AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

Section 1.01. Definitions. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in Annex X.

Section 1.02. Rules of Construction. For purposes of this Agreement, the rules of construction set forth in Annex X shall govern. All Appendices hereto, or expressly identified to this Agreement, are incorporated herein by reference and, taken together with this Agreement, shall constitute but a single agreement.

ARTICLE II TRANSFERS OF RECEIVABLES

Section 2.01. Agreement to Transfer.

(a) Receivables Transfers. Under the Existing Transfer Agreement, each of the Transferors (other than the New Transferors) sold or contributed to Buyer on each respective "Transfer Date" (as defined in the Existing Transfer Agreement) all Receivables sold or purported to be sold pursuant to the Existing Sale Agreement (as defined in the Sale Agreement) on each such "Transfer Date," and Buyer purchased or acquired as a capital contribution all such Receivables on each such "Transfer Date." Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, each Transferor agrees to sell (without recourse except to the limited extent specifically provided herein) or contribute to Buyer on the Second Restatement Effective Date and on each Business Day thereafter (each such date, a "Transfer Date") until the Facility Termination Date, all Receivables sold or purportedly sold to such Transferor pursuant to the Sale Agreement on each such Transfer Date, and Buyer agrees to purchase or acquire as a capital contribution all such Receivables on each such Transfer Date. All such Transfers by a Transferor to Buyer shall collectively be evidenced by a certificate of assignment substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.01(a) (each, a "Receivables Assignment" and, collectively, the "Receivables Assignments"), and each Transferor and Buyer has previously executed and delivered a Receivables Assignment on or before the Second Restatement Effective Date.

(b) Determination of Sold Receivables. On and as of each Transfer Date, to the extent Receivables then owned by a Transferor (including all Receivables sold or purportedly sold to such Transferor pursuant to the Sale Agreement) have not been contributed to Buyer in accordance with Section 2.01(d), such Receivables shall be immediately sold to Buyer (each such Receivable sold, individually, a "Sold Receivable" and, collectively, the "Sold Receivables").

Amended and Restated Receivables Transfer and Servicing Agreement

(c) Payment of Sale Price. Subject to subparagraph (d) below, in consideration for each Sale of Sold Receivables hereunder, Buyer shall pay to each Transferor thereof on the Transfer Date therefor the applicable Sale Price therefor in Dollars in immediately available funds. All cash payments by Buyer under this Section 2.01(c) shall be effected by means of a wire transfer on the day when due to such account or accounts as such Transferor may designate from time to time.

(d) Determination of Contributed Receivables. Prior to the delivery of an Election Notice, on each Transfer Date on which Buyer cannot pay the Sale Price therefore in cash, the applicable Transferor shall identify Receivables then owned by it which have not been previously acquired by Buyer, and shall, unless it delivers an Election Notice on such date, contribute such Receivables as a capital contribution to the Buyer (each such contributed Receivable, individually, a “Contributed Receivable,” and collectively, the “Contributed Receivables”), to the extent Buyer cannot so pay the Sale Price therefor in cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the applicable Transferor shall not be obligated to make additional contributions to Buyer at any time. If on any Transfer Date such Transferor elects not to contribute Receivables to Buyer when the Buyer cannot pay the Sale Price therefore in cash, such Transferor shall deliver to Buyer not later than 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately preceding such Transfer Date a notice of election thereof (each such notice, an “Election Notice”).

(e) Ownership of Transferred Receivables. On and after each Transfer Date and after giving effect to the Transfers to be made on each such date, Buyer shall own the Transferred Receivables and no Transferor shall take any action inconsistent with such ownership nor shall any Transferor claim any ownership interest in such Transferred Receivables.

(f) Reconstruction of General Trial Balance. If at any time any Transferor fails to generate its General Trial Balance, Buyer shall have the right to reconstruct such General Trial Balance so that a determination of the Sold Receivables and Contributed Receivables can be made pursuant to Section 2.01(b). Each Transferor agrees to cooperate with such reconstruction, including by delivery to Buyer, upon Buyer’s request, of copies of all Records.

(g) Servicing of Receivables. So long as no Event of Servicer Termination shall have occurred and be continuing and no Successor Servicer has assumed the responsibilities and obligations of the Servicer pursuant to Section 9.02, the Servicer shall (i) conduct the servicing, administration and collection of the Transferred Receivables and shall take, or cause to be taken, all such actions as may be necessary or advisable to service, administer and collect the Transferred Receivables, all in accordance with (A) the terms of this Agreement, (B) customary and prudent servicing procedures for trade receivables of a similar type and (C) all applicable laws, rules and regulations, and (ii) hold all Contracts and other documents and incidents relating to the Transferred Receivables in trust for the benefit of Buyer, as the owner thereof, and for the sole purpose of facilitating the servicing of the Transferred Receivables in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Buyer hereby instructs the Servicer, and the Servicer hereby acknowledges, that the Servicer shall hold all Contracts and other documents relating to such Transferred Receivables in trust for the benefit of the Buyer and the Servicer’s retention and possession of such Contracts and documents shall at all times be solely in a custodial capacity for the benefit of the Buyer and its assigns and pledgees.

(h) Repurchases of Receivables. If an Originator is required to repurchase Receivables from a Transferor pursuant to Section 4.04 of the Sale Agreement, upon payment by such Originator to a Collection Account of the applicable repurchase price thereof (which repurchase price shall not be less than an amount equal to the Billed Amount of such Receivable minus Collections received in respect thereof), the Buyer shall convey all of its rights, title and interests in the Receivables being so repurchased free and clear of any Adverse Claim.

Section 2.02. Purchase and Sale. The parties hereto intend that each Transfer shall be absolute and shall constitute a purchase and sale or capital contribution, as applicable, and not a loan. The parties hereto intend that this Agreement shall constitute a “sale of accounts” or “sale of payment intangibles” (as such terms are used in Article 9 of the UCC) and therefor this Agreement is intended to create a “security interest” relating to a sale of accounts (and shall constitute a “security agreement” relating to a sale of accounts) within the meaning of Article 9 of the UCC. Pursuant to this Agreement each Transferor shall have assigned, conveyed and transferred to Buyer all of such Transferor’s right, title and interest in, to and under (i) the Transferred Receivables and any Receivables purported to be transferred hereunder, in each case, whether now owned or hereafter acquired by such Transferor, (ii) the Sale Agreement and (iii) the Originator Support Agreement.

Section 2.03. Transferors or Originators Remain Liable. It is expressly agreed by each Transferor that, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, such Transferor or the applicable Originator, as the case may be, shall remain liable to the Obligor (and any other party to the related Contract) under any and all of the Receivables originated by it and under the Contracts therefor to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder. Buyer shall not have any obligation or liability to the Obligor or any other party to the related Contract under any such Receivables or Contracts by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the assignment to the Buyer thereof or the receipt by Buyer of any payment relating thereto pursuant hereto. The exercise by Buyer of any of its rights under this Agreement shall not release such Transferor or the applicable Originator, as the case may be, from any of its respective duties or obligations under any such Receivables or Contracts. Buyer shall not be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of any Transferor or the applicable Originator, as the case may be, under or pursuant to any such Receivable or Contract, or to make any payment, or to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any such Receivable or Contract, or to present or file any claims, or to take any action to collect or enforce any performance or the payment of any amounts that may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time or times.

Section 2.04. Sale Price Credits. If on any day the Outstanding Balance of a Receivable is reduced or canceled as a result of any Dilution Factor then, in such event, the Buyer shall be entitled to a credit (each, a “Sale Price Credit”) against the Sale Price otherwise payable hereunder in an amount equal to the amount of such reduction or cancellation. If the Facility Termination Date has occurred or such Sale Price Credit exceeds the Sale Price of the Receivables being sold by the applicable Transferor on any such day, then such Transferor shall pay the remaining amount of such Sale Price Credit in cash promptly (and in any event within one (1) Business Day) thereafter.

Section 2.05. Transferor's Agreements. Each Transferor hereby (a) assigns, transfers and conveys the benefits of the representations, warranties, covenants and all other agreements and undertakings of the related Originator made to such Transferor under the Sale Agreement to the Buyer hereunder; (b) acknowledges and agrees that the rights of such Transferor to require payment of a Rejected Amount from an Originator under the Sale Agreement may be enforced by the Buyer; (c) certifies that the Sale Agreement provides that the representations, warranties and covenants described in Sections 4.01, 4.03 and 4.04 thereof, the indemnification and payment provisions of Article V thereof and the provisions of Sections 4.03(k), 6.12, 6.14 and 6.15 thereof shall survive the sale of the Transferred Receivables (and undivided percentage ownership interests therein) and the termination of the Sale Agreement and this Agreement; (d) agrees that the rights and remedies of such Transferor under the Sale Agreement may be exercised by the Buyer as assignee of such Transferor; (e) assigns, transfers and conveys the benefits of the representations, warranties, covenants and all other agreements and undertakings of the Parent made to such Transferor under the Originator Support Agreement to the Buyer hereunder; and (f) agrees that the rights and remedies of such Transferor under the Originator Support Agreement may be exercised by the Buyer as assignee of such Transferor (or the Purchaser Agent as assignee of the Buyer).

ARTICLE III CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

Section 3.01. [RESERVED].

Section 3.02. Conditions Precedent to all Transfers. Each Transfer hereunder shall be subject to satisfaction of the following further conditions precedent as of the Transfer Date therefor:

(a) (i) the Purchaser Agent shall not have declared the Facility Termination Date to have occurred following the occurrence of a Termination Event, and (ii) the Facility Termination Date shall not have otherwise automatically occurred, in either event, in accordance with Section 8.01 of the Purchase Agreement; and

(b) the Transferors shall have taken such other action, including delivery of approvals, consents, opinions, documents and instruments to Buyer as Buyer may reasonably request.

The acceptance by any Transferor of the Sale Price for any Sold Receivables and the contribution to Buyer by such Transferor of any Contributed Receivables on any Transfer Date shall be deemed to constitute, as of any such Transfer Date, a representation and warranty by such Transferor that the conditions precedent set forth in this Article III have been satisfied. Upon any such acceptance or contribution, title to the Transferred Receivables sold or contributed on such Transfer Date shall be vested absolutely in Buyer, whether or not such conditions were in fact so satisfied.

ARTICLE IV
REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Section 4.01. Representations and Warranties of the Transferors. To induce Buyer to purchase the Sold Receivables and to acquire the Contributed Receivables, each Transferor makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer as of the Closing Date, the Second Restatement Effective Date and, except to the extent otherwise expressly provided below, as of each Transfer Date, each of which shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(a) Corporate Existence; Compliance with Law. Such Transferor (i) is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization; (ii) is duly qualified to conduct business and is in good standing in each other jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification, except where the failure to so qualify could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; (iii) has the requisite corporate power and authority and the legal right to own, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber and operate its properties, to lease the property it operates under lease, and to conduct its business, in each case, as now, heretofore and proposed to be conducted; (iv) has all licenses, permits, consents or approvals from or by, and has made all filings with, and has given all notices to, all Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, to the extent required for such ownership, operation and conduct, except where the failure to do any of the foregoing could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; (v) is in compliance with its articles or certificate of incorporation and by-laws; and (vi) subject to specific representations set forth herein regarding ERISA, Environmental Laws, tax laws and other laws, is in compliance with all applicable provisions of law, except where the failure to so comply, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Jurisdiction of Organization; Executive Offices; Collateral Locations; Corporate Names; FEIN. Such Transferor is a registered organization of the type and is organized under the laws of the State set forth in Schedule 4.01(b) (as supplemented from time to time in compliance with Section 4.03(g)(vi)) and such Transferor's organizational identification number (if any), the current location of such Transferor's chief executive office, principal place of business, other offices, the warehouses and premises within which any records relating to the Receivables are stored or located, and the locations of its records concerning the Receivables are set forth in Schedule 4.01(b). During the five years prior to the Second Restatement Effective Date, except as set forth in Schedule 4.01(b), no Transferor has used any legal names. In addition, Schedule 4.01(b) lists the federal employer identification number of each Transferor as of the Second Restatement Effective Date. Each Transferor is a wholly owned Subsidiary of its Related Originator.

(c) Corporate Power, Authorization, Enforceable Obligations. The execution, delivery and performance by such Transferor of this Agreement and the other Related Documents to which it is a party and the creation and perfection of all Transfers provided for herein and therein and, solely with respect to clause (vii) below, the exercise by Buyer, or its assigns of any of its rights and remedies under any Related Document to which it is a party: (i) are within such Transferor's corporate power; (ii) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate and shareholder action; (iii) do not contravene any provision of such Transferor's articles or certificate of incorporation or by-laws; (iv) do not violate any law or regulation, or any order or decree of any court or Governmental Authority; (v) do not conflict with or result in the breach or termination of, constitute a default under or accelerate or permit the acceleration of any performance required by, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement or other instrument to which such Transferor is a party or by which such Transferor or any of its property is bound; (vi) do not result in the creation or imposition of any Adverse Claim upon any of the property of such Transferor; and (vii) do not require the consent or approval of any Governmental Authority or any other Person, except those referred to in Section 3.01(b), all of which will have been duly obtained, made or complied with prior to the Second Restatement Effective Date. Each of the Related Documents to which any Transferor is a party have been duly executed and delivered by such Transferor and on the Second Restatement Effective Date each such Related Document shall then constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the applicable Transferor, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, receivership, moratorium or similar laws of general applicability relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by general equity principles.

(d) No Litigation. No Litigation is now pending or, to the knowledge of such Transferor, threatened in writing against such Transferor or any Subsidiary of such Transferor that (i) challenges such Transferor's right or power to enter into or perform any of its obligations under the Related Documents to which it is a party, or the validity or enforceability of any Related Document or any action taken thereunder, (ii) seeks to prevent the Transfer of any Receivable or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement or the other Related Documents or (iii) is reasonably likely to be adversely determined and, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.01(d), as of the Second Restatement Effective Date there is no Litigation pending or, to the knowledge of such Transferor, threatened in writing that seeks damages in excess of $100,000,000.00 or injunctive relief against such Transferor or any Subsidiary of such Transferor or alleges criminal misconduct by such Transferor or any Subsidiary of such Transferor.

(e) Solvency. After giving effect to (i) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Related Documents and (ii) the payment and accrual of all transaction costs in connection with the foregoing, such Transferor is and will be Solvent. After giving effect to the sale and contribution of Transferred Receivables and other payments and transactions contemplated on such Transfer Date, such Transferor is and will be Solvent.

(f) Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of its formation, (i) such Transferor has not incurred any obligations, contingent or non-contingent liabilities, liabilities for Charges, long-term leases or unusual forward or long-term commitments other than (x) its obligations under the Related Documents and (y) obligations, liabilities and commitments that, alone or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (ii) no contract, lease or other agreement or instrument has been entered into by such Transferor or has become binding upon such Transferor's assets and no law or regulation applicable to such Transferor has been adopted that has had or could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and (iii) such Transferor is not in default and no third party is, to such Transferor's actual knowledge, in material default under any contract, lease or other agreement or instrument to which such Transferor is a party. Since December 31, 2012, except as has been previously disclosed in any Originator's SEC filings on or prior to the Second Restatement Effective Date, no event has occurred that alone or together with other events could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Ownership of Receivables; Liens. Such Transferor owns each Receivable originated or acquired by it free and clear of any Adverse Claim (other than (1) Permitted Encumbrances and (2) security interests which shall be immediately and automatically released upon the transfer of such Receivable hereunder) and, from and after each Transfer Date, Buyer will acquire valid and properly perfected title to and the sole record and beneficial ownership interest in each Transferred Receivable purchased or otherwise acquired on such date, free and clear of any Adverse Claim or restrictions on transferability (other than Permitted Encumbrances). Such Transferor has received all assignments, bills of sale and other documents, and has duly effected all recordings, filings and other actions necessary to establish, protect and perfect such Transferor's right, title and interest in and to the Receivables originated or acquired by it and its other properties and assets. Such Transferor has rights in and full power to transfer its Receivables hereunder. No effective financing statements or other similar instruments are of record in any filing office listing such Transferor as debtor and purporting to cover the Transferred Receivables except those filed in favor of the Buyer in connection with this Agreement and those relating to security interests that shall be immediately and automatically released with respect to a Transferred Receivable upon its Transfer hereunder.

(h) Taxes. All material tax returns, reports and statements, including information returns, required by any Governmental Authority to be filed by such Transferor or any other member of the Parent Group have been filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority and all Charges have been paid prior to the date on which any fine, penalty, interest or late charge may be added thereto for nonpayment thereof (or any such fine, penalty, interest, late charge or loss has been paid), excluding (x) in the case of any member of the Parent Group other than a Transferor, Charges that individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect and (y) charges or other amounts being contested in accordance with Section 4.03(k). Proper and accurate amounts have been withheld by such Transferor and each such member from its respective employees for all periods in full and complete compliance with all applicable federal, state, provincial, local and foreign laws and such withholdings have been timely paid to the respective Governmental Authorities, except in the case of any member of the Parent Group other than a Transferor where the failure to so comply, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Schedule 4.01(h) sets forth as of the Second Restatement Effective Date (i) those taxable years for which such Transferor's or any such member's tax returns are currently being audited by the IRS or any other applicable Governmental Authority and (ii) any assessments or threatened assessments in connection with such audit or otherwise currently outstanding. Neither such Transferor nor any such member and their respective predecessors are liable for any Charges: (A) under any agreement (including any tax sharing agreements) or (B) to the best of such Transferor's knowledge, as a transferee, except in each of (A) and (B), in the case of any member of the Parent Group other than a Transferor, where such liability, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. As of the Second Restatement Effective Date, such Transferor has not agreed or been requested to make any adjustment under IRC Section 481(a), by reason of a change in accounting method or otherwise, that would have a Material Adverse Effect.

(i) Intellectual Property. As of the Second Restatement Effective Date, such Transferor owns or has rights to use (x) all intellectual property relating to the servicing and administration of the Receivables and the maintenance of Records with respect thereto and (y) all intellectual property necessary to continue to conduct its business as now or heretofore conducted by it or proposed to be conducted by it, except, in the case of this clause (y), where the failure to so own or have, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Such Transferor conducts its business and affairs without infringement of or interference with any intellectual property of any other Person, except where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. As of the Second Restatement Effective Date, except as set forth in Schedule 4.01(i), such Transferor is not aware of any material infringement or claim of infringement by others of any material intellectual property of such Transferor that is reasonably likely to be adversely determined and, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. No license or approval is required for Buyer or its assignee (including the Purchaser Agent or any Successor Servicer) to use any programs used by such Transferor in the servicing of the Receivables other than those which have been obtained and are in full force and effect.

(j) Full Disclosure. All information (other than projections and other forward looking information and information of a general economic or industry specific nature) contained in this Agreement, any of the other Related Documents, or any other written statement or information furnished by or on behalf of such Transferor to Buyer relating to this Agreement, the Transferred Receivables or any of the other Related Documents, in each case, taken as a whole, is true and accurate in every material respect, and none of this Agreement, any of the other Related Documents, or any other written statement or information furnished by or on behalf of such Transferor to Buyer relating to this Agreement or any of the other Related Documents, in each case, taken as a whole, is misleading as a result of the failure to include therein a material fact. All information contained in this Agreement, any of the other Related Documents, or any written statement furnished to Buyer has been prepared in good faith by management of such Transferor, as the case may be, with the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(k) Notices to Obligors. Each Obligor of Transferred Receivables has been notified, in each invoice sent to such Obligor with respect to such Receivable that all payments with respect to such Receivables are to be made by remitting payment to a Lockbox or a Collection Account.

(l) ERISA. Such Transferor and its respective ERISA Affiliates are in compliance with ERISA, except where the failure to so comply, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and have not incurred and do not expect to incur any liabilities (except for timely paid premium payments arising in the ordinary course of business) under Title IV of ERISA.

(m) Brokers. No broker or finder acting on behalf of such Transferor was employed or utilized in connection with this Agreement or the other Related Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby and such Transferor does not have any obligation to any Person in respect of any finder's or brokerage fees in connection herewith or therewith.

(n) Margin Regulations. Such Transferor is not engaged, nor will it engage, principally or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of “purchasing” or “carrying” any “margin security” as such terms are defined in Regulations T, U or X of the Federal Reserve Board as now and from time to time hereafter in effect (such securities being referred to herein as “Margin Stock”). Such Transferor does not own any Margin Stock, and no portion of the proceeds of the Sale Price from any Sale will be used, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of purchasing or carrying any Margin Stock, for the purpose of reducing or retiring any Debt that was originally incurred to purchase or carry any Margin Stock or for any other purpose that might cause any portion of such proceeds to be considered a “purpose credit” within the meaning of Regulations T, U or X of the Federal Reserve Board. Such Transferor will not take or permit to be taken any action that might cause any Related Document to violate any regulation of the Federal Reserve Board.

(o) Nonapplicability of Bulk Sales Laws. No transaction contemplated by this Agreement or any of the other Related Documents requires compliance with any bulk sales act or similar law.

(p) Investment Company Act Exemptions. Each purchase of Transferred Receivables under this Agreement constitutes a purchase or other acquisition of notes, drafts, acceptances, open accounts receivable or other obligations representing part or all of the sales price of merchandise, insurance or services within the meaning of Section 3(c)(5) of the Investment Company Act.

(q) Government Regulation. Such Transferor is not an “investment company” or an “affiliated person” of, or “promoter” or “principal underwriter” for, an “investment company,” as such terms are defined in the Investment Company Act. Such Transferor is not subject to regulation under the Federal Power Act, or any other federal or state statute that restricts or limits its ability to incur Debt or to perform its obligations hereunder or under any other Related Document. The purchase or acquisition of the Transferred Receivables by Buyer hereunder, the application of the Sale Price therefor and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Related Documents will not violate any provision of any such statute or any rule, regulation or order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(r) Books and Records; Minutes. The by-laws or the certificate or articles of incorporation of such Transferor require it to maintain (i) books and records of account and (ii) minutes of the meetings and other proceedings of its Stockholders and board of directors (or an analogous governing body).

(s) Deposit and Disbursement Accounts. Schedule 4.01(s), as updated from time to time by written notice to the Purchaser Agent, lists all banks and other financial institutions at which such Transferor or the Servicer maintains deposit accounts established for the receipt of collections on Receivables, and such schedule correctly identifies the name, address and telephone number of each depository, the name in which the account is held, a description of the purpose of the account, and the complete account number therefor.

(t) Representations and Warranties in Other Related Documents. Each of the representations and warranties of such Transferor contained in the Related Documents (other than this Agreement) is true and correct in all material respects (or, in the case of any such representation or warranty that is expressly qualified by a materiality standard or contains any carve-out or exception based on a Material Adverse Effect by its express terms, in all respects) and such Transferor hereby makes each such representation and warranty to, and for the benefit of, the Buyer as if the same were set forth in full herein. Such Transferor consents to the assignment of Buyer's rights with respect to all such representations and warranties to the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers (and their respective successors and assigns) pursuant to the Purchase Agreement as more fully described in Section 6.03 below.

(u) Receivables . With respect to each Transferred Receivable acquired by the Buyer from a Transferor hereunder:

(i) Each Transferred Receivable included in any Investment Base Certificate, Monthly Report, Weekly Report or Daily Report, as applicable, as an Eligible Receivable, as of the applicable Transfer Date therefor, satisfied the criteria for an Eligible Receivable;

(ii) immediately prior to its transfer to Buyer, such Receivable was owned by the applicable Transferor thereof free and clear of any Adverse Claim (other than (1) Permitted Encumbrances and (2) security interests which shall be immediately and automatically released upon the transfer of such Receivable), and such Transferor had the full right, power and authority to sell, contribute, assign, transfer and pledge its interest therein as contemplated under this Agreement and the other Related Documents and, upon such Transfer, Buyer will acquire valid and properly perfected title to and the sole legal and beneficial ownership interest in such Receivable, free and clear of any Adverse Claim (other than Permitted Encumbrances) and, following such Transfer, such Receivable will not be subject to any Adverse Claim (other than Permitted Encumbrances) as a result of any action or inaction on the part of such Transferor;

(iii) the Transfer of each such Receivable pursuant to this Agreement and the Receivables Assignment executed by the applicable Transferor thereof constitutes, as applicable, a valid sale, contribution, transfer, assignment, setover and conveyance to Buyer of all right, title and interest of such Transferor in and to such Receivable;

(iv) the applicable Transferor has no knowledge of any fact (including Dilution Factors and any defaults by the Obligor thereunder on any other Receivable) that would cause it to expect that any payments on such Receivable will not be paid in full when due or to expect any other Material Adverse Effect with respect to such Receivable;

(v) each Transferred Receivable was purchased by or contributed to the applicable Transferor on the relevant Transfer Date pursuant to the Sale Agreement; and

(vi) such Transferor shall have purchased such Receivable from the applicable Originator for cash consideration pursuant to Section 2.01 of the Sale Agreement, or shall have received each such Receivable as a contribution to the capital of such Transferor, in each case in an amount that constitutes fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value therefor and no Sale of such Receivable (if any) has been made for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by any Originator to any Transferor, and no such Sale is or may be avoidable or subject to avoidance under any bankruptcy laws, rules or regulations.

(v) Fair Value. With respect to each Transferred Receivable acquired by the Buyer hereunder, (i) the consideration received from the Buyer in respect of such Transferred Receivable represents adequate consideration and fair and reasonably equivalent value for such Transferred Receivable as of the applicable Transfer Date and (ii) such consideration is not less than the fair market value of such Transferred Receivables, in each case, as of the applicable Transfer Date.

(w) Nonconsolidation. Such Transferor is operated in such a manner that the separate corporate existence of such Transferor, on the one hand, and any member of the Parent Group, on the other hand, would not be disregarded in the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of any member of the Parent Group and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(i) such Transferor is a limited purpose limited liability company whose activities are restricted in its limited liability company agreement to those activities expressly permitted hereunder and under the other Related Documents and such Transferor has not engaged, and does not presently engage, in any business or other activity other than those activities expressly permitted hereunder and under the other Related Documents, nor has such Transferor entered into any agreement other than this Agreement, the other Related Documents to which it is a party and, with the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent, any other agreement necessary to carry out more effectively the provisions and purposes hereof or thereof;

(ii) such Transferor has duly appointed a board of managers and its business is managed solely by its own officers and managers, each of whom when acting for such Transferor shall be acting solely in his or her capacity as an officer or manager of such Transferor and not as an officer, manager, employee or agent of any member of the Parent Group;

(iii) (A) such Transferor shall compensate all employees (if any), consultants and agents directly or indirectly through reimbursement of the Parent, from its own funds, for services provided to such Transferor by such employees (if any), consultants and agents and, to the extent any employee (if any), consultant or agent of such Transferor is also an employee, consultant or agent of such member of the Parent Group on a basis which reflects the respective services rendered to such Transferor and such member of the Parent Group and (B) such Transferor shall not have any employees;

(iv) such Transferor shall pay its own incidental administrative costs and expenses from its own funds, and shall allocate all other shared overhead expenses (including, without limitation, telephone and other utility charges, the services of shared consultants and agents, and reasonable legal and auditing expenses), and other items of cost and expense shared between such Transferor and any member of the Parent Group, on the basis of actual use to the extent practicable and, to the extent such allocation is not practicable, on a basis reasonably related to actual use or the value of services rendered; except as otherwise expressly permitted hereunder, under the other Related Documents and under such Transferor's organizational documents, no member of the Parent Group (A) pays such Transferor's expenses, (B) guarantees such Transferor's obligations, or (C) advances funds to such Transferor for the payment of expenses or otherwise;

(v) other than the purchase and acceptance through capital contribution of Transferred Receivables pursuant to this Agreement, the payment of distributions and the return of capital to its members, such Transferor engages and has engaged in no intercorporate transactions with any member of the Parent Group;

(vi) such Transferor maintains records and books of account separate from that of each member of the Parent Group, holds regular meetings of its board of managers and otherwise observes corporate formalities;

(vii) (A) the financial statements (other than consolidated financial statements) and books and records of such Transferor and each member of the Parent Group reflect the separate existence of such Transferor and (B) the consolidated financial statements of the Parent Group shall contain disclosure to the effect that such Transferor's assets are not available to the creditors of any member of the Parent Group;

(viii) (A) such Transferor maintains its assets separately from the assets of each member of the Parent Group (including through the maintenance of separate bank accounts and except for any Records to the extent necessary to assist the Servicer in connection with the servicing of the Transferred Receivables), (B) such Transferor's funds (including all money, checks and other cash proceeds) and assets, and records relating thereto, have not been and are not commingled with those of any member of the Parent Group and (C) the separate creditors of such Transferor will be entitled, on the winding-up of such Transferor, to be satisfied out of such Transferor's assets prior to any value in such Transferor becoming available to the Member;

(ix) all business correspondence and other communications of such Transferor are conducted in such Transferor's own name;

(x) such Transferor shall respond to any inquiries with respect to ownership of a Transferred Receivable by stating that such Transferred Receivable has been sold, and assigned to the Purchaser Agent for the benefit of the Purchasers;

(xi) such Transferor does not act as agent for any member of the Parent Group, but instead presents itself to the public as a legal entity separate from each such member and independently engaged in the business of purchasing and financing Receivables;

(xii) such Transferor maintains at least one independent manager who (A) is not a Stockholder, director, officer, employee or associate, or any relative of the foregoing, of any member of the Parent Group (other than the Buyer or any Transferor), all as provided in its certificate of incorporation, (B) has (1) prior experience as an independent manager for an entity whose organizational documents required the unanimous consent of all independent managers thereof before such corporation could consent to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it or could file a petition seeking relief under any applicable federal or state law relating to bankruptcy and (2) at least three years of employment experience with one or more entities that provide, in the ordinary course of their respective businesses, advisory, management, independent manager services or placement services to issuers of securitization or structured finance instruments, agreements or securities, and (C) is otherwise acceptable to the Purchaser Agent, and the retention arrangement with such independent managers requires them to consider the interest of such Transferor;

(xiii) the limited liability company agreement of such Transferor requires the affirmative vote of each independent manager before a voluntary petition under Section 301 of the Bankruptcy Code may be filed by such Transferor;

(xiv) such Transferor shall maintain (1) correct and complete books and records of account and (2) minutes of the meetings and other proceedings of its members and board of managers;

(xv) such Transferor shall not hold out its credit as being available to satisfy obligations of others;

(xvi) such Transferor shall not acquire obligations or Stock of any member of the Parent Group;

(xvii) such Transferor shall correct any known misunderstanding regarding its separate identity; and (xviii) such Transferor shall maintain adequate capital in light of its contemplated business operations.

(x) Supplementary Representations.

(i) Receivables; Accounts.

(A) Each Receivable constitutes an “account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC.

(B) Each Account constitutes a “deposit account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC.

(ii) Title. Immediately prior to giving effect to the transactions contemplated hereunder, the Transferors own and have good and marketable title to the Receivables, the Sale Agreement, the Originator Support Agreement and the Collections free and clear of any Adverse Claim (other than (1) Permitted Encumbrances, (2) the transfer of the Transferred Receivables by the Transferors to the Buyer pursuant to this Agreement and (3) security interests which shall be immediately and automatically released upon the transfer of the Receivables hereunder). The Agreement transfers full ownership of the Transferred Receivables, the Sale Agreement, the Originator Support Agreement and the Collections to the Buyer, which interest is prior to all other Adverse Claims and is enforceable as such as against any creditors of and purchasers from the Transferors.

Such Transferor shall not take or permit to be taken any action (other than with respect to actions taken or to be taken solely by a Governmental Authority), or fail or neglect to perform, keep or observe any of its obligations hereunder or under the other Related Documents, that would have the effect directly or indirectly of subjecting any payment to Buyer, or to any assignee who is a resident of the United States of America, to withholding taxation.

Such Transferor shall not directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise, (i) form or acquire any Subsidiary (other than the Seller), or (ii) merge with, consolidate with, acquire all or substantially all of the assets or capital Stock of, or otherwise combine with or acquire, any Person.

(q) Sale Treatment. Such Transferor (i) will not, and will not permit any Originator to, account for (other than for tax purposes), or otherwise treat, the transactions contemplated by the Sale Agreement and this Agreement in any manner other than (A) with respect to each Sale of each Sold Receivable effected pursuant to the Sale Agreement or this Agreement as a true sale and absolute assignment of the title to and sole record and beneficial ownership interest of Receivables by the applicable Originator to such Transferor, or by such Transferor to the Buyer, as applicable and (B) with respect to each contribution of Contributed Receivables under the Sale Agreement or this Agreement, as an increase in the capital of the applicable Transferor, or the Buyer, as applicable, and (ii) will not account for (other than for tax purposes) or otherwise treat the transactions contemplated hereby in any manner other than as a sale of Transferred Receivables by such Transferor to the Buyer. Amended and Restated Receivables Transfer and Servicing Agreement

Section 6.02. No Waiver; Remedies. Buyer's failure, at any time or times, to require strict performance by any Transferor of any provision of this Agreement or any Receivables Assignment shall not waive, affect or diminish any right of Buyer thereafter to demand strict compliance and performance herewith or therewith. Any suspension or waiver of any breach or default hereunder shall not suspend, waive or affect any other breach or default whether the same is prior or subsequent thereto and whether the same or of a different type. None of the undertakings, agreements, warranties, covenants and representations of any Transferor contained in this Agreement or any Receivables Assignment, and no breach or default by any Transferor hereunder or thereunder, shall be deemed to have been suspended or waived by Buyer unless such waiver or suspension is by an instrument in writing signed by an officer of or other duly authorized signatory of Buyer and directed to such Transferor specifying such suspension or waiver. (b) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in any other Related Document, no termination or cancellation (regardless of cause or procedure) of any commitment made by

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in any other Related Document, all undertakings, agreements, covenants, warranties and representations of or binding upon the Transferors and the Servicer, and all rights of Buyer hereunder, all as contained in the Related Documents, shall not terminate or expire, but rather shall survive any such termination or cancellation and shall continue in full force and effect until the Termination Date; provided, that the rights and remedies pursuant to Sections 4.05, the indemnification and payment provisions of Article V, and the provisions of Sections 4.04(k), 6.12, 6.14 and 6.15 shall be continuing and shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 6.09. Severability. Wherever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

Section 6.10. Section Titles. The section titles and table of contents contained in this Agreement are provided for ease of reference only and shall be without substantive meaning or content of any kind whatsoever and are not a part of the agreement between the parties hereto.

Section 6.11. No Setoff. Each Transferor's obligations under this Agreement shall not be affected by any right of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other right such Transferor might have against Buyer, all of which rights are hereby expressly waived by such Transferor.

(b) Each of the Transferors and the Servicer agrees that it shall not (and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to) issue any news release or make any public announcement pertaining to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Related Documents without the prior written consent of Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) unless such news release or public announcement is required by law, in which case the applicable Transferor or the Servicer shall consult with Buyer prior to the issuance of such news release or public announcement. Any Transferor or the Servicer may, however, disclose the general terms of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Related Documents to trade creditors, suppliers and other similarly-situated Persons so long as such disclosure is not in the form of a news release or public announcement.

The Servicer may, with the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent, subcontract with a Sub-Servicer for the collection, servicing or administration of the Transferred Receivables; provided that no such consent shall be needed to subcontract with a Sub-Servicer that is an Affiliate of the Servicer; and further provided, that (i) the Servicer shall remain liable for the performance of the duties and obligations of such Sub-Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof, (ii) any Sub-Servicing Agreement that may be entered into and any other transactions or services relating to the Transferred Receivables involving a Sub-Servicer shall be deemed to be between the Sub-Servicer and the Servicer alone, and none of the Buyer, any Purchaser or any other Specified Party shall be deemed a party thereto and shall have no obligations, duties or liabilities with respect to the Sub-Servicer and (iii) each Sub-Servicing Agreement shall expressly provide that it shall automatically terminate upon the termination of the Servicer's responsibilities hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 7.02. Duties and Responsibilities of the Servicer: Invoicing

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Servicer shall conduct the invoicing, servicing, administration and collection of the Transferred Receivables and shall take, or cause to be taken, all reasonable actions that (i) it determines in good faith may be necessary or advisable to invoice, service, administer and collect each Transferred Receivable from time to time, (ii) the Servicer would take if the Transferred Receivables were owned by the Servicer, and (iii) are consistent with the Credit and Collection Policies and industry practice for the servicing of accounts receivable similar to such Transferred Receivables. The Servicer hereby agrees that, from and after the Closing Date until the Termination Date, (x) it shall submit to each Obligor of the Unbilled Receivables, an invoice for payment of such Unbilled Receivables in the Billed Amount of such Unbilled Receivable no later than 35 days after the date related services were rendered by the related Originator(s) to such Obligor that gave rise to such Unbilled Receivables and (y) it shall use reasonable efforts to instruct all Obligors of Transferred Receivables existing as of the Closing Date to make payments in respect thereof only (A) by check or money order mailed to one or more Lockbox(es) or (B) by wire transfer or moneygram directly to a Collection Account.

Section 7.03. Collections on Receivables.

(a) In the event that the Servicer is unable to determine the specific Transferred Receivables on which Collections have been received from the Obligor thereunder, the parties agree that such Collections shall be deemed to have been received on such Receivables in the order in which they were originated with respect to such Obligor. In addition, if (i) an Obligor is an obligor on Transferred Receivables and any other Receivables or indebtedness owed to any Transferor or any of its Affiliates and (ii) the Servicer is unable to determine the specific Receivables or other indebtedness on which collections have been received from the Obligor thereunder then, unless otherwise required by applicable law, Collections on such Transferred Receivables or other Receivables or indebtedness shall be treated first, as a Collection of any Transferred Receivables of such Obligor, in the order in which they were originated, before being applied to any other Receivables or other indebtedness of such Obligor. In the event that the Servicer is unable to determine the specific Transferred Receivables on which discounts, offsets or other non-cash reductions have been granted or made with respect to the Obligor thereunder, the parties agree for purposes of this Agreement only that such reductions shall be deemed to have been granted or made (i) prior to a Termination Event, on such Receivables as determined by the Servicer, and (ii) from and after the occurrence of a Termination Event that is continuing, in the reverse order in which they were originated with respect to such Obligor.

(b) If the Servicer determines that amounts unrelated to the Transferred Receivables (the “Unrelated Amounts”) have been deposited in any Account, then the Servicer shall provide written evidence thereof to the Buyer and the Purchaser Agent no later than the first Business Day following the day on which the Servicer had actual knowledge thereof, which evidence shall be provided in writing and shall be otherwise satisfactory to Buyer.

(c) Authorization of the Servicer. Buyer hereby authorizes the Servicer to take any and all reasonable steps in its name and on its behalf necessary or desirable and not inconsistent with the rights of the Buyer hereunder, in the determination of the Servicer, to (a) collect all amounts due under any Transferred Receivable, including endorsing the applicable name on checks and other instruments representing Collections on such Receivable, and executing and delivering any and all instruments of satisfaction or cancellation or of partial or full release or discharge and all other comparable instruments with respect to any such Receivable and (b) after any Transferred Receivable becomes a Delinquent Receivable or a Defaulted Receivable and to the extent permitted under and in compliance with applicable law and regulations, commence proceedings with respect to the enforcement of payment of any such Receivable and the Contract therefor and adjust, settle or compromise any payments due thereunder, in each case to the same extent as the applicable Transferor could have done if it had continued to own such Receivable. The Seller shall furnish the Servicer with any powers of attorney and other documents necessary or appropriate to enable the Servicer to carry out its servicing and administrative duties hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as the Buyer’s Assignee) shall have the absolute and unlimited right to direct the Servicer (at the Servicer’s expense) (i) to commence or settle any legal action to enforce collection of any Transferred Receivable or (ii) to foreclose upon, repossess or take any other action that the Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as Buyer’s assignee) deems necessary or advisable with respect thereto. In no event shall the Servicer be entitled to make Buyer or any Specified Party a party to any Litigation without, as the case may be, Buyer’s or such Specified Party’s express prior written consent.

(d) Servicing Fees. As compensation for its servicing activities and as reimbursement for its reasonable expenses in connection therewith, the Servicer shall be entitled to receive the Servicing Fees monthly on each Settlement Date. Such Servicing Fees shall be payable from available funds in accordance with Section 2.07 and 2.08 of the Purchase Agreement. The Servicer shall be required to pay for all expenses incurred by it in connection with its activities hereunder (including any payments to accountants, counsel or any other Person) and shall not be entitled to any payment therefor other than the Servicing Fees.

(d) Compliance with Credit and Collection Policies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Termination Event, the Servicer shall deliver and turn over such books and records to the Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as the Buyer’s assignee) or its representatives at any time on demand. The Servicer shall permit any representative of the Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as the Buyer’s assignee) to inspect such books and records and shall provide photocopies thereof to Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as the Buyer’s assignee) subject to, and as more specifically set forth in Section 7.04(g).

(j) a Change of Control shall occur;

then, and in any such event, the Buyer (or the Purchaser Agent, as Buyer's assignee) may, by delivery of a Servicer Termination Notice to the Servicer, terminate the servicing responsibilities of the Servicer hereunder, without demand, protest or further notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by the Servicer. Upon the delivery of any such notice, all authority and power of the Servicer under this Agreement shall pass to and be vested in the Successor Servicer acting pursuant to Section 9.02; provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Servicer agrees to continue to follow the procedures set forth in Section 7.02 with respect to Collections on the Transferred Receivables until a Successor Servicer has assumed the responsibilities and obligations of the Servicer in accordance with Section 9.02.

ARTICLE IX SUCCESSOR SERVICER PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Servicer Not to Resign. The Servicer shall not resign from the obligations and duties hereby imposed on it except upon a determination that (a) the performance of its duties hereunder has become impermissible under applicable law or regulation and (b) there is no reasonable action that the Servicer could take to make the performance of its duties hereunder become permissible under applicable law. Any such determination shall (i) with respect to clause (a) above, be evidenced by an opinion of counsel to such effect and (ii) with respect to clause (b) above, be evidenced by an Officer's Certificate to such effect, in each case delivered to the Purchaser Agent. No such resignation shall become effective until a Successor Servicer shall have assumed the responsibilities and obligations of the Servicer in accordance with Section 9.02.

Section 9.02. Appointment of the Successor Servicer. In connection with the termination of the Servicer's responsibilities or the resignation by the Servicer under this Agreement pursuant to Sections 8.01 or 9.01, the Buyer may at any time appoint a successor servicer to the Servicer that shall be acceptable to the Purchaser Agent and shall succeed to all rights and assume all of the responsibilities, duties and liabilities of the Servicer under this Agreement (the Purchaser Agent, in such capacity, or such successor servicer being referred to as the "Successor Servicer"); provided, that the Successor Servicer shall have no responsibility for any actions of the Servicer prior to the date of its appointment or assumption of duties as Successor Servicer. In selecting a Successor Servicer, the Buyer may (but shall not be required to) obtain bids from any potential Successor Servicer and may agree to any bid it deems appropriate. The Successor Servicer shall accept its appointment by executing, acknowledging and delivering to the Buyer an instrument in form and substance acceptable to the Buyer and the Purchaser Agent.

Section 9.03. Duties of the Servicer. The Servicer covenants and agrees that, following the appointment of, or assumption of duties by, a Successor Servicer:

(a) The Servicer shall terminate its activities as Servicer hereunder in a manner that facilitates the transfer of servicing duties to the Successor Servicer and is otherwise acceptable to the Buyer and the Purchaser Agent and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall, at its own expense, timely deliver (i) any funds to the Purchaser Agent that were required to be remitted to the Purchaser Agent for deposit in the Agent Account under the Purchase Agreement and (ii) copies of all Servicing Records and other information with respect to the Transferred Receivables to the Successor Servicer at a place selected by the Successor Servicer. The Servicer shall cooperate with the Successor Servicer in effecting the termination of the responsibilities and rights of the predecessor Servicer under this Agreement and shall account for all funds and shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may be required to vest and confirm in the Successor Servicer all rights, powers, duties, responsibilities, obligations and liabilities of the Servicer. All reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with transferring all files and other documents in respect of the Transferred Receivables to the Successor Servicer shall be for the account of the predecessor Servicer.

(b) The Servicer shall terminate each existing Sub-Servicing Agreement and the Successor Servicer shall not be deemed to have assumed any of the Servicer's interests therein or to have replaced the Servicer as a party thereto.

(c) In the event that the Servicer is terminated as Servicer hereunder but no Successor Servicer has been appointed, the Servicer shall timely deliver to the Purchaser Agent or its designee, at a place designated by the Purchaser Agent or such designee, all Servicing Records and other information with respect to the Transferred Receivables which otherwise would be required to be delivered to the Successor Servicer under Section 9.03(a) above, and all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with transferring such files and other documents to the Purchaser Agent shall be for the account of the predecessor Servicer.

Section 9.04. Effect of Termination or Resignation. Any termination of or resignation by the Servicer hereunder shall not affect any claims that the Buyer or its assigns may have against the Servicer for events or actions taken or not taken by the Servicer arising prior to any such termination or resignation.

Section 9.05. Power of Attorney. On the Second Restatement Effective Date, each Transferor and the Servicer shall execute and deliver a power of attorney in substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 9.05 (a “Power of Attorney”). The Power of Attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable until this Agreement has terminated in accordance with its terms and all of the Transferred Receivables have been indefeasibly paid or otherwise written off as uncollectible. The powers conferred on the Buyer and the Purchaser Agent under each Power of Attorney are solely to protect the interests of the Buyer in the Transferred Receivables and the ability of the Successor Servicer to assume the servicing rights, powers and responsibilities of the Servicer hereunder and shall not impose any duty upon the Buyer, the Purchaser Agent or the Successor Servicer to exercise any such powers.

Section 9.06. No Proceedings. Each of the Transferors and Servicer agrees that, from and after the Closing Date and until the date one year plus one day following the Termination Date, it will not, directly or indirectly, institute or cause to be instituted against Buyer any proceeding of the type referred to in Sections 8.01(d) and 8.01(e) of the Purchase Agreement. This Section 9.06 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 9.07. Amendment and Restatement. The parties hereto (i) generally reaffirm their rights and obligations under the Existing Transfer Agreement and (ii) agree that as of the Second Restatement Effective Date, the terms and conditions of the Existing Transfer Agreement shall be and hereby are amended, superseded, and restated in their entirety by the terms and provisions of this Agreement. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not constitute a novation of the Existing Transfer Agreement. With respect to any date or time period occurring and ending prior to the Second Restatement Effective Date, the rights and obligations of the parties to the Existing Transfer Agreement shall be governed by the Existing Transfer Agreement and the “Related Documents” (as defined therein), and with respect to any date or time period occurring and ending on or after the Second Restatement Effective Date, the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be governed by this Agreement and the other Related Documents (as defined herein).

Section 9.08. Joinder. The parties hereto agree that as of the Second Restatement Effective Date, each New Transferor shall become a “Transferor” under this Agreement and shall be bound by, and hereby agrees to comply with, the terms, conditions, provisions and obligations relating to a Transferor under this Agreement.

Form of

POWER OF ATTORNEY

This Power of Attorney is executed and delivered by each of the undersigned Grantors (each a “Grantor”) in favor of UNIVISION RECEIVABLES CO., LLC (“SPE”) and the Purchaser Agent or such Successor Servicer as the SPE or the Purchaser Agent may designate herein (the Purchaser Agent, the SPE or such Successor Servicer, the “Attorney”) pursuant to that certain Amended and Restated Receivables Transfer and Servicing Agreement dated as of June 28, 2013 (as the same may from time to time be amended, restated, supplement or otherwise modified, the “Transfer Agreement”), by and among Grantors (as Servicer or Transferors and together with any other Transferors), and SPE as Buyer. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Transfer Agreement. No person to whom this Power of Attorney is presented, as authority for Attorney to take any action or actions contemplated hereby, shall be required to inquire into or seek confirmation from any Grantor as to the authority of Attorney to take any action described below, or as to the existence of or fulfillment of any condition to this Power of Attorney, which is intended to grant to Attorney unconditionally the authority to take and perform the actions contemplated herein, and any Grantor irrevocably waives any right to commence any suit or action, in law or equity, against any person or entity that acts in reliance upon or acknowledges the authority granted under this Power of Attorney. The power of attorney granted hereby is coupled with an interest and may not be revoked or cancelled by any Grantor until all Transferred Receivables under the Transfer Agreement have been indefeasibly paid in full and/or written-off as uncollectible and Attorney has provided its written consent thereto. The Purchaser Agent may terminate the right of any other Attorney hereunder at any time upon written notice of such termination to such Attorney and the Grantors.

Each Grantor hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Attorney (and all officers, employees or agents designated by Attorney), with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney in fact with full irrevocable power and authority in its place and stead and in its name or in Attorney’s own name, from time to time in Attorney’s discretion, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute and deliver any and all documents and instruments that may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of the Transfer Agreement, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, hereby grants to Attorney the power and right, on its behalf, without notice to or assent by it, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Termination Event, to do the following: (a) open mail for it, and ask, demand, collect, give acquittances and receipts for, take possession of, or endorse and receive payment of, any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances, or other instruments for the payment of moneys due in respect of Transferred Receivables, issue invoices in respect of Unbilled Receivables, and sign and endorse any invoices, freight or express bills, bills of lading, storage or warehouse receipts, drafts against debtors, assignments, verifications, and notices in connection with any Transferred Receivable or other Seller Assets; (b) pay or discharge any taxes, Liens, or other encumbrances levied or placed on or threatened against any Seller Assets; (c) defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against it or any Seller Assets if such Grantor does not defend such suit, action or proceeding or if Attorney believes that it is not pursuing such defense in a manner that will maximize the recovery to Attorney, and settle, compromise or adjust any suit, action, or proceeding described above and, in connection therewith, give such discharges or releases as Attorney may deem appropriate; (d) file or prosecute any claim, Litigation, suit or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction or before any arbitrator, or take any other action otherwise deemed appropriate by Attorney for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due with respect to any Transferred Receivable or other Seller Assets or otherwise with respect to the Related Documents whenever payable and to enforce any other right in respect of its property; (e) sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to, or otherwise deal with, any Transferred Receivables or other Seller Assets, and execute, in connection with such sale or action, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer in connection therewith; and (g) cause the certified public accountants then engaged by it to prepare and deliver to Attorney at any time and from time to time, promptly upon Attorney's request, any and all financial statements or other reports required to be delivered by or on behalf of Grantor under the Related Documents, all as though Attorney were the absolute owner of its property for all purposes, and to do, at Attorney's option and its expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and other things that Attorney reasonably deems necessary to perfect, preserve, or realize upon the Transferred Receivables and the SPE's interests therein, all as fully and effectively as it might do. Grantor hereby ratifies, to the extent permitted by law, all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof.

