CAPITOL AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORPORATION

CLEVELAND, OHIO 44114

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a Special Meeting of shareholders of Capitol American Financial Corporation, Inc. ("CAF"), to be held on Tuesday, November 26, 1996 at the Amphitheater, Lower Level, 1001 Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, at 10:00 a.m., local time (the "CAF Special Meeting").

At the CAF Special Meeting, shareholders of record of CAF at the close of business on October 14, 1996 will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 25, 1996 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among CAF, Conseco, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Conseco"), and CAF Acquisition Company, an Ohio corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Conseco ("Merger Sub"), and the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, among other things, (1) Merger Sub will be merged with and into CAF, with CAF being the surviving corporation (the "Merger"), and (2) each outstanding share of the common stock, without par value ("CAF Common Stock"), of CAF (other than shares of CAF Common Stock held by CAF as treasury stock or Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement)) will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS DETERMINED THAT THE TERMS OF THE MERGER ARE FAIR TO, AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF, CAF AND THE SHAREHOLDERS OF CAF, HAS APPROVED AND AUTHORIZED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY, AND RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS OF CAF VOTE FOR THE AUTHORIZATION AND ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY.

The Board of Directors has received a written opinion of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette Securities Corporation, which has acted as financial advisor to CAF in connection with the Merger, as to the fairness to CAF's shareholders, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received by CAF's shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Whether or not you plan to attend the CAF Special Meeting, please complete, sign and date the accompanying proxy and return it in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the CAF Special Meeting. If you attend the CAF Special Meeting, you may vote in person even if you have previously returned your proxy. If you have any questions regarding the proposed transaction, please call Linda M. Margolin, Director of Investor Relations, at (216) 696-6400.

As a shareholder of CAF, you have dissenters' rights, described in the accompanying Proxy Statement/Prospectus. To exercise such rights, a shareholder must not have voted his or her CAF Common Stock in favor of the Merger and must deliver to CAF, not later than ten days after the CAF Special Meeting, a written demand for cash equal to the "fair value" of such shareholder's shares of CAF Common Stock. See "The Merger -- Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" and Annex C in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Sincerely,

David H. Gunning Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus relates to the Merger of Merger Sub with and into CAF pursuant to the Merger Agreement. See "The Merger."

THE COMPANIES

CONSECO, INC.	Conseco is a financial services holding company engaged primarily in the development, marketing and administration of annuity, individual health insurance and individual life insurance products. Conseco's earnings result primarily from operating life insurance companies and providing investment management, administrative and other fee-based services to affiliated businesses as well as non-affiliates. Conseco's operating strategy is to consolidate and streamline management and administrative functions, to realize superior investment returns through active asset management, and to focus resources on the development and expansion of profitable products and strong distribution channels.

On August 2, 1996, Conseco completed its acquisition of Life Partners Group, Inc. ("LPG"). On September 30, 1996, Conseco acquired the shares of American Life Holdings, Inc. ("ALH") (of which Conseco previously owned approximately 37 percent) which Conseco did not own for approximately $165 million in cash. Conseco (including ALH) and LPG collected an aggregate of approximately $3.6 billion of total premiums and annuity deposits in 1995 from a diverse portfolio of products. After giving pro forma effect to the acquisition of LPG, Conseco's total assets and shareholders' equity at June 30, 1996 would have been approximately $23 billion and $1.9 billion, respectively. See "Information Concerning Conseco and the Merger Sub."

Conseco has also entered into (1) an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "ATC Merger Agreement") with American Travellers Corporation ("ATC") pursuant to which ATC will be merged into Conseco (the "ATC Merger"), with each share of ATC Common Stock converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock having a value between $32.00 and $35.03 per share and (2) an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "THI Merger Agreement") with Transport Holdings Inc.

("THI") pursuant to which THI will be merged into Consecro (the "THI Merger"), with each share of THI Common Stock converted into the right to receive between 1.40 and 1.83 shares of Consecro Common Stock. Consecro has also announced that it intends to acquire the shares of Bankers Life Holding Corporation ("BLH") (of which Consecro currently owns approximately 90.5 percent) which Consecro does not own in a merger in which each share of BLH Common Stock would be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of Consecro Common Stock having a value of $25.00 per share. Consummation of the Merger is not conditioned upon consummation by Consecro of any of the other pending acquisitions. See "Information Concerning Consecro and the Merger Sub -- Other Pending Acquisitions by Consecro" and "Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Statements of Consecro."

CAF ACQUISITION COMPANY..... The Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Consecro, was formed for the purpose of effecting the Merger. To date, the Merger Sub has not engaged in any activities other than those incident to its organization and the consummation of the Merger. See "Information Concerning Consecro and the Merger Sub."

CAPITOL AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORPORATION..... CAF, through its insurance subsidiaries, underwrites, markets and distributes individual and group supplemental health and accident insurance. For the year ended December 31, 1995, CAF's earned premiums were $282.1 million, of which approximately 66 percent was from cancer insurance. See "Information Concerning CAF."

CAF SHAREHOLDER MEETING

TIME, DATE AND PLACE..... The CAF Special Meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on November 26, 1996, at the Amphitheater, Lower Level, 1001 Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

PURPOSE OF THE MEETING..... The purpose of the CAF Special Meeting is to consider and vote upon (1) a proposal to authorize and adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (2) such other business as may properly come before the CAF Special Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Matters to be Considered at the CAF Special Meeting."

RECORD DATE, SHARES ENTITLED

TO VOTE, QUORUM..... Holders of record of shares of CAF Common Stock at the close of business on October 14, 1996 (the "CAF Record Date"), are entitled to notice of and to vote at the CAF Special Meeting. As of the CAF Record Date, there were 17,507,190 shares of CAF Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote which were held by 104 holders of record. Each holder of record of shares of CAF Common Stock on the CAF Record Date is entitled to cast, either in person or by properly executed proxy, one vote per share on the Merger Agreement and the other matters, if any, properly submitted for the vote of the CAF shareholders at the CAF Special Meeting. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Voting at the CAF Special Meeting; Record Date; Quorum."

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of stock representing a majority of the voting power of all outstanding shares of the CAF Common Stock at the CAF Special Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the CAF Special Meeting. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Voting at the CAF Special Meeting; Record Date; Quorum."

VOTE REQUIRED..... The authorization and adoption by CAF of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of CAF Common Stock entitled to vote thereon. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Voting at the CAF Special Meeting; Record Date; Quorum."

PROXIES, REVOCATION OF PROXIES..... The enclosed proxy card permits each CAF shareholder to specify that shares be voted "FOR" or "AGAINST" (or "ABSTAIN") the authorization and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. If properly executed and returned, such proxy will be voted in accordance with the choice specified. Where a signed proxy card is returned, but no choice specified, the shares will be voted for authorization and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

A proxy relating to the CAF Special Meeting may be revoked by the shareholder giving the proxy at any time before it is exercised; however, mere attendance at the Special Meeting will not itself have the effect of revoking the proxy. A CAF shareholder may revoke a proxy by notification in writing sent (or given in person at the CAF Special Meeting) to the Secretary of CAF or by sending or giving to the Secretary of CAF a later dated proxy. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Proxies; Revocation of Proxies."

CERTAIN VOTING INFORMATION.... As of October 14, 1996, CAF's directors and officers as a group beneficially owned 87,165 shares (or approximately .5 percent) of the outstanding CAF Common Stock entitled to vote at the CAF Special Meeting. All directors and officers of CAF have indicated that they will vote for the authorization and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. As of the CAF Record Date, Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey were entitled to vote 9,487,284 shares of CAF Common Stock, or approximately 54.2 percent of the number of shares of CAF Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote on such date. Each of Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey have agreed to vote all shares of CAF Common Stock owned by them in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement. See "CAF Shareholder Meeting -- Voting at the CAF Special Meeting; Record Date; Quorum."

THE MERGER; THE MERGER AGREEMENT

REASONS FOR THE MERGER; RECOMMENDATION OF THE CAF

BOARD OF DIRECTORS..... Consec. The Board of Directors of Consec approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger based on a number of factors including its belief that: (1) the addition of CAF's cancer insurance and supplemental health insurance business would enable Conseco to offer a complete portfolio of insurance products to its customers; (2) the addition of CAF's distribution channels further diversifies Conseco's current distribution system and provides Conseco additional opportunities to cross-sell its current products; (3) the Merger offers Conseco and CAF the opportunity to improve their profitability through the achievement of economies of scale, the elimination of redundancies and the enhancement of market position; and (4) the Merger and the other pending acquisitions would further strengthen Conseco's position in the senior market. See "The Merger -- Conseco's Reasons for the Merger."

CAF. The CAF Board of Directors approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger based on a number of factors, including: (1) information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and prospects of CAF and Conseco, both by itself and in combination with ATC and upon consummation of the acquisitions of the stock of ALH and BLH not already owned by Conseco; (2) information concerning the potential effects of a combination of CAF and Conseco, from both a financial and operational perspective; (3) the historical and recent market prices of CAF Common Stock; (4) the historical and recent market prices of Conseco Common Stock; (5) comparisons of the proposed transaction to recent comparable transactions; (6) the opportunity for CAF shareholders to receive both a substantial premium over the then-current market price of CAF Common Stock and the ability of the CAF shareholders to continue as shareholders in the combined company through Conseco Common Stock to be paid to them in the Merger; (7) the alternatives available to CAF including the likelihood that either remaining independent or pursuing a transaction involving any other strategic partner would not result in greater value to CAF or its shareholders; and (8) the opinion of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette Securities Corporation ("DLJ") that the consideration to be received by the CAF shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement is fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

The Board of Directors of CAF recommends that shareholders of CAF authorize and adopt the Merger and the Merger Agreement. In evaluating the recommendation of the CAF Board of Directors, shareholders of CAF should carefully consider the matters described under "The Merger -- CAF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CAF Board of Directors" and "-- Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

OPINION OF CAF'S FINANCIAL

ADVISOR..... DLJ has delivered its written opinion to the Board of Directors of CAF that, as of August 25, 1996, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in such opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of CAF pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of CAF.

The full text of the written opinion of DLJ, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, other matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by DLJ in connection with the opinion, is attached hereto as Annex B and is incorporated herein by reference. Holders of CAF Common Stock should read such opinion in its entirety. See "The Merger -- Opinion of CAF's Financial Advisor."

EFFECT OF MERGER..... Upon consummation of the Merger: (1) the Merger Sub will be merged with and into CAF, with CAF being the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation"); and (2) each outstanding share of CAF Common Stock will be canceled, and each holder of a certificate representing shares of CAF Common Stock will cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive, upon the surrender of such certificate, the Merger Consideration (as defined below). Fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock will not be issuable in connection with the Merger. CAF shareholders otherwise entitled to fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock will receive the value of such fractional shares in cash, determined as described herein under "The Merger Agreement -- Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Stock Certificates; No Fractional Amounts."

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. See "The Merger Agreement."

MERGER CONSIDERATION..... Upon the consummation of the Merger, each share of CAF Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (as defined below) (other than shares of CAF Common Stock held as treasury shares by CAF or Dissenting Shares (as defined below)) will be canceled and converted into the right to receive (1) $30.00 in cash plus the Time Factor (as defined below), if any (collectively, the "Cash Consideration"), and (2) the fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) of a share of Conseco Common Stock determined by dividing $6.50 by the Trading Value. The "Trading Value" shall be equal to the average of the closing prices of the Conseco Common Stock on the NYSE Composite Transactions Reporting System for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the Effective Time. The "Time Factor", if any, shall be equal to $0.25 if the Effective Time shall not have occurred by December 10, 1996, which amount shall be increased by an additional $0.25 on the tenth day of each calendar month thereafter until the occurrence of the Effective Time. The Cash Consideration, the Conseco Common Stock to be issued to holders of shares of CAF Common Stock in accordance with the Merger Agreement and any cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock are referred to collectively as the "Merger Consideration." Conseco will apply to have the additional shares of Conseco Common Stock issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement listed on the NYSE. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Stock Certificates; No Fractional Amounts."

No fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock will be issued in the Merger. Each CAF shareholder who otherwise would have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock will receive in lieu thereof cash in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Stock Certificates; No Fractional Amounts."

As soon as reasonably practicable after consummation of the Merger, a letter of transmittal from First Union National Bank of North Carolina (the "Paying Agent") (including instructions setting forth the procedures for exchanging such holder's certificates representing CAF Common Stock ("Certificates") for the Merger Consideration payable to such holder pursuant to the Merger Agreement) will be sent to each holder of record, as of the Effective Time, of shares of CAF Common Stock. Upon surrender of such Certificates to the Paying Agent together with a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal, such holder will promptly receive the Merger Consideration for each share of CAF Common Stock previously represented by the Certificates so surrendered.

See "The Merger Agreement -- Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Stock Certificates; No Fractional Amounts."

EFFECTIVE TIME OF THE

MERGER.....	The Merger will become effective on the date a Certificate of Merger is filed with the Secretary of State of Ohio or at such time thereafter as is provided in the Certificate of Merger (the "Effective Time"). See "The Merger Agreement -- Effective Time."
TREATMENT OF OPTIONS.....	Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each outstanding unexpired option to purchase shares of CAF Common Stock ("CAF Stock Option") and each restricted stock right ("Restricted Share") which have been granted pursuant to CAF's 1992 Equity Participation Plan, as amended, (the "1992 Equity Participation Plan") shall be fully vested. Subject to the following sentence, each CAF Stock Option will automatically be converted at or as of the Effective Time into an option to purchase Conseco Common Stock. With respect to (1) an employee of CAF who is either (A) given notice that he or she will not be asked to remain in his or her position beyond the period ending six months after the Effective Time or (B) terminated prior to the end of the six month period after the Effective Time or (2) a non-employee director of CAF, each CAF Stock Option held by such person immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted automatically at or as of the Effective Time into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the Merger Consideration for one share of CAF Common Stock minus the current exercise price of the CAF Stock Option multiplied by (B) the total number of shares of CAF Common Stock subject thereto.

See "The Merger Agreement -- Treatment of CAF Stock Options."

CERTAIN CONSEQUENCES OF THE

MERGER.....	Upon consummation of the Merger, the CAF shareholders will become shareholders of Conseco, and each share of CAF Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger (other than shares held as treasury shares of CAF or Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. In addition, holders of CAF Stock Options will be entitled to receive, upon the exercise of their respective CAF Stock Options, a number of shares of Conseco

Common Stock determined as described under "The Merger Agreement -- Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Stock Certificates; No Fractional Amounts" and " -- Treatment of CAF Stock Options."

After consummation of the Merger and without giving effect to the proposed acquisitions of ATC and BLH, the current Consecos shareholders will own approximately 96 percent of the shares of Consecos Common Stock then outstanding, and the current CAF shareholders will own approximately 4 percent of such shares. See "The Merger -- Certain Consequences of the Merger."

CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER;
REGULATORY APPROVALS;
TERMINATION OF THE MERGER

AGREEMENT.....

The obligations of Consecos and CAF to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including requisite CAF shareholder approval, and the receipt of certain governmental consents and approvals including, without limitation, the approvals or exemptive orders of the Insurance Commissioners under the state insurance codes of the states of Arizona and Ohio, which are the jurisdictions in which insurance companies owned by CAF are domiciled, and the expiration (or earlier termination) of the relevant waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"). Such waiting period is scheduled to expire on November 6, 1996. See "The Merger -- Regulatory Approvals" and "The Merger Agreement -- Conditions to the Merger."

The Merger Agreement is subject to termination by Consecos or CAF (provided that such party is not in breach of the Merger Agreement) if the Merger is not consummated by March 31, 1997, and prior to such time upon the occurrence of certain events. See "The Merger Agreement -- Termination."

RIGHT OF CAF BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO WITHDRAW ITS

RECOMMENDATION; FEES.....

Under the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors of CAF may not (1) withdraw or modify, in a manner materially adverse to Consecos or CAF Acquisition, the approval or recommendation by the Board of Directors of the Merger Agreement or the Merger, (2) approve or recommend an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or (3) enter into any agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, unless CAF receives an Acquisition Proposal and the Board of Directors of CAF determines in good faith, following consultation with outside counsel, that in order to comply with its fiduciary duties to shareholders under applicable law it is necessary for the Board of Directors to withdraw or modify, in a manner materially adverse to Consecos or CAF Acquisition, its approval or recommendation of the Merger Agreement or the Merger, approve or recommend such Acquisition Proposal, enter into an agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or terminate the Merger Agreement. If the Board of Directors of CAF takes any of the foregoing actions, CAF shall, concurrently with the taking of any such action, pay to Consecos upon demand $15 million, payable in same-day funds.

CONDUCT OF THE BUSINESS OF CONSECO AND CAF AFTER THE

MERGER.....	Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (1) the members of the Board of Directors of the Merger Sub immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger shall become the directors of the Surviving Corporation following the consummation of the Merger, and (2) the officers of the Merger Sub immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger shall become the officers of the Surviving Corporation following the consummation of the Merger. Consecos Board of Directors and management will not be affected by the Merger. See "Management of the Surviving Corporation Upon Consummation of the Merger." Consecos plans to consolidate certain operations of CAF with Consecos operations after consummation of the Merger. See "The Merger -- Conduct of the Business of Consecos and CAF After the Merger."
INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER.....	Certain directors and officers of CAF have interests in the Merger different from the interests of other CAF shareholders. See "The Merger -- Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."
INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INSURANCE.....	Consecos has agreed to honor the terms of existing indemnification agreements between CAF and certain of its officers and directors. In addition, Consecos has agreed to maintain officers' and directors' liability insurance covering the Indemnified Parties who are currently covered by CAF's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policies. See "The Merger -- Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" and "-- Indemnification of Officers and Directors; Insurance."
DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.....	Under Ohio law, shareholders who vote against or abstain from voting in favor of the Merger and deliver to CAF a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which they seek relief within 10 days after the CAF Special Meeting have the right to obtain cash payment for the appraised value of their shares of CAF Common Stock. In order to exercise such rights, a shareholder must comply with all the procedural requirements of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code, the full text of which is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex C. Shares of CAF Common Stock held by shareholders who shall have effectively dissented from the Merger and perfected their dissenters' rights in accordance with Section 1701.85 (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but shall be entitled to payment from the Surviving Corporation of the appraised value of such shares in accordance with Section 1701.85. See "The Merger -- Rights of Dissenting Shareholders."
CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES.....	The receipt of the Merger Consideration (including any cash amounts received by dissenting CAF shareholders pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights) will be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes (and also may be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local and other income tax laws). In general, for federal income tax purposes, a CAF shareholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between his or her adjusted tax basis in the shares of CAF Common Stock exchanged in the Merger, and the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Conseco Common Stock received therefor. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term gain or loss if, on the date of the Merger, the shares of CAF Common Stock were held for more than one year. CAF and Conseco each have indicated its intention to treat any amount paid pursuant to the Time Factor as additional purchase price that would increase the capital gain (or decrease the capital loss) recognized by a CAF shareholder on the disposition of his or her CAF Common Stock in the Merger. See "The Merger -- Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences."

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT..... The Merger will be accounted for as a "purchase" under GAAP. See "The Merger -- Accounting Treatment."

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS..... Upon consummation of the Merger, the CAF shareholders will become shareholders of Conseco. See "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" for a summary of the material differences between the rights of holders of Conseco Common Stock and CAF Common Stock. These differences arise from the distinctions between the laws of the jurisdictions in which Conseco and CAF are incorporated (Indiana and Ohio, respectively) and the distinctions between the respective charters and bylaws of Conseco and CAF.

SHAREHOLDERS AGREEMENT..... Conseco, Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey have entered into a Shareholders Agreement (the "Shareholders Agreement") pursuant to which each of Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey have agreed, among other things, to vote all shares of CAF Common Stock owned by them in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement. As of the CAF Record Date, Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey were entitled to vote 9,487,284 shares of CAF Common Stock, or approximately 54.2 percent of the number of shares of CAF Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote on such date.

- (a) Comparison of consolidated financial information in the above table is significantly affected by the Conseco Capital Partners, L.P. ("Partnership I") and Conseco Capital Partners II, L.P. ("Partnership II") acquisitions, the sale of Western National Corporation ("WNC") and the transactions affecting Conseco's ownership interest in BLH and CCP Insurance, Inc. ("CCP"). For periods beginning with their acquisitions and ending June 30, 1992, Partnership I and its subsidiaries were consolidated with the financial statements of Conseco. Following the completion of the initial public offering by CCP in July 1992, the Company did not have unilateral control to direct all of CCP's activities and, therefore, did not consolidate the financial statements of CCP with the financial statements of Conseco. As a result of the purchase by Conseco of all the shares of common stock of CCP it did not already own on August 31, 1995 (the "CCP Merger"), the financial statements of CCP's subsidiaries are consolidated with the financial statements of Conseco, effective January 1, 1995. Conseco has included BLH in its financial statements since November 1, 1992. Through December 31, 1993, the financial statements of WNC were consolidated with the financial statements of Conseco. Following the completion of the initial public offering of WNC (and subsequent disposition of Conseco's remaining equity interest in WNC), the financial statements of WNC were no longer consolidated with the financial statements of Conseco. As of September 29, 1994, Conseco began to include in its financial statements the newly acquired Partnership II subsidiary, ALH. Refer to the notes to the consolidated financial statements included in Conseco's Annual Report, incorporated by reference herein, for a description of business combinations.
- (b) All share and per share amounts have been restated to reflect the April 1, 1996 two-for-one stock split.
- (c) Amounts under this heading are included to assist the reader in analyzing Conseco's financial position and results of operations. Such amounts are not intended to, and do not, represent insurance policy income, net income, net income per share, shareholders' equity or book value per share prepared in accordance with GAAP.
- (d) Includes premiums received from annuities and universal life policies, which are not reported as revenues under GAAP.
- (e) Represents income before extraordinary charge, excluding net trading income (losses) (net of income taxes), net realized gains (losses) (less that portion of change in future policy benefits, amortization of cost of policies purchased and cost of policies produced and income taxes relating to such gains (losses)) and restructuring activities (net of income taxes).
- (f) Excludes the effect of reporting fixed maturities at fair value and recording the unrealized gain or loss on such securities as a component of shareholders' equity, net of tax and other adjustments, which Conseco began to do in 1992. Such adjustments are in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115 "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" ("SFAS 115"), as described in the notes to the consolidated financial statements included in Conseco's Annual Report which is incorporated herein by reference.
- (g) Represents the ratio of notes payable for which Conseco is directly liable to the sum of shareholders' equity and notes payable for which Conseco is directly liable.
- (h) Includes: (1) statutory capital and surplus; (2) mandatory securities valuation reserve ("MSVR") at periods ended prior to December 31, 1992; (3) asset valuation reserve ("AVR") and interest maintenance reserve ("IMR") at periods ended on or after December 31, 1992; and (4) the portion of surplus debentures carried by the life companies as a liability to Conseco. Such statutory data reflect the combined data derived from the annual statements of Conseco's and BLH's wholly owned life insurance companies as filed with insurance regulatory agencies and prepared in accordance with statutory accounting practices.
- (i) Represents gains from operations before interest expense (except interest on annuities and financial products) and income taxes of Conseco's and BLH's wholly owned life insurance companies as reported for statutory accounting purposes plus income before interest expense and income taxes of all non-life companies.
- (j) Represents the ratio of adjusted statutory earnings to cash interest. Cash interest includes interest, except interest on annuities and financial products, of Conseco and BLH and their wholly owned subsidiaries that is required to be paid in cash.

SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF THI

The selected historical financial information set forth below reflects a series of transactions which occurred on September 29, 1995, pursuant to which previously separate companies (all of which were wholly owned subsidiaries of Travelers Group Inc.) were combined with THI and the outstanding common stock of THI was distributed to the shareholders of Travelers Group Inc. The financial statements of THI for periods prior to the September 29, 1995 transactions, reflect the results of operations and the financial position of the previously separate companies as if such companies had been combined at the beginning of the periods presented using the pooling of interests method. In conjunction with the September 29, 1995 transactions, THI issued $50 million of its subordinated notes and borrowed $62 million from a group of banks. The proceeds of the borrowings were used, in part, to make a distribution of $96 million to the former parent and to pay expenses of $6.5 million associated with the September 29, 1995 transactions. During the fourth quarter of 1995, THI sold its long-term care business to ATC. These transactions significantly affect the comparability of the results of operations in 1996 with prior periods.

The selected historical financial information was derived from the consolidated financial statements of THI. The consolidated balance sheets of THI at December 31, 1994 and 1995, and the consolidated statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 1993, 1994 and 1995 and notes thereto were audited by KPMG Peat Marwick LLP, independent public accountants, and are included in THI's Annual Report which is incorporated by reference herein. The consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with THI's Annual Report. The consolidated financial information as of December 31, 1992, and as of and for the year ended December 31, 1991, and the six months ended June 30, 1995 and 1996, is unaudited; however, in the opinion of THI's management, the accompanying financial information contains all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring items, necessary to present fairly the financial information for such periods. The results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 1996, may not be indicative of the results of operations to be expected for a full year.

INFORMATION CONCERNING CONSECO AND THE MERGER SUB

BACKGROUND

Conseco is a financial services holding company engaged primarily in the development, marketing and administration of annuity, individual health insurance and individual life insurance products. Conseco's earnings result primarily from operating life insurance companies and providing investment management, administrative and other fee-based services to affiliated businesses as well as non-affiliates. Conseco's operating strategy is to consolidate and streamline management and administrative functions, to realize superior investment returns through active asset management and to focus resources on the development and expansion of profitable products and strong distribution channels.

On August 2, 1996, the Company completed the LPG Merger and LPG became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Conseco. A total of 16.3 million shares of the Conseco Common Stock were issued in connection with the LPG Merger, and Conseco assumed notes payable of LPG of $249.5 million. The subsidiaries of LPG sell a diverse portfolio of universal life insurance and, to a lesser extent, annuity products to individuals.

On September 30, 1996, Conseco completed the acquisition of the common shares of ALH not already owned by Conseco for approximately $165 million in cash. ALH is a provider of retirement savings annuities. ALH has been included in Conseco's consolidated financial statements since September 1994, when it was acquired by Conseco Capital Partners II, L.P. Conseco now holds 59.2 percent of the outstanding common shares of ALH and BLH holds the remaining 40.8 percent of such shares.

Conseco currently holds major ownership interests in the following life insurance businesses: (1) BLH, an NYSE-listed company in which Conseco currently holds a 90.5 percent ownership interest (and which is the parent company of Bankers Life and Casualty Company ("Bankers Life")); (2) ALH, formerly The Statesman Group, Inc.; (3) Great American Reserve Insurance Company ("Great American Reserve") and Beneficial Standard Life Insurance Company ("Beneficial Standard"), in which Conseco has had an ownership interest since their acquisition by Conseco Capital Partners, L.P. and which became wholly-owned subsidiaries in August 1995; (4) the subsidiaries of LPG, which are now wholly-owned subsidiaries of Conseco, including Philadelphia Life Insurance Company ("Philadelphia Life"), Massachusetts General Life Insurance Company ("Massachusetts General Life") and Lamar Life Insurance Company ("Lamar Life"); and (5) Bankers National Life Insurance Company ("Bankers National"), National Fidelity Life Insurance Company ("National Fidelity") and Lincoln American Life Insurance Company ("Lincoln American"), all of which are wholly owned by Conseco and which have profitable blocks of in-force business, although new product sales are currently not being pursued. BLH and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to hereinafter as BLH.

INSURANCE OPERATIONS

Conseco's insurance operations are conducted through three segments: (1) senior market operations, consisting of the activities of BLH; (2) annuity operations, consisting of the activities of Great American Reserve and Beneficial Standard; and (3) life insurance operations, consisting of the activities of Philadelphia Life, Massachusetts General Life and Lamar Life, as well as National Fidelity, Bankers National and Lincoln American.

SENIOR MARKET OPERATIONS. BLH, with total assets of approximately $4.9 billion at June 30, 1996, markets health and life insurance and annuity products primarily to senior citizens through approximately 200 branch offices and approximately 3,200 career agents. Most of BLH's agents sell only BLH policies. Approximately 56 percent of the $1,513.8 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected by BLH in 1995 (and approximately 59 percent of the $757.9 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected in the first six months of 1996) was from the sale of individual health insurance products, principally Medicare supplement and long-term care policies. BLH believes that its success in the individual health insurance market is attributable in large part to its career agency force, which permits one-on-one contacts with potential policyholders and builds loyalty to BLH among existing policyholders. Its efficient and highly automated claims processing system is designed to complement its personalized marketing strategy by stressing prompt payment of claims and rapid response to policyholder inquiries.

ANNUITY OPERATIONS. The annuity companies (Great American Reserve and Beneficial Standard), with total assets of approximately $5.5 billion at June 30, 1996, market, issue and administer annuity, life and employee benefit-related insurance products through two cost-effective distribution channels: (1) approximately 3,000 educator market specialists, who sell tax-qualified annuities and certain employee benefit-related insurance products primarily to school teachers and administrators; and (2) approximately 9,000 professional independent producers, who sell various annuity and life insurance products aimed primarily at the retirement market. Approximately 87 percent of the $709.8 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected by the annuity companies in 1995 (and approximately 88 percent of the $347.5 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected in the first six months of 1996) was from the sale of annuity products. This segment will include ALH beginning with its acquisition on September 30, 1996. ALH, with total assets of approximately $6.1 billion at June 30, 1996, is engaged primarily in the development, marketing, underwriting, issuance and administration of annuity and life insurance products. ALH markets those products through a general agency and insurance brokerage system comprised of approximately 25,000 independent licensed agents. Approximately 91 percent of the $825.6 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected by ALH in 1995 (and approximately 91 percent of the $358.7 million of total premiums and annuity deposits collected in the first six months of 1996) was from the sale of deferred annuities.

LIFE INSURANCE OPERATIONS. Life insurance operations include the activities of Philadelphia Life, Massachusetts General Life and Lamar Life, beginning with their acquisition in the third quarter of 1996. These companies distribute universal life insurance products using two primary marketing systems, the client company system and the regional director system, comprising a total of approximately 25,000 professional independent producers. Approximately 74 percent of the $497.3 million of total insurance premiums and annuity deposits collected by LPG in 1995 (and approximately 72 percent of the $280.1 million of total insurance premiums and annuity deposits collected in the first six months of 1996) was from the sale of life insurance products, primarily universal life insurance. Segment activities also include Consecos other wholly owned life insurance subsidiaries -- Bankers National Life, National Fidelity Life and Lincoln American Life -- which have profitable in-force blocks of annuity and life products, but do not currently market their products to new customers.

FEE-BASED OPERATIONS

Consecos subsidiaries provide various services to affiliated and unaffiliated clients. Consecos Capital Management, Inc. managed approximately $28 billion of invested assets at June 30, 1996 including $17.2 billion of assets of affiliated companies. Marketing Distribution Systems Consulting Group, Inc. provides marketing services to financial institutions related to the distribution of insurance and investment products. Consecos Risk Management, Inc. distributes property and casualty insurance products as an independent agency. Consecos Mortgage Capital, Inc. originates and services mortgages. Total fees from affiliates and nonaffiliates were $69.2 million and $54.3 million for 1995 and the first six months of 1996, respectively. To the extent that these services are provided to entities that are included in the financial statements on a consolidated basis, the intercompany fees are eliminated in consolidation. Earnings in this segment increase when Consecos adds new clients (either affiliated or unaffiliated) and when Consecos increases the fee-producing activities conducted for clients. Effective January 1, 1996, Consecos's subsidiaries entered into new service agreements with Consecos's service subsidiaries. Such new agreements had the effect of increasing revenues from fee-based operations by $21.9 million in the first six months of 1996, but had no effect on consolidated net income.

In addition to Consecos's fee-based operations, Consecos Private Capital Group, Inc. makes direct strategic investments in growing companies, providing these firms with the capital or financing they need to continue their growth, make acquisitions or realize the potential of their businesses.

OTHER PENDING ACQUISITIONS BY CONSECO

ATC. On August 25, 1996, Consecos and ATC entered into the ATC Merger Agreement pursuant to which ATC will be merged into Consecos. Under the ATC Merger Agreement, each of the approximately 18.0 million issued and outstanding shares of ATC Common Stock would be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock having a value between $32.00 and $35.03, calculated as follows: (1) if the Conseco Share Price (as defined below) is greater than or equal to $42.25 per share and less than or equal to $46.25 per share, .7574 of a share of Conseco Common Stock, (2) if the Conseco Share Price is less than $42.25 per share, the fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth) of a share of Conseco Common Stock determined by dividing $32.00 by the Conseco Share Price or (3) if the Conseco Share Price is greater than $46.25 per share, the fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth) of a share of Conseco Common Stock determined by dividing $35.03 by the Conseco Share Price. The "Conseco Share Price" shall be equal to the average of the closing prices of the Conseco Common Stock on the NYSE Composite Transactions Reporting System for the ten trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the date of the ATC Merger. For additional information concerning ATC, see ATC's Annual Report and other filings listed under "Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference" and "Selected Historical Financial Information of ATC."

THI. On September 25, 1996, Conseco and THI entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "THI Merger Agreement") pursuant to which THI will be merged with and into Conseco, with Conseco being the surviving corporation. Under the THI Merger Agreement, each of the outstanding shares of common stock of THI would be converted into the right to receive the whole number and fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth) of a share of Conseco Common Stock determined by dividing $70.00 by the Conseco/THI Share Price (as hereinafter defined). The "Conseco/THI Share Price" shall be equal to the Trading Average (as hereinafter defined); provided, however, that if the Trading Average is less than $38.25, then the Conseco/THI Share Price shall be $38.25, and if the Trading Average is greater than $50.00, then the Conseco/THI Share Price shall be $50.00. The "Trading Average" shall be equal to the average of the closing prices of the Conseco Common Stock on the NYSE Composite Transactions Reporting System for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the date of the THI Merger. For additional information concerning THI, see THI's Annual Report and other filings listed under "Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference" and "Selected Historical Financial Information of THI."

BLH. Conseco also announced on August 26, 1996 that it intends to merge with BLH in a transaction in which each of the 4.7 million shares of BLH Common Stock not already owned by Conseco would be converted into the right to receive $25.00 in Conseco Common Stock.

Consummation of the Merger is not conditioned upon consummation by Conseco of the other pending acquisitions. See "Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Statements of Conseco."

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus is being furnished to holders of CAF Common Stock in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the CAF Board of Directors for use at the CAF Special Meeting to be held on November 26, 1996 at the Amphitheater, Lower Level, 1001 Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, commencing at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus also constitutes the Prospectus of Conseco filed with the Commission as part of the Registration Statement under the Securities Act relating to the shares of Conseco Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders of CAF on or about October 18, 1996.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE CAF SPECIAL MEETING

At the CAF Special Meeting, holders of shares of CAF Common Stock will consider and vote upon (1) a proposal to authorize and adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (2) such other business as may properly come before the CAF Special Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

THE CAF BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RECOMMENDS THAT CAF SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR AUTHORIZATION AND ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT. SEE "THE MERGER -- BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER" AND "-- CAF'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER; RECOMMENDATION OF THE CAF BOARD OF DIRECTORS."

Holders of shares of CAF Common Stock who shall have effectively dissented from the Merger will be entitled to receive the appraised value of their shares under the Ohio Revised Code as a result of the Merger. See "The Merger -- Rights of Dissenting Shareholders."

VOTING AT THE CAF SPECIAL MEETING; RECORD DATE; QUORUM

The CAF Board of Directors has fixed October 14, 1996 as the CAF Record Date. Accordingly, only holders of record of shares of CAF Common Stock on the CAF Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the CAF Special Meeting. As of the CAF Record Date, there were 17,507,190 shares of CAF Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote which were held by 104 holders of record. Each holder of record of shares of CAF Common Stock on the CAF Record Date is entitled to cast, either in person or by properly executed proxy, one vote per share on the Merger Agreement and the other matters, if any, properly submitted for the vote of the CAF shareholders at the CAF Special Meeting. The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of stock representing a majority of the voting power of all outstanding shares of the CAF Common Stock at the CAF Special Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the CAF Special Meeting.

The authorization and adoption by CAF of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of CAF Common Stock entitled to vote thereon. Shares subject to abstentions will be treated as shares that are present at the CAF Special Meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but as unvoted for purposes of determining the number of shares voting on a particular proposal. If a broker or other nominee holder indicates on the proxy card that it does not have discretionary authority to vote the shares for which it is the holder of record on a particular proposal, those shares will be treated as shares that are present at the CAF Special Meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be considered as voted for purposes of determining the number of CAF shareholders that have voted for or against the proposal. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same practical effect as a vote against the authorization and adoption of the Merger Agreement or on any other matter submitted to the CAF shareholders which requires a percentage of the total number of outstanding shares for approval.

As of the CAF Record Date, the directors and executive officers (as a group, 16 persons) and their affiliates were entitled to vote 87,165 shares (or approximately .5 percent) of CAF Common Stock. As of such date, Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey were entitled to vote 9,487,284 shares of CAF Common Stock, or approximately 54.2 percent of the number of shares of CAF Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote as of such date. Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey are obligated, pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement, to vote their shares in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement at the CAF Special Meeting. For information with respect to the beneficial ownership of shares of CAF Common Stock by each of CAF's directors and all directors and officers of CAF as a group, and each person known to CAF to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the outstanding shares of CAF Common Stock, see Item 12 of CAF's Annual Report (which incorporates portions of CAF's proxy statement dated March 29, 1996), which is incorporated by reference. Subsequent to the date of CAF's proxy statement dated March 29, 1996, the beneficial ownership of the following persons who own more than five percent of the outstanding CAF Common Stock has been reported to be changed and is now reported to be as set forth below:

	NUMBER OF SHARES	PERCENT OF CLASS (1)

Hershey's adult son; and 90,000 shares of CAF Common Stock held in a trust, of which Alexander L. Hershey is a trustee.

PROXIES; REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Shares of CAF Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies received at or prior to the CAF Special Meeting that have not been revoked will be voted at the CAF Special Meeting in accordance with the instructions contained therein. Shares of CAF Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies for which no instruction is given will be voted FOR authorization and adoption of the Merger Agreement. CAF shareholders are requested to complete, sign, date and return promptly the enclosed proxy card in the postage-prepaid envelope provided for this purpose to ensure that their shares are voted. A shareholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to the vote on the Merger Agreement by submitting a later-dated proxy with respect to the same shares, delivering written notice of revocation to the Secretary of CAF at any time prior to such vote or attending the CAF Special Meeting and voting in person. Mere attendance at the CAF Special Meeting will not itself revoke a proxy.

If the CAF Special Meeting is postponed or adjourned for any reason, at any subsequent reconvening of the CAF Special Meeting all proxies will be voted in the same manner as such proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the CAF Special Meeting (except for any proxies that have theretofore effectively been revoked or withdrawn), notwithstanding that they may have been effectively voted on the same or any other matter at a previous meeting.

At the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the CAF Board of Directors does not know of any business to be presented at the CAF Special Meeting other than as set forth in the notice accompanying this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. If any other matters are properly presented at the CAF Special Meeting for consideration, including among other things, consideration of a motion to adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place (including, without limitation, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies), the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy and acting thereunder will have discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

PROXY SOLICITATION. CAF will bear the cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders. Additionally, Consecoco and CAF will each bear one-half the cost of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the preparation and filing of the Registration Statement. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and employees of CAF may solicit proxies by telephone, special letter, telegram or otherwise. Such directors, officers and employees of CAF will not be additionally compensated for such solicitation, but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection therewith. Brokerage firms, fiduciaries and other custodians who forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of CAF Common Stock held of record by them will be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding such material.

CAF SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THEIR PROXY CARDS.

THE MERGER

BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER

The terms and conditions of the Merger were determined through arm's-length negotiations between the managements and Boards of Directors of CAF and Consecoco. In determining the form of the transaction and the form and amount of the consideration, numerous factors were considered by the Boards of Directors of CAF and Consecoco. See "-- Consecoco's Reasons for the Merger" and "-- CAF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CAF Board of Directors." The following is a brief discussion of those negotiations and certain related events.

In November 1995, Barry Hershey, a significant shareholder of CAF, contacted DLJ (which had previously co-managed the initial public offering of CAF Common Stock in 1992) to discuss the possibility of a sale of CAF. Mr. Hershey asked DLJ representatives to review publicly available information regarding CAF and to review strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value, including a possible sale of CAF. Mr. Hershey and his counsel met with DLJ representatives in April 1996 and authorized DLJ to have exploratory conversations with the senior management of certain companies to ascertain their possible interest in acquiring CAF. Commencing in April 1996, DLJ had meetings or discussions with senior management of seven companies to discuss whether there was any interest in acquiring CAF. After such discussion, Consecoco indicated an interest at a price higher than the price indicated by any of the other companies.

On June 3, 1996, Mr. Hershey met with his counsel, DLJ representatives and Mr. Gunning to advise the Company of Mr. Hershey's interest in exploring the possibility of a sale of the Company or other strategic alternatives and to review DLJ's conversations with potential acquirors. Between June and August, 1996, Consecoco discussed several proposals with DLJ regarding the purchase of CAF, initially proposing $32.50 per share. DLJ discussed these proposals with Mr. Hershey and advised Consecoco that they were unacceptable.

On June 28, Mr. Hershey and his counsel met with Stephen C. Hilbert, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Consecoco, and Rollin M. Dick, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Consecoco, to discuss possible terms of a transaction in which Consecoco would acquire CAF. At that meeting Consecoco offered to acquire the Company for $35.00 per share in cash which was rejected by Mr. Hershey who proposed a $38.00 per share price which was rejected by Consecoco. Discussion continued in July and August on price and terms. Mr. Hershey ultimately advised Consecoco of his willingness to vote for a sale of the Company as proposed by Consecos for $36.50 per share, consisting of $30.00 of cash and $6.50 of Consecos stock in a transaction which would provide the same consideration to all shareholders.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Consecos Board of Directors held on August 8, 1996, Mr. Hilbert and other members of Consecos's management reviewed with the Board the discussions regarding a possible merger with CAF. Information concerning CAF had been provided to the Directors prior to the meeting. After the Board considered and discussed the proposed acquisition of CAF and the proposed acquisitions of ATC, ALH and BLH, it was agreed that management of Consecos would continue to pursue a possible acquisition of CAF, with the understanding that final approval of any transaction would be considered at a special meeting of the Consecos Board of Directors.

On August 11, 1996, the CAF Board of Directors held a telephonic meeting to discuss the possibility of a transaction with Consecos. DLJ representatives and Mr. Hershey and his counsel attended this meeting and presented information on the proposed transaction with Consecos. After discussion without either Mr. Hershey, his counsel or DLJ present, the Board of Directors authorized management to enter into discussions with Consecos.

During the weeks of August 11 and 18, management of CAF and Consecos met to conduct due diligence reviews and to negotiate the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

The Consecos Board of Directors met on August 23 to consider the proposed merger. At the meeting, Consecos management reported on the due diligence review undertaken by Consecos and its advisors and on the results of the discussions to date with representatives of CAF and its legal and financial advisors. The Consecos Board discussed the potential benefits to Consecos of an acquisition of CAF. Management outlined for the Consecos Board the proposed terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. After reviewing and discussing the merger proposal, the Consecos Board of Directors authorized management to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement in the form presented at the meeting, with such further changes as Consecos's management approved. See "-- Consecos's Reasons for the Merger."

On August 25, 1996, at a special meeting of the CAF Board of Directors, management, legal counsel and DLJ reviewed in detail the transaction with the Board of Directors after which review the Board of Directors approved the Merger. Mr. Hershey and his counsel attended a portion of the meeting prior to the vote by the Board. The Merger Agreement and Shareholders Agreement were executed that day. See "-- CAF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CAF Board of Directors."

CONSECO'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER

The Board of Directors of Consecos approved the Merger Agreement by a unanimous vote at its August 23 meeting. In reaching its decision, the Consecos Board considered information provided at the Board meeting, including, among other things, (1) information concerning the financial performance and condition, business operations and prospects of CAF, including an analysis of possible cost savings and synergies, and a qualitative overview of the individual business segments, (2) the potential long-term and short-term effect of the transaction on Consecos's earnings per share, (3) the structure of the proposed transaction, (4) the terms of the Merger Agreement and (5) the presentation and recommendation made by the management of Consecos.

A principal strategic objective of Consecos since it commenced operations in 1982 has been to acquire life and health insurance companies and to increase their value by implementing management strategies to reduce costs and improve administrative efficiency, centralize asset management, improve marketing and distribution, eliminate unprofitable products and focus resources on the development and expansion of profitable products. In furtherance of this strategy, Consecos has completed 13 acquisitions of insurance companies and related businesses since it commenced operations. Consecos believes that the value and profitability of its existing insurance subsidiaries can be enhanced as a result of the cross-selling opportunities presented by a company which complements Consecos's existing product lines and distribution channels.

Consecos's operating strategy is to target selected markets which provide significant growth potential and to focus its sales efforts on profitable products which will provide predictable and diversified earnings regardless of interest rate changes or other changes in the economic environment. Consecos also seeks to be a major competitor in each of its targeted markets and to develop strong, complementary distribution channels. Strategic acquisitions will be made by Consecos which are consistent with this strategy and which enable Consecos to maintain its targeted ratio of debt to total capital.

