any third party provider of such GE Substitute Investment IT Service, provided that GE shall have the exclusive right, subject to the terms of this Agreement, to ultimately select the GE Substitute Investment IT Service and the provider thereof. Together, the GE Basic Substitute Services and the GE Substitute Investment IT Services shall be the “GE Substitute Services.”

(b) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the relevant Service Termination Date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Genworth shall provide or cause to be provided to GE the services listed in Schedule B (the “Company Service(s)”). The “Company Services” also shall include (1) any Services to be provided by the Company to GE as agreed pursuant to Section 10.03(a) and (2) any Company Substitute Service; provided, however, that (i) the scope of each Company Service shall be substantially the same as the scope of such service provided by the Company or the Company’s predecessor, as applicable, to GE on the last day prior to the date hereof that such service was provided by the Company or the Company’s predecessor, as applicable, to GE in the ordinary course, (ii) the use of each Company Service by GE shall include use by GE’s contractors in substantially the same manner as used by the contractors of GE prior to the Closing and (iii) except as provided in Section 10.10, nothing in this Agreement shall require that any Company Service be provided other than for use in, or in connection with (A) the Retained Businesses or (B) the GEFAHI Divested Companies. Nothing in the preceding sentence or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict or otherwise limit the volume or quantity of any Company Service, provided that certain volume or quantity changes with respect to a Company Service may require the parties to negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a price change with respect to such Company Service pursuant to Section 10.10 hereof. The Company Services shall not include any services the Company provides or causes to be provided pursuant to the Business Services Agreement. If, for any reason, the Company is unable to provide any Company Service to GE pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the Company shall provide to GE a substantially equivalent service (a “Company Substitute Service”) at or below the cost for the substituted Company Service as set forth in Schedule B and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Standard for Services.

(c) The GE Services shall include, and the Service Charges reflect charges for, such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements normally and customarily provided by GE to its Subsidiaries that receive such services. If the Company requests that GE provide a custom modification in connection with any GE Service, the Company shall be responsible for the cost of such custom modification, and to the extent such custom modification constitutes Software and such Software and all Intellectual Property therein is owned by GE, GE hereby assigns such Software and all Intellectual Property therein to the Company and the Company hereby grants GE a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid up, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, non-exclusive license, with the right to sublicense, to use and modify such Software. The GE Services shall include all functions, responsibilities, activities and tasks, and the materials, documentation, resources, rights and licenses to be used, granted or provided by GE that are not specifically described in this Agreement as a part of the GE Services, but are incidental to, and would normally be considered an inherent part of, or necessary subpart included within, the GE Services or are otherwise necessary for GE to provide, or the Company to receive, the GE Services.

(d) The Company Services shall include, and the Service Charges reflect charges for, such maintenance, support, error correction, training, updates and enhancements normally and customarily provided by the Company to its Subsidiaries that receive such services. If GE requests that the Company provide a custom modification in connection with any Company Service, GE shall be responsible for the cost of such custom modification, and to the extent such custom modification constitutes Software and such Software and all Intellectual Property therein is owned by the Company, the Company hereby assigns such Software and all Intellectual Property therein to GE and GE hereby grants the Company a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid up, irrevocable, transferable, royalty-free, non-exclusive license, with the right to sublicense, to use and modify such Software. The Company Services shall include all functions, responsibilities, activities and tasks, and the materials, documentation, resources, rights and licenses to be used, granted or provided by the Company that are not specifically described in this Agreement as a part of the Company Services, but are incidental to, and would normally be considered an inherent part of, or necessary subpart included within, the Company Services or are otherwise necessary for the Company to provide, or GE to receive, the Company Services.

(e) This Agreement (including Section 4.03 hereof) shall not assign any rights to Technology or Intellectual Property between the parties other than as specifically set forth herein.

(f) The parties acknowledge and agree that in connection with the implementation, provision, receipt and transition of the Services, there will be certain nonrecurring, out-of-pocket conversion costs incurred by GE or the Company. With respect to each GE Service, GE shall either reimburse the Company after the Service Termination Date for all actual, out-of-pocket conversion costs incurred by the Company and related to such GE Service or, after consultation with the Company, pay such conversion costs directly on an as incurred basis, in either case regardless of whether the Company replaces the GE Service with the same application, system, vendor or other means of effecting the GE Service; provided, however, that GE's payment and reimbursement obligations under this Section 2.01(f) and Section 3.3.1 of the European Transition Services Agreement shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the Total Conversion Cost Amount. GE shall be solely responsible for paying any one-time conversion and related costs with respect to the Company Services, and any such one-time conversion or related costs shall not be included in the Total Conversion Cost Amount.

(g) Prior to GE's payment of or reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket conversion costs pursuant to Section 2.01(f) above, the Company shall provide GE with an invoice accompanied by reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to evidence the out-of-pocket expenses for which the Company is seeking payment or reimbursement. Upon receipt of such invoice and data and documentation, GE shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.01(f), either pay the amount of such invoice directly in accordance with GE's general payment terms with vendors or reimburse the Company for its payment of the invoice within 30 days of the date of GE's receipt of such invoice and request for reimbursement from the Company. If GE in good faith disputes the invoiced amount, then the parties shall work together to resolve such dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute within 30 days, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 8.02. The parties acknowledge and agree that no prior approval shall be required from GE for the Company to seek any reimbursement pursuant to Section 2.01(f) and this Section 2.01(g).

(h) Throughout the term of this Agreement, the Provider and the Recipient of any Service shall cooperate with one another and use their good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to effect the efficient, timely and seamless provision and receipt of such Service.

(i) Any Software delivered by a Provider hereunder shall be delivered, at the election of the Provider, either (i) with the assistance of the Provider, through electronic transmission or downloaded by the Recipient from the GE intranet, or (ii) by installation by Provider on the relevant equipment with retention by Provider of all tangible media on which such Software resides. Provider and Recipient acknowledge and agree that no tangible medium containing such Software (including any enhancements, upgrades or updates) will be transferred to Recipient at any time for any reason under the terms of this Agreement, and that Provider will, at all times, retain possession and control of any such tangible medium used or consumed by Provider in the performance of this Agreement. Each party shall comply with all reasonable security measures implemented by the other party in connection with the delivery of Software.

SECTION 2.02 . Conversion Services .

(a) During the term of this Agreement, GE shall provide, or cause to be provided, the following support, which support shall be in addition to the GE Services described in Schedule A and Schedule A-1 , at no cost except for actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses approved in advance in writing by the Company Services Manager:

(i) GE shall provide, or cause to be provided, current and reasonably available historical data related to the GE Services and predecessor services thereto as reasonably required by the Company in a manner and within a time period as mutually agreed by the parties.

(ii) GE shall make reasonably available to the Company employees and contractors of GE whose assistance, expertise or presence is necessary to assist the Company's transition team in establishing a fully functioning stand-alone environment and the timely assumption by the Company, or by a supplier to the Company, of the GE Services.

(iii) With respect to any Software or other electronic content (" Electronic Materials ") licensed to Genworth and its Affiliates under the Cross License and used to provide a GE Service, GE shall make available or deliver to the Company a copy of such Software or Electronic Materials that are in existence and current as of the Service Termination Date for such GE Service, including any upgrades, updates and other modifications made to such Software and Electronic Materials since the Closing Date. Any upgrades, updates or other modifications to Software and Electronic Materials made available or delivered to the Company pursuant to this Section 2.02(a)(iii) shall be deemed to be GE Intellectual Property under the Cross License and licensed to Genworth and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of the Cross License, notwithstanding that such upgrades, updates or other modifications (x) were not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by the Genworth Group as of the Closing Date, (y) were not Controlled by the GE Group as of the Closing Date or (z) may constitute Improvements made after the Closing Date.

(b) During the term of this Agreement, the Company shall provide, or cause to be provided, the following support, which support shall be in addition to the Company Services described in Schedule B, at no cost except for actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses approved in advance in writing by the GE Services Manager:

(i) The Company shall provide, or cause to be provided, current and reasonably available historical data related to the Company Services and predecessor services thereto as reasonably required by GE in a manner and within a time period as mutually agreed by the parties.

(ii) The Company shall make reasonably available to GE employees and contractors of the Company whose assistance, expertise or presence is necessary to assist GE's transition team in establishing a fully functioning stand-alone environment in respect of the Retained Businesses and the timely assumption by GE, or by a supplier of GE, of the Company Services.

(iii) With respect to any Software or other Electronic Materials licensed to General Electric and its Affiliates under the Cross License and used to provide a Company Service, Company shall make available or deliver to GE a copy of such Software or Electronic Materials that are in existence and current as of the Service Termination Date for such Company Service, including any upgrades, updates and other modifications made to such Software and Electronic Materials since the Closing Date. Any upgrades, updates or other modifications to Software and Electronic Materials made available or delivered to GE pursuant to this Section 2.02(b)(iii) shall be deemed to be Genworth Intellectual Property under the Cross License and licensed to General Electric and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of the Cross License, notwithstanding that such upgrades, updates or other modifications (x) were not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by GE Group as of the Closing Date, (y) were not Controlled by the Genworth Group as of the Closing Date or (z) may constitute Improvements made after the Closing Date.

SECTION 2.03 . GE Services Manager . GE will designate a dedicated services account manager (the “GE Services Manager”) who will be directly responsible for coordinating and managing the delivery of the GE Services and will have authority to act on GE’s behalf with respect to the Services. The GE Services Manager will work with the Company Services Manager to address the Company’s issues and the parties’ relationship under this Agreement.

SECTION 2.04 . Company Services Manager . The Company will designate a dedicated services account manager (the “Company Services Manager”) who will be directly responsible for coordinating and managing the delivery of the Services by the Company and will have authority to act on the Company’s behalf with respect to the Services. The Company Services Manager will work with the GE Services Manager to address GE’s issues and the parties’ relationship under this Agreement.

SECTION 2.05 . Performance and Receipt of Services . The following provisions shall apply to the Services:

(a) Security . Each Provider and Recipient shall at all times comply with its own then in-force security guidelines and policies applicable to the performance, access and/or use of the Services and Information Systems.

(b) No Viruses . Each of the Company and GE shall take commercially reasonable measures to ensure that no Viruses or similar items are coded or introduced into the Services or Information Systems. If a Virus is found to have been introduced into the Services or Information Systems, the parties hereto shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate and to diligently work together to eliminate the effects of such Virus.

(c) Reasonable Care . Each Provider and Recipient shall exercise reasonable care in providing and receiving the Services to (i) prevent access to the Services or Information Systems by unauthorized Persons and (ii) not damage, disrupt or interrupt the Services or Information Systems.

ARTICLE III

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

SECTION 3.01 . Vendor Agreements .

(a) During the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the Trigger Date, GE is or may become a party to certain corporate purchasing contracts, master services agreements, vendor contracts, software and other Intellectual Property licenses or similar agreements unrelated to the GE Services (the “GE Vendor Agreements”) under which (or under open work orders thereunder) the Company purchases goods or services, licenses rights to use Intellectual Property and realizes certain other benefits and rights. The parties hereby agree that the Company shall continue to retain the right to purchase goods or services and continue to realize such other benefits and rights under each GE Vendor Agreement to the extent allowed by such GE Vendor Agreement until the expiration or termination date of such rights or benefits pursuant to the terms of such GE Vendor Agreement (including, without limitation, any voluntary termination of such GE Vendor Agreement by GE). Additionally, for so long as the purchasing or other rights remain in full force and effect under a GE Vendor Agreement and the Company continues to exercise its purchasing or other rights and benefits under such GE Vendor Agreement and for a period of six months thereafter, GE shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, upon the written request of the Company, to assist the Company in obtaining a purchasing contract, master services agreement, vendor contract or similar agreement directly with the third party provider that is a party to the GE Vendor Agreement.

(b) During the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the Trigger Date, the Company is or may become a party to certain corporate purchasing contracts, master services agreements, vendor contracts, software and other Intellectual Property licenses or similar agreements unrelated to the Company Services (the “Company Vendor Agreements”) under which (or under open work orders thereunder) GE purchases goods or services, licenses rights to use Intellectual Property and realizes certain other benefits and rights. The parties hereby agree that GE shall continue to retain the right to purchase goods or services and continue to realize such other benefits and rights under each Company Vendor Agreement to the extent allowed by such Company Vendor Agreement until the expiration or termination date of such rights or benefits pursuant to the terms of such Company Vendor Agreement (including, without limitation, any voluntary termination of such Company Vendor Agreement by the Company). Additionally, for so long as the purchasing or other rights remain in full force and effect under a Company Vendor Agreement and GE continues to exercise its purchasing or other rights and benefits under such Company Vendor Agreement and for a period of six months thereafter, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, upon the written request of GE, to assist GE in obtaining a purchasing contract, master services agreement, vendor contract or similar agreement directly with the third party provider that is a party to the Company Vendor Agreement.

SECTION 3.02 . Six Sigma Programs .

(a) With regard to the materials, concepts, and methodology comprising the Six Sigma programs used by the Company and its predecessors prior to the date hereof (the “Six Sigma Programs”), GE, at no cost to Company, shall ensure that on and after the date hereof, Company may continue to use the Six Sigma Programs in the same manner as used by the Company and its predecessors prior to the date hereof (“Permitted Use”).

(b) GE shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Company and its directors, officers, employees and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (each a “Company Indemnified Party”), from and against any and all Liabilities of the Company Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of, or resulting from, the Permitted Use, which Liabilities relate to, arise out of, or result from, claims or allegations relating to the Company’s right to use the Six Sigma Programs pursuant to Section 3.02(a) hereof, and which claims or allegations are asserted by consultants, contractors, former employees, or other Persons who contributed to or provided such materials, concepts or methodologies to the Six Sigma Programs.

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

SECTION 4.01 . Leases .

(a) Each lease or sublease listed on Schedule C-1, pursuant to which the Company leases or subleases real property from GE, shall remain in full force and effect pursuant to its terms unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

(b) Each lease or sublease listed on Schedule C-2, pursuant to which GE leases or subleases real property from the Company, shall remain in full force and effect pursuant to its terms unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

SECTION 4.02 . Computer-Based Resources .

(a) Prior to the Trigger Date, the Company shall continue to have access to the Information Systems of GE. On and after the Trigger Date, the Company shall not have access to all or any part of the Information Systems of GE, except to the extent necessary for the Company to perform the Company Services or receive the GE Services (subject to the Company complying with all reasonable security measures implemented by GE as deemed necessary by GE to protect its Information Systems, provided that the Company has had a commercially reasonable period of time in which to comply with such security measures).

(b) Prior to the Trigger Date, GE shall continue to have access to the Information Systems of the Company. On and after the Trigger Date, GE shall not have access to all or any part of the Information Systems of the Company, except to the extent necessary for GE to perform the GE Services or receive the Company Services (subject to GE complying with all reasonable security measures implemented by the Company as deemed necessary by the Company to protect its Information Systems, provided that GE has had a commercially reasonable period of time in which to comply with such security measures).

SECTION 4.03 . GRC Matters .

(a) GE's Global Research Center shall continue to provide research and development services and related consultation to the Company for the projects set forth in Schedule D in accordance with the terms of any existing written agreements between the Company and GE relating thereto, which shall continue after the date hereof in accordance with the terms of such written agreements.

(b) Unless the parties specifically agree otherwise in any such existing agreement for the projects set forth in Schedule D, as between the parties, all deliverables pursuant to such projects and the Intellectual Property therein created by or on behalf of GE or jointly by or on behalf of GE and the Company (other than any such Intellectual Property or Technology provided to GE by the Company) shall be owned by GE. All such deliverables and Intellectual Property therein (other than any such Intellectual Property or Technology owned by a third party) shall be referred to herein as the "GE-Owned GRC Intellectual Property". The GE-Owned GRC Intellectual Property shall be deemed to be GE Intellectual Property under the Cross License and licensed to Genworth and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of the Cross License, notwithstanding that the GE-Owned GRC Intellectual Property (x) was not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by the Genworth Group as of the Closing Date, (y) was not Controlled by the GE Group as of the Closing Date or (z) may constitute Improvements made after the Closing Date.

(c) For each project listed on Schedule D, each of the Company and GE shall be solely responsible for the costs assigned to it on Schedule D during 2004. If, following the date hereof, the Company desires to enter into arrangements with GE's Global Research Center to provide research and development services or related consultation to the Company for any additional projects, GE and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to negotiate in good faith a contract for such services.

SECTION 4.04 . Consents .

(a) The parties acknowledge and agree that certain software and other licenses, consents, approvals, notices, registrations, recordings, filings and other actions (collectively, "Consents") need to be obtained in connection with the Transactions. GE shall, after consultation with the Company, either directly pay the out-of-pocket costs incurred to obtain, perform or otherwise satisfy each Consent or after any such Consent is obtained, performed or otherwise satisfied, reimburse the Company for all actual, out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Company and related to such Consent; provided, however, that GE's payment and reimbursement obligations under this Section 4.04(a) and Section 4.5 of the European Transition Services Agreement shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the Total Consent Cost Amount. GE shall be solely responsible for paying any costs or fees in connection with any Consents with respect to the Company Services or with respect to any agreements to be assigned to GE pursuant to the Master Agreement, and any such costs or fees shall not be included in the Total Consent Cost Amount.

(b) Prior to receiving any reimbursement for its actual, out-of-pocket costs pursuant to Section 4.04(a) above, the Company shall provide GE with an invoice accompanied by reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to evidence the out-of-pocket expenses for which the Company is seeking reimbursement. Upon receipt of such invoice and data and documentation, GE shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 4.04(a), pay the amount of such invoice to the Company within 30 days of the date of receipt of such invoice. If GE in good faith disputes the invoiced amount, then the parties shall work together to resolve such dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 8.02. The parties acknowledge and agree that no prior approval from GE shall be required for the Company to seek any reimbursement pursuant to Section 4.04(a) and this Section 4.04(b).

SECTION 4.05 . Access .

(a) The Company will allow GE and its Representatives reasonable access to the facilities of the Company necessary for the performance of the GE Services listed on Schedule A and Schedule A-1 for GE to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) GE will allow the Company and its Representatives reasonable access to the facilities of GE necessary for the performance of the Company Services listed on Schedule B for the Company to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.06 . Management Consulting Services .

(a) For a period of sixty (60) months from the date hereof, subject to the payment by GE of the amount specified in Section 4.06(e) below and upon the reasonable, prior written request of GE, the Company will make such appropriate members of its senior management team reasonably available to provide the services described on Schedule E (the “Management Consulting Services”).

(b) GE and the Company will mutually agree on the schedule for delivery of the Management Consulting Services. The schedule will be based on (i) the GE and Company corporate calendars, (ii) the GE and Company functional calendars, (iii) GE’s requests, and (iv) GE’s and the Company’s shared customer requests. The parties will reasonably work together to accommodate each other’s specific needs regarding meeting logistics, including method, travel, time, and notice. For avoidance of doubt, schedule conflicts shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

(c) The Company will make reasonable efforts to accommodate GE’s requests; provided however, each participating Company employee shall not be required to spend any more time than the time spent in similar activities in the calendar year immediately preceding the date hereof. Meeting and other service requests may be submitted by GE and will be considered complete and proper if (i) presented at least one week in advance of any required meeting or such shorter time period as agreed to by the parties, (ii) accompanied by an agenda or a detailed listing of services requested and/or any materials requiring preparation by the Company. If prepared materials by the Company are requested, then the Company, at its sole discretion, may request additional lead time adequate to prepare the materials.

(d) The Management Consulting Services shall be in addition to the Company’s obligations pursuant to Section 2.01(h) and 2.02(b) of this Agreement. In connection with providing the Management Consulting Services and unless otherwise agreed to by the Company, the Company shall not be required to provide any service that would (i) require the disclosure to GE of Company trade secret information or other information that provides the Company a significant competitive advantage, or (ii) require the Company to violate any attorney-client privilege or otherwise lose the protection of other privileged information. In addition, the Company shall not be required to provide any Management Consulting Services whenever the Company’s and GE’s interests related to such Management Consulting Services are in conflict.

(e) In consideration of the availability and/or receipt of the Management Consulting Services, GE shall pay the Company the following amounts: (i) $1 million per month during the forty-eight (48) month period beginning on the date hereof; and (ii) $500,000 per month thereafter until the termination of the Company’s obligation to provide the Management Consulting Services. Each such monthly payment shall be payable in arrears within thirty (30) days following the last day of the month to which such payment relates. GE shall also reimburse the Company's reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the provision of the Management Consulting Services, including, but not limited to, travel and lodging expenses.

(f) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, GE acknowledges and agrees that the Management Consulting Services are provided as-is, that GE assumes all risks and liability arising from or relating to its use of and reliance upon the Management Consulting Services and the Company makes no warranty with respect thereto. THE COMPANY HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES REGARDING THE MANAGEMENT CONSULTING SERVICES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTY IN REGARD TO QUALITY, PERFORMANCE, NONINFRINGEMENT, COMMERCIAL UTILITY, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS OF THE MANAGEMENT CONSULTING SERVICES FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles VI and VII, neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, or any of the heirs, executors, successors or assigns of any of the foregoing shall have any liability in contract, tort or otherwise to GE, its Affiliates or Representatives for or in connection with the Management Consulting Services.

(h) GE and the Company acknowledge and agree that (i) Articles VI and VII of this Agreement shall not apply to this Section 4.06 or the Management Consulting Services and (ii) notwithstanding Section 10.10 of this Agreement, under no circumstances shall the Company be obligated to provide the Management Consulting Services to a GE Divested Unit.

ARTICLE V

COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS; PAYMENTS

SECTION 5.01 . Costs and Disbursements; Payments .

(a) Schedules A, A-1 and B hereto set forth with respect to each Service to be provided a description of the charges (the "Service Charges") for such Service or the basis for the determination thereof. During the 24-month period following the date of this Agreement, notwithstanding the Service Charges set forth on Schedule B, the aggregate Service Charges payable by GE to the Company shall, subject to reduction following termination of any Company Service pursuant to Section 9.01(a)(ii) or Section 9.01(a)(iii), be equal to $40 million, and such aggregate amount shall be paid by GE to the Company in eight equal quarterly installments payable on each March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 during such 24-month period. At the time of each quarterly payment, GE also shall pay the Service Charges for the Company Services provided with respect to the GEFAHI Divested Companies as identified on Schedule B in the three months ending on the date the quarterly payment is due for so long as such Company Services are rendered. Further, in connection with performance of the Services and in connection with the Undertakings, the Provider may incur certain out-of-pocket costs (the "Other Costs"), which shall, without duplication, either be paid directly by the Recipient or reimbursed to the Provider by the Recipient; provided that any Other Costs shall only be payable by the Company or GE, as the case may be, in accordance with this Section 5.01(a) if (i) such Other Costs have been authorized in writing by the Company Services

Manager (if the Company is the Recipient) or the GE Services Manager (if GE is the Recipient) prior to having been incurred by the Provider and (ii) the Recipient receives from the Provider reasonably detailed data and other documentation sufficient to support the calculation of amounts due to the Provider as a result of such Other Costs.

(b) Notwithstanding the Service Charges set forth in Schedule A with respect to the Company's use of GE's U.S. shared data center services supporting GE's U.S. businesses, GE shall reduce the Service Charges with respect to such services by $2 million per quarter for a period of two years from the date hereof.

(c) Except with respect to Service Charges for the provision of the Company Services during the 24-month period referenced in Section 5.01(a):

(i) Prior to the Trigger Date, the Provider and Recipient shall arrange for the payment of all Service Charges and Other Costs through the GE Internal Billing System ("IBS"). The Recipient shall have the right to dispute any Service Charges and Other Costs settled through the IBS during any calendar quarter by delivering written notice of such dispute, setting forth in reasonable detail the basis therefor, to the Provider within, and no later than, 60 days after the end of such quarter. As soon as practicable after receipt of any such notice, the Provider shall provide the Recipient with reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to support the calculation of any Service Charges and Other Costs that are the subject of the dispute. If the Provider's furnishing of such information does not promptly resolve such dispute, the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 8.02.

(ii) From and after the Trigger Date, the Provider shall deliver an invoice to the Recipient on a monthly basis (or at such other frequency as is consistent with the basis on which the Service Charges are determined and, if applicable, charged to Affiliates of the Provider) in arrears for the Service Charges and any Other Costs due to the Provider under this Agreement. The Recipient shall pay the amount of such invoice to the Provider in U.S. dollars within seventy-five (75) days of the date of such invoice, provided that, to the extent consistent with past practice with respect to Services rendered outside the United States, payments may be made in local currency. If the Recipient fails to pay such amount (excluding any amount contested in good faith) by such date, the Recipient shall be obligated to pay to the Provider, in addition to the amount due, interest on such amount at the lesser of (i) the three (3) month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 100 basis points or (ii) the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable law, from the date the payment was due through the date of payment. As soon as practicable after receipt by the Provider of any reasonable written request by the Recipient, the Provider shall provide the Recipient with reasonably detailed data and documentation sufficient to support the calculation of any amount due to the Provider under this Agreement for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of such calculation. If, after reviewing such data and documentation, the Recipient disputes the Provider's calculation of any amount due to the Provider, then the dispute shall be resolved pursuant to Section 8.02.

STANDARD FOR SERVICE; COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

SECTION 6.01 . Standard for Service . Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement (including in Schedules A, A-1 and B hereto), the Provider agrees to perform the Services such that the nature, quality, standard of care and the service levels at which such Services are performed are no less than the nature, quality, standard of care and service levels at which the substantially same services were performed by or on behalf of the Provider during the most recent service period prior to the date hereof in which such services were performed by or on behalf of the Provider in the ordinary course (the “Standard for Services”).

SECTION 6.02 . Compliance with Laws . Each of GE and the Company shall comply with all applicable Laws when providing or receiving the Services or when performing obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION; LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

SECTION 7.01 . Limited Liability of a Provider . Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.01, no Provider or its Affiliates or any of their respective directors, officers or employees, or any of the heirs, executors, successors or assigns of any of the foregoing (each, a “Provider Indemnified Party”), shall have any liability in contract, tort or otherwise to the Recipient or its Affiliates or Representatives for or in connection with (i) any Services rendered or to be rendered by any Provider Indemnified Party pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (iii) any Provider Indemnified Party’s actions or inactions in connection with any such Services or transactions; provided, however, that such limitation on liability shall not extend to or otherwise limit any Liabilities that have resulted directly from such Provider Indemnified Party’s (A) gross negligence or willful misconduct, (B) improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a Recipient Indemnified Party (defined below) or (C) violation of applicable Law.

SECTION 7.02 . Indemnification by Each Provider . Each Provider shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each relevant Recipient and each of its Subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (each a “Recipient Indemnified Party”), from and against any and all Liabilities of the Recipient Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of, or resulting from (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of a Provider Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Provider Indemnified Party’s provision of the Services, (ii) the improper use or disclosure of information of, or regarding, a customer or potential customer of a Recipient Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Provider Indemnified Party’s provision of the Services, or (iii) any violation of applicable Law by a Provider Indemnified Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or such Provider Indemnified Party’s provision of the Services; provided, that (1) the aggregate liability of GE as a Provider pursuant to this Article VII shall in no event exceed $15 million and (2) the aggregate liability of the Company as a Provider pursuant to this Article VII shall in no event exceed $10 million.

SECTION 7.03 . Indemnification by Each Recipient . Each Recipient shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each relevant Provider Indemnified Party from and against any and all Liabilities of the Provider Indemnified Parties relating to, arising out of, or resulting from the provision of the Services by any Provider or any of its Subsidiaries, except for (A) any Liabilities that result from a Provider Indemnified Party's negligence in connection with the provision of the Services, (B) any Liabilities that result from a Provider Indemnified Party's breach of this Agreement or (C) any Liabilities for which the Provider is required to indemnify a Recipient Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 7.02.

SECTION 7.04 . Indemnification Procedures . The matters set forth in Sections 5.6 through 5.9 of the Master Agreement shall be deemed incorporated into, and a made a part of, this Agreement.

SECTION 7.05 . Limitation on Liability . Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, neither GE on the one hand, nor the Company, on the other hand, shall be liable to the other for any special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential losses, damages or expenses of the other, including, without limitation, loss of profits, arising from any claim relating to breach of this Agreement or otherwise relating to any of the Services or Undertakings provided hereunder. For clarification purposes only, the parties hereto agree that the limitation on liability contained in this Section 7.05 shall not apply to (a) damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which a Provider is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Recipient Indemnified Party under Section 7.02 and (b) damages awarded to a third party pursuant to a third party claim for which a Recipient is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Provider Indemnified Party under Section 7.03.

SECTION 7.06 . Liability for Payment Obligations . Nothing in this Article VII shall be deemed to eliminate or limit, in any respect, GE or the Company's express obligation in this Agreement to pay or reimburse, as applicable, for (i) Service Charges for Services rendered in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) Other Costs, (iii) the Total Consent Cost Amount, (iv) the Total Conversion Cost Amount, (v) amounts in respect of the Management Consulting Services, (vi) amounts with respect to any custom modification provided pursuant to Sections 2.01(c) and (d) (Services; Scope), (vii) amounts in respect of conversion services provided pursuant to Section 2.02 (Conversion Services), (viii) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to the terms of the leases referred to in Section 4.01 (Leases), (ix) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to Section 4.03 (GRC Matters) and the terms of the existing written agreements referenced therein, (x) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to Section 10.03(b) (Books and Records), (xi) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to Section 10.06 (Taxes), (xii) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to Section 10.07 (Regulatory Approval and Compliance), and (xiii) amounts payable or reimbursable pursuant to Section 10.10 (Assignment; No Third Party Beneficiaries).

SECTION 7.07 . Exclusions . This Article VII shall not apply to or limit any liability or obligation of GE under Sections 3.02(a) and (b).

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

SECTION 8.01 . Applicable Law . This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of Laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

SECTION 8.02 . Dispute Resolution . To the extent not resolved through discussions between the GE Services Manager and the Company Services Manager, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Article VII of the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION

SECTION 9.01 . Termination .

(a) The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof and expire on the first date on which neither GE nor the Company has any further obligations to provide a Service, perform an Undertaking (excluding the obligations set forth in Section 3.02) or perform or pay for the Management Consulting Services. This Agreement shall terminate with respect to each Service and Undertaking on the applicable Service Termination Date or other termination date specified in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto. In addition: (i) a Recipient may from time to time terminate any Service, in whole and not in part, upon giving at least sixty (60) days' (or such shorter period of time as is mutually agreed upon in writing by the parties) prior written notice to the Provider specifying which Service is being so terminated (such termination will not in any way affect the obligations of the party terminating this Agreement with respect to such Service to continue to receive all other Services not so terminated and to continue to provide Services as required by this Agreement); provided, however, that GE may not exercise this termination right during the 24-month period commencing on the date hereof; (ii) either party (the "Non-Breaching Party") may terminate this Agreement with respect to any Service, in whole but not in part, at any time upon prior written notice by the Non-Breaching Party to the other party (the "Breaching Party") if the Breaching Party has failed to perform any of its material obligations under this Agreement relating to such Service, and such failure shall have continued without cure for a period of sixty (60) days after receipt by the Breaching Party of a written notice of such failure from the Non-Breaching Party seeking to terminate such Service; provided, however, that no Service may be terminated pursuant to this clause (ii) until the parties have completed the dispute resolution process set forth in Section 7.2 of the Master Agreement with respect to such Service; and (iii) the parties may from time to time mutually agree to terminate any Service, in whole but not in part, provided that any such agreement to terminate a Service shall comply with Section 10.11 and include all terms and conditions applicable to termination of the Service to be terminated.

(b) In addition to and not in limitation of the rights and obligations set forth in Section 2.01(h), upon the request of the Recipient of a Service, (i) the Provider of such Service will, during the term of this Agreement during which such Provider is providing such Service to the Recipient, cooperate with the Recipient and use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to assist the transition of such Service to the Recipient (or Affiliate of the Recipient or such third-party vendor designated by the Recipient) by the Service Termination Date for such Service and (ii) the Provider of such Service will, for a reasonable period of time after the effective date of any termination (which shall not exceed the earlier of (1) the applicable Service Termination Date set forth on Schedule A, Schedule A-1, or Schedule B and (2) six months after the effective date of termination) of any such Service pursuant to clause (ii) of Section 9.01(a), (A) at the written request of the Recipient, continue to provide the terminated Service (subject to the timely payment, when due and payable, by the Recipient of all Service Charges related to such terminated Service) and (B) cooperate with the Recipient and use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to assist the transition of such Service to the Recipient (or Affiliate of the Recipient or such third-party vendor designated by the Recipient) as soon as reasonably practicable. The Service Charges for a terminated Service that is continuing to be provided pursuant to clause (ii)(A) of the preceding sentence shall be the same as were in effect prior to the termination of such Service.

SECTION 9.02 . Effect of Termination . Except with respect to any Service that is continuing to be provided pursuant to clause (ii)(A) of Section 9.01(b) after the termination of such Service, upon termination or expiration of any Service or Undertaking pursuant to this Agreement, the relevant Provider will have no further obligation to provide the terminated Service or expired Undertaking, and the relevant Recipient will have no obligation to pay any future Service Charges or Other Costs relating to any such Service or Undertaking (other than for or in respect of Services or Undertakings provided in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and received by such Recipient prior to such termination). Upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, no Provider will have any further obligation to provide any Service or Undertaking, and no Recipient will have any obligation to pay any Service Charges or Other Costs relating to any Service or Undertaking or make any other payments under this Agreement (other than for or in respect of Services or Undertakings received by such Recipient prior to such termination).

SECTION 9.03 . Survival . Sections 3.02(a) and (b) (Six Sigma Programs), Section 4.01 (Leases), Section 4.02 (Computer-Based Resources), Sections 4.06(c) and (d) (Management Consulting Services), Article V (Costs and Disbursements), Article VII (Indemnification; Limitation on Liability), Article VIII (Dispute Resolution), Section 9.02 (Effect of Termination), Section 9.03 (Survival), and Article X (General Provisions) shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 9.04 . Business Continuity; Force Majeure .

(a) Each of GE and the Company shall maintain and comply with reasonable disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures designed to help ensure that it can continue to provide the Services in accordance with this Agreement in the event of a disaster or other significant event that might otherwise impact its operations. Upon the written request of a Recipient, a Provider shall (i) disclose to the Recipient the Provider's disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures applicable to a Service and (ii) permit the Recipient to participate in testing of such disaster recovery, crisis management and business continuity plans and procedures, in each case so that the Recipient may assess such plans and procedures and develop or modify its own such plans and procedures in connection with the Service as Recipient reasonably deems necessary.

(b) No party hereto (or any Person acting on its behalf) shall have any liability or responsibility for failure to fulfill any obligation (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement so long as and to the extent to which the fulfillment of such obligation is prevented, frustrated, hindered or delayed as a consequence of circumstances of Force Majeure; provided that such party shall have exhausted the procedures described in its disaster recovery, crisis management, and business continuity plan. A party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event: (i) notify the other party of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to remove any such causes and resume performance under this Agreement as soon as feasible.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 10.01 . Independent Contractors . In providing Services hereunder, the Provider shall act solely as independent contractor and nothing in this Agreement shall constitute or be construed to be or create a partnership, joint venture, or principal/agent relationship between the Provider, on the one hand, and the Recipient, on the other. All Persons employed by the Provider in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement shall be the sole responsibility of the Provider.

SECTION 10.02 . Subcontractors . Any Provider may hire or engage one or more subcontractors to perform any or all of its obligations under this Agreement; provided that such Provider shall in all cases remain responsible for all its obligations under this Agreement, including, without limitation, with respect to the scope of the Services, the Standard for Services and the content of the Services provided to the Recipient. Under no circumstances shall any Recipient be responsible for making any payments directly to any subcontractor engaged by a Provider.

SECTION 10.03 . Additional Services; Books and Records .

(a) If, during the term of this Agreement, any party hereto identifies a need for additional or other transition services to be provided by or on behalf of the Company or GE, the parties hereto agree to negotiate in good faith to provide such requested services (provided that such services are of a type generally provided by the relevant Provider at such time) and the applicable service fees, payment procedures, and other rights and obligations with respect thereto. To the extent practicable, such additional or other services shall be provided on terms substantially similar to those applicable to Services of similar types and otherwise on terms consistent with those contained in this Agreement. If, during the 24-month period commencing on the date hereof, GE identifies a need for an additional transition service to be provided by or on behalf of the Company and such service has, in the ordinary course, been provided by the Company to GE prior to the date hereof, then GE shall not be required to pay any additional consideration to the Company to receive such service, and the Company shall be deemed to be compensated for such service by means of the payment by GE to the Company of the amount set forth in the second sentence of Section 5.01 (a).

(b) All books, records and data maintained by a Provider for a Recipient with respect to the provision of a Service to such Recipient shall be the exclusive property of such Recipient. The Recipient, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to inspect, and make copies of, any such books, records and data during regular business hours upon reasonable advance notice to the Provider. At the sole cost and expense of the Provider, upon termination of the provision of any Service, the relevant books, records and data relating to such terminated Service shall be delivered by the Provider to the Recipient in a mutually agreed upon format to the address of the Recipient set forth in Section 10.05 or any other mutually agreed upon location; provided, however, that the Provider shall be entitled to retain one copy of all such books, records and data relating to such terminated Service for archival purposes and for purposes of responding to any dispute that may arise with respect thereto.

SECTION 10.04 . Confidential Information . Genworth agrees to maintain and safeguard all GE Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement and GE agrees to maintain and safeguard all Genworth Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement, and each party hereto agrees that Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement is hereby incorporated by reference into, and a made a part of, this Agreement. If any Provider in connection with the provision of a Service, or the Company in connection with the provision of any Management Consulting Service, constitutes a Business Associate (as defined in HIPAA and/or the HIPAA Privacy Rule) and uses Recipient's, or in the case of the Management Consulting Services, GE's, Protected Health Information (as defined in HIPAA and/or the HIPAA Privacy Rule), then the terms of Schedule F shall apply with respect to such Service or Management Consulting Service.

SECTION 10.05 . Notices . All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 10.05):

SECTION 10.06 . Taxes .

- (a) Each party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.
- (b) Each Recipient may report and (as appropriate) pay any sales, use, excise, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties (“Taxes”) directly if the Recipient provides the applicable Provider with a direct pay or exemption certificate.
- (c) A Provider shall promptly notify the applicable Recipient of, and coordinate with the Recipient the response to and settlement of, any claim for Taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which the Recipient is alleged to be financially responsible hereunder. Notwithstanding the above, the Recipient’s liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon the Provider providing the Recipient notification within ten (10) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by the Provider.
- (d) Each Recipient shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid to a Provider pursuant to this Agreement. In the event a Provider shall be entitled to receive a refund of any Taxes paid by a Recipient to the Provider, the Provider shall promptly pay, or cause the payment of, such refund to the Recipient.
- (e) Each of the parties agrees that if reasonably requested by the other party, it will cooperate with such other party to enable the accurate determination of such other party’s tax liability and assist such other party in minimizing its tax liability to the extent legally permissible. The Provider’s invoices shall separately state the amounts of any Taxes the Provider is proposing to collect from the Recipient.

SECTION 10.07 . Regulatory Approval and Compliance . Each of GE and the Company shall be responsible for its own compliance with any and all Laws applicable to its performance under this Agreement; provided, however, that each of GE and the Company shall, subject to reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses by the requesting party, cooperate and provide one another with all reasonably requested assistance (including, without limitation, the execution of documents and the provision of relevant information) required by the requesting party to ensure compliance with all applicable Laws in connection with any regulatory action, requirement, inquiry or examination related to this Agreement or the Services.

SECTION 10.08 . Severability . If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 10.09 . Entire Agreement . Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement (including the Schedules hereto) constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

SECTION 10.10 . Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries . This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that (i) in the event the Company sells all or part of the Genworth Business (a “Genworth Divested Unit”) to a third party, GE shall remain obligated to continue to provide GE Services to such Genworth Divested Unit (but not otherwise to such third party acquirer) to the extent it was providing such GE Services immediately prior to such divestiture, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto, (ii) in the event GE sells all or part of the Retained Businesses (a “GE Divested Unit”) to a third party, the Company shall remain obligated to continue to provide Company Services to such GE Divested Unit (but not otherwise to such third party acquirer) to the extent it was providing such Company Services immediately prior to such divestiture, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto, (iii) in the event the Company acquires a business or portion thereof by merger, stock purchase, asset purchase, reinsurance or other means (a “Genworth Acquired Unit”), then GE shall be obligated to provide the GE Services to such Genworth Acquired Unit, to the extent applicable, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto; provided, however, that in the event that the acquisition of a Genworth Acquired Unit results in a change in the volume or quantity of any GE Service which thereby causes a material increase in GE’s cost to provide such GE Service, then the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a mutually agreeable price adjustment for such GE Service to compensate GE for such increased costs, and (iv) in the event GE acquires a business that engages in a business of the type engaged in by the Retained Businesses (a “GE Acquired Unit”), then the Company shall be obligated to provide the Company Services to such GE Acquired

Unit, to the extent applicable, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties hereto; provided, however, that in the event that the acquisition of a GE Acquired Unit results in a change in the volume or quantity of any Company Service which thereby causes a material increase in the Company's cost to provide such Company Service, then the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith and use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon a mutually agreeable price adjustment for such Company Service to compensate the Company for such increased costs. Nothing in clause (iv) of the preceding sentence shall be deemed to waive any party's rights or relieve or otherwise satisfy any party's obligations under Section 6.12 of the Master Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, GE's obligation to provide Services to a Genworth Divested Unit and the Company's obligation to provide Services to a GE Divested Unit shall be subject to (A) at the sole discretion of the Provider of the Services, the implementation of new Service Charges (solely with respect to Services to be provided to such Divested Unit) proposed by the Provider of such Services that are consistent with applicable market rates for such Services; (B) the seller of such Divested Unit or the third party purchaser of such Divested Unit agreeing to pay, or cause to be paid, any incremental fees or expenses incurred by the Provider in connection with establishing or transitioning the provision of such Services to the third party; (C) obtaining any consents that are necessary to enable the Provider to provide the Services to the third party; provided, that GE and the Company shall each use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any such consents; (D) the third party purchaser of such Divested Unit agreeing to any reasonable security measures implemented by the Provider in providing the Services as deemed necessary by the Provider to protect its Information Systems; and (E) the third party purchaser of such Divested Unit agreeing in writing to be bound by all applicable provisions of this Agreement. Except as provided in Article VII with respect to Provider Indemnified Parties and Recipient Indemnified Parties, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

SECTION 10.11 . Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

SECTION 10.12 . Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified, (c) the word "including" and words of similar import shall mean "including, without limitation," (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and (f) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted. Unless specifically stated in the Master Agreement that a particular provision of the Master Agreement should be given effect in lieu of a conflicting provision in this Agreement, to the extent that any provision contained in this Agreement conflicts with, or cannot logically be read in accordance with, any provision of the Master Agreement, the provision contained in this Agreement shall prevail.

SECTION 10.13 . Counterparts . This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

SECTION 10.14 . No Right to Set-Off . The Recipient shall pay the full amount of costs and disbursements including Other Costs incurred under this Agreement, and shall not set-off, counterclaim or otherwise withhold any other amount owed to the Provider on account of any obligation owed by the Provider to the Recipient.

responsible and that are pending as of January 1, 2004, until such lawsuit(s) are settled or otherwise finally adjudicated with no further right of appeal.

Schedule F

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose .

In order to disclose certain information to Provider under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (“PHI”) (defined below), Recipient and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations . Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate's proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate's legal responsibilities. Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions.

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

ARTICLE II

Engagement; Powers and Duties

SECTION 2.01. Engagement of Manager.

(a) The Company hereby retains the Manager:

(i) to advise the Company as to the investment of its Assets, including recommending specific Permitted Investments (and if applicable, Qualified Investments) and Hedge Contracts to the Company;

(ii) to administer the Company's Assets maintained in the Facility Account, the Collateral Accounts, if any, and the LOC Reimbursement Account and such other accounts as the Company may maintain from time to time (the "Accounts"), which are identified (to the extent established by the effective date hereof) by account number in Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, with such deposits thereto and withdrawals therefrom as are from time to time permitted under the Security Agreement;

(iii) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities relating to the Accounts;

(iv) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale and otherwise to effect transactions in Hedge Contracts relating to the Accounts;

(v) to advise the Company in the issuance of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) Investment Orders and Disposition Orders, as may be required from time to time pursuant to the terms of Sections 2.04 and 2.05 of the Security Agreement;

(vi) to prepare reports and to perform valuation tests as specified in Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement;

(vii) to take such action as is necessary and proper on behalf of the Company for the preservation of Company Collateral pursuant to Section 2.07 of the Security Agreement;

(viii) to assist the Company in the preparation and filing of financing statements or amendments of financing statements, as may be required in connection with any change in the Company's name or location as contemplated by Section 2.08 of the Security Agreement;

(ix) to advise the Company in the granting or effecting of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any consents, waivers, extensions, or modifications in respect of any item of Company Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.10 of the Security Agreement;

(x) to advise the Company in the delivery of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of Company Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.11 of the Security Agreement;

(xi) to notify the Security Trustee and other specified parties as may be required from time to time, pursuant to the terms of the Security Agreement, of a Credit Event or a Program Event of Default;

(xii) to advise the Company as to the allocation of Company Collateral to particular Contracts pursuant to Article V of the Security Agreement and the terms of the relevant Contract;

(xiii) to notify the Security Trustee as may be required from time to time, pursuant to the terms of the Security Agreement, of an LOC Draw Event;

(xiv) to designate persons who are registered representatives of a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to execute and deliver Contracts on behalf of the Company in their capacity as such pursuant to a power of attorney granted by the Company from time to time to registered representatives designated and notified to the Company by the Manager from time to time;

(xv) to engage a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to assist the Company in connection with the offering, issuance and sale of Contracts and, in connection therewith, to make such other arrangements with such broker-dealer as may be necessary or advisable to ensure that such broker-dealer supervises its registered representatives who will effect such transactions and takes responsibility for such offering, issuance and sale; and

(xvi) to take any other action deemed necessary or advisable to write Contracts on behalf of the Company, subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Agreement.

The Manager shall administer all of the Company's Assets in the Accounts (all of such Assets together, the "Portfolio") in accordance with the terms and conditions and shall otherwise observe in all material respects the requirements of the Security Agreement and other Program Documents, the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, this Agreement and all other documents, policies, laws and regulations applicable to the Company from time to time. The Company shall provide copies of the Security Agreement, the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0 to the Manager no later than the time that this Agreement is entered into and shall provide copies of all amendments, supplements and revisions to such documents as soon as they are available to the Company.

(b) Performance. The Parties hereby agree that the Manager shall perform the specific Listed Obligations set forth in Exhibit C and Exhibit D during the term of this Agreement and, subject to Section 2.10, such other functions as are set forth in this Agreement or as are generally required to operate the business of the Company in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and Company policy. The Manager acknowledges that it will take all reasonable steps to continue to conduct the business of the Company in a manner substantially similar to that in which it had been conducted prior to the Parties' entry into this Agreement and in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Company. The Manager shall perform its duties pursuant to this Agreement (i) exercising the same diligence and care applied to manage its own property; (ii) consistent with the practices used by it (and its Affiliates) to manage portfolios of similar assets for other customers and (iii) consistent with the diligence and care applied by other professional managers of similar stature. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company does not consent, affirmatively or otherwise, to any proposed action by the Manager pursuant to this Section 2.01 (b), the Manager's failure to take such proposed action shall not be deemed a breach of its standard of care hereunder.

