Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. Withdraws its Election to be Treated as a Business Development Company

Sep 21, 2011 - LEAWOOD, Kan.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. (NYSE: TTO) today announced that it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the withdrawal of its election to be treated as a business development company. TTO is now focusing on making real asset investments in the U.S. energy infrastructure sector rather than making investments in securities. If TTO finds sufficient, suitable, REIT-qualifying investments during the remainder of 2011 and holds them for calendar year 2012, then TTO could qualify as a REIT for the 2012 tax year. The change follows the earlier authorization by a majority vote at the company's annual stockholder meeting held on April 8, 2011 to enable TTO to make such change at the appropriate time.

"We believe that TTO can provide public market investors with access to the desirable investment characteristics of the infrastructure asset class, in an investor-friendly REIT structure," said Chief Executive Officer David Schulte. "Our belief is that our risk and return characteristics can then be compared favorably to utilities and other REITs."