(a) (i) Under the Existing Receivables Purchase Agreement, each Purchaser purchased such Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of "Term Purchaser Interests" under (and as defined in) the Existing Receivables Purchase Agreement, which will remain outstanding as of the Second Restatement Effective Date (the "Existing Term Purchaser Interest"). On the Second Restatement Effective Date, each Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of the Existing Term Purchaser Interest with an aggregate Capital Investment equal to the Initial Term Purchaser Interest Amount (together with any Reinvestment Purchases with respect thereto, the "Term Purchaser Interest") shall, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, continue as and constitute such Purchaser's portion of the Term Purchaser Interest hereunder.

(ii) In addition, from and after the Second Restatement Effective Date and until the Facility Termination Date and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, each Purchaser severally agrees to purchase such Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of each additional Purchaser Interest from the Seller from time to time and the Seller agrees to sell such Purchaser Interests to the Purchasers (together with any Reinvestment Purchases with respect thereto, the "Revolving Purchaser Interest").

(iii) Each Purchaser agrees that if a Purchase is requested, such Purchaser shall make available in accordance with Section 2.03(b) hereof, an amount equal to such Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of such Purchase. Each Purchase shall consist of either (i) a Purchase made with new funds provided by such Purchasers (each, a "Capital Purchase") or (ii) a Purchase made with funds consisting of Collections allocated to the Purchaser Interests pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (each, a "Reinvestment Purchase"). On each Business Day following the Closing Date until the Facility Termination Date, but subject to Section 3.02 hereof, each Purchaser holding a Purchaser Interest at such time shall be automatically deemed to have made a Reinvestment Purchase with the amount of funds to be distributed to the Seller pursuant to Section 2.08, if any.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of (x) Capital Investment in respect of the Term Purchaser Interest and (y) Capital Investment in respect of the Revolving Purchaser Interest shall be the same at all times.

Second Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement

(b) Each Purchaser's obligation hereunder shall be several, such that the failure of any Purchaser to make a payment in connection with any Purchase hereunder shall not relieve any other Purchaser of its obligation hereunder to make payment for such Purchase.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, under no circumstances shall a Purchaser make any Purchase if, after giving effect thereto, a Purchase Excess would exist.

Section 2.02. Changes in Maximum Total Purchase Limit .

(a) The Seller may, at its option, reduce the Maximum Total Purchase Limit permanently; provided, that (i) the Seller shall give three days prior written notice of any such reduction to the Purchaser Agent substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.02(a) (each such notice, a "Commitment Reduction Notice"), (ii) any partial reduction of the Maximum Total Purchase Limit shall be in a minimum amount of $25,000,000 or an integral multiple thereof, (iii) no such partial reduction shall reduce the Maximum Total Purchase Limit below the Capital Investment at such time, and (iv) no reduction of the Maximum Term Purchase Limit under this Section 2.02(a) will be permitted until the Maximum Revolving Purchase Limit has been reduced to zero. Any such reduction in the Maximum Total Purchase Limit shall result in a reduction in each Purchaser's Commitment in an amount equal to such Purchaser's ratable share of the amount by which the Maximum Total Purchase Limit is being reduced.

(b) The Seller may, at any time, on at least three days' prior written notice by the Seller to the Purchaser Agent, irrevocably terminate the Maximum Total Purchase Limit; provided, that (i) such notice of termination shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.02(b) (the "Commitment Termination Notice") and (ii) the Seller shall apply Collections, and only Collections, in the Accounts or the Agent Account to reduce the Capital Investment to zero and make all payments required by Section 2.03(g) at the time and in the manner specified therein. Upon such termination, the Seller's right to request that any Purchaser make Purchases hereunder shall in each case simultaneously terminate and the Facility Termination Date shall automatically occur.

(c) Each written notice required to be delivered pursuant to Sections 2.02(a) and (b) shall be irrevocable and shall be effective (i) on the day of receipt if received by the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers not later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on any Business Day and (ii) on the immediately succeeding Business Day if received by the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers after such time on such Business Day or if any such notice is received on a day other than a Business Day (regardless of the time of day such notice is received). Each such notice of termination or reduction shall specify, respectively, the amount of, or the amount of the proposed reduction in, the Maximum Total Purchase Limit.

(d) Any reduction of the Capital Investment of the Term Purchaser Interest at any time shall as a consequence of such Capital Investment pursuant to Section 2.03(g) result in a permanent reduction of (i) the Maximum Term Purchase Limit in the same amount as such reduction and (ii) if the Maximum Revolving Purchase Limit is greater than zero, the Maximum Revolving Purchase Limit in an amount sufficient to cause the ratio of the Maximum Term Purchase Limit to the Maximum Revolving Purchase Limit to remain equal to 6:4.

Section 2.03. Procedures for Making Capital Purchases .

(a) Capital Purchase Requests . Each Capital Purchase shall be made upon notice by the Seller to the Purchaser Agent in the manner provided herein. No notice to any party is required in connection with a Reinvestment Purchase. Any such notice with respect to a Capital Purchase must be given in writing so that it is received no later than (1) 10:00 a.m. (New York time) on the Business Day preceding the proposed Purchase Date set forth therein. Each such notice (a “ Capital Purchase Request ”) shall (i) be substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.03(a), (ii) be irrevocable and (iii) specify the amount of the requested increase in the Capital Investment (which shall be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 or an integral multiple of $100,000 in excess of $1,000,000) and the proposed Purchase Date (which shall be a Business Day), and shall include such other information as may be required by the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent. Unless a LIBOR Rate Disruption Event shall have occurred, each Purchase shall be a LIBOR Rate Purchase.

(b) Capital Purchases; Payments . The Purchaser Agent shall, promptly after receipt of a Capital Purchase Request and in any event prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the date such Capital Purchase Request is deemed received, by telecopy, telephone or other similar form of communication notify the Purchasers of its receipt of a Capital Purchase Request, and B) the Purchasers shall make the amount of such requested increase in the Capital Investment available to the Purchaser Agent in same day funds by wire transfer to the Agent Account as set forth in Annex W (as may be updated from time to time by written notice from the Purchaser Agent to the Seller) not later than 3:00 p.m. (New York time) on the requested Purchase Date. After receipt of such wire transfers (or, in the Purchaser Agent’s sole discretion in accordance with Section 2.03(c), before receipt of such wire transfers), subject to the terms hereof (including, without limitation, the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.02), the Purchaser Agent shall make available to the Seller by deposit into the Seller Account on the Purchase Date therefor, the lesser of (x) the amount of the requested increase in the Capital Investment and (y) the Availability. All payments by each Purchaser under this Section 2.03(b) shall be made without setoff, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

(c) Funding Capital Purchases . The Purchaser Agent may assume that each Purchaser will make its Pro Rata Share of each increase in the Capital Investment in connection with a Capital Purchase available to the Purchaser Agent on each Purchase Date. If the Purchaser Agent has made available to the Seller such Purchaser’s Pro Rata Share of any such increase in Capital Investment but such Pro Rata Share is not, in fact, paid to the Purchaser Agent by such Purchaser when due, the Purchaser Agent will be entitled to recover such amount on demand from such Purchaser without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind. If any Purchaser fails to pay the amount of its Pro Rata Share forthwith upon the Purchaser Agent’s demand, the Purchaser Agent shall promptly notify the Seller and the Seller shall immediately repay such amount to the Purchaser Agent. Nothing in this Section 2.03(c) or elsewhere in this Agreement or the other Related Documents shall be deemed to require the Purchaser Agent to advance funds on behalf of any Purchaser or to relieve any Purchaser from its obligation to fulfill its Commitment hereunder or to prejudice any rights that the Seller may have against any Purchaser as a result of any default by such Purchaser hereunder. To the extent that the Purchaser Agent advances funds to the Seller on behalf of any Purchaser and is not reimbursed therefor on the same Business Day as such increase in Capital Investment is made, the Purchaser Agent shall be entitled to retain for its account all Daily Yield accrued on such increase in Capital Investment from the date of such increase in Capital Investment to the date such increase in Capital Investment is reimbursed by the applicable Purchaser or the Seller, as the case may be.

(d) Return of Payments . (i) If the Purchaser Agent pays an amount to a Purchaser under this Agreement in the belief or expectation that a related payment has been or will be received by the Purchaser Agent from the Seller and such related payment is not received by the Purchaser Agent, then the Purchaser Agent will be entitled to recover such amount from such Purchaser on demand without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

(ii) If at any time any amount received by the Purchaser Agent under this Agreement must be returned to the Seller or paid to any other Person pursuant to any insolvency law or otherwise, then, notwithstanding any other term or condition of this

Agreement or any other Related Document, the Purchaser Agent will not be required to distribute any portion thereof to any Purchaser. In addition, each Purchaser will repay to the Purchaser Agent on demand any portion of such amount that the Purchaser Agent has distributed to such Purchaser, together with interest at such rate, if any, as the Purchaser Agent is required to pay to the Seller or such other Person, without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

(e) Non-Funding Purchasers. The failure of any Non-Funding Purchaser to make any increase in Capital Investment to be made by it on the date specified therefor shall not relieve any other Purchaser (each such other Purchaser, an “Other Purchaser”) of its obligations to make any increase in Capital Investment to be made by it, but neither any Other Purchaser nor the Purchaser Agent shall be responsible for the failure of any Non-Funding Purchaser to make any increase in Capital Investment to be made by such Non-Funding Purchaser.

(f) Actions in Concert. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, each Purchaser hereby agrees with each other Purchaser that no Purchaser shall take any action to protect or enforce its rights arising out of this Agreement or the Purchase Assignment (including exercising any rights of set-off) against the Seller or the Transaction Parties without first obtaining the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent or the Requisite Purchasers, it being the intent of the Purchasers that any such action to protect or enforce rights under this Agreement and the Purchase Assignment against the Seller or the other Transaction Parties shall, subject to any provision herein requiring that each Purchaser or the Requisite 8.01 Purchasers consent to a particular action, be taken in concert and at the direction or with the consent of the Purchaser Agent or the Requisite Purchasers; provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent any Purchaser from filing a proof of claim in any bankruptcy proceeding of any Transaction Party

(g) Capital Repayments. On each Business Day, Collections on deposit in the Agent Account shall be applied, or allocated, as applicable, in accordance with Section 2.08(a) or Section 2.08(b), as applicable. The Seller may also at any time reduce the Capital Investment; provided, that (i) the Seller shall give prior written notice of any such reduction to the Purchaser Agent substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.03 (g) (each such notice, a “Reduction Notice”), (ii) such notice must have been received by the Purchaser Agent no later than 2:00 p.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately preceding the date of the proposed reduction, (iii) each such notice shall be irrevocable, (iv) each such notice shall specify the amount of the requested reduction in Capital Investment and the proposed date of such reduction (which shall be a Business Day) and (v) no later than 2:00 p.m. (New York time) on the date of the proposed reduction, in accordance with Section 2.08(c), the Seller shall pay to the Agent Account (A) the amount of Capital Investment to be reduced, (B) all Daily Yield accrued and unpaid on the Capital Investment being reduced through but excluding the date of such reduction and (C) the costs, if any, required by Section 2.10. Any reduction in Capital Investment under this Agreement shall be applied (x) first to reduce the Capital Investment in respect of the Revolving Purchaser Interest and (y) second, after the Capital Investment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest is reduced to zero, to reduce the Capital Investment in respect of the Term Purchaser Interest. Any repayment or reduction in Capital Investment in respect of the Term Purchaser Interest shall not be re-advanced to the Seller.

Section 2.04. Conveyance of Receivables.

(a) Purchase Assignment. On or prior to the Second Restatement Effective Date, the Seller shall complete, execute and deliver to the Purchaser Agent, for the benefit of the Purchasers, an assignment substantially in the form of Exhibit 2.04(a) (the “Purchase Assignment”) in order to evidence the Purchases.

(b) Vesting of Ownership.

(i) Effective on and as of each Purchase Date, the Purchasers shall own the Purchaser Interests sold by the Seller hereunder on such Purchase Date. The Seller shall not take any action inconsistent with such ownership and shall not claim any ownership interest in such Purchaser Interests. Each Purchaser hereby appoints the Purchaser Agent as its agent for purposes of perfecting its ownership interest in the Purchaser Interests.

(ii) The Seller shall indicate in its Records that interests in the Transferred Receivables have been sold hereunder and that ownership of such interests is vested in the Purchaser Agent on behalf of the Purchasers. In addition, the Seller shall respond to any inquiries with respect to the ownership of any Transferred Receivable by stating that interests therein have been sold hereunder and that ownership of such interests is vested in the Purchasers. The Seller and the Servicer shall hold all Contracts and other documents relating to such Transferred Receivables in trust for the benefit of the Purchaser Agent on behalf of the Purchasers, and for the sole purpose of facilitating the servicing of such Transferred Receivables. The Seller hereby acknowledges that its retention and possession of such Contracts and documents shall at all times be at the sole discretion of the Purchaser Agent and in a custodial capacity for the Purchaser Agent's (on behalf of the Purchasers) benefit only.

(c) Repurchases of Transferred Receivables. If (i) any Transferor is required to repurchase Transferred Receivables from the Seller pursuant to Section 4.05 of the Transfer Agreement, upon payment by such Transferor to a Collection Account of the applicable repurchase price thereof (which repurchase price shall not be less than an amount equal to the Billed Amount of such Transferred Receivable minus Collections received in respect thereof), the Purchaser Agent on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties shall release its lien, Purchaser Interests and any other rights or interests in the Transferred Receivables being so repurchased.

Section 2.05. Facility Termination Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, no Purchaser shall have any obligation to purchase any additional Purchaser Interests from and after the earlier of (i) the Facility Termination Date or (ii) the Final Purchase Date with respect to such Purchaser.

Section 2.06. Daily Yield; Charges.

(a) The Seller shall pay Daily Yield to the Purchaser Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Purchasers, with respect to the outstanding amount of Capital Investment maintained by each Purchaser, in arrears on each applicable Settlement Date, at the applicable Daily Yield Rate as in effect from time to time during the period applicable to such Settlement Date. Daily Yield for each Purchase shall be calculated based upon actual days elapsed during the applicable calendar month or other period, for a 360 day year based upon actual days elapsed since the last Settlement Date. Unless a LIBOR Rate Disruption Event shall have occurred, each Purchase shall be a LIBOR Rate Purchase.

(b) The Purchaser Agent is authorized to, and at its sole election may, charge to the Seller as an increase in Capital Investment and cause to be paid all Fees, expenses, charges, costs, interest and principal, owing by the Seller under this Agreement or any of the other Related Documents if and to the extent the Seller fails to pay any such amounts as and when due, and any charges so made shall constitute part of the Capital Investment hereunder even if such charges would cause the aggregate balance of the Capital Investment to exceed the Investment Base.

Section 2.07. Fees.

(a) On the Second Restatement Effective Date, the Seller shall pay to the persons specified in the Fee Letter the fees set forth in the Fee Letter that are payable on the Second Restatement Effective Date.

(b) From and after the Closing Date, as additional compensation for the Purchasers, the Seller agrees to pay to Purchaser Agent, for the ratable benefit of such Purchasers, monthly in arrears, on each Settlement Date prior to the Facility Termination Date and on the Facility Termination Date, the Unused Commitment Fee.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) On each Settlement Date, the Seller shall pay to the Servicer or to the Successor Servicer, as applicable, the Servicing Fee or the Successor Servicing Fees and Expenses, respectively, in each case to the extent of available funds therefor pursuant to Section 2.08.

Section 2.08. Application of Collections: Time and Method of Payments.

(a) On each Business Day, the Purchaser Agent shall allocate (or, in the case of Section 2.08(a)(iv), apply) amounts on deposit in the Agent Account on such day and not previously allocated under this subsection (a) as follows, in the following order of priority:

(i) first, to be retained in the Agent Account for payment in accordance with clause (i) of the following subsection (b), an amount equal to the aggregate Fees accrued and unpaid through such date and all unreimbursed expenses of the Purchaser Agent and the Administrative Agent which are reimbursable pursuant to the terms hereof;

(ii) second, to be retained in the Agent Account for payment in accordance with clause (ii) of the following subsection (b), an amount equal to the aggregate Daily Yield accrued and unpaid through such date;

(iv) fourth, an amount equal to any Purchase Excess if the Facility Termination Date has not occurred:

(A) first, to be paid on such Business Day in reduction of Capital Investment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest, to the Purchasers ratably based on the amount of their respective Capital Investment, together with amounts payable with respect thereto under Section 2.10, if any, until the Capital Investment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest is reduced to zero; and

(B) second, to be retained in the Agent Account as Cash Collateral;

(v) fifth, if any of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.02 shall not be satisfied, all such remaining amounts to the extent not greater than the Capital Investment to be retained in the Agent Account until paid in accordance with the following subsection (b) or all such conditions are satisfied;

(vi) sixth, to be retained in the Agent Account and paid in accordance with the applicable provisions of the following subsection (b), an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all other accrued and unpaid Seller Obligations which are then required to be paid according to such subsection, including, without limitation, the expenses of the Purchasers reimbursable under Section 12.04 and any accrued and unpaid Servicing Fees not allocated pursuant to clause third above; and

(vii) seventh, unless a Termination Event or Incipient Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, any remaining amounts on deposit in the Agent Account, to be paid to the Seller Account (if a Termination Event or Incipient Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, such amounts shall remain in the Agent Account).

(b) On each Settlement Date until the Termination Date, the Purchaser Agent shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.11, withdraw amounts on deposit in the Agent Account and pay such amounts as follows in the following order of priority:

(i) first, to the extent then due and payable, pro rata, to the payment of all Fees accrued and unpaid through such date and all unreimbursed expenses of the Purchaser Agent which are reimbursable pursuant to the terms hereof;

(ii) second, to the payment of accrued and unpaid Daily Yield, pro rata ;

(A) first, to be paid on such Settlement Day in reduction of Capital Investment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest, to the Purchasers ratably based on the amount of their respective Capital Investment, together with amounts payable with respect thereto under Section 2.10, if any until the Capital Investment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest is reduced to zero and

(B) second, to be retained in the Agent Account as Cash Collateral;

(v) fifth, if any of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3.02 shall not be satisfied, to the payment of the Capital Investment, together with amounts payable with respect thereto under Section 2.10, if any, pro rata;

(vi) sixth, to the extent then due and payable, pro rata, to the payment of all accrued and unpaid Seller Obligations which are then required to be paid hereunder, including, without limitation, the expenses of the Purchasers reimbursable under Section 12.04 ; and

(vii) seventh, to be paid to the Seller Account.

(c) If and to the extent a Purchase Excess exists on any Business Day and the amounts on deposit in the Agent Account are not sufficient to eliminate such Purchase Excess in accordance with Section 2.08(a)(iv), the Seller shall (i) deposit an amount equal to the amount of such

Purchase Excess in the Agent Account by no later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the immediately succeeding Business Day, which amount shall be applied by the Purchaser Agent as an immediate reduction of Capital Investment in respect of the Revolving Purchaser Interest (together with amounts payable with respect thereto under Section 2.10) or (ii) if the Capital Investment in respect of the Revolving Purchaser Interest has been reduced to zero, remit Cash Collateral in an amount equal to such Purchase Excess to the Agent Account by no later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the immediately succeeding Business Day.

(d) To the extent that amounts on deposit in the Agent Account on any day are insufficient to pay amounts due on such day in respect of any Purchase Excess, any matured Daily Yield, Fees or any other amounts due and payable by the Seller hereunder, the Seller shall pay, upon notice from the Purchaser Agent, the amount of such insufficiency to the Purchaser Agent in Dollars, in immediately available funds (for the account of the Purchaser Agent, the applicable Purchasers, Affected Parties or Indemnified Persons) not later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on such day. Any such payment made on such date but after such time shall be deemed to have been made on, and Daily Yield shall continue to accrue and be payable thereon at the Daily Yield Rate, until the next succeeding Business Day.

(e) The Seller hereby irrevocably waives the right to direct the application of any and all payments received from or on behalf of the Seller, and the Seller hereby irrevocably agrees that any and all such payments shall be applied by the Purchaser Agent in accordance with this Section 2.08.

(f) All payments in reduction of Capital Investment and all payments of Daily Yield, Fees and other amounts payable by the Seller hereunder shall be made in Dollars, in immediately available funds. If any such payment becomes due on a day other than a Business Day, the maturity thereof will be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and Daily Yield shall accrue thereon at the Daily Yield Rate shall be payable during such extension. Payments received at or prior to 2:00 p.m. (New York time) on any Business Day shall be deemed to have been received on such Business Day. Payments received after 2:00 p.m. (New York time) on any Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day shall be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

(g) Any and all payments by the Seller hereunder shall be made in accordance with this Section 2.08 without setoff or counterclaim and free and clear of and without deduction for any and all present or future taxes, levies, imposts, deductions, Charges or withholdings (all such taxes, levies, imposts, deductions, Charges and withholdings, other than Excluded Taxes, being “Indemnified Taxes”), excluding (i) taxes imposed on or measured by the net income, gross receipts or franchise taxes of any Affected Party by the jurisdictions under the laws of which such Affected Party is organized or by any political subdivisions thereof or in which it is doing business other than solely as a result of the transactions contemplated hereunder, (ii) any branch profits tax imposed by the U.S., (iii) any withholding tax to which the Affected Party is subject on the date it becomes a party to this Agreement and (iv) any U.S. withholding tax which is imposed as a result of the Affected Party’s failure to provide the forms required under Section 2.08(h) hereof, if any, or to comply with FATCA (such excluded taxes being, “Excluded Taxes”). If the Seller shall be required by law to deduct any Indemnified Taxes from or in respect of any sum payable hereunder, (i) the sum payable shall be increased as much as shall be necessary so that after making all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.08) the Affected Party entitled to receive any such payment receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions been made, (ii) the Seller shall make such deductions, and (iii) the Seller shall pay the full amount deducted to the relevant taxing or other authority in accordance with applicable law. Within 30 days after the date of any payment of Indemnified Taxes, the Seller shall furnish to the Purchaser Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt evidencing payment thereof. The Seller shall indemnify any Affected Party from and against, and, within ten days of demand therefor, pay any Affected Party for, the full amount of Indemnified Taxes

(together with any taxes imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 2.08) paid by such Affected Party and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally asserted.

(h) Prior to the receipt of any payments hereunder each foreign Purchaser shall provide Agent, Purchaser Agent and Seller with two properly executed forms W-8BEN claiming a full exemption from U.S. withholding tax.

(i) Any Affected Party which receives a refund of any Indemnified Taxes for which it received payments under Section 2.08(g) hereof, shall promptly refund such amounts to the Seller.

(j) Upon receipt of a notice in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Transfer Agreement, the Purchaser Agent shall, if such amounts have not been applied to the Seller Obligations, segregate the Unrelated Amounts and the same shall not be deemed to constitute Collections on Transferred Receivables.

(k) Termination Procedures .

(i) [Reserved].

(ii) On the Termination Date, all amounts on deposit in the Collection Accounts shall be disbursed to the Seller and all ownership interests or security interests of the Purchasers in and to all Transferred Receivables and all security interests of the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent in and to the Seller Assets shall be released by each Purchaser and the Purchaser Agent. Such disbursement shall constitute the final payment to which the Seller is entitled pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(iii) Seller acknowledges that it is not authorized to file any financing statement or amendment or termination statement with respect to any financing statement without the written consent of Purchaser Agent and agrees that it will not do so without the prior written consent of Purchaser Agent.

Section 2.09. Capital Requirements; Additional Costs.

(a) If any Affected Party shall have determined that, after the Closing Date, the adoption of or any change in any law, treaty, governmental (or quasi governmental) rule, regulation, guideline or order regarding capital adequacy, reserve requirements or similar requirements or compliance by such Affected Party with any request or directive regarding capital adequacy, reserve requirements or similar requirements (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other Governmental Authority increases or would have the effect of increasing the amount of capital, reserves or other funds required to be maintained by such Affected Party against commitments made by it under this Agreement or any other Related Document and thereby reducing the rate of return on such Affected Party's capital as a consequence of its commitments hereunder or thereunder, then the Seller shall from time to time upon demand by the Purchaser Agent pay to the Purchaser Agent on behalf of such Affected Party additional amounts sufficient to compensate such Affected Party for such reduction together with interest thereon from the date of any such demand until payment in full at the Index Rate. A certificate as to the amount of that reduction and showing the basis of the computation thereof submitted by the Affected Party to the Seller shall be final, binding and conclusive on the parties hereto (absent manifest error) for all purposes.

(b) If, due to any Regulatory Change (other than any such change with regard to Taxes, which shall be governed by Section 2.08(g)), there shall be any increase in the cost to any Affected Party of agreeing to make or making, funding or maintaining any commitment hereunder or under any other Related Document, including with respect to any Purchases or Capital Investment, or any reduction in any amount receivable by such Affected Party hereunder or thereunder, including with respect to any Purchases or Capital Investment (any such increase in cost or reduction in amounts receivable are hereinafter referred to as "Additional Costs"), then the Seller shall, from time to time upon demand by the Purchaser Agent, pay to the Purchaser Agent on behalf of such Affected Party additional amounts sufficient to compensate such Affected Party for such Additional Costs together with interest thereon from the date demanded until payment in full thereof at the Index Rate. Each Affected Party agrees that, as promptly as practicable after it becomes aware of any circumstance referred to above that would result in any such Additional Costs, it shall, to the extent not inconsistent with its internal policies of general application, use reasonable commercial efforts to minimize costs and expenses incurred by it and payable to it by the Seller pursuant to this Section 2.09(b).

(c) Determinations by any Affected Party for purposes of this Section 2.09 of the effect of any Regulatory Change on its costs of making, funding or maintaining any commitments hereunder or under any other Related Documents or on amounts payable to it hereunder or thereunder or of the additional amounts required to compensate such Affected Party in respect of any Additional Costs shall be set forth in a written notice to the Seller in reasonable detail and shall be final, binding and conclusive on the Seller (absent manifest error) for all purposes.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the introduction of or any change in any law or regulation (or any change in the interpretation thereof) shall make it unlawful, or any central bank or other Governmental Authority shall assert that it is unlawful, for any Purchaser to agree to make or to make or to continue to fund or maintain any LIBOR Rate Purchase, then, unless that Purchaser is able to make or to continue to fund or to maintain such LIBOR Rate Purchase at another branch or office of that Purchaser without, in that Purchaser's opinion, adversely affecting it or its Capital Investment or the income obtained therefrom, on notice thereof and demand therefor by such Purchaser to the Seller through the Purchaser Agent, (i) the obligation of such Purchaser to agree to make or to make or to continue to fund or maintain LIBOR Rate Purchases shall terminate and (ii) Seller shall forthwith prepay in full all outstanding LIBOR Rate Purchases owing to such Purchaser, together with Daily Yield accrued thereon, unless Seller, within five (5) Business Days after the delivery of such notice and demand, converts all such LIBOR Rate Purchases into Index Rate Purchases.

Section 2.10. Breakage Costs. The Seller shall pay to the Purchaser Agent for the account of the applicable Purchaser, upon request of such Purchaser, such amount or amounts as shall compensate such Purchaser for any loss, cost or expense incurred by such Purchaser (as determined by such Purchaser) as a result of any reduction by the Seller in Capital Investment in any LIBOR Rate Purchase (and accompanying loss of Daily Yield thereon) other than on a Settlement Date, which compensation shall include an amount equal to any loss or expense incurred by such Purchaser during the period from the date of such reduction to (but excluding) such Settlement Date if the rate of interest obtainable by such Purchaser upon the redeployment of funds in an amount equal to such reduction is less than the interest rate applicable to the deemed investment described below (any such loss, cost or expense, "Breakage Costs"). The determination by such Purchaser of the amount of any such loss or expense shall be set forth in a written notice to the Seller in reasonable detail and shall be final, binding and conclusive on the Seller (absent manifest error) for all purposes. For the purpose of calculating amounts payable under this Section 2.10, each Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have actually funded its Capital Investment through the purchase of a deposit bearing interest at the applicable LIBOR Rate used in calculating the Daily Yield Rate with respect to its Capital Investment and maturing on the next Settlement Date; provided that each Purchaser may fund its Capital Investment in any manner it sees fit, and the foregoing assumption shall be utilized only for the calculation of amounts payable under this Section 2.10. This covenant shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Seller Obligations and all other amounts payable hereunder. The determination by any Purchaser of the amount of any such loss or expense shall be set forth in a written notice to the Seller in reasonable detail and shall be final, binding and conclusive on the Seller (absent manifest error) for all purposes.

Section 2.11. Non-Funding Purchasers. (a) If a Purchaser becomes a Non-Funding Purchaser, then, so long as such Purchaser remains a Non-Funding Purchaser in accordance with clause (b) below, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, any amount paid by the Seller for the account of a Non-Funding Purchaser under this Agreement (whether on account of Capital Investment, Daily Yield, Fees, Breakage Costs, indemnity payments or other amounts) will not be paid or distributed to such Non-Funding Purchaser, but will, so long as such Purchaser is a Non-Funding Purchaser, instead be retained by the Purchaser Agent in a segregated non-interest bearing account (the "Non-Funding Purchaser Account"), until the Termination Date and will be applied by the Purchaser Agent, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to the making of payments from time to time in the following order of priority: first to the payment of any amounts, if any, due and owing by such Non-Funding Purchaser to the Purchaser Agent under this Agreement, together with interest thereon owing at the Index Rate; second to the payment of Daily Yield due and payable to the Other Purchasers, ratably among them in accordance with the amounts of such Daily Yield then due and payable to them; third to the payment of fees then due and payable to the Other Purchasers, ratably among them in accordance with the amounts of such fees then due and payable to them; fourth, if as of any Settlement Date the Capital Investment of any Other Purchaser exceeds its Pro Rata Share (as determined without giving effect to the proviso in the definition thereof) of the total Capital Investments, to repay the Capital Investments of each such Other Purchaser in the amount necessary to eliminate such excess, pro rata based on the Capital Investments of the Other Purchasers; fifth, to make any other mandatory reductions of Capital Investments of the Other Purchasers required under Section 2.08, pro rata based on the Capital Investment of such Other Purchasers; sixth to the ratable payment of other amounts then due and payable to the Other Purchasers; and seventh to pay any Daily Yield, Capital Investment or other amounts owing under this Agreement to such Non-Funding Purchaser in the order of priority set forth in Section 2.08(b) hereof or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct; provided that funds shall be redirected from the Non-Funding Purchaser Account to pay amounts owed under clauses second through sixth solely after application of other funds on deposit in the Agent Accounts and only to the extent that such other funds are insufficient to make such payments.

Any funds redirected from the Non-Funding Purchaser Account to make payments under clauses second through sixth above shall not be deemed to be payment by the Seller for purposes of determining whether a Termination Event has occurred and shall not discharge any obligations of the Seller to make such payment. To the extent that any Other Purchasers have been paid with amounts redirected from the Non-Funding Purchaser Account, the Non-Funding Purchaser shall, from and after payment in full of all Daily Yield, Capital Investment and other amounts owed to the Other Purchasers, be subrogated to the rights of the Other Purchasers to the extent of any such payments from the Non-Funding Purchaser Account under clause seventh above.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a) above, the Purchaser Agent shall be authorized at any time that any Commitments remain outstanding, at its sole and absolute discretion, after payment of any amounts owed under clause first of the first sentence of clause (a) above, to (i) retain amounts in any Non-Funding Purchaser Account in an amount up to the related Non-Funding Purchaser's unfunded Commitment and (ii) use any portion of such retained amounts to pay such Non-Funding Purchaser's funding obligations hereunder. Upon any such unfunded obligations owing by a Non-Funding Purchaser becoming due and payable, the Purchaser Agent shall be authorized to use such the amounts in a Non-Funding Purchaser's Non-Funding Purchaser Account to make such payment on behalf of such Non-Funding Purchaser. Upon the termination of all Commitments, any amounts in any Non-Funding Purchaser Account shall be applied in accordance with the first sentence of clause (a) above.

(c) If the Seller and the Purchaser Agent agree in writing in their discretion that a Non-Funding Purchaser should no longer be deemed to be a Non-Funding Purchaser, the Purchaser Agent will so notify the other parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein (which may include arrangements with respect to any amounts then held in the segregated account referred to in Section 2.11(a)), such Non-Funding Purchaser will, to the extent applicable, purchase such portion of outstanding Capital Investment of the Other Purchasers and/or make such other adjustments as the Purchaser Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Capital Investment of all of the Purchasers to be on a pro rata basis in accordance with their respective Commitments, whereupon such Purchaser will cease to be a Non-Funding Purchaser, provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to Fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Seller while such Purchaser was a Non-Funding Purchaser; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, such notification will not constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from such Purchaser's having been a Non-Funding Purchaser.

Section 2.12. [Reserved].

Section 2.13. Register; Registered Obligations .

(a) Register. The Purchaser Agent, acting as a non-fiduciary agent of the Seller solely for tax purposes and solely with respect to the actions described in this Section 2.13(a), shall establish and maintain at its address referred to in Section 12.01 (or at such other address as the Purchaser Agent may notify the Seller) (i) a record of ownership (the "Register") in which the Purchaser Agent agrees to register by book entry the interests (including any rights to receive payment hereunder) of the Purchaser Agent and each Purchaser in the Purchaser Interests and any assignment of any such interest, obligation or right and (ii) accounts in the Register in accordance with its usual practice in which it shall record (1) the names and addresses of the Purchasers (and each change thereto pursuant to Sections 12.01 and 12.02), (2) the Commitment of each Purchaser, (3) the amount of each Capital Purchase, (4) the amount of any Capital Investment or Yield due and payable or paid, and (5) any other payment received by the Purchaser Agent from the Seller and its application to the Seller Obligations. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Seller and any Purchaser at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(b) Registered Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser Interests (including any notes evidencing such Purchaser Interest) are registered obligations, the right, title and interest of the Purchasers and their assignees in and to such Purchaser Interests, as the case may be, shall be transferable only upon notation of such transfer in the Register and no assignment thereof shall be effective until recorded therein. This Section 2.13 and Section 12.02 shall be construed so that the Advances are at all times maintained in “registered form” within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the IRC and any related regulations (and any successor provisions).

(iv) Nonavoidability of Transfers. The Seller shall (A) have received each Contributed Receivable as a contribution to the capital of the Seller by the applicable Transferor as a member of the Seller and (B) have purchased each Sold Receivable from the applicable Transferor for cash consideration, in each case in an amount that constitutes fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value therefor. Each Transferor shall have purchased each Sold Receivable from the applicable Originator for cash consideration pursuant to Section 2.01 of the Sale Agreement, or shall have received each Contributed Receivable as a contribution to the capital of such Transferor, in each case in an amount that constitutes fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value therefor. (s) Assignment of Interest in Related Documents. The Seller's interests in, to and under the Transfer Agreement have been assigned by the Seller to the Purchaser Agent (for the benefit of itself and the Purchasers). Each of the representations and warranties of the Seller contained in the Related Documents (other than this Agreement) is true and correct in all material respects (or, in the case of any such representation or warranty that is expressly qualified by a materiality standard or contains any carve-out or exception based on a Material Adverse Effect by its express terms, in all respects) and the Seller hereby makes each such representation and warranty to, and for the benefit of, the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent as if the same were set forth in full herein.

(v) Supplementary Representations.

(i) Receivables; Accounts. (A) Each Transferred Receivable constitutes an “account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC, and (B) each Account constitutes a “deposit account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC.

(ii) Creation of Security Interest. The Seller owns and has good and marketable title to the Transferred Receivables, Accounts and Lockboxes, free and clear of any Adverse Claim (other than in favor of the Purchaser Agent for the benefit of the Purchasers). This Agreement creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable UCC) in the Transferred Receivables, Accounts and Lockboxes in favor of the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties), which security interest is prior to all other Adverse Claims and is enforceable as such against any creditors of and purchasers from the Seller.

(iii) Perfection. (A) the Seller has caused the filing of all appropriate financing statements in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law and entered into Account Agreements in order to perfect the sale of the Transferred Receivables (i) from the Originators to the Transferors pursuant to the Sale Agreement and (ii) from the Transferors to the Seller pursuant to the Transfer Agreement, and the security interest in favor of the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) in the Transferred Receivables hereunder; and (B) with respect to each Account, the Seller has delivered to the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties), a fully executed Account Agreement pursuant to which the applicable Bank has agreed to comply with all instructions given by the Purchaser Agent with respect to all funds on deposit in the Accounts and the related Lockboxes, without further consent by the Seller, the Servicer or any Originator.

(iv) Priority. (A) Other than (1) the Transfer of the Transferred Receivables by the Transferors to the Seller pursuant to the Transfer Agreement, (2) the Transfer of the Transferred Receivables by the Originators to the Transferors pursuant to the Sale Agreement and (3) the security interest in favor of the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) in the Transferred Receivables, the Accounts and the Lockboxes hereunder, neither the Seller, nor any Transferor or Originator has pledged, assigned, sold, conveyed, or otherwise granted a security interest in any of such Receivables, the Accounts and the Lockboxes to any other Person. (B) Neither the Seller, nor any Transferor or Originator has authorized, or is aware of, any filing of any financing statement against the Seller, any Transferor or any Originator that include a description of collateral covering the Transferred Receivables or all other assets assigned by Seller to the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) pursuant to the Related Documents, other than any financing statement filed pursuant to the Sale Agreement, the Transfer Agreement and this Agreement or financing statements that have been validly terminated (or amended to exclude such property from the covered collateral). (C) The Seller is not aware of any judgment, ERISA or tax lien filings against either the Seller, any Transferor or any Originator. (D) None of the Accounts or Lockboxes is in the name of any Person other than the Seller or the Purchaser Agent. None of the Seller, the Servicer, any Transferor or any Originator has consented to any Bank complying with instructions of any person other than the Purchaser Agent with respect to any Account.

(v) Survival of Supplemental Representations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any other Related Document, the representations contained in this Section 4.01 shall be continuing, and remain in full force and effect until the Termination Date.

(g) Seller to Maintain Perfection and Priority. In order to evidence the interests of the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers under this Agreement, the Seller shall, from time to time take such action, or execute and deliver such instruments necessary or advisable (including, such actions as are requested by the Purchaser Agent) to maintain and perfect, as a first-priority interest, the Purchaser Agent's (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) security interest in the Transferred Receivables and all other assets assigned to the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) pursuant to the Related Documents. The Seller shall, from time to time and within the time limits established by law, prepare and present to the Purchaser Agent upon request for the Purchaser Agent's authorization and approval all financing statements, amendments, continuations or initial financing statements in lieu of a continuation statement in the, or other filings necessary to continue, maintain and perfect the Purchaser Agent's (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) security interest in the Transferred Receivables and all other assets assigned to the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) pursuant to the Related Documents as a first-priority interest. The Seller hereby authorizes the Purchaser Agent to file such financing statements under the UCC. Notwithstanding anything else in the Related Documents to the contrary, except to the extent contemplated by Section 4.02(g)(vi) of the Sale Agreement and Section 4.03(g)(vi) of the Transfer Agreement, neither the Seller, the Servicer, any Transferor nor any Originator, shall have any authority to file a termination, partial termination, release, partial release or any amendment that deletes the name of a debtor or excludes property described in any such financing statements, without the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent.

Notwithstanding anything herein or in any other Related Document to the contrary, delivery of a properly completed Monthly Report, Weekly Report or Daily Report in accordance with Annex 5.02(a) hereof shall be deemed to satisfy the requirement to deliver an Investment Base Certificate pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence.

(c) Such other reports, statements and reconciliations with respect to the Investment Base or Seller Assets as any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent shall from time to time request in its reasonable discretion.

Section 5.03. Negative Covenants of the Seller. The Seller shall not sell, transfer, convey, assign or otherwise dispose of, or assign any right to receive income in respect of, any of its properties or other assets or any of its capital Stock (whether in a public or a private offering or otherwise), any Transferred Receivable or Contract therefor or any of its rights with respect to any Lockbox, any Collection Account, the Agent Account or any other deposit account in which any Collections of any Transferred Receivable are deposited except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement or any of the other Related Documents.

(b) Liens. The Seller shall not create, incur, assume or permit to exist (i) any Adverse Claim on or with respect to its Transferred Receivables or (ii) any Adverse Claim on or with respect to its other properties or assets (whether now owned or hereafter acquired) except for Permitted Encumbrances. In addition, the Seller shall not become a party to any agreement, note, indenture or instrument or take any other action that would prohibit the creation of a Lien on any of its properties or other assets in favor of the Purchasers as additional collateral for the Seller Obligations, except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement or any of the other Related Documents.

ARTICLE VI.

ACCOUNTS

Section 6.01. Establishment of Lockboxes, Lockbox Processing & Accounts.

(a) Lockboxes and Processing.

(i) The Seller shall establish with one or more Lockbox Processors one or more Lockboxes subject, in each case, to a fully executed Lockbox Control Agreement. The Seller agrees that the Purchaser Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control of each Lockbox and all monies, instruments and other property from time to time remitted thereto and the Purchaser Agent shall have the exclusive right to direct the Lockbox Processor with respect thereto. The Seller shall not make or cause to be made, or have any ability to make or cause to be made, any withdrawals from any Lockbox or to direct the Lockbox Processor with respect the Lockbox or the monies, instruments and other property from time to time remitted thereto.

(ii) The Seller (or the Servicer on Seller's behalf) shall instruct all Obligors of Transferred Receivables, and shall use reasonable efforts to instruct all Obligors of Transferred Receivables, to make payments in respect thereof only (A) by check or money order mailed to one or more lockboxes or post office boxes under the control of the Purchaser Agent (each a "Lockbox" and collectively the "Lockboxes") or (B) by wire transfer or moneygram directly to a Collection Account. The Seller (or the Servicer on the Seller's behalf) has instructed all Lockbox Processors to deposit all items sent to a Lockbox directly into a Collection Account. Schedule 4.01(q) lists all Lockboxes and such schedule correctly identifies (1) with respect to each Lockbox, the lockbox number and address thereof and (2) the related Lockbox Processor. The Lockbox Processor shall endorse, to the extent necessary, all checks or other instruments received in any Lockbox so that the same can be deposited in a Collection Account in the form so received (with all necessary endorsements), on the first Business Day after the date of receipt thereof. In addition, the Seller shall, with respect to all cash, checks, money orders or other proceeds of Transferred Receivables or Seller Assets received by it other than in a Lockbox, either (i) deposit or cause to be deposited such Collections in the form so received (with all necessary endorsements), into a Collection Account or (ii) scan any items of payment representing Collections for deposit into a Collection Account or mail such items of payment to the Lockbox, in either case not later than the close of business on the first Business Day following the date of receipt thereof, and until so deposited all such items or other proceeds shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Purchaser Agent. (iii) If, for any reason, a Lockbox Control Agreement terminates or any Lockbox Processor fails to comply with its obligations under the Lockbox Control Agreement to which it is a party, then the Seller shall promptly notify all Obligors of Transferred Receivables who had previously been instructed to make payments to a Lockbox maintained by any such Lockbox Processor to make all future payments to a new Lockbox in accordance with this Section 6.01(a)(iii). The Seller shall not close any Lockbox unless it shall have (A) received the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent, (B) established a new post office box through the same Lockbox Processor or with a new lockbox processor satisfactory to the Purchaser Agent, (C) entered into an agreement covering such new post office box and processing services with such Lockbox Processor or with such new lockbox processor substantially in the form of the predecessor Lockbox Control Agreement or that is satisfactory in all respects to the Purchaser Agent (whereupon, for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Related Documents, such new post office box shall become a Lockbox, such new

The Seller agrees that the Purchaser Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control of each Collection Account and all monies, instruments and other property from time to time on deposit therein.

(ii) The Seller (or the Servicer on Seller's behalf) shall cause all Lockbox Processors on a daily basis to process all funds and items of payment received in each Lockbox to be automatically deposited in or credited to a Collection Account. The Collection Account Bank has been instructed by the Seller and the Servicer to automatically transfer all collected and available funds on deposit in any Intermediate Collection Account to the Concentration Collection Account and all collected and available funds on deposit in the Concentration Collection Account from the Concentration Collection Account to the Agent Account, in each case on a daily basis.

(iii) If, for any reason, the Collection Account Agreement relating to a Collection Account terminates or the Collection Account Bank fails to comply with its obligations under such Collection Account Agreement, then the Seller shall promptly notify the Purchaser Agent thereof and the Seller, the Servicer or the Purchaser Agent, as the case may be, shall instruct all Obligor who had previously been instructed to make wire payments to a Collection Account maintained at any such Collection Account Bank to make all future payments to a new Collection Account in accordance with this Section 6.01(b)(iii) . The Seller shall not close any Collection Account unless it shall have (A) received the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent, (B) established a new account with the same Collection Account Bank or with a new depository institution satisfactory to the Purchaser Agent, (C) entered into an agreement covering such new account with such Collection Account Bank or with such new depository institution substantially in the form of the Collection Account Agreement or that is satisfactory in all respects to the Purchaser Agent (whereupon, for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Related Documents, such new account shall become a Collection Account, such new agreement shall become a Collection Account Agreement and any new depository institution shall become the Collection Account Bank), and (D) taken all such action as the Purchaser Agent shall reasonably require to perfect a first priority security interest in such new Collection Account to the Purchaser under Section 7.01 of this Agreement. Except as permitted by this Section 6.01(b), the Seller shall not, and shall not permit the Servicer to open a new Collection Account without the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent and the Seller having entered into an agreement covering such new account with the Collection Account Bank or with a new depository institution substantially in the form of the Collection Account Agreement or that is satisfactory in all respects to the Purchaser Agent (whereupon, for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Related Documents, such new account shall become a Collection Account, such new agreement shall become a Collection Account Agreement and any new depository institution shall become the Collection Account Bank).

(c) Agent Account.

(i) The Purchaser Agent has established and shall maintain the Agent Account with Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (the “Depository”). The Agent Account shall be registered in the name of the Purchaser Agent and the Purchaser Agent shall, subject to the terms of this Agreement, have exclusive dominion and control thereof and of all monies, instruments and other property from time to time on deposit therein.

(ii) The Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent may deposit into the Agent Account from time to time all monies, instruments and other property received by any of them as proceeds of the Transferred Receivables.

(iii) If, for any reason, the Depository wishes to resign as depository of the Agent Account or fails to carry out the instructions of the Purchaser Agent, then the Purchaser Agent shall promptly notify the Purchasers. Neither the Purchasers nor the Purchaser Agent shall close the Agent Account unless (A) a new deposit account has been established with a new depository institution, (B) the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent have entered into an agreement covering such new account with such new depository institution satisfactory in all respects to the Purchaser Agent (whereupon such new account shall become the Agent Account and such new depository institution shall become the Depository for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Related Documents), and (C) the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent have taken all such action as the Purchaser Agent shall require to grant and perfect a first priority security interest in such new Agent Account to the Purchaser Agent (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties).

(i) The Seller has established the Seller Account.

ARTICLE VII.

SECURITY INTERESTS

Section 7.01. Security Interest. The parties hereto intend that each Purchase of undivided percentage ownership interests in the Transferred Receivables to be made hereunder shall constitute a purchase and sale of undivided percentage ownership interests in the Transferred Receivables and not a loan. The parties hereto intend that this Agreement shall constitute a “sale of accounts” or “sale of payment intangibles” (as such terms are used in Article 9 of the UCC) and therefore this Agreement is intended to create a “security interest” in the Seller Assets (and shall constitute a “security agreement”) within the meaning of Article 9 of the UCC. The Seller reaffirms its grant, assignment, conveyance and transfer under the Existing Receivables Sale Agreement and hereby grants, assigns, conveys and transfers to the Purchaser Agent, for the benefit of itself and the Purchasers, all of Seller’s right, title and interest in, to and under, but none of its obligations arising from, the following property, whether now owned by or owing to, or hereafter acquired by or arising in favor of, the Seller (including under any trade names, styles or derivations of the Seller, if any), and regardless of where located (all of which being hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Seller Assets”):

The exercise by any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent of any of its respective rights under this Agreement shall not release any Originator, each Transferor, the Seller or the Servicer from any of their respective duties or obligations under any such Receivables, Contracts or agreements. None of the Purchasers or the Purchaser Agent shall be required or obligated in any manner to perform or fulfill any of the obligations of any Originator, each Transferor, the Seller or the Servicer under or pursuant to any such Receivable, Contract or agreement, or to make any payment, or to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any such Receivable, Contract or agreement, or to present or file any claims, or to take any action to collect or enforce any performance or the payment of any amounts that may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time or times.

Section 7.05. Covenants of the Seller Regarding the Seller Assets.

(a) Offices and Records. The Seller shall maintain its jurisdiction of organization and chief executive office and the office at which it stores its Records at the respective locations specified in Schedule 4.01(b); provided, that the Seller may change the office at which it keeps its Records, so long it shall have furnished to the Purchaser Agent notice of such change and shall have taken all action requested by the Purchaser Agent (if any) pursuant to Section 12.13 with respect to the Seller Assets in light of such change on or prior to the later to occur of (x) 30 days following the occurrence of such change and (y) the earlier of the date of the required delivery of the Officer's Certificate pursuant to paragraph (d) of Annex 5.02(a) following such change and the date which is 45 days after the end of the most recently ended fiscal quarter following such change. If (i) the Purchaser Agent in good faith deems any Purchaser's rights or interests in the Transferred Receivables, the Seller Assigned Agreements or any other Seller Assets insecure or the Purchaser Agent in good faith believes that an Incipient Termination Event or a Termination Event is imminent or (ii) an Incipient Termination Event or a Termination Event shall have occurred and be continuing, then the Seller shall, and shall cause the Servicer to, at its own expense, provide such access at all times without prior notice from the Purchaser Agent and provide the Purchaser Agent with access to the suppliers and customers of the Seller and the Servicer. (d) Collection of Transferred Receivables. In connection with the collection of amounts due or to become due to the Seller under the Transferred Receivables, the Seller Assigned Agreements and any other Seller Assets pursuant to the Transfer Agreement, the Seller shall, or shall cause the Servicer to, take such action as it, and from and after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Termination Event, the Purchaser Agent, may deem necessary or desirable to enforce collection of the Transferred Receivables, the Seller Assigned Agreements and the other Seller Assets; provided, further, that if (i) an Incipient Termination Event or a Termination Event shall have occurred and be continuing or (ii) the Purchaser Agent, in good faith believes that an Incipient Termination Event or a Termination Event is imminent, then the Purchaser Agent may, without prior notice to the Seller or the Servicer, (x) exercise its right to take exclusive ownership and control of (1) the Lockboxes and the related lockbox processing in accordance with the terms of the applicable Lockbox Control Agreements and (2) the Collection Accounts (in which case the Servicer shall be required, pursuant to the Transfer Agreement, to deposit any Collections it then has in its possession or at any time thereafter receives, immediately in the Agent Account) and (y) notify any Obligor under any Transferred Receivable or obligors under the Seller Assigned Agreements of the assignment of such Transferred Receivables or Seller Assigned Agreements, as the case may be, to the Purchaser Agent on behalf of the Purchasers hereunder and direct that payments of all amounts due or to become due to the Seller thereunder be made directly to the Purchaser Agent or any servicer, collection agent or lockbox or other account designated by the Purchaser Agent and, upon such notification and at the sole cost and expense of the Seller, the Purchaser Agent may enforce collection of any such Transferred Receivable or the Seller Assigned Agreements and adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof. The Purchaser Agent shall provide prompt notice to the Seller and the Servicer of any such notification of assignment or direction of payment to the Obligors under any Transferred Receivables.

