Global Cash Access to Delay Filing of Form 10-Q for the Quarter Ended September 30, 2007

(Las Vegas, NV – November 14, 2007 – NYSE:GCA) – Global Cash Access Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) today announced that it will delay the filing of its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2007 pending the conclusion of an internal investigation being conducted under the direction of an independent committee of its Board of Directors, with the assistance of independent counsel, into allegations made by an individual whose identity has not been disclosed to the Company. The issues being raised remain confidential.

“The Company and its Board of Directors take these matters very seriously and accordingly the Company’s management is cooperating fully,” said Scott Betts, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Although the Company is currently unable to predict the timing of the conclusion of the internal investigation, the Company will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q by its prescribed due date, including the five-day extension of the filing deadline permitted under Rule 12b-25. The Company intends to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 as soon as practicable following the conclusion of the internal investigation.