The Consecos Board of Directors believes that the insurance businesses of Consecos and CAF complement each other. CAF's cancer insurance and other supplemental health products will provide Consecos an opportunity to expand its product portfolio. Completion of the Merger and Consecos's other pending acquisitions would enable Consecos to be a major competitor in the senior market, with more than 90,000 agents selling long term care insurance, Medicare supplement insurance, cancer insurance, other supplemental health insurance, universal life insurance and retirement annuity products. The addition of CAF's distribution system would also provide Consecos additional opportunities to cross-sell its current products. The Consecos Board of Directors also believes that the Merger offers Consecos and CAF the opportunity to improve their profitability and capitalization through the achievement of economies of scale, the elimination of redundancies and the enhancement of market position. By consolidating certain operations and eliminating expenses, Consecos expects to achieve, over time, significant savings of operating costs. See "-- Conduct of the Business of Consecos and CAF After the Merger."

CAF'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER; RECOMMENDATION OF THE CAF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the meeting CAF's Directors held on August 25, 1996, the Directors of CAF unanimously determined that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, CAF and its shareholders.

In reaching their determination, the CAF Directors met on August 11, 1996 and August 25, 1996 and received presentations from CAF management and Mr. Barry Hershey, its principal shareholder, as well as CAF's financial and legal advisors. As part of those presentations, the CAF Directors considered the proposed terms of the transaction, including the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Shareholders Agreement, as well as the efforts made by DLJ and Mr. Hershey to solicit other alternative transactions. In addition, in reaching their determination, the Directors considered a number of factors, including (1) information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and prospects of CAF and Consecos, both together and in combination with ATC and upon consummation of the acquisitions of the stock of ALH and BLH not already owned by Consecos; (2) information concerning the potential effects of a combination of CAF and Consecos, from both a financial and operational perspective; (3) the historical and recent market prices of CAF Common Stock; (4) the historical and recent market prices of Consecos Common Stock; (5) comparisons of the proposed transaction to recent comparable transactions; (6) the opportunity of CAF shareholders to receive both a substantial premium over the then-current market price of CAF Common Stock and the ability of the CAF shareholders to continue as shareholders in the combined company through the Consecos Common Stock to be paid to them in the Merger; (7) the alternatives available to CAF, including the likelihood that either remaining independent or pursuing a transaction involving any other strategic partner would not result in greater value to CAF or its shareholders; and (8) the opinion of DLJ, dated August 25, 1996, that the consideration to be received by the CAF shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement is fair to such holders from a financial point of view. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with their evaluation of the Merger, the CAF Directors did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in their determination, but instead considered them as a totality in reaching their recommendation.

After careful consideration of the terms of the proposed transaction and these factors, the CAF Directors believe that combining CAF's products and sales networks into Consecos will enable Consecos to achieve combined cost savings and increase combined sales to levels that would not be available to CAF on a stand-alone basis. As a result, the CAF Directors believe that the Consecos proposal represents the maximum value that could reasonably be expected to be achieved for CAF's shareholders in the near term.

THE DIRECTORS OF CAF HAVE UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE TERMS OF THE MERGER

AGREEMENT AND RECOMMEND THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS OF CAF VOTE FOR

THE PROPOSAL TO AUTHORIZE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT SET FORTH AS ITEM 1 ON THE PROXY CARD.

OPINION OF CAF'S FINANCIAL ADVISOR

In its role as financial advisor to CAF, DLJ was asked by CAF to render its opinion to the CAF Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of CAF of the Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of CAF pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. On August 25, 1996, DLJ delivered its written opinion (the "DLJ Opinion") to the effect that as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in such opinion, the Merger Consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of CAF.

A copy of the DLJ Opinion is attached hereto as Annex B. CAF shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for assumptions made, procedures followed, other matters considered and limits of the review by DLJ. The DLJ Opinion was prepared for the CAF Board and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CAF Common Stock and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote at the CAF Special Meeting.

The DLJ Opinion does not constitute an opinion as to the price at which the Conseco Common Stock will actually trade at any time. The Merger Consideration was determined in arm's-length negotiations between CAF and Conseco, in which negotiations DLJ advised CAF. No restrictions or limitations were imposed by the CAF Board upon DLJ with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by DLJ in rendering its opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, DLJ reviewed the draft of August 24, 1996 of the Merger Agreement and the exhibits thereto and the draft of August 20, 1996 of the Shareholders Agreement. DLJ also reviewed financial and other information that was publicly available or furnished to it by CAF and Conseco, including information provided during discussions with their respective managements. Included in the information provided during discussions with the respective managements were certain financial projections of CAF for the years ending December 31, 1996 through December 31, 1998, and certain financial statements of Conseco which are pro forma for the Merger and for certain other transactions contemplated by Conseco for the year ended December 31, 1995 and the six months ended June 30, 1996, and certain financial projections of Conseco which are pro forma for the Merger and for certain other transactions contemplated by Conseco for the years ending December 31, 1996 through December 31, 2005 prepared by the management of Conseco. In addition, DLJ compared certain financial and securities data of CAF and Conseco with certain financial and securities data of various other companies whose securities are traded in public markets, reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of CAF Common Stock and Conseco Common Stock, reviewed prices and premiums paid in other business combinations and conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as DLJ deemed appropriate for purposes of rendering its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, DLJ relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to it by CAF and Conseco or their representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by it. DLJ assumed that the financial projections of CAF supplied to it were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of CAF as to the future operating and financial performance of CAF. DLJ assumed that the pro forma financial statements and pro forma financial projections of Conseco supplied to it were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Conseco as to the historical pro forma results of Conseco and future operating and financial performance of CAF and Conseco. DLJ did not assume any responsibility for an independent evaluation of CAF's and Conseco's assets or liabilities or for making any independent verification of any of the information reviewed by it. DLJ relied as to all legal matters on advice of counsel to CAF.

DLJ's opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they exist on, and on the information made available to it as of, the date of the DLJ Opinion. It should be understood that, although subsequent developments may affect the DLJ Opinion, DLJ does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

The DLJ Opinion was based on receipt by the shareholders of CAF of Conseco Common Stock with a value of $6.50 as part of the Merger Consideration as contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The following is a summary of the presentation made by DLJ to the CAF Board at its August 25, 1996 meeting.

TRANSACTION ANALYSIS. DLJ reviewed publicly available information for selected transactions involving the acquisition of accident and health insurance companies since January 1, 1993 (the "Selected Transactions"). In reviewing these transactions, several factors were considered, including: (i) the lack of publicly available information for subsidiary and private company transactions which represent a significant portion of the merger and acquisition activity; and (ii) the lack of directly comparable transactions. The Selected Transactions were not intended to represent the complete list of accident and health insurance company transactions which have occurred. Rather, such transactions included only selected recent transactions involving accident and health insurance companies. Such transactions were used in this analysis because the companies involved were deemed by DLJ to operate in similar businesses or have similar financial characteristics to CAF and Conseco.

DLJ reviewed the consideration paid in such transactions in terms of the price paid for the common stock plus the amount of debt and preferred stock assumed repaid or redeemed in such transactions (the "Transaction Value") as a multiple of statutory operating earnings for the latest twelve months ("LTM") or last fiscal year ("LFY") ended prior to the announcement of such transactions and as a multiple of statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the last fiscal quarter ("LFQ") or LFY ended prior to the announcement of such transactions. In analyzing acquisitions of accident and health insurance companies, the purchase price paid may be described in terms of multiples of the Transaction Value to statutory operating earnings and to statutory capital and surplus. Variances in multiples for different transactions may reflect such considerations as the consistency, quality and growth of earnings and the company's capitalization, asset quality and return on surplus. Since statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus do not reflect the cost of a company's debt or preferred stock financing, which are usually at the holding company level rather than the insurance company level, analyses of multiples of statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus are usually based on Transaction Value which includes the cost of assuming, repaying or redeeming such debt or preferred stock financing. Comparing the multiples of Transaction Value to be paid for CAF by Conseco to the statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus of CAF with the multiples paid in other transactions indicates whether the valuation being placed on CAF is within the range of values paid for other accident and health insurance companies.

The low, average and high multiples of Transaction Value to statutory operating earnings for the LTM or LFY ended prior to the announcement of the Selected Transactions were 5.1x, 17.3x and 36.2x, respectively. Based upon the Merger Consideration, the implied multiple of Transaction Value to CAF's statutory operating earnings for the LTM ended June 30, 1996 was 46.9x. This multiple is greater than the high multiple of the Selected Transactions. The low, average and high multiples of Transaction Value to statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the LFQ or LFY ended prior to the announcement of the Selected Transactions were 1.3x, 2.1x and 5.3x, respectively. Based on the Merger Consideration, the implied multiple of Transaction Value to CAF's statutory capital and surplus as of June 30, 1996 was 6.9x. This multiple is greater than the high multiple of the Selected Transactions.

Additionally, DLJ reviewed the consideration paid in the Selected Transactions in terms of the price paid for the common stock in the Selected Transactions as a multiple of GAAP operating earnings for the LTM ended prior to the announcement of such transactions and as a multiple of shareholders' equity as of the end of the LFQ ended prior to the announcement of such transactions. In analyzing acquisitions of accident and health insurance companies, the purchase price paid may be described in terms of multiples of the price paid for common stock to GAAP operating earnings and to shareholders' equity. Variances in multiples for different transactions may reflect such considerations as the consistency, quality and growth of earnings and the company's capitalization, asset quality and return on capital. Since GAAP operating earnings and shareholders' equity already reflect the cost of a company's debt or preferred stock financing, analyses of multiples of GAAP operating earnings or shareholders' equity are usually based on the price paid for the company's common stock, which excludes the cost of assuming, repaying or redeeming such debt or preferred stock financing. Comparing the multiples of the price offered to be paid for the CAF Common Stock by Consec to the GAAP operating earnings and shareholders' equity of CAF with multiples paid by acquirers in other transactions indicates whether the valuation being placed on CAF is within the range of values paid for other accident and health insurance companies.

The low, average and high multiples of price paid for common stock to LTM GAAP operating earnings for the Selected Transactions were 10.8x, 13.4x and 16.9x, respectively. Based on an offer price of $36.50 per share, the implied multiple of price paid for common stock to CAF's GAAP operating earnings for the LTM ended June 30, 1996 was 12.0x. This multiple is greater than the low multiple of the Selected Transactions. The low, average and high multiples of price paid for common stock to shareholders' equity as of the end of the LFQ ended prior to the announcement of the Selected Transactions were 1.8x, 2.2x and 2.8x, respectively. Based on an offer price of $36.50 per share, the implied multiple of price paid for common stock to CAF's shareholders' equity as of June 30, 1996 was 2.2x. This multiple is equal to the average multiple of the Selected Transactions.

DLJ also determined the percentage premium of the offer prices (represented by the purchase price per share in cash transactions and the price of the constituent securities times the exchange ratio in the case of stock-for-stock mergers) over the public market trading prices one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement date of selected life insurance and accident and health insurance company transactions since January 1, 1993 where the acquired company's stock was publicly traded (the "Selected Public Transactions"). The average premiums of offer prices to public market trading prices one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement date for the Selected Public Transactions were 18.8%, 20.0% and 25.7%, respectively. An offer price of $36.50 per share represents premiums to the trading prices of CAF Common Stock one day, one week and one month prior to August 20, 1996 of 46.0%, 45.3% and 49.0%, respectively. These premiums are greater than the average premiums of the Selected Public Transactions.

PUBLIC COMPANY ANALYSIS. To provide comparative market information, DLJ compared selected historical and projected operating and financial ratios for CAF to the corresponding data and ratios of selected accident and health insurance companies whose securities are publicly traded. Such companies included American Heritage Life Insurance Company, Delphi Financial Group, Inc., Penn Treaty American Corp. and Pioneer Financial Services, Inc. (the "Selected Small Capitalization Companies") and AFLAC, Inc., PennCorp Financial Group, Inc., Provident Companies and UNUM Corp. (the "Selected Large Capitalization Companies"). As of August 20, 1996, the average aggregate equity market capitalizations of the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies were $372 million and $3.9 billion, respectively. As of August 20, 1996, CAF's aggregate equity market capitalization was $438 million.

Such analysis included, among other things, the ratios of stock price to GAAP operating earnings per share ("EPS") for the LTM ended June 30, 1996, estimated GAAP operating EPS for 1996 and 1997 (as estimated by research analysts and compiled by Institutional Brokers Estimating Service for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies and management's projections for CAF) and shareholders' equity per share as of June 30, 1996, as well as the ratios of the aggregate equity market capitalization plus the amount of debt and preferred stock outstanding ("Enterprise Value") to statutory operating earnings for the LTM or LFY and statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the LFQ or LFY. Closing prices as of August 20, 1996 were used in this analysis. The ratios described in this paragraph have been designed to reflect the value attributable in the public equity markets to various valuation measures of accident and health insurance companies. Measures utilized in the public marketplace to value the stock of publicly traded companies in the accident and health insurance industry are based on, among other things, a company's historical and projected GAAP operating earnings, historical statutory operating earnings, shareholders' equity and statutory capital and surplus. The multiples of stock price to GAAP operating EPS and Enterprise Value to statutory operating earnings reflect the value attributed to a company by public equity market investors based on the company's historical and projected earnings. The multiples of stock price to shareholders' equity per share and Enterprise Value to statutory capital and surplus reflect the values attributed to a company by public equity market investors based on the company's net worth. Variances in multiples for different companies may reflect such considerations as the consistency, quality and growth of earnings and the company's capitalization, asset quality and return on capital. Since GAAP operating earnings and shareholders' equity already reflect the cost of a company's debt or preferred stock financing, analyses of multiples of GAAP operating earnings or shareholders' equity are usually based on the price paid for the company's common stock, which excludes debt or preferred stock financing. Since statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus do not reflect the cost of a company's debt or preferred stock financing, which are usually at the holding company level rather than the insurance company level, analyses of multiples of statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus are usually based on Enterprise Value, which includes debt or preferred stock financing. Comparing the multiples of price offered to be paid by Consec to the GAAP operating EPS, shareholders' equity, statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus of CAF with the multiples at which the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies trade indicates whether the valuation being placed on CAF is within the range of values at which the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies trade.

The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to GAAP operating EPS for the LTM ended June 30, 1996 were 7.8x, 10.2x and 13.0x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 10.3x, 13.2x and 14.8x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on an offer price of $36.50 per share, the implied multiple of offer price to CAF's GAAP operating EPS for the LTM ended June 30, 1996 was 12.0x. This multiple is greater than the average multiple of the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and greater than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to estimated 1996 GAAP operating EPS were 7.5x, 9.4x and 11.7x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 10.4x, 13.1x and 15.1x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on the same offer price, the implied multiple of offer price to CAF's estimated 1996 GAAP operating EPS was 11.7x. This multiple is equal to the average multiple of the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and greater than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to estimated 1997 GAAP operating EPS were 6.1x, 8.1x and 10.0x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 9.0x, 11.2x and 12.9x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on the same offer price, the implied multiple of offer price to CAF's estimated 1997 GAAP operating EPS was 10.8x. This multiple is greater than the high multiple of the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and greater than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to shareholders' equity as of June 30, 1996 were 1.1x, 1.3x and 1.4x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 1.2x, 1.9x and 2.8x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on the same offer price, the implied multiple of offer price to CAF's shareholders' equity as of June 30, 1996 was 2.2x. This multiple is greater than the high multiple of the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and greater than the average multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of Enterprise Value to statutory operating earnings for the LTM or LFY were 14.1x, 22.2x and 29.1x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 27.1x, 31.6x and 37.1x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on the same offer price, the implied multiple of Transaction Value to CAF's statutory operating earnings for the LTM ended June 30, 1996 was 46.9x. This multiple is greater than the high multiples of both the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of Enterprise Value to statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the LFQ or the LFY were 2.0x, 3.2x and 4.4x, respectively, for the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and 3.6x, 4.5x and 5.6x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. Based on the same offer price, the implied multiple of Transaction Value to CAF's statutory capital and surpluses of June 30, 1996 was 6.9x. This multiple is greater than the high multiples of both the Selected Small Capitalization Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies.

Since a portion of the Merger Consideration will be in the form of Consec Common Stock, to provide comparative market information, DLJ compared selected historical and projected operating and financial ratios of Consec to the corresponding data and ratios of Equitable of Iowa Companies, Liberty Financial Companies, Inc., Presidential Life Corp., SunAmerica Inc. and Western National Corp. (The "Selected Annuity Companies") and of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies.

Such analysis included, among other things, the multiples of stock price to estimated GAAP operating EPS for 1996 and 1997 (as estimated by research analysts and compiled by Institutional Brokers Estimating Service for the Selected Annuity Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies and management's projections for Consecos) and shareholders' equity per share as of June 30, 1996, as well as the multiples of Enterprise Value to statutory operating earnings for the LTM or the LFY and statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the LFQ or the LFY. Closing prices as of August 20, 1996 were used in this analysis. Comparing the multiples of Consecos stock price to GAAP operating EPS, shareholders' equity, statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus with the multiples at which the Selected Annuity Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies trade indicates whether Consecos stock price is within the range of values at which the Selected Annuity Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies trade. Consecos GAAP operating EPS, shareholders' equity, statutory operating earnings and statutory capital and surplus used in this analysis were adjusted to give pro forma effect to the LPG Merger and certain other matters.

The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to estimated 1996 GAAP operating EPS were 9.4x, 11.7x and 16.4x, respectively, for the Selected Annuity Companies, and 10.4x, 13.1x and 15.1x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The multiple of price to Consecos estimated 1996 GAAP operating EPS was 12.8x. This multiple is greater than the average multiple of the Selected Annuity Companies and greater than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to estimated 1997 GAAP operating EPS were 8.4x, 10.5x and 14.3x, respectively, for the Selected Annuity Companies and 9.0x, 11.2x and 12.9x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The multiple of price to Consecos estimated 1997 GAAP operating EPS was 9.5x. This multiple is greater than the low multiples of both the Selected Annuity Companies and the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of public stock price to shareholders' equity as of June 30, 1996 were 0.9x, 1.7x and 3.4x, respectively, for the Selected Annuity Companies and 1.2x, 1.9x and 2.8x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The multiple of price to Consecos shareholders' equity as of June 30, 1996 was 1.7x. This multiple is equal to the average multiple of the Selected Annuity Companies and greater than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of Enterprise Value to statutory operating earnings for the LTM or the LFY were 9.7x, 23.8x and 42.9x, respectively, for the Selected Annuity Companies and 27.1x, 31.6x and 37.1x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The multiple of Enterprise Value to Consecos 1995 statutory operating earnings was 21.3x. This multiple is greater than the low multiple of the Selected Annuity Companies and less than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The low, average and high multiples of Enterprise Value to statutory capital and surplus as of the end of the LFQ or the LFY were 1.2x, 1.8x and 2.2x, respectively, for the Selected Annuity Companies and 3.6x, 4.5x and 5.6x, respectively, for the Selected Large Capitalization Companies. The multiple of Enterprise Value to Consecos statutory capital and surplus as of December 31, 1995 was 3.5x. This multiple is greater than the high multiple of the Selected Annuity Companies and less than the low multiple of the Selected Large Capitalization Companies.

No company or transaction used in the Transaction Analysis or the Public Company Analysis described above was directly comparable to CAF, Consecos or the proposed Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing was not simply mathematical nor necessarily precise; rather, it involved complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of companies and other factors that could affect the transaction values and trading prices. For example, many qualitative factors are involved in valuing a company or analyzing a transaction in the life insurance, accident and health insurance and annuity industries, including assessments of the quality of management, the attractiveness of the company's target market, the economics of the products being sold and the company's market position relative to its competitors. Other factors that could affect the transaction values or trading prices include differences in distribution, products, geographic or demographic customer concentration, size, accounting practices, asset portfolio quality, interest rate sensitivity and other factors. These factors may affect the transaction values or trading prices in each case by affecting in varying degrees investors' expectations of such factors as the company's risk and future operating profitability.

STOCK TRADING HISTORY. To provide contextual data and comparative market data, DLJ examined the history of the trading prices and their relative relationships for both CAF Common Stock and Conseco Common Stock for various periods ending prior to the announcement of the Merger. DLJ also reviewed the daily closing prices of CAF Common Stock and Conseco Common Stock and compared the CAF and Conseco closing stock prices with the S&P 500 Index and indices of selected comparable companies. DLJ reviewed the trading history since the December 18, 1992 initial public offering of CAF Common Stock and the three year trading history of Conseco Common Stock to determine whether trading levels immediately prior to announcement of the Merger were reflective of longer term trading levels or were affected by recent unusual or event specific trading activity. In addition, DLJ reviewed the trading history of CAF Common Stock and Conseco Common Stock relative to indices of selected comparable companies in order to assess the relative stock price performance of CAF, Conseco and such indices.

PRO FORMA MERGER ANALYSIS. DLJ analyzed certain pro forma financial effects resulting from the Merger. In conducting its analysis, DLJ relied upon certain assumptions described above and financial projections provided by the management of CAF and pro forma financial statements and pro forma financial projections provided by the management of Conseco. DLJ analyzed the pro forma effect of the Merger and of completing the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction on the EPS, stockholders' equity per share and leverage ratios of the combined companies. Conseco's management has indicated that it believes that the Merger will offer consolidation opportunities which will result in revenue enhancements and expense savings relative to the stand-alone projected revenues and expenses of CAF, Conseco, ALH and BLH. DLJ has incorporated estimates of such revenue enhancements and expense savings, determined in conjunction with the managements of CAF and Conseco, in its analysis although DLJ does not express an opinion as to the likelihood of such revenue enhancements and expense savings being realized. The results of the pro forma merger analysis are not necessarily indicative of future operating results or financial position. Based on this analysis and assuming the Merger, the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed and that the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed with debt, Conseco's shareholders would realize EPS accretion of 1.7%, 1.9% and 2.0%, respectively, in 1996, 1997 and 1998, versus assuming only the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed and that the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed with debt. Assuming the Merger, the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed and that the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed with debt, Conseco's ratios of debt to total capitalization and debt and preferred stock to total capitalization as of June 30, 1996 would be 47.9% and 50.3%, respectively. Based on this analysis and assuming the Merger, the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed and that the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed in part with $300 million of tax-deductible preferred stock and $280 million of Conseco Common Stock and Conseco's Series D Convertible Preferred Stock is converted into Conseco Common Stock, Conseco's shareholders would realize EPS dilution of 1.8%, 2.3% and 3.1%, respectively, in 1996, 1997 and 1998, versus assuming only the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed and that the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed with debt. Assuming the Merger, the ALH Transaction and the BLH Transaction are completed, the cash portion of the consideration paid in such transactions is financed in part with $300 million of tax-deductible preferred stock and $280 million of Conseco Common Stock and Conseco's Series D Convertible Preferred Stock is converted into Conseco Common Stock, Conseco's ratios of debt to total capitalization and debt and preferred stock to total capitalization as of June 30, 1996 would be 35.1% and 39.4%, respectively. There can be no assurance as to whether the assumptions regarding financing sources set forth in this paragraph will occur, and such assumptions are used only for purposes of illustration.