(e) Performance of Seller Assigned Agreements. The Seller shall, and shall cause the Servicer to, (i) perform and observe all the terms and provisions of the Seller Assigned Agreements to be performed or observed by it, maintain the Seller Assigned Agreements in full force and effect, enforce the Seller Assigned Agreements in accordance with their terms and take all action as may from time to time be requested by the Purchaser Agent in order to accomplish the foregoing, and (ii) upon the request of and as directed by the Purchaser Agent, make such demands and requests to any other party to the Seller Assigned Agreements as are permitted to be made by the Seller or the Servicer thereunder.

(f) License for Use of Software and Other Intellectual Property. Unless expressly prohibited by the licensor thereof or any provision of applicable law, if any, the Seller hereby grants to the Purchaser Agent on behalf of the Purchasers a limited license to use, without charge, the Seller's and the Servicer's computer programs, software, printouts and other computer materials, technical knowledge or processes, data bases, materials, trademarks, registered trademarks, trademark applications, service marks, registered service marks, service mark applications, patents, patent applications, trade names, rights of use of any name, labels, fictitious names, inventions, designs, trade secrets, goodwill, registrations, copyrights, copyright applications, permits, licenses, franchises, customer lists, credit files, correspondence, and advertising materials or any property of a similar nature, as it pertains to the Seller Assets, or any rights to any of the foregoing, only as reasonably required in connection with the collection of the Transferred Receivables and the advertising for sale, and selling any of the Seller Assets, or exercising of any other remedies hereto, and the Seller agrees that its rights under all licenses and franchise agreements shall inure to the Purchaser Agent's benefit (on behalf of itself and the other Specified Parties) for purposes of the license granted herein. Except upon the occurrence and during the continuation of a Termination Event, the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers agree not to use any such license without giving the Seller prior written notice.

ARTICLE IX.

REMEDIES

Section 9.01. Actions Upon Termination Event. If any Termination Event shall have occurred and be continuing or the Facility Termination Date shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to Section 8.01, then the Purchaser Agent may exercise in respect of the Seller Assets, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies granted to it hereunder, under any other Related Document or under any other instrument or agreement securing, evidencing or relating to the Seller Obligations or otherwise available to it, all of the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the UCC (such rights and remedies to be cumulative and nonexclusive), and, in addition, may take the following actions:

(a) The Purchaser Agent may, without notice to the Seller except as required by law and at any time or from time to time, (i) charge, offset or otherwise apply amounts payable to the Seller from the Agent Account or the Collection Accounts against all or any part of the Seller Obligations and (ii) without limiting the terms of Section 7.05(d), notify any Obligor under any Transferred Receivable or obligors under the Seller Assigned Agreements of the transfer of the Transferred Receivables to the Seller and the assignment of such Transferred Receivables or Seller Assigned Agreements, as the case may be, to the Purchaser Agent on behalf of the Specified Parties hereunder and direct that payments of all amounts due or to become due to the Seller thereunder be made directly to the Purchaser Agent or any servicer, collection agent or lockbox or other account designated by the Purchaser Agent.

(b) If the Facility Termination Date has occurred pursuant to Section 8.01 by declaration or otherwise, Purchaser Agent may, without notice except as specified below, solicit and accept bids for and sell the Seller Assets or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale, at any exchange, broker's board or any of the Purchasers' or Agent's offices or elsewhere, for cash, on credit or for future delivery, and upon such other terms as the Purchaser Agent may deem commercially reasonable. The Purchaser Agent shall have the right to conduct such sales on the Seller's premises or elsewhere and shall have the right to use any of the Seller's premises without charge for such sales at such time or times as the Purchaser Agent deems necessary or advisable. The Seller agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, ten days' notice to the Seller of the time and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification. The Purchaser Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Seller Assets regardless of notice of sale having been given. The Purchaser Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for such sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. Every such sale shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand whatsoever of the Seller in and to the Seller Assets so sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each Originator, each Transferor, the Seller or any Person claiming any right in the Seller Assets sold through any Originator, any Transferor or the Seller, and their respective successors or assigns. The Purchaser Agent shall deposit the net proceeds of any such sale in the Agent Account and such proceeds shall be applied against all or any part of the Seller Obligations.

(c) Upon the completion of any sale under Section 9.01(b), the Seller shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the purchaser or purchasers at such sale on the date thereof, or within a reasonable time thereafter if it shall be impracticable to make immediate delivery, all of the Seller Assets sold on such date, but in any event full title and right of possession to such property shall vest in such purchaser or purchasers upon the completion of such sale. Nevertheless, if so requested by the Purchaser Agent or by any such purchaser, the Seller shall confirm any such sale or transfer by executing and delivering to such purchaser all proper instruments of conveyance and transfer and releases as may be designated in any such request.

(d) At any sale under Section 9.01(b), any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent may bid for and purchase the property offered for sale and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain and dispose of such property without further accountability therefor.

(e) The Purchaser Agent may (but in no event shall be obligated to) exercise, at the sole cost and expense of the Seller, any and all rights and remedies of the Seller under or in connection with the Seller Assigned Agreements or the other Seller Assets, including any and all rights of the Seller to demand or otherwise require payment of any amount under, or performance of any provisions of, the Seller Assigned Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, the Purchaser Agent shall, upon the occurrence of any Event of Servicer Termination, have the right to name any Successor Servicer (including itself) pursuant to Article VIII of the Transfer Agreement.

Section 9.02. Exercise of Remedies.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of the Purchaser Agent or any Purchaser in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement and no course of dealing between any Originator, any Transferor, the Seller or the Servicer, on the one hand, and the Purchaser Agent or any Purchaser, on the other hand, shall operate as a waiver of such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege under this Agreement preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently, and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that the Purchaser Agent or any Purchaser would otherwise have at law or in equity. No notice to or demand on any party hereto shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances, or constitute a waiver of the right of the party providing such notice or making such demand to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any Related Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the Related Documents against the Seller, the Servicer or the Seller Assets shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Purchaser Agent in accordance with the Related Documents for the benefit of all the Purchasers; provided that the foregoing shall not prohibit (i) the Purchaser Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Purchaser Agent) hereunder and under the Related Documents, (ii) any Purchaser from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 11.07 (iii) the Requisite Purchasers or the Requisite 8.01 Purchasers, as applicable, from directing the Purchaser Agent to take actions expressly contemplated herein (including any action described in the final paragraph of Section 8.01 hereof) or (iv) any Purchaser from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable debtor relief law; and provided further that if at any time there is no Person acting as Purchaser Agent hereunder and under the Related Documents, then (A) the Requisite 8.01 Purchasers and/or the Requisite Purchasers shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Purchaser Agent pursuant to this Article IX and (B) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (ii) and (iii) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 11.07, any Purchaser may, with the consent of the Requisite 8.01 Purchasers or the Requisite Purchasers, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Requisite 8.01 Purchasers or the Requisite Purchasers.

Section 9.03. Power of Attorney. On the Second Restatement Effective Date, the Seller shall execute and deliver a power of attorney substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 9.03 (a “Power of Attorney”). The Power of Attorney is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable until this Agreement has terminated in accordance with its terms and all of the Seller Obligations are indefeasibly paid or otherwise satisfied in full. The powers conferred on the Purchaser Agent under each Power of Attorney are solely to protect the security interest of the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers upon and interests in the Seller Assets and shall not impose any duty upon the Purchaser Agent to exercise any such powers. The Purchaser Agent shall not be accountable for any amount other than amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers and none of the Purchaser Agent’s officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives shall be responsible to the Seller, any Originator, any Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person for any act or failure to act, except to the extent of damages attributable to their own gross negligence or willful misconduct as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any other provision herein or in any other Related Document to the contrary, the Purchaser Agent shall not exercise any powers pursuant to any Power of Attorney unless a Termination Event shall have occurred and be continuing.

The Seller agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that (a) any Purchaser or holder may exercise its right to set off with respect to amounts in excess of its Pro Rata Share of the Seller Obligations and may sell participations in such amount so set off to other Purchasers and holders and (b) any Purchaser or holders so purchasing a participation in the Capital Investment or Seller Obligations held by other Purchasers or holders may exercise all rights of set off, bankers' lien, counterclaim or similar rights with respect to such participation as fully as if such Purchaser or holder were a direct holder of the Capital Investment and the Seller Obligations in the amount of such participation. Section 12.02. Binding Effect; Assignability.

(a) This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Seller, each Purchaser, the Purchaser Agent, the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arrangers, the Syndication Agent and their respective successors and permitted assigns. The Seller may not assign, transfer, hypothecate or otherwise convey any of its rights or obligations hereunder or interests herein without the express prior written consent of all Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent. Any such purported assignment, transfer, hypothecation or other conveyance by the Seller without the prior express written consent of all Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent shall be void.

(b) The Seller hereby consents to any Purchaser's assignment or pledge of, and/or sale of participations in, at any time or times after the Closing Date of the Related Documents, Capital Investment and any Commitment or of any portion thereof or interest therein, including any Purchaser's rights, title, interests, remedies, powers or duties thereunder, whether evidenced by a writing or not, made in accordance with this Section 12.02(b). Any assignment by a Purchaser shall (i) unless (A) a Termination Event has occurred and is continuing or (B) the assignee is an Affiliate of a Purchaser, require the prior written consent of the Seller (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), (ii) if the assignee is an Affiliated Party require the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; (iii) require the execution of an assignment agreement (an "Assignment Agreement") substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 12.02(b) or otherwise in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser Agent, and acknowledged by, the Purchaser Agent, a copy of which is delivered to the Seller and other than in the case of an assignment by a Purchaser to one of its Affiliates, the written consent of the Purchaser Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and, only if and so long as no Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, the Seller (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); (iv) if a partial assignment, (A) be in an amount at least equal to $5,000,000 and, after giving effect to any such partial assignment, the assigning Purchaser shall have retained Commitments in an amount at least equal to $5,000,000 and (B) constitute a ratable assignment of the Revolving Purchaser Interest and the Term Purchaser Interest such that, after giving effect to such assignment, such assignee Purchaser's and assignor Purchaser's respective pro rata shares of Capital Investment in respect of the Revolving Purchaser Interest are equal to such assignee Purchaser's and assignor Purchaser's respective pro rata shares of the Capital Investment in respect of the Term Purchaser Interest; (v) require the delivery to the Seller and Purchaser Agent by the assignee or participant, as the case may be, of any forms, certificates or other evidence with respect to United States tax withholding matters; (vi) other than in the case of an assignment by a Purchaser to one of its Affiliates, include a payment to the Purchaser Agent by the assignor or assignee Purchaser of an assignment fee of $3,500; and (vi) any assignment by a Non-Funding Purchaser (including to any Affiliate thereof) shall require the prior written consent of the Purchaser Agent. In the case of an assignment by a Purchaser under this Section 12.02, the assignee shall have, to the extent of such assignment, the same rights, benefits and obligations as it would if it were a Purchaser hereunder. The assigning Purchaser shall be relieved of its obligations hereunder with respect to its Commitments or assigned portion thereof from and after the date of such assignment. The Seller hereby acknowledges and agrees that any assignment made in accordance with this Section 12.02(b) will give rise to a direct obligation of the Seller to the assignee and that the assignee shall thereupon be a "Purchaser" for all purposes. In all instances, each Purchaser's obligation to make Purchases and maintain Capital Investment hereunder shall be several and not joint and shall be limited to such Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of the applicable Commitment. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.02(b), any Purchaser may at any time pledge or assign all or any portion of such Purchaser's rights under this Agreement and the other Related Documents to any Federal Reserve Bank or to any holder or trustee of such Purchaser's securities; provided, however, that no such pledge or assignment to any Federal Reserve Bank, holder or trustee shall release such Purchaser from such Purchaser's obligations hereunder or under any other Related Document and no such holder or trustee shall be entitled to enforce any rights of such Purchaser hereunder unless such holder or trustee becomes a Purchaser hereunder through execution of an Assignment Agreement as set forth above.

(c) In addition to the foregoing right, any Purchaser may, without notice to or consent from the Purchaser Agent or the Seller, (x) grant to a Purchaser SPV the option to make all or any part of any Purchase that such Purchaser would otherwise be required to make hereunder (and the exercise of such option by such Purchaser SPV and the making of Purchases pursuant thereto shall satisfy the obligation of such Purchaser to make such Loans hereunder); (y) assign to a Purchaser SPV all or a portion of its rights (but not its obligations) under the Related Documents, including a sale of any Purchaser Interests, Capital Investment or Seller Obligations hereunder and such Purchaser's right to receive payment with respect to any such Purchaser Interests, Capital Investment or Seller Obligations and (z) sell participations to one or more Persons in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under the Related Documents (including all its rights and obligations with respect to the Purchases and the Capital Investment); provided, however, that (x) no such grant or assignment shall relieve the Purchaser of any of its obligations under this Agreement; (y) no such Purchaser SPV or participant shall have a commitment, or be deemed to have made an offer to commit, to make Purchases hereunder, and none shall be liable to any Person for any obligations of such Purchaser hereunder (it being understood that nothing in this Section 12.02(c) shall limit any rights the Purchaser may have as against such Purchaser SPV or participant under the terms of the applicable option, sale or participation agreement between or among such parties); and (y) no such Purchaser SPV or holder of any such participation shall be entitled to require such Purchaser to take or omit to take any action hereunder except actions directly affecting (i) any reduction in the principal amount of, or interest rate or Fees payable with respect to, any Purchase in which such holder participates, (ii) any extension of any scheduled payment of the Capital Investment in which such holder participates or the final maturity date thereof and (iii) any release of all or substantially all of the Seller Assets (other than in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or the other Related Documents). Solely for purposes of Sections 2.08, 2.09, 2.10, and 10.01, Seller acknowledges and agrees that each such sale or participation shall give rise to a direct obligation of the Seller to the participant or Purchaser SPV and each such participant or Purchaser SPV shall be considered to be a "Purchaser" for purposes of such sections, provided, however, that the participant provides the Seller the appropriate IRS withholding tax forms prior to the receipt of any payment hereunder claiming a full exemption from U.S. withholding tax. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, such Purchaser's rights and obligations, and the rights and obligations of the other Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent towards such Purchaser under any Related Document shall remain unchanged and none of the Seller, the Purchaser Agent or any Purchaser (other than the Purchaser selling a participation or assignment to an Purchaser SPV) shall have any duty to any participant or Purchaser SPV and may continue to deal solely with the assigning or selling Purchaser as if no such assignment or sale had occurred.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Section 12.02, no Purchaser shall, as between the Seller and that Purchaser, or between the Purchaser Agent and that Purchaser, be relieved of any of its obligations hereunder as a result of any sale, assignment, transfer or negotiation of, or granting of participation in, all or any part of the Purchaser Interests, the Capital Investment or Seller Obligations owed to such Purchaser.

(e) The Seller shall assist any Purchaser permitted to sell assignments or participations under this Section 12.02 as reasonably required to enable the assigning or selling Purchaser to effect any such assignment or participation, including the execution and delivery of any and all agreements, notes and other documents and instruments as shall be reasonably requested and the participation of management in meetings with potential assignees or participants. The Seller shall, if the Purchaser Agent so requests in connection with an initial syndication of the Commitments hereunder, assist in the preparation of informational materials for such syndication.

(f) A Purchaser may furnish any information concerning the Seller, the Parent, any Transferor, the Originator, the Servicer and/or the Receivables in the possession of such Purchaser from time to time to assignees and participants (including prospective assignees and participants). Each Purchaser shall obtain from all prospective and actual assignees or participants confidentiality covenants substantially equivalent to those contained in Section 12.05.

Section 12.03. Termination; Survival of Seller Obligations Upon Facility Termination Date.

(a) This Agreement shall create and constitute the continuing obligations of the parties hereto in accordance with its terms, and shall remain in full force and effect until the Termination Date.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in any other Related Document, no termination or cancellation (regardless of cause or procedure) of any commitment made by any Affected Party under this Agreement shall in any way affect or impair the obligations, duties and liabilities of the Seller or the rights of any Affected Party relating to any unpaid portion of the Seller Obligations, due or not due, liquidated, contingent or unliquidated or any transaction or event occurring prior to such termination, or any transaction or event, the performance of which is required after the Facility Termination Date. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in any other Related Document, all undertakings, agreements, covenants, warranties and representations of or binding upon the Seller and all rights of any Affected Party hereunder, all as contained in the Related Documents, shall not terminate or expire, but rather shall survive any such termination or cancellation and shall continue in full force and effect until the Termination Date; provided, that the rights and remedies provided for herein with respect to any breach of any representation or warranty made by the Seller pursuant to Article IV, the indemnification and payment provisions of Article X and Sections 11.05, 12.04 and 12.14 shall be continuing and shall survive the Termination Date.

Section 12.04. The Seller shall reimburse each Purchaser and the Purchaser Agent for all fees, costs and expenses, including the fees, costs and expenses of counsel or other advisors (including environmental and management consultants and appraisers) for advice, assistance, or other representation in connection with:

(i) the forwarding to the Seller or any other Person on behalf of the Seller by any Purchaser of any payments for Purchases made by it hereunder;

(b) The Seller agrees that it shall not (and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to) issue any news release or make any public announcement pertaining to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Related Documents without the prior written consent of the Requisite Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) unless such news release or public announcement is required by law, in which case the Seller shall consult with the Purchaser Agent and any Purchasers specifically referenced therein prior to the issuance of such news release or public announcement. The Seller may, however, disclose the general terms of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Related Documents to trade creditors, suppliers and other similarly-situated Persons so long as such disclosure is not in the form of a news release or public announcement.

(c) The Purchaser Agent and each Purchaser agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), and will not use such confidential Information for any purpose or in any matter except in connection with this Agreement, except that Information may be disclosed (1) to (i) each Affected Party (ii) its and each Affected Party's and their respective Affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential and to not disclose or use such Information in violation of Regulation FD (17 C.F.R. § 243.100-243.103)) and (iii) industry trade organizations for inclusion in league table measurements, (2) any regulatory authority (it being understood that it will to the extent reasonably practicable provide the Seller with an opportunity to request confidential treatment from such regulatory authority), (3) to the extent required by applicable laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process, (4) to any other party to this Agreement, (5) to the extent required in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Related Document or the enforcement of rights hereunder or thereunder, (6) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section, to any assignee of (or participant in), or any prospective assignee of (or participant in), any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, (7) with the consent of the Seller or (8) to the extent such Information (i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section or any other confidentiality agreement to which it is party with the Seller or the Parent or any subsidiary thereof or (ii) becomes available to the Purchaser Agent, or any Purchaser on a nonconfidential basis from a source other than the Parent or any subsidiary thereof. For the purposes of this Section, "Information" means all information received from the Seller and Servicer relating to the Seller, the Servicer, the Parent or any subsidiary thereof or their businesses, or any Obligor, other than any such information that is available to the Purchaser Agent or any Purchaser on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure by Seller or Servicer; provided that in the case of information received from the Seller or Servicer after the Closing Date, such information is clearly identified at the time of delivery as confidential. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

Section 12.06. Complete Agreement; Modification of Agreement. This Agreement and the other Related Documents constitute the complete agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and may not be modified, altered or amended except as set forth in Section 12.07.

Section 12.07. Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Except for actions expressly permitted to be taken solely by the Purchaser Agent, no amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or any consent to any departure by the Seller therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Seller and by the Requisite Purchasers and, to the extent required under clause (b)

below, by all affected Purchasers and, to the extent required under clause (b) or clause (c) below, by the Purchaser Agent, to the extent provided in clause (b) below, the Administrative Agent, and to the extent provided in clause (b) below, the Syndication Agent. Except as set forth in clause (b) below, all amendments, modifications, terminations or waivers requiring the consent of any Purchasers without specifying the required percentage or number of Purchasers shall require the written consent of the Requisite Purchasers.

(b) (i) No amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any consent to any departure by the Seller therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Requisite Purchasers; provided, that that no such amendment, modification, termination or waiver shall, without the consent of each affected Purchaser (excluding any Non-Funding Purchaser), (i) extend the date of payment on or deposit into any Account of Collections by the Seller or Servicer, (ii) reduce the rate or extend the payment of Daily Yield, (iii) change the amount of Capital Investment of any Purchaser (except as contemplated by Section 2.03(c)), any Purchaser's Pro Rata Share of the Purchaser Interests or any Purchaser's Commitment, (iv) amend, modify or waive any provision of the definition of "Pro Rata Share", "Requisite Purchasers", "Requisite 8.01 Purchasers", Section 2.08(a), 2.08(b), 8.01(a), 11.07, clause (ii) of the second sentence of Section 12.02(b) or this Section 12.07, (v) amend or modify, or waive the requirements of, the definition of "Eligible Receivable", "Investment Base", "Dynamic Advance Rate" (vi) decrease the amount of, or extend the date for payment of, any fees payable under this Agreement, (vii) prior to the Termination Date release any security interest created hereunder in favor of the Purchaser Agent during any single Settlement Period in excess of 3.00% of the aggregate Outstanding Balance of Transferred Receivables at the time of such release, (viii) change in any manner any provision of this Agreement that, by its terms, expressly requires the approval or concurrence of all Purchasers, (ix) amend, modify or waive in any manner any provision of this Agreement that, by its terms, expressly provides for the making of pro rata payments in respect of any Seller Obligations, or (x) amend or modify, or waive the requirements of, any defined term (or any defined term used directly or indirectly in any such defined term) used in clauses (i) through (ix) above in any manner that would circumvent the intention of the restrictions set forth in such clauses; provided, further, that that no such amendment, modification, termination or waiver shall, without the consent of the Purchaser Agent, the Administrative Agent and the Syndication Agent, (i) amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 8.01(t), (ii) amend or modify, or waive the requirements of, any defined term (or any defined term used directly or indirectly in any such defined term) used in Section 8.01(t) in any manner that would circumvent the intention of the restrictions set forth in clause (i) of this proviso or (iii) amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 12.15; and provided, that no such amendment, modification, termination or waiver shall, without the consent of any affected Non-Funding Purchaser, increase the amount of such Non-Funding Purchaser's Commitment or except as otherwise provided in Section 2.12, reduce the rate or extend the payment of Daily Yield owed to such Non-Funding Purchaser or reduce the amount of Capital Investment or Fees owing to such Non-Funding Purchaser.

(ii) Each amendment, modification, termination or waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given. No amendment, modification, termination or waiver shall be required for the Purchaser Agent to take additional Seller Assets pursuant to any Related Document. No notice to or demand on the Seller in any case shall entitle the Seller to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(iii) In addition, no amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or Related Document relating to the Administrative Agent shall be effective without the written concurrence of the Administrative Agent.

(c) If, in connection with any proposed amendment, modification, consent, waiver or termination (a “Proposed Change”) requiring the consent of all affected Purchasers, the consent of Requisite Purchasers is obtained, but the consent of other Purchasers whose consent is required is not obtained (any such Purchaser whose consent is not obtained as described this clause (c) being referred to as a “Non-Consenting Purchaser”), then, so long as the Purchaser Agent is not a Non-Consenting Purchaser, at the Seller’s request the Purchaser Agent, or a Person acceptable to the Purchaser Agent, shall have the right with the Purchaser Agent’s consent and in the Purchaser Agent’s sole discretion (but shall have no obligation) to purchase from such Non-Consenting Purchasers, and such Non-Consenting Purchasers agree that they shall, upon the Purchaser Agent’s request, sell and assign to the Purchaser Agent or such Person, all of the Commitments and Purchaser Interests of such Non-Consenting Purchaser for an amount equal to the Capital Investment held by the Non-Consenting Purchaser and all accrued Daily Yield and Fees and expenses with respect thereto through the date of sale, such purchase and sale to be consummated pursuant to an executed Assignment Agreement. If, in connection with any proposed amendment, modification, consent, waiver or termination requiring the consent of the Administrative Agent and any of the Purchaser Agent, the Requisite Purchasers or the Purchasers, the consent of the Purchaser Agent, the Requisite Purchasers and/or the Purchasers (as is applicable in a particular circumstance) is obtained, but the consent of the Administrative Agent is not obtained, then, at the Seller’s request the Purchaser Agent, or a Person acceptable to the Purchaser Agent, shall have the right with the Purchaser Agent’s consent and in the Purchaser Agent’s sole discretion (but shall have no obligation) to purchase from the Administrative Agent (or any Purchaser that is its Affiliate), and the Administrative Agent agrees that it (or such Affiliate) shall, upon the Purchaser Agent’s request, sell and assign to the Purchaser Agent or such Person, all of the Commitments and Purchaser Interests of such Administrative Agent or Affiliate, as applicable for an amount equal to the Capital Investment held by the Administrative Agent or such Affiliate, as applicable, and all accrued Daily Yield and Fees and expenses with respect thereto through the date of sale, such purchase and sale to be consummated pursuant to an executed Assignment Agreement.

(d) Except for actions expressly permitted to be taken solely by the Purchaser Agent, no amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of any Related Document, or any consent to any departure by a Transaction Party therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Purchaser Agent and, unless such amendment, modification or waiver is made to cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect or inconsistency in the applicable Related Document(s), the Requisite Purchasers.

(e) Upon indefeasible payment in full in cash and performance of all of the Seller Obligations (other than indemnification obligations under Section 10.01), termination of the aggregate Commitments of all Purchasers in their entirety and a release of all claims against the Purchaser Agent and Purchasers, and so long as no suits, actions, proceedings or claims are pending or threatened against any Indemnified Person asserting any damages, losses or liabilities that are Indemnified Liabilities, the Purchaser Agent shall deliver to the Seller termination statements and other documents necessary or appropriate to evidence the termination of the security interest created pursuant to this Agreement.

(f) For avoidance of doubt, and subject to the other provisions of this Section 12.07, if changes occur in laws, regulations or accounting guidelines (or in the interpretation thereof) that are applicable to the Transaction Parties, then the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers agree to consider in good faith reasonable modifications to this Agreement and the other Related Documents in light of such changes as may be requested by the Seller in order for the Agreement and the other Related Documents to continue to reflect the commercial understandings among the Seller, the Purchaser Agent and the Purchasers.

Section 12.08. No Waiver; Remedies. The failure by any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent, at any time or times, to require strict performance by the Seller or the Servicer of any provision of this Agreement, any Receivables Assignment or any other Related Document shall not waive, affect or diminish any right of any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent thereafter to demand strict compliance and performance herewith or therewith. Any suspension or waiver of any breach or default hereunder shall not suspend, waive or affect any other breach or default whether the same is prior or subsequent thereto and whether the same or of a different type. None of the undertakings, agreements, warranties, covenants and representations of the Seller or the Servicer contained in this Agreement, any Receivables Assignment or any other Related Document, and no breach or default by the Seller or the Servicer hereunder or thereunder, shall be deemed to have been suspended or waived by any Purchaser or the Purchaser Agent unless such waiver or suspension is by an instrument in writing signed by an officer of or other duly authorized signatory of the applicable Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent and directed to the Seller or the Servicer, as applicable, specifying such suspension or waiver. The rights and remedies of the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent under this Agreement and the other Related Documents shall be cumulative and nonexclusive of any other rights and remedies that the Purchasers and the Purchaser Agent may have hereunder, thereunder, under any other agreement, by operation of law or otherwise. Neither the Purchaser Agent nor any of the Purchasers shall be obligated to exhaust its recourse to or any remedy related to the Seller Assets prior to its enforcement of its rights and remedies against the Seller hereunder.

Section 12.09. GOVERNING LAW; CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH OTHER RELATED DOCUMENT (EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY RELATED DOCUMENT EXPRESSLY PROVIDES TO THE CONTRARY) AND THE OBLIGATIONS ARISING HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL IN ALL RESPECTS, INCLUDING ALL MATTERS OF CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND PERFORMANCE (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY CLAIMS SOUNDING IN CONTRACT OR TORT LAW ARISING OUT OF THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF AND ANY DETERMINATION WITH RESPECT TO POST-JUDGMENT INTEREST), BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTION 5-1401 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAWS BUT OTHERWISE WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES) EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PERFECTION, EFFECT OF PERFECTION OR PRIORITY OF THE INTERESTS OF THE PURCHASER AGENT IN THE RECEIVABLES OR REMEDIES HEREUNDER OR THEREUNDER, IN RESPECT THEREOF, ARE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AND ANY APPLICABLE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY CONSENTS AND AGREES THAT THE STATE OR FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN IN NEW YORK CITY SHALL HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION TO HEAR AND DETERMINE ANY CLAIMS OR DISPUTES BETWEEN THEM PERTAINING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR TO ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER RELATED DOCUMENT; PROVIDED, THAT EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY APPEALS FROM THOSE COURTS MAY HAVE TO BE HEARD BY A COURT LOCATED OUTSIDE OF THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN IN NEW

YORK CITY; PROVIDED FURTHER THAT NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE DEEMED OR OPERATE TO PRECLUDE ANY PURCHASER OR THE PURCHASER AGENT FROM BRINGING SUIT OR TAKING OTHER LEGAL ACTION IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION TO REALIZE ON THE SELLER ASSETS OR ANY OTHER SECURITY FOR THE SELLER OBLIGATIONS, OR TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT OR OTHER COURT ORDER IN FAVOR OF THE PURCHASERS OR THE PURCHASER AGENT. EACH PARTY HERETO SUBMITS AND CONSENTS IN ADVANCE TO SUCH JURISDICTION IN ANY ACTION OR SUIT COMMENCED IN ANY SUCH COURT, AND EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE BASED UPON LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION, IMPROPER VENUE OR FORUM NON CONVENIENS AND HEREBY CONSENTS TO THE GRANTING OF SUCH LEGAL OR EQUITABLE RELIEF AS IS DEEMED APPROPRIATE BY SUCH COURT. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES PERSONAL SERVICE OF THE SUMMONS, COMPLAINT AND OTHER PROCESS ISSUED IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR SUIT AND AGREES THAT SERVICE OF SUCH SUMMONS, COMPLAINT AND OTHER PROCESS MAY BE MADE BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL ADDRESSED TO SUCH PARTY AT THE ADDRESS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 12.01 HEREOF AND THAT SERVICE SO MADE SHALL BE DEEMED COMPLETED UPON THE EARLIER OF SUCH PARTY'S ACTUAL RECEIPT THEREOF OR THREE DAYS AFTER DEPOSIT IN THE UNITED STATES MAIL, PROPER POSTAGE PREPAID. THEREFORE, TO ACHIEVE THE BEST COMBINATION OF THE BENEFITS OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM AND OF ARBITRATION, THE PARTIES HERETO WAIVE ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, SUIT, OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTE, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF, CONNECTED WITH, RELATED TO, OR INCIDENTAL TO THE RELATIONSHIP ESTABLISHED AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER RELATED DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 12.10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of separate counterparts, each of which shall collectively and separately constitute one agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic imaging system shall be deemed as effective as delivery of an originally executed counterpart.

Section 12.11. Severability. Wherever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

Section 12.12. Section Titles. The section, titles and table of contents contained in this Agreement are and shall be without substantive meaning or content of any kind whatsoever and are not a part of the agreement between the parties hereto.

Section 12.15. Sharing of Information. The Purchaser Agent, the Administrative Agent, the Syndication Agent, the Arrangers and the other Purchasers may (1) withhold from a Purchaser that is an Affiliated Party any and all information that may otherwise be distributed or provided to any other Purchasers, except to the extent such information is has been made available to the Seller or any of the Seller’s representatives and (2) exclude a Purchaser that is an Affiliated Party from any meeting (live, telephonically or by an electronic means) of any of the Purchasers.

- Repeated Bounced (NSF/Stop Payment) Checks
- Recovery of sales commissions after 120 days
- Different terms for the same customer
- Sales adjustments vs. write-offs
- Customer with cash in advance terms having unpaid invoices
- Credit decisions being overridden by General Managers
- Credit holds not preventing spots from airing
- Collection calls on receipts listed as unapplied
- Customers with terms for payment beyond those specified on the invoice

1. Be proactive and anticipate the need, the best practice for collecting happens before the account is past due.
2. Always obtain contacts for payments including phone and email information.
3. Be a realist. Remember we will always have bad debts.
4. Call customers on a consistent basis. Not calling actually trains our customers to pay consistently beyond our terms.
5. Get the easy dollars in first, identify the problem accounts and then have the rest of the month to focus on the difficult accounts.
6. Communicate to the customer that you are there to help them and not just collect their overdue invoices.
7. Remember to always document your calls or email communications entering factual information.
8. Always have all your documents in order and at your fingertips. You can quickly answer questions, come across as being knowledgeable, organized and build confidence and respect from the customer.
9. Ask for help from your Director's when you need it in dealing with any problem accounts.
10. It's all about managing your day, staying motivated and not letting others control your time.

Most business-to-business (B2B) collections can be categorized into several reasons for non-payment:

- a. Cash flow problems
- b. Administrative problems: Missing or lost invoice, missing ISCI, etc.
- c. Agency policy: They won't pay until they are paid
- d. Terms to their vendors are beyond our invoice terms of Net 15/Net 30 days
- e. Unauthorized deductions
- f. Maximize their cash flow, pay as late as possible
- g. Discrepancies
- h. Default due to being out of business, bankruptcy or other serious problems

Your job as a B2B collector is to be able to identify, as soon as possible, define the problem and the real reason for non-payment.

Be creative and proactive. Remember that a lot of disputes are caused by our own lack of communication the more efficient we are within our own organization, the fewer disputes we will have to deal with. Remember disputes will happen regardless of how astute you are.

When you have a legitimate dispute, you need to weigh the costs against the benefits of continuing the dispute. Sometimes it just isn't worth it to be "right" and you have to graciously give in to the customer's demands in the name of goodwill and future business. This needs to be weighed against being a pushover and giving in on everything, we aren't going to allow ourselves to become "floor mats."

Some Agencies will dispute every invoice as being discrepant and we need to resolve all discrepancies prior to approval for payment. We are currently looking into methods of handling our relationship and improving on payments made from major Agencies.

We have established and are utilizing the Pikolo System for all Business Units to identify and manage discrepant invoices, identifying and improving the payment cycle for these transactions.

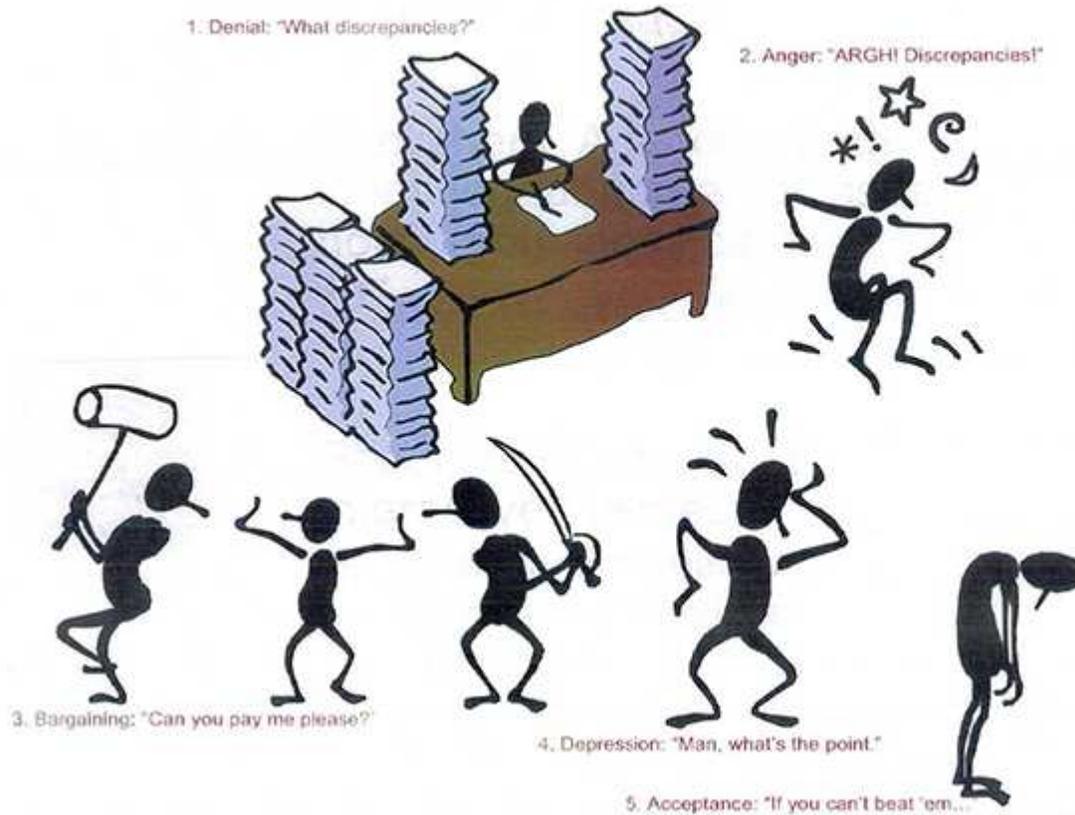

Escalation Process

- Day 45 send notification with statement of pending past due balances
- Day 60 follow-up call contacting Agency for all invoices over 60 days requesting payment
- Day 70 follow-up call contacting Agency along with Sales of required payments
- Day 80 follow-up call contacting Agency Management and Sales Management of required payment or face being placed on credit hold
- Day 90 10 day notification letter to Agency CEO/CFO demanding payment listing consequences for non-payment
- Day 95 Senior Sales Executive call to their Senior Agency Contact on being placed on temporary credit hold
- Day 100 place Advertiser on temporary credit hold, spots cannot be aired until payments are received

Discrepancies

“5 Stages of Discrepancies”

- Spots aired outside time period ordered
- Spots aired too close together, didn't meet minimum separation requirements
- Charged incorrect rate
- Spots didn't air within the broadcast program that was purchased
- Incorrect or missing estimate number on invoice
- Aired incorrect copy
- Ran unapproved "makegood" spots
- Over booked order
- Aired and charged for too many "makegood" spots
- Incorrect billing address
- Incorrect product code
- Revisions and cancellations not processed correctly
- Incorrect billing cycle (Broadcast/Calendar)
- No buy entered in system (usually occurs with online orders)
- Incorrect IDB#
- Double booked order
- Incorrect agency
- Manpower Issues (Major reason given by Agencies)
- No invoice copy
- Incorrect contract entry
- Special promotion should have been billed differently

- Collections Manager contacts the Agency/Client who indicates a discrepancy exists
- Collections Manager will generate an email notification to the Sales Team associated with this discrepant invoice
- Sales Team takes ownership of the discrepant invoice and communicates with Agency/Client in an attempt to resolve discrepancy
- Collections Manager continues to follow-up on a weekly basis with AE/Sales Team until the discrepant invoice is resolved
- Sales Team must validate Agency/Client's reason for not paying invoice (billing mistake, spot not aired, incorrectly aired, on-air discrepancy during spot "payout," client misconception that did not air)
- Once a discrepant invoice is cleared by AE/Sales Team, the AE/Sales Team will send notification to the Collections Manager advising of the outcome of the discrepant invoice
- Collections Manager once again contacts the Agency/Client for payment status for all cleared invoices
- Collections Manager monitors the discrepant invoice until payment has been received from Agency/Client

- Discrepancies can account for 50% of Network past-due balances
- Ensure correct Agency billings for each Advertiser including correct Agency and whether it's broadcast or calendar
- Pikolo System identifies and tracks discrepancies until payments are received
- Improving response time for Sales Organization in taking ownership and helping to resolve discrepancies
- Require timely issuance of sales adjustments

- Pikolo's System's Incident Tracker was deployed company-wide to track discrepancies for all business units
- Proactive initiative for identifying and resolving discrepancies, provides metrics for underlying root causes of each discrepant incident
- No longer operating in a vacuum establishing timelines from initial identification to resolution
- Sales "buy-in" monitoring KPI's (key performance indicators), days to incident ownership; days to resolution

- Automatically record payments received for discrepant invoices

It is the policy of Univision to extend credit consistent with the dual goal of promoting maximum profitable sales and protecting our investment in accounts receivable with minimum credit loss.

Credit arrangements must be made to enable the Univision, TeleFutura and Galavision Network's, each TV/Radio Station and Interactive Media to sell competitively and to collect effectively. Every effort is made to build broad and durable relationships based upon positive and constructive attitudes.

The Univision credit and collection policy is an integral part of the cash management process.

The credit and collection activity starts at the time the standard Credit Application is received by the appropriate Collection Manager and does not cease until the account has been resolved through payment, settlement, adjustment or bad debt write-off, which may involve referral to a Corporate approved collection agency or attorney for litigation.

In keeping with Univision's policy of extending credit, we are mindful of our dual goal; to promote maximum profitable sales and protect our investment in accounts receivable with minimal credit losses.

The Account Executive is the first contact with a prospective client. A completed signed Credit Application sets the credit procedure in motion. The standard Univision Credit Application is used by all Network's TV/Radio Stations and UIM.

Credit investigations help reduce risks. Sound credit decisions are made solely on the basis of adequate credit and financial information concerning both the Advertiser and the Advertising Agency through which the advertiser transacts business. We must acquire pertinent information regarding the nature and financial condition of both, as well as the character of the principals.

- The 3i Infotech consultant will start the Credit Application process by gathering reports from Dun & Bradstreet and/or from Broadcast Cable Association.
- The Account Executive is notified when the Credit Application is approved or declined.
- The processed Credit Application is placed in SharePoint for the benefit of other Credit Managers and Business Managers. If the Credit Application is declined, the client is notified and alternative payment terms such as Cash in Advance are offered.
- Some Agencies refuse to sign the Univision Credit Application due to the joint and several condition listed on the Credit Application.
- Credit decisions can still be overridden by the General Manager's at the Market's.

The primary sources of this essential information are as follows:

A. Credit Reporting Agencies

A credit file is created from the credit ratings or reports from Dun & Bradstreet and/or from Broadcast Cable Credit Association (“BCCA”) or other comparable credit reporting agencies.

B. Information Furnished by Customers.

Whenever possible, it is desirable to obtain financial information about the potential advertiser as well as about the agency. Such information is valuable in supplementing the D&B reports, which sometimes provide limited or inadequate information.

C. Credit Interchange

The exchange of credit information, between Univision and other industry sources or through an interchange bureau such as the one operated by the National Association of Credit Management, is an integral part of the credit investigation procedure. All information received or given in response to inquiries from other parties must, in every instance, be treated confidentially.

- D. A welcome letter is sent to the client if credit is approved to reinforce Univision's credit terms and establish our joint and several liability position. In addition, if the Credit Application is declined the client is notified and the alternative payment terms such as Cash in Advance are offered.

A. Goals for the Collection Department:

- Improve cash flow and reduce DSO's (Days Sales Outstanding) through increased collections using timely and systematic follow-up employing e-mails, telephone and appropriate collection letters.
- Reduce Collection Agency referrals by utilizing improved credit evaluations and collection procedures and techniques. Timely and consistent follow-up is required using a courteous but firm approach.

B. Collection Standards, and Guidelines:

- The Univision collection activities are an extension of the activities set in motion by our Sales Department. Every effort is made by the Collections Department to build broad and durable relationships with the Sales Department based upon positive and constructive attitudes resulting in effective collections for past due accounts.

C. Monitoring Accounts:

- Collection Manager's monitor accounts to ensure that payment commitments are made. Credit is an ongoing process, it needs to be evaluated and re-evaluated. If the information gathered indicates a declining financial condition, every effort must be made to protect and reduce our credit exposure.

D. Collection Agencies and Write-Offs:

- After all collection efforts have been exhausted by the Collection Manager and the Account Executive the account will be referred to a Corporate approved Collection Agency.
- Bad Debt Write-Offs, all accounts that have been referred to an approved Collection Agency and have been termed uncollectible are written-off to Bad Debt Reserve.

- Collection Manager's send statements to all customers via e-mail as soon as the prior month is closed.
- Account Coordinators confirm that the invoices have been received, that there are no discrepancies, and that the invoice is in process for payment.
- Collection Manager's send a letter at 45 days of all activities over 60+ days as of month-end.
- Resume telephone collections follow-up. Give priority to key/high volume accounts and accounts in payment default from prior months.
- When discrepancies are reported, assistance from the Account Executive or Sales Manager must be requested immediately. To assure timely resolution to all discrepancies weekly follow-up must occur.
- Place joint telephone calls utilizing a Director of Collections or Senior Collections Management and a Sales Manager if necessary on problem accounts.
- Comply with clients and AE's requests involving reconciliation of accounts, payment history, invoice copies and various miscellaneous requests.

- Obtain up-to-date aging reports reflecting the most-current account status.
- Review the unapplied cash report daily to identify payments that pertain to your Market's.
- Utilize every possible method to get payments delivered before the end of the month, such as Messenger Service, Express Mail or via Federal Express.
- Payment plans are offered to customers with delinquent accounts.
- Monitor all payment plans on a weekly/monthly basis to make sure that payment is received as agreed.

Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months. Interest on the Securities will accrue at the rate of 1.5% per annum.

b. Certain Tax Matters.

(i) Subject to Section 2(b)(iii), the Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any payments made or deemed made with respect to any Securities hereunder any amounts required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment or deemed payment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or under any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, the withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Debenture as having been paid to the Holder in respect of which such withholding was made. The Company shall not be obligated to gross-up or indemnify any Holder with respect to any withholding tax hereunder.

(ii) Each Holder that is not a “United States person” as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code (a “Code Foreign Holder” and any other Holder, a “Code U.S. Holder”) shall deliver to the Company two copies of either (A) U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-8BEN (or any successor form) or (B) IRS Form W-8ECI (or any successor form), as applicable, or, (C) in the case of a Code Foreign Holder claiming exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax under Section 871(h) or 881(c) of the Code with respect to payments of “portfolio interest,” a certificate to the effect that such Code Foreign Holder is not (1) a “bank” within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, (2) a “10 percent shareholder” of the Company within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or (3) a “controlled foreign corporation” described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code and an IRS Form W-8BEN (or any successor form), in each case, properly completed and duly executed by such Code Foreign Holder claiming complete exemption from, or a reduced rate of, U.S. federal withholding tax on all payments made or deemed made with respect to any Securities. In addition, each Code Foreign Holder shall deliver such forms on or prior to the date on which any such form expires or becomes obsolete, after the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent form previously delivered by it, and from time to time as reasonably requested by the Company. Each Code U.S. Holder shall deliver to the Company two copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Code U.S. Holder is exempt from U.S. backup withholding tax. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, a Holder shall not be required to deliver any form pursuant to this paragraph that such Holder is not legally able to deliver.

(iii) For so long as a Code Foreign Holder (1) provides the documentation described in Section 2(b)(ii)(A), any U.S. federal income tax required to be withheld or deducted by the Company with respect to any payment made or deemed made to such Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities shall be made at a rate not to exceed the rate specified with respect to the relevant type of income in (or, if no such rate is specified, otherwise consistent with) such IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form) delivered by such Code Foreign Holder to the Company, or (2) provides the documentation described in Section 2(b)(ii)(B) or (C), no U.S. federal income tax shall be withheld or deducted by the Company with respect to any payment made or deemed made to such Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities, except in each case to the extent (A) the Company has “actual knowledge” or “reason to know” (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1441-7(b)) that such form is unreliable or incorrect or (B) otherwise required by a change in applicable Law or the good faith resolution of a tax proceeding (in which case the Company shall withhold in accordance with applicable Law). The Company shall promptly notify a Code Foreign Holder if it determines that an event described in clause (A) or (B) of the preceding sentence has occurred; provided that the failure to provide such prompt notification shall not affect the rate at which the Company shall withhold on any payment or deemed payment made to such Code Foreign Holder.

(iv) Whenever any amounts are deducted or withheld by or on behalf of the Company from or with respect to any payment or deemed payment made to a Holder with respect to any Securities, the Company shall (1) timely pay the full amount so deducted or withheld to the appropriate taxing authority in accordance with applicable Law and (2) as promptly as practicable thereafter, provide such Holder with the original or a certified copy of any receipt issued by such taxing authority evidencing such payment, a copy of any return required by applicable Law to report such withholding or payment (or relevant portions thereof), or any other documentation with respect to such withholding or payment reasonably requested by such Holder.

(v) Each Code Foreign Holder shall indemnify the Company for:

(1) any U.S. federal income tax required to be deducted or withheld by the Company with respect to any payment or deemed payment made to such Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities for which the Company is liable under the Code (including, from and after the effective date thereof, Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code); provided, that a Code Foreign Holder shall have no obligation pursuant to this clause (1) to the extent such Code Foreign Holder has paid the tax against which the tax required to be deducted or withheld by the Company may be credited and has delivered to the Company evidence that is accepted by the IRS as establishing payment of such tax, and

(2) in the event of a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code (or any other resolution of a tax audit or proceeding) to the effect that the Company is liable for interest or penalties under the Code by reason of any under withholding of U.S. federal income tax required to be deducted or withheld under the Code (including, from and after the effective date thereof, Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code) by the Company with respect to any payment or deemed payment made to such Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities, any such interest or penalties; provided, that such Code Foreign Holder shall have no obligation pursuant to this clause (2) for any interest or penalties to the extent:

(A) attributable to the Company’s failure to withhold at the rate specified with respect to the relevant type of income in (or, if no such rate is specified, otherwise consistent with) the IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form) delivered by such Code Foreign Holder to the Company pursuant to Section 2(b)(ii)(A), provided that this clause (A) shall not apply with respect to the Company’s failure to withhold under Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code; or

(B) from and after the effective date of Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, attributable to any underwithholding of U.S. federal income tax attributable to the Company’s failure to comply with its reporting obligations pursuant to Section 1472(b)(3) of the Code in circumstances where the requirements of Section 1472(b)(1) and (2) of the Code are satisfied;

provided, however, that in the event that (I) the Company failed, prior to paying any such interest or penalties to the IRS, to provide such Code Foreign Holder with five (5) Business Days advance written notice of the Company’s intention to pay such interest or penalties, (II) the Code Foreign Holder indemnified the Company for such interest or penalties, (III) the Code Foreign Holder is not entitled to a credit, offset or abatement of such interest or penalties paid by the Company against interest or penalties imposed under the Code on the Code Foreign Holder as a result of the failure by such Code Foreign Holder timely to pay any tax against which the tax required to be deducted or withheld by the Company may be credited, and (IV) such Code Foreign Holder supplies the Company with evidence of payment of such interest or penalties, then the Company shall remit to such Code Foreign Holder the amount of such interest or penalties paid by such Code Foreign Holder (not to exceed the amount of interest or penalties previously indemnified by such Code Foreign Holder); provided, further, that if any portion of such amount is subsequently refunded to such Code Foreign Holder, such Code Foreign Holder shall pay the amount of such refund to the Company (in an amount not to exceed the amount remitted to such Code Foreign Holder under the foregoing proviso).

