PROXY STATEMENT FOR SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

October 14, 2005

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of the enclosed proxy for use at the C.H. Robinson Special Meeting of Stockholders, and at any adjournment of the meeting, held at our executive offices located at 8100 Mitchell Road, Eden Prairie, Minnesota, on Friday, October 14, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. local time. The proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc. ("the company," "we," "us," "C.H. Robinson") for the purposes listed in the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders. This Proxy Statement and Proxy Card are being mailed to our stockholders beginning on or about September 14, 2005.

Who is entitled to vote?

Holders of C.H. Robinson Worldwide, Inc. Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on September 12, 2005, are entitled to vote at our Special Meeting. September 12, 2005 is referred to as the record date. As of September 12, 2005, approximately 85,491,000 shares of Common Stock were outstanding. Each share is entitled to one vote. There is no cumulative voting.

Shares are counted as present at the Special Meeting if either the stockholder is present and votes in person at the Special Meeting or has properly submitted a proxy by mail, by telephone or by using the Internet. Shares representing a majority of our issued and outstanding Common Stock as of the record date must be present at the Special Meeting, and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, in order to achieve a quorum at the Special Meeting and to conduct business. If a quorum is not present or represented at the Special Meeting, the stockholders and proxies entitled to vote will have the power to adjourn the Special Meeting, without notice other than an announcement at the Special Meeting, until a quorum is present or represented.

How can I vote?

If you submit your vote before the Special Meeting using any of the following methods, your shares of C.H. Robinson's Common Stock will be voted as you have instructed:

- By Mail: Simply complete, sign, and date the enclosed Proxy Card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided.
- By Telephone: If you are a registered stockholder (you hold your stock in your own name) and you live in the United States, you may submit your proxy by touch-tone telephone by calling 1-800-560-1965 and following the "Vote by Phone" instructions. See the enclosed Proxy Card for more details.
- By Internet: If you are a registered stockholder and have Internet access, you may submit your proxy from any location in the world by going to <http://www.eproxy.com/chrw/> and following the "Vote by Internet" instructions. See the enclosed Proxy Card for more details.

Submitting your proxy will not affect your right to vote in person, if you decide to attend the Special Meeting.

If you are a beneficial stockholder (you hold your shares through a nominee, such as a broker), your nominee can advise you whether you will be able to submit voting instructions by telephone or via the Internet.

What happens if I return my proxy without voting instructions, or withhold or abstain on a proposal?

If you do not return voting instructions with your proxy, your proxy will be voted:

- FOR the amendment to the company's Certificate of Incorporation to effect a 2-for-1 stock split of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (the "Stock Split"); and
- FOR the amendment to the company's Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 130,000,000 shares to 480,000,000 shares and (the "Amendment").

If you return a proxy, but abstain from voting, then your shares:

- Will be considered present at the Special Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and for purposes of calculating the shares present and entitled to vote for the Stock Split and the Amendment; and
- Will not be voted in favor of the Stock Split and the Amendment. Abstentions have the effect of counting as votes against the Stock Split and the Amendment, because they add to the pool of votable shares for a proposal without contributing to the affirmative votes required to approve it.

What is a "non-vote" proxy?

If you hold your shares through a nominee, your nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion on the Stock Split and the Amendment. Your nominee will return a "non-vote" proxy, indicating a lack of authority to vote on these proposals, unless you give your nominee specific instructions on how to vote your shares.

If your nominee returns a "non-vote" proxy:

- Your shares covered by that non-vote will be considered present at the Special Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum; but
- Your proxy will not be considered present and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting for purposes of calculating the vote.

Non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the Stock Split and the Amendment because a vote of $66 \frac{2}{3} \%$ of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is required to amend the Certificate of Incorporation.

How do I revoke my proxy?

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the voting closes at the Special Meeting. You may do this by submitting a properly executed proxy with a later date, or by delivering a written revocation, to the Secretary's attention at the company's address listed above, or in person at the Special Meeting.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors knows of no business that will be presented for consideration at the Special Meeting, other than the matters described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed Proxy Card will vote according to their best judgment.

THE STOCK SPLIT AND THE AMENDMENT

Background

C.H. Robinson is requesting stockholder approval of the Board's proposal to amend our Certificate of Incorporation (the "Current Certificate") to effect a 2-for-1 the stock split of the Common Stock (the "Stock Split") and to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 130,000,000 shares to 480,000,000 shares (the "Amendment"). Assuming that the Stock Split and the Amendment are approved, the company intends to file the certificate of amendment to the Current Certificate included as Appendix A to this proxy statement (the "Certificate of Amendment"). Our Board has already approved the Certificate of Amendment and, assuming the approval of the Stock Split and the Amendment at the Special Meeting, the Certificate of Amendment would become effective upon its filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the "Effective Time").

Proposal One: The Stock Split

If the Stock Split and Amendment are approved, at the Effective Time, each share of C.H. Robinson's Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "Old Common Stock"), will be automatically reclassified as and subdivided into two shares of Common Stock, par value $.10 per share, of the company (the "New Common Stock").