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by DLJ in rendering the DLJ Opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Each of the analyses conducted by DLJ was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the Merger and add to the total mix of information available. DLJ did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support an opinion as to fairness, from a financial point of view. Rather, in reaching its conclusion, DLJ considered the results of the analyses in light of each other and did not place particular reliance or weight on any individual analysis and ultimately reached its opinion based on the results of all analyses taken as a whole. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, DLJ believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selected portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, may create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying the DLJ Opinion. In performing its analyses, DLJ made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters. The analyses performed by DLJ are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses.

The CAF Board selected DLJ as its financial advisor because it is a nationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the Merger and is familiar with CAF, its business and the life insurance, accident and health insurance and annuity industries. Pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter dated August 12, 1996 between CAF and DLJ, CAF paid DLJ a $100,000 retainer fee and an additional $750,000 upon rendering of the DLJ Opinion. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter, CAF will pay DLJ, on the Closing Date, cash compensation equal to five-eighths of one percent (0.625%) of the Transaction Value, less the $850,000 paid to date. Based on an assumed Transaction Value of approximately $675 million, CAF will pay DLJ, on the Closing Date, cash consideration of approximately $4.2 million, less the $850,000 paid to date. CAF also agreed to reimburse DLJ for out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel) incurred by DLJ in connection with its engagement up to a maximum of $35,000 without CAF's written consent and to indemnify DLJ and certain related persons against certain liabilities in connection with its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. The terms of the fee arrangement with DLJ, which DLJ and CAF believe are customary in transactions of this nature, were negotiated at arms' length between CAF and DLJ and the CAF Board was aware of such arrangement, including the fact that a significant portion of the aggregate fee payable to DLJ is contingent upon consummation of the Merger.

In the ordinary course of business, DLJ may actively trade the securities of both CAF and Consecoco for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. DLJ, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, sales and distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. DLJ has performed investment banking and other services for CAF and Consecoco in the past and has received usual and customary compensation for such services. In addition, DLJ acted as financial advisor to ATC in connection with the ATC Merger and THI in connection with the THI Merger.

CERTAIN CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

As a result of the Merger, the shareholders of CAF will become shareholders of Consecoco, and thereby will continue to have an interest in CAF through Consecoco. See "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights." Upon the consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of CAF Common Stock (other than shares of CAF Common Stock held by CAF as treasury stock or Dissenting Shares) will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Consecoco will apply to have the additional shares of Consecoco Common Stock issued pursuant to the Merger listed on the NYSE.

See "The Merger Agreement -- Treatment of CAF Stock Options" for a description of the treatment of CAF Stock Options in the Merger. Consecoco has agreed to take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Consecoco Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of CAF Stock Options assumed in accordance with the Merger Agreement.

CONDUCT OF THE BUSINESS OF CONSECO AND CAF AFTER THE MERGER

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (1) the members of the Board of Directors of the Merger Sub immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger shall become the directors of the Surviving Corporation following the consummation of the Merger and (2) the officers of the Merger Sub immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger shall become the officers of the Surviving Corporation following the consummation of the Merger. Consecos Board of Directors and management will not be affected by the Merger. See "Management of the Surviving Corporation Upon Consummation of the Merger."

Following the Merger, Consecos expects to achieve operating cost savings through the consolidation of Consecos and CAF operations and the elimination of redundant expenses. Such savings would be realized, over time, primarily through reductions in staff, the combination, elimination or relocation of certain office facilities and the consolidation of operations. There can be no assurance that such cost savings will be realized as anticipated by Consecos.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER

EXECUTIVE STAY PAY AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS. In connection with the Merger Agreement, an amount of money equal to one year's base salary ("Stay Pay") will be paid to certain employees if such persons remain employees of CAF for six months after the Effective Time or are terminated by CAF or Consecos, without cause, prior to that time. Stay Pay will be paid upon the earlier of termination or six months after the Effective Date. For purposes of determining entitlement to Stay Pay, "cause" means the commission of a felony involving moral turpitude or fraud against CAF. Those employees entitled to Stay Pay who are also directors and/or executive officers of CAF, and the amount of such pay, are:

Frank Astolfi - $300,000, Kenneth J. Coleman - $160,000, David H. Gunning - $600,000, James C. Helfrich - $175,000, Robert Kung - $180,000, Richard L. Osborne - $90,000, Ronald L. Sarosy - $150,000, Mark E. Shaw - $250,000, Christopher L. Weaver - $250,000.

In addition, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, all outstanding CAF Stock Options will become immediately exercisable in full and the restrictions on the Restricted Shares will lapse. The aggregate number of shares of CAF Common Stock that are covered by options (including those which will be so accelerated) and the aggregate number of Restricted Shares which will be without restrictions held by the directors and/or executive officers of CAF are as follows:

NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES OF CAF COMMON STOCK COVERED BY OPTIONS	NUMBER OF RESTRICTED SHARES
R. Hale Andrews, Jr.....	3,000	0
Frank Astolfi.....	5,000	0
Kenneth J. Coleman.....	33,500	3,000
Robert A. Garda.....	3,000	0

James C. Helfrich.....	17,000	3,000
William H. Heller.....	5,000	0
Robert Kung.....	14,000	3,000
M. Thomas Moore.....	5,000	0
Rowland T. Moriarty.....	5,000	0

William R. Robertson.....	5,000	0
Ronald L. Sarosy.....	18,000	3,000
Mark E. Shaw.....	63,000	3,000
Christopher L. Weaver.....	63,000	3,000

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, certain annual bonus awards by CAF, which are discretionary in amount up to a maximum, will become fixed at 75 percent of the maximum in each case. If an eligible employee's employment is terminated between the Effective Time and December 31, 1996, the amount payable shall be prorated based on the number of days such employee was employed during the year. Assuming employment through December 31, 1996, the maximum amount of discretionary bonus payable to each employee who is an executive officer of CAF is: Kenneth J. Coleman -- $15,000, David H. Gunning -- $56,250, James C. Helfrich -- $30,000, Robert Kung -- $15,000, Ronald L. Sarosy -- $15,000, Mark E. Shaw -- $15,000 and Christopher L. Weaver -- $15,000.

The terms of Mr. Gunning's employment agreement dated as of February 8, 1993 provide that in the event that while Mr. Gunning is employed by CAF there shall occur, among other things, a merger of CAF with another entity, CAF shall pay Mr. Gunning upon the consummation of any such transaction an amount in cash equal, as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, to 0.7% of the aggregate consideration paid to CAF or its shareholders in connection with such transaction. For purposes of the employment agreement, the aggregate consideration payable in the Merger is approximately $664 million.

CAF AFFILIATE REGISTRATION RIGHTS. Consecro is not required to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement or any other registration statement under the Securities Act for the purposes of resale of Consecro Common Stock by CAF affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any affiliate is unable because of the volume limitations of Rule 144 of the Commission to sell pursuant to Rule 144 the shares of Consecro Common Stock received by such affiliate as Merger Consideration and still held by such affiliate, such affiliate shall have the right, for so long as any such balance of the affiliate's Merger Consideration is not eligible for immediate sale under the applicable provisions of Rule 144, to require Consecro to elect, in Consecro's sole discretion, with respect to such balance, either to (1) acquire such shares directly from such affiliate at the current market price, (2) amend the Registration Statement and maintain its effectiveness to provide for resale of such shares or (3) file a Registration Statement on Form S-3 with the Commission to register such shares for resale by such affiliate.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INSURANCE

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of the Surviving Corporation and each of its subsidiaries shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification set forth in the articles of incorporation and the code of regulations of CAF or the respective subsidiary, as the case may be, on the date of the Merger Agreement, and such provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years after the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of individuals who at any time prior to the Effective Time were directors or officers of CAF or any of its subsidiaries (the "Indemnified Parties") in respect of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), unless such modification is required by law. Consecro has agreed to be jointly and severally liable for the indemnification obligations of CAF to the Indemnified Parties, as set forth above. Consecro has also agreed to honor the terms of existing indemnification agreements between CAF and certain of its officers and directors. In addition, Consecro has agreed to maintain officers' and directors' liability insurance covering the Indemnified Parties who are currently covered by CAF's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policies. The foregoing provisions are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his heirs and his personal representatives and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Consecro, the Surviving Corporation and CAF.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

Consecro intends to account for the Merger under the purchase method of accounting in accordance with APB Opinion No. 16, "Business Combinations". Under this method of accounting, the cost of acquiring all outstanding shares of CAF Common Stock and the assumption of all outstanding CAF Stock Options will be determined by the value at the Effective Time of the Merger Consideration and the Consecro Common Stock (or cash) to be issued to holders of CAF Stock Options, plus the direct costs associated with the Merger. Consecro will allocate such cost in establishing new accounting and reporting bases for the underlying acquired assets and liabilities based on their estimated fair values at the Effective Time.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to CAF shareholders whose shares of CAF Common Stock are converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in the Merger (including any cash amounts received by dissenting CAF shareholders pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights). This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated and proposed thereunder, judicial authority and administrative rulings and practice. Legislative, judicial or administrative rules and interpretations are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis, at any time and therefore could alter or modify the statements and conclusions set forth below. It is assumed that the shares of CAF Common Stock are held as capital assets by a United States person (i.e., a citizen or resident of the United States or a domestic corporation). This discussion does not address all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular CAF shareholder in light of such CAF shareholder's personal investment circumstances, or those CAF shareholders subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws (for example, life insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, foreign corporations and nonresident alien individuals), CAF shareholders who hold shares of CAF Common Stock as part of a conversion transaction, or to CAF shareholders who acquired their shares of CAF Common Stock through the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements. In addition, the discussion does not address any aspect of foreign, state, local or estate and gift taxation that may be applicable to a CAF shareholder.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO CAF SHAREHOLDERS. The receipt of the Merger Consideration (including any cash amounts received by dissenting CAF shareholders pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights) will be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes (and also may be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local and other income tax laws). In general, for federal income tax purposes, a CAF shareholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between his or her adjusted tax basis in the shares of CAF Common Stock exchanged in the Merger, and the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Conesco Common Stock received therefor. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term gain or loss if, on the date of the Merger, the shares of CAF Common Stock were held for more than one year. The tax basis of the Conesco Common Stock received by a CAF shareholder will be the fair market value of such shares of Conesco Common Stock at the Effective Time. If a former CAF shareholder disposes of the Conesco Common Stock received pursuant to the Merger in a future taxable transaction, such former CAF shareholder will recognize a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (1) the cash and the fair market value of any other property received on disposition, and (2) the former CAF shareholder's tax basis in the Conesco Common Stock.

In the event that the Effective Time does not occur by December 10, 1996, for each share of CAF Common Stock, a shareholder will receive an additional amount of $0.25, which amount will be increased by an additional $0.25 on the tenth day of each calendar month thereafter until the occurrence of the Effective Time (such additional amount or amounts are referred to as the "Time Factor"). In such event, the facts and circumstances that result in the payment of the Time Factor may affect whether the Time Factor is treated as additional purchase price that would increase the capital gain (or decrease the capital loss) recognized by a CAF shareholder on the disposition of his or her CAF Common Stock in the Merger or as interest that would be taxable as ordinary income. CAF and Conesco each have indicated its intention to treat any amount paid pursuant to the Time Factor as additional purchase price that would increase the capital gain (or decrease the capital loss) recognized by a CAF shareholder on the disposition of his or her CAF Common Stock in the Merger.

BACKUP TAX WITHHOLDING. Under the federal income tax backup withholding rules, unless an exemption applies, the Paying Agent will be required to withhold, and will withhold, 31% of all payments to which a CAF shareholder or other payee is entitled pursuant to the Merger, unless the CAF shareholder or other payee provides a tax identification number (social security number, in the case of an individual, or employer identification number in the case of other shareholders) and certifies under penalties of perjury that such number is correct. Each CAF shareholder and, if applicable, each other payee, should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 which will be included as part of the letter of transmittal to be returned to the Paying Agent in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding, unless an applicable exception exists and is proved in a manner satisfactory to the Paying Agent. The exceptions provide that certain CAF shareholders (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, however, he or she must submit a signed statement (i.e., Certificate of Foreign Status on Form W-8) attesting to his or her exempt status. Any amounts withheld will be allowed as a credit against the holder's federal income tax liability for such year.

THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX DISCUSSION SET FORTH ABOVE IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY. CAF SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM IN VIEW OF THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

ANTITRUST. Under the HSR Act and the rules promulgated thereunder by the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC"), the Merger may not be consummated until notifications have been given and certain information has been furnished to the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the "Antitrust Division") and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Consecoco and CAF filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on October 7, 1996. The required waiting period under the HSR Act is scheduled to expire on November 6, 1996. At any time before or after the consummation of the Merger, and notwithstanding that the HSR Act waiting period has been terminated, the Antitrust Division of the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the consummation of the Merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Consecoco and CAF. At any time before or after the consummation of the Merger, and notwithstanding that the HSR Act waiting period has been terminated, any state could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. Such action could include seeking to enjoin the consummation of the Merger or seeking divestiture of CAF or businesses of Consecoco or CAF. Private parties may also seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances.

Consecoco and CAF believe that the Merger can be effected in compliance with federal and state antitrust laws. However, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the consummation of the Merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or that, if such a challenge were made, Consecoco and CAF would prevail or would not be required to accept certain conditions, possibly including certain divestitures, in order to consummate the Merger.

INSURANCE. The consummation of the Merger will require the approvals or exemptive orders of the Insurance Commissioners (the "Insurance Commissioners") under the state insurance codes (the "Insurance Codes") of the states of Arizona and Ohio, which are the jurisdictions in which insurance companies owned by CAF are domiciled. The Insurance Codes generally contain provisions applicable to the acquisition of control of a domestic insurer, including a presumption of control that arises from the ownership of ten percent or more of the voting securities of a domestic insurer or a person that controls a domestic insurer. The filing of an application for acquisition of control of a domestic insurer gives rise to mandatory or, in some states, discretionary public hearing requirements and/or statutory periods (ranging from 30 to 90 days, which may be extended in certain circumstances) within which decisions must be rendered approving or disapproving the acquisition of control. Appropriate filings with the Insurance Commissioners of Arizona and Ohio have been made and it is anticipated, although there can be no assurance, that approvals of such Insurance Commissioners will be obtained.

NYSE LISTING OF CONSECO COMMON STOCK

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Consecoco is required to use its best efforts to obtain listing on the NYSE of the shares of Consecoco Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger. Approval of the listing on the NYSE (or another national securities exchange or quotation on the NASDAQ National Market System) of the shares of Conseco Common Stock to be issued in the Merger is a condition to the respective obligations of CAF, Conseco and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger.

RIGHTS OF DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

Holders of CAF Common Stock who so desire will be entitled to relief as dissenting shareholders pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 1701.84. However, any such holder will be entitled to such relief only upon strict compliance with Ohio Revised Code Section 1701.85 ("Section 1701.85"). The following summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the method of compliance with Section 1701.85 and is qualified in its entirety by reference to that Section, the full text of which is attached hereto as Annex C. A holder of CAF Common Stock who is considering the possibility of dissenting is urged to read Section 1701.85 in full, and is encouraged to consult his or her own counsel.

A shareholder who wishes to perfect his or her rights as a dissenting shareholder MUST, if the Merger Agreement is adopted:

- (1) have been a record holder of the CAF Common Stock as to which he or she seeks relief on the CAF Record Date;
- (2) not have voted such CAF Common Stock in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement; and
- (3) DELIVER to CAF, not later than ten days after the CAF Special Meeting, a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which he or she seeks relief. This written demand must state the name of the shareholder, his or her address, the number of shares as to which he or she seeks relief, and the amount claimed as the "fair cash value" thereof.

A vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement will not satisfy the requirements of a written demand for payment as described in clause (3) of the immediately preceding paragraph. Any written demand for payment must be DELIVERED to Capitol American Financial Corporation, 1001 Lakeside Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, Attention: Secretary. Because the written demand must be delivered within the ten-day period immediately following the CAF Special Meeting, a shareholder should use a means of delivery, including hand delivery, that will assure timely delivery, and should consider use of a means of delivery that would provide a receipt establishing the timeliness thereof.

If CAF or the Surviving Corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in his or her demand, a request for the certificate(s) representing the shares as to which he or she seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder must DELIVER such certificate(s) to CAF or the Surviving Corporation for endorsement as to the fact of his or her demand. Failure to meet this requirement may, at the option of the CAF Board or the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation, terminate any dissenters' rights unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. Such request by CAF or the Surviving Corporation is not an admission by CAF or the Surviving Corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under Section 1701.85.

Unless the dissenting shareholder and CAF or the Surviving Corporation shall agree on the fair cash value per share of CAF Common Stock as to which relief is sought, either CAF or the Surviving Corporation or the dissenting shareholder may, within three months after the delivery of the written demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County, Ohio. If the court finds that the shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares, the court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value.

Fair cash value will be determined as of the day prior to the CAF Special Meeting, will be the amount a willing seller and willing buyer would accept or pay with neither being under compulsion to sell or buy, will not exceed the amount specified in the shareholder's written demand, and will exclude any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the Merger. Unless CAF or the Surviving Corporation and the dissenting shareholder shall otherwise agree in writing, or except in the case of any of the eventualities (1)-(4) summarized below, a court shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share of CAF Common Stock and render judgment against the Surviving Corporation for its payment with interest at such rate and from such date as the court considers equitable. The costs of these proceedings shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable.

The rights, if any, of a dissenting shareholder will terminate if (1) he or she has not strictly complied with Section 1701.85 unless the CAF Board or the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation waives such failure; (2) CAF abandons or is enjoined or prevented from carrying out the Merger, or the holders of CAF Common Stock rescind their adoption of the Merger Agreement; (3) the dissenting shareholder withdraws his or her written demand, with the consent of the CAF Board or the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation; or (4) CAF or the Surviving Corporation and the dissenting shareholder shall not have agreed upon the fair cash value per share of CAF Common Stock and neither shall have timely filed or joined in a petition in an appropriate court for a determination of the fair cash value of the shares.

From the time of giving the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares of CAF Common Stock by the Surviving Corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares of CAF Common Stock, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If, during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of CAF Common Stock or any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of Conseco Common Stock issued upon cancellation and conversion of such shares of CAF Common Stock, an amount equal to the dividend or distribution that, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares shall be paid to the shareholder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares of CAF Common Stock; provided that, if the right to receive fair cash value is terminated otherwise than by the purchase of the shares of CAF Common Stock by the Surviving Corporation, all rights of the shareholder shall be restored and all distributions that, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the shareholder of record of the shares of CAF Common Stock at the time of termination.

For information relating to the CAF Shareholder Meeting, see "CAF Shareholder Meeting."

BECAUSE A PROXY WHICH DOES NOT CONTAIN VOTING INSTRUCTIONS WILL, UNLESS

REVOKED, BE VOTED FOR AUTHORIZATION AND ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, A CAF SHAREHOLDER WHO WISHES TO EXERCISE HIS OR HER DISSENTER'S RIGHTS MUST EITHER NOT SIGN AND RETURN HIS OR HER PROXY OR, IF HE OR SHE SIGNS AND RETURNS HIS OR HER PROXY, VOTE AGAINST OR ABSTAIN FROM VOTING ON THE AUTHORIZATION AND ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Holders of Conseco Common Stock will not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights under the Indiana Business Corporation Law in connection with the Merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a brief summary of certain provisions of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. All shareholders are urged to read the Merger Agreement in its entirety.

THE MERGER

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to satisfaction or waiver of the terms and conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, including the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by the shareholders of CAF, the Merger Sub will be merged with and into CAF, with CAF being the surviving corporation.

EFFECTIVE TIME

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions and the requisite approval of the shareholders of CAF, the Merger will be consummated by and will become effective on the date of the filing of a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of Ohio or at such time thereafter as is provided in the Certificate of Merger. The Merger Agreement may be terminated by either Conseco or CAF if, among other reasons, the Merger has not been consummated on or before March 31, 1997. See "-- Conditions to the Merger" and "-- Termination."

CONVERSION OF SHARES; EXCHANGE OF STOCK CERTIFICATES; NO FRACTIONAL AMOUNTS

At the Effective Time, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each share of CAF Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares held as treasury shares by CAF or Dissenting Shares (as defined below)) shall be converted into the right to receive (1) $30.00 in cash plus the Time Factor (as defined below), if any (collectively, "Cash Consideration"), and (2) the fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) of a share of Conseco Common Stock determined by dividing $6.50 by the Trading Value as defined below. The "Time Factor", if any, shall be equal to $0.25 if the Effective Time shall not have occurred by December 10, 1996, which amount shall be increased by an additional $0.25 on the tenth day of each calendar month thereafter until the occurrence of the Effective Date. The "Trading Value" shall be equal to the average of the closing prices of the Conseco Common Stock on the NYSE Composite Transactions Reporting System for the 20 trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the Effective Time. The Cash Consideration, the Conseco Common Stock to be issued to holders of shares of CAF Common Stock in accordance with the Merger and any cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock are referred to collectively as the "Merger Consideration."

In the event of any change in Conseco Common Stock between the date of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time of the Merger by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, combination, exchange of shares or the like, the number and class of shares of Conseco Common Stock to be issued and delivered in the Merger in exchange for each outstanding share of CAF Common Stock as provided in the Merger Agreement shall be proportionately adjusted.

On October 16, 1996, the last full trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the closing prices reported for shares of Conseco Common Stock and CAF Common Stock on the NYSE were $50 3/4 per share and $36 per share, respectively. There can be no assurance or prediction, and neither Conseco nor CAF hereby make any assurance or prediction, as to the future price of the Conseco Common Stock or CAF Common Stock.

At the Effective Time, each share of common stock of the Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Merger Sub or the holder hereof, be converted into a share of common stock of CAF.

No fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock will be issued in connection with the Merger. Each CAF shareholder who otherwise would have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock (after taking into account all certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive in lieu thereof cash (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Conseco Common Stock multiplied by the Trading Value.

Promptly after the Effective Time, the Paying Agent will mail to each record holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates, which prior thereto represented CAF Common Stock, a form of letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering such certificates and receiving the consideration to which such holder shall be entitled. After receipt of such transmittal form, each holder of certificates formerly representing shares of CAF Common Stock should surrender such certificates to the Paying Agent together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and each such holder will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Cash Consideration and certificates for shares of Conseco Common Stock and/or a check for any cash which may be payable in lieu of a fractional share of Conseco Common Stock.

