This Amendment No. 2 (" Amendment No. 2 ") amends and supplements the statement on Schedule 13D filed by the Reporting Persons on May 20, 2013 (the " Original Schedule 13D ") and Amendment No. 1 to the Original Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on October 23, 2013 (" Amendment No. 1 " and, together with the Original Schedule 13D and this Amendment No. 2, the " Schedule 13D ") with respect to the common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the " Common Stock " or the " Shares "), of WPX Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the " Issuer "). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined in this Amendment No. 2 have the meanings set forth in the Schedule 13D. This Amendment No. 2 amends Items 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 as set forth below.

Item 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

Item 3 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

The Shares reported in Item 5 as beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons were acquired with funds of approximately $218,934,375 (including brokerage commissions) for the account of TOMF. The source of funds used by the Reporting Persons for the purchase of the Shares listed in Item 5 was the working capital of TOMF provided by capital contributions of the partners and internally generated funds of TOMF. The Shares held for TOMF may be held through margin accounts maintained with brokers, which extend credit as and when required to open or carry positions in their margin accounts, subject to applicable federal margin regulations, stock exchange rules, and such firms' credit policies. The positions may be held in margin accounts that are pledged as collateral security for the repayment of debit balances in the respective accounts.

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by the addition of the following:

On December 17, 2013, Taconic Advisors, on behalf of itself and its affiliated funds (collectively, " Taconic "), entered into an agreement with the Issuer (the " Nomination Agreement ") regarding the composition of the Issuer's board of directors (the " Board ") and other corporate governance matters. Under the terms of the Nomination Agreement, (a) on or prior to January 10, 2014, the Board shall (i) increase the size of the Board by one (such that there are a total of twelve members of the Board) and (ii) after a review of the candidacies of Karl F. Kurz and Scott A. Griffiths by the Board, assuming that each such candidate is willing to serve and that the Board has not determined that such candidate is unqualified to serve with basic competence and integrity as the director of a public company, appoint one of them to the Board as a Class I director to fill the one newly-created directorship resulting from the foregoing increase in the size of the Board (such person, the " Appointed Director "); and (b) in accordance with the Issuer's retirement guidelines, Don J. Gunther will not be nominated for reelection at the 2014 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Issuer (the " 2014 Annual Meeting ") and his service as a director of the Issuer will end as of the date of the 2014 Annual Meeting. The parties agreed that if, at any time during the term of the Nomination Agreement, the Appointed Director resigns, is removed or is otherwise unable to serve as a director, including but not limited to by death, disability or unwillingness to serve, or the Board reasonably determines that the Appointed Director is unqualified to serve with basic competence and integrity as the director of a public company, the Issuer and Taconic shall work together in good faith to select a replacement director, mutually acceptable to the Issuer and Taconic, which acceptance, in each case, shall not be unreasonably withheld. However, if, at any time before the termination of the Nomination Agreement, (a) Taconic ceases to beneficially own at least 5% of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock, or (b) Taconic or any of its representatives ceases to comply with or breaches any of the terms of the Nomination Agreement (provided that, in the case of any breach by Taconic other than a breach of Taconic's obligations with respect to voting at the 2014 Annual Meeting, if such breach can be cured, Taconic shall have 15 business days after the date on which Taconic receives written notice of such breach from the Issuer within which Taconic may cure such breach), Taconic's rights and the Board's obligations with respect to the appointment of a replacement director (as described immediately above) shall terminate.

