THE 2003 ANNUAL REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS ACCOMPANIES THIS NOTICE

MYERS INDUSTRIES, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Myers Industries, Inc., an Ohio corporation, of the accompanying proxy to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 21, 2004, at 9:00 A.M. (local time), and at any adjournment thereof.

The close of business on March 5, 2004, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On that date Myers had outstanding 30,213,771 shares of common stock, without par value ("Common Stock"), each of which is entitled to one vote. For information concerning principal shareholders, see the section headed "Principal Shareholders" below.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum for the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by signed proxies will be counted toward the establishment of a quorum on all matters even though they are signed but otherwise unmarked or marked.

For the election of directors, if a quorum is present at the meeting, the nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected as directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election of directors.

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies which are returned and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions, if any, given therein. If no instructions are provided in a proxy, the shares of Common Stock represented by such proxy will be voted FOR the Board's nominees for director and in accordance with the proxy-holder's best judgment as to any other matters, if any, which may be properly raised at the Annual Meeting.

A shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by giving written notice of such revocation to the Assistant Secretary of the Company, executing and delivering to the Assistant Secretary of the Company a later dated proxy reflecting contrary instructions, or appearing at the Annual Meeting and taking appropriate steps to vote in person.

The inspectors of election for the meeting appointed by the Board shall determine the number of votes cast by holders of Common Stock for all matters.

The mailing address of the principal executive offices of the Company is 1293 South Main Street, Akron, Ohio 44301. This Proxy Statement, together with the related proxy card and Myers' 2003 Annual Report to Shareholders, is being mailed to the shareholders of Myers on or about March 15, 2004.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Set forth below for each nominee for election as a director is a brief statement, including the age, principal occupation and business experience for at least the past five years, and the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by such director.

In April 2002, the shareholders, pursuant to Article II, Section 2 of the Company's Regulations, fixed the total number of directors at nine. The independent members of the Board of Directors have nominated the persons listed below as nominees, all of whom presently are directors of Myers. If any nominee should become unavailable for any reason, it is intended that votes will be cast for a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors. There is no reason to believe that the nominees named will be unable to serve if elected. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of nominees than the number named in the Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors recommends the election of the following nominees:

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors of Myers has two committees, the Audit and Compensation Committees, whose members were appointed in April 2003 following the Annual Meeting. Each of the Committees have a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. The Committees report on their actions and recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is composed of Keith A. Brown, Chairman, Karl S. Hay, and Jon H. Outcalt. The functions of this Committee, which met six times in 2003, are to engage and discharge the independent auditor, approve all audit engagements (audit and non-audit), review the results of the audit, determine the independence of the auditor, review with the auditor the financial results of the Company prior to the filing of reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), and direct and supervise special investigations. The Committee also has oversight of the Company's system of internal auditing functions and controls. The Audit Committee's written charter is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

The Board of Directors has determined that a majority of the current Audit Committee members would qualify as an "audit committee financial expert," and would also be deemed to be "independdent” under the applicable rules. The Board, however, has determined not to name any single member of the Audit Committee as a “financial expert” since the Board does not believe such a designation is necessary either for the Audit Committee’s or Board’s effective performance.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee (i) reviews executive performance and compensation, and approves the compensation for the executive officers, such as the approval of base compensation, bonuses, and stock option grants to such employees (ii) reviews and recommends to the Board plans and benefits relating to executive compensation, (iii) reviews and approves director compensation policies and programs, and (iv) provides oversight for the Company’s broad-based retirement benefit programs including, without limitation, the 401(k) and profit sharing plan. The Committee has the authority to retain outside consultants regarding executive compensation and other matters, but has historically not utilized such consultants. The Compensation Committee, which met three times in 2003, had as its members, Jon H. Outcalt, Chairman, Edward W. Kissel, and Richard L. Osborne.

General Board and Committee Matters.