SECTION 2.02. Power of Attorney. The Company hereby provides the Manager with a revocable power of attorney with full power and authority:

- (i) to evaluate and appraise the Portfolio;
- (ii) to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities in connection with making Investments for the Portfolio;
- (iii) to arrange the purchase and sale and otherwise to effect transactions in Hedge Contracts in connection with making Investments for the Portfolio through registered broker-dealers;
- (iv) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any Investment Orders and Disposition Orders, as may be required from time to time pursuant to the terms of Section 2.04 and 2.05 of the Security Agreement;
- (v) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any consents, waivers, extensions, or modifications in respect of any item of Company Collateral as contemplated by Section 2.10 of the Security Agreement;

(vi) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of Company Collateral;

(vii) to engage a broker-dealer acceptable to the Company to assist the Company in the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations; and

(viii) subject to the limitations set forth in the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, to take any other action, including executing agreements and any other documents on behalf of the Company that the Manager deems necessary or advisable to purchase, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions relating to the Portfolio.

All Investments made, and transactions entered into, by the Manager on behalf of the Company shall be entered into in the name of the Company. All actions contemplated above shall be performed in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and applicable Company policy. The Manager shall not be under an obligation to keep the Portfolio fully invested if, in its sole discretion, it shall determine that market and/or economic conditions make it imprudent or disadvantageous to do so at any time or funds should be made available for distributions and other payments pursuant to the Security Agreement. The Company represents that it has the authority to make the appointment set forth in this paragraph. In the event the Manager fails to perform a Listed Obligation and this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 4.05(a) or (b), or if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 4.05(c) or (d), this power of attorney may be revoked by the Company by written notice to the Manager.

SECTION 2.03. Valuation. The Manager shall value the Portfolio from time to time as required by Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement in order to prepare the reports required thereunder, using the portfolio valuation methods set forth in the Market Valuation Addendum attached as Schedule 1.01 to the Security Agreement, in order to determine whether a Coverage Shortfall, a Program Shortfall or a Net Worth Deficit has occurred and is continuing and whether the Market Sensitivity Limit has been exceeded. The Manager shall also value Qualified Investments on deposit in Allocated Collateral Accounts as required under the terms of each such Allocated Collateral Contract.

SECTION 2.04. Reports. As more particularly specified in the applicable Program Documents and in Exhibit C and Exhibit D, the Manager shall:

(a) prepare the Company's annual financial statements and, unless otherwise specified by the Company, arrange to have such statements audited by a firm of independent accountants acceptable to the Company and GE Capital;

(b) timely prepare and provide to the Security Trustee, the Company and the Rating Agencies such reports as are required to be provided to each of such Persons pursuant to Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement and in accordance with Exhibit 2.06 of the Security Agreement;

(c) give prompt written notice to the Company, the Security Trustee, the Broker-Dealers and the Rating Agencies of (i) the existence of a Coverage Shortfall, Program Shortfall, or Net Worth Deficit or (ii) the exceeding of a Market Sensitivity Limit; and

(d) notify the Company and GE Capital immediately upon learning of any Credit Event, Program Event of Default or other material default or breach of the Listed Obligations set forth in Exhibit C.

SECTION 2.05. Confidential Relationships. All information and recommendations furnished by the Manager to the Company shall be treated by the Company as confidential. The Manager shall, in turn, treat as confidential all information concerning the affairs of the Company. Nothing in this Section 2.05 shall be deemed to preclude any such information or recommendations from being disclosed by either Party to such Party's Affiliates or to the directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, or advisers of such Affiliates, or pursuant to applicable law, regulation or court order; provided, that any such recipients are advised of the confidential nature of such information or recommendations.

SECTION 2.06. Fees. The Company hereby agrees to pay to the Manager a fee (the "Management Fee") at an annual rate of sixteen and one-half (16.5) basis points (0.165%) of the Maximum Permitted Program Size of the Company as of the date hereof, payable quarterly in arrears; provided, however, that the Management Fee shall be pro rated to the date of termination in the event the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article IV. For the purposes hereof, "Maximum Permitted Program Size" means six billion dollars ($6,000,000,000) or such larger amount as shall be approved in writing by GE Capital. In no event shall the Management Fee that is payable to the Manager be an amount less than nine million, nine hundred sixty thousand dollars ($9,960,000) per annum, pro rated to reflect the period of time during which this Agreement was in effect during each year.

SECTION 2.07. Expenses Reimbursed.

(a) The Company shall reimburse the Manager for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred and approved pursuant to Section 2.09(e) in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder, except for any expenses arising out of the Manager's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder.

(b) The Company shall reimburse the Manager for all appropriate Operating Costs of the Company. Such reimbursement shall be made, upon receipt by the Company from the Manager of a schedule detailing Operating Costs (substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereof), within thirty (30) days following the end of each quarter. For the purposes hereof, "Operating Costs" means all costs incurred by the Manager in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement that have been submitted and approved in writing as part of the annual budget approval process described in Section 2.09(e). For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby agreed that certain expenses will not be paid by the Manager and do not constitute reimbursable Operating Costs. Such expenses, which are directly attributable to the Company, include fees payable to: (i) each rating agency that assigns a rating to the Company, (ii) external auditors of the Company, (iii) external legal counsel engaged by the Company for services rendered thereto and not in connection with duties of the Manager which are unrelated to the management services it renders to the Company, (iv) certain third-party providers of accounting services to the Company, (v) providers of credit research services required by the Company and (vi) any provider of goods or services for costs incurred in connection with requirements imposed by regulatory authorities, the applicable rating agencies, or any applicable law, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, ordinance, code issued by a Governmental Authority or regulatory body, or any order, writ, injunction, directive, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction; each such expense shall be paid by the Company.

SECTION 2.08. Execution of Securities Transactions.

(a) In connection with the offering and sale of Contracts, the Manager shall engage a registered broker-dealer approved by the Company that provides services with respect to the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts that the Manager believes to be of value. The Company shall pay all costs associated with the retention of such broker-dealer.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically directed by the Company, the Manager shall have complete discretion to select any registered broker-dealer in all securities transactions affecting the Portfolio not described in Section 2.08(a). The Manager is expressly authorized to select such brokers-dealers who provide brokerage and research services that the Manager believes to be of value. The Manager is expressly authorized to pay from the Assets in the Portfolio commissions on such transactions in amounts that the Manager determines in good faith to be reasonable in relation to the value of such brokerage and research services, viewed in terms either of the particular transaction or the overall responsibilities of the Manager with respect to the Portfolio.

SECTION 2.09. Administrative Responsibilities. The Manager shall have the following administrative responsibilities:

(a) The Manager shall submit the budget for reimbursable Operating Costs to the Company and GE Capital by no later than January 31 of each year and such budget shall be approved by the Manager of Finance of Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operations (or such other representative as shall be designated from time to time in a notice to the Manager executed by the Company and GE Capital) by February 15 of such year. Operating Costs incurred in excess of the aggregate amounts approved in the annual budget must be separately approved by the Company and GE Capital in order to be considered for reimbursement.

(b) Custody of the Assets comprising the Portfolio will be maintained by the Security Trustee as specified in Article II of the Security Agreement. The Manager shall not have custody of any of the Assets in the Portfolio.

(c) The Manager shall keep such books and records relating to all transactions that it effects pursuant to this Agreement, including without limitation all books and records necessary (in addition to books and records available from the Security Trustee pursuant to Section 2.09(c) or otherwise) for preparing the reports required by Section 2.04.

(d) The Manager on behalf of the Company shall instruct the Security Trustee: (i) to send copies of all statements relating to the Accounts to the Manager; (ii) to permit the Manager, on behalf of the Company, to inspect the Company Collateral in the possession or otherwise under the control of the Security Trustee and the books and records maintained by the Security Trustee relating thereto (and to allow the Manager to make extracts and copies thereof) as the Manager may reasonably request pursuant to Section 2.03(b) of the Security Agreement; and (iii) to report to the Manager, concurrently with reporting to the Company pursuant to Section 2.03(a) of the Security Agreement, any failure on the part of the Security Trustee to hold the Company Collateral as provided in Section 2.03(a) of the Security Agreement.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, the Manager shall provide no services to the Company in respect of tax planning or tax compliance of any kind.

(f) The Manager shall submit presentations relating to the offering of Contracts to the Company and GE Capital for approval prior to external use.

(g) The Manager shall maintain its status as an “investment adviser” under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and shall follow all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such and to its performance hereunder, including all applicable laws and regulations relating to bidding for Contracts.

SECTION 2.10. Other Duties as Reasonably Requested. The Manager shall also perform such other duties or shall modify existing duties as the Company may reasonably request or that the Manager shall recommend to the Company from time to time relating to the management of a business involved in the issuance of guaranteed investment contracts and similar debt obligations issued by providers rated “AAA”/”Aaa” and the management of the proceeds of the issuance of such contracts and obligations. If any additional or modified duties are required of Manager under this Agreement, Manager shall have the reasonable time and opportunity to procure such additional resources as may, in Manager’s good faith judgment, be required to perform such duties. Manager also agrees that it will cease to perform the requirements of certain obligations specified hereunder if the Company so directs in writing. Any such changes or additions shall be deemed for all purposes to be amendments or supplements to this Agreement. The Company shall pay such costs as have been mutually agreed to by the Parties and as may from time to time be required to enable the Manager to perform any additional or changed Listed Obligations contemplated herein and other obligations not listed in this Agreement for which additional resources are required or additional costs are reasonably incurred by the Manager.

SECTION 2.11. Limitation of Liability. Neither the Manager nor any of its Affiliates nor any of their respective directors, officers, or employees shall be liable to the Company for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss arising out of any Investment, Hedge Contract, or any other commitment of funds on behalf of the Company or for any act or omission in the administration of the Portfolio except for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder, other than as may be provided under applicable law.

SECTION 2.12. Indemnification. (a) The Company shall (i) indemnify and hold harmless the Manager and any Affiliate of the Manager and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an “Indemnified Party”) from and against all losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to which such Indemnified Party may become subject (except in respect of the broker-dealer engaged by the Manager in respect of placement of Contracts, which shall be the sole liability of the Manager), insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions, suits or proceedings including any inquiry or investigation or claims in respect thereof) arise out of, in any way relate to, or result from the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement, and (ii) reimburse each of the Indemnified Parties upon its demand for any reasonable legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, preparing to defend or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability, action or claim, in each case only to the extent that funds are available therefor in accordance with the Security Agreement; provided, however, that none of the Indemnified Parties shall have the right to be so indemnified hereunder for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to the extent resulting from its own negligence or willful misconduct or for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities that it is required to pay to any broker-dealer that it has engaged in connection with the Contracts or other liabilities. If any action is brought against an Indemnified Party indemnified or intended to be indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.12, the Company shall, if requested by such Indemnified Party, resist and defend such action, suit or proceeding or cause the same to be resisted and defended by counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, but shall not be empowered to compromise or settle such action, suit or proceeding unless such Indemnified Party has been fully indemnified for any loss, claim, damage, expense or liability it thereby suffers. Each Indemnified Party shall, unless the Indemnified Party has made the request described in the preceding sentence and such request has been complied with, have the right to employ its own counsel to investigate and control the defense of any matter covered by such indemnity and the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. Any obligations of the Company pursuant to this Section 2.12 are Deferred Expenses and the Manager shall have recourse solely to the LOC Reimbursement Account for such obligations of the Company (and not to any other assets of the Company) and shall be paid in the priority specified in the applicable sections of Article VII of the Security Agreement. The Manager hereby expressly consents to such limited recourse to the LOC Reimbursement Account and to such priorities of distributions set forth in Article VII of the Security Agreement.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

SECTION 3.01. Valid Existence; Authorization; Enforceability. Each of the Parties represents and warrant to the other as follows:

(a) such Party is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has all requisite power, legal right and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and all other documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder; and

(b) this Agreement and all the documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and therewith has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of such Party.

ARTICLE IV

Miscellaneous Provisions

SECTION 4.01. No Assignment Without Consent. This Agreement, and the obligations and rights arising under this Agreement, may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by either Party (including any assignment or transfer in connection with any Person succeeding to any part of the business of either Party) without the prior written consent of the other Party and without obtaining Rating Agency Confirmation.

SECTION 4.02. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and, as so executed, shall constitute one agreement binding upon the Parties.

SECTION 4.03. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the Parties and their permitted assigns), any right, remedy or claim by reason of this Agreement or any term hereof, and all terms contained herein shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns.

SECTION 4.04. Interpretation. The headings of the Articles and Sections hereof are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

SECTION 4.05. Term; Termination.

(a) The Manager's appointment hereunder shall continue in effect for an initial term commencing on the date hereof and ending on December 31, 2006, with extensions for additional one (1) year periods commencing automatically upon each anniversary thereof, unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing at least ninety (90) days before such anniversary that such extension shall not be effective.

(b) If the Manager fails to perform any of its obligations set forth in this Agreement, Exhibit C or Exhibit D, the Manager (or if the failure is first discovered by the Company, then the Company) shall give prompt written notice (such notice, a "Notice of Failure") to the persons identified in Exhibit E (the "Failure Notice Recipients") specifying the nature of the failure; provided that in the event the Manager fails to perform any of its obligations set forth in Exhibit C, the Company shall give prompt written notice of such failure to the Rating Agencies in addition to the Failure Notice Recipients. In the event such Notice of Failure is given, then either the Manager or the Company may elect to submit the matter for review (a "Submission") and resolution (" Dispute Resolution "), which may include the establishment of a plan of remediation (a "Remediation Plan"), to (i) with respect to the Manager, the Business Leader of the Retirement Income and Investment Segment of Genworth Financial, Inc. (or such person or persons as such Business Leader may designate) and (ii) with respect to the Company, the Senior Vice President – Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operation of GE Capital (or such person or persons as such Senior Vice President may designate) ((i) and (ii) together, "Senior Management"). The Manager and the Company agree (x) to cooperate in good faith and in a reasonable manner to reach an agreement with respect to any Remediation Plan; (y) to be bound by the results of any such Dispute Resolution agreed to by Senior Management including any Remediation Plan (the timing and content of which shall be at the sole discretion of Senior Management) and (z) that the Manager will implement any such Remediation Plan within the period mandated by Senior Management (the "Final Cure Period"). The result of any such Dispute Resolution shall be in writing signed by Senior Management, shall be deemed part of this Agreement and, with the respect to the failure involved, shall supersede any conflicting or different terms of this Agreement. The Chief Operating Officer of Manager's Capital Markets Group responsible for management of the Company or a person designated by such officer (a "Designee") shall provide to the Rating Agencies notice and a copy of any Remediation Plan resulting from a Dispute Resolution that is deemed by such officer or Designee to have a potential adverse effect on the ratings of the Company. The Manager shall identify such officer or Designee in the appropriate periodic risk reports submitted to the Rating Agencies.

If Senior Management fails to reach an agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has not expired, the matter in dispute shall be resolved solely and exclusively in accordance with the arbitration procedures set forth in Exhibit F.

If (i) Senior Management or an arbitral tribunal described in Exhibit F fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has expired or (ii) the Manager fails to correct the failure by the end of the applicable Final Cure Period, then this Agreement may, subject to Section 4.05(e), be terminated by the Company upon two (2) Business Days' prior written notice to the Manager and each Failure Notice Recipient specifying the basis for and the effective date of the termination.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment obligations of the Company during the initial term of this Agreement shall not be terminated if any such failure and the continuation thereof are caused by Impossibility. For the purposes hereof "Impossibility" means loss or malfunction of electric power, transportation or communication services; general inability to obtain or retain labor, material, equipment or transportation, or a delay in mails or services; the Company's, GE Capital's or their Affiliates' (i) failure to take an action on which the Manager's performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation depends or (ii) taking an action which renders the Manager's performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation impossible; governmental or exchange action, statute, ordinance, ruling, regulation, administrative interpretation or directive; acts of terror, vandalism, explosions, tornados, acts of God or public enemy, acts of any civil or military authority, revolutions, insurrections, strike, emergency, riots or civil commotions, freezes, fires, floods, embargoes, wars, sabotage, explosions or other unforeseen or unexpected occurrences, which unforeseen or unexpected occurrences render the performance of any obligations by the Manager impossible. In the event of any such occurrence, the Manager shall use all reasonable efforts to remediate the disruption and resume its performance of the obligations.

(c) The Company shall have the right, by giving the Manager thirty (30) Business Days' prior written notice, to terminate this Agreement at an earlier time than that specified in Section 4.05(a) in the event of continuing non-performance by the Manager due to Impossibility of any obligation hereunder beyond the applicable Cure Period or Final Cure Period, or if the Company liquidates all or substantially all of the Assets of the Company held in the Facility Account and substitutes therefor the debt of GE Capital pursuant to the terms of the Permitted Investments Amendment. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 4.05(c), the Manager shall be paid a termination fee by the Company equal to the product of (i) sixteen and one-half (16.5) basis points (0.165%), multiplied by (ii) the Maximum Permitted Program Size, multiplied by (iii) the percentage derived by dividing the number of days remaining in the initial term by 365. In addition, the termination fee shall include any actual cost incurred and agreed upon and reasonably associated with terminating the operations set forth in this Agreement, including but not limited to employment severance costs as determined by the standard practices of the Manager.

(d) The Manager may resign upon not less than ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Company.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, including the expiration of any term of this Agreement, so long as the Portfolio is still outstanding, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and no termination or resignation of the Manager shall be effective until the Company has entered into an agreement with a successor manager. Upon receiving a notice of resignation from the Manager, the Company shall use its best efforts to enter into such an agreement unless it elects to terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 4.05(c) above. Except as set forth in Exhibit F, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any Party's rights to pursue remedies at law or in equity, which shall be available in accordance with applicable law in addition to any remedies provided for in this Agreement.

SECTION 4.06. Independent Contractor. The Manager is being engaged pursuant to this Agreement as an independent contractor and the Parties expressly disclaim any intention to enter into a joint venture, partnership, or any other form of association pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 4.07. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE RULES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

SECTION 4.08. Notices. All notices, instructions, and advice with respect to any transactions or other matters contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed duly given only when actually received at such Party's principal place of business as set forth below. Return receipt or courier record of delivery shall be deemed conclusive evidence of receipt. Notices may be made by fax or other electronic means shall be deemed given upon electronic evidence of receipt at applicable recipient's fax or computer station. A copy of all notices given shall be provided to GE Capital.

SECTION 4.09. Entire Agreement; All Amendments in Writing. (a) This Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all other previous agreements, written or oral, concerning the same subject matter.

(b) The Parties may at any time and from time to time agree to any amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement to cure any mistake, ambiguity, defect or inconsistency or to correct any manifest error or to correct any error of formal, minor or technical nature. The Rating Agencies shall be given written notice of any amendment under this Section 4.09(b) not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date thereof.

(c) The Parties may at any time and from time to time agree to any amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement other than any amendment or modification provided for in Section 4.09(b); provided that, in each case, a Rating Agency Confirmation shall be obtained prior to the effectiveness of such amendment or modification.

(d) Any amendment to any provision of the Security Agreement that is incorporated by reference in this Agreement (including, without limitation, any amendment to any of the capitalized terms incorporated by reference herein), so long as such amendment is made as permitted under the terms of the Security Agreement, shall constitute an amendment to this Agreement unless the Parties agree in writing that such amendment shall not be effective under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.10. Waiver. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Party from whom such waiver or consent is sought, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. The Party seeking such waiver or consent shall promptly deliver a copy thereof to the Rating Agencies.

SECTION 4.11. Further Assurances. Each Party hereby agrees to execute and deliver such additional documents, instruments or agreements as may be reasonably necessary and appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.12. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 4.13. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

SECTION 4.14. Limited Recourse. The obligations of the Company under this Agreement are solely the obligations of the Company. No recourse shall be had for any obligation or claim arising out of or based upon this Agreement against any Member, manager, officer organizer, agent or employee of the Company or any shareholder, officer, director, employee, agent or incorporator of any Member. Any accrued obligations owing by the Company shall be payable by the Company solely to the extent that funds are available therefor from time to time in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of the Security Agreement (and such accrued obligations shall not be extinguished until paid in full.)

SECTION 4.15. Termination of the Investment Administration Agreement; Release. Effective as of the date hereof, the Company does hereby, for itself and its successors and assigns, waive the sixty (60) days' notice requirement of Section 3.05 of the Investment Administration Agreement and accepts the resignation of MRCA Corp. as the Portfolio Adviser thereunder and fully and unconditionally release and forever discharge MRCA Corp. (and any officer, director, employee or agent of MRCA Corp.) from any and all present and future (i) obligations and liabilities under the Investment Administration Agreement and (ii) causes of action, suits, claims, demands, liabilities and obligations whatsoever, whether at law or in equity, arising from or related to the Investment Administration Agreement, arising from and after the date hereof.

Priority Manager Functions

| Listed Obligation | Cure Period |
|--|---|
| Payments | |
| Manager shall cause payments to be made as required under any Contracts, Hedge Contracts or other agreement to which the Company is a party. | Five (5) Business Days from the date a notice of nonpayment received by Manager under the applicable Contract, Hedge Contract or agreement (or such shorter period as exists prior to such nonpayment being an actionable default thereunder); provided, however, that if the Manager or the Company gives notice to the other party requesting Dispute Resolution within one (1) Business Day of notice, the cure period hereunder shall be extended by three (3) Business Days from the date the notice of nonpayment is received (it being understood that in no event shall this section supersede the contractual payment obligations in the respective Contracts or Hedge Contracts). |
| Risk Matters | |
| Manager shall comply with all requirements of GE Capital's Policy 5.0 and 6.0 relating to the Company and related "strike zones," as such policies and strike zones are amended from time to time, and all requirements relating to Permitted Investments and the portfolio in the Security Agreement; provided, that in the event that a trigger has been tripped under Policy 6.0 by virtue of a change in the market or pursuant to the action of a rating agency, GE Capital shall provide direction on remediation on a case-by-case basis if not otherwise provided for in Policy 6.0 and, if the Manager takes the appropriate corrective action (whether as prescribed by the Policy or as directed by GE Capital), no failure to perform an obligation under this Agreement shall be deemed to have occurred. | Five (5) Business Days. |
| Rating Agency Requirements | |
| Manager shall prepare all reports on the dates specified by each rating agency currently rating obligations of the Company and shall meet all requirements specified by any such agency for continuation or reinstatement of their highest long-term and short-term ratings. | Thirty (30) days or such shorter or longer period as is specified for compliance by the rating agencies. |

Financial Reporting

Manager shall comply with Section 2.04 hereof and the Listed Obligations and shall prepare all reports relating to the Company as are necessary or desirable for compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and any other financial reporting requirements of the Company under applicable law and external regulation.

Thirty (30) days or such shorter or longer period as is specified by the applicable accounting firm or regulatory body to allow for compliance with the applicable regulatory or disclosure requirement.

Legal Compliance

Manager shall prepare disclosure documentation annually or more frequently as is necessary or desirable in connection with its offering of Contracts and Preferred Securities and shall otherwise comply with the requirements of contracts to which it is a party, and all applicable laws and regulations.

Thirty (30) days or such other period as is specified in the applicable agreement or regulation or as is directed by the applicable regulatory body.

Listed ObligationsBusiness

- Manager will use its best efforts to maintain an Average Program Size of thirteen billion dollars ($13,000,000,000) or such other amount reasonably specified by the Company from time to time for the combined portfolios of the Company and Trinity Funding Company, LLC. For the purposes hereof, the term “Average” means a rolling 3-month average of end-of-day balances, computed daily.
- Manager will review the Portfolio Quality Review with GE Capital on a monthly basis on such dates as Manager and GE Capital shall agree to in advance.

Compliance/Legal

- Manager will maintain the corporate and limited liability company minutebooks and records of the Company and its non-controlling common members and any successors thereto, and take all actions required to maintain their valid existence and good standing in the jurisdictions in which they are organized or qualified.
- Manager will comply with applicable law in respect of the Company’s issuance of Contracts and Preferred Securities, including with respect to rules promulgated under federal securities laws that restrict certain forms of advertising and solicitation.
- Manager will prepare updated versions of the Confidential Information Memorandum of the Company (i) on an annual basis to reflect then-current audited financial information of the Company or (ii) at such other times as may be required by the Company.
- Manager will, as required from time to time, prepare updated versions of the Private Placement Memorandum of the Company relating to the Company’s issuance of Preferred Securities.
- Manager will use its best efforts to take all actions required in connection with obtaining the appropriate authority with respect to the extension of the Liquidity Commitment and/or the Letter of Credit commitment and any required increase of the Liquidity Commitment and/or the Letter of Credit commitment (it being understood that no failure to perform a Listed Obligation shall be deemed to have occurred if either such commitment is not extended or increased after a request has been submitted).
- Manager will consult with and obtain approval from the Company in connection with proposed material modifications to the terms or the form of Contracts.

- Manager will maintain its status as an “investment adviser” under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and will take all reasonable steps to comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such.
- Manager will cause its legal staff to draft and prepare all Contracts, Hedge Contracts and other contracts entered into by the Company. The in-house counsel of Manager may, to the extent required, engage outside counsel in connection with the preparation of such contracts if such engagement is approved verbally or in writing by the General Counsel – Treasury Operation of GE Capital and otherwise approved under Section 2.09. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude Manager from engaging its own outside counsel for any purpose it deems necessary or advisable, and Manager need not obtain any separate approval therefor.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws and all applicable policies and procedures as the same may be provided to Manager by the Company, including but not limited to the USA Patriot Act and Anti-Money Laundering policies and laws.
- Manager will take all reasonable actions required to assist the Company or GE Capital in connection with changes to the corporate structure of the Company and its common members.
- Manager will take all reasonable steps to provide prompt responses to GE Capital in connection with requests from regulatory or other governmental authorities for documentation or data relating to the operation of the Company.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, policies, management procedures and other requirements of the Company, GE Capital and Genworth, including but not limited to the GE Capital Information Security Procedure and, to the extent applicable, the policies contained in “Integrity: The Spirit and the Letter of Our Commitment.”

Liability/Contract Bidding Process

- Manager shall ensure that transactions in Contracts are effected in accordance with the following general procedure: (i) a registered representative of a broker-dealer (each, a “GIC Salesperson”) shall receive bid specifications (“Bid Specs”) provided by prospective Contract customers or their agents (“Customers”); (ii) the GIC Salesperson shall analyze the Bid Specs and respond to Customers, indicating to such Customers, where appropriate, the requirements to maintain the Company’s exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; (iii) the GIC Salesperson shall submit all Bid Specs for review and comment to the designated member of the Manager’s legal staff and will note on any bid acceptance form that is delivered to the Customer all appropriate comments received from the legal staff; (iv) the GIC Salesperson shall price transactions in which the Company has an interest in bidding and communicate such pricing to the applicable Customer; and (v) the Manager's legal staff shall provide counsel to the GIC Salesperson in connection with the preparation, negotiation and closing of all Contracts for transactions that the Company wins.

Financial Controls

- Manager will perform its accounting responsibilities in compliance with GE Capital's internal accounting policies and U.S. GAAP.
- Manager will maintain accounting policies currently in place and all changes to accounting policies must be approved in advance by GE Capital. For new accounting standards, GE Capital will provide Manager with the accounting policy to be adopted by the Company.
- Manager will perform accounting in accordance with FAS 133 and obtain approval from GE Capital for the following FAS 133 activities:
 - Changes to existing hedge documentation
 - Changes in existing methodology used to assess and measure hedge effectiveness
 - Application of "fair value" hedging as defined in FAS 133
 - Economic hedges that do not qualify for FAS 133 hedge treatment
- Manager will provide a monthly variance analysis of:
 - Changes in the fair market value of derivatives
 - Hedge ineffectiveness
 - Amounts excluded from the measure of effectiveness
- Manager will reconcile all general ledger accounts in accordance with GE Capital's account reconciliation criteria. Manager will provide a quarterly dashboard of account reconciliations and open items (in an agreed upon format) on dates to be provided to Manager.
- Manager is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal controls adequate to ensure that Assets are appropriately safeguarded and that the financial statements and related disclosures and schedules fairly present the financial condition of the Company.
- Manager and GE Capital will agree upon and execute a plan to minimize profit and loss volatility associated with FAS 133.

- Manager will deliver monthly unaudited financial results including any adjustments to the monthly financials to be included in the next month's accounting period. These financials should include an explanation of significant items of variance to the Operating Plan. Such financial statements will be delivered within fifteen (15) days of the close as defined by GE Capital.
- Manager will deliver quarterly unaudited financial reports and schedules in accordance with GE Capital's closing instructions. Such financial statement will include variance and profitability analysis suitable for the closing of the books. Closing instruction to be provided by the 15th of the month of the quarterly close.
- Manager will provide the Company with financial projections in accordance with GE Capital's SI, SII and OP process. GE Capital will provide the Manager with SI, SII and OP timing and assumptions where needed to make such forecasts.
- Manager will deliver annual audited financial statements (balance sheet and income statement) upon completion of the annual audit by GE Capital's external auditors.
- Manager will conduct annual reviews in compliance with applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, in a manner acceptable to GE Capital.
- Manager will report detailed profit and loss results and details of expenses within fifteen (15) days following the end of each quarterly period, including comparisons of actual versus plan, in a format reasonably agreeable to both parties. Profit and loss reports will be included in the monthly Portfolio Quality Review, substantially in the format attached as Schedule I to this Exhibit D.

Risk

- Manager will comply with the Permitted Investments guidelines provided in Schedule 4.01(g) of the Security Agreement.
- Manager will value the Portfolio from time to time, as required by Section 2.06 of the Security Agreement in order to prepare the reports required by such Section of the Security Agreement, using the portfolio valuation methods set forth in the Market Valuation Addendum attached as Schedule 1.01 to the Security Agreement, in order to determine whether a Coverage Shortfall, a Program Shortfall or a Net Worth Deficit has occurred and is continuing and whether the Market Sensitivity Limit has been exceeded. The Manager shall also value Permitted Collateral investments on deposit in Collateral Accounts as required under the terms of each Collateralized Contract.
- Manager will comply with all applicable terms set forth in Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0 and all "strike zones" defined by GE Capital with respect to assets, liabilities and derivatives (as each may be amended from time to time by GE Capital). Manager will deliver the following reports on a monthly basis for monitoring such compliance:

- Portfolio Quality Review
 - Credit Limit Watch
 - Credit Risk Rating
 - Stop Loss
 - Month End Credit
 - Counterparty Exposure
- Except as otherwise specified in this Exhibit D, Manager will deliver risk reports to GE Capital on a monthly basis and will include, at a minimum, the following:
- Portfolio Quality Review
 - Supplemental Program Shortfall
 - Liquidity Report (provided on a daily basis)
 - Summary Hedge Analysis Report (provided on a daily basis)
 - REM (electronic submission)
- Manager will provide other available reports required from time to time by GE Capital as they are requested.
- Manager will participate, on a monthly and quarterly basis, in in-force reviews with Genworth senior management and GE Capital senior management.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with data feeds relating to the Portfolio, the content, format and timing of the delivery of which feeds will be agreed upon by Manager and GE Capital.
- Manager will (i) comply with applicable requirements as to hedge counterparty ratings, as set forth in the Security Agreement and as provided in the applicable policies of GE Capital, (ii) comply with the applicable requirements to provide information to GE Capital with respect to hedge counterparty exposure, (iii) deliver a Counterparty Exposure report for monitoring such compliance and (iv) comply with such restrictions as to hedge counterparty that may from time to time be imposed by GE Capital.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with such available additional risk analyses as GE Capital may request, including but not limited to, stress tests and value at risk analyses. In each case, the content, format and timing of the delivery of such analyses will be agreed upon, prior to delivery, by GE Capital and Manager.

- Manager will comply with all applicable requirements relating to the Company's maintenance of the "AAA"/"Aaa" ratings assigned thereto by the applicable rating agencies.

Customer

- Manager will ensure delivery by mail or e-mail, or will make available on the Company's website, to the Company's customers in accordance with such customers' respective Contracts, Customer Statements in respect of customers' investments with the Company.
- Manager will ensure the timely remittance of payments required under each Contract or other agreement of the Company.
- When requested by the Company and GE Capital, Manager will deliver to the Company and GE Capital customer service metrics (e.g., call volume by customer complaint type by date) and deal closing customer survey results (if and to the extent the same is provided by customers).

Information Technology

- Manager will maintain the current systems environment to fully support the business requirements and the services to be performed under this Agreement for the Company.

Continuous Service (Disaster Recovery)

A disaster recovery site shall be maintained as follows:

- Backup copies of critical servers shall be maintained at an off-premises Disaster Recovery Site (locations to be determined from time to time by the Parties hereto). The critical servers are as follows: Principia PAS server, Oracle Data Warehouse Server, File Server, Oracle GL Server, and FileNET CM Server. In the event of a major disaster where access to production servers and 335 Madison Avenue's assets (or those of a successor location from which the Company's business is operated) is lost, service will be restored on the following schedule: PAS and Oracle Data warehouse systems will be within twenty-four (24) hours. GL and FileNET server will be available within forty-eight (48) hours. The Parties will work with GE Capital Treasury on a best effort basis to establish and implement an adequate Disaster Recovery plan.

- Software refreshes to synchronize the DR systems with the production systems shall be done within twenty-four (24) hours of the update of the production system to coincide with production system updates.
- Backups of the production PAS database shall be copied to the DR PAS server nightly.

Data Management (Backups and Retention)

- Full data backups are performed daily on all production and Quality Assurance systems.
- Full data backups of all Network files are performed daily.
- Backup tapes shall be stored offsite at Iron Mountain. Tapes are picked up by 10:30 a.m. daily.
- An authorized list of personnel may recall tapes from Iron Mountain (an agreement exists to deliver backup tapes to any location, including the home of IT personnel).
- Tapes shall be cycled on a rolling eight (8) week rotation. All Financial close and Month End tapes shall be marked permanent and retained indefinitely.

Change Management: Notification and Approval Process on Changes to IT Infrastructure and Application Software

- GE Capital Treasury shall have the right to approve the Company's Change Management Process.
- All change requests shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury on a weekly basis.
- Emergency changes to the IT Environment shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury as they occur.
- In the event of a major System Failure GE Capital Treasury shall be notified and required to approve required changes.

Performance and Capacity Planning Reporting and Reviews

- In general, monthly business reports shall be available by 9:00 a.m. the last Business Day of the month. The IT team will communicate all exceptions by 8:30 a.m. on the day such exceptions occur. The communication will include the anticipated delivery time. The following performance tracking processes exist:

- Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of exceptions and violations of the 9:00 a.m. report delivery times and cures employed.
 - Monthly report on system loading and projected performance bottlenecks and issues and resolutions.
 - Monthly report of license denials.
- GE Capital Treasury shall perform a quarterly review of systems and access rights to those systems. IT shall prepare the report to be reviewed, deliver a copy to GE Capital Treasury and will remediate issues discovered. An updated access matrix will be added to the “CMS Operational Procedures and Controls” document quarterly.

Personnel

- Manager will maintain a staff of qualified employees sufficient to support the business requirements of the Company and to perform the services required under this Agreement.

Other Obligations

- Manager will comply in all material respects with all other obligations provided under this Agreement.

Arbitration Procedures

If Senior Management fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution within forty-five (45) days of a Submission and the Cure Period has not expired, either Party may submit the matter to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The Parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known matters under dispute existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each Party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each Party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other Party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the Parties. The arbitrators shall determine the matter in dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

The Parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this provision and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this provision may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no Party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a matter in dispute, except (i) for enforcement, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable.

Each Party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any matter in dispute in accordance with this provision.

Exhibit 10.5

This LIABILITY AND PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT, dated as of January 1, 2004 (this “Agreement”), among FGIC CAPITAL MARKET SERVICES, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), GENWORTH FINANCIAL ASSET MANAGEMENT, LLC, a Virginia limited liability company (the “Manager”) and GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (“GE Capital,” and together with the Company and the Manager, the “Parties”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Manager is an investment adviser registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission that will be engaged by the Company to provide the services described herein; and

WHEREAS, the Manager and the Company wish to establish and define certain obligations set forth in Exhibit C and Exhibit D (the “Listed Obligations”) that the Manager is required to undertake in connection with the services it will provide to the Company under this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises made herein and upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

“Policy 6.0” means the policy which sets forth certain risk management parameters that the Company is required to observe, as the same may be amended from time to time by the Company with the approval of GE Capital.

“Portfolio” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.01(a).

“Prior Transfer Pricing Amounts” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.06.

“Remediation Plan” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.05(b).

“Senior Management” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.05(b).

“Submission” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.05(b).

ARTICLE II

Engagement; Powers and Duties

SECTION 2.01. Engagement of Manager.

(a) The Company hereby retains the Manager:

(i) to advise the Company as to the investment of the proceeds of its issuance of Contracts which proceeds have been on-lent to Holdings (the “Assets”), including recommending specific investment and hedging thereof to the Company;

(ii) to administer the Assets maintained in an account or accounts established in the name of Holdings (the “Accounts”), each of which is identified (to the extent established by the effective date hereof) in Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, with such deposits thereto and withdrawals therefrom as are from time to time permitted by the Company;

(iii) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities for deposit in the Accounts;

(iv) for as long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to arrange the purchase and sale and otherwise to effect transactions in hedge contracts relating to the Assets;

(v) to prepare reports and to perform valuation tests as specified in Exhibit D or as are required from time to time by the Company;

(vi) to advise the Company in the issuance of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) investment orders and disposition orders in connection with the management of the Assets;

(vii) to take such action as is necessary and proper on behalf of the Company for the preservation of the Assets;

(viii) to advise the Company in the granting or effecting of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any consents, waivers, extensions or modifications in respect of any item of the Assets;

(ix) to designate persons who are registered representatives of a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to execute and deliver Contracts on behalf of the Company in their capacity as such pursuant to a power of attorney granted by the Company from time to time to registered representatives designated and notified to the Company by the Manager from time to time;

(x) to advise the Company in the delivery of and to assist the Company in the preparation of (and, for so long as the revocable power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.02 is in effect, to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company) any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of the Assets;

(xi) to engage a registered broker-dealer which is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers to assist the Company in connection with the offering, issuance and sale of Contracts and, in connection therewith, to make such other arrangements with such broker-dealer as may be necessary or advisable to ensure that such broker-dealer supervises its registered representatives who will effect such transactions and takes responsibility for such offering, issuance and sale; and

(xii) to take any other action deemed necessary or advisable to execute and deliver Contracts on behalf of the Company.

The Manager shall administer the Assets in the Accounts (all of such Assets together, the “Portfolio”) in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof and shall otherwise observe in all material respects the requirements of the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, this Agreement and all other documents, policies, laws and regulations applicable to the Company from time to time. The Company shall provide copies of the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, to the Manager no later than the time that this Agreement is entered into and shall provide copies of all amendments, supplements and revisions to such documents as soon as they are available to the Company.

(b) Performance. The Parties hereby agree that the Manager shall perform the specific Listed Obligations during the term of this Agreement and, subject to Section 2.10, such other functions as are set forth in this Agreement or as are generally required to operate the business of the Company in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and Company policy. The Manager acknowledges that it will take all reasonable steps to continue to conduct the business of the Company in a manner substantially similar to that in which it had been conducted prior to the Parties' entry into this Agreement and in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

SECTION 2.02. Power of Attorney. The Company hereby provides the Manager with a revocable power of attorney with full power and authority:

- (i) to evaluate and appraise the Portfolio;
- (ii) to arrange the purchase and sale through registered broker-dealers of bonds, pass-through certificates, stocks, and other securities in connection with making investments for the Portfolio;
- (iii) to arrange the purchase and sale of and otherwise to effect transactions in hedge contracts, as directed by GE Capital, in connection with making investments for the Portfolio through registered broker-dealers;
- (iv) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any investment orders and disposition orders as may be required from time to time in connection with the management of the Portfolio;
- (v) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any consents, waivers, extensions, or modifications in respect of any item of the Assets;
- (vi) to execute and to deliver on behalf of the Company any instrument of transfer or release in respect of any item of the Assets;
- (vii) to engage a broker-dealer acceptable to the Company to assist the Company in the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations; and
- (viii) subject to the limitations set forth in the Operations, Procedures and Controls Manual, Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0, to take any other action, including executing agreements and any other documents on behalf of the Company that the Manager deems necessary or advisable to purchase, sell or otherwise effect investment transactions relating to the Portfolio.

All investments made and transactions entered into by the Manager on behalf of the Company shall be entered into in the name of the Company. All actions contemplated above shall be performed in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, documents and applicable Company policy. The Manager shall not be under an obligation to keep the Portfolio fully invested if, in its sole discretion, it shall determine that market and/or economic conditions make it imprudent or disadvantageous to do so at any time or that funds should be made available for distributions and other payments pursuant to the terms of a Contract. The Company represents that it has the authority to make the appointment set forth in this paragraph. In the event the Manager fails to perform a Listed Obligation and this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 4.05(a) or (b), or if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 4.05(c) or (d), this power of attorney may be revoked by the Company by written notice to the Manager.

SECTION 2.03. Valuation. The Manager shall value the Portfolio from time to time in order to prepare such reports relating to the Assets as may reasonably be requested by the Company.

SECTION 2.04. Reports. As more particularly specified in Exhibit C and Exhibit D, the Manager shall:

- (a) prepare entries for accounts in, together with applicable schedules and exhibits for, financial statements that relate to the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts by the Company;
- (b) timely prepare and provide to the Company and GE Capital underlying data for accounting entries, schedules, exhibits and reports as the Company or GE Capital reasonably requests or is required to obtain by applicable laws, regulations or accounting rules;
- (c) prepare such other reports as GE Capital and the Company may reasonably agree upon from time to time; and
- (d) notify the Company and GE Capital immediately upon learning of any material default or breach of the Listed Obligations.

SECTION 2.05. Confidential Relationships. All information and recommendations furnished by the Manager to the Company shall be treated by the Company as confidential. The Manager shall, in turn, treat as confidential all information concerning the affairs of the Company. Nothing in this Section 2.05 shall be deemed to preclude any such information or recommendations from being disclosed by any Party to such Party's Affiliates or to the directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents or advisers of such Affiliates, or pursuant to applicable law, regulation or court order; provided, that any such recipients are advised of the confidential nature of such information or recommendations.

SECTION 2.06. Fees. GE Capital, on behalf of the Company, hereby agrees to pay to the Manager quarterly in arrears a fee (the "Management Fee") at an annual rate of ten (10) basis points (0.10%) multiplied by the book value of Contracts issued by the Company after January 1, 2003 (the “Contract Value”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Management Fee shall not reduce or otherwise alter GE Capital’s obligation to make certain payments to the Manager, calculated in accordance with the formula set forth on Exhibit G, with respect to transfer pricing to be paid in respect of Contracts issued prior to January 1, 2003 (“Prior Transfer Pricing Amounts”), which obligation shall remain in full force and effect in respect of such Contracts. The Manager shall, on a date prior to that on which a Prior Transfer Pricing Amount is due and payable to the Manager, provide the Company and GE Capital with a list of all Contracts to which the Prior Transfer Pricing Amounts apply, a form of which list is attached as Exhibit G. As of the effective date of this Agreement, all Prior Transfer Pricing Amounts shall be paid to the Manager quarterly in arrears.

SECTION 2.07. Expenses Reimbursed.

(a) GE Capital, on behalf of the Company, shall reimburse the Manager for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred and approved pursuant to Section 2.09(e) in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder, except for any expenses arising out of the Manager’s willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder.

(b) GE Capital, on behalf of the Company, shall reimburse the Manager for all appropriate Operating Costs of the Company. Such reimbursement shall be made, upon receipt by the Company from the Manager of a schedule detailing Operating Costs (substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereof), within thirty (30) days following the end of each quarter. For the purposes hereof, “Operating Costs” means all costs incurred by the Manager in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement that have been submitted and approved in writing as part of the annual budget approval process described in Section 2.09(e). For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby agreed that certain expenses will not be paid by the Manager and do not constitute reimbursable Operating Costs. Such expenses, which are directly attributable to the Company, include fees payable to: (i) external legal counsel engaged by the Company for services rendered thereto and not in connection with duties of the Manager, which are unrelated to the management services it renders to the Company, (ii) certain third-party providers of accounting services to the Company, (iii) providers of credit research services required by the Company and (iv) any provider of goods or services for costs incurred in connection with requirements imposed by regulatory authorities, rating agencies, or any applicable law, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, ordinance, code issued by a Governmental Authority or regulatory body, or any order, writ, injunction, directive, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction; each such expense shall be paid by the Company.

SECTION 2.08. Execution of Securities Transactions.

(a) In connection with the offering and sale of Contracts, the Manager shall engage a registered broker-dealer approved by the Company that provides services with respect to the origination, issuance and sale of Contracts that the Manager believes to be of value. The Company shall pay all costs associated with the retention of such broker-dealer.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically directed by the Company, the Manager shall have complete discretion to select any registered broker-dealer in all securities transactions affecting the Portfolio not described in Section 2.08(a). The Manager is expressly authorized to select such brokers-dealers who provide brokerage and research services that the Manager believes to be of value. The Manager is expressly authorized to pay from the Assets in the Portfolio commissions on such transactions in amounts that the Manager determines in good faith to be reasonable in relation to the value of such brokerage and research services, viewed in terms either of the particular transaction or the overall responsibilities of the Manager with respect to the Portfolio.

SECTION 2.09. Administrative Responsibilities. The Manager shall have the following administrative responsibilities:

(a) The Manager shall submit the budget for reimbursable Operating Costs to the Company and GE Capital by no later than January 31 of each year and such budget shall be approved by the Manager of Finance of Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operations (or such other representative as shall be designated from time to time in a notice to the Manager executed by the Company and GE Capital) by February 15 of such year. Operating Costs incurred in excess of the aggregate amounts approved in the annual budget must be separately approved by the Company and GE Capital in order to be considered for reimbursement.

(b) Custody of the Assets comprising the Portfolio will be maintained in the Accounts. The Manager shall not have custody of any of the Assets in the Portfolio.

(c) The Manager shall keep such books and records relating to all transactions that it effects pursuant to this Agreement, including without limitation all books and records necessary for preparing the reports required by Section 2.04.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Manager shall provide no services to the Company in respect of tax planning or tax compliance of any kind.

(e) The Manager shall submit presentations relating to the offering of Contracts to the Company and GE Capital for approval prior to external use.

(f) The Manager shall maintain its status as an “investment adviser” under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and shall follow all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such and to its performance hereunder, including all applicable laws and regulations relating to bidding for Contracts.

SECTION 2.10. Other Duties as Reasonably Requested. The Manager shall also perform such other duties or shall modify existing duties as the Company may reasonably request or that the Manager shall recommend to the Company from time to time relating to the management of a business involved in the issuance of guaranteed investment contracts and similar debt obligations issued by providers rated “AAA”/”Aaa” and the management of the proceeds of the issuance of such contracts and obligations. If any additional or modified duties are required of Manager under this Agreement, Manager shall have the reasonable time and opportunity to procure such additional resources as may, in Manager’s good faith judgment, be required to perform such duties. Manager also agrees that it will cease to perform the requirements of certain obligations specified hereunder if the Company so directs in writing. Any such changes or additions shall be deemed for all purposes to be amendments or supplements to this Agreement. The Company shall pay such costs as have been mutually agreed to by the Parties and as may from time to time be required to enable the Manager to perform any additional or changed Listed Obligations contemplated herein and other obligations not listed in this Agreement for which additional resources are required or additional costs are reasonably incurred by the Manager.

