Volaris Announces Closing of Secondary Follow-On Equity Offering

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO, November 16, 2015 — Controladora Vuela Compañía de Aviación, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Volaris” or the “Company”) (NYSE: VLRS and BMV: VOLAR), an ultra-low-cost airline based in Mexico, announced today the closing of a secondary follow-on equity offering in which certain selling shareholders, including affiliates of Discovery Americas, and Blue Sky Investments, offered 99,000,000 of the Company’s Ordinary Participation Certificates (Certificados de Participación Ordinarios), or CPOs, in the form of American Depositary Shares, or ADSs, at a price to the public of $16.00 per ADS in the United States and other countries outside of Mexico, pursuant to the Company’s shelf registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). In connection with the offering, the underwriters exercised their option in full to purchase up to 9,900,000 additional CPOs in the form of ADSs to cover over-allotments. No CPOs or ADSs are being sold by the Company and the selling shareholders will receive all of the proceeds from this offering. Each ADS represents 10 CPOs and each CPO represents a financial interest in one Series A share of common stock of the Company.

Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, Deutsche Bank Securities, Citi, Evercore ISI and UBS acted as underwriters in connection with the offering.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities nor will there be any sale of these securities in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or other jurisdiction.