(3) If any Holder is an Affiliate of Grupo Televisa, S.A.B, a Mexico corporation (“Parent”), then Parent shall guarantee such Holder’s indemnification obligations set forth in Section 2(b)(v)(1) and (2).

(4) In the event the Company determines that it is entitled to a refund or credit of any U.S. federal income tax required to be deducted or withheld with respect to any payment or deemed payment made to a Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities, which tax was not actually withheld and for which the Company was indemnified by such Code Foreign Holder, the Company (at such Code Foreign Holder’s sole expense) shall pursue such refund (together with a refund of any interest or penalties attributable thereto). In the event the Company receives a refund or credit of U.S. federal income tax (or any interest or penalties attributable thereto) for which it was indemnified by a Code Foreign Holder, it shall pay over such refund or credit to such Code Foreign Holder (net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Company); provided that if any portion of such refund or credit that the Company paid over to a Code Foreign Holder pursuant to this sentence is subsequently disallowed by the IRS, such Code Foreign Holder shall pay to the Company the disallowed portion of such credit or refund.

(vi) If any taxing authority asserts a claim or otherwise initiates a tax proceeding against the Company that, if pursued successfully, would reasonably be expected to (1) result in an increase in the rate of withholding applicable to any payment or deemed payment made to a Code Foreign Holder with respect to any Securities or (2) serve as the basis for a claim for indemnification under Section 2(b)(v), the Company shall promptly provide written notice thereof to such Code Foreign Holder; provided that the failure to provide such prompt written notification shall not relieve such Code Foreign Holder of its obligations under Section 2(b)(v). In the event (A) the Company did not actually withhold an amount described in Section 2(b)(v)(1), (B) the Company failed, prior to paying such amount to the IRS, to provide such Code Foreign Holder with five (5) Business Days advance written notice of the Company's intention to pay such amount (together with any applicable interest and penalties) to the IRS (provided that the notice requirement in this clause (B) shall not apply in the event, from and after the effective date of Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, the Company did not actually withhold an amount required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to Section 1472(a) of the Code with respect to such Code Foreign Holder by reason of the Company's failure to comply with its reporting obligations pursuant to Section 1472(b)(3) of the Code in circumstances where the requirements of Section 1472(b)(1) and (2) of the Code are satisfied), and (C) such Code Foreign Holder has indemnified . the Company for the tax (and, to the extent required by Section 2(b)(v)(2), any interest and penalties attributable thereto), then at such Code Foreign Holder's request, the Company (at such Code Foreign Holder's sole expense) shall (1) use commercially reasonable efforts to seek a refund of such tax and, to the extent applicable, interest and penalties attributable thereto if a reasonable basis exists in fact and in Law to seek such refund, (2) keep such Code Foreign Holder reasonably informed of such refund proceeding (including providing such Code Foreign Holder copies of any documents received from the IRS) and (3) offer such Code Foreign Holder a reasonable opportunity to comment (and consider in good faith any comments received from such Code Foreign Holder) before taking any significant action or submitting any written materials prepared or furnished in connection with such refund proceeding.

c. Letter of Credit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any interest payments otherwise payable hereunder shall be reduced by the amount drawn by Multimedia Telecom, S.A. de C.V. on the Letter of Credit (as defined in the Investment Agreement); provided, that if the Holder elects to convert the Securities after an Expiration Draw (as defined in the Investment Agreement) and the amount drawn exceeds the interest otherwise payable up to and including the date of such conversion, then the Holder may elect (i) to reduce the amount of principal of the Securities by the amount of such excess immediately prior to such conversion or (ii) to pay to the Company the amount of such excess in cash promptly upon such conversion; provided, further, that notwithstanding any such drawings, any failure by the Company to make any payment of principal, premium or interest on the Securities shall constitute an Event of Default in accordance with the terms set forth in Section 7(a) hereof, and any drawdowns under the Letter of Credit shall not act as or be deemed to be a waiver of any Event of Default hereunder.

SECTION 3. Register and Method of Payment.

The Company shall keep a register of the Securities (the "Register") reflecting the ownership of the Securities outstanding from time to time and their transfer. The Register of Holders shall be maintained at the office of the Company. The Company may maintain one or more offices or agencies where the Securities may be presented for payment (the "Paying Agent").

Cash payment of interest shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by the Holder or Holders thereof, to the extent so specified at least ten Business Days prior to such payment (which account will be used for any future payments until such time as such Holder or Holders specify otherwise); provided that, if the Holder elects or does not specify an account for wire transfer, all cash payments of principal of, and premium, and interest on, the Securities (other than payments in connection with a redemption of the Securities, which may be made by check) will be made by check mailed to the Holders at their addresses set forth in the Register. #### SECTION 4. Optional Redemption.

a. Optional Redemption. Subject to the conversion privileges set forth in Section 5 herein, (i) at any time on or after the Optional Prepayment Date or (ii) if a Change of Control occurs, the Securities, at the option of the Company, may be redeemed or purchased, in whole or in part, at a redemption price (the "Redemption Price") equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Securities redeemed plus the Applicable Premium, if any, as of the date of payment (the "Redemption Date") and, without duplication, accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date, subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant Record Date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

b. Selection of Securities to Be Redeemed. If less than all of the Securities are to be redeemed at any time, the Company shall select the Securities to be redeemed on a pro rata basis to the extent practicable, or, if the pro rata basis is not practicable for any reason, by lot or by such other method the Company shall deem fair and appropriate; provided that Securities will be redeemed in integral multiples of $1,000. In the event of partial redemption by lot, the particular Securities to be redeemed shall be selected, unless otherwise provided herein, not less than 15 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date by the Company from the outstanding Securities not previously called for redemption.

c. Notice of Redemption. The Company shall mail or cause to be mailed by first-class mail notices of redemption at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at such Holder's registered address appearing in the Register.

The notice shall identify the Securities to be redeemed and shall state:

(i) the Redemption Date;

(ii) the Redemption Price;

(iii) if the Securities are to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount of the Securities that is to be redeemed and that, after the Redemption Date upon surrender of such Security, a new Security or Securities in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the original Security representing the same indebtedness to the extent not redeemed will be issued in the name of the Holder of the Securities upon cancellation of the original Security;

(iv) the name and address of any Paying Agent;

(v) whether Securities called for redemption should be surrendered to the Paying Agent or the Company to collect the Redemption Price; and

(vi) that, unless the Company defaults in making such redemption payment, interest on Securities called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the Redemption Date.

The Company may provide in the notice of redemption that payment of the Redemption Price and performance of the Company's obligations with respect to such redemption or purchase may be performed by another Person, provided that the Company shall remain liable for ensuring such performance.

d. Effect of Notice of Redemption. Once notice of redemption is mailed in accordance with Section 4(c) hereof, and subject to Section 5 (a)(iv) hereof, Securities called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the Redemption Price unless such redemption is conditional upon a Change of Control. The notice, if mailed in a manner herein provided, shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder receives such notice, so long as the notice is actually received by Televisa to the extent that Televisa is a Holder at such time (and, following the effectiveness of a trust indenture pursuant to Section 6(e), actually received by the trustee thereunder). In any case, failure to give such notice by mail or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Security designated for redemption in whole or in part shall render invalid the proceedings for the redemption of the Securities. Subject to Section 4(e) hereof, on and after the Redemption Date, interest ceases to accrue on Securities or portions of Securities called for redemption.

e. Deposit of Redemption Price.

(i) Prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with the Paying Agent, or if there is no Paying Agent, to the accounts specified by the Holder or Holders, or if no such account is specified, in an account held for the benefit of the Holder or Holders for the purposes of funding the redemption price, money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of and accrued and unpaid interest on all Securities to be redeemed on that Redemption Date. The Paying Agent, if any, shall promptly, and in any event within two Business Days after the Redemption Date, return to the Company any money deposited with the Paying Agent by the Company in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the Redemption Price of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, all Securities to be redeemed.

(ii) If the Company complies with the provisions of the preceding paragraph (i), on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Securities or the portions of Securities called for redemption, whether or not such Securities are presented for payment. If a Security is redeemed on or after a Record Date but on or prior to the related Interest Payment Date, then any accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date shall be paid in accordance with the interest payment schedule to the Person in whose name such Security was registered at the close of business on such Record Date.

f. Securities Redeemed in Part. Upon surrender of a Security that is redeemed in part, the Company shall issue for the Holder at the expense of the Company a new Security equal in principal amount to the unredeemed portion of the Security surrendered representing the same indebtedness to the extent not redeemed; provided that each new Security will be in a principal amount of $2,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof.

g. Conditional Redemption Upon Change of Control. Notwithstanding any to the contrary herein, a redemption notice may be given up to 60 days in advance of a Change of Control, conditional upon consummation of such Change of Control, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control at the time of such notice.

h. Securities Redeemed or Purchased by Third Party. The Company shall not be required to pay the Redemption Price upon the notice of redemption if the Securities have already been redeemed or purchased by any other Person or Persons in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Section 4.

SECTION 5. Conversion.

a. Conversion Privilege. Subject to the further provisions of this Section 5 and in compliance with the Stockholders Agreement and the Participation, Registration Rights and Coordination Agreement; and provided that such conversion will not result in a breach or violation by Televisa of Section 5.1 of the Stockholders Agreement but subject to the second proviso in clause (a)(i) below:

(i) at any time after December 20, 2011 a Holder of a Security may convert the principal amount of such Security (or any portion thereof equal to $50,000,000 or any integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof; provided that if less than $50,000,000 in principal amount is held by such Holder, the minimum shall be all remaining principal amount of the Security held by such Holder) into Conversion Shares, at the Conversion Price in effect at the time of such conversion, provided, however, that, subject to clause (a)(ii) below, if a Non-U.S. Holder of a Security elects to convert any Security pursuant to this Section 5(a)(i), such Non-U.S. Holder shall concurrently with such conversion, or as promptly as practicable thereafter (but in no event later than two Business Days following such conversion), sell its Conversion Shares (or Shares into which they are convertible pursuant to the Charter) to a third party who is a U.S. Person (other than a Televisa Investor, which circumstance is covered by clause (a)(ii) below) or in a Public Offering or otherwise in connection with a sale pursuant to Section 4 of the Stockholders Agreement;

(ii) at any time, any Televisa Investor may convert the principal amount of such Holder's Security (or any portion thereof equal to $50,000,000 or any integral multiple of $ 1,000 in excess thereof; provided if less than $50,000,000 in principal amount is held by such Holder, the minimum shall be all remaining principal amount of the Security held by such Holder) into Conversion Shares, at the Conversion Price in effect at the time of such conversion, so long as immediately following such conversion, the Equity Percentage does not exceed the Maximum Equity Percentage or the Conversion Shares are sold to a Person other than a Televisa Investor pursuant to Section 4 of the Stockholders Agreement;

(iii) any Televisa Investor may convert the principal amount of such Holder's Security (or any portion thereof) into Warrants if and only if (i) Televisa notifies the Company in writing that an unanticipated event or circumstance has arisen (and such notice shall include a reasonable description of such circumstance) that has a significant negative economic or regulatory impact on Televisa related to its ownership of the Security that would not exist if Televisa held the Warrants instead of the Security, and (ii) the Board, in its sole and absolute discretion (or, if such determination is made after the acquisition by a Strategic Buyer of more than 50% of the voting Common Stock and equity of the Company, in its reasonable discretion), determines that Televisa's ownership of the Warrants upon conversion of the Security would be permitted under applicable Law (including FCC Foreign Ownership Restrictions) and would not negatively impact in any manner (currently or in the future) the FCC's approval of a Change of Control transaction that would not otherwise be prohibited by the Transaction Agreements;

(iv) upon any proper delivery notice of redemption provided pursuant to Section 4(c) and subject to the provisions contained in Section 4, by no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to the applicable Redemption Date, a Holder of a Security may elect to convert the principal amount of any Security or any portion thereof called for redemption into Warrants and such conversion shall occur on the Redemption Date, and any such Security converted into Warrants shall not be redeemed; provided that if the notice of redemption is in connection with a Change of Control, then such conversion election may be conditioned upon consummation of such Change of Control; or

(v) at any time after the 60th day prior to the Maturity Date, a Holder of a Security may elect to convert the principal amount of such Security (or any portion thereof) into Warrants.

For avoidance of doubt, a conversion of a Security in accordance with this Section 5 shall not be deemed a Transfer of such Security. Any Transfer of Securities or Conversion Shares, including the sale by a Non-U.S. Holder to a third party who shall be a U.S. Holder pursuant to paragraph (i) above, shall be subject to Section 9(b) of this Terms of Securities.

The number of Conversion Shares or Warrants which shall be delivered upon conversion of the Securities shall be the principal amount of the Securities converted divided by a price, which initially shall be $231.5537 (such price herein called the "Conversion Price"). The Conversion Price will be adjusted under the circumstances provided in Section 5(e). If more than one Security shall be surrendered for conversion at one time by the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock or Warrants that shall be issuable upon conversion thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities (or specified portions thereof) so surrendered. All calculations under this Section 5 shall be made to the nearest 1/10th cent or to the nearest 1/10,000ths of a share, as the case may be.

The Company shall at all times reserve and keep available, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, solely for the purpose of issue upon conversion of Securities as herein provided, such number of shares of Common Stock as shall then be issuable upon the conversion of all Securities and all Warrants into which the Securities may be converted. The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock and Warrants issuable upon conversion of Securities will upon issue be duly and validly issued and fully paid and non-assessable by the Company and free from all taxes, liens, adverse claims, preemptive or similar rights and charges (subject to the terms of the Transaction Agreements) with respect to the issue thereof.

Upon any conversion pursuant to paragraph (iv) above in lieu of receiving a redemption payment pursuant to Section 4, the Holder shall also receive the Applicable Premium, if any, as of the Redemption Date, that it would have otherwise received if such Holder had not elected to convert its Securities pursuant to paragraph (iv) above.

The conversion of this Debenture shall be subject to the Federal Communications Laws and the rules and policies of the Federal Communications Commission and no conversion shall take place until any approval of the FCC, if and to the extent required, is first obtained.

b. Fractional Shares of Common Stock or Warrants.

(i) No fractional shares of Common Stock or Warrants exercisable therefor shall be issued upon conversion of any Security and no fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon exercise of a Warrant. In the event the conversion of a Holder's Securities would result in:

(1) a fractional share of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable shall be rounded down or decreased to the nearest whole number of shares that would permit whole shares of voting Common Stock (e.g. Class C Common Stock) to be issued without exceeding the Maximum Equity Percentage and, to the extent that such conversion would cause the voting Equity Percentage to exceed the Maximum Equity Percentage, and any non-voting Common Stock shall be issuable, the number of shares of such non-voting Common Stock shall be decreased to the nearest whole number of non-voting Common Stock (e.g. Class D Common Stock) (the “Rounded Share Number”); and

(2) a Warrant exercisable for a fractional share of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock for which such Warrant is exercisable shall be rounded down or decreased to the Rounded Share Number;

provided, however, if at any time the Company shall only have one class of Common Stock, any fractional shares of Common Stock or Warrants will be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number of shares of Common Stock or Warrants.

(ii) In the event of any round-down or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock or Warrants pursuant Section 5(b)(i) above, the Company shall calculate and pay a cash amount equal the product of (1) the amount of the round-down or decrease and (2) the Fair Market Value of such Common Stock or Warrants immediately preceding the Conversion Date.

c. Conversion Procedure. The right to convert any Security may be exercised by delivery of such Security at the Company’s office, accompanied by a completed and duly signed conversion notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Conversion Notice”) and payment of any tax or duty, in accordance with Section 5(d) hereto, which may be payable in respect of any transfer involving the issue or delivery of the Conversion Shares or Warrants in the name of a Person other than the Holder of the Security. The “Conversion Date” shall be the Business Day on which the Holder satisfies all of the requirements set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, if all such requirements shall have been satisfied by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on such day, and in all other cases, the Conversion Date shall be the next succeeding Business Day, and any property or economic benefit to which a Holder would have been entitled as a recipient of a dividend or other distribution from and after the Conversion Date shall be held in trust for the benefit of such Holder.

The person in whose name the certificate or certificates representing the Conversion Shares is registered shall be deemed to be a stockholder of record on the Conversion Date; provided, however, that no surrender of a Security on any date when the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed shall be effective to constitute the person or persons entitled to receive the Conversion Shares upon such conversion as the record holder or holders of such Conversion Shares on such date, but such surrender shall be effective to constitute the person or persons entitled to receive such Conversion Shares as the record holder or holders thereof for all purposes at the close of business on the next succeeding day on which such stock transfer books are open. The person in whose name the certificates or other instruments representing the Securities or Warrants are registered shall not be deemed to be a stockholder of record. Upon conversion of a Security, the person holding such Security shall no longer be a Holder of such Security.

d. Taxes on Conversion. If a Holder converts a Security, the Company shall pay any documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax due on the issue of Conversion Shares or Warrants upon such conversion. However, the Holder shall pay any such tax which is due because the Holder requests the Conversion Shares or Warrants to be issued in a name other than the Holder’s name. The Company may refuse to deliver the certificate, or certificates, or other instrument representing the Conversion Shares or Warrants being issued in a name other than the Holder's name until the Company receives a sum sufficient to pay any tax which will be due because the Conversion Shares or Warrants are to be issued in a name other than the Holder's name. Nothing herein shall preclude any tax withholding required by law or regulation.

e. Adjustment of Shares; Anti-Dilution Provisions. The applicable Conversion Price will be subject to adjustment, without duplication, from time to time, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) Stock Splits, Reverse Stock Splits, Stock Subdivisions, or Stock Consolidations and Reclassifications. If at any time the outstanding shares of any class of Common Stock are subdivided into a greater number of shares, whether by stock split or otherwise, then the Conversion Price will be decreased by dividing the Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately following such subdivision and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision. Conversely, if at any time the outstanding shares of any class of Common Stock are consolidated into a smaller number of shares, whether by reverse stock split, stock consolidation or otherwise, then the Conversion Price will be increased by dividing the Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately following such consolidation and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such consolidation. If the Company issues any shares of its Capital Stock in a reclassification of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then the applicable Conversion Price shall be proportionately adjusted by dividing such price by the number of shares of the class(es) of shares of Capital Stock of the Company into which each share of the Common Stock was reclassified (on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock) and the Securities shall thereafter be convertible into such class(es) of shares in the applicable proportions resulting from such reclassification (which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Common Stock" for purposes of this Section 5(e)) rather than the reclassified Common Stock. Each adjustment to the Conversion Price shall be effective on the record date, or if there is no record date, the effective date for such subdivision, consolidation or reclassification.

(ii) Common Stock Dividends. If at any time the Company shall pay or make a dividend or other distribution on any class of Common Stock payable exclusively in shares of Common Stock, the Conversion Price shall be proportionately adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by an adjustment factor equal to a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date of such dividend or distribution and the denominator of which shall be the sum of such number of shares and the total number of shares of Common Stock constituting such dividend or other distribution. Such adjustment shall be effective on the record date, or if there is no record date, the effective date for such dividend or other distribution. If, after any record date, any dividend or distribution is not in fact paid, the applicable Conversion Price shall be immediately readjusted, effective as of the date the Company's board of directors determines not to pay such dividend or distribution, to such Conversion Price that would have been in effect if such record date had not occurred.

(iii) Other Dividends or Distributions. If the Company proposes to declare a dividend on or make a distribution with respect to any class of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable for any class of Common Stock (which shall in any case be subject to any required consents by the Holder or other Persons, conditions or requirements provided in the Transaction Agreements), in cash, evidences of indebtedness, securities of the Company or any other person (other than Common Stock of the Company, which is governed by clause (iii)), rights, options, warrants to purchase the Company's securities or any other property (in the case of a spin-off, split-off or other similar transaction, which securities shall provide the holder thereof with the rights (including liquidation preference) and obligations equivalent to the rights and obligations associated with the Securities as of the date of such transaction (and in the same proportion to the securities as the Securities that the Holder then holds) (the “Distributed Assets”), the Conversion Price shall be decreased by multiplying such price by a fraction, the numerator of which is equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of immediately prior to the record date with respect to such dividend or distribution less the Fair Market Value of the portion of the Distributed Assets applicable to one share of Common Stock, and the denominator of which is the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of immediately prior to the record date with respect to such dividend or distribution. Each adjustment to the Conversion Price shall be effective on the record date, or if there is no record date, the effective date for such dividend or distribution.

(iv) Consolidation, Merger or Sale of Assets. If the Company shall at any time consolidate with or merge with or into another corporation or other entity (which consolidation or merger shall be subject in any event to any applicable required consents by the Televisa Investors, conditions or requirements with respect thereto in the Transaction Agreements) and the Company is not the surviving corporation in such transaction or in connection therewith all or part of any Class C Common Stock or Class D Common Stock shall be changed into or exchanged for securities of any other entity or cash or other property or cancelled, the Holder shall thereafter receive, upon the conversion thereof in accordance with the terms hereof, the same form of consideration (which may include securities of the surviving corporation) that the Holder would have received in respect of the Conversion Shares had the Holder been able to convert all the Securities for Conversion Shares immediately prior to such consolidation or merger, and the Company shall take such steps in connection with such consolidation or merger as may be necessary to assure that the provisions thereof shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as reasonably may be (and identical in all substantive respects), in relation to any securities thereafter deliverable upon the conversion of the Securities. The Company or the successor corporation, as the case may be, as a condition to such consolidation or merger and in addition to any other required consents by the Holder, conditions or requirements with respect to such consolidation or merger in the Transaction Agreements, shall execute and deliver to the Holder a supplemental debenture (or indenture, as applicable) so providing. A sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Company for a consideration (apart from the assumption of obligations) to the extent consisting of securities shall be deemed a consolidation or merger for the foregoing purposes. The provisions of this paragraph (iv) similarly shall apply to successive mergers or consolidations.

f. No Adjustment . For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment in the Conversion Price shall be required:

(i) upon the issuance of (1) any shares of Common Stock or (2) options, warrants or other rights to acquire Common Stock (including the issuance of Common Stock pursuant to such options, warrants or other rights), in any transaction resulting in an exchange for Fair Market Value, including in connection with a reduction of indebtedness or liabilities of the Company or its Subsidiaries;

(ii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to any present or future plan or similar arrangement providing for the reinvestment of dividends or interest payable on the Company’s securities and the investment of additional optional amounts in shares of Common Stock under any such plan or arrangement in each case, at the Fair Market Value at the time of such investment in Common Stock (subject in any case to Section 5(e), as applicable);

(iii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or options or rights to purchase such shares pursuant to any present or future employee, director or consultant benefit plan or program, compensation agreement, or similar arrangement of, or assumed by, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (subject in any case to Section 4.4.3 of Article EIGHTH of the Charter);

(iv) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Securities or the Warrants;

(v) for a change in the par value of the Common Stock;

(vi) for accrued and unpaid interest on the Securities, if any; and

(vii) pursuant to clause (e)(iii) above to the extent that no consent of Televisa Investors is required pursuant to the Transaction Agreements or Law with respect to the dividend or distribution or spin-off, split-off or similar transaction referred to in clause (e)(iii) pursuant to the Charter.

In addition, the Company will not be required to make an adjustment in the Conversion Price unless the adjustment would require a change of at least 0.1% in the Conversion Price. The Company shall carry forward any adjustment that is less than 0.1% of the Conversion Price, take such carried-forward adjustments into account in any subsequent adjustments, and make such carried-forward adjustments, regardless of whether the aggregate adjustment is less than 0.1%, (1) annually on the anniversary of the first date of issue of the Securities and (2) otherwise (A) five Business Days prior to the Maturity Date of the Securities, (B) prior to any Redemption Date, unless such adjustment has already been made or (C) within ten Business Days following a request to make such adjustments by Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Securities.

h. Accrued Interest. Upon the conversion of any Securities, any accrued but unpaid interest with respect to such converted Securities up to but excluding the Conversion Date shall be paid to the Holder thereof in cash on the Conversion Date.

i. Notices. When any adjustments are required to be made under this Section 5(e), the Company shall as promptly as practicable and in any event within five Business Days following the occurrence of the event upon which an adjustment is based (i) determine such adjustments, (ii) prepare a statement signed by a Senior Officer of the Company and describing in reasonable detail the method used in arriving at the adjustment and setting forth the calculation thereof and the reasons underlying such adjustment, and (iii) cause a copy of such statement to be mailed to the Holder.

SECTION 6. Covenants.

a. Corporate Existence. The Company shall do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect (i) its corporate existence, and the corporate, partnership or other existence of each of its Subsidiaries, in accordance with the respective organizational documents (as the same may be amended from time to time) of the Company or any such Subsidiary and (ii) the rights (charter and statutory), licenses and franchises of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that the Company shall not be required to preserve any such right, license or franchise, or the corporate, partnership or other existence of any of its Subsidiaries (other than the Company, BMPH and Univision), if the Company's or such Subsidiary's board of directors in good faith shall determine that the preservation thereof is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

b. Limits on Issuance of Preferred or Disqualified Stock. The Company will not issue any shares of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock.

c. Information Reporting. The Company will furnish the following to each Holder:

(i) As soon as available, and in any event within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company, the consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its Subsidiaries as at the end of each such fiscal year and the consolidated statements of income, cash flows and changes in stockholders' equity for such year of the Company and its Subsidiaries, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the next preceding fiscal year, accompanied by the report of independent certified public accountants of recognized national standing, to the effect that such consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with prior years and fairly present in all material respects the financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries at the dates thereof and the results of their operations and changes in their cash flows and stockholders equity for the periods covered thereby.

(ii) As soon as available, and in any event within 60 days after the end of each fiscal quarter of the Company for the first three fiscal quarters of a fiscal year, the consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its Subsidiaries as at the end of such quarter and the consolidated statements of income for such quarter and the portion of the fiscal year then ended of the Company and its Subsidiaries, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with prior years (without footnote disclosure and subject to year-end adjustments) setting forth in each case the figures for the corresponding periods of the previous fiscal year, or, in the case of such balance sheet, for the last day of such fiscal year, in comparative form, all in reasonable detail.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6(c), the Company may satisfy its obligation hereunder by filing such financial statements of the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on EDGAR or in such other manner as makes them publicly available. The Company's obligation to furnish the materials described in this Section 6(c) shall be satisfied so long as it transmits such materials to the Stockholders within the time periods specified herein, notwithstanding that such materials may actually be received after the expiration of such periods.

d. Consolidation, Merger, Sale or Lease of Assets by the Company. In the event that the Company (i) consolidates with or merges with or into any Person, or (ii) sells, conveys, transfers, or otherwise disposes of or leases all or substantially all of its assets, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, to any Person (which consolidation, merger, sale, conveyance, transfer, disposition or lease shall be subject in any event to any applicable required consents by the Holder, conditions or requirements with respect thereto in the Transaction Agreements), then in addition to any adjustment pursuant to Section 5(e)(iv), if the Company is not the continuing Person, the resulting, surviving or transferee Person shall expressly assume by an instrument delivered to the Holder of this Security all of the obligations of the Company under this Security and shall deliver to the Holder of this Security a certificate of a responsible officer and an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Holder of this Security stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer or lease comply with this Security. Furthermore, in the event that such consolidation or merger is with or into Univision, the Company and Univision shall make provision that the Securities shall be pari passu with respect to rights to receive payment with the PIK Toggle Notes and that the Company and Univision and any of their respective Subsidiaries which guarantee the PIK Toggle Notes shall guarantee the Securities. Upon the consummation of any transaction effected in accordance with these provisions, if the Company is not the continuing Person, the resulting, surviving or transferee Person will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Security with the same effect as if such successor Person had been named as the Company hereunder.

e. Trust Indenture. If at any time requested in writing by Holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the outstanding Securities and either (i) such Holders state their bona fide intention to transfer Securities held by them or (ii) there are ten (10) or more Holders, the Company shall, at its sole expense, promptly authorize, execute and deliver a trust indenture that is qualified under and subject to the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 (the “TIA”), in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company (and, if Televisa holds more than 25% of the principal amount of the outstanding Securities, Televisa), which indenture shall provide for the issuance of securities thereunder substantially identical to the Securities (except that they shall have been issued under and entitled to the benefits of such indenture) and for a like aggregate principal amount as the principal amount of Securities outstanding on the date of such request (the “Indenture Securities”). The Company shall retain a trustee in respect of the Indenture Securities of national standing (which, if Televisa holds more than 25% of the principal amount of the outstanding Securities, shall be reasonably acceptable to Televisa) is eligible to act as trustee under Section 310(a)(1) of the TIA and shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. The Company shall exchange for Indenture Securities any Securities as are surrendered to the Company by the Holders in the manner provided by Section 9(b) hereof (it being understood the Company intends that any such exchange shall qualify for exemption from registration under Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act). Each Indenture Security shall be issued in registered form, unless requested by the Holder to be issued as a Global Security. Each Global Security will be delivered to the trustee as custodian for the Depository. Transfers of a Global Security (but not a beneficial interest therein) will be limited to transfers thereof in whole, but not in part, to the Depository, its successors or their respective nominees.

SECTION 7. Defaults and Remedies.

a. Events of Default. An “Event of Default” wherever used herein, means any one of the following events:

(i) default in the payment of any principal on any Security when the same becomes due or payable or the default for fifteen (15) days or more in payment when due and payable of premium (including Applicable Premiums), if any, or interest on the Securities;

(1) such default either results from the failure to pay any principal of such indebtedness at its stated final maturity (after giving effect to any applicable grace periods) or relates to an obligation other than the obligation to pay principal of any such indebtedness at its stated final maturity and results in the holder or holders of such indebtedness causing such indebtedness to become due prior to its stated maturity or the acceleration of such indebtedness; and

b. Acceleration. If any Event of Default described in Section 7(a)(iii) or (iv) has occurred with respect to the Company, all the principal, interest and premium (including Applicable Premium), if any, of all Securities then outstanding shall immediately become due and payable. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then total outstanding Securities by notice to the Company may declare the principal, interest and premium, if any, on all the then outstanding Securities to be due and payable. Upon effectiveness of such declaration, such principal, interest and premium shall be due and payable immediately.

The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Securities by written notice may on behalf of the Holders of all of the Securities rescind any acceleration with respect to the Securities and its consequences if such rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

c. Other Remedies. If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Holders may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Securities. The exclusive remedies for all other defaults or breaches under this Security and Terms of Securities shall be limited to money damages and equitable relief, including specific performance.

A delay or omission by any Holder of a Security in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. All permitted remedies are cumulative to the extent permitted by law.

d. Waiver of Past Defaults. Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Securities by notice to the Company may on behalf of the Holders of all of the Securities waive any existing Event of Default and its consequences hereunder (except a continuing Default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, any Security held by a non-consenting Holder).

SECTION 8. Amendments.

a. Without Consent of Holders of Securities. Notwithstanding Section 8(b) hereof, the Company may amend or supplement the Securities without the consent of any Holder:

(i) to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights or obligations under the Securities of any Holders in any respect;

(ii) to make any amendment to the provisions of this Security relating to the transfer and legending of Securities as permitted by this Security, including to facilitate the issuance and administration of the Securities; provided, however, that (i) compliance with the terms and provisions of this Security as so amended would not result in Securities being transferred in violation of the Securities Act or any applicable securities law and (ii) such amendment does not adversely affect the rights of Holders to transfer Securities; and

(iii) to make any amendment to the provisions of this Security necessary or advisable to cause securities issued in exchange therefor to be issued under an indenture under the terms of Section 6(e).

b. With Consent of Holders of Securities. The Company may amend or supplement the Securities with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the Securities then outstanding (including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Securities), and any existing Event of Default or compliance with any provision of the Securities may be waived with the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding Securities (including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Securities).

- c. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) above, without the consent of each Holder affected, an amendment or waiver may not:
- (i) reduce the principal amount of, or any interest payment or Applicable Premium on, any Security;
  - (ii) make any Security payable in currency or securities other than that stated in this Security;
  - (iii) make any change that adversely affects the Holder's rights to convert any Security;
  - (iv) impair the right to convert or receive any principal or interest payment with respect to, a Security, or right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment with respect to, or conversion of, the Securities; or
  - (v) make any change in the percentage of the principal amount of the Securities required for amendments or waivers.

SECTION 9. Miscellaneous.

a. Replacement Security. If any mutilated Security is surrendered to the Company and the Company receives evidence to its satisfaction of the ownership and destruction, loss or theft of any Security, the Company shall issue a replacement Security. If required by the Company, an indemnity bond must be supplied by the Holder that is sufficient in the judgment of the Company to protect the Company from any loss that it may suffer if a Security is replaced. The Company may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Security.

b. Transfer and Exchange of Securities. This Security may be freely transferred, and the rights and obligations hereunder freely assigned, subject to any restrictions on transfers set forth in the Transaction Agreements or under applicable Law. Upon surrender of any Security to the Company at the address and to the attention of the designated officer (each as specified in Section 9(f) for registration of transfer or exchange (and in the case of a surrender for registration of transfer accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed by the registered Holder of such Security and accompanied by the relevant name, address and other information for notices of each transferee of such Security or part thereof and the receipt of any legal opinion required by the legend set forth on the Security; provided that the Company shall not Discriminate against Televisa or Televisa Investors with respect to requesting such opinion or the form or substance thereof as compared to the opinions the Company requests or declines to request from other stockholders under the other Transaction Agreements in connection with Transfer of Shares by such stockholders), within three Business Days thereafter, the Company shall execute and deliver, at the Company's expense, one or more new Securities (as requested by the Holder thereof) in exchange therefor, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the surrendered Security. Each such new Security shall be payable to such Person as such Holder may request and shall be substantially in the form of this Security. Each such new Security shall be dated and bear interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on the surrendered Security or dated the date of the surrendered Security if no interest shall have been paid thereon. The restrictions referred to in the legends set forth on the Security shall cease and terminate when such restriction are no longer required in order to assure compliance with (x) the Securities Act, or the state securities or "blue sky" laws, including upon registration of the Securities or the shares into which the Securities are convertible, or (y) the Transaction Agreements referenced therein, as applicable. At any time following such termination, the Holder shall be entitled to receive from the Company, without expense, new certificates representing the Securities not bearing the legend.

c. Governing Law. This Security and Terms of Securities and the negotiation, execution, performance or nonperformance, interpretation, termination, construction and all matters based upon, arising out of or related to this Security and Terms of Securities, whether arising in law or in equity (collectively, the “Covered Matters”), and all claims or causes of action (whether in contract or tort) that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to the Covered Matters, except for documents, agreements and instruments that specify otherwise, shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflict of laws to the extent that such principles or rules would require or permit the application of laws of another jurisdiction.

d. Consent to Jurisdiction. Each of the Company and the Holder, by its respective execution hereof, (a) hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chancery Court of the State of Delaware (and if Chancery Court does not accept jurisdiction, the federal court located in Delaware and if the federal court in Delaware does not accept jurisdiction, any other state court in Delaware) for the purpose of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, tort or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Security and Terms of Securities, the Covered Matters, the transactions contemplated hereby or relating to the subject matter hereof, (b) hereby waives to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and agrees not to assert, and agrees not to allow any of its affiliates to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that any such proceeding brought in one of the above named courts is improper, or that this Security and Terms of Securities or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such court and (c) hereby agrees not to commence or maintain any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, tort or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Security and Terms of Securities, the transactions contemplated hereby or relating to the subject matter hereof other than before one of the above-named courts nor to make any motion or take any other action seeking or intending to cause the transfer or removal of any such action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, tort or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation to any court other than one of the above-named courts whether on the grounds of inconvenient forum or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the Company and the Holder may commence and maintain an action to enforce a judgment of any of the above-named courts in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. Each of the Company and the Holder hereby consents to service of process in any such proceeding in any manner permitted by Delaware law, and agrees that service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified in Section 9(f) is reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

e. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each of the Company and the Holder hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, tort or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Security and Terms of Securities, the transactions contemplated hereby or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof. Each of the Company and the Holder (i) certifies that no representative of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of any such litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it has been induced to enter into this Security and Terms of Securities by, among other things, the consideration received by such party pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Security and Terms of Securities.

f. Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing, shall be deemed duly given upon actual receipt, and shall be delivered (i) in person, (ii) by registered or certified mail (air mail if addressed to an address outside of the country in which mailed), postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (iii) by a generally recognized overnight courier service which provides written acknowledgement by the addressee of receipt, or (iv) by facsimile or other generally accepted means of electronic transmission ( provided that a copy of any notice delivered pursuant to this clause (iv) shall also be sent pursuant to clause (ii)), addressed as follows:

SECTION 1.05. References to Agreements and Laws . Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, (a) all references to documents, instruments and other agreements (including the Loan Documents and organizational documents) shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments, restatements, amendments and restatements, supplements and other modifications thereto, but only to the extent that such amendments, restatements, amendments and restatements, supplements and other modifications are not prohibited by any Loan Document and (b) references to any law, statute, rule or regulation shall include all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending, replacing, supplementing or interpreting such law.

Timing of Payment or Performance . When the payment of any obligation or the performance of any covenant, duty or obligation is stated to be due or performance required on a day which is not a Business Day, the date of such payment or performance shall extend to the immediately succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall be reflected in computing interest or fees, as the case may be; provided that with respect to any payment of interest on or principal of Eurodollar Loans, if such extension would cause any such payment to be made in the next succeeding calendar month, such payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Business Day.

SECTION 1.08. Letter of Credit Amounts . Unless otherwise specified herein, the amount of a Letter of Credit at any time shall be deemed to be the Dollar Equivalent of the stated amount of such Letter of Credit in effect at such time.

SECTION 1.09. Exchange Rate; Currency Equivalents Generally . For purposes of determining compliance with the provisions of this Agreement on any date of determination (including the issuance, amendment or extension of a Letter of Credit), any Alternative Currency will be converted to dollars based on the rate of exchange quoted by the Reuters World Currency Page for the applicable Alternative Currency at 11:00 a.m. (London time) on such day (or, in the event such rate does not appear on any Reuters World Currency Page, by reference to such other publicly available service for displaying exchange rates as may be agreed upon by the Administrative Agent and the US Borrower, or, in the absence of such agreement, such rate shall instead be the arithmetic average of the spot rates of exchange of the Administrative Agent in the market where its foreign currency exchange operations in respect of such Alternative Currency are then being conducted, at or about 10:00 a.m. on such date for the purchase of dollars for delivery 2 Business Days later). Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of determining compliance with Article II and Sections 6.01 , 6.02 and 6.03 of this Agreement with respect to any amount of Indebtedness or Investment denominated in an Alternative Currency, no Default shall be deemed to have occurred solely as a result of changes in rates of exchange occurring after the time such Indebtedness or Investment is incurred or made; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing provisions of this Section 1.09 shall otherwise apply to such Article and such Sections, including with respect to determining whether any Indebtedness or Investment (not previously incurred or made on any date) may be incurred or made under such Article and such Sections.

SECTION 1.10. Alternative Currencies . (a) The US Borrower may from time to time request that Letters of Credit be issued in an Alternative Currency (subject to the approval of the relevant Issuing Bank), provided that such requested currency is a lawful currency that is readily available and freely transferable and convertible into dollars. Any such request shall be made to the Administrative Agent, and the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the relevant Issuing Bank thereof. The relevant Issuing Bank shall notify the Administrative Agent, not later than 1:00 p.m., 10 Business Days after receipt of such request whether it consents to the issuance of Letters of Credit in such requested currency. Any failure by the relevant Issuing Bank to respond to such request within the time period specified in the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be a refusal by the relevant Issuing Bank to permit Letters of Credit to be issued in such requested currency. If the relevant Issuing Bank consents to the issuance of Letters of Credit in such requested currency, the Administrative Agent shall so notify the US Borrower and such currency shall thereupon be deemed for all purposes to be an Alternative Currency hereunder for the purposes of any Letter of Credit issuances by such Issuing Bank. If the relevant Issuing Bank does not consent to any request for an additional currency under this Section 1.10 , the Administrative Agent shall promptly so notify the US Borrower.

(b) Each provision of this Agreement shall be subject to such reasonable changes of construction as the Administrative Agent may from time to time specify with the US Borrower's consent to appropriately reflect a change in currency of any country and any relevant market conventions or practices relating to such change in currency.

SECTION 1.11. *Pro Forma Calculations . The Adjusted Consolidated Leverage Ratio, the Consolidated Leverage Ratio, the Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio and the Consolidated First-Lien Leverage Ratio shall be calculated as follows:

(a) In the event that the US Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (i) incurs, redeems, retires or extinguishes any Indebtedness or (ii) issues or redeems Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock subsequent to the commencement of the period for which such ratio is being calculated but prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of such ratio is made (a “Ratio Calculation Date”), then such ratio shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to such incurrence, redemption, retirement or extinguishment of Indebtedness, or such issuance or redemption of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as if the same had occurred at the beginning of the applicable four-quarter period (it being understood that solely for the purposes of calculating quarterly compliance with Section 6.10 for purposes of making the calculations required by Section 5.04(c)(x), the Ratio Calculation Date shall be the last day of the period for which such calculation is made).

For purposes of making the computation referred to above, Investments, acquisitions, dispositions, mergers, amalgamations, consolidations and discontinued operations (as determined in accordance with GAAP), in each case with respect to an operating unit of a business made (or committed to be made pursuant to a definitive agreement) during the four-quarter reference period or subsequent to such reference period and on or prior to or simultaneously with the relevant Ratio Calculation Date, and other operational changes that the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries has determined to make and/or made during the four-quarter reference period or subsequent to such reference period and on or prior to or simultaneously with such Ratio Calculation Date shall be calculated on a pro forma basis in accordance with GAAP assuming that all such Investments, acquisitions, dispositions, mergers, amalgamations, consolidations, discontinued operations and other operational changes had occurred on the first day of the four-quarter reference period. If since the beginning of such period any Person that subsequently became a Restricted Subsidiary or was merged with or into the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries since the beginning of such period shall have made any Investment, acquisition, disposition, merger, amalgamation, consolidation, discontinued operation or operational change, in each case with respect to an operating unit of a business, that would have required adjustment pursuant to this definition, then such ratio shall be calculated giving pro forma effect thereto for such period as if such Investment, acquisition, disposition, merger, consolidation, discontinued operation or operational change had occurred at the beginning of the applicable four-quarter period.

(b) For purposes of this Section 1.11, whenever pro forma effect is to be given to any Investment, acquisition, disposition, merger, amalgamation, consolidation, discontinued operation or operational change, the pro forma calculations shall be made in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting officer of the US Borrower. Any such pro forma calculation may include adjustments appropriate, in the reasonable determination of the US Borrower as set forth in an Officer’s Certificate, to reflect (i) operating expense reductions and other operating improvements or synergies reasonably expected to result from any acquisition, amalgamation, merger or operational change (including, to the extent applicable, from the Transactions) and (ii) all adjustments of the nature used in connection with the calculation of “Adjusted EBITDA” as set forth in footnote (1) to the “Summary Historical and Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Data” under “Offering Circular Summary” in the offering circular for the New Senior Notes to the extent such adjustments, without duplication, continue to be applicable to such four-quarter period; provided that (x) such operating expense reductions and other operating improvements or synergies are reasonably identifiable and factually supportable, (y) with respect to operational changes, such actions are taken no later than 48 months after the Closing Date and (z) the aggregate amount of projected operating expense reductions, operating improvements and synergies in respect of operational changes (not resulting from an acquisition) included in any pro forma calculation shall not exceed $80,000,000 for any four consecutive quarter period.

SECTION 1.12. Effect of Restatement .

(a) The effectiveness of this Agreement shall not constitute a novation of any Obligations owing under the Original Credit Agreement. All Loans and Letters of Credit outstanding under the Original Credit Agreement and all accrued and unpaid amounts owing by any Loan Party pursuant to the Original Credit Agreement shall continue to be outstanding and owing hereunder. Any payment or performance of any Obligation under the Original Credit Agreement or any Obligation described in this Agreement during any period prior to the Restatement Effective Date shall constitute payment or performance of such Obligation under this Agreement. Any usage under any “basket” set forth in any covenant or exception in the Original Credit Agreement shall be included in the determination of baskets under this Agreement.

(b) After giving effect to this Agreement and the modifications effectuated thereby, each reference to the “Credit Agreement” in the Loan Documents shall be deemed to be a reference to this Agreement as amended and restated on the Restatement Effective Date (as this Agreement may be further amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time).

Immediately following the incurrence of the Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, such Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans and Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans shall be consolidated into a single "Class" of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(2) Each (A) Non-Converting Lender, with respect to all of its 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable), (B) 2013 Converting Existing First-Lien Term Loan Lender, with respect to any portion of its 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans not subject to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion, (C) 2013 Converting Extended First-Lien Term Loan Lender, with respect to any portion of its 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans not subject to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and (D) 2013 New First-Lien Term Loan Lender, with respect to any portion of its 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans not subject to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion, in each case agrees that on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, without further action by any party to this Agreement, all such 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013

New First-Lien Term Loans (after giving effect to the repayment of such Classes of Term Loans required pursuant to the Fourth Amendment) and the Indebtedness represented thereby, will remain outstanding and shall continue to constitute a 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loan, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loan and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loan (as applicable) hereunder, unless and until such time the same is prepaid, repaid, refinanced, converted, exchanged, or extended in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(3) If elected by the US Borrower, at any time or from time to time after the six month anniversary of the Fourth Amendment Effective Date (with not less than three Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent (which written notice may, for the avoidance of doubt, be given prior to the six month anniversary of the Fourth Amendment Effective Date) and the applicable date for such action (the "Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date") to be specified in such written notice), all outstanding Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall automatically (and without any further action or notice by any party, except as contemplated by Section 2.10(f)) be consolidated into a single "Class" of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans on the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (any such consolidation, the "Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation"). Upon the occurrence of the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation, all then outstanding 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall be deemed to constitute Replacement First-Lien Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (other than any historical references to Replacement First-Lien Term Loans related to periods prior to the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date where the context suggests otherwise).

(g) Amounts paid or prepaid in respect of Term Loans may not be reborrowed.

(h) No conversion or continuation of (i) outstanding Existing Term Loans into Extended First-Lien Term Loans or Existing First-Lien Term Loans, (ii) outstanding Revolving Credit Exposure into Revolving Credit Exposure relating to the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, (iii) Existing Revolving Credit Commitments into Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, (iv) outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans into 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the 2013 Existing Term Loan Conversion, (v) outstanding Extended First-Lien Term Loans into 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the 2013 Extended Term Loan Conversion or (vi) outstanding 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans into Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion shall, in any case, constitute a voluntary or mandatory payment, prepayment or commitment reduction for purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 2.02. Loans . (a) Each Loan (other than Swingline Loans) shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their applicable Commitments; provided, however, that the failure of any Lender to make any Loan shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation to lend hereunder (it being understood, however, that no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make any Loan required to be made by such other Lender). For the avoidance of doubt, all Revolving Loans made and other Revolving Credit Exposure incurred under the Revolving Credit Facility will be made or incurred, as applicable, by all Revolving Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Percentages until the Revolving Credit Maturity Date for the relevant Class of Revolving Credit Commitments (or, if earlier, the date of the termination of the relevant Class of Revolving Credit Commitments in accordance with the terms hereof); thereafter, all Revolving Loans made and other Revolving Credit Exposure incurred under the Revolving Credit Facility will be made by the remaining Revolving Credit Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Percentages (after giving effect to the termination of Revolving Credit Commitments of the applicable Class on the applicable Revolving Credit Maturity Date or otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement). Except for Loans deemed made pursuant to Section 2.02(f) and subject to Section 2.22, the Loans comprising any Borrowing shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (i) an integral multiple of $500,000 and not less than $2,500,000 or (ii) equal to the remaining available balance of the applicable Commitments.

(b) Subject to Sections 2.02(f), 2.08 and 2.15, each Borrowing shall be comprised entirely of ABR Loans or Eurodollar Loans as a Borrower may request pursuant to Section 2.03. Each Lender may at its option make any Eurodollar Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the relevant Borrower to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Borrowings of more than one Type may be outstanding at the same time; provided, however, that the Borrowers shall not be entitled to request any Borrowing that, if made, would result in more than 20 Eurodollar Borrowings outstanding hereunder at any time.

(c) Except with respect to Loans deemed made pursuant to Section 2.01(a), 2.02(f) and, if applicable, Section 2.12(g) or 2.25, and subject to Sections 2.03 and 2.22, each Lender shall make each Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account in New York City as the Administrative Agent may designate not later than 1:00 p.m. and the Administrative Agent shall promptly credit the amounts so received to an account designated by the relevant Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request or, if a Borrowing shall not occur on such date because any condition precedent herein specified shall not have been met, return the amounts so received to the respective Lenders.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such portion available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with paragraph (c) above and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the relevant Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, such Lender and the relevant Borrower severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to the relevant Borrower to but excluding the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (i) in the case of the Borrowers, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable to the Loans comprising such Borrowing at the time and (ii) in the case of such Lender, for the first such day, the Federal Funds Effective Rate, and for each day thereafter, the Alternate Base Rate plus the Applicable Percentage for ABR Revolving Loans comprising such Borrowing. If such Lender shall repay to the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount, such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan as part of such Borrowing for purposes of this Agreement and (x) the relevant Borrower's obligation to repay the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount pursuant to this Section 2.02(d) shall cease and (y) if the relevant Borrower pays such amount to the Administrative Agent, the amount so paid shall constitute a repayment of such Borrowing by such amount.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Borrowers shall not be entitled to request any Eurodollar Borrowing if the Interest Period requested with respect thereto would end after the Maturity Date applicable to the Loans comprising such Eurodollar Borrowing.

