Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. Invests $10.0 Million in High Sierra Energy, LP Common Units

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. - June 15, 2007 - Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. (NYSE: TTO) today announced that it has invested $10.0 million in High Sierra Energy, LP. The investment represents the purchase of common units in the partnership. Previously, Tortoise Capital Resources invested $14.8 million in High Sierra Energy, LP units and $2.25 million in its general partner.

"We have been pleased with High Sierra Energy's performance since our original investment, and are excited to make an additional investment to support the company's expansion," said Tortoise Capital Resources' President, Ed Russell. "We believe that the company's organic growth combined with selective acquisitions will further enhance stockholder returns."

Founded in 2004, Denver-based High Sierra Energy, LP is a holding company with diversified midstream energy assets focused on the processing, transportation and marketing of hydrocarbons. High Sierra's purchased assets include a natural gas liquids logistics and transportation business in Colorado, natural gas gathering and processing operations in Louisiana, a natural gas storage facility in Mississippi, an ethanol terminal in Nevada, crude and natural gas liquids trucking businesses in Kansas and Colorado, a well water processing facility in Wyoming and two asphalt processing, packaging and distribution terminals in Florida.

Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. has invested (excluding short-term investments) approximately $122.7 million, including equity investments in 12 portfolio companies of approximately $113.9 million and debt investments in two portfolio companies of approximately $8.8 million.