CAF SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD NOT FORWARD THEIR CERTIFICATES TO THE PAYING AGENT

UNTIL THEY HAVE RECEIVED A TRANSMITTAL LETTER AND INSTRUCTIONS.

After the Effective Time, each outstanding certificate, which prior thereto represented CAF Common Stock, until so surrendered and exchanged, will be deemed, for all purposes, to evidence only the right to receive the Merger Consideration that the holder of such certificate is entitled to receive pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

TREATMENT OF CAF STOCK OPTIONS

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each CAF Stock Option and Restricted Share which has been granted pursuant to the 1992 Equity Participation Plan shall be fully vested. Each CAF Stock Option shall be deemed disposed to CAF and then converted automatically into an option (a "New Conesco Option") to purchase such number of shares of Conesco Common Stock (rounding the result to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) equal to the number of shares of CAF Common Stock subject to such CAF Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Conversion Ratio (as defined below), for an exercise price equal to the Adjusted Exercise Price (as defined below). The "Conversion Ratio" shall mean the number determined by dividing the Merger Consideration for one share of CAF Common Stock by the Trading Value (rounding the result to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share). The "Adjusted Exercise Price" shall be determined by multiplying (1) the Trading Value by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the current exercise price of the CAF Stock Option by the Merger Consideration for one share of CAF Common Stock.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, with respect to (1) an employee of CAF who is either (A) given notice that he or she will not be asked to remain in his or her position beyond the period ending six months after the Effective Time or (B) terminated prior to the end of the six month period after the Effective Time or (2) a non-employee director of CAF, each CAF Stock Option held by such person immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be deemed disposed to CAF and then converted automatically at the Effective Time into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the Merger Consideration for one share of CAF Common Stock minus the current exercise price of the CAF Stock Option multiplied by (B) the total number of shares of CAF Common Stock subject thereto.

Conesco has agreed to take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Conesco Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of CAF Stock Options assumed in accordance with the Merger Agreement and to register such shares of Conesco Common Stock with the Commission pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-8.

CAF EMPLOYEE MATTERS

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, CAF will provide severance benefits for eligible employees who are not subject to the Stay Pay arrangements described in "The Merger -- Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger." Severance pay will be applicable to all employees terminated within one year of the Effective Time in accordance with the following schedule: for those employees with less than three years of employment by CAF, such employees will receive four months' salary, for those employees with three years or more, but less than seven years of employment by CAF, such employees will receive eight months' salary, for those employees with seven years or more, but less than 15 years of employment by CAF, such employees will receive 12 months' salary, and for those employees with 15 years or more of employment by CAF, such employees will receive 18 months' salary.

DISSENTING SHARES

Shares of CAF Common Stock which are held by the shareholders of CAF who shall have effectively dissented from the Merger and perfected their dissenters' rights in accordance with the provisions of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but the holders thereof shall be entitled to payment from CAF of the appraised value of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 1701.85. See "The Merger -- Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" and "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights -- Dissenters' Rights."

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary representations and warranties relating to, among other things, (1) each of Conseco's, the Merger Sub's and CAF's organization and similar corporate matters; (2) each of Conseco's, the Merger Sub's and CAF's capital structure; (3) the authorization, execution, delivery, performance and enforceability of the Merger Agreement with respect to Conseco, the Merger Sub and CAF and related matters; (4) documents filed by each of Conseco and CAF with the Commission and the accuracy of information contained therein; (5) the absence of material changes with respect to the business of Conseco and CAF; and (6) compliance with applicable laws.

CERTAIN COVENANTS

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary covenants and agreements, including, without limitation, the following:

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Conseco has agreed that during the period from the date of the Merger Agreement to the Effective Time, Conseco shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries to, carry on their respective businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course and will not, among other things, except as set forth in the disclosure schedules of the Merger Agreement, (1)(A) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on, or make any other distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) in respect of, any outstanding capital stock of Conseco (other than its regular quarterly cash dividend on Conseco Common Stock and regular cash dividends on the Conseco Series D Preferred Stock and the Conseco PRIDES, in each case with usual record and payment dates and in accordance with Conseco's Articles of Incorporation and its present dividend policy) or (B) split, combine or reclassify any of its outstanding capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of Conseco's outstanding capital stock; (2) issue, sell, grant, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of its capital stock, any other voting securities or any securities convertible into, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire, any such shares, voting securities or convertible securities, in each case if any such action could reasonably be expected to (A) delay materially the date of mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or, (B) if it were to occur after such date of mailing, require an amendment of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus; or (3) acquire any business or any corporation, partnership, joint venture, association or other business organization or division thereof, in each case if any such action could reasonably be expected to (A) delay materially the date of mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or, (B) if it were to occur after such date of mailing, require an amendment of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, CAF has agreed that, during the period from the date of the Merger Agreement until the Effective Time, except as permitted by the Merger Agreement, as set forth on the Disclosure Schedules thereto or as otherwise consented to in writing by Conseco, CAF will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, act and carry on their respective businesses in the ordinary course of business and will not (without the prior consent of Conseco), among other things (1) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on, or make any other distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) in respect of, any of CAF's outstanding capital stock (other than its regular quarterly cash dividends not in excess of $0.10 per share); (2) issue, sell, grant, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of its capital stock, other than upon the exercise of CAF Stock Options outstanding on the date of the Merger Agreement; (3) amend its Articles of Incorporation or Code of Regulations; (4) acquire any business; (5) sell, mortgage or otherwise encumber any of its properties or assets that are material to CAF and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, except in the ordinary course of business; (6) incur any indebtedness for borrowed money or guarantee any such indebtedness of another person, other than within certain specified limitations, or make any loans or advances to any other person other than routine advances to employees or special individual advances of not more than $30,000 each to agents; (7) make any tax election or settle or compromise any income tax liability that would reasonably be expected to be material to CAF and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; (8) pay, discharge, settle or satisfy any claims, liabilities or obligations other than the payment, discharge or satisfaction, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or in accordance with their terms, of liabilities reflected or reserved against in, or contemplated by, the most recent consolidated financial statements of CAF or incurred since the date of such financial statements in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; (9) invest its future cash flow, any cash from matured and maturing investments, any cash proceeds from the sale of its assets and properties, and any cash funds currently held by it, in any investments other than cash equivalent assets or in short-term investments, except (A) as otherwise required by law, (B) as required to provide cash (in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice) to meet its actual or anticipated obligations, (C) in publicly traded corporate bonds that are rated investment grade by at least two nationally recognized statistical rating organizations or (D) as otherwise provided in investment guidelines contained in the investment advisory agreement with Conseco Capital Management, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Conseco; (10) except as may be required by law, (A) make any change to the contracts, salaries, wages, or other compensation of any employee or any agent or consultant of CAF or any subsidiary other than routine changes or amendments that are required under existing contracts, (B) adopt, enter into, amend, alter or terminate any existing CAF benefit plan or any election made pursuant to the provisions of any existing CAF benefit plan, to accelerate any payments, obligations or vesting schedules under any existing CAF benefit plan, or (C) approve any general or company-wide pay increases for employees; (11) except in the ordinary course of business, modify, amend or terminate any material agreement, permit, concession, franchise, license or similar instrument to which CAF or any subsidiary is a party or waive, release or assign any material rights or claims thereunder; and (12) hold any meeting of the Board of Directors of CAF or any subsidiary or any committee of any such board, or take any action by written consent of any such board or committee, without providing to Conseco (A) written notice of any such meeting or any proposed action by written consent at the same time such notice or action is provided to the directors and (B) an agenda of any specific matters to be considered at such meeting or a copy of the proposed written consent.

NO SOLICITATION. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, CAF shall not, nor shall it permit any of its subsidiaries to, nor shall it authorize or permit any officer, director or employee of, or any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of, CAF or any of its subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, (1) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of any bona fide proposal with respect to a merger, consolidation, share exchange or similar transaction involving CAF, or any subsidiary of CAF, or any purchase of all or any significant portion of the assets of CAF or any subsidiary of CAF, or any equity interest in CAF or any subsidiary of CAF, other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (each an "Acquisition Proposal") or (2) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal. The foregoing shall not prohibit the Board of Directors of CAF from furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity that makes an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal if, and only to the extent that (1) the Board of Directors of CAF, after consultation with and based upon the advice of outside counsel, determines in good faith that such action is necessary for the Board of Directors of CAF to comply with its fiduciary duties to CAF under applicable law and (2) prior to taking such action, CAF (A) provides reasonable notice to Conseco to the effect that it is taking such action and (B) receives from such person or entity an executed confidentiality agreement in reasonably customary form.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INSURANCE. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Conseco has agreed that the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of the Surviving Corporation and each of its subsidiaries shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification set forth in the articles of incorporation and code of regulations of CAF or the respective subsidiary, as the case may be, on the date of the Merger Agreement, and such provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years after the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of the Indemnified Parties in respect of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time unless such modification is required by law. Conseco has agreed to be jointly and severally liable for the indemnification obligations of CAF to the Indemnified Parties. Conseco has also agreed to honor terms of existing indemnification agreements between CAF and certain of its officers and directors. In addition, for a period of two years following the Effective Time Conseco has agreed to maintain officers' and directors' liability insurance covering the Indemnified Parties who are currently covered by CAF's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policies.

CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER

The respective obligations of Conseco, the Merger Sub and CAF to effect the Merger are subject to the following conditions, among others: (1) the Merger Agreement and the Merger shall have been approved and adopted by the shareholders of CAF; (2) all required consents, approvals, permits and authorizations to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by CAF, Conseco and Merger Sub shall be obtained from (A) the insurance regulators in the States of Ohio and Arizona and (B) any other governmental entity whose consent, approval, permission or authorization is required by reason of a change in law after the date of the Merger Agreement, unless the failure to obtain such consent, approval, permission or authorization (i) would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of CAF and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or on the validity or enforceability of the Merger Agreement or (ii) is the approval of the Insurance Regulator of any life insurance subsidiary of CAF, which does not constitute a "significant subsidiary" (within the meaning of Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X of the SEC) of CAF (a "Non-Significant Life Subsidiary") to the transfer of control of such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary, then such non-approval can be waived at the option of Conseco if certain specified actions are taken; (3) the waiting period (and any extension thereof) applicable to the Merger under the HSR Act shall have been terminated or shall have otherwise expired; (4) no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Merger shall be in effect; (5) the shares of Conseco Common Stock issuable to CAF's shareholders pursuant to the Merger shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance; and (6) the Registration Statement shall have become effective under the Securities Act and shall not be the subject of any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order.

The obligations of Conseco and the Merger Sub to effect the Merger are subject to, among other things, the following additional conditions: (1) the representations and warranties of CAF contained in the Merger Agreement shall have been true and correct on the date of the Merger Agreement (except to the extent that they expressly relate only to an earlier time, in which case they shall have been true and correct as of such earlier time), other than such breaches of representations and warranties which in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of CAF and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; (2) CAF shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time; and (3) the shareholders of CAF party to the Shareholders Agreement, dated as of the Merger Agreement by and among Conseco and such shareholders, shall have complied with their respective obligations.

The obligation of CAF to effect the Merger is subject to, among other things, the following additional conditions: (1) the representations and warranties of Conseco and Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement shall have been true and correct on the date of the Merger Agreement (except to the extent that they expressly relate only to an earlier time, in which case they shall have been true and correct as of such earlier time), other than such breaches of representations and warranties which in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Conseco and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; and (2) Conseco and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time.

TERMINATION

The Merger Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time: (1) by the mutual written consent of Conseco and CAF; or (2) by Conseco or CAF at any time (A) if, upon a vote at a duly held meeting of the shareholders of CAF or any adjournment thereof, any required approval of the shareholders of CAF shall not be obtained; (B) if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before March 31, 1997, unless the failure to consummate the Merger is the result of a willful and material breach of the Merger Agreement by the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement; (C) if any governmental entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; or (D) if the Board of Directors of CAF shall have exercised its rights set forth in Section 4.9 of the Merger Agreement with regard to an Acquisition Proposal. See "-- Right of CAF Board of Directors to Withdraw its Recommendation."

If the Merger Agreement is validly terminated as described above, the Merger Agreement shall become void and have no effect, except for certain covenants regarding brokers, confidentiality and, as described herein, payment of expenses, and except that no party thereto will be relieved of any liability for damages that such party may have to the other party by reason of such party's breach of the Merger Agreement.

RIGHT OF CAF BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO WITHDRAW ITS RECOMMENDATION

Under the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors of CAF shall not (1) withdraw or modify, in a manner materially adverse to Conseco or Merger Sub, the approval or recommendation by the Board of Directors of CAF of the Merger Agreement or the Merger, (2) approve or recommend an Acquisition Proposal or (3) enter into any agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, unless CAF receives an Acquisition Proposal and the Board of Directors of CAF determines in good faith, following consultation with outside counsel, that in order to comply with its fiduciary duties to shareholders under applicable law it is necessary for the Board of Directors of CAF to withdraw or modify, in a manner materially adverse to Conseco or Merger Sub, its approval or recommendation of the Merger Agreement or the Merger, approve or recommend such Acquisition Proposal, enter into an agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or terminate the Merger Agreement. In the event the Board of Directors of CAF takes any of the foregoing actions, CAF shall, concurrently with the taking of any such action, pay to Conseco the fee described in "-- Acquisition Proposal Fees."

ACQUISITION PROPOSAL FEES

CAF has agreed to pay to Conseco upon demand $15 million, payable in same-day funds, if a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is commenced, publicly proposed, publicly disclosed or communicated to CAF (or the willingness of any person to make such an Acquisition Proposal is publicly disclosed or communicated to CAF) and the Board of Directors of CAF, in accordance with its fiduciary duties, withdraws or modifies in a manner materially adverse to Conseco its approval or recommendation of the Merger Agreement or the Merger, approves or recommends such Acquisition Proposal, enters into an agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal, or terminates the Merger Agreement.

EXPENSES

Except for the acquisition proposal fees, whether or not the Merger is consummated, each of CAF, Conseco and Merger Sub will pay its own costs and expenses incident to preparing for, entering into and carrying out the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby except that the expenses incurred in connection with the printing, mailing and distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the preparation and filing of the Registration Statement shall be borne equally by Conseco and CAF. CAF has agreed that the fees and expenses of CAF's legal and investment banking advisors incurred in connection with the Merger (but excluding reasonable fees and expenses related to litigation) shall not exceed $5,000,000.

MODIFICATION OR AMENDMENT

Subject to the applicable provisions of the Ohio Revised Code, at any time prior to the Effective Time, CAF, Conseco and Merger Sub may modify or amend the Merger Agreement, by written agreement executed and delivered by duly authorized officers of the respective parties; provided, however, that after approval of the Merger by the shareholders of CAF, no amendment may be made which reduces the consideration payable in the Merger or adversely affects the rights of CAF's shareholders under the Merger Agreement without the approval of such shareholders.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF CONSECO

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations of Conseco for the year ended December 31, 1995, and for the six months ended June 30, 1996, present the consolidated operating results for Conseco as if the following planned transactions had occurred on January 1, 1995: (1) the Merger; (2) the BLH Transaction; (3) the ATC Merger; (4) the Preferred Securities Offering; and (5) the THI Merger.

The pro forma consolidated statement of operations data for Conseco for the year ended December 31, 1995, set forth in the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations under the column "Pro forma Conseco before the Merger" reflect the prior application of certain pro forma adjustments for the following transactions, all of which have already occurred, as if such transactions had occurred on January 1, 1995: (1) the Series D Call; (2) the ALH Transaction; (3) the LPG Merger; (4) the acquisition of all of the outstanding common stock of CCP not previously owned by Conseco and related transactions (including the repayment of the existing $250.0 million revolving credit agreement); (5) the increase of Conseco's ownership in BLH to 90.5 percent, as a result of purchases of common shares of BLH by Conseco and BLH during 1995 and the first three months of 1996; (6) the issuance of 4.37 million shares of Conseco PRIDES in January 1996; (7) the BLH Tender Offer; and (8) the debt restructuring of ALH in the fourth quarter of 1995. Such pro forma adjustments are set forth in: (1) Exhibit 99.2 included in Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated September 25, 1996; (2) Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated August 2, 1996; and (3) Exhibit 99.1 included in Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated April 10, 1996.

The pro forma consolidated statement of operations data for Conseco for the six months ended June 30, 1996, set forth in the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations under the column "Pro forma Conseco before the Merger" reflect the prior application of certain pro forma adjustments for the following transactions, all of which have already occurred, as if such transactions had occurred on January 1, 1995: (1) the Series D Call; (2) the ALH Transaction; (3) the LPG Merger; (4) the issuance of 4.37 million shares of Conseco PRIDES in January 1996; and (5) the BLH Tender Offer. Such pro forma adjustments are set forth in: (1) Exhibit 99.2 included in Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated September 25, 1996; (2) Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated August 2, 1996; and (3) Exhibit 99.1 included in Conseco's Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 1996.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 1996, gives effect to the following planned transactions as if each had occurred on June 30, 1996: (1) the Merger; (2) the BLH Transaction; (3) the ATC Merger; (4) the Preferred Securities Offering; and (5) the THI Merger.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet data as of June 30, 1996, set forth in the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance under the column "Pro forma Conseco before the Merger" reflect the prior application of certain pro forma adjustments for the following transactions, all of which have already occurred, as if such transactions had occurred on June 30, 1996: (1) the Series D Call; (2) the ALH Transaction; and (3) the LPG Merger. Such pro forma adjustments are set forth in: (1) Exhibit 99.2 included in Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated September 25, 1996; and (2) Conseco's Current Report on Form 8-K dated August 2, 1996.

The pro forma consolidated financial statements are based on the historical financial statements of Conseco, LPG, CAF, ATC and THI and should be read in conjunction with their respective financial statements and notes. The pro forma data are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations or financial condition of Conseco had these transactions occurred on January 1, 1995, nor the results of future operations. Conseco anticipates cost savings and additional benefits as a result of certain of the transactions contemplated in the pro forma financial statements. Such benefits and any other changes that might have resulted from management of the combined companies have not been included as adjustments to the pro forma consolidated financial statements. Certain amounts from the prior periods have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements reflect cost allocations for the LPG Merger, the Merger, the ALH Transaction, the BLH Transaction, the ATC Merger and the THI Merger using estimated values of the assets and liabilities of LPG, CAF, ALH, BLH, ATC and THI as of the assumed merger dates based on appraisals and other studies, which are not yet complete. Accordingly, the final allocations will be different than the amounts included in the accompanying pro forma consolidated financial statements. Although the final allocations will differ, the pro forma consolidated financial statements reflect management's best estimate based on currently available information as if the LPG Merger, the Merger, the ALH Transaction, the BLH Transaction, the ATC Merger and the THI Merger had occurred on the assumed merger dates.

NOTES TO PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO THE MERGER

The Merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. Under this method, the total cost to acquire CAF will be allocated to the assets and liabilities acquired based on their fair values as of the date of the Merger, with any excess of the total purchase cost over the fair value of the assets acquired less the fair value of the liabilities assumed recorded as goodwill. In the Merger, each outstanding share of CAF common stock is assumed to be exchanged for $30 in cash and the right to receive a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock to be determined based on the average price of Conseco Common Stock prior to its closing (it is assumed that such average price per share of Conseco Common Stock will be $48.00, resulting in an exchange ratio of .1354). Conseco will pay approximately $534 million in cash and issue an assumed 2.4 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $115.7 million to acquire the CAF common stock. In addition, Conseco is expected to assume a note payable of CAF of $29.5 million and incur costs related to the Merger (including contract termination, relocation, legal, accounting and other costs) of approximately $26 million.

The cost to acquire CAF is allocated as follows (dollars in millions):

Book value of assets acquired based on the assumed date of the Merger (June 30, 1996).....	$ 294.3
Notes payable of CAF assumed by Conseco at the assumed date of the Merger.....	29.5
Increase (decrease) in CAF's net asset value to reflect estimated fair value and asset reclassifications at the assumed date of the Merger:
Actively managed fixed maturity securities.....	448.9
Held-to-maturity fixed maturity securities.....	(351.8)
Cost of policies purchased (related to the Merger).....	483.3
Cost of policies produced.....	(266.4)
Goodwill (related to the Merger).....	232.5
Insurance liabilities.....	(85.0)
Income taxes.....	(80.1)

Total estimated fair value adjustments.....	381.4

Total cost to acquire CAF.....	$ 705.2

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated statement of operations to give effect to the Merger as of January 1, 1995, are summarized below.

- (1) Net investment income and net realized gains of CAF are adjusted to include the effect of adjustments to restate the amortized cost basis of fixed maturity securities to their estimated fair value.
- (2) Change in policy benefits is reduced to reflect the purchase accounting adjustments made at the assumed date of the Merger. Such adjustment reflects the lower discount rate used to discount amounts of expected future benefit payments to correspond to the adjustments to restate the amortized cost of fixed maturity investments to their estimated fair value.
- (3) Interest expense is reduced to reflect the repayment of notes payable of CAF by Conseco at the assumed date of the Merger.
- (4) Interest expense is increased to reflect the increase in borrowings under Conseco's revolving credit facility used to complete the Merger.

CONSECO AND SUBSIDIARIES

A change in interest rates of .5 percent on the additional borrowings under Consecos revolving credit facility used to complete the Merger would result in: (1) an increase (or decrease) in pro forma interest expense of $2.9 million and $1.5 million for the year ended December 31, 1995, and the six months ended June 30, 1996, respectively; and (2) a decrease (or increase) in pro forma net income of $1.9 million and $1.0 million for the same respective periods.

(5) Amortization of the cost of policies produced for policies sold by CAF prior to January 1, 1995, is replaced with the amortization of the cost of policies purchased (amortized in relation to estimated premiums on the policies purchased with interest equal to the liability rate which averages 5.5 percent.)

(6) Amortization of goodwill acquired in the Merger is recognized over a 40-year period on a straight-line basis.

(7) Reflects the tax adjustment for the pro forma adjustments at the appropriate rate for the specific item.

(8) Common shares outstanding are increased to reflect the shares issued in the Merger.

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated balance sheet to give effect to the Merger as of June 30, 1996, are summarized below.

(9) After the Merger, all held-to-maturity securities are classified as actively managed fixed maturity securities consistent with the intention of the new management.

(10) CAF's fixed maturity securities are restated to estimated fair value.

(11) Cash is reduced for payments made to complete the Merger.

(12) Short-term investments and notes payable of Consecos are increased for additional borrowings by Consecos to complete the Merger.

(13) Cost of policies purchased reflects the estimated fair value of CAF's business in force and represents the portion of the cost to acquire CAF that is allocated to the value of the right to receive future cash flows from the acquired policies.

