EXPLANATORY NOTE

On September 23, 2011 we filed a current report on Form 8-K to announce that an arbitral award had been entered against one of our subsidiaries in favor of Barracuda & Caratinga Leasing Company B.V. We are fully indemnified for this cash arbitral award by Halliburton Company and at the time of filing our analysis showed there would be no net, significant financial impact on us as a result. Subsequent analysis has shown us that we will record a tax benefit in the quarter ended Sept 30, 2011, in an amount equal to 35% of the liability for the award, which represents the tax effect of deducting the expense of the award in a future tax return. We are amending the previously filed current report to reflect this newly determined tax related benefit.

ITEM 8.01. Other Events.

On September 23, 2011, we were notified that an award in favor of the claimant, Barracuda & Caratinga Leasing Company B.V. (“Barracuda”) was issued by the panel hearing an arbitration proceeding filed by Barracuda, against Kellogg Brown & Root LLC (a subsidiary of KBR, Inc. “KBR LLC”) in connection with a contract between the parties related to the development of the Barracuda and Caratinga oil fields. The dispute centered on certain subsea bolts used in developing the field that were allegedly defective and the award finds KBR LLC liable for the costs of replacing the bolts. The total amount of the award is approximately $193 million, which includes the estimated costs for bolt replacement and costs incurred by Barracuda in the arbitration, which will bear interest from the date of the award. Under the Master Separation Agreement between us and Halliburton Company, Halliburton has agreed to indemnify us and any of our greater than 50%-owned subsidiaries as of November 2006 (which includes KBR LLC), for all out-of-pocket cash costs and expenses (except for our own ongoing legal costs), or cash settlements or cash arbitration awards resulting from the replacement of the subsea bolts installed in connection with the Barracuda-Caratinga project. We do not believe there are any legal limitations on our ability to recover the full amount of the cash arbitration award and we intend to assert our rights to recover the amounts described above. In connection with recognition of the liability owed to the claimant, we will record a corresponding tax benefit in the quarter ended Sept 30, 2011, in an amount equal to 35% of the claimant liability, which represents the tax effect of deducting the expense of the award in a future tax return
