PROXY STATEMENT

INFORMATION ABOUT THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING AND VOTING

References in this proxy statement to “$” and “USD” are to United States dollars and references to “CHF” are to Swiss francs.

Why Did You Send Me This Proxy Statement?

We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because the Board of Directors of ACE Limited (which we refer to as we, us, our, ACE, or the Company) is soliciting your proxy to vote at an Extraordinary General Meeting, which will be held at 3:00 p.m. Central European time on Friday, January 10, 2014, at the offices of ACE Limited, Baerengasse 32, CH-8001 Zurich, Switzerland. We will begin mailing these proxy materials on or about December 10, 2013 to all shareholders entitled to vote.

This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting. You do not need to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting to vote your shares. You may simply complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card if you are a registered holder of shares or the enclosed voting instruction card if you are a beneficial holder of shares held in “street name,” as described below.

What Agenda Items Will Be Voted on at the Extraordinary General Meeting?

The following agenda items are scheduled to be voted on at the Extraordinary General Meeting:

1. Approval of the payment of dividends from legal reserves
2. Election of Homburger AG as our independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 ordinary general meeting

Our Board recommends that you vote your shares “FOR” each of Agenda Item Nos. 1 and 2 listed above.

Are proxy materials available on the Internet?

Important Notice Regarding the Availability of Proxy Materials for the Shareholder Meeting To Be Held on Friday, January 10, 2014

Our proxy statement for the Extraordinary General Meeting and form of proxy card are available at <http://proxy.acegroup.com/phoenix.zhtml?c=100907&p=proxy>.

Directions to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting can be obtained by contacting Investor Relations at +1 (441) 299-9283.

Who Is Entitled to Vote?

December 5, 2013 is the record date for the Extraordinary General Meeting. On that date, we had 340,232,959 Common Shares outstanding. Our Common Shares are registered shares with a current par value of CHF 27.49 and are our only class of voting stock.

Table of Contents

Beneficial owners of shares and shareholders registered in our share register with voting rights at the close of business on December 5, 2013 are entitled to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting, except as provided below. If you ask to be registered as a shareholder of record with respect to your shares in our share register and become a shareholder of record for those shares (as opposed to a beneficial holder of shares held in “street name”) after December 5, 2013, but on or before December 24, 2013, and want to vote those shares at the Extraordinary General Meeting, you will need for identification purposes to obtain a proxy from the registered voting rights record holder of those shares as of the record date of the Extraordinary General Meeting to vote your shares in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting. Alternatively, you may also obtain the proxy materials by contacting Investor Relations by telephone at +1 (441) 299-9283 or via e-mail at investorrelations@acegroup.com. If you are a record holder of our Common Shares (as opposed to a beneficial holder of shares held in “street name”) on the record date of the Extraordinary General Meeting but sell your Common Shares prior to December 24, 2013, you will not be entitled to vote those shares at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

How Many Votes Do I Have?

You have one vote for each of our Common Shares that you own, unless you own Controlled Shares that constitute 10 percent or more of the issued Common Shares, in which case your voting rights with respect to those Controlled Shares will be limited, in the aggregate, to a voting power of approximately 10 percent pursuant to a formula specified in Article 14 of our Articles of Association. Our Articles of Association define Controlled Shares generally to include all shares of the Company directly, indirectly or constructively owned or beneficially owned by any person or group of persons.

What Is the Difference Between Holding Shares as a Shareholder of Record and as a Beneficial Owner?

Most of our shareholders hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. As summarized below, there are some differences between shares held of record and those owned beneficially.

Shareholder of Record

If your shares are registered directly in your name, as registered shares entitled to voting rights, in our share register operated by our transfer agent, Computershare Shareowner Services LLC, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record and these proxy materials are being sent to you directly by us. As the shareholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy to the independent proxy (see “How Do I Vote by Proxy Given to an Independent Proxy if I am a Record Holder?” below) mentioned in the corresponding proxy card, or to grant a written proxy to any person, who does not need to be a shareholder or to vote in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Beneficial Owner

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in “street name”, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares and are also invited to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting. However, since you are not the shareholder of record, you may only vote these shares in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting if you follow the instructions described below under the heading “How Do I Vote in Person at the Extraordinary General Meeting?”

Your broker, bank or other nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing your broker, bank or other nominee as to how to vote your shares, which may contain instructions for voting by telephone or electronically.

