Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including with respect to the timing of the completion of the acquisitions, expected cash available for distribution (CAFD), earnings, future growth and financial performance (including future dividends per share) and the ability to finance aspects of the acquisitions, and typically can be identified by the use of words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “forecast,” “intend,” “project,” “target,” “plan,” “believe” and similar terms and expressions. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions. Although SunEdison believes that its expectations and assumptions are reasonable, it can give no assurance that these expectations and assumptions will prove to have been correct, and actual results may vary materially. For example, (1) Vivint Solar may be unable to obtain the stockholder approval required for the Merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the Merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the Merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the Merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the Merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Vivint Solar could interfere with the Merger; (5) SunEdison may be unable to obtain the financing for which it has received commitments or to complete the sale of assets contemplated by the TERP Purchase Agreement (as defined in SunEdison’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on July 22, 2015); (6) problems may arise in integration, which may result in less effective or efficient operations; (7) the Merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies’ expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what SunEdison expects; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the Merger and the related transactions; (10) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (11) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements include, among others: the failure of counterparties to fulfill their obligations under the agreements; price fluctuations, termination provisions and buyout provisions in the agreements; TerraForm Power Inc.’s ability to successfully identify, evaluate and consummate acquisitions from SunEdison or third parties; government regulation; operating and financial restrictions under agreements governing indebtedness; SunEdison and TerraForm Power, Inc.’s ability to borrow funds and access capital markets; SunEdison and TerraForm Power Inc.’s ability to compete against traditional and renewable energy companies; and hazards customary to the power production industry and power generation operations, such as unusual weather conditions and outages. Furthermore, any future dividends are subject to available capital, market conditions and compliance with associated laws and regulations. SunEdison undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The foregoing review of factors that could cause SunEdison’s actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in the forward-looking statements included in this communication should be considered in connection with information regarding risks and uncertainties that may affect SunEdison’s future results included in SunEdison’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov.

Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Hello, SunEdison! I'm Greg Butterfield.

On behalf of nearly 4,000 team members across the country, I'd like to introduce Vivint Solar, and express how excited we are to join you after completion of the merger.

We've respected and admired your company and culture from a distance, and now I'd like to tell you a little about ours.

We're young, we're motivated, and as you'll see, we like to zig when others zag. And while we're not big on formality, we've built a culture on working hard and doing good.

Along the way, we've taken the residential solar market by storm, and I believe there are a few reasons why:

We like to make solar simple.

We like to make it fun.

And... we're a lot like you - we believe in what we do.

We're flipping the switch on the way people create and consume energy.

We look forward to helping you lead the energy revolution...and we'll take you skiing when you visit us in Utah.