Pursuant to the Nomination Agreement, the Issuer also agreed that (a) it will nominate only three Class II directors for election at the 2014 Annual Meeting; and (b) during the Standstill Period (as defined below), the Board (i) shall not increase the size of the Board from eleven members, except as described above for the period prior to the 2014 Annual Meeting, and (ii) may decrease the size of the Board from eleven members; provided that the Appointed Director remains a member of the newly-sized Board. Furthermore, the Issuer agreed that the Appointed Director, upon election to the Board, shall be appointed by the Board to serve on (x) in the Board's discretion, either the Nominating and Governance Committee or the Compensation Committee, and (y) a newly created committee of the Board (the "Search Committee"), which Search Committee (1) has been established by the Board for the purpose of identifying a new individual to be appointed, subject to the approval of the Board, to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer, which individual shall not have been employed at the Issuer at any time prior to his or her appointment as Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer; (2) shall be comprised of no more than five members (including the Appointed Director); and (3) from the date of the Nomination Agreement until the appointment of the Appointed Director to the Board, shall conduct no further business, formally or informally, other than the retention of a search consultant and the determination of specified criteria required for such new Chief Executive Officer.

On December 18, 2013, the Issuer issued a press release announcing entry into the Nomination Agreement. A copy of the release is attached as Exhibit 2 to this Schedule 13D and is incorporated by reference herein.

Under the terms of the Nomination Agreement, Taconic agreed to certain customary standstill and non-disparagement provisions, such provisions to last from the date of the Nomination Agreement until the earlier of (a) the later of (i) the sixth month anniversary of the date of the Nomination Agreement, and (ii) 60 days prior to the last day upon which a notice to the Secretary of the Issuer of nominations of persons for election to the Board or the proposal of business at the 2015 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Issuer would be considered timely pursuant to the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Issuer, as then in effect, and (b) 10 business days after such date, if any, that Taconic provides written notice to the Issuer (specifying the relevant facts) that the Issuer has materially breached any of its commitments or obligations under the Nomination Agreement, except that, in the case of any breach by the Issuer, other than a breach of the provision of the Nomination Agreement providing for the appointment of the Appointed Director to the Board, if such material breach can be cured, the Issuer shall have 15 business days after the date of such written notice within which to cure its material breach, and clause (b) shall not apply in the event of such cure (the "Standstill Period"). Taconic also agreed to cause all shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by Taconic to be present for quorum purposes and to be voted at the 2014 Annual Meeting in favor of (x) the election of each Class II director proposed by the Issuer for reelection to the Board who, as of the date of the Nomination Agreement, is a Class II director of the Board, (y) ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Issuer's independent auditor for 2014, and (z) advisory approval of the Issuer's executive compensation. The foregoing does not prohibit the Reporting Persons from privately communicating their views to the Issuer's management or the Board so long as such communications are not intended to, and would not be reasonably expected to, require any public disclosure of such communications. Subject to the terms of the Nomination Agreement, the Reporting Persons may continue to advocate the policies and strategies previously described in this Schedule 13D. The foregoing summary of the Nomination Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Nomination Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to this Schedule 13D and is incorporated by reference herein.

Taconic Capital Advisors LP

Attn: Mr. Michael Schwartz

Gentlemen:

This letter constitutes the agreement (the "Agreement") between Taconic Capital Advisors LP, a Delaware limited partnership, on behalf of itself and its affiliated funds, both current and future (collectively, "Taconic"), and WPX Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company").

WHEREAS, the Company and Taconic have agreed that it is in their mutual interests to enter into this Agreement to, among other things, set forth certain agreements concerning the composition of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") and other corporate governance matters, as hereinafter described.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto mutually agree as follows:

1. (a) On or prior to January 10, 2014, the Board shall, pursuant to the powers granted to the Board under Section 3.2 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws"), (i) increase the size of the Board by one (such that there are a total of twelve members of the Board) and (ii) after a review of the candidacies of Karl F. Kurz ("Kurz") and Scott A. Griffiths ("Griffiths") by the Board, assuming that each such candidate is willing to serve and that the Board has not determined that such candidate is unqualified to serve with basic competence and integrity as the director of a public company, appoint one of them to the Board as a Class I director to fill the one newly-created directorship resulting from the foregoing increase in the size of the Board (such person, together with any person elected to be a director pursuant to clause (d) below, the "Appointed Director"); provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, if the Board reasonably determines not to appoint either Kurz or Griffiths to the Board pursuant to this Section 1(a), subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3 hereof, an individual mutually acceptable to the Company and Taconic shall be appointed to the Board as the Appointed Director pursuant to Section 1(d) of this Agreement.