SECTION 2.11. Limitation of Liability. Neither the Manager nor any of its Affiliates nor any of their respective directors, officers, or employees shall be liable to the Company for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss arising out of any investment or any other commitment of funds on behalf of the Company or Holdings or for any act or omission in the administration of the Portfolio except for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder, other than as may be provided under applicable law.

SECTION 2.12. Indemnification. (a) The Company shall (i) indemnify and hold harmless the Manager and any Affiliate of the Manager and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an “Indemnified Party”) from and against all losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to which such Indemnified Party may become subject (except in respect of the broker-dealer engaged by the Manager in respect of the placement of Contracts, which shall be the sole liability of the Manager), insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions, suits or proceedings including any inquiry or investigation or claims in respect thereof) arise out of, in any way relate to, or result from the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement, and (ii) reimburse each of the Indemnified Parties upon its demand for any reasonable legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, preparing to defend or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability, action or claim; provided, however, that none of the Indemnified Parties shall have the right to be so indemnified hereunder for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities to the extent resulting from its own negligence or willful misconduct or for losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities that it is required to pay to any broker-dealer that it has engaged in connection with the Contracts or other liabilities. If any action is brought against an Indemnified Party indemnified or intended to be indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.12, the Company shall, if requested by such Indemnified Party, resist and defend such action, suit or proceeding or cause the same to be resisted and defended by counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party, but shall not be empowered to compromise or settle such action, suit or proceeding unless such Indemnified Party has been fully indemnified for any loss, claim, damage, expense or liability it thereby suffers. Each Indemnified Party shall, unless the Indemnified Party has made the request described in the preceding sentence and such request has been complied with, have the right to employ its own counsel to investigate and control the defense of any matter covered by such indemnity and the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Company.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

SECTION 3.01. Valid Existence; Authorization; Enforceability. Each of the Parties represents and warrant to the other as follows:

(a) such Party is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has all requisite power, legal right and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and all other documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder; and

(b) this Agreement and all the documents to be executed and delivered by such Party in connection herewith and therewith has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of such Party.

ARTICLE IV

Miscellaneous Provisions

SECTION 4.01. No Assignment Without Consent. This Agreement, and the obligations and rights arising under this Agreement, may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by any Party (including any assignment or transfer in connection with any Person succeeding to any part of the business of any Party) without the prior written consent of the other Parties.

SECTION 4.02. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and, as so executed, shall constitute one agreement binding upon the Parties.

SECTION 4.03. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the Parties and their permitted assigns), any right, remedy or claim by reason of this Agreement or any term hereof, and all terms contained herein shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns.

SECTION 4.04. Interpretation. The headings of the Articles and Sections hereof are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

SECTION 4.05. Term; Termination.

(a) The Manager's appointment hereunder shall continue in effect for an initial term commencing on the date hereof and ending on December 31, 2006, with extensions for additional one (1) year periods commencing automatically upon each anniversary thereof, unless the Manager notifies the Company and GE Capital, or the Company and GE Capital notify the Manager in writing at least ninety (90) days before such anniversary that such extension shall not be effective.

(b) If the Manager fails to perform any of its obligations set forth in this Agreement, Exhibit C or Exhibit D, the Manager (or if the failure is first discovered by the Company, then the Company) shall give prompt written notice (such notice, a "Notice of Failure") to the persons identified in Exhibit E (the "Failure Notice Recipients") specifying the nature of the failure. In the event such Notice of Failure is given, then either the Manager or the Company may elect to submit the matter for review (a "Submission") and resolution ("Dispute Resolution"), which may include the establishment of a plan of remediation (a "Remediation Plan") to (i) with respect to the Manager, the Business Leader of the Retirement Income and Investment Segment of Genworth Financial Inc. (or such person or persons as such Business Leader may designate) and (ii) with respect to the Company, the Senior Vice President — Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operation of GE Capital (or such person or persons as such Senior Vice President may designate) (i) and (ii) together, "Senior Management"). The Manager and the Company agree (x) to cooperate in good faith and in a reasonable manner to reach an agreement with respect to any Remediation Plan; (y) to be bound by the results of any such Dispute Resolution agreed to by Senior Management including any Remediation Plan (the timing and content of which shall be at the sole discretion of Senior Management) and (z) that the Manager will implement any such Remediation Plan within the period mandated by Senior Management (the "Final Cure Period"). The result of any such Dispute Resolution shall be in writing signed by Senior Management, shall be deemed part of this Agreement and, with respect to the failure involved, shall supersede any conflicting or different terms of this Agreement.

If Senior Management fails to reach an agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has not expired, the matter in dispute shall be resolved solely and exclusively in accordance with the arbitration procedures set forth in Exhibit F.

If (i) Senior Management or an arbitral tribunal described in Exhibit F fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution and the Cure Period has expired or (ii) the Manager fails to correct the failure by the end of the applicable Final Cure Period, then this Agreement may, subject to Section 4.05(e), be terminated by the Company upon two (2) Business Days' prior written notice to the Manager and each Failure Notice Recipient specifying the basis for and the effective date of the termination.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment obligations of the Company during the initial term of this Agreement shall not be terminated if any such failure and the continuation thereof are caused by Impossibility. For the purposes hereof, “ Impossibility ” means loss or malfunction of electric power, transportation or communication services; general inability to obtain or retain labor, material, equipment or transportation, or a delay in mails or services; the Company’s, GE Capital’s or any of their Affiliates’ (i) failure to take an action on which the Manager’s performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation depends or (ii) taking an action which renders the Manager’s performance of an obligation or any Listed Obligation impossible; governmental or exchange action, statute, ordinance, ruling, regulation, administrative interpretation or directive; acts of terror, vandalism, explosions, tornados, acts of God or public enemy, acts of any civil or military authority, revolutions, insurrections, strike, emergency, riots or civil commotions, freezes, fires, floods, embargoes, wars, sabotage, explosions or other unforeseen or unexpected occurrences, which unforeseen or unexpected occurrences render the performance of any obligations by the Manager impossible. In the event of any such occurrence, the Manager shall use all reasonable efforts to remediate the disruption and resume its performance of the obligations.

(c) The Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at an earlier time than that specified in Section 4.05(a) in the event of continuing non-performance due to Impossibility of any obligation hereunder beyond the applicable Cure Period or Final Cure Period upon thirty (30) Business Days’ prior written notice to the Manager.

(d) The Manager may resign upon not less than ninety (90) days’ prior written notice to the Company.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, including the expiration of any term of this Agreement, so long as the Portfolio is still outstanding, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and no termination or resignation of the Manager shall be effective until the Company has entered into an agreement with a successor manager. Upon receiving a notice of resignation from the Manager, the Company shall use its best efforts to enter into such an agreement unless it elects to terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 4.05(c) above. Except as set forth in Exhibit F, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any Party’s rights to pursue remedies at law or in equity, which shall be available in accordance with applicable law in addition to any remedies provided for in this Agreement.

SECTION 4.06. Independent Contractor. The Manager is being engaged pursuant to this Agreement as an independent contractor and the Parties expressly disclaim any intention to enter into a joint venture, partnership, or any other form of association pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 4.07. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE RULES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

SECTION 4.08. Notices. All notices, instructions, and advice with respect to any transactions or other matters contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed duly given only when actually received at such Party's principal place of business as set forth below. Return receipt or courier record of delivery shall be deemed conclusive evidence of receipt. Notices may be made by fax or other electronic means shall be deemed given upon electronic evidence of receipt at applicable recipient's fax or computer station. A copy of all notices given shall be provided to GE Capital.

SECTION 4.09. Entire Agreement; All Amendments in Writing. This Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all other previous agreements, written or oral, concerning the same subject matter. This Agreement cannot be amended except by written agreement of the Parties.

SECTION 4.10. Waiver. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Party from whom such waiver or consent is sought, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

SECTION 4.11. Further Assurances. Each Party hereby agrees to execute and deliver such additional documents, instruments or agreements as may be reasonably necessary and appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.12. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 4.13. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

SECTION 4.14. Limited Recourse. The obligations of the Company under this Agreement are solely the obligations of the Company. No recourse shall be had for any obligation or claim arising out of or based upon this Agreement against any, manager, officer, organizer, agent or employee of the Company.

Priority Manager Functions

Listed Obligation

Cure Period

Payments

Manager shall cause payments to be made as required under any Contracts or other agreements to which the Company is a party.

Five (5) Business Days from the date a notice of nonpayment received by Manager under the applicable Contract or agreement (or such shorter period as exists prior to such nonpayment being an actionable default thereunder); provided, however, that if the Manager or the Company gives notice to the other party requesting Dispute Resolution within one (1) Business Day of the notice, the cure period hereunder shall be extended to three (3) Business Days from the date the notice of nonpayment is received (it being understood that in no event shall this provision supersede the contractual payment obligations in the respective Contract or agreement).

Risk Matters

Manager shall comply with all requirements of GE Capital's Policy 5.0 and 6.0 relating to the Company and related "strike zones," as such policies and strike zones are amended from time to time; provided, that in the event that a trigger has been tripped under Policy 6.0 by virtue of a change in the market or pursuant to the action of a rating agency, GE Capital shall provide direction on remediation on a case-by-case basis if not otherwise provided for in Policy 6.0 and, if the Manager takes the appropriate corrective action (whether as prescribed by Policy 6.0 or as directed by GE Capital), no failure to perform an obligation under this Agreement shall be deemed to have occurred.

Five (5) Business Days.

Financial Reporting

Manager shall comply with Section 2.04 hereof and the Listed Obligations and shall prepare all reports relating to the Company as are necessary or desirable for compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and any other financial reporting requirements of the Company under applicable law and external regulation.

Thirty (30) days or such shorter or longer period as is specified by the applicable accounting firm or regulatory body to allow for compliance with the applicable regulatory or disclosure requirement.

Legal Compliance

Manager shall comply with the requirements of contracts to which it is a party, and all applicable laws and regulations.

Thirty (30) days or such other period as is specified in the applicable agreement or regulation or as is directed by the applicable regulatory body.

Listed ObligationsCompliance/Legal

- Manager will maintain the corporate and limited liability company minutebooks and records of the Company, and take all actions required to maintain the Company's valid existence and good standing in the jurisdictions in which it is organized or qualified.
- Manager will comply with applicable law in respect of the Company's issuance of Contracts, including with respect to rules promulgated under federal securities laws that restrict certain forms of advertising and solicitation.
- Manager will consult with and obtain approval from the Company in connection with proposed material modifications to the terms or the form of Contracts.
- Manager will maintain its status as an "investment adviser" under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and will take all reasonable steps to comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to its status as such.
- Manager will cause its legal staff to draft and prepare all Contracts and other contracts entered into by the Company. The in-house counsel of Manager may, to the extent required, engage outside counsel in connection with the preparation of such contracts if such engagement is approved verbally or in writing by the General Counsel — Treasury Operation of GE Capital and otherwise approved under Section 2.09. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude Manager from engaging its own outside counsel for any purpose it deems necessary or advisable, and Manager need not obtain any separate approval therefore.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws and all applicable policies and procedures as the same may be provided to Manager by the Company, including but not limited to the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001 and anti-money laundering policies and laws.
- Manager will take all reasonable actions required to assist the Company or GE Capital in connection with changes to the corporate structure of the Company.
- Manager will take all reasonable steps to provide prompt responses to GE Capital in connection with requests from regulatory or other governmental authorities for documentation or data relating to the operation of the Company.
- Manager will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, policies, management procedures and other requirements of the Company, GE Capital and the Manager's Affiliates, including but not limited to the GE Capital Information

Security Procedure and, to the extent applicable, the policies contained in “Integrity: The Spirit & the Letter of Our Commitment.”

Liability/Contract Bidding Process

- Manager shall ensure that transactions in Contracts are effected in accordance with the following general procedure: (i) a registered representative of a broker-dealer (each, a “GIC Salesperson”) shall receive bid specifications (“Bid Specs”) provided by prospective Contract customers or their agents (“Customers”); (ii) the GIC Salesperson shall analyze the Bid Specs and respond to Customers, indicating to such Customers, where appropriate, the requirements to maintain the Company’s exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; (iii) the GIC Salesperson shall submit all Bid Specs for review and comment to the designated member of the Manager’s legal staff and will note on any bid acceptance form that is delivered to the Customer all appropriate comments received from the legal staff; (iv) the GIC Salesperson shall price transactions in which the Company has an interest in bidding and communicate such pricing to the applicable Customer; and (v) the Manager’s legal staff shall provide counsel to the GIC Salesperson in connection with the preparation, negotiation and closing of all Contracts for transactions that the Company wins.

Financial Controls

- Manager will periodically deliver the following financial reports:

Monthly:

- Transfer Pricing
- Income Sheet
- Book Value
- Accrued Interest

Quarterly:

- Debt Roll-Forward (3 days following the GE fiscal close period)
- Cash Reconciliation (3 days following the GE fiscal close period)
- Manager will e-mail net withdrawals and deposits to GE Treasury Cash Desk by 10:00 a.m. on each Business Day.
- Manager will e-mail projected settlements on newly issued Contracts to GE Treasury Cash Desk by 4:00 p.m. one (1) Business Day prior to closing.

- Manager will perform its accounting responsibilities in compliance with GE’s internal accounting policies and U.S. GAAP.
- Manager will maintain accounting polices currently in place and all changes to accounting policies must be approved in advance by GE Capital. For new accounting standards, GE Capital will provide Manager with the accounting policy to be adopted by the Company.
- Manager will reconcile all general ledger accounts in accordance with GE’s account reconciliation criteria. Manager will provide a quarterly dashboard of account reconciliations and open items (in an agreed-upon format) on dates to be provided to Manager.
- Manager is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal controls adequate to ensure that the financial statements and related disclosures and schedules fairly present the financial condition of the Company.
- Manager will provide the Company with financial projections in accordance with GE Capital’s SI, SII and OP process. GE Capital will provide the Manager with SI, SII and OP timing and assumptions where needed to make such forecasts.
- Manager will conduct annual reviews in compliance with applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, in a manner acceptable to GE Capital.

Risk

- Manager will comply with all applicable terms set forth in Policy 5.0 and Policy 6.0 and all “strike zones” defined by GE Capital with respect to assets and liabilities (as each may be amended from time to time by GE Capital).
- Manager will provide other available reports required from time to time by GE Capital as they are requested.
- Manager will participate, on a monthly and quarterly basis, in in-force reviews with Genworth senior management and GE Capital senior management.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with data feeds relating to the Portfolio, the content, format and timing of the delivery of which feeds will be agreed upon by Manager and GE Capital.
- Manager will from time to time provide GE Capital with such available additional risk analyses as GE Capital may request, including but not limited to, stress tests and value at risk analyses. In each case, the content, format and timing of the delivery of such analyses will be agreed upon, prior to delivery, by GE Capital and Manager.

- Manager will comply with all applicable requirements relating to the Company's maintenance of the "AAA"/"Aaa" ratings assigned thereto by the applicable rating agencies.

Customer

- Manager will ensure delivery by mail or e-mail, or will make available on the Company's website, to the Company's customers in accordance with such customers' respective Contracts, Customer Statements in respect of customers' investments with the Company.
- Manager will ensure the timely remittance of payments required under each Contract or other agreement of the Company.
- When requested by the Company and GE Capital, Manager will deliver to the Company and GE Capital customer service metrics (e.g., call volume by customer complaint type by date) and deal closing customer survey results (if and to the extent the same is provided by customers).

Information Technology

- Manager will maintain the current systems environment to fully support the business requirements and the services to be performed under this Agreement for the Company.

Continuous Service (Disaster Recovery)

A disaster recovery site shall be maintained as follows:

- Backup copies of critical servers shall be maintained at an off-premises Disaster Recovery Site (locations to be determined from time to time by the Parties hereto). The critical servers are as follows: Principia PAS server, Oracle Data Warehouse Server, File Server, Oracle GL Server, and FileNET CM Server. In the event of a major disaster where access to production servers and 335 Madison Avenue's assets (or those of a successor location from which the Company's business is operated) is lost, service will be restored on the following schedule: PAS and Oracle Data warehouse systems will be within twenty-four (24) hours. GL and FileNET server will be available within forty-eight (48) hours. The Parties will work with GE Capital Treasury on a best effort basis to establish and implement an adequate Disaster Recovery plan.

- Software refreshes to synchronize the DR systems with the production systems shall be done within twenty-four (24) hours of the update of the production system to coincide with production system updates.
- Backups of the production PAS database shall be copied to the DR PAS server nightly.

Data Management (Backups and Retention)

- Full data backups are performed daily on all production and Quality Assurance systems.
- Full data backups of all Network files are performed daily.
- Backup tapes shall be stored offsite at Iron Mountain. Tapes are picked up by 10:30 a.m. daily.
- An authorized list of personnel may recall tapes from Iron Mountain (an agreement exists to deliver backup tapes to any location, including the home of IT personnel).
- Tapes shall be cycled on a rolling eight (8) week rotation. All Financial close and Month End tapes shall be marked permanent and retained indefinitely.

Change Management: Notification and Approval Process on Changes to IT Infrastructure and Application Software

- GE Capital Treasury shall have the right to approve the Company's Change Management Process.
- All change requests shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury on a weekly basis.
- Emergency changes to the IT Environment shall be reported to GE Capital Treasury as they occur.
- In the event of a major System Failure GE Capital Treasury shall be notified and required to approve required changes.

Performance and Capacity Planning Reporting and Reviews

- In general, monthly business reports shall be available by 9:00 a.m. the last Business Day of the month. The IT team will communicate all exceptions by 8:30 a.m. on the day such exceptions occur. The communication will include the anticipated delivery time. The following performance tracking processes exist:
 - Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of nightly batch completion times.
 - Monthly report of exceptions and violations of the 9:00 a.m. report delivery times and cures employed.
 - Monthly report on system loading and projected performance bottlenecks and issues and resolutions.
 - Monthly report of license denials.

Personnel

- Manager will maintain a staff of qualified employees sufficient to support the business requirements of the Company and to perform the services required under this Agreement.

Other Obligations

- Manager will comply in all material respects with all other obligations provided under this Agreement.

Arbitration Procedures

If Senior Management fails to reach agreement with respect to a Dispute Resolution within forty-five (45) days of a Submission and the Cure Period has not expired, either Party may submit the matter to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the “CPR”) Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the “CPR Arbitration Rules”). The Parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known matters under dispute existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each Party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each Party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other Party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the Parties. The arbitrators shall determine the matter in dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

The Parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this provision and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this provision may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no Party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a matter in dispute, except (i) for enforcement, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable.

Each Party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any matter in dispute in accordance with this provision.

Prior Transfer Pricing Formula

Prior Transfer Pricing Amounts equal to the sum of the Spread Amount and the Transfer Amount, each of which is defined as follows:

1. Spread Amount

$[\text{Intercompany Rate} - \text{3rd Party Rate}] * [\text{Avg Principal Outstanding}] * [\text{Daycount}]$

Where the “Intercompany Rate” is the rate of GE Capital Treasury pays to the Company based upon the GE Cost of Funds Spread at the time of origination and the “3rd Party Rate” is the contractual rate paid to the applicable Contractholder.

2. Transfer Amount

$[\text{Transfer Rate}] * [\text{Avg Principal Outstanding}] * [\text{Daycount}]$

Where the “Transfer Rate” is determined for each deal based upon the weighted average life that corresponds to the basis points in the following table:

| WAL | Basis Points P.A. |
|--------------|-------------------|
| 0 - 9 mo | 3.5 |
| 9 mo+ - 1 yr | 9.5 |
| 1+ - 3 yr | 23.0 |
| 3+ - 5 yr | 27.0 |
| 5+ - 10 yr | 37.0 |

This Agreement is made this _____ day of _____, 2004 among the General Electric Company, a New York corporation (“GE”), General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“GECC”), GEI, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEI”), GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEFAHI”, and collectively with GE, GEI, and GECC, the “GE Parties”), and Genworth Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Genworth”).

A. Pursuant to the Master Agreement dated as of _____, 2004 among the GE Parties and Genworth (the “Master Agreement”), Genworth has agreed, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Master Agreement, to acquire (the “Acquisition”), directly or indirectly, all the outstanding shares of stock of GNA Corporation, Inc., a Washington corporation (“GNA”), and certain other Subsidiaries of GE (GNA and such other Subsidiaries, together with Genworth, the “Genworth Companies”) in a transaction that will constitute (as to certain of such Genworth Companies) a qualified stock purchase within the meaning of Section 338(d)(3) of the Code.

B. GE and certain of the Genworth Companies have been members of an affiliated group of corporations of which GE is the common parent (the “GE Affiliated Group”) within the meaning of Section 1504(a) of the Code, and the members of the GE Affiliated Group have heretofore filed United States federal income tax returns on a consolidated basis (the “GE Consolidated Returns”) pursuant to Section 1501 of the Code.

C. Certain of GE and its Affiliates have heretofore joined in the filing of certain combined, consolidated, or other similar United States state, local, or other governmental or foreign income or franchise tax returns (the “GE Combined Returns”), and each group filing such a return that includes any Genworth Company and at least one of GE or a non-Genworth Affiliate of GE is designated a “Combined Group.”

D. GEFAHI and certain of its Subsidiaries have entered into a Tax Allocation Agreement effective November 5, 1997 and supplemented and modified effective December 4, 2001 (the “GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement”).

E. General Electric Capital Assurance Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“GECA”), which is a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of GEFAHI, and the Subsidiaries of GECA that are domestic life insurance companies, including Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an Illinois corporation (“UFLIC”), have been treated as members of an affiliated group of life insurance companies of which GECA is the common parent (the “GECA Affiliated Group”) pursuant to Section 1504(c)(1) of the Code, and the members of the GECA Affiliated Group have heretofore filed United States federal income tax returns on a consolidated basis pursuant to Section 1501 of the Code.

F. GECA, UFLIC, and the other Subsidiaries of GECA that are domestic life insurance companies have entered into a Tax Allocation Agreement effective December 31, 1995 and amended as of December 31, 2001 (the “GECA Tax Allocation Agreement”).

G. GECC and certain of the Subsidiaries of GECC have entered into a Federal Income Tax Allocation Agreement effective June 1, 2001 (the “GECC Tax Allocation Agreement”).

H. As a consequence of the Acquisition and the Initial Public Offering, the Genworth Companies that have been members of the GE Affiliated Group will no longer be members of the GE Affiliated Group, one or more of the Genworth Companies may no longer be members of a Combined Group, and UFLIC will no longer be a member of the GECA Affiliated Group.

I. The GE Affiliated Group has received a private letter ruling (the "Ruling") from the IRS dated October 6, 2003, based on submissions dated August 7, 2003, August 29, 2003, and September 24, 2003 (the "Submissions") with respect to the Acquisition.

J. The parties to this Agreement desire to make certain covenants with respect to tax matters and to allocate the liability for certain United States and foreign federal, state, local, and other taxes that may be owed to or asserted by United States or foreign federal, state, local, or other governmental taxing authorities, and to provide for the allocation of any Tax benefits which may arise as a result of any Section 338 Election.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual promises, covenants, and conditions contained in this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. (a) The term “Acceleration Event” means (1) as to Genworth, that any Person or group of Persons acting in concert (other than GE and its Affiliates) acquires Effective Control of Genworth, and (2) as to any Subsidiary of Genworth, that (i) any Person or group of Persons acting in concert (other than Genworth and its Affiliates) acquires Effective Control of such Subsidiary of Genworth, or (ii) Genworth and its Affiliates otherwise cease to have Effective Control of such Subsidiary of Genworth; provided, however, that in no event shall a sale of stock of Genworth by GE or its Affiliates be treated as constituting an Acceleration Event.

(b) The term “Acceleration Fraction” has the meaning specified in Section 9(d)(2).

(c) The term “Acquisition” has the meaning specified in Recital A of this Agreement.

(d) The term “Adjustment Payment” has the meaning specified in Section 13 of this Agreement.

(e) The term “Affiliate” has the meaning specified in Section 1.1 of the Master Agreement.

(f) The term “After-Tax Basis” means that, in determining the amount of the payment necessary to indemnify any party against, or reimburse any party for, Liabilities, the amount of such Liabilities will be determined net of any reduction in Tax derived by the indemnified party as the result of sustaining or paying such Liabilities, and the amount of such indemnification payment will be increased (i.e., “grossed up”) by the amount necessary to satisfy any income or franchise Tax liabilities incurred by the indemnified party as a result of its receipt of, or right to receive, such indemnification payment (as so increased), so that the indemnified party is put in the same net after-Tax economic position (taking into account all amounts payable under Section 9 and all other relevant facts and circumstances) as if it had not incurred such Liabilities, in each case without taking into account any impact on the tax basis that an indemnified party has in its assets.

(g) The term “Agreement” means this Tax Matters Agreement.

(h) The term “Brookfield” means Brookfield Life Insurance Co., Ltd., a Bermuda corporation.

(i) The term “Brookfield Stock Purchase Agreement” means the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 26, 2003, made among Brookfield, GECC, GE Capital Asia Investments, a Delaware corporation, GEFAHI, and American International Reinsurance Company, Ltd., a Bermuda company.

(j) The term “Brookfield Taxes” means the excess (if any) of (1) the actual Tax liability of Brookfield for the Taxable Year ending December 31, 2003, over (2) the sum of (i) the amount of such Tax liability determined without regard to the sale of the GEFA-Japan Shares pursuant to the Brookfield Stock Purchase Agreement, and (ii) $200 million.

(k) The term “Closing” has the meaning specified in Section 3.1 of the Master Agreement.

- (l) The term “Closing Date” has the meaning specified in Section 3.1 of the Master Agreement.

(vvv) The term “Transition Services Agreement” has the meaning specified in Section 1.1 of the Master Agreement.

(www) The term “UFLIC” has the meaning specified in Recital E of this Agreement.

(xxx) Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this Agreement to any Person include the successors and assigns of such Person, and any references in this Agreement to the “GECC Tax Allocation Agreement” will include any successor or supplemental agreement reasonably acceptable to GE entered into in connection with any election made pursuant to Section 2(a)(4).

SECTION 2. Filing of Tax Returns. (a) (1) GE will prepare (or cause to be prepared) and file (or cause to be filed) all necessary GE Consolidated Returns for all Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), all necessary GE Combined Returns for all Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), and each Section 338 Sale Return. GE will pay (i) any Taxes (“GE Consolidated Taxes”) with respect to such GE Consolidated Returns, (ii) any Taxes (“GE Combined Taxes”) with respect to such GE Combined Returns, and (iii) any Transaction Taxes. Genworth will pay all Taxes (other than Transaction Taxes) with respect to each Section 338 Sale Return (other than a GE Consolidated Return or GE Combined Return).

(2) As promptly as reasonably practicable (and, in any event, no later than March 31, 2005), Genworth will provide GE with the necessary information relating to the Genworth Companies for GE to prepare such Tax Returns and to pay such GE Consolidated Taxes, GE Combined Taxes, and Transaction Taxes. Subject to Section 2(a)(4), such information will be prepared by Genworth in a manner consistent with past practice, and will be subject to review, adjustment, and approval by GE, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld.

(3) Subject to Section 2(a)(1), Genworth will have the right to be kept informed of, to consult with GE regarding, and to participate in, preparing and filing any Tax Returns described in Section 2(a)(1) to the extent that they may affect Genworth. Except for any gain, loss, or other item resulting directly from a Transaction, each item on each Section 338 Sale Return (other than a GE Consolidated Return or a GE Combined Return) will be subject to review, adjustment, and approval by Genworth, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld. If Genworth proposes an adjustment to any Genworth item (other than any gain, loss, or other such item resulting directly from a Transaction) on a GE Consolidated Return or a GE Combined Return, and GE unreasonably declines to accept such proposal, then each amount payable pursuant to this Agreement (including Section 5), the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement, the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement, and the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement will be determined as if such proposal had been accepted. For purposes of this Section 2 and Section 6, a failure to accept or to approve is unreasonable only if the proposal is reasonably expected (i) to result in lower aggregate Taxes of GE and Genworth and their Affiliates on a present value basis, and (ii) to have no adverse effect on GE and Genworth and their Affiliates (as determined on a combined basis) under generally accepted accounting principles.

(4) At GE's request, Genworth will cooperate fully, and will cause the Genworth Companies to cooperate fully, in the making of an election under Section 1504(c)(2) of the Code and Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-47 (a "Life/Non-Life Election") with respect to a Taxable Year ending after December 31, 2003, in a timely and valid manner. GE will determine the time and manner for preparing and filing all documents required in connection with any such election, and Genworth will cooperate fully, and will cause Genworth Companies to cooperate fully, in preparing, executing and filing all such documents. Genworth will use its best efforts to obtain any regulatory approvals necessary in connection with such election as soon as practicable after the date hereof.

(b) (1) Except as provided in Section 2(a), Genworth will prepare (or cause to be prepared) and file (or cause to be filed) all necessary United States federal, state, local, and other governmental and foreign Tax Returns with respect to the Genworth Companies for all

Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date). Genworth will pay (or cause to be paid) any Taxes due with respect to such Tax Returns.

(2) Promptly, but no later than 180 days after the Closing Date (and, in any event, no later than 30 days prior to the due date (without extensions) of the relevant Tax Return), GE will provide Genworth with the necessary information relating to UFLIC for Genworth to prepare such Tax Returns and to pay such Taxes. Such information will be prepared in a manner consistent with past practice, and will be subject to review, adjustment, and approval by Genworth, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld.

SECTION 3. Indemnification by GE. (a) (1) Subject to receipt of, and except for, the tax sharing payments required to be made to GE under Section 5, GE will indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis the Genworth Companies, and each other Affiliate of Genworth, from and against, and reimburse each such Person for, any Liabilities with respect to (i) GE Consolidated Taxes for all Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), including any such Liabilities with respect to any liability for such GE Consolidated Taxes pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6, (ii) GE Combined Taxes for all Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), including any such Liabilities with respect to any liability for GE Combined Taxes pursuant to any provision comparable to Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6, (iii) Transaction Taxes, (iv) any interest or Tax penalties incurred by a Genworth Company as a result of, or in connection with, taking a Tax position that such Genworth Company is required to take pursuant to this Agreement (but any such interest will be indemnified under this Section 3 only to the extent that it does not duplicate interest otherwise paid by GE to Genworth under other provisions hereof), and (v) any Brookfield Taxes.

(2) (i) For purposes of the definition of Transaction Taxes in Section 1(tt), the amount of Taxes incurred by any Genworth Company that result from the Transactions that occur in any Taxable Year will be equal to (A) the actual Tax liability of such Genworth Company for such Taxable Year, reduced by (B) the Tax liability of such Genworth Company for such Taxable Year determined as if none of such Transactions had occurred.

(ii) For purposes of Section 3(a)(2)(i), (A) in the case of any Tax governed by Section 5 of this Agreement, the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement, the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement, or the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement, the Tax liability of any Genworth Company that is a member of the GECA Affiliated Group (except as provided in Section 3(a)(2)(ii)(C)) will be deemed to be equal to the liability allocated to such Genworth Company pursuant to the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement, the Tax liability of any Genworth Company that is a party to the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement will be deemed to be equal to the liability allocated to such Genworth Company pursuant to the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement, the Tax liability of any Genworth Company that is a party to the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement will be deemed to be equal to the liability allocated to such Genworth Company pursuant to the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement, and the Tax liability of any other Genworth Company that is a member of the GE Consolidated Group will be deemed to be equal to the liability allocated to such Genworth Company pursuant to Section 5 of this Agreement; (B) in the case of each such Genworth Company, the amount determined under Section 3(a)(2)(i) in respect of Taxes to which Section 3(a)(2)(ii)(A) applies will (as the result of the proviso in Section 5(a) and the second proviso in Section 11) be equal to zero; (C) the federal income Tax liability of GECA for any Taxable Year (other than a Taxable Year for which a Life/Non-Life Election is in effect) will be equal to the excess (if any) of (1) the consolidated federal income Tax liability of the GECA Affiliated Group, over (2) the aggregate amount of such liability allocated to other members of the GECA Affiliated Group pursuant to the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement; and (D) in respect of Florida or Illinois income Tax Returns of Genworth Companies that are insurance companies, the income Tax liability will be decreased in an amount equal to any reduction in Florida or Illinois premium, retaliatory, or similar Tax liability that the Genworth Company obtains or would obtain as a result of the income Tax liability, in each case, the calculation to be made with and without taking into account the Transactions and the Section 338 Elections.

(b) GE will indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis the Genworth Companies and each other Affiliate of Genworth from and against, and reimburse each such Person for, any Liabilities that such Person may at any time suffer or incur, or become subject to, as a result of or in connection with any failure by GE or any Affiliate of GE to perform any of its covenants or agreements under this Agreement.

(c) Genworth will notify GE in writing within 30 days after receipt of any written communication to or by the Genworth Companies or any other Affiliate of Genworth from or with any Taxing Authority concerning Taxes for which indemnification may be claimed from GE pursuant to the provisions of this Section 3. In addition, Genworth will notify GE in writing at least 15 days prior to the date on which Genworth, or any Affiliate of Genworth, intends to make a payment of any Taxes that are indemnifiable by GE pursuant to the provisions of this Section 3. GE will notify Genworth in writing within 30 days after receipt of any written communication to or by GE or any Affiliate of GE from or with any Taxing Authority concerning Taxes owed by any Genworth Company or any Taxes for which indemnification may be claimed from Genworth pursuant to the provisions of Section 4. In addition, GE will notify Genworth in writing at least 15 days prior to the date on which GE, or any Affiliate of GE, intends to make a payment of any Taxes that are indemnifiable by Genworth pursuant to the provisions of Section 4. The failure by a party to notify another pursuant to this Section 3(c) or pursuant to any other provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of any claim to indemnification under this Agreement in the absence of and except to the extent of material prejudice to the indemnifying party.

(d) Indemnification payments under this Section 3 will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after receipt by GE of a written request therefor.

SECTION 4. Indemnification by Genworth. (a) Subject to receipt of, and except for, tax sharing payments from (or on behalf of) UFLIC pursuant to the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement (insofar as such GECA Tax Allocation Agreement remains in effect as to UFLIC pursuant to Section 11), Genworth will indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis GE and each Affiliate of GE from and against, and reimburse each such Person for, any Liabilities (except for any Transaction Taxes, determined, for purposes of this parenthetical exception, without regard to Section 3(a)(2)(ii)(A) and (B), and except for any Liabilities described in Section 3(a)(1)(i), (ii), (iv), or (v)) with respect to (i) United States federal income Taxes of the GECA Affiliated Group for all Taxable Years (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), including any such Liabilities with respect to any liability for such Taxes pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-6, and (ii) United States federal, state, local, or other governmental or foreign income or franchise Taxes imposed on any Genworth Company for any Taxable Year (whether beginning before, on, or after the Closing Date).

(b) Genworth will indemnify and hold harmless on an After-Tax Basis GE and each Affiliate of GE from and against, and reimburse each such Person for, any Liabilities that any such Person may at any time suffer or incur, or become subject to, as a result of or in connection with the failure by Genworth or any Affiliate of Genworth to perform any of its covenants or agreements under this Agreement.

(c) Indemnification payments under this Section 4 will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after receipt by Genworth of a written request therefor.

SECTION 5. Tax Sharing Payments. (a) If any Genworth Company (other than any Genworth Company that is a party to the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement or the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement for such Taxable Year) is included in the GE Consolidated Return for any Taxable Year ending on or after December 31, 2003, then Genworth will make a tax sharing payment to GE (or, notwithstanding Section 7(a), GE will make a tax sharing payment to Genworth) for such Taxable Year determined in a manner consistent with tax sharing practices existing as of the date of this Agreement (as determined in the reasonable discretion of GE); provided, however, that any amount payable pursuant to such existing tax sharing practices will be determined for all purposes of this Section 5 without taking into account any Transaction Taxes (determined for purposes of this proviso without regard to Section 3(a)(2)(ii)(A) and (B)).

(b) Notwithstanding Section 7(a), if any Genworth Company (other than any Genworth Company that was a party to the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement or the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement for such Taxable Year) is included in the GE Consolidated Return for any Taxable Year (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), and if any adjustment is made, as the result of any amended return, audit, or otherwise, to any income, deduction, or other item of such Genworth Company for such Taxable Year, then Genworth will make a payment to GE (or GE will make a payment to Genworth) in accordance with existing tax sharing practices as of the date of this Agreement (as determined in the reasonable discretion of GE). Such payment will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after such adjustment becomes final together with interest at the rate applicable to underpayments or overpayments of Tax, as the case may be, from (but not including) the due date (without extensions) of the GE Consolidated Return for such Taxable Year to (and including) the date such payment is actually made; provided, however, that in the case of any such adjustment for any Taxable Year that results from the carryback of any net operating loss or other Tax Attribute from any subsequent Taxable Year, such payment will be made together with interest at the rate applicable to underpayments or overpayments of Tax, as the case may be, from (but not including) the date on which the relevant Tax Return is filed for such subsequent Taxable Year to (and including) the date such payment is actually made.

(c) Genworth will make estimated payments with respect to all amounts due pursuant to Section 5(a) in a manner consistent with the principles of Section 6655 of the Code. At least three business days prior to the date on which GE intends to file the GE Consolidated Return for such Taxable Year (but in no event prior to the fifth day after Genworth receives notice of such intention), Genworth will pay to GE any excess of (1) the amount due under Section 5(a) in respect of such Genworth Company for such Taxable Year, over (2) the amount of such estimated payments for such Taxable Year, or GE will pay to Genworth an amount equal to any excess of the amount described in subparagraph (2) over the amount described in subparagraph (1). Any such payment will be made in immediately available funds together with interest at the Section 12 Rate from (but not including) the due date (without extensions) of the GE Consolidated Return for such Taxable Year to (and including) the date on which such payment is actually made.

(d) Nothing in this Section 5 will require Genworth to make any payment to GE (or GE to make any payment to Genworth) that would duplicate any amount previously paid in accordance with existing tax sharing practices.

(e) The provisions of Section 5(a), (b), (c), and (d) will apply, mutatis mutandis, with respect to any Genworth Company included in any GE Combined Return.

SECTION 6. Control. (a) Except as provided in Section 6(b), GE will have the exclusive right to file any amended Tax Returns and to control any audit or other administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to GE Consolidated Taxes, GE Combined Taxes, Transaction Taxes and/or the allocation shown on the Final Allocation Schedule, and the portion of any other audit or other administrative or judicial proceeding regarding any other matter that may result in any Tax liability with respect to which GE provides indemnification under this Agreement; provided, however, that (1) GE will not settle any such proceeding in a manner that would materially adversely affect Genworth without the consent of Genworth, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld, and (2) if GE unreasonably fails to accept a proposal by Genworth to file an amended Tax Return, then each amount payable pursuant to this Agreement will be determined as if such proposal had been accepted.

(b) Genworth will have the exclusive right to file any amended Tax Returns and to control any audit or other administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to any Tax liability of Brookfield; provided, however, that (1) Genworth will not settle any such proceeding in a manner that would materially adversely affect GE without the consent of GE, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld, and (2) if Genworth unreasonably fails to accept a proposal by GE to file an amended Tax Return, then each amount payable pursuant to this Agreement will be determined as if such proposal had been accepted.

(c) Subject to Section 6(a), GE will keep Genworth informed of, consult with Genworth regarding, and permit Genworth to participate in, any such filing, audit, or other judicial or administrative proceeding that may affect Genworth or any Affiliate of Genworth.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 6(a) and (b), Genworth will have the exclusive right to control any audit or other administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to the Tax liability of the Genworth Companies.

(e) Subject to Section 6(d), Genworth will keep GE informed of, consult with GE regarding, and permit GE to participate in, any such filing, audit, or other judicial or administrative proceeding that may affect GE or any Affiliate of GE.

SECTION 7. Refunds. (a) (1) GE will be entitled to any refunds (including interest paid therewith) in respect of any GE Consolidated Taxes for any Taxable Year (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), any GE Combined Taxes for any Taxable Year (whether ending before, on, or after the Closing Date), any Transaction Taxes, and any other Tax liability with respect to which GE provides indemnification under this Agreement.

(2) UFLIC will be entitled to any amount payable to UFLIC in respect of any refunds, carrybacks, adjustments, or other items (including interest paid therewith) pursuant to the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement for any Taxable Year.

(b) Except as provided in Section 7(a), Genworth will be entitled to any refunds (including interest paid therewith) in respect of any United States federal, state, local, or other governmental or foreign Tax liability of the Genworth Companies.

SECTION 8 . Section 338 Elections . (a) If GE determines in its sole and absolute discretion that an election will be made under Section 338(g) of the Code, Section 338(h)(10) of the Code, and/or any of the Treasury Regulations under Section 338 with respect to any of the Genworth Companies for which such election may properly be made, and/or that an election will be made under any comparable provision of state, local, or other governmental income or franchise tax law, then GE and Genworth will join in making, or Genworth will make, such election in a timely and valid manner, including by filing any necessary Forms 8023 and 8883 and any necessary attachments and comparable state forms. Subject to Section 8(b), GE will determine the time and manner for preparing and filing all forms and documents required in connection with any such election, and Genworth will cooperate fully in preparing and filing all such forms and documents.

(b) The parties agree that the “aggregate deemed sale price” and “adjusted grossed-up basis” (as such terms are defined in the regulations under Section 338 of the Code) with respect to each Section 338 Election will be determined by GE consistent with the principles of Section 338. Such aggregate deemed sale price and adjusted grossed-up basis will initially be allocated as indicated on the pro forma schedule attached hereto as Schedule A. Schedule A also includes projections of the Tax Benefit Payments to be made on each Schedule B Date under this Agreement (determined without regard to any items shown on Schedule D attached hereto). As soon as practicable after the Closing, but in no event later than ten days prior to the last date on which the first Section 338 Election must be filed, GE will prepare a final tax allocation schedule (the “Final Allocation Schedule”) in a manner consistent with the principles applied and methodologies used in preparing Schedule A (and thus without regard to any items shown on Schedule D attached hereto), but taking into account (1) any difference between the actual fair market value as determined by GE of the Genworth common stock and any other consideration transferred at Closing and the estimated fair market value of such stock and other consideration used in preparing Schedule A, and (2) any difference between the value of any Genworth Asset as finally determined and the estimated value of such Genworth Asset used in preparing Schedule A. GE will consult with Genworth in the preparation of the Final Allocation Schedule, but GE will have the exclusive right, subject to the principles of this paragraph and to Section 16, to make all determinations relating thereto. The Final Allocation Schedule will be attached hereto as Schedule B, and Schedule B will also include projections as of each relevant Schedule B Date of the Tax Benefit Payments to be made under this Agreement (which projections will be prepared in a manner consistent with the principles applied and methodologies used in preparing the projections of such Tax Benefit Payments included in Schedule A). Schedule B will thereafter be adjusted to reflect any inaccuracy of any of the assumptions contained therein, whether as a result of any change in fact or law, audit, amended return, or otherwise; provided, however, that Schedule B will not be adjusted to reflect any inaccuracy or change (i) relating to the assumed adequacy of the amount and character of Genworth's taxable income, (ii) relating to the projected tax rate, (iii) to the extent attributable to Genworth's breach of any covenant hereunder, (iv) relating to any item shown on Schedule D attached hereto, (v) in the tax basis of any asset of any Genworth Company (or any interest deduction) resulting from any payment made pursuant to Section 9(b)(2) or (3) in any Taxable Year, or (vi) in the tax basis of any asset of any Genworth Company resulting from any compensation paid as described in Section 9(a)(1)(ii) in any Taxable Year. If Genworth or any of its Affiliates receives notice that the allocations on Schedule B may be examined, reviewed, or disputed by any Taxing Authority, Genworth will promptly notify GE in writing to that effect. If GE or any of its Affiliates receives notice that the allocations on Schedule B may be examined, reviewed, or disputed by any Taxing Authority, GE will promptly notify Genworth in writing to that effect. The total projected Tax Benefit Payments by Genworth on Schedule B (as originally attached hereto or as adjusted under this Section 8(b)) will not exceed $640 million.

(c) (1) GE and Genworth agree to treat the deemed transfer of insurance contracts pursuant to each such Section 338 Election as a deemed assumption reinsurance transaction for United States federal income tax purposes in accordance with proposed Treas. Reg. § 1.338-11 (or any successor proposed or final regulations).

(2) If the combined federal income tax liability of GE and its Affiliates and Genworth and its Affiliates is likely (in the reasonable judgment of GE) to be reduced as the result of any election under Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(g) with respect to any Reinsurance Transaction (including any novation pursuant thereto) or any deemed assumption reinsurance transaction described in Section 8(c), then GE and Genworth will make (or cause to be made) any such election. Any such election will be made by executing (or causing to be executed) an Election Statement substantially in the form attached hereto as Annex A (in the case of any Reinsurance Transaction) or Annex B (in the case of any deemed assumption reinsurance transaction) prior to the earliest due date of any federal income tax return to which a schedule must be attached pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(g)(8)(ii) in respect of such election (or on such earlier date as may be requested by GE or Genworth). The parties will treat any such Election Statements as addenda to the relevant reinsurance agreements (in the case of any Reinsurance Transactions) or to this Agreement (in the case of any deemed reinsurance transactions). No such election will be revoked without the express prior written consent of both GE and Genworth.

(3) Genworth will prepare (or cause to be prepared), subject to review, adjustment, and approval by GE, a schedule as described in Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(g)(8)(ii) in respect of each such election, and each of Genworth (as to the Genworth Companies) and GE (as to itself and its Affiliates) will attach (or cause to be attached) such schedule in duly executed form to the applicable United States federal income Tax Return for the first Taxable Year ending after the applicable election becomes effective.

(d) From and after the time that Genworth is no longer 100%-owned by GE (or its Affiliates), Genworth will, and will cause each of the Subsidiaries of Genworth to, comply with each of the representations made in the Submissions or stated in the Ruling, extend the statute of limitations to the extent requested as described in the caveat in the Ruling, and otherwise comply with and conform to all applicable conditions of the Ruling; provided that this Section 8(d) will not make Genworth responsible for any action or omission of any Person other than Genworth or a Subsidiary of Genworth.

SECTION 9 . Tax Benefit Payments. (a) (1) Not later than 30 days after the due date (with extensions) for the filing by any Genworth Company of any United States federal, Florida, or Illinois income Tax Return (other than an estimated return), or any consolidated, combined, or other similar federal, Florida, or Illinois income Tax Return (other than an estimated return) that includes any Genworth Company, for any Taxable Year ending after the Closing Date and on or before the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, Genworth will determine (subject to review, adjustment, and approval by GE, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld) the hypothetical Tax liability that would have been shown on such return if each of the assumptions set forth below is made (solely for purposes of such hypothetical determination).

(i) None of the elections contemplated by Section 8 is made.

(ii) No deduction is allowed for compensation (including without limitation any deduction for amounts treated as compensation under Treas. Reg. § 1.83-7) payable by GE or any Affiliate of GE (other than a Genworth Company) to any employee of any Genworth Company in cash, stock or other property.

(iii) In respect of Florida or Illinois income Tax Returns of any Genworth Company that is an insurance company, the hypothetical income Tax liability for any Taxable Year will be decreased in an amount equal to any reduction in Florida or Illinois premium, retaliatory, or similar Tax liability that such Genworth Company would have obtained at any time as a result of such hypothetical income Tax liability for such Taxable Year.