The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee is “independent” and that each Director has no material relationship with the Company which would impact upon their independence. The determination of whether a Director is “independent” is based upon the Board’s review of the relationships between each Director and the Company, if any, under the NYSE and Commission rules.

Effective in December 2002, the Board adopted a policy requiring the non-management directors, both as to the Board and in their respective Committees, to meet regularly in executive session without management personnel or employee Directors present. The non-management Directors have reported that they have not selected a presiding Director to preside at these meetings, and that there is no procedure established for such a selection.

In 2003, as well as for at least the five Annual Meetings which preceded it, all of the Directors attended the Company’s Annual Meetings. The Company does not have a formal policy requiring Directors to attend the Annual Meetings of Shareholders.

There were a total of five regularly scheduled and special meetings of the Board of Directors in 2003. During 2003, all Directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate total number of the meetings of the Board and Committees on which they served.

Corporate Governance Initiatives.

The Board of Directors is in the process of implementing those corporate governance initiatives required by the NYSE and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Company has been and will be in full compliance prior to the effective date of each provision.

The Board intends to adopt a policy regarding the ability of a shareholder to propose a candidate for the Board of Directors prior to the Annual Meeting, since the Company currently does not have such a policy. The new policy will be effective for nominations for the election to be held in April 2005.

Table of Contents

The Board, as required by the NYSE rules, will form a Corporate Governance/ Nominating Committee and adopt a written charter prior to the Annual Meeting. Historically, the non-management, independent Directors of the Board have acted in the capacity of a nominating committee. The Board had not appointed a separate committee since it feels the procedure it utilized was satisfactory. Director nominations have been made based upon the perceived needs of the Company and Board of Directors with regard to each nominee's business skills and experience. The skills and experiences of the members of the Board have been evaluated annually. Minimum qualifications have not been established since they were deemed unnecessary. There have been no nominees recommended nor has a third party been engaged to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating nominees.

The Board of Directors, as required by the NYSE rules, will adopt a methodology prior to the Annual Meeting whereby parties may communicate directly with the non-management directors as a group.

Each of the corporate governance initiatives, written charters and related policies of the Company and each Committee will be available on the Company's website at www.MyersInd.com under the "Investor's Relations" page beginning on the evening of April 20, 2004.

Director Compensation

Outside Directors are paid a $20,000 annual retainer plus $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended. Directors are also paid $1,000 for each committee meeting attended.

Under the 1999 Stock Option Plan, each non-employee Director is awarded annually on the day of the Annual Meeting, a non-qualified stock option to purchase 2,500 shares of Common Stock. The option price per share is 100 percent of the fair market value (being the closing price on the NYSE on the day of grant) of a share of Common Stock.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Myers' Directors, officers and persons who own more than ten percent of its Common Stock ("Section 16 Filers") to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and to furnish Myers with copies of all such forms they file. Myers understands from the information provided to it by the Section 16 Filers for 2003 that they have adhered to all filing requirements applicable to the Section 16 Filers.

The annual supplemental pension benefit is payable for 10 years commencing at age 65. No Stock Option may be exercised until six months after the date of grant. The purchase price of any Stock Option must be paid upon exercise in (i) immediately available funds, (ii) shares of Common Stock, or (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii). In the event a participant’s employment is terminated due to death, disability or retirement, ISOs awarded remain exercisable for the maximum period allowable under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Code”), and NQSOs remain exercisable for the remainder of the option term or five years, whichever is less. If a participant’s employment is terminated for any reason, all Stock Options granted will be canceled immediately; provided, however, that if the Company terminates a participant for reasons other than misconduct or misfeasance, the participant has 90 days to exercise any Stock Options; and provided further, that if termination is attributable to a “change in control,” any Stock Options previously granted will continue for their term.

Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee, which is composed of three independent, non-employee directors, operates under a written charter adopted by the Committee and ratified by the Board of Directors. The Committee is responsible, among other duties, for setting and administering the policies which govern executive compensation.