Each stock certificate that represented shares of the Old Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time will, from and after the Effective Time, automatically represent the New Common Stock. The number of shares of New Common Stock represented by such certificate will equal the number of shares of Old Common Stock represented by such certificate multiplied by two. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, transmittal forms will be mailed to each holder of record of certificates for shares of the Old Common Stock. Our stockholders will use these transmittal forms to forward their certificates for surrender and exchange for certificates representing the number of shares of the New Common Stock that they are entitled to hold as a result of the Stock Split. Instructions specifying other details of the exchange will be included in the transmittal form. When stockholders receive the transmittal form, they should surrender the certificates representing shares of the Old Common Stock according to the instructions. Holders who surrender certificates will receive new certificates representing the number of shares of the New Common Stock that they hold as a result of the Stock Split.

The completion of a 2-for-1 Stock Split would not affect any stockholder's proportionate equity interest in the company. In addition, the proportionate voting rights and other rights of stockholders would not be altered by the Stock Split. The number of shares subject to outstanding options and other rights to purchase shares of the Common Stock will also be increased at the 2-for-1 ratio. Correspondingly, the per share exercise price of those options will be decreased by a factor of 50% in direct proportion to the Stock Split ratio, so that the aggregate dollar amount payable for the purchase of the shares subject to the options or other purchase rights will remain unchanged. In addition, the number of shares of Common Stock available for restricted stock awards or units will be proportionately increased for the Stock Split.

As of September 12, 2005, there were approximately 85,491,000 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and no shares of preferred stock outstanding.

The company's Common Stock is listed for trading on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "CHRW." The new shares of Common Stock to be issued as a result of the Stock Split will be included in our listing on the Nasdaq National Market.

The Board has proposed the Stock Split because it believes that the Stock Split is in the best interests of the company and its stockholders. The Board believes that the Stock Split would result in a market price for the stock that should be more accessible to a broader spectrum of investors and, therefore, should benefit both the company and its stockholders through greater liquidity in the market. Although the impact on the market price of shares of Common Stock cannot be predicted with certainty, the Board expects a corresponding reduction in share. The increase in the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock and the lower market price per share expected to result from the Stock Split is designed to broaden the market for, and improve the marketability and liquidity of the Common Stock. You should be aware, however, that brokerage charges and any applicable transfer taxes on sales and transfers of shares may be higher after the Stock Split on the same relative interest in the company because that interest would be represented by a greater number of shares.

The company believes that under U.S. federal income tax laws, the Stock Split will not result in the recognition of a taxable gain or loss to the stockholders for federal income tax purposes. In addition, the tax basis for shares in the hands of a stockholder prior to the Stock Split will become the tax basis for the total number of shares to be held by such stockholder immediately after the Stock Split, and the holding period of the newly acquired shares will be deemed to be the same as the holding period of the corresponding shares held prior to the Stock Split. However, each stockholder should consult his or her own tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences, if any, to him or her of the Stock Split, including the applicability and effect of any state, local or foreign tax laws.

Proposal Two: The Amendment

The Board has authorized an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 130,000,000 shares to 480,000,000 shares, in part, to permit the Stock Split. In addition, the increased number of authorized shares of Common Stock will provide the company with flexibility in the future by assuring the availability of sufficient authorized but unissued Common Stock for valid corporate purposes such as financings, future stock splits or stock dividends, and mergers and acquisitions. The newly authorized Common Stock would be available for issuance without further action by stockholders except as required by law or applicable Nasdaq National Market requirements. Any such issuance could have the effect of diluting existing stockholders proportionate interest in the company.

The company does not have any current plan or commitment to issue any of the proposed additional authorized shares of Common Stock in connection with a merger, acquisition or business combination. The company also has no current plan or commitment to issue shares of stock for purposes other than those discussed above, including any plan or intention to issue such shares as a takeover defense. Nevertheless, the additional authorized shares could be used to discourage persons from gaining control of the company or make more difficult the removal of management. For example, additional shares could be issued to dilute the voting power of a party attempting to gain control of the company. The company is not currently aware of any specific effort to obtain control of the company by means of a merger, tender offer, or otherwise.

No appraisal rights are available under the Delaware General Corporation Law or under our Certificate of Incorporation or bylaws to any stockholder who dissents from the proposal to approve the Amendment.

Vote Required; Board Recommendation

The authorization and approval of the Stock Split and the Amendment requires the affirmative vote of $66 \frac{2}{3} \%$ of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for each of the Stock Split and the Amendment. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against the Stock Split and the Amendment. Proposal One to effect the Stock Split is conditioned on, and will not be completed unless, Proposal Two to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock is also approved by stockholders. In a similar manner, Proposal Two to increase the authorized number of shares of Common Stock is conditioned on, and will not be completed unless, Proposal One to effect the Stock Split is also approved by stockholders. The Board unanimously recommends that you vote all of your shares "FOR" the authorization and approval of the Stock Split and the Amendment.

If these proposals are approved by the stockholders at the Special Meeting, the Stock Split and the Amendment will become effective on the date on which the Certificate of Amendment is accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, unless the Board determines that the Stock Split and the Amendment are no longer in the best interests of the company and its stockholders. The Board will make such determination based on prevailing market conditions, on the likely effect on the market price of the Common Stock, and on other relevant factors. If the Board determines not to effect the Stock Split and the Amendment, the company will not file the Certificate of Amendment and the number of shares of Common Stock held by each stockholder will remain unchanged and the number of authorized shares of Common Stock will remain unchanged.
