Level 3 Announces Proposed Private Offering of Senior Notes

BROOMFIELD, Colo., February 8, 2007 -- Level 3 Communications, Inc. (Nasdaq: LVLT) today announced that its subsidiary, Level 3 Financing, Inc., plans to offer $500 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes in two tranches - one tranche that will mature in 2015 and will bear interest at a floating rate and a second tranche that will mature in 2017 and will bear interest at a fixed rate - in a proposed private offering to "qualified institutional buyers" as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933 and outside the United States under Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933.

The debt represented by the senior notes will constitute purchase money indebtedness under the indentures of Level 3, and the net proceeds from the offering will be used to finance the cost of construction, installation, acquisition, lease, development or improvement of any assets to be used in Level 3's communications business, including the cash purchase price of Level 3's recently completed and future acquisitions.

Following the completion of this offering, Level 3 currently intends to call for redemption its 12-7/8% Senior Discount Notes due 2010 using cash on hand.

The offering is expected to be completed during the week of February 12, 2007, subject to market conditions.

The senior notes will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold except pursuant to an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and applicable state securities laws.

Forward-Looking Statement

Some of the statements made by Level 3 in this press release are forward-looking in nature. Actual results may differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements. Level 3 believes that its primary risk factors include, but are not limited to: increasing the volume of traffic on Level 3's network; developing new products and services that meet customer demands and generate acceptable margins; successfully completing commercial testing of new technology and information systems to support new products and services, including voice transmission services; stabilizing or reducing the rate of price compression on certain of our communications services; integrating strategic acquisitions; attracting and retaining qualified management and other personnel; and the ability to meet all of the terms and conditions of our debt obligations. Additional information concerning these and other important factors can be found within Level 3's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Statements in this release should be evaluated in light of these important factors.