(iv) In respect of any Florida or Illinois income Tax Returns of Genworth Companies that are not insurance companies, the hypothetical income Tax liability will be deemed to be equal to zero.

(2) (i) For each Taxable Year described in Section 9(a)(1), Genworth will make one or more payments (payments made by Genworth under this Section 9(a), Section 9(d), or Section 9(e) being hereinafter referred to as “Tax Benefit Payments”) to GEFAHI in an aggregate amount equal to 80 percent of the excess (if any) of (A) the hypothetical Tax liability (as determined under Section 9(a)(1)) that would have been shown on each Tax Return to which Section 9(a)(1) applies, over (B) the actual Tax liability shown on such Tax Return; provided, however, that if the amount determined under clause (B) exceeds the amount determined under clause (A), then GEFAHI will make a payment equal to 80 percent of the amount of such excess to Genworth, and any such payments to Genworth, together with any payments to Genworth under Section 9(d) or Section 9(e), will be treated as negative Tax Benefit Payments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the total amount of all Tax Benefit Payments (less negative Tax Benefit Payments) pursuant to this Agreement (determined without regard to any payment made in respect of an increase or decrease in Schedule B pursuant to Section 9(c)(1) or (2)) will not at any time exceed $640 million. The amount of any Tax Benefit Payments not made by reason of the preceding sentence (together with interest thereon at the Section 12 Rate) will be offset against and reduce (but not below zero) the amount of any subsequent negative Tax Benefit Payments that otherwise would be required to be made pursuant to this Agreement.

(ii) For purposes of this Agreement, any right to receive a refund of Tax or tax sharing payment will be treated as a negative Tax liability, the excess of a positive Tax liability over a negative Tax liability will be equal to the sum of the absolute values of such Tax liabilities, and the excess of a negative Tax liability having a smaller absolute value over a negative Tax liability having a larger absolute value will be equal to the difference in the absolute values of such Tax liabilities.

(iii) Any Tax Benefit Payments pursuant to Section 9(a)(2)(i) will be made by Genworth to GEFAHI (or any negative Tax Benefit Payments pursuant to Section 9(a)(2)(i) will be made by GEFAHI to Genworth) in accordance with clauses (A) through (F) set forth below.

(A) Except for any payment deferred under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(C), Tax Benefit Payments will be made by Genworth on each Schedule B Date during the first Taxable Year ending after the Closing Date and the first Taxable Year ending after the IPO Date as shown in Schedule C.

(B) Except for any payment deferred under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(C), for each Taxable Year (other than any Taxable Year described in Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(A)) beginning prior to the Final Date, a positive or negative Tax Benefit Payment will be made on each Schedule B Date during such then-current Taxable Year equal to 25% of the Tax Benefit Payment determined under Section 9(a)(2)(i) for the prior Taxable Year, multiplied in the case of a positive Tax Benefit Payment by a fraction whose numerator is equal to (1) the total of the amounts shown on Schedule B with respect to such then-current Taxable Year, and whose denominator is equal to (2) the total of the amounts shown on Schedule B with respect to such prior Taxable Year; provided, however, that if such prior Taxable Year includes fewer than twelve full calendar months, the denominator of such fraction will be multiplied by twelve, and the numerator will be multiplied by the number of complete months in such prior Taxable Year.

(C) If Genworth is otherwise required to make any Tax Benefit Payment on any Schedule B Date during any Taxable Year to GEFAHI pursuant to Section 9(a)(2)(iii), then Genworth may (in its sole and absolute discretion) elect to defer such payment. If Genworth elects to defer any Tax Benefit Payment pursuant to this Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(C), then (1) such Tax Benefit Payment will be made on or before the due date (without extensions) for such Taxable Year together with interest at the rate specified in Section 12, compounded on a daily basis, from (but not including) such Schedule B Date to (and including) the date of payment, and (2) such Tax Benefit Payment will be deemed (for all other purposes of this Section 9) to have been made on such Schedule B Date.

(D) If (1) any amount payable by Genworth to GEFAHI under Section 9(a)(2)(i) for any Taxable Year exceeds (2) the aggregate amount of the Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth to GEFAHI for such Taxable Year under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(A), (B), or (C) (less the aggregate amount of the negative Tax Benefit Payments made by GEFAHI to Genworth for such Taxable Year under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(B)), then Genworth will make a Tax Benefit Payment equal to the amount of such excess to GEFAHI; provided, however, that if the amount determined under subclause (2) exceeds the amount determined under subclause (1), then GEFAHI will make a payment equal to the amount of such excess to Genworth, and such payment to Genworth will be treated as a negative Tax Benefit Payment.

(E) If (1) any amount payable by GEFAHI to Genworth under Section 9(a)(2)(i) for any Taxable Year, exceeds (2) the aggregate amount of the negative Tax Benefit Payments made by GEFAHI to Genworth for such Taxable Year under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(B) (less the aggregate amount of the Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth to GEFAHI for such Taxable Year under Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(A), (B), or (C)), then GEFAHI will make a negative Tax Benefit Payment equal to the amount of such excess to Genworth; provided, however, that if the amount determined under subclause (2) exceeds the amount determined under subclause (1), then Genworth will make a Tax Benefit Payment equal to the amount of such excess to GEFAHI.

(F) Any positive or negative Tax Benefit Payment pursuant to Section 9(a)(2)(iii)(D) or (E) will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after the due date (with extensions) for the Genworth federal income Tax Return for the relevant Taxable Year together with interest from the date that is midway between the first and final Schedule B Dates of such Taxable Year to the date of payment.

(3) For purposes of Section 9(a)(2)(i), actual Tax liability will be determined by taking into account all relevant facts and circumstances including, for avoidance of doubt, any payments made pursuant to this Section 9 or any other provision of this Agreement; provided, however, that (i) any net Tax benefit for such Taxable Year resulting from the items shown in Schedule D attached hereto will not be taken into account; (ii) any change in the tax basis of any asset of any Genworth Company (or any interest deduction) resulting from any payments made under Section 9(b)(2) or (3) for any Taxable Year will not be taken into account; (iii) any change in the tax basis of any asset of any Genworth Company resulting from any compensation paid as described in Section 9(a)(1)(ii) in any Taxable Year will not be taken into account; and (iv) in respect of Florida or Illinois income Tax Returns of any Genworth Company that is an insurance company, the actual income Tax liability for any Taxable Year will be decreased in an amount equal to any actual reduction in Florida or Illinois premium, retaliatory, or similar Tax liability that such Genworth Company obtains at any time as a result of its actual income Tax liability for such Taxable Year, and (v) in respect of any Florida or Illinois income Tax Returns of Genworth Companies that are not insurance companies, the actual income Tax liability will be deemed to be equal to zero.

(4) If (i) the cumulative amount of the projected Tax Benefit Payments shown on Schedule B (without taking into account any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 9(c)) to and including any Schedule B Date, exceeds (ii) the cumulative amount of the actual Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth (less the cumulative amount of any actual negative Tax Benefit Payments made by GEFAHI) as of such date (determined without regard to any payment made pursuant to this Section 9(a)(4) on such date), then Genworth may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make additional Tax Benefit Payments equal to all or any portion of such excess on such date.

(b) (1) For purposes of Section 9(a)(3), the net Tax benefit for any Taxable Year resulting from the items shown on Schedule D will be equal to the excess (if any) of (i) the Tax liability that would have been shown on each Tax Return for such Taxable Year determined without regard to any item shown in Schedule D (and without regard to any hypothetical assumption described in Section 9(a)(1) (i)), over (ii) the sum of (x) the actual Tax liability shown on such Tax Return (determined as provided in Section 9(a)(3) without regard to subdivision (i) thereof), and (y) the costs reasonably incurred by Genworth in realizing such net Tax benefit.

(2) If, for any Taxable Year ending on or prior to the Final Date, the amount determined under Section 9(b)(1)(i) exceeds the amount determined under Section 9(b)(1)(ii), then Genworth will pay an amount equal to 50 percent of such excess to GEFAHI.

(3) If, for any Taxable Year ending on or prior to the Final Date, the amount determined under Section 9(b)(1)(ii) exceeds the amount determined under Section 9(b)(1)(i), then GEFAHI will pay an amount equal to 50 percent of such excess to Genworth.

(4) Any payment made pursuant to this Section 9(b) will not be considered a “Tax Benefit Payment” or a “negative Tax Benefit Payment” for any purpose of this Agreement. Any such payment will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after such Tax Return is filed and will be treated as an adjustment to the consideration paid for the Genworth Assets pursuant to Section 2 of the Master Agreement; provided, however, that a portion of any such payment equal to the excess of (i) the amount of such payment, over (ii) the present value of such payment (determined as of the Closing Date by using the Section 12 Rate as the discount rate), or such larger portion as may be required by Section 483, Section 1274, or any other provision of the Code, will be treated as interest.

(c) (1) If (i) the cumulative amount of the projected Tax Benefit Payments shown on Schedule B (taking into account any increase or decrease pursuant to this Section 9(c)) to and including any Schedule B Date exceeds (ii) the sum of (A) the cumulative amount of the actual Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth pursuant to Section 9(a) and Section 9(d) (less the cumulative amount of any actual negative Tax Benefit Payments made by GEFAHI pursuant to Section 9(a)) as of such date, plus (B) the amount of any additional Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth pursuant to Section 9(a)(4) on or before such date, then the amount shown on Schedule B for the next Schedule B Date will be increased by an amount equal to interest on such excess at the rate specified in Section 12, compounded on a daily basis, from (but not including) the Schedule B Date for which such excess has been determined to (and including) the next subsequent Schedule B Date. Any such increase in the amount shown in Schedule B will not be taken into account for purposes of the last sentence of Section 8(b).

(2) If (i) the amount specified in Section 9(c)(1)(ii) as of any Schedule B Date exceeds (ii) the amount specified in Section 9(c)(1)(i) for such date, then the amount shown on Schedule B for the next Schedule B Date will be decreased by an amount equal to interest on such excess at the rate specified in Section 12, compounded on a daily basis from (but not including) the Schedule B Date for which such excess has been determined to and including the next subsequent Schedule B Date. Any such decrease in the amount shown in Schedule B will not be taken into account for purposes of the last sentence of Section 8(b).

(3) (i) Genworth will maintain (subject to review, adjustment, and approval by GE, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld) a running balance of the aggregate net increase or decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to this Section 9(c).

(ii) If there is an aggregate net increase in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to this Section 9(c) as of any Schedule B Date (determined without regard to any payment made by Genworth to GEFAHI on such Schedule B Date pursuant to this Section 9(c)(3)(ii)), then Genworth may, in its sole and absolute discretion, make an additional payment to GEFAHI on such Schedule B Date in an amount equal to all or any portion of such aggregate net increase, and the amount shown on Schedule B for such Schedule B Date will be decreased by the amount of such payment. Any such decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B will not be taken into account for purposes of the last sentence of Section 8(b).

(iii) Genworth will pay to GEFAHI an amount equal to any aggregate net increase in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to this Section 9(c) as of the Final Date, or GEFAHI will pay Genworth an amount equal to any aggregate net decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to this Section 9(c) as of the Final Date. Any such payment will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after such Final Date and will be made together with interest at the Section 12 Rate from (but not including) the Final Date to (and including) the date on which such payment is made.

(iv) If Section 9(d)(1) applies in respect of an Acceleration Event, then Genworth will make a payment to GEFAHI equal to any aggregate net increase in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to Section 9(c) as of the last Schedule B Date on or prior to the date of the Acceleration Event, or GEFAHI will make a payment to Genworth equal to any aggregate net decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to Section 9(c) as of such date. Any such payment will be made by Genworth to GEFAHI (or by GEFAHI to Genworth) in immediately available funds on or before the first Schedule B Date subsequent to the Acceleration Event.

(v) If Section 9(d)(2) or (3) applies in respect of an Acceleration Event, then Genworth will make a payment to GEFAHI equal to the Acceleration Fraction multiplied by any aggregate net increase in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to Section 9(c) as of the last Schedule B Date on or prior to the date of the Acceleration Event, or GEFAHI will make a payment to Genworth equal to the Acceleration Fraction multiplied by any aggregate net decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B pursuant to Section 9(c) as of such date. Any such payment will be made by Genworth to GEFAHI (or by GEFAHI to Genworth) in immediately available funds on or before the first Schedule B Date subsequent to the Acceleration Event, and the amount shown on Schedule B for such Schedule B Date will be decreased by the amount of such payment. Any such decrease in the amount shown on Schedule B will not be taken into account for purposes of the last sentence of Section 8(b).

(vi) Any payment made pursuant to this Section 9(c)(3) will not be considered a “Tax Benefit Payment” for any purpose of this Agreement. Any such payment will be treated as a payment with respect to the debt instrument described in Section 9(f).

(d) (1) Subject to Section 9(d)(5), if there is an Acceleration Event of Genworth, then Genworth will make a Tax Benefit Payment to GEFAHI equal to the total present value of all amounts shown on Schedule B (determined without regard to any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 9(c)) for each Schedule B Date subsequent to the date of the Acceleration Event.

(2) Subject to Section 9(d)(5), if there is an Acceleration Event of any Genworth Company other than Genworth, then (except as provided in Section 9(d)(3)) Genworth will make a Tax Benefit Payment to GEFAHI equal to the product of (i) the amount determined pursuant to Section 9(d)(1), and (ii) a fraction (the “Acceleration Fraction”) whose numerator is equal the present value of all amounts shown on Schedule B (determined without regard to any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 9(c)) attributable to such Genworth Company for each Schedule B Date subsequent to the date of the Acceleration Event, and whose denominator is equal to the total present value of all amounts shown on Schedule B (determined without regard to any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 9(c)) for all such subsequent Schedule B Dates.

(3) If there is an Acceleration Event of any Genworth Company other than Genworth, then Section 9(d)(2) will not apply if all of the following conditions are satisfied prior to the first Schedule B Date subsequent to such Acceleration Event: (i) Genworth notifies GE in writing that it has irrevocably elected to have this Section 9(d)(3) apply; (ii) such Genworth Company (or any Person that has acquired Control of such Genworth Company) agrees in writing to become obligated to pay the Acceleration Fraction of all amounts shown on Schedule B (determined without regard to any increase or decrease under Section 9(c)) for each Schedule B Date subsequent to the Acceleration Date; (iii) such agreement is in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to GE; and (iv) no credit rating of such Genworth Company (or other Person becoming obligated pursuant to Section 9(d)(3)(ii)) is less than the corresponding credit rating of Genworth at the time of such Acceleration Event, or the credit standing of such Genworth Company (or other Person) is otherwise acceptable to GE.

(4) If there has been an Acceleration Event of any Genworth Company, then (for all purposes of this Agreement) the Taxable Year of such Genworth Company will be deemed to end on the date of such Acceleration Event, and, if the payment described in Section 9(d)(1) or 9(d)(2) is made or the conditions of Section 9(d)(3) are satisfied, Section 9(a)(1) will not apply to any Tax Return filed by such Genworth Company for any Taxable Year beginning after the date of such Acceleration Event. For purposes of this Section 9(d), present value will be determined as of the date of the Acceleration Event by using the interest rate specified in Section 12, compounded on a daily basis, as the discount rate. Any Tax Benefit Payment (or negative Tax Benefit Payment) pursuant to this Section 9(d) will be made by Genworth to GEFAHI

(or by GEFAHI to Genworth) in immediately available funds on or before the first Schedule B Date subsequent to such Acceleration Event.

(5) The payments described in Sections 9(d)(1) and 9(d)(2) shall not be made without approval of the domiciliary state insurance regulatory authorities of each of the U.S. insurance subsidiaries of Genworth, which approvals shall be within the sole discretion of such regulatory authorities. Genworth shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain such regulatory approvals.

(e) If as of the Final Date (1) the cumulative amount of all projected Tax Benefit Payments shown on Schedule B (without taking into account any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 9(c)) exceeds (2) the cumulative amount of the actual Tax Benefit Payments made by Genworth pursuant to Section 9(a) and (d) (less the cumulative amount of the actual negative Tax Benefit Payments made by GEFAHI pursuant to Section 9(a) and (d)), then Genworth will make a Tax Benefit Payment equal to the amount of such excess to GEFAHI; provided, however, that if the amount determined under clause (2) of this Section 9(e) exceeds the amount determined under clause (1) of this Section 9(e), then GEFAHI will make a negative Tax Benefit Payment equal to the amount of such excess to Genworth. Any such Tax Benefit Payment will be made by Genworth to GEFAHI (or by GEFAHI to Genworth) in immediately available funds within 30 days after such Final Date and will be made together with interest at the Section 12 Rate from (but not including) the last Schedule B Date to (and including) the date on which such Tax Benefit Payment is made.

(f) The Tax Benefit Payments to be made pursuant to this Section 9, together with any other payments to be made by Genworth pursuant to Section 9(c), will be treated for income tax purposes, including on Schedule A and Schedule B (without duplication), as a debt instrument described in Treas. Reg. § 1.1272-1(c)(2) issued to GEFAHI as part of the consideration paid for the Genworth Assets pursuant to Section 2 of the Master Agreement. Such debt instrument will be treated as bearing interest at the Section 12 Rate, or at such greater rate as may be required by Section 1274 or any other provision of the Code.

(g) For each Taxable Year beginning after the Closing Date and prior to the Final Date, the Chief Financial Officer of Genworth will provide to GEFAHI a certification to the effect that all computations made pursuant to this Agreement have been made without regard to any transaction a significant purpose of which is to reduce or defer any amount payable by Genworth pursuant to this Section 9. If the Chief Financial Officer of Genworth determines that it is necessary to adjust any computations made pursuant to this Agreement in order to provide the certification required by the preceding sentence, then such Chief Financial Officer will be permitted to make such adjustments in a manner reasonably acceptable to GE.

SECTION 10 . Subordination . Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any Tax Benefit Payment (together with any interest thereon or other Schedule B amount due) required to be made by Genworth to GEFAHI pursuant to Section 9 of this Agreement will rank subordinate and junior in right of payment to any principal, interest, or other amounts due and payable in respect of any debt or other liabilities of Genworth (collectively, the “Outstanding Obligations”). Accordingly, in the event that Genworth has insufficient funds on the date any Tax Benefit Payment (together with any interest thereon or other Schedule B amount due) is required to be made hereunder to pay in full both (a) the Outstanding Obligations due and payable on such date and (b) the Tax Benefit Payment due and payable on such date (together with any interest thereon or other Schedule B amount due), Genworth may forego payment of such Tax Benefit Payment (together with any interest thereon or other Schedule B amount due) on such date, but only to the extent necessary to pay in full the Outstanding Obligations due and payable on such date; provided, however, that the amount of any Tax Benefit Payment (together with any interest thereon or other Schedule B amount due) foregone pursuant to this sentence will carry over and be payable by Genworth to GEFAHI (together with any interest thereon) at such time as, and to the extent that, Genworth’s available funds exceed the amount necessary to pay in full its Outstanding Obligations due and payable at such time.

SECTION 11 . Other Tax Sharing Agreements . All rights and obligations of GE and its Affiliates (with respect to the Genworth Companies) and of the Genworth Companies (with respect to GE and its Affiliates) to make or receive any Tax sharing payments (other than pursuant to this Agreement) will terminate immediately prior to Closing; provided , however , that notwithstanding Section 7(a)(1), (a) the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement will remain in effect as to UFLIC pursuant to Section 5 of such Agreement for each Taxable Year in which UFLIC was included in the GECA Affiliated Group, (b) the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement will remain in effect as to each Genworth Company that was a party thereto pursuant to Section 5 of such Agreement for each Taxable Year in which such Genworth Company was included in the GE Affiliated Group, (c) the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement will remain in effect as to each Genworth Company that was a party thereto pursuant to Section VII of such Agreement for each Taxable Year in which such Genworth Company was included in the GE Affiliated Group; and provided , further , that the amount payable by or to any Genworth Company pursuant to the GECA Tax Allocation Agreement, the GEFAHI Tax Allocation Agreement, or the GECC Tax Allocation Agreement will be determined without taking into account any Transaction Taxes (determined for purposes of this proviso without regard to Section 3(a)(2)(ii)(A) and (B)).

SECTION 12 . Interest . In the event that any payment required to be made under this Agreement is made after the date on which such payment is due, interest will accrue on the amount of such payment from (but not including) the due date of such payment to (and including) the date such payment is actually made at [specify rate equal to Genworth's cost funds at Closing determined with reference to compounding on a daily basis], compounded on a daily basis; provided, however, that no interest will accrue pursuant to this Section 12 to the extent that such interest would be duplicative of interest payable under Section 9(b).

SECTION 13. Adjustments. (a) If any adjustment (other than any adjustment to which Section 5(b) applies) is made to any income, deduction, gain, loss, credit, or other item, as the result of any amended return, audit, or otherwise, and the amount of any payment required under this Agreement would have been different if such adjustment had been made at the time the amount of such payment was determined, then GE or GEFAHI will make a payment to Genworth equal to the amount of any such difference that was detrimental to Genworth or its Affiliates (or Genworth will pay GE or GEFAHI the amount of any such difference that was detrimental to GE or GEFAHI or its Affiliates). Any such payment (an "Adjustment Payment") will be made within 30 days after such adjustment becomes final together with interest at the Section 12 Rate from (but not including) the date of the original payment to (and including) the date such payment is actually made; provided, however, that in the case of any such adjustment for any Taxable Year that results from the carryback of any net operating loss or other Tax Attribute from any subsequent Taxable Year, such Adjustment Payment will be made together with interest at the Section 12 Rate from (but not including) the date on which the relevant Tax Return is filed for such subsequent Taxable Year to (and including) the date such payment is actually made. Any Adjustment Payment (exclusive of interest) which represents an adjustment to a prior Tax Benefit Payment or negative Tax Benefit Payment will be treated as a Tax Benefit Payment or negative Tax Benefit Payment, as the case may be.

(b) If GE makes a Life/Non-Life Election for any Taxable Year beginning on or prior to January 1, 2004, then GEFAHI will pay to Genworth an amount equal to (1) the excess (if any) of the actual net aggregate Tax liability incurred by the Genworth Companies for such Taxable Year and each subsequent Taxable Year ending on or before the Final Date, over (2) the amount of such aggregate net Tax liability incurred by the Genworth Companies determined as if such Life/Non-Life Election had not been made; provided, however, that if the amount determined under subparagraph (2) exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph (1), then Genworth will make a payment equal to the amount of such excess to GEFAHI. Any amount payable under this Section 13(b) in respect of any Taxable Year will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after the date on which the Genworth federal income tax return is filed for such Taxable Year.

(c) If (1) the amount determined with respect to any Genworth Company under Section 3(a)(2)(i)(B) exceeds (2) the amount determined with respect to such Genworth Company under Section 3(a)(2)(i)(A), then Genworth will pay an amount equal to such excess to GE. Any amount payable under this Section 13(c) will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after the date on which the Genworth federal income tax is filed for the Taxable Year in which the Closing occurs.

(d) If (1) the amount determined under Section 1(j)(2), exceeds (2) the amount determined under Section 1(j)(1), then Genworth will pay an amount equal to such excess to GE. Any amount payable under this Section 13(d) will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after the date on which the Brookfield federal income Tax return is filed for the Taxable Year ending December 31, 2003.

(e) If (1) any Genworth Company recognizes any loss on a Transaction, and (2) the loss is deferred under Section 267(f) of the Code (other than any such loss to which GE or any Affiliate of GE (other than any Genworth Company) succeeds under Section 381 of the Code), then Genworth will pay an amount equal to 35% of such loss to GE. Any amount payable under this Section 13(e) will be made in immediately available funds within 30 days after the date on which the Genworth federal income Tax return is filed for the Taxable Year in which such Transaction occurs. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13(e) will not apply to any loss recognized pursuant to a Reinsurance Transaction.

(f) Any amount paid pursuant to Section 13(b), (c), (d), or (e) will be treated as an adjustment to the consideration paid for the Genworth Assets pursuant to Section 2 of the Master Agreement; provided, however, that a portion of any such payment equal to the excess of (1) the amount of such payment, over (2) the present value of such payment (determined as of the Closing Date by using the Section 12 Rate as the discount rate), or such larger portion as may be required by Section 483, Section 1274, or any other provision of the Code, will be treated as interest.

SECTION 14 . No Duplicative Payments . No duplicative payment of interest or any other amount will be required under this Agreement.

SECTION 15 . Tax Cooperation . (a) Under this Agreement and the Transition Services Agreement, GE and Genworth will furnish or cause to be furnished to each other, upon request, as promptly as practicable, such information and assistance relating to the Genworth Companies and the Genworth Business (including access to books and records) as is reasonably necessary for the filing of all Tax Returns, the making of any election related to Taxes, the preparation for any audit by any Taxing Authority, and the prosecution or defense of any claim, suit or proceeding relating to any Taxes or Tax Return. GE and Genworth will cooperate with each other in the conduct of any audit or other proceeding related to Taxes and all other Tax matters relating to the Genworth Companies and the Genworth Business, and each will execute and deliver such powers of attorney and other documents as are necessary to carry out the intent of this Agreement. The party requesting cooperation under this Section 15 will reimburse the other party for any actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred in furnishing such cooperation, except that the amount of reimbursement for any services governed by the Transition Services Agreement for the time period specified therein shall be determined by that agreement. All Tax records relating to the Genworth Business will be retained for at least seven (7) years after such records are created.

(b) Pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, for the time period specified therein, the GE Parties will provide to Genworth and GNA certain tax consulting, tax compliance, tax related-software, and other tax-related services (the “GE Tax Services”) as set forth in Schedule A of the Transition Services Agreement. Further, for the time period specified in the Transition Services Agreement and as set forth in Schedule B of the Transition Services Agreement, Genworth and GNA will provide to the GE Parties certain tax-related services (the “Genworth Tax Services”). This Agreement incorporates the provisions of the Transition Services Agreement relating to the GE Tax Services and the Genworth Tax Services. Any dispute relating to the performance of the GE Tax Services and the Genworth Tax Services or the fees payable for such services will be governed by the provisions of the Transition Services Agreement.

(c) Unless there has previously been a Final Determination to the contrary, neither Genworth nor any of its Affiliates will take any position with respect to Taxes (including on any Tax Return or in connection with any Tax controversy) for any Taxable Year that is inconsistent with (1) any allocation shown on the Final Allocation Schedule, (2) any election made pursuant to Section 8, or (3) the treatment of any payment made pursuant to Section 9 as provided in this Agreement; provided, however, that Genworth will not be required to take any position if (A) Genworth obtains, at its sole cost and expense, an opinion of nationally recognized tax counsel mutually acceptable to Genworth and GE, to the effect that there is no “substantial authority,” within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code, for such position, and (B) such opinion is reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to GE.

(d) GE and Genworth will promptly provide to the other a copy of any written communication from or with the IRS or any other Taxing Authority that relates in any respect to the treatment of the Acquisition or any related transaction (including any communication that relates to the allocation shown on the Final Allocation Schedule).

SECTION 16 . Resolution of Disputes . If any dispute arises between the parties hereto with respect to this Agreement, then, except as provided in Section 15(b), such dispute will be finally resolved by arbitration in which the sole arbitrator will be a person or firm chosen mutually by GE and Genworth. If GE and Genworth are unable to agree on such a person or firm, then each will designate one person and the two persons so designated will choose a third person or firm that will be the sole arbitrator. The parties expressly waive and forego any right to (a) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced, or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (b) trial by jury. The parties agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any arbitration within 30 days of the initiation of arbitration. Any arbitration proceeding will take place in New York, New York unless the parties mutually agree to another location. The parties agree that no appeal will lie from the arbitration award, that they will not challenge the award for any reason in any court, and that the arbitration award will have the force and effect of a judgment as if a court having jurisdiction thereof has entered judgment on the award. The arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16. The parties expressly agree that this dispute resolution procedure governs disputes arising under this Agreement and that it supersedes dispute resolution provisions contained in any other Transaction Documents, including the Master Agreement.

SECTION 17 . Survival. Except to the extent inconsistent with applicable law, the indemnity and payment obligations set forth in this Agreement will survive until the date which is six months after the date of expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (including any extensions thereof). The right to indemnification with respect to claims of which notice was given prior to the expiration of the applicable survival period will survive such expiration until such claim is finally resolved and any obligations with respect thereto are fully satisfied.

SECTION 18 . Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be waived, amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by the GE Parties and Genworth.

SECTION 19 . Transfer and Similar Taxes. All stock transfer, real estate transfer, documentary, stamp, recording, ad valorem, and other similar Taxes arising out of, in connection with or attributable to the Transactions and incurred by any of the parties thereto will be borne and paid by GE. Genworth will use its reasonable best efforts to secure, and to cause its Affiliates to secure, any available exemptions from any such Taxes and to cooperate with GE in providing any information and documentation that may be necessary to obtain such exemptions.

SECTION 20 . Additional Provisions. Provisions of the Master Agreement that apply (mutatis mutandis) to this Agreement include only Sections 8.1 (Corporate Power; Fiduciary Duty); 8.2 (Governing Law); 8.3 (Survival of Covenants); 8.5 (Notices); 8.6 (Severability); 8.7 (Entire Agreement); 8.8 (Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries); 8.9 (Public Announcements); 8.10 (Amendment); 8.11 (Rules of Construction); and 8.12 (Counterparts).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been duly executed on the day and year first above written.

ELECTION STATEMENT

This Election Statement is made this day of , 2003, among , a corporation (the “Ceding Company”), and , a corporation (“Reinsurer”).

Unless otherwise indicated, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meaning as in the [Assumption/Indemnity] Reinsurance Agreement by and between the Ceding Company and Reinsurer dated as of , 2003 (the “Reinsurance Agreement”).

1. The Ceding Company and Reinsurer hereby make a joint election under Treasury Regulation § 1.848-2(g)(8) (the “Joint Election”) with respect to the Reinsurance Agreement.
 2. The Ceding Company and Reinsurer hereby agree to include this Election Statement as an Addendum to the Reinsurance Agreement.
 3. The Ceding Company and Reinsurer hereby agree that the party with net positive consideration for the Reinsurance Agreement for each Taxable Year will capitalize specified policy acquisition expenses with respect to the Reinsurance Agreement without regard to the general deductions limitation of Section 848(c)(1) of the Code.
 4. The Ceding Company and Reinsurer hereby agree to exchange all necessary information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under the Reinsurance Agreement each year to ensure consistency.

5. The Ceding Company will submit a schedule to Reinsurer by [] of each year, of its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding calendar year. This schedule of calculations will be accompanied by a statement signed by one of the Ceding Company's officers stating that such net consideration will be reported on any United States federal income Tax Return filed with respect to the Ceding Company for the preceding calendar year.

6. Reinsurer may contest such calculation by providing an alternative calculation to the Ceding Company by []. If Reinsurer does not so notify the Ceding Company the net consideration as determined by the Ceding Company will be reported on any United States federal income Tax Returns filed with respect to the Ceding Company or Reinsurer for the preceding calendar year.

7. If Reinsurer contests the Ceding Company's calculation of the net consideration, the parties will act in good faith to reach an agreement as to the correct amount by [date]. If the Ceding Company and Reinsurer reach agreement on an amount of the net consideration, such amount shall be reported on any United States federal income Tax Returns filed with respect to the Ceding Company or Reinsurer for the previous calendar year.

8. The Ceding Company and Reinsurer hereby agree that the first Taxable Year for which the Joint Election is effective is the Taxable Year ending [December 31, 2004].

9. Reinsurer represents and warrants that it is subject to United States taxation within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.848-2(h).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Election Statement has been duly executed on the day and year first above written.

ELECTION STATEMENT

This Election Statement is made this day of , 2004 between GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEFAHI”), and , a corporation (the “Company”).

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Master Agreement dated as of , 2003 among the General Electric Company, a New York corporation (“GE”), General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“GECC”), GEI, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEI”), GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“GEFAHI”, and collectively with GE, GEI, and GECC, the “GE Parties”), and Genworth Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Genworth”) (the “Master Agreement”), Genworth has agreed, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Master Agreement, to acquire (the “Acquisition”), directly or indirectly, all the outstanding shares of stock of certain subsidiaries of GE (such subsidiaries, together with Genworth, the “Genworth Companies”) in a transaction that will constitute (as to certain of such Genworth Companies) a qualified stock purchase within the meaning of Section 338(d)(3) of the Code.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Tax Matters Agreement dated as of among the GE Parties and Genworth (the “GE-Genworth TMA”), GE and Genworth have agreed to make a Section 338(h)(10) election with respect to the Company in connection with the Acquisition (the “Section 338 Election”).

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Section 338 Election, the Company as of the Closing Date (“Old Company”) was treated as if it transferred all of its assets and liabilities, including its insurance contracts, to a new Company and then liquidated.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the GE-Genworth TMA, GE and Genworth have agreed to treat the deemed transfer of insurance contracts pursuant to the Section 338 Election as a deemed assumption reinsurance transaction (the “Deemed Reinsurance Transaction”) for federal income tax purposes in accordance with proposed Treas. Reg. § 1.338-11.

WHEREAS, GEFAHI, on behalf of Old Company, and Company wish to make an election under Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(g) requiring the Company to capitalize specified policy acquisition expenses with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Transaction without regard to the general deductions limitation (the “Section 848 Election”).

WHEREAS, there is no actual reinsurance agreement in which the Section 848 Election may be made with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Transaction, and the parties to this Election Statement intend that, with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Transaction, this Election Statement be included as an addendum to the transaction documents in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(g)(8)(ii).

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual promises, covenants, and conditions contained in the Election Statement, the parties to this Election Statement agree as follows:

1. Unless otherwise indicated, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meaning as in the GE-Genworth TMA.
2. GEFAHI, as successor in interest to Old Company, and the Company hereby make a joint election under Treasury Regulation § 1.848-2(g)(8) (the "Joint Election") with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Agreement.
3. GEFAHI and the Company hereby agree that the Company will capitalize specified policy acquisition expenses with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Transaction without regard to the general deductions limitation of Section 848(c)(1) of the Code.
4. GEFAHI and the Company hereby agree to exchange all necessary information pertaining to the amount of net consideration with respect to the Deemed Reinsurance Transaction to ensure consistency.
5. GEFAHI and the Company hereby agree that the first Taxable Year for which the Joint Election is effective is the Taxable Year ending on the Closing Date.
6. The Company represents and warrants that it is subject to United States taxation within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.848-2(h).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Election Statement has been duly executed on the day and year first above written.

“Trigger Date” shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Master Agreement.

“U.S. Employees” shall mean Employees assigned to operations in the United States.

ASSUMPTION OF CERTAIN OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITIES

Effective as of the Closing Date, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, assume or retain, as the case may be, any and all Liabilities (contingent or otherwise) relating to, arising out of or resulting from the employment or services, or termination of employment or services, of any Person with respect to the Genworth Business, whenever arising, including, but not limited to, any Liabilities relating to, arising out of or resulting from (i) the Company Plans and (ii) each of the individual employment, termination, retention, severance or other similar contracts or agreements that relates to an Employee (whether or not such Employee is located in the United States); except that, Genworth or, if applicable, its Affiliate (1) shall not assume or retain the Liabilities related to the GE Plans, except to the extent such assumptions, retentions or the obligation to make periodic payments under such plans is described elsewhere in this Agreement, (2) shall not assume or retain the Liabilities solely attributable to the acts or omissions of the GE Group pertaining to payroll administration and/or payroll systems services provided by or on behalf of the GE Group prior to the Trigger Date (excluding attorney fees and costs respecting pending litigation, unless such fees and costs are attributable solely to payroll administration and/or payroll systems services provided by or on behalf of the GE Group prior to the Trigger Date), and (3) shall not assume or retain the Liabilities related to the current and former GEIH Business Employees, other than any Liabilities arising prior to the Closing Date which would be allocated to Genworth or one of its Affiliates consistent with past practices and procedures or which are solely attributable to the acts or omissions of Genworth or any of its Affiliates independent of GE and any of its Affiliates. Such exceptions in (1), (2) and (3) are collectively referred to as “ Excluded Employee Liabilities ”. For purposes of this Article II, any legal entity whose assets and liabilities are to be transferred to the Genworth Group on the Closing Date shall be deemed excluded from the GE Group.

EMPLOYMENT

Section 3.01. Employees. As of the Closing Date (or as soon as possible thereafter as permitted by the Laws of any country other than the United States), (i) Genworth shall, or shall cause its applicable Affiliates to, continue to employ as a successor employer all of the employees (including statutory employees) of the Companies (other than the GEIH Business Employees described below), including all such employees who have rights of employment on return from any leave or other absence (all such employees hereinafter referred to as “ Company Employees ”), and (ii) GE shall, or shall cause its applicable Affiliates (other than the Companies) to, transfer all employees not employed by the Companies but assigned to the Genworth Business, including all such employees who have rights of employment on return from any leave or other absence (all such employees hereinafter referred to as “ Transferred Employees ”) and Genworth shall, or shall cause its applicable Affiliates to, employ as a successor employer the Transferred Employees. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) all Company Employees, (ii) all Transferred Employees, and (iii) those individuals hired after the Closing Date by the Genworth Business shall collectively be referred to as “ Employees .” Any Liabilities relating to Transferred Employees shall be deemed to be Liabilities of Genworth for all purposes with effect from the Closing Date notwithstanding the fact that certain Transferred Employees shall only be transferred following the Closing Date as permitted by the Laws of any country other than the United States. As of the Closing Date (or as soon as possible thereafter as permitted by the Laws of any country other than the United States), Genworth also agrees, or shall cause its applicable Affiliates, to assume the obligations of any works council agreement covering the Employees employed by the Companies outside of the United States. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any employee who is employed by GEI and assigned to the Genworth Business on or after the Closing Date shall become an Employee on the Trigger Date.

Section 3.02 . GEIH Business Employees . The parties note that pursuant to Section 3.6 of the Master Agreement, Genworth shall cause FIGSL to transfer the Excluded Assets, Excluded Contracts and Excluded Liabilities relating to the businesses or the support of the businesses of the members of the GEIH Group (as defined in the European Transition Services Agreement but for the purposes of this Section excluding any European Creditor Business Entity) (the “GEIH Business”) as of the Closing Date. Accordingly, by operation of Law, the contracts of employment of all employees of FIGSL who work primarily for or primarily in support of the GEIH Business, except for those employees who provide support to the GEIH Business solely by virtue of FIGSL’s obligations pursuant to the European Transition Services Agreement, including all such employees who have rights of employment on return from any leave or other absence (all such employees hereinafter referred to as “GEIH Business Employees”), shall be transferred to the GE Affiliates assuming the relevant Excluded Assets, Excluded Contracts and Excluded Liabilities (in each case as defined in the Master Agreement) relating to the GEIH Business with effect from the Closing Date. To the extent that any contract of employment of the GEIH Business Employees is not transferred by operation of Law, GE shall cause the appropriate GE Affiliate to issue formal offers of employment to any such GEIH Business Employees. Any such offer of employment to a GEIH Business Employee shall be made on terms and conditions identical to such employee’s previous terms and conditions of employment with FIGSL, and such employee’s period of continuous employment with FIGSL shall count as part of such employee’s period of continuous employment with the relevant GE Affiliate. The effective date of any new contracts of employment resulting from any such offers and issued pursuant to this Section 3.02 shall be the Closing Date.

PAYROLL; BENEFITS

Section 4.01. Payroll . During the Term, for those Employees who are paid through GE’s or one of its Affiliate’s payroll system immediately prior to the Closing Date, such Employees shall continue to be paid through GE’s or one of its Affiliate’s payroll system. Those applicable Employees who are hired after the Closing Date by the Genworth Business shall also be paid through GE’s or one of its Affiliate’s payroll system during the Term. For those Employees with payroll withholding elections (such as those related to income taxes, qualified retirement plans, group health and welfare plans, etc.) in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date, such Employees’ elections shall remain the same during the Term as such elections were as of the Closing Date, except to the extent an Employee elects (in a manner permitted to employees and plan participants generally) to change any such election.

Section 4.02. GE Plans . During the Term, for those Employees who are eligible to participate in the GE Plans immediately prior to the Closing Date (or who would become eligible upon meeting certain eligibility requirements or upon satisfaction of any waiting periods under such plans), such Employees shall continue to be eligible to participate in such GE Plans, including the General Electric International Employee Stock Purchase Plan and any comparable arrangements (but excluding any GE Plan providing for cash or other bonus awards, stock options, stock awards, restricted stock, other equity-related awards or long-term performance awards other than the GE Incentive Compensation Plan as described in Article V hereof). Those applicable Employees who are hired after the Closing Date by the Genworth Business shall also be eligible to participate in the applicable GE Plans during the Term upon meeting certain eligibility requirements or upon satisfaction of any waiting periods under such plans. GE or its Affiliate, as the case may be, shall continue to be responsible for operating and administering the provisions of the GE Plans.

Section 4.03. Company Plans. During the Term, for those Employees who are eligible to participate in the Company Plans immediately prior to the Closing Date (or who would become eligible upon meeting certain eligibility requirements or upon satisfaction of any waiting periods under such plans), such Employees shall continue to be eligible to participate in such Company Plans. Those applicable Employees who are hired after the Closing Date by the Genworth Business shall also be eligible to participate in the applicable Company Plans during the Term upon meeting certain eligibility requirements or upon satisfaction of any waiting periods under such plans. The applicable Company shall continue to be responsible for operating and administering the provisions of the applicable Company Plans with support from GE consistent with past practice.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

Section 5.01. Establishment of Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan. Effective as of the Closing Date, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, establish, adopt and maintain a plan or plans for the benefit of selected Employees providing for cash or other bonus awards, stock options, stock awards, restricted stock, other equity-related awards and long-term performance awards (collectively, the “Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan”); provided, however, that such Employees shall continue to participate in the GE Incentive Compensation Plan, and Genworth’s plan providing for annual cash or other bonus awards shall not be effective, until the Trigger Date. During the Term, GE will cooperate with Genworth to support its operation and administration of the Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan.

Section 5.02. Existing Arrangements.

(a) Annual Incentive Compensation. GE will pay a pro rata bonus attributable to the portion of the calendar year occurring prior to the Trigger Date to eligible Employees who immediately prior to the Trigger Date have participated in the GE Incentive Compensation Plan subject to the terms and practices of such plan. Genworth shall reimburse GE promptly for any payments of such foregoing amounts upon the receipt of billing(s) for such amounts.

(b) GE Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights and Restricted Stock Units. Except as provided in Schedule I hereof, all GE stock options that are vested and held by Employees as of the Pricing Date will be exercisable in accordance with their terms and the GE 1990 Long-Term Incentive Plan. All GE stock options that are unvested and held by Employees as of the Pricing Date and all GE stock appreciation rights (whether or not vested) held by Employees as of the Pricing Date will be cancelled and converted on the Pricing Date to a like award of (or denominated in) Genworth common stock based on a ratio equal to the initial offering price of Genworth common stock divided by the weighted-average stock price of GE common stock for the trading day immediately prior to the Pricing Date (the “Conversion Ratio”), subject to the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-8 relating to the registration of shares of Class A common stock to be offered by Genworth pursuant to the Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan. All GE restricted stock units held by Employees as of the Pricing Date will be cancelled and converted on the Pricing Date to Genworth restricted stock units based on the Conversion Ratio, subject to the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-8 relating to the registration of shares of Class A common stock to be offered by Genworth pursuant to the Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan. In all other respects, the converted awards held by Employees will be subject to the same terms and conditions as set forth respectively in the original award grants and, if applicable, the GE 1990 Long-Term Incentive Plan; provided, however, that no such awards shall vest solely as a result of the Trigger Date. The foregoing cancellation and conversion of GE stock options, GE stock appreciation rights, and GE restricted stock units shall immediately be rescinded in all respects in the event that delivery of the Firm Public Offering Shares (as defined in the Master Agreement) to the Underwriters (as defined in the Master Agreement) against payment therefor is not complete within four (4) Business Days (as defined in the Master Agreement) after the Closing Date.

(c) Long-Term Contingent Performance Incentive Awards. For purposes of determining eligibility for long-term contingent performance incentive awards granted to Employees in March 2003 under the GE Long-Term Incentive Plan for the 2003 through 2005 period, employment with the Company shall be treated as employment with GE (or an applicable GE Affiliate). GE will pay a prorated award, for the 2003 through 2005 period, equal to one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the payment that otherwise would be paid in the absence of such proration, in 2006, provided the terms and conditions for the payment of such award as set forth in the original grant and the GE 1990 Long-Term Incentive Plan are satisfied.

PAYMENTS

Section 6.01. GE Payroll and Plan Services. During the Term, in consideration for the payment of the Employees through GE’s or one of its Affiliate’s payroll system, the participation of the Employees in the GE Plans, and the operation and administration of the GE Plans by GE and its Affiliates for the benefit of current and former Employees pursuant to this Agreement (the “GE Payroll and Plan Services”), Genworth shall pay GE, and reimburse it for, the costs incurred by the GE Group, plus reasonable expenses, associated with such GE Payroll and Plan Services. All such foregoing amounts under this Section 6.01 will be calculated, billed and paid consistent with the practices and procedures established and uniformly applied to GE businesses; provided, however, (i) GE shall not bill Genworth to the extent any such costs or expenses were previously paid by Genworth (as an Affiliate of GE) prior to the Closing Date and (ii) in no event will Genworth be billed more for the services relating to (A) the participation of the U.S. Employees in the GE Plans and (B) the operation and administration of the GE Plans by GE and its Affiliates for the benefit of current and former U.S. Employees pursuant to this Agreement, than the cost it would have incurred if it had established mirror plans for the U.S. Employees during the Term.

Section 6.02. Company Plan Services. During the Term, in consideration for GE's cooperation in the operation and administration of any Company Plan, including the Genworth Equity and Long-Term Performance Award Plan established pursuant to Section 5.01 hereof, by Genworth and its Affiliates for the benefit of current and former Employees pursuant to this Agreement (the "Company Plan Services"), Genworth shall pay GE, and reimburse it for, the reasonable costs incurred by the GE Group that are associated with such Company Plan Services. All such foregoing amounts under this Section 6.02 will be calculated, billed and paid consistent with the practices and procedures established for such Company Plans in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date or, in the event of a new service, on a cost liquidation basis; provided, however, GE shall not bill Genworth to the extent any such costs or expenses were previously paid by Genworth (as an Affiliate of GE) prior to the Closing Date.

Section 6.03. Other Genworth Obligations. The amounts described in Sections 6.01 and 6.02 above shall be in addition to Genworth's reimbursement and other obligations under this Agreement, including but not limited to Article VII hereof.

ARTICLE VII

ADDITIONAL GENWORTH COVENANTS

Section 7.01. Termination of Participation in GE Plans.

(a) In General. (i) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, effective as of the Trigger Date, all Employees and their dependents will cease any participation in, and any benefit accrual under, each of the GE Plans; provided, that any Employee who as of the Trigger Date has rights of employment on return from any leave or other absence will terminate participation in the GE Plans effective as of the close of business on the day before such Employee returns to active employment with the Company and no further benefits shall accrue under such GE Plans with respect to such Employee or any beneficiary thereof effective as of such return date.

(ii) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, neither Genworth nor any other member of the Genworth Group shall assume any obligations under or Liabilities with respect to, and shall not receive any right or interest in, any of the GE Plans.