The 18 percent discount rate used to determine such value is the rate of return required by Consecos to invest in the business being acquired. In determining such rate of return, the following factors are considered:

- The magnitude of the risks associated with each of the actuarial assumptions used in determining the expected cash flows.
- Cost of capital available to fund the acquisition.
- The perceived likelihood of changes in insurance regulations and tax laws.
- Complexity of the acquired company.
- Prices paid (i.e., discount rates used in determining valuations) on similar blocks of business sold recently.

The value allocated to the cost of policies purchased is based on a preliminary valuation; accordingly, this allocation may be adjusted upon final determination of such value. Expected gross amortization of such value using current assumptions and accretion of interest based on an interest rate equal to the liability rate (such rate averages 5.5 percent) for each of the years in the five-year period ending June 30, 2001, are as follows (dollars in millions):

YEAR ENDING JUNE 30,	BEGINNING BALANCE	GROSS AMORTIZATION	ACCRETION OF INTEREST	NET AMORTIZATION	ENDING BALANCE
1997.....	$ 483.3	$ 59.3	$26.6	$ 32.7	$ 450.6
1998.....	450.6	54.2	24.7	29.5	421.1
1999.....	421.1	51.3	23.2	28.1	393.0
2000.....	393.0	48.6	21.7	26.9	366.1
2001.....	366.1	46.1	20.1	26.0	340.1

(14) CAF's cost of policies produced is eliminated since such amounts are reflected in the determination of the cost of policies purchased.

(15) All of the applicable pro forma balance sheet adjustments are tax affected at the appropriate rate. In addition, deferred tax liabilities of CAF are netted against deferred tax assets of Conseco.

(16) Goodwill acquired in the Merger is recognized.

(17) Additional insurance liabilities are recognized to reflect the lower discount rates used to determine the present value of future obligations, consistent with the lower yields to be earned on invested assets as a result of recognizing the fair value of fixed maturity securities.

(18) Notes payable are reduced to reflect the repayment of notes payable of CAF by Conseco at the assumed date of the Merger.

(19) The prior shareholders' equity of CAF is eliminated in conjunction with the Merger. Common stock and additional paid-in capital is increased by the value of Conseco Common Stock issued in the Merger.

OTHER PLANNED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions relating to the BLH Transaction

Conseco has proposed to acquire all of the common stock of BLH, not previously owned by Conseco. In the BLH Transaction, each share of BLH common stock would be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock to be determined based on the average price of Conseco Common Stock prior to closing (it is assumed that such price per share of Conseco Common Stock will be $48.00, resulting in an exchange ratio of .5208 shares valued at $25.00). Conseco will issue an assumed 2.6 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $122.5 million.

The pro forma adjustments are applied to the historical consolidated financial statements of Conseco using the step acquisition method of accounting. Under this method, the total purchase cost of the common stock of BLH, not already owned by Conseco, is allocated to the assets and liabilities acquired based on their relative fair values as of the date of acquisition, with any excess of the total purchase cost over the fair value of the assets acquired less the fair value of the liabilities assumed recorded as goodwill. The values of the assets and liabilities of BLH included in Conseco's pro forma consolidated financial statements represent the combination of the following values: (1) the portion of BLH's net assets acquired by Conseco in the initial acquisition made by Conseco Capital Partners, L.P. on October 31, 1992, is valued as of that acquisition date; (2) the portion of BLH's net assets acquired by Conseco on September 30, 1993, is valued as of that acquisition date; (3) the portion of BLH's net assets acquired during 1995 and the first quarter of 1996 is valued as of its assumed date of acquisition; and (4) the portion of BLH's net assets acquired in the BLH Transaction is valued at the assumed dates of acquisition.

Adjustments to give effect to the BLH Transaction are summarized below:

(20) As described above, the BLH Transaction is accounted for as a step acquisition. The accounts of BLH are adjusted to reflect the step basis method of accounting as if the BLH Transaction was completed on the assumed dates of acquisition.

(21) All pro forma adjustments are tax affected based on the appropriate rate for the specific item.

(22) Minority interest is reduced to eliminate the ownership interest of the former shareholders of BLH.

(23) Common shares outstanding are increased to reflect the shares of Conseco Common Stock issued in the acquisition of additional shares of BLH common stock.

(24) Notes payable of BLH are reclassified as notes payable of Conseco, since BLH is now wholly owned by Conseco.

(25) Common stock and additional paid-in capital is increased by the value of Conseco Common Stock issued in the acquisition of additional shares of BLH common stock.

Transactions Relating to the ATC Merger

The ATC Merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. Under this method, the total cost to acquire ATC will be allocated to the assets and liabilities acquired based on their fair values as of the date of the ATC Merger, with any excess of the total purchase cost over the fair value of the assets acquired less the fair value of the liabilities assumed recorded as goodwill. Conseco believes the ATC Merger will not qualify to be accounted for under the pooling of interests method in accordance with APB No. 16 because an affiliate of ATC intends to sell a portion of the Conseco Common Stock it receives in the ATC Merger shortly after the Effective Time. In the ATC Merger, each outstanding share of ATC Common Stock is assumed to be exchanged for a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock to be determined based on an average price of Conseco's Common Stock prior to its closing (it is assumed the Conseco Share Price will be $48.00, resulting in an exchange ratio of .7298 shares valued at $35.03). Conseco will issue an assumed 13.1 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $628.8 million to acquire the ATC Common Stock. In addition, Conseco will assume ATC's outstanding convertible subordinated debentures, which will be convertible into an assumed 5.0 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $240 million. In addition, Conseco is expected to incur costs related to the ATC Merger (including contract termination, relocation, legal, accounting and other costs) of approximately $30.4 million.

Goodwill (related to the ATC Merger).....	577.3

Total estimated fair value adjustments.....	624.7

Total cost to acquire ATC.....	$ 899.2

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated statement of operations to give effect to the ATC Merger as of January 1, 1995, are summarized below.

(26) Net investment income and net realized gains of ATC are adjusted to include the effect of adjustments to restate the amortized cost basis of fixed maturity securities to their estimated fair value.

(27) Interest expense is increased to reflect the increase in borrowings under Consecoco's revolving credit facility used to complete the ATC Merger.

A change in interest rates of .5 percent on the additional borrowings under Consecoco's revolving credit facility used to complete the ATC Merger would result in: (1) an increase (or decrease) in pro forma interest expense of $.2 million and $.1 million for the year ended December 31, 1995, and the six months ended June 30, 1996, respectively; and (2) a decrease (or increase) in pro forma net income of $.1 million and $.1 million for the same respective periods.

(28) Interest expense is reduced to reflect the amortization of the liability established at the assumed date of the ATC Merger representing the present value of the interest payable on ATC's convertible subordinated debentures to October 1, 1998 (the earliest call date), less the present value of the dividends that would be paid on the Consecoco Common Stock that such debentures would be convertible into during the same period.

(29) Amortization of the cost of policies produced and the cost of policies purchased prior to the ATC Merger is replaced with the amortization of the cost of policies purchased (amortized in relation to estimated premiums on the policies purchased with interest equal to the liability rate which averages 5.5 percent).

(30) Amortization of goodwill acquired in the ATC Merger is recognized over a 40-year period on a straight-line basis.

(31) Reflects the tax adjustment for the pro forma adjustments at the appropriate rate for the specific item.

(32) Common shares outstanding are increased to reflect the Consecoco shares issued in the ATC Merger. Fully diluted shares also include Consecoco shares which will be issued when ATC's convertible subordinated debentures are converted.

(UNAUDITED)

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated balance sheet to give effect to the ATC Merger as of June 30, 1996, are summarized below.

(33) Cash is reduced for payments made to complete the ATC Merger.

(34) Short-term investments and notes payable of Consecos are increased for additional borrowings by Consecos to complete the ATC Merger.

(35) ATC's historical cost of policies purchased is eliminated and replaced with the cost of policies purchased recognized in the ATC Merger. Cost of policies purchased reflects the estimated fair value of ATC's business in force and represents the portion of the cost to acquire ATC that is allocated to the value of the right to receive future cash flows from the acquired policies.

The 18 percent discount rate used to determine such value is the rate of return required by Consecos to invest in the business being acquired. In determining such rate of return, the following factors are considered:

- The magnitude of the risks associated with each of the actuarial assumptions used in determining the expected cash flows.
- Cost of capital available to fund the acquisition.
- The perceived likelihood of changes in insurance regulations and tax laws.
- Complexity of the acquired company.
- Prices paid (i.e., discount rates used in determining valuations) on similar blocks of business sold recently.

The value allocated to the cost of policies purchased is based on a preliminary valuation; accordingly, this allocation may be adjusted upon final determination of such value. Expected gross amortization of such value using current assumptions and accretion of interest based on an interest rate equal to the liability rate (such rate averages 5.5 percent) for each of the years in the five-year period ending June 30, 2001, are as follows (dollars in millions):

YEAR ENDING JUNE 30,	BEGINNING BALANCE	GROSS AMORTIZATION	ACCRETION OF INTEREST	NET AMORTIZATION	ENDING BALANCE
1997.....	$ 256.2	$ 33.7	$13.5	$ 20.2	$ 236.0
1998.....	236.0	30.8	12.3	18.5	217.5
1999.....	217.5	28.2	11.4	16.8	200.7
2000.....	200.7	26.0	10.4	15.6	185.1
2001.....	185.1	24.0	9.6	14.4	170.7

(36) ATC's cost of policies produced is eliminated since such amounts are reflected in the determination of the cost of policies purchased.

(37) All of the applicable pro forma balance sheet adjustments are tax affected at the appropriate rate. Deferred tax liabilities of ATC are netted against deferred tax assets of Consecos.

(38) Goodwill acquired in the ATC Merger is recognized.

(39) Notes payable are increased to reflect the fair value of ATC's convertible subordinated debentures at the date of the ATC Merger. Such fair value represents the value of the Consecos Common Stock which ATC's convertible subordinated debentures will be convertible into after the ATC Merger.

It is assumed that the holders of such debentures do not convert into Conseco Common Stock at the time of the ATC Merger.

In addition, a liability is established representing the present value of the interest payable on such debentures to October 1, 1998 (the earliest call date), less the present value of the dividends that would be paid on the Conseco Common Stock that such debentures would be convertible into during the same period.

(40) The prior shareholders' equity of ATC is eliminated in conjunction with the ATC Merger. Common stock and additional paid-in capital is increased by the value of Conseco Common Stock issued in the ATC Merger.

Transactions relating to the Preferred Securities Offering

A subsidiary of Conseco intends to issue $350 million par value of 9.25 percent tax deductible Preferred Securities. The Conseco subsidiary will purchase $350 million subordinated notes from Conseco. Conseco will use the proceeds to reduce borrowings under the Conseco Credit Agreement.

(41) Interest expense is reduced to reflect the repayment of borrowings under the Conseco Credit Agreement.

A change in interest rates of .5 percent on the borrowings under the Conseco Credit Agreement to be repaid from the Preferred Securities Offering would result in: (1) a decrease (or increase) in pro forma interest expense of $1.7 million and $.8 million for the year ended December 31, 1995, and the six months ended June 30, 1996, respectively; and (2) an increase (or decrease) in pro forma net income of $1.1 million and $.5 million for the same respective periods.

(42) The pro forma adjustment is tax affected, based on Conseco's effective tax rate of 35 percent.

(43) Minority interest is adjusted to reflect the dividends (net of the related tax benefit) on the Preferred Securities.

(44) Notes payable are reduced to reflect the repayment of borrowings under the Conseco Credit Agreement using the net proceeds from the Preferred Securities.

(45) The Company's obligations are increased by the total par value of the Preferred Securities. Issuance and other transaction costs related to the Preferred Securities are charged to paid-in capital.

Transactions relating to the THI Merger

The THI Merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. Under this method, the total cost to acquire THI will be allocated to the assets and liabilities acquired based on their fair values as of the date of the THI Merger, with any excess of the total purchase cost over the fair value of the assets acquired less the fair value of the liabilities assumed recorded as goodwill. Conseco believes the THI Merger will not qualify to be accounted for under the pooling of interests method in accordance with APB No. 16 because THI was a subsidiary of another corporation within two years of the contemplated transaction. In the THI Merger, each outstanding share of THI common stock (or its equivalent) is assumed to be exchanged for a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock to be determined based on the price of Conseco Common Stock prior to its closing (it is assumed such average price per share of Conseco Common Stock will be $48.00, resulting in an exchange ratio of 1.4583 shares valued at $70.00). Conseco will issue an assumed 2.5 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $121.7 million to acquire the THI Common Stock (or equivalents). In addition, THI's convertible subordinated notes (the "THI Convertible Notes") will be exchanged for Conseco convertible subordinated notes (the "Conseco Convertible Notes") which will be convertible into shares of Conseco Common Stock based on the price of Conseco Common Stock prior to the THI Merger (such fully converted value being the same as the THI Convertible Notes). Using the same assumption that each share of THI will be convertible into 1.4583 shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of $70.00, in the aggregate, the Conseco Convertible Notes will be convertible into 2.2 million shares of Conseco Common Stock with a value of approximately $106.2 million. Immediately after the THI Merger, Conseco plans to cause the Conseco Convertible Notes to be converted by payment of a premium of $8.5 million. Conseco is expected to incur costs related to the THI Merger (including contract termination, relocation, legal, accounting and other costs) of approximately $10 million.

The cost to acquire THI is allocated as follows (dollars in millions):

Book value of assets acquired based on assumed date of the THI Merger (June 30, 1996).....	$168.1
THI Convertible Notes exchanged into Conseco Convertible Notes and converted to Conseco Common Stock at the assumed date of the THI Merger.....	50.0
Less book value of THI preferred stock.....	(22.8)
Increase (decrease) in THI's net asset value to reflect estimated fair value and asset reclassifications at the assumed date of the THI Merger:
Cost of policies purchased (related to the THI Merger).....	121.9
Cost of policies produced and cost of policies purchased (historical).....	(40.1)
Income taxes.....	(28.7)
Premium incurred to cause the conversion of the Conseco Convertible Notes.....	(8.5)
Premium incurred to retire THI preferred stock.....	(2.0)
Total estimated fair value adjustments.....	42.6
Total cost to acquire THI.....	$237.9

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated statement of operations to give effect to the THI Merger as of January 1, 1995, are summarized below.

(46) Net investment income and net realized gains of THI are adjusted to include the effect of adjustments to restate the amortized cost basis of fixed maturity securities to their estimated fair value and the effect of the assumed sale of $83.1 million fixed maturity investments, with the proceeds used to repay $58.3 million of bank debt and redeem preferred stock with a redemption value of $24.8 million.

(47) Interest expense is reduced to reflect the repayment of bank debt of $58.3 million and the conversion of the Conseco Convertible Notes (which were issued in exchange for the THI Convertible Notes) into Conseco Common Stock. Interest expense is increased to reflect borrowings by Conseco to:

(i) pay the estimated cost of the THI Merger; and (ii) pay the $8.5 million premium to cause Conseco's Convertible Notes to be converted.

(48) Amortization of the cost of policies produced and the cost of policies purchased prior to the THI Merger is replaced with the amortization of the cost of policies purchased (amortized in relation to estimated premiums on the policies purchased with interest equal to the liability rate which averages 5.5 percent).

(49) Reflects the tax adjustment for the pro forma adjustments at the appropriate rate for the specific item.

(50) Common shares outstanding are increased to reflect the Conseco shares issued in the THI Merger and the conversion of the Conseco Convertible Notes.

(51) Effective October 1, 1995, THI sold its long term care business to ATC. An adjustment is made to remove the loss on the sale of the long term care business. However, the revenues, benefits and expenses related to this business prior to its sale are not eliminated, since the business is retained within the Conseco consolidated group after the ATC Merger (and previous pro forma adjustments for the ATC Merger did not include adjustments related to THI's long term care business prior to its purchase by ATC). In addition, expenses related to THI's spin-off from its parent are eliminated. Such costs include certain legal, accounting, actuarial and advisory fees.

Adjustments to the pro forma consolidated balance sheet to give effect to the THI Merger as of June 30, 1996, are summarized below.

(52) Actively managed fixed maturity securities with a carrying value of $83.1 million are assumed to be sold at the date of the THI Merger.

(53) Short-term investments are reduced for: (i) payments made to complete the THI Merger; (ii) the repayment of bank debt with a balance of $58.3 million; (iii) the redemption of preferred stock with a redemption value of $24.8 million; and (iv) the payment of the $8.5 million premium to cause the Conseco Convertible Notes to be converted to Conseco Common Stock. Short-term investments are increased by additional borrowings by Conseco of $18.5 million to complete the THI Merger and related transactions.

(54) THI's historical cost of policies purchased is eliminated and replaced with the cost of policies purchased recognized in the THI Merger. Cost of policies purchased reflects the estimated fair value of THI's business in force and represents the portion of the cost to acquire THI that is allocated to the value of the right to receive future cash flows from the acquired policies.

The 18 percent discount rate used to determine such value is the rate of return required by Conseco to invest in the business being acquired. In determining such rate of return, the following factors are considered:

- Complexity of the acquired company.
- Prices paid (i.e., discount rates used in determining valuations) on similar blocks of business sold recently.

(55) THI's cost of policies produced is eliminated since such amounts are reflected in the determination of the cost of policies purchased.

(56) All of the applicable pro forma balance sheet adjustments are tax affected at the appropriate rate. Deferred tax assets are netted against deferred tax liabilities.

(57) Reinsurance receivables and insurance liabilities related to business of THI ceded to ATC are eliminated in consolidation.

(58) Notes payable are decreased to reflect: (i) the repayment of bank debt of $58.3 million; and (ii) the conversion of the Consecos Convertible Notes (which were issued in exchange for the THI Convertible Notes) into Consecos Common Stock. In addition, notes payable are increased to reflect additional borrowings by Consecos used to complete the THI Merger and related transactions.

(59) The prior shareholders' equity of THI is eliminated in conjunction with the THI Merger. Common stock and additional paid-in capital is increased by the value of Consecos common stock issued in the THI Merger. The value of the Consecos Convertible Notes represents the value of the Consecos common stock which the Consecos Convertible Notes are convertible into. Preferred stock of THI is eliminated to reflect its redemption.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

The rights of Consecos shareholders are governed by Consecos Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Consecos Articles of Incorporation"), its Amended and Restated Code of By-laws (the "Consecos By-laws") and the Indiana Corporation Law. The rights of CAF shareholders are governed by its Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "CAF Articles of Incorporation"), its Amended Code of Regulations (the "CAF Code of Regulations") and the Ohio Revised Code. After the Effective Time, the rights of CAF shareholders who become Consecos shareholders will be governed by the Consecos Articles of Incorporation, the Consecos By-laws and the Indiana Corporation Law. The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of Consecos shareholders and the rights of CAF shareholders.

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

The Consecos By-laws may be amended by majority vote of the Board of Directors.

The CAF Code of Regulations may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of CAF on such proposal.

VOTING WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

The Consecos Articles of Incorporation provide that Consecos may not enter into a "Special Business Combination Transaction" (defined as a merger or other business combination transaction with or involving a beneficial owner of more than ten percent of Consecos Common Stock (a "Related Person")) unless (1) the consideration to be received per share by holders of Consecos Common Stock in such transaction is at least equal to the highest per share price paid in order to acquire any shares of Consecos Common Stock beneficially owned by the Related Person or (2) the transaction shall have been approved by two-thirds of the Continuing Directors (defined as the directors of Consecos in office prior to the date on which a Related Person became such).

The CAF Articles of Incorporation provides that the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the CAF Common Stock and at least two-thirds of the CAF Preferred Shares, if any outstanding (no CAF Preferred Shares were outstanding as of the date of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus), shall be necessary to effect the merger or consolidation of CAF into or with any other corporation or the merger of any other corporation into CAF. In addition, Section 1704.01 et seq. of the Ohio Revised Code prohibits "Transactions Involving Interested Shareholders" (defined to include a merger, consolidation, combination or majority share acquisition with or involving a beneficial owner of a sufficient number of shares of a public corporation that would entitle that person, directly or indirectly, to exercise ten percent or more of the voting power of such public corporation (the "Interested Shareholder")) within three years of the Interested Shareholder's share acquisition date unless (1) prior to the Interested Shareholder's share acquisition date, the directors of the issuing public corporation have approved the acquisition for purposes of Section 1704.02 of the Ohio Revised Code or (2) any of the exceptions of Section 1704.05 of the Ohio Revised Code are applicable.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS RELATING TO ACQUISITIONS

The Indiana Corporation Law contains certain provisions, including the ones described below, which purport to apply to certain types of shares acquisitions or corporate transactions.

BUSINESS COMBINATIONS. Section 23-1-43 of the Indiana Corporation Law provides that a corporation may not engage in any business combination with any interested shareholder (defined as the beneficial owner of ten percent or more of the voting power of the outstanding voting shares) for a period of five years following the interested shareholder's share acquisition date unless the business combination or the purchase of shares made by the interested shareholder is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the interested shareholder's share acquisition date.

CONTROL SHARE ACQUISITIONS. Section 23-1-42 of the Indiana Corporation Law requires that, unless the articles of incorporation or by-laws of a corporation exempt the corporation (which Consecos's Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws do not), the acquisition by any person of more than one-fifth, one-third or a majority of the voting power of an issuing public corporation in the election of directors be approved by the shareholders of the issuing public corporation.

TAKEOVER OFFERS. Section 23-2-3.1 of the Indiana Corporation Law provides that a person shall not make a takeover offer unless the following conditions are satisfied: (1) a statement which consists of each document required to be filed with the Commission is filed with the Indiana securities commissioner and delivered to the president of the target company; (2) a consent to service of process and the requisite filing fee accompanies the statement filed with the Indiana securities commissioner; (3) the takeover offer is made to all offerees holding the same class of equity securities on substantially equivalent terms; (4) a hearing is held within 20 business days after required statements are filed; and (5) the Indiana securities commissioner shall have approved the takeover offer. A "takeover bid" includes an offer to acquire or an acquisition of any equity security of a target company pursuant to a tender offer or request or invitation for tenders if, after the acquisition, the offeror is directly or indirectly a record or beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of the outstanding equity securities of the target company. A "target company" means an issuer of securities which is organized under the laws of Indiana, has its principal place of business in Indiana and has substantial assets in Indiana.

The Ohio Revised Code contains certain provisions, including the ones described below, which purport to apply to certain types of share acquisitions or corporate transactions.

COMBINATION AND MAJORITY SHARE ACQUISITION. Section 1701.83 of the Ohio Revised Code (the "Majority Share Acquisition Statute") requires the directors and shareholders of an acquiring corporation to authorize transactions involving a combination or majority share acquisition if such transaction involves the issuance or transfer by the acquiring corporation of such numbers of its shares as entitle the holders to exercise one-sixth or more of the voting power of such corporation in the election of directors immediately after the consummation of such transaction.

