Part III Narrative

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Myers Industries, Inc. (the "Company") has experienced a delay in completing the financial statements to be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. As a result of this delay, the Company is unable to file its Form 10-K by the prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company's inability to timely file its Form 10-K is a result of time needed to address certain accounting matters. The Company has recently uncovered what appear to be errors in the accounting for inventory and possibly fraudulent activities at its Brazilian operations. The Company is reviewing this matter in order to determine the effect of these errors on the Company's results of operations and, if so, the extent of such effect. Because these errors were uncovered very recently, the Company has an ongoing investigation which is not complete and prohibits the Company from filing prior to March 16, 2015 (the prescribed due date for the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014).

Although the review is continuing, the Company currently believes that the errors will negatively impact the Company's 2014 net income from continuing operations by approximately $1.25 to $1.75 million. However, the Company's review is ongoing, and there can be no assurance that the impact may not exceed such amount. The anticipated amount of the errors will not cause the Company to be out of compliance with any of its debt covenants. In addition, the Company expects to report in the Form 10-K a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting in connection with its financial statement close process at its Brazilian operations.

Because the Company's review is still ongoing, the Company is unable to file its Form 10-K within the prescribed time period. The Company expects to file the Form 10-K as soon as reasonably practicable after completion of its investigation and review, and at this time the Company anticipates that it will be able to do so within the extension period of 15 calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act, as amended.