(b) U.S. Retirement Plans. As of the Trigger Date, Employees shall cease to accrue benefits, if any, under the GE Retirement Plans. Effective as of the Trigger Date, GE shall take all necessary action, if any, to (i) effect such cessation of participation, and (ii) cause the Employees to be fully vested in any GE Retirement Plan (to the extent not then fully vested), except that with respect to the GE Supplementary Pension Plan, GE shall only be required to vest such Employee if the Employee has had ten (10) years of pension qualified service. No assets or liabilities with respect to the GE Retirement Plans shall be transferred to Genworth as a result of this Agreement. GE shall pay, or cause to be paid, directly to the Employees (including their surviving spouses and beneficiaries) any vested retirement benefits to which they are entitled under the GE Retirement Plans when eligible to receive such payments under the terms of such plans.

(c) U.S. Post-Retirement Welfare Benefits. GE and its applicable Affiliates shall retain any obligations they may have to provide post-retirement welfare benefits in accordance with the terms of the GE Life, Disability and Medical Plan, as in effect from time to time, to all former Employees of the Genworth Business and their eligible dependents who are currently receiving such benefits as of the Trigger Date. In addition, GE and its applicable Affiliates shall remain obligated to provide such coverage, consistent with the terms of such plan as in effect from time to time, to all Employees and their eligible dependents who, as of the Trigger Date, are participants in the plan and either (i) have completed twenty-five (25) years of continuous service or pension qualified service with the Company, its Affiliates and their respective predecessors or (ii) have attained at least sixty (60) years of age and have completed at least ten (10) years of continuous service, in either case upon such Employees' election to participate in the GE Life, Disability and Medical Plan. Such participation shall be under circumstances and at the applicable contribution levels entitling them to receive such benefits pursuant to the terms of the GE Life, Disability and Medical Plan as in effect from time to time. Genworth shall reimburse GE promptly for any payments of post-retirement welfare benefits made by GE or its applicable Affiliates to the eligible Employees and their eligible dependents pursuant to such coverage upon the receipt of periodic billings for such amounts.

(d) U.S. Other Welfare Benefits. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, GE or one of its Affiliates shall retain responsibility under the GE Plans that are welfare benefit plans in which the Employees participate with respect to all amounts that are payable by reason of, or in connection with, any and all welfare benefit claims made by the Employees and their eligible dependents but only to the extent such claims were incurred prior to the Trigger Date. However, Genworth shall reimburse GE promptly for (i) (A) any payments of welfare benefits made by GE or one of its Affiliates on or after the Trigger Date to eligible Employees and their eligible dependents pursuant to any self-insured GE Plans with respect to claims incurred prior to the Trigger Date or (B) any payments of welfare benefits made by GE or one of its Affiliates on or after the Trigger Date to eligible Employees who are inactive as of the Trigger Date and their eligible dependents pursuant to any self-insured GE Plans with respect to claims incurred the day before such Employees' return to active employment with the Company, and (ii) any payments of premiums made by GE or one of its Affiliates on behalf of eligible Employees who are inactive as of the Trigger Date and their eligible dependents pursuant to any insured GE Plans with respect to coverage ending the day before such Employees' return to active employment with the Company, in each case upon the receipt of periodic billings for such amounts. Genworth and its Affiliates shall be otherwise responsible for welfare benefit claims made by the Employees and their eligible dependents to the extent such claims were incurred on or after the Trigger Date.

Section 7.02. Compensation. For a period from the Closing Date until at least one year following the Trigger Date (or for such longer period as required by the Laws of any country other than the United States), each Employee shall be entitled to receive while in the employ of the Company at least the same (on an aggregate basis) salary, wages, bonus opportunities and, in the case of an International Employee, other compensation as were provided by the Company, or were otherwise applicable, to such Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date.

Section 7.03. U.S. Benefits.

(a) Genworth Plans. Effective as of the Trigger Date, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, establish, adopt and maintain for a period of at least one year following the Trigger Date such employee benefits pursuant to plans, programs, policies and arrangements for the U.S. Employees that provide benefits to such U.S. Employees that are at least substantially comparable in the aggregate to the value of those benefits provided to them pursuant to the GE Plans in effect immediately prior to the Trigger Date (each such plan, program, policy and arrangement, a “Genworth Plan”). For avoidance of any doubt, no plan of the types described in Section 5.01 hereof shall be taken into account in determining whether the Genworth Plans are substantially comparable in the aggregate. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, provide severance benefits to any U.S. Employee who is laid off during the one-year period following the Trigger Date in an amount that is at least equal to the severance benefits that would have been paid to such employee pursuant to the terms of the applicable GE or GECC severance plan as in effect immediately prior to the Trigger Date, to be calculated, however, on the basis of the U.S. Employee’s compensation and continuous service at the time of the layoff.

(b) Past Service Credit. All U.S. Employees shall be credited for service with the Company, GE, their respective Affiliates and their respective predecessors on and prior to the Trigger Date under all Genworth Plans and practices in which they become participants for all purposes, but excluding benefits accrual under any defined benefit plan, to the extent such service was credited under the corresponding GE Plan and practices.

(c) Group Health Plans. Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, cause the Genworth Plans to waive any pre-existing conditions limitation and recognize expenses incurred by a U.S. Employee prior to the Trigger Date for purposes of out-of-pocket maximums and deductibles with respect to the calendar year in which the Trigger Date occurs.

(d) Vacation. Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, recognize any unused vacation entitlement of the U.S. Employees as of the Trigger Date, and provide all U.S. Employees such unused vacation entitlement.

(e) 401(k) Plan. Effective as of the Trigger Date, Genworth shall have in effect a qualified defined contribution plan (the “Genworth 401(k) Plan”) that includes a qualified cash or deferred arrangement within the meaning of Section 401(k) of the Code designed to provide benefits as of the Trigger Date to the U.S. Employees participating in the GES&SP immediately prior to the Trigger Date. Effective as of the Trigger Date, each U.S. Employee who was a participant in the GES&SP shall be entitled to a distribution of his or her respective account balance in accordance with the terms of the GES&SP. The Genworth 401(k) Plan shall provide for the receipt of such individual rollovers of benefits so distributed from the GES&SP.

(f) COBRA. Following the Trigger Date, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, provide continuation health care coverage to all U.S. Employees and their qualified beneficiaries who incur or incurred a qualifying event in accordance with COBRA at any time with respect to claims incurred on or after the Trigger Date.

Section 7.04. International Benefits

(a) International Employees. In the case of the International Employees, Genworth shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, comply with any applicable foreign Law governing the terms and conditions of their employment, employment practices or severance of employment.

(b) Continuation of International Plans. If an employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement is subject to the Laws of a country other than the United States (an “International Plan”) and covers only International Employees, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, assume or continue, as the case may be, sponsorship over and assumption of all obligations with respect to such International Plan. Such International Plan shall be continued on the same terms for such International Employees for a period of at least one year following the Trigger Date or such longer period as may be required under applicable foreign Law or practice.

(c) Transfer of National Mutual Retirement Benefits Fund. As of the Closing Date, Genworth shall cause FIGSL to transfer sponsorship of the National Mutual Retirement Benefits Fund, and GE shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, assume sponsorship over and assumption of all obligations and assets with respect to such Fund.

(d) Establishment of International Plans. (i) If an International Plan sponsored by GE or its Affiliate (other than a Company) covers employees of the GE Group in addition to International Employees, effective as of the International Benefit Transition Date, Genworth shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, establish or maintain for the benefit of such International Employees (and not former International Employees) benefit plans for a period from the International Benefit Transition Date until at least one year following the Trigger Date or such longer period as may be required under applicable foreign Law or practice that, together with the International Plans described in Section 7.04(b) above, provide benefits to such International Employees that are at least substantially comparable in the aggregate to the value of those benefits provided to them pursuant to the corresponding International Plans in effect immediately prior to the International Benefit Transition Date. In addition, the benefits or employment practices provided by Genworth or its Affiliates pursuant to this Section 7.04(d)(i) shall be at such level and design so that no severance or similar payment to such International Employees shall be triggered, and shall comply with applicable foreign Law. In the event that any such severance or similar payment is triggered under a GE Plan, Genworth shall reimburse GE promptly for any payments of such foregoing amounts upon the receipt of billing(s) for such amounts. All obligations attributable to such International Employees under such International Plans shall be assumed by Genworth and its Affiliates under such Genworth benefit plans as of the International Benefit Transition Date.

(ii) If an International Plan sponsored by Genworth or its Affiliate (other than a member of the GE Group) covers employees of the GE Group in addition to International Employees, effective as of the International Benefit Transition Date, GE shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates to, establish or maintain benefit plans for the benefit of such current (and not former) employees of the GE Group. All obligations attributable to such current employees of the GE Group under such International Plans shall be assumed by GE and its Affiliates under such GE benefit plans as of the International Benefit Transition Date. During the Term, in consideration for participation of the employees of the GE Group in any International Plan sponsored by Genworth or its Affiliate and the operation and administration of such International Plans by Genworth and its Affiliates for the benefit of current and former employees of the GE Group pursuant to this Agreement (the “Genworth Plan Services”), GE shall pay Genworth, and reimburse it for, the costs incurred by the Genworth Group, plus reasonable expenses, associated with such Genworth Plan Services. All such foregoing amounts under this Section 7.04(d)(ii) will be calculated, billed and paid consistent with the practices and procedures established for such International Plans in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date; provided, however, Genworth shall not bill GE to the extent any such costs or expenses were previously paid by GE (or an Affiliate of GE) prior to the Closing Date.

(e) Funded International Plan. To the extent that any International Plan described in Section 7.04(d) above is a funded defined benefit or defined contribution pension plan with assets residing in a trust, GE and Genworth, respectively, shall determine a proportionate amount of the trust assets corresponding to, and not to exceed the liabilities under, such plan that is attributable to the International Employees and current employees of the GE Group, respectively. Such amount shall be transferred from such trust to the corresponding trust for the pension plan referred to in Section 7.04(d) above as soon as practicable after the International Benefit Transition Date unless contrary to applicable foreign Law. The amount to be transferred shall be determined by the plan sponsor subject to mutual agreement by GE and Genworth and, in the case of defined benefit pension plans, shall be based upon generally accepted country- and plan-specific actuarial assumptions and the accrued (but not projected) benefit obligation method. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.04(e), no part of the trust assets of the Canadian General Electric Pension Plan shall be transferred from such plan’s trust fund to the corresponding trust for the Genworth pension plan referred to in Section 7.04(d) above, and GE shall retain all obligations attributable to the International Employees under the Canadian General Electric Pension Plan accrued as of the International Benefit Transition Date applicable to such employees.

(f) Past Service Credit. In addition to the other requirements of this Section 7.04, the International Employees shall be credited with service consistent with the principles set forth in Section 7.03(b) above and applicable Law.

Section 7.05. No Guarantee of Continued Employment. Neither Genworth nor any of its Affiliates shall be obligated to continue to employ any Employee for any specific period of time, subject to applicable Law.

Section 7.06. Claims Assistance. Genworth shall, and shall cause each other Company to, permit Employees to provide such assistance to GE as may be required in respect of claims arising from the employment relationship against GE or its Affiliates, whether asserted or threatened, to the extent that, in GE’s opinion, (a) an Employee has knowledge of relevant facts or issues, or (b) an Employee’s assistance is reasonably necessary in respect of any such claim.

ARTICLE VIII

PERFORMANCE AND COOPERATION

Section 8.01. Level of Performance. In performing its obligations under this Agreement, each of GE and Genworth agrees that it and its respective Affiliates, as applicable, shall in good faith exercise the same standard of care as each has used to perform such services for its own account and for its other employees, except as mutually agreed to in writing by GE and Genworth.

Section 8.02. Delivery of Information; Cooperation Between the Parties. GE and Genworth shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, provide each other with all such information and materials reasonably necessary to effect GE's and Genworth's prompt and complete performance of their duties and obligations under this Agreement and the GE Plans. The parties agree that they shall cooperate with each other and shall act in such a manner as to promote the prompt and efficient completion of the obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE IX

NON-HIRE; NON-SOLICITATION

Section 9.01. Non-Hire.

(a) From the date of this Agreement until the Trigger Date, no member of the Genworth Group will, without the prior written consent of GE, either directly or indirectly, on its own behalf or in the service of or on behalf of others, hire, or attempt to hire, any person employed by any member of the GE Group.

(b) From the date of this Agreement until the Trigger Date, no member of the GE Group will, without the prior written consent of Genworth, either directly or indirectly, on its own behalf or in the service of or on behalf of others, hire, or attempt to hire, any person employed by the Genworth Group.

Section 9.02. Non-Solicitation by Genworth Group.

(a) For a period of one year following the Trigger Date, no member of the Genworth Group will, directly or indirectly, induce or attempt to induce to leave the employ of any member of the GE Group any person who at the time occupies a position: (i) assigned to the Senior Executive Band, (ii) assigned to the Executive Band and employed in the GE businesses known as Asset Management, GE Capital International Services, Inc., Consumer Finance, or Employers Reinsurance Corporation, or (iii) involved in risk modeling at GE's Global Research and Development Center, whether or not such employee is a full-time or a temporary employee of the GE Group, and whether or not such employment is pursuant to written agreement.

(b) For a period of two years following the Trigger Date, no member of the Genworth Group will, directly or indirectly, induce or attempt to induce to leave the employ of any member of the GE Group any person who at the time is serving as an Officer of GE.

Section 9.03. Non-Solicitation by GE Group.

(a) For a period of one year following the Trigger Date, no member of the GE Group will, directly or indirectly, induce or attempt to induce to leave the employ of any member of the Genworth Group any person who occupies a position: (i) assigned to the Senior Executive Band, (ii) assigned to the Executive Band, (iii) assigned to the Senior Professional Band and working in the functional areas of sales and marketing, risk management, actuarial services, finance, capital markets – management, product development – management, information technology or the Genworth Leadership Development Program, or (iv) involved in risk modeling, whether or not such employee is a full-time or a temporary employee of the Genworth Group, and whether or not such employment is pursuant to written agreement.

(b) For two years following the Trigger Date, no member of the GE Group will, directly or indirectly, induce or attempt to induce to leave the employ of any member of the Genworth Group any person who, on the day before the Trigger Date, occupied a GE Officer position.

Section 9.04. Exceptions. Notwithstanding the limitations in Sections 9.02 and 9.03 hereof applicable to particular categories of GE and Genworth employees (collectively, the “Restricted Employees”), such limitations will not: (i) prohibit members of the GE Group or the Genworth Group from attempting to hire or hiring any Restricted Employee after the termination of such employee’s employment by a member of the GE Group or the Genworth Group or (ii) prohibit members of the GE Group or Genworth Group from placing public advertisements or conducting any other form of general solicitation that is not specifically targeted towards the Restricted Employees, including, but not limited to, the use of an independent employment agency or search firm whose efforts are not specifically directed at Restricted Employees.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01. Headings. The headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 10.02. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

Section 10.03. Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 10.04. Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to such agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

Section 10.05. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 10.06. Entire Agreement.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

(b) In addition to the responsibilities and obligations set forth herein, (i) the parties to the Transition Services Agreement shall have certain other employment-related responsibilities and obligations as set forth therein, (ii) the parties to the European Transition Services Agreement shall have certain other employment-related responsibilities and obligations as set forth in Clauses 4.8 and 13.4 thereof, and (iii) the parties to the Mortgage Services Agreement shall have certain other employment-related responsibilities and obligations as set forth therein, including Section 4.02 thereof.

Section 10.07. Coordination with Master Agreement. The following articles and sections from the Master Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein: Section 6.2 (Confidentiality); Section 6.5 (Allocation of Costs and Expenses); Article IX (Dispute Resolution); 10.2 (Governing Law); Section 10.4 (Force Majeure); and Section 10.6 (Notices).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties hereto has caused this Agreement to be signed as of the date first above written.

Exhibit 10.9TRANSITIONAL TRADEMARK LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Transitional Trademark License Agreement (this "Agreement"), dated as of _____, 2004, is made and entered into by and between GE Capital Registry, Inc., a New York corporation ("LICENSOR"), and Genworth Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("LICENSEE").

WHEREAS, LICENSOR has the right to license the GE MARKS (as hereinafter defined) and registrations thereof in certain countries throughout the world for various goods and services;

WHEREAS, General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc., GEI, Inc., and LICENSEE entered into a Master Agreement, dated _____, 2004 (the "Master Agreement");

WHEREAS, the Master Agreement requires the execution and delivery of this Agreement by LICENSOR and LICENSEE at the CLOSING; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement, LICENSOR desires to grant to LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES a license to use the GE MARKS in accordance with the terms, and subject to the conditions, set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, LICENSOR and LICENSEE agree as follows:

I. DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Master Agreement. The following terms as used in this Agreement have the meanings set forth in this Article I:

A. "AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS" means third parties that LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE authorizes to sell PRODUCTS (as hereinafter defined) and SERVICES (as hereinafter defined) during the term of this Agreement.

B. "EFFECTIVE DATE" means the date of this Agreement.

C. "LICENSED MARKS" means and is limited to the Marks shown in Exhibit A attached hereto alone and in combination with other words and phrases.

D. "MARKS" means trademarks, service marks, trade names, service names, taglines, slogans, industrial designs, brand names, brand marks, trade dress rights, Internet domain names, identifying symbols, logos, emblems, signs or insignia, meta tags, Website search terms and key words, including, without limitation, all goodwill associated with the foregoing.

E. “ PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES ” means LICENSEE’S direct and indirect SUBSIDIARIES.

F. “ PRODUCTS ” and “ SERVICES ” means, respectively, and is limited to (i) products sold and services rendered as of the EFFECTIVE DATE by LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES in the conduct of the GENWORTH BUSINESS as conducted as of the EFFECTIVE DATE and (ii) products sold and services rendered after the EFFECTIVE DATE by LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES that are the same as or similar to the products and services set forth under clause (i) above.

G. “ STANDARDS OF QUALITY ” means:

1. at least (i) the same standards of quality, appearance, service and other standards that are observed as of the EFFECTIVE DATE by LICENSOR and its AFFILIATES (including, without limitation, LICENSEE and its SUBSIDIARIES) in the development, marketing and sale of any PRODUCTS sold and SERVICES rendered prior to or as of the EFFECTIVE DATE and (ii) substantially the same standards of quality, appearance, service and other standards that are observed as of the EFFECTIVE DATE by LICENSOR and its AFFILIATES (including, without limitation, LICENSEE and its SUBSIDIARIES) in the development, marketing, sale or performance of any products and services similar to the PRODUCTS sold or SERVICES rendered after the EFFECTIVE DATE, provided that the standards set forth in the foregoing (i) and (ii) shall be at least substantially the same as the standards that LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES observe in their development, marketing and sale of any products and performance of any services similar to the PRODUCTS and SERVICES; and

2. additional standards, if any, which LICENSOR may otherwise reasonably specify or approve in writing from time to time; and such additional standards shall supersede the standards referred to in Paragraph I.G.1 to the extent of any conflict therewith.

II. LICENSE GRANT

A. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, LICENSOR hereby grants to LICENSEE a limited, non-exclusive (except as specified in Exhibit A), non-transferable, royalty-free license, with no right to sublicense (other than to PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES as expressly provided herein), to use the LICENSED MARKS throughout the world and in any current or later-developed medium or form of communication (including, without limitation, in PRODUCT and SERVICE names and domain names) only (i) in connection with PRODUCTS designed, distributed, sold or otherwise commercialized, and SERVICES performed, offered, distributed, sold or otherwise commercialized by LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and (ii) in the general promotion of LICENSEE’S or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE’S business unrelated to any particular product or service, in each case in strict accordance with the STANDARDS OF QUALITY.

B. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall not use any of the LICENSED MARKS (i) in connection with the underwriting or marketing on a primary basis of life insurance in the United Kingdom, provided, however, that LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS are permitted to use LICENSED

MARKS in legal names, trade names, and otherwise in connection with credit life insurance businesses, products, or services in the United Kingdom, or (ii) in the name of any asset management service or product (other than any such service or product sold on behalf of LICENSOR or its AFFILIATES), provided, however, that LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS are permitted to use LICENSED MARKS in legal names, trade names, and otherwise in connection with asset management services or products that are being marketed or offered by LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS as of the EFFECTIVE DATE.

C. Any rights not granted to LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES in this Agreement are specifically reserved by and for LICENSOR. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES hereby accept this grant of license, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The license granted in this Article is subject to, and limited by, any and all licenses, rights, limitations and restrictions with respect to such LICENSED MARKS previously granted to, or otherwise agreed to with, any third party that are in effect as of the EFFECTIVE DATE.

D. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if LICENSEE or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE desires to use the LICENSED MARKS with any product or service not constituting a PRODUCT or SERVICE, LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall make a request for permission to make such use in writing to LICENSOR. LICENSOR, at its sole discretion, shall determine whether it will allow such use, and shall notify LICENSEE of such decision in writing within a reasonable time. If LICENSOR decides to allow such use, the parties shall negotiate a separate, royalty-bearing license which shall require that LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE, as applicable, pay reasonable expenses for any additional trademark or service mark registrations required if the LICENSED MARKS are not registered for use in the appropriate class of goods or services relating to such product or service in any country in which LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE intends to use such LICENSED MARKS.

E. AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS.

1. LICENSOR agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS may use the LICENSED MARKS in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein (including, without limitation, the standards and guidelines set forth in Paragraph IV.B) in order to identify themselves as authorized representatives of LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or otherwise in connection with the promotion, distribution and sale of PRODUCTS and SERVICES.

2. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES will provide the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS a copy of the standards and guidelines set forth in Paragraph IV.B (which copy may be provided by placing such standards and guidelines on a Website accessible by the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS and providing the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS notice that they must comply with such standards and guidelines). LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES will instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS that they must furnish samples of all proposed forms and uses of the LICENSED MARKS to LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES for written approval prior to any use thereof.

3. LICENSEE shall reasonably monitor AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS' use of the LICENSED MARKS. To the extent that LICENSEE has any reason to believe that an AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR may be using the LICENSED MARKS in a manner that violates or conflicts with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, LICENSEE shall promptly investigate such potential non-compliance. If LICENSEE determines that such violation or conflict has occurred or is occurring or if LICENSOR otherwise notifies LICENSEE that such violation or conflict has occurred or is occurring, LICENSEE shall promptly notify such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR and LICENSOR (unless LICENSOR notified LICENSEE thereof in accordance with the foregoing) of such non-compliance, and use reasonable efforts to cause such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR fails to comply with such terms and conditions within twenty (20) days of such notice, LICENSEE shall immediately terminate such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR'S rights to use the LICENSED MARKS, and instruct such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR that it has no further right to use any LICENSED MARK. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES agree to take any and all further actions reasonably requested by LICENSOR to prevent and stop such non-compliance and any other unauthorized uses of the LICENSED MARKS by the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS.

F. PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES.

1. LICENSEE may sublicense its rights under Paragraph II.A to PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES. In the event that LICENSEE creates or acquires any direct or indirect SUBSIDIARIES after the EFFECTIVE DATE, LICENSEE may sublicense its rights under Paragraph II.A to such direct or indirect SUBSIDIARIES and such SUBSIDIARIES shall become and shall be PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES. Up to two (2) times per calendar year during the TERM of this Agreement, LICENSOR shall have the right to request that LICENSEE provide an organization chart or other document that identifies LICENSEE'S then-current direct and indirect SUBSIDIARIES. In the event that LICENSOR sends LICENSEE such a written request, LICENSEE shall provide LICENSOR with an organization chart or other document that identifies LICENSEE'S then-current direct and indirect SUBSIDIARIES within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of the written request. Additionally, in the event that LICENSOR sends LICENSEE a written request as to whether a particular entity is a direct or indirect SUBSIDIARY of LICENSEE, LICENSEE shall provide LICENSOR with a written response as to as to whether such entity is a direct or indirect SUBSIDIARY of LICENSEE within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of the written request.

2. LICENSEE shall cause the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and hereby grants LICENSOR the right to enforce this Agreement directly against a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE to the extent that that PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE breaches the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any such enforcement by LICENSOR against a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall be upon the same terms and conditions as are applicable to enforcement by LICENSOR against LICENSEE.

III. EXAMINATION OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

A. In order to promote adherence to the STANDARDS OF QUALITY and for the purpose of protecting and maintaining the goodwill associated with the LICENSED MARKS and the reputation of LICENSOR, LICENSOR shall have the right to obtain from LICENSEE reasonable information as to the nature and quality of the PRODUCTS and SERVICES and the manner in which the LICENSED MARKS are used in connection with the PRODUCTS and SERVICES.

B. The PRODUCTS and SERVICES shall comply with all applicable Laws. For the purpose of protecting and maintaining the goodwill associated with the LICENSED MARKS and the reputation of LICENSOR, LICENSOR or its authorized representative shall have the right at any reasonable time or times during regular business hours on reasonable notice, and up to two (2) times per calendar year (and otherwise if LICENSOR notifies LICENSEE in writing that it believes the PRODUCTS and SERVICES are not conforming to the STANDARDS OF QUALITY or other requirements of this Agreement, which notice shall provide a description of the nonconformity that is reasonable under the circumstances and, if appropriate and available to LICENSOR, include samples of any nonconforming PRODUCTS and copies of any documentation relating to such nonconformity), to visit the offices and facilities of LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES where PRODUCTS are developed, designed, packaged, marketed, promoted, sold or serviced and SERVICES are developed, marketed, promoted or rendered. LICENSOR may conduct a reasonable inspection and examination of such offices and facilities, PRODUCTS, and SERVICES. LICENSEE agrees to furnish LICENSOR, from time to time as reasonably requested by LICENSOR, representative samples of representative PRODUCTS (and any other particular PRODUCTS requested by LICENSOR) to which the LICENSED MARKS are affixed and representative samples showing representative other uses of the LICENSED MARKS by LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS selected by LICENSOR (and any other particular uses requested by LICENSOR). Upon LICENSOR'S reasonable request, LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall permit LICENSOR to promptly examine and audit documents, books and records pertaining specifically to the development, design, packaging, marketing, promoting, sale, servicing, quality, performance, and other characteristics of PRODUCTS and SERVICES as LICENSOR may reasonably require to verify that PRODUCTS sold and SERVICES rendered by LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES meet the STANDARDS OF QUALITY and that LICENSEE'S and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES' use of the LICENSED MARKS complies with LICENSEE'S obligations under this Agreement. In conducting any such inspection or audit, LICENSOR shall take all steps reasonably required by LICENSEE to minimize disruption to LICENSEE'S business and to avoid disclosure of LICENSEE'S confidential and propriety information and materials, including, but not limited to, executing nondisclosure agreements, provided that such steps and agreements shall not prevent LICENSOR from pursuing any claims that it may have in connection with this Agreement.

C. If, at any time, the PRODUCTS sold or SERVICES rendered fail, in the reasonable judgment of LICENSOR, to conform to the STANDARDS OF QUALITY, LICENSOR shall notify LICENSEE of such failure in writing (which notice shall provide a description of the nonconformity that is reasonable under the circumstances and, if appropriate and available to LICENSOR, include samples of any nonconforming PRODUCTS and copies of any documentation relating to such nonconformity). LICENSEE and the applicable PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall take all necessary steps to bring such PRODUCTS or SERVICES into conformity with the STANDARDS OF QUALITY. If LICENSEE or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE fails to bring such PRODUCTS or SERVICES into conformity within twenty (20) days (or such other time period mutually agreed upon by the parties) after LICENSEE'S receipt of written notice of nonconformity, then LICENSEE, such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE and their AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall immediately cease the development, marketing, promotion and sale of such PRODUCTS or SERVICES under the LICENSED MARKS until such nonconformity is cured. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that LICENSOR and LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE do not agree as to (i) whether a nonconformity exists, (ii) a remedy for a nonconformity, or (iii) the date by which a nonconformity will be corrected, LICENSOR and LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall resolve their disagreements in accordance with the dispute resolution process set forth in Article VII of the Master Agreement. LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall then implement the remedy, if any, that results from the dispute resolution process according to the requirements specified, or agreements reached, during the dispute resolution process. During the pendency of the dispute resolution process, LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE may take whatever action with respect to the PRODUCTS or SERVICES at issue as it deems reasonable to address the purported nonconformity (provided that LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE have the right pursuant to this Agreement to use the LICENSED MARKS in connection with such PRODUCTS and SERVICES as modified by such action), which may include, if applicable, implementing some or all of its proposed remedy. In the event that the nonconforming PRODUCTS or SERVICES cannot be brought into conformity during the time frame that is agreed to or that results from the dispute resolution process due to delays not within the reasonable control of LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES in obtaining any necessary approvals from GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall not be required to cease the development, marketing or sale of such PRODUCTS or SERVICES under the LICENSED MARKS, provided that LICENSEE or the applicable PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE is working diligently to obtain such approvals and keeps LICENSOR reasonably informed of its efforts to do so.

D. If, at any time, a GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY raises an issue with LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE as to whether PRODUCTS sold or SERVICES rendered comply with applicable Laws, LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall respond to the GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY adequately, including by modifying or discontinuing particular PRODUCTS or SERVICES if so directed by the GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY according to the time frames, if any, set forth by the GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, at any time, the PRODUCTS sold or SERVICES rendered fail, in the reasonable judgment of LICENSOR, to comply with all applicable Laws, LICENSOR shall notify LICENSEE of such failure in writing (which notice shall provide a description of the noncompliance that is reasonable under the circumstances and, if appropriate and available to LICENSOR, include samples of any noncompliant PRODUCTS and copies of any documentation relating to such noncompliance). LICENSEE and the applicable PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall take all necessary steps to bring such PRODUCTS or SERVICES into compliance with all applicable Laws. If LICENSEE or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE fails to bring such PRODUCTS or SERVICES into compliance within twenty (20) days (or such other time period mutually agreed upon by the parties) after LICENSEE'S receipt of written notice of noncompliance, then LICENSEE, such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE and their AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall immediately cease the development, marketing, promotion and sale of such PRODUCTS or SERVICES under the LICENSED MARKS until such noncompliance is cured. Notwithstanding the foregoing but subject to any and all requirements of GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES, in the event that LICENSOR and LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE do not agree as to (i) whether a noncompliance with applicable Laws exists, (ii) an appropriate remedy for such purported noncompliance, or (iii) the date by which such purported noncompliance will be corrected, LICENSOR and LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall resolve their disagreements in accordance with the dispute resolution process set forth in Article VII of the Master Agreement. Subject to any requirements of GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES, LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall then implement the remedy, if any, that results from the dispute resolution process according to the requirements specified, or agreements reached, during the dispute resolution process. During the pendency of any such dispute resolution process and subject to any and all requirements of GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS may continue to promote, offer, and sell the PRODUCTS and SERVICES at issue, and LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE may take whatever action with respect to such PRODUCTS and SERVICES as it deems reasonable to address the purported noncompliance (provided that LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE have the right pursuant to this Agreement to use the LICENSED MARKS in connection with such PRODUCTS and SERVICES as modified by such action), which may include, if applicable, implementing some or all of its proposed remedy.

E. Rights granted to LICENSOR under this Article III to inspect, examine, request samples, and audit; to request that PRODUCTS and SERVICES be brought into conformity and compliance; and to direct cessation of certain activities with respect to PRODUCTS and SERVICES shall extend to the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS and PRODUCTS and SERVICES offered by the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS; provided however, that in the event LICENSOR desires to engage in any inspection, examination or audit with respect to, or to request changes to or cessation of, any PRODUCTS or SERVICES offered by an AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR, LICENSOR shall do so solely through LICENSEE. LICENSOR shall not itself contact any AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR with respect to the foregoing, except with the prior written consent of LICENSEE. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if LICENSEE fails to comply with its obligations with respect to any AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR in accordance with this Agreement (including, without limitation, (i) failing to address any use of the LICENSED MARKS by any AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR in a manner that conflicts with the terms and conditions of this Agreement applicable to the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS and (ii) instructing the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to use the LICENSED MARKS in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement applicable to the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS) within twenty (20) days of notice from LICENSOR of such failure, LICENSOR shall have the right to contact such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR.

IV. USE OF GE MARKS

A. Under the license and rights granted herein, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS are authorized to use the GE

MARKS only as provided in Articles II and VI in any current or later-developed medium or form of communication, including, without limitation, use in packaging, labeling, brochures, press releases, websites, domain names, signage, point-of-purchase materials, general publicity, advertising, instruction books and other literature relating to the PRODUCTS and SERVICES. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall not use the GE MARKS in a manner that could reasonably be expected to damage the reputation or goodwill associated with LICENSOR, its AFFILIATES or the GE MARKS.

B. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall comply with the standards and guidelines with respect to the appearance and manner of use of the GE MARKS set forth on Exhibit B, which LICENSOR may revise from time to time at LICENSOR'S sole discretion, provided that any potential revisions to the standards and guidelines shall be subject to the process set forth in Paragraph IV.C. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall not use their MARKS in a manner that causes confusion as to the ownership of the GE MARKS. Subject to Paragraph II.D, any appearance or manner of use of the GE MARKS not provided for by such standards and guidelines (including, without limitation, any uses not contemplated by such standards and guidelines, any uses in contravention of such standards and guidelines and any clarifications of such standards and guidelines) shall be adopted by LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS only upon prior written approval by LICENSOR of each first instance of such appearance or manner of use, which shall not unreasonably be withheld. LICENSEE shall make a written request referencing this Paragraph IV.B to LICENSOR for such appearance or manner of use, and LICENSOR shall provide a written response to LICENSEE within fifteen (15) days after its receipt of LICENSEE'S request, provided that such response may state that a written response cannot be provided within fifteen (15) days but will be provided within thirty (30) days after LICENSOR'S receipt of the request. In the event that LICENSOR has not provided a final written response to LICENSEE'S request for approval within thirty (30) days after LICENSOR'S receipt of the request, such request shall be deemed approved.

C. (i) In the event that LICENSOR proposes to change the standards and guidelines set forth in Paragraph IV.B, it shall notify LICENSEE of the proposed changes, and consult with LICENSEE regarding such changes. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall be allowed a commercially reasonable amount of time to implement any such changes made after the EFFECTIVE DATE, which amount of time shall be, if applicable, no less than the amount of time LICENSOR'S AFFILIATES are given to adopt the same changes. (ii) In the event that LICENSOR proposes to add to or otherwise change the STANDARDS OF QUALITY in accordance with Paragraph I.G.2, it shall notify LICENSEE of the proposed additions or changes, and consult with LICENSEE regarding such additions or changes. In the event that LICENSOR and LICENSEE cannot reach agreement as to any such proposed additions or changes to the STANDARDS OF QUALITY, LICENSOR'S and LICENSEE'S disagreement shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in Article VII of the Master Agreement. During the pendency of any such dispute resolution process, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS may continue to promote, offer, and sell the PRODUCTS or SERVICES at issue in accordance with the STANDARDS OF QUALITY in effect prior to such disagreement (not including such proposed addition or change). LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES, and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall be allowed a commercially reasonable amount of time to implement any such additions or other changes made after the EFFECTIVE DATE, which amount of time shall be, if applicable, no less than the amount of time LICENSOR'S AFFILIATES are given to adopt the same additions or changes and no less than the amount of time to obtain any regulatory approvals necessary to adopt such additions or changes, provided that LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES are working diligently to obtain such approvals and keep LICENSOR reasonably informed of their efforts to do so.

D. LICENSEE shall also obtain LICENSOR'S prior written approval (which shall be at the sole discretion of LICENSOR) for (i) each first instance of a general promotion in accordance with Paragraph II.A.ii that is not specifically provided for in the standards and guidelines set forth in Paragraph IV.B and (ii) any television or radio advertisements that use the GE MARKS. LICENSEE shall make a written request referencing this Paragraph IV.D to LICENSOR for approval of such general promotion or television or radio advertisement, and LICENSOR shall provide a written response to LICENSEE within fifteen (15) days after its receipt of LICENSEE'S request, provided that such response may state that a written response cannot be provided within fifteen (15) days but will be provided within thirty (30) days after LICENSOR'S receipt of the request. In the event that LICENSOR has not provided a final written response to LICENSEE'S request for approval within thirty (30) days after LICENSOR'S receipt of the request, such request shall be deemed approved.

E. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall comply with all applicable Laws pertaining to the GE MARKS, including, without limitation, those pertaining to the proper use and designation of MARKS and pertaining to the development, distribution, promotion and sale of PRODUCTS and the offering, rendering and promotion of SERVICES, and strictly comply with the STANDARDS OF QUALITY.

F. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall, within a commercially reasonable period of time, cease use of the GE MARKS upon notice from LICENSOR to LICENSEE that, in the good faith opinion of LICENSOR, such use of the GE MARKS might result in any potential trademark liability to a third party on the part of LICENSOR, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and/or the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall comply fully within a commercially reasonable period of time following LICENSEE'S receipt of written notice thereof with all guidelines adopted from time to time by LICENSOR for the purpose of addressing any potential trademark liability with respect to such third party.

G. If, in the sole discretion of LICENSOR, it is required or advisable for the purpose of making this Agreement enforceable, or for the purpose of maintaining, enhancing or protecting LICENSOR'S rights in the GE MARKS in some countries, to record this Agreement or to enter LICENSEE (and/or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS) as registered or authorized users of the GE MARKS, LICENSOR will attend (at LICENSOR'S expense) to such recording or entry. LICENSEE (or the appropriate PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR) shall promptly and at no cost to LICENSOR execute and deliver to LICENSOR such additional instruments or documentation as LICENSOR may reasonably request, including without limitation execution and delivery of substitute or short-form license agreements, with terms consistent with this Agreement, for recordation or registration in specified countries in the event that this Agreement shall be deemed by LICENSOR to be unsuitable for recordation or entry in such countries. The terms and conditions of this Agreement (and not the terms and conditions of such substitute or short-form license agreements entered into for recording or entry purposes) shall be binding between LICENSOR and LICENSEE (or the appropriate PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR) throughout the world and shall govern and control any controversy that may arise with respect to each party's rights and obligations hereunder; provided, however, that if specific terms and conditions of any such substitute or short-form license agreement differ from the comparable terms and conditions of this Agreement and enforcement of the comparable terms and conditions of this Agreement pursuant to this provision either would be uncertain or improper under the Laws of the applicable country or would adversely affect LICENSOR'S rights in and to the GE MARKS in such country, then the specific terms and conditions of the substitute or short-form license agreement shall be controlling in such country.

H. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall supply LICENSOR with such information (including, without limitation, any such information of the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS) concerning sales and other dispositions of PRODUCTS and SERVICES as LICENSOR may reasonably request to aid LICENSOR in the acquisition, maintenance and renewal of registrations of the GE MARKS, to record this Agreement, to enter LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS as registered or authorized users of the GE MARKS or for any purpose reasonably related to LICENSOR'S maintenance and protection of the GE MARKS. LICENSEE (and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES) shall fully cooperate with LICENSOR'S reasonable requests in the execution, filing, and prosecution of any registration of a MARK or copyright relating to GE MARKS that LICENSOR may desire to obtain. For that purpose LICENSEE (and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES) shall supply to LICENSOR such samples, containers, labels, letterheads and other similar materials bearing the GE MARKS as may be required by LICENSOR.

I. Notwithstanding Paragraph II.A, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS will not use the GE MARKS, nor may any particular PRODUCT or SERVICE be marketed, distributed or offered for sale or sold, (i) in any jurisdiction where the GE MARKS have not been registered, until an appropriate MARK search has been conducted (at LICENSEE'S expense) and an application to register the particular GE MARK in the relevant MARK class(es) for PRODUCTS and SERVICES has been filed in that jurisdiction (at LICENSOR'S expense), or LICENSOR determines in good faith on advice of its trademark counsel that it would be preferable not to seek to register such GE MARK in that country but that there is no material impediment to the use of such GE MARK therein and (ii) in a country where entry of LICENSEE as a registered or authorized user is required, prior to the execution of an appropriate registered user agreement or similar agreement and the filing thereof with the appropriate governmental agency (except where failure to do so prior to use will not have a material adverse effect on such GE MARK). Not in limitation of the foregoing, in the event that LICENSOR determines that LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES are using the GE MARKS in a jurisdiction where such GE MARKS are not registered in the appropriate MARK class(es) for PRODUCTS and SERVICES, LICENSOR at its sole discretion shall have the option to require such registration at LICENSOR'S expense.

J. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall not, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to not, enter into any agreements relating to the placement of listings in response to Website search terms and key words that consist of the terms included in Exhibit C. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to, assign any agreements relating to the placement of listings in response to Website search terms and key words that include the GE MARKS to LICENSOR, unless such agreements by their own terms are non-assignable (in which case LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to, terminate such agreements).

V. OWNERSHIP AND VALIDITY OF GE MARKS

A. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES admit the validity, and LICENSOR'S ownership, of the GE MARKS and agree that any and all goodwill, rights or interests that might be acquired by the use of the GE MARKS by LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and/or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS shall inure to the sole benefit of LICENSOR. If LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS obtain rights or interests in the GE MARKS, LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall transfer, or shall instruct such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR to transfer, those rights or interests to LICENSOR upon request by LICENSOR. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES admit and agree that, as between the parties, LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS have been extended only a mere permissive right to use the GE MARKS as provided in this Agreement which is not coupled with any ownership interest.

B. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES further agree not to, and to instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS not to: (i) use or register in any country any MARKS (including, without limitation, any slogan) confusingly similar to, or consisting in whole or in part of, the GE MARKS or (ii) register the GE MARKS in any country, without in each case the express prior written consent of LICENSOR. Whenever LICENSEE or a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE becomes aware of any consumer confusion or risk thereof between a MARK used by LICENSEE, a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR, and a GE MARK, LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE shall take appropriate steps to promptly remedy or avoid such confusion or risk of confusion.

C. LICENSEE may request in writing that LICENSOR, at LICENSEE'S expense, file an application for registration of any GE MARK for use in connection with the PRODUCTS and SERVICES in any country in which such GE MARK is not registered in the appropriate classes of goods or services for such PRODUCTS and SERVICES as of the EFFECTIVE DATE. Subject to Paragraph IV.I, LICENSOR shall use commercially reasonable efforts to complete such filing and prosecution in LICENSOR'S name. LICENSEE shall supply, without cost to LICENSOR, from time to time as requested by LICENSOR, such samples, containers, labels, letterheads, and similar materials from such LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES as may reasonably be required for such filing and prosecution.

D. LICENSOR will own all right, title and interest in and to any and all applications for registration of the GE MARKS (including, without limitation, applications filed in accordance with Paragraph V.C), whether filed before or after the EFFECTIVE DATE, and such applications shall be deemed incorporated in the defined term “GE MARKS”.

E. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall give LICENSOR notice promptly of any known or presumed infringements of the GE MARKS, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to give prompt notice to LICENSEE of any such infringements, which LICENSEE shall promptly give to LICENSOR. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall render, and instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to render, to LICENSOR full and prompt cooperation (at LICENSOR’S expense) for the enforcement and protection of the GE MARKS against such infringements. LICENSOR shall retain all rights to bring all actions and proceedings in connection with infringement or misuse of the GE MARKS at its sole discretion. If LICENSOR decides to enforce the GE MARKS against an infringer, all costs incurred and recoveries made shall be for the account of LICENSOR.

F. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES will not, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to not, at any time during the Term, and any time thereafter, for as long as LICENSOR shall own rights in the GE MARKS, do or cause to be done any act or thing disparaging, disputing, attacking, challenging, impairing, diluting, or in any way tending to harm the reputation or goodwill associated with LICENSOR, its AFFILIATES or any of the GE MARKS.

G. LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS have no right (and shall not, and shall instruct the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS to not, represent that they have the right) to bind or obligate LICENSOR in any way. LICENSOR has no right, and shall not represent that it has the right, to bind or obligate LICENSEE, any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR in any way.

VI. CORPORATE NAMES

A. “GE MARKS” means the LICENSED MARKS, “General Electric”, “GE Capital” and “GEFA”.

B. “LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES” means those PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES that, as of the EFFECTIVE DATE, include in their corporate names the GE MARKS, provided that “LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES” shall not include any such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES that adopt NEW CORPORATE NAMES after the EFFECTIVE DATE.

C. “NEW CORPORATE NAMES” shall mean corporate names that do not consist in whole or in part of, and are not dilutive of or confusingly similar to, the GE MARKS. The parties agree that LICENSEE’S “Genworth” name and mark, and derivatives thereof, do not consist in whole or in part of, and are not dilutive of or confusingly similar to, the GE MARKS, provided that LICENSEE does not highlight, isolate or emphasize the letters “Ge” alone in the “Genworth” name and mark or derivatives thereof.

D. “TWENTY PERCENT DATE” means the first date on which members of the GE GROUP cease to beneficially own, in the aggregate, (excluding for such purposes shares of GENWORTH COMMON STOCK beneficially owned by LICENSOR but not for its own account, including (in such exclusion) beneficial ownership that arises by virtue of some entity that is an AFFILIATE of LICENSOR being a sponsor of or advisor to a mutual or similar fund that beneficially owns shares of GENWORTH COMMON STOCK) more than twenty percent (20%) of the then outstanding GENWORTH COMMON STOCK.

E. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, LICENSOR hereby grants to LICENSEE a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free license, with no right to sublicense (other than to the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES as expressly provided herein), to allow the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES to use the GE MARKS in their corporate names to the extent such GE MARKS are used in such corporate names as of the EFFECTIVE DATE. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Article VI, this license shall expire on the sooner of: (i) the date that any GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY requires that such corporate names be changed, but only with respect to the particular LICENSED SUBSIDIARY to which the GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY requirement applies and subject to any time frame or transition period established by the GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY (alone or in consultation with LICENSEE), (ii) the TWENTY PERCENT DATE or (iii) the expiration of five (5) years from the EFFECTIVE DATE. Upon expiration in accordance with the foregoing (ii), (x) the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall use its best efforts to effectuate cessation of its use of the GE MARKS in its corporate name as expeditiously as possible under the circumstances and (y) in the event that a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY is unable to obtain regulatory approval necessary to adopt a NEW CORPORATE NAME in a jurisdiction, or is otherwise unable for regulatory reasons to adopt a NEW CORPORATE NAME in a jurisdiction, such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall be allowed to continue its then-current use of the corporate name for a transition period, which shall not exceed one (1) year except upon mutual agreement of the parties, provided that such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY in good faith complies with the obligations contained herein. Such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall comply with the applicable transition provisions in Exhibit D during any such transition period. No such transition period shall extend beyond five (5) years from the EFFECTIVE DATE.

F. Upon expiration or termination of the license granted under this Article VI, the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES shall adopt NEW CORPORATE NAMES, subject to applicable TRANSITION PERIODS and other applicable provisions of this Article VI and this Agreement. If adoption of a NEW CORPORATE NAME is consistent with LICENSEE’S and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES’ business plans and does not subject LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES to material incremental costs in addition to costs that LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES would incur to adopt NEW CORPORATE NAMES at a future date, LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES shall use reasonable best efforts to adopt and change to NEW CORPORATE NAMES as soon as possible after the EFFECTIVE DATE. The obligation to adopt NEW CORPORATE NAMES in connection with the TWENTY PERCENT DATE as set forth in the foregoing Paragraph VI.E shall not apply to the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY known as GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York (“GECLANY”) to the extent that it is necessary for GECLANY to maintain its current corporate name in order to fulfill its existing contractual obligations as of the EFFECTIVE DATE. GECLANY shall, however, be required to adopt a NEW CORPORATE NAME no later than the expiration of the TERM.

