Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including with respect to the timing of the completion of the acquisition and the ability of SunEdison to finance aspects of the acquisition, and typically can be identified by the use of words such as "expect," "estimate," "anticipate," "forecast," "intend," "project," "target," "plan," "believe" and similar terms and expressions. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions. Although Vivint Solar believes that its expectations and assumptions are reasonable, it can give no assurance that these expectations and assumptions will prove to have been correct, and actual results may vary materially. For example, (1) Vivint Solar may be unable to obtain the stockholder approval required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Vivint Solar could interfere with the merger; (5) SunEdison may be unable to obtain the financing for which it has received commitments or to complete the sale of assets contemplated by the TERP Purchase Agreement; (6) problems may arise in integration, which may result in less effective or efficient operations; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies' expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what SunEdison, Terraform Power, Inc. ("TerraForm Power") or Vivint Solar expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger and the related transactions; (10) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (11) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that affect the businesses of Vivint Solar, SunEdison and TerraForm Power described in the "Risk Factors" section of their respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other documents filed by either of them from time to time with the SEC. All forward-looking statements included in this document are based upon information available to Vivint Solar, SunEdison and TerraForm Power on the date hereof, and none of Vivint Solar, SunEdison or TerraForm Power assumes any obligation to update or revise any such forward-looking statements.

Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee that the future results, levels of activity, performance or events and circumstances reflected in those statements will be achieved or will occur, and actual results could differ materially from those anticipated or implied in the forward-looking statements. Except as required by law, Vivint Solar does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise. Weekly Update – First Impressions

A message from Greg Butterfield

Tuesday, July 28, 2015

Hello, everyone. I thought it would be a good idea to kick off the week with a video and a few thoughts on the importance of staying focused.

First Impressions

There is nothing like a first impression. That is why—with classic Vivint Solar style—we recently made a video to introduce our company to the employees of SunEdison. This video is currently showing on the home page of SunEdison’s intranet. I hope you like it.

Give It Time and Stay Focused

I wish I had time to meet with each of you to ask: “How do you feel about the recent announcement?” I have heard that some of you are anxious, others excited. Some are nostalgic for the past, others eager for the future. It is perfectly normal to experience many different emotions during times of change. I know I have.

Collectively, I know we are still adjusting to the idea of partnering with SunEdison once the merger is finalized. It will take time to mentally and emotionally prepare. Our excitement will be tempered by the frustration of not having all of the answers when we want them. Again, that is perfectly normal during change like this. I urge all of us to “keep calm and carry on,” as the saying goes.

The best thing for all of us to do right now is to stay focused on our goals. We are nearly one month into Q3 and we should be laser-focused on reaching our MW and CPW targets. Let’s not forget that we are actively climbing toward 31G each and every day, regardless of what else is happening around us.

If you do have burning questions, talk to your manager or supervisor, and don’t forget to submit your questions to GetThereFaster@vivintsolar.com.

Still “All In”

I want to reassure you of my commitment to you, our company, and our cause. I am ALL IN.

Have a great week.

Greg Butterfield
CEO, Vivint Solar
