Global Cash Access Announces Departure of Chief Financial Officer

Las Vegas, NV, April 26, 2010 – Global Cash Access Holdings, Inc. (NYSE:GCA) (the “Company”) today announced the resignation of George Gresham, executive vice president and chief financial officer. Mr. Gresham has decided to leave the Company effective May 7, 2010, to pursue other opportunities. The Company has immediately begun a search for a new chief financial officer.

“On behalf of the Company, I would like to thank George for the contributions that he has made over the past two years and to wish him well in his future endeavors”, said Scott Betts, president and chief executive officer of the Company. “While we are disappointed to see George leave the Company, we believe that moving forward we continue to have an exceptional management team in both depth and breadth that will be able to capitalize on our excellent financial position and robust product pipeline in order to continue our objective of capitalizing on the growth opportunities in the gaming industry.”

Mr. Betts will serve as the Company’s interim chief financial officer until a permanent replacement is found. Mr. Gresham’s departure was not related to any disagreement with the management team, the Company’s board of directors, or the Company’s auditors.