The executive compensation program for the executive officers, which includes the Chief Executive Officer, is administered by the Compensation Committee. The Committee's function is to review the performance of the executive officers and the performance of the Company in determining the amount and type of compensation to be paid and awarded, including incentive and bonus compensation, and to approve compensation adjustments and awards in these areas. In addition, the Committee reviews and recommends plans, programs, and benefits relating to executive compensation. The Committee's focus is on total compensation which consists of an executive's base salary, bonus, stock options and other benefits, such as health and pension benefits, some of which are available to all employees.

Although the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is determined individually, the criteria and process used are the same as those used in determining the compensation of the other executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers. Determination of compensation is based upon a number of factors. These can include the performance of the Company, compensation paid by companies which may be deemed to be the Company's peers, studies on compensation for companies of like size to the Company, as well as the recommendation of management.

Bonus awards for any year are generally determined on or before March 1 of the following year and then distributed based on a three-year partial distribution cycle. Fifty percent of the total bonus awarded is paid in the first year, and 25 percent in each of the following two years. With the exception of normal retirement, any unpaid bonus may be forfeited if the executive officer is not employed by the Company prior to the full distribution of the bonus award.

Table of Contents

The shareholder-approved 1999 Stock Plan authorizes grants of options to purchase stock, at the current market prices at time of grant, to executive officers and key employees. Whether options are to be granted and, if so, the amounts to be granted, are at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. In the granting of the stock options, in addition to the factors mentioned above, the individual Named Executive Officer's level of responsibility and past contributions to the Company are taken into consideration. In an effort to foster extended employment, such as with the bonus awards, any options awarded generally vest at 20 percent per year over a five-year period and expire on the fifth, or tenth, anniversary of grant. Any unexercised options may be forfeited if the executive leaves the Company's employ.

The Committee has reviewed the qualifying compensation regulations under Code Section 162(m) as issued by the Internal Revenue Service which provide that no federal income tax deduction is allowed for applicable employee remuneration paid by a publicly held corporation to a covered employee to the extent that the remuneration paid to the employee exceeds $1.0 million for the applicable taxable year, unless certain conditions are met. Currently, remuneration is not expected to exceed the $1.0 million base for any covered employee.

Independent Public Accountants

The firm of Ernst & Young LLP, independent public accountants, has audited the books and records of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be available at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions and will be given the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

The Audit Committee has selected the firm of Ernst & Young LLP to audit the books and accounts of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004, subject to the final approval of the Committee. A description of the fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP during the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 are set forth below. The Audit Committee (see, "Report of Audit Committee") reviewed the non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young LLP during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, and determined that the provision of such non-audit services was compatible with maintaining the accountants' independence.

Audit Fees ⁽¹⁾	$593,500	$456,000
Audit Related Fees ⁽²⁾	49,400	25,000
Tax Fees ⁽³⁾	577,775	402,000
Other Fees	-0-	-0-

(1) Professional fees for the audit of the annual financial statements, review of the quarterly financial statements and statutory audits of certain international subsidiaries of the Company.

(2) Fees for assurance and related services related to audits of benefit plans and advisory services in connection with Sabanes-Oxley Act section 404 internal control reporting requirements.

(3) Professional fees for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning.

The Audit Committee's written policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Pre-approval is provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a specific range or budget. The independent auditors and management are required to periodically report to the Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. During 2003, all services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee in accordance with the policy.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of three non-employee independent directors, and operates under a written charter adopted by the Audit Committee and ratified by the Board of Directors. The Board has determined that the Directors who serve on the Committee are all “independent,” that is, none of whom is an officer or employee of the Company nor do they have any material relationships with the Company which would impair their independence. Further, each is considered by the Board as satisfying the existing financial literacy standards of the NYSE.