G. The LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES shall operate their businesses in accordance with at least the same standards of quality, appearance, service and other standards that are observed as of the EFFECTIVE DATE by the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES. In order to promote adherence to such standards and for the purpose of protecting and maintaining the goodwill associated with the GE MARKS and the reputation of LICENSOR, LICENSOR shall have the right to obtain from LICENSEE reasonable information as to the operation of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES' businesses and the manner in which the GE MARKS are used in connection with their corporate names. If, at any time, a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY fails, in the reasonable judgment of LICENSOR, to conform to the standards set forth in this Paragraph VI.G, LICENSOR shall notify LICENSEE of such failure in writing (which notice shall provide a description of the nonconformity that is reasonable under the circumstances and, if appropriate and available to LICENSOR, include copies of any documentation relating to such nonconformity). Such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall take all necessary steps to bring the nonconforming aspects of its business into conformity with such standards. If such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY fails to bring the nonconforming aspects of its business into conformity with such standards within twenty (20) days (or such other time period mutually agreed upon by the parties) after LICENSEE'S receipt of written notice of nonconformity, then such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall use its best efforts to effectuate cessation of its use of the GE MARKS in its corporate name as expeditiously as possible under the circumstances. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that LICENSOR and LICENSEE or a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY do not agree as to (i) whether a nonconformity exists, (ii) a remedy for a nonconformity, or (iii) the date by which a nonconformity will be corrected, LICENSOR and LICENSEE or the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall resolve their disagreements in accordance with the Article VI dispute resolution process set forth in Exhibit E. LICENSEE or the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall then implement the remedy, if any, that results from the dispute resolution process according to the requirements specified, or agreements reached, during the dispute resolution process. During the pendency of the dispute resolution process, LICENSEE or the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY may take whatever action with respect to the purported nonconforming aspects of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY'S business as it deems reasonable to address the purported nonconformity (provided that the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY has the right pursuant to this Agreement to take such action), which may include, if applicable, implementing some or all of its proposed remedy.

H. The LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES shall comply at all times with all applicable Laws, and shall be accurate in their descriptions of the relationship between LICENSOR and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES. For the purpose of protecting and maintaining the goodwill associated with the GE MARKS and the reputation of LICENSOR, LICENSOR or its authorized representative shall have the right at any reasonable time or times during regular business hours on reasonable notice to LICENSEE, and up to two (2) times per calendar year (and otherwise if LICENSOR notifies LICENSEE in writing that it believes a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY is not complying with the requirements of this Article VI, which notice shall provide a description of the nonconformity that is reasonable under the circumstances and, if appropriate and available to LICENSOR, include copies of any documentation relating to such nonconformity), to visit the offices and facilities of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY. LICENSOR may conduct a reasonable inspection and examination of such offices and facilities and the operation of the business of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY to determine compliance with this Article VI in conjunction with the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY'S use of the GE MARKS in its corporate name. Upon LICENSOR'S reasonable request, the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES shall permit LICENSOR to promptly examine and audit documents, books, records and other information pertaining to the operation of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES' business as LICENSOR may reasonably require to verify that the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES are complying with the requirements of this Article VI in conjunction with the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES' use of the GE MARKS in their corporate names. In conducting any such inspection or audit, LICENSOR shall take all steps reasonably required by the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES to minimize disruption to the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES' business and to avoid disclosure of the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES' confidential and propriety information and materials, including, but not limited to, executing nondisclosure agreements, provided that such steps and agreements shall not prevent LICENSOR from pursuing any claims that it may have in connection with this Agreement.

I. The license granted in this Article VI shall automatically terminate with respect to a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY upon notice to LICENSEE upon any of the following events with respect to that LICENSED SUBSIDIARY: (i) any merger or consolidation of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY with an unrelated third party; (ii) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY to an unrelated third party; or (iii) a change of control of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY whereby any unrelated third party acquires fifty percent (50)% or more of the outstanding voting securities of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY or the power, directly or indirectly, to direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through ownership of securities or partnership or other ownership interests, by contract or otherwise) of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY.

J. In the event LICENSEE or a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY breaches in any material respect any representation, warranty or covenant of this Article VI and LICENSOR gives LICENSEE written notice of such breach (which notice shall provide a description of the breach that is reasonable under the circumstances), LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY, if applicable, shall have forty-five (45) days from LICENSEE'S receipt of such notice to remedy such breach, unless such breach cannot be remedied within such forty-five (45) day period, in which case LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY, if applicable, shall use best efforts to remedy such breach as promptly as practicable but no later than ninety (90) days from LICENSEE'S receipt of such notice. If the breach is not remedied in accordance with the foregoing time periods, LICENSOR shall have the right to terminate the license granted in this Article VI with respect to LICENSEE and the LICENSED SUBSIDIARY, if applicable, at any time thereafter by giving LICENSEE notice of such termination.

K. The license granted in this Article VI shall terminate as to a particular country with notice to LICENSEE on a date established by either LICENSOR or LICENSEE if a controlling substitute or short-form license agreement is required in such country pursuant to Paragraph IV.G hereof and such controlling substitute or short-form license agreement contains provisions unacceptable to the party giving notice hereunder. The LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES will comply with any additional requirements and perform any additional acts that LICENSOR deems necessary to comply with all applicable foreign Laws and to maintain, enhance and protect LICENSOR'S rights in the GE MARKS in foreign jurisdictions.

L. The license granted in this Article VI shall automatically terminate with respect to a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY without notice by LICENSOR in the event such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY commences, or has commenced against it, proceedings under bankruptcy, insolvency or debtor's relief laws or similar laws in any other jurisdiction, which proceedings are not dismissed within sixty (60) days; such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY ceases operations or is liquidated or dissolved.

M. Upon any termination under Paragraphs VI.I or VI.L, any terminated LICENSED SUBSIDIARY (or, subject to Paragraph VI.I, any successor of a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY) shall be permitted to continue its then-current use of the GE MARKS to the extent required to comply with applicable Laws for a TRANSITION PERIOD if LICENSEE obtains LICENSOR'S written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) prior to the start of any proposed TRANSITION PERIOD (as defined in Paragraph VII.F.3 below). Upon any termination under Paragraph VI.J, any terminated LICENSED SUBSIDIARY (or, subject to Paragraph VI.I, any successor of a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY) shall be permitted to continue its then-current use of the GE MARKS but shall use its best efforts to effectuate cessation of its use of the GE MARKS in its corporate name as expeditiously as possible under the circumstances.

N. LICENSEE shall cause the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES to comply with the terms and conditions of this Article VI, and hereby grants LICENSOR the right to enforce this Agreement directly against a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY to the extent that such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY breaches the terms and conditions of this Article VI. Any such enforcement by LICENSOR against a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY shall be upon the same terms and conditions as are applicable to enforcement by LICENSOR against LICENSEE under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, LICENSEE'S failure to cause the LICENSED SUBSIDIARIES to comply in any material respect with the terms and conditions of this Article VI shall be a material breach of this Agreement by LICENSEE, and shall subject LICENSEE to termination of the license granted in Paragraph VI.E according to the termination process set forth in Paragraphs VI.J and VI.M. Provided that LICENSEE uses best efforts to address any material breach of a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY (such efforts including termination of such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY if the material breach is continuing), then notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, LICENSEE shall not be deemed to have breached this Agreement for failure to cause a LICENSED SUBSIDIARY to comply in any material respect with the terms and conditions of this Article VI to the extent that such LICENSED SUBSIDIARY'S breach is by its nature not capable of being remedied.

O. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by this Article VI, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of this Article VI shall be resolved in accordance with Exhibit E.

VII. TERMINATION

A. Unless terminated pursuant to any provision of this Article VII, this Agreement shall have a term (“TERM”) of five (5) years from the EFFECTIVE DATE.

B. This Agreement shall terminate as to a particular country with notice to LICENSEE on a date established by either LICENSOR or LICENSEE if a controlling substitute or short-form license agreement is required in such country pursuant to Paragraph IV.G hereof and such controlling substitute or short-form license agreement contains provisions unacceptable to the party giving notice hereunder.

C. In the event LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES breach in any material respect any representation, warranty or covenant of this Agreement (including, without limitation, any failure to address an AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR’S failure to comply with this Agreement as set forth in Paragraph II.E.3, including, without limitation, the standards and guidelines set forth in Paragraph IV.B), or in the event LICENSEE breaches its indemnification obligations as set forth in Section 5.2 of the Master Agreement, and LICENSOR gives LICENSEE written notice of such breach (which notice shall provide a description of the breach that is reasonable under the circumstances), LICENSEE or the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES shall have forty-five (45) days from LICENSEE’S receipt of such notice to remedy such breach. If the breach is not remedied within said forty-five (45) days, LICENSOR shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time thereafter by giving LICENSEE notice of such termination.

D. This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon notice to LICENSEE (i) in its entirety upon any of the following events with respect to LICENSEE and (ii) with respect to any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE, upon any of the following events with respect to such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE:

1. any merger or consolidation of LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE with an unrelated third party;
2. the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE to an unrelated third party; or
3. a change of control of LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE whereby any unrelated third party acquires fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding voting securities of LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or the power, directly or indirectly, to direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through ownership of securities or partnership or other ownership interests, by contract or otherwise) of LICENSEE or such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall not terminate if LICENSEE or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE acquires or attains control of a business entity, business unit, or block of business that provides PRODUCTS or SERVICES.

E. This Agreement shall automatically terminate with respect to LICENSEE, a PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR without notice to LICENSEE by LICENSOR in the event LICENSEE, such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR commences, or has commenced against it, proceedings under bankruptcy, insolvency or debtor's relief laws or similar laws in any other jurisdiction, which proceedings are not dismissed within sixty (60) days; LICENSEE, such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or LICENSEE, such PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or such AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR ceases operations or is liquidated or dissolved.

F. TRANSITION PERIODS.

1. Upon any termination under Paragraph VII.C, VII.D or VII.E of this Agreement in its entirety or with respect to LICENSEE, any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or any AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR (or, subject to Paragraphs VII.D and IX.E, any successor of LICENSEE, any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE or any AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR by way of merger, consolidation, purchase of all or substantially all of the assets thereof, or change of control), LICENSEE, any such terminated PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE and any such terminated AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR (or any such successor), as the case may be, shall be permitted to continue its then-current use of the LICENSED MARKS to the extent required to comply with applicable Laws for a TRANSITION PERIOD (as hereinafter defined) if LICENSEE obtains LICENSOR'S written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) prior to the start of any proposed TRANSITION PERIOD.

2. Upon any sale, divestiture or transfer by LICENSEE or any PERMITTED SUBLICENSEE of any of its business entities, business units, or blocks of business, such business entity, business unit or block of business shall be permitted to continue its then-current use of the LICENSED MARKS to the extent required to comply with applicable Laws for a TRANSITION PERIOD if LICENSEE obtains LICENSOR'S written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) prior to the start of any proposed TRANSITION PERIOD.

3. "TRANSITION PERIOD" means a nine (9) month period, which may be extended with LICENSOR'S prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) three (3) times for consecutive periods of thirty (30) days each, provided that LICENSEE, all applicable PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and all applicable AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS, as the case may be, at all times during such time period and such extension periods comply in good faith with the obligations contained herein and discontinue such use as promptly as practicable.

4. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no TRANSITION PERIOD shall extend beyond five (5) years from the EFFECTIVE DATE. LICENSEE, all applicable PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and all applicable AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS, as the case may be, shall comply with the transition provisions in Exhibit D.

G. The termination provisions of this Article VII do not apply to termination of the license granted in Article VI.

H. The following provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement: Paragraphs V.A, V.B, V.D, V.F, V.G, VII.F and Articles VIII and IX. Subject to the foregoing sentence, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all licenses granted to LICENSEE, the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES and the AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS herein shall immediately terminate.

VIII. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK

A. EACH PARTY AGREES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE GE MARKS ARE LICENSED HEREUNDER AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS AND WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, AND THAT LICENSOR DOES NOT MAKE, AND LICENSOR HEREBY SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS, ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

B. LICENSEE and the PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES hereby assume all risk and liability resulting from LICENSEE'S, PERMITTED SUBLICENSEES' and AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS' use of the GE MARKS.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of Laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

B. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Paragraph IX.B):

C. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

D. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Master Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

E. Assignment; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall not be assigned or transferred in whole or in part by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and any attempted assignment or transfer without such consent shall be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LICENSOR, in its sole discretion, may assign this Agreement in whole or in part to any AFFILIATE of LICENSOR at any time. Except as provided in Paragraph VII.F with respect to successors, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

F. Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to this Agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

G. Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, Paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, Paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified,

(c) the word "including" and words of similar import shall mean "including, without limitation," (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and (f) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.

H. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

I. Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Article VII of the Master Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by Article VI of this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of Article VI of this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Exhibit E.

J. No Waiver. Failure by LICENSOR at any time to enforce or require strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not affect or impair that provision in any way or the rights of LICENSOR to avail itself of the remedies it may have in respect of any subsequent breach of that or any other provision. The waiver of any term, condition, or provision of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the waiving Party. Any such waiver will not be construed as a waiver of any other term, condition, or provision, nor as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same term, condition, or provision, except as provided in a signed writing.

K. Headings. All headings used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only. They will not limit or extend the meaning of any provision of this Agreement, and will not be relevant in interpreting any provision of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, LICENSOR and LICENSEE have caused this instrument to be executed in duplicate by their duly authorized representatives as of the date first written above.

TRANSITION PROVISIONS

Within two (2) months after the first day of, as the case may be, the transition period set forth in Paragraph VI.E. or the TRANSITION PERIOD, LICENSEE shall prepare and deliver to LICENSOR a reasonable plan (the “Plan”) outlining the actions LICENSEE shall take to cease using, as the case may be, the GE MARKS or the LICENSED MARKS. The Plan shall include, without limitation, an expected timeline for taking such actions and a list of all necessary third party and regulatory approvals. Such Plan shall be mutually agreed upon by LICENSOR and LICENSEE. LICENSOR and LICENSEE shall in good faith reach mutual agreement on the Plan within thirty (30) days after LICENSEE’S delivery of the Plan to LICENSOR. In the event that LICENSOR does not provide LICENSEE with a substantive response on the Plan within thirty (30) days after LICENSEE’S delivery of the Plan to LICENSOR, the Plan shall be deemed mutually agreed upon. LICENSEE shall comply with the agreed-upon Plan. If LICENSEE does not comply with its material obligations under the Plan, then LICENSEE will be in breach of Paragraph VI.E. or Paragraph VII.F.4. of this Agreement, and LICENSOR shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Paragraph VI.J. or Paragraph VII.C., respectively.

From the time that the Plan is mutually agreed upon through the end of the transition period set forth in Paragraph VI.E or the TRANSITION PERIOD or successful conclusion of the Plan, whichever comes first, LICENSEE shall provide LICENSOR with written reports each ninety (90) days. Such reports shall summarize the status of LICENSEE’S actions under the Plan, including, without limitation, all approvals sought and received. LICENSEE shall provide any and all additional information as LICENSOR may reasonably request relating to such Plan and LICENSEE’S implementation thereof.

LICENSEE shall comply with all applicable terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement during, as the case may be, such transition period set forth in Paragraph VI.E. or such TRANSITION PERIOD.

EXHIBIT E

ARTICLE VI DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1.1 General Provisions .

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to Article VI of this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (an “Article VI Dispute”), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Exhibit E, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Article VI Dispute unless otherwise specified below. The parties expressly agree that dispute resolution procedures in this Exhibit E govern Article VI Disputes and supersede dispute resolution provisions contained in any other Transaction Documents, including but not limited to the Master Agreement, for Article VI Disputes.

(b) Commencing with an Article VI Initial Notice contemplated by Section 1.2 of this Exhibit E, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Article VI Dispute, including any mediator’s evaluation referred to in Section 1.3 of this Exhibit E, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of an Article VI Dispute settlement, shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Article VI Dispute

(c) The parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Exhibit E are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

(f) The parties hereto hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court located within the State of Delaware over any such Article VI Dispute and each party hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of any such Article VI Dispute or any suit, action or proceeding related thereto may be heard and determined in such courts. The parties hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such Article VI Dispute brought in such courts or any defense of inconvenient forum for the maintenance of such dispute. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a judgment in any such Article VI Dispute may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Law.

(g) Each party will bear its own attorney's fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Article VI Dispute.

1.2 Consideration by Senior Executives. If an Article VI Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Article VI Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Article VI Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Article VI Initial Notice"). Ten (10) days after delivery of the Article VI Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Article VI Response"). The Article VI Initial Notice and the Article VI Response shall include (i) a statement of the Article VI Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within twenty (20) days of the date of the Article VI Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Article VI Dispute.

1.3 Mediation. If an Article VI Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 1.2 within thirty (30) days from the delivery of the Article VI Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Article VI Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Article VI Dispute and the parties' relative positions. The parties agree to resolve such mediation within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator.

1.4 Arbitration. If an Article VI Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 1.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Article VI Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect, but amended as follows: (i) after an Article VI Dispute has arisen but has not been resolved by negotiation or mediation according to the time frames set forth in Sections 1.2 and 1.3, a party (the "Claimant") seeking to initiate arbitration shall send a Notice of Arbitration to the other party (the "Respondent") as soon as practicable; (ii) the Respondent shall deliver to the Claimant a notice of defense within five (5) business days of its receipt of the Notice of Arbitration; (iii) if a counterclaim is asserted in the Notice of Defense, the Claimant shall deliver to the Respondent a reply to counterclaim within five (5) business days of its receipt of the Notice of Defense; (iv) there shall be one (1) arbitrator, who shall be a member of the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals and shall be appointed by agreement of the parties, using their best, good faith efforts, within five (5) days after the Notice of Defense is received by the Claimant, or, if no agreement is reached, by the CPR upon written request of either party; and (v) no discovery will be allowed. The parties agree to resolve such arbitration within thirty (30) days of the date that the Claimant sends the Notice of Arbitration to the Respondent. Such arbitration proceeding shall take place in New York, New York unless the parties mutually agree to another location. The parties agree that no appeal shall lie from the arbitration award, that they will not challenge the arbitration award for any reason in any court, and that the arbitration award shall have the force and effect of a judgment as if a court having jurisdiction thereof has

License Grant

Section 2.01. Grant from GE to Genworth and its Affiliates.

(a) GE hereby grants, and shall cause its Affiliates to grant, to Genworth and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid up, worldwide, perpetual right and license, with no right to sublicense except as provided herein, under the GE Intellectual Property: (i) to allow employees, directors and officers of Genworth and its Affiliates to use and practice the GE Intellectual Property for internal purposes, (ii) to make, have made, use, sell, have sold, import, and otherwise commercialize Licensed Products and Services and (iii) to create Improvements in accordance with Section 2.04.

(b) Genworth and its Affiliates may grant sublicenses of the right and license granted under this Section 2.01 to an acquiror of any of the businesses, operations or assets of Genworth or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, which acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of Genworth and its Affiliates under this Agreement relating to such right and license (a copy of which agreement is provided to GE).

(c) Subject to the terms and conditions of Article VI, Genworth and its Affiliates may permit their suppliers, contractors and consultants to exercise the right and license granted to Genworth and its Affiliates under this Section 2.01 on behalf of and at the direction of Genworth and its Affiliates (and not solely for the benefit of such suppliers, contractors and consultants).

(d) Subject to the terms and conditions of Article VI, Genworth and its Affiliates may permit employees (including contract employees), directors and officers of their customers and suppliers in the ordinary course of Genworth's business (and not Persons who are customers or suppliers merely to access and use the GE Intellectual Property) to use training and productivity-enhancing Software and documentation that is subject to the right and license granted under this Section 2.01 and is for general use by customers and suppliers, provided that Genworth's or its Affiliates' purpose in permitting such use is to benefit the business of Genworth or its Affiliates, provided further that such customers and suppliers may not use any such Software and documentation in advertising, publicity or marketing activities without GE's prior written approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) With respect to the GE Intellectual Property set forth on Schedule C, the right and license granted to Genworth and its Affiliates under this Section 2.01 shall be further subject to the terms and conditions set forth on Schedule C.

Section 2.02. Grant from Genworth to GE and its Affiliates.

(a) Genworth hereby grants, and shall cause its Affiliates to grant, to GE and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid up, worldwide, perpetual right and license, with no right to sublicense except as provided herein, under the Genworth Intellectual Property: (i) to allow employees, directors and officers of GE and its Affiliates to use and practice the Genworth Intellectual Property for internal purposes, (ii) to make, have made, use, sell, have sold, import, and otherwise commercialize Licensed Products and Services and (iii) to create Improvements in accordance with Section 2.04.

(b) GE and its Affiliates may grant sublicenses of the right and license granted under this Section 2.02 to an acquiror of any of the businesses, operations or assets of GE or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, which acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of GE and its Affiliates under this Agreement relating to such right and license (a copy of which agreement is provided to Genworth).

(c) Subject to the terms and conditions of Article VI, GE and its Affiliates may permit their suppliers, contractors and consultants to exercise the right and license granted to GE and its Affiliates under this Section 2.02 on behalf of and at the direction of GE and its Affiliates (and not solely for the benefit of such suppliers, contractors and consultants).

(d) Subject to the terms and conditions of Article VI, GE and its Affiliates may permit employees (including contract employees), directors and officers of their customers and suppliers in the ordinary course of GE's business (and not Persons who are customers or suppliers merely to access and use the Genworth Intellectual Property) to use training and productivity-enhancing Software and documentation that is subject to the right and license granted under this Section 2.02 and is for general use by customers and suppliers, provided that GE's or its Affiliates' purpose in permitting such use is to benefit the business of GE or its Affiliates, provided further that such customers and suppliers may not use any such Software and documentation in advertising, publicity or marketing activities without Genworth's prior written approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 2.03. Third Party Licenses. To the extent that any Intellectual Property owned by a third party is licensed under Sections 2.01 or 2.02, such Intellectual Property shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of the relevant agreement between the Licensor and such third party pursuant to which such Intellectual Property has been licensed.

Section 2.04. Improvements. Improvements made after the Closing Date shall be owned by the party making such Improvement, or on whose behalf such Improvement was made, and, as between the parties, such party shall own all Intellectual Property rights in such Improvement. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) such party shall not own any Intellectual Property rights licensed to such party hereunder and (ii) such party may freely assign or license such Improvements but shall not have the right to assign any Intellectual Property of the other party and shall only have the right to sublicense Intellectual Property of the other party as expressly set forth herein. No rights are granted to either party to any Improvements made by, or on behalf of, the other party under the Intellectual Property licensed hereunder to the extent such Improvement was made after the Closing Date.

Section 2.05. Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. All rights and licenses granted under this Agreement are, and shall otherwise be deemed to be, for purposes of Section 365(n) of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), licenses of rights to "intellectual property" as defined under Section 101(35A) of the Bankruptcy Code. The parties shall retain and may fully exercise all of their respective rights and elections under the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 2.06. Customers. Each party agrees that it will use reasonable efforts to not knowingly bring any legal action or proceeding against, or otherwise communicate with, any customer of the other party with respect to any alleged infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property of such party licensed hereunder based on such customer's use of the other party's products or services without first providing the other party written notice of such alleged infringement, misappropriation or violation.

Section 2.07. Reservation of Rights. All rights not expressly granted by a party hereunder are reserved by such party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the parties expressly acknowledge that nothing contained herein shall be construed or interpreted as a grant, by implication or otherwise, of any licenses other than the licenses expressly set forth in this Article 2. The licenses granted in Sections 2.01 and 2.02 are subject to, and limited by, any and all licenses, rights, limitations and restrictions with respect to, as applicable, the GE Intellectual Property and the Genworth Intellectual Property previously granted to or otherwise obtained by any third party that are in effect as of the Closing.

Section 2.08. Cooperation Regarding Restrictions and Limitations Applicable to Licensed Intellectual Property.

(a) Until two (2) years after the Trigger Date, at the request of Genworth, GE agrees to, and to cause GE's Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to provide Genworth such copies of agreements (subject to any confidentiality restrictions that would prevent disclosure of such agreements) or other information that are sufficient to inform Genworth about any limitations or restrictions on the use and sublicensing of the GE Intellectual Property set forth on Schedule A hereto or other specific GE Intellectual Property identified by Genworth in writing to GE, which has not already been provided to the Genworth Group and which is not otherwise in the Genworth Group's possession. GE and its Affiliates shall not have any liability to Genworth and its Affiliates resulting or arising from the failure or inability to provide such agreements or information, and Genworth and its Affiliates shall not have any liability to GE and its Affiliates under this Agreement for failing to comply with limitations and/or restrictions on the use and sublicensing of GE Intellectual Property of which the Genworth Group did not have actual or constructive knowledge. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Master Agreement to the contrary, GE and its Affiliates shall not indemnify, defend or hold Genworth Group or its Affiliates harmless with respect to any Liabilities to any third party arising out of, or resulting from, any Intellectual Property of such third party licensed from GE or its Affiliates hereunder.

(b) Until two (2) years after the Trigger Date, at the request of GE, Genworth agrees to, and to cause Genworth's Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to provide GE such copies of agreements (subject to any confidentiality restrictions that would prevent disclosure of such agreements) or other information that are sufficient to inform GE about any limitations or restrictions on the use and sublicensing of the Genworth Intellectual Property set forth on Schedule B hereto or other specific Genworth Intellectual Property identified by GE in writing to Genworth, which has not already been provided to the GE Group and which is not otherwise in the GE Group's possession. Genworth and its Affiliates shall not have any liability to GE and its Affiliates resulting or arising from the failure or inability to provide such agreements or information, and GE and its Affiliates shall not have any liability to Genworth and its Affiliates under this Agreement for failing to comply with limitations and/or restrictions on the use and sublicensing of Genworth Intellectual Property of which the GE Group did not have actual or constructive knowledge. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Master Agreement to the contrary, Genworth and its Affiliates shall not indemnify, defend or hold GE or its Affiliates harmless with respect to any Liabilities to any third party arising out of, or resulting from, any Intellectual Property of such third party licensed from Genworth or its Affiliates hereunder.

Section 2.09. Delivery of Software.

(a) Until the expiration of two (2) years from the Trigger Date, either party may request one (1) copy of Software or other electronic content maintained on the other party's intranet or other computer network (" Electronic Materials ") that (i) is subject to the license granted to such requesting party under this Article II, (ii) has not already been provided to the requesting party, (iii) is not otherwise in the requesting party's possession and (iv) is not used to provide any GE Services or Company Services, as the case may be, to the requesting party or its Affiliates under the Transition Services Agreement, provided that if such requesting party has access to such intranet or computer network, such requesting party has first used commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such Software or Electronic Materials directly from such intranet or computer network prior to making such request. Subject to Section 2.03, the delivering party shall make available or deliver to the requesting party a copy of any such Software or Electronic Materials that is in existence at the time of such request and current as of the Closing Date; provided, however, that the delivering party may, at its sole discretion, make available or deliver a version of such Software and Electronic Materials that is current on or about the date of such request and includes upgrades, updates and other modifications made to such Software and Electronic Materials since the Closing Date. Any upgrades, updates or other modifications to Software and Electronic Materials that are made available or delivered to the requesting party pursuant to this Section 2.09 and Controlled by the delivering party as of the date they are made available or delivered shall be deemed to be GE Intellectual Property if made available or delivered by GE or its Affiliates, or Genworth Intellectual Property if made available or delivered by Genworth or its Affiliates, notwithstanding that such upgrades, updates or other modifications were not used, held for use or contemplated to be used by the receiving party as of the Closing Date or Controlled by the delivering party as of the Closing Date.

(b) All Software, Electronic Materials and upgrades, updates or other modifications thereto required to be made available to or delivered to a Licensee pursuant to Section 2.09(a), will be delivered by the Licensor to the Licensee electronically, or with the assistance of the Licensor, downloaded by the Licensee from the Internet, provided that the Licensee complies with all reasonable security measures implemented by the Licensor.

Section 2.10. Taxes.

(a) Each party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it or any of its Affiliates owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its or its Affiliates' business, and for taxes based on its or its Affiliates' net income or gross receipts.

(b) Genworth and its Affiliates may report and (as appropriate) pay any sales, use, excise, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties (collectively, "Taxes") for which Genworth and its Affiliates are responsible pursuant to Section 2.10 (a) directly if Genworth provides GE with a direct pay or exemption certificate.

(c) GE and its Affiliates may report and (as appropriate) pay any Taxes for which GE and its Affiliates are responsible pursuant to Section 2.10(a) directly if GE provides Genworth with a direct pay or exemption certificate.

(d) Each party agrees to cooperate with the other party to enable each to more accurately determine its and its Affiliates' own tax liability and to minimize such liability to the extent legally permissible.

(e) GE shall promptly notify Genworth of any claim for Taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which Genworth or any of its Affiliates is alleged to be financially responsible hereunder. GE shall coordinate with Genworth the response to and settlement of any such claim. Notwithstanding the above, Genworth's and its Affiliates' liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon GE providing Genworth notification within twenty (20) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by GE or its Affiliates.

(f) Genworth shall promptly notify GE of any claim for Taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which GE or its Affiliates is alleged to be financially responsible hereunder. Genworth shall coordinate with GE the response to and settlement of any such claim. Notwithstanding the above, GE's and its Affiliates' liability for such Taxes is conditioned upon Genworth providing GE notification within twenty (20) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional Taxes, interest or penalty due by Genworth or its Affiliates.

(g) Genworth and its Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid by Genworth or its Affiliates to GE or its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement. In the event GE or its Affiliates shall be entitled to receive a refund of any such Taxes, GE shall promptly pay, or cause the payment of, such refund to Genworth.

(h) GE and its Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and to retain any refund of Taxes paid by GE or its Affiliates to Genworth or its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement. In the event Genworth or its Affiliates shall be entitled to receive a refund of any such Taxes, Genworth shall promptly pay, or cause the payment of, such refund to GE.

ARTICLE III GE MATERIALS

Section 3.01. Prior to the Trigger Date. Prior to the Trigger Date, GE shall permit Genworth and its Affiliates to use the GE Materials in accordance with GE's standard policies, procedures and guidelines for use thereof by its Subsidiaries.

Section 3.02. Accounting Policies.

(a) On and after the Trigger Date, GE shall permit Genworth and its Affiliates to use the GE Accounting Policies for historical purposes of Genworth and its Affiliates. On and after the Trigger Date, GE shall permit Genworth and its Affiliates to use the GE Accounting Policies with the modifications required by Section 3.02(b) ("Genworth Accounting Policies") for the accounting and reporting purposes of Genworth and its Affiliates. Genworth and its Affiliates may create (and their respective contractors may create on their behalf), and Genworth and its Affiliates shall own, derivative works and modifications of the Genworth Accounting Policies. The Genworth Accounting Policies used by Genworth and its Affiliates may be (i) used by Genworth's and its Affiliates' employees (including contractors), auditors, accountants and financial advisors, (ii) disclosed as required by applicable Law and (iii) used by an acquiror of Genworth or its Affiliates or any of the businesses, operations or assets of Genworth or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, provided that such acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of Genworth and its Affiliates under this Agreement relating to such Genworth Accounting Policies (a copy of which agreement is provided to GE) provided further that such acquiror shall be limited to use of such Genworth Accounting Policies solely in connection with such businesses, operations or assets (and not any other businesses, operations or assets of the acquiror). It is understood and agreed that GE makes no representation or warranty as to the suitability of the GE Accounting Policies for use by Genworth and its Affiliates or any of their respective divested businesses.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the text of any Genworth Accounting Policies shall not contain any references to GE or its Affiliates, GE or its Affiliates' publications, GE or its Affiliates' personnel (including, without limitation, senior management).

Section 3.03. Corporate Policies .

(a) On and after the Trigger Date, GE shall permit Genworth and its Affiliates to adopt and use the summary of the policies set forth in the compliance guide entitled Integrity: the Spirit and Letter of Our Commitment and the full text of the policies (collectively, the “ Policies ”) published on the website “integrity.ge.com” with the modifications required by Section 3.03(b) (“ Genworth Policies ”) as Genworth's and its Affiliates' own policies, procedures and guidelines. Genworth and its Affiliates may create (and their respective contractors may create on their behalf), and Genworth and its Affiliates shall own, derivative works and modifications of the Genworth Policies. The Genworth Policies may be (i) used by Genworth's and its Affiliates' employees (including contractors), customers (including brokers and licensed agents) and suppliers, (ii) disclosed as required by applicable Law, and (iii) used by an acquiror of Genworth or its Affiliates or any of the businesses, operations or assets of Genworth or its Affiliates to which this Agreement relates, provided that such acquiror executes an agreement to be bound by all obligations of Genworth and its Affiliates under this Agreement relating to such Policies and Genworth Policies (a copy of which agreement is provided to GE) provided further that such acquiror shall be limited to use of such Genworth Policies solely in connection with such businesses, operations or assets (and not any other businesses, operations or assets of the acquiror). It is understood and agreed that GE makes no representation or warranty as to the suitability of the Policies for use by Genworth and its Affiliates or any of their respective divested businesses.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the text of any Genworth Policies shall not contain (i) any references to GE or its Affiliates, GE or its Affiliates' publications, GE or its Affiliates' personnel (including, without limitation, senior management) or (ii) the title of the Policy Guide (i.e., “Integrity: the Spirit and Letter of Our Commitment”), any portion thereof, or any confusingly similar phrase.

Section 3.04. Limitation on Rights and Obligations with Respect to the GE Materials . GE shall have no obligation under this Agreement (i) to notify Genworth and its Affiliates of any changes or proposed changes to any of the GE Materials, (ii) to include Genworth and its Affiliates in any consideration of proposed changes to any of the GE Materials, (iii) to provide draft changes of any of the GE Materials to Genworth and its Affiliates for review or comment, or (iv) to provide Genworth and its Affiliates with any updated materials relating to any of the GE Materials (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, Genworth and its Affiliates shall have no obligation hereunder with respect to any updated or changed GE Materials not received hereunder). The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, except as expressly set forth above, GE reserves all rights in, to and under, including, without limitation, all Intellectual Property rights with respect to, the GE Materials and no rights with respect to ownership or use, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, shall vest in Genworth and its Affiliates. Further, Genworth and its Affiliates agree to use the same degree of care that Genworth and its Affiliates use with respect to their own information and materials of a similar nature, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care, to ensure that the GE Materials are not used for any purpose other than the purposes set forth above. Genworth and its Affiliates will allow GE reasonable access to personnel and information as reasonably necessary to determine Genworth's and its Affiliates' compliance with the provisions set forth above.

ARTICLE IV Covenants

Section 4.01. Further Assistance. Each party hereby covenants and agrees that it shall, at the request of the other party, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist the other party in its efforts to obtain any third party consent, approval or waiver necessary to enable such other party to obtain a license to any Intellectual Property that, but for the requirements set forth in the definition of Control, would be the subject of a license granted pursuant to Section 2.01 or 2.02 hereunder; provided, however, that such party shall not be required to seek broader rights or more favorable terms for the other party than those applicable to such party prior to the date hereof or as may be applicable to such party from time to time thereafter. The parties acknowledge and agree that there can be no assurance that such party's efforts will be successful or that the other party will be able to obtain such licenses or rights on acceptable terms or at all.

Section 4.02. Ownership. No party shall represent that it has any ownership interest in any Intellectual Property of the other party licensed hereunder.

Section 4.03. Prosecution and Maintenance.

(a) Generally. Excluding the parties' obligations set forth in Section 4.03(b) in connection with the Applications, each party retains the sole right to protect at its sole discretion the Intellectual Property and Technology owned by such party, including, without limitation, deciding whether and how to file and prosecute applications to register patents, copyrights and mask work rights included in such Intellectual Property, whether to abandon prosecution of such applications, and whether to discontinue payment of any maintenance or renewal fees with respect to any patents; provided, however, that solely with respect to patent applications and issued patents set forth on Schedules A, B, and C, such party will notify the other party in writing prior to abandoning prosecution of such patent applications or discontinuing payment of any maintenance or renewal fees for such issued patents and allow the other party the opportunity to take such action on behalf of such party at the sole expense of the other party.

(b) GENIUS[®], CIP and Divisional Patent Applications. Pursuant to the Master Agreement, GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. or its Affiliate has assigned or will assign to Genworth the patent applications identified on Schedule D (collectively, the "GENIUS[®] Applications"). The term "GENIUS[®] Applications" as used herein shall include any patents directly resulting from the patent applications described on Schedule D, the first generation of applications based directly on such applications, and any patents directly resulting from such first generation of applications; provided, however, that it shall not include the GE Applications. GE may, at GE's option, file and prosecute with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") certain continuation-in-part ("CIP") and certain divisional patent applications based on the GENIUS[®] Applications as set forth below.

(i) Before the date hereof, GE shall have filed or caused to be filed with the USPTO the non-provisional CIP patent applications (the “ CIP Applications ”). The term “ CIP Applications ” as used herein shall include any patents directly resulting from the CIP Applications, the first generation of applications based directly on such applications, and any patents directly resulting from such first generation of applications. The CIP Applications shall be described on Schedule E hereto and shall have claims that are independent and distinct from the claims of the GENIUS[®] Applications. Genworth shall promptly notify GE of any restriction requirements from the USPTO permitting the filing of divisional applications based on the GENIUS[®] Applications (the “ Restriction Requirements ”). If GE in its sole discretion elects to file a non-provisional divisional application (“ Divisional Application ”) based on any such Restriction Requirement, GE shall so notify Genworth within thirty (30) days of GE’s receipt of such Restriction Requirement. The term “ Divisional Applications ” as used herein shall include any patents directly resulting from the Divisional Applications, the first generation of applications based directly on such applications, and any patents directly resulting from such first generation of applications. Any such “ Divisional Applications ” filed prior to the date hereof shall be described on Schedule E. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, GE shall only have the right to file Divisional Applications if the claims of such Divisional Applications correspond to a set of claims identified in a Restriction Requirement, each of which claims in the claim set being directed to subject matter outside of the insurance field. The Divisional Applications and CIP Applications are collectively referred to herein as the “ GE Applications .” The preparation, filing and prosecution of (i) the GE Applications shall be at GE’s sole cost and expense and (ii) the GENIUS[®] Applications shall be at Genworth’s sole cost and expense.

(ii) Each party will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the subject matter and prosecution of the Applications, including all filings and actions taken in connection therewith, do not adversely affect or limit the prosecution, claims, scope, validity or enforceability of the GENIUS[®] Applications, whether as the result of any double patenting rejection, prior art rejections, prosecution history estoppel matters or otherwise (the “ Prime Directive ”). Each party will also use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the subject matter and prosecution of the Applications, including all filings and actions taken in connection therewith, do not adversely affect or limit the prosecution, claims, scope, validity or enforceability of the GE Applications, whether as the result of any double patenting rejection, prior art rejections, prosecution history estoppel matters or otherwise (the “ Secondary Directive ”; the Prime Directive and Secondary Directive are collectively referred to as the “ Prosecution Guidelines ”). The Prosecution Guidelines shall only apply to the Applications. As used in this Section 4.03(b), the terms “prosecute” and “prosecution” and related derivations shall be deemed to include holding and/or maintaining issued patents.

(iii) The parties agree that in the event of any conflict between the Prime Directive and the Secondary Directive, the Prime Directive shall control and take precedence. Subject to the confidentiality provisions of Article VI, each party shall provide the other party with copies of material correspondence with the USPTO relating to the Applications within a sufficient time to allow for meaningful review, and each party shall promptly provide the other party with copies of all Office Actions and correspondence with the USPTO relating to such party’s Applications.

(iv) In the event it is not possible for a party to prosecute all claims of an Application in compliance with the Prosecution Guidelines, such party shall notify the other party and shall either elect to cease prosecuting the Application or have the other party prosecute the Application. In the event a party elects to cease prosecution of the Application in accordance with the foregoing, such party may abandon the Application, but only after notifying the other party of its intent to do so and, in the event the other party requests assignment of such Application to it, such party shall not abandon the Application and shall assign the Application to the other party whereupon any further prosecution of such Application will be at the other party's sole cost and expense and the other party shall own all rights to such Application and any resulting patents and such party shall have no right or interest therein. In the event that a rejection with respect to any claims in a GE Application can only be overcome by common ownership by Genworth and GE desires to continue the prosecution of such GE Application, GE will allow Genworth to prosecute such claims, and Genworth shall prosecute such claims, in Genworth's name at GE's sole cost and expense. The parties acknowledge that the Applications and all patents issuing on the Applications are subject to the licenses granted under Article II herein; provided, however, that GE and its Affiliates shall have no liability to Genworth in the event a GENIUS[®] Application is assigned to GE and such GENIUS[®] Application is not successfully prosecuted, and Genworth and its Affiliates shall have no liability to GE in the event a GE Application is assigned to Genworth and such GE Application is not successfully prosecuted.

(v) In the event a party desires to cease prosecution of or abandon any Application for any reason other than the inability to prosecute such Application in compliance with the Prosecution Guidelines, such party shall notify the other party prior to ceasing prosecution or abandoning the Application and in the event the other party requests assignment of such Application to it, such party shall not abandon the Application and shall assign the Application to the other party whereupon any further prosecution of such Application will be at the other party's sole cost and expense and the other party shall own all rights to such Application and any resulting patents and such party shall have no right or interest therein.

(vi) As a condition precedent to assignment of any GE Application to a party other than an Affiliate of GE, GE shall (i) notify Genworth prior to such assignment, (ii) obtain the written agreement of such assignee to be bound by the obligations of GE under this Section 4.03 (b), (iii) include Genworth in such written agreement as an intended third party beneficiary thereof and (iv) provide Genworth an executed original of such written agreement.

Section 4.04. Third Party Infringements, Misappropriations, Violations .

(a) Each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing of any actual or possible infringements, misappropriations or other violations of the Intellectual Property of the other party being licensed hereunder by a third party that come to such party's attention, as well as the identity of such third party or alleged third party and any evidence of such infringement, misappropriation or other violation within such party's custody or control. The other party shall have the sole right to determine at its sole discretion whether any action shall be taken in response to such infringements, misappropriations or other violations.

(b) Each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing upon learning of the existence or possible existence of rights held by any third party that may be infringed, misappropriated or otherwise violated by the use or practice of the Intellectual Property of the other party (or any element or portion thereof) licensed hereunder, as well as the identity of such third party and any evidence relating to such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation within such party's custody or control. Such party shall cooperate fully with the other party to avoid infringing, misappropriating or violating any third party rights, and shall discontinue all use and practice of such Intellectual Property that is the subject of such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation upon the reasonable request of the other party.

(c) Each party shall promptly notify the other party in writing upon learning of the existence or possible existence of rights held by any third party that may be infringed, misappropriated or otherwise violated by the use or practice of the Intellectual Property (or any element or portion thereof) licensed to the other party hereunder, as well as the identity of such third party. The other party shall cooperate fully with such party to avoid infringing, misappropriating or violating any third party rights, and shall discontinue all use and practice of such Intellectual Property that is the subject of such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation upon the reasonable request of such party, and shall provide such party any evidence relating to such purported infringement, misappropriation or other violation within the other party's custody or control.

Section 4.05. Patent Marking. Each party acknowledges and agrees that it will comply with all reasonable requests of the other party relative to patent markings required to comply with or obtain the benefit of statutory notice or other provisions.

ARTICLE V Term and Termination

Section 5.01. Term. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in perpetuity unless terminated in accordance with its terms.

Section 5.02. No Termination. This Agreement may only be terminated upon the mutual written agreement of the parties. In the event of a breach of this Agreement, the sole and exclusive remedy of the non-breaching party shall be to recover monetary damages and/or to obtain injunctive or equitable relief.

ARTICLE VI Confidentiality

All Genworth Confidential Information and GE Confidential Information licensed pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 6.2 of the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE VII
General Provisions

Section 7.01. Assignment.

(a) This Agreement shall not be assignable, in whole or in part, by any party hereto to any third party, including, without limitation, Affiliates of any party, without the prior written consent of the other party hereto, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be assigned by any party as follows without obtaining the prior written consent of the other party hereto:

(i) GE, in its sole discretion, may assign this Agreement, and any or all of its rights under this Agreement, and may delegate any or all of its duties under this Agreement to any Affiliate of GE at any time, which expressly accepts such assignment in writing and assumes, as applicable, any such obligations, provided that GE shall continue to remain liable for the performance by such assignee.

(ii) Genworth, in its sole discretion, may assign this Agreement, and any or all of its rights under this Agreement, and may delegate any or all of its duties under this Agreement to any Affiliate of Genworth at any time, which expressly accepts such assignment in writing and assumes, as applicable, any such obligations, provided that Genworth shall continue to remain liable for the performance by such assignee.

(iii) Each party may assign any or all of its rights, or delegate any or all of its duties, under this Agreement to (i) an acquiror of all or substantially all of the equity or assets of the business of such party to which this Agreement relates or (ii) the surviving entity in any merger, consolidation, equity exchange or reorganization involving such party, provided that such acquiror or surviving entity, as the case may be, executes an agreement to be bound by all the obligations of such party under this Agreement (a copy of which agreement is provided to the other party).

(b) If a party requests the written consent of the other party to any assignment of this Agreement, the other party agrees to negotiate in good faith with such party regarding such consent. This Agreement shall also be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns of each party hereto. All license rights and covenants contained herein shall run with all Intellectual Property of any party licensed hereunder and shall be binding on any successors in interest or assigns thereof.

Section 7.02. Warranty and Disclaimer. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY HEREIN OR IN THE MASTER AGREEMENT, THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LICENSED BY EACH PARTY TO THE OTHER PARTY PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE GE MATERIALS ARE FURNISHED "AS IS", WITH ALL FAULTS AND WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, QUALITY, USEFULNESS, COMMERCIAL UTILITY, ADEQUACY, COMPLIANCE WITH ANY LAW, DOMESTIC OR FOREIGN AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE.

Section 7.03. Consequential and Other Damages. NEITHER GENWORTH OR ITS AFFILIATES, ON THE ONE HAND, NOR GE OR ITS AFFILIATES, ON THE

OTHER HAND, SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (PROVIDED THAT ANY SUCH LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO A THIRD PARTY CLAIM SHALL BE CONSIDERED DIRECT DAMAGES) OF THE OTHER ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRANSACTIONS HEREUNDER.

Section 7.04. Assumption of Risk.

(a) Except as provided in the Master Agreement, Genworth, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, hereby assumes all risk and liability in connection with their use of the GE Intellectual Property.

(b) Except as provided in the Master Agreement, GE, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, hereby assumes all risk and liability in connection with their use of the Genworth Intellectual Property.

Section 7.05. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York irrespective of the choice of Laws principles of the State of New York other than Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York.

Section 7.06. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by overnight courier service, by facsimile with receipt confirmed (followed by delivery of an original via overnight courier service) or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 7.06):

Section 7.07. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any Law or as a matter of public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 7.08. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Master Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between or on behalf of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

Section 7.09. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their Affiliates and the permitted sublicensees, successors and assigns of the parties and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 7.10. Amendment. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified except by a written instrument signed by all the parties to this Agreement. No waiver by any party of any provision hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. The waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other subsequent breach.

Section 7.11. Rules of Construction. Interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the following rules of construction: (a) words in the singular shall be held to include the plural and vice versa and words of one gender shall be held to include the other gender as the context requires, (b) references to the terms Article, Section, Paragraph, and Schedule are references to the Articles, Sections, Paragraphs, and Schedules to this Agreement unless otherwise specified, (c) the word “including” and words of similar import shall mean “including, without limitation,” (d) provisions shall apply, when appropriate, to successive events and transactions, (e) the table of contents and headings contained herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement and (f) this Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted. Unless specifically stated in the Master Agreement that a particular provision of the Master Agreement should be given effect in lieu of a conflicting provision in this Agreement, to the extent that any provision contained in this Agreement conflicts with, or cannot logically be read in accordance with, any provision of the Master Agreement, the provision contained in this Agreement shall prevail. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to waive a party’s rights or relieve or otherwise satisfy any party’s obligations under Section 6.12 the Master Agreement.

