EXHIBIT A

StoneMor Partners L.P. (the “Company”) did not file its Annual Report on Form 10-K (the “Form 10-K”) for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 within the prescribed period because the Company needed additional time to complete the audit of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. At issue is the accounting treatment of a transaction with the Archdiocese of Detroit in the third quarter of 2010 which has no material effect on the Company’s cash distributions or available cash. Under the terms of the operating agreement with the Archdiocese of Detroit, the Company became the exclusive operator of three cemeteries owned by the Archdiocese of Detroit. The Company believes that any potential change in method of accounting would have no material impact on the Company’s cash flow, distributions or results of operations for the fourth quarter. The Company believes, the contribution of these three locations to the Company’s operating earnings is not materially significant to its results. At the time the Company entered into the agreement to operate these properties, the Company determined that the proper application of relevant accounting guidance required that the Company consolidate the assets and liabilities of these cemeteries with the assets and liabilities of the Company. The Company is currently in discussion with its independent public accountants as to whether this was the appropriate accounting treatment for the recording of this transaction.

EXHIBIT B

The Company anticipates that there will be significant changes in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year to be reflected in the statement of operations to be included in the Form 10-K. The Company is in the process of completing the audit of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. Until it completes this process, the Company is not in a position to estimate those changes.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Form 12b-25, including, but not limited to, information regarding the status and progress of the Company's operating activities, the plans and objectives of the Company's management, assumptions regarding the Company's future performance and plans, and any financial guidance provided, as well as information in other filings with the SEC and elsewhere are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The words "believe," "may," "will," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "intend," "project," "expect," "predict," and similar expressions identify these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are made subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated, including, but not limited to, the following: uncertainties associated with future revenue and revenue growth; the effect of the current economic downturn; the impact of the Company's significant leverage on its operating plans; the ability of the Company to service its debt and pay distributions; the decline in the fair value of certain equity and debt securities held in the Company's trusts; the Company's ability to attract, train and retain an adequate number of sales people; uncertainties associated with the volume and timing of pre-need sales of cemetery services and products; increased use of cremation; changes in the death rate; changes in the political or regulatory environments, including potential changes in tax accounting and trusting policies; the Company's ability to successfully implement a strategic plan relating to producing operating improvements, strong cash flows and further deleveraging; uncertainties associated with the integration or anticipated benefits of the Company's recent acquisitions or any future acquisitions; the Company's ability to complete and fund additional acquisitions; the Company's ability to maintain effective disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting; and various other uncertainties associated with the death care industry and the Company's operations in particular.

When considering forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risk factors and other cautionary statements set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. The Company assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements made herein or any other forward-looking statements made by it, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
