TYSON EXTENDS CASH TENDER OFFER FOR IBP TO JANUARY 24, 2001

Springdale, Arkansas (January 17, 2001)--Tyson Foods, Inc. (NYSE: TSN) today announced that it is extending the expiration date of its offer to purchase for cash up to 50.1% of the outstanding shares of common stock of IBP, inc. (NYSE: IBP). The offer is now scheduled to expire on January 24, 2001 at 12:00 midnight, New York City time. Except as modified by this extension, the terms and conditions of the cash tender offer remain in effect and unmodified. As of the close of business on January 16, 2001, 78,253,224 shares of IBP common stock, representing 74.1% of the total outstanding shares, had been tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to the cash tender offer.

Tyson extended the cash tender offer because the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 has not yet expired. On December 27, 2000, the Department of Justice requested additional information about Tyson's live swine business. The company has provided information in response to this request and continues to work with the DOJ to obtain prompt approval of the transaction.

The company also announced that Tyson and IBP continue to work diligently to prepare the documentation necessary to commence the exchange offer for IBP shares that are not purchased in the cash tender offer. Tyson expects that the exchange offer will be completed by the middle of March.