Section 7.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

Section 7.13. Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination of any provision of this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Article VII of the Master Agreement.

Section 7.14. No Waiver. Failure by either party at any time to enforce or require strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not affect or impair that provision in any way or the rights of such party to avail itself of the remedies it may have in respect of any subsequent breach of that or any other provision. The waiver of any term, condition, or provision of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the waiving party. Any such waiver will not be construed as a waiver of any other term, condition, or provision, nor as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same term, condition, or provision, except as provided in a signed writing.

Section 7.15. Relationship of the Parties. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be deemed to make any party the agent, employee, partner or joint venturer of the other or be deemed to provide such party with the power or authority to act on behalf of the other party or to bind the other party to any contract, agreement or arrangement with any other individual or entity.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between GE Life and Annuity Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

“Trustee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Benefits" shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company's participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI and Article VII shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $3 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

ARTICLE VI EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the “Initial Report”).

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Quarterly Report"). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Annual Report").

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

ARTICLE XI

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the “Trust Agreement”) and establish a trust account (the “Trust Account”) for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the “Trustee”) designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

ARTICLE XII

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044
Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GE LIFE AND ANNUITY ASSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;

- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception

Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

ARTICLE XIII

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

ARTICLE XV

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEL, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVI

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.13. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The disclosure is required by law; or

(2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and

b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures . Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);
 2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
 4. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The “ Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor ” used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

|---------------------------|--------------------|
| Policy Maintenance Factor | $23.84 per Policy |
|---------------------------|--------------------|

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Triennial Study”) and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report”).

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the “Triennial Study Documents”).

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents”).

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents . Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement . In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution . If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between Federal Home Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

“Reinsured Contracts” means the structured settlements immediate annuity contracts issued by the Company and recorded in the Company’s valuation system on or prior to December 3, 2003 or reinsured by the Company under reinsurance agreements in effect prior to January 1, 2004, and, in each case, written on the policy forms described in Schedule A.

“Reinsured Risks” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.1.

“Response” shall have the meaning specified in Section 13.2.

“SAP” means statutory accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

“Tax DAC” means specified policy acquisition expenses capitalized and amortized under section 848 of the Code.

“Termination Date” means the effective date of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Article VIII.

“Termination Letter Agreement” means the letter agreement dated the date hereof among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain affiliates of the Company relating to the rescission of this Agreement upon the failure of certain events to occur after the date hereof.

“Total SAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross policy reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with SAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks.

“Total GAAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross policy reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with GAAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks.

“Trust Account” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trust Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trustee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Benefits" shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company's participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b)(iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI and Article VII shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $5 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the "Initial Report").

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Quarterly Report"). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Annual Report").

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto ("Eligible Securities").

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the "Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and

- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York

City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

If to the Company:

Federal Home Life Insurance Company

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044
Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between FEDERAL HOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;

- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception

Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

ARTICLE V

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

ARTICLE XIII

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEL, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Virginia, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices. Attention: General Counsel

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.13. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor" used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

Policy Maintenance Factor $23.84 per Policy

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between General Electric Capital Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means calendar quarter, except that the last Accounting Period shall be the period commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter in which the Termination Date falls and ending with the Termination Date.

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

"Annual Report" shall have the meaning specified in Section 7.4.

"Applicable Law" means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit, governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person's subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person's officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“Assets” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.3(a).

“Total GAAP Ceded Reserves” means, as of any given date, the gross policy reserves of the Company calculated in accordance with GAAP with respect to the Reinsured Risks.

“Trust Account” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trust Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

“Trustee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Benefits" shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company's participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

(iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI and Article VII shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $26 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the "Initial Report").

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Quarterly Report"). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Annual Report").

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of the liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the “Trust Agreement”) and establish a trust account (the “Trust Account”) for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the “Trustee”) designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and

- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York

City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Delaware, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL ASSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

- 4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:
- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;

- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception

Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

ARTICLE V

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

ARTICLE XIII

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Delaware, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.13. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards . Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions . In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives . Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);
 2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
 4. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor" used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

|---------------------------|--------------------|
|---------------------------|--------------------|

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Benefits" shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company's participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

(iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $2 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the "Initial Reinsurance Premium").

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the "Ceding Commission") in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F – Part I (the “Initial Report”).

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F – Part II (the “Quarterly Report”). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer’s SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F – Part III (the “Annual Report”).

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer’s Liability. The Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, all reinsurance made, ceded, renewed or otherwise becoming effective under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

ARTICLE XI

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the “Trust Agreement”) and establish a trust account (the “Trust Account”) for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the “Trustee”) designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the "Company Account") in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company's liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C.

§§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

GE CAPITAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GE CAPITAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as set forth herein, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

As between the Company and the Administrator, the Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the final right to direct the Administrator in the performance of the Administrative Services in accordance with the standards for services set forth in Section 2.1, including the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law. All services hereunder shall be performed by the Administrator in the name of and on behalf of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain a toll-free number for use by policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries. Any and all correspondence with policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries and check stock utilized by the Administrator for payments under the Reinsured Contracts shall be in the name of the Company or in the name of the Administrator and disclosing that the Administrator is acting as the administrative agent of the Company.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING; POLICYHOLDER SERVICING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards, (v) in accordance with standards of service as agreed to by the Administrator and the Company and, subject to the foregoing, (vi) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

2.4. Policyholder Servicing. The Administrator shall provide policyholder servicing with regards to the Reinsured Contracts, including changes of address, responding to policyholder inquiries and similar services.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims") in accordance with procedures and guidelines established by the Company, such procedures and guidelines to be in accordance with the standards of service set forth in Section 2.1.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;
- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall retain final authority for the resolution of inquiries by Governmental Authorities and consumer complaints; provided, however the Company agrees to act reasonably in the exercise of such authority.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;

- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator . The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings . Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator, reasonably acceptable to the Company and approved by the New York Insurance Department to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company’s premium tax liability (“Premium Tax Credits”). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

ARTICLE VIII

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Quarterly Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Annual Reports. In addition, as soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company such other reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.

- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law, including New York Regulation 152, and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. All such records pertaining to the Reinsured Contracts shall be the property of the Company, provided that the Administrator shall at all times have the right to retain a copy of such books and records. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws.

The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and without the prior written consent of the New York Insurance Department and the Illinois Insurance Department. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Safeguarding Customer Information. The Administrator shall implement and maintain appropriate measures designed to meet the objectives of New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 173, with respect to safeguarding the Company's customer information and customer information systems. The Administrator shall adjust its information security program at the reasonable request of the Company for any relevant changes indicated by the Company's assessment of risk around its customer information and customer information systems. Confirming evidence that the Administrator has satisfied its obligations under this Agreement shall be made available, during normal business hours, for inspection by the Company, representatives of the Company, and any governmental agency that has regulatory authority over the Company's business activities.

18.6. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.7. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.9. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.11. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.13. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.14. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

18.15. Licensing. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Administrator shall maintain in full force and effect all licenses required to be maintained by it under Applicable Law with respect to this Agreement, including, if applicable, an independent claims adjuster license.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose .

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations . Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);
 2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
 4. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor" used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

Policy Maintenance Factor $23.84 per Policy

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

COINSURANCE AGREEMENT

This Coinsurance Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between American Mayflower Life Insurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity coinsurance agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any insurance policy or contract reinsured hereunder.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby cedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of the liability incurred by the Company for Benefits on or after the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Contracts which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made in any Reinsured Contract without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover liability incurred by the Company for Benefits as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Benefits. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, "Benefits" shall mean the actual benefits payable by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Reinsured Contracts shall be treated as a Benefit payable for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in the administration of the Reinsured Contracts on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) This Agreement excludes all liability arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise from the Company's participation or membership, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any Insolvency Fund.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Contracts.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Contracts without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.7, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in accordance with the terms hereof. All Benefits paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such Benefits are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Contracts. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (including the administration of claims for Benefits thereunder) in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (iv) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (v) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than such standards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own structured settlement annuities business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements . The Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Reinsured Contract, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Inspection . The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration hereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.4. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.5. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Contracts is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.6. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.7. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.7.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.7(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Reinsured Contracts upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such a breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XIII regarding an alleged material breach); or

- (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.7(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7(b).

(d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article VI shall become inoperative.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Benefits and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of Benefits in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of Benefits in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $2 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Benefits during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a “Minimum Claims Settlement Amount”). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company’s insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Benefits from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company’s cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each calendar month (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards , and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company’s claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII or the assumption by the Reinsurer of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts pursuant to Section 3.7. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the “Initial Reinsurance Premium”).

5.2. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C.

5.3. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.6. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Report, as applicable. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in the providing of policyholder and Benefit payment services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each calendar month ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an “Expense Allowance”) in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth on Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the "Initial Report").

7.2. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Quarterly Report"). For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Contracts occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.3. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.4. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Annual Report").

7.5. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.6. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

ARTICLE VIII

DURATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

8.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

8.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 8.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

9.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, all reinsurance made, ceded, renewed or otherwise becoming effective under this Agreement shall be payable by the Reinsurer directly to the Company or to its liquidator, receiver, or statutory successor on the basis of the liability of the Company under the contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Contract within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

9.2. Expenses. It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

10.1. Reinsurance Credit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

REINSURANCE SECURITY

11.1. Trust. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the “Trust Agreement”) and establish a trust account (the “Trust Account”) for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the “Trustee”) designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and

- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 11.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 11.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer’s liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 11.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer’s liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

12.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company an alternative calculation in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 13.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 13.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

13.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

13.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 13.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

13.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 13.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York

City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 13.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XIII.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

14.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

14.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 14.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

14.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

14.5. Currency. Whenever the word “Dollars” or the “$” sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

14.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

14.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

14.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void or unenforceable provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

14.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

14.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

14.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

14.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

14.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

14.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

14.15. Survival. Article XIII and Article XIV shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

AMERICAN MAYFLOWER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between AMERICAN MAYFLOWER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Coinsurance Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Coinsurance Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Coinsurance Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of the liability of the Company for Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Coinsurance Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as set forth herein, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

As between the Company and the Administrator, the Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Reinsured Contracts including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the final right to direct the Administrator in the performance of the Administrative Services in accordance with the standards for services set forth in Section 2.1, including the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Reinsured Contracts or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law. All services hereunder shall be performed by the Administrator in the name of and on behalf of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain a toll-free number for use by policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries. Any and all correspondence with policyholders, certificateholders and beneficiaries and check stock utilized by the Administrator for payments under the Reinsured Contracts shall be in the name of the Company or in the name of the Administrator and disclosing that the Administrator is acting as the administrative agent of the Company.

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING; POLICYHOLDER SERVICING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering structured settlement business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Contracts, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards, (v) in accordance with standards of service as agreed to by the Administrator and the Company and, subject to the foregoing, (vi) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Reinsured Contracts to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

2.4. Policyholder Servicing. The Administrator shall provide policyholder servicing with regards to the Reinsured Contracts, including changes of address, responding to policyholder inquiries and similar services.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrator shall pay all Benefits payable on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims") in accordance with procedures and guidelines established by the Company, such procedures and guidelines to be in accordance with the standards of service set forth in Section 2.1.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;
- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall retain final authority for the resolution of inquiries by Governmental Authorities and consumer complaints; provided, however, the Company agrees to act reasonably in the exercise of such authority.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Reinsured Contracts ("Legal Proceeding(s)”), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;

- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company’s request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Reinsured Contracts to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Reinsured Contracts in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XV hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company’s prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Reinsured Contracts a written notice prepared by the Administrator, reasonably acceptable to the Company and approved by the New York Insurance Department to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Reinsured Contracts under Section 3.7 of the Coinsurance Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.7(a) or 3.7(c) of the Coinsurance Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

6.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an “Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting”) setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date Assessments”). The Administrator shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting.

6.2. Adjustments Regarding Insolvency Fund Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

7.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Reinsured Contracts, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Reinsured Contracts that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

7.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company's premium tax liability ("Premium Tax Credits"). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount of Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator an amount equal to such Premium Tax Credits.

ARTICLE VIII

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

8.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Reinsured Contracts. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Reinsured Contracts (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Reinsured Contracts.

8.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Quarterly Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company the Annual Reports. In addition, as soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company such other reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Reinsured Contracts as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.

- (ii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Reinsured Contracts as of the quarter end.
- (iii) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts.
- (iv) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Reinsured Contracts, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

8.3. Additional Reports and Updates . For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall provide such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of the Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE X

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Contracts and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law, including New York Regulation 152, and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. All such records pertaining to the Reinsured Contracts shall be the property of the Company, provided that the Administrator shall at all times have the right to retain a copy of such books and records. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Contracts, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Contracts, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws.

The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Reinsured Contracts is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto, if applicable, or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Coinsurance Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XIV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

DURATION; TERMINATION

16.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Reinsured Contract until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Reinsured Contract is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 16.2.

16.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;
- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 16.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 16.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 16.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 17.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 17.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

17.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

17.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 17.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

17.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 17.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 17.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 17.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVII.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

18.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

18.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and without the prior written consent of the New York Insurance Department and the Illinois Insurance Department. Any assignment in violation of this Section 18.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

18.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

18.5. Safeguarding Customer Information. The Administrator shall implement and maintain appropriate measures designed to meet the objectives of New York Insurance Department Regulation No. 173, with respect to safeguarding the Company's customer information and customer information systems. The Administrator shall adjust its information security program at the reasonable request of the Company for any relevant changes indicated by the Company's assessment of risk around its customer information and customer information systems. Confirming evidence that the Administrator has satisfied its obligations under this Agreement shall be made available, during normal business hours, for inspection by the Company, representatives of the Company, and any governmental agency that has regulatory authority over the Company's business activities.

18.6. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

18.7. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

18.8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

18.9. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

18.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

18.11. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

18.12. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

18.13. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

18.14. Survival. Article XVII and Article XVIII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

18.15. Licensing. At all times during the term of this Agreement, the Administrator shall maintain in full force and effect all licenses required to be maintained by it under Applicable Law with respect to this Agreement, including, if applicable, an independent claims adjuster license.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities.

Business Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards . Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions . In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives . Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);

SCHEDULE E
EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor” used to calculate the Expense Allowance is as follows:

Policy Maintenance Factor $23.84 per Policy

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Triennial Study”) and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report”).

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the “Triennial Study Documents”).

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the “Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents”).

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Contracts and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

RETROCESSION AGREEMENT

This Retrocession Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between General Electric Capital Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity retrocession agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to Travelers under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement or to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any Novated Policy.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall assign, delegate, sublicense or transfer, in whole or in part, any rights, interests or obligations under the Travelers Agreements.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means each calendar month, except that the last Accounting Period shall be the period commencing with the first day of the month in which the Termination Date falls and ending with the Termination Date.

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

“ Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses ” means all costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Company or its Affiliates in the investigation, adjustment, settlement or defense of all claims or the monitoring, preservation or enforcement of rights, interests or benefits arising out of or relating to the Reinsured Policies (excluding office expenses and salaries of officials of the Company or its Affiliates or any other administrative or overhead expenses of the Company or of its Affiliates), and court costs, and interest on any judgment or award. Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses shall also include expenses associated with an action by any entity for declaratory judgment filed in connection with the Reinsured Policies.

“ Annual Report ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 7.5.

“ Applicable Law ” means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person’s subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person’s officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“ Assets ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.4(a).

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby retrocedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company and unpaid as of the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made by the Company on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made by the Company in any Reinsured Policy without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Ultimate Net Loss. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, “Ultimate Net Loss” shall mean (i) in the case of all Reinsured Policies other than the Novated Policies, one hundred percent (100%) of the Company’s liability arising under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement (including without limitation Stop-Loss Payments due by the Company to Travelers under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) after making deductions for all recoveries, salvage and subrogations actually recovered, and (ii) in the case of Novated Policies (A) the actual Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses payable by the Company after making deductions for all recoveries, salvage and subrogations actually recovered, (B) premium taxes due in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies, (C) Insolvency Fund assessments, net of any premium tax credits of the Company arising out of any such assessments, in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies, (D) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Novated Policies, (E) all liability for commission payments and other fees or compensation payable with respect to the Reinsured Policies in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date and (F) unclaimed property liabilities and obligations arising under or related to the Reinsured Policies and payable on or after the Inception Date.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement shall be treated as a Loss for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in its administration of the Reinsured Policies on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) All recoveries or payments received by the Company subsequent to a loss settlement under this Agreement shall be applied as if recovered or received prior to the aforesaid settlement and all necessary adjustments shall be made by the parties hereto; provided, that nothing in this Section 2.3(c) shall be construed to mean that the Reinsurer's share of the Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses under this Agreement are not recoverable until the Company's Ultimate Net Loss has been ascertained.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Policies.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Policies without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

2.6. Novation of Reinsured Policies. The Reinsurer acknowledges that the Company is obligated under the terms of the Travelers Agreements to use its reasonable best efforts to assume and effect the novation of each of the Reinsured Policies from Travelers to the Company, so as to substitute the Company, in lieu of Travelers, as the insurer directly liable to the underlying insureds under the Reinsured Policies. Any Reinsured Policy that has been novated to the Company is referred to in this Agreement as a "Novated Policy". In the event that a Reinsured Policy is novated from Travelers to the Company, such Reinsured Policy shall continue for all purposes of this Agreement to be a Reinsured Policy hereunder. The Reinsurer shall reimburse the Company for all costs reasonably incurred by the Company in seeking to so novate the Reinsured Policies, which, for the avoidance of doubt, are not included in the Expense Allowance.

2.7. Travelers Reinsurance Agreement. The Reinsurer acknowledges that the Company is obligated under the terms of the Travelers Side Letter to amend the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement not later than July 31, 2008, to increase the portion of the underlying business that Travelers has ceded to the Company on a coinsurance basis from ninety percent (90%) to one hundred percent (100%) of the Reinsured Liabilities (as such term is defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement). Any such increased cession of the Reinsured Liabilities (as such term is defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) shall be reinsured under this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.9, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing and Business Overhead Services identified on Schedule E-1 hereto with respect to the Reinsured Policies in accordance with the terms hereof. All claims paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such claims are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Policies. The Company shall administer the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement and provide policyholder and claims servicing and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering long term care insurance business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Policies, (ii) in accordance with the terms of the Travelers Agreements, (iii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iv) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (v) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (vi) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than the Company's standards in effect on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Policies, provided, that such standards are not in conflict with the terms of the Travelers Agreements.

(b) The Company may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the Company also subcontracts for such service or services for its own long term care insurance business not subject to this Agreement to such subcontractor; provided, further, that such subcontracting is permitted under the Travelers Servicing Agreement; and provided, further, that no such subcontracting shall relieve the Company from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Company shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Company.

3.2. Claims Settlements. (a) With respect to Reinsured Policies that are not Novated Policies, the Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to litigate a claim with respect to such Reinsured Policy, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such litigation.

(b) With respect to Novated Policies, the Company agrees that it will provide prompt notice to the Reinsurer of its intention to contest, compromise or litigate a claim with respect to a Novated Policy, along with copies of all pleadings and reports of investigation with respect thereto. The Reinsurer shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Company in the investigation, adjustment or defense of such claims with respect to Novated Policies. In addition, in the event that litigation arises against the Company in connection with a claim with respect to a Novated Policy which seeks damages in excess of $1 million or other remedies deemed material to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer may, upon written notice to the Company, assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Reinsurer and reasonably satisfactory to the Company. If the Reinsurer assumes such defense, the Company shall have the right, at its own expense, to participate jointly with the Reinsurer in the defense thereof. If the Reinsurer assumes the defense of litigation, the Reinsurer shall not settle such litigation without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Reinsurer.

3.3. Re-rating of Novated Policies. The Company (i) agrees to promptly seek to increase or decrease the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Inception Date as directed by the Reinsurer and (ii) shall be entitled to increase premium rates without the consent of the Reinsurer. With respect to the Novated Policies, neither the Reinsurer nor the Company may seek or implement, as applicable, a premium rate increase unless such premium rate increase would have been permitted under the terms of Section 3.2(i) of the Travelers Servicing Agreement assuming such Novated Policies continued to be "Reinsured Contracts" as defined under the Travelers Servicing Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Reinsurer nor the Company may seek or implement, as applicable, more than one (1) premium rate increase with respect to the Novated Policies in any state in any period of three (3) calendar years.

Except as required by Section 3.3(i) or by Applicable Law, the Company shall refrain from seeking any decrease in the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Inception Date.

The Reinsurer shall bear, and shall indemnify the Company for, all costs and liabilities incurred in or arising out of seeking or effecting any premium rate changes at the direction of the Reinsurer, which, for the avoidance of doubt, are not included in the Expense Allowance.

3.4. Inspection. The Company shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Reinsured Policies and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement. The Reinsurer and its designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Reinsured Policies and the administration thereof by the Company (including compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1), and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the Company, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as the Company seeks performance by the Reinsurer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or the Reinsurer reasonably needs access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

3.5. Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is unintentional and caused by misunderstanding or oversight, the Company and the Reinsurer will adjust the situation to what it would have been had the misunderstanding or oversight not occurred. The party first discovering such misunderstanding or oversight, or an act resulting from such misunderstanding or oversight, will notify the other party in writing promptly upon discovery thereof, and the parties shall act to correct such misunderstanding or oversight within twenty (20) Business Days of such other party's receipt of such notice. However, this Section shall not be construed as a waiver by either party of its right to enforce strictly the terms of this Agreement.

3.6. Age, Sex and Other Adjustments. If the Company's liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of a misstatement of age or sex or any other material fact, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

3.7. Setoff. Any debts or credits, matured or unmatured, in favor of or against either the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to this Agreement or any other reinsurance agreement between the Company and the Reinsurer, are deemed mutual debts or credits, as the case may be, and shall be setoff from any amounts due to the Company or the Reinsurer hereunder, as the case may be, and only the net balance shall be allowed or paid.

3.8. Salvage and Subrogation. The Company shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to fully obtain the benefit of any and all potential recoveries, salvage and subrogations that would reasonably be expected to reduce the amount of Ultimate Net Loss.

3.9. Administration by Reinsurer. (a) At any time from and after the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date, the Reinsurer shall have the right to assume from the Company the administration of the Novated Policies, provided that the Reinsurer provides twelve (12) months prior written notice of such assumption, which notice may be given as early as the fourteenth (14th) anniversary of the Inception Date to take effect as of the fifteenth (15th) anniversary of the Inception Date. The Reinsurer shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to this paragraph (a) of this Section 3.9.

- (b) In addition to the provisions of Section 3.9(a), the Reinsurer shall have the right, upon written notice to the Company to assume from the Company the administration of the Novated Policies upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Company for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Company;
 - (ii) There is a material breach by the Company of any material term or condition of this Article III that is not cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Reinsurer of such breach or act (provided that the Reinsurer shall not have the right to assume such administration (A) for so long as the Company is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XV regarding an alleged material breach); or
 - (iii) The Company is unable to perform the services required under this Article III for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason, other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 3.9(b) (iii) shall relieve the Company from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement “Force Majeure” means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Reinsurer, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Company’s reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.
- (c) The Company shall bear all transition costs associated with an assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to Section 3.9(b).
- (d) In the event of the Reinsurer’s assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies, the Reinsurer and the Company shall enter into an administrative services agreement in the form attached hereto as Schedule B and the provisions of Article IV, Article VI and Article VII shall become inoperative with respect to the Novated Policies.

ARTICLE IV

CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACCOUNT; CLAIMS

4.1. Claims Settlement Account. (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall establish a separate bank account (the “Claims Settlement Account”) in its own name for the payment of Reinsured Risks and shall authorize two signatories who shall be representatives of the Company and approved by the Reinsurer in writing to issue drafts in the name of the Reinsurer and showing the identity of the Company. The Reinsurer shall fund such account for payment of claims in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.1(b). Any interest earned on the Claims Settlement Account shall belong to the Reinsurer. The Claims Settlement Account shall be administered by the Company in a fiduciary capacity and shall be used solely by the Company to make payments of claims in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The Reinsurer shall deposit $7.5 million in the Claims Settlement Account on the Closing Date and shall thereafter fund the Claims Settlement Account on or before the fifth (5th) day of each month in amounts agreed by the Company and the Reinsurer from time to time in amounts sufficient to provide funds to the Company for the payment of Reinsured Risks during the next thirty (30) days, or such other amount as may be mutually agreed by the parties (such initial deposit amount and each minimum funding amount as agreed from time to time shall be referred to as a "Minimum Claims Settlement Amount"). In addition, the Reinsurer shall deposit to the Claims Settlement Account such additional amounts as may be required to keep the balance of such account above zero at all times. In consideration of the Reinsurer providing the Claims Settlement Account arrangement, the Company agrees that it shall apply funds in the Claims Settlement Account against the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until such funds are exhausted.

(c) The Company shall keep true and complete records, in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Company's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the Claims Settlement Account, including records relating to the payment of Reinsured Risks from the Claim Settlement Account. The Company will make available to the Reinsurer, or shall furnish to the Reinsurer or its designated representative, upon request of the Reinsurer or its designated representative, copies of all such records. All copies furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Company at the Company's cost, which shall be included in the Expense Allowance. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Company in response to requests from the Reinsurer shall be reimbursed by the Reinsurer.

(d) Within thirty (30) days after each Accounting Period (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall render a complete accounting to the Reinsurer detailing all transactions with respect to the Claims Settlement Account, in such form as agreed by the parties.

(e) The parties agree to deliver to the depository bank such depository resolutions, signature cards, and other documents as may be requested of them in order to use such accounts at the depository bank in accordance with the provisions of this Article IV.

(f) Upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article IX, the Reinsurer shall close the Claims Settlement Account and any closing balance therein shall be the property of the Reinsurer. The Company's claims payment authority under this Agreement with respect to the Claims Settlement Account shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article IX. Upon termination of its authority to pay claims, the Company shall promptly return to the Reinsurer all unused check stock held by it in connection with this Agreement.

REINSURANCE ASSET TRANSFER; CEDING COMMISSION

5.1. Initial Reinsurance Premium. As consideration for the reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Risks under this Agreement, on the Closing Date the Reinsurer shall be entitled to an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (the “Initial Reinsurance Premium”).

5.2. Additional Reinsurance Premium. As additional consideration for the Reinsurer entering into this Agreement, Reinsurer shall be entitled to 100% of all premiums and other considerations (including all reinsurance premium and Stop-Loss Payments from Travelers to the Company under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) to the extent received on or after the Inception Date by the Company or the Reinsurer with respect to the Reinsured Policies, including premium receivables that were due and unpaid as of the Inception Date that were taken into account in the calculation of the Initial Reinsurance Premium.

5.3. Ceding Commission. On the Closing Date, the Company shall be entitled to a ceding commission (the “Ceding Commission”) in an amount determined in accordance with Schedule C. On the date of amendment of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement as described in Section 2.7, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an additional ceding commission equal to the ceding commission payable by the Company to Travelers at such time pursuant to such agreement.

5.4. Amounts Due the Parties. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all amounts due to be paid to the Company under this Agreement shall be determined on a net basis, giving full effect to Section 3.7. The net amount due the Reinsurer from the Company on the Closing Date under Section 5.1 and Section 5.3 shall consist of (i) the investment assets (the “Assets”) set forth on Schedule D, which assets have a statutory book value as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date equal to (A) the Initial Reinsurance Premium, less (B) the Ceding Commission, less (C) an amount equal to accrued but unpaid interest on the Assets as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, plus (ii) an amount equal to the investment cash flows received on the Assets between the Inception Date and the Closing Date. The Company shall pay such net amount concurrent with its delivery of the Initial Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date (the “Monthly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Monthly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar quarter ending after the Inception Date (the “Quarterly Settlement”) shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Quarterly Settlement Report. Each net amount subsequently due with respect to each calendar year ending after the Inception Date as reflected on an Annual Report shall be paid in cash by the Reinsurer to the Company no later than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Annual Report.

(b) The Company shall deliver to the Reinsurer possession of the Assets and such bills of sale, endorsements, assignments and other good and sufficient instruments of conveyance and transfer in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties as shall be effective to vest in the Reinsurer all of the right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Assets. Delivery of the Assets shall be a condition precedent of reinsurance coverage hereunder.

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

6.1. Expense Allowance. As reimbursement for expenses incurred by the Company in providing services with respect to the Reinsured Policies and Travelers Agreements, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company with respect to each Accounting Period ending after the Inception Date, an expense allowance (each an "Expense Allowance") in an amount calculated in accordance with Schedule E, as subsequently adjusted in accordance with the methodology and procedures set forth in Schedule E.

ARTICLE VII

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT

7.1. Initial Report. A report shall be provided by the Company to the Reinsurer on the Closing Date providing the data required in Schedule F - Part I (the "Initial Report").

7.2. Monthly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than thirty (30) days following the end of each Accounting Period ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such Accounting Period required in Schedule F - Part II (the "Monthly Settlement Report").

7.3. Quarterly Settlement Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such quarter required in Schedule F - Part III (the "Quarterly Settlement Report"). The Company and the Reinsurer agree that the financial data set forth on the Monthly Settlement Reports used for purposes of the Monthly Settlements, shall be trued-up to actual amounts in the next Quarterly Settlement Report and the net amount, if any, subsequently due to the Company or the Reinsurer, as the case may be, as a result of such adjustments shall be paid to the Company or the Reinsurer, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the first Quarterly Settlement Report will include all transactions with respect to the Reinsured Policies occurring from the Inception Date through June 30, 2004.

7.4. Quarterly Financial Reports. As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days following the end of each calendar quarter ending after the Closing Date (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with reports related to the Reinsured Policies as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with the preparation of the Reinsurer's SAP financial statements or other reports prepared by the Reinsurer in compliance with its internal reporting requirements. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the form for the providing of such reports.

7.5. Annual Reports. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar year during the term of this Agreement (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall supply the Reinsurer with a report that shall provide the financial data for such year required in Schedule F - Part IV (the "Annual Report").

7.6. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each of the parties shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably requested by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

7.7. Delayed Payments. In the event that all or any portion of any payment due either party pursuant to this Agreement becomes overdue, the portion of the amount overdue shall bear interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date that the payment becomes overdue plus 200 basis points, for the period that the amount is overdue.

EXPERIENCE REFUND

8.1. Experience Refund. (a) The Reinsurer shall establish, and maintain through December 31, 2018, a notional account known as the "Experience Account" in connection with this Agreement, and record therein certain cumulative experience on the Reinsured Policies as described below. As of the Inception Date, the balance of the Experience Account will equal zero. Within the first forty five (45) days of each calendar year beginning January 1, 2005, through calendar year beginning January 1, 2019, the Company shall make the following calculation regarding certain experience on the Reinsured Policies during the preceding calendar year (which result may be a positive or a negative number), and shall promptly thereafter deliver to the Reinsurer the result of such calculation:

[X] x [Y], where

X equals the excess of (i) over (ii) (the result of which may be a positive number or a negative number), where (i) is the actual statutory basis pre-tax income earned on the Reinsured Policies for the calendar year for which the calculation is being made, calculated consistent with projected statutory basis pre-tax income earned on the Reinsured Policies (the "Experience Refund Baseline") as calculated on Schedule I hereto, but utilizing actual experience (e.g., actual premiums and expenses will be used in place of the projected amounts shown on Schedule I), except for investment income during the first three years (see below) and (ii) is the Experience Refund Baseline for the calendar year for which the calculation is being made as set forth on Schedule I hereto; and Y equals 90% for calculations made with respect to calendar years 2004 through 2006 and 50% for calculations made with respect to calendar years thereafter; provided, however, that if the cumulative amount of X during the calendar years 2004-2006 exceeds $65 million, then Y shall be reduced to 50% for any amounts of X over $65 million. The calculation of investment income and the IMR income components of the actual pre-tax income for 2004-2006 shall be based on an assumed net annual yield of 6.19%, 6.08% and 6.02% respectively. To derive investment income, the prior stated rates should be applied to a 2 point average of the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and statutory IMR liability. The two points should be December 31st for the applicable settlement year and December 31st for the immediately prior year. Surplus assets and investment income thereon are excluded from the Experience Refund Baseline calculation, and therefore should also be excluded from the Total Annual Contribution calculation. Thereafter the investment income and IMR income shall be similarly calculated using the actual net yield (net of investment expenses and default costs) and allocated IMR from the Reinsurer's LTC asset portfolio backing the Total SAP Ceded Reserves.

(b) The result of the calculation in Section 8.1(a) for each calendar year shall be referred to in this Agreement as the "Total Annual Contribution." Following each calculation of Total Annual Contribution, the balance of the Experience Account will be adjusted as of the end of the preceding calendar year as follows:

- (i) The balance of the Experience Account will be increased by: (A) the amount of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year, but only if such Total Annual Contribution is a positive number and (B) interest credited in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(d) below on any positive balance of the Experience Account.
- (ii) The balance of the Experience Account will be decreased by: (A) the amount of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year, but only if such Total Annual Contribution is a negative number, (B) interest credited in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(d) below on any negative balance of the Experience Account, and (C) the amount, if any, paid by the Reinsurer to the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1(c) below.

(c) Subject to Section 8.1(e), each calendar year that the balance of the Experience Account is a positive number following the adjustments contemplated in Section 8.1(b) above (other than the adjustment contemplated in Section 8.1(b)(ii)(C)), the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an "Experience Refund" as follows: (i) For calendar years ending prior to December 31, 2018, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company the lesser of (A) the balance of the Experience Account and (B) an amount equal to the sum of (x) 20% of each positive Total Annual Contribution made with respect to the previous five (5) calendar years (or shorter period in the event that this Agreement has not been in effect for five (5) years) plus (y) interest credited to the balance of the Experience Account during the previous calendar year in accordance with Section 8.1(d) below if the balance of the Experience Account was positive during such year; and (ii) For calendar year ending December 31, 2018, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company the balance of the Experience Account as of December 31, 2018 (if a positive number). Any amounts due pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) shall be paid by the Reinsurer to the Company not later than thirty (30) days following the Company's delivery to the Reinsurer of the Company's calculation of the Total Annual Contribution for the preceding calendar year. In no event shall the Company be required to make any Experience Refund payments to the Reinsurer or return any Experience Refund payments to the Reinsurer, including if the balance of the Experience Account was, is or becomes a negative number.

(d) Interest shall accrue on the balance of the Experience Account (positive or negative) at an annual rate equal to the one (1) year U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate in effect on the close of business on July 1 or, if July 1 is not a Business Day, on the next Business Day of the current calendar year plus 100 basis points. Interest shall be credited to the balance of the Experience Account as of the end of each calendar year immediately before making any adjustments for the Total Annual Contribution with respect to such calendar year.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 8.1 to the contrary, no Experience Refund payments shall be made to the Company on any Reinsured Policies with respect to any period following the Reinsurer's assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies pursuant to Section 3.9.

ARTICLE IX

DURATION AND TERMINATION

9.1. Duration. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be unlimited in duration.

9.2. Reinsurer's Liability. The Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks will terminate on the earliest of: (i) the date the Company's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated and all amounts due the Company from the Reinsurer with respect to such Reinsured Risks are paid to the Company by or on behalf of the Reinsurer; and (ii) the date this Agreement is terminated upon the written agreement of the parties.

9.3. Notice of Termination. Upon the termination of the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks referred to in Section 9.2 above, the parties shall mutually give the Trustee written notice of their intention to terminate the Trust Account.

INSOLVENCY

10.1. Payments. In the event of the insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance payable by the Reinsurer hereunder shall be payable directly to the Company or to its domiciliary liquidator or receiver on the basis of liability of the Reinsurer under the contract or contracts reinsured, without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or its domiciliary liquidator, receiver or statutory successor.

10.2. Expenses . It is further understood that any expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 10.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

CREDIT FOR REINSURANCE

11.1. Reinsurance Credit . Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Reinsurer becomes unauthorized or otherwise unaccredited as an insurer or reinsurer in any U.S. jurisdiction to which the Company must provide statutory statements of financial condition such that the Company will not obtain full statutory financial statement credit for reinsurance in such state for the reinsurance provided under this Agreement, the Reinsurer, upon the request of the Company, will establish, at the Reinsurer's sole cost and option, trust accounts for the benefit of the Company, letters of credit, or other acceptable alternatives necessary to permit the Company to obtain such full statutory financial statement credit for such reinsurance in all applicable jurisdictions. The Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer to take such steps. In addition, in such event, the Reinsurer agrees to amend this Agreement and the Trust Agreement to the extent required under Applicable Law in order to provide the Company with such full statutory financial statement credit.

ARTICLE XII

REINSURANCE SECURITY

12.1. Trust . (a) On the Closing Date, the Reinsurer shall enter into a trust agreement in the form attached as Schedule G (the "Trust Agreement") and establish a trust account (the "Trust Account") for the benefit of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Risks with a bank (the "Trustee") designated as a Qualified United States Financial Institution by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or any successor organization or regulatory agency having similar duties.

(b) The Reinsurer agrees to deposit, and maintain in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, assets to be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Company as security for the payment of the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(c) The parties agree that the assets so deposited with respect to this Agreement shall be valued according to their current statutory book value on the books of the Reinsurer and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and other assets of the type specified on Schedule H attached hereto (“Eligible Securities”).

(d) The Reinsurer, prior to depositing assets with the Trustee, shall execute all assignments and endorsements in blank, or transfer legal title to the Trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that, to the extent practicable, the Company, or the Trustee upon direction of the Company, may whenever necessary negotiate any such assets without consent or signature from the Reinsurer or any other entity. The Company recognizes that certain assets in the Trust Account will not be readily negotiable and that certain notices, opinions of counsel, representations and/or consents will be required for the Company to obtain good and marketable title to such assets.

(e) The Reinsurer and the Company agree that the assets in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement may be withdrawn for the following purposes only:

- (i) to pay or reimburse the Company for any amount due the Company pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not so paid or reimbursed by the Reinsurer;
- (ii) to pay to the Reinsurer, in accordance with paragraph (h) below, any amounts held in the Trust Account that exceed an amount (the “Funding Requirement”) equal to the sum of Total SAP Ceded Reserves and any additional reserves attributable to the Reinsured Risks that arise as a result of regulatory asset adequacy analysis requirements of the Reinsurer, less, prior to the date on which the Claims Settlement Account is closed, the Minimum Claims Settlement Amount then in effect; and
- (iii) in the event that General Electric Capital Corporation breaches its obligations under the Capital Maintenance Agreement, to fund an account with the Company (the “Company Account”) in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the Company’s liabilities ceded under this Agreement. Such amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, reserves for claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss and loss adjustment expenses, and unearned premiums.

(f) In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(i) above in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer’s obligations to the Company, the Company will promptly return such excess to the Reinsurer, plus interest at an annual rate equal to the then current thirty (30) day U.S. Treasury Bill discount rate on the date of withdrawal plus 200 basis points for the period during which the amounts were held pursuant to Section 12.1(e)(i). In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(iii) above, (i) the Reinsurer shall be relieved of its obligation to maintain assets in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 12.1 to the extent of the amount of funds held in the Company Account and (ii) the Company shall first apply the funds in the Company Account in satisfaction of the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement until the funds in the Company Account are exhausted. In the event that the Company withdraws assets from the Trust Account for the purposes set forth in Section 12.1(e)(iii) above, promptly following the date the Reinsurer's liability with respect to the Reinsured Risks is terminated, the Company shall return to the Reinsurer any assets so withdrawn that, together with any and all interest, dividends and other earnings thereon from the date of withdrawal to the date of return, are in excess of actual amounts required to meet the Reinsurer's obligations to the Company under this Agreement.

(g) The initial deposit to the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement shall be made on the Closing Date and shall consist of assets with a statutory book value equal to the Total SAP Ceded Reserves as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, less an amount of assets with a statutory book value equal to the initial Minimum Claims Settlement Amount.

(h) The aggregate statutory book value of the assets held in the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement, shall at all times be at least equal to the Funding Requirement, and shall be adjusted on a quarterly basis so as to equal the Funding Requirement. On a quarterly basis, the Company shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Reinsurer a specific statement of the Funding Requirement and the Reinsurer shall promptly prepare and deliver to the Company a specific statement of the statutory book value of the assets in the Trust Account, in each case as of the end of the quarter. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement exceeds 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Reinsurer shall, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of such notice of excess, secure delivery to the Trustee of additional cash or Eligible Securities having a current statutory book value equal to such difference. If the statement shows that the Funding Requirement is less than 100% of the balance of the Trust Account with respect to this Agreement as of the statement date, the Company shall, within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such statement to the Reinsurer, deliver a notice of withdrawal to the Trustee directing the Trustee to withdraw from the Trust Account and deliver to the Reinsurer assets from the Trust Account having a current statutory book value equal to such excess amount. In addition to the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver to the Company on a quarterly basis a specific statement of the market value of the assets in the Trust Account as of the end of the quarter.

DEFERRED ACQUISITION COSTS

13.1. Tax DAC Information Sharing. To ensure consistency in their respective Tax DAC calculations for tax purposes, the Company and the Reinsurer will exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year. The Company will submit a schedule to the Reinsurer by February 28 of each year presenting its calculation of the net consideration for the preceding taxable year. The Reinsurer may contest the calculation by providing to the Company and alternative calculation in writing within thirty

(30) days of receipt of the Company's schedule. The Company and the Reinsurer will act in good faith to resolve any differences in the schedule of calculations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the alternative calculation to ensure consistent amounts are reported on the respective tax returns for the preceding tax year.

INDEMNIFICATION

14.1. Indemnification. (a) The Reinsurer agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any and all Losses (as defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) paid by the Company to any Cedent Indemnities (as defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) pursuant to Section 16.1 of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement.

(b) The Company shall provide to the Reinsurer the benefits of any of the Company's indemnification rights under Section 16.2 of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement and under Section 9.2 of the Travelers Acquisition Agreement. Except as contemplated by Section 2.7, without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, the Company shall not amend, modify, waive or fail to enforce any term or provision of any of the Travelers Agreements, if such amendment, modification, waiver or failure to enforce could reasonably be expected to increase the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder.

(c) The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, fully at the Reinsurer's expense, all actions necessary to maintain in full force and effect the Company's rights of indemnification under the Travelers Agreements. The Company shall refrain from taking any action that would reasonably be expected to limit or diminish Travelers' obligations thereunder; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not prohibit a Change of Control of the Reinsurer (as defined in the Travelers Acquisition Agreement).

15.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XV, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 15.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 15.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages, and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XV are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

15.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

15.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 15.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

15.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 15.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The nonparty appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Reinsurer, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Delaware, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 15.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XV.

ARTICLE XVI

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

16.1. Privacy Requirements. In providing the administrative services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Reinsured Policies, the Company shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted subcontractor to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Company shall entitle the Reinsurer and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Company's compliance herewith. The Company shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Company about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Company shall promptly report to the Reinsurer any violation of this provision of which the Company becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Company shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Company in administering the Reinsured Policies is gathered, without the Reinsurer's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties hereto agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto.

ARTICLE XVII

17.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

17.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

17.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 17.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect. Nothing in this Section 17.3 shall be construed to prohibit the Reinsurer from retroceding all or any portion of the business reinsured hereunder.

17.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

17.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

17.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Reinsurer.

17.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

17.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement and the Termination Letter Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein or in the Termination Letter Agreement.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void, unenforceable or in violation of any provision of the Travelers Agreements, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

17.9. Contemporaneous Agreements. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the parties and/or their Affiliates are also entering into the Capital Maintenance Agreement, the RBC Reporting Letter Agreement and the Assignment Letter Agreement.

17.10. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

17.11. Cooperation. Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time

17.12. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

17.13. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

17.14. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

17.15. Survival. Article XV and Article XVII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.

SCHEDULE B

FORM OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

by and between

GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL ASSURANCE COMPANY

and

UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Effective as of []

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), effective as of [] (the "Effective Date"), is entered into by and between GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL ASSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company"), and UNION FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Administrator").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company and the Administrator have entered into a Retrocession Agreement dated as of April 15, 2004 (the "Retrocession Agreement") which provides for the parties to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Retrocession Agreement, the Administrator has agreed to indemnify the Company for, among other things, 100% of Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company and unpaid as of the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies (capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein, unless otherwise indicated, have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Retrocession Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to appoint the Administrator to provide policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Novated Policies, and the Administrator desires to provide such administrative services;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

The Company hereby appoints the Administrator, and the Administrator hereby accepts appointment, to provide as an independent contractor of the Company, from and after the Effective Date, all of the policyholder and claim servicing services necessary or appropriate with respect to the Novated Policies including those set forth in this Agreement (the "Administrative Services"), all on the terms as set forth in this Agreement. In providing the policyholder and claim servicing with respect to the Novated Policies, the Administrator shall handle all such matters, including but not limited to the billing and collection of premiums and the defense, adjustment, settlement and payment of all claims arising under the Novated Policies, as more fully described below. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to direct the Administrator to perform any action necessary for the Novated Policies or the policyholder and claim servicing thereof to comply with Applicable Law, or to cease performing any action that constitutes a violation of Applicable Law.

ARTICLE II

STANDARD FOR SERVICES; FACILITIES; SUBCONTRACTING

2.1. Standard for Services. The Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Novated Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering long term care insurance business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrator shall provide policyholder and claims servicing with respect to the Novated Policies (i) in accordance with the terms of the Novated Policies, (ii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iii) in compliance with Applicable Law, (iv) in accordance with industry standards and, subject to the foregoing, (v) to the extent applicable, in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement.

2.2. Facilities and Personnel. To the extent not sub-contracted to a Subcontractor, the Administrator shall at all times maintain sufficient facilities and trained personnel of the kind necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with the performance standards set forth herein.

2.3. Subcontracting. The Administrator may subcontract for the performance of any policyholder or claims servicing service or services with respect to the Novated Policies to (i) an Affiliate or (ii) any other Person with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (in each case, the "Subcontractor"); provided, that, no such subcontracting shall relieve the Administrator from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and the Administrator shall remain responsible for all obligations or liabilities of such Subcontractor with regards to the providing of such service or services as if provided by the Administrator.

ARTICLE III

CLAIMS HANDLING

The Administrative Services with respect to claims for benefits including claims outstanding on the Effective Date, shall include the following:

3.1. Claim Administration Services. The Administrator shall acknowledge, consider, review, investigate, deny, settle, pay or otherwise dispose of each claim for benefits reported under each Novated Policy (each, a "Claim" and collectively the "Claims").

3.2. Description of Claim Administration Services. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall:

- (i) provide claimants under the Novated Policy and their authorized representatives (collectively, "Claimants") with Claim forms and provide reasonable explanatory guidance to Claimants in connection therewith;

- (ii) establish, maintain and organize Claim files and maintain and organize other Claims-related records;
- (iii) review all Claims and determine whether the Claimant is eligible for benefits and if so, the nature and extent of such benefits;
- (iv) prepare and distribute to the appropriate recipients any reports required by Applicable Law;
- (v) respond to all written or oral Claims-related communications that the Administrator reasonably believes to require a response; and
- (vi) maintain a complaint log with respect to the Novated Policies in accordance with applicable requirements of Governmental Authorities and provide a copy of such log, continuously updated through the last day of each calendar quarter during the term of this Agreement, to the Company on or before the tenth Business Day of each calendar quarter covering changes during the preceding calendar quarter.