(f) If the relevant Issuing Bank shall not have received from the relevant Borrower the payment required to be made by Section 2.23(e) within the time specified in such Section, such Issuing Bank will promptly notify the Administrative Agent of the L/C Disbursement and the Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Revolving Credit Lender of such L/C Disbursement and its Pro Rata Percentage thereof (and, in the case of any L/C Disbursement made in an Alternative Currency, calculated using the Dollar Equivalent of such L/C Disbursement, as determined on the date on which such L/C Disbursement was made by the relevant Issuing Bank). Each Revolving Credit Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds in dollars to the Administrative Agent not later than 2:00 p.m. on such date (or, if such Revolving Credit Lender shall have received such notice later than 12:00 (noon) on any day, not later than 10:00 a.m. on the immediately following Business Day), an amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such L/C Disbursement as determined above (it being understood that such amount shall be deemed to constitute an ABR Revolving Loan of such Lender and such payment shall be deemed to have reduced the L/C Exposure), and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the relevant Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Credit Lenders. The Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the Issuing Bank any amounts received by it from the relevant Borrower pursuant to Section 2.23(e) prior to the time that any Revolving Credit Lender makes any payment pursuant to this paragraph (f); any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent thereafter will be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Credit Lenders that shall have made such payments and to such Issuing Bank, as their interests may appear. If any Revolving Credit Lender shall not have made its Pro Rata Percentage of such L/C Disbursement available to the Administrative Agent as provided above, such Lender and the relevant Borrower severally agrees to pay interest on such amount, for each day from and including the date such amount is required to be paid in accordance with this paragraph to but excluding the date such amount is paid, to the Administrative Agent for the account of the relevant Issuing Bank at (i) in the case of the relevant Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable to the Revolving Loans of the relevant Class pursuant to Section 2.06(a), and (ii) in the case of such Lender, for the first such day, the Federal Funds Effective Rate (or, in the case of amounts owed in an Alternative Currency, at the respective Issuing Bank's customary rate for interbank advances denominated in such Alternative Currency), and for each day thereafter, the interest rate applicable to ABR Revolving Loans of the relevant Class.

SECTION 2.03. *Borrowing Procedure . In order to request a Borrowing (other than a Swingline Loan or a deemed Borrowing pursuant to Section 2.01(a) or 2.02(f) or, if applicable, pursuant to Section 2.12(g) or 2.25, in each case, as to which this Section 2.03 shall not apply), the relevant Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request by telephone (a) in the case of a Eurodollar Borrowing, not later than 1:00 p.m. 3 Business Days before a proposed Borrowing, and (b) in the case of an ABR Borrowing, not later than 1:00 p.m. 1 Business Day before a proposed Borrowing. Each such telephonic request shall be irrevocable, shall be confirmed promptly by hand delivery or fax to the Administrative Agent of a written Borrowing Request and shall specify the following information: (i) whether the Borrowing then being requested is to be a Revolving Credit Borrowing or a Term Loan Borrowing, and if applicable, the relevant Class thereof and whether such Borrowing is to be a Eurodollar Borrowing or an ABR Borrowing; (ii) the date of such Borrowing (which shall be a Business Day); (iii) the number and location of the account to which funds are to be disbursed; (iv) the amount of such Borrowing; and (v) if such Borrowing is to be a Eurodollar Borrowing, the Interest Period with respect thereto; provided, however, that notwithstanding any contrary specification in any Borrowing Request, each requested Borrowing shall comply with the requirements set forth in Section 2.02. Except as otherwise provided in Section 2.10(b), if no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified in any such notice, then the requested Borrowing shall be a Eurodollar Borrowing. If no Interest Period with respect to any Eurodollar Borrowing is specified in any such notice, then the relevant Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of 1 month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall promptly advise the applicable Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.03 (and the contents thereof), and of each Lender's portion of the requested Borrowing.

SECTION 2.04. *Evidence of Debt; Repayment of Loans . (a) (i) The US Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender, (x) the principal amount of each Term Loan of such Lender as provided in Section 2.11, (y) on the relevant Revolving Credit Maturity Date for any Class of Revolving Credit Commitments (and related Revolving Credit Exposure), the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan of such Class made by such Lender to the US Borrower and (ii) the Subsidiary Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Credit Lender on the relevant Revolving Credit Maturity Date for any Class of Revolving Credit Commitments (and related Revolving Credit Exposure), the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan of such Class made by such Lender to the Subsidiary Borrower. Each Borrower hereby promises to pay to the applicable Swingline Lender, on the date upon which the Swingline Commitment of such Swingline Lender terminates, the then unpaid principal amount of each Swingline Loan made to such Borrower by such Swingline Lender.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the relevant Borrower to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender from time to time, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time under this Agreement.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it will record (i) the relevant Borrower, (ii) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Series, Class and Type thereof and, if applicable, the Interest Period applicable thereto, (iii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the relevant Borrower to each Lender hereunder and (iv) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder from the Borrowers or any Guarantor and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) above shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations therein recorded; provided, however, that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligations of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it hereunder be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the relevant Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender and its permitted registered assigns in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event any Lender shall request and receive such a promissory note, the interests represented by such note shall at all times (including after any assignment of all or part of such interests pursuant to Section 9.04) be represented by one or more promissory notes payable to the payee named therein or its registered assigns.

(f) On and after the Second Amendment Effective Date, each 2013 Converting First-Lien Term Loan Lender which holds a promissory note with respect to Existing First-Lien Term Loans and/or Extended First-Lien Term Loans shall be entitled to surrender such promissory note to the US Borrower against delivery of a new promissory note with respect to its 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans, as the case may be, completed in conformity with this Section 2.04; provided that if any such promissory note is not so surrendered, then from and after the Second Amendment Effective Date such promissory note shall be deemed to evidence the 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) into which the Existing First-Lien Term Loans or Extended First-Lien Term Loans theretofore evidenced by such promissory note have been converted.

(g) On and after the Fourth Amendment Effective Date (and following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation), each 2013 Converting Existing First-Lien Term Loan Lender, 2013 Converting Extended First-Lien Term Loan Lender and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loan Lender which holds a promissory note with respect to 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) shall be entitled to surrender such promissory note to the US Borrower against delivery of one or more new promissory notes with respect to its Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and (to the extent any such Term Loans remain outstanding following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion) its 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable), each completed in conformity with this Section 2.04; provided that if any such promissory note is not so surrendered, then from and after the Fourth Amendment Effective Date (and following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation) such promissory note shall be deemed to evidence (x) the Replacement First-Lien Term Loan into which all or a portion of the 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) theretofore evidenced by such promissory note have been converted and (y) any 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans of the applicable Lender that remain outstanding following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion, as applicable.

(h) On and after the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date, each 2013 Incremental Term Loan Lender which holds a promissory note with respect to 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall be entitled to surrender such promissory note to the US Borrower against delivery of a new promissory note with respect to the Replacement First-Lien Term Loans resulting from the consolidation of such Lender's 2013 Incremental Term Loans into Replacement First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation, each completed in conformity with this Section 2.04; provided that if any such promissory note is not so surrendered, then from and after the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date, such promissory note shall be deemed to evidence the Replacement First-Lien Term Loans into which the Incremental 2013 First-Lien Term Loans theretofore evidenced by such promissory note have been so consolidated.

SECTION 2.05. Fees. (a) The US Borrower agrees to pay, with respect to each Class of Revolving Credit Commitments, to each Revolving Credit Lender of such Class, through the Administrative Agent, on the last day of March, June, September and December of each year, commencing June 30, 2007, and on each date on which the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender shall expire or be terminated as provided herein, a commitment fee (a "Commitment Fee") equal to the Applicable Percentage per annum for such Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender on the daily unused amount of the relevant Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender during the preceding quarter (or the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender shall be terminated); provided any Commitment Fee accrued with respect to the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of a Defaulting Lender during the period prior to the time such Lender became a Defaulting Lender and unpaid at such time shall not be payable by the US Borrower so long as such Lender shall be a Defaulting Lender, except to the extent that such Commitment Fee shall otherwise have been due and payable by the US Borrower prior to such time; and provided, further, that no Commitment Fee shall accrue on the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of a Defaulting Lender so long as such Lender shall be a Defaulting Lender. For purposes of calculating the Commitment Fee only, no portion of the Revolving Credit Commitments shall be deemed utilized as a result of outstanding Swingline Loans.

(b) The US Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for its own account, the administrative fees set forth in the Fee Letter at the times and in the amounts specified therein (the "Administration Fee").

(c) The relevant Borrower agrees to pay, with respect to each Class of Revolving Credit Commitments (i) to each Revolving Credit Lender, through the Administrative Agent, on the last day of March, June, September and December of each year, commencing June 30, 2007, and on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender shall be terminated as provided herein, a fee (an "L/C Participation Fee") (calculated on such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the daily aggregate undrawn amounts of all outstanding Letters of Credit) during the preceding quarter (or the date on which all Letters of Credit have been canceled or have expired and all of the Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class of shall have been terminated) at a rate per annum equal to the Applicable Percentage for the relevant Revolving

Credit Commitment of such Class of such Lender from time to time used to determine the interest rate on Eurodollar Revolving Credit Borrowings for such Lender minus the Issuing Bank Fees referred to in clause (ii)(A) below, and (ii) to the Issuing Bank (A) with respect to each outstanding Letter of Credit issued by it, a fronting fee that shall accrue at a rate of 0.125% per annum (or such lesser rate as shall be separately agreed upon between the relevant Borrower and the Issuing Bank) on the undrawn amount of such Letter of Credit, payable quarterly in arrears on the last day of March, June, September and December of each year, commencing June 30, 2007, and upon expiration of the applicable Letter of Credit or any earlier termination of all of the Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class and (B) within 30 days after demand therefor the Issuing Bank's standard fees with respect to the issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank or processing of drawings thereunder (the fees in this clause (ii) being collectively the "Issuing Bank Fees").

(d) (1) At the time of the effectiveness of any Repricing Transaction that is consummated prior to the date which is six months after the Second Amendment Effective Date, the Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each 2013 New First-Lien Term Loan Lender, 2013 Converting Existing First-Lien Term Loan Lender and/or 2013 Converting Extended First-Lien Term Loan Lender, as applicable (including each Lender that withholds its consent to such Repricing Transaction and is replaced as a Non-Consenting Lender under Section 2.21), a fee in an amount equal to 1.0% of (i) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans prepaid (or converted), as applicable, in connection with such Repricing Transaction and (ii) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (b) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) outstanding on such date that are subject to an effective pricing reduction pursuant to such Repricing Transaction. Such fees shall be due and payable upon the date of the effectiveness of such Repricing Transaction.

(2) At the time of the effectiveness of any Repricing Transaction that is consummated prior to the date which is six months after the Third Amendment Effective Date, the Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each 2013 Incremental Term Loan Lender (including each Lender that withholds its consent to such Repricing Transaction and is replaced as a Non-Consenting Lender under Section 2.21), a fee in an amount equal to 1.0% of (i) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all 2013 Incremental Term Loans prepaid (or converted) in connection with such Repricing Transaction and (ii) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (b) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all 2013 Incremental Term Loans outstanding on such date that are subject to an effective pricing reduction pursuant to such Repricing Transaction. Such fees shall be due and payable upon the date of the effectiveness of such Repricing Transaction.

(3) At the time of the effectiveness of any Repricing Transaction that is consummated prior to the date which is six months after the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, the Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Lender (including each Lender that withholds its consent to such Repricing Transaction and is replaced as a Non-Consenting Lender under Section 2.21), a fee in an amount equal to 1.0% of (i) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Replacement First-Lien Term Loans prepaid (or converted), as applicable, in connection with such Repricing Transaction and (ii) in the case of a Repricing Transaction described in clause (b) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Replacement First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) outstanding on such date that are subject to an effective pricing reduction pursuant to such Repricing Transaction. Such fees shall be due and payable upon the date of the effectiveness of such Repricing Transaction.

(e) All Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days, and shall be paid, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders and the Issuing Bank, except that the Issuing Bank Fees shall be paid directly to the Issuing Bank. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances.

SECTION 2.06. *Interest on Loans . (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing, including each Swingline Loan, shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Alternate Base Rate plus the Applicable Percentage in effect from time to time with respect to such Borrowing.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the Loans comprising each Eurodollar Borrowing shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Adjusted LIBO Rate for the Interest Period in effect or, pursuant to Section 2.10(b), deemed to be in effect, for such Borrowing plus the Applicable Percentage in effect from time to time for such Borrowing.

(c) (i) Each Existing First-Lien Term Loan shall continue to be entitled to all accrued and unpaid interest with respect to the Existing Term Loan from which such Existing First-Lien Term Loan was continued up to and including the Restatement Effective Date; (ii) each Extended First-Lien Term Loan shall continue to be entitled to all accrued and unpaid interest with respect to the Existing Term Loan from which such Extended First-Lien Term Loan was converted up to but excluding the Restatement Effective Date and (iii) each Revolving Loan that was outstanding under the Original Credit Agreement on the Restatement Effective Date shall continue to be entitled to all accrued and unpaid interest under the Original Credit Agreement up to but excluding the Restatement Effective Date.

(d) Interest, including interest payable pursuant to Section 2.07, shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days (or, when the Alternate Base Rate is determined by reference to the Prime Rate over a year of 365 or 366 days, as applicable) and shall be calculated from and including the date of the relevant Borrowing to, but excluding, the date of repayment thereof. Interest on each Loan shall be payable on the Interest Payment Dates applicable to such Loan, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. The applicable Alternate Base Rate or Adjusted LIBO Rate for each Interest Period or day within an Interest Period, as the case may be, shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.07. *Default Interest . If the Borrowers shall default in the payment when due of any principal of or interest on any Loan or reimbursement of any L/C Disbursement or payment of any Fee or other amount due hereunder, by acceleration or otherwise, then, until such defaulted amount shall have been paid in full, to the extent permitted by law, such overdue amount shall bear interest (after as well as before judgment), payable on demand, (a) in the case of principal of a Loan, at the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan pursuant to Section 2.06 plus 2.00% per annum and (b) in all other cases, at a rate per annum equal to the rate that would be applicable to an ABR Revolving Loan that is a 2013 Extended Revolving Loan plus 2.00% per annum (without regard to whether 2013 Extended Revolving Loans have been repaid in full).

SECTION 2.08. *Alternate Rate of Interest . In the event, and on each occasion, that on the day 2 Business Days prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurodollar Borrowing the Administrative Agent shall have reasonably determined that dollar deposits in the principal amounts of the Loans comprising such Borrowing are not generally available in the London interbank market, or that the rates at which dollar deposits are being offered in the London interbank market will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to any participating Lender of making or maintaining its Eurodollar Loan during such Interest Period, or that reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBO Rate for such Interest Period, the Administrative Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, give written or fax notice of such determination to the US Borrower and the Lenders. In the event of any such determination, until the Administrative Agent shall have advised the US Borrower and the participating Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist (which the Administrative Agent agrees to give promptly after such circumstances no longer exist), any request by the Borrowers for a Eurodollar Borrowing shall be deemed to be a request for an ABR Borrowing. Each determination by the Administrative Agent under this Section 2.08 shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.09. *Termination and Reduction of Commitments . (a) (i) The 2013 New First-Lien Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans on the Second Amendment Effective Date. The 2013 Incremental Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the 2013 Incremental Term Loans on the Third Amendment Effective Date. The 2013 Refinancing Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans on the Third Amendment Effective Date. The Replacement New First-Lien Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date. The Other First-Lien Term Commitments of any Class or Series shall automatically terminate upon the conversion or refinancing, as the case may be, of all or a portion of the relevant Term Loans as provided in the relevant Refinancing Amendment. The Replacement Repriced Term Loan Commitments of any Class or Series shall automatically terminate upon the conversion or refinancing, as the case may be, of all or a portion of the relevant Term Loans as provided in the relevant Repricing Amendment.

(ii) On the Maturity Date of any Class of Revolving Credit Commitments, such Class of Revolving Credit Commitments will terminate and the Revolving Credit Lenders with Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class will have no further obligation to make Revolving Loans, fund its portion of L/C Disbursements pursuant to Section 2.23(d) or purchase or fund participations in Swingline Loans pursuant to Section 2.22(e), in each case, solely in respect of such Class of Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (x) the foregoing will not release any such Revolving Credit Lender from any such obligation to fund Revolving Loans, its portion of L/C Disbursements or participations in Swingline Loans that was required to be performed on or prior to the Maturity Date of such Class of Revolving Credit Commitments and (y) the foregoing will not release any such Revolving Credit Lender from any such obligation to fund its portion of L/C Disbursements or participations in Swingline Loans if on such Maturity Date any Specified Default or event, act or condition which with notice on lapse of time or both would constitute a Specified Default exists until such Specified Default or event, act or condition ceases to exist. Unless clause (y) to the prior proviso to the immediately succeeding sentence is applicable, upon the relevant Revolving Credit Maturity Date of such Class or Series, all outstanding Swingline Loans and L/C Exposure shall be deemed to be outstanding with respect to the remaining Revolving Credit Commitments (so long as after giving effect to such reallocation, the Revolving Credit Exposure of each remaining Revolving Credit Lender does not exceed such Lender's remaining Revolving Credit Commitment). On and after the Maturity Date of any Class of Revolving Credit Commitments, the remaining Revolving Lenders (and so long as clause (y) to the proviso to the second immediate sentence is applicable, to the Revolving Lenders in the maturing Class) will be required, in accordance with their Pro Rata Percentages, to fund L/C Disbursements pursuant to Section 2.23(e) arising on or after such date and fund participations in Swingline Loans at the request of the Swingline Lender on and after such date, regardless of whether any Default existed on the Maturity Date of the then-terminating Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that the Revolving Credit Exposure of each remaining Revolving Credit Lender does not exceed such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment. In the event that a Specified Default or event, act or condition which with notice or lapse of time or both would constitute a Specified Default exists on a Maturity Date of a Class of Revolving Credit Commitments, until such Specified Default or event, act or condition ceases to exist, for purposes of determining a Revolving Credit Lenders' Pro Rata Percentage for purposes of Section 2.23(d) or Section 2.22(e), such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment of the relevant Class shall be deemed to be the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender immediately prior to the termination thereof on such Maturity Date.

(iii) The L/C Commitment of any Issuing Bank shall automatically terminate on the earlier to occur of (x) the date set forth in the definition of L/C Commitment for such Issuing Bank and (y) the date 5 days prior to the latest Revolving Credit Maturity Date, unless otherwise agreed by such Issuing Bank and the US Borrower.

(b) Upon at least 3 Business Days' prior written or fax notice to the Administrative Agent, the US Borrower may at any time in whole permanently terminate, or from time to time in part permanently reduce, the Revolving Credit Commitments or the Swingline Commitment; provided, however, that (i) each partial reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments shall be in an integral multiple of $1,000,000 and in a minimum amount of $5,000,000 (and $1,000,000 in the case of the Swingline Commitment) and (ii) the Total Revolving Credit Commitment shall not be reduced to an amount that is less than the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure then in effect (after giving effect to any repayment or prepayment, or any reallocation of L/C Exposure pursuant to clause (e) below, in each case effected simultaneously therewith). Any notice given by the US Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.09(b) shall be irrevocable; provided that any such notice delivered by the US Borrower may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other financing arrangements, in which case such notice may be revoked by the US Borrower (by notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied.

(c) Each reduction in Revolving Credit Commitments hereunder (other than reductions made pursuant to clause (a)(ii) above, reductions made pursuant to clause (d) below, terminations made pursuant to Section 2.13(d) or Section 2.21(a)(v), reductions in accordance with Section 2.13(d), or the implementation of Other Revolving Credit Commitments pursuant to Section 2.25) shall be made ratably among all Classes of Revolving Credit Commitments in accordance with the Revolving Credit Commitments of all Revolving Credit Lenders and within each Class, ratably among the Revolving Credit Lenders of such Class in accordance with their respective applicable Revolving Credit Commitments for such Class; provided that neither the Swingline Commitment nor the Subsidiary Borrower Sublimit shall be reduced unless the Total Revolving Credit Commitment is reduced to an amount less than the Swingline Commitment or Subsidiary Borrower Sublimit, as applicable, then in effect (and then only to the extent of such deficit). For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that immediately prior to the effectiveness of the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments on the Second Amendment Effective Date, the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments and the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments were each terminated in full. The Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of the affected Revolving Credit Lenders, on the date of each termination or reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitment of a given Class, the Commitment Fees on the amount of the Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class so terminated or reduced accrued to but excluding the date of such termination or reduction.

(d) In the event of any payment, repayment or prepayment of the outstanding principal of the Extended First-Lien Term Loans after the Restatement Effective Date (whether voluntary, mandatory, under Section 2.11 or otherwise (but excluding with the proceeds of any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness which the US Borrower elects to apply in accordance with the first proviso to Section 2.13(d)), then contemporaneously therewith (but without the requirement for the giving of any prior notice of commitment reduction) the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall automatically be reduced by an amount equal to the percentage of the reduction of the aggregate principal amount of the Extended First-Lien Term Loans resulting from such payment, repayment or prepayment. For illustrative purposes only, if an optional prepayment of the Extended First-Lien Term Loans is made in an amount which equates to 2.0% of the outstanding principal amount of such Loans, then the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments will concurrently be reduced by an amount equal to 2.0% of the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, upon the Second Amendment Effective Date, all outstanding L/C Exposure and Swingline Exposure with respect to the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments and the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall be deemed to be outstanding with respect to the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments for all purposes in connection with this Agreement (so long as after giving effect to such reallocation, the Revolving Credit Exposure of each 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Lender does not exceed such Lender's 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitment as in effect on the Second Amendment Effective Date). On and after the Second Amendment Effective Date, the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Lenders (as well as any other Revolving Credit Lenders from time to time party hereto) will be required, in accordance with their Pro Rata Percentages, to fund L/C Disbursements pursuant to Section 2.23(e) arising on or after such date and fund participations in Swingline Loans at the request of the Swingline Lender on and after such date, in each case in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement.

SECTION 2.10. *Conversion and Continuation of Borrowings . (a) The Borrowers shall have the right at any time upon prior written or fax notice (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written or fax notice) to the Administrative Agent (i) not later than 1:00 p.m., 1 Business Day prior to conversion, to convert any Eurodollar Borrowing into an ABR Borrowing and (ii) not later than 1:00 p.m., 3 Business Days prior to conversion or continuation, to convert any ABR Borrowing into a Eurodollar Borrowing or to continue any Eurodollar Borrowing as a Eurodollar Borrowing for an additional Interest Period, subject in each case to the following:

(i) each conversion or continuation shall be made pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of the Loans comprising the converted or continued Borrowing;

(ii) if less than all the outstanding principal amount of any Borrowing shall be converted or continued, then each resulting Borrowing shall satisfy the limitations specified in Sections 2.02(a) and 2.02(b) regarding the principal amount and maximum number of Borrowings of the relevant Type;

(iii) each conversion shall be effected by each Lender and the Administrative Agent recording, for the account of such Lender, the Type of such Loan resulting from such conversion and reducing the Loan (or portion thereof) of such Lender being converted by an equivalent principal amount; accrued interest on any Eurodollar Loan (or portion thereof) being converted shall be paid by the relevant Borrower at the time of conversion; and

(iv) if any Eurodollar Borrowing is converted at a time other than the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, the relevant Borrower shall pay, upon demand, any amounts due to the Lenders pursuant to Section 2.16.

Each notice pursuant to this Section 2.10 shall be irrevocable (subject to Sections 2.08 and 2.15) and shall refer to this Agreement and specify (w) the identity and amount of the Borrowing that the relevant Borrower requests be converted or continued, (x) whether such Borrowing is to be converted to or continued as a Eurodollar Borrowing or an ABR Borrowing, (y) if such notice requests a conversion, the date of such conversion (which shall be a Business Day) and (z) if such Borrowing is to be converted to or continued as a Eurodollar Borrowing, the Interest Period with respect thereto. If no Interest Period is specified in any such notice with respect to any conversion to or continuation as a Eurodollar Borrowing, the relevant Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of 1 month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.10 and of each Lender's portion of any converted or continued Borrowing. If the relevant Borrower shall not have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to continue any Borrowing into a subsequent Interest Period (and shall not otherwise have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to convert such Borrowing), such Borrowing shall, at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto (unless repaid pursuant to the terms hereof), automatically be continued into a Eurodollar Borrowing with an Interest Period of 1 month's duration. This Section shall not apply to Swingline Loans.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all Extended First-Lien Term Loans or Revolving Loans outstanding on the Restatement Effective Date (and any other Loans that are converted to or exchanged for a new Class of Loans hereunder) that were Eurodollar Loans immediately prior to the Restatement Effective Date (or such conversion or exchange, as applicable) will have initial Interest Periods ending on the same dates as the Interest Periods applicable to the Existing Term Loans or Revolving Loans outstanding on the Restatement Effective Date (or the Loans which were so converted or exchanged), as applicable and will bear interest at the Adjusted LIBO Rate applicable to such Interest Periods until the expiration thereof; provided that it is understood that the increased margin applicable to the Extended First-Lien Term Loans or Extended Revolving Loans, as applicable, shall apply on and after the Restatement Effective Date.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) each Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans existing on the Second Amendment Effective Date immediately prior to the 2013 Term Loan Conversion (each, an "Original Eurodollar Borrowing") shall, upon the occurrence of the 2013 Term Loan Conversion, be deemed to be a new Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans (as applicable) for all purposes of this Agreement, (ii) each such newly-deemed Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans shall be subject to the same Interest Period (and Adjusted LIBO Rate but adjusted, for this purpose, to give effect to the proviso in the definition thereof) as the Original Eurodollar Borrowing to which it relates (as if no new Eurodollar Borrowing had in fact occurred), (iii) 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans shall be initially incurred pursuant to a single Borrowing of Eurodollar Loans, with such Borrowing to be subject to (x) an Interest Period which commences on the Second Amendment Effective Date and ends on the last day of the Interest Period specified by the US Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request, and (y) the Adjusted LIBO Rate applicable to 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, (iv) in connection with the 2013 Term Loan Conversion, the Administrative Agent shall (and is hereby authorized to) take all appropriate actions to ensure that all Lenders with outstanding (x) 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans (after giving effect to the 2013 Existing Term Loan Conversion) participate in each newly-deemed Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans based on their respective pro rata shares and (y) 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans (after giving effect to the 2013 Extended Term Loan Conversion) participate in each newly-deemed Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans based on their respective pro rata shares, (v) upon the payment of all accrued but unpaid interest with respect to each outstanding Borrowing of Existing First-Lien Term Loans and Extended First-Lien Term Loans on the Second Amendment Effective Date, the Second Amendment Effective Date shall be deemed to be the date of a new "Borrowing" for each then existing Borrowing of Existing First-Lien Term Loans and Extended First-Lien Term Loans, thereby commencing a new period of accrual with respect to interest thereon, notwithstanding that the existing Interest Periods with respect to such Borrowings of Term Loans shall remain in effect after the Second Amendment Effective Date and the 2013 Term Loan Conversion, and (vi) the Applicable Percentage for 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans shall apply on and after the Second Amendment Effective Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the definition of “Interest Period” or elsewhere in this Agreement, (i) the 2013 Incremental Term Loans and the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans shall each be initially incurred pursuant to a single Borrowing of Eurodollar Loans as set forth in the applicable Borrowing Request (subject to clause (iv) below), (ii) immediately after the incurrence of the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans on the Third Amendment Effective Date, the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans shall be converted into 2013 Incremental Term Loans pursuant to the 2013 Incremental Term Loan Conversion and thereafter be treated as 2013 Incremental Term Loans for all purposes of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iii) the initial Eurodollar Borrowing of 2013 Incremental Term Loans existing on the Third Amendment Effective Date (immediately prior to the incurrence of the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans) (the “Original 2013 Incremental Term Loan Borrowing”) shall, upon the occurrence of the 2013 Incremental Term Loan Conversion, continue to remain outstanding, (iv) the initial Eurodollar Borrowing of the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans incurred on the Third Amendment Effective Date shall be added to (and thereafter be deemed to constitute a part of) the then outstanding Original 2013 Incremental Term Loan Borrowing, with such new Eurodollar Borrowing to be deemed to be subject to (1) an Interest Period which commences on the Third Amendment Effective Date and ends on the last day of the Interest Period applicable to the Original 2013 Incremental Term Loan Borrowing to which it is so added and (2) the same Adjusted LIBO Rate applicable to the Original 2013 Incremental Term Loan Borrowing to which it is so added, and (v) in connection with the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall (and is hereby authorized to) take all appropriate actions to ensure that all 2013 Incremental Term Loan Lenders participate in each Borrowing of 2013 Incremental Term Loans (after giving effect to the incurrence of the 2013 Refinancing Term Loans and the 2013 Incremental Term Loan Conversion) on a pro rata basis (based upon the then outstanding principal amount of all 2013 Incremental Term Loans held by the 2013 Incremental Term Loan Lenders at such time).

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the definition of “Interest Period” or elsewhere in this Agreement, (i) the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans shall be initially incurred pursuant to a single Borrowing of Eurodollar Loans (the “Original Replacement New First-Lien Term Loan Eurodollar Borrowing”), with such Borrowing to be subject to (x) an Interest Period which commences on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date and ends on the last day of the Interest Period specified by the US Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request, and (y) the Adjusted LIBO Rate applicable to Replacement First-Lien Term Loans as provided herein, (ii) upon the payment of all accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the portion of the 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans to be prepaid on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, (x) the Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans shall cease to be subject to the Interest Periods applicable to any Borrowings of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien

Term Loans from which they were converted pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and (y) any Eurodollar Borrowings of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans that remain outstanding following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion shall continue to be subject to the same Interest Periods as were in effect with respect to such Borrowings immediately prior to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion, with, however, the occurrence of the Fourth Amendment Effective Date to be deemed to be the date of a new “Borrowing” for each then existing Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, as the case may be, thereby commencing a new period of accrual with respect to interest thereon, (iii) upon the incurrence of the Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion on the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, the Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans shall be deemed (for this purpose only) to be incurred pursuant to (and added to and made a part of) the Original Replacement New First-Lien Term Loan Eurodollar Borrowing, thereby commencing a new period of accrual with respect to interest thereon, and the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans and the Replacement Converted First-Lien Term Loans shall be consolidated into a single Class of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans as contemplated by the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation and thereafter be treated as Replacement First-Lien Term Loans for all purposes of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and (iv) in connection with the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall (and is hereby authorized to) take all appropriate actions to ensure that (x) all Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Lenders participate in each Borrowing of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans (after giving effect to the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation) on a pro rata basis (based upon the then outstanding principal amount of all Replacement First-Lien Term Loans held by the Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Lenders at such time) and (y) all First-Lien Lenders holding any 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans that remain outstanding following the Replacement Term Loan Conversion participate in each Borrowing of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, as the case may be, on a pro rata basis (based upon the then outstanding principal amount of all such 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, as the case may be, held by the applicable First-Lien Lenders at such time).

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the definition of “Interest Period” or elsewhere in this Agreement, (i) on the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date immediately prior to the consummation of the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation, (A) the Borrowers shall pay in full all accrued but unpaid interest with respect to any 2013 Incremental Term Loans and Replacement First-Lien Term Loans then outstanding, as well as any amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.16 in connection therewith and (B) no outstanding 2013 Incremental Term Loans or Replacement First-Lien Term Loans shall bear interest by reference to the Alternate Base Rate, (ii) each Eurodollar Borrowing of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans existing on the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation Date immediately prior to the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation (each, an “Existing Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Eurodollar Borrowing”) shall, upon the occurrence of the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation, continue to remain outstanding, (iii) upon the payment of all accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the 2013

Incremental Term Loans, the Interest Periods applicable to then outstanding 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall terminate and the Borrowings of 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall cease to be subject to the Interest Periods theretofore applicable thereto, (iv) upon the occurrence of the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation, the 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall be deemed (for this purpose only) to be incurred pursuant to (and added to and made a part of) the Existing Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Eurodollar Borrowings (ratably among such Borrowings), thereby commencing a new period of accrual with respect to interest thereon, and the Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and the 2013 Incremental Term Loans shall be consolidated into a single Class of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to the Replacement Term Loan Consolidation and thereafter be treated as Replacement First-Lien Term Loans for all purposes of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents (except as expressly provided otherwise pursuant to Section 2.01(f)(3)), and (v) in connection with the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall (and is hereby authorized to) take all appropriate actions to ensure that all Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Lenders participate in each Borrowing of Replacement First-Lien Term Loans (after giving effect to the Replacement/Incremental Term Loan Consolidation) on a pro rata basis (based upon the then outstanding principal amount of all Replacement First-Lien Term Loans held by the Replacement First-Lien Term Loan Lenders at such time).

(a) The Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing, in whole or in part, upon at least 3 Business Days' prior written or fax notice by the US Borrower (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written or fax notice) in the case of Eurodollar Loans, or written or fax notice by the US Borrower (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written or fax notice) at least 1 Business Day prior to the date of prepayment in the case of ABR Loans, to the Administrative Agent before 1:00 p.m.; provided, however, that each partial prepayment shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000,000 and not less than $5,000,000.

(b) Subject to clause (g) below, optional prepayments of Term Loans shall be applied ratably among each Class of Term Loans then outstanding and against the remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect of such Class of Term Loans under Section 2.11 in the manner specified by the US Borrower or, if not so specified on or prior to the date of such optional prepayment, in direct order of maturity; provided that (i) at any time the Borrower may, at its option, direct that any voluntary prepayment of Loans pursuant to this Section 2.12 be applied (in which case it shall be applied) (A) first, to then outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans, (B) second, after the repayment in full of all then outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans, to then outstanding Extended First-Lien Term Loans, (C) after the repayment in full of all then outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans and Extended First-Lien Term Loans, to then outstanding 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Incremental Term Loans, Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and any newly created Class of Term Loans with a Maturity Date identical to the 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Incremental Term Loans and Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and (D) after the repayment in full of all then outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans, Extended First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Incremental Term Loans, Replacement First-Lien Term Loans and any other Class of Term Loans required to be repaid pursuant to preceding clause (C), any newly created Class of Term Loans with the earliest Maturity Date (ratably among such Classes with an identical Maturity Date) and (ii) it is understood and agreed that this clause (b) may be modified as expressly provided in Section 2.25 in connection with a Refinancing Amendment; provided that it is understood and agreed that such modification may not alter the treatment of the Existing First-Lien Term Loans, the Extended First-Lien Term Loans, the 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans, the 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, the 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans, the 2013 Incremental Term Loans or the Replacement First-Lien Term Loans as set forth in the foregoing proviso; provided further that, (1) for the avoidance of doubt, the applicable portion of the Net Cash Proceeds from the incurrence of (x) the 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans shall be applied to the optional prepayment of Existing First-Lien Term Loans and Extended First-Lien Term Loans not subject to the 2013 Term Loan Conversion as provided in Section 6(f) of the Second Amendment and (y) the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans shall be applied to the optional prepayment of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans not subject to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion (on a ratable basis among such Classes) as provided in Section 4(e) of the Fourth Amendment and (2) notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 2.12(b), if any 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans remain outstanding following the consummation of the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and the prepayments contemplated by preceding clause (1)(y), Net Cash Proceeds from any Additional Senior Secured Notes issued on or after the Fourth Amendment Effective Date may, at the election of the US Borrower, be applied to the optional prepayment of such remaining 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (on a ratable basis among such Classes), or, absent any such election, shall be applied towards the prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.12(b) (but without giving effect to this clause (2)).

(c) Optional prepayments of Revolving Loans shall be applied ratably among each Class of Revolving Loans then outstanding, except (i) any prepayment of Revolving Loans of a given Class elected to be made pursuant to Section 2.13(d) (and accompanied by a corresponding reduction of Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class under Section 2.09), in which case the Borrowers shall prepay the Revolving Loans of the applicable Class and (ii) any prepayment of Revolving Loans of a given Lender permitted to be made pursuant to Section 2.21(a)(y) (and accompanied by a corresponding reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender), in which case the Borrowers shall prepay the Revolving Loans of such Lender. For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that all Existing Non-Extended Revolving Loans and Extended Revolving Loans were repaid in full on the Second Amendment Effective Date immediately prior to the effectiveness of the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, and that such payments were allocated ratably among the Lenders holding Commitments for such Classes of Loans immediately prior to the Second Amendment Effective Date.

(d) Each notice of prepayment shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount of each Borrowing (or portion thereof) to be prepaid, shall be irrevocable and shall commit the relevant Borrower to prepay such Borrowing by the amount stated therein on the date stated therein; provided that if a notice of optional prepayment is given in connection with a conditional notice of termination of any Commitments as contemplated by Section 2.09, then such notice of prepayment may be revoked if such notice of termination is revoked in accordance with Section 2.09. All prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be subject to Sections 2.09(d) and 2.16 but otherwise without premium or penalty. All Eurodollar Loan prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be accompanied by accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be prepaid to but excluding the date of payment.

(e) In connection with the incurrence of 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.01(d)(i)(C) and the repayment of Existing First-Lien Term Loans and Extended First-Lien Term Loans with the proceeds thereof, the Lenders and the Borrowers hereby agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrowers shall be obligated to pay to each 2013 Non-Converting Lender all breakage or other costs of the type referred to in Section 2.16 (if any) incurred or suffered in connection with the repayment of the outstanding Existing First-Lien Term Loans and/or Extended First-Lien Term Loans of such 2013 Non-Converting Lender with the proceeds of 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans (it being understood that breakage or other costs of the type referred to in Section 2.16 (if any) shall not be payable to 2013 Converting First-Lien Term Loan Lenders in connection with (x) the 2013 Term Loan Conversion or (y) any Existing First-Lien Term Loans and/or Extended First-Lien Term Loans of such 2013 Converting First-Lien Term Loan Lender which are not subject to the 2013 Term Loan Conversion and which are prepaid with the proceeds of the 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans).

(f) In connection with the incurrence of Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.01(f)(iv) and the repayment of 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans with the proceeds thereof, the Lenders and the Borrowers hereby agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrowers shall be obligated to pay to each Non-Converting Lender all breakage or other costs of the type referred to in Section 2.16 (if any) incurred or suffered in connection with the repayment of any outstanding 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans of such Non-Converting Lender with the proceeds of Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans (it being understood that breakage or other costs of the type referred to in Section 2.16 (if any) shall not be payable to Replacement Converting First-Lien Term Loan Lenders in connection with (x) the Replacement Term Loan Conversion or (y) any 2013 Converted Existing First-Lien Term Loans, 2013 Converted Extended First-Lien Term Loans and/or 2013 New First-Lien Term Loans of such Replacement Converting First-Lien Term Loan Lender which are not subject to the Replacement Term Loan Conversion and which are prepaid with the proceeds of the Replacement New First-Lien Term Loans).

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.12, at any time after the Fourth Amendment Effective Date, the Borrowers may make an optional prepayment with respect to an individual Class of outstanding Term Loans (any such Class, the “Refinanced Term Loans”) in connection with (and using the proceeds from) the refinancing in whole, or in part, of such Refinanced Term Loans with a replacement term loan tranche under this Agreement (any such replacement tranche of term loans, the “Replacement Repriced Term Loans”), provided that (i) the original aggregate principal amount of such Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of such Refinanced Term Loans, except by an amount equal to unpaid accrued interest and premium thereon plus other reasonable amounts paid, and fees and expenses reasonably incurred, in connection with such Replacement Repriced Term Loans, (ii) the Effective Yield for such Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall not be higher than the Effective Yield for such Refinanced Term Loans, (iii) the final maturity date of such Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall be equal to or later than the final maturity date of the Refinanced Term Loans, and the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall not be shorter than the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Refinanced Term Loans at the time of such refinancing ( provided, that for purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Life to Maturity under this paragraph (g), amortization of such Term Loans shall be disregarded if (and only if) it does not exceed 1.00% per annum), (iv) the Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall be secured by the Collateral on a pari passu basis with the Secured Obligations and shall not be secured by any property or assets of the US Borrower or any Subsidiary other than the Collateral, (v) such Replacement Repriced Term Loans are not guaranteed by any Subsidiaries other than the Subsidiary Guarantors, (vi) all other terms applicable to such Replacement Repriced Term Loans shall be substantially identical to, or less favorable to the Lenders providing such Replacement Repriced Term Loans than, those applicable to such Refinanced Term Loans, except to the extent necessary to provide for covenants and other terms applicable to any period after the Latest Maturity Date in effect immediately prior to such refinancing and (vii) no Default or Event of Default shall exist immediately prior to or after giving effect to the incurrence of such Replacement Repriced Term Loans. The effectiveness of any Repricing Amendment shall be subject to the satisfaction on the date thereof of each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 (it being understood that all references to “the date of such Credit Event” or similar language in such Section 4.01 shall be deemed to refer to the effective date of such Repricing Amendment and such other conditions as may be agreed by the Borrowers and the Lenders providing such Replacement Repriced Term Loans and set forth in a Repricing Amendment) and, to the extent reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, receipt by the Administrative Agent of (x) legal opinions, board resolutions and officers’ certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date other than changes to such legal opinion resulting from a change in law, change in fact or change to counsel’s form of opinions reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and (y) reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Security Documents as may be reasonably requested by the First-Lien Collateral Agent (including mortgage amendments) in order to ensure that the Replacement Repriced Term Loans are provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Repricing Amendment. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement may be amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (x) reflect the existence and terms of the Replacement Repriced Term Loans (including any amendments necessary to treat the Loans and Commitments subject thereto as First-Lien Term Loans and/or Replacement Repriced Term Loan Commitments) and (y) make such other changes to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents consistent with the provisions and intent of this Section 2.12(g) and Section 9.08(c).

SECTION 2.13. Mandatory Prepayments . (a) (i) Each Borrower shall, on the date of termination of any Revolving Credit Commitments of a given Class, repay or prepay all of its outstanding Revolving Credit Borrowings of such Series or Class.

(ii) If for any reason, at any time during the ten (10) Business Day period immediately preceding the Maturity Date for any Class of Revolving Credit Commitments, (x) the Allocable Revolving Share of the Revolving Credit Exposure attributable to L/C Exposure of Revolving Credit Lenders of such Class and Swingline Exposure of such Class exceeds (y) the amount of the remaining Total Revolving Credit Commitments minus the remaining Revolving Credit Lenders' Allocable Revolving Share of the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure at such time, then the US Borrower shall promptly prepay or cause to be promptly prepaid Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans and/or cash collateralize the L/C Exposure in an aggregate amount necessary to eliminate such excess; provided that the US Borrower shall not be required to cash collateralize the L/C Exposure pursuant to this sentence unless after the prepayment in full of the Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans such excess has not been eliminated. For purposes of this Section 2.13(a)(ii), "Allocable Revolving Share" shall mean, at any time with respect to the Total Revolving Credit Commitments or the Revolving Credit Lenders of any Class, the percentage of the Revolving Credit Commitments represented at such time by the Total Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class.

(iii) Except as set forth in clause (iv) below, if, after giving effect to any partial reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments, the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure would exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment, then the US Borrower shall (and to the extent the Subsidiary Borrower Sublimit would exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment, then the Subsidiary Borrower shall), on the date of such reduction, repay or prepay Revolving Credit Borrowings pro rata among the then existing Classes of Revolving Credit Commitments unless such a repayment is made on the Maturity Date of a given Class, in which case such repayments shall be applied first to Revolving Credit Commitments of such maturing Class or Swingline Loans (or a combination thereof) and, after the Revolving Credit Borrowings and Swingline Loans shall have been repaid or prepaid in full, replace or cause to be canceled (or provide an L/C Backstop or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the relevant Issuing Bank with respect to) Letters of Credit in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(iv) If, after giving effect to any partial reduction of the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments pursuant to Section 2.09(d), the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure in respect of such Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments would exceed such Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit

Commitments, then the US Borrower shall, on the date of such reduction, repay or prepay Revolving Credit Exposure in respect of the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, first to Revolving Loans or Swingline Loans (or a combination thereof) and, after such Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans shall have been repaid or prepaid in full, to replace or cause to be canceled (or provide an L/C Backstop or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the relevant Issuing Bank with respect to) Letters of Credit allocable to the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(b) Not later than the tenth Business Day following the receipt by the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Net Cash Proceeds in respect of any Prepayment Asset Sale or Property Loss Event, the US Borrower shall apply an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries with respect thereto (subject to the restrictions set forth herein) to prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(e); provided, however, that the foregoing percentage shall be reduced to (i) 50% if the Adjusted Consolidated Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to 8.00 to 1.00 but greater than 6.00 to 1.00 and (ii) 0% if the Adjusted Consolidated Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to 6.00 to 1.00, in each case, determined by reference to the most recently delivered Pricing Certificate at the time of receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds; and provided, further, that, except as provided in the next sentence, if (x) prior to the date any such prepayment is required to be made, the US Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent of its intent to (A) reinvest such Net Cash Proceeds in assets of a kind then used or usable in the business of the US Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries or (B) repay any Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (other than the Loans) of the US Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries (and, in the case of any revolving loans, to the extent accompanied by a permanent reduction of the related commitment), which repayment shall, except in the case of any prepayment or redemption of the Existing Senior Notes or the Senior Secured Notes (but not any Refinancing Indebtedness thereof), be made on a ratable basis among such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations and the Term Loans and (y) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of such notice, and no Event of Default under clause (a), (b), (g) or (h) of Section 7.01 (each, a “Specified Default”) shall have occurred and shall be continuing at the time of proposed reinvestment (unless, in the case of such Specified Default, such reinvestment is made pursuant to a binding commitment entered into at a time when no Specified Default was continuing), then the US Borrower shall not be required to prepay Term Loans hereunder in respect of such Net Cash Proceeds to the extent that such Net Cash Proceeds are so reinvested or such Indebtedness is repaid (together with any ratable repayment of Term Loans required by clause (B) above) within 2 years after the date of receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds (or, in the case of a reinvestment pursuant to clause (A) above, within such 2-year period, the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries enters into a binding commitment to so reinvest in such Net Cash Proceeds, and such Net Cash Proceeds are so reinvested within 180 days after such binding commitment is so entered into); provided, however, that (I) if any Net Cash Proceeds are not reinvested or applied as a repayment on or prior to the last day of the applicable application period, such Net Cash Proceeds shall be applied within 5 Business Days to the prepayment of the Term Loans as set forth above (without regard to the immediately preceding proviso), (II) if, as a result of any Prepayment Asset Sale or Property Loss Event, the US Borrower would be required to make an “offer to purchase” the New Senior Notes pursuant to the terms of the New Senior Notes Documentation or any other Material Indebtedness (other than Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations), in any such case prior to the expiry of the foregoing reinvestment or repayment periods, the US Borrower shall apply the relevant percentage of such Net Cash Proceeds as required above by this paragraph (b) to prepay Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(e) on the day immediately preceding the date of such required “offer to purchase” (without regard to the immediately preceding proviso) and (III) if, as a result of any Prepayment Asset Sale or Property Loss Event, the US Borrower would be required to make an “offer to purchase” any Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (other than the Existing Senior Notes or the Senior Secured Notes (other than any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof)) pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness prior to the expiry of the foregoing reinvestment or repayment periods, the US Borrower shall apply an amount that would otherwise be required to prepay the Term Loans on a ratable basis with such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations in accordance with Section 2.13 (e) on the day immediately preceding the date of the consummation of any such “offer to purchase”.

(c) No later than the tenth Business Day following the delivery of the Section 5.04 Financials (commencing with the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007), the US Borrower shall prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(e) in an aggregate principal amount equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the applicable ECF Percentage of Excess Cash Flow for the fiscal year then ended over (ii) the sum of the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans and Revolving Loans (to the extent accompanied by a permanent reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments) prepaid pursuant to Section 2.12 during such fiscal year or on or prior to the date such payment is required to be made (without duplication), in each case to the extent such prepayments are not funded with the proceeds of long-term Indebtedness (other than revolving Indebtedness).

(d) In the event that the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries shall receive Net Cash Proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness (i) (other than any cash proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness permitted pursuant to Section 6.01), the US Borrower shall no later than the tenth Business Day next following the receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds, apply an amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds to prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(e), and (ii) the US Borrower incurs or issues any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness (other than solely by means of extending or renewing then existing Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness without resulting in any Net Cash Proceeds), the Borrower shall prepay an aggregate principal amount of Term Loans and/or if the US Borrower so elects, Revolving Loans (with a corresponding reduction in Revolving Credit Commitments) in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds of such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness within 3 Business Days after such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness is incurred or issued; provided, that each prepayment of Loans required by this clause (ii) shall be applied (A) first, to the Existing First-Lien Term Loans or, if the Borrower elects to apply such proceeds to the Revolving Loans as set forth above, then pro rata to the Existing First-Lien Term Loans and the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Loans (and/or reduction in the Existing Non-Extended Revolving Credit Commitments), (B) next, to the Class or Classes of Loans and/or Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, as directed by the US Borrower, with the earliest Maturity Date (ratably among such Classes, if multiple Classes exist with the same Maturity Date), until all such Loans and/or Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, of such Class or Classes have been repaid or terminated in full and (C) thereafter, to the successive Class or Classes of Loans and/or Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, with the then next earliest Maturity Date

(ratably among such Classes, if multiple Classes exist with the same Maturity Date), and so on, until 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds from such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness has been applied to the Loans and/or to reduce Revolving Credit Commitments as required by this clause (ii); provided however, that the Net Cash Proceeds from any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness incurred or issued by the US Borrower on the Restatement Effective Date shall be applied to the outstanding Existing Term Loans (as determined immediately after giving effect to the Term B-1 Extension but prior to the Term B-2 Extension).

(e) All prepayments of Term Loans required by this Section 2.13 shall be applied (x) ratably to each Class of Term Loans then outstanding (other than as required or permitted pursuant to clause (d)(ii) above) and (y) against the remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect of each Class or Series of Term Loans in the direct order of maturity, including as set forth in Schedule 2.11. Repayments of Loans and reductions of Revolving Credit Commitments required to be made by clause (d)(ii) shall be applied to the Class or Classes of Loans required by such clause. Each of the foregoing application provisions may be modified as expressly provided in Section 2.25 in connection with a Refinancing Amendment.