Table of Contents

How Do I Vote by Proxy Given to an Independent Proxy if I am a Record Holder?

In the past, our proxy material distribution included a proxy card authorizing an officer of the Company to vote your shares as you direct. Due to a change in Swiss corporate law effective as of January 1, 2014, officers of the Company will no longer be permitted to act as voting proxies. Instead, you may vote by proxy by using the included proxy card to appoint the independent proxy.

For this Extraordinary General Meeting, as permitted under Swiss law, our Board of Directors has appointed Homburger AG as the independent proxy. If you are a shareholder of record as of the record date, you may authorize the independent proxy, Homburger AG, to vote your Common Shares on your behalf. Homburger AG is a law firm located in Switzerland.

If you properly fill in your included proxy card appointing the independent proxy as your proxy and send it in time to vote, the independent proxy will vote your shares as you have directed. If you sign the proxy card without giving specific instructions, the independent proxy must abstain from voting. If new agenda items (other than those in the notice of meeting) or new proposals or motions with respect to the agenda items set forth in the notice of meeting are put forth before the Extraordinary General Meeting, the independent proxy must, in the absence of other specific instructions, abstain from voting. At the time we began printing this proxy statement, we knew of no matters that needed to be acted on at the Extraordinary General Meeting other than those discussed in this proxy statement. The independent proxy will not make statements, submit proposals or ask questions of the Board of Directors on behalf of shareholders.

Whether or not you plan to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting, we urge you to submit your proxy. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting. In order to assure that your votes are tabulated in time to be voted at the Extraordinary General Meeting, you must submit your proxy card so that it is received by 6:00 p.m. Central European time (12:00 noon Eastern Standard Time) on January 9, 2014.

How Do I Give Voting Instructions if I am a Beneficial Holder?

If you are a beneficial owner of shares, the broker will ask you how you want your shares to be voted. If you give the broker instructions, the broker will vote your shares as you instruct indirectly via proxy granted to the independent proxy. If your broker does not receive instructions from you about how your shares are to be voted, one of two things can happen, depending on the type of proposal. Pursuant to rules of the New York Stock Exchange, which we refer to as the NYSE, brokers have discretionary power to vote your shares with respect to “routine” matters, but they do not have discretionary power to vote your shares on “non-routine” matters. It is therefore important that you provide instructions to your broker if your shares are held by a broker so that your vote with respect to any matter treated as non-routine by the NYSE is counted. In order to assure that your votes are tabulated in time to be voted at the Extraordinary General Meeting, you must submit your voting instructions in enough time so that your broker will be able to vote by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 8, 2014.

May I Revoke or Change My Proxy?

Yes. If you change your mind after you submit your proxy, you may revoke or change your proxy granted to the independent proxy by following any of the procedures described below. To revoke or change your proxy:

- Send in another signed proxy with a later date; if you are a record holder, you may request a new proxy card from our transfer agent, Computershare Shareowner Services LLC, by calling 1 (877) 522-3752 (within the U.S.) or +1 (201) 680-6898 (outside the U.S.); if you are a beneficial owner, you may request a new proxy card through your stockbroker, bank or other nominee;
- Send a letter revoking your proxy directly to the independent proxy, Homburger AG, Attention: Dr. Claude Lambert, Prime Tower, Hardstrasse 201, PO Box 314, CH-8037 Zurich, Switzerland; or
- Attend the Extraordinary General Meeting and vote in person.

Table of Contents

If you wish to revoke or change your proxy, you must do so in sufficient time to permit the necessary examination and tabulation of the subsequent proxy or revocation before the vote is taken.

How Do I Vote in Person at the Extraordinary General Meeting?

You may vote shares held directly in your name as the shareholder of record in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting. If you choose to vote your shares in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting, please bring the enclosed proxy card and proof of identification. Even if you plan to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting, we recommend that you vote your shares in advance by submitting your proxy as described above so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Shares beneficially owned and held in “street name” may be voted in person by you only if you obtain a signed proxy from the shareholder of record giving you the right to vote the shares. If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring to the Extraordinary General Meeting an account statement or letter from the broker, bank or other nominee indicating that you are the owner of the shares and a signed proxy from the shareholder of record giving you the right to vote the shares. The account statement or letter must show you to be beneficial owner of the shares.

What Votes Need to Be Present to Hold the Extraordinary General Meeting?

There is no quorum requirement under Swiss law.