ARTICLE IV

REGULATORY AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4.1. Regulatory Complaints and Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) respond to any Claims payment related complaints or inquiries made by any Governmental Authority, within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; and promptly provide a copy of such response to the Company;
- (ii) promptly notify the Company of any non-Claims payment related complaints or inquiries initiated by a Governmental Authority, and of any proceedings (either Claims or non-Claims related) initiated by a Governmental Authority, and, in either case, prepare and send to the Governmental Authority, with a copy to the Company, a response within the Governmental Authority's requested time frame for response or, if no such time frame is provided, within the time frame as allowed by Applicable Law; provided, that, subject to meeting such time frames, the Administrator shall provide such response to the Company for its prior review and comment;
- (iii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all complaints, inquiries and proceedings by Governmental Authorities at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and

- (iv) at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report in a form mutually agreed by the parties summarizing the nature of any complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such complaints, inquiries or proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters.

4.2. Legal Proceedings. The Administrator shall:

- (i) notify the Company promptly of any lawsuit, action, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings that are instituted or threatened with respect to any matter relating to the Novated Policies ("Legal Proceeding(s)"), and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof;
- (ii) subject to Section 4.4, supervise and control the investigation, contest, defense and/or settlement of all Legal Proceedings at its own cost and expense, and in the name of the Company when necessary; and
- (iii) keep the Company fully informed of the progress of all Legal Proceedings handled by the Administrator in which the Company is named a party and, at the Company's request, provide to the Company a report summarizing the nature of any Legal Proceedings, the alleged actions or omissions giving rise to such Legal Proceedings and copies of any files or other documents that the Company may reasonably request in connection with its review of these matters in each case other than such files, documents and other information as would, in the judgment of counsel to the Administrator, lead to the loss or waiver of legal privilege.

4.3. Notice to Administrator. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Administrator of any Legal Proceeding made or brought against the Company after the Inception Date arising under or in connection with the Novated Policies to the extent known to it and not made against or served on the Administrator or a Subcontractor as administrator hereunder, and in no event more than five (5) Business Days after receipt of notice thereof, and shall promptly furnish to the Administrator copies of all pleadings in connection therewith. The Administrator shall assume the defense of the Company.

4.4. Defense of Regulatory and Legal Proceedings. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall have the right to engage in its own separate legal representation, at its own expense, and to participate fully in the defense of any Legal Proceedings or complaints, inquiries or proceedings by Governmental Authorities with respect to the Novated Policies in which the Company is a named party without waiving any right to indemnification it may have under Article XVI hereof. The Administrator and the Company shall cooperate with each other with respect to the administration of any Legal Proceeding and any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities. The Administrator shall not settle any Legal Proceeding or any complaint, inquiry or proceeding by Governmental Authorities without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless (i) there is no finding or admission of any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person, (ii) such settlement would not reasonably be expected to have material adverse precedential consequences to the Company and (iii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Administrator.

ARTICLE V

NOTIFICATION TO POLICYHOLDERS

The Administrator agrees to send to policyholders of the Novated Policies a written notice prepared by the Administrator and reasonably acceptable to the Company to the effect that the Administrator, or such other Person designated by the Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, has been appointed by the Company to provide Administrative Services. The Administrator shall send such notice by first class U.S. mail at a time reasonably acceptable to the Company and the Administrator and in all events in accordance with Applicable Law. The parties intend to minimize the cost associated with any notification under this Article V, including by means of inclusion of the notice in a regularly scheduled mailing to policyholders in lieu of a separate mailing. The cost associated with such notification under this Article V (upon the initial assumption of the administration of the Novated Policies under Section 3.9 of the Retrocession Agreement) shall be a transition cost payable by the Administrator or the Company in accordance with Section 3.9(a) or 3.9(c) of the Retrocession Agreement, as applicable.

ARTICLE VI

BILLINGS AND COLLECTIONS; RE-RATING OF NOVATED POLICIES

6.1. Billing and Collection Services. The Administrator shall assume all responsibility for billing and collecting premiums and other amounts payable with respect to the Novated Policies from and after the Effective Date. The Company shall promptly remit to the Administrator any such amounts received by it with respect to the Novated Policies.

6.2. Re-rating of Novated Policies. Subject to compliance with Applicable Law and this Section 6.2, the Administrator shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Company, to increase or decrease the premium rates under the Novated Policies from and after the Effective Date without the consent of the Company. The Administrator may not seek or implement, as applicable, a premium rate increase unless such premium rate increase would have been permitted under the terms of Section 3.2(i) of the Travelers Servicing Agreement assuming such Novated Policies continued to be "Reinsured Contracts" as defined under the Travelers Servicing Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrator may not seek or implement, as applicable, more than one (1) premium rate increase with respect to the Novated Policies in any state in any period of three (3) calendar years. The Administrator shall bear, and shall indemnify the Company for, all costs and liabilities incurred in or arising out of seeking or effecting any premium rate changes at the direction of the Administrator.

ARTICLE VII

QUARTERLY PREMIUM TAX AND INSOLVENCY FUND ACCOUNTINGS

7.1. Quarterly Accountings. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Company shall submit to the Administrator a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, an "Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting") setting forth the Insolvency Fund amounts assessed or payable to the extent that such assessments constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies (collectively, the "Post-Effective Date Assessments"). Within thirty (30) days after the last day of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall submit to the Company a written statement of accounting in a form and containing such information to be agreed upon by the parties hereto (each, a "Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting", and together with the Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accountings, the "Quarterly Accountings") setting forth the estimated premium taxes due with respect to the Novated Policies as a result of premiums collected during such quarter. Concurrent with the delivery of each Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting, the Administrator shall remit to the Company the amount set forth on such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting with respect to such estimated premium taxes due and the amount set forth in such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting with respect to the Post-Effective Date Assessments, and any other amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that any Post-Effective Date Assessments set forth in an Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting received by the Administrator less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Administrator's delivery of such Quarterly Premium Tax Accounting will be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Administrator of such Insolvency Fund Quarterly Accounting. Each of the parties agrees to supply to the other a copy of all supporting data used in preparing the Quarterly Accountings prepared by such party.

7.2. Adjustments Regarding Quarterly Accountings. In the event that subsequent data or calculations require revision of any of the Quarterly Accountings, the required revision and appropriate payments thereunder shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the parties hereto mutually agree as to the appropriate revision.

ARTICLE VIII

CERTAIN ACTIONS BY COMPANY

8.1. Filings. The Company shall prepare and timely file any filings required to be made with any Governmental Authority that relate to the Company generally and not just to the Novated Policies, including filings with guaranty associations and filings and premium tax returns with taxing authorities. The Administrator shall, in a timely fashion in light of the dates such filings by the Company are required, provide to the Company all information in the possession of the Administrator with respect to the Novated Policies that may be reasonably required for the Company to prepare such filings and tax returns.

8.2. Annual Adjustment. The Company shall pay or provide to the Administrator the benefit of any Post-Effective Date Assessments which have been or can be applied to reduce the Company's premium tax liability ("Premium Tax Credits"). The Company shall provide to the Administrator by March 15 of each year a statement of the amount (the "Annual Adjustment") of (i) premium taxes due with respect to premiums collected during the prior calendar year (to the extent that such premium taxes constitute Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies), less (ii) estimated premium taxes paid by the Administrator to the Company with respect to such premiums under the provisions of Article VII, less (iii) Premium Tax Credits for the prior calendar year. By March 30 of each year the Administrator shall pay to the Company the Annual Adjustment, if a positive amount, and the Company will pay or credit to the Administrator the Annual Adjustment, if a negative amount.

ARTICLE IX

REGULATORY MATTERS AND AUDIT REPORTING

9.1. Regulatory Compliance and Reporting. The Administrator shall provide to the Company such information with respect to the Novated Policies as is required to satisfy all current and future informational reporting, prior approval and any other requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, the Administrator shall timely prepare such reports and summaries, including statistical summaries, as are necessary or reasonably required to satisfy any requirements imposed by a Governmental Authority upon the Company with respect to the Novated Policies. In addition, the Administrator, upon the reasonable request of the Company, shall promptly provide to the Company copies of all existing records relating to the Novated Policies (including, with respect to records maintained in machine readable form, hard copies) that are necessary to satisfy such requirements. All copies of records furnished in the ordinary course of business shall be furnished by the Administrator at the Administrator's cost. Any extraordinary costs reasonably incurred by the Administrator in response to requests from the Company shall be reimbursed by the Company. Among other responsibilities:

- (i) The Administrator shall promptly prepare and furnish to Governmental Authorities all reports and related summaries (including, without limitation, statistical summaries), certificates of compliance and other reports required or requested by a Governmental Authority.
- (ii) The Administrator shall assist the Company and cooperate with the Company in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, in the most expeditious manner practicable in connection with any and all market conduct or other Governmental Authority examinations relating to the Novated Policies.

9.2. Reporting and Accounting. The Administrator shall assume the reporting and accounting obligations set forth below:

- (i) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall timely provide to the Company reports and summaries of transactions (and, upon request of the Company, detailed supporting records) related to the Novated Policies as may be reasonably required for use in connection with the preparation of the Company's statutory and GAAP financial statements, tax returns and other required financial reports and to comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over the Company, including all premium written and earned and all Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses reserved, paid, and outstanding. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to establish the manner for the providing of such reports.
- (ii) The Administrator shall provide to the Company such reports or summaries (and, upon the request of the Company, detailed supporting records therefor) related to the payment of commissions under the Novated Policies as agreed by the parties.
- (iii) As soon as practicable but not more than forty (40) days after the end of each calendar quarter that this Agreement is in effect (or more frequently as mutually agreed by the parties), the Administrator shall report to the Company the amount of statutory reserves that the Company is required to maintain in connection with the Reinsured Risks with respect to the Novated Policies as of the quarter end.
- (iv) The Administrator shall promptly provide notice to the Company of any changes in the reserve methodology used by the Administrator in calculating statutory reserves for the Novated Policies.
- (v) Within forty-five (45) days after each calendar year end (or such longer time as may be agreed by the parties) that this Agreement is in effect, the Administrator shall provide to the Company (a) an opinion of an actuary reasonably acceptable to the Company as to the adequacy of statutory reserves for the Novated Policies, prepared according to accepted actuarial standards of practice, and as otherwise required for regulatory reporting purposes and (b) an analysis which reasonably supports such opinion.

9.3. Additional Reports and Updates. For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, each party shall periodically furnish to the other such other reports and information as may be reasonably required by such other party for regulatory, tax or similar purposes and reasonably available to it.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

The Administrator shall assume the obligations set forth below:

- (i) The Administrator shall timely pay to the policyholders, including any certificateholder thereunder, any refunds of any kind due under the Novated Policies.
- (ii) The Administrator shall process all policy changes, lapses, cancellations, and reinstatements in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the express terms of the Novated Policies and shall assume responsibility for providing all other policyholder servicing in connection with the Novated Policies.
- (iii) The Administrator shall pay commissions due under the Novated Policies.
- (iv) The Administrator shall provide such other Administrative Services as are necessary or appropriate to fully effectuate the purpose of the Retrocession Agreement and this Agreement, including such Administrative Services as are not performed by or on behalf of Company on the date hereof but the need for which may arise due to changes or developments in Applicable Law.

ARTICLE XI

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Administrator shall keep accurate and complete records, files and accounts of all transactions and matters with respect to the Novated Policies and the administration thereof in accordance with Applicable Law and its record management practices in effect from time to time for the Administrator's insurance business not covered by this Agreement, if any. The parties to this Agreement and their designated representatives may upon reasonable notice inspect, at the offices of the Administrator or the Company where such records are located, the papers and any and all other books or documents of the Administrator or the Company reasonably relating to this Agreement, including the Novated Policies, and shall have access to appropriate employees and representatives of the other party, in each case during normal business hours for such period as this Agreement is in effect or for as long thereafter as any rights or obligations of any party survives or the Administrator or the Company reasonably need access to such records for regulatory, tax or similar purposes. The information obtained shall be used only for purposes relating to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.

COOPERATION

Each party hereto shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to accomplish the objectives of this Agreement including making available to each their respective officers and employees for interviews and meetings with Governmental Authorities and furnishing any additional assistance, information and documents as may be reasonably requested by a party from time to time.

ARTICLE XIII

PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS

In providing the Administrative Services provided for under this Agreement, and in connection with maintaining, administering, handling and transferring the data of the policyholders and other recipients of benefits under the Novated Policies, the Administrator shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and any permitted Subcontractors to, comply with all confidentiality and security obligations applicable to them in connection with the collection, use, disclosure, maintenance and transmission of personal, private, health or financial information about individual policyholders or benefit recipients, including the provisions of privacy policies under which such information was gathered, those laws currently in place and which may become effective during the term of this Agreement, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other Applicable Laws. The Administrator shall entitle the Company and its agents and representatives, the Commissioner of Health and Human Services and such other Governmental Authorities, to the extent required by Applicable Law, to audit the Administrator's compliance herewith. The Administrator shall also enable individual subjects of personally identifiable information, upon request from such individuals, to review and correct information maintained by the Administrator about them, and to restrict use of such information. The Administrator shall promptly report to the Company any violation of this provision of which the Administrator becomes aware. Unless required by Applicable Law, the Administrator shall not during the term of this Agreement, modify the privacy policies under which information utilized by the Administrator in administering the Novated Policies is gathered, without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties agree to comply with the terms of the Business Associate Addendum attached hereto or such other written agreement as may be required by Applicable Law on the date hereof.

ARTICLE XIV

CONSIDERATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Apart from the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Retrocession Agreement, there shall be no fee or other consideration due to the Administrator for performance of the Administrative Services under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XV

BANK ACCOUNT; USE OF COMPANY LETTERHEAD

When and on terms reasonably requested by the Administrator, the Company shall open, modify or close, and make available for use by the Administrator for the payment of amounts to be paid by the Administrator hereunder one or more bank accounts of the Company and check stock of the Company. The Administrator shall maintain such account(s) and pay all applicable bank fees and check stock costs. The Company shall adopt such resolutions and execute such documents as required to designate senior officers of the Administrator (by title) as signatories on such account(s) and authorize the Administrator to certify to such bank(s), from time to time, the names of such officers. The Company shall also make available to the Administrator, at the sole expense of the Administrator, such letterhead, printed forms and other documents of the Company as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in performing services hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall promptly return to the Company all such unused check stock, letterhead, printed forms and other documents held by it in connection with this Agreement as provided under this Article XV.

INDEMNIFICATION

Any claim for or with respect to indemnification arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement or the Administrative Services hereunder shall be permitted under and governed by the provisions of Article V of the Master Agreement, dated as of [], 2004, among General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, GEI, Inc., GE Financial Assurance Holdings, Inc. and Genworth Financial, Inc (the "Master Agreement"), to the extent such provisions are applicable, as if this Agreement were a Transaction Document under the Master Agreement.

ARTICLE XVII

DURATION; TERMINATION

17.1. Duration. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue with respect to each Novated Policy until no further Administrative Services in respect of such Novated Policy is required, unless this Agreement is earlier terminated under Section 17.2.

17.2. Termination. (a) This Agreement is subject to immediate termination at the option of the Company, upon written notice to the Administrator, on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) A voluntary or involuntary proceeding is commenced in any jurisdiction by or against the Administrator for the purpose of conserving, rehabilitating or liquidating the Administrator;

- (ii) There is a material breach by the Administrator of any material term or condition of this Agreement that is not cured by the Administrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Company of such breach or act (provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement (A) for so long as the Administrator is making a good faith effort to cure such breach, not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days or (B) during the pendency of any dispute resolution proceedings as set forth in Article XVIII regarding an alleged material breach); or
- (iii) The Administrator is unable to perform the services required under this Agreement for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days for any reason other than as a result of a Force Majeure, it being understood that nothing in this Section 17.2(a)(iii) shall relieve the Administrator from its administrative responsibilities under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" means any acts or omissions of any civil or military authority, acts of God, acts or omissions of the Company, fires, strikes or other labor disturbances, equipment failures, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment, or any other act, omission or occurrence beyond the Administrator's reasonable control, irrespective of whether similar to the foregoing enumerated acts, omissions or occurrences.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated under any of the provisions of Section 17.2(a), the Administrator shall select a third-party administrator to perform the services required by this Agreement. The Company shall have the right to approve any such administrator selected by the Administrator, but such approval will not unreasonably be withheld or delayed. If the Administrator fails to select an administrator pursuant to this Section 17.2(c), the Company shall select such an administrator. In either case, the Administrator shall pay all fees and charges imposed by the selected administrator and shall bear all transition costs associated with the transition of the performance of the services required under this Agreement to such administrator, including the expense of sending policyholder notices as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE XVIII

18.1. General Provisions. (a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article XVIII, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.

(b) Commencing with the request contemplated by Section 18.2, all communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator's evaluation referred to in Section 18.3, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that any such liability with respect to a Third Party Claim (as defined in the Master Agreement) shall be considered direct damages), and (ii) trial by jury.

(d) The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the parties in writing.

(e) All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Article XVIII are pending. The parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

18.2. Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities involved in such Dispute. Either party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the "Initial Notice"). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving party shall submit to the other a written response (the "Response"). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

18.3. Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 18.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals, but such mediator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience either as a lawyer or as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. Either party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the parties' relative positions.

18.4. Arbitration. (a) If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 18.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules”). The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

(b) The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators who are each experienced in the U.S. reinsurance business, of whom each party shall appoint one in accordance with the “screened” appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The non-party appointed arbitrator must have prior U.S. reinsurance experience as a present or former officer or management employee of a reinsurance company, but not of the Company, or the Administrator, or any of their respective affiliates. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of Delaware, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. The arbitral tribunal shall endeavor to render its award or order resulting from any arbitration within forty-five (45) days following the termination of the arbitration proceedings.

(c) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 18.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 18.4(c) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.

(e) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (d) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of certain of the provisions of this Agreement, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal’s decision.

(f) Each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Article XVIII.

ARTICLE XIX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

19.1. Headings and Schedules. Headings used herein are not a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the terms hereof. The attached Schedules are a part of this Agreement.

19.2. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows: (a) if sent by registered or certified mail in the United States return receipt requested, upon receipt; (b) if sent by reputable overnight air courier, two business days after mailing; (c) if sent by facsimile transmission, with a copy mailed on the same day in the manner provided in (a) or (b) above, when transmitted and receipt is confirmed by telephone; or (d) if otherwise actually personally delivered, when delivered, and shall be delivered as follows:

Facsimile: (847) 605-3044

or to such other address or to such other Person as either party may have last designated by notice to the other party.

19.3. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal representatives. Neither this Agreement, nor any right or obligation hereunder, may be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment in violation of this Section 19.3 shall be void and shall have no force and effect.

19.4. Execution in Counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in any number of counterparts, and by each of the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

19.5. Currency. Whenever the word "Dollars" or the "$" sign appear in this Agreement, they shall be construed to mean United States Dollars, and all transactions under this Agreement shall be in United States Dollars.

19.6. Amendments. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified unless the same shall be in writing executed by the Company and the Administrator.

19.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be construed, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

19.8. Entire Agreement; Severability. (a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no general or specific warranties, representations or other agreements by or among the parties in connection with the entering into of this Agreement or the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth or contemplated herein.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be void, unenforceable or in violation of any provision of the Travelers Agreements, in whole or in part, (i) such holding or provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, including any other provision, paragraph or subparagraph, and (ii) the parties agree to attempt in good faith to reform such void, unenforceable or violative provision to the extent necessary to render such provision enforceable and to carry out its original intent.

19.9. No Waiver; Preservation of Remedies. No consent or waiver, express or implied, by any party to or of any breach or default by any other party in the performance by such other party of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of obligations hereunder by such other party hereunder. Failure on the part of any party to complain of any act or failure to act of any other party or to declare any other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver by such first party of any of its rights hereunder. The rights and remedies provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that any party may otherwise have at law or equity.

19.10. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing in this Agreement will confer any rights upon any Person that is not a party or a successor or permitted assignee of a party to this Agreement.

19.11. Tax Exception to Any Confidentiality. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other agreement to which the parties hereto are parties or by which they are bound, any obligations of confidentiality contained herein and therein, as they relate to the transactions, shall not apply to the federal tax structure or federal tax treatment of the transactions, and each party hereto (and any employee, representative, or agent of any party hereto) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the federal tax structure and federal tax treatment of the transactions. The preceding sentence is intended to cause the transactions to be treated as not having been offered under conditions of confidentiality for purposes of Section 1.6011-4(b)(3) (or any successor provision) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall be construed in a manner consistent with such purpose. In addition, each party hereto acknowledges that it has no proprietary or exclusive rights to the federal tax structure of the transactions or any federal tax matter or federal tax idea related to the transactions.

19.12. Interpretation. Wherever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.”

19.13. Survival. Article XVIII and Article XIX shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Administrator have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose .

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures .

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf . Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations . Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The disclosure is required by law; or
- (2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:
 - a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and
 - b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations. Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (i) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (ii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (iii) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (iv) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (v) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (vi) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment. Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

SCHEDULE C

CEDING COMMISSION

The Ceding Commission shall be the sum of the following:

1. an amount equal to the excess of the Total SAP Ceded Reserves over Total GAAP Ceded Reserves measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative);
 2. an amount equal to the unamortized PVFP intangible asset balance of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 3. an amount equal to the unamortized deferred acquisition costs of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies as measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP;
 4. an amount equal to the balance of the Loss Carry Forward Amount as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date, determined in accordance with GAAP; and
 5. an amount equal to the excess of the GAAP book value of the Assets (excluding any related mark to market adjustments for SFAS 115 requirement) over the SAP book value of the Assets measured as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the Inception Date (which amount may be negative).

SCHEDULE E

EXPENSE ALLOWANCES

The "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors" used to calculate the Expense Allowance are as follows:

|--|-------------------------------------|
| Policy Maintenance Factor | $7.12 per Policy |
| Claims Factor | $876.00 per Open and Pending Claim |
| Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor | $45.24 per Policy |

Such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors will be adjusted (i) for the year beginning January 1, 2005 and, thereafter, every three (3) years during the term of this Agreement based on a triennial cost/time study prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Triennial Study") and (ii) for the years between the Triennial Studies based on a report setting forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors prepared in accordance with the methodology set forth below (the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report").

(a) Triennial Study. As soon as practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) prior to January 1, 2005 and prior to the beginning of every third calendar year thereafter during the term of this Agreement, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Triennial Study which sets forth the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Triennial Study and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors based on such Triennial Study (such documents, together with the Triennial Study, the "Triennial Study Documents").

(b) Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report. As soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) prior to January 1, 2006 and prior to the beginning of each calendar year thereafter in which no Triennial Study is prepared, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to the Reinsurer the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, together with all supporting data used in preparing the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report and work papers, in reasonable detail, setting forth the determination of such Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next calendar year (such documents, together with the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report, the "Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents").

(c) Methodology. At the time of the Triennial Study, historical costs (to include costs (excluding costs identified as "Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses") directly related to maintaining and administering policies, processing claims and reporting results, including, without limitation, for Business Overhead Services set forth on Schedule E-1 hereto) will be determined for the Policy Maintenance Factor, the Claims Factor and the Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor identified above. For a given Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor the identified costs will be divided by the total historical number of units of measure for both the Reinsured Policies and the retained block of business to derive an historical cost per unit. The historical cost per unit will be used as a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

For the two succeeding years in the period between the Triennial Studies the historical dollar amounts by Policy Maintenance Factor, Claims Factor and Travelers Agreement Maintenance Factor will be adjusted (rolled forward) for current year cost changes agreed to by the Reinsurer and the Company (in accordance with the procedures set forth below). This rolled forward historical cost will then be divided by the total historical number of units for the current period to determine a prospective cost per unit for the next calendar year.

An additional adjustment, positive or negative, to the prospective cost per unit determined by either the Triennial Study or the two succeeding years may be negotiated between the parties. The additional adjustment is for special projected costs or benefits of productivity, process improvements, inflation, loss of scale, and any other cost variation which was not included in the prior Triennial Study or the succeeding roll forward.

The combined prospective unit cost and additional adjustment is the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor. The Expense Allowance will be determined quarterly and billed to the Reinsurer in three equal installments during the quarter at the end of the month. Each installment of the monthly amount billed will be determined by multiplying the actual number of units at the beginning of the quarter covered by this Agreement times the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor (divided by twelve).

(d) Review of Documents. Following the delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Company shall (i) provide to the Reinsurer or its designated representative copies of such additional work papers and other documents relating to its preparation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Report or Triennial Study, as applicable, as the Reinsurer or its designated representative may reasonably request, including, without limitation, claims files and practices and (ii) cooperate with, and make its personnel and facilities reasonably available to, the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's designated representative for the purpose of providing such other information as the Reinsurer or the Reinsurer's designated representative may reasonably request concerning Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, and the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors.

(e) Notice of Disagreement. In the event that the Reinsurer has any disagreement with any of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall give written notice of all such disagreements (a "Notice of Disagreement") to the Company within thirty (30) days after the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, are delivered to the Reinsurer. Any Notice of Disagreement shall set forth each item in disagreement and shall provide reasonable specificity as to the basis for each disagreement and shall specify the total adjustment to the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors as proposed by the Company as a result of such items in disagreement.

(f) Dispute Resolution. If the Reinsurer does not deliver a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents and the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall constitute the final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor for the next calendar year. If the Reinsurer delivers a Notice of Disagreement to the Company within such thirty (30) day period, the parties shall (and shall cause their respective designated representatives to) negotiate in good faith to resolve all disagreements as promptly as practicable. Any changes in the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors, if any, that are agreed to by the Company and the Reinsurer within sixty (60) days of the aforementioned delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, shall be incorporated into a final calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors. If the parties and their respective designated representatives are unable to resolve all disagreements within sixty (60) days of delivery of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factor Documents or the Triennial Study Documents, as applicable, then all unresolved disagreements will be submitted within ten (10) days after the end of such sixty (60) day period for resolution in accordance herewith to an independent certified public accounting firm of national standing and reputation (the "Accounting Firm") mutually acceptable to the Company and the Reinsurer. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the Accounting Firm and shall give the Accounting Firm access to all data and other information requested by the Accounting Firm for purposes of such resolution. The Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) days after its engagement, deliver to the Company and the Reinsurer a definitive calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors, which shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be so reflected in the calculation of the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors. The Company and the Reinsurer shall each pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm.

(g) Expense Allowance Pending Resolution . In the event of a dispute with respect to any Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors for the next succeeding Calendar year, the Company and the Reinsurer agree that the Annual Expense Reimbursement Factors then in effect under this Agreement shall remain in effect pending resolution of such dispute and adjustment, if any, in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure set forth in paragraph (f) above.

¹ In recognition of the limited amount of time available to the Reinsurer to verify the accuracy of the calculation of the Experience Refund Baseline and the recent availability of 2003 experience on the Reinsured Policies, the parties to this Agreement agree to update the values set forth in the Experience Refund Baseline on this Schedule I, at any time on or before June 30, 2004, (a) to correct material errors or omissions in the models and workbooks used to derive the Experience Refund Baseline and (b) to reflect adjustments to projected rate increase filings resulting from further analysis of 2003 experience on the Reinsured Policies.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE ADDENDUM

I. Purpose.

In order to disclose certain information to the party providing a service under this Agreement (“Provider”) under this Addendum, some of which may constitute Protected Health Information (defined below), the party to whom a service under this Agreement is being provided (“Recipient”) and Provider mutually agree to comply with the terms of this Addendum for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its implementing privacy regulations at 45 C.F.R. Parts 160-164 (“HIPAA Privacy Rule”). These provisions shall apply to Provider to the extent that Provider is considered a “Business Associate” under the HIPAA Privacy Rule and all references in this section to Business Associates shall refer to Provider. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned in the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, in the event of a conflict between this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.

II. Permitted Uses and Disclosures.

A. Business Associate agrees to use or disclose Protected Health Information (“PHI”) that it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only as follows. The capitalized term “Protected Health Information or PHI” has the meaning set forth in 45 Code of Federal Regulations Section 164.501, as amended from time to time. Generally, this term means individually identifiable health information including, without limitation, all information, data and materials, including without limitation, demographic, medical and financial information, that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and that identifies the individual or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual. This definition shall include any demographic information concerning members and participants in, and applicants for, Recipient’s or its Subsidiaries’ health benefit plans. All other terms used in this Addendum shall have the meanings set forth in the applicable definitions under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

B. Functions and Activities on Company’s Behalf. Business Associate is permitted to use and disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries only for the purposes described in this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received. In addition to these specific requirements below, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI only in a manner that would not violate the HIPAA Privacy Rule if done by the Recipient or its Subsidiaries.

C. Business Associate’s Operations. Business Associate is permitted by this Agreement to use PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries: (i) if such use is reasonably necessary for Business Associate’s proper management and administration; and (ii) as reasonably necessary to carry out Business Associate’s legal responsibilities. Business

Associate is permitted to disclose PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries for the purposes identified in this Section only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The disclosure is required by law; or

(2) The disclosure is reasonably necessary to Business Associate's proper management and administration, and Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances in writing from any person or organization to which Business Associate will disclose such PHI that the person or organization will:

a. Hold such PHI as confidential and use or further disclose it only for the purpose for which Business Associate disclosed it to the person or organization or as required by law; and

b. Notify Business Associate (who will in turn promptly notify whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received) of any instance of which the person or organization becomes aware in which the confidentiality of such PHI was breached.

D. Minimum Necessary Standard. In performing the functions and activities on Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' behalf pursuant to the Agreement, Business Associate agrees to use, disclose or request only the minimum necessary PHI to accomplish the purpose of the use, disclosure or request. Business Associate must have in place policies and procedures that limit the PHI disclosed to meet this minimum necessary standard.

E. Prohibition on Unauthorized Use or Disclosure. Business Associate will neither use nor disclose PHI it creates or receives for or from Recipient, its Subsidiaries, or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, except as permitted or required by this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, or as required by law, or following receipt of prior written approval from whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received.

F. De-identification of Information. Business Associate agrees neither to de-identify PHI it creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries or from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such de-identified PHI, unless such de-identification is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement and related to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule. De-identification of PHI, other than as expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of the Addendum for Business Associate to perform services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, is not a permitted use of PHI under this Addendum. Business Associate further agrees that it will not create a "Limited Data Set" as defined by the HIPAA Privacy Rule using PHI it creates or receives, or receives from another business associate of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, nor use or disclose such Limited Data Set unless: (i) such creation, use or disclosure is expressly permitted under the terms and conditions of this Addendum or the Agreement that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum; and such creation, use or disclosure is for services provided by Business Associate that relate to Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' activities for purposes of "treatment", "payment" or "health care operations", as those terms are defined under the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

G. Information Safeguards. Business Associate will develop, document, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of and to prevent non-permitted use or disclosure of PHI created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiaries. These safeguards must be appropriate to the size and complexity of Business Associate's operations and the nature and scope of its activities. Business Associate agrees that these safeguards will meet any applicable requirements set forth by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including (as of the effective date or as of the compliance date, whichever is applicable) any requirements set forth in the final HIPAA security regulations. Business Associate agrees to mitigate, to the extent practicable, any harmful effect that is known to Business Associate resulting from a use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate in violation of the requirements of this Addendum.

III. Conducting Standard Transactions. In the course of performing services for Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to the extent that Business Associate will conduct Standard Transactions for or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, Business Associate will comply, and will require any subcontractor or agent involved with the conduct of such Standard Transactions to comply, with each applicable requirement of 45 C.F.R. Part 162. "Standard Transaction(s)" shall mean a transaction that complies with the standards set forth at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 162. Further, Business Associate will not enter into, or permit its subcontractors or agents to enter into, any trading partner agreement in connection with the conduct of Standard Transactions for or on behalf of the Recipient or its Subsidiaries that:

- a. Changes the definition, data condition, or use of a data element or segment in a Standard Transaction;
- b. Adds any data element or segment to the maximum defined data set;
- c. Uses any code or data element that is marked "not used" in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification or is not in the Standard Transaction's implementation specification; or
- d. Changes the meaning or intent of the Standard Transaction's implementation specification.

IV. Sub-Contractors, Agents or Other Representatives. Business Associate will require any of its subcontractors, agents or other representatives to which Business Associate is permitted by this Addendum or the Agreement (or is otherwise given Recipient's or the relevant Subsidiary's prior written approval) to disclose any of the PHI Business Associate creates or receives for or from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, to provide reasonable assurances in writing that subcontractor or agent will comply with the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Business Associate under the terms and conditions of this Addendum with respect to such PHI.

V. Protected Health Information Access, Amendment and Disclosure Accounting.

A. Access. Business Associate will promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request make available to Recipient, its Subsidiary, or, at Recipient's or such Subsidiary's direction, to the individual (or the individual's personal representative) for inspection and obtaining copies any PHI about the individual which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary and that is in Business Associate's custody or control, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its access obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.524.

B. Amendment. Upon Recipient's or its Subsidiary's request Business Associate will promptly amend or permit Recipient or its Subsidiary access to amend any portion of the PHI which Business Associate created for or received from Recipient or its Subsidiary, and incorporate any amendments to such PHI, so that Recipient or its Subsidiary may meet its amendment obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.526.

C. Disclosure Accounting. So that Recipient or its Subsidiaries may meet their disclosure accounting obligations under 45 Code of Federal Regulations § 164.528:

1. Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate will record for each disclosure, not excepted from disclosure accounting under Section V.C.2 below, that Business Associate makes to Recipient or its Subsidiaries of PHI that Business Associate creates for or receives from Recipient or its Subsidiaries, (i) the disclosure date, (ii) the name and member or other policy identification number of the person about whom the disclosure is made, (iii) the name and (if known) address of the person or entity to whom Business Associate made the disclosure, (iv) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (v) a brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure (items i-v, collectively, the "disclosure information"). For repetitive disclosures Business Associate makes to the same person or entity (including Recipient or its Subsidiaries) for a single purpose, Business Associate may provide a) the disclosure information for the first of these repetitive disclosures, (b) the frequency, periodicity or number of these repetitive disclosures and (c) the date of the last of these repetitive disclosures. Business Associate will make this disclosure information available to Recipient or its Subsidiaries promptly upon Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request.

2. Exceptions from Disclosure Tracking. Business Associate need not record disclosure information or otherwise account for disclosures of PHI that this Addendum or Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary in writing permits or requires (i) for the purpose of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' treatment activities, payment activities, or health care operations, (ii) to the individual who is the subject of the PHI disclosed or to that individual's personal representative; (iii) to persons involved in that individual's health care or payment for health care; (iv) for notification for disaster relief purposes, (v) for national security or intelligence purposes, (vi) to law enforcement officials or correctional institutions regarding inmates; or (vii) pursuant to an authorization; (viii) for disclosures of certain PHI made as part of a Limited Data Set; (ix) for certain incidental disclosures that may occur where reasonable safeguards have been implemented; and (x) for disclosures prior to April 14, 2003.

3. Disclosure Tracking Time Periods. Business Associate must have available for Recipient and its Subsidiaries the disclosure information required by this section for the 6 years preceding Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' request for the disclosure information (except Business Associate need have no disclosure information for disclosures occurring before April 14, 2003).

VI. Additional Business Associate Provisions

A. Reporting of Breach of Privacy Obligations . Business Associate will provide written notice to whichever of the Recipient or its Subsidiary for which the relevant PHI was created or from which the relevant PHI was received of any use or disclosure of PHI that is neither permitted by this Addendum nor given prior written approval by Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary promptly after Business Associate learns of such non - permitted use or disclosure. Business Associate's report will at least:

- (vii) Identify the nature of the non-permitted use or disclosure;
- (viii) Identify the PHI used or disclosed;
- (ix) Identify who made the non-permitted use or received the non-permitted disclosure;
- (x) Identify what corrective action Business Associate took or will take to prevent further non-permitted uses or disclosures;
- (xi) Identify what Business Associate did or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the non-permitted use or disclosure; and
- (xii) Provide such other information, including a written report, as Recipient or the relevant Subsidiary may reasonably request.

B. Amendment . Upon the effective date of any final regulation or amendment to final regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services with respect to PHI, including, but not limited to the HIPAA privacy and security regulations, this Addendum and the Agreement will automatically be amended so that the obligations they impose on Business Associate remain in compliance with these regulations.

In addition, to the extent that new state or federal law requires changes to Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such additional obligations, upon notice by Recipient or its Subsidiaries to Business Associate of such obligations. Business Associate's continued performance of services under the Agreement shall be deemed acceptance of these additional obligations.

C. Audit and Review of Policies and Procedures . Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient request, access to and copies of any policies and procedures developed or utilized by Business Associate regarding the protection of PHI. Business Associate agrees to provide, upon Recipient's request, access to Business Associate's internal practices, books, and records, as they relate to Business Associate's services, duties and obligations set forth in this Addendum and the Agreement(s) under which Business Associate provides services and / or products to or on behalf of Recipient or its Subsidiaries, for purposes of Recipient's or its Subsidiaries' review of such internal practices, books, and records.

RETROCESSION AGREEMENT

This Retrocession Agreement, dated as of April 15, 2004 (this "Agreement"), is made and entered into by and between GE Capital Life Assurance Company of New York, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York (the "Company"), and Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Illinois (the "Reinsurer"). Defined terms used herein are defined below.

The Company and the Reinsurer mutually agree to reinsure the risks described in this Agreement under the terms and conditions stated herein. This Agreement is an indemnity retrocession agreement solely between the Company and the Reinsurer, and the performance of the obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other party. In no instance shall anyone other than the Company or the Reinsurer have any rights under this Agreement. The Company shall be and shall remain the only party hereunder that is liable to Travelers under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement or to any insured, contract holder, policyholder, claimant or beneficiary under any Novated Policy.

This Agreement is entered into in connection with an intercompany reorganization among the Company, the Reinsurer and certain of their Affiliates.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall assign, delegate, sublicense or transfer, in whole or in part, any rights, interests or obligations under the Travelers Agreements.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (definitions are applicable to both the singular and the plural forms of each term defined in this Article):

"Accounting Period" means each calendar month, except that the last Accounting Period shall be the period commencing with the first day of the month in which the Termination Date falls and ending with the Termination Date.

"Affiliate" means any other Person that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the first Person. "Control" (including the terms, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or credit arrangement, as trustee or executor, or otherwise.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

“ Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses ” means all costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Company or its Affiliates in the investigation, adjustment, settlement or defense of all claims or the monitoring, preservation or enforcement of rights, interests or benefits arising out of or relating to the Reinsured Policies (excluding office expenses and salaries of officials of the Company or its Affiliates or any other administrative or overhead expenses of the Company or of its Affiliates), and court costs, and interest on any judgment or award. Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses shall also include expenses associated with an action by any entity for declaratory judgment filed in connection with the Reinsured Policies.

“ Annual Report ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 7.5.

“ Applicable Law ” means any federal, state, local or foreign law (including common law), statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction, judgment, permit governmental agreement or decree applicable to a Person or any of such Person’s subsidiaries, properties, assets, or to such Person’s officers, directors, managing directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such.

“ Assets ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.4(a).

“ Assignment Letter Agreement ” means the letter agreement dated the date hereof among General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, the Reinsurer, the Company and certain affiliates of the Company relating to the assignment by General Electric Capital Corporation of the Capital Maintenance Agreement.

“ Business Day ” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in the States of Illinois or Virginia are required or authorized by law to be closed.

“ Business Overhead Services ” shall have the meaning specified in Schedule E-1 hereto.

“ Capital Maintenance Agreement ” means the Capital Maintenance Agreement between General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and the Reinsurer.

“ Ceding Commission ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.3.

“ Claims Settlement Account ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 4.1(a).

“ Closing Date ” means April 15, 2004.

“ Code ” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

“ Company Account ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.1(e).

“ CPR ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 15.3.

“ CPR Arbitration Rules ” shall have the meaning specified in Section 15.4(a).

“Dispute” shall have the meaning specified in Section 15.1(a).

“Eligible Securities” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.1(c).

“Expense Allowance” shall have the meaning specified in Section 6.1.

“Experience Account” has the meaning set forth in Section 8.1(a).

“Experience Refund” has the meaning set forth in Section 8.1(c).

“Experience Refund Baseline” has the meaning set forth in Section 8.1(a).

“Extra Contractual Liabilities” means all liabilities for damages (including compensatory, consequential, exemplary, punitive, bad faith or similar or other damages) which (i) arise out of the conduct of the Company on or prior to the Inception Date in seeking premium rate increases pursuant to the terms of the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement or the Travelers Servicing Agreement or (ii) relate to the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of the Reinsured Policies, including liability arising out of or relating to any alleged or actual acts, errors or omissions by the Company or its agents, whether intentional or otherwise, with respect to any of the Reinsured Policies, including (A) any alleged or actual reckless conduct or bad faith in connection with the handling of any claim arising out of or under Reinsured Policies, or (B) the marketing, sale, underwriting, issuance, delivery, cancellation or administration of any of the Reinsured Policies.

“Force Majeure” shall have the meaning specified in Section 3.9(b)(iii).

“Funding Requirement” shall have the meaning specified in Section 12.1(e).

“GAAP” means U.S. generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

“GECA” means General Electric Capital Assurance Company, an insurance company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and an affiliate of the Company.

“Governmental Authority” means any foreign or national government, any state or other political subdivision thereof, and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

“Inception Date” shall have the meaning specified in Section 2.1.

“Initial Notice” shall have the meaning specified in Section 15.2.

“Initial Reinsurance Premium” shall have the meaning specified in Section 5.1.

“Initial Report” shall have the meaning specified in Section 7.1.

ARTICLE II

COVERAGE

2.1. Coverage. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions and other provisions of this Agreement, as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on January 1, 2004 (the “Inception Date”), the Company hereby retrocedes to the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer hereby agrees to indemnify the Company for, one hundred percent (100%) of Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company and unpaid as of the Inception Date (the “Reinsured Risks”).

2.2. Conditions. (a) If the Company’s liability under any of the Reinsured Policies is changed because of changes made on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies (including to any contract riders or endorsements thereto) that are required due to changes in Applicable Law, the Reinsurer will share in the change proportionately to the coinsurance share hereunder and the Company and the Reinsurer will make all appropriate adjustments to amounts due each other under this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (a) above, no changes, amendments or modifications made by the Company on or after the Inception Date in the terms and conditions of the Reinsured Policies which adversely affect the liability of the Reinsurer hereunder shall be covered hereunder without the prior written approval of such changes, amendments or modifications by the Reinsurer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In the event that any such changes, amendments or modifications are made by the Company in any Reinsured Policy without the prior written approval of the Reinsurer, this Agreement will cover Ultimate Net Loss incurred by the Company as if the non-approved changes, amendments or modifications had not been made.

2.3. Ultimate Net Loss. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2, 2.3(b) and (c) and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, “Ultimate Net Loss” shall mean (i) in the case of all Reinsured Policies other than the Novated Policies, one hundred percent (100%) of the Company’s liability arising under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement (including without limitation Stop-Loss Payments due by the Company to Travelers under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) after making deductions for all recoveries, salvage and subrogations actually recovered, and (ii) in the case of Novated Policies (A) the actual Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses payable by the Company after making deductions for all recoveries, salvage and subrogations actually recovered, (B) premium taxes due in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies, (C) Insolvency Fund assessments, net of any premium tax credits of the Company arising out of any such assessments, in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date with respect to the Novated Policies, (D) all amounts payable on or after the Inception Date for returns or refunds of premiums under the Novated Policies, (E) all liability for commission payments and other fees or compensation payable with respect to the Reinsured Policies in respect of premiums and other amounts paid on or after the Inception Date and (F) unclaimed property liabilities and obligations arising under or related to the Reinsured Policies and payable on or after the Inception Date.

(b) Any Extra Contractual Liabilities resulting from actions of the Company or its agents or reinsured by the Company under the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement shall be treated as a Loss for the purposes of this Agreement to the extent permitted by state law, except to the extent that any such Extra Contractual Liabilities are attributable to the conduct of the Company in its administration of the Reinsured Policies on or after the Inception Date, other than actions taken by the Company at the written request or direction of the Reinsurer.

(c) All recoveries or payments received by the Company subsequent to a loss settlement under this Agreement shall be applied as if recovered or received prior to the aforesaid settlement and all necessary adjustments shall be made by the parties hereto; provided, that nothing in this Section 2.3(c) shall be construed to mean that the Reinsurer's share of the Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses under this Agreement are not recoverable until the Company's Ultimate Net Loss has been ascertained.

2.4. Territory. The territorial limits of this Agreement shall be identical with those of the Reinsured Policies.

2.5. Ceded Reinsurance. Subsequent to the Inception Date, the Company will not enter into any reinsurance arrangements with respect to the Reinsured Policies without the prior written consent of the Reinsurer, in its sole discretion.

2.6. Novation of Reinsured Policies. The Reinsurer acknowledges that the Company is obligated under the terms of the Travelers Agreements to use its reasonable best efforts to assume and effect the novation of each of the Reinsured Policies from Travelers to the Company, so as to substitute the Company, in lieu of Travelers, as the insurer directly liable to the underlying insureds under the Reinsured Policies. Any Reinsured Policy that has been novated to the Company is referred to in this Agreement as a "Novated Policy". In the event that a Reinsured Policy is novated from Travelers to the Company, such Reinsured Policy shall continue for all purposes of this Agreement to be a Reinsured Policy hereunder. The Reinsurer shall reimburse the Company for all costs reasonably incurred by the Company in seeking to so novate the Reinsured Policies, which, for the avoidance of doubt, are not included in the Expense Allowance.

2.7. Travelers Reinsurance Agreement. The Reinsurer acknowledges that the Company is obligated under the terms of the Travelers Side Letter to amend the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement not later than July 31, 2008, to increase the portion of the underlying business that Travelers has ceded to the Company on a coinsurance basis from ninety percent (90%) to one hundred percent (100%) of the New York Reinsured Liabilities (as such term is defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement). Any such increased cession of the New York Reinsured Liabilities (as such term is defined in the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement) shall be reinsured under this Agreement.

ADMINISTRATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Contract Administration. (a) Subject to Section 3.9, the Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing and Business Overhead Services identified on Schedule E-1 hereto with respect to the Reinsured Policies in accordance with the terms hereof. All claims paid by the Company shall be binding upon the Reinsurer; provided, however, that such claims are within the terms, conditions and limitations of the Reinsured Policies. The Company shall administer the Travelers Reinsurance Agreement and provide policyholder and claims servicing and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies in good faith and with the care, skill, prudence and diligence of a person experienced in administering long term care insurance business. The Company shall provide policyholder and claims servicing and such Business Overhead Services with respect to the Reinsured Policies, (i) in accordance with the terms of the Reinsured Policies, (ii) in accordance with the terms of the Travelers Agreements, (iii) in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement, (iv) in compliance with Applicable Law and, subject to the foregoing, (v) in the same manner as it conducts its own business not subject to this Agreement and (vi) in accordance with the Company's administrative performance standards in effect on the date hereof, with such revisions to such standards as are no less favorable to the Reinsurer than the Company's standards in effect on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may, from time to time, mutually develop specific and/or different standards for providing such services with respect to the Reinsured Policies, provided, that such standards are not in conflict with the terms of the Travelers Agreements.