SECTION 2.14. *Reserve Requirements; Change in Circumstances . (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of or credit extended by any Lender or any Issuing Bank (except any such reserve requirement which is reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate) or shall impose on such Lender or such Issuing Bank or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Eurodollar Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein, and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such Issuing Bank of making or maintaining a participation therein or to increase the cost to any Lender of issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or purchasing or maintaining a participation therein or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or such Issuing Bank hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) by an amount deemed by such Lender or such Issuing Bank to be material, then the relevant Borrower will pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, upon demand such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender or any Issuing Bank shall have determined that any Change in Law regarding capital adequacy has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made or participations in Loans purchased by such Lender pursuant hereto or the Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank pursuant hereto to a level below that which such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's policies and the policies of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company with respect to capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by such Lender or such Issuing Bank to be material, then the relevant Borrower shall pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or an Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) above shall be delivered to the US Borrower, shall describe the applicable Change in Law, the resulting costs incurred or reduction suffered (including a calculation thereof), certifying that such Lender is generally charging such amounts to similarly situated borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The relevant Borrower shall pay such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as applicable, the amount shown as due on any such certificate delivered by it within 30 days after its receipt of the same.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or any Issuing Bank to demand compensation for any increased costs or reduction in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation; provided that the relevant Borrower shall not be under any obligation to compensate any Lender or any Issuing Bank under paragraph (a) or (b) above with respect to increased costs or reductions with respect to any period prior to the date that is 180 days prior to such request; provided further, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to any increased costs or reductions arising out of the retroactive application of any Change in Law within such 180-day period. The protection of this Section shall be available to each Lender and the respective Issuing Bank regardless of any possible contention of the invalidity or inapplicability of the Change in Law that shall have occurred or been imposed; provided that if, after the payment of any amounts by the Borrowers under this Section, any Change in Law in respect of which a payment was made is thereafter determined to be invalid or inapplicable to the relevant Lender or Issuing Bank, then such Lender or Issuing Bank shall, within 30 days after such determination, repay any amounts paid to it by the Borrowers hereunder in respect of such Change in Law.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.14 to the contrary, this Section 2.14 shall not apply to any Change in Law with respect to Taxes, which shall be governed exclusively by Section 2.20.

SECTION 2.15. *Change in Legality . (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall make it unlawful for any Lender to make or maintain any Eurodollar Loan or to give effect to its obligations as contemplated hereby with respect to any Eurodollar Loan, then, by written notice to the US Borrower and to the Administrative Agent:

(i) such Lender may declare that Eurodollar Loans will not thereafter (for the duration of such unlawfulness) be made by such Lender hereunder (or be continued for additional Interest Periods) and ABR Loans will not thereafter (for such duration) be converted into Eurodollar Loans, whereupon any request for a Eurodollar Borrowing (or to convert an ABR Borrowing to a Eurodollar Borrowing or to continue a Eurodollar Borrowing for an additional Interest Period) shall, as to such Lender only, be deemed a request for an ABR Loan (or a request to continue an ABR Loan as such for an additional Interest Period or to convert a Eurodollar Loan into an ABR Loan, as the case may be), unless such declaration shall be subsequently withdrawn; and

(ii) such Lender may require that all outstanding Eurodollar Loans made by such Lender shall be converted to ABR Loans, in which event all such Eurodollar Loans shall be automatically converted to ABR Loans as of the effective date of such notice as provided in paragraph (b) below.

In the event any Lender shall exercise its rights under clause (i) or (ii) above, all payments and prepayments of principal that would otherwise have been applied to repay the Eurodollar Loans that would have been made by such Lender or the converted Eurodollar Loans of such Lender shall instead be applied to repay the ABR Loans made by such Lender in lieu of, or resulting from the conversion of, such Eurodollar Loans.

(b) For purposes of this Section 2.15, a notice to the US Borrower by any Lender shall be effective as to each Eurodollar Loan made by such Lender, if lawful, on the last day of the Interest Period then applicable to such Eurodollar Loan; in all other cases such notice shall be effective on the date of receipt by the US Borrower. Such Lender shall withdraw such notice promptly following any date on which it becomes lawful for such Lender to make and maintain Eurodollar Loans or give effect to its obligations as contemplated hereby with respect to any Eurodollar Loan.

SECTION 2.16. *Indemnity . The Borrowers shall jointly and severally indemnify each Lender against any loss or expense that such Lender may sustain or incur as a consequence of (a) any event, other than a default by such Lender in the performance of its obligations hereunder, which results in (i) such Lender receiving or being deemed to receive any amount on account of the principal of any Eurodollar Loan prior to the end of the Interest Period in effect therefor, (ii) the conversion of any Eurodollar Loan to an ABR Loan, or the conversion of the Interest Period with respect to any Eurodollar Loan, in each case other than on the last day of the Interest Period in effect therefor, or (iii) any Eurodollar Loan to be made by such Lender (including any Eurodollar Loan to be made pursuant to a conversion or continuation under Section 2.10) not being made after notice of such Loan shall have been given by the relevant Borrower hereunder (any of the events referred to in this clause (a) being called a “Breakage Event”) or (b) any default in the making of any payment or prepayment required to be made hereunder. In the case of any Breakage Event, such loss shall include an amount equal to the excess, as reasonably determined by such Lender, of (i) its cost of obtaining funds for the Eurodollar Loan that is the subject of such Breakage Event for the period from the date of such Breakage Event to the last day of the Interest Period in effect (or that would have been in effect) for such Loan over (ii) the amount of interest likely to be realized by such Lender in redeploying the funds released or not utilized by reason of such Breakage Event for such period (exclusive of any loss of anticipated profits). A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts which such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.16 shall be delivered to the US Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.17. *Pro Rata Treatment . Except as provided below in this Section 2.17 with respect to Swingline Loans and as required under Section 2.14, 2.15, 2.16, 2.20 or 2.21, each Borrowing, each payment or prepayment of principal of any Borrowing, each payment of interest on the Loans, each payment of the Commitment Fee and the L/C Participation Fee, each reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments and each conversion of any Borrowing to or continuation of any Borrowing as a Borrowing of any Type shall be allocated pro rata among the Lenders entitled thereto in accordance with their respective applicable Class of Commitments (or, if such Commitments shall have expired or been terminated, in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their respective applicable outstanding Classes of Loans). For purposes of determining the available Revolving Credit Commitments of the Lenders at any time (but subject to the last sentence of Section 2.05(a)), each outstanding Swingline Loan shall be deemed to have utilized the Revolving Credit Commitments of the Lenders (including those Lenders which shall not have made Swingline Loans) pro rata in accordance with such respective Revolving Credit Commitments. Each Lender agrees that in computing such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made hereunder, the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, round each Lender's percentage of such Borrowing to the next higher or lower whole dollar amount.

SECTION 2.18. *Sharing of Setoffs . Subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, each Lender agrees that if it shall, through the exercise of a right of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim against either Borrower or any other Loan Party, or pursuant to a secured claim under Section 506 of Title 11 of the United States Code or other security or interest arising from, or in lieu of, such secured claim received by such Lender under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law or otherwise, or by any other means, obtain payment (voluntary or involuntary) in respect of any Loan or L/C Disbursement as a result of which the unpaid principal portion of its Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements shall be proportionately less than the unpaid principal portion of the Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements of any other Lender, it shall be deemed simultaneously to have purchased from such other Lender at face value, and shall promptly pay to such other Lender the purchase price for, a participation in the Loans and L/C Exposure of such other Lender, so that the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Loans and L/C Exposure and participations in Loans and L/C Exposure held by each Lender shall be in the same proportion to the aggregate unpaid principal amount of all Loans and L/C Exposure then outstanding as the principal amount of its Loans and L/C Exposure prior to such exercise of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim or other event was to the principal amount of all Loans and L/C Exposure outstanding prior to such exercise of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim or other event; provided, however, that (i) if any such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be made pursuant to this Section 2.18 and the payment giving rise thereto shall thereafter be recovered, such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be rescinded to the extent of such recovery and the purchase price or prices or adjustment restored without interest and (ii) the provisions of this Section 2.18 shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant. The Borrowers expressly consent to the foregoing arrangements and agrees that any Lender holding a participation in a Loan or L/C Disbursement deemed to have been so purchased may exercise any and all rights of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim with respect to any and all moneys owing by the Borrowers to such Lender by reason thereof as fully as if such Lender had made a Loan directly to the Borrowers in the amount of such participation.

SECTION 2.19. *Payments . The Borrowers shall make each payment (including principal of or interest on any Borrowing or any L/C Disbursement or any Fees or other amounts) hereunder and under any other Loan Document not later than 2:00 p.m. on the date when due in immediately available dollars (which, in the case of any reimbursement of an L/C Disbursement made in an Alternative Currency, shall be the Dollar Equivalent of the Alternative Currency in which the respective Letter of Credit is denominated), without setoff (except as otherwise provided herein), defense or counterclaim. Each such payment (other than (i) Issuing Bank Fees, which shall be paid directly to the relevant Issuing Bank, (ii) principal of and interest on Swingline Loans, which shall be paid directly to the Swingline Lender, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.22(e) and (iii) amounts payable under Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 or 2.21, which shall be paid directly to the Person entitled thereto) shall be made to the Administrative Agent at its offices at 5022 Gate Parkway, Suite 200, Jacksonville, Florida 32256; Attn: Ms. Sara Pelton; Tel: (904) 271 2886; Fax: (904) 779 3080; Email: sara.pelton@db.com. All payments hereunder and under the other Loan Documents shall be made in dollars. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof.

SECTION 2.20. Taxes . (a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of the either Borrower or any other Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes; provided, that if any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes are required to be withheld or deducted from such payments, then (i) the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions or withholdings (including deductions or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank (as the case may be) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) such Borrower or such Loan Party shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) such Borrower or such Loan Party shall pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, the Borrowers shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(c) The Borrowers shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and each Issuing Bank, within 30 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes paid by the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, on or with respect to any payment by or on account of any obligation of the Borrowers or any other Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Document (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) and any penalties, interest and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, in each case, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes (but not Other Taxes) were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority; provided that if, after the payment of any amounts by the Borrowers under this Section, any such Indemnified Taxes in respect of which a payment was made are thereafter determined to have been incorrectly or illegally imposed, then the relevant recipient of such payment shall, within 30 days after such determination, repay any amounts paid to it by the Borrowers hereunder in respect of such Indemnified Taxes. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the US Borrower by a Lender or an Issuing Bank, or by the Administrative Agent on behalf of itself, a Lender or an Issuing Bank, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, the US Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) Each Foreign Lender shall (a) furnish to the Borrowers (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) on or before the date it becomes a party to the Agreement either (i) 2 accurate and complete originally executed copies of U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-8BEN (or successor form), (ii) 2 accurate and complete originally executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) or (iii) 2 accurate and complete originally executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY (or successor form) together with any required attachments, certifying, in any case, to such Foreign Lender’s legal entitlement to an exemption or reduction from U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to all payments hereunder and (b) provide to the Borrowers (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) a new Form W-8BEN (or successor form), Form W-8ECI (or successor form) or Form W-8IMY (or successor form) together with any required attachments upon (i) the expiration or obsolescence of any previously delivered form to reconfirm any complete exemption from, or any entitlement to a reduction in, U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to any payment hereunder, (ii) the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent form previously delivered by it and (iii) from time to time if requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent; provided that any Foreign Lender that is relying on the so-called “portfolio interest exemption” shall also furnish a “Non-Bank Certificate” in the form of Exhibit E together with a Form W-8BEN. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, a Foreign Lender shall not be required to deliver any form pursuant to this paragraph that such Foreign Lender is not legally able to deliver.

(f) Any Lender or Issuing Bank that is a United States Person, as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, shall (unless such Lender or Issuing Bank may be treated as an exempt recipient based on the indicators described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.6049-4(c)(1)(ii)(A)(1)) deliver to the Borrowers (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), at the times specified in Section 2.20(e), 2 accurate and complete original signed copies of IRS Form W-9, or any successor form that such Person is entitled to provide at such time, in order to qualify for an exemption from United States back-up withholding requirements.

(g) In the event that a Borrower is resident in or conducts business in Puerto Rico, each Lender or Issuing Bank that is not a resident of Puerto Rico for Puerto Rican Tax purposes shall file any certificate or document reasonably requested by such Borrower and, when prescribed by applicable law and reasonably requested by such Borrower, update or renew any such certificate or document, pursuant to any applicable law or regulation, if such filing (i) would eliminate or reduce the amount of withholding Taxes imposed by Puerto Rico with respect to any payment hereunder and (ii) would not, in the sole discretion of such Lender, result in a legal, economic or regulatory disadvantage to such Lender.

(h) If the Administrative Agent, a Lender or an Issuing Bank determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by a Borrower or with respect to which a Borrower has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section, it shall pay to the relevant Borrower an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Borrower under this Section with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund), provided that (i) the relevant Borrower, upon the request of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank, agrees to repay the amount paid over to such Borrower (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank in the event the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority and (ii) nothing herein contained shall interfere with the right of a Lender or Administrative Agent to arrange its tax affairs in whatever manner it thinks fit nor oblige any Lender or Agent to claim any tax refund or to make available its tax returns or disclose any information relating to its tax affairs or any computations in respect thereof or require any Lender or Administrative Agent to do anything that would prejudice its ability to benefit from any other refunds, credits, reliefs, remissions or repayments to which it may be entitled.

SECTION 2.21. *Assignment of Commitments under Certain Circumstances; Duty to Mitigate . (a) In the event (i) any Lender or any Issuing Bank requests compensation pursuant to Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender or any Issuing Bank delivers a notice described in Section 2.15, (iii) any Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or the Issuing Bank or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender or any Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.20, (iv) any Lender shall become a Defaulting Lender or (v) any Lender refuses to consent to any amendment, waiver or other modification of any Loan Document requested by the US Borrower that requires the consent of all affected Lenders in accordance with the terms of Section 9.08 or all the Lenders with respect to a certain Class of Loans and such amendment, waiver or other modification is consented to by the Required Lenders or by Lenders holding a majority of the Loans and/or Commitments, as applicable, of the affected Class (any such Lender, a “Non-Consenting Lender”), the US Borrower may, at its sole cost and expense, upon notice to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, and the Administrative Agent, either:

(x) replace such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, by causing such Lender or Issuing Bank to (and such Lender or Issuing Bank shall be obligated to) assign 100% of its relevant Commitments and the principal of its relevant outstanding Loans plus any accrued and unpaid interest and fees pursuant to Section 9.04 (with the assignment fee to be waived in such instance) all of its relevant rights and obligations under this Agreement to one or more Persons (which Persons shall otherwise be subject to the approval rights set forth in Section 9.04(b)); provided that (A) the replacement Lender shall agree to the consent, waiver or amendment to which the Non-Consenting Lender did not agree, (B) neither the Administrative Agent nor any Lender shall have any obligation to the Borrowers to find a replacement Lender or other such Person and (C) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.20, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments; or

(y) terminate the Commitment of such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, and (1) in the case of a Lender (other than an Issuing Bank), repay all Obligations of each Borrower owing to such Lender relating to the Loans and participations held by such Lender as of such termination date and (2) in the case of an Issuing Bank, repay all Obligations of each Borrower owing to such Issuing Bank relating to the Loans and participations held by the Issuing Bank as of such termination date other than any Obligations pertaining to any Subject Letters of Credit.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.21, unless an Issuing Bank is removed and replaced with a successor Issuing Bank at the time the US Borrower exercises its rights under this Section 2.21 (in which case the provisions of Section 2.23(i) shall apply), any Issuing Bank having undrawn Letters of Credit issued by it (the "Subject Letters of Credit") whose Commitments and Obligations are to be repaid or terminated pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.21 shall (x) remain a party hereto until the expiration or termination of the Subject Letters of Credit, (y) not issue (or be required to issue) any further Letters of Credit hereunder and (z) continue to have all rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents solely with respect to the Subject Letters of Credit until all of the Subject Letters of Credit have expired, been terminated or become subject to an L/C Backstop (including all rights of reimbursement pursuant to Sections 2.23(d), (e), (f), and (h) for any L/C Disbursement made by such Issuing Bank and all voting rights of an Issuing Bank (but such voting rights shall be limited to pertain solely to L/C Disbursements in respect of the Subject Letters of Credit, any Fee payable to the Issuing Bank in respect of the Subject Letters of Credit, and the rights or duties of the Issuing Bank in respect of the Subject Letters of Credit), but excluding any consent rights as an Issuing Bank under Section 9.04(b)).

Each Lender hereby grants to the Administrative Agent an irrevocable power of attorney (which power is coupled with an interest) to execute and deliver, on behalf of such Lender as assignor, any Assignment and Acceptance necessary to effectuate any assignment of such Lender's interests hereunder in respect of the circumstances contemplated by this Section 2.21.

(b) If (i) any Lender or any Issuing Bank requests compensation under Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender or any Issuing Bank delivers a notice described in Section 2.15 or (iii) any Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Issuing Bank or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender or any Issuing Bank, pursuant to Section 2.20, then such Lender or such Issuing Bank shall use reasonable efforts (which shall not require such Lender or such Issuing Bank to take any action inconsistent with its internal policies or legal or regulatory restrictions or suffer any disadvantage or burden deemed by it to be material) (x) to file any certificate or document reasonably requested by the US Borrower or (y) to assign its rights and delegate and transfer its obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if such filing or assignment would reduce its claims for compensation under Section 2.14 or enable it to withdraw its notice pursuant to Section 2.15 or would reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.20, as the case may be, in the future.

SECTION 2.22. *Swingline Loans . (a) Subject to the terms and conditions herein set forth, the Swingline Lender agrees to make loans to the Borrowers at any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date and until the termination of its Swingline Commitment, in an aggregate principal amount at any time outstanding that will not result in (i) the principal amount of all Swingline Loans exceeding $50,000,000 in the aggregate, (ii) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure exceeding the Total Revolving Credit Commitment or (iii) the Revolving Credit Exposure attributable to the Subsidiary Borrower exceeding the Subsidiary Borrower Sublimit; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Swingline Lender shall not be obligated to make any Swingline Loans at a time when a Revolving Credit Lender is a Defaulting Lender, unless the Swingline Lender has entered into arrangements reasonably satisfactory to it and the US Borrower to eliminate the Swingline Lender's risk with respect to the Defaulting Lender's participation in such Swingline Loans, including by cash collateralizing such Defaulting Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the outstanding amount of Swingline Loans. Each Swingline Loan shall be in a principal amount that is an integral multiple of $250,000. The Swingline Commitment may be terminated or reduced from time to time as provided herein. Within the foregoing limits, the Borrowers may borrow, pay or prepay and reborrow Swingline Loans hereunder, subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth herein.

(b) The relevant Borrower shall notify the Swingline Lender by fax, or by telephone (promptly confirmed by fax), not later than 1:00 p.m. on the day of a proposed Swingline Loan. Such notice shall be delivered on a Business Day, shall be irrevocable and shall refer to this Agreement and shall specify the requested date (which shall be a Business Day) and amount of such Swingline Loan. The Swingline Lender shall make each Swingline Loan available to such requesting Borrower by means of a credit to an account designated by the relevant Borrower promptly on the date such Swingline Loan is so requested.

(c) Each Borrower shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Swingline Loan, in whole or in part, upon giving written or fax notice by such Borrower (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written, or fax notice) to the Swingline Lender before 1:00 p.m. on the date of prepayment at the Swingline Lender's address for notices specified in Section 9.01; provided that any such notice delivered by a Borrower may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other financing arrangements, in which case such notice may be revoked by such Borrower (by notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied.

(d) Each Swingline Loan shall be an ABR Loan and, subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, shall bear interest as provided in Section 2.06(a).

(e) The Swingline Lender may by written notice given to the Administrative Agent not later than 11:00 a.m. on any Business Day require the Revolving Credit Lenders to acquire participations on such Business Day in all or a portion of the Swingline Loans outstanding. Such notice shall specify the aggregate amount of Swingline Loans in which Revolving Credit Lenders will participate. The Administrative Agent will, promptly upon receipt of such notice, give notice to each Revolving Credit Lender, specifying in such notice such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such Swingline Loan. In furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Credit Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees, upon receipt of notice as provided above, to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Swingline Lender, such Revolving Credit Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such Swingline Loan. Each Revolving Credit Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations in Swingline Loans pursuant to this paragraph is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including the occurrence and continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever. Each Revolving Credit Lender shall comply with its obligation under this paragraph by wire transfer of immediately available funds, in the same manner as provided in Section 2.02(c) with respect to Loans made by such Lender (and Section 2.02(c) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the payment obligations of the Lenders) and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the Swingline Lender the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Credit Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall notify the US Borrower of any participations in any Swingline Loan acquired pursuant to this paragraph and thereafter payments in respect of such Swingline Loan shall be made to the Administrative Agent and not to the Swingline Lender. Any amounts received by the Swingline Lender from the relevant Borrower (or other party on behalf of the Borrowers) in respect of a Swingline Loan after receipt by the Swingline Lender of the proceeds of a sale of participations therein shall be promptly remitted to the Administrative Agent and be distributed by the Administrative Agent to the Lenders that shall have made their payments pursuant to this paragraph and to the Swingline Lender, as their interests may appear. The purchase of participations in a Swingline Loan pursuant to this paragraph shall not relieve the relevant Borrower (or other party liable for obligations of the Borrowers) of any default in the payment thereof.

SECTION 2.23. *Letters of Credit . (a) Each Borrower may request the issuance of a Letter of Credit on a sight basis for its own account or for the account of any of its subsidiaries, in a form reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and the relevant Issuing Bank, at any time and from time to time on or after the Closing Date and prior to the earlier to occur of (i) the termination of its L/C Commitment and (ii) the date that is 5 Business Days prior to the latest Revolving Credit Maturity Date. This Section shall not be construed to impose an obligation upon any Issuing Bank to issue any Letter of Credit that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or if any Letter of Credit requested to be issued (or amended, as applicable) would have a stated expiry date after the next Revolving Credit Maturity Date and the aggregate face amount of all Letters of Credit having stated expiry dates after the next Revolving Credit Maturity Date would exceed the amount of the Revolving Credit Commitments that have maturities after such Revolving Credit Maturity Date, unless, with the consent of the relevant Issuing Bank, the Borrowers provide cash collateral in an amount equal to not less than 100% of such overage. Letters of Credit may be denominated in dollars or in one or more Alternative Currencies.

(b) In order to request the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or to amend, renew or extend an existing Letter of Credit), the relevant Borrower shall deliver a notice (a “Letter of Credit Application”) to the relevant Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent (reasonably, and in any event, unless waived by the relevant Issuing Bank, no later than 2 Business Days in advance of the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension) requesting the issuance of a Letter of Credit, or identifying the Letter of Credit to be amended, renewed or extended and specifying (i) the date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension, (ii) the date on which such Letter of Credit is to expire (which shall comply with paragraph (c) below), (iii) the amount of such Letter of Credit, if applicable pursuant to Section 1.10, (iv) the currency in which such Letter of Credit is requested to be denominated, (v) the name and address of the beneficiary thereof and (vi) such other information as the relevant Issuing Bank may request with respect to such Letter of Credit. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, renewed or extended only if, and upon issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of each Letter of Credit the relevant Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant that, after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, renewal or extension (i) the L/C Exposure shall not exceed $100,000,000, (ii) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure shall not exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment and (iii) the Revolving Credit Exposure attributable to the Subsidiary Borrower shall not exceed the Subsidiary Borrower Sublimit. Promptly after receipt of any Letter of Credit Application, the relevant Issuing Bank will confirm with the Administrative Agent (by telephone or in writing) that the Administrative Agent has received a copy of such Letter of Credit Application from the relevant Borrower and, if not, such Issuing Bank will provide the Administrative Agent with a copy thereof. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, such Issuing Bank shall, on the requested date, issue a Letter of Credit for the account of the relevant Borrower or enter into the applicable amendment, as the case may be. Promptly after its delivery of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit to an advising bank with respect thereto or to the beneficiary thereof, the relevant Issuing Bank will also deliver to the relevant Borrower and the Administrative Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(c) Each Letter of Credit shall expire at the close of business on the earlier of the date 1 year after the date of the issuance of such Letter of Credit and the date that is 5 Business Days prior to the latest Revolving Credit Maturity Date, unless such Letter of Credit expires by its terms on an earlier date (such date, a “Letter of Credit Expiration Date”); provided, however, that a Letter of Credit may, upon the request of the relevant Borrower, include a provision whereby such Letter of Credit (an “Auto-Renewal Letter of Credit”) shall be renewed automatically for additional consecutive periods of 12 months or less (but not beyond the date that is 5 Business Days prior to the latest Revolving Credit Maturity Date) unless the relevant Issuing Bank notifies the beneficiary thereof at least 30 days (or such longer period as may be specified in such Letter of Credit) prior to the then-applicable Letter of Credit Expiration Date that such Letter of Credit will not be renewed. Once an Auto-Renewal Letter of Credit has been issued, the Revolving Credit Lenders shall be deemed to have authorized (but may not require) the relevant Issuing Bank to permit the renewal of such Letter of Credit at any time to an expiry date not later than the Letter of Credit Expiration Date; provided that the relevant Issuing Bank shall not permit any such renewal if (i) the relevant Issuing Bank has determined that it would have no obligation at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its renewed form under the terms hereof (by reason of the provisions of Section 2.23(1) or otherwise) or (ii) it has received notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) 5 Business Days prior to the day that is 30 days (or such longer period as may be specified in such Letter of Credit) prior to the then-applicable Letter of Credit Expiration Date from the Administrative Agent, any Revolving Credit Lender or the relevant Borrower that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.01 is not then satisfied.

(d) By the issuance of a Letter of Credit and without any further action on the part of an Issuing Bank or the Lenders, such Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Credit Lender, and each such Lender hereby acquires from such Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Lender’s Pro Rata Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit, effective upon the issuance of such Letter of Credit. In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Credit Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of such Issuing Bank, such Lender’s Pro Rata Percentage of each L/C Disbursement made by such Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by the relevant Borrower (or, if applicable, another party pursuant to its obligations under any other Loan Document) forthwith on the date due as provided in Section 2.02(f). Each Revolving Credit Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this paragraph in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including the occurrence and continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever. Upon any change in the Revolving Credit Commitments or Pro Rata Percentages of the Revolving Credit Lenders pursuant to Section 2.21 or 9.04(b) or the reallocation of L/C Exposure to 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments pursuant to Section 2.09(e), it is hereby agreed that, with respect to all outstanding Letters of Credit and unreimbursed L/C Disbursements relating thereto, there shall be an automatic adjustment to the participations pursuant to this Section 2.23(d) to reflect the new Pro Rata Percentages of each Revolving Credit Lender.

(e) If an Issuing Bank shall make any L/C Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, the relevant Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent an amount equal to such L/C Disbursement not later than 12:00 noon on the immediately following Business Day. In the case of a Letter of Credit denominated in an Alternative Currency, the relevant Borrower shall reimburse the relevant Issuing Bank in the Dollar Equivalent of such Alternative Currency on the date of such L/C Disbursement. The Issuing Bank shall notify the relevant Borrower of the Dollar Equivalent of the amount of the drawing promptly following the determination thereof.

(f) (i) Each Borrower's obligations to reimburse L/C Disbursements as provided in paragraph (e) above shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, under any and all circumstances whatsoever, and irrespective of the existence of any claim, setoff, defense or other right that the Borrowers or any other Person may at any time have against the beneficiary under any Letter of Credit, the Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent or any Lender or any other Person, including any defense based on the failure of any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit to comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit; provided that the Borrowers shall not be obligated to reimburse the Issuing Bank for any wrongful payment made by the Issuing Bank as a result of the Issuing Bank's gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct or breach of its obligations in determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof.

(ii) Each Lender and each Borrower agree that, in paying any drawing under a Letter of Credit, the relevant Issuing Bank shall not have any responsibility to obtain any document (other than any draft, demand, certificate or other document expressly required by the Letter of Credit) or to ascertain or inquire as to the validity or accuracy of any such document or the authority of the Person executing or delivering any such document. None of the Issuing Banks, any -Related Party of such Issuing Bank nor any of the respective correspondents, participants or assignees of any Issuing Bank shall be liable to any Lender for (x) any action taken or omitted in connection herewith at the request or with the approval of the Lenders or the Required Lenders, as applicable, (y) any action taken or omitted in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct or (z) the due execution, effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any document or instrument related to any Letter of Credit or Letter of Credit Application. Each Borrower hereby assumes all risks of the acts or omissions of any beneficiary or transferee with respect to its use of any Letter of Credit; provided that this assumption is not intended to, and shall not, preclude either Borrower from pursuing such rights and remedies as it may have against the beneficiary or transferee at law or under any other agreement.

(g) The relevant Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. The relevant Issuing Bank shall as promptly as possible give telephonic notification, confirmed by fax, to the Administrative Agent and the relevant Borrower of such demand for payment and whether such Issuing Bank has made or will make an L/C Disbursement thereunder; provided that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve the relevant Borrower of its obligations to reimburse such Issuing Bank and the Revolving Credit Lenders with respect to any such L/C Disbursement.

(h) If an Issuing Bank shall make any L/C Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, then, unless the relevant Borrower shall reimburse such L/C Disbursement in full on the same day that such L/C Disbursement is made, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest for the account of an Issuing Bank, for each day from and including the date of such L/C Disbursement, to but excluding the earlier of the date of payment by the relevant Borrower or the date on which interest shall commence to accrue thereon as provided in Section 2.02(f), at the rate per annum that would apply to such amount if such amount were an ABR Revolving Loan bearing interest at a “blended” rate that takes account of the relevant Revolving Exposure for each Class of outstanding Revolving Loans.

(i) An Issuing Bank may be removed at any time by the Borrowers by notice from the US Borrower to such Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as an Issuing Bank hereunder by a Lender that shall agree to serve as successor Issuing Bank (which Lender shall be reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent), such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the interests, rights and obligations of the retiring Issuing Bank. At the time such removal shall become effective, the Borrowers shall pay all accrued and unpaid fees pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(ii). The acceptance of any appointment as an Issuing Bank hereunder by a successor Lender shall be evidenced by an agreement entered into by such successor, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the US Borrower and the Administrative Agent, and, from and after the effective date of such agreement, (i) such successor Lender shall have all the rights and obligations of the previous Issuing Bank under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and (ii) references herein and in the other Loan Documents to the term “Issuing Bank” shall be deemed to refer to such successor or to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the resignation or removal of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the retiring Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such removal, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit.

(j) If the maturity of any of the Loans under the First-Lien Facilities has been accelerated and the Borrowers shall have received notice from the Administrative Agent or the Required Revolving Lenders, the Borrowers shall deposit in an account with the First-Lien

Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Revolving Credit Lenders, an amount in cash equal to the L/C Exposure as of such date. Such deposit shall be held by the First-Lien Collateral Agent as collateral for the payment and performance of the First-Lien Obligations. The First-Lien Collateral Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account. Other than any interest earned on the investment of such deposits in Cash Equivalents, which investments shall be made at the option and sole discretion of the First-Lien Collateral Agent, such deposits shall not bear interest. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall (i) automatically be applied by the Administrative Agent to reimburse each Issuing Bank for L/C Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed, (ii) be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of the Borrowers for the L/C Exposure at such time and (iii) subject to the consent of the Required Revolving Lenders, be applied to satisfy the First-Lien Obligations. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of cash collateral hereunder as a result of the acceleration of the Loans under the First-Lien Facilities, such amount (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Borrowers within 3 Business Days to the extent any such acceleration has been rescinded.

(k) The US Borrower may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and such First-Lien Lender, designate one or more additional First-Lien Lenders to act as an issuing bank under the terms of this Agreement. Any First-Lien Lender designated as an issuing bank pursuant to this paragraph (k) shall be deemed to be an "Issuing Bank" (in addition to being a Lender) in respect of Letters of Credit issued or to be issued by such First-Lien Lender, and, with respect to such Letters of Credit, such term shall thereafter apply to the other Issuing Bank and such First-Lien Lender.

(l) An Issuing Bank shall be under no obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if:

(i) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain such Issuing Bank from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any law applicable to such Issuing Bank or any directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over such Issuing Bank shall prohibit, or direct that such Issuing Bank refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular;

(ii) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate any applicable laws binding upon such Issuing Bank; and

(iii) any Revolving Credit Lender is a Defaulting Lender at such time, unless such Issuing Bank has entered into arrangements reasonably satisfactory to it and the US Borrower to eliminate such Issuing Bank's risk with respect to the participation in Letters of Credit by such Defaulting Lender, including by cash collateralizing such Defaulting Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the L/C Exposure.

(m) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms hereof and the terms of any Letter of Credit Applications, reimbursement agreements or similar agreements, the terms hereof shall control.

SECTION 2.24. *Incremental Credit Extensions . (a) The US Borrower may at any time or from time to time after the Closing Date, by notice to the Administrative Agent, specifying which Class or Classes of Loans are affected (whereupon the Administrative Agent shall promptly deliver a copy to each of the First-Lien Lenders), request (i) one or more additional Series of term loans under this Section 2.24 (the “Incremental Term Loans”) or (ii) one or more increases in the amount of the Revolving Credit Commitments under this Section 2.24 (each such increase, a “Revolving Commitment Increase” and, together with any Incremental Term Loans, a “Credit Increase”); provided that (x) both at the time of any such request and upon the effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment referred to below, no Default or Event of Default shall exist and (y) after giving effect to such Credit Increase and the use of the proceeds thereof, the Consolidated First-Lien Leverage Ratio shall be less than or equal to the Consolidated First-Lien Leverage Ratio on the Closing Date. Each Credit Increase shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $100,000,000 (or such lower amount that either (A) represents all remaining availability under the limit set forth in the next sentence or (B) is acceptable to the Administrative Agent (it being understood and agreed that the foregoing minimum amount requirement shall not be applicable to the additional Revolving Credit Increase with respect to the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments referred to in the proviso below)). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the aggregate amount of the Credit Increases shall not exceed $750,000,000; provided that additional Revolving Commitment Increases with respect to the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments may be effected following the Second Amendment Effective Date (and shall not reduce availability under the aforementioned cap), so long as the aggregate amount of all 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Commitments (after giving effect to each such additional Revolving Commitment Increase) does not exceed $550,000,000. Each Incremental Term Loan (1) shall rank pari passu or junior in right of payment and of security with the Revolving Loans and the then-existing Term Loans, (2) shall not mature earlier than the Latest Maturity Date then in effect, (3) shall have an average life to maturity not shorter than the remaining weighted average life to maturity of any Class of the then-existing First-Lien Term Loans and (4) shall be treated in the same manner as the Term Loans for purposes of Section 2.13(e). Each notice from the US Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.24 shall set forth the requested amount and proposed terms of the relevant Credit Increases. Incremental Term Loans may be made, and Revolving Commitment Increases may be provided, by any existing First-Lien Lender or by any Additional Lender.

(b) Commitments in respect of Credit Increases shall become Commitments (or in the case of a Revolving Commitment Increase to be provided by an existing Revolving Credit Lender, an increase in such Lender’s applicable Revolving Credit Commitment) under this Agreement pursuant to an amendment (an “Incremental Amendment”) to this Agreement and, as appropriate, the other Loan Documents, executed by each Borrower, each First-Lien Lender agreeing to provide such Commitment, if any, each Additional Lender, if any, and the Administrative Agent. The Incremental Amendment may, without the consent of any other Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the US Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.24. The effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment shall be subject to the satisfaction on the date thereof (each, an “Incremental Facility Closing Date”) of each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 (it being understood that all references to “the date of such Credit Event” or similar language in such Section 4.01 shall be deemed to refer to the effective date of such Incremental Amendment). The US

Borrower may use the proceeds of Incremental Term Loans for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement. No Lender shall be obligated to provide any Credit Increases unless it so agrees in its sole discretion. Upon each increase in the Revolving Credit Commitments of a given Class pursuant to this Section, (i) each Revolving Credit Lender of the affected Class immediately prior to such increase will automatically and without further act be deemed to have assigned to each Lender providing a portion of the Revolving Commitment Increase for such Class (each a “Revolving Commitment Increase Lender”) in respect of such increase, and each such Revolving Commitment Increase Lender will automatically and without further act be deemed to have assumed, a portion of such Revolving Credit Lender’s participations hereunder in outstanding Letters of Credit and Swingline Loans, in each case of such Class, such that, after giving effect to each such deemed assignment and assumption of participations, the percentage of the aggregate outstanding (x) participations hereunder in Letters of Credit and (y) participations hereunder in Swingline Loans held by each Revolving Credit Lender of the affected Class (including each such Revolving Commitment Increase Lender) will equal the percentage of the aggregate Revolving Credit Commitments of all Revolving Credit Lenders of the affected Class represented by such Revolving Credit Lender’s Revolving Credit Commitment and (ii) if, on the date of such increase, there are any Revolving Loans of the affected Class outstanding, such Revolving Loans shall on or prior to the effectiveness of such Revolving Commitment Increase be prepaid from the proceeds of additional Revolving Loans of such Class made hereunder (reflecting such increase in Revolving Credit Commitments), which prepayment shall be accompanied by accrued interest on the Revolving Loans of such Class being prepaid and any costs incurred by any Lender in accordance with Section 2.16.

(c) This Section 2.24 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.18 or 9.08 to the contrary.

SECTION 2.25. *Refinancing Amendments . At any time after the Restatement Effective Date, any Borrower may obtain, from any First-Lien Lender or any Additional Lender, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of (a) all or any portion of the Term Loans then outstanding under this Agreement (which for purposes of this clause (a) will be deemed to include any then outstanding Other First-Lien Term Loans) and/or (b) all or any portion of the Revolving Loans (or unused Revolving Credit Commitments) under this Agreement (which for purposes of this clause (b) will be deemed to include any then outstanding Other Revolving Loans and Other Revolving Credit Commitments), in the form of (x) Other First-Lien Term Loans or Other First-Lien Term Commitments or (y) Other Revolving Loans or Other Revolving Credit Commitments, respectively, in each case pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment; provided that such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness (i) will rank pari passu in right of payment and of security with, or at the option of the US Borrower, may be subordinated in right of payment and/or security (or be unsecured) to the other Loans and Commitments hereunder, (ii) have such pricing and call protection terms as may be agreed by the US Borrower and the Lenders thereof, (iii) the Effective Yield with respect to each Class of Other First-Lien Term Loans (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the Effective Yield for the Loans of other Class or Classes of Loans and Commitments, in each case, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment; provided that if at the time of the effectiveness of any Refinancing Amendment with respect to a new Class or Classes of Other First-Lien Term Loans prior to the 18 month anniversary of the Restatement Effective Date any Extended First-Lien Term Loans remain outstanding, then to the extent the Effective Yield in respect of such Class of Other First-Lien Term Loans shall at any time (over the life of such Other First-Lien Term Loans) exceed by more than 0.25% the Effective Yield on the Extended First-Lien Term Loans, the Applicable Percentage applicable to such Extended First-Lien Term Loans shall be increased to the extent necessary so that at all times thereafter the Extended First-Lien Term Loans do not receive less than the Effective Yield with respect to such new Other First-Lien Term Loans, less 0.25% per annum, (iv) except as provided in Section 2.13(d)(ii) or as may be agreed to by the Lenders and Additional Lenders providing such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness in the respective Refinancing Amendment (but solely as it relates to such Person's providing such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness waiving their pro rata share of any applicable prepayment or repayment), each Class of Other First-Lien Term Loans shall be prepaid and repaid on a pro rata basis with all voluntary prepayments and mandatory prepayments (but not amortization payments) of the other Classes of Term Loans and (v) otherwise be treated hereunder no more favorably with respect to covenants and events of default, than the Refinanced Debt, except that the terms and conditions applicable to such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness may provide for any additional or different financial or other covenants or other provisions that are agreed between the US Borrower and the Lenders thereof and applicable only during periods after the Latest Maturity Date that is in effect on the date such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness is issued, incurred or obtained. The effectiveness of any Refinancing Amendment shall be subject to the satisfaction on the date thereof of each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 (it being understood that all references to "the date of such Credit Event" or similar language in such Section 4.01 shall be deemed to refer to the effective date of such Refinancing Amendment and such other conditions as may be agreed by the Borrowers and the Lenders providing such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness and set forth in a Refinancing Amendment) and, to the extent reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, receipt by the Administrative Agent of (i) legal opinions, board resolutions and officers' certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date other than changes to such legal opinion resulting from a change in law, change in fact or change to counsel's form of opinions reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and (ii) reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Security Documents as may be reasonably requested by the First-Lien Collateral Agent (including mortgage amendments) in order to ensure that the Refinancing Indebtedness is provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents. Any Other First-Lien Term Loans and/or Other Revolving Credit Commitments (and any corresponding Revolving Credit Exposure) converted from or exchanged for (or the proceeds of which are used to refinance) any then-existing Term Loans or then-existing Revolving Credit Commitments may, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment, be designated as an increase in any then-existing Class of Term Loans or Revolving Credit Commitments of the applicable Borrower or any previously established Other First-Lien Term Loan or Other Revolving Credit Commitment, as applicable. Each Class or Series of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness incurred under this Section 2.25 shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $50,000,000. Any Refinancing Amendment may provide for the issuance of Letters of Credit for the account of the Borrowers, or the provision to the Borrowers of Swingline Loans, pursuant to any Other Revolving Credit Commitments established thereby, in each case on terms substantially equivalent to the terms applicable to Letters of Credit and Swingline Loans under the then-extant Revolving Credit Commitments (it being understood that such Letters of Credit or Swingline Loans may have different pricing and maturity dates, but shall otherwise be treated as though they are a part of a single letter of credit or swingline facility, as applicable, with the then-extant Revolving Credit Commitments) or otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and any applicable swingline lender or letter of credit issuer. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Refinancing Amendment (each, a “Refinancing Effective Date”). Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that, upon the effectiveness of any Refinancing Amendment, this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (i) reflect the existence and terms of the Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness incurred pursuant thereto (including any amendments necessary to treat the Loans and Commitments subject thereto as Other First-Lien Term Loans, Other Revolving Loans, Other Revolving Credit Commitments and/or Other First-Lien Term Commitments) and (ii) make such other changes to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents consistent with the provisions and intent of Section 9.08(c). On any Refinancing Effective Date on which Other Revolving Credit Commitments are effected, subject to the satisfaction of the foregoing terms and conditions, (a) the Revolving Loans of any existing Revolving Credit Lender who is providing a new Other Revolving Credit Commitment on such date and whose existing Revolving Credit Commitment is being reduced on such date pursuant to Section 2.09 in connection therewith shall be converted into Revolving Loans under such Lender’s new Other Revolving Credit Commitment being provided on such date in the same ratio as (x) the amount of such Lender’s new Other Revolving Credit Commitment bears to (y) the aggregate amount of such Lender’s existing Revolving Credit Commitment prior to any reduction of such Lender’s Revolving Credit Commitment pursuant to Section 2.09 in connection therewith and (b) each of the Revolving Credit Lenders with Other Revolving Credit Commitments of the applicable Class shall purchase from each of the other Lenders with Other Revolving Credit Commitments of such Class, at the principal amount thereof, such interests in the Other Revolving Loans under such Class of Other Revolving Credit Commitments so converted or outstanding on such Refinancing Effective Date as shall be necessary in order that, after giving effect to all such assignments and purchases, the Other Revolving Loans of such Series will be held by Revolving Credit Lenders with such Series of Other Revolving Credit Commitments ratably in accordance with their respective Other Revolving Credit Commitments of such Series. Any Refinancing Amendment may, without the consent of any other Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the US Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.25 and the Required Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Refinancing Amendment, and this Section 2.25 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.18 or 9.08 to the contrary.

SECTION 2.26. *Concerning Joint and Several Liability of the Borrowers . (a) Each of the Borrowers is accepting joint and several liability with respect to the Revolving Credit Exposure of the Revolving Credit Lenders in consideration of the financial accommodation to be provided by the Revolving Credit Lenders under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, for the mutual benefit, directly and indirectly, of each of the Borrowers and in consideration of the undertakings of each of the Borrowers to accept joint and several liability for the obligations of each of them, regardless of which Borrower actually receives the benefit of such Revolving Credit Exposure or the amount of such Revolving Credit Exposure or the manner in which the Revolving Credit Lenders account for such Revolving Credit Exposure on their books and records. Each Borrower’s obligations with respect to Revolving Credit Exposure made to it, and each Borrower’s obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Borrower hereunder, with respect to Revolving Credit Exposure of the other Borrower hereunder, shall be separate and distinct obligations, but all such obligations shall be primary obligations of each Borrower.

(b) Each Borrower's obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Borrower hereunder with respect to Revolving Credit Exposure in respect of the other Borrower hereunder shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be unconditional irrespective of (i) the validity or enforceability or subordination of such Obligations of the other Borrower, (ii) the absence of any attempt to collect such Obligations from the other Borrower, any other guarantor, or any other security therefor, or the absence of any other action to enforce the same, (iii) the waiver, consent, extension, forbearance or granting of any indulgence by the Administrative Agent or the Revolving Credit Lenders with respect to such Obligations of the other Borrower, or any part thereof, or any other agreement now or hereafter executed by the other Borrower and delivered to the First-Lien Collateral Agent or the Revolving Credit Lenders, (iv) the failure by the Administrative Agent or the Revolving Credit Lenders to take any steps to perfect and maintain their security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for such Obligations of the other Borrower or (v) any other circumstances which might constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor or of the other Borrower (other than the occurrence of the Termination Date). With respect to each Borrower's obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Borrower hereunder with respect to the Revolving Credit Exposure of the other Borrower hereunder, such Borrower waives, until the Termination Date, any right to enforce any right of subrogation or any remedy which the Administrative Agent or any Revolving Credit Lender now has or may hereafter have against such Borrower, any endorser or any guarantor of all or any part of such Obligations, and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security or collateral given to the Administrative Agent or any Revolving Credit Lender to secure payment of such Obligations or any other liability of the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent or the Revolving Credit Lenders.

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, the Revolving Credit Lenders may proceed directly and at once, without notice, against any Borrower to collect and recover the full amount, or any portion of the Obligations constituting Revolving Credit Exposure, without first proceeding against the other Borrower or any other Person, or against any security or collateral for such Obligations. Each Borrower consents and agrees that the Revolving Credit Lenders shall be under no obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Borrower or against or in payment of any or all of such Obligations.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained herein or in any other of the Loan Documents or any Hedging Obligation, the obligations of the Subsidiary Borrower hereunder shall be limited to an aggregate amount equal to the largest amount that would not render its obligations hereunder subject to avoidance under Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States or any comparable provisions of any applicable fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer law or similar law of any state, nation or other governmental unit.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

Each Borrower represents and warrants (it being understood that, for purposes of the representations and warranties made in the Loan Documents on the Closing Date, such representations and warranties shall be construed as though the Transactions have been consummated) to the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, each Issuing Bank and each of the Lenders that:

SECTION 3.01. *Organization; Powers . The US Borrower and each of its Restricted Subsidiaries (a) is duly organized or formed, validly existing and in good standing (where relevant) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, except where the failure to exist (other than in the case of each Borrower) or be in good standing could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted, except where the failure to have such power and authority could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing (where relevant) in, every jurisdiction where its ownership, lease or operation of properties or the conduct of its business requires such qualification, except where the failure to so qualify could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) has the requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Loan Documents and each other agreement or instrument contemplated thereby to which it is a party.

SECTION 3.02. *Authorization . The execution, delivery and performance of the Loan Documents (a) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate or other organizational and, if required, stockholder or member action and (b) will not (i) violate (A) any provision of (x) any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or (y) of the certificate or articles of incorporation, bylaws or other constitutive documents of any Loan Party, (B) any applicable order of any Governmental Authority, (C) any provision of the Notes Documentation or (D) any provision of any other indenture, agreement or other instrument to which the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is bound, (ii) be in conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under or give rise to any right to require the prepayment, repurchase or redemption of any obligation under (x) the Notes Documentation or (y) any other such indenture, agreement or other instrument or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon or with respect to any property or assets now owned or hereafter acquired by the US Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than Liens created or permitted hereunder or under the Security Documents and the Pari Passu Lien); except with respect to clauses (b)(i) through (b)(iii) above (other than clauses (b)(i)(A)(y), (b)(i)(C) and (b)(ii)(x)), to the extent that such violation, conflict, breach, default, or creation or imposition of Lien could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.03. *Enforceability . This Agreement and each other Loan Document (when delivered) have been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party party thereto. This Agreement and each other Loan Document delivered on the Closing Date constitutes, and each other Loan Document when executed and delivered by each Loan Party party thereto will constitute, a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, receivership, moratorium or similar laws of general applicability relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by general equity principles.

SECTION 3.04. *Governmental Approvals . Except to the extent the failure to obtain or make the same could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, no action, consent or approval of, registration or filing with or any other action by any Governmental Authority is necessary or will be required in connection with the Loan Documents, except for (a) filings and registrations necessary to perfect the Liens on the Collateral granted by the Loan Parties in favor of the First-Lien Collateral Agent, (b) such as have been made or obtained and are in full force and effect and (c) the filing of certain of the Loan Documents with the FCC pursuant to the requirements of the Communications Act.

SECTION 3.05. *Financial Statements . (a) The US Borrower's consolidated balance sheets and related statements of income, stockholder's equity and cash flows as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2006, audited by and accompanied by the report of Ernst & Young present fairly in all material respects the financial condition and results of operations and cash flows of the US Borrower and its consolidated subsidiaries as of such dates and for such periods. Such financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied throughout the period covered thereby, except as otherwise noted therein.

(b) The US Borrower has heretofore delivered to the Administrative Agent its unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet and related pro forma statements of income and cash flows as of the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2006, prepared giving effect to the Transactions as if they had occurred, with respect to such balance sheet, on such date and, with respect to such other financial statements, on the first day of the four-fiscal quarter period ending on such date. Such pro forma financial statements have been prepared in good faith by the US Borrower, based on the assumptions believed by the US Borrower on the date of delivery thereof to be reasonable, are based in all material respects on the information reasonably available to the US Borrower as of the date of delivery thereof, reflect in all material respects the adjustments required to be made to give effect to the Transactions, it being understood that actual adjustments may vary from the pro forma adjustments and actual results may vary from such projected results and, in each case, such variations may be material.

SECTION 3.06. *No Material Adverse Change . Since the Closing Date, no event, change or condition has occurred that (individually or in the aggregate) has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.07. *Title to Properties . Each of the US Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries has good and indefeasible title in fee simple to, or valid leasehold interests in, all its material properties and assets other than (i) minor defects in title that do not materially interfere with its ability to conduct its business or to utilize such assets for their intended purposes and (ii) except where the failure to have such title or other property interests described above could not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, and all such material properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Liens permitted by Section 6.02 .