Are ACE Shares Subject to Share Blocking or Re-Registration?

No. Neither share blocking nor re-registration is required in order to vote Common Shares at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

The Company does not impose trading restrictions as a condition of voting its Common Shares, does not require that its Common Shares be deposited with a custodian or sub-custodian in order to be voted and does not instruct any custodians or sub-custodians that may receive deposits of Company Common Shares for voting to block those shares.

Common Shares that are beneficially held do not need to be re-registered into the name of the beneficial owners in order to vote (see “What Is the Difference Between Holding Shares as a Shareholder of Record and as a Beneficial Owner?” above).

Shareholders holding our Common Shares directly (i.e. not as beneficial holder via “street name”) and who are not yet registered as shareholders with voting rights in our share register operated by our transfer agent, Computershare Shareowner Services LLC, must be properly registered in our share register in order to vote their shares directly. If you are a record holder and you received this proxy statement in the mail, together with a proxy card, then your shares are properly registered to vote.

What Vote Is Required to Approve Each Agenda Item?

Approval of the payment of dividends from legal reserves (Agenda Item No. 1)

Approval of the payment of dividends from legal reserves requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast (in person or by proxy) at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Election of Homburger AG as our independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 ordinary general meeting (Agenda Item No. 2)

Election of Homburger AG as our independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 ordinary general meeting requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast (in person or by proxy) at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Table of Contents

How Are Votes Counted?

For each agenda item, your vote may be cast “FOR” or “AGAINST” or you may “ABSTAIN.” If you are a record holder and you sign your proxy card without giving specific instructions to the independent proxy, the independent proxy must abstain from voting your shares. If you sign your broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in the broker’s discretion with respect to routine matters but will not be voted with respect to non-routine matters.

How Will the Directors and Executive Officers of the Company Vote?

At the close of business on November 29, 2013, our directors and executive officers owned and were entitled to vote an aggregate of 1,795,575 Common Shares, which represented less than one percent of our outstanding Common Shares. Each of our directors, executive officers have indicated their present intention to vote, or cause to be voted, their shares in favor of the agenda items at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

What Is the Effect of Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions?

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular agenda item because the broker does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will not have any impact on the agenda items being voted upon at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

What Are the Costs of Soliciting These Proxies and Who Will Pay Them?

The Company will pay all the costs of soliciting these proxies. Although we are mailing these proxy materials, our directors and employees may also solicit proxies by telephone, by fax or other electronic means of communication, or in person. We will reimburse brokers, banks and nominees and other fiduciaries for the expenses they incur in forwarding the proxy materials to you. The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. Solicitation will be made by mail, and may be made by directors, officers and employees, personally or by telephone or email or facsimile or other electronic submission. In addition, Alliance Advisors, LLC is assisting us with vote monitoring and other support services (not including solicitation services) in connection with the Extraordinary General Meeting for a fee of $5,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses and fees.

Where Can I Find the Voting Results?

We will publish the voting results in a Form 8-K that we will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which we refer to as the SEC, by January 16, 2014. You can find the Form 8-K on our website at www.acegroup.com.

Registered shareholders who have appointed the independent proxy as a proxy may not vote in person at the meeting or send a proxy of their choice to the meeting, unless they revoke or change their proxies.

With regard to the items listed on the agenda, the independent proxy must abstain from voting on a shareholder's behalf if the shareholder does not give the independent proxy specific instructions on those items. If new agenda items (other than those on the agenda) or new proposals or motions regarding agenda items set out in the invitation to the Extraordinary General Meeting are being put forth before the meeting, the independent proxy must, in the absence of other specific instructions, abstain from voting.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 1: APPROVAL OF THE PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS FROM LEGAL RESERVES

Introduction and Explanation

At our May 2013 annual general meeting, our shareholders approved a dividend through reduction of the par value of our shares in an annual aggregate CHF amount equal to $2.04 per share, payable in four quarterly installments of $0.51 each, subject to certain currency exchange ratio and other adjustments. Two installments of this annual dividend have already been paid in 2013, with two remaining.

Following a review of our overall capital management needs and plans, our Board of Directors proposes that the shareholders approve an increase to the overall dividend to shareholders from $0.51 to $0.63 per share (subject to the adjustments indicated below) for each of the last two quarters of our annual dividend cycle, payable respectively by the end of January 2014 and the end of April 2014. The increase would be effectuated by an addition to, not an amendment of, the dividend resolution approved by our shareholders in May 2013.