CONTROL SHARE ACQUISITIONS. The Ohio Revised Code contains a provision (the "Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act") which, unless the articles or regulations of a corporation exempt the corporation (which CAF's Articles of Incorporation do not), requires that the acquisition by any person of more than one-fifth, one-third or a majority of the voting power of a publicly held corporation be approved by a majority of the voting power of the corporation excluding shares held by the potential acquiror or any officer or employee director of the corporation. The Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act requires shareholder approval of such an acquisition regardless of approval by the corporation's board of directors and requires that a special meeting of shareholders be held to vote on a proposed acquisition.

CONTROL BIDS. Chapter 1707 of the Ohio Revised Code purports to regulate control bids for the securities of a subject company by a tender offer. It would require a filing with the division of securities of Ohio and permit the division to call a hearing. A "control bid" includes the purchase of or offer to purchase any equity security of a subject company from a resident of Ohio if (1) after the purchase, the offeror would become the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of equity security of the issuer, or (2) the offeror is the subject company, there is a pending control bid by a person other than the issuer, and the number of issued and outstanding shares of the subject company would be reduced by over ten percent. A control bid does not include, among other things, an offer to acquire any equity security solely in exchange for any other equity security, or the acquisition of any equity security pursuant to an offer, for the sole account of the offeror, in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of the chapter, and not involving any public offering of the other security. The subject company includes an issuer that has (A) its principal place of business or principal executive office in Ohio, and (B) more than ten percent of its beneficial or equity security holders resident in Ohio, more than ten percent of its equity securities owned beneficially or of record by residents of Ohio, or more than one thousand of its beneficial or equity security holders resident in Ohio.

CERTAIN SHORT-TERM PROFITS. Chapter 1707 of the Ohio Revised Code generally requires a person or entity that makes a proposal, or publicly discloses an intention or possibility of making a proposal to acquire control of a corporation to repay to that corporation any profits of an aggregate of $250,000 or more made from dispositions of the company's stock within 18 months after making the control proposal, unless such person can establish either that his, her or its sole intention in making such proposal or disclosure was to succeed in acquiring control of the corporation or that the proposal or disclosure was not made with the purpose of affecting, and did not materially affect, market trading in the corporation's stock.

RIGHT TO BRING BUSINESS BEFORE AN ANNUAL OR SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Conseco Articles of Incorporation and the Conseco By-laws do not contain any restriction on the ability of shareholders to bring business before a special meeting of shareholders.

The CAF Code of Regulations provides that no business other than that specified in the call of a special meeting of the shareholders shall be considered at any special meeting. Special meetings of the shareholders of CAF shall be called upon the written request of the chairman of the board, the president, the directors by action at a meeting, a majority of the directors acting without a meeting, or of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise 50 percent of the voting power of CAF entitled to vote thereat. Unless waived, written notice of each annual or special meeting stating the time, place and the purposes thereof shall be given to each shareholder of CAF not more than 60 days nor less than seven days before any such meeting.

SHAREHOLDER ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

The Conseco By-laws specifically authorize shareholder action by written consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote on such action.

The Ohio Revised Code provides that unless the articles or the regulations prohibit the authorization or taking of any action of the shareholders without a meeting, any action which may be authorized or taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be authorized or taken without a meeting with the affirmative vote or approval of, and in a writing or writings signed by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting held for such purpose. Neither CAF's Articles of Incorporation nor Code of Regulations prohibit the authorization or taking of any action of the shareholders without a meeting and thus CAF's shareholders can take action by a written consent signed by all shareholders.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

The Conseco Articles of Incorporation provides for the board of directors to be divided into three classes. Under the Conseco By-laws, a director may be removed, either for or without cause, at any special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose, by the affirmative vote of a majority in number of shares of the shareholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote for the election of such director.

The CAF Code of Regulations provides for nine directors, all of whom hold office until the annual meeting next succeeding his or her election and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. Under the CAF Code of Regulations, a director may be removed either for cause or without cause by the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power entitling them to elect directors in place of those to be removed.

DIRECTOR LIABILITY

The Conseco Articles of Incorporation and the Conseco By-laws do not contain a specific exculpatory provision regarding director liability. The Indiana Corporation Law, however, provides that a director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, unless (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with Section 23-1-35-1 of the Indiana Corporation Law (which requires, among other things, that a director discharge his or her duties as a director in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation), and (2) the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

Similarly, the CAF Articles of Incorporation and the CAF Code of Regulations do not contain a specific exculpatory provision regarding director liability. However, Section 1701.59 of the Ohio Revised Code provides that a director is liable for any action he fails to take as a director only if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation. The Ohio Corporation Law further provides that a director shall not be found to have violated his duties unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that the director has not acted in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, or with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Indiana Corporation Law grants authorization to Indiana corporations to indemnify officers and directors for their conduct if such conduct was in good faith and was in the corporation's best interests or, in the case of directors, was not opposed to such best interests, and permits the purchase of insurance in this regard. In addition, the shareholders of a corporation may approve the inclusion of other or additional indemnification provisions in the articles of incorporation and by-laws.

The Ohio Revised Code grants authorization to Ohio corporations to indemnify officers and directors for their conduct if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; provided, however, if the indemnification relates to an action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, additional requirements must be satisfied prior to indemnification. The Ohio Revised Code permits corporations to purchase insurance in this regard. The indemnification provided in the Ohio Revised Code is in addition to any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification under the articles, regulations, any agreement, a vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

The Conseco By-laws provides for the indemnification of any person made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is a director, officer or employee of Conseco, unless it is adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such person is liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties. Such indemnification shall be against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by such person in connection with the defense of such action, suit or proceeding. In some circumstances, Conseco may reimburse any such person for the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if a majority of the members of the Board of Directors not involved in the controversy shall determine that it was in the interests of Conseco that such settlement be made and that such person was not guilty of negligence or misconduct.

The Conseco Articles of Incorporation and Conseco By-laws do not provide for the advancement of expenses. However, under the Indiana Corporation Law, a corporation may advance expenses if (1) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct called for by Section 23-1-37-8 of the Indiana Corporation Law (which states that a corporation may indemnify an individual made a part to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (A) the individual's conduct was in good faith; and (B) the individual reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in its best interests; and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual either: (i) had reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was lawful; or (ii) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful), (2) the director furnishes a written undertaking to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he or she did not meet such standard of conduct and
(3) a determination is made that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification under Indiana laws.

The CAF Code of Regulations provides that CAF shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she (1) is or was a director or officer of CAF or (2) is or was serving at the request of CAF as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of CAF, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

In addition, the CAF Code of Regulations provides that CAF shall indemnify any person who was or is threatened to be named a party to a proceeding by or in the right of CAF by reason of the fact that he or she (1) is or was a director or officer of CAF or (2) is or was serving at the request of CAF as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of CAF. However, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to CAF unless, and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas, or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses as the Court of Common Pleas or such court shall deem proper.

The CAF Code of Regulations provides that the right of indemnification shall include the right to be paid by CAF expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition as authorized by the directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by CAF. In the event of the death of any person having a right of indemnification, such right shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators. The rights conferred by the CAF Code of Regulations are not exclusive of any other right to which any person may be entitled under the CAF Articles of Incorporation, the CAF Code of Regulations or any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

DIVIDENDS AND REPURCHASES

Under the Indiana Corporation Law, a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders as long as the corporation's net assets are greater than zero, debts may be paid as they come due, and the payment of these distributions is consistent with the corporation's articles of incorporation.

Under the Ohio Revised Code, a corporation may pay dividends and distributions in an amount not to exceed the combination of the surplus of the corporation and the difference between (1) the reduction in surplus that results from the immediate recognition of the transition obligation under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 106, "Employers Accounting for Post Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions" ("SFAS No. 106"), issued by the financial accounting standards board, and (2) the aggregate amount of the transition obligation that would have been recognized as of the date of the declaration of a dividend or distribution if the Corporation had elected to amortize its recognition of the transition obligation under SFAS No. 106. Under the Ohio Revised Code, a corporation shall not purchase or redeem its own shares if immediately thereafter its assets would be less than its liabilities plus its stated capital, if any, or if the corporation is insolvent, or if there is reasonable ground to believe that by such purchase or redemption it would be rendered insolvent.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Under both Ohio and Indiana law, a shareholder is entitled, under certain circumstances, to receive payment of the fair value of the shareholder's common stock if the shareholder dissents from a proposed merger or consolidation, a share exchange or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation. Dissenters' rights will be available to CAF shareholders in connection with the Merger. See "The Merger Agreement -- Dissenting Shares."

The Indiana Corporation Law further provides that dissenters' rights can also be made applicable by affirmative provision in the articles of incorporation, bylaws or a Board of Directors' resolution, or by other actions requiring a shareholder vote. However, unlike the Ohio Revised Code, under the Indiana Corporation Law, dissenters' rights are unavailable to holders of shares registered on a national securities exchange or quoted on NASDAQ on the record date for a meeting of shareholders at which action on the proposed transaction otherwise subject to dissenters' rights is to be taken.

DIRECTOR AND OFFICER DISCRETION

Under Sections 23-1-35-1(d), (f), and (g) of the Indiana Corporation Law, in discharging his or her duties to the corporation and in determining what he or she believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, a director or officer may, in addition to considering the effects of any action on shareholders, consider the effects of the action on employees, suppliers, customers, the communities in which the corporation operates and any other factors that the director or officer considers pertinent.

Under Section 1701.59 of the Ohio Revised Code, a director, in determining what he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, shall consider the interests of the corporation's shareholders and, in his or her discretion, may consider any of the following: (1) the interests of the corporation's employees, suppliers, creditors and customers; (2) the economy of the state and nation; (3) community and societal considerations; and (4) the long-term as well as short-term interests of the corporation and its shareholders, including the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation.

The foregoing discussion of certain similarities and material differences between the rights of Conseco shareholders and the rights of CAF shareholders is only a summary of certain provisions and does not purport to be a complete description of such similarities and differences, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indiana Corporation Law and the common law thereunder, the Ohio Revised Code and the common law thereunder, and the full text of the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws or Code of Regulations, as the case may be, of Conseco and CAF.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of August 25, 1996 by and among Conseco, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Conseco"), CAF Acquisition Company, an Ohio corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Conseco ("CAF Acquisition"), and Capitol American Financial Corporation, an Ohio corporation (the "Company").

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Conseco, CAF Acquisition and the Company have approved the merger of CAF Acquisition with and into the Company, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, Conseco, CAF Acquisition and the Company desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with such merger and also to prescribe various conditions to such merger;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1 THE MERGER. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time (as such term is defined in Section 1.3 hereof), CAF Acquisition shall be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"), in accordance with the Ohio Revised Code (the "Ohio Code"), and the separate corporate existence of CAF Acquisition shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation under the laws of the State of Ohio (the "Surviving Corporation") with all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers, and subject to all the duties and liabilities, of a corporation organized under the Ohio Code. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in the Ohio Code.

1.2 CLOSING. Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated and the transactions herein contemplated shall have been abandoned pursuant to Section 7.1, and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI, the closing of the Merger (the "Closing") will take place at 9:00 a.m. on the second business day following the date on which the last to be fulfilled or waived of the conditions set forth in Article VI shall be fulfilled or waived in accordance with this Agreement (the "Closing Date"), at the office of Conseco in Carmel, Indiana, unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto.

1.3 EFFECTIVE TIME. The parties hereto will file with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio (the "Ohio Secretary of State") on the date of the Closing (or on such other date as Conseco and the Company may agree) a certificate of merger or other appropriate documents, executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Ohio Code, and make all other filings or recordings required under the Ohio Code in connection with the Merger. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State, or at such later time as is specified in the certificate of merger (the "Effective Time").

1.4 ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION. The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law.

1.5 CODE OF REGULATIONS. The Code of Regulations of CAF Acquisition, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Code of Regulations of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law.

1.6 DIRECTORS. The directors of CAF Acquisition at the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation and will hold office from the Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualify in the manner provided in the Articles of Incorporation and the Code of Regulations of the Surviving Corporation, or as otherwise provided by law.

1.7 OFFICERS. The officers of CAF Acquisition at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation.

1.8 CONVERSION OF CAF ACQUISITION SHARES. Each share of common stock of CAF Acquisition issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

1.9 CONVERSION OF SHARES. (a) Outstanding Shares. Each of the shares of common stock, without par value, of the Company (the "Shares") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Shares held as treasury shares by the Company or Dissenting Shares (as defined below)) including all outstanding Restricted Shares (as defined below) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into a right to receive (i) $30.00 in cash plus the Time Factor (as defined below), if any (collectively, the "Cash Consideration") and (ii) the fraction (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, without par value, of Consecro ("Consecro Common Stock") determined by dividing (x) $6.50 by (y) the Trading Value (as defined below). For purposes hereof, the term "Total Consideration Amount" shall mean the sum of the amount of the Cash Consideration and $6.50. The "Trading Value" shall be equal to the average of the closing prices of the Consecro Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") Composite Transactions Reporting System, as reported in The Wall Street Journal, for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the Effective Time. The "Time Factor", if any, shall be equal to $0.25 if the Effective Time shall not have occurred by December 10, 1996, which amount shall be increased by an additional $0.25 on the tenth day of each calendar month thereafter until the occurrence of the Effective Time. The Cash Consideration, the Consecro Common Stock to be issued to holders of Shares in accordance with this Section and any cash to be paid in accordance with Section 1.10 in lieu of fractional shares of Consecro Common Stock are referred to collectively as the "Merger Consideration."

(b) Treasury Shares. Each Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time which is then held as a treasury share by the Company or any of its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Company, be cancelled and retired and cease to exist, without any conversion thereof.

(c) Impact of Stock Splits, etc. In the event of any change in Consecro Common Stock between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time of the Merger by reason of any stock split, stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, combination, exchange of shares or the like, the number and class of shares of Consecro Common Stock to be issued and delivered in the Merger in exchange for each outstanding Share as provided in this Agreement and the calculation of all share prices provided for in this Agreement shall be proportionately adjusted.

(d) Company Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Shares which are held by the Company shareholders who shall have effectively dissented from the Merger and perfected their dissenters' rights in accordance with the provisions of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Code (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but the holders thereof shall be entitled to payment from the Surviving Corporation of the appraised value of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Code; provided, however, that if any such holder shall have failed to perfect such dissenters' rights or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such rights, his or her outstanding Shares shall thereupon be converted into and exchangeable for, as if completed at the Effective Time, the Merger Consideration, as determined and paid in the manner set forth in this Agreement, without any interest thereon. The Company shall give Consecro (i) prompt notice of any notice or demands for payment for Dissenting Shares pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Code received by the Company and (ii) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands or notices. The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Conseco, make any payment with respect to, to settle, offer to settle or otherwise negotiate, any such demands.

(e) Treatment of Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares. (i) Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.9(e) of the Disclosure Schedule (as defined below), immediately prior to the Effective Time, each outstanding unexpired employee or director stock option to purchase Shares ("Company Stock Option") and restricted stock right ("Restricted Shares") which have been granted pursuant to the Company's 1992 Equity Participation Plan, as amended to the date hereof (the "Company Stock Option Plan") shall be fully vested.

(ii) Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.9(e)(iii) or Section 1.9(e) of the Disclosure Schedule, at the Effective Time each Company Stock Option shall be deemed disposed to the Company in accordance with final Rule 16b-3 as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") pursuant to Release 34-37260 (May 31, 1996) ("New Section 16") and then converted automatically into an option (a "New Conseco Option") to purchase such number of shares of Conseco Common Stock (rounding the result to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) equal to the number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by the Conversion Ratio (as defined below), for an exercise price equal to the Adjusted Exercise Price (as defined below), but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the Company Stock Option Plan and the underlying stock option agreement. The "Conversion Ratio" shall mean the number determined by dividing the Total Consideration Amount by the Trading Value (rounding the result to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share). The "Adjusted Exercise Price" shall be determined by multiplying (A) the Trading Value by (B) the quotient of the current exercise price divided by Total Consideration Amount.

(iii) If prior to the Effective Time Conseco has given notice that any holder of a Company Stock Option who is an employee of the Company will not be asked to remain in his or her position beyond the period ending at the end of six months after the Effective Time, with respect to each Company Stock Option held by such person immediately prior to the Effective Time and, irrespective of the giving of any notice, with respect to each Company Stock Option held by a non-employee director of the Company, except as otherwise provided in Section 1.9(e) of the Disclosure Schedule, at the Effective Time such Company Stock Option shall be deemed disposed to the Company in accordance with New Section 16 and then converted automatically at the Effective Time into the right to receive an amount (the "Spread") in cash equal to the product of (A) the Total Consideration Amount minus the current exercise price thereof multiplied by (B) the total number of Shares subject thereto.

(iv) with respect to any holder of a Company Stock Option who is an employee of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time who does not receive the Spread at the Effective Time pursuant to Section 1.9(e)(iii), if the employment of such person shall be terminated prior to the end of the six month period after the Effective Time, with respect to each New Conseco Option held by such person at the time of termination of his employment, such New Conseco Option shall be deemed not to have been issued pursuant to Section 1.9(e)(ii) and the holder thereof shall be deemed to have disposed to the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time the Company Stock Options then held by such employee in accordance with New Section 16 and, with respect to each such Company Stock Option, then converted automatically into the right to receive the Spread, which Spread shall be payable to the employee in cash upon termination.

1.10 EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES. (a) Paying Agent. As of the Effective Time, Conseco shall deposit with its transfer agent and registrar (the "Paying Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of Shares, cash equal to the total Cash Consideration to be paid to holders of Shares pursuant to Section 1.9(a) and certificates representing the shares of Conseco Common Stock to be issued to holders of Shares pursuant to Section 1.9(a) (such cash and certificates, together with any dividends or distributions with respect to such certificates and cash payable pursuant to Section 1.10(f), being hereinafter referred to as the "Payment Fund").

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, each holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates which prior thereto represented Shares shall, upon surrender to the Paying Agent of such certificate or certificates and acceptance thereof by the Paying Agent, be entitled to (i) a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Conseco Common Stock (and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock as contemplated by this Section 1.10) which the aggregate number of Shares previously represented by such certificate or certificates surrendered shall have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to Section 1.9(a) of this Agreement, and (ii) cash equal to the amount of the Cash Consideration multiplied by the number of Shares previously represented by such certificate or certificates surrendered. The Paying Agent shall accept such certificates upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Paying Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. If the consideration to be paid in the Merger (or any portion thereof) is to be delivered to any person other than the person in whose name the certificate representing Shares surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition to such exchange that the certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Paying Agent any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment of such consideration to a person other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. After the Effective Time, there shall be no further transfer on the records of the Company or its transfer agent of certificates representing Shares and if such certificates are presented to the Company for transfer, they shall be cancelled against delivery of the Merger Consideration as hereinabove provided. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.10(b), each certificate representing Shares (other than certificates representing Shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 1.9(b)), shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon, as contemplated by Section 1.9. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable as Merger Consideration.

(c) Letter of Transmittal. Promptly after the Effective Time (but in no event more than five business days thereafter), the Surviving Corporation shall require the Paying Agent to mail to each record holder of certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares which have been converted pursuant to Section 1.9, a form of letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering such certificates and receiving the consideration to which such holder shall be entitled therefor pursuant to Section 1.9.

(d) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions with respect to Conseco Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares which have been converted pursuant to Section 1.9, until the surrender for exchange of such certificate in accordance with this Article 1. Following surrender for exchange of any such certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of such certificate, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to the number of whole shares of Conseco Common Stock into which the Shares represented by such certificate immediately prior to the Effective Time were converted pursuant to Section 1.9, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time, but prior to such surrender, and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of Conseco Common Stock.

(e) No Further Ownership Rights in Shares. The Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of certificates representing Shares in accordance with the terms of this Article I shall be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares theretofore represented by such certificates, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation (if any) to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared by the Company on such Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or prior to the date of this Agreement and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

(f) No Fractional Shares. (i) No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Conseco Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares which have been converted pursuant to Section 1.9, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of Conseco.

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, each holder of Shares who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Conseco Common Stock (after taking into account all certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Conseco Common Stock multiplied by the Trading Value.

(g) Termination of Payment Fund. Any portion of the Payment Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of the certificates representing Shares for 180 days after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Conseco, upon demand, and any holders of Shares who have not theretofore complied with this Article shall thereafter look only to Conseco and only as general creditors thereof for payment of their claim for any Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions with respect to Conseco Common Stock.

(h) Merger Consideration for Dissenting Shares. Any portion of the Merger Consideration together with any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 1.10(d) and cash for payment in lieu of fractional Shares deposited with the Paying Agent to pay for Dissenting Shares for which the right to receive a payment pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Code shall have been perfected shall be returned to the Surviving Corporation, upon demand.

(i) No Liability. None of Conseco, CAF Acquisition, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any cash, shares, dividends or distributions payable from the Payment Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. If any certificates representing Shares shall not have been surrendered prior to five years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which any Merger Consideration in respect of such certificate would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity (as defined in Section 2.3)), any such cash, shares, dividends or distributions payable in respect of such certificate shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

4.7 PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS. Conseco and CAF Acquisition, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, will consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other the opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange.

4.8 ACQUISITION PROPOSALS. The Company shall not, nor shall it permit any of its subsidiaries to, nor shall it authorize or permit any officer, director or employee of, or any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of, the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of any Acquisition Proposal (as herein after defined) or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 4.8 shall prohibit the Board of Directors of the Company from furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any person or a entity that makes an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal if, and only to the extent that (A) the Board of Directors of the Company, after consultation with and based upon the advice of outside counsel, determines in good faith that such action is necessary for the Board of Directors of the Company to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Company under applicable law and (B) prior to taking such action, the Company (x) provides reasonable notice to Conseco to the effect that it is taking such action and (y) receives from such person or entity an executed confidentiality agreement in reasonably customary form. outside counsel, that in order to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Company under applicable law it is necessary for the Board of Directors to withdraw or modify, in a manner materially adverse to Conseco or CAF Acquisition, its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger, approve or recommend such Acquisition Proposal, enter into an agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or terminate this Agreement. In the event the Board of Directors of the Company takes any of the foregoing actions, the Company shall, concurrently with the taking of any such action, pay to Conseco the Section 4.17 Fee (as defined below). Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any action by the Board of Directors permitted by this Section 4.9 shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Company.