During 2003 the Audit Committee (with Board ratification, if needed) adopted formal codes, charters and policies, including: (a) an Amended and Restated Charter, (b) an Amended and Restated Code of Ethical Conduct for the Finance Officers and Finance Personnel, (c) an Amended and Restated Pre-Approval Policy, (d) a Disclosure Committee Charter, and (e) Disclosure and Certification Procedures for Reports to the Commission.

The Audit Committee approved Ernst & Young LLP’s retention as the Company’s independent accountants to complete the audit for the 2003 fiscal year, and has selected them to audit the books and accounts of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004, subject to the final approval of the Committee.

Management is responsible for the Company’s internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company’s consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee’s responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes, part of which involves the Committee reviewing the interim financial information contained in earnings announcements with both management and the independent auditors prior to public release.

The Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management of the Company, who represented to the Audit Committee that the Company’s consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with both management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee also discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Company’s independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants their independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee’s discussion with management and the independent accountants, and the Committee’s review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 be filed with the Commission.

The foregoing report has been furnished by the current members of the Audit Committee, being:

Change of Independent Public Accountants — June 2002

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors selects the Company's independent accountants. On June 13, 2002 the Audit Committee terminated Arthur Andersen LLP as its independent auditors. Simultaneously with the termination of Arthur Andersen LLP, the Audit Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors. The appointment of Ernst & Young LLP was made after significant consideration and review by the Audit Committee, and concluded a thorough and deliberate evaluation including discussions with the Board of Directors and management.

The reports of Arthur Andersen LLP on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion, disclaimer of opinion or qualification or modification as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and during the subsequent interim period, there were no disagreements with Arthur Andersen LLP on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and during the subsequent interim period, there were no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

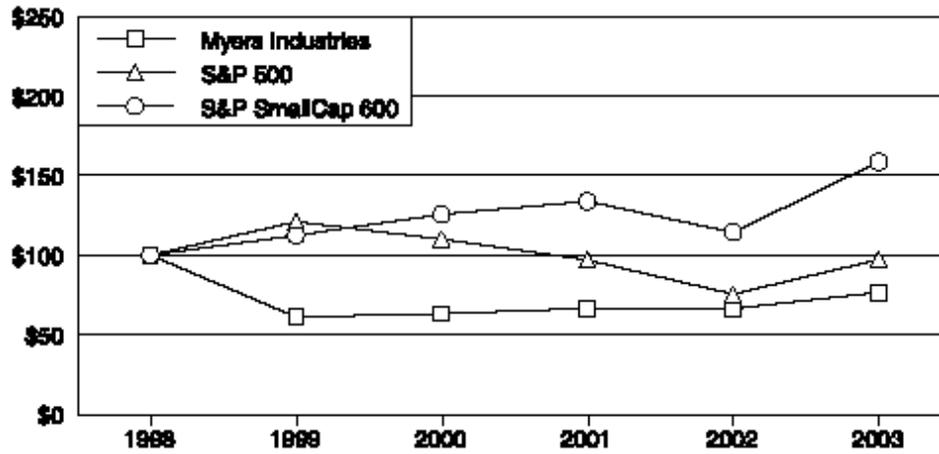

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, aggregate fees billed by Arthur Andersen LLP, prior to their termination as the Company's independent auditors, were approximately $458,000 for work related to the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, including reviews of quarterly unaudited financial statements and statutory audits of subsidiaries. In addition, the Company paid approximately $128,000 for other services provided by Arthur Andersen LLP, related principally to tax compliance, employee benefit plan audits, acquisitions and related due diligence, and general accounting research. There were no fees billed to the Company by Arthur Andersen LLP during this period for financial information systems design and implementation.

The Audit Committee reviewed the non-audit services provided by Arthur Andersen LLP during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and determined that the provision of such non-audit services was compatible with maintaining the accountants' independence.

Simultaneously with the dismissal of Arthur Andersen LLP, the Audit Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors. During the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and through the date of the Audit Committee's decision, the Company did not consult Ernst & Young LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any matter that was either the subject of disagreement on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures or a reportable event as defined in Item 304 (a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