Our Board of Directors believes this increase is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, given in particular the Company's strong balance sheet position and consistent earnings generation power over recent periods, and the Company's focus on creating shareholder value.

The agenda item below effectuates this increase not by amending the existing par value reduction dividend resolution approved by our shareholders at the May 2013 annual general meeting, but instead by approving an additional dividend out of capital contribution reserves. This additional dividend will be paid in two installments, simultaneously with the two remaining quarterly installments of our 2013-14 annual par value reduction dividend. We have determined that this procedure of paying an additional dividend out of capital contribution reserves is more appropriate for us at this time under current Swiss law because of timing considerations. The Board of Directors expects to recommend, at our next annual general meeting, that quarterly dividends be paid using only the par value reduction method.

Our Board of Directors announced that, for the third installment, the record date will be January 13, 2014, and the payment date will be January 31, 2014. This is a slightly later record date and payment date than last year for the third dividend installment. This modified timing, anticipated for this dividend cycle only, is intended to give you ample time to consider this dividend increase proposal. If approved, the additional dividend out of capital contribution reserves would be paid at the same time as the remaining par value reduction dividend installments. If this agenda item is not approved by the shareholders, the third installment will be paid out at the originally-approved amount, using only the par value reduction method.

Our statutory auditor, PricewaterhouseCoopers AG, has issued a report stating that this dividend increase proposal is in compliance with Swiss law and our Articles of Association. This report may be obtained without charge by contacting ACE Limited Investor Relations by telephone at +1 (441) 299-9283, by email at investorrelations@acegroup.com, or by writing ACE Limited, Baerengasse 32, CH-8001 Zurich, Switzerland. In addition, a copy will be made available for inspection at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Agenda Item

Our Board of Directors proposes that our shareholders voting in person or by proxy at our Extraordinary General Meeting approve the following dividend in the form of a distribution by way of capital contribution reserves (to be paid in addition to the dividend distribution by reduction of the par value of our shares approved by our shareholders in May 2013). If approved, the capital contribution reserves dividend will be payable in two installments, each of which will equal $0.12, subject to the aggregate upward adjustment described below, simultaneously with our two remaining par value reduction dividend quarterly installments by the end of January 2014 and the end of April 2014, respectively. The blank numbers in the following resolution will be completed

 - (ii) The adjustment of the Aggregate Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves shall be capped at CHF [• (50% of the Aggregate Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves, rounded down to the next centime)]. The cap is subject to adjustment for new shares issued pursuant to paragraph 4 below.
4. The Aggregate Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves pursuant to paragraph 1 (as adjusted pursuant to paragraph 3(i) as well as the cap for adjustments to the Aggregate Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves pursuant to paragraph 3(ii)) shall be increased by quarterly dividend payments on shares that are issued from authorized share capital and conditional share capital after the extraordinary general meeting and before the record date of the applicable Quarterly Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves. In addition, any Quarterly Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves shall be adjusted to reflect shares held in treasury on the record date of the applicable Quarterly Dividend Amount From Capital Contribution Reserves.
5. The Board of Directors is instructed to determine the procedure for the payment of the Quarterly Distribution Amounts From Capital Contribution Reserves.

Our Board of Directors proposes that Homburger AG be elected as the Company's independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 annual ordinary general meeting.

Explanation

Due to a change in Swiss corporate law effective as of January 1, 2014, proxies appointing an officer or another representative of the Company to vote the shareholders' shares will be prohibited. Instead, the new Swiss corporate law mandates that the shareholders of a Swiss company elect an independent proxy.

Our shareholders therefore must elect an independent proxy. The independent proxy's main task is to exercise the voting rights granted to it by shareholders in accordance with shareholder instructions, and it will not make statements, submit proposals or ask questions of the Board of Directors on behalf of shareholders. Our Board of Directors has recommended that Homburger AG, Prime Tower, Hardstrasse 201, PO Box 314, CH-8037 Zurich, Switzerland be elected as our independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 annual ordinary general meeting. Homburger AG is a Swiss law firm.

Voting Requirement to Approve Agenda Item

The affirmative "FOR" vote of the majority of the votes cast in person or by way of proxy at the Extraordinary General Meeting, not counting abstentions, broker non-votes or blank or invalid ballots is required to approve this agenda item.

Recommendation

Our Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" the election of Homburger AG as our independent proxy until the conclusion of our 2014 ordinary general meeting.