SECTION 3.08. *Subsidiaries . Schedule 3.08 sets forth as of the Closing Date a list of all subsidiaries, the jurisdiction of their formation or organization, as the case may be, and the percentage ownership interest of such subsidiary's parent company therein, and such Schedule shall denote which subsidiaries as of the Closing Date are not Subsidiary Guarantors.

SECTION 3.09. *Litigation; Compliance with Laws . (a) Except for the case entitled Televisa, S.A. de C.V. v. Univision Communications, Inc., Case No. Cv-05-344 ABC MANx, first filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California on June 16, 2005 (and any other lawsuit(s) alleging substantially the same substance as the foregoing), there are no actions, suits or proceedings at law or in equity or by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or, to the knowledge of the Borrowers, threatened in writing against the US Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary or any business, property or rights of any such Person that could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) None of the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or any of their respective material properties is in violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation, or is in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, decree or order of any Governmental Authority, where any such violation or default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.10. *Federal Reserve Regulations . (a) None of the US Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries is engaged principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock or extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock.

(b) No part of the proceeds of any Loan or any Letter of Credit will be used (i) to purchase or carry any Margin Stock or to extend credit to others for the purpose of purchasing or carrying any Margin Stock or (ii) for a purpose in violation of Regulation U or X issued by the Board.

SECTION 3.11. *Investment Company Act . None of the US Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary is an “investment company” as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Investment Company Act of 1940.

SECTION 3.12. *Taxes . Each of the US Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries has, except where the failure to so file or pay could not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, filed or caused to be filed all Federal, state and other Tax returns required to have been filed by it and has paid, caused to be paid, or made provisions for the payment of all Taxes due and payable by it and all material assessments received by it, except such Taxes and assessments that are not overdue by more than 30 days or the amount or validity of which are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which the US Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary, as applicable, shall have set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP.

SECTION 3.13. *No Material Misstatements . As of the Closing Date, to the knowledge of the Borrowers, the Confidential Information Memorandum and other written information, reports, financial statements, exhibits and schedules furnished by or on behalf of the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders (other than projections and other forward looking information and information of a general economic or industry specific nature) on or prior to the Closing Date in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (taken as a whole) did not and, as of the Closing Date, does not contain any material misstatement of fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not materially misleading. The projections contained in the Confidential Information Memorandum were prepared in good faith on the basis of reasonable assumptions in light of the conditions existing at the time of delivery of such projections, and represented, at the time of delivery thereof, a reasonable good faith estimate of future financial performance by the Borrowers (it being understood that such projections are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of the Borrowers, that actual results may vary from projected results and such variances may be material and that the Borrowers make no representation as to the attainability of such projections or as to whether such projections will be achieved or will materialize).

SECTION 3.14. Employee Benefit Plans . No ERISA Event has occurred or could reasonably be expected to occur, that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Each Pension Plan and/or Foreign Plan is in compliance with the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and/or applicable law, except for such non-compliance that could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. No Pension Event has occurred or could reasonably be expected to occur, which could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.15. Environmental Matters . Except with respect to any matters that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the US Borrower and each of its subsidiaries are in compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws, and have obtained, and are in compliance with, all permits required of them under applicable Environmental Laws, (ii) there are no claims, proceedings, investigations or actions by any Governmental Authority or other Person pending, or to the knowledge of the Borrowers, threatened against the US Borrower or any of its subsidiaries under any Environmental Law, (iii) neither the US Borrower nor any of its subsidiaries has agreed to assume or accept responsibility, by contract, for any liability of any other Person under Environmental Laws and (iv) there are no facts, circumstances or conditions relating to the past or present business or operations of the US Borrower, any of its subsidiaries, or any of their respective predecessors (including the disposal of any wastes, hazardous substances or other materials), or to any past or present assets of the US Borrower or any of its subsidiaries, that could reasonably be expected to result in the US Borrower or any subsidiary incurring any claim or liability under any Environmental Law.

SECTION 3.16. Security Documents . ### Events of Default

SECTION 7.01. Events of Default . In case of the happening of any of the following events (“Events of Default”):

(a) any representation or warranty made or deemed made in any Loan Document or any representation, warranty, statement or information contained in any document required to be furnished pursuant to any Loan Document, shall prove to have been false or misleading in any material respect when so made, deemed made or furnished;

(b) default shall be made in (i) the payment of any principal of any Loan when and as the same shall become due and payable, whether at the due date thereof or at a date fixed for mandatory prepayment thereof or by acceleration thereof or otherwise or (ii) when and as required to be paid herein, any amount required to be prepaid and/or cash collateralized pursuant to Section 2.13(a)(ii) ;

(c) default shall be made in the payment of any reimbursement with respect to any L/C Disbursement, interest on any Loan or L/C Disbursement or any Fee or other amount (other than an amount referred to in clause (b) above) due under any Loan Document, when and as the same shall become due and payable, and such default shall continue unremedied for a period of 5 Business Days;

(d) default shall be made in the due observance or performance by the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary of any covenant, condition or agreement contained in Section 5.01(a) (with respect to either Borrower), 5.05(a), 5.15 or in Article VI; provided that any Event of Default under Section 6.10 shall not constitute an Event of Default with respect to any Term Loan until the earlier of (x) the date that is 30 days after the date such Event of Default arises (unless the same has been cured or waived as provided herein) and (y) the date on which the Administrative Agent terminates the Revolving Credit Commitments and declares the outstanding Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans to be forthwith due and payable in accordance with this Article VII (but, if any New Senior Notes constituting Material Indebtedness are then outstanding, only to the extent that any such action permits the holders of the New Senior Notes to accelerate such Indebtedness pursuant to the New Senior Notes Documentation);

(e) default shall be made in the due observance or performance by any Loan Party or its Restricted Subsidiaries of any covenant, condition or agreement contained in any Loan Document (other than those specified in clause (b), (c) or (d) above) and such default shall continue unremedied for a period of 30 days after written notice thereof from the Administrative Agent to the US Borrower;

(f) (i) the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary shall fail to pay any principal or interest, regardless of amount, due in respect of any Material Indebtedness, when and as the same shall become due and payable (after giving effect to an applicable grace period), which failure enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) the holder or holders of such Material Indebtedness or any trustee or agent on its or their behalf to cause any Material Indebtedness to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity or that is a failure to pay such Material Indebtedness at its maturity or (ii) any other event or condition occurs that results in any Material Indebtedness becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or that enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) the holder or holders of any Material Indebtedness or any trustee or agent on its or their behalf to cause any Material Indebtedness to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity; provided that clause (ii) shall not apply to secured Material Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Material Indebtedness if such sale or transfer is otherwise permitted hereunder;

(g) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary), or of a substantial part of the property or assets of either Borrower or a Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary), under Title 11 of the United States Code, as now constituted or hereafter amended, or any other Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary) or for a substantial part of the property or assets of either Borrower or a Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary) or (iii) the winding-up or liquidation of either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary); and such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 60 days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered;

(h) either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary) shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking relief under Title 11 of the United States Code, as now constituted or hereafter amended, or any other Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, (ii) consent to the institution of any proceeding or the filing of any petition described in paragraph (g) above, (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary) or for a substantial part of the property or assets of either Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary), (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) become unable, admit in writing its general inability or fail generally to pay its debts as they become due;

(i) one or more judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount exceeding $100,000,000 (to the extent not covered by insurance as to which an insurance company has not denied coverage) shall be rendered against either Borrower and/or any Restricted Subsidiary and the same shall remain undischarged for a period of 60 consecutive days during which execution shall not be effectively stayed;

(j) (i) An ERISA Event occurs with respect to a Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan which has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (ii) a Pension Event occurs with respect to a Foreign Plan which has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(k) any material provision of any Loan Document, at any time after its execution and delivery, shall for any reason cease to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with its terms or in accordance with the terms of the other Loan Documents), or any Loan Party contests in writing the validity or enforceability of any material provision of any Loan Document; or any Loan Party denies in writing that it has any or further liability thereunder (other than as a result of the discharge of such Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents);

(l) other than with respect to de minimis items of Collateral not exceeding $10,000,000 in the aggregate, any Lien purported to be created by any Security Document shall cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by any Loan Party not to be, a valid, perfected Lien having the priority contemplated thereby or by the Intercreditor Agreement (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or such Security Document) Lien on the securities, assets or properties purported to be covered thereby, except to the extent that any lack of validity, perfection or priority results from any act or omission of the First-Lien Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent, or any Lender (so long as such act or omission does not result from the breach or non-compliance by a Loan Party with the Loan Documents);

(m) there shall have occurred a Change of Control; or

(n) the principal broadcasting licenses of any station, or any other material authorizations, licenses or permits issued by the FCC, shall be revoked or cancelled or expire by the terms thereof and not be renewed, or shall be modified, in each case in a manner which would have a Material Adverse Effect;

then, and in every such event (other than an event with respect to the Borrowers described in paragraph (g) or (h) above), and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such event, the Administrative Agent may, and at the request of the Required Lenders (or, in the case of an Event of Default arising as a result of a breach of Section 6.10, the Required Revolving Lenders, but solely with respect to the Revolving Credit Facility) shall, by notice to the Borrowers, take either or both of the following actions, at the same or different times: (i) terminate forthwith the Commitments and (ii) declare the Loans then outstanding to be forthwith due and payable in whole or in part, whereupon the principal of the Loans so declared to be due and payable, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of the Borrowers accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall become forthwith due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrowers, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding; and in any event with respect to the Borrowers described in paragraph (g) or (h) above, the Commitments shall automatically terminate and the principal of the Loans then outstanding, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of the Borrowers accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall automatically become due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrowers, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 7.02. *Right to Cure . Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article VII, in the event that the US Borrower fails to comply with the requirements of Section 6.10 as of the end of any relevant fiscal quarter, the Borrower shall have the right (the “Cure Right”) (at any time during such fiscal quarter or thereafter until the date that is 20 days after the date the Pricing Certificate is required to be delivered pursuant to Section 5.04(c)) to issue Equity Interests (other than Disqualified Stock) for cash or otherwise receive cash contributions to its common equity (the “Cure Amount”), and thereupon the US Borrower’s compliance with Section 6.10 shall be recalculated giving effect to the following pro forma adjustments: (i) EBITDA shall be increased, solely for the purposes of determining compliance with Section 6.10, including determining compliance with Section 6.10 as of the end of such fiscal quarter and applicable subsequent periods that include such fiscal quarter by an amount equal to the Cure Amount and (ii) if, after giving effect to the foregoing recalculations (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, taking into account any repayment of Indebtedness in connection therewith), the requirements of Section 6.10 shall be satisfied, then the requirements of Section 6.10 shall be deemed satisfied as of the end of the relevant fiscal quarter with the same effect as though there had been no failure to comply therewith at such date, and the applicable breach or default of Section 6.10 that had occurred shall be deemed cured for the purposes of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (x) in each four fiscal quarter period there shall be a period of at least one fiscal quarter in which the Cure Right is not exercised, (y) the Cure Amount shall be no greater than the amount required for purposes of complying with Section 6.10 and (z) upon the Administrative Agent's receipt of a notice from the US Borrower that it intends to exercise the Cure Right (a "Notice of Intent to Cure"), until the 20th day following date of delivery of the Pricing Certificate under Section 5.04(c) to which such Notice of Intent to Cure relates, none of the Administrative Agent nor any Lender shall exercise the right to accelerate the Loans or terminate the Commitments and none of the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent nor any other Lender or Secured Party shall exercise any right to foreclose on or take possession of the Collateral solely on the basis of an Event of Default having occurred and being continuing under Section 6.10.

ARTICLE VIII

The Administrative Agent and the First-Lien Collateral Agent

Each of the First-Lien Lenders and each Issuing Bank hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent and the First-Lien Collateral Agent (the Administrative Agent and the First-Lien Collateral Agent are referred to collectively as the "First-Lien Agents") its agent and authorizes the First-Lien Agents to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such First-Lien Agent by the terms of the Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the First-Lien Agents are hereby expressly authorized to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the First-Lien Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement.

The bank serving as the Administrative Agent and/or the First-Lien Collateral Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not a First-Lien Agent, and such bank and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrowers or any subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not a First-Lien Agent hereunder.

Neither First-Lien Agent shall have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) neither First-Lien Agent shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, (b) neither First-Lien Agent shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such First-Lien Agent is instructed in writing to exercise by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08), (c) each First-Lien Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under any Loan Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the relevant Required Lenders as it deems appropriate and, if it so requests, it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the relevant Lenders against any and all liability and expense which may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action and (d) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, neither First-Lien Agent shall have any duty to disclose, nor shall it be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Holdings, the Borrowers or any of the subsidiaries thereof that is communicated to or obtained by the bank serving as Administrative Agent and/or First-Lien Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. Neither First-Lien Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) or in the absence of its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct or material breach of the Loan Documents (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable judgment). Neither First-Lien Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to such First-Lien Agent by the US Borrower or a Lender, and neither First-Lien Agent shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the perfection or priority of any Lien or security interest created or purported to be created under the Security Documents or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such First-Lien Agent.

Each First-Lien Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper Person. Each First-Lien Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Each First-Lien Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrowers or any Affiliate thereof), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in good faith and in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

For purposes of determining compliance with the conditions specified in Section 4.02, each Lender that has signed this Agreement shall be deemed to have consented to, approved or accepted or to be satisfied with, each document or other matter required thereunder to be consented to or approved by or acceptable or satisfactory to a Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from such Lender prior to the proposed Closing Date specifying its objection thereto.

Each First-Lien Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by it. Each First-Lien Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of each First-Lien Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as a First-Lien Agent.

Subject to the appointment and acceptance of a successor First-Lien Agent as provided below, any First-Lien Agent may resign at any time by notifying in writing the relevant Lenders, each Issuing Bank (if applicable) and the US Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation of the Administrative Agent or the First-Lien Collateral Agent, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the consent of the US Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and provided that no such consent of the US Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under paragraphs (g)(i) or (h) of Section 7.01), to appoint a successor (other than a Disqualified Institution) which shall be a commercial banking institution organized under the laws of the United States or any State or a United States branch or agency of a commercial banking institution, in each case having a combined capital and surplus of at least $500,000,000. Any resignation by the First-Lien Administrative Agent hereunder shall, unless otherwise consented to by such First-Lien Agent, also constitute the resignation of the First-Lien Administrative Agent (and its Affiliates) as a Swingline Lender and Issuing Bank hereunder (in which case, the US Borrower may appoint a replacement Swingline Lender and Issuing Bank reasonably acceptable to the new First-Lien Administrative Agent).

If no successor agent is appointed prior to the effective date of resignation of the relevant First-Lien Agent specified by such First-Lien Agent in its notice, the resigning First-Lien Agent may appoint, after consulting with the Lenders and the US Borrower, a successor agent from among the Lenders. If no successor agent has accepted appointment as the successor agent by the date which is 30 days following the retiring First-Lien Agent's notice of resignation, the retiring First-Lien Agent's resignation shall nevertheless thereupon become effective and the Required Lenders shall perform all of the duties of such First-Lien Agent hereunder until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor agent as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as a First-Lien Agent hereunder by a successor and upon the execution and filing or recording of such financing statements, or amendments thereto, and such amendments or supplements to the Security Documents, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as the Required Lenders may request, in order to (a) continue the perfection of the Liens granted or purported to be granted by the Security Documents or (b) otherwise ensure that the obligations under Section 5.09 are satisfied, the successor First-Lien Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, discretion, privileges, and duties of the retiring First-Lien Agent, and the retiring First-Lien Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under the Loan Documents. The fees payable by the US Borrower to a successor First-Lien Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the US Borrower and such successor. After a First-Lien Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring First-Lien Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while acting as a First-Lien Agent.

Solely in the circumstance where (a) the Borrowers have incurred one or more Classes of Other Revolving Credit Commitments and (b) DBNY or any of its Affiliates then acting as the Swingline Lender and/or the Issuing Bank has not agreed in writing to continue to serve in the capacity of Swingline Lender and/or Issuing Bank for such Class(es) of Other Revolving Credit Commitments with a Stated Maturity Date later than the 2013 Extended Revolving Credit Maturity Date, then upon the written request of the Borrower (which must be approved (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) by the Required Lenders), DBNY or any of its Affiliates shall resign as First-Lien Agents, with such resignation becoming effective immediately upon the appointment of (and acceptance by) a Person reasonably satisfactory to the Borrowers and the Required Lenders as successor First-Lien Agents. Upon any such appointment and acceptance by successor First-Lien Agents as provided in the foregoing sentence, the provisions of the third, fourth and fifth sentence of the immediately preceding paragraph shall apply to the resigning First-Lien Agents.

None of Lenders or other Persons identified on the cover page or signature pages of this Agreement as a “syndication agent,” “documentation agent,” “bookrunner” or “arranger” shall have any right, power, obligation, liability, responsibility or duty under this Agreement other than those applicable to all Lenders as such. Without limiting the foregoing, none of the Lenders or other Persons so identified shall have or be deemed to have any fiduciary relationship with any Lender.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the First-Lien Agents, the Arrangers or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the First-Lien Agents, the Arrangers or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement or any other Loan Document, any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

To the extent required by any applicable law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any interest payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any other Governmental Authority asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender because the appropriate form was not delivered or was not properly executed or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance which rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding tax ineffective or for any other reason, such Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as tax or otherwise, including any penalties or interest and together with all expenses (including legal expenses, allocated internal costs and out-of-pocket expenses) incurred.

In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent the First-Lien Collateral Agent (irrespective of whether the Obligations shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether such Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise;

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the First-Lien Obligations and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the First-Lien Lenders and each First-Lien Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of such Lenders and each First-Lien Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due such Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Section 2.05 and 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to such Agent and, in the event such a First-Lien Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the First-Lien Agents and their respective agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.05 and 9.05 .

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize any First-Lien Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any relevant Lender any plan or reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any relevant Lender to authorize such First-Lien Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any such Lender in any such proceeding.

Each Issuing Bank shall act on behalf of the First-Lien Lenders with respect to any Letters of Credit issued by it and the documents associated therewith, and each Issuing Bank shall have all of the benefits and immunities (i) provided to the First-Lien Agents in this Article VIII with respect to any acts taken or omissions suffered by such Issuing Bank in connection with Letters of Credit issued by it or proposed to be issued by it and the applications and agreements for letters of credit pertaining to such Letters of Credit as fully as if the term "First-Lien Agent" as used in this Article VIII included such Issuing Bank with respect to such acts or omissions and (ii) as additionally provided herein with respect to such Issuing Bank.

The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, any Lender or any Issuing Bank.

SECTION 9.04. Successors and Assigns . (a) Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, any Issuing Bank or the Lenders that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

(b) Each Lender may assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans of any Class at the time owing to it); provided, however, that (i) each of the Administrative Agent and the US Borrower must give its prior written consent to such assignment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided that no such consent shall be required to any such assignment made to a Lender or an Affiliate or Related Fund of a Lender (in each case, other than to Disqualified Institutions) (each, an “Eligible Assignee”) and the consent of the US Borrower shall not be required during the continuance of any Event of Default arising under clause (b), (c), (g)(i) or (h) of Section 7.01, (ii) in the case of any assignment of a Revolving Credit Commitment of any Class, each Issuing Bank (to the extent its L/C Exposure equals or exceeds $5,000,000) must give its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), (iii) (A) in the case of any assignment, other than assignments to any Eligible Assignee, the amount of the Revolving Credit Commitment of any Class of the assigning Lender (or, in the case of an assignment of Loans after the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class has expired or been terminated, the aggregate principal amount of the loans of the assigning Lenders) subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date of the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $5,000,000 (or, if less, the entire remaining amount of such Lender’s Revolving Credit Commitment of such Class (or Loans) and shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000,000 (or the entire remaining amount of such Lender’s Revolving Credit Commitment (or Loans) of the applicable Class) and the amount of the Term Loans of any Class of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date of the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 (or if less, the entire remaining amount of such Lender’s Term Loans of such Class) and shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000,000 (or the entire remaining amount of such Lender’s Term Loans of the applicable Class), provided, however, that simultaneous assignments to two or more Related Funds shall be combined for purposes of determining whether the minimum assignment requirement is met, and (B) in the case of any assignment to any Eligible Assignee, after giving effect to such assignment, the aggregate Revolving Credit Commitments of any Class (or Loans) or Term Loans of any Class of the assigning Lender and its Affiliates and Related Funds shall be zero or not less than $1,000,000 and the aggregate Revolving Credit Commitments of any Class (or Loans) or Term Loans of any Class of the assignee Lenders and their Affiliates and Related Funds shall be not less than $1,000,000, (iv) the parties to each such assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance (such Assignment and Acceptance to be (A) electronically executed and delivered to the Administrative Agent via an electronic settlement system then acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually), and (B) delivered together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500, unless waived or reduced by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion; provided that only one such fee shall be payable in connection with simultaneous assignments by or to two or more Related Funds) and (v) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender immediately prior to the assignment, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and the tax forms required under Section 2.20(e), (f) or (g), as applicable. Upon acceptance and recording pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section 9.04, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, (A) the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and (B) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment, as well as to any Fees accrued for its account and not yet paid). Any assignment or transfer that does not comply with this paragraph shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with paragraph (f) of this Section 9.04. This clause (b) shall not prohibit any Lender from assigning all or a portion of its rights and obligations among separate Classes of Loans or Commitments on a non-pro rata basis.

(c) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender thereunder and the assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm to and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (i) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim and that its Revolving Credit Commitment of the applicable Class, and the outstanding balances of its Term Loans of the applicable Class and Revolving Loans of the applicable Class, in each case without giving effect to assignments thereof which have not become effective, are as set forth in such Assignment and Acceptance, (ii) except as set forth in (i) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of Holdings, the Borrowers or any subsidiary or the performance or observance by Holdings, the Borrowers or any subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, (iii) such assignee represents and warrants that it is legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance, (iv) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.05(a) or delivered pursuant to Section 5.04, the Intercreditor Agreement and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance, (v) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement, (vi) such assignee agrees to be bound by the Intercreditor Agreement, (vii) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent and the First-Lien Collateral Agent to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent and the First-Lien Collateral Agent, respectively, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto and (viii) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(d) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders and any changes thereto, whether by assignment or otherwise, and the Commitment (by Class) of, and principal amount of the Loans (by Class) (and related interest amount and fees with respect to such Loan) owing and paid to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank, the First-Lien Collateral Agent and the Lenders may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(e) Upon its receipt of, and consent to, a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, an Administrative Questionnaire completed in respect of the assignee (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in paragraph (b) above, if applicable, and the written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Borrowers and the Issuing Banks to such assignment (in each case to the extent required pursuant to paragraph (b) above) and any applicable tax forms required by Section 2.20(e), (f) or (g), as applicable, the Administrative Agent shall (i) accept such Assignment and Acceptance and (ii) promptly record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this paragraph (e).

(f) Each Lender may without the consent of the Borrowers, the Swingline Lender, any Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent sell participations to one or more banks or other Persons (other than to Disqualified Institutions) in all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of any Class of its Commitment and any Class of the Loans owing to it and its participations in the L/C Exposure and/or Swingline Loans); provided, however, that (i) such Lender’s obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, (iii) the participating banks or other Persons shall be entitled to the benefit of the cost protection provisions contained in Sections 2.14, 2.16 and 2.20 to the same extent as if they were Lenders (but, with respect to any particular participant, to no greater extent than the Lender that sold the participation to such participant and in the case of Section 2.20, only if such participant shall have provided any form of information that it would have been required to provide under such Section if it were a Lender), (iv) to the extent permitted by applicable law, each participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 9.06 as though it were a Lender, so long as such participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.18 as though it were a Lender and (v) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, and such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce the obligations of the Borrowers relating to the Loans or L/C Disbursements and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement (other than amendments, modifications or waivers described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of Section 9.08(b) as it pertains to the Class of Loans or Commitments in which such participant has an interest). Each Lender selling a participation to a participant (i) shall keep a register, meeting the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 5f.103-1(c), of each such participation, specifying such participant's entitlement to payments of principal and interest with respect to such participation, and (ii) shall provide the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers with the applicable forms, certificates and statements described in Section 2.20(e) or (f) hereof, as applicable, as if such participant was a Lender hereunder.

(g) Any Lender or participant may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 9.04, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant any non-public information relating to the Borrowers furnished to such Lender by or on behalf of the Borrowers; provided that prior to any such disclosure, each such assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant shall execute an agreement whereby such assignee or participant shall agree (subject to customary exceptions) to preserve the confidentiality of such non-public information on terms no less restrictive than those applicable to the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.16.

(h) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, at any time assign all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure extensions of credit to such Lender or in support of obligations owed by such Lender; provided that no such assignment shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers, the option to provide to the Borrowers all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrowers pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (x) neither the grant to any SPC nor the exercise by any SPC of such option shall increase the costs or expenses or otherwise increase or change the obligations of the Borrowers hereunder, (y) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender) and (z) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes remain the Lender of record hereunder. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.04, any SPC may (A) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the US Borrower and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender and (B) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its funding of Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC.

(j) Neither the US Borrower nor the Subsidiary Borrower (unless the US Borrower has assumed in writing all Obligations of the Subsidiary Borrower hereunder) shall assign or delegate any of its rights or duties hereunder (other than in a transaction permitted by Section 6.04) without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void.

SECTION 9.05. Expenses; Indemnity . (a) Each Borrower agrees, jointly and severally, to pay (i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (but limited, as to legal fees and expenses, to those of White & Case LLP, counsel for the First-Lien Agents and the Arrangers taken as a whole, and, if necessary, of one local counsel and one regulatory counsel in any relevant jurisdiction) incurred by the Arrangers and the Agents, in connection with the syndication of the Credit Facilities and the preparation and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated) and (ii) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (but limited, as to legal fees and expenses, to one counsel for all such Persons taken as a whole, and, if necessary, of one local counsel and one regulatory counsel to all such Persons taken as a whole in any relevant jurisdiction) incurred by the First-Lien Agent, any Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights or remedies in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made or Letters of Credit issued hereunder.

(b) Each Borrower agrees, jointly and severally, to indemnify each Arranger, the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, each Lender, each Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons and their successors and assigns (each such Person being called an “Indemnitee”) against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all costs, expenses (including reasonable fees, out-of-pocket disbursements and other charges of one primary counsel, one regulatory counsel and one local counsel to the Indemnitees taken as a whole in each relevant jurisdiction; provided that if (i) one or more Indemnitees shall have reasonably concluded that there may be legal defenses available to it that are different from or in addition to those available to one or more other Indemnitees or (ii) the representation of the Indemnitees (or any portion thereof) by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them, then such expenses shall include the reasonable fees, out-of-pocket disbursements and other charges of one separate counsel to such Indemnitees, taken as a whole, in each relevant jurisdiction), and liabilities of such Indemnitee arising out of or in connection with (w) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the Credit Facilities), (x) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or issuance of Letters of Credit, (y) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto (and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates), or (z) any actual or alleged presence or Release of Hazardous Materials on any property currently or formerly owned or operated by Holdings, the Borrowers or any of the subsidiaries, or any liability under Environmental Laws related in any way to Holdings, the Borrowers or the subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such costs, expenses or liabilities (x) resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee (or its Related Parties) or material breach of its (or its Related Parties') obligations hereunder, (y) relate to the presence or Release of Hazardous Materials that first occur at any property owned by Holdings or the Borrowers after such property is transferred to any Indemnitee or its successors or assigns by foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer or (z) resulted from any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not involving the Borrowers, the Sponsors or their respective Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 9.05 shall not apply to Tax matters, which shall be governed exclusively by Section 2.20.

(c) To the extent that any Borrower fails to pay any amount required to be paid by it to (i) the Arrangers, the Administrative Agent or any other Indemnitee related thereto under paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section (and without limiting its obligation to do so), each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Arrangers, such Indemnitee and the Administrative Agent, such Lender's pro rata share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount, (ii) the First-Lien Collateral Agent, the Issuing Banks, the Swingline Lender or any other Indemnitee related thereto under paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 9.05, each First-Lien Lender (other than, in the case of the Issuing Banks and the Swingline Lender, any Term Lender) severally agrees to pay to the First-Lien Collateral Agent, such Issuing Bank, the Swingline Lender or any other Indemnitee related thereto, as the case may be, such First-Lien Lender's pro rata share (determined as if the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity is sought) of such unpaid amount and; provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Arrangers, the First-Lien Agents, the Issuing Banks, the Swingline Lender or such Indemnitee in its capacity as such. For purposes hereof, a Lender's "pro rata share" (x) in the case of clause (i) above, shall be determined based upon its share of the sum of the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure, outstanding Term Loans and unused Commitments at the time and (y) in the case of clause (ii) above, shall be determined based on its share of the sum of the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure, outstanding Term Loans and unused Revolving Credit Commitments at the time. It is understood and agreed that all indemnities under the Original Credit Agreement shall survive the Restatement Effective Date.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party hereto shall assert, and each party hereto hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(e) The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall survive the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, any Lender or the Issuing Banks. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable within 30 days after receipt of an invoice relating thereto setting forth such amounts in reasonable detail.

SECTION 9.06. *Right of Setoff; Payments Set Aside . (a) If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, except to the extent prohibited by law, without prior notice to any Borrower or any other Loan Party, any such notice being waived by each Borrower (on its own behalf and on behalf of each Loan Party and its subsidiaries) to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of the Borrowers against any of and all the obligations of the Borrowers now or hereafter existing under this Agreement and other Loan Documents held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although such obligations may be contingent or unmatured or denominated in a currency different from that of the applicable deposit or indebtedness. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender may have. Each Lender agrees promptly to notify the US Borrower and the Administrative Agent after any such set off and application made by such Lender; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set off and application.

(b) To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of any Borrower is made to any First-Lien Agent or any Lender, or any First-Lien Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such First-Lien Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, then (i) to the extent of such recovery the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (ii) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any First-Lien Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the Federal Funds Effective Rate from time to time in effect.

SECTION 9.07. *Applicable Law . THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN LETTERS OF CREDIT AND AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. EACH LETTER OF CREDIT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OR RULES DESIGNATED IN SUCH LETTER OF CREDIT, OR IF NO SUCH LAWS OR RULES ARE DESIGNATED, THE UNIFORM CUSTOMS AND PRACTICE FOR DOCUMENTARY CREDITS MOST RECENTLY PUBLISHED AND IN EFFECT, ON THE DATE SUCH LETTER OF CREDIT WAS ISSUED, BY THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (THE “UNIFORM CUSTOMS”) AND, AS TO MATTERS NOT GOVERNED BY THE UNIFORM CUSTOMS, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 9.08. *Waivers; Amendment . (a) No failure or delay of the Administrative Agent, any Collateral Agent, any Lender or any Issuing Bank in exercising any power or right hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, each Collateral Agent, each Issuing Bank and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on the Borrowers in any case shall entitle the Borrowers to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Subject to Section 2.24, clause (d) below, the Intercreditor Agreement and except for those actions expressly permitted to be taken by the Agents, neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Required Lenders and the Loan Parties that are party thereto and are affected by such waiver, amendment or modification; provided, however, that no such agreement shall (i) reduce the principal amount of, or extend or waive the final scheduled maturity date or date for the payment of any interest on, any Loan or any date for reimbursement of an L/C Disbursement, forgive any such payment or any part thereof, or decrease the rate of interest on any Loan or L/C Disbursement, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby (it being understood that any change to the component definitions of the Consolidated First-Lien Leverage Ratio affecting the determination of interest shall only require the consent of the US Borrower and the Required Lenders), (ii) increase or extend the Commitment or decrease or extend the date for payment of any Fees of any Lender without the prior written consent of such Lender (it being understood that any change to the component definitions of the Consolidated First-Lien Leverage Ratio affecting the determination of any Fee shall only require the consent of the US Borrower and the Required Lenders), (iii) amend or modify the pro rata requirements of Section 2.17, the provisions of Section 2.18, the provisions of Section 9.04(j) (it being understood that any change to Section 6.04 shall only require approval of the Required Lenders) or the provisions of this Section (except as set forth below) or release all or substantially all of the Guarantors or all or substantially all of the Collateral (except as permitted under the Intercreditor Agreement, Section 6.04 and the Guarantee and Collateral Agreement), without the prior written consent of each Lender, (iv) decrease the amount of any scheduled amortization payment, or extend the date for payment under Section 2.11(a), in respect of any Class of Term Loans without the consent of Lenders holding more than 50% of the outstanding Term Loans of such Class (the “Required Term Lenders”), or (v) reduce the percentage contained in the definition of the term “Required Lenders,” “Required Revolving Lenders,” “Required First-Lien Lenders,” or “Required Second-Lien Lenders” without the prior written consent of each Lender, each Revolving Credit Lender, each First-Lien Lender or each Second-Lien Lender, respectively (it being understood that with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders, Required Revolving Lenders, Required First-Lien Lenders and Required Second-Lien Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Commitments and extensions of credit thereunder on the date hereof and this Section may be amended to reflect such extension of credit); provided, further, that (x) no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agents, any Issuing Bank or the Swingline Lender hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, such Collateral Agent, such Issuing Bank or the Swingline Lender, as the case may be, and (y) Section 9.04(i) may not be amended, waived or otherwise modified without the consent of each Granting Lender all or any part of whose Loans are being funded by an SPC at the time of such amendment, waiver or other modification.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, in addition to any credit extensions and related Incremental Amendments, Refinancing Amendments or Repricing Amendments effectuated without the consent of Lenders in accordance with Section 2.24, Section 2.25 or Section 2.12(g), as applicable, this Agreement (including this Section 9.08 and Section 2.17) may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers (a) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans and the Revolving Loans and the accrued interest and Fees in respect thereof and (b) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders and other definitions related to such new credit facilities.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) any amendment, modification, waiver of or consent with respect to any of the terms and provisions of Section 6.10 and related definitions as used in determining compliance with Section 6.10 shall be effective only with the written consent of the Required Revolving Lenders and the Borrowers and (ii) (x) subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any amendment, modification, waiver of or consent with respect to any of the terms and provisions (and related definitions) of the Second-Lien Security Documents shall be effective only with the written consent of the Required Second-Lien Lenders and the Loan Parties that are party thereto and (y) any amendment, modification or waiver of, or consent with respect to Section 2.13(e) with respect to the application of any mandatory prepayment that results in a Class of Lenders being allocated a lesser repayment than such Class would otherwise have been entitled to in the absence of such amendment, modification or waiver, shall require the consent of the Required Term Lenders, the Required Revolving Lenders or Required Second-Lien Lenders, as applicable for such affected Class (except in the case where additional extensions of terms loans are being afforded substantially the same treatment afforded to the Term Loans pursuant to this Agreement on the Closing Date).

(e) Each waiver, amendment, modification, supplement or consent made or given pursuant to this Section 9.08 shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given, and such waiver, amendment, modification or supplement shall apply equally to each of the Lenders and shall be binding on the Loan Parties, the Lenders, the Agents and all future holders of the Loans and Commitments.

SECTION 9.09. *Interest Rate Limitation . Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan or participation in any L/C Disbursement, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan or participation in such L/C Disbursement under applicable law (collectively the “Charges”), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the “Maximum Rate”) which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan or participation in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or participation hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or participation but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section 9.09 shall be cumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or participations or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 9.10. *Entire Agreement . This Agreement, the Restatement Agreement, the Fee Letter and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any other previous agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto and thereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereunder (including any Affiliate of any Issuing Bank that issues any Letter of Credit) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Indemnitees, the Arrangers, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11. *WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL . EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11 .

SECTION 9.12. Severability . In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13. Counterparts . This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile transmission or portable document format (.pdf) shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.14. Headings . Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process . (a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or Federal court of the United States of America sitting in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such Federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agents, the Issuing Banks or any Lender may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents against the Borrowers, Holdings or their respective properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in any New York State or Federal court. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 9.16. Confidentiality . Each of the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its and its Affiliates' trustees, officers, directors, employees and agents, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential) in connection with the transactions contemplated or permitted hereby, (b) to the extent requested by any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over such Person (including any Governmental Authority regulating any Lender or its Affiliates), (c) to the extent required by applicable laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process ( provided, that the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender that discloses any Information pursuant to this clause (c) shall provide the US Borrower with prompt notice of such disclosure to the extent permitted by applicable law), (d) to the extent reasonably necessary in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or any suit, action or proceeding relating to the enforcement of its rights hereunder or thereunder, (e) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section 9.16 (or as otherwise may be acceptable to the US Borrower), to (i) any actual or prospective assignee of or participant in any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or (ii) any actual or prospective counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to the Borrowers, any subsidiary or any Affiliate thereof or any of their respective obligations, (f) with the written consent of the US Borrower, (g) to any Rating Agency when required by it (it being understood that, prior to any such disclosure, such Rating Agency shall undertake to preserve the confidentiality of any Information relating to the Loan Parties received by it from such Person) or (h) to the extent such Information becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 9.16 . For the purposes of this Section, “ Information ” shall mean all information received from the US Borrower or Holdings and related to the Borrowers or their business, other than any such information that is publicly available to the Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender, other than by reason of disclosure by Administrative Agent, the First-Lien Collateral Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender in breach of this Section 9.16 .

SECTION 9.17. Release of Collateral . The Lenders irrevocably authorize the First-Lien Agents (and the First-Lien Agents agree):

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the First-Lien Collateral Agent or the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document (w) upon the Termination Date (and, concurrently therewith, to release all the Loan Parties from their obligations under the Loan Documents (other than those that specifically survive the Termination Date)), (x) that is sold (or disposed of) or to be sold (or disposed of) as part of or in connection with any sale or disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Loan Document to any Person other than a Loan Party, (y) subject to Section 9.01 , if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders, or (z) owned by a Subsidiary Guarantor upon release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Guaranty pursuant to clause (iii) below;

(b) at the request of the US Borrower, to subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or the First-Lien Collateral Agent under any Loan Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by clauses (f), (i) and (u) of the definition of Permitted Liens;

(c) to release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party if such Person ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary as a result of a transaction or designation permitted hereunder; provided that no such release shall occur if such Guarantor continues to be a guarantor in respect of the New Senior Notes, the Senior Secured Notes, Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt, Permitted Second Priority Refinancing Debt, Permitted Unsecured Refinancing Debt, any Junior Financing or any Other Pari Passu or Junior Lien Obligations and any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of any of the foregoing unless and until such Guarantor is (or is being simultaneously) released from its guarantee with respect to the New Senior Notes, the Senior Secured Notes, Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt, Permitted Second Priority Refinancing Debt, Permitted Unsecured Refinancing Debt, such Junior Financing and any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of any of the foregoing;

(d) to enter into the intercreditor arrangements contemplated by the definitions of “Pari Passu Lien”, “Other Pari Passu or Junior Lien Obligations” and Permitted Second Priority Refinancing Debt or by Sections 2.24 and 2.25; and

(e) to release any shares of the Parent held by Holdings to the extent such shares are conveyed to the Strategic Investor in exchange for the Strategic Investor’s interests in TuTV LLC (which interests in TuTV LLC shall then be contributed to the US Borrower).

Upon request by any First-Lien Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing such First-Lien Agent’s authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, to release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Documents or to enter into intercreditor arrangements, in each case, pursuant to this Section 9.17. In each case as specified in this Section 9.17, the relevant First-Lien Agent will, at the US Borrower’s expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release or subordination of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Loan Documents, or to release such Loan Party from its obligations under the Loan Documents, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Section 9.17.

SECTION 9.18. USA PATRIOT Act Notice . Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrowers that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Borrowers, which information includes the name and address of the Borrowers and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify the Borrowers in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act.

SECTION 9.19. Other Liens on Collateral; Terms of Intercreditor Agreement; Etc.

(a) PURSUANT TO THE EXPRESS TERMS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY CONFLICT OR INCONSISTENCY BETWEEN THE TERMS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY OF THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT SHALL GOVERN AND CONTROL.

(c) THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 9.19 ARE NOT INTENDED TO SUMMARIZE ALL RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. REFERENCE MUST BE MADE TO THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT ITSELF TO UNDERSTAND ALL TERMS AND CONDITIONS THEREOF. EACH LENDER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING ITS OWN ANALYSIS AND REVIEW OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND NO AGENT (AND NONE OF ITS AFFILIATES) MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION TO ANY LENDER AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OR ADVISABILITY OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT.

(d) THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 9.19 SHALL APPLY WITH EQUAL FORCE MUTATIS MUTANDIS TO THE FIRST-LIEN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, THE SECOND-LIEN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY ADDITIONAL INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT REFERRED TO IN SECTION 9.17(D).

SECTION 9.20. *Lender Action . BROADCASTING MEDIA PARTNERS, INC.

2010 EQUITY INCENTIVE PLAN

a. Establishment . Broadcasting Media Partners, Inc., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), hereby establishes the 2010 Equity Incentive Plan, effective as of December 1, 2010 (hereinafter referred to as the “Plan”), as set forth in this document.

b. Purpose of the Plan . The purpose of this Plan is to attract, retain and motivate officers and employees of, consultants to, and non-employee directors providing services to, the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, to provide additional incentives to employees, consultants and directors and to promote the success of the Company’s business. Unless the context otherwise requires, capitalized terms used herein are defined in Section 15.

c. Eligibility . Participants will consist of such Employees, Directors and Consultants as the Committee in its sole discretion determines and whom the Committee may designate from time to time to receive awards under the Plan. Designation of a Participant in any year shall not require the Committee to designate such person to receive an Award in any other year or, once designated, to receive the same type or amount of Award as granted to the Participant in any other year.

d. Compliance with Rule 701 . The Plan is intended to be a written compensatory benefit plan within the meaning of Rule 701 promulgated under the Securities Act, and therefore awards pursuant to the Plan are subject to the restrictions set forth in Rule 701. Awards granted pursuant to the Plan are “restricted securities,” as such term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, and any resale of the Shares underlying such Awards must be in compliance with the registration requirements of the Securities Act or an exemption therefrom. Awards issued pursuant to the Plan that do not qualify for another exemption from registration under the Securities Act shall in no event exceed the limitations set forth in Rule 701(d), as applicable from time to time.

SECTION 2. ADMINISTRATION .

a. Committees . The Plan shall be administered by the Board of Directors or, at its election, by one or more committees consisting of one or more members who have been appointed by the Board of Directors. The Committee shall have such authority and be responsible for such functions as may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors, and any reference to the Board of Directors in the Plan shall be construed as a reference to the Committee with respect to functions delegated to it. If no Committee has been appointed, the entire Board of Directors shall administer the Plan, and any reference to the Committee in the Plan shall be construed as a reference to the Board of Directors. The Committee may delegate to one or more of its members, or one or more officers of the Company or any Affiliate or Subsidiary, and one or more agents or advisors such administrative duties or powers as it may deem advisable, in its sole discretion.

b. Authority of the Committee . The Committee shall have full authority and sole discretion to take any actions it deems necessary or advisable for the administration and operation of the Plan, including, without limitation, the right to construe and interpret the provisions of the Plan or any Award, to provide for any omission in the Plan, to resolve any ambiguity or conflict under the Plan or any Award, to accelerate vesting or exercisability of or otherwise waive any requirements applicable to any Award, to extend the term or any period of exercisability of any Award, to modify the purchase price or exercise price under any Award, to establish terms or conditions applicable to any Award and to review any decisions or actions made or taken by the Committee, in each case, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 12 and Section 13b of the Plan. The Committee shall have full and exclusive discretionary power to adopt rules, forms, instruments and guidelines of administering the Plan as the Committee deems necessary or proper. All decisions, interpretations and other actions of the Committee or, in the absence of any action by the Committee, the Board of Directors shall be final and binding on all Participants and other persons deriving their rights from a Participant.

SECTION 3. STOCK SUBJECT TO PLAN.

a. Basic Limitation . Subject to the following provisions of this Section and Section 10, the maximum number of Shares that may be issued pursuant to Awards made under the Plan, other than Awards made under the last sentence of Section 4a, is (i) 600,711 shares of Common Stock, and (ii) such additional securities in such amounts and such classes as the Committee may approve. Shares may be treasury shares or authorized but unissued shares. The number of Shares remaining available for issuance will be reduced by the number of Shares subject to outstanding Awards and, for Awards not denominated by Shares, the number of Shares actually delivered upon settlement or payment of the Award.

b. Additional Shares . In the event that any outstanding Award expires, is cancelled or otherwise terminated, any rights to acquire Shares allocable to the unexercised or unvested portion of such Award shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan. In the event that Shares issued under the Plan are reacquired by the Company pursuant to any forfeiture provision, right of repurchase, right of first offer or withholding requirements, such Shares shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan. In the event a Participant pays for any Award through the delivery of previously acquired Shares, the number of Shares available under the Plan shall be increased by the number of Shares delivered by the Participant.

SECTION 4. AWARDS .

a. Types of Awards . The Committee may, in its sole discretion, make Awards of one or more of the following: Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock Awards, Restricted Stock Units, Dividend Equivalent Rights and Other Stock-Based Awards. The Company shall make Awards directly or cause one or more of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, Broadcast Media Partners Holdings, Inc.) to make Awards; provided, that the Subsidiaries shall, or the Company shall cause such Subsidiary to, comply with the terms of any Award and the Plan. Awards may, in the Committee's sole discretion, be made under the Plan in assumption of, or substitution for, outstanding awards previously granted by the Company or an Affiliate or a company acquired by the Company or an Affiliate or with which the Company combines.

b. Award Agreements . Each Award made under the Plan shall be evidenced by a written Award Agreement between the Participant and the Company, and no Award shall be valid without any such Award Agreement. An Award shall be subject to all applicable terms and conditions of the Plan and to any other terms and conditions which the Committee in its sole discretion deems appropriate for inclusion in the Award Agreement provided such terms and conditions are not inconsistent with the Plan. Accordingly, unless an Award Agreement specifically states otherwise, in the event of any conflict between the provisions of the Plan and any Award Agreement, the provisions of the Plan shall prevail. Awards made to California Participants shall also be subject to the applicable requirements set forth in Appendix I. Each Award Agreement shall provide, in addition to any terms and conditions required to be provided in such agreement pursuant to any other provision of this Plan, the following terms:

- (i) Number of Shares. The number of Shares subject to the Award, if any, which number shall be subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 10 of the Plan.
- (ii) Termination of Service. The consequences of the Participant's termination of Service with the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate.
- (iii) Vesting. The dates and events on which all or any installment of the Award shall be vested and nonforfeitable.

c. No Rights as a Shareholder. A Participant, or a transferee of a Participant, shall have no rights as a shareholder with respect to any Shares covered by an Award until the Participant becomes the record holder of such Shares.

SECTION 5. OPTIONS .

a. Option Agreement. The Committee, may in its sole discretion, grant Options. Each Award Agreement evidencing an Award of Options shall contain the following information, which shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion:

- (i) Exercise Price. The exercise price of an Option shall be determined by the Committee at the time of grant, but shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of a Share subject to such Option on the date of grant.
- (ii) Exercisability. The dates and events when all or any installment of the Option becomes exercisable, which dates and events need not be the same for each grant or for each Participant.
- (iii) Term. The term of each Option (including the circumstances under which such Option will expire prior to the stated term thereof), which shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.

b. Method of Exercise .

- (i) General Rule. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or any Award Agreement, an Option may be exercised for all, or from time to time any part, of the Shares for which it is then exercisable. The exercise price of Shares issued under the Plan shall be payable in cash or personal check at the time when such Shares are purchased, except as otherwise provided in this Section 5(b).
- (ii) Surrender of Shares. At the sole discretion of the Committee, all or any part of the exercise price and any applicable withholding requirements may be paid by surrendering, or attesting to the ownership of, Shares that are already owned by the Participant. Such Shares shall be surrendered to the Company in good form for transfer and shall be valued at their Fair Market Value on the date when the Option is exercised. The Participant shall not surrender, or attest to the ownership of, Shares in payment of any portion of the purchase price (or withholding) if such Shares would cause the Company or any Subsidiary to recognize a compensation expense (or additional compensation expense) with respect to the applicable Option for financial reporting purposes, unless the Committee consents thereto.

- (iii) Net Exercise . At the sole discretion of the Committee, payment of all or any portion of the exercise price and any applicable withholding requirements may be made by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable pursuant to the Option by the number of such Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the exercise price.
- (iv) Exercise/Sale . At the sole discretion of the Committee, payment may be made in whole or in part by the delivery (on a form prescribed by the Company) of an irrevocable direction (i) to a securities broker approved by the Company to sell Shares and to deliver all or part of the sales proceeds to the Company, or (ii) to pledge Shares to a securities broker or lender approved by the Company as security for a loan, and to deliver all or part of the loan proceeds to the Company, in each case in payment of all or part of the exercise price and any withholding requirements.
- (v) Exercise of Discretion . Should the Committee exercise its discretion to permit the Participant to pay the purchase price under an Award in whole or in part in accordance with Subsections (ii) through (iv) above, it shall not be bound to permit such method of payment for the remainder of any such Option or with respect to any other Award or Participant under the Plan.

SECTION 6. STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS .

a. Generally . The Committee may, in its sole discretion, grant Stock Appreciation Rights, including a concurrent grant of Stock Appreciation Rights in tandem with any Option. A Stock Appreciation Right means a right to receive, upon exercise, a payment in cash, Shares, other property or a combination thereof, as the Committee may determine, in its sole discretion, in an amount equal to the excess of (i) the Fair Market Value of a number of Shares on the date the right is exercised over (ii) the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the date the right is granted. If a Stock Appreciation Right is granted in tandem with an Option, such Stock Appreciation Right shall be exercisable only to the extent the related Option is exercisable and shall expire no later than the expiration of the related Option. Upon the exercise of all or a portion of such Stock Appreciation Right, a Participant shall be required to forfeit the right to purchase an equivalent portion of the related Option (and vice versa).

b. Stock Appreciation Rights Award Agreement . Each Award Agreement evidencing an Award of Stock Appreciation Rights shall contain the following information, which shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion:

- (i) Grant Price. The grant price of the Shares above which a Participant shall be entitled to share in the appreciation in the value of such Shares (which shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the date of grant).

- (ii) Exercisability. The dates and events when all or any installment of the Stock Appreciation Rights becomes exercisable, which dates and events need not be the same for each grant or for each Participant.
- (iii) Term. The term of each Stock Appreciation Right (including the circumstances under which such Stock Appreciation Right will expire prior to the stated term thereof), which shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.