4.10 CONSENTS, APPROVALS AND FILINGS. The Company and Conseco will make and cause their respective subsidiaries to make all necessary filings, as soon as practicable, including, without limitation, those required under the HSR Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and applicable state insurance laws in order to facilitate prompt consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In addition, the Company and Conseco will each use their best efforts, and will cooperate fully with each other (i) to comply as promptly as practicable with all governmental requirements applicable to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) to obtain as promptly as practicable all necessary permits, orders or other consents of Governmental Entities and consents of all third parties necessary for the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of the Company and Conseco shall use best efforts to promptly provide such information and communications to Governmental Entities as such Governmental Entities may reasonably request. Each of the parties shall provide to the other party copies of all applications in advance of filing or submission of such applications to Governmental Entities in connection with this Agreement and shall make such revisions thereto as reasonably requested by such other party. Each party shall provide to the other party the opportunity to participate in all meetings and material conversations with Governmental Entities.

4.11 EMPLOYEE MATTERS. (i) From and after the Effective Time, Conseco shall, with respect to benefits accrued, honor in accordance with their respective terms the employee benefit plans, programs, policies, arrangements and agreements listed on Section 4.11 of the Disclosure Schedule (the "Section 4.11 Plans") and shall not take, or permit to be taken, any action that would reduce, eliminate or otherwise adversely affect the compensation accrued or benefits accrued at the Effective Time (or, if greater, at termination of employment after the Effective Time) for any employee or former employee of the Company or any Company Affiliate under any Section 4.11 Plan. For purposes of any Section 4.11 Plan that contains a provision relating to a change in control of the Company, Conseco acknowledges that the consummation of the Merger constitutes such a change in control.

(ii) For the year ending December 31, 1996, the Company or the Surviving Corporation shall pay to each employee of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries who is entitled to receive a cash bonus under the bonus arrangement established by the Company prior to the date of this Agreement (the "Bonus") and who is an employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time (each, a "Bonus Payee"), one or more cash payments as follows: (a) with respect to the non-discretionary portion of the Bonus, the amount thereof shall be calculated in accordance with the terms of the Bonus and shall be paid at the time it is determined in accordance with past practice, whether or not any Bonus Payee is then an employee of the Company or the Surviving Corporation; provided, that if the employment with the Company of any Bonus Payee is terminated between the Effective Time and December 31, 1996, such Bonus Payee shall be entitled to receive a prorated portion thereof based on the number of days that such Bonus Payee was employed by the Company or the Surviving Corporation during the year ending December 31, 1996 (the "Prorated Portion") and (b) with respect to the discretionary portion of the Bonus, the amount thereof shall equal 75% of the amount previously established by the Company as the maximum to be paid as a discretionary award for 1996, which amount shall be paid in cash at the earlier of (i) the time of the payment of the non-discretionary portion of the Bonus and (ii) termination of any Bonus Payee's employment with the Company or the Surviving Corporation; provided, that if the employment with the Company of any Bonus Payee is terminated between the Effective Time and December 31, 1996, upon termination such Bonus Payee shall be paid the Prorated Portion.

4.12 AFFILIATES AND CERTAIN SHAREHOLDERS. Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Consecoco a letter identifying all persons who are, at the time the Merger is submitted for approval to the shareholders of the Company, "affiliates" of the Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. The Company shall use its best efforts to cause each such person to deliver to Consecoco on or prior to the Closing Date a written agreement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Disclosure Schedule. Consecoco shall not be required to maintain the effectiveness of the Form S-4 or any other registration statement under the Securities Act for the purposes of resale of Consecoco Common Stock by such affiliates. Consecoco Common Stock received by such affiliates in the Merger shall bear a customary legend regarding applicable Securities Act restrictions and the provisions of this Agreement.

If any such affiliate is unable because of the volume limitations of Rule 144 of the SEC to sell pursuant to Rule 144 the shares of Consecoco Common Stock received by such affiliate as Merger Consideration and still held by such affiliate, such affiliate shall have the right, for so long as any such balance of the affiliate's Merger Consideration is not eligible for immediate sale under the applicable provisions of Rule 144, to require Consecoco to elect, in Consecoco's sole discretion, with respect to such balance, either to (i) acquire such shares directly from such affiliate at the current market price, (ii) amend the Form S-4 and maintain its effectiveness to provide for registration of such shares or (iii) file promptly and in any event within 10 business days a Registration Statement on Form S-3 with the SEC to register such shares for resale by such affiliate and provide customary indemnities with respect thereto.

4.13 NYSE LISTING. Consecoco shall use its best efforts to cause the shares of Consecoco Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

4.14 SHAREHOLDER LITIGATION. The Company shall give Consecoco the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any shareholder litigation against the Company and its directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that no such settlement shall be agreed to without Consecoco's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.15 INDEMNIFICATION. (a) The articles of incorporation and the code of regulations of the Surviving Corporation and each of its subsidiaries shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and the Code of Regulations of the Company or the respective Subsidiary, as the case may be, on the date of this Agreement, and such provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years after the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who at any time prior to the Effective Time were directors or officers of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (the "Indemnified Parties") in respect of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), unless such modification is required by law. Consecoco agrees to be jointly and severally liable for the indemnification obligations of the Company to the Indemnified Parties, as set forth above.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, Consecoco shall honor in accordance with their respective terms the indemnification agreements identified in Section 4.15 of the Disclosure Schedule and shall not take, or permit to be taken, any action that would reduce, eliminate or otherwise adversely affect the rights of the persons entitled to indemnification thereunder.

(c) For a period of two years after the Effective Time, Consecoco shall cause to be maintained officers' and directors' liability insurance covering the Indemnified Parties who are currently covered, in their capacities as officers and directors, by the Company's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policies on terms substantially no less advantageous to the Indemnified Parties than such existing insurance.

(d) The provisions of this Section 4.15 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his heirs and his personal representatives and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Conseco, CAF Acquisition, the Company and the Surviving Corporation.

4.16 CAPITOL INSURANCE COMPANY OF OHIO. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to have control of Capitol Insurance Company of Ohio, a mutual association organized under the Ohio Non-Profit Corporation Law, transferred to Conseco.

4.17 CERTAIN FEES. The Company shall pay to Conseco upon demand $15 million (the "Section 4.17 Fee"), payable in same-day funds, if a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is commenced, publicly proposed, publicly disclosed or communicated to the Company (or the willingness of any person to make such an Acquisition Proposal is publicly disclosed or communicated to the Company) and the Board of Directors of the Company, in accordance with Section 4.9, withdraws or modifies in a manner materially adverse to Conseco its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger, approves or recommends such Acquisition Proposal, enters into an agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or terminates this Agreement.

without providing to Consecro (i) written notice of any such meeting or any proposed action by written consent at the same time such notice or action is provided to the directors and (ii) an agenda of any specific matters to be considered at such meeting or a copy of the proposed written consent; or (xiii) authorize any of, or commit or agree to take any of, the foregoing actions.

5.2 CONDUCT OF BUSINESS BY CONSECO. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, Consecro shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries to, carry on their respective businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course in substantially the same manner as heretofore conducted and, to the extent consistent therewith, use all reasonable efforts to preserve intact their current business organizations, keep available the services of their current officers and employees and preserve their relationships with customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees, distributors and others having business dealings with them to the end that their goodwill and ongoing businesses shall be unimpaired at the Effective Time. Except as set forth in Sections 3.5 or 5.2 of the Consecro Disclosure Schedule, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, Consecro shall not, and shall not permit any of its subsidiaries to:

(i) (x) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on, or make any other distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) in respect of, any outstanding capital stock of Consecro (other than regular quarterly cash dividends of $.0625 per share of Consecro Common Stock and regular cash dividends on the Consecro Series D Preferred Stock and the Consecro PRIDES, in each case with usual record and payment dates and in accordance with Consecro's Articles of Incorporation and its present dividend policy) or (y) split, combine or reclassify any of its outstanding capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of Consecro's outstanding capital stock;

(ii) issue, sell, grant, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of its capital stock, any other voting securities or any securities convertible into, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire, any such shares, voting securities or convertible securities, in each case if any such action could reasonably be expected to (A) delay materially the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or, (B) if it were to occur after such date of mailing, require an amendment of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus;

(iii) acquire any business or any corporation, partnership, joint venture, association or other business organization or division thereof, in each case if any such action could reasonably be expected to (A) delay materially the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or, (B) if it were to occur after such date of mailing, require an amendment of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus; or

(iv) authorize any of, or commit or agree to take any of, the foregoing actions.

5.3 STOCK OPTIONS AND RESTRICTED SHARES. (i) The Company agrees to use its best efforts, including without limitation additional actions by its Board of Directors or the committee thereof which administers the Company Stock Option Plan, to cause to be made such clarifications, modifications, amendments or supplements to the Company Stock Option Plan and to the agreements evidencing outstanding Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares to give effect to the desires and intentions of the parties with respect to Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares as contemplated by this Agreement, including the following:

(a) The treatment of the Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares in accordance with Section 1.9; and

(b) The Board of Directors of the Company shall approve the disposition of Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares to the Company pursuant to Section 1.9(e) in accordance with New Section 16 in a manner intended to exempt the disposition from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

(ii) Consecro agrees to use its best efforts, including without limitation additional actions by its Board of Directors or the committee thereof which administers compensation, to give effect to the following desires and intentions of the parties with respect to Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares which remain outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time:

(a) Conseco shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Conseco Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of the New Conseco Options. Following the Effective Time, Conseco will issue the Conseco Common Shares required to be issued upon the exercise of any New Conseco Options as provided in Section 1.9. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Conseco shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor form) or another appropriate form with respect to the shares of Conseco Common Stock subject to the New Conseco Options and shall use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as New Conseco Options remain outstanding.

(b) The Board of Directors of Conseco shall approve the grant of the New Conseco Options in accordance with New Section 16 in a manner intended to exempt the grant from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) The parties agree that after the date hereof, except for the Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares outstanding on the date hereof and the changes thereto, as described in the Disclosure Schedule, no options, warrants or other rights of any kind to purchase capital stock of the Company shall be granted or made, under the Company Stock Plan or otherwise, and no amendment, repricing or other change to the outstanding Company Stock Options and Restricted Shares shall be made, without the prior written consent of Conseco, and any such grant, issuance, amendment, repricing or other change without Conseco's consent shall be null, void and unenforceable against the Surviving Corporation or Conseco.

5.4 OTHER ACTIONS. Except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement, the Company and Conseco shall not, and shall not permit any of their respective subsidiaries to, take any action that would, or that could reasonably be expected to, result in (i) any of the representations and warranties of such party set forth in this Agreement becoming untrue as of the date of this Agreement in any material respect or (ii) any of the conditions of the Merger set forth in Article VI not being satisfied.

5.5 CONDUCT OF BUSINESS OF CAF ACQUISITION. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, CAF Acquisition shall not engage in any activities of any nature except as provided in or contemplated by this Agreement.

5.6 INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS. Except with respect to investments classified on the date of this Agreement as "held-to-maturity" under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" ("SFAS 115"), the Company agrees to enter into, and to cause each of its Subsidiaries to enter into, an investment advisory agreement with Conseco Capital Management, Inc. ("CCM"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Conseco. Such agreements shall be effective as of the date of this Agreement and shall contain terms and conditions which are customary in investment advisory agreements between CCM and its clients.

5.7 CERTAIN COMPANY ACTIONS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Directors of the Company and its officers and employees shall be entitled to take all actions necessary, appropriate or desirable to cause the stay pay and severance arrangements identified in Section 5.1 of the Disclosure Schedule and for the special cash bonus described in Section 1.9(e) to the Disclosure Schedule to be adopted and implemented and all payments identified in such Sections 1.9(e) and 5.1 of the Disclosure Schedule to be paid as provided therein.

ARTICLE VI

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

6.1 CONDITIONS TO EACH PARTY'S OBLIGATION TO EFFECT THE MERGER. The respective obligation of each party to effect the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver on or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

- (a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been adopted by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of the Company entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders of the Company are entitled to cast thereon.
- (b) Governmental and Regulatory Consents. All required consents, approvals, permits and authorizations to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by the Company, Consecos and CAF Acquisition shall be obtained from (i) the Insurance Regulators in the jurisdictions set forth in Section 2.3 of the Disclosure Schedule, and (ii) any other Governmental Entity whose consent, approval, permission or authorization is required by reason of a change in law after the date of this Agreement, unless the failure to obtain such consent, approval, permission or authorization would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or on the validity or enforceability of this Agreement; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that all governmental and regulatory consents required hereunder shall have been obtained except the approval of the Insurance Regulator of any life insurance subsidiary of the Company, which does not constitute a "significant subsidiary" (within the meaning of Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X of the SEC) of the Company (a "Non-Significant Life Subsidiary") to the transfer of control of such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary, then, subject to Article VII hereof, at any time thereafter at the option of Consecos, the parties shall take one of the following actions with respect to such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary and otherwise proceed to consummate the Merger in accordance with this Agreement: (a) place into escrow, pursuant to an escrow agreement reasonably acceptable to the parties, the outstanding shares of capital stock of such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary; such escrow agreement shall contain customary provisions concerning duties and responsibilities of the escrow agent and payment of the fees and expenses of the escrow agent and shall provide that (i) pending transfer of control of the Non-Significant Life Subsidiary to Consecos, its current Board of Directors shall retain all power to vote its shares of capital stock and to direct its business not inconsistent with this Agreement, (ii) promptly following receipt of the approval of the Insurance Regulator, control of the capital stock of such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary shall be transferred to Consecos and (iii) at any time following June 30, 1997 and prior to receipt of the Insurance Regulator's approval, Consecos may elect to terminate the escrow agreement, in which event such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary shall be liquidated and dissolved and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to Consecos; (b) cause such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary to surrender its certificate of authority to do business in its state of domicile; (c) cause such Non-Significant Life Subsidiary to commence proceedings for its liquidation and dissolution; (d) enter into an agreement for the sale and transfer of the Non-Significant Life Subsidiary to a third party; or (e) take such other action as may be mutually agreeable to the Company and Consecos.
- (c) HSR Act. The waiting period (and any extension thereof) applicable to the Merger under the HSR Act shall have been terminated or shall have otherwise expired.
- (d) No Injunctions or Restraints. No temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Merger shall be in effect; provided, however, that the parties invoking this condition shall use best reasonable efforts to have any such order or injunction vacated.
- (e) NYSE Listing. The shares of Consecos Common Stock issuable to the Company's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

(f) Form S-4. The Form S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act and shall not be the subject of any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order.

6.2 CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATIONS OF CONSECO AND CAF ACQUISITION. The obligations of Consecoco and CAF Acquisition to effect the Merger are further subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement shall have been true and correct on the date of this Agreement (except to the extent that they expressly relate only to an earlier time, in which case they shall have been true and correct as of such earlier time) other than such breaches of representations and warranties which in the aggregate (after disregarding any qualification with respect to a material adverse effect in Section 2.11(iii)) would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole. The Company shall have delivered to Consecoco a certificate dated as of the Closing Date, signed by its Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer, in their capacities as officers of the Company, to the effect set forth in this Section 6.2(a).

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and Consecoco shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date signed on behalf of the Company by the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of the Company to such effect.

(c) Shareholders Agreement. The Shareholders thereunder shall have complied with their respective obligations under the Shareholders Agreement, dated the date hereof, by and among Consecoco and the shareholders of the Company parties thereto (the "Shareholders Agreement").

6.3 CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATION OF THE COMPANY. The obligation of the Company to effect the Merger is further subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Consecoco and CAF Acquisition contained in this Agreement shall have been true and correct on the date of this Agreement (except to the extent that they expressly relate only to an earlier time, in which case they shall have been true and correct as of such earlier time), other than such breaches of representations and warranties which in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Consecoco and its subsidiaries taken as a whole. Consecoco shall have delivered to the Company a certificate dated as of the Closing Date, signed by its Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer, in their capacities as officers of Consecoco, to the effect set forth in this Section 6.3(a).

(b) Performance of Obligations of Consecoco and CAF Acquisition. Consecoco and CAF Acquisition shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and the Company shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date signed on behalf of Consecoco by the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of Consecoco to such effect.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

7.1 TERMINATION. This Agreement may be terminated and abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual written consent of Conseco and the Company;

(b) by either Conseco or the Company:

(i) if, upon a vote at a duly held Shareholders Meeting or any adjournment thereof, any required approval of the shareholders of the Company shall not have been obtained;

(ii) if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before March 31, 1997, unless the failure to consummate the Merger is the result of a willful and material breach of this Agreement by the party seeking to terminate this Agreement;

(iii) if any Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; or

(iv) if the Board of Directors of the Company shall have exercised its rights set forth in Section 4.9 of this Agreement.

7.2 EFFECT OF TERMINATION. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either the Company or Conseco as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of Conseco, CAF Acquisition or the Company, other than the last two sentences of Section 4.5 and Sections 2.14, 3.8, 4.17, 7.2 and 10.2. Nothing contained in this Section shall relieve any party from any liability resulting from any material breach of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement.

7.3 AMENDMENT. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Ohio Code, at any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto may modify or amend this Agreement, by written agreement executed and delivered by duly authorized officers of the respective parties; provided, however, that after approval of the Merger by the shareholders of the Company, no amendment shall be made which reduces the consideration payable in the Merger or adversely affects the rights of the Company's shareholders hereunder without the approval of such shareholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

7.4 EXTENSION; WAIVER. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or (c) subject to Section 7.3, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other parties contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

7.5 PROCEDURE FOR TERMINATION, AMENDMENT, EXTENSION OR WAIVER. A termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, an amendment of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.3 or an extension or waiver pursuant to Section 7.4 shall, in order to be effective, require in the case of Conseco, CAF Acquisition or the Company action by its Board of Directors or the duly authorized designee of its Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII

SURVIVAL OF PROVISIONS

8.1 SURVIVAL. The representations and warranties respectively required to be made by the Company, Conseco and CAF Acquisition in this Agreement, or in any certificate, respectively, delivered by the Company or Conseco pursuant to Section 6.2 or Section 6.3 hereof will not survive the Closing.

ANNEX B

DONALDSON, LUIFKIN & JENRETTE LOGO

August 25, 1996

Board of Directors
Capitol American Financial Corporation
1001 Lakeside Avenue
Cleveland, OH 44114

Dear Sirs:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Capitol American Financial Corporation (the "Company") of the consideration to be received by such shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger to be dated as of August 25, 1996 (the "Agreement"), by and among Conseco, Inc. ("Conseco"), Capitol American Acquisition Corp. (the "Acquisition Subsidiary"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Conseco, and the Company, pursuant to which Acquisition Subsidiary will be merged (the "Merger") with and into the Company whereby the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Conseco.

Pursuant to the Agreement, each share of common stock, without par value, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive, subject to certain exceptions, (i) $30.00 in cash (subject to increase as provided in the Agreement) and (ii) the fraction of a share of common stock, without par value, of Conseco ("Conseco Common Stock") determined by dividing $6.50 by the average of the closing prices of Conseco Common Stock for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the consummation of the Merger.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the draft of August 24, 1996 of the Agreement and the exhibits thereto and the draft of August 20, 1996 of the Shareholders Agreement by and among Conseco, Inc. and Barry J. Hershey and Connie Hershey. We have also reviewed financial and other information that was publicly available or furnished to us by the Company and Conseco, including information provided during discussions with their respective managements. Included in the information provided during discussions with the respective managements were certain financial projections of the Company for the years ending December 31, 1996 through December 31, 1998, and certain financial statements of Conseco which are pro forma for the Merger and for certain other transactions contemplated by Conseco for the year ended December 31, 1995 and the six months ended June 30, 1996 and certain financial projections of Conseco which are pro forma for the Merger and for certain other transactions contemplated by Conseco for the years ending December 31, 1996 through December 31, 2005 prepared by the management of Conseco. In addition, we have compared certain financial and securities data of the Company and Conseco with certain financial and securities data of various other companies whose securities are traded in public markets, reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of Company Common Stock and Conseco Common Stock, reviewed prices and premiums paid in other business combinations and conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate for purposes of this opinion.

In rendering our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by the Company and Conseco or its representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us. With respect to the financial projections of the Company supplied to us, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the future operating and financial performance of the Company. With respect to the pro forma financial statements and pro forma financial projections of Conseco supplied to us, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Conseco as to the historical pro forma results of Conseco and future operating and financial performance of the Company and Conseco. We have not assumed any responsibility for an independent evaluation of the Company's and Conseco's assets or liabilities or for making any independent verification of any of the information reviewed by us. We have relied as to all legal matters on advice of counsel to the Company.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they exist on, and on the information made available to us as of, the date of this letter. It should be understood that, although subsequent developments may affect this opinion, we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the prices at which Conseco Common Stock will actually trade at any time. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any member of the Board of Directors of the Company or shareholder as to how such member or shareholder should vote on the proposed transaction.

Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette Securities Corporation ("DLJ"), as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, sales and distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. DLJ has performed investment banking and other services for the Company and Conseco in the past and has received usual and customary compensation for such services.

Based upon the foregoing and such other factors as we deem relevant, we are of the opinion that the consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to the terms of the Agreement is fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX C

APPRAISAL DISSENTER'S RIGHTS

SECTION 1701.85 OHIO REVISED CODE

(A)(1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.

(2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which he seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal. Not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to him of the fair cash value of the shares as to which he seeks relief, which demand shall state his address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by him as the fair cash value of the shares.

(3) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (C) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (E) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which he seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after he has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(2) of this section.

(4) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation.

(5) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in his demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which he seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation, the certificates requested so that the corporation may forthwith endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return such endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver such certificates terminates his rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of such shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only such rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to such a complaint is required. Upon the filing of such a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from such evidence as is submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have such power and authority as is specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at such rate and from such date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505 of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to such payment. In the case of holder of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken, and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing such fair cash value, any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders shall be excluded.

(D)(1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive such fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which he seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption, of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws his demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division;

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger or consolidation has become effective and the surviving or new entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the general partners of a surviving or new partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving or new entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

PART II.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN THE PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The Indiana Corporation Law grants authorization to Indiana corporations to indemnify officers and directors for their conduct if such conduct was in good faith and was in the corporation's best interests or, in the case of directors, was not opposed to such best interests, and permits the purchase of insurance in this regard. In addition, the shareholders of a corporation may approve the inclusion of other or additional indemnification provisions in the articles of incorporation and by-laws.

The By-laws of Conseco provides for the indemnification of any person made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he is a director, officer or employee of Conseco, unless it is adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such person is liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties. Such indemnification shall be against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by such person in connection with the defense of such action, suit or proceeding. In some circumstances, Conseco may reimburse any such person for the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if a majority of the members of the Board of Directors not involved in the controversy shall determine that it was in the interests of Conseco that such settlement be made and that such person was not guilty of negligence or misconduct.

The above discussion of Conseco's By-laws and the Indiana Corporation Law is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such By-laws and the Indiana Corporation Law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person thereof in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by a director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) That every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment, shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement;

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