(b) In accordance with the Company's retirement guidelines, Don J. Gunther will not be nominated for reelection at the 2014 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company (the "2014 Annual Meeting") and his service as a director of the Company will end as of the date of the 2014 Annual Meeting. As a result, the Board will nominate only three Class II directors for election to the Board at the 2014 Annual Meeting. During the Standstill Period (as defined below), the Board (i) shall not increase the size of the Board from eleven members, except as set forth in Section 1(a) for the period prior to the 2014 Annual Meeting, and (ii) may decrease the size of the Board from eleven members; provided that the Appointed Director remains a member of the newly-sized Board.

(c) The Appointed Director, upon election to the Board, will serve as a member of the Board and will be governed by the same protections and obligations regarding confidentiality, conflicts of interests, fiduciary duties, trading and disclosure policies and other governance guidelines (it being understood that such policies shall not restrict the activities of Taconic) and shall have the same rights and benefits, including with respect to insurance, indemnification, compensation and fees, as are applicable at any time to all independent directors of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 1(c) shall preclude the Appointed Director from seeking to change the trading and disclosure policies, other governance documents or guidelines or any other policies of the Company.

(d) If at any time during the term of this Agreement, the Appointed Director resigns, is removed or is otherwise unable to serve as a director, including but not limited to by death, disability or unwillingness to serve, or the Board reasonably determines that the Appointed Director is unqualified to serve with basic competence and integrity as the director of a public company, the Company and Taconic shall work together in good faith to select a replacement director, mutually acceptable to the Company and Taconic, which acceptance, in each case, shall not be unreasonably withheld.

2. The Appointed Director, upon election to the Board, shall be appointed by the Board to serve on (a) in the Board's discretion, either the Nominating and Governance Committee or the Compensation Committee, and (b) a newly created committee of the Board (the "Search Committee"), which Search Committee (i) has been established by the Board for the purpose of identifying a new individual to be appointed, subject to the approval of the Board, to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, which individual shall not have been employed at the Company at any time prior to his or her appointment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company; (ii) shall be comprised of no more than five members (including the Appointed Director); and (iii) from the date hereof until the appointment of the Appointed Director to the Board, shall conduct no further business, formally or informally, other than the retention of a search consultant and the determination of specified criteria required for such new Chief Executive Officer.

3. If, at any time before the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 5 hereof, (a) Taconic ceases to beneficially own at least 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 (the "Common Stock"), Taconic's rights under Section 1(d) of this Agreement shall terminate, or (b) Taconic or any of its Representatives ceases to comply with or breaches any of the terms of this Agreement (provided that, in the case of any breach by Taconic other than a breach of Section 18 of this Agreement, if such breach can be cured, Taconic shall have 15 business days after the date on which Taconic receives written notice of such breach from the Company within which Taconic may cure such breach), Taconic's rights under Section 1(d) of this Agreement shall terminate and the Board's obligations under Section 1 shall terminate.

4. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, from the date of this Agreement until the earlier of (x) the later of (A) the sixth month anniversary of the date of this Agreement, and (B) 60 days prior to the last day upon which a notice to the Secretary of the Company of nominations of persons for election to the Board or the proposal of business at the 2015 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company (the "2015 Annual Meeting") would be considered timely pursuant to the Bylaws, as then in effect, and (y) 10 business days after such date, if any, that Taconic provides written notice to the Company (specifying the relevant facts) that the Company has materially breached any of its commitments or obligations under this Agreement, except that, in the case of any breach by the Company other than a breach of Section 1 of this Agreement, if such material breach can be cured, the Company shall have 15 business days after the date of such written notice within which to cure its material breach, and this clause (y) shall not apply in the event of such cure (the "Standstill Period"), Taconic shall not and shall cause its associates and Representatives (as defined below) not to:

As part of this agreement, the Company will increase the size of its Board of Directors from eleven to twelve on or before January 10, 2014.