SECTION 7. RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS AND RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS .

a. Restricted Stock. An Award of Restricted Stock is a grant by the Company of a specified number of Shares to the Participant, which are subject to certain specified restrictions, as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the applicable Award Agreement, unvested Restricted Stock shall be forfeited upon Participant's termination of Service. Further, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, the Restricted Stock, whether unvested or vested, shall be forfeited upon Participant's termination of Service for Cause. Upon or following a Participant's termination of Service, the Company shall have a call right with respect to any vested Shares on the terms set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. Participants shall be awarded Restricted Stock in exchange for consideration not less than the minimum consideration required by applicable law (including, consideration of services previously rendered by the Participant to the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates). Any Restricted Stock granted under the Plan shall be evidenced in such manner as the Committee may deem appropriate, including, without limitation, book-entry registration or issuance of a stock certificate or certificates (in which case, the certificate(s) representing such Shares shall be legended as to sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or other encumbrances during the period in which the Restricted Stock is subject to restrictions and deposited by the Participant, together with a stock power endorsed in blank, with the Company, to be held in escrow during such restricted period). At the end of such restricted period, the restrictions imposed hereunder and under the Award Agreement shall lapse and the legend relating to such restriction shall be removed and such number of Shares delivered to the Participant (or, where appropriate, the Participant's legal representative).

b. Section 83(b) Election . If a Participant makes an election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code concerning Restricted Stock, the Participant shall be required to file promptly a copy of such election with the Company.

c. Voting Rights. The Committee shall determine and set forth in a Participant's Award Agreement whether or not a Participant holding Restricted Stock granted hereunder shall have the right to exercise voting rights with respect to the Restricted Stock during the Restriction Period (the Committee may require a Participant to grant an irrevocable proxy and power of substitution).

d. Restricted Stock Units . An Award of Restricted Stock Units is a grant by the Company of a specified number of units which shall each represent one Share credited to a notional account maintained by the Company, with no Shares actually awarded to the Participant in respect of such units until the restrictions on such units have lapsed. The Committee retains the discretion to determine whether the Restricted Stock Units shall be settled in Shares, in cash equal to the value of the Shares that would otherwise be distributed in settlement of such units, other property or any combination of the foregoing. Shares distributed to settle a Restricted Stock Unit may be issued with or without payment or consideration therefor, except as may be required by applicable law or the Committee in its sole discretion, as set forth in the agreement evidencing the Award. The Committee may, in its discretion, permit Participants to defer settlement of Restricted Stock Units, provided that any such deferral shall comply with the requirements of, and shall not result in the imposition of any tax under, Section 409A of the Code.

e. Terms of Restricted Stock Awards and Restricted Stock Units . Each Award Agreement evidencing a Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Unit grant shall specify the terms of the period(s) of restriction, the number of Shares of Restricted Stock or the number of Restricted Stock Units, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine. The Committee may require that Restricted Stock be held by the Company during the applicable period of restriction.

SECTION 8. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENT RIGHTS .

The Committee may grant Dividend Equivalents to Participants based on the dividends declared on Shares that are subject to any Award. The grant of Dividend Equivalents shall be treated as a separate Award. Dividend Equivalents shall be credited to a notional account maintained by the Company, as of dividend payment dates during the period between the date the Award is granted and the date the Award is exercised, vested, expired, credited or paid. Such Dividend Equivalents shall be converted to cash or Shares by such formula and at such time and subject to such limitations as may be determined by the Committee. As determined by the Committee, Dividend Equivalents granted with respect to any Option or Stock Appreciation Right may be payable regardless of whether such Option or Stock Appreciation Right is subsequently exercised.

SECTION 9. OTHER STOCK-BASED AWARDS .

The Committee, in its sole discretion, may grant Awards of Shares and Awards that are valued, in whole or in part, by reference to, or are otherwise based on, the Fair Market Value of Shares (the “Other Stock-Based Awards”). Such Other Stock-Based Awards shall be in such form, and dependent on such conditions, as the Committee shall determine, including, without limitation, the right to receive one or more Shares (or the equivalent cash value of such Shares) upon the completion of a specified period of Service, the occurrence of an event and/or the attainment of performance objectives. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall determine to whom and when Other Stock-Based Awards will be made, the number of Shares to be awarded under (or otherwise related to) such Other Stock-Based Awards, whether such Other Stock-Based Awards shall be settled in cash, Shares or a combination of cash and Shares, and all other terms and conditions of such Awards (including, without limitation, the vesting provisions thereof and provisions ensuring that all Shares so awarded and issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable).

SECTION 10. ADJUSTMENT OF SHARES .

a. General . In the event of any corporate event or transaction (including, without limitation, a change in the Shares of the Company or the capitalization of the Company) affecting the capital structure of the Company such as a merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, separation, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, split up, spin-off, combination of Shares, exchange of Shares, dividend in kind, extraordinary dividend, or other like change in capital structure (other than normal cash dividends), or any similar corporate event or transaction, the Committee, to prevent dilution or enlargement of Participants’ rights under this Plan, shall substitute or adjust in good faith, in its sole discretion, (i) the number and kind of Shares or other securities that may be issued under this Plan or under particular forms of Awards, (ii) the number and kind of Shares or other securities subject to outstanding Awards, (iii) the exercise price, grant price or purchase price applicable to outstanding Awards, and/or (iv) other value determinations applicable to this Plan or outstanding Awards.

b. Change of Control . In the event of a Change of Control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges, or unless the Committee shall determine otherwise in the Award Agreement, the Committee is authorized (but not obligated) to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of outstanding Awards, including without limitation the following (or any combination thereof):

- (i) The continuation or assumption of such outstanding Awards under the Plan by the Company (if it is the surviving corporation) or by the surviving corporation or its parent;
- (ii) The substitution by the surviving corporation or its parent of stock awards with substantially the same terms for such outstanding Awards;
- (iii) The acceleration of the vesting and/or lapse of restrictions of or right to exercise such outstanding Awards immediately prior to or as of the date of the merger or consolidation, and the expiration of such outstanding Awards to the extent not timely exercised or purchased by the date of the merger or consolidation or other date thereafter designated by the Committee; or
- (iv) The cancellation of all or any portion of such outstanding Awards (other than Options and Stock Appreciation Rights) by a cash payment equal to the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to such outstanding Awards or portion thereof being canceled and with respect to Options and Stock Appreciation Rights, the cancellation of all or any portion of such outstanding Options and Stock Appreciation Rights by a cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to such outstanding Awards or portion thereof being canceled over the exercise price or grant price, as applicable, with respect to such Options and Stock Appreciation Rights or portion thereof being canceled (and, for the avoidance of doubt, if there is no such excess, such Options and Stock Appreciation Rights shall be cancelled without any payment therefor).

SECTION 11. SECURITIES LAW REQUIREMENTS .

a. Shares Not Registered . Shares and Awards shall not be issued under the Plan unless the issuance and delivery of such Shares and any Awards comply with (or are exempt from) all applicable requirements of law, including (without limitation) the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, State securities laws and regulations, and the regulations of any stock exchange or other securities market on which the Company's securities may then be traded. Except as set forth in an Award Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to file any registration statement under any applicable securities laws to permit the purchase or issuance of any Shares or any Awards under the Plan, and accordingly any certificates for Shares or documents granting Awards may have an appropriate legend or statement of applicable restrictions endorsed thereon. If the Company deems it necessary to ensure that the issuance of securities under the Plan is not required to be registered under any applicable securities laws, each Participant to whom such security would be purchased or issued shall deliver to the Company an agreement or certificate containing such representations, warranties and covenants as the Company which satisfies such requirements.

SECTION 12. COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 409A OF THE CODE .

a. General . The Company intends that all Awards be structured in compliance with, or to satisfy an exemption from, Section 409A of the Code and all regulations, guidance, compliance programs and other interpretative authority thereunder (“Section 409A”). such that there are no adverse tax consequences, interest, or penalties under Section 409A as a result of the payments. Notwithstanding the Company’s intention, the Committee may, in its sole discretion and without a Participant’s prior consent, amend the Plan and/or Awards, adopt policies and procedures, or take any other actions (including amendments, policies, procedures and actions with retroactive effect) as are necessary or appropriate to (a) exempt the Plan and/or any Award from the application of Section 409A, (b) preserve the intended tax treatment of any such Award, or (c) comply with the requirements of Section 409A, including without limitation any such regulations guidance, compliance programs and other interpretative authority that may be issued after the date of the grant.

b. Separation from Service . A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of the Plan or any Award Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits that are considered nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment, unless such termination is also a “separation from service” within the meaning of Section 409A and the payment thereof prior to a “separation from service” would violate Section 409A. For purposes of any such provision of the Plan or any Award Agreement relating to any such payments or benefits, references to a “termination,” “termination of employment” or like terms shall mean “separation from service.”

c. Payments to Specified Employees . Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the Plan or any Award Agreement, any payment(s) of nonqualified deferred compensation that are otherwise required to be made under the Plan to a “specified employee” (as defined under Section 409A) as a result of his or her separation from service (other than a payment that is not subject to Section 409A) shall be delayed for the first six (6) months following such separation from service (or, if earlier, until the date of death of the specified employee) and shall instead be paid (in a manner set forth in the Award Agreement) on the date that immediately follows the end of such six-month period or as soon as administratively practicable thereafter. Except as otherwise provided in an individual Award Agreement and to the extent permissible under Section 409A, payment in respect of any equity-based Award that is delayed under this Section 12c, shall be measured by the value of the Shares underlying such equity-based Award after the expiration of the delay period. Any remaining payments of nonqualified deferred compensation shall be paid without delay and at the time or times such payments are otherwise scheduled to be made.

a. Term of the Plan . The Plan, as set forth herein, shall become effective on the date of its adoption by the Board of Directors, which date is set forth below, subject to the approval of the majority of the Company's shareholders. If a majority of the shareholders fail to approve the Plan within 12 months of its adoption by the Board of Directors, any Awards that have already been made shall be rescinded, and no additional Awards shall be made thereafter under the Plan. The Plan shall terminate automatically on the day preceding the tenth anniversary of its adoption by the Board of Directors unless earlier terminated pursuant to Subsection (b) below.

b. Amendment, Modification, Suspension, and Termination of Plan . The Committee may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue, or terminate the Plan or any portion thereof or any Award thereunder at any time; provided that no such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuation or termination shall be made (i) without shareholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any tax or regulatory requirement applicable to the Plan and (ii) without the consent of the Participant, if such action would materially diminish any of the rights of such Participant under any Award theretofore granted to such Participant under the Plan; provided, however, the Committee may amend the Plan, any Award or any Award agreement in such manner as it deems necessary to comply with applicable laws and as set forth in Section 10 or Section 12 of the Plan. The termination of the Plan shall not affect any Awards outstanding on the termination date.

SECTION 14. GENERAL TERMS .

a. Termination for Cause . Unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, all Shares issued with respect to any Award granted under the Plan shall be forfeited upon Participant's termination of Service for Cause.

b. No Retention Rights; No Right to Awards . Nothing in the Plan or in any Award granted under the Plan shall confer upon a Participant any right to continue in Service for any period of specific duration or interfere with or otherwise restrict in any way the rights of the Company (or any Subsidiary or Affiliate employing or retaining the Participant) or of the Participant, which rights are hereby expressly reserved by each, to terminate his or her Service at any time and for any reason, with or without cause. No Participant or other Person shall have any claim to be granted any Award and there is no obligation for uniformity of treatment of Participants or holders or beneficiaries of Awards. The terms and conditions of Awards and the Committee's determinations and interpretations with regard thereto need not be the same with regard to each Participant (whether or not such Participants are similarly situated).

c. No Constraint on Corporate Action . Nothing in the Plan shall be construed to: (a) limit, impair, or otherwise affect the Company's right or power to make adjustments, reclassifications, reorganizations, or changes of its capital or business structure, or to merge or consolidate, or dissolve, liquidate, sell, or transfer all or any part of its business or assets; or (b) limit the right or power of the Company to take any action which such entity deems to be necessary or appropriate.

d. Settlement of Awards; Fractional Shares . Each Award Agreement shall establish the form in which the Award shall be settled. Fractional Shares may be issued or delivered pursuant to the Plan or any Award, provided that the Committee may determine that cash, Awards, other securities or other property shall be issued or paid in lieu of fractional Shares, or that such fractional Shares or any rights thereto shall be rounded, forfeited or otherwise eliminated.

e. Nontransferability of Awards . Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, an Award shall not be transferable or assignable by the Participant except in the event of his death (subject to the applicable laws of descent and distribution) and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company or any Affiliate. No transfer shall be permitted for value or consideration. An award exercisable after the death of a Participant may be exercised by the legatees, personal representatives or distributees of the Participant. Any permitted transfer of the Awards to heirs or legatees of the Participant shall not be effective to bind the Company unless the Committee shall have been furnished with written notice thereof and a copy of such evidence as the Committee may deem necessary to establish the validity of the transfer and the acceptance by the transferee or transferees of the terms and conditions hereof.

f. Conditions and Restrictions on Shares . Any Shares issued under the Plan shall be subject to such vesting and special forfeiture conditions, repurchase rights, rights of first offer and other transfer restrictions as the Committee may determine, which may include, but shall not be limited to, requirements that the Participant: (a) become a signatory to the Company's then-existing stockholders agreement; (b) hold the Shares received for a specified period of time; or (c) represent and warrant in writing that the Participant is acquiring the Shares for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares. Such restrictions shall be set forth in the applicable Award agreement and shall apply in addition to any restrictions that may apply to holders of Shares generally. The certificates for Shares may include any legend which the Committee deems appropriate to reflect any conditions and restrictions applicable to such Shares.

g. Withholding Requirements . The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold automatically from any amount deliverable under the Award or otherwise, or require a Participant to remit to the Company, the minimum statutory amount to satisfy federal, state, and local taxes, domestic or foreign, required by law or regulation to be withheld with respect to any taxable event arising as a result of the Plan. With respect to required withholding, Participants may elect, subject to the approval of the Committee (unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement), to satisfy the withholding requirement, in whole or in part, by having the Company withhold Shares having a Fair Market Value on the date the tax is to be determined equal to the minimum statutory total tax that could be imposed on the transaction.

h. No Guarantees Regarding Tax Treatment . Participants (or their beneficiaries) shall be responsible for all taxes with respect to any Awards under the Plan. The Committee and the Company make no guarantees to any Person regarding the tax treatment of Awards or payments made under the Plan. Neither the Committee nor the Company has any obligation to take any action to prevent the assessment of any tax on any Person with respect to any Award under Section 409A of the Code or Section 457A of the Code or comparable provision of state and local law or otherwise and none of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, or any of their employees or representatives shall have any liability to a Participant with respect thereto.

i. Awards to Non-U.S. Employees or Directors . To comply with the laws in countries other than the United States in which the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate operates or has Employees, Directors or Consultants, the Committee, in its sole discretion, shall have the power and authority to: (a) determine which Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall be covered by the Plan; (b) determine which Employees, Directors or Consultants outside the United States are eligible to participate in the Plan; (c) modify the terms and conditions of any Award granted to Employees, Directors or Consultants outside the United States to comply with applicable foreign laws; (d) take any action, before or after an Award is made, that it deems advisable to obtain approval or comply with any necessary local government regulatory exemptions or approvals; and (e) establish subplans and modify exercise procedures and other terms and procedures, to the extent such actions may be necessary or advisable.

j. Unfunded Plan . Participants shall have no right, title or interest whatsoever in or to any investments which the Company may make to aid it in meeting its obligations under the Plan. Nothing contained in the Plan, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind, nor a fiduciary relationship between the Company and any Participant, beneficiary, legal representative or any other person. To the extent that any person acquires a right to receive payments from the Company under the Plan, such right shall be no greater than the rights of an unsecured general creditor of the Company. All payments to be made hereunder shall be paid from the general funds of the Company and no special or separate fund shall be established and no segregation of assets shall be made to assure payment of such amounts. The Plan is not intended to be subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

k. Successors . All obligations of the Company under the Plan with respect to Awards granted hereunder shall be binding on any successor to the Company, whether the existence of such successor is the result of a direct or indirect purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise, of all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company.

l. Choice of Law . This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, as such laws are applied to contracts entered into and performed in such State.

m. Severability . If any provision of the Plan or any Award is or becomes or is deemed to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, or as to any Person or Award, or would disqualify the Plan or any Award under any law deemed applicable by the Committee, such provision shall be construed or deemed amended to conform to applicable laws, or if it cannot be so construed or deemed amended without, in the determination of the Committee, materially altering the intent of the Plan or the Award, such provision shall be stricken as to such jurisdiction. Person, or Award, and the remainder of the Plan and any such Award shall remain in full force and effect.

n. Shareholder Approval . The Plan will be submitted for approval by the shareholders of the Company at an annual meeting or any special meeting of shareholders of the Company within 12 months of the Plan's adoption by the Board of Directors. Any Awards granted under the Plan prior to such approval of shareholders shall be effective as of the date of grant, but no such Award may be exercised or settled and no restrictions relating to any Award may lapse prior to such shareholder approval, and if shareholders fail to approve the Plan as specified hereunder, the Plan and any Award shall be terminated and cancelled without consideration.

APPENDIX I
CALIFORNIA SECURITIES LAW REQUIREMENTS.

The terms of this Appendix I apply only to Awards that would be subject to Section 25110 of the California Corporations Code or any successor law but for the exemption contained in Section 25102(o) of the California Corporations Code (or any successor law). For purposes of determining the applicability of the California securities law requirements contained in this Appendix I, all Awards shall be deemed made in the State in which the Participant is principally employed by the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate (as determined by the employer's records) on the date of grant or issuance of the Award. Except as modified by the provisions of this Appendix I, all the other relevant provisions of the Plan shall be applicable to such Awards.

(1) Number of Securities . At no time shall the total number of securities issuable upon exercise of all outstanding Options and the total number of Shares provided for under this or any stock bonus or similar plan or agreement of the Company exceed the applicable percentage as calculated in accordance with Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations, Chapter 3, Subchapter 2, Article 4, Subarticle 4, Section 260.140.45.

The terms applicable to the assigned portion shall be the same as those in effect for the Award immediately prior to such assignment and shall be set forth in such documents issued to the assignee as the Board of Directors may deem appropriate.

b. Except as provided in Subsection (a) above, an Award may not be assigned or transferred other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution following the Participant's death.

(3) Proportional Adjustment . The number of securities and the exercise price subject to equity Awards must be proportionately adjusted in the event of stock splits and similar transactions effected without the receipt of consideration by the issuer, of or on the issuer's class or series of securities underlying the Award.

(4) Minimum Post-Termination Exercise Period . Unless employment is terminated for Cause, optionees must be permitted to exercise their options, to the extent that the optionee is entitled to exercise on the date employment terminates, until the earlier of (1) the option expiration date or (2) at least six (6) months from a termination due to death or disability, and at least thirty (30) days from a termination due to any other reason except Cause.

a. Establishment. Broadcasting Media Partners, Inc., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), together with Broadcast Media Partners Holdings, Inc. (solely with respect to grants covering shares of Preferred Stock), established the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan on March 29, 2007, which was amended and restated effective as of December 18, 2007. The Company has amended and restated in its entirety the Amended and Restated 2007 Equity Incentive Plan effective as of August 1, 2008 (hereinafter referred to as the “Plan”), as set forth in this document.

b. Purpose of the Plan. The purpose of this Plan is to attract, retain and motivate officers and employees of, consultants to, and non-employee directors providing services to, the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, to provide additional incentives to employees, consultants and directors and to promote the success of the Company’s business. Unless the context otherwise requires, capitalized terms used herein are defined in Section 15.

c. Eligibility. Participants will consist of such Employees, Directors and Consultants as the Committee in its sole discretion determines and whom the Committee may designate from time to time to receive awards under the Plan.

SECTION 2. ADMINISTRATION.

a. Committees. The Plan shall be administered by the Board of Directors or, at its election, by one or more committees consisting of one or more members who have been appointed by the Board of Directors. The Committee shall have such authority and be responsible for such functions as may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors, and any reference to the Board of Directors in the Plan shall be construed as a reference to the Committee with respect to functions delegated to it. If no Committee has been appointed, the entire Board of Directors shall administer the Plan.

b. Authority of the Board of Directors. The Committee shall have full authority and sole discretion to take any actions it deems necessary or advisable for the administration and operation of the Plan, including, without limitation, the right to construe and interpret the provisions of the Plan or any Award, to provide for any omission in the Plan, to resolve any ambiguity or conflict under the Plan or any Award, to accelerate vesting of or otherwise waive any requirements applicable to any Award, to extend the term or any period of exercisability of any Award, to modify the purchase price or exercise price under any Award, to establish terms or conditions applicable to any Award and to review any decisions or actions made or taken by the Committee. The Committee shall have full and exclusive discretionary power to adopt rules, forms, instruments and guidelines of administering the Plan as the Committee deems necessary or proper. All decisions, interpretations and other actions of the Committee or, in the absence of any action by the Committee, the Board of Directors shall be final and binding on all Participants and other persons deriving their rights from a Participant.

SECTION 3. STOCK SUBJECT TO PLAN.

a. Basic Limitation. Subject to the following provisions of this Section and Section 10, the maximum number of Shares that may be issued pursuant to Awards made under the Plan is (i) 1,657,742 shares of Class A Stock, (ii) 9,000 shares of Class L Stock and (iii) 22,000 shares of Preferred Stock, and such additional securities in such amounts and such classes as the Committee may approve. Shares may be treasury shares or authorized but unissued shares.

b. Additional Shares. In the event that any outstanding Award expires, is cancelled or otherwise terminated, any rights to acquire Shares allocable to the unexercised or unvested portion of such Award shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan. In the event that Shares issued under the Plan are reacquired by the Company pursuant to any forfeiture provision, right of repurchase, right of first offer or withholding requirements, such Shares shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan. In the event a Participant pays for any Award through the delivery of previously acquired Shares, the number of Shares available under the Plan shall be increased by the number of Shares delivered by the Participant.

SECTION 4. AWARDS.

a. Types of Awards. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, make Awards of one or more of the following: Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock Awards, Restricted Stock Units, Dividend Equivalent Rights and Other Stock-Based Awards. The Company shall make Awards directly or cause one or more of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, Broadcast Media Partners Holdings, Inc.) to make Awards; provided, that the Subsidiaries shall, or the Company shall cause such Subsidiary to, comply with the terms of any Award and the Plan.

b. Award Agreements. Each Award made under the Plan shall be evidenced by a written Award Agreement between the Participant and the Company, and no Award shall be valid without any such Award Agreement. An Award shall be subject to all applicable terms and conditions of the Plan and to any other terms and conditions which the Committee in its sole discretion deems appropriate for inclusion in the Award Agreement provided such terms and conditions are not inconsistent with the Plan. Accordingly, unless an Award Agreement specifically states otherwise, in the event of any conflict between the provisions of the Plan and any Award Agreement, the provisions of the Plan shall prevail. Awards made to California Participants shall also be subject to the applicable requirements set forth in Appendix I. Each Award Agreement shall provide, in addition to any terms and conditions required to be provided in such agreement pursuant to any other provision of this Plan, the following terms:

- (i) Number of Shares. The number of Shares subject to the Award, if any, which number shall be subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 10 of the Plan.
- (ii) Type of Shares. Whether the Award covers Shares that are Class A Stock, Class L Stock and/or Preferred Stock and also, with respect to Class A Stock or Class L Stock, whether the Shares are voting or non-voting ( i.e., Class A-1, A-2, L-1 or L-2).
- (iii) Termination of Service. The consequences of the Participant's termination of Service with the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate.
- (iv) Vesting. The dates and events on which all or any installment of the Award shall be vested and nonforfeitable.

c. No Rights as a Shareholder. A Participant, or a transferee of a Participant, shall have no rights as a shareholder with respect to any Shares covered by an Award until the Participant becomes the record holder of such Shares.

SECTION 5. OPTIONS.

a. Option Agreement. The Committee, may in its sole discretion, grant Options. Each Award Agreement evidencing an Award of Options shall contain the following information, which shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion:

- (i) Exercise Price. The exercise price of an Option shall be determined by the Committee at the time of grant, but shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of a Share subject to such Option on the date of grant.
- (ii) Exercisability. The dates and events when all or any installment of the Option becomes exercisable.
- (iii) Term. The term of each Option (including the circumstances under which such Option will expire prior to the stated term thereof), which shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.

b. Method of Exercise.

- (i) General Rule. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or any Award Agreement, an Option may be exercised for all, or from time to time any part, of the Shares for which it is then exercisable. The exercise price of Shares issued under the Plan shall be payable in cash or personal check at the time when such Shares are purchased, except as otherwise provided in this Section 5(b).
- (ii) Surrender of Shares. At the sole discretion of the Committee, all or any part of the exercise price and any applicable withholding requirements may be paid by surrendering, or attesting to the ownership of, Shares that are already owned by the Participant. Such Shares shall be surrendered to the Company in good form for transfer and shall be valued at their Fair Market Value on the date when the Option is exercised. The Participant shall not surrender, or attest to the ownership of, Shares in payment of any portion of the purchase price (or withholding) if such Shares have been held by the Participant for less than six months or such action would cause the Company or any Subsidiary to recognize a compensation expense (or additional compensation expense) with respect to the applicable Option for financial reporting purposes, unless the Committee consents thereto.
- (iii) Net Exercise. At the sole discretion of the Committee, payment of all or any portion of the exercise price and any applicable withholding requirements may be made by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable pursuant to the Option by the number of such Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the exercise price.

- (iv) Exercise/Sale. At the sole discretion of the Committee, payment may be made in whole or in part by the delivery (on a form prescribed by the Company) of an irrevocable direction (i) to a securities broker approved by the Company to sell Shares and to deliver all or part of the sales proceeds to the Company, or (ii) to pledge Shares to a securities broker or lender approved by the Company as security for a loan, and to deliver all or part of the loan proceeds to the Company, in each case in payment of all or part of the exercise price and any withholding requirements.
- (v) Exercise of Discretion. Should the Committee exercise its discretion to permit the Participant to pay the purchase price under an Award in whole or in part in accordance with Subsections (ii) through (iv) above, it shall not be bound to permit such method of payment for the remainder of any such Option or with respect to any other Award or Participant under the Plan.

SECTION 6. STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS.

a. Generally. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, grant Stock Appreciation Rights, including a concurrent grant of Stock Appreciation Rights in tandem with any Option. A Stock Appreciation Right means a right to receive, upon exercise, a payment in cash, Shares, other property or a combination thereof in an amount equal to the excess of (i) the Fair Market Value of a number of Shares on the date the right is exercised over (ii) the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the date the right is granted. If a Stock Appreciation Right is granted in tandem with an Option, such Stock Appreciation Right shall be exercisable only to the extent the related Option is exercisable and shall expire no later than the expiration of the related Option. Upon the exercise of all or a portion of such Stock Appreciation Right, a Participant shall be required to forfeit the right to purchase an equivalent portion of the related Option (and vice versa).

b. Stock Appreciation Rights Award Agreement. Each Award Agreement evidencing an Award of Stock Appreciation Rights shall contain the following information, which shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion:

- (i) Grant Price. The grant price of the Shares above which a Participant shall be entitled to share in the appreciation in the value of such Shares (which shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the date of grant).
- (ii) Exercisability. The dates and events when all or any installment of the Stock Appreciation Rights becomes exercisable.
- (iii) Term. The term of each Stock Appreciation Right (including the circumstances under which such Stock Appreciation Right will expire prior to the stated term thereof), which shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.

SECTION 7. RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS AND RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS.

a. Restricted Stock. An Award of Restricted Stock is a grant by the Company of a specified number of Shares to the Participant, which are subject to certain specified restrictions, as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the applicable Award Agreement, unvested Restricted Stock shall be forfeited upon Participant's termination of Service. Further, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, the Restricted

Stock, whether unvested or vested, shall be forfeited upon Participant's termination of Service for Cause. Upon or following a Participant's termination of Service, the Company shall have a call right with respect to any vested Shares on the terms set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. Participants shall be awarded Restricted Stock in exchange for consideration not less than the minimum consideration required by applicable law (including, consideration of services previously rendered by the Participant to the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates).

b. Restricted Stock Units. An Award of Restricted Stock Units is a grant by the Company of a specified number of units which shall each represent one Share credited to a notional account maintained by the Company, with no Shares actually awarded to the Participant in respect of such units until the restrictions on such units have lapsed. The Committee retains the discretion to determine whether the Restricted Stock Units shall be settled in Shares, in cash equal to the value of the Shares that would otherwise be distributed in settlement of such units, other property or any combination of the foregoing. Shares distributed to settle a Restricted Stock Unit may be issued with or without payment or consideration therefor, except as may be required by applicable law or the Committee in its sole discretion, as set forth in the agreement evidencing the Award. The Committee may, in its discretion, permit Participants to defer settlement of Restricted Stock Units, provided that any such deferral shall comply with the requirements of, and shall not result in the imposition of any tax under, Section 409A of the Code.

c. Terms of Restricted Stock Awards and Restricted Stock Units. Each Award Agreement evidencing a Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Unit grant shall specify the terms of the period(s) of restriction, the number of Shares of Restricted Stock or the number of Restricted Stock Units, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine. The Committee may require that Restricted Stock be held by the Company during the applicable period of restriction.

SECTION 8. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENT RIGHTS.

The Committee may grant Dividend Equivalents to Participants based on the dividends declared on Shares that are subject to any Award. The grant of Dividend Equivalents shall be treated as a separate Award. Dividend Equivalents shall be credited to a notional account maintained by the Company, as of dividend payment dates during the period between the date the Award is granted and the date the Award is exercised, vested, expired, credited or paid. Such Dividend Equivalents shall be converted to cash or Shares by such formula and at such time and subject to such limitations as may be determined by the Committee. As determined by the Committee, Dividend Equivalents granted with respect to any Option or Stock Appreciation Right may be payable regardless of whether such Option or Stock Appreciation Right is subsequently exercised.

SECTION 9. OTHER STOCK-BASED AWARDS.

The Committee, in its sole discretion, may grant Awards of Shares and Awards that are valued, in whole or in part, by reference to, or are otherwise based on, the Fair Market Value of Shares (the "Other Stock-Based Awards"). Such Other Stock-Based Awards shall be in such form, and dependent on such conditions, as the Committee shall determine, including, without limitation, the right to receive one or more Shares (or the equivalent cash value of such Shares) upon the completion of a specified period of Service, the occurrence of an event and/or the attainment of performance objectives. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall determine to whom and when Other Stock-Based Awards will be made, the number of Shares to be awarded under (or otherwise related to) such Other Stock-Based Awards, whether such Other Stock-Based Awards shall be settled in cash, Shares or a combination of cash and Shares, and all other terms and conditions of such Awards (including, without limitation, the vesting provisions thereof and provisions ensuring that all Shares so awarded and issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable).

SECTION 10. ADJUSTMENT OF SHARES.

a. General. If there shall be an event or series of events affecting the capital structure of the Company such as a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, distribution, recapitalization, combination or reclassification of the Company's securities, an adjustment shall be made to each outstanding Award such that each such Award shall thereafter be exercisable or payable, as the case may be, in such securities, cash and/or other property as would have been received in respect of Shares subject to (or referenced by such Award) had such Award been exercised and/or settled in full immediately prior to such event and such an adjustment shall be made successively each time any such change shall occur. In addition, in the event of any such event, to prevent dilution or enlargement of Participants' rights under the Plan, the Committee shall, and will have the authority to adjust, in a fair and equitable manner, the number and kind of Shares that may be issued under the Plan, the number and kind of Shares subject to outstanding Awards, and the purchase price applicable to outstanding Awards. Should the vesting of any Award be conditioned upon the Company's attainment of performance conditions, the Committee may make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of such Awards and the criteria therein to recognize unusual and nonrecurring events affecting the Company or in response to changes in applicable laws, regulations or accounting principles, in a manner designed to make such performance conditions neither easier nor more difficult to attain than prior to such adjustment.

b. Change of Control. In the event of a Change of Control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges, or unless the Committee shall determine otherwise in the Award Agreement, the Committee is authorized (but not obligated) to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of outstanding Awards, including without limitation the following (or any combination thereof):

- (i) The continuation or assumption of such outstanding Awards under the Plan by the Company (if it is the surviving corporation) or by the surviving corporation or its parent;
- (ii) The substitution by the surviving corporation or its parent of stock awards with substantially the same terms for such outstanding Awards;
- (iii) The acceleration of the vesting of or right to exercise such outstanding Awards immediately prior to or as of the date of the merger or consolidation, and the expiration of such outstanding Awards to the extent not timely exercised or purchased by the date of the merger or consolidation or other date thereafter designated by the Committee; or
- (iv) The cancellation of all or any portion of such outstanding Awards (other than Options and Stock Appreciation Rights) by a cash payment equal to the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to such outstanding Awards or portion thereof being canceled and with respect to Options and Stock Appreciation Rights, the cancellation of all or any portion of such outstanding Options and

Stock Appreciation Rights by a cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to such outstanding Awards or portion thereof being canceled over the exercise price or grant price, as applicable, with respect to such Options and Stock Appreciation Rights or portion thereof being canceled (and, for the avoidance of doubt, if there is no such excess, such Options and Stock Appreciation Rights shall be cancelled without any payment therefor).

SECTION 11. SECURITIES LAW REQUIREMENTS.

a. Shares Not Registered. Shares and Awards shall not be issued under the Plan unless the issuance and delivery of such Shares and any Awards comply with (or are exempt from) all applicable requirements of law, including (without limitation) the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, State securities laws and regulations, and the regulations of any stock exchange or other securities market on which the Company's securities may then be traded. Except as set forth in an Award Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to file any registration statement under any applicable securities laws to permit the purchase or issuance of any Shares or any Awards under the Plan, and accordingly any certificates for Shares or documents granting Awards may have an appropriate legend or statement of applicable restrictions endorsed thereon. If the Company deems it necessary to ensure that the issuance of securities under the Plan is not required to be registered under any applicable securities laws, each Participant to whom such security would be purchased or issued shall deliver to the Company an agreement or certificate containing such representations, warranties and covenants as the Company which satisfies such requirements.

b. California Participants. If an Award shall be made to a Participant based in California, then such Award shall meet the additional requirements set forth in Appendix I.

SECTION 12. COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 409A OF THE CODE.

a. General. To the extent that the Plan and/or Awards are subject to Section 409A of the Code, the Committee may, in its sole discretion and without a Participant's prior consent, amend the Plan and/or Awards, adopt policies and procedures, or take any other actions (including amendments, policies, procedures and actions with retroactive effect) as are necessary or appropriate to (i) exempt the Plan and/or any Award from the application of Section 409A of the Code, (ii) preserve the intended tax treatment of any such Award, or (iii) comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date of the grant ("Section 409A Guidance"). This Plan shall be interpreted at all times in such a manner that the terms and provisions of the Plan and Awards are exempt from or comply with Section 409A Guidance.

b. Timing of Payment. All Awards that would otherwise be subject to Section 409A of the Code shall be paid or otherwise settled on or as soon as practicable after the applicable payment date and not later than the 15th day of the third month from the end of (i) the Participant's tax year that includes the applicable payment date, or (ii) the Company's tax year that includes the applicable payment date, whichever is later; provided, however, that the Committee reserves the right to delay payment with respect to any such Award under the circumstances set forth in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(7), any successor thereof or upon such other events and conditions as the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service may prescribe in generally applicable guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin; provided, further, that notwithstanding any contrary provision in the Plan or Award Agreement, any payment(s) that are otherwise required to be made under the Plan to a “specified employee” (as defined under Section 409A of the Code) as a result of his or her separation from service (other than a payment that is not subject to Section 409A of the Code) shall be delayed for the first six (6) months following such separation from service (or, if earlier, the date of death of the specified employee) and shall instead be paid (in a manner set forth in the Award Agreement) on the payment date that immediately follows the end of such six-month period.

SECTION 13. DURATION AND AMENDMENTS.

a. Term of the Plan. The Plan, as set forth herein, shall become effective on the date of its adoption by the Board of Directors, which date is set forth below, subject to the approval of the majority of the Company’s shareholders. If a majority of the shareholders fail to approve the Plan within 12 months of its adoption by the Board of Directors, any Awards that have already been made shall be rescinded, and no additional Awards shall be made thereafter under the Plan. The Plan shall terminate automatically on the day preceding the tenth anniversary of its adoption by the Board of Directors unless earlier terminated pursuant to Subsection (b) below.

b. Amendment, Modification, Suspension, and Termination of Plan. The Committee may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue, or terminate the Plan or any portion thereof or any Award thereunder at any time; provided that no such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuation or termination shall be made (i) without shareholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any tax or regulatory requirement applicable to the Plan and (ii) without the consent of the Participant, if such action would materially diminish any of the rights of any Participant under any Award theretofore granted to such Participant under the Plan; provided, however, the Committee may amend the Plan, any Award or any Award Agreement in such manner as it deems necessary to comply with applicable laws and as set forth in Section 12. The termination of the Plan shall not affect any Awards outstanding on the termination date.

SECTION 14. GENERAL TERMS.

a. Termination for Cause. Unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, all Shares issued with respect to any Award granted under the Plan shall be forfeited upon Participant’s termination of Service for Cause.

b. No Retention Rights. Nothing in the Plan or in any Award granted under the Plan shall confer upon a Participant any right to continue in Service for any period of specific duration or interfere with or otherwise restrict in any way the rights of the Company (or any Subsidiary or Affiliate employing or retaining the Participant) or of the Participant, which rights are hereby expressly reserved by each, to terminate his or her Service at any time and for any reason, with or without cause.

c. Settlement of Awards; Fractional Shares. Each Award Agreement shall establish the form in which the Award shall be settled. Fractional Shares may be issued or delivered pursuant to the Plan or any Award. The Committee may determine whether cash, Awards, other securities or other property shall be issued or paid in lieu of fractional Shares, and the Committee may determine, in its discretion, whether such fractional Shares or any rights thereto shall be rounded, forfeited or otherwise eliminated.

d. Nontransferability of Awards. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, an Award shall not be transferable or assignable by the Participant except in the event of his death (subject to the applicable laws of descent and distribution) and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company or any Affiliate. An award exercisable after the death of a Participant may be exercised by the legatees, personal representatives or distributees of the Participant. Any permitted transfer of the Awards to heirs or legatees of the Participant shall not be effective to bind the Company unless the Committee shall have been furnished with written notice thereof and a copy of such evidence as the Committee may deem necessary to establish the validity of the transfer and the acceptance by the transferee or transferees of the terms and conditions hereof.

e. Conditions and Restrictions on Shares. Any Shares issued under the Plan shall be subject to such vesting and special forfeiture conditions, repurchase rights, rights of first offer and other transfer restrictions as the Committee may determine. Such restrictions shall be set forth in the applicable Award Agreement and shall apply in addition to any restrictions that may apply to holders of Shares generally.

f. Withholding Requirements. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require a Participant to remit to the Company, the minimum statutory amount to satisfy federal, state, and local taxes, domestic or foreign, required by law or regulation to be withheld with respect to any taxable event arising as a result of the Plan. With respect to required withholding, Participants may elect, subject to the approval of the Committee (unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement), to satisfy the withholding requirement, in whole or in part, by having the Company withhold Shares having a Fair Market Value on the date the tax is to be determined equal to the minimum statutory total tax that could be imposed on the transaction.

g. Unfunded Plan. Participants shall have no right, title or interest whatsoever in or to any investments which the Company may make to aid it in meeting its obligations under the Plan. Nothing contained in the Plan, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind, nor a fiduciary relationship between the Company and any Participant, beneficiary, legal representative or any other person. To the extent that any person acquires a right to receive payments from the Company under the Plan, such right shall be no greater than the rights of an unsecured general creditor of the Company. All payments to be made hereunder shall be paid from the general funds of the Company and no special or separate fund shall be established and no segregation of assets shall be made to assure payment of such amounts. The Plan is not intended to be subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

h. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, as such laws are applied to contracts entered into and performed in such State.

SECTION 15. DEFINITIONS.

controlled by any Qualified Institutional Investors), excluding, in any case referred to in clause (i) or (ii), any Initial Public Offering or any bona fide primary or secondary public offering following the occurrence of an Initial Public Offering; or (iii) a sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of the Company. h. "Class L Stock" shall mean the Class L Common Stock, par value $.001 per share, of the Company, which is comprised of Class L-1 Common Stock and Class L-2 Common Stock.

Notwithstanding the above, this paragraph 6(c) shall cease to apply as to any such Shares upon the termination of the Stockholders Agreement as to such Shares.

SECTION 7. SECURITIES LAW ISSUES.

- (a) Securities Not Registered. The Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option have not been registered under the Securities Act. Any Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option are being issued to the Participant in reliance upon either (i) the exemption from such registration provided by Rule 701 promulgated under the Securities Act for stock issuances under compensatory benefit plans such as the Plan or (ii) the exemption for grants made to executive officers of the Company (or one of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries) under Section 4(2) and Regulation D of the Securities Act.
- (b) Participant Representations. The Participant hereby confirms that he or she has been informed that the Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option are “restricted securities” under the Securities Act which may not be resold or transferred unless they are first registered under the Securities Act or unless an exemption from such registration is available. Accordingly, the Participant hereby represents and acknowledges as follows:
  - i. The Shares are being acquired for investment, and not with a view to sale or distribution thereof;
  - ii. The Participant is prepared to hold the Shares for an indefinite period and is aware that Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act (which exempts certain resales of securities) is not presently available to exempt the resale of the Shares from the registration requirements of the Securities Act; and

- iii. The Participant is an “accredited investor” within the meaning of Rule 501(e) of Regulation D of the Securities Act by virtue of the Participant’s position with the Company, income, assets or otherwise.
- (c) Registration. The Company may, but shall not be obligated, to register or qualify the Shares under the Securities Act or any other applicable law, except, solely with respect to Participants who are signatories to or have executed a joinder with respect to the Registration Rights Agreement, as required under the Registration Rights Agreement.
- (d) Market Stand-Off. In connection with any underwritten public offering by the Company of its equity securities pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act, including the Company’s Initial Public Offering, the Participant hereby agrees, at the request of the Company or the managing underwriters, to be bound by and/or to execute and deliver, a lock-up agreement with the underwriter(s) of such public offering restricting such Participant’s right to (a) Transfer, directly or indirectly, any Shares acquired under this Agreement or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for such Shares or (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another any of the economic consequences of ownership of Shares acquired under this Agreement, in each case to the extent that such restrictions are agreed to by the Majority Principal Investors (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) (or a majority of the shares of Class A Stock if there are no Principal Investors remaining) with the underwriter(s) of such public offering (the “Principal Lock-Up Agreement”); provided, however, that the Participant shall not be required by this SECTION 7(d) to be bound by a lock-up agreement covering a period of greater than 90 days (180 days in the case of the Initial Public Offering) following the effectiveness of the related registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such lock-up agreement shall not apply to: (a) Transfers to Permitted Transferees of the Participant permitted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (b) conversions of Shares into other classes of Shares or securities without change of Participant and (c) during the period preceding the execution of the underwriting agreement, Transfers to a charitable organization, described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, permitted in accordance with the terms of the Stockholders Agreement.
- (e) Additional Restrictions. The Shares are subject to such additional restrictions as are set forth in the Stockholders Agreement and any employment or consulting agreement between the Participant and the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate, as well as such other restrictions upon the sale, pledge or other transfer of such Shares (including the placement of appropriate legends on stock certificates or the imposition of stop-transfer instructions), that in the judgment of the Company, are necessary or desirable in order to achieve compliance with the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or any other law.
- (f) Participant Undertaking. The Participant agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents that the Company may deem necessary or advisable to carry out or effect one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on either the Participant or the Shares pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement or to comply with applicable laws.

- (g) Deferral of Exercise. Exercise of this Option may be deferred by the Committee if the Shares are not registered and the Committee determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that after taking into account the number of holders of record of any class of equity securities of the Company at the time of exercise and potential future holders of record of any class of equity securities of the Company, such exercise may directly or indirectly result in the Company (whether at the time of exercise of this Option or in the future) being required to register any class of equity securities of the Company under applicable law, provided that, no such deferral may extend beyond the tenth (10th) anniversary of the date of grant (as set forth in Section 2(c) above). For the avoidance of doubt, in determining whether or not to defer exercise of the Option, the Committee may take into account (i) potential exercise of Options by Option holders other than the Participant, (ii) other issuances of Shares by the Company, and (iii) the Company's intention to exercise or not to exercise Call Rights under this Agreement or any similar agreements. Upon a deferral of the exercise of this Option pursuant to Section 7(g), the exercise period shall be tolled.

SECTION 8. TRANSFER OF SHARES

- (a) General Rule. Other than as set forth herein, the Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option may not be transferred to any person other than to the Company or to a Permitted Transferee in accordance with the terms of the Stockholders Agreement (whether or not the Participant has executed a joinder to the Stockholders Agreement) or any other applicable agreement entered into by the Company and the Participant; provided that notwithstanding the Stockholders Agreement, the Company may restrict transfers to a Permitted Transferee if, in its sole and absolute discretion, the Company determines it desirable in order to limit the number of holders of record of shares of stock of the Company, so as to prevent the Company from becoming a reporting company under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Notwithstanding the above, this SECTION 8(a) shall cease to apply as to any Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option upon an Initial Public Offering, subject to the Stockholders Agreement or any other applicable agreement entered into by the Company and the Participant.
- (b) Transferee Obligations. If the Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option are transferred to a Permitted Transferee, such Permitted Transferee must, as a condition precedent to the validity of such transfer, acknowledge in writing to the Company that such person is bound by the provisions of this Agreement to the same extent such Shares would be so subject if retained by the Participant.
- (c) Drag-Along Rights. The Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option shall be subject to the Drag-Along Rights as set forth in Sections 4.2 and 4.3 of the Stockholders Agreement (whether or not the Participant is a signatory thereof), the provisions of such Sections 4.2 and 4.3 of the Stockholders Agreement to apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement. The Participant shall be deemed to have appointed each member of the Principal Investors, with full power of substitution, as the Participant's true and lawful representative and attorney-in-fact, in such Participant's name, place and stead, to execute and deliver any and all agreements that the members of the Principal Investors reasonably believe are consistent with the purposes of Sections 4.2 and 4.3 of the Stockholders Agreement. The foregoing power of attorney is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the subsequent death, incapacity, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Participant.

- (d) Tag-Along Rights. The Shares shall be subject to the Tag-Along Rights as, and to the extent, set forth in Section 4.1 of the Stockholders Agreement (whether or not the Participant is a signatory thereof), the provisions of such Section 4.1 of the Stockholders Agreement to apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement.
  - (e) Additional Shares or Substituted Securities. In the event of the declaration of a stock dividend, the declaration of an extraordinary dividend payable in a form other than stock, a spin-off, a stock split, an adjustment in conversion ratio, a recapitalization or a similar transaction affecting the Company's outstanding securities without receipt of consideration, any new, substituted or additional securities or other property (including money paid other than as an ordinary cash dividend) which are by reason of such transaction distributed with respect to any of the Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option or into which such Shares thereby become convertible shall immediately be subject to this SECTION 8.

SECTION 9. CALL RIGHT

- (a) Call Right. If the Participant's Service with the Company ceases for any reason, the Company shall have the right (but not an obligation) to call any Shares acquired upon exercise of this Option.
- (b) Exercise Notice. In the event the Company wishes to exercise its Call Right, the Company shall notify the Participant (or any Permitted Transferee to whom the Shares have been transferred) by written notice that the Company has elected to exercise such right, and the number of Shares with respect to which the right is being exercised.
- (c) Execution of Call. The closing of any purchase and sale pursuant to the Call Right shall take place at the principal office of the Company as soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than thirty (30) days after the date of the Company's exercise notice described in SECTION 9(b) or at such other time and location as the parties to such purchase may mutually determine.
- (d) Purchase Price. If the Company exercises the Call Right, the Participant shall sell, and shall cause any Permitted Transferee to whom Shares acquired pursuant to exercise of this Option have been transferred to sell (and such Permitted Transferee shall sell), to the Company all of the Shares subject to the Call Right and the Company shall purchase each such Share for its Fair Market Value on the date of the closing or, (i) in the event of a termination of the Participant's employment by the Company for Cause, (ii) by the Participant's resignation after an inquiry by the Company as to the existence of Cause has been initiated and Cause existed as of the date of such resignation, or (iii) in the event the Participant's service terminates by Participant's voluntary resignation without Good Reason prior to the third (3rd) anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, the lesser of the amount paid by the Participant or such Fair Market Value. The Company shall make commercially reasonable efforts, as determined by the Board of Directors in good faith, to pay all or any portion of the repurchase price in cash. However, if the Company cannot make all or any portion of the payment in cash it shall issue a promissory note with a principal amount equal to the amount of the repurchase price which was not paid in cash (e.g., the full amount or a portion thereof, as applicable), on which interest will accrue on the principal thereof at a rate equal to the prime rate and the principal, together with the interest thereon, will become due and payable, to the extent commercially reasonable (as determined by the Board of Directors), in three equal annual installments, payable on the first, second and third anniversaries of the date of issuance thereof.

- (e) Lapse of Rights. The Call Right shall lapse upon an Initial Public Offering (except the Company's rights to purchase Shares as provided in the Notice upon the Participant's termination for Cause or resignation that is treated similarly to a termination for Cause (as described in Sections 2 (a) and 9 (d) hereof) shall not lapse upon an Initial Public Offering).
  - (f) Additional Shares or Substituted Securities. In the event of the declaration of a stock dividend, the declaration of an extraordinary dividend payable in a form other than stock, a spin-off, a stock split, an adjustment in conversion ratio, a recapitalization or a similar transaction affecting the Company's outstanding securities without receipt of consideration, any new, substituted or additional securities or other property (including money paid other than as an ordinary cash dividend) which are by reason of such transaction distributed with respect to any of the Shares subject to the Call Right or into which such Shares thereby become convertible shall immediately be subject to this SECTION 9.
  - (g) Termination of Rights as Shareholder. If the Company makes available, at the time and place and in the amount and form provided in this Agreement, the consideration for the Shares to be purchased in accordance with this Section 9, then after such time the person from whom such Shares are to be purchased shall no longer have any rights as a holder of such Shares (other than the right to receive payment of such consideration in accordance with this Agreement). Such Shares shall be deemed to have been purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof, whether or not the certificate(s) therefor have been delivered as required by this Agreement.

SECTION 10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- (a) No Retention Rights. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Participant any right to continue in Service for any period of specific duration or interfere with or otherwise restrict in any way the rights of the Company (or any Subsidiary or Affiliate employing or retaining the Participant) or of the Participant, which rights are hereby expressly reserved by each, to terminate his or her Service at any time and for any reason, with or without cause.
