Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

In connection with the previously announced acquisition of Vivint Solar, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “Vivint Solar”) pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among SunEdison, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Parent” or “SunEdison”), SEV Merger Sub Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”) and the Company (the “Merger Agreement”), dated July 20, 2015, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, the Company entered into letter agreement amendments (each, an “Amendment”) on July 19, 2015 with Mr. Gregory S. Butterfield to amend his involuntary termination protection agreement, dated as of June 27, 2014, and Mr. Dana Russell to amend his involuntary termination protection agreement, dated as of June 26, 2014.

Under the terms of the Amendments, upon the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”) the involuntary termination protection agreements will be amended to provide that such agreements will be terminated and have no further effect upon the second anniversary of the Effective Time; provided that the restrictive covenants under the involuntary termination protection agreements will continue in full force and effect during Messrs. Butterfield’s and Russell’s employment or service with the Company or any affiliate and for the one-year period thereafter. Pursuant to the terms of the Amendments, Messrs. Butterfield and Russell agreed that the consummation of the Merger alone will not constitute a material diminution in their title, duties, authority, reporting position or responsibilities measured in the aggregate for purposes of the “good reason” definition in the applicable involuntary termination protection agreement. In addition, Mr. Russell’s Amendment amended the definition of “good reason” in his involuntary termination protection agreement which definition will apply following the Effective Time under the involuntary termination protection agreement.

Pursuant to the Amendments, after the Effective Time Mr. Butterfield will be granted an award of 700,000 restricted stock units in respect of common stock of Parent (“Parent Common Stock”) and Mr. Russell will be granted an award of 225,000 restricted stock units in respect of Parent Common Stock. The restricted stock unit award grants will vest as follows: ten percent (10%) on December 31, 2017, forty-five percent (45%) on December 31, 2018, and the remaining forty-five percent (45%) on December 31, 2019. Subject to the compensation committee’s discretion to accelerate vesting, all unvested restricted stock units will be immediately forfeited upon a termination of employment for any reason.

The Amendments provide that thirty percent (30%) of Mr. Butterfield’s options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company (“Company Common Stock”) and twenty percent (20%) of Mr. Russell’s options to purchase Company Common Stock, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into an unvested option to purchase shares of Parent Common Stock. The options to purchase Parent Common Stock will vest fifty percent (50%) on each of the first and second anniversaries of the Effective Time; provided that one hundred percent (100%) will vest upon Messrs. Butterfield’s or Russell’s termination of employment by the Company for any reason other than “cause” or by Messrs. Butterfield or Russell for “good reason” (as defined in the applicable Amendment).

The foregoing description of the Amendments does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of each such document.

Description

99.1 Transcript of video filmed by Greg Butterfield dated July 23, 2015.

Hello, SunEdison! I'm Greg Butterfield.

On behalf of nearly 4,000 team members across the country, I'd like to introduce Vivint Solar, and express how excited we are to join you after completion of the merger.

We've respected and admired your company and culture from a distance, and now I'd like to tell you a little about ours.

We're young, we're motivated, and as you'll see, we like to zig when others zag. And while we're not big on formality, we've built a culture on working hard and doing good.

Along the way, we've taken the residential solar market by storm, and I believe there are a few reasons why:

We like to make solar simple.

We like to make it fun.

And... we're a lot like you — we believe in what we do.

We're flipping the switch on the way people create and consume energy.

We look forward to helping you lead the energy revolution...and we'll take you skiing when you visit us in Utah.

The below legends were included at the end of the video presentation:
