CHAIRMAN'S AGM STATEMENT

Extracts from Mr. James McAdam's opening remarks to be made at today's Annual General Meeting for Signet Group plc (LSE: SIG and Nasdaq NMS: SIGY):

"We announced the first quarter results on 5 June. Group like for like sales rose by 2.2% and profit before tax increased slightly to £24.1 million after allowing for the effect of the US dollar weakening from $1.43/£ in the first quarter of last year to $1.59/£ in the first quarter of this year. On a constant exchange rate basis profit before tax increased by 11.6%.

Against the backdrop of very challenging trading conditions the US business increased like for like sales by 1.1%, again outperforming its main competition and gaining further market share. The quarter was marked by strong trading during the Valentine's Day period in February, although a weaker trend was evident in March and April.

The UK division performed well during the first quarter and in spite of being up against strong comparatives increased like for like sales by 5.4%. A drive to increase participation of diamonds in the sales mix showed further success.

In the first two months of the second quarter, US sales have demonstrated an improving trend and UK trading has continued at a satisfactory level."

It will also be announced at the meeting that Lee Abraham will retire as a non-executive director when the Christmas Trading Statement is released in early January 2004.

*Signet operated 1,671 speciality retail jewellery stores at 3 May 2003; these include 1,065 stores in the US, where the Group trades as "Kay Jewelers", "Jared The Galleria Of Jewelry" and under a number of regional names.
